Relentless Hunt Nears Showdown

Police Possess Evidence Found In Apartment Basement In Which Child's Body Was Dismembered; Two Janitors Still In Custody For Questioning

Chicago, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Two apartment building janitors were held by the police for questioning today as investigators pressed their 48-hour hunt for the kidnap-killer of Suzanne Degnan, 6.

The janitors, against whom no charge or formal booking has been made are:

Hector Verburgh, 65, who tends three apartment buildings within a block of the Degnan home in one of which the police said was located a basement laundry room in which the foetus-like child was found.

Desere Smet, 35, who tends three other buildings in the neighborhood and is a close friend of Verburgh.

Verburgh, who was seized yesterday with his wife, Mary, lives at 1323 Thorndale Avenue, across the street from the Degnan home at 5943 Kenmore Avenue. The "murder room" so named by police was in the basement at 5901-03 Winthrop Avenue, an apartment building Verburgh tends but one block and a half from where he resides.

Tenants who have known Verburgh for years universally came to his defense, one stating "He's as harmless as a fly." Friends and relatives in St. Charles, Ill., where he formerly lived, likewise said "It just couldn't have been" Verburgh who committed the crime.

Verburgh, a native of Belgium, has been a Chicago janitor for 17 years. He has two daughters, four grandchildren, and several grandchildren.

Sgt. Hanahan said that in the furnace at 5901-03 Winthrop several small bones were also found, which might have been from the arms of the little Suzanne. All parts of the body except the arms were found on Monday night, more than 12 hours after the child was kidnapped by someone who left a $20,000 ransom note.

Also in the furnace room, police said they found a back saw which they said probably was the instrument used by the killer in dissecting the body of the blond, blue-eyed Suzanne, daughter of James E. Degnan, 36, an office of Price Administration official Dr. Jerry.

Form Organization For GI's Children

New York, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Miss Mary Rizzotto of Hingham, Mass., today said she had formed an organization to aid the illegitimate children of American soldiers abroad.

She announced at a press conference formation of the World Children's Foundation, a non-profit and charitable organization, chartered December 17 under Massachusetts law. Through it, she said, she hopes to care for the children and for their unwed mothers throughout Europe.

"Children of American GIs are walking the streets of Europe like derelicts, cold, hungry and homeless," she said. "There are thousands of them. There are 3,000 to 5,000 in Algeria alone. Another 3,000 in Italy. No agency is equipped to cope with the problem."

Suzanne Degnan (above), 6, was kidnapped from her home in Chicago January 7. Later her dismembered body was found by police. Suspects are under arrest.

COLLISION IN PRICE POLICY

Low Food Costs Versus Butter - Meat Prices Is New Issue

Washington, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Officially, advanced proposals for higher butter and meat prices collided today with government efforts to hold the line on food costs.

The butter hike—18 cents a pound by May 1—was reported to have been recommended by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson. Aides of the cabinet officer said he advanced the suggestion in a move to encourage production. Butter has been becoming increasingly hard to find in many parts of the country.

Anderson previously spoke out in favor of higher ceiling prices on meats in an effort to avert next Wednesday's scheduled strike in the meat packing industry.

Behind these pressures on the government's hold-the-line policy is a demand for all kinds of food much stronger than many officials had anticipated. Agriculture Department economists attribute the demand to continuing shortages of such non-food goods as autos, radios and the like.

One result of these pressures may be to force the administration to continue its $1,785,000,000-a-year food subsidy program beyond the June 30 date it had planned to bring to a halt. This program was inaugurated during the war to prevent increases in civilian food prices.

In announcing recently that the food subsidies would be ended June 30, the government said it believed such action could be taken without increasing the over-all cost of food, even though it might be necessary to increase ceilings on some of the presently subsidized foods. It said such increases in all likelihood at the same time has mental reservations regarding his pet sins which he isn't prepared to abandon. Selfish interests were developed in the league.

Now we are beginning a new effort to outlaw war, and the situation is far more dangerous than it was at the end of the last conflict. Both Europe and Asia are in that unhappy state of disorganization where anything could happen.

The whole world is looking to the U.N.O. Dispatches from London make it clear that the atomic bomb is leading the agenda. Well, all nations want the atomic bomb controlled, of course, but I venture the thought that probably they fear the distrust and suspicions which have been created by the existence of the bomb more than they do the terrible explosive power itself.

The distressed countries are looking to the new United Nations Organization to dispel the suspicions and iron out the difficulties which have been retarding the rehabilitation of Europe and Asia.

You can see with half an eye that the peace organization must swing into concerted action, quickly and firmly if Europe is to be saved from further calamity. A hungry, cold and ragged continent will tell you that.

ROAD PROGRAM PROMISED FOR NEAR FUTURE

Greatest Highway Construction Period In State's History Is Assured By Governor

Raleigh, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Governor Cherry said today that North Carolina must complete its road program so that every community and every section of the State is served by automotive transportation and declared that "we are presently entering upon the greatest highway construction period in the history of the State."

Speaking before the North Carolina Oil Jobbers Association, which is in session here, the governor said that according to estimates by Chairman A. H. Graham of the State Highway and Public Works Commission, expenditures on the highway program for the next three years will total approximately $100,000,000.

"It appears," Cherry said, "that all funds necessary to finance this enormous program are either on hand, starting with a reserve of more than $36,000,000 in the highway fund, or in sight through accumulating revenues and federal highway grants. Thus, we hope to be able to complete the entire construction and renovation of our highway system without increasing taxes by one penny or borrowing a single dollar."

He took occasion to re-emphasize the necessity of improving farm-to-market roads.

"As I see it," Cherry said, "the farm-to-market road is about as important to the city dweller as to the farmer. To a large extent, the cities and towns depend upon the rural areas surrounding them. The cities and the rural areas are interdependent, forming an economic unit. When we insist that our rural people be taken out of the mud by the improvement of farm-to-market roads, we are not only doing something for those who live in the country, but doing a great deal for the city and town people as well."

He commented that the progress and welfare of North Carolina are inseparably tied up with road improvement, and declared that the road system must be developed "to the point where conveying passengers

Death Toll Rises In Raging Flood

By ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Flood waters raging at the highest levels ever recorded in some sections of the South have brought death to at least 22 persons, caused multi-million dollar property damage, and left thousands homeless.

The death toll stood at eight in Tennessee, six in Kentucky, six in Arkansas and two in Georgia.

Torrential rains which have pounded the area for two days continued early today, but the weather bureau in Atlanta said the worst was over.

The number of homeless in Kentucky alone was estimated at 5,000 as conditions began improving in the stricken Big Sandy and Cumberland River valleys.

Six members of two families were drowned near Carthage, Tenn., in a futile effort to escape flood waters of Jennings Creek swirling around their homes.

At Little Rock, Ark., six passengers were killed last night when a taxicab plunged into the swollen waters of Rock Creek on the outskirts of town.

Rapidly rising waters in North Georgia claimed one life near Lafayette. Observers said the Etowah River was at the highest stage ever reached. The Atlanta weather bureau estimated the Coosa river would swell seven feet above its flood level of 25 feet by midnight Thursday.

State Agriculture officials said damage to corn and cotton crops in Tennessee totaled more than $1,000,000.

There is no country or people against whom these troops now waiting to go home have any strong feeling of hate. Otherwise, you could blow a bugle and they would fall patriotically into battle line.

Their demonstration against the War Department's contradictory rearmament policy is the result chiefly of lack of frankness on the part of higher leaders in Washington, who raised their hopes too high too fast. The natural reaction of disappointment over the new policy of retarding the demobilization rate has resulted in a mass hysteria of homesickness.

The troop demonstrations have been remarkably orderly because the men sensibly realize that any violence or insubordination en masse would lose them support at home. Yet such situations always are potentially explosive.

Many soldiers have joined them in a spirit of skylarking because the truth is that these men aren't being given enough work to keep them busy. They say so themselves. Most are well quartered, well fed and well entertained.

Only a comparative handful of combat veterans remains and a big proportion of the men attending the demonstrations admittedly are low points.

"But we all know that the sooner we get these 30 to 40-pointers home the sooner we can get out," grinned one young soldier who added, "I've only got 13 myself."

The sympathy of junior officers lies predominantly with the enlisted men because of this issue their interests are allied. They want to become civilians, too. Many older officers err by openly expressing contempt for the demonstrators.

The situation calls for tact, leadership and the fullest kind of frankness in high quarters. Otherwise everybody might be sorry.

Tobacco Allotment
Raleigh, Jan. 9.—An authorized increase of 10 per cent in flue-cured tobacco acreage in North Carolina for 1946 has been announced.

The new allotment will bring the state acreage from 749,141.7 acres in 1945 to 823,453.7 acres. The blanket increase authorized 34,312 acres of tobacco, 10,000 of which were announced by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson.

Suspensions Are Voiced In GI Demonstrations

Soldiers Fear They May Be Utilized In New American "Adventures In Intervention" In The Far East

By HAL BOYLE

Manila, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Behind mass rallies staged here by soldiers to protest the slowing of the demobilization rate lies a suspicion among some troops that they will be used for new American "adventures in intervention" in the Far East.

This feeling was heightened with a disclosure last week that the 86th Infantry division would be given renewed combat training.

Although this measure would appear necessary from purely a military standpoint—trained troops are needed to quell any disorder that may arise in troubled areas occupied by American troops—many soldiers voiced concern. They fear they may be used to intervene in postwar Pacific squabbles in which they have no personal interest—such as China's civil strife. Many feel also that should violence break out among factional elements in the Philippines, the American army shouldn't be used to put down rebellions.

"Of course, they tell us officially that we will be used to safeguard American property," said one soldier who has one point less than the number required to send him home to his wife and two children. "But I feel that it isn't worth one of our boy's lives to save anything we have here."

The position of army commanders, however, is clear. They must have battle troops to undertake assignment that Americas foreign policy requires. Unfortunately in such matters, the extent of such assignments isn't clear because foreign policies are expressed through diplomats, who by the nature of their tasks, speak vaguely rather than directly.

This doesn't make much difference to professional soldiers. They fight when they are told to. But civilian armies fight well only against those they hate. America still has a civilian army.

There is no country or people against whom these troops now waiting to go home have any strong feeling of hate. Otherwise, you could blow a bugle and they would fall patriotically into battle line.

Safeguards On Atomic Control Now Acceptable To All Members

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

London, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes said today that the United States, Russia, Britain and Canada were agreed on safeguards for atomic energy secrets.

Whatever control plan was devised by the United Nations Organization.

Byrnes issued a statement on the atomic energy controversy shortly after holding a two-hour session with the delegates and said that, so far as he knew, his view on the safeguards was entirely acceptable to all of them.

Immediately afterward Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), a critic of Byrnes' atomic energy policy up to this point, issued a statement saying he now was "completely reassured."

Thus harmony was restored to the American delegation on the eve of tomorrow's historic first session of the United Nations Assembly at Central Hall.

The controversy over atomic energy revolved around a proposal by the Big Three powers and Canada, which also had French and Chinese support, that the United Nations should create a commission to work out atomic energy controls.

Vandenberg had assailed what he privately called the vague language of the proposal as endangering American atom secrets. Byrnes had contended all along that the United States would never have to give out any information it did not want to.

Byrnes began his statement today with a reference to reports in the London morning newspapers that he had conferred with Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin on atomic energy.

China Truce Not Yet Accomplished

Chungking, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Government and Communist representatives failed today to reach a final agreement for a truce in China's civil strife.

They adjourned until late tomorrow for their unsuccessful meeting at which Gen. Marshall, President Truman's personal envoy, was present.

The failure blasted hopes of a truce being effected before a political union conference opens tomorrow morning.

Tonight's meeting was the fourth in the series between Gen. Chang Chun, the government representative, and Gen. Chou En-Lai, the Communist member, with Marshall as the third member of the truce committee. It lasted an hour and 40 minutes.

Chang told correspondents that details were not yet settled and that the discussions therefore would continue.

Adding that with the committee business unfinished no news could be released.

Asked if the conference would end with tomorrow's session, Hsu Mo, ambassador to Turkey who is assisting Chang in the negotiations, replied: "That remains to be seen."

Lawyer Says Marine Ace Will Not Marry

Las Vegas, Nev., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Lt. Col. Gregory (Papay) Boyington and Miss Frances Baker of Los Angeles were married here yesterday by a justice of the peace.

Reno, Nev., Jan. 9.—(AP)—"Papay" just isn't that kind of a fellow," Mrs. Grace Malcomson insisted today, despite reports, that Lt. Col. Gregory Boyington, war hero, had no intentions of marrying her.

The 34-year-old brunette announced last week she and Colonel Boyington, holder of the Congressional Medal of Honor, former Flying Tiger and leader of the Black Sheep Squadron in the Pacific, would be married immediately after she obtained a divorce from Seward Malcomson, General Motors production manager in Australia.

In San Diego on Monday, Colonel Boyington said he did not plan to marry her. He has not been available for comment since then.

Mrs. Malcomson did not appear in court for her divorce hearing yesterday, and it was removed from the court calendar.

In Los Angeles, the Marine hero's attorney, Arthur G. Miller, said he had called Mrs. Malcomson's lawyer and told him to advise Mrs. Malcomson not to proceed with her divorce action if it depended on her plans of marrying Boyington.

Miller said he had been instructed by Colonel Boyington to tell Mrs. Malcomson's lawyer that he "had no intention of marrying her."

Telephone Installation Workers Went On Strike This Morning; Steel Companies Facing Strike, Ask For Seven Dollar Raise In Prices

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A scheduled nationwide strike of telephone installation workers threatens to bring a country-wide tie-up of telephone service within days not under way in numerous scattered cities today.

Members of the Independent Association of Communications Equipment Workers quit work in Ohio, Indiana, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Illinois in many instances well in advance of the 11 a. m. (EST) scheduled "walkout" time.

The members, involved in a wage dispute with Western Electric, installed equipment for the Bell Telephone Company and union spokesmen predicted a "100 per cent break down of toll service" and disruption of dial telephone service within a few days.

For the second day, meanwhile, New York City remained in virtual telegraphic isolation from the rest of the country with 7,000 CIO Western Union employees remaining off their jobs.

In Washington, a possible break in the steel-wage stalemate appeared with reports that a steel price increase of about $4 a ton, $1.50 more than the limit previously set by OPA, was under consideration.

The steel companies, facing a strike of 800,000 CIO steelworkers set for Monday, have requested a $7 a ton increase as a condition for resuming collective bargaining.

No picket lines were reported set up immediately in the telephone installation workers' walkout. No immediate disruption of telephone service was reported.

If other unions respect picket lines the installation workers have threatened to shut off most long distance service and other operations handled manually will stop Friday. Dial telephone service may not be affected until a break occurred—which the union said could be expected to happen in a few days.

The strike became a certainty upon collapse of an early morning conference between U. S. Conciliation Director J. P. Mandelbaum and union and company officials.

Strategic conferences were resumed in Washington by CIO President Philip Murray; R. J. Thomas, president of the CIO-United Auto Workers and Albert Fitzgerald, president of the CIO United Electrical Workers—the Big Three in the (Continued on Page Four)

Kinston Motor Firm Faces OPA Charges

Raleigh, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Overcharges for labor on automobile and truck repairs and for grease and wash jobs are the basis for a $14,441.70 treble-damage suit filed in the Eastern North Carolina Division of the United States District Court by the Office of Price Administration against the Jenkins-Jones Motor Corporation of Kinston. OPA officials said today.

Theodore S. Johnson, OPA director, said the suit is the outgrowth of alleged overcharges during the seven-month period ending August 31, 1945, and that overcharges during the period amounted to $4,813.90. OPA seeks to recover three times the overcharges in the name of the Treasurer of the United States.

OPA Charges Firm With Overcharging For Its Services

By Scott Thomas

Raleigh, Jan. 9.—Overcharges for laundry service by means of discontinuance of low-priced special rates which made it necessary for customers to use higher-cost services is the basis for a $33,336.78 treble-damage injunction suit filed by the Raleigh district Office of Price Administration in United States district court at Washington, N. C., against Roy L. Tripp, operator of the College View Cleaners and Laundry, of Greenville.

Theodore S. Johnson, OPA district director, said the agency alleges that violations resulted from discontinuance of the practice of giving cash discounts and refusal to furnish sales slips for such work; and the use of "tie-in" sales requiring customers to have their dry cleaning and shoe repair work done at the concern's plant in order to be eligible for laundry service.

OPA contends that "upon discontinuance of the low-priced laundry services the concern's income increased approximately 350 per cent."

The agency alleges that single overcharges collected from customers by reason of elimination of low-priced services amounted to $11,112.26 and seeks a judgment for three times the overcharges in the name of the Treasurer of the United States.

Meanwhile, Johnson said that (Continued on Page Four)

The NATION TODAY

By James Marlow

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Veterans and servicemen are asking questions now that the January 15 and March 15 tax deadlines are approaching. Here are points to remember.

They won't have to do anything about January 15 unless they had taxable civilian income in 1945 from which no tax was withheld or unless they were making quarterly tax payments on that civilian income. Final payment is due January 15.

On March 15 all civilians, veterans or servicemen who had taxable civilian income in 1945 will have to make a final tax return, even though full tax was withheld from it during the year.

If you have doubts about taxes, or what you should do or how to do it, see your nearest internal revenue collector. There's one in your district.

The rest of this story deals with tax on service pay.

There's no federal tax on military pay, pensions, disability retirement pay, gratuity pay, war risk insurance proceeds, or on veterans' allowances for education or vocational rehabilitation.

An enlisted man, or one who was an enlisted man, does not have to file any return on his service pay—or pay any tax on it—for service between January 1, 1941, and the official end of the war. It isn't officially ended yet.

Note that: There's no tax on an enlisted man's active service pay during that period. But if he had income of at least $500 from other sources in 1945 he'll have to pay a tax on it, if it hasn't already been taxed.

But suppose that some time between January 1, 1941, and now an enlisted man has paid a federal tax on his active service pay, is he entitled to a refund? Yes. He should file a claim with the collector of internal revenue in his district.

But suppose an enlisted man had other income besides his service pay any time during those years. Does he have to file a return or pay a tax? Yes, if it amounted to enough to be taxable.

His total non-service income amounted to enough to be taxable.

His total non-service income would have to be $500 or more before he'd have to report it or pay a tax on it

"Romeo and Juliet" To Open Series
"Romeo and Juliet," a presentation of the National Classic Theatre of New York, will open the winter series of entertainments at East Carolina Teachers College on Tuesday evening, January 15, at 8 o'clock in the Wright auditorium on the campus.

The National Classic Theatre is an outstanding organization, which in a coast-to-coast tour is now presenting dramas of fine quality, particularly in high schools and colleges. The producer and director, Clare Tree Major, is well-known for the excellence of her work and is a figure of national importance in the theatre.

The company will come to Greenville fully equipped to give an excellent performance of Shakespeare's ever-popular tragedy of young love. Costumes for "Romeo and Juliet" were specially designed for the company's performance, and will include scenic and lighting effects which will increase the artistic quality of the presentation in Greenville.

The cast has been carefully chosen. It is the policy of the National Classic Theatre, however, not to adhere to the "star system," and to stress the drama rather than the actor.

Students from schools in surrounding towns are expected to attend the performance, and arrangements are being made to bring a number of these young people to Greenville by special bus.

Mid-Week Prayer Service

End of the Century Club
On Tuesday, January 8th the End of the Century Club met at the home of Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr. Mrs. Picken Arthur, president, charmingly welcomed the members and guests to the first meeting of the new year. The guests were Mrs. Franklin Jenkins, Mrs. R. C. Stokes, III, Mrs. J. J. Perkins and Mrs. Mary Harding. After a short business meeting, the program committee took charge presenting the speaker, Mr. James Fleming of East Carolina Teachers College. Mr. Fleming needed no introduction, as he is the son of one of the charter members of the End of the Century Club. Mrs. J. L. Fleming, as Mr. Fleming has just recently been separated from the army, in which he served for four years as interpreter and translator in the intelligence branch of the Transportation Corps Headquarters, he chose as the subject for his talk, "German Propaganda," on which he is well qualified to speak. His talk, in a delightfully informal manner, was most interesting, as were the samples of printed propaganda distributed by the Germans that Mr. Fleming exhibited.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Stokes served a delicious salad course, assisted by Mrs. R. C. Stokes, III, and Mrs. J. J. Perkins, after which the club adjourned to meet next on January 22.

E.C.T.C. Librarian Speaks
Wendell W. Smiley, librarian at East Carolina Teachers College, talked on Tuesday evening, January 8, to the college English Club on the subject, "Major Publishers and Their Famous Editions." A group of about thirty club members and guests were present to hear Mr. Smiley. Violet Sparks, of Ruffin, president of the English Club, presided over the meeting. Kay Mann, of Middletown, chairman of the program committee, introduced Mr. Smiley to the group.

In telling of the major publishing houses of the United States, Mr. Smiley explained that, on account of the lack of an international copyright law until 1891, early American publishers engaged in a business full of risks. He then traced the development of the great publishing houses in this country, told of some of the famous series of books issued by American firms, and distributed mimeographed sheets, listing the more significant of these works. A discussion of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, and Indianapolis, the most important publishing centers in this country, and the publishing houses located in each made up the major part of Mr. Smiley's informative talk.

Students Show Interest
Dr. Charles W. Reynolds, acting chairman of the Science Department at the college, reports the largest enrollment of students of physics in many years at East Carolina Teachers College. General physics, a class for juniors, has approximately forty students, both men and women. Dr. Reynolds believes that this is the largest single class in physics ever to be enrolled at the college. The increase in number, Dr. Reynolds thinks, is largely due to the entrance to the college this term of a number of ex-service men interested in scientific and technical training.

Oratorical Contest Will Be Held Here
The Greenville High School chapter of the National Forensic League and the Lions Club are jointly sponsoring an oratorical contest to be held at the Greenville High School, February 7.

Each high school in Pitt County has been invited to enter contestants. Each speaker is limited to six minutes, and that time is to be used for delivering an original tribute to some character in American history. Five prizes will be awarded.

The Lions Club's Boys and Girls Committee, consisting of Billy Bird, Bruce Baker and Re. B. Stirling, is working with Betty Ann Young of the N.F.L. chapter to make the contest successful. It will probably become an annual contest.

The Home Ec. Club held its meeting in the auditorium at activity period today.

The practice teachers have started their mid-term teaching.

The Lions Club entertained the football team at its regular Monday night supper. The Senior re-

In a special chapel program at the GHS the chapter of the National Forensic League was presented to Mr. Stirling on behalf of the Debate Club by Dr. Posey of the college. The only two chapters in the State are in Asheville and Greenville. The five charter members are Robbie Dixon, Gladys Tyndall, Frederick Brooks, Shelley Beard and Bernadine Worsley.

Each January the Greenville Girl Scout Council in annual session brings to the adults of Greenville an outstanding speaker to talk to them about youth and their needs and problems. This year they feel that they have been particularly honored.

COL. REBUKES GI HOT-HEADS

Eighth Army Demon- strators Charged With "Near Mutiny"

Yokohama, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Col. Charles A. Mahoney disclosed today he had broken up a "hothead" demonstration of soldiers on the arrival here of Secretary of War Patterson, telling them "You are insulting a man who was a soldier before you were born."

Mahoney, provost marshal of the U. S. Army Service Command here, severely reprimanded Eighth Army GIs who greeted Patterson's appearance during an inspection tour yesterday with cries of "We want to go home."

"I told them to stop or I would take steps to break it up immediately," Mahoney said. "I asked them if they were soldiers or Boy Scouts."

A mimeographed paper, "Discharge," circulated among soldiers, quoted Mahoney additionally:

"If you want to go home I'll take you home. I'll see that you get to my Yokohama prison. You're insulting a man who's a better GI than any of you."

"If you want lace panties I'll get them for you. Just let me hear you sing. I want to go home again and I'll pick out two or three singers and personally take them over to my Yokohama prison."

Mahoney denied telling the men, "You are acting like a lot of G—d—babies," as stated in the paper.

The paper said the secretary did not leave General MacArthur's sedan.

Mahoney, however, said Patterson left the car and went into the building where soldiers made him an "honorary GI."

The colonel described the demonstration as a "near mutiny."

"Discharge" announced a scheduled mass meeting tomorrow in front of Eighth Army headquarters. Col. W. N. Todd, secretary to the commands general staff, said he saw no reason why the meetings should be prohibited.

At Honolulu last night, 1,500 soldiers staged a noisy protest meeting against the demobilization program in front of post headquarters.

Gen. Robert C. Richardson Jr., who in the afternoon had urged that no "mob action demonstration" be staged in Hawaii.

Now, however, there is serious doubt that such decreases will materialize.

Hence some government officials have predicted privately that President Truman will recommend that Congress extend authority for the subsidy program to until the end of 1946.

Freezer Locker Firm Is Granted Charter

The N. C. State Utilities Commission has granted a charter to Cold Storage, Inc., of Greenville, capital stock allowed, $100,000; amount subscribed, $300. The incorporators are C. Wesley Harvey, Jr., John B. Webb, Jr., and E. Hoover Taft.

A member of the corporation today announced that they plan to build a modern and commodious cold storage and freezer locker plant on the site of the Harvey Coal Company on west Ninth street. Construction will start as soon as materials are available. The corporation plans to provide complete service on cold storage of meats and all other foods and freezer lockers to be rented to patrons by the year for the storage of frozen foods.

Local Masonic Lodge Invests 1946 Heads

In a meeting liberally sprinkled with good fellowship, excellent speeches, and good food, served by members of the Eastern Star, a large number of members and visitors of Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. and A. M., spent a pleasant evening Monday. The feature of the meeting was the installation of officers for 1946. The master of the lodge, James W. Brewer, before presenting the gavel to William J. (Dick) Bundy, deputy grand master of the North Carolina Grand Lodge, briefly expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of the members in all the lodge's activities and his pleasure in serving as master of the lodge for 1945.

The deputy grand master, aided by T. I. Moore, district deputy grand master of the Fifth Masonic District, induced the following officers: W. F. Owens, worshipful master; L. F. Stokes, senior warden; W. H. Hardee, junior warden; W. E. Boswell, treasurer; N. R. Joyner, secretary; C. H. Barnhill, senior deacon; John King, steward; R. C. Duffin, steward; R. I. Hill, tiller; J. S. Willard, chaplain and J. J. Gilbert, marshal.

As each was installed in his office the speaker gave a summary of the duties connected with the office and the importance of those duties to the well being and growth of the organization. Master Owens, in an inspiring talk, expressed his appreciation for the high honor bestowed upon him, and asked that every Mason dedicate himself to the high ideals of the order. He voiced praise for the able administration of his predecessor, James W. Brewer, under whose leadership the lodge enjoyed a record growth in membership and activities. He also indicated pleasure in having in the lodge Dick Bundy, who recently had the 33rd degree conferred upon him, an honor but few are given.

After the new officers, with the exception of R. C. Duffin, who was at home ill, had made brief talks, the regular business of the lodge was transacted.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

PURPOSE IN THE UNIVERSE
Everyone has heard the story of the child sent to a school dominated by modern educational methods and who protested against the freedom of the school by saying, "I don't want to do what I want to do."

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—The four years after Pearl Harbor saw more new faces in Washington than any similar period in the capital's history. Many of them are gone. A lot of them departed in a sometimes desolved, often undesired hall of political or personal brickbats.

One man who saw it through without ever having his ears battled back (and that's a Washington war-time record in itself) was Uncle Sam's highest powered, lowest paid salesman the man who sold $5,000-000 persons $157,000,000 worth of war and victory bonds.

A little less than four years ago, Ted R. Gamble (the first and middle names are Theodore Roosevelt), but he never uses them) slipped into Washington without the one blast on the publicity trumpets for a blind date with Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

The secretary, scanning reports of the sagging bond sales, noted that Oregon was first and quickly over the top of its quota.

"Get this young Gamble down here," Morgenthau said. "If he can do that in Oregon, maybe he can do it in the nation."

Gamble came and did. He went back to Oregon the other day. He left behind a couple of truckloads of verbal bouquets from the men who really know a job well done.
Gamble protested they didn't belong to him. He also left behind, several hush off-the-record movie industry He took a four $1 annual checks which were his salary.

Not in all the heterogeneous mass of wartime Washington humanity was there another government official like Ted Gamble. The 39-year-old owner of a chain of Oregon movies was about the quietest, most unpretentious, pleasant salesman I ever talked to.

To hear him tell it, war bonds just sold themselves, or if they didn't then the credit was all due to the war advertising council, or the movie stars, or the radio hawkers, or the thousand-and-one agencies that did gratis over-the-counter business in bonds and stamps.

Last One In Is An Isolationist

The real reason he turned down those Hollywood offers is that he has five brothers getting out of the service and he wants to see them started again in civilian life on the right foot.

There has been much inside Treasury talk that he may be offered the job of undersecretary. Friends think that if he were urged by Secretary Vinson or the President he would take it. If he's even half willing, it would be a shame to let a public servant like Ted Gamble escape into private industry.

The Nation . . .

to give details on non-service income during those three years.

What of the active service pay received by a commissioned officer during the war period?

His first $1,500 of active service pay each year—for the years after 1942 and before the official end of the war—is tax free. It should not be included when figuring total income.

In addition, of course, the commissioned officer is entitled to the personal exemptions, credits and allowable deductions provided by law.

For example: Army Captain Jones, unmarried, no dependents, in 1945 received $2,800 in active service pay. He drops $1,500 out of that right away as being tax free. That leaves him $1,300 to figure with.

But then he deducts $500 as his personal exemptions which all taxpayers get. That leaves him $800 on which to pay tax. But he can deduct for charitable contributions and things like that although he'll have to show where the money has gone.

And this is a very important point for a commissioned officer to remember.

If he does have to pay a tax on his active service pay received as a commissioned officer for any year after December 31, 1939, and before January 1, 1947, the time for paying can extend three years by paying equal installments every three months for 36 months.

He can obtain this extension by filing an application with the collector of internal revenue for his district.

Laundry Here . . .

"numerous other" suits were about to be lodged in United States district courts throughout North Carolina against many types of violations. "Present indications point to a record number of treble damage suits for price ceiling violations during coming months," Johnson said.
Many of these cases are in rents and services but all categories of business are represented.

Relentless Hunt . . .

Kearns, coroner's physician, however, disagreed and said a sharper instrument had been used.

Hanrahan asserted that sample of writing by the eldest janitor disclosed similarities in some letters printed and written on the ransom note which was left in the child's bedroom after she was stolen during the early morning hours Monday.

Telephone Walkout . . .

CIO's drive for 30 per cent wage rate boost.

The strategy board has made it clear no settlements in these manufacturing will be affected without its approval.

A 153-day strike of 700 AFL pattern makers at 14 Detroit pattern shops ended today. They accepted the Federal Conciliation Commission proposal of $2.25 hourly minimum wage, and reinstatement of the contract canceled by the strike.

Ernest Weaver, president of the Independent Association of Communications Equipment Workers, said picket lines, which he said other independent telephone union has promised to respect, would be established later around major telephone exchanges.

This would mean, he said, the sympathy strike of the 263,000 members of the Independent National Federation of Telephone Workers.
Some 17,000 members of the Western Electric Employees Association, an affiliate, have been on strike in New York and New Jersey for the last week.

Walkouts by members were scheduled in the Independent Union's locals in Chicago, San Francisco, St. Louis, Cleveland, Detroit, Minneapolis, Albany, Atlanta, Denver, Newark, Southern California, Washington, D. C., the North Pacific and Philadelphia. New York members, Weaver said, may also strike later today. The union, which is seeking a $6 a week wage increase, said it had offered a "modification," which was not further identified.

As the strike of Western Union employees continued, CIO officials said there was a possibility that 600,000 members of 300 CIO locals in Greater New York may be called upon to support the walkout.

The work stoppage, which was in protest of a War Labor Board decision which revised downward a wage ward by a regional board, slowed down international cable communications.

Road Program . . .

gers by motor bus and goods by motor truck to any place in the State is possible, to the point where surfaced roads will carry the pay loads

Cherry told the oil jobbers that the petroleum industry has played an important part in the history of North Carolina and that it is expected to play an equally great part in the future of the State. He also pointed to the great part the petroleum industry had in winning the World War just ended.

"This one industry," he said, contributed as much as any other single factor to the defeat of the Axis. This is not your boast. It is a Nazi admission."

UNO Mission . . .

grey last night.

The problem of working out atomic controls through the United Nations overshadowed all other issues, confronting the organization on which world's peace hopes are pinned, but by no means the only one. Other top issues:

1. Election of six small nation members to the United Nations Security Council on which the United States, Britain, Russia, China and France hold permanent seats. The United States favors Canada, Brazil and Mexico from the Western Hemisphere. Egypt, the Netherlands and Poland are generally spoken of for the other places. Selection of Canada would almost certainly bar its sister Commonwealth, Australia, and might result in a controversy between them.

2. Election of a general secretary and other officers of the United Nations Organization. Lester Pearson Canadian ambassador to Washington, was reported to have the inside track for the key secretary-general's post.

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT
And Stop Dosing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers
Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.
In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your foods is digested. And when it gets blocked it fails to digest properly.
What you want for real relief is not soda or an alkalizer—but something to "unblock" your intestinal tract. Something to clean it out effectively—help Nature get back on her feet.
Get Carter's Pills right now. Take them as directed. They gently and effectively "unblock" your digestive tract. This permits your food to move along normally. Nature's own digestive juices can then reach it. You get genuine relief that makes you feel really good again.
Get Carter's Pills at any drugstore.

discussions probably will center on the "five freedoms" issue, which caused the 54-nation civil aviation conference at Chicago in late 1944 to end a British-American deadlock. Should the two nations conclude a "five freedoms" agreement, each would permit the transport planes of the other the privileges of:

1. Flying across its territory without landing.
2. Landing on its territory for non-traffic purposes.
3. Putting down passengers, mail and cargo taken on in the other country.
4. Taking on passengers, mail and cargo destined for the other country.
5. Taking on passengers, mail and cargo destined for a third country and putting down passengers, mail and cargo coming from use and sell his invention for 17 years.

Phantoms Defeat Red Devils 44-22

Junior Phantoms Lose To Kinston Cagers 38-11

By DAVE CLARK
Although their attack was still spotty at times throughout the game, the Green Phantoms had little trouble subduing the previously undefeated Kinston Red Devils 44-22 here last night in the high school gym. The Junior Phantoms weren't quite so fortunate, losing to the larger and more experienced Kinston Juniors 38-11 in the preliminary.

The Phantoms showed their superiority from the first by taking a comfortable lead and never losing it throughout the game. They held a 13-6 advantage at the end of the first quarter, but were able to increase it by only one point by halftime as the Devils matched the Greens almost point for point during the second quarter.

In the third quarter, the Phantoms began to whip the ball around as of old and racked up 12 points to the bewildered Red Devils 4, making the score 34-11.

In the fourth quarter, Coach Farley used mostly his substitutes, who scored 10 more markers while allowing the Devils only 4 and ran the final score to 44-22.

Jimmy Futrell once again led his team in the scoring department with a total of 14 points. Ed Williams and Julian White each collected 8 markers to follow Futrell in the scoring. Billy Harrington, leading floor man for the Greens, tossed in 6 points and Mac Batchelor and J. T. Williams got 3 each.

Sterling Gates led Kinston's tallying with 7 points.
Proctor and Hardy led the Greenville Junior team with 3 points each. The starters for Greenville were: Jimmy Futrell and Ed Williams at forwards, Billy Harrington and Mac Batchelor at guards, and J. T. Williams at center.

Substitutions for Greenville were: Jack Whichard, Julian White, Billy White, Henry Turner, and Dave Clark.

PIRATES WIN CAGE CONTEST

ECTC Quintet Defeats Campbell 47 To 23

Honors were evenly divided between the 16 ECTC Pirate players who defeated the Campbell Camels by a 47 to 23 score in Buie's Creek last night.

The Camels jumped in to an early lead, but the Pirates overcame this advantage shortly and were never threatened during the latter part of the game. The ECTC boys seemed to be a little off par throughout the game, probably because of the long ride to Buie's Creek and the short rest period before they took the floor for the game.

Charlie Bill Moye nosed out James Parker for top scoring honors, his total being 10 points. James Parker tallied 9 points.

ECTC 47
Parker, Jesse, 6 F Meeks, 3
Moye, C. B., 10 F Lamm, 1
Parker, James, 9 C Hall, 1
Moye, Blaine, 6 G King, 5

Half-time score: ECTC 21, Campbell 11.

Substitutions: ECTC—Hudson, 2, James, Musselwhite, Bracken, Charlton, 1, Lupton, 4, Cox, 4, Ausley, Powell, 3, Mann, Lockridge, Campbell—Price, Ricks, 6, Jones, 3, Creaf, 1, Cole, Young, Thomas.

Sports

By The Associated Press
Southern Conference basketball reaches an early season high point tonight at Chapel Hill where North Carolina meets Duke, with the leadership of the circuit going to the winner.

Although beaten by service teams, neither of the old rivals has lost a game to a college foe. Duke has swept four straight conference battles and Carolina three. They last met in the finals of the conference tournament last season when the Tar Heels thumped the Blue Devils soundly for the title.

Wake Forest is at Richmond tonight in another conference game. In the only conference game last night, N. C. State's Red Terrors edged out Davidson, 44-41, after two overtime periods.

The two teams were deadlocked 32-32 at the end of the game and 36-36 at the close of the first extra period.

During the second extra stanza, State, led by Jim Boger and Howard Turner, managed to cinch the game with a three point lead before the whistle. Ed White, captain of the Davidson team, led the scoring with 19 points.

At Wake Forest, Greensboro's Ord quintet trounced the Deacons 62-44. Getting off to a good start, the Baptists had the Army team tied at 16-16 after the first five minutes of play, but fell by the wayside shortly thereafter, trailing at the half 38-28. Western Carolina Teachers College handed Mars Hill a 32-26 setback and the 326th Glider Infantry of Fort Bragg upset Camp Lejeune, 41-35, making its record 15-2.
