Red Force Free All Of Slovakia

Launch New Drive West Of Vienna Toward Junction With The Americans That Would Cut Off Austrian Redoubt From Czechoslovakia

London, May 5—(AP)—Red Army forces liberated all of Slovakia yesterday and the Nazi high command said Soviet armor had launched a new drive west of Vienna, spearheading a junction with American troops which would cut off the Austrian redoubt from Czechoslovakia.

Russian troops smashed forward in powerful 10-mile gains against bitter German resistance in the Nazi Czechoslovakian redoubt and staged a big tank battle near Olmütz (Olomouc), Moravian war production center.

The entire province of Slovakia was freed of German troops by Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second and Gen. Andrei I. Yermenko's Fourth Ukrainian armies, which rolled into Eastern Moravia in preparation for a drive toward Prague, Czechoslovak capital.

The combined armies were smashing toward Olmütz along an 85-mile front east of the Moravia Valley in a push to throw back the Germans' last big salient on the Eastern Front.

Eighteen miles to the south, where the big German-controlled Prague radio said that a big tank battle was raging, troops of the Second Ukrainian Army lost and then regained Krenovice against violent German opposition.

The Prague radio asserted the Russians had launched a new drive northwest of Vienna evidently aimed at Prague, 106 miles from the nearest Russian spearheads on the southeast.

The Germans also stated that Prague was threatened from the north by troops of Marshal Ivan S. Konev's First Ukrainian Army, reported attacking along the Elbe near Meissen, six miles northeast of Dresden.

Another German account said Marshal Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Third Ukrainian Army had launched a new blow westward from St. Pölten, where Soviet troops were 66 miles east of Linz.

The Germans also said that troops of the Third Ukrainian army were striking for Graz from points below the Semmering Pass.

Northwest and southwest of Berlin, more than 45,700 Germans surrendered to the Russians, while north of Stettin, the Red Army opened a drive to clear the Baltic islands guarding Stettin Bay.

Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky's Second White Russian Army captured more than 22,000 Germans in Mecklenburg Province. Southwest of the crumbled German capital troops of Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's First White Russian Army, the conquerors of Berlin, advanced 23 miles and threw the Germans back toward the Elbe along a 40-mile front south of Brandenburg, capturing 23,700 enemy troops.

MINERS WILL REMAIN IDLE

Will Await Signing Of New Wage Contract

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 5—(AP)—"No contract, no work" appeared to be the miners' answer today to Interior Secretary Ickes' announcement that work whistles will blow Monday morning in mines now under government control.

"The members of our union are determined not to return to work until a new agreement has been signed," said Felix Tomaszewsky, acting president of the Ien Alden Coal company local. "No contract, no work" is the way they feel about it.

Anthracite negotiations in the wage dispute which has tied up hard coal production were deadlocked yesterday in New York over the issue of $1.50 per day for underground travel time.

John Girlock, president of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company local, said that even if a wage agreement is reached or orders are issued by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, unions would have difficulty in calling miners to week-end meetings.

Strikes among the 72,000 hard coal miners began with expiration of the old anthracite wage agreement April 30. Lewis has not responded to a War Of, the contract for extension of the new one, with any wage changes to be retroactive.

Ickes, in his capacity as solid fuels administrator, has taken possession of 363 anthracite companies, all in Pennsylvania. He also seized 33 strike-bound bituminous mines yesterday, bringing to 272 the number of government-controlled coal properties.

The bituminous mines seized yesterday have been idle since April 30 when the men failed to go back under a new contract. The other 239 soft coal mines under government control were seized Thursday and April 10. In the bituminous mines the men had balked at working without a regular contract.

Laval Says He Will Be Freed

Barcelona, May 5—(AP)—Pierre Laval has told his guards at Montjuich fortress that he is "completely confident" that he will be acquitted if tried as a war criminal and that France will give him "a vote of thanks."

(A Paris dispatch last night quoted a French government official as saying Laval would be tried as a traitor before a French court.)

The former Vichy chief of government, chain-smoking chain smoker, worked all yesterday making notes for his defense if he is tried by an Allied commission or the French Senate.

PRIORITY FOR FOOD INDUSTRY

Would Place Food Production On Critical List

By HOWARD FLEGGER Washington, May 5—(AP)—The House Food Committee today joined the War Food Administration in demanding top priorities for the entire food industry.

Chairman Anderson (D-NM) seconded WFA Administrator Marvin Jones in his request that the War Production Board place food on the "critical list" reserved for industries considered of extraordinary importance to the war program.

Such a rating would open the shortage-harassed food industry to top manpower and equipment priorities. It would classify food as essential as guns.

"We'll back Jones to the limit," Anderson told a reporter. "The greatest weapon against the black market is abundant production. That we must have."

A place on WPB's critical list would mark as essential all phases of food production, canning, storage, processing, distribution and marketing. Now only the fish canning and dairy products industries are on the critical list.

Anderson and Jones together framed this three-point program they said would crack the food crisis:

- 1. Top priorities for the food industry so it can expand plant and distribution facilities to handle greater field production.
2. Use of more war prisoners to work in sugar beet fields to help produce a bigger crop.
3. Draft deferments for food industry workers.

"Jones thinks food should be on WPB's critical list and I think he's right," Anderson said. (Continued on Page Four)

Army To Release Two Million Men

Washington, May 5—(AP)—The Army plans to discharge 2,000,000 men beginning with the fall of Germany and to send 6,000,000 picked troops against Japan.

This was disclosed today by House Military Committee members after a closed-door session with high Army officials.

The men to be discharged, they said, will be those with the most dependents and the longest and most active service records. The Army's point system, they reported, gives top weighting to dependents, followed by actual combat service, overseas duty, and overall length of service.

Heretofore the weight to be given each of the factors in determining priority for discharges has been a closely-guarded secret.

Authorities Seize Gambling Devices

Raleigh, May 5—(AP)—Seizure and confiscation of 15 slot machines and one "horse-racing" machine was announced by Sheriff Numa F. Turner as five enforcement officers started a drive here to halt the operation of such devices.

Seizures, the sheriff said were made at the Sphinx Club, the American Legion Club, the Elks Club and the Royal Arcanum Club.

No arrests were made, he said, adding that there was no interference at any of the establishments.

Ration Office Looted Morganton, May 5—(AP)—County and OPA investigators pushed an investigation today seeking to run down a thief or thieves who stole Morganton's entire supply of ration stamps Thursday night. The board's office was entered by use of a crowbar and a light safe in which the ration currency was kept was battered open. The loot included gasoline, sugar, shoes, boots and stove coupons. Officials did not disclose the number of stamps taken.

Japanese Attack On Okinawa Frustrated

Hundreds Of Japs Killed In Sea And Air Battles; Five U. S. Ships Sunk

By ROBBIN COONS Guam, May 5—(AP)—In one of the wildest battles of the Pacific war, Japanese hurled amphibious forces, the first major tank-led counterassault of the Okinawa campaign, suicide boats, planes and pilot-guided flying bombs at American forces yesterday 325 miles south of Japan.

Every attack was broken up, but five light U. S. ships were sunk and others damaged. Hundreds of the 4,000 attacking Japanese soldiers were slaughtered in "the best day of Jap killing since the Okinawa campaign began." 154 planes shot down and 15 explosive laden speed boats blown up.

Under cover of early morning darkness four Japanese amphibious units, totaling about 600 men, attempted landings behind American lines on both coasts. Three of these assault forces got ashore on the west coast in the rear of the 77th Infantry division. Hours later they were still there, but they were trapped and being wiped out.

Boats carrying 200, constituting the 4th group, were stranded on a reef off the east coast. Yanks in amphib-tracks annihilated them. More than 3,000 Japanese attacked the 7th division positions on the east flank at dawn behind 20 tanks under the protection of the campaign's heaviest enemy artillery barrage. Big American guns smashed the tanks. Seventh division infantrymen stopped the charge in fierce hand to hand battles and grenade throwing duels.

All of the ground actions were coordinated with an air-sea attack on U. S. fleet and supply units offshore. Suicide boats, their prows packed with explosives, corkscrewed into the fleet before dawn. They succeeded in damaging only one American ship.

Bombers attacked the Yontan airstrip, causing some damage, and joined kamikaze suicide pilots, in raiding the fleet. Some bombers loosed baka bombs—glider-type bombs guided by suicide-pilots. Fifty-four attacking planes and one baka bomb were shot down by ship's guns and combat air patrol. Japanese carrier aircraft brought down 96 planes, and four others were wiped out in isolated actions.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced the combined air and suicide boat assault sank five light units and damaged others—he didn't say how many. That makes 24 U. S. surface craft sunk since the Ryukyus islands campaign began March 18.

Radio Tokyo, with its fondness for large numbers, claimed "more than 50" American ships were sunk or damaged in the past two days. It listed "two battleships, two cruisers" (Continued on Page Two)

Will Lift Brownout When War Is Over

Washington, May 5—(AP)—The War Production Board today announced the brownout will lift immediately after formal announcement by the President that the war in Europe is over.

With revocation of the order, said Chairman J. A. Krug, restrictions on the use of electric power for advertising, promotional, decorative, ornamental and sign lighting will be eliminated all over the country.

"The end of hostilities in Europe will not solve the national coal shortage," Krug added. "It may be necessary to re-issue the brownout order sometime during the fall of this year if at that time stocks of coal have not been replenished to a satisfactory level."

Grimesland Man Killed In Action

T-Sgt. O. J. Galloway, Jr., was killed in action in France on January 12, according to a message from the War Department to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Galloway of Grimesland. He entered the armed service last October and went overseas in December. He was a graduate of Grimesland High School. Surviving are his parents and four brothers, two of whom are in the armed service. Pfc. Madison Galloway, who was wounded during the invasion of France, is now at Borner General Hospital in Oklahoma; Pvt. Ralph Galloway is at Fort Ord, Calif.

Reliable Sources Report Negotiations For Surrender Now Under Way; Less Than 10 Per Cent Of Hitler's Once-Powerful Army Now Under Arms; Germany Completely Over-run

New York, May 5—(AP)—Reports are circulating in Stockholm that the surrender of Norway already has taken place, though these reports are called premature by the Swedish foreign office, the BBC reported today in a broadcast recorded by the Blue network.

London, May 5—(AP)—Reuters said today that Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz broadcast the admission that German armies were surrendering and "it is senseless to fight on."

The news agency did not identify the station over which the broadcast was made and it was not heard by other monitors here, but British newspapers banner lined the report and interpreted it as a declaration of German intention to surrender in Norway.

Associated Press dispatches from Stockholm also quoted responsible Swedish political quarters as saying there was "little any reason to expect developments in Norway to proceed in another way than in Denmark."

French telegraph agency reports from Stockholm declared negotiations between Doenitz, his representatives and the Allies were continuing near the Danish border.

The German-controlled Oslo radio said Doenitz had had a number of discussions with Joet Terboven, Nazi commissioner in Norway, who has been given his instructions.

Doenitz, successor of Adolf Hitler as a self-styled fuhrer, remained a mystery.

The Norwegian government in London estimated that total German fighting forces in Norway numbered nearly 300,000, apart from any reinforcements which may have reached there in the last few days. Exceeding most other estimates, it listed 190,000 in the army, 50,000 in the navy and 50,000 in the air force.

The German air force is believed to have been 400 and 500 planes in Norway, the exiled government said, and the German naval force there is believed to consist of from 200 to 300 submarines, a few destroyers, armed trawlers, and a considerable number of one-man torpedo boats.

In event the Germans in Norway do not surrender, the capitulation of German sea, land and air forces in Denmark will facilitate any direct Allied attack on Oslo and the Norwegian coast.

Heretofore any concentration of the narrow Skagerrak for an attack on Oslo was virtually precluded by the mines, and the German land, air and sea defenses based on both (Continued on page two)

Today On The Home Front

By JAMES MARLOW

San Francisco, May 5—(AP)—Very little has been said out loud so far about one of the most important parts of any league created to prevent future wars.

That part is the social and economic council. The very sound of that title is enough to put some people to sleep. But it's something which can do a lot of good people good.

This is why: The delegates to the United Nations conference have buckled down to sewing together the various parts necessary for a world league.

You've heard a lot about the general assembly and the security council. In the assembly every nation would have a vote. And in the assembly they'd try to iron out peacefully world problems.

But the security council has had the spotlight. This would be made up of the representatives of only 11 nations.

But it is that security council—not the assembly—which would decide against some nation which in the future threatened world peace.

But tucked down in the program, in a position subordinate to the security council and the general assembly, is the place set aside for the social and economic council.

This social and economic council would be under the general assembly. Its job would be, in part, something like this: Coordinating the work of various international agencies—which have been set up or will be set up—that are related to human welfare, or labor or food or education. For example: An international labor organization, an international fund to help keep world finance in balance, an international food organization.

And in due time, it seems likely,

Strength FOR THE DAY By EARL L. DOUGLAS

ON MEETING TROUBLE When people stake the whole of their lives on personal happiness, the wrecking of their plans usually results in catastrophe. Someone has said that in times past man has cried out, "What shall I do to be saved?" but that modern man asks only the question, "What shall I do to be happy?"

Jesus once spoke about a house built on rock and a house built on sand. The latter collapses when flood and windstorm beat upon it. Few things in life are so tragic as the spectacle of our flimsy houses of indulgence and selfish desire being swept away at the very moment when we regarded life as secure and satisfying.

The way we behave under such circumstances discloses the dimensions of our souls.

When all the blandishments of life are gone,

The coward sinks to death, the brave live on.

The frail empty life collapses in the hour of tragedy, but brave men live on. Life may seem to have nothing in it, but God has arranged His world in such way that crucifixions are followed by resurrections. The divine promise is that our sorrow shall be turned into joy, our weeping into song.

It is sometimes hard to believe but faith long cherished and clung to amid the agony of doubt reveals the truth to our hearts at last.

AMERICA IN WARTIME By JACK STINNETT

Washington—Several members on Capitol Hill have expressed the belief that all of those in Congress who mourned the passing of President Roosevelt, it was Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn whose personal grief was deepest.

This is a tribute to Speaker Rayburn's unselfish loyalty and friendship, for many observers believe the shifting balances of government will give him more freedom and authority, and hence greater political honor, than he has enjoyed during his five years as No. 1 man in the House.

To understand this, it is necessary to examine both the job and the man.

At the outset of the formation of Congress, the speakership was an important job (Henry Clay of Virginia, served in the post for 12 years). As time went on, the rules and precedents of the House threw more and more power to the speaker, until late in the century Speaker Thomas B. Reed of Maine was referred to generally as "Czar" Reed.

Almost in our own time, "Uncle Joe" (Joseph) Cannon took over these virtually dictatorial powers of appointing committees and channeling legislation into friendly hands. In 1909 and 1910 a coalition of rebellious Republicans and Democrats, led among others by George W. Norris of Nebraska, stripped the speakership of much of its power.

Yet some of the greatest speakers of the House have wielded the gavel since that time. The reason isn't obscure. Where these men had dominated by rule and rote before, they now had to depend on personality, parliamentary knowledge and an all-around ability as legislators and cloakroom politicians.

It was this change that produced such speakers as Champ Clark of Missouri, Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, William Bankhead of Alabama, and John Nance Garner, Rayburn's old Texas colleague, close personal friend and in some respects political mentor.

With the blessing and personal affection of President Roosevelt, Rayburn was elected to the speakership in 1940, following the death of Rep. Bankhead, and has been re-elected three times.

That blessing of the late President was a mixed one. Added to this loyalty was the too-often thankless task of keeping a touchy House from hampering preparedness and the prosecution of the war.

How much glory has come to Sam Rayburn for a job well done, unless you count as glory the repeated expression of confidence of the voters around his home town of Bonham,

Tex. He was elected first in 1932 and has been re-elected 16 times, and the affection of a host of friends on both sides of the aisle. But from now on, many believe Speaker Rayburn will be on his own, with no great urging or personal allegiance at the other end of Pennsylvania avenue to direct the hammerings of his gavel.

There also was a possibility that Sweden would be asked to permit passage of Allied troops for a land attack on the Norwegian pocket.

By JAMES M. LONG Paris, May 5 (AP)—Two German armies in Southern Germany and Western Austria surrendered unconditionally today a few hours after the last half of 1,000,000 enemy troops in Northwest Germany, Denmark, and Holland capitulated and cease-fire orders silenced those battlefields.

There were persistent reports the Germans in Norway might soon yield that northern redoubt, and that the enemy in the remainder of Austria and Czechoslovakia also was preparing surrender.

The German First and 19th armies, remnants of Field Marshal Albert Kesselring's command—surrendered to Gen. Jacob L. Devers, Sixth Army group commander, at 2:30 p. m. (8:30 a. m. EDT) today. Fighting was ordered to cease on this front, held by the U. S. Seventh and French First armies, at 12 noon tomorrow.

Only the U. S. Third Army front left active in the west and gains of up to 15 miles were scored by Gen. Patton's troops in Austria today.

Half a million Germans quit today on this 21st Army group front. As many more had given up to British and Canadians in the previous 48 hours, convinced as was Gen. Eisenhower that: "On land and sea and in the air the Germans are thoroughly whipped. Their only recourse is to surrender."

Already, negotiations were reported well under way for the capitulation of the last two major enemy stands—in Norway and the shrinking Czechoslovak-Austrian pocket—and the final realization of V-E Day.

The fall of Berchtesgaden swiftly followed that of Berlin.

Nearly a million Germans and Italians surrendered Wednesday in Italy and Western Austria. The Western Allies since D-Day had taken well over 4,000,000 prisoners—half of them in the last four days. The Russians have killed or captured millions more German soldiers.

Triumph and joy swept Denmark and Holland, freed from five years of Nazi rule, although there still was sporadic fighting in Copenhagen between the Germans and Danish patriots. German warships in Copenhagen Harbor fired on several sectors of the Danish capital, resisting patriot efforts to collect Nazi arms.

By the best available estimate, 10 per cent or less of the German army's peak total of around 8,000,000 men remained under arms today. These remnants were in Norway, Czechoslovakia, Austria, Yugoslavia, Latvia and the holdout channel ports and islands.

The two-day bag of prisoners in Denmark, Holland, and Northwest Germany was the greatest mass surrender of this war.

In Holland, Canadian and German troops kept to their own lines as this zero hour of peace came and passed. A front dispatch said it might be 36 hours before the Canadians moved forward to occupy surrendered sectors and take their prisoners, since the Germans first must supply information on minefields, obstacles, rations, and supplies.

Newly transferred from Stockholm to Paris, AP Correspondent Daniel De Luce said negotiations were underway for the surrender without battle of Germans in Norway and in remaining portions of Austria and Czechoslovakia.

In Austria, U. S. Third Army

troops were but a few miles from Linz and 17 miles or less from Ruzsins moving westward toward Linz. In gains today of up to 18 miles along a 50-mile front between Salzburg and Linz, Gen. Patton's men crossed the Traun River at Wels and Lambach, and captured both towns, 16 and 23 miles southwest of Linz. Four German lieutenant-generals were made prisoners.

Other Third Army units were up to or across the entire western border of Czechoslovakia, but apparently were not attacking—another indication that a surrender move may be underway. Russians in the east fought in the mountains of Moravia.

In the south, the U. S. Seventh Army seized Berchtesgaden, virtually completing occupation of Bavaria. Americans went through the Brenner Pass yesterday and met U. S. Fifth Army troops in Italy. Allied airmen flew more than 1,000 sorties yesterday, concentrating on traffic in Austria and Czechoslovakia, and escape ships in the Baltic.

Surrender of German garrisons at Helgoland and the Frisian island of Porkum, both heavily fortified, permits Allied minesweepers to move quickly to open such ports as Hamburg, Bremen, and Emden. The great naval bases and ports in Holland and Denmark are available to Allied navies.

Allied bombers flying through rain and snow dropped another 1,200 tons of food and other supplies over Holland today, raising the total delivered in seven days to about 8,850 tons.

G. M. Lamm Elected President of Jaycees

The regular meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce was held at the Old Town Inn last night. It was called to order by President Charles M. Brayer. There were 18 members and three visitors present. Lt. Davenport, Joe Huske, and Lindsay Wilkerson.

This was a very important meeting because of the election of officers for the next term. G. M. Lamm was elected president; Jack Nobles, first vice president; Charles T. Marston, second vice president; J. Melvin Whitford, treasurer, and John S. King, secretary.

During the meeting the club organized a softball team to join other clubs of Greenville. R. R. Forrest was elected chairman and will meet with the club members Tuesday evening at 6:30 to begin practice.

Negro Man Arrests Alleged Offender

Morris Moye, Negro, resented Negro boys throwing bricks through a window of his home on Bonner Lane last night and did his own police work in apprehending one of the alleged offenders. He borrowed a pistol and then took the boy to the police station and swore out a warrant for four youngsters. They are Ray Tyson, Simon Forbes, Arthur Tyson and James Cox, teen age boys. The cases will be tried in Police Court Monday.

The boys, in turn, swore out a warrant for Morris Moye, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon.

ECTC FACULTY HEARS HIGH SCHOOL OFFICIALS "We need to eradicate the prejudice against Russia" declared Principal P. T. Fugate of Elm City in a speech before the ECTC faculty last night. "If we are to have a permanent peace, we must eliminate this prejudice through education. We need teachers who know the history of Russia, the history of the common people. We have had enough history of kings and dynasties."

Sharing the platform with Mr. Fugate was Supt. E. S. Johnson of Washington, N. C. Mr. Johnson claimed that the coming school year will mark the greatest crisis in education because of the lack of teachers. The school systems have not been able to keep their good teachers, he declared.

Mr. Johnson reviewed the process followed in the Washington city schools for adjusting teachers to the work of the school system. He pointed out the necessity for training teachers to help guide students in the selection of their courses of study. The teachers college, he declared, can help prepare teachers to become adequate advisors.

Reading difficulties are a major problem for backward students. This problem can best be met in the early primary grades by having children with reading difficulties take three years to do the work of the first two grades.

Last night's ECTC faculty meeting was the last in a series which began in October. Fourteen superintendents and officials of the public school system of the state have during this series, discussed their educational problems with the faculty. The objective has been to bring the college and the school superintendents into closer working harmony. A number of ECTC members joined with the faculty at last night's meeting and participated in the round table discussion.

Announcement!

I wish to announce my regrets to the public on account of not being able to see each and every one of you. However, it is only natural and a good business policy to know and be sure the right candidate be elected for your Mayor. My record is an open one for you to investigate. Be sure to vote Monday regardless of which candidate you prefer.

L. A. Bishop

A PUBLIC SPIRITED MAN FOR MAYOR

Greenville needs a public spirited, civic minded man for Mayor, especially at this time. W. J. Bundy is such a man.

He has long been a leader in the fraternal, civic, public and religious life of the community, giving unselfishly of his time to the public good. He is constantly called to speak throughout eastern North Carolina. No man in Greenville has given more of his time, efforts and talents in public service of this nature than has Dick Bundy.

Dick Bundy is in every way qualified to be Mayor. By his unselfish civic service he is deserving of your support. We who know him well are confident that he will serve with honor and credit.

Besides attending to the business of the City the Mayor must speak on numerous public occasions, and Dick Bundy will grace such occasions. He is the kind of man we need for Mayor.

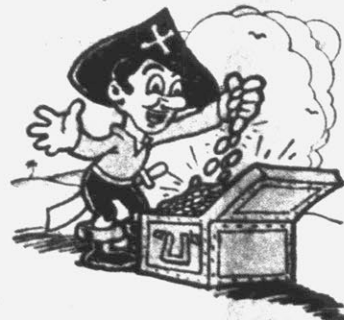

We urge you to vote for W. J. (Dick) Bundy for Mayor, Monday, May 7.

Contributed by Friends of Dick Bundy. Unknown to Him.

Mr. and Mrs. Voter...

It is my sincere wish that you cast your vote Monday for me for Alderman in the Second Ward. However, regardless of who you vote for, I hope you will use that privilege of voting, the right to say you are a free citizen in a free country.

C. A. 'Clink' Bowen

ought to have it," Anderson said. "It won't do any good to be critical of WFA next fall when we know that if given the chance they can do the job right now."
Anderson said War Mobilizer Fred M. Vinson has endorsed the suggestion for using more war prisoners in sugar fields but that the proposal has not yet been cleared by the army, which allocates prisoner-of-war labor.

To The Voters Of The Second Ward

My motive in announcing for alderman was for no selfish purpose or to serve any one element or group, but to sincerely serve my home town as best I could. My vocation in Greenville has enabled me to learn the city well and to know and understand some of its problems. I promise, if elected, to give considerable time in assisting in the management of our city affairs, in keeping taxes down, and seeing to it that tax money is well spent. I have always been interested in civic and public affairs and have tried to carry my part of community responsibility. I am interested in seeing Greenville progress because it is my home town, and the place where I seek my livelihood.

No one has questioned my honesty or my industriousness and the only thing that has been said against me is that I lived in the western portion of the Second Ward and that that end of the ward already had a representative; however, I now live in the eastern end of the Second Ward at 1406 East Fourth Street. If elected, I pledge to represent the entire ward as well as the best interest of Greenville. Your vote and support will be earnestly appreciated.

HEBER B. TRIPP

HEAR YE! HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

ALL GOOD CITIZENS ATTEND AND GIVE EAR!
Tonight at 9:15 o'clock Mr. J. H. (Jack) Boyd, candidate for mayor, will address you over our local radio station WGTC.

Mr. and Mrs. Citizen: Monday is the day we elect a Mayor and several Aldermen. Greenville is the largest corporation operating within its corporate limits. You are a stock holder in this corporation and contribute, through taxes, to its maintenance and progress. It is your corporation, your city, and we appeal to you to come out and vote for those candidates whom you conscientiously believe will make you the best officers.

We, the supporters of Mr. Boyd, representing all classes—the business men, the laboring men, the tobacco men, the professional men, the housewives, the working girls and even the sewing circles, throw no stones at other candidates and cast no aspersions. We ain't mad at nobody; we ain't going to get mad and we ain't going to fight. We merely want you to know that we have confidence in the integrity, qualifications and fitness of Jack Boyd, to fill this high office with honor and satisfaction.

Therefore, we recommend him to you, Mr. and Mrs. Voter, in the highest possible terms. HEAR HIM AT 9:15 TONIGHT.

Progress is the watch word;
Advance we may,
But we need Jack Boyd
To lead the way.
