Gen. MacArthur Will Enter Tokyo Friday Afternoon

Only Small Portion Of Tokyo To Be Taken Over In Initial Occupation; Japanese Newspapers Reveal Uprising Against Japan In Korea In Mid-August

Yokohama, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The first American reconnaissance patrols entered Tokyo today to arrange for the formal entry of First Cavalry troops and General MacArthur Saturday (Friday, U. S. Time). A small detachment of the 11th Corps' First Cavalry surveyed the heavily damaged capital, where MacArthur will raise the American flag in front of the U. S. Embassy Saturday.

The first of 27th Division troops were expected today or tomorrow, and the 14th Corps' 81st Division and the Ninth Corps were expected around September 17. The 7th Division of the 18th combat team are coming in later, along with the 38th Division.

MacArthur announced earlier that 18 combat divisions plus other units totaling 300,000 to 400,000 men would occupy the home islands and Korea.

His spokesman declared that the Japanese were cooperating fully and thus far not a single American casualty was reported.

MacArthur estimated that by mid-October 7,000,000 Japanese troops would be disbanded, the biggest force ever to capitulate in the history of warfare.

Approximately 3,000,000 of these forces are in the home islands and will be sent to their homes, he said. The other 4,000,000 are in outlying Pacific areas.

From 300,000 to 400,000 American soldiers will occupy the home islands and Korea, he added. Radio reports said this would leave an estimated 120,000 other Americans now in the Pacific free to go home.

As MacArthur reaches Tokyo Saturday, he will raise over the American embassy flag that flew in Washington on December 7, 1941 and later over Cassablanca, Rome, Berlin and the battleship Missouri in Tokyo Bay.

Gen. Hideo Inamura surrendered today the 139,000 Japanese forces long since bypassed in Rabaul, New Ireland, the other Solomons Islands and New Guinea. He signed their final capitulation aboard the British aircraft carrier Glory, and handed over his sword to Lt. Gen. V. A. H. Sturdee, commanding the First Australian Army Corps.

Discussing details of Saturday's move into Tokyo by the First Cavalry Division—two troops on a general headquarters spokesman said he did not know whether British and Chinese would participate in the occupation of Japan. And as for the Russians, he said he did not know whether they had evidenced any desire to participate.

He emphasized that MacArthur's policy would be to permit the Japanese to run their own country under the supreme commander's direction—with occupation troops on hand to guarantee the Potsdam terms would be carried out.

Service units and general headquarters personnel will move into the heart of the capital, with the aviators Saturday—at 6 a. m. (5 p. m. Friday, Eastern War Time). (Continued on Page Two)

SENATE VOTES FOR PROBE OF PEARL HARBOR

Barkley Says Movement Has President's Approval; Quick Adoption Of Resolution By House Appears A Certainty

Washington, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Senate voted unanimously today for a joint congressional inquiry into the Pearl Harbor disaster.

Action came on adoption of a resolution which Senate Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky.) said he offered with the full approval of President Truman.

The resolution now goes to the House. Barkley told his colleagues Speaker Rayburn had promised speedy consideration there.

Under the resolution the inquiry would be made by five House members named by the Speaker and five Senators appointed by the Senate President McKellar (D-Tenn.).

Six of the ten would be Democrats, the remainder minority members.

A report to Congress on the findings would be required by next January 3.

Barkley told the Senate the investigation should be made "so complete and so fair that no person could doubt the good faith of the report and the findings of those who make them."

The inquiry, he stated, should not be conducted to add or damage any political party nor "to do the scutcheon of any innocent man."

"It should not be conducted with the purpose of gratifying the misanthropic hatred of any person toward any present or past public servant, high or low, living or dead," he said.

Most of his listeners thought Barkley thus spoke indirectly to critics who have sought to blame the late President Roosevelt for the disaster.

In offering the bill the Democratic leader said: "I may say I offer this resolution with the full knowledge and approval of the President of the United States, and I express the earnest hope, which he shares, that the two houses may promptly agree to it, that the investigation may be completed as soon as possible."

On Tuesday the House passed a resolution authorizing the investigation. (Continued on Page Two)

Limited Tax Reductions, Continuation Of Presidential War Powers And Higher Pay For Lawmakers Included In 21-Point Legislative Program

Washington, Sept. 6.—(AP)—President Truman recommended to Congress today the speedy enactment of a transitional tax bill to provide "limited tax reductions" for the calendar year 1946.

The recommendation was included in a lengthy message sent to Congress on the second day of its postwar emergency session.

"Like the tax adjustment act of 1945," the President said, "the new bill should aim principally at removing barriers to speedy reconstruction and to the expansion of our peacetime economy."

At the same time Mr. Truman stressed that the nation must reconcile itself to the fact that tax reduction opportunities are limited. He asserted "a total war effort cannot be liquidated overnight."

Estimating war expenditures for the current fiscal year will total about $50,000,000,000 out of total expenditures of $66,000,000,000, the President said that with current receipts estimated at only $36,000,000,000, "we face an estimated deficit of $30,000,000,000 in the current fiscal year."

Mr. Truman told the legislators, assembled for their first peace time session in 16 years, that the war will not be over on the home front until its economic impacts have been eased.

Hence, he said, proposals to abolish war-time controls by declaring the war officially at an end would lead to "great confusion and chaos in government."

The 18,000-word message, which Mr. Truman sent to Capitol Hill, promised "a program of controls, one by one, as fast as possible. But it emphasized that their overall abandonment would leave the chief executive powerless to prevent "bottlenecks, shortages of material and inflation."

"The time has not yet arrived," the President asserted, "for the proclamation of the cessation of hostilities; much less the termination of the war. Needless to say, such proclamations will be made as soon as circumstances permit."

Tempering his warnings with expressions of confidence, Mr. Truman declared that prompt and vigorous congressional and administrative teamwork can usher in an era of unprecedented prosperity.

"A vast backlog of orders may soon make possible the greatest peacetime industrial activity that we have ever seen," the President said.

In his message the President also recommended: 1. Enactment of "full employment" legislation.

2. Federal emergency benefit payments to provide weekly unemployment compensation up to a maximum of $25 throughout the country.

3. Amend the Fair Labor Standards Act to substantially increase the minimum wage level of 40 cents an hour which he described as now "obsolete."

4. Extend the provisions of the Second War Powers Act to preserve "the powers necessary" to keep the economy stabilized and "permit us to enter into the difficult period of readjustment without the threat of unemployment." (Continued on page four)

Most OPA Controls Will End This Year

INDICTMENT IN ELECTION CASE

Says Warrants Issued In Graham County

Raleigh, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Chairman W. T. Joyner of the State Board of Elections said yesterday that an indictment had been returned in Graham county against persons allegedly involved in election irregularities in the Fontana Dam precinct during voting in the November 7, 1944, general elections.

The case is now awaiting trial at Waynesville, Joyner said.

Joyner thus corrected a statement he made to the elections board when it met here last week and washed its hands of pending election law infractions. At that meeting, Joyner said there had been no indictment or presentment in Graham county growing out of the Fontana Dam precinct, adding that the same applied to cases pending in Polk and Davidson counties.

"At that time (the board meeting), the state board did not have any information of indictment, nor had a report of such been made to the state attorney general," Joyner's (Continued on page six)

Meats and Shoes Will Be On Unrationed List By End Of 1945

By STERLING F. GREEN Washington, Sept. 6.—(AP)—OPA has told congressmen that most rationing will end this year, while rent control will be scrapped in 75 to 100 cities within four or five months.

The forecasts were made in a report to senators and representatives recently by Price Administrator Chester Bowles.

It outlined for the guidance of legislators this "present outlook" for the removal of price ceilings and ration rules.

Both meats and shoes will be unrationed by the end of 1945. Fats and oils may be rationed in 1946; at least, the shortage is likely to last that long.

Sugar is "impossible to predict." On tires, Bowles missed his guess. His report said truck tire rationing might end by August 31. That date has passed, and OPA men now believe both truck and passenger tires may be rationed until the first of the year.

Rent controls "obviously will have to continue for some time. Some may linger until Congress ends the federal program and turns the problem over to states or local communities to handle, Bowles declared.

OPA meantime will remove rent ceilings "whenever and wherever it can be done without rent inflation," he went on, adding: "Already eight areas have been decontrolled (rent ceilings lifted). The number decontrolled probably will increase by 75 or 100 during the next four or five months."

Ghost Ships

London, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Four "ghost" battleships which Britain never got around to building bluffed Germany and Japan into thinking the Royal Navy was stronger than it really was.

The story, which could not be told before, was confirmed today by an Admiralty spokesman.

The deception was at first unintentional.

Four new $60,000,000 battleships were authorized by Parliament a year before the outbreak of war, but they were never completed. In fact two of them were never even started. They existed on paper only.

Work on the Lion and Temeraire, both listed as 40,000 tons displacement and in the 16-inch gun class by James' director of the world's fighting ships, was halted three years ago. However, they were reportedly reported completed by foreign accounts which were never denied here.

James' simply stated the names of the two sister ships were not released, but that they were reported to have a speed similar to ships of the King George V class.

Japs Murdered Wounded Yanks

Yokohama, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The Japanese victors on Wake Island bayoneted all wounded prisoners to death and then heartily banqueted the survivors for two weeks in an effort to pry American military secrets from them, liberated marine and civilian prisoners from Wake said here today.

Japanese intelligence officers and secret police questioned them steadily for 14 days of feasting during which they were given such wartime rarities as breaded veal cutlets, butter and milk, they said.

After the period of feasting, during which the entertainment failed to bring the Nipponese the desired information, the prisoners were shipped off to prison. There guards beat them without the slightest provocation, they said.

British Seek Approval To Make Trieste Free Port

London, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Competent sources said today the British, confident of American backing, hoped to present to the foreign ministers meeting of Big Five Ministers here a plan for internationalization of Trieste which would enable landlocked central Europe to use the city as a free port.

Trieste apparently will be one of the main problems in the drafting of an Italian peace treaty, which is high on the agenda of the first meeting of the Big Five's Foreign Ministers next week.

In diplomatic circles it was said the British seem determined to follow the priority listing for the Foreign Ministers as laid down at Potsdam, and to take up the drafting of the Italian peace treaty first.

These sources believed Britain would be firm in a refusal to give to Yugoslavia any Italian territory west of the "Morgan Line"—a name given to the temporary frontier as drawn by the agreement between the Yugoslavs, British and Americans this spring after Marshal Tito was asked to withdraw his troops from Trieste. The "Morgan Line" would leave Trieste on the Italian side of the border.

It seemed evident that the questions of the Balkans, the Dardanelles, Trieste and European waterways were basically linked by the fundamental issue of the extent to which influence over Eastern Europe will fall to Soviet Russia or be divided among the Allies. The issue is important in view of President Truman's desire to internationalize European waterways, lifelines of many European countries. Both the Dardanelles and Trieste are gateways to the land mass of Eastern Europe and waterways provide the other outlets.

At the same time Mr. Truman stressed that the nation must reconcile itself to the fact that tax reduction opportunities are limited. He asserted "a total war effort cannot be liquidated overnight."

Estimating war expenditures for the current fiscal year will total about $50,000,000,000 out of total expenditures of $66,000,000,000, the President said that with current receipts estimated at only $36,000,000,000, "we face an estimated deficit of $30,000,000,000 in the current fiscal year."

Mr. Truman told the legislators, assembled for their first peace time session in 16 years, that the war will not be over on the home front until its economic impacts have been eased.

America To Get Smallest Share German Reparations

GIVE PLAN FOR RECONVERSION

Nine Necessary Steps Outlined By WLB

Washington, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Nine "steps to reconversion" were outlined to President Truman by the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion today.

Director John W. Snyder, in a 4,000-word report entitled "The Transition: Phase One," said "our entire economy will feel the stress of the transition."

"Every business has its own particular problem," he asserted, "but for the country as a whole, there are certain steps which it is clear we must take." They follow:

1. Contracts must be cancelled to release factories, facilities, and manpower.

2. Contracts must be settled promptly to wind up war financing and to place operating funds in the hands of business.

3. Plants must be cleared of government owned machinery and inventories.

4. Manpower must be released both from war work and from the armed services. (Continued on Page Six)

U. S. Share To Be About Five Per Cent Of That Of Russia

By DANIEL DE LUCE Berlin, Sept. 6.—(AP)—The American share of German reparations, it was predicted by financial experts today, is likely to be the smallest of any of the four occupying powers.

The Americans' eventual recompense from the defeated enemy is expected to be about five per cent of that of the Soviet Union, about one-half of Britain's and somewhat less than that of France.

The first major United States proposal before the Allied control council is a decree which would vest ownership of all of Germany's external property in the council. This is deemed necessary before direct action can be taken to seize German assets in neutral countries. The decree is still under discussion.

Neutrals have been asked to freeze and inventory American estimates, the Germans have cached assets of $985,667,000 among five neutrals. Switzerland is believed to have $600,000,000. The remainder is distributed among Argentina, Spain, Portugal and Turkey.

In addition, possibly another $100,000,000 is secreted in Sweden. All machineries known to high and low finance were used by Nazi capitalists to hide the trail of the wealth they sent abroad. A simplified example is an account opened under a Swiss name in a Swiss bank, transferred to a Dutch bank, retransferred to a Swedish bank and ultimately placed in either the United States or Britain. The handling of commercial stocks make much more baffling problems for investigators. (Continued on page two)

URGES REPEAL ABSENTEE LAW

Says Action Would Curtail Election Frauds

Raleigh, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Outright repeal of the State Absentee Ballot Law, except insofar as it affects servicemen, has been recommended by Sim Delapp of Lexington, chairman of the North Carolina Republican Executive Committee, as the "best means of ending election frauds."

As the "next best" manner of ending election frauds, Delapp said yesterday his party advocated "open, public, full and exhaustive hearings in the counties involved" by the State Elections board, with "the most merciless publicity" for the offenders.

In Raleigh for the State Bar Association meeting, Delapp issued a statement calling for repeal of the Absentee Ballot Law.

For a number of years, he charged, Republicans of North Carolina have been "mistreated" by illegal public, full and exhaustive hearings in the counties involved" by the State Elections board, with "the most merciless publicity" for the offenders.

"Now comes the Davidson County election frauds of 1944," he continued in his statement. "No longer can there be any cry of 'poor losers' because a Democratic controlled elections board announced that the fraud was bold and defiant. Later, (Continued on page two)

The WORLD TODAY An Analysis Of The News

By DEWITT MAKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Is it possible that we shall have to fight the Japanese war over again a few years hence?

Outspoken Vice Admiral John S. McCain, whose famous U. S. Naval Task Force played such a notable part in the victory over Nippon, declares that neither the Japanese war lords nor the rank and file consider themselves defeated. Then he gives this grim verdict:

"The Japanese generals are not half licked yet. They're going to take a lot of killing at some future time."

That would indeed be a gloomy outlook if we didn't feel justified in assuming that the admiral is in part speaking figuratively. He means, I take it, that the militarists aren't licked mentally—that they haven't had their ideas of conquest knocked out of them—and there's plenty of evidence to support that claim. However, there can be no doubt that Japan is beaten to a frazzle physically.

Premier Hagashi-Kuni made that clear in his gloomy address before the Diet in Tokyo yesterday. He said that enormous military losses, impoverishment and exhaustion at home had forced surrender. And it should be noted that this position of defeat was reached before the advent of the atomic bomb. Of course, the premier probably is glad to emphasize this with the idea that it may soften Allied treatment of his country, but the fact remains that he is speaking the truth and that Japan is shattered physically—militarily, economically, industrially.

This definitely means that we don't have to fight the Japs in the near future. It means, too, that if we capitalize the situation which now exists, we won't have to fight lied hands. The future is up to peace there are several conditioned hands. This future is up to us.

T-AnkZd—o hrdlu In order to insure continuance of peace there are several conditions to be fulfilled. One of them obviously is that America and the other major powers must maintain a state of dull military preparedness, ready for action at any moment. We can't afford any more pearl harbors.

Then of course, Japan must be reeducated into peaceful ways of thinking—which means democracy. In conjunction with this, those generals who "are not half licked yet" must be removed from contact with society in one way or another. Militarism must be destroyed in Nippon.

This reformation of the still (in many ways) medieval Japanese presents a tremendous task and one (Continued on Page Four)

Navy Goes Back Into Uniforms

Washington, Sept. 6.—(AP)—After two days of freedom to look like civilians in leisure hours, navy men and women were buttoned back into their uniforms today.

The navy gave them permission Monday to wear Mufti when off duty. It reconsidered yesterday on realizing this would place its personnel in competition with other buyers of limited clothing stocks.

Demobilization already had caused a heavy drain on men's garments.

Asks 30-Hour Week For Gov't Workers

Washington, Sept. 6.—(AP)—A 30-hour work week for federal employees was proposed today by Senator McCarran (D-Nev.).

He announced he was introducing legislation to provide for such a basic work week with overtime for work in excess of 30 hours—to be distributed over five 6-hour days. The present basic work week is 40 hours.

An increase in wage levels by reduction in the basic work-week will do more to improve the working conditions of government employees than would a bill providing increased annual compensation on the basis of the present work week," said McCarran. "Furthermore, such a reduction in the work week is in keeping with the American trend of providing workers with greater leisure."

The NATION TODAY By James Marlow

By JAMES MARLOW Washington, Sept. 6.—(AP)—Secretary of Commerce Henry Wallace produced a new book today, "Sixty Million Jobs." He's been working on it for months. What it says is based on the title.

He thinks this country, to be prosperous, must set a goal of 60 million jobs by 1950—and more later—and must have a national income of 200 billion dollars.

(In 1944—the last full wartime year and the highest year on record for national income—that income was about 150 billion dollars.)

Wallace said: "I believe we can attain this goal without a planned economy, without disastrous inflation and without an unbalanced budget that will endanger our national credit."

The suggestion of 60 million jobs—for people willing to work and wanting work—was first proposed by President Roosevelt in his Chicago speech last October 28.

Wallace thought then Mr. Roosevelt had set his sights too high. He doesn't think so now.

He suggests various ways for reaching the goal he sets. He is not very specific on some of his points. For example: He says our first big postwar job abroad is to help restore some of the areas torn by war. Then there must be some effort toward industrializing backward countries. This, he says, will require from 55 to 65 billion dollars worth of plant and equipment in the next few years. And who'd pay the bill? Approximately half of the money, Wallace says, "could easily come from the United States if suitable arrangements for its financing were worked out." But exactly how Wallace doesn't say.

He does say on the job that must be done overseas, the problem must be faced promptly so that "the way can be cleared for financial, industrial and agricultural operations based on definite understandings."

Wallace thinks 18 million new housing units could be built in the next ten years. This would aid workers through employment and builders through new business.

About a third of the housing need, he says, is for low rental homes. The government would have to bear the cost of the responsibility. The other two-thirds would have to be put up by private enterprise, on its own or with some "government stimulation."

These are some other suggestions Wallace makes: A greatly expanded public health service, a nationwide hospital building program. Health insurance. Right here he said:

Federal help in such projects as in housing and education—must not lead to federal control.

And he proposed this to provide better employment and living: (Continued on page four)

Eighth Army headquarters will remain temporarily at Yokohama.

Tokyo newspapers meanwhile disclosed that a virtual revolt against Japanese rule had occurred in Keijo, Korea, in mid-August, and reported the release of 20,000 political prisoners in Korea—controlled by Japan for 34 years. It was the first acknowledgement to Japanese at home that any Koreans had been held as political prisoners.

Augmenting of both Tokyo and Yokohama civilian police by addition of carefully selected members of the former Kimpel-Tai, Japan's secret police, was announced by U. S. Eighth Army headquarters.

Only a few of these new recruits will be armed, headquarters said, although all are empowered to arrest Japanese civilians.

The Korean demonstrators, August 15 and 16 took over part of the Keijo Government, the Tokyo Maichin and Nippon Times reported.

The demonstrators, the two newspapers said, displayed signs urging independence and welcoming the approaching Russian forces, and waved long hidden pre-annexation Korean flags.

A Domei broadcast estimated at 8,000 the strength of U. S. First Cavalry Division units which are to move into 40 of Tokyo's 200 square miles, Saturday, and said additional troops also were expected in the Tokyo area on Friday. There already are 4,000 Americans in this zone, northwest of Tokyo.

Eighth Army headquarters announced that its forces now had released 27 per cent of all Allied prisoners known to have been held in its occupation zone, northern Honshu. The total freed in all areas of Honshu reached 3,996.

Occupation of Kyushu, southernmost home island, meanwhile proceeded smoothly under Lt. Gen. Walter C. Krueger of the U. S. Sixth Army; and the U. S. Ninth Fleet, from the Aleutians, commanded by Vice Adm. Frank Jack Fletcher, lay off Japan, ready to negotiate next Sunday for occupation of the Ominato Naval Base on Northern Honshu.

America To Get ...

American interest in uncovering all of Germany's foreign holdings is acute because these offer what is described by financial experts as "about the only feasible form in which we can get some real reparations."

Unlike the other Allies, the United States shows little desire to obtain physical resources from Germany. American officials here do not believe their country can make economically worthwhile use of raw materials, virtually none of which are not produced also in the United States; industrial capital equipment; agricultural equipment and livestock; forced labor, or merchant and naval shipping.

The Soviet Union, at the other extreme, spreads its "removals" over all of the above categories. Of 14 or 15 United Nations seeking to share the reparations from the western occupation zones, most could use anything and everything, as do the Russians.

There is even some doubt in

It is expected the United States will make certain of obtaining all German holdings in Latin America. Furthermore, the United States already has acquired wealth in the form of industrial patents, processes and formulae in the military sweep across Germany to the Elbe.

proceed forthwith, and that the Congress and the country may expect a full report within the time designated.

Barkley's action apparently assured a congressional investigation of the circumstances surrounding the Japanese sneak attack. Republicans have demanded such a probe and House Speaker Rayburn indicated he thought it inevitable.

Asserting that what is needed is "a thorough, impartial and fearless inquiry," Barkley said:

"This inquiry should be of such dignity and authenticity as to convince the Congress, the country, and the world that no effort has been made to shield any person who may have been directly or indirectly responsible for the disaster, or to condemn unfairly or unjustly any person who was in authority, military or naval or civilian."

Most OPA Controls

OPA last night increased from three to six months the waiting period during which a dwelling buyer may not evict a tenant in order to move in himself.

The rule will be effective in all 487 federal rental areas unless the area director decides that three months is adequate.

The report to legislators also gave a step-by-step outline of the removal of price regulations, but also forecast no dates. In summary, it showed:

Basic Metals: Early release from ceilings.
Luxury Products: Some ceilings already removed, others coming off.
Foods: "Will be decontrolled commodity by commodity as soon as the supply situation permits. Sugar, fats and oils and meats will be among the last foods to be removed from price control."
Clothing: The program to reduce prices will be pressed vigorously.
Building materials: No early removal of ceilings seen.
Consumer Goods, Including Autos, Washers and Refrigerators: "Likely to remain under price control for some time."

Baseball

By JACK HAND
AP Sports-Writer

Time is running out on the American League Tiger chasers with Detroit's 2-1-2 game lead looming more formidable with each passing day as the opposition begins to get short on games to play.

Washington, the closest rival, has only 22 left and all of them must be shovled into the records before Sept. 23 when the Nats wind up their schedule a full week ahead of the rest of the league.

St. Louis' Browns, in third place but only four games back, match Detroit with 25 contests in the future book. Among the contenders only the New York Yankees with 26 and Cleveland with 28 have more left than the Tigers but their positions are deteriorating.

Adding to the worries of the haggard pursuers is the newly-awakened home run power of the Detroit lineup which has accounted for seven four-ply swats in the last five tilts.

It was the old Gopher ball that ruined the Yankees yesterday in the first game after they had rallied for three runs in the eighth inning at the stadium. The largest weekday crowd of the season, 51,511, (44,705) watched in awe as Eddie Mayo unloaded a three-run homer off Floyd Bevens, the Yank ace who had been called on to relieve Milkman Jim Turner.

After absorbing that disheartening 10-7 pasting in the opener after they thought they had it put away, the Yanks found the Bengals' weakness in the second game. Lefty Joe Page, good enough to make the 1944 all-star team but later shuffled back to the minors, hurled his first complete game of the year, a gaudy three-hit effort that completely bamboozled the leaders, 5-1.

St. Louis and Washington muffed a chance to gain when they split a pair at Griffith Stadium, the Senators taking the opener, 2-1, in 11 innings on Mickey Haefner's five-hitter. Washington had the other half all wrapped up to take home when Lou Finney tied it up with a homer in the ninth and the Browns finally won out, 4-3, in the 10th on Vern Stephens' triple and Mark Christmas's single.

Boston all but eliminated Cleveland from serious contention by beating Bobby Feller, 2-1, in the first of two although the Tribe bounced back behind Allie Reynolds, 5-2 for an even break.

Chicago took both ends of a twi-night double from Philadelphia, rounding out a complete twin bill program in the American, swamping the A's, 15-6, and skinning through, 6-5, in 14 innings.

Lefty Ray Prim and Claude Pastreau boosted the Chicago Cubs' National League advantage to 4 1-2 lengths by whipping the New York Giants, 5-2 and 10-2, in opening a long final stand against the invading eastern teams.

Harry (the Cat) Breehen, St. Louis Cardinals' left-hander and top hurler in the National loop, earned his 11th victory to three setbacks, by dumping Boston, 4-2.

Brooklyn widened its third place margin over New York to three games by nosing out Pittsburgh, 5-3, on Goody Rosen's 10th homer with Vic Lombardi on base in the 10th frame.

Chickannat gave Mike Modak his first big league decision, 1-0, at the Phillies' expense but the Reds bowled, 8-4, to Charley Schanz in the afterdark half.

Yesterday's results:

Tennessee Ramblers
Here In Person

Friday is the day folks, September 7 Early Friday morning the big trucks carrying the tent, seats and other equipment required for the Dixie Hayride, big tent show, will roll into Greenville and down to the Hickinson Avenue show grounds, and at once the tent crew will start unloading and setting up the big water-proof tent and placing the two thousand seats for the entertainment, which comes highly recommended as one of the most entertaining performances on the road today.

Jack Gillette and his Tennessee Ramblers are the feature attraction of the show. The Tennessee Ramblers have just recently returned from "Hollywood" where they have just completed their fourteenth movie, and they are scheduled to return to the coast in November for another picture.

For twelve years the Tennessee Ramblers have been on the road and in movies, having worked with Gene Autry, Tex Ritter, Lulu Belle and Scotty and many others, and they have been on the air from WBT and WBT as well as dozens of other stations.

Busy Elders, Don White, Ray Atkins, and Happy Sam Fowler also are among the outstanding entertainers to be seen and heard.

Your favorite movie star, Donald Duck will also be heard, the voice being furnished by Ray Atkins.

A good time is assured for all, remember the date, it is Friday September 7th, this week.

Phantoms In Season's Opener Friday Night

Will Play Goldsboro There At Eight O'Clock; Next Four Games Here

By T-BONE WILLIAMS

For the first contest of their 1945 gridiron season Coach Snag Clark's Flying Phantoms travel to Goldsboro tomorrow night to attack the Class A Goldsboro Earthquakes in a hard hitting football game. Coach Clark said today that the ability of the Goldsboro squad is unknown to the Phantoms, so he could give no predictions on the outcome of the game. He knows that his boys will be in there fighting to the last minute of the game.

Coach Clark has been whipping his teams into shape for the last two weeks. The last few days have been used for building a passing attack and scrimmaging. He has picked from his squad of boys two teams in which he has faith that they will come through with a victory. The teams have not yet been announced, but Harrington, Futrell, and Morgan will be pushing the Phantoms toward a victory with their passing, running, and kicking. With 16 lettermen back from last year the Phantoms will be out for blood.

After traveling to Goldsboro the Phantoms stay in their own backyard for four games. The Phantoms have a heavy schedule this year with Winston, New Bern, Elizabeth City, LaGrange and Goldsboro.

ASKS SUPPORT FOR FARMERS

Truman Seeks to Prevent Postwar Price Collapse

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—President Truman called upon Congress today for stronger measures to prevent the same kind of farm-price collapse that followed World War I.

Shortly after that war ended and foreign markets dwindled away, agricultural prices dropped 50 per cent. This brought economic disaster to thousands of farmers.

Today Mr. Truman recommended specifically that $500,000,000 in Lend-Lease funds be transferred to the Agriculture Department and spent for supporting farm prices. He also asked that additional funds be voted for financing foreign relief shipments of food.

The President urged Congress to appropriate $1,900,000,000 for use of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration. The bulk of this money would be used for buying American food for aid of the hungry abroad.

Cutbacks in military requirements and termination of the Lend-Lease program have reduced non-civilian demands for food roughly $4,000,000,000 for the fall, winter and spring ahead.

This reduction in non-civilian requirements coupled with prospects that Americans themselves may demand less during the reconversion period, due to unemployment, has raised the possibility that the government may have to step in to prevent a possible decline in farm prices below government guaranteed levels.

"Strengthening the machinery for carrying out price support commitments is one measure necessary to safeguard farm prices," Mr. Truman said in a message to Congress.

"Stimulation of the export farm commodities is another. More food is needed in the war-ravaged area of the world. In the process of meeting relief requirements abroad, we have the opportunity of developing export markets for the future."

The chief executive offered no specific proposals for strengthening price supporting machinery, except those pertaining to the Lend-Lease and UNRRA funds. Congress has directed that farm prices be supported at not less than 90 per cent of parity for two years after war's end is declared officially.

Mr. Truman said that because of great demands for food abroad, the Agriculture Department is planning for another year of full production in 1946. This does not mean, he explained, that the same volume of production for each individual crop will be sought. He said, however, that the total acreage will not be greatly different from this year.

Surrender Papers Enroute To Capital

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—The official Japanese surrender documents were en route today to Washington.

A plane bearing the documents, signed aboard the battleship Missouri, in Tokyo Bay last Saturday, is due in the capital late in the day from the west coast, it was learned. The papers presumably will be turned over to President Truman in a formal ceremony within a day or two.

Give Plan For . . .

"5. Business personnel, offices and government employment agencies must operate to bring jobs and job hunters quickly together. Adequate benefits must be provided during the unavoidable period of unemployment.

"6. Controls on many materials must be released so that they can find their way quickly into peace time uses.

"7. Disrupting scrambles for very scarce materials and components must be prevented and for this reason some controls must still be maintained temporarily. Production of these scarce items must be pushed.

"8. The forces of deflation and inflation, both of which will be present during this difficult switch over period, must be checked by a firm policy of economic stabilization.

"9. Production of peace time merchandise and services must be started up again in private plants and in surplus plants disposed of by the government. In cases where plants are already in production, they must be expanded for new and bigger peace time markets."

REDUCTION IN CASUALTY LIST

Liberation Of Prisoners Cuts List Of Missing

Washington, Sept. 6—(AP)—The men who came back today gave America's war casualty wheel another spin in reverse.

Ghostlike, they emerged from the far-away valleys of Japanese prisoner of war camps where some of them had been held since the dark days of Bataan and Corregidor.

By today's official count, 3,485 missing army men who never had been listed as prisoners because nobody knew what happened to them, were removed from the missing rolls and restored to the liberated living.

An increase of 604 belated navy casualty reports offset this figure somewhat, however, and left the armed forces' combat casualty total for the war standing at 1,970,452. This was 83 less than last week's figure, and additional reports are yet to come.

Last week's total, marking the first reduction since the war started, was 274 below the previous week's.

Total casualties for the army now stand at 922,587, and for the navy 147,865.

A breakdown on army casualties and corresponding figures for last week:

Killed 203,379 and 201,126; wounded 571,880 and 571,346; missing 27,976 and 31,461; prisoners 119,643 and 119,351.

The War Department said 358,880 of the wounded had returned to duty and 97,773 of the prisoners had been exchanged or returned to military control.

Corresponding figures for the navy:

Killed 53,617 and 53,359; wounded 79,672 and 79,843; missing 10,947 and 10,428; prisoners 3,629 and 3,631.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
