Superforts Wipe Jap Cities Off Map

Wind-Whipped Fires Spread Through Three Jap Industrial Centers As 450 B-29s Drop 3,000 Tons Of Fire Bombs; Other Bombers Mine Jap Waters

By ROBBIN COONS Guam, June 20.—(AP)—Superfortresses dumped 3,000 tons of fire bombs on three Japanese industrial cities today, setting wind-fanned blazes, which pilots said were visible 75 miles away and wiped off the map as a war target the munitions center of Shizuoka, 85 miles southwest of Tokyo.

The 450 Superfortresses, carrying out their 25th big incendiary strike, treated these secondary industrial cities to the same ordeal by fire that has erased most of the factories in Japan's greater cities.

The Tokyo radio admitted fires raged out of control for five hours in Toyohashi, also on the main island of Honshu.

Fukooka, on the southernmost island, Kyushu, and third target of the day, was turned into a pre-dawn bonfire, pilots reported. The largest of the three cities, Fukooka, has a population of 323,000. Toyohashi 242,900, and Shizuoka 212,000.

Radio Tokyo said 60 other B-29s, continuing the aerial blockade of home waters, laid mines off the west coast of Honshu and in the Kannon Strait between Honshu and Kyushu.

Flames from Monday's big raid still licked at Omata, also on Kyushu, when the bomber formations struck today.

Li William W. Foster, Knoxville, Tenn., described the pattern of destruction in Fukooka thus: "A path of flame two miles wide ran from the dock area, where several ships were burning, back inland for 10 miles. Over the central target areas, smoke rose 40,000 feet in a column two miles in diameter."

Tokyo radio acknowledged that the fires at Shizuoka raged at least four hours.

"I don't think we'll have to go back to Shizuoka," said Maj. Charles Tibbs of Battle Mountain, Nev., a B-29 flight leader. Other fliers were even more emphatic.

A crewman from the 58th Bomber Wing, based at Tinian, saw a solid mass of fire roll over Toyohashi, 188 miles southwest of Tokyo. Other fliers, while 60 miles (Continued on page three)

Aussies Pushing Ahead On Borneo

Manila, June 20.—(AP)—New ground gains, putting Australian forces about 20 miles from the Seria oil fields of northwest Borneo, were reported officially today as the enemy radio said Allied ships were sweeping the harbor free of mines before the Seria oil fields.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur ignored enemy accounts that a fair sized Allied fleet was in action off Balikpapan, big oil refinery center on the east-central coast. His communique today limited reports on Balikpapan to a 200-ton bombing by Liberator bombers.

MacArthur's headquarters told of a four-mile advance in northwest Borneo below Tulung toward the enemy-fired Seria oil fields.

Today On The Home Front

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—A strange thing could happen if Congress carries through on President Truman's suggestion about succession to the presidency.

We could start off a four-year term with a Democrat in the White House and, before the four years had passed, wind up with a Republican.

Where's the story? We have no vice-president now. When President Roosevelt died, Vice-President Truman succeeded him. Both were elected by the people but that left us without a vice-president.

There is no provision in law or in the Constitution to fill a vacant vice-presidency by appointment or election.

But there is a law—passed in 1866—which says that when there is no vice-president and the President dies, then the next in line to succeed to the presidency are Cabinet members in this order:

The secretary of state, the secretary of the treasury, the secretary of war, the attorney general, the postmaster general, the secretary of navy and the secretary of the interior.

One of the main points to remember is that none of the Cabinet officers is elected by the people. The President appoints them. If President Truman died tomorrow, Secretary of State Stettinius would succeed him.

CHINESE PUSH NEAR LIUCHOW

Japanese Begin Counteroffensive In The South

By SPENCER MOOSA Chungking, June 20.—(AP)—Chinese troops have advanced to within three miles of the former American air field at Liuchow while other troops in bitter fighting are pressing toward the southern and western suburbs of the city itself, the Chinese high command announced today.

An important highway point six miles southwest of Liuchow, important Kwangtung province railroad city, has been recaptured by the advancing Chinese forces, the high command said, adding that troops south and west of the city are "engaging the enemy in a bitter battle."

The Chinese Central News Agency reported earlier that Chinese forces had pushed to within 12-15 miles of Liuchow.

The agency said the Japanese were offering desperate resistance in an attempt to halt the Chinese columns, which were credited with gains of up to seven miles in 24 hours.

In southern Kwangsi heavy fighting was reported in progress in the vicinity of Pingsiang, 11 miles from the Indo-China frontier, where the Japanese were said to be counterattacking Chinese forces which had been pushing them southward toward the border.

(A Tokyo broadcast recorded by the Associated Press in London said the Japanese had launched a new offensive in southern Kwangsi Province and had driven the Chinese back into the interior.)

(A Dornier transmission said the Japanese had "dealt a crushing blow" to six Chinese divisions in an encirclement operation in this area and destroyed bases for the Chinese and Chinese troops.

The Chinese left 805 casualties on the battlefield and other troops were captured, the recorded broadcast said.)

The Chinese high command said that Japanese forces on Hainan Island, just north of Hainan Island, had struck northward from Linkong, 200 miles south-southeast of Liuchow. Another enemy force, the Chinese said, drove toward Shekko, about 25 miles northeast of Linkong.

The purpose of the enemy drive was not stated, but the Japanese probably intend to safeguard their communications with Hainan either as an avenue of reinforcement (Continued on page three)

Put Heat On In War Bond Drive

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—The heat's on in the Seventh War Loan. The biggest bond drive of all—so far as individual Americans are concerned—officially ends June 30, a week from this Saturday.

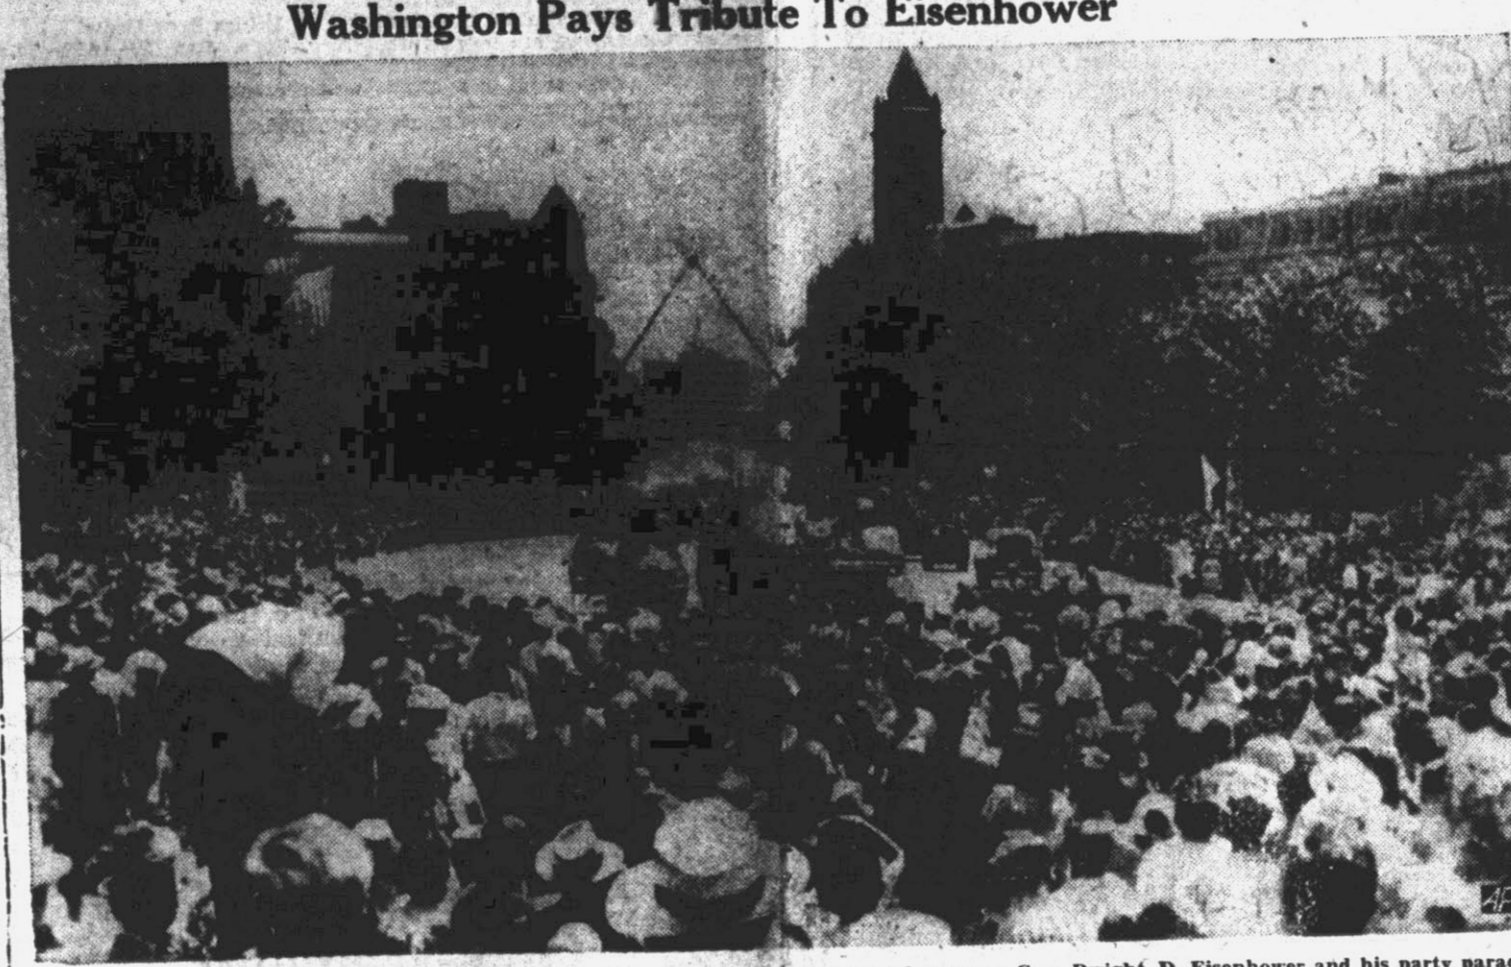

And here's the situation: Total sales have climbed past 10 billion dollars—$10,484,000,000, or three-fourths of the total quota of 14 billion.

That includes $4,538,000,000 invested by corporations and $5,946,000,000 by individuals.

These individual investors have put $2,674,000,000 into Series E bonds. This figure is behind schedule.

The Treasury expressed satisfaction with total sales to individuals. But of the E Bond situation, Ted Gamble, national War Finance director, told reporters: "With less than two weeks remaining, several millions of Americans who have not bought their war bonds in this drive will need to do so if the 4-billion-dollar E bond quota is made."

Thousands of people in Washington jam the sidewalks and streets to cheer and wave as Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and his party parade down Pennsylvania Avenue. The procession is en route from the National Airport to the capitol, the dome of which can be seen in the background. Decorated fire ladders, a big American flag, and a "Welcome Ike" sign form an arch at 13 1/2 street. Shortly before, Gen. Eisenhower landed at the airport in a plane that brought him from Europe. Widenhouse Testifies Concerning Meadows Records

M. L. Widenhouse testified again today in the trial of Dr. Leon R. Meadows relative to memorandum books one and two, which Meadows allegedly kept of his handling of special and student funds while president of East Carolina Teachers College.

Widenhouse was itemizing in detail his study of the former president's accounting.

Widenhouse, one of the principal investigators in the case, and who directed the making of an audit of the affairs of the school largely on the strength of which the former educator was indicted, testified at length yesterday in connection with two memorandum books belonging to the defendant containing entries of receipts and disbursements of funds by the defendant.

The two memo books were catalogued in the trial as "memo book one" and "memo book two." Both figured prominently in the first trial last spring, and the trend of Widenhouse's testimony indicated that they again would be considered at length in this second trial.

Will Collect Paper Sunday

The Greenville Junior Chamber of Commerce will collect scrap paper again Sunday, June 24, starting at 2 p. m.

Chairman Alton Barrett of the chamber is getting scrap paper in the nation, and that much paper was needed for the war effort. He further stated that all magazines and books and heavy cardboard would be gladly received in addition to the regular newspapers and other types of paper.

He emphasized the fact that it was necessary that all persons putting paper in front of their homes—either tie it securely in bundles or put something heavy on top to keep it from blowing.

A Jaycee pick-up truck will collect your paper sometime during the afternoon.

Conference Works For Adjournment Saturday

Australian Dispute May Carry Sessions Over Into Early Part Of Next Week

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Associated Press Diplomatic News Editor San Francisco, June 20.—(AP)—Conference leaders are striving to resolve the last of the issues between the great and small powers today so that President Truman can keep his date to close this historic United Nations meeting next Saturday.

With the President already on the West Coast at Olympia, Wash., and with time growing short to prepare for the projected Big Three meeting at Berlin next month, American delegates especially were hopeful that it would not be necessary to delay the closing session until early next week.

But much depends on the remaining issue—over the extent of discussion to be allowed a United Nations General Assembly. It was supposed to have been settled yesterday and officials said there seemed no question the timetable would be thrown off if it was not settled finally today.

Russia is asking a stricter limitation of assembly debates than Australia, as leader of a group of small nations, considers acceptable. Several efforts at a compromise have failed to produce agreement.

Other conference work is speeding toward conclusion. Principles for the projected Security League of the World Organization were voted last night by a conference commission. This commission also agreed unanimously in a separate declaration that the Franco government of Spain, because of Axis support coming to power, should never be admitted to membership.

The United States, which like many of the other nations maintains diplomatic relations with Generalissimo Franco, supported the declaration after it was advanced by Mexico and strongly backed up by France.

Three other commission meetings, the largest number yet for a single day, were called for today to approve other charter sections providing for the big-power veto formula in a Security Council, for measures by which the council could seek to enforce peace and for a system of international trusteeships for territories, such as League of Nations mandates and various Pacific islands, which may later be placed under it.

Busiest of all perhaps is the Coordination Committee Working with a staff of translators and language experts, it is trying to bring the pieces of the charter together into a completed document for signing by Friday afternoon.

In fact, conference leaders generally agreed that timing has become the most important element in the present situation, and that the remaining issues over discussion powers of the General Assembly is of such importance it would have caused no concern earlier in the meeting. The situation is this: The small nations last month won a charter provision that the Assembly could discuss and make recommendations on any matter in the field of international relations. They contended the assembly should be an open forum for world public opinion and able to talk about anything except a nation's domestic affairs.

Boy Drowns In River. William Earle Grimes, 13-year-old Negro boy, was drowned in Tar River at Tyson Street while swimming this afternoon. Police and firemen were searching for the body.

Government Waves Big Stick Over Strikers

By The Associated Press The government, headed by President Truman, waved big sticks at thousands of the Nation's idle workers today, prodding them to go back to jobs they had left over labor disputes.

More than 20,000 employees in vital war work in scattered sections of the country were the targets for directives from the President as well as from the Office of Defense Transportation. Meanwhile, an estimated 18,000 glass workers in four states are threatening to stop work tomorrow.

Transportation facilities in several areas appeared the hardest hit by the work stoppages in the East, South and Midwest. The WLB acted to end five strikes while President Truman ordered Army seizure of one war plant.

In Chicago, some 1,200 soldiers manned trucks as the ODT sought to restore normal operations for the 1,700 government seized trucking lines.

NEW GAINS IN PHILIPPINES

Japs Unable To Reform Lines For Definite Stand

By SPENCER DAVIS Manila, June 20.—(AP)—It appeared unlikely today that the disorganized Japanese in the Cagayan Valley—Luzon's breadbasket—could consolidate anywhere for a stand against the river-bopping 37th Ohio Infantry Division, fast approaching to within 100 miles on the island's north tip.

The Cagayan drive, north of Manila, constitutes the major windup move of the five-month-old Luzon campaign, and Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beighler has the planes and artillery to keep it rolling.

The Japanese had been expected to fight to the death at Nagulian. When their mortar fire opened up boats to cross the Cagayan River before the town, the general barked:

"I want that town wiped out. Put over an air strike immediately and follow up with at least 500 rounds of artillery."

The Japanese fled. The infantrymen easily crossed the river and walked into the ruined town, reported Associated Press Correspondent Hamilton W. Faron, afield with the 37th.

Engineers built a bridge across the river quickly and Yanks poured ahead to approach Ilagan, 110 miles (Continued on Page Two)

Legion Installs New Officers

Francis A. Jordan and other officers of Pitt County Post No. 39 of the American Legion were installed following a supper meeting at the armory last night. Prior to the installation, reports from various committees revealed that the post had just ended one of its most successful years with a total of more than 300 members. The drive for renewal memberships is already under way.

The new officers installed are: F. A. Jordan, commander; Dr. G. G. Dixon, James L. Evans and M. H. Whitchard, vice-commanders; John W. Glover, adjutant; L. B. Gowen, finance officer; Dr. J. M. Barrett, service officer; Clarence Taylor, guardianship officer; Richard Forester, sergeant-at-arms; Dr. H. G. Haney, chaplain; A. M. Schultz, historian; H. H. Duncan, athletics; D. C. Moore, Americanism; K. T. Fugelle, child welfare; J. Hicks Corey, national defense; S. A. Whitehurst, graves registration; Willard T. Kizer, employment; F. M. Stokes, Boy Scouts; Arthur B. Corey, membership; S. L. Bridgers, publicity; J. R. Worsley, oratorical contests, and Walter Lee, Sons of Legion.

On The Prowl

San Francisco, June 20.—(AP)—The Japanese said today (two Allied task forces were on the prowl near Miyako Island, about midway between Okinawa and Formosa.

The Domei agency broadcast heard by the Federal Communications Commission said three battleships were in one force while the "mainstay" of the second consisted of five aircraft carriers and a battleship.

The dispatch said reconnaissance planes had spotted more than 100 transports at anchor in the Kerama Islands, 20 miles west of Okinawa.

Tokyo Concedes Loss Of Okinawa

CONGRESS TO ACT QUICKLY

New Presidential Succession Bill Introduced

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—Congress headed today toward early consideration of legislation designating House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex) President Truman's successor in the event of an early White House vacancy.

Mr. Truman himself suggested such a course even as he was winging westward yesterday on the first of a number of scheduled air trips, including a trans-Atlantic flight to Berlin.

Quickly Senator Bridges (R-NH) introduced a bill closely paralleling the Chief Executive's recommendations, and Chairman Sumners (D-Tex) of the House Judiciary Committee said he would follow suit at once.

Bridges' measure was referred to the Senate Elections Committee, along with Mr. Truman's message expressing belief that the speaker is the official "whose selection next to that of the President and the Vice President can be most accurately said to stem from the people themselves."

Calling for early action, Bridges noted plans for the flight to Germany for the Big Three meeting and added to a reporter:

"In these days of hazardous travel we cannot take any chances of having anything happen to Mr. Truman without having prepared for his logical successor."

Sumners said he expected the Judiciary Committee to act on his bill before the projected summer recess. He added that it will be considered along with several others dealing with presidential succession.

These include proposals by Representative Monroney (D-Okla) which, in effect, would carry out the President's suggestions and by Representative Kefauver (D-Tenn) to give temporary succession to cabinet officers until the House itself can elect a successor.

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR. AP Foreign Affairs Analyst On its face, the new "trustee-annexation" agreement at San Francisco appears a step forward in the handling of areas and peoples which have not arrived at the status of independent nations. Actually, as in the case of so many other clauses of San Francisco's charter for a brave new world, so much depends on subsequent interpretations and on the method of territorial assignments as to make the whole business obscure.

The charter now provides that nations which hold hegemony over peoples of non-independent areas shall report regularly to the new league on their stewardship. Apparently it applies to most present colonies as well as to such areas as the Pacific Islands. In addition, nations which undertake such commitments can decide for themselves whether to annex such areas outright or to administer them as mandates. Under the clause it is presumable that annexation would not be what it seems, since the system of reporting on administration carries with it the implication that the league will take a hand should any controlling power get off base.

For instance, the United States is expected to be assigned many Pacific Islands taken from Japan or which have floated in a rather nebulous state. We can annex them,

Hundreds Of Japs Leap From Suicide Cliffs Into Sea While Others Surrender To Americans; Some Isolated Pockets Offering Bitter Resistance

By LEIF ERICKSON Guam, June 20.—(AP)—Large numbers of Japanese leaped to their death from the cliffs of southern Okinawa today and more were surrendering as U. S. tanks and troops broke through to the south shore.

Two Marine regiments seized 700 yards of the south coast as they planned out, an artillery spotter, plane pilot said he saw many Japanese or civilians leaping into the sea in the first mass suicides since the Saipan campaign.

Other Nipponese troops in increasing numbers were slipping in among the thousands of civilians streaming through the American lines and were surrendering. Many of the few thousand still fighting were wounded.

Some of the most stubborn opposition was met before Mabuni, near the island's southeastern coast, where the enemy's commanding general was believed at bay with his staff, determined to stand and die.

A Tokyo radio broadcast conceded the loss of Okinawa and declared its fall would have serious military consequences. The enemy claimed "furious hand-to-hand" fighting still was in progress, however.

Well back of the Marine spearhead on the south coast, one pocket of the enemy fought on in a death trap east of Kunishi Ridge—a western stronghold—delaying the advance in the center.

Lt. Gen. Roy S. Geiger, commander of the U. S. Tenth Army whose promotion from the rank of major general was announced yesterday, was pressing for a quick decision.

Trucks pulled out over the plains leading down to the sea, helping the foot soldiers clean out enemy-infested caves.

Scores of Japanese troops jumped from cliffs into the surf as the Eighth Recyclable combat team and the Fifth Regiment raced to the southern shores yesterday and cut Japanese survivors into three pockets. Both regiments were on the coast south of Kossu, near the center of the island's southern tip.

With the enemy breaking in disorganized confusion in the Marine sector of southwestern Okinawa, about 500 Japanese surrendering in one day, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz said in today's communique: "The enemy's defenses were in the process of collapsing" by night fall yesterday.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

STICKING TO BUSINESS

A buoy, fastened to the bottom of the sea near the rocky shores of Labrador, broke away from its moorings a few years ago and was picked up on the shores of Cuba. Geographical experts declared that it had been taken by currents on a very long journey. It first went east to the British Isles. Then following the current it turned south to the shores of North Africa. Still another current carried it westward across the Atlantic and north to the shores of Cuba where it was stranded on a beach.

The buoy was not fulfilling its purpose as it drifted. It had only fulfilled its purpose when it was anchored in one place to warn ships away from dangerous waters. Once it broke its moorings, it was no longer a help but a nuisance. As a derelict it floated through the lanes of ocean traffic, endangering propellers with which at any moment it might have become entangled.

The drifting life is the aimless life. It is also the dangerous life, for the devil is always full of suggestions as to how we may employ spare time. And the drifting life is the aimless life. The buoy, surmounted by a bell or a light is dependent on something to make the world safer and better.

It may not appear very thrilling to have to stay in one place and do the same thing year after year, but it is the buoys fastened to the shoals and the people who stay put in village, countryside, or city which make the sea safe and the life of the world stable.

This is the reason given by Mr. Truman for thinking the speaker of the House should succeed to the presidency.

The speaker of the House . . . who is elected in his own district is also elected to be the presiding officer of the House by a vote of all the representatives of all the states of the country. As a result, I believe that the speaker is the official in the federal government whose selection next to that of the President and vice-president can be most accurately said to stem from the people themselves.

But this could happen. The Democrats elected Mr. Truman last November and the Democratic majority in the House. Now suppose Congress passes a law like the one suggested by Mr. Truman.

Then suppose that in the congressional elections of 1946—when Mr. Truman will still have two more years in the White House—there is a change in public feeling and Republicans win control of the House. Then they elect the speaker.

Then if Mr. Truman died before the end of his term in 1948, a Republican would be President.

But, although Mr. Truman is elected from his own (congressional) district, one of the parliamentarians later said the speaker of the House doesn't have to be a member of the House at all.

He explained:

There's nothing in the law requiring Congress to choose a congressman for speaker. Therefore they could choose someone not in government at all.

Will Not Ask Death Penalty

Moscow, June 20—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Nikolai Afanastev, chief prosecutor of the 16 Poles on trial for subversive activities behind Russian lines, asked the court today for no death sentences but only imprisonment.

He told the military collegium of the Soviet supreme court in his summation that death was not needed "because we are now living through days of joyous victory and the Soviet nation is mightier than it ever was."

Final evidence indicated that Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, who resigned as head of the Polish exiled government in London when it failed to accept his recommendations for accord with the Lublin-Wassaw regime, had been kept in the dark concerning alleged anti-Russian activities of the Polish underground army. The commander of that group, Maj. Gen. L. Bronislaw Okulski, is the chief defendant.

Raleigh, June 20—(AP)—Governor Cherry today announced that he will not intervene in the cases of three Negro men scheduled to die in the State's gas chamber Friday. The men, all convicted of first degree murder, are Henry French, Clarence Lord, and William Jones. Cherry said all have been examined by a psychiatrist and found to be sane.

Masons Receive 25-Year Awards

With many members and visitors present, Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. and A. M. had a very busy and interesting meeting Monday night. After the regular business had been transacted, the master of the lodge, James W. Brewer, introduced T. L. Moore, District Deputy Grand Master of the Fifth Masonic District, who requested the Marshal, A. R. House, to present the following: Past Master A. W. Harris, Past District Deputy of the Fifth Masonic District; J. F. Carr, Past Master of Farmville Lodge; Past Master W. O. Bilbro; Past Master S. G. Wilkerson; A. W. Flake; R. H. McGowan; H. L. Elks, and L. G. Cooper, who have been members of a Masonic Lodge continuously for 25 years or more. Past Master G. P. Reiman, M. D. Rogers, B. Bryce Brown and A. E. Brown were unable to be present.

The speaker, in giving each a 25-year continuous membership certificate, declared that he was very happy to award, in the name of the Most Worshipful Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of N. C. and the Worshipful Master of the Greenville Lodge, this recognition of their meritorious labor and service in Masonry; that twenty five years is not

Master Brewer, congratulating them on receiving this testimony of their faithful and untiring efforts, called on the members so honored and each made an excellent response.

W. J. Bundy, Senior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge of N. C.; L. H. Roundtree, who has been a member for over 50 years, and several visitors made brief talks.

The Lodge has accepted with regret the resignation of Ned A. Hawks, Junior Warden of Greenville Lodge No. 284, who resigned because he has accepted a position in Rowan County. He will be greatly missed, not only by the Greenville Lodge, but other lodges in this district. As a member of the Masonic Education Committee, he was very capable and active in Masonic work.

was a nightmare of confusion. In some sectors, Japanese fled frantically across open terrain. Aircraft strafed and heavy warships shelled them.

Other Nipponese made death stands, usually in small groups, taking a heavy toll of American lives, until wiped out by tanks, flame throwers, or small arms fire. They killed many Americans, including some high ranking officers.

Many fled to white coral cliffs at the southern shore. Some leaped into the surf. Others, seeing their comrades wiped out by rocket-firing LCI's, used as gunboats close ashore, signaled a desire to surrender. Seven swam out to an LCI, gave themselves up. One group of 30 soldiers, following loud-speakered instructions from an LCI, made their way with 300 Okinawan civilians to an American force and surrendered.

Near Mabuni on the southeastern coast, however, Maj. Gen. Archibald V. Arnold's Seventh Division Infantry was held to a slow advance through coral heads, brush and caves, where the enemy fought fanatically with machineguns, rifles and grenades.

Hitler Escape Plane Is Found

Travemuende, Germany, June 16—(Delayed)—(AP)—A huge four-engined plane which carried 30,000 gallons of gasoline has been found near Travemuende and German ground crews said they were ordered in the last weeks of the war to keep it ready to carry Hitler non-stop to Japan.
Three self-sealing gasoline tanks, each of 4,000 gallons capacity, were in the cabin, leaving enough room for only three passengers. The wings were built to hold 18,000 gallons.
Crewmen said they made daily test flights of the big white and blue plane, prominently marked with the swastika.
The plane landed on a special long concrete strip near the Travemuende seacoast last April just as RAF planes flew in. Several holes were shot in the craft and the pilot overshot the landing strip. The plane pitched over on its side and caught a wing on the ground, tearing off a tip. The war ended before it could be repaired.
