Coal Miners To Plan Walkout

John L. Lewis Files 30-Day Strike Notice; 400,000 Miners Involved In Threatened Strike; Lewis Asks Operators For Conference In Washington On March 12

Washington, March 2.—(AP)—UMW Chieftain John L. Lewis, today filed on behalf of some 400,000 miners a 30-day strike notice.

Simultaneously Lewis notified bituminous coal operators that he wished to reopen wage talks with them on March 12 in Washington.

The United Mine Workers' strike notice was filed with the National Labor Relations Board, Secretary of Labor Schwelb and the Wage Stabilization Board.

Lewis said the miners "will continue to work for the ensuing 30 days."

His letter to the three government agencies declared that the issues in dispute between the UMW and the coal operators covered wages, the question of whether supervisory employees could belong to the UMW, working hours and other matters.

Lewis said further that the administration's new wage-price policy had resulted in a "significant change" in government wage policy and that under the UMW contract the wage issues could be reopened.

"This letter is now directed to you as formal notice that a labor dispute exists . . . between the United Mine Workers of America and the bituminous coal operators of this country," Lewis wrote.

"To the end and for the purpose of adjusting and settling the present issues now in dispute and for the purpose of procuring a new basic wage agreement for the industry, we will continue to work for the ensuing 30 days."

The notification to the operators concerning wage talks was sent to Ezra Van Horn, chairman of the Operators' Negotiating Committee of the National Bituminous Coal Wage Conference in Cleveland.

There were a few bright spots on the labor front. The main factor in the reduction in the ranks of the idle resulted from the back-to-work by steelworkers and workers in industries forced off the job because of the four weeks old steel strike last month.

The threatened strike next Tuesday of 3,400 employees of the Duquesne Light Company in Pittsburgh, cutting off power to some 1,500,000 citizens, was averted when the independent union voted or arbitration of their wage dispute.

The union is seeking wage increases of 21 cents and 25 cents hourly. Three arbitrators will begin hearing evidence.

OPA Silent On New Prices For Products

Washington, March 2.—(AP)—OPA left unanswered today how much more the public may have to pay for automobiles, refrigerators, washing machines and other consumer steel products.

The agency put higher prices on steel as it comes from the mill, but it said the effect of this on retail prices of finished goods will not be known for a while.

Mill increases announced by OPA last night range from $2 to $12 a ton on all carbon and alloy steel products. These specific adjustments were made under the government's February 15 directive which authorized an average price hike of $5 a ton.

Because the surtax has been cut 3 per cent—and the normal and surtax exemptions are the same—you won't have to bother figuring out your normal tax separately.

Just figure out your surtax by not reducing it 3 per centage points from last year. You get the same answer you'd get if you had figured the 3 per cent normal tax separately and then chopped 3 per centage points off your surtax.

The new system went into effect Jan. 1. Most wage-earners and salaried workers already have had tax withheld from them under the new reduced rate.

Four-year-old Terry Taylor (above), daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Taylor of Charlotte, N. C., disappeared from her home with a nursemaid, Rosemary Johnson, February 26. Terry was found unharmed, in Annapolis, and was returned to her home. Dr. Taylor will press charges against Nurse Johnson.

TAYLOR CHILD RETURNS HOME

Juvenile Authorities May Deal With Wayward Nursemaid

Charlotte, N. C., March 2.—(AP) Little Terry Taylor was homebound today, happily unaware of the anxiety caused her parents and much of North Carolina during a three-day absence which began last Tuesday.

With her happy parents, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew Taylor, the four-year-old curly-head was scheduled to leave Washington at 8:45 A. M. today by an Eastern Air Lines plane due to arrive in Charlotte at 11:37 A. M.

The parents and little girl have been in Washington since early yesterday, when they were reunited in Annapolis, Md., where the child was found Thursday night by police after a search throughout the southeastern United States.

Meanwhile, another Charlotte-bound party was scheduled to leave the nation's capital—a group including the teen-aged nursemaid now facing charges of kidnapping in connection with the child's disappearance. She is named on a warrant issued by Charlotte police as Rosemary Johnson.

Detective Capt. Frank N. Littlejohn and Detective W. J. Miller of the Charlotte police, who went to Annapolis for the maid, stopped overnight in Washington to confer with the Federal Bureau of Investigation regarding disposition of the case.

By telephone, Littlejohn said it (Continued on Page Three)

HITLER'S SIX BAD GUESSES TURNED TIDE

Top Secret Reports Disclose Der Fuehrer's Faulty "Instinct"

Nuernberg, Germany, March 2.—(AP)—Top secret reports taken from files of German ministries now in Allied hands disclose that Adolf Hitler made six guesses in one single month—November, 1942—that helped to turn the tide of war in favor of Great Britain and the U. S.

Confronted with the fact that Gen. Eisenhower's forces had landed in Algeria and Morocco November 8, 1942, Hitler's gaunted intuition failed him. A record of his faulty guessing follows:

1. He frantically alerted the German garrison in Norway—two seas and a continent away from Africa—to expect an imminent attack, ordered a Jaeger division to Narvik and additional reserves to Oslo and confessed that "Sweden's attitude in case of a landing would be very unreliable."

2. At the same time the former corporal, functioning as supreme commander of the German army, envisaged an immediate Allied blow toward the Romanian oil fields.

Hitler ordered more German soldiers sent to Crete and the Peloponnese and additional air force detachments assigned there. This was at the time that Field Marshal Erwin Rommel was fleeing from El Alamein and needed reserves much worse than any Nazi commander on Crete.

Disregarding his highest naval advisers, Hitler refused to negotiate with the Vichy French fleet at Toulon for future collaboration on a new basis of equality. Although Grand Adm. Erich Raeder painstakingly had sought to arrange for French warships and French crews to join in the Axis sea war and had obtained tentative agreement and (Continued on Page Four)

"BIG BRASS" TO SEE TESTS

Eisenhower, Nimitz, Spaatz To Witness "Crossroads"

Washington, March 2.—(AP)—The biggest brass plan to witness the forthcoming test of the atom bomb against seapower in the Pacific.

It was learned today that three of the four members of the Joint Chiefs of Staff will attend the experiments at Bikini Atoll, with the idea of making a first-hand estimate of the A-bomb's effect on existing armaments and strategy.

General Dwight Eisenhower, Army Chief of Staff, has announced he would observe the tests. Aides of Admiral Chester Nimitz, Chief of Naval Operations, said he was planning to attend and the same report came from Gen. Carl Spaatz, commander of Army Air Forces.

Officials said they knew of no plans for President Truman to make the long trip to the central Pacific.

Vice Admiral W. H. P. Blandy, commander of the Joint Task Force for the test, took occasion at a news conference last night to make two points:

1—"The test of the bomb on warships, aircraft and Army ground force equipment is a 'thoroughly joint' job, with all services participating.

2—"There is not any desire to rig (Continued on page three)

Legion Wants Names For Its Honor Roll

The names of 24 men who died or were killed while serving in the armed forces during World War II have been sent to Dr. H. G. Haney, chairman of the American Legion Poster Board Committee. There are other names to be turned in, it is understood. Dr. Haney requests that any family that lost a member of their family in the war forward the name to him at once.

The American Legion plan is to place a gold star by the names of those men who died or were killed in service. The following names for gold stars have been received:

Larry Brown, Leon M. Cannon, Walter Cherry, Preston Clark, John B. Christenbury, Owen Daniels, Robert L. Edwards, Dallas R. Gray, Kenneth L. Henderson, John Johnson, Linwood F. Jones, Wilson H. McDiarmid, Henry M. Phillips, George B. Roebuck, Hillard C. Rogers, James Rogers, Jesse L. Rollins, Elmer L. Smith, Bernard W. Spillman, Wayland C. Tucker, Arthur Turner, Henry West, Horace R. Whitfield, Stanley Woolfolk.

There are several hundred more names of men who were in service to be placed on the roster board at the courthouse. The Legion has arranged with a painter to complete the board. Mail names of servicemen to Dr. H. G. Haney, pastor of Eighth Street Christian Church.

Your Red Cross watches over the comforts of hospitalized veterans and service people everywhere. Help put its Fund Campaign over.

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR

WHEREAS, The American Red Cross is still rendering manifold services to our men overseas and administering to their needs in hospitals, or wherever they may be, as it did throughout the period of the great war; and

WHEREAS, It is being called upon to render many services to the returned veterans and assist in many difficult problems, which arise from time to time and is so capably rendering aid in many forms to the families of these men;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J. H. Boyd, Jr., Mayor of the City of Greenville, North Carolina, do hereby proclaim the week beginning March 4 to March 9, 1946 as Red Cross Week for the City of Greenville, and I do hereby urge every citizen to give generously to this most worthy cause to the end that the goal set for our city will be reached.

Franco Cabinet Issue Answer To Indictment

Government Declares Anti-Spanish Campaign Is Communist Plot To Drag Spain "Down Into Disorder And Chaos"

Madrid, March 2.—(AP)—The Franco Government declared today that the closing of the Spanish frontier by France and anti-Spanish demonstrations abroad were part of an international communist plot designed to drag Spain "down into disorder and chaos."

In a 2,000-word communique issued after a lengthy cabinet meeting, the government said the "suffering French people" were not responsible for what it termed an anti-Spanish campaign.

"It is necessary to make known at once again that, under the appearance of false humanitarianism and simulated compassion, there is being developed a new campaign of scares and calumnies against Spain, of which the promoter and active agent is international communism," the communique said.

Protests against the recent execution of 16 Spanish anti-Fascists were inspired by communists who glorified vulgar and common criminals as martyrs of a political ideal, the statement asserted.

The communique said the protests followed the regular communist pattern, and added that this in itself was proof that the protests were part of a communist campaign.

The government is "inexorably resolved and decided to maintain order with all firmness and to guarantee national security, the statement continued.

Spain also "makes a move to appeal to the conscience of the world against this unprecedented campaign by means of which an attempt is being made by the worst methods to drag down into disorder and chaos a country in order and peace, which has complied with its international duties like no other."

The government said Spain had protected French property during the war, had allowed French soldiers to pass through Spain to join French armies in Africa, and had generally followed a good neighbor policy.

The communique said France, on the other hand, had allowed Reds to organize armed expeditions into Spain, failed to punish the kidnapping and killing of Spaniards in Southern France, protected organizations of Spanish terrorists, permitted the launching of an assault of 5,000 men against Spain in October, 1944, sponsored an anti-Spanish campaign at international gatherings and committed other unfriendly acts.

The cabinet met with Franco in closely guarded El Pardo Palace last night, and remained in session until almost 2 a. m.

The French-Spanish border, closed officially at midnight yesterday, was quiet during the day.

Real Estate Outlook Babson Continues Optimistic

Babson Park, Mass., March 1.—The real estate boom appears to be gaining momentum.—In fact, it has been picking up speed for some time in certain sections. Therefore, a few rules may well be remembered. In a general article like this I should not comment upon farm lands as location, soil and improvements vary so much with different properties.

Way to Make Money. Perhaps the simplest and surest way to make money in real estate is to select a growing, well-located city with diversified industries and surrounded by good soil. Most mid-western cities, which are situated on a navigable river or lake, fulfill such requirements.

After selecting your city, ascertain the best residential street leading out from the center of the city. Go out that street in the right direction for a few miles until you come to vacant land. Then stop and inquire the price. So long as the price is quoted per front foot or per square foot go along further (Continued on Page Four)

DIPLOMATS DISAGREE ON DECLARATION

France And U. S. Confer On Statement Encouraging Overthrow Of Franco

Washington, March 2.—(AP) Britain, France and the United States pressed today for final agreement on a joint declaration encouraging Spaniards to overthrow Generalissimo Franco. But the question was: which Spaniards?

Diplomatic representatives of the three powers were intent on getting the proposed pronouncement ready for public release this weekend, but France and the United States, were reported split on the issue of what elements to address in the manifesto.

French embassy counselor, Armand Berard, conferred for 80 minutes late yesterday afternoon with Paul Culbertson, State Department Chief of Western European affairs, but no final agreement was reached.

Earlier, the State Department confirmed that Britain and France had "approved in principle" the U. S. proposed declaration reliably reported as spurring Spaniards to set up a broadly representative interim government in Madrid pledged to:

- 1. Calling national elections. 2. Declaring political amnesty. 3. Providing freedom of religion, assembly, and press.

In return, the new government would receive full economic and diplomatic recognition by the three powers. The proposal was understood to leave the tasks of changing the present Spanish government to the Spanish people themselves.

Differences between the French and U. S. viewpoints were reported hinging on a description of the Spaniards to whom the declaration would be aimed. At present, it was learned, the American proposal addressed to the Spanish people "inside or outside the (Spanish) government."

If that applies only to Spaniards within Spain, thus excluding the Spanish Republican government-in-exile, then France, it was learned, wants the phraseology changed to read "inside and outside Spain."

France now harbors a reported 250,000 Spanish Republicans under an elected Premier Dr. Jose Giral.

The British government, through its embassy here, is understood being kept informed of the negotiations. It is believed Britain will probably side with the American viewpoint on the matter.

IRANIAN SEES NO DANGER

Undersecretary Of State Trusts Russian Goodwill

Tehran, March 2.—(AP)—Russia's decision to keep her troops in parts of northern Iran past the March 2 deadline was interpreted today by Prince Firouz, Iran's political undersecretary of state, as "friendly gesture" to the government of Premier Ahmed Qavam Saltaneh.

Although many members of Parliament bitterly condemned Russia for failure to quit the country in accordance with her agreement, Prince Firouz told foreign newspaper correspondents:

"Soviet troops certainly will quit Azerbaijan—just as today they are leaving Saman, Meshed and Shrud (in northeastern Iran)."

He explained: "There is no representative of the central government in Azerbaijan to accept the return of Russian buildings and installations. The Russians cannot turn over these properties to the Azerbaijan government without recognizing that government. So they (Continued on Page Four)

Red Cross Drive Opening Monday

Monday morning, March 4, is the official starting time for the Pitt County Red Cross fund campaign, and by Saturday night, March 9, the goal should have been reached as Pitt County has always done in previous years. Although the war is over, the work of Red Cross must be made available By Your Help, to the following:

- (1) The millions of boys still in service. (2) The thousands of veterans in hospitals. (3) Hundreds of thousands of discharged veterans who need help in readjustment. (4) Sufferers in world and national disasters.

The American Red Cross has been a mother and godsend to millions of people in this country and foreign lands. Greenville and Pitt County citizens will want to participate in the work of helping the Red Cross to carry on, so set aside a generous amount today and be ready for the volunteer workers when they contact you next week.

U. S. Gets Tough In New Protests

AWOL Four Years Navy Uses Very Strong Language In Describing Attacks On American Planes; State Department Looses Broadside Against Removal Of Equipment From Manchuria

Pr. Walter Michalowski (above), 28, of Detroit, who went AWOL in 1942 because he "didn't want to kill," has surrendered to army authorities after hiding for four years in his parents' home. (AP Wirephoto)

Washington, March 2.—(AP) The United States told Russia off today for two Soviet attacks on navy planes off the Manchurian coast and for the Red Army's removal of Manchuria's industrial equipment.

The two-play protest provided an unexpected follow-up to the speech of Secretary of State Byrnes Thursday foreshadowing a much tougher approach in future dealings with Moscow.

In protesting the attacks on American planes, the navy used very strong language. It termed one incident a "hostile act" and called the other "unjustifiable."

The navy's protest coincided with a State Department declaration that Russia had no right under any allied agreement to strip industrial equipment from the former Japanese puppet state of Manchuria.

The attacks on American planes both were reported to have taken place in the Port Arthur-Dairen area, and the navy pointed out that under the Russo-Chinese treaty of last August Dairen is supposed to be a free port, open to all nations, but administered by China.

According to the navy, the first Soviet attack on a U. S. plane in this area took place last October, and the second last month.

When the first incident was protested, the navy said, Russian authorities replied the Soviets were responsible for defense of the Port Arthur area under the treaty with China and that American planes must not approach within 12 miles of the coast without previous permission.

The navy rejected this reply, pointing out that the American plane was 25 miles at sea when fired on by Soviet aircraft, and that Russia had never notified the United States it intended to apply a 12-mile limit in Soviet-occupied territory. Moscow never answered this protest.

It was this incident the navy characterized as a "hostile act." The American plane involved was a mariner patrol plane on a routine flight to check on shipping in those waters.

The second episode occurred Feb. 20 when two Russian fighter planes overtook another mariner near Dairen and gave warning bursts of machine gun fire for about ten minutes. The plane was not hit, however, and was able to return to its base at Tsingtao, China.

The navy declared Russian action in this case was "unjustifiable," but acknowledged the American plane's pilot had disregarded orders and had gone inland from the coast. Disciplinary action has been instituted against the pilot, the navy said.

In neither instance did the navy planes return fire, the Department declared.

The specific reason for the State Department's broadside against Soviet removal of industrial equipment from Manchuria was not indicated. However, it did follow closely after the assertion of a Red Army commander at Mukden this week that the equipment was being removed in accord with a Big-Three (Continued on Page Two)

HOUSING BILL BOGGED DOWN

Emergency Home Building Program May Be Defeated

Washington, March 2.—(AP)—President Truman's emergency homebuilding program bogged down deeper than ever today on Capitol Hill, despite the warning of Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt that each day's delay is costing the nation 3,000 new living units.

The House, which originally was scheduled to vote on the legislation Wednesday, was in recess until Monday and it was evident that administration leaders needed the weekend breather for a new effort to muster badly-needed support for the bill Mr. Truman wants.

Indeed, there were strong indications the White House might have to recast completely its housing proposals, for the dominant House opposition gave scant heed yesterday to Mr. Truman's special plea that approval be given to provisions he considered vital.

In an urgent letter to Speaker (Rayburn (D-Tex.)), Mr. Truman asked specifically for congressional approval of provisions for price ceilings on all houses and authority to use $600,000,000 in subsidies to break the bottleneck in construction materials.

But the letter arrived yesterday a few minutes after the House voted 154 to 68, to kill the part of the bill putting price ceilings on existing dwellings.

Then, fighting a delaying action, administration leaders brought about adjournment of the House until Monday before a vote could be reached on the subsidy issue.

Republicans and some Southern Democrats joined in opposition to the administration proposals, and even after the President's letter arrived the trend appeared to be (Continued on Page Four)

The WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP World Traveler

Frankfurt, Germany, March 2.—The devastation wrought by total war in Germany's cities is so terrific that you have to pick your way carefully among the ruins lest your view of more important things be cut off, and so this looks like a good point to check up on the outstanding zones of the defeated Reich.

I suppose we should start with the observation that Germany is so badly smashed that she would be physically incapable of making war again for many years even if she were allowed to go her own way unhampered. The German has an expressive word for anything which is smashed and that is "kaput." Well, Germany is kaput physically and no mistake about that. The experts say it will take thirty years to clear away the rubble of the destroyed cities, to say nothing of trying to rebuild. But there is small doubt that while the Germans are beaten physically they aren't beaten mentally, and that their transformation into a peace minded people will involve a very long period of re-education and military occupation.

There is another equally vital point. Germany is strategically the heart of the continent, not only militarily but politically. Should the Reich become the battleground to determine the balance of power in Europe—which heaven forbid—we should have a situation which might easily produce another upheaval.

This danger is emphasized, as reported in yesterday's column, by a spirit of uncertainty in the American zone—a feeling that the United States public is weakening in its determination to occupy Germany militarily until time has established peace in Europe. That's a frightening thought.

The wholesale readjustment of the balance of power as Europe has cast Uncle Sam in the role of friendly mediator between Russia and Britain. Should American public opinion result in our abandonment of the original plan of occupation in Germany, it would create a vacuum in the Reich that would necessarily be filled by another power and that would produce a whirlwind.

As to the general situation in Germany, things are improving. There are three main bottlenecks in the rehabilitation program—food, coal and transport. Encouraging progress is being made in the case of the latter two although conditions told are appalling. There is a serious shortage of food in many areas (Continued on Page Two)

The NATION TODAY

By James Marlow

(Editor's note: This is the last of 12 stories explaining who has to do what about his income taxes.)

Washington, March 2.—(AP)—Get Form 1040-ES if you're filing a declaration of estimated income tax for 1946.

Congress, introducing 1946 income taxes, made some changes in the way of figuring the tax. This is the score now:

You get the same normal exemptions as surtax exemptions: $500 each for yourself, dependents, and wife whether or not she has income, and no matter how much or little the income, provided she does not file separately.

If she has income of $500 or more, of income, she has to file a return, either jointly with you, or separately. If your wife files separately, you get neither normal nor surtax exemptions for her.)

The normal tax, 3 per cent, remains the same. All surtaxes are reduced 3 per cent. Example: The 1945 surtaxes, started at 20 per cent on incomes up to $2,000 and rose by brackets up to 91 per cent on the highest incomes.

Now the surtax on incomes up to $2,000 is 17 per cent and is 3 per centage points less all the way up the line.

And—this is new, too: when you figure your tax, deduct 6 per cent from it. What you have left then is the total tax you'll owe. Remember this:

Because the surtax has been cut 3 per cent—and the normal and surtax exemptions are the same—you won't have to bother figuring out your normal tax separately.

Just figure out your surtax by not reducing it 3 per centage points from last year. You get the same answer you'd get if you had figured the 3 per cent normal tax separately and then chopped 3 per centage points off your surtax.

The new system went into effect Jan. 1. Most wage-earners and salaried workers already have had tax withheld from them under the new reduced rate.

If your total 1946 income will be under $5,000 and you have to file an estimated declaration, find your total tax in the table on Form 1040-ES. In this table you're allowed a deduction of about 10 per cent figured right into the table. So you don't have to claim a deduction.

You'll have to figure out your estimated declaration if your 1946 income will be $5,000 or over. (Note the exceptions to this in yesterday's story.)

People with income of $5,000 or more can automatically take—without itemizing—a deduction of $500 for expenses. If larger than (Continued on Page Two)

"Little Women" Next Week For a night of ray entertainment, filled with laughter and tears here's no better guarantee than a ticket for the Wesley Foundation Players' production of Louisa M. Alcott's "Little Women," which is to be given next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night at the Methodist church annex.

"Little Women," is a play for all, both young and old. Its gayness, its charm is a universal quality of the book. And when you see the dramatization of this famous novel that actress will suddenly come to life.

Costumes have been designed and made for this production, beautiful and lovely. Scenery has been especially constructed to represent the old living room parlor that reads so familiarly so well from the book. There will be special music of the 1850's sung by a group of lovely young ladies from the music department of the East Carolina Teacher's College. All these things have been procured in order that when you see this delightful play it truly will be "a night in the 1850's."

Parents, don't fail to bring your children. This is a play that they will love. And parents, don't fail to bring yourselves. Re-live those childhood memories again. Don't forget to buy your tickets early. You don't want to miss "Little Women."

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR March 2, 1906 The income for the water and light plant for the month of February was $900. There were not enough present at the meeting of the Merchants Association called in the mayor's office last night to constitute a quorum, so no effort at the transaction of business in connection with the association was made. There ought to be such interest awakened in the association as to bring out the cooperation of every merchant and business man.

any who may be visiting at the worship hour, for all men and women still in the armed forces, and for parents of those whose lives were given in service. All returned service people and those still in service who are not identified with any local church, are given a cordial invitation to attend the service on Sunday morning.

At the evening service, the pastor will continue his messages based on the five reasons for the triumph of early Christianity. The subject for this service will be "The Pure and Auster Moral of the Early Christians."

During the month of March the morning worship services will be broadcast over station WGTG.

The intermediates and young people will have their separate fellowship meetings at 6:30. The intermediates will continue their study of "Heroes of the Community" with Mr. Reynolds May as speaker. The young people are studying Africa—its industrial development.

Woman's Club The general meeting of the Woman's Club will be held on Thursday, Mar. 7, at 3:30 p. m. in the New Classroom building of East Carolina Teachers College. At this time a movie in technicolor and sound, "Family Life in Williamsburg," will be shown. Dr. Carl Adams of the college will present the picture.

All of the Book Clubs, the A. A. C. W., American Legion Auxiliary, Junior Woman's Club and all departments of the Woman's Club are invited.

Mrs. W. H. Woolard, chairman of hostesses for the occasion, wishes to invite members and guests for refreshments after the showing of the film.

Welch-Edwards Miss Grace Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Edwards of Greenville, became the bride of Mr. Clarence William Wellons, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wellons, Sr., of Newport News, Virginia, on Saturday, February 23, 1946, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Greenville.

Rev. Steven Gardner of Washington, N. C., was the officiating minister. Wedding music was rendered by Miss Eva Hodges, organist, and Miss Louise Kilgo, soloist, both of Greenville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Charles S. Edwards of Farmville, N. C., wore an aqua gabardine suit. Her flowers were a corsage of white orchids.

Miss Helen Barefoot of Bennettsville, S. C., was maid-of-honor, and the bride's only attendant. The groom had as his best man Mr. Jack Yelverton of Farmville, N. C. Roby Edwards, brother of the bride, lighted the candles.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points.

Mrs. Wellons attended East Carolina Teachers College and is a graduate of Carolina General Hospital School of Nursing, Wilson, N. C.

Mr. Wellons attended Duke University three years and was a member of the United States Army Air Force for the past three years, having been recently discharged.

The couple will make their home in Newport News, Virginia.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE NATURE OF TRUE RELIGION

Do you experience a sense of the divine fellowship every day? If God is with us, there can be no opposition to us, which means any-thing. If God is with us, there is no sorrow that is not eventually sanctified and understood. If God is with us there is not a troublesome circumstance that cannot be sur-mounded. If God is with us there is not a temptation that cannot be faced and overcome. If God is with us there is not an anxiety that we cannot put aside with full confi-dence. It is a very simple truth, and one we have heard so often that we may have become calloused to it, but the abiding presence of God in human life is the most significant and joyful circumstance in life. One wonders sometimes how peo-ple can be willing to be designated Christians when they seem to get so little out of their religion. Their religion promises nothing less than fellowship with God. Yet many peo-ple are willing to go on and assume certain of the responsibilities of church membership without ever in the least experiencing that joy. The reason is that they do not prepare their hearts to receive God. They are not willing to give up their con-venience. There is scarcely a com-fort that they do not relinquish grudgingly if God or the church makes some little demand on them. It is when we really trust Him that He stills the tempest, sur-rounds us with His providence, in-spires us and makes us new by His grace.

The State Department said flatly "the United States has no agree-ment, secret or otherwise, with the Soviet government in regard to war booty in Manchuria."
"Some time ago we informed the Soviet government that disposal of Japanese external assets, such as industries in Manchuria, was a mat-ter of common interest and concern to those allies who bore the major burden in defeating Japan and that it would be most inappropriate at this time to make any final dispo-sition of Japanese external assets in Manchuria either by removal from Manchuria of such industrial assets as 'war booty' or by agree-ment between the Soviet and Chi-nese governments for the control of such assets."

of the four Allied zones of occupa-tion.
There is much illness and in some sections there have been epidemics or are threats of them. Things may get worse before they get better in the matter of food, for there is a great shortage of fertilizer in the country as well as seed and farm machinery.
Progress is being made in denazi-fying Germany and in getting de-mocratic institutions under way. Among other things the schools have been purged and the little folk no longer are being taught Nazism and militarism in the classroom. What they may still be taught at home by Nazi minded fathers and mothers is another question.
A point which stands out clearly is a warning to the Allies is that while the German people are chast-ened by their beatings, their natures haven't yet been changed. Re-educ-ation and moral rearmament are the only things which will change that.

"Daddy's never coming home, Darling!"

Yes, I know he promised, but that was a promise he couldn't keep, darling! Remember how he told you to be a brave girl if he couldn't come home? Daddy would want to be proud of you, you know... so be brave for his sake, because he can never come home, now.

SO MANY small sons and daughters will have only shadowy memories of their Daddys... so many young mothers must face the future alone... a future they're so ill-prepared to cope with. Children have a way of needing so many things... clothes and food... school supplies and new shoes. And somehow one just never knows where the money goes. Think of all the problems that arise in everyday living. It takes a steadfast heart and an unflinching courage to meet them all alone... and at times even the strongest courage wavers. Where can she turn when the going gets too rough? Who will give her a spark of hope when it seems as if she can't go on? While she is making her adjustment, the Red Cross stands ready to be of service... to help her face the future. It is a friend in need... a neighbor who will understand, provide guidance and help over the lonely road ahead. There are so many people in the world who need help—your help through the Red Cross. Your contribution makes it possible for the Red Cross to do all it does. Give to the Red Cross today.

John Charles Thomas Guest Of Kiwanians

By Chester Walsh
Dr. Carl Adams of the college faculty provided a wonderful program at the Kiwanis Club's weekly supper meeting last night. It was a motion picture of the Westinghouse Sunday radio hour, featuring John Charles Thomas, famous opera singer; John Nesbitt, Ken Darby and Victor Young's orchestra. The picture, with full sound effect showed "behind the scene" incidents in the course of presenting a nationwide radio hook-up. Thomas sang the songs the Kiwanians like and the club members enjoyed every minute of the movie. Glasgow Smith was program chairman. Judge Jimmy Roberts introduced Dr. Adams. It was one of the best programs in a year. President Ed Rawl presided.

Last night's meeting was a fellowship affair—one of those events in which men are drawn closer together. Dr. H. G. Hancey said the invocation. Police Chief Jim Tanner led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. W. H. Woolard won the attendance prize, given by Ray McKenzie.

Mrs. Sallie Davis Knight, who has been with the welfare department here eight years and who recently resigned, was the guest of honor. Judge Roberts paid her fine tribute for outstanding work, especially among the young people.

State Sen. Arthur B. Corey will have charge of the program next Friday. The Kiwanis Club will meet on March 15 with the Chamber of Commerce at its annual civic dinner at the college.

Mr. President Eli Bloom reported on the recent Farmville Kiwanis Club meeting when he and President Ed Rawl put on the program. Guests at last night's meeting included S. A. Winchester, new county farm agent; J. H. Dodd, W. H. Falson, Louis Tebeau, F. B. Johnson, Jr., E. E. Rowe, J. E. Phelps and Hal Moore.

tribution of industry and people in some sections could spell drastic local deflation as reconversion is completed.

Construction activity in other localities will increase sharply as contracts are let for new plants. Mr. Wyatt will do everything possible to stimulate new home building. The construction industry has always been one of the mainstays of full employment and prosperity. An administration searching so avidly for economic health will continue to stimulate the job-creating possibilities of a building boom.

City vs. Suburban Land.
Residential house property—urban, suburban and rural—staged the most spectacular price advance during the war. Office and factory property also moved up, but not to the same degree. City retail space and land suitable for subdivision in suburban areas advanced the least. However, now that peace has come, retail store space is very much in demand and subdivision operations are pushing up outlying land values.

On the basis of the economic prospects for different sections of the country, I feel that the best areas will be in the Southeast, Far West and Southwest. Prospects appear only fair in the Middle East, Central States and Northwest. The least favorable section from the standpoint of future prospects is the New England area.

Consider Labor Conditions.
Factory rehabilitation will be extensive but relatively few new factories will be needed. The general outlook for retail property is favorable because of the expected further upswing in consumer goods. Suburban land for subdivision will continue to rise in value.

Although there is much talk about shortages of skilled labor, untrained veterans are daily swelling the ranks of the unemployed. This is destined to act as a blunting factor on the demand for real estate. In the last analysis, real estate

Meeting

On Monday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. in the Board of Aldermen Room, City Hall, T. Carl Brown, who is State Supervisor of Distributive Education, Department of Public Instruction, will meet with managers and owners to outline the courses available for managers and salespeople under the Distributive Education program. Many will recall the very successful classes conducted in 1942 under the direction of Miss Sams, Mr. Koska, Mr. Moore, Mr. Leroy Lewis and others. These instructors were furnished by Distributive Education.

Mr. Brown comes to Greenville by invitation of the Merchants Association and everyone who is interested is invited to attend. After he has outlined the courses, this group will decide as to whether Greenville wants them.

Negro Woman Found Dead At Her Home

Mrs. Hattie Pugh, 30, Negro, died suddenly of a heart attack at her home, 420 West Third Street, last night. She was cooking caridy in the kitchen when her husband, Hubert Pugh, retired. About 1 a. m. he awakened and found the light still on. When he went to the kitchen he found his wife dead on the floor.

Coroner Griffin H. Rouse, who investigated the matter, said death was from natural causes. She had had a number of heart attacks.

Raleigh, March 2—(AP)—One of the finalists in the 25th annual Southern Conference basketball tournament here tonight will be an old-timer in the playoff, the other comparative unknown, to the title contest.

For the Duke Blue Devils it will be the seventh straight year they have played for the title.

The other club is a scrapping outfit from Wake Forest, who last night turned in a starting upset to knock off top-seeded North Carolina, 31-29.

Duke got their second scare in a row before finally edging out a fighting Virginia Tech team in the other semi-finals game 44-38.

Never before in the tournament's history has the Wake Forest team advanced past the semi-finals. And the Deacons weren't handed much of a chance to do it this year. But the role of favorite proved disastrous to the highly-regarded Carolina team as the Baptists out-scraped and outthought the Phantoms.

It will be Duke's tenth title contest, the last seven in a row. Duke has captured four of the tournaments here in Raleigh. The first championship came in 1938, followed three years later, and again in 1942 and 1944. Duke lost in the finals in 1933, 1934, 1940, 1943 and 1945.

Coach Murray Greason's outfit set up a great defense last night to stop the usually-high scoring Tar Heels.

Bond Joe Hingman drew the assignment to guard John Dillon, the famed hook shot artist for the Tar Heels. He did a well-nigh perfect job, holding the conference scoring leader to one goal from the field.

Deran Walters halted the scoring of Bones McKinney, sticking closely to the former All Southern, and not allowing him to move in close to the basket for shots.

Husky Abner Williams paced the Deacon scoring with 12 points, ten in the first half.

Duke got its second scare in as many days, before finally clipping Virginia Tech, 44-38. The winning score was the largest margin separating the clubs all night.

El Koffenberger again led the Duke scoring, tallying 13 points. It boosted his total to 29 for the two games, the high of the tournament.

Harry Bushkar and Joe Ruddle led the Gobblers in their fight that kept them in striking distance of the Blue Devils all night.

Another strike threat, involving Southern Pacific Railroad's 3,500 union trainmen and engineers in Texas and Louisiana, was averted when company and union officials reached a settlement last night, less than eight hours before the strike deadline, 6 a. m. today.

FARLEY HOLDS FINAL DRILL

Phantoms Prepare For Game With Garner Monday Night

By DAVE CLARK

Coach Bo Farley held a final workout for his Green Phantom crew this morning in the E. C. T. C. Gym in preparation for that important game with Garner which is to be played here Monday night. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Coach Farley had been in doubt as to the fairness of having his proteges work out on the court where the game is to be played since the Garner boys will not have the opportunity to work out there also. But he saw the Garner coach in Raleigh the other day and asked him about it. The opposing coach replied that it was perfectly all right with him.

If the Phantoms beat Garner, they will probably meet another eastern team before going to Chapel Hill to play a team from the west for the State Class B championship.

Garner is reported to have a crack center who may cause a considerable amount of trouble for the Greens before the night is over. The team is tall as a whole and Coach Farley is not expecting an easy time.

The Phantoms' workout, called at 7:45 o'clock this morning, will be the last for them until after the Garner game. Coach Farley wants them to have Sunday to rest.
