Investigative Committee Search For Missing File

Controversy Ahead Search For Reportedly Missing Record Of Japanese Broadcast Will Be Pushed As Pearl Harbor Committee Looks Into Other Intercepted Messages

By JACK BELL. Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Gen. Sherman Miles said today that army intelligence "very much feared" the Japanese would attack when they delivered their diplomatic note here at 1 p. m. December 7, 1941, but did not know where the attack was coming.

A Republican pushed the search today for the reportedly missing record of Japan's "winds" broadcast as the Pearl Harbor Committee ploughed deeply into other intercepted messages.

Rep. Keefe (R-Wis.) told a reporter he intends to ask Maj. Gen. Sherman Miles, former army intelligence chief, what he knows about the purported recording that Tokyo radio broadcast which Keefe said meant the war was on.

The Japanese prepared a code to signal their diplomats that a break with the United States was near. Committee members said there is dispute in official records of previous Pearl Harbor inquiries as to whether the message ever was sent whether it was recorded by American monitoring stations and whether copies of it were filed.

Senator Brewster (R-Me.) attempted unsuccessfully earlier to get the committee's permission to look at what he said he suspects may be a variant War Department file that might once have contained a copy of the message.

Keefe told a reporter he thinks General Miles can play an important part in giving us what knowledge he has of the disappearance of that message.

The Japanese had arranged in a document decoded and translated by the navy November 28, 1941, to insert in the middle of the daily Tokyo short wave radio news broadcast the words "East Wind Rain." They instructed their diplomats this was to be the signal that "Japan-U. S. relations in danger" and for them to destroy their codes.

Miles, a pipe-puffing, slow-swearing general who was relieved as intelligence chief January 30, 1942, and now is assigned to Boston, was called back to the staff today for further questioning. Gen. Harold G. Geill, one of the committee's attorneys.

Geill told newsmen he intends to ask Miles if the army intelligence network around the world "picked up any hints from any source that the Japanese planned to attack Pearl Harbor. Documents placed before the committee show that Miles reports to Gen. George C. Marshall, former chief of staff, contained no reference to any such possibility.

The counsel said he wants to know just what information was available to General Marshall and Adm. Harold R. Stark, then chief of naval operations, when they sent warning messages to American outposts commanders a week or less before the attack.

Controversy Ahead For Final Session

Scientist Says Russia May Be Able To Accumulate Bombs Rapidly

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Dr. Irving Langmuir predicted today that if an atomic armament race develops, Russia will produce its first atomic bomb in about three years and possibly accumulate them "far faster" than the United States.

- 1. "A larger population and it can be recruited.
2. "They have a remarkable succession of incentives which is rapidly increasing the efficiency of their industrial production.

Labor-Management Conference After Harmonious Action Today Sees Flare-Up In Points At Issue

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Labor-Management conference turned today from harmonious action on agreed upon declarations to final sessions threatening to flare into controversy over points still at issue.

Chief among the latter is the relation of wages to the storm of reconversion labor disputes. This point was raised by CIO President Philip Murray whose unions already have come to grips over it with the auto and steel industries.

Murray has indicated he will raise the wage issue on the conference floor if it is not disposed of to his satisfaction in a final session of the executive committee.

Murray is a member of the group, but the unanimity rule, which he and other labor and management delegates suddenly endorsed yesterday at the request of John L. Lewis, may block any agreement. That would prevent Murray from fighting from the conference floor for a declaration in favor of substantial pay increases to offset losses of high wartime earnings.

Ira Moser, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, told reporters after yesterday's session at which points in agreements were cleared speedily and harmoniously.

"You heard the constructive side of the conference today. Tomorrow you'll hear about what we didn't agree on."

There were plenty of these items. Three of the six working committees which had been assigned topics on the original agenda were unable to agree and wanted to offer split reports.

They were the committees on collective bargaining, management's right to manage, and union jurisdictional disputes.

At yesterday's meeting the first joint conference split up into committees. November 7, the 36 labor and management delegates unanimously adopted reports of three committees.

One called for the strengthening of the U. S. conciliation service in the Labor Department, with additional funds to be requested from Congress.

The other two ruled out strikes or lockouts until "all other peaceful procedures" such as voluntary arbitration had been tried in negotiations. Initial contracts or in resolving disputes over present ones.

France Refusing To Accept Blame

Paris, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The French foreign office refused today to accept American blame for occupation difficulties in Germany. Paris news papers echoed the sentiment.

A foreign office spokesman characterized as unjustified the criticisms of Gen. Eisenhower and Byron Price, special investigator for President Truman. Both the Americans declared that French refusal to discuss plans for unifying Germany had blocked the work of the Allied Control Council in Berlin, where decisions must be unanimous.

The government spokesman said "We don't want a centralized Germany that includes the Ruhr and the Rhineand All the Byron Prices in the world won't change that."

Suicide Attempts By War Prisoners

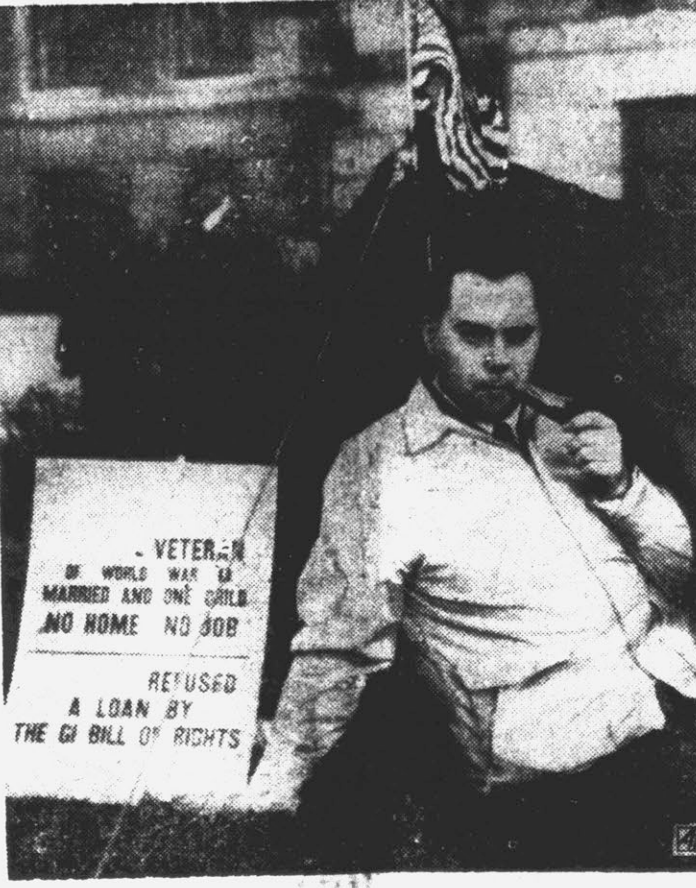

Stockholm, Nov. 30.—(AP)—In one barracks in Stockholm 60 or more Germans formed tight-packed groups and the Swedish police had to charge the leader, a Captain Kuhn, plunging a knife into his breast and several others followed the example. Others shouted "Stab me, stab me here."

Bloody scenes were reported from another camp where 167 Estonians, Latvians and Lithuanians as well as 500 Germans were quartered. Ambulance crews removed more than 70 Germans who wounded themselves. Some internees tore away their clothing. More were taken than were clothed when they were bundled into transports.

At another camp at Backamo, 100 German officers barricaded themselves and began a mass suicide attempt. Police and soldiers charged the camp and had to club many unconscious, to prevent further self-mutilation.

Republican Group Says Will Express Own View

Group Of Republicans Young In Congress Serves Notice They Will Not Let Party Leaders Speak For Them

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST. Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A group of House Republicans young in Congress served notice today they intend to express their own views on major matters and not let party leaders speak for them.

A carefully worded statement signed by 35 members whose service started with the last Congress made no reference to any rift. But several members of the group told a reporter privately that one has developed between the younger and older Republicans.

Made public by Rep. Augustus W. Bennett of New York, the statement called for non-partisanship in the current Pearl Harbor investigation and in consideration of universal training proposals now under study. It said the group believed an expression on those two subjects is appropriate at this time.

The purpose of the statement, several signers said privately, is to dispel any idea that veteran House Republicans whose views frequently received attention reflect the sentiments of the entire Republican House delegation.

"Only if the investigation is conducted fearlessly and without favor, prejudice or partisanship will the effort be justified and the findings be accepted."

The question of universal military training requested by President Truman, the group said, should be conducted fearlessly and without favor, prejudice or partisanship will the effort be justified and the findings be accepted."

Today In Congress

By MAX HALL

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Republicans on the Pearl Harbor Committee turned their attention today to the Japanese code signal "east wind, rain," and a record they say they suspect is missing from army files.

Evidence has shown that the Japanese planned to broadcast the phrase from Tokyo as a signal the war was near. Republican committee members have said they were told the broadcast was actually made but the U. S. Army intercepted it, and that a record of this later vanished.

Rep. Frank Keefe (R-Wis.) told a reporter today he will quiz Maj. Gen. Sherman Miles about the missing file of army intelligence at the time of Pearl Harbor.

Meanwhile, 39 other Republican representatives joined in a statement calling for non-partisanship in the Pearl Harbor inquiry and also in consideration of universal military training.

These members, all of whom entered Congress within the last several years, declared they intend to speak for themselves on those and other matters, and don't intend to let veteran Republicans speak for them.

The unusual statement said the Pearl Harbor inquiry won't be justified unless it is conducted "fearlessly and without favor, prejudice or partisanship."

It said, "We emphatically reject any suggestion that our government should have acquiesced in Japan's program of aggression."

In the Pearl Harbor investigation, Republicans and Democrats on the committee have frequently criticized one another. Democrats have stated that the Republican members are seeking to place blame on the late President Roosevelt and the State Department.

Lindbergh Is Named This War Mitchell

Member Of House Declares Charles Lindbergh Is The Billy Mitchell Of This War And Asks Restoration

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Rep. Mason (R-Ind.) declared today that Charles A. Lindbergh "is the Billy Mitchell of this war" and demanded restoration of the Army Air Force reserve commission Lindbergh resigned after a dispute with President Roosevelt in 1941.

Mason asserted that Lindbergh "shot down several enemy planes" while making test flights as a civilian expert in the Southwest Pacific and should be awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for his work in that theater.

"Lindbergh is exactly in the same status as the late General Billy Mitchell" who was dead 20 years before the wrong that was done to him was corrected," Mason told a reporter.

"I am hopeful that this will be specified without legislation, and that is why I am calling it to the attention of the public and Congress at this time."

"However, if something isn't done voluntarily I propose to introduce legislation to clear Colonel Lindbergh and restore his commission."

Mason added he would wait "probably until January" before taking any action.

The Army Air Forces had no comment. Lindbergh, a colonel, gave up his commission in April 1941, during a clash with the administration over foreign policy.

At a White House news conference Mr. Roosevelt rebuked the flier for a series of speeches he made, and the resignation followed.

Mason earlier this week said in a Congressional Record statement: "Ford took Lindbergh on in spite of White House opposition and Lindbergh went to the Southwest Pacific to test war planes under actual combat conditions."

ABC Officers Raid Still In Country

Pitt County ABC officers J. M. Ward and J. L. Taylor Thursday afternoon seized a 100-gallon galvanized type still in operation together with 200 gallons molasses and cornmeal mash. The still was complete with cap and copper condenser and oil burners. The still was located in the Pacolus township section of Pitt County. Seven gallons of freshly made spirits and 20 gallons of molasses were destroyed with the distillery and other equipment. The operator of the distillery made good his escape. Officers thought that they were board going through the thick underbrush which warned the operator.

Hurley Not For Secret Sessions

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The House committee investigating un-American activities voted today to (call) Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley to testify on his assertions that Communist forces had operated in the State Department.

Chairman Wood (D-Ga.) told newsmen Hurley would be asked to appear Monday.

He said the hearing would be a closed one, but added that it would be opened to the public later "if General Hurley does not object."

The resigned ambassador to China has said he would appear at public hearing that is afforded me access to testify privately when he makes a tentatively scheduled appearance next Wednesday before the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee.

Churchill made a daring challenge—daring because it is one from which there is no retreat—when he defined the issue as that of "The people versus the Socialists."

He put it in this grim fashion: "The vote of the electors at the general election was one of the greatest disasters that has smitten this country through its long and chequered history. x x x I foresee with sorrow but without fear, that in the next few years we shall come to fundamental quarrels in this country. Gigantic Corporation Unwilling At Present To Reopen Wage Discussion With Strikers But Agrees To Discuss Strike With Government Conciliator

By ASSOCIATED PRESS. General Motors is not ready to reopen wage negotiations with the CIO United Auto Workers, but the corporation has agreed to discuss the union's strike with a government conciliator.

GM Vice-President Harry W. Anderson will meet with Edgar L. Werren, U. S. conciliation service chief, in Washington Tuesday.

Anderson expressed the hope Secretary of Labor Schwelben may find time to attend the meeting. Earlier this week Schwelben and Warren met with union officials.

GM stood firm in its refusal to negotiate until the union modified its 30 per cent wage rate increase request and halts what the company termed "illegal picketing" of GM plants. The company's president, Charles E. Wilson, said the picketing issue would be discussed at a meeting between company and union representatives today, the first such conference since the walkout began Nov. 21.

A $100 reward was offered by the UAW-CIO at Saginaw for the arrest and conviction of persons responsible for throwing bricks through a window at the home of one GM executive, and rolling a log against the door of another. The union disclaimed any responsibility.

Altogether, 225,000 GM employees were idle, including 50,000 white collar workers kept away from their jobs by picketing. Production was stalled in 79 GM plants.

CIO representatives of employees of Montgomery Ward and Company in Chicago have agreed to meet with company representatives to discuss a proposed 60 cents an hour minimum wage.

The present minimum was increased from 45-1-2 to 52-1-2 cents November 26. The mail order house announced an increase to 60 cents, effective December 13, for its non-union employes in Chicago, and said it would like to meet with the union to discuss writing a similar union to a contract covering CIO members. No date for the meeting has been set.

A "demonstration" one-week work stoppage against Ward plants in many parts of the country is scheduled to continue through tomorrow. The CIO United Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Employes has said it would call similar strikes from time to time to support its demands for a closed shop, check-off of union dues and wage adjustments. Ward properties in 19 cities are affected in the present stoppage, the union claims.

More settlements on the basis of a 15-cent hourly pay raise were under way in the nine-week-old Pacific Northwest Lumber dispute. An early breakup of the strike of 60,000 AFL Lumbermen's Union was foreseen. On President Truman's orders, the Office of Defense Transportation yesterday seized the Great Lakes Towing Company of Cleveland. The concern is involved in a labor dispute.

If You're Told To Move

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—So the landlord wants you to get out. If he says so, here's the best advice. Check immediately with the OPA rental director in your area.

There are general OPA rules on vacating applying to the whole country. The rules and time limit vary a bit from area to area.

In addition, there are local laws on evictions. They, too, vary. Some say a landlord can't evict within 30 days, some more.

In a certain case in a certain place, local law may say a landlord can evict in 30 days. But the OPA director may rule in that case—or that kind of case—that he can't evict for six months. His rule sticks.

Remember: Veterans who are landlords get special consideration from OPA and local courts when they want to occupy a house they own. There are two main groups of landlords:

- 1. Those who owned the property in which you live before OPA regulations went into effect in that area.
2. Those who bought the property after that date.

If the landlord (not a veteran) wants to occupy the property himself but has no urgent need for doing so, in most areas he'll have to wait six months. In some places it will be three months.

He must get from the OPA director a certificate of eviction. The director will send a copy to you. Depending on the area, the director will see that you don't have to move for three or six months.

But suppose the landlord says he wants you out because he urgently needs the place for his own occupancy. In that case he must notify you and file a copy of the notice with OPA.

In such a case the OPA doesn't have anything further to do with the matter.

If you don't believe the landlord's story of urgency and refuse to move he'll have to go to a local court to force you out. There he'll have to prove his urgency. If the court believes him, it will set a date for you to move. This date will depend on local law, not OPA.

So far all this involves a landlord who is not a veteran.

A veteran doesn't need an urgent reason if he wants you to vacate so he can move into his own property. If he owned the property before OPA regulations in that area went into effect.

If you try to fight him in court, he doesn't have to prove there—as a non-veteran landlord would— (Continued on Page Four) of Harvey Rambout son of Mrs. Penny Rambout and the late Mr. Rambout of Ayden in an impressive candlelight service at the home of the bride, Mrs. W. Turner of Edenton officiating using the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Lola Peelle Stephenson of Wilcox Springs cousin of the bride. She wore a dress of soft brown crepe and a corsage of yellow starlight roses.

The selections played were "Melody Lane" by Engelmann and "Evening Star" by Wagner. As the vows were being spoken "I Love You Truly" by Carole Jacobs Bond was played softly. The traditional wedding marches of Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used for the professional and recessional.

The ceremony was performed in the living room before an improvised altar in front of the mantel which had been arranged with pines and ivy. Sherwood and Gerald Langdon, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles which burned in candelabras on the mantel and piano. Tall baskets of fern and gladioli were used on each side of the altar.

The bride and bridegroom entered together. The bride was lovely in a two-piece suit of neutral with aqua blouse and hat and black accessories. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls and her corsage was of Talsman roses.

Mr. Rambout has recently been discharged from the United States Army after serving more than two years in the South Pacific.

After a bridal tour to unannounced points Mr. and Mrs. Rambout will be at home at Coats.

Athenium Club

Mrs. James Perkins entertained the Athenium Book Club at her home on West Fourth street at 1 o'clock on Tuesday.

A beautifully appointed luncheon was served to the members and guests, who were Mrs. James Hawes Mrs. S. T. White, Mrs. Aubrey Shaeckel, Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Mrs. Janie Hall, Mrs. Joe Moyer and Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Roland of Washington, N. C.

A business meeting was held at which time the club voted to contribute to the Christmas stocking fund for bed ridden patients in the hospital in Camp Lejeune. Mrs. James Hall, in her own clever style, gave the program. Her topic was "Famous Stories of By-Gone Days in Pitt County." These stories were all true stories which Mrs. Hall had heard at her mother's knee and they rivaled the modern true stories in their splendor. With many thanks for a lovely luncheon and program the club adjourned.—Reported.

USO NOTES AND NOTICES

A "dress-up dance" from nine to twelve tomorrow night will mark the end of the Thanksgiving season programs at the USO. A special afternoon and evening "open house" was held on Thanksgiving Day with 72 service men and a number of junior and senior hostesses coming in during the day. A turkey dinner was served on Sunday night at the usual supper hour to approximately 80 of the turkeys for this being given by Mrs. Louis Skinner.

Two other special gifts which have come to the Club recently indicate the wide range of USO interests and activities. The End of the Century Club gave a number of sturdy tea towels hand-initialed with the letters "U. S. O." An oil painting of Washington's Mill was sent by Mrs. L. H. Jones of Florida, whose son was a frequent visitor at the club when he was stationed at Camp Le-jeune. Both gifts were happily received, and are now contributing to the club's general program and facilities, each in its own way.

Speaking of gifts brings up the Christmas Season. Plans are now being made for our celebration of Christmas at the Club, and any individuals or organizations in the city or community who would like to contribute in any way to this celebration are invited to call the club or any member of the USO executive committee. Plans for special programs include a formal dance on December 22nd, Christmas suppers on Sunday and Tuesday nights and breakfast on Christmas morning, with special radio program on Sunday night and open house on Christmas eve.

Last year Christmas was a very festive season at the club, with decorations and goodies and various provisions contributed by numerous organizations and individuals throughout the community. We hope that this Christmas many another occasion long and happily remembered by the service men and all others who in any way have a part in its celebration here at the Community USO.

Christmas Club Is Real Santa Claus

By CHESTER WALSH

When Santa Claus paraded past the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Greenville on Evans Street this afternoon clerks were mailing out checks totalling $30,000 to hundreds of members of the 1945 Christmas Savings Club. The checks ranged in amounts from $12.50 to $250 each. Many of the Christmas Club members had several accounts. The members deposit weekly from 25 cents to $5 during the year and they don't miss it. When the first of December rolls around the First Federal Savings and Loan Association mails the Christmas checks and the money they need for Christmas causes children and grownups alike to believe that there "really is a Santa Claus," said Secretary-Treasurer A. C. Tadlock today.

The Christmas Savings Club had had wonderful growth and increase in memberships and deposits. It was started in 1937, when deposits totalled $1,600. There was a steady increase during the years. Last year the Christmas Savings Club distributed $18,000 shortly before Christmas. This year the increase in members brought the total amount to $30,000, an increase of 40 per cent.

The Christmas Club provides a sure way to have money when you need it most—"at Christmas time. Money for the holidays. Money to help you enjoy a "Paid For Christmas." Money to take care of those ever increasing year-end bills, taxes, mortgage interest, insurance premiums, etc. New memberships in the Christmas Club are being received now. You may join the class best suited to meet your needs. Your first payment makes you a member. You will not miss the small weekly payments. Mr. Tadlock said.

Local Draft Boards Give Consideration

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—Selective service has suggested that local draft boards give "serious consideration" to deferring men engaged in the study or teaching of physical sciences or engineering.

In order to qualify, the men must obtain a certification from the Office of War Mobilization and Conversion that their work is "essential to the national interest."

The suggested deferrals will include restrictions concerning with physical sciences or engineering as Jinx Coffeyville, Kas., Nov. 30—(AP)—Treat or no treat Leo Knight has reached the conclusion that one of his stoves has been an ill omen and has decided to dispose of it.

Last June the kerosene stove exploded and set the house afire. Knight then moved the stove to his garage. Now Knight reports that it has exploded a second time causing a fire that did $300 damage to building and contents.

No Doubt Bethany, Mo., Nov. 30—(AP)—Deputies at the office of the County Recorder expect a man in uniform to present a discharge for recording when he comes through the door, but they were unprepared for Capt. Clarence P. Baker's action.

Captain Baker presented them with seven discharges, all his own. He is being retired from the Army after 23 years of service which he began as a private.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

BETTER THINK OF HEAVEN

Fear has its place in life, and because it has its place in life it has its place in religion. But fear can very easily become morbid. When it does, it inflicts immeasurable injury on mind and spirit.

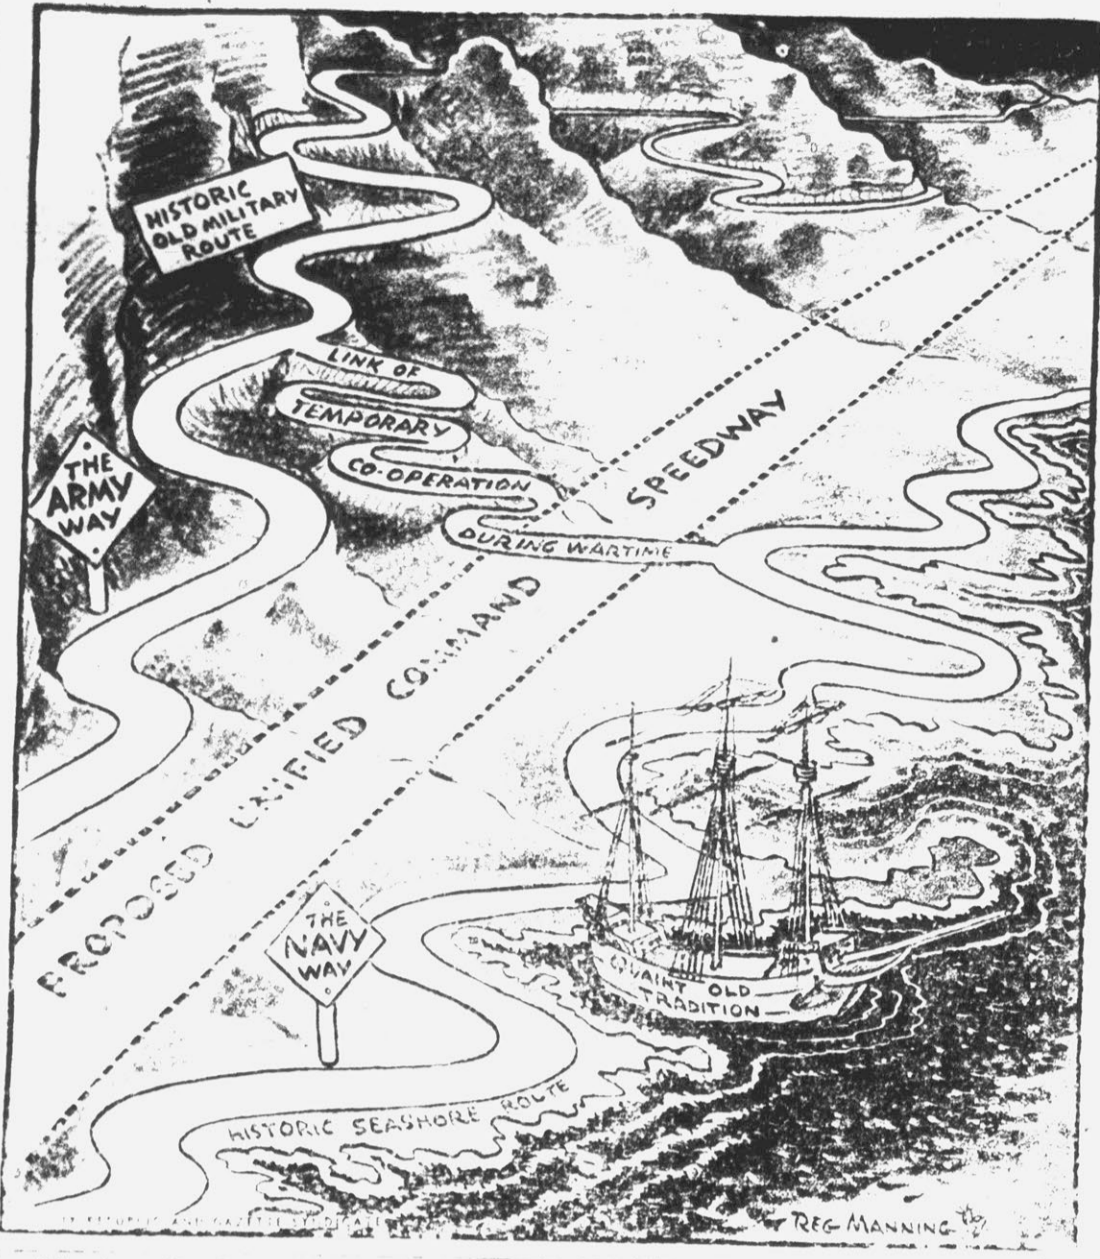

An outstanding fear which through the ages has plagued the soul of man is the fear of hell. Said the wholesome-minded Sir Thomas Browne centuries ago: "I was never afraid of hell nor ever grew pale at the description of that place. I have so fixed my contemplation on heaven that I have almost forgot the idea of hell, and am afraid rather to lose the joys of the one than endure the misery of the other."

I fear God, yet am not afraid of Him. His mercies made me ashamed of my sins before. I am scarcely afraid thereof. I even secretly think that there was ever any scared into heaven they go the fairest way to heaven they go, they would serve God without a hell. Other mercies, that which crouch before Him in fear of hell, though they term themselves His servants, are indeed but the slaves of the Almighty.

This wholesome old teacher was correct in these matters. The thing to fear is not hell, but the domination of sin which leads men into hell. A contemplation of the rewards of good living will do some much more good than morbid thinking about pain and punishment.

New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Republican group in the House today brought the property rights bill, the OPA extension bill, and the OPA regulations in that order before the House.

Suppose he would you get out of the house, such a large number of OPA extension bills will be introduced here you may go to it.

In the case of a non-veteran landlord, it will be three to six months. In the case of a veteran who is a new landlord—or in a hardship case—the OPA director may eliminate part of the waiting period.

Before a new landlord applies for an eviction certificate, he must prove he made a down payment of at least 20 per cent on the property. This requirement may be waived in the case of a veteran who is a new landlord.

remembered that in the past of the Laborites, a new party has been formed to take the place of the Labor party. So the Labor movement mandate comes in part from those who previously voted the Conservative ticket.

Heavenly, there is a whole story. There is an extension of the wing of British Socialism, which is a part of the full participation of the population. Churchill's speech is a warning of the enthusiastic support of the Conservative press. Still, there are no signs of a new party.

The National Labor Relations Board will have more than 100,000 cases of unfair labor practices. A 25 per cent increase in the number of cases will be handled in the year which the Commission are to be set up.

Yamashita Offers To Punish Subordinates

Manila, Nov. 30 (AP)—Lt. Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita told his trial court today that he not only never authorized his subordinates to commit atrocities in the Philippines, but if the present situation will permit, I will punish them to the fullest extent of military law.

Yamashita's declaration was made in a 45-minute address to the U. S. military commission trying him on war-crimes charges. He added that he had inferior troops who badly needed training and discipline—which, under pressure of attack by superior American forces, he had no time to administer.

BASKETEERS BEGIN WORK

Phantom Cage Team Began Practice Wednesday

By DAVE CLARK
Coach Bo Farley opened basketball practice last Wednesday for his 1945-46 edition of the Green Phantoms. The Phantoms begin their season on December 14 by meeting the Class A Wilmington quint in the local gym.

With six lettermen returning from the crack 1944-45 aggregation, prospects for one of the best teams in GHS history are in the making. The returning lettermen are Jimmy Fattrell, Billy Harrington, J. T. Williams, Mac Batchelor, Jack Whitehead, and Julian White. The first four named were starters during last season.

This year the Greenies return to the Class B conference which was abandoned in 1942 because of war time restrictions and should be one of the leading contenders for the conference title. Included in the league are: Kinston, Tarboro, New Jern, Elizabeth City, Washington, Roanoke Rapids, and Greenville.

Boys who have reported for practice are: Billy Harrington, Mac Batchelor, J. T. Williams, Julian White, Jack Whitehead, Ed Williams, Dave Jones, Shelby Beard, Graham Baker, Clotas Jackson, Rex Guthrie, Marcel Humber, James Crawford, and Dave Clark. Jimmy Fattrell, Henry Turner, Billy White, and Doug Guthrie were not present because of illness.

Football

Richmond, Nov. 30 (AP)—A good many observers of the football scene have a feeling that it will not be too much of a surprise if Coach Carl Smith's football team of the University of Virginia when the two teams clash tomorrow afternoon at Chapel Hill, N. C.

It is the contention of those dopsters that the 19-13 upset handed the Cavaliers last week in Washington by Maryland may have weakened the morale of the Virginia team vitating, to some extent the fire and fervor which keeps a winning combination going ahead.

The experts also point out that the Cavaliers have lost a considerable portion of their driving force with the loss of Johnny Duda, their high scorer, Henry Walker, all-star end, and the wakening by injuries of Charlie Ellis, the Cavalier's great field general and the "brain" behind most of Virginia's successes in the past two seasons.

Completing Saturday's card are two Southern Conference titles. Maryland's clash with South Carolina at Columbia, S. C., and Wake Forest's against the Clemson Tigers in their last at Clemson, S. C.

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
New York, Nov. 30 (AP)—Army will defeat Navy in Saturday's service clash at Philadelphia in the opinion of this corner, whose guessing average for the season is 786.

The Cadets seeking their eighteenth consecutive grid victory and the second straight over the arch enemies from Annapolis, should triumph by a four touchdown margin, approximately 35 to 7.

That gives Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard, Army's atomic twins, a chance for two touchdowns each and a lone tally for one of their teammates. Navy should score once but the Midshipmen definitely are cruising for a bruising.

Here, the final trip out on the football limb:

Baylor-Rice: Rice's Owls, upset by a 14 to 13 margin last week in the fray with Texas Christian, will come back to spill the Bears. Rice, Clemson - Wake Forest: Ralph Jenkins, Clemson's great center, to guide his mates to an unbeaten Southern Conference season. Clemson.

Georgia-Georgia Tech: Too much Charlie Trippi. Georgia Tech to ruin Eli Coach Howie Odell's birthday. Harvard.

Mississippi State-Alabama: Harry Gilmer, Vaughn Mancha & Co. will enter the Rose Bowl as an undefeated outfit. Alabam.

UCLA-Southern California: The Trojans will earn the right in this one to oppose Alabama at Pasadena on Jan. 1. Southern California.

Finishing the rest in a hurry. Notre Dame over Great Lakes. Oregon over Oregon State; St. Mary's Pre-Flight over California; Texas Christian over Southern Methodist; Maryland over South Carolina; Tennessee over Vanderbilt; Virginia over North Carolina; Miami over Auburn (tonight).

Last week's record: 21 correct, 7 incorrect; average 750.

Season's record: 309 correct, 83 incorrect; average 768.

HASN'T FELT BETTER IN YEARS; THANKS RETONGA

He Would Hate To Think Of Anyone Suffering More Distress From Acid Indigestion, Says Mr. Johnson. Pains And Aches In Muscles Also Promptly Relieved.

Retonga has been worth so much to me that I would not be without it, declares Mr. D. D. Johnson, well known resident of 24 Blossfield Street, Macon, Ga., and plant counter at one of Macon's big textile mills. Discussing Retonga he explains:

I would hate to think of anyone suffering more distress from acid indigestion. Gas in my stomach bothered me up sometimes until I felt like my breath would stop. For months I didn't know what a restful night's sleep was. I felt full of toxic poisons from constipation and at times I ached so from head to foot that I felt like every joint in my body would pop open. The pains in my legs and ankles often were so severe I could hardly stand up.

"The relief Retonga gave me surpasses anything in my experience. I eat three good meals a day, sleep as sound as a long and I even feel good after a hard day's work. The constipation and pains and aches are fully relieved and I don't think I have felt better in ten years. Retonga is a grand medicine."

Retonga is a purely herbal stomachic medicine combined with liberal quantities of Vitamin B-1 and is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of gastric juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Bissette's Drug Store—Adv.

Salute to American Women

Clara Barton saved the lives of many sick and wounded soldiers during the Civil War. In World War II, millions of women were trained for war service. Some as nurses served on far-flung battle fronts, others as volunteers worked in civilian and military hospitals aiding busy nurses and entertaining convalescent servicemen. Many women studied nutrition, learning the vital importance of food to health. We are proud that the loaf we bake is worthy to take its place as a staple food vital for good nutrition and always enjoyed.

College Delegation To Raleigh Meeting

East Carolina Teachers College sent 17 delegates to the ninth annual North Carolina Student Legislative Assembly, which began its deliberations in the Hall of the House in Raleigh this afternoon at two o'clock with Governor Cherry, Secretary of State Thad Eure, and Chancellor J. W. Harrelson of State College as principal speakers. The Student Assembly is said to be the largest state-wide forensic event to be held in the United States during 1945. Present for the session, which will continue until 1:00 o'clock on Saturday, are about 160 delegates from colleges and universities throughout the state. Delegates from the college are divided into two groups, one serving in the Senate and one in the House. Representing the college in the Senate are Winfield Carter of Greenville, Elsie West of Roxboro, Freda Caudell of Bule's Creek, Mary Young Bass of Enfield, Katie Earle Owen of Roseboro and A. Frances Banks of Elizabeth City. House members are Mary Cameron Dixon of Wilmington, Martha Strawn of Concord, Erma Hinnant of Pikeville, Christine Bowen of Ahsokie, John Johnson of Raleigh, Sara McKenzie of Orrum, Christine Yarborough of Prospect Hill, John Charlton of Barracksville, W. Va., Margaret Hall of Woodsdale, Daisy Steel of Witon, and Betty Jervis of Norfolk, Va. The students from East Carolina Teachers College were elected to their posts by the Student Cooperative Council. They plan to introduce four bills in the House. Established in 1937 by Prof. Edwin H. Paget of State College, the Student Legislative Assembly has been a successful venture. Similar bills to those introduced by students at their legislature have later been introduced and acted upon in the state law-making body and in Congress. East Carolina Teachers College has sent delegates for several years, and these representations have brought up bills for consideration by the whole body. Dr. Paul Toll of the faculty accompanied the students to Raleigh.

A request that the government divulge the circumstances leading to war was voiced in the House of Peers by Mitsuo Miyata, who said: "The Japanese nation was betrayed by a small number of leaders in just the same way as the United States was betrayed by Japanese militarists at Pearl Harbor."

Alfred Jodl. A tentative plan to assassinate French Marshal Maxime Weygand after the fall of France was discussed by German military leaders but was not carried out. General Lahousen said. The assassination was suggested by Field Marshal Keitel, one of the defendants, to prevent the possibility of formation of a resistance movement around the French military leader, he said. Polish uniforms were provided by the counter intelligence section to outfit Germans for a make attack on a German radio station at Gliwiz, thus providing an incident which Hitler used as one of the excuses for invading Poland, Lahousen testified.

(Continued from Page One) signed, and that he wished to continue on trial with his fellow Nazis. Hess declared that he had feigned loss of memory, even to his own attorney, "for tactical reasons." The court adjourned for the day without announcing a ruling on the mental fitness of the former No. 2 deputy Fuehrer, whom Allied psychiatrists have reported sane, but suffering from hysteria. Hess' case was brought up after a surprise German witness testified that Germany's leading spy expert long plotted against Hitler and finally was executed in 1944 after the failure of the bomb plot against the Fuehrer.

Richsmarshal Herman Goering glared intensely at the witness. Lahousen declared that "Canaris' group was opposed to terrorism, cruelty and concentration camps." American prosecutors were scheduled to open the third week of the trial Monday with presentation of evidence concerning the invasion of Czechoslovakia. If the schedule is followed, Sir Hartley Shawcross, chief British prosecutor, will begin the presentation Tuesday of Britain's case concerning aggression in Poland, Norway, the Balkans and the Low Countries. Following showing of motion pictures of German concentration camps yesterday, counsel for some of the Nazi defendants indicated they would plead that their clients had no knowledge of the concentration camp cruelties. Assistant U. S. Prosecutor Thomas J. Dodd told the court the prosecution intends to prove that each and everyone of these defendants knew of existing camps and deliberately used them to crush opposition.

Disposition Of Nazi Films Made in 1939

Washington, Nov. 30 (AP)—The Alien Property Custodian, James E. Markham, has got a bear—a Nazi bear by the tail. And he doesn't know what to do with it. It's all on account of a batch of German-made movies that flicker uneasily in the custodian's possession. About 1,150 of these features, shorts and travelogues were taken over along with a lot of other German knickknacks, after the war started. The question is: Should these Nazi-made films—all produced in 1939 or earlier—now be released for civilians to see?

War Responsibility Comes Before Diet

Tokyo, Nov. 30 (AP)—The big question of who was responsible for launching Japan on a disastrous war 'bbed up persistently today as the Diet charted an uneasy, uncertain

Private conversations of Hitler and top Nazi leaders were related before the International Military Tribunal today by a high German army officer, who quoted former Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop as saying "all terms" of Poles must be burned to the ground and all Jews killed" in the invasion of Poland.

The surprise witness, the first to testify at the trial of Von Ribbentrop and 19 other of Hitler's closest followers, was Maj. Gen. Erwin Lahousen, aid to Admiral Walter Wilhelm Canaris, German intelligence genius who was executed for participating in the unsuccessful bomb plot against Hitler in 1944. He said Canaris had planned to kill Hitler for years. The tall, bald general said Von Ribbentrop's statement was made September 12, 1939, at a meeting on Hitler's train, attended by former Canaris, Ribbentrop, Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel and Col. Gen.
