CIO DRIVE IN SOUTH A LONG RANGE PLAN

Union's Organizing Campaign In Southern Industry May Last Year Or Longer

Atlantic City, N. J., April 26—(AP)—The CIO organizing campaign in the south will not be a whirlwind drive of short duration but a long-range movement lasting a year and maybe longer.

George Baldanzi, an assistant director of the CIO drive, disclosed in an interview today that he had arranged to drop all his duties as executive vice-president of the CIO Textile Workers Union for at least a year to live in the south.

In this connection, Van A. Bittner, director of the drive, has been instructing his growing staff of organizers to prepare to devote all their time to the organizing campaign until the job is done. No time limit is being set.

S. H. Dalrymple, secretary of the CIO's organizing drive in the south, said in Birmingham, Ala., that he was seeking office space there for campaign headquarters, but added that similar quests were underway in several other southern cities.

He declined to comment on whether the availability of office space would be the paramount consideration in the selection of a headquarters city, but did say that "office space seems to be scarce everywhere."

The CIO textile workers meeting here, suffered a note of discord yesterday in their otherwise harmonious convention.

The American Federation of Hosiery Workers tried—and failed—to win its independence from the Textile Workers Union. It wants to be a separate CIO union. But a resolution to that effect was voted down.

Alexander McKeown of Philadelphia, president of the Hosiery Workers, told a reporter he next would appeal directly to the CIO for a separate charter. He didn't say what the Hosiery Workers would do if that request were turned down. McKeown said his federation had 65,000 members.

Six cars will be sent to the state hospital at Goldsboro and another to the School for the Deaf at Morganton.

OSMENA CONCEDES

Manila, April 26—(AP)—Sergio Osmena's headquarters tonight virtually conceded his defeat for the Philippines presidency with a charge that "the election is being stolen and apparently nothing can be done about it."

A highly placed source at Malacanang Palace who declined use of his name, said the chances of President Osmena defeating Senate Leader Manuel Roxas "are very slender."

Repeated attempts to contact Roxas for comment have failed. His sister said he is unreachable.

The Associated Press' tabulation of votes at 6 p. m., from 4.48 of the commonwealth's 14,238 precincts, gave Roxas 48,543; Osmena 39,121.

Roxas thus had increased his margin by 14,000 votes in the last 58 precincts reporting.

The NATION TODAY

By James Marlow

Washington, April 26—(AP)—The NAM—because of its war on OPA—is being opposed by a young business organization called the New Council of American Business, Inc.

NAM—The National Association of Manufacturers—is one of the most powerful business organizations in America. It has just spent $300,000 in a campaign aimed at getting OPA controls abolished by June 30.

(The U. S. Chamber of Commerce wants all OPA controls, except rent, ended by Oct. 31.)

The NAM, established in 1894, claims 15,000 members and occupies a couple of floors in Rockefeller Center in New York.

The New Council of American Business (NCAB) has a total staff of nine people and occupies small quarters in a Washington building. How many members does it have? Officials say they are "not at liberty" now to tell.

Pitching into NAM for its light on price controls, NCAB has written every Senator saying "independent businessmen are fearful of the constant misrepresentation of their views by such bodies as the NAM."

NCAB wants OPA continued intact.

Deadly Toll In Collision May Rise Still Higher

Warrant Charging Manslaughter Issued For Engineer Of Exposition Flyer; No Evidence Of Laxity Uncovered

Naperville, Ill., April 26—(AP)—At least 44 persons were killed, possibly 50, when the Burlington Railroad's fast Exposition Flyer, racing through Chicago's western suburbs at better than a mile-a-minute clip, ripped into the road's Advance Flyer yesterday.

Thirty-one of the 125 persons injured remained in hospitals. Some were in critical condition. All but 10 of the dead had been identified.

The crash of the two steel cars, diesel-powered trains occurred just 31 minutes after they left Chicago's Union Station simultaneously at 12:35 p. m. CST on separate tracks, but after a few miles moved onto a single center track, with the Advance Flyer, in the lead. The Advance Flyer, carrying 150 to 200 passengers in nine coaches, was bound for Omaha and Lincoln, Neb. The Exposition Flyer, made up of 11 coaches and carrying 175 to 200 persons, was headed for San Francisco.

Two minutes after the Advance Flyer made an unscheduled stop in this village of 5,287, a terrific crash roared through the countryside as the Exposition Flyer plowed into the rear of the stalled train.

A moment of tragic silence was broken by screams and cries for help from the dying and injured.

At first there was complete confusion. Huge, shining passenger coaches were strewn across torn tracks, some in tangled wreckage. Screams of the dying came mostly from the rear coach of the Advance Flyer, where passengers were trapped. Others groped in bewilderment for escape from the mass of steel wreckage.

Seven coaches were overturned or left the rails, six on the Advance Flyer and five on the Exposition Flyer.

Through the night, hours after the accident, search continued for additional bodies.

Workers attempted to remove the debris and restore travel on the main line. An emergency line, however, was set up to allow through traffic.

As Burlington officials pursued their investigation of the worst accident in its history and also the most tragic in Chicago area, State Attorney Lee Daniels of Du Page County said a warrant charging manslaughter had been issued for W. W. Blaine, 68, Galesburg, Ill., engineer of the Exposition Flyer.

Daniels said the action was taken to insure Blaine's appearance at an inquest later into the deaths. Daniels said he had interviewed members of the train crews and found no evidence of laxity.

Daniels said that Blaine, for more than 43 years a railroad man, told him that just before the collision fireman E. H. Crayton warned him.

Witness Stuns War Criminals In Trial

Mystery Defense Witness Proves To Have Worked With O.S.S. During War; Nazis Amazed By Revelation

Nuernberg, April 26—(AP)—Hans Bernd Gisevius, a mystery defense witness who proved a boomerang on the stand, testified today that he had "been in contact during the war" with the American intelligence services.

Many among the 22 German leaders on trial on war crimes charges appeared shocked, as if understanding at last why his testimony had been among the most damaging offered against them during the five months of proceedings before the international military tribunal.

Outside the courtroom, a qualified American informant said Gisevius had been in the service of the U. S. Office of Strategic Services in Switzerland and Germany since 1943.

The disclosure of Gisevius's dealings with the Americans came dramatically near the end of his third day of testimony. Until then, he had been identified only as a veteran conspirator against Hitler and a participant in the bomb plot against the Fuehrer in July, 1944.

A member of the American prosecution staff said in an interview later that during the last two years of the war, Gisevius was one of the American intelligence service's most valuable men on the continent.

The Americans got in contact with him after he had been placed by Adm. Walter Wilhelm Canaris in an intelligence position in the German consulate in Querich. After

POLICE PROBE MYSTERY CASE

Oriental Curse And Vanished Treasures In Bizarre Riddle

Vancouver, B. C., April 26—(AP)—An Oriental curse on 10 agate cups and the mystery of French banker Henri Bar today as Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Vancouver detectives, tight lipped about the whole affair, sought an answer to the riddle.

Bar vanished while the SS Samwater, carrying him and his 2 teakwood cases of rare art and antiques to Vancouver, still was three days at sea. Ship's officers and passengers said they believed Bar fell overboard as the ship pitched in rough seas.

The story might have ended there had not the Mounties and detectives descended suddenly upon the Samwater yesterday and combed the vessel from stem to stern and from top deck to bilge.

Then came the report, from untraced sources, that Bar had hidden in his cabin three precious necklaces of rare white jade, worth more than all the treasure in his teakwood cases—and that has been valued at $250,000.

Some said the officers also thought they might find the body of Henri Bar tucked away in some odd cubbyhole. The officers finally left, apparently empty handed, certainly without a corpse.

As for the curse, the Vancouver Daily Province said sailors on the vessel told a passenger 10 agate cups in the collection were relics of the looting of the Peking palace in the early 1900s and "there had been a curse" on them. There was no further explanation.

It was understood the French consul-general here, Charles Claudon, had demanded a full-scale investigation.

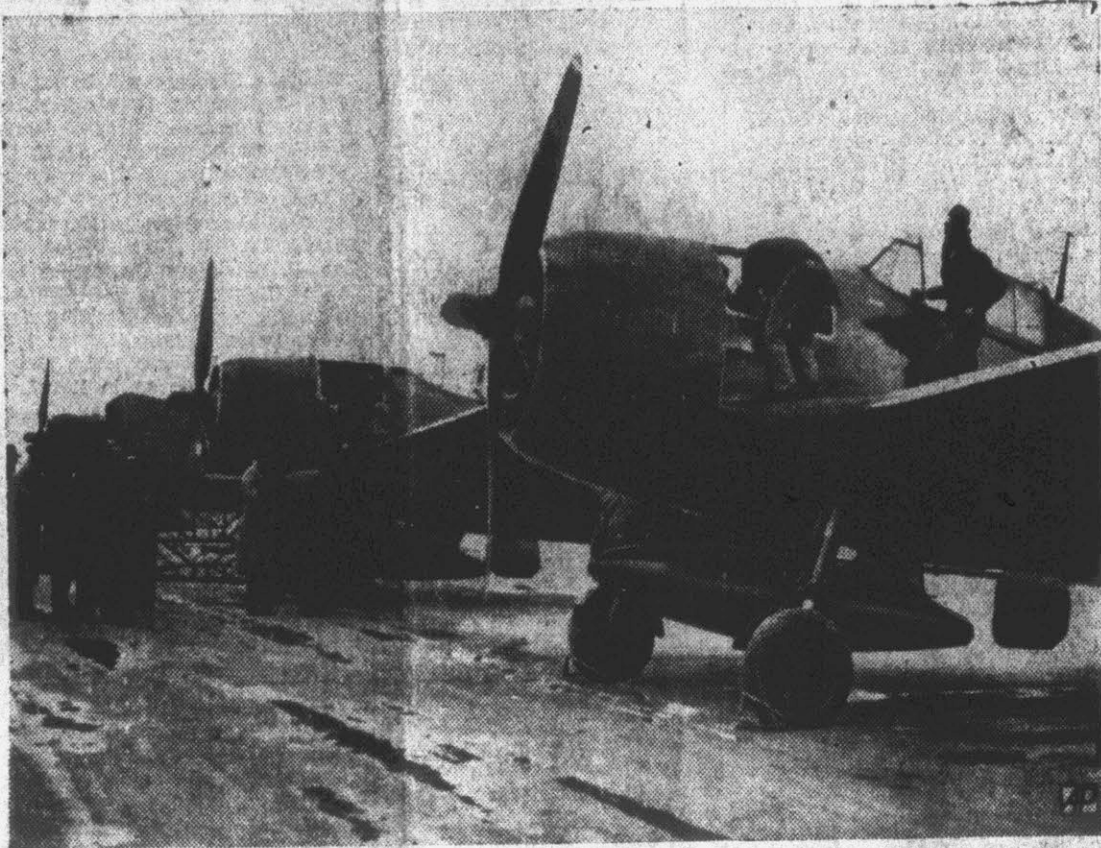

Capt. McVay Given Medal For Heroism

Washington, April 26—(AP)—Capt. Charles B. McVay, III, who was reprimanded following a court martial on charges connected with the torpedoing of the cruiser Indianapolis, has been decorated for "heroic service" in the assault on Okinawa.

The Potomac River command, to which he has been attached in recent months, announced the award of the Bronze Star Medal for operations against the enemy between March 21 and April 1945, while commander of a "United States cruiser" (the Indianapolis).

The citation said that "with determination and courage in combat, he proved to be an inspiration to his crew and contributed materially to the success of the assault operation. His conduct throughout distinguished him among those performing duties of the same character."

Optimism Felt Among Big Four Ministers In Paris

HUMBER TALKS AT FARMVILLE

Enthusiastic Reception Marks Candidate's Vigorous Campaign

Robert Lee Humber, Pitt County's candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District, spoke to a large and very enthusiastic audience Thursday night in Farmville City Hall. In spite of a heavy rain-fall, nearly every seat was occupied.

Mr. Humber kept his listeners at attention from the beginning of his speech. He told his audience that agriculture was their basic economy, but it would be advisable to diversify to some extent in order to supplement their income.

Saying that tobacco, being their largest money crop, it was high time that they could put a fair profit to the cost of producing this crop and set their price instead of accepting what the purchasers offered them. He also said that other crops would allow them to add an industrial feature which would also bring in revenue that was now being derived by others, and which rightly belonged to them.

He spoke on the subject of education, and how necessary it was to have good schools and the best teachers; that without the proper education, income would decrease instead of increase. "The teachers," he said, "should be paid on a parity with other professions, allowing them an adequate income."

He told his audience that if they would send him to Congress, that he would let his voice be heard in the halls of Congress from one end to the other, that he would work with all his energy to get through the proper legislation for the benefit of the First Congressional District and the state of North Carolina.

His story of Abe Lincoln, when

Regulations Affecting The Prospective Voter

For the benefit of prospective voters in the coming elections, who are not familiar with the qualifications and rules of voting, J. Henry Harrell, chairman of the Pitt County Board of Elections released the following information:

Question One: Who is entitled to vote in the coming primaries and elections?

Any citizen who will be 21 by the November 5th election, and is a resident of the state of North Carolina for one year by November 5, 1946, and will have resided in his precinct for four months by November 5, and meets educational qualifications and has not lost his citizenship by conviction of a felony, is entitled to vote.

Question Two: When may one register for voting?

Registration books open at the precinct polling places where elections will be held, at 9 o'clock a. m., Saturday, April 27, and will be open on the two succeeding Saturdays until sundown May 11. However, a person may register during the weeks between April 27 and May 11 by seeing the registrars at their homes. Servicemen who registered in absentia, must re-register after returning from service. May 18 is Challenge Day, and May 25 is the date of the Primaries.

Question Three: Where does one register?

First, do not confuse County Precincts with City Wards. Those living in Greenville Precinct No. 1, or that is, anyone living in Greenville Township west of Highway Eleven and Greene Street, and north of Fifth Street and Falkland Highway, shall register at the Third Street School.

Those living in Greenville Precinct No. 2, or that is, anyone living in Greenville Township east of Highway Eleven and Greene Street, and north of Fifth Street and Washington Highway shall register and vote at the Court House.

Anyone living in Greenville Township, south of Falkland Highway and Fifth Street, and west of Greene Street, Dickinson Avenue and the Ayden Highway, are in Greenville Precinct No. 3. They will register and vote at the Center Brick Warehouse.

All persons living in Greenville Township, south of Washington Highway and Fifth Street, and east of Greene Street, Dickinson Avenue and the Ayden Highway, are living in Greenville Precinct No. 4. They will register and vote at the City Hall.

Must a voter re-register on moving from one precinct to another? Yes. He should contact his new registrar in order to have his name removed from the roll of voters in his former precinct.

Russia Agrees To Allow France To Participate In Discussion On Balkan Treaties; Close Harmony Seen Despite Rumors Of Objection To Placing Austria On Agenda

By LOUIS NEVIN

Paris, April 26—(AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers met again this afternoon to seek agreements on European peace treaties amid reports that Russia would block any American effort to secure discussion of the Austrian situation.

An American informant confirmed that the Russian yesterday opposed placing Austria on the agenda. The Russians, however, raised no objection to discussion of French demands for detachment of the Ruhr and Rhineland from Germany, this source said.

Secretary of State James F. Byrnes conferred with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin more than an hour before the second day of the negotiations started.

A source in conference circles said that the Russians told the foreign ministers of the United States, Great Britain and France yesterday that they realized the seriousness of the Austrian situation and felt it needed careful study before being discussed and that they did not believe such a study could be completed in time for discussion at the present conference.

It was understood that the general reparations question for European countries other than Germany would be taken up as the first point on the agenda.

Both Bevin and Byrnes declined comment as they emerged from their conference in the American hotel to attend a luncheon given for the foreign ministers by French President Felix Gouin.

Russia's decision to allow France to participate in discussions in Balkan treaties created a fresh atmosphere of optimism as the four foreign ministers buckled down to their task of writing a new peace for

CLASH FEARED OVER POLICY

MacArthur's Food Program For Japs Opposed By Allied Council

Tokyo, April 26—(AP)—A British request for information on the allied food policy in Japan developed today a strong possibility of another clash between the allied four-power council and General MacArthur.

The British request stood out sharply in the light of the Far Eastern Commission's recommendation that the United States send only enough food to Japan to "safeguard the allied occupation forces."

MacArthur's headquarters replied that Japan could not raise enough food in 1946 to meet the minimum needs of its people on "a disease and unrest basis."

The agenda for the next council meeting, Tuesday, lists the request for information on allied food policy in Japan in relation to the present world shortage of foodstuffs and the standards of food consumption prevailing in other defeated countries.

The wording of the request, and the fact it was proposed by the British commonwealth member, W. MacMahon Ball, indicates he might support the position of Sir Carl Berendsen of New Zealand on the Far Eastern Commission.

Berendsen last week said he was concerned over the possibility that preference might be shown to "Japan or any other axis power" in the allocation of food.

Col. H. G. S. Chennock of MacArthur's headquarters staff questioned in an interview the authenticity of Berendsen's statement to the Far Eastern Commission that the Japanese are eating more now than they did during, or even before the war.

He declared that the present food program for Japan was not sufficient even to meet the Far Eastern Commission policy of sending only sufficient supplies to safeguard occupation forces.

Far North Is Site Of New Gold Rush

Yellowknife, N.W.T., April 26—(AP)—This mining town a couple of hundred miles south of the Arctic Circle is gripped by a modernized gold rush.

Hundreds of prospectors and tons of supplies are being flown into the surrounding bush country by 15 planes based on Yellowknife Bay where air traffic is so heavy that the bay has been nicknamed "Little LaGuardia."

Reports of rich strikes in the district have added to the gold fever here as the spring thaw nears.

United Nations Goes Into Its Second Year

New York, April 26—(AP)—The United Nations started its second year of existence today assured by President Truman that its first year was "one of noteworthy achievement."

The President, in a message last night to a dinner commemorating the first meeting of the UN in San Francisco, declared:

"The spirit of dedication which has brought us so far so fast must carry on through the year remaining to be done. Today, even more than a year ago today, the aspirations of all mankind are based on the charter of the United Nations."

New Proposal Is Offered Council

SENATE HEARS FARM BUREAU HEAD ON OPA

Witness Criticizes Past OPA Actions; Fears House Measure Too Drastic

Washington, April 26—(AP)—President E. O. Neale of the American Farm Bureau Federation said today that the whittled-down price control bill passed by the House "goes too far."

At the same time, he told the Senate Banking Committee, the OPA has not used good judgment in handling price controls.

"There is certainly a more reasonable middle ground approach that can be found, which will be in the best interests of all the citizens of the nation," O'Neal said.

He made these recommendations to the committee, which is considering legislation to extend price controls a year beyond June 30.

1. "The new price control legislation should contain provisions for controlling prices."

2. "Price ceilings should be maintained on items in short supply, and price ceilings must be adjusted in order to bring forth needed production."

3. "Consumer subsidies must be eliminated in the price control program."

On this point, O'Neal said the farmers are demanding that the "federal treasury get out of the grocery business." He calculated that if subsidies are removed "personal income taxes could be reduced 17 per cent" as a result of savings to the government.

4. "We must take steps to correct the basic causes of inflation through federal tax, budgetary, and credit policies so that in the near future detailed controls will not be necessary."

From Albert Goss, master of the National Grange, the committee received a statement saying:

"There must be a general recognition that inflation can be controlled."

The WORLD TODAY

An Analysis Of The News

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

It's bad news that there has been such a serious deterioration of morale and discipline among American troops "in certain localities and commands" of Europe that U. S. Commander General Joseph T. McNarney has found it necessary to inaugurate drastic remedial measures. It's decidedly good news that he has taken vigorous action. Among the things the commander lists are participation in black market activities, drunkenness, a high absent-without-leave rate and other disciplinary infractions, an excessive venereal disease rate, and a complaining attitude toward constituted military authority.

It's a grave epidemic to be circulating among our men, and you can take it from me that the reaction among our allies definitely is not good.

I ran into this at first hand during my recent tour in Europe, and reported on it in this column. The other Allied forces already had taken cognizance of it and were much concerned although naturally close-mouthed. The main fears were that if the deterioration in morale spread, it might weaken American determination to see the long

Australian Delegate Submits Plan For Subcommittee To Inquire Into Spanish Question; Gromyko Flatly Opposes Investigation; Delegates Give Up Hope For Unanimity

By FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

New York, April 26—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council today received a new proposal from Australia that a five-man subcommittee be named to inquire into the Spanish question and then defer further consideration of the case until 3 p. m. E. D. T. Monday.

The council then adjourned at 11:23 a. m.

Immediately after Lt.-Col. W. R. Hodgson, of Australia, presented his new draft of a resolution calling for a five-man subcommittee, Rafael De La Colina, Mexican delegate, suggested that a vote be delayed until Monday to permit time to study the proposal and allow the delegates to get new instructions.

Hodgson told the council he had been successful in his attempts to find a compromise with the French delegate, Henri Bonnel, and the Polish delegate, Dr. Oscar Lange.

The resolution stated specifically that it was the duty of the council and not the subcommittee to decide what should be done about Franco Spain.

Hodgson pointed out, however, that the proposal gave the subcommittee wide powers to decide where and how the inquiry is to be made.

The new Hodgson proposal began by saying that the council noted the "moral condemnation" of Franco Spain made in the Security Council debate here, at the United Nations meetings in San Francisco and at the General Assembly meeting in London.

As the delegates met at 11:08 a. m. E. D. T. to try to find a common ground to act on the Spanish question, the council chamber was more than half empty.

The Brazilian delegate, Dr. Pedro Leao Velloso, who was in a taxicab accident last night, arrived with patches covering scratches on his face. The Hodgson move today was the result of overnight efforts to arrive at a formula that might end

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
April 26, 1906

Mrs. P. C. Harding went to Ayden this morning.

W. H. Dail, Jr., returned Wednesday from Norfolk.

Monday is the last day for getting that poll tax square with the sheriff.

On her last trip up from Washington, the steamer Shiloh ran on a snag near the mouth of Indian creek. To save the steamer and cargo the pilot ran the boat on a shoal and she settled in shallow water.

Misses Katie Moore and Reba DuMay, of Washington, are visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Carrie Mumford as co-hostess. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Uran Cox, president; Mrs. Carrie Mumford, vice president; Mrs. Newman Lewis, secretary-treasurer and reporter.

The program consisted of a number of games and contests and Mrs. Cox and Mr. Brown walked off with the prize.

Entertain at Dinner
The Business and Professional Women's Club entertained in honor of their bosses at a delightful dinner at the Rotary building last night. Red and white roses in lovely arrangements and green candles were used in decorating tables.

Mrs. Viola Baker, president, welcomed the bosses and a rhymed response was given by Mr. D. H. Conley. Mrs. J. B. Spilman was toastmaster and in her gracious manner aided the program.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Clem Garner, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Kirby Loftin. Two guest prizes were won by Messrs. Elliott Johnson and J. B. Jackson. Each club member introduced her boss and guests. Mayor Jack Boyd, Jr., and Father Maurice Tew were special guests of the club.

Mr. Wilbur Ormond of Ayden played several selections on the accordion and told several jokes on bosses present.

Miss Gertrude Carraway, club woman and newspaper feature writer, was guest speaker and told of women's accomplishments through the years. She pointed out how women in the 19th century were miserably treated and how the gradual growth of women in public life has come about, with more than 18 million women employed during the war period in every business and profession known to man. Her talk was spiced with humorous anecdotes about women and their professions and bosses. She emphasized that women now have personal freedom, political rating and social responsibilities.

Attractive programs honoring the bosses, song sheets and peanuts were at each table. Rosebuds for the bosses and corsages for the honor guests made the dinner a gala occasion.

The program was concluded with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" accompanied by the piano and the accordion.

To All Electric Consumers

Your Utilities Commission was allotted a thirty-five (35) day supply of coal on April 1st, 1946, by the Solid Fuels Administrator, to operate the Water and Electric Plants, due to the shut-down of the coal mines by strike, and it is extremely uncertain when additional coal will be available.

This condition puts us in a position of possibly having to curtail the use of electric service for non-essential purposes, so we are requesting all consumers to voluntarily conserve electric energy in every way possible now, so as to spread the existing coal supply over as long period as possible.

We trust you will cooperate by using current only for essential needs. For example, one 100 watt lamp represents one and one-half pounds of coal in ten hours.

Sports

Hurricane Hal Newhouse and hammering Hank Greenberg, a pair of old hands at coming through in the clutch for the world champion Detroit Tigers, are still up to their old tricks and as a result the Bengals are reposing unmolested today at the top of the American League.

The two Tiger stalwarts, who combined their special talents — Greenberg with a grand slam homer and Newhouse with a splendid relief job — to defeat the St. Louis Browns in the final game of the 1945 season for the American League flag, collaborated once more yesterday to vanquish the Browns again 6 to 5.

The victory enabled the Tigers to take over undisputed possession of first place from the New York Yankees who dropped into a second place tie with Boston by losing to the Red Sox 12-5.

Newhouse, despite one bad inning in which he yielded all the enemy runs, souped up his way to his third straight triumph of the young season. He gave up seven hits in pitching his third complete game and fanned seven to increase his strikeout output to 22 in 27 frames.

Greenberg enjoyed a perfect day at the dish with two doubles, a single and a free ticket to first. The reconverted first baseman batted in a run and scored two more including the important tying marker in the eighth. A single by Birdie Tebbel followed a moment later to send in Roy Cullenbine with the winning run. Greenberg's trio of base knocks raised his eight-game batting average to a caudal .400 with seven of his nine hits good for extra bases.

Zambelli Johnny Pesky and Eddie Pellagrini the Red Sox reversed yesterday's 12-5 beating by pounding four New York hurlers for 13 hits including a homer, triple and double by Pellagrini and two doubles and a brace of singles by Pesky. Right-hander Joe Dobson held the Yanks to nine hits for his second straight mound triumph.

Brooklyn's dazzling Dodgers moved into undisputed possession of first place in the National League without even having to lift a little finger as the St. Louis Cardinals, who shared the top berth with the Brooks, slid down to second spot by bowing to the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-3.

Joe home run belt by Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner that traveled fully 450 feet literally knocked the Cards out of the lead. Kiner's blow came with one on in the third and tagged Harry (the Cat) Brecheen with his second defeat of the season. Ken Heintzelman, who handed the Redbirds their other loss on opening day in St. Louis, also was returned the winner although he was forced to leave in the seventh inning due to a blistered finger.

The Cincinnati Reds squelched their 1945 nemesis, the Chicago Cubs, for the first time in four meetings this season with a 7-5 victory. Three Cub misuses gave the Reds as many runs in the seventh inning and chased Starter Hank Borowv for the second straight time this year. It was only the Reds' second win over the Bruins in 26 meetings over a two-year span. Cub Rookie Outfielder Merv Rickert's perfect five for five went to waste.

The New York Giants suffered a double blow as they not only bowed to the Boston Braves for the second straight time, 5-4, but lost the services of their ace catcher Walker Cooper as well. Cooper, who cost the Giants $175,000 last winter, suffered a fracture of the little finger of his right hand when Carvel (Bama) Rowell fouled off one of Monte Kennedy's pitches. After X-ray examinations, Dr. Francis S. Genev, the New York club physician, said Cooper would be out of the lineup for at least four weeks.

The Chicago White Sox finally combined tight pitching and stout hitting as they thrashed the Cleveland Indians 11-2 on a 17-hit assault. Luke Appling and Pitcher Ed Lonat each collected three hits to lead the Sox attack. Hal Trosky chimed in with his first home run. Washington's Senators and Philadelphia's Athletics joined the Dodgers and Philadelphia Phils on the sidelines as rain washed out their scheduled contests.

Newhouse survived shaky fifth inning to annex his third straight victory at expense of St. Louis Browns, 6-5.

Ralph Kiner, Pirates — Clouted 450-foot homer and batted in three runs as Pittsburgh ended Cardinal winning streak at seven straight with 5-3 triumph.

Ed Lopat, White Sox — Collected three hits and scored two runs while scattering nine Cleveland hits in 11-2 Chicago victory.

Eddie Miller, Reds — Helped end three-game Cincinnati losing streak by batting in three runs in Reds' 7-5 triumph over Chicago.

Ed Pellagrini and Johnny Pesky, Red Sox — Pellagrini drove in two runs and scored two markers on homer, triple and double; Pesky slapped out four hits including two doubles, batted in two markers and counted two as Boston walloped Yankees, 12-5.

GHS Athletes In Track Meet

By DAVE CLARK

The baseball game between Greenville High School and Tarboro High School scheduled for today was called off because of wet grounds at Guy Smith Stadium.

Since the grounds are wet, several of the baseball boys left with the track team for Raleigh to participate in a practice triangular meet between Raleigh, Fayetteville and Greenville. These boys were Jimmy Futrell, throwing the shot put, Billy Harrington, throwing the javelin, Mac Batchelor, hurling the discus, and Earl "Spooky" Morgan running the hundred yard dash.

The track team will be operating without the services of their ace point maker, Jimmy Ward, who is at the Music Festival in Greensboro. Ward would almost be certain to take first in the high jump, and second in the high and low hurdles. Ed Williams, another point maker is also at the Festival and will not be with the team. In the last meet, Williams ran the 880 and 100 yard dashes and placed in both.

However, Lewis Evans, ace speedster, will be with the team and he should score a few points. Henry Turner, who should be able to place, Xenophon Sideris, Walter Lee, Conrad Taylor, Julian White, Graham Baker, Marcel Humber and Bobby Fleming.

Southern Football Officials Meeting

A meeting of the Southern Football Officials Association will be held on May 3 at the Carolina Hotel.

Game Postponed

The exhibition game scheduled between the Tars of Tarboro and Greenville last night in Tarboro, was postponed on account of rain. However, there is a strong possibility that this game will be played over in the Edgecombe county town the first of next week.

The two teams will play here Sunday afternoon in an exhibition game at Guy Smith Stadium with the game getting under way at three o'clock.

tel in Raleigh, N. C., according to a letter to Coach Bo Farley from Coach Gerry Gerard, Vice-President of the Association.

Coach Farley said that any officials interested in accompanying him to this meeting could contact him and he would make arrangements for them to go.

At the meeting Gus Tebell, President of the Southern Football Officials Association, will outline what plans he might have for the appointing of football officials for the high schools of Eastern North Carolina. He will also outline a training and qualifying program for officials living in this district.

In other words, the whole purpose for the meeting is to get better football officials for the high school games in Eastern Carolina next year.

Those interested should contact Mr. Farley as soon as possible in order that reservations can be made at the hotel.

According to Player-Manager Virgil Payne, the Greenville club will be fair outside of pitching. Bad weather and other interferences has made it difficult to look over some of the boys in camp. So far the club has only had four exhibition games, with most of them being postponed on account of inclement weather.

The experienced boys are Ray Carlson, infielder and outfielder, who has had two years experience, having played one year in the Ohio State League and one in the Northern League; Bernice Mayer, infielder, who played in the Arizona-New Mexico League; and Earl Smith, who has seen service in the Coastal Plain and Bi-State Leagues.

However, much strength is expected to be added to the club next week with the arrival of Verne Blackwell and his brother from Larned, Kansas. These two boys have been playing in the Mexican National League this year, but were not able to take the living conditions down in that country. Verne Blackwell was one of the best outfielders in the Northern League in 1941. His brother plays infield at either the shortstop or second baseman position.

Other boys who have been looking good in pre-season practice include Charlie Futrell, local boy, who has really been holding down the centerfield berth. M. A. Narron, a big 200-pound boy, brother to catcher Sam Narron, has been looking good behind the bat. Glenn Fulton and Ranweiler are having a close race for the first base job.

The pitching staff is a story of another color with only one tried and certain man in Johnny Foell, who played in the Northern League in 1941. The staff is made up of inexperienced unproven men. Before the club can be bidding as flag contenders they will have to be reinforced with experienced pitching. The club lost the services of Veteran Chick Wilson, pitcher who decided he couldn't play ball this year due to personal problems. Greenville also had counted on securing pitcher Sam McLawhorn, who belonged to the Wilkes-Barre club, but the word is that the Kinston club having a personal pull with Wilkes-Barre got the boy.

Manager Virgil Payne has definitely decided to play second base arm difficulty.

A Message to the VOTERS

Of The First Congressional District

JUST PLAIN FACTS

On May 25th approximately forty thousand voters will go to the polls to cast their ballots for a candidate to represent them in the halls of Congress. We, the voters, must consider the citizenship of our respective counties, which exceeds two hundred thousand. The question arises, shall we send a representative of the people or A MACHINE PICKED CANDIDATE, who is already over-burdened with political obligations.

ROBERT LEE HUMBER, the people's candidate, is a man that can bring honor not only to his District, but to the State and Nation. He is recognized statewide, nationally and internationally as one of the foremost leaders of efficiency in governmental affairs. He has the knowledge to induce leaders to respect his judgement and support his ideas with confidence—be it farming or what not. Few Districts, or even states, rarely have the opportunity that we have today, to send such a representative to Congress.

DON'T LET SELFISH POLITICAL RINGS TELL YOU HOW TO VOTE. GET THE FACTS. — DECIDE — THEN VOTE FOR ROBERT LEE HUMBER!

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

UNWILLINGNESS IS THE ANSWER

The prophet Mohammed once said: "If someone tells you that a mountain has moved from its foundation, be prepared to believe him; but if someone tells you that a man's character has changed, believe him not."

Experience, however, refutes the prophet's statement. In the course of centuries too many people have had their lives fundamentally changed—chiefly by the power of religion—to allow a statement like that to stand unchallenged. But the significance of the prophet's words arises from the fact that the transformation of character is so difficult that people are sometimes prone to say it never occurs.

Why is it hard for us to change our accustomed ways of doing things? Largely because of an inner perversity of will, a deep-rooted disinclination of the heart to give up certain evils and to try to cultivate certain virtues. We may blame our environment all we have a mind to but the reason why we go on year after year, the same unsatisfactory people we have always been, is because we have never brought ourselves to that supreme renunciation which is a prerequisite of character change. Always we are holding on to some evil with our little finger. We are putting our hand to the plow and looking back wistfully on the evils we said we would renounce. We let our resolution evaporate in words.

DO YOUR PART

Street cleaning, although vitally necessary for the comfort and health of a community, as a rule receives only routine consideration from those who benefit by it.

In these days when labor shortages are so keenly felt in all lines, it behooves the Street Cleaning officials to cast about for preventive measures that will materially help solve the problem of untidy thoroughfares and lighten somewhat the labor of their department and lessen at the same time, the complaints that pour in from a long suffering public. The solution lies in the people themselves.

It has been shown that at least thirty percent of the litter that finds its way to the pavement is preventable and could be avoided if proper cooperation would come from residents. This failure of cooperation on the part of the public can be charged, in a measure to their lack of knowledge of the Street-Cleaning Department.

Neat, clean, trash-receptacles have been provided by the City; but every morning finds the same litter of waste paper, broken bottles and other waste scattered the length of the business district . . . often enough, a large portion of the trash is found within a radius of twenty feet of the receptacles.

Is twenty feet too far to walk to keep our streets clean?

WAC Presumed Lost On Falling Into Sea

New York, April 25 (AP)—An enlisted WAC fell from the New York-bound troop transport Sedalia Victory last night 36 miles off Montauk Point and is presumed to be lost, the Army said today.

Name of the WAC was withheld by the Army pending notification of next of kin.

The Army said it did not know circumstances of the WAC's fall into the Atlantic.

Crewmen from Sedalia Victory searched in two boats for two hours. At one time the rescuers heard the WAC calling for help but were unable to reach her. She wore no life belt.

Mexican delegate Rafael De La Collina, however, expressed the belief that a formula still might be found to win Gromyko's support.

Blaine, however, stayed at his throttle as his train sped toward the stalled Advance Flyer. The Exposition Flyer's silver nose plowed into the rear coach and for a fleeting moment appeared to stagger in the air, tear through the roof, then plunge with terrific force upon the floor and trucks of the car.

Its force was not spent, and it continued on through three quarters of the length of the rear coach, ripping its top, spreading it wide and inflicting death and injury to most of its occupants.

Blaine suffered cuts on the head and was taken to Aurora hospital.

Daniels quoted the engineer as saying "we were going too fast," and that his train was traveling 85 miles an hour when he noticed the first of two warning signals. The engineer applied the brakes at once. Daniels said Blaine related, but "it was too late. How I came out alive, I'll never know."

At the station, James Tangney, flagman on the Advance Flyer, left the rear coach and told passengers, "I'm going to stop that train behind us."

But before he had walked a dozen steps, the Exposition Flyer roared toward the stalled train and, with brakes screeching and sparks flying from its wheels, struck the rear coach of the Advance Flyer.

This same group, calling themselves business for Roosevelt, campaigned for the reelection of President Roosevelt. This was a temporary organization.

In the spring of 1945 this same group, calling themselves business men for Wallace, backed Henry Wallace's nomination as Secretary of Commerce. Again it was a temporary organization.

NCAB has chapters in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Pittsburgh and hopes to open more in St.

In its campaign for continuance of OPA, NCAB says it will run full-page advertisements in newspapers in Washington, New York, Chicago and Los Angeles.

Third Street School News

May Day Festival

On May eighth, the students of Third Street School are going to give a May Day festival. At this festival each of the seven grades will give a different dance which Mrs. Glen Scott, the music teacher at Third Street School, has taught. Colorful costumes will be worn by all the children in the dances.

The crowning of the King and Queen is the favorite event of all the children. The king and queen were chosen from the seventh grade. All the students of the upper grades were permitted to vote for their favorite candidate. The boy and girl chosen will be crowned king and queen. This year the king and queen will be Zack Taft and Mattie Brown Stancil.

After each grade has its dance, the most beautiful part takes place. This part is the May Pole dance with its many colored streamers which are woven in and out by the children. This dance is by the sixth and seventh grades.

The public is cordially invited. The time will be three-thirty Wednesday afternoon. This time was selected so that the business people can come, and so that the children from other schools can come.—By Kent Lee.

J. C. Totka, from Elizabeth City, a representative of the V.F.W. National Headquarters in Kansas City, Mo., presided over the meeting.

Mr. Totka explained the purpose and aims of the organization as being centered around the overseas veterans, especially those who are disabled. Cited from the April VFW Bulletin, were statistics to prove the efficiency of, and the need for such an organization. Secondly, the VFW Posts have as their aims, the fraternity of veterans, civic loyalty and promotion of all movements that benefit the community.

Sixty-five men were inducted into the post. These men are charter members, as all shall be who join within the next ninety days. Great promise was shown in the attitude and cooperative spirit shown by these first members of the new post. Hope was expressed for the induction of World War I veterans, who wish to help by their membership, an organization which already has an official roster of two million members.

Immediately following the induction of the new members, suggestions were made for the elections of officers. After spirited nominations and voting, Larry Averette was elected Commander, James Davenport, Senior Vice-Commander, J. C. Totka, Junior Vice-Commander, and Ralph Tucker, Quartermaster. Remaining officers will be elected at the next meeting.

With this nucleus of officers and members, Post No. 7032 expects to complete its organization shortly, and include on its roster most of the World War II veterans of Pitt County.

PRELIMINARY CONTEST HELD

Young Debators Work For State Contest In Chapel Hill

Winners in contests staged on Thursday, April 25, by the Eastern District of the North Carolina Debate Union at East Carolina Teachers College were: affirmative team, Mary Lina Raper and Betty Ruth Chappell of Hertford; and negative team, Anne Williams and Richard Bowen of Rocky Mount.

Six teams entered the final rounds of debates. These included affirmative teams from Rocky Mount, Washington, and Hertford and negative teams from Kinston, Aulander, and Rocky Mount.

Fifteen teams of debaters representing nine schools gathered on the East Carolina Teachers College campus to debate the state topic. Resolved, that every able-bodied male citizen of the United States should have one year of full-time military training before attaining age 24.

Taking part were both affirmative and negative teams from Aurelian Springs, Littleton, Rocky Mount, Scotland, and Washington. Affirmative teams from Elizabeth City, Creswell, and Hertford and negative teams from Aulander and the Grainger High School at Kinston participated in the contests also.

Dr. M. N. Posey of East Carolina Teachers College, director of the debates for the eastern district, presided at the opening meeting on Thursday and announced the day's program. Contests were held during the afternoon and evening until the successful teams were chosen.

Members of the college faculty acted as judges in the debates. Esther Mae Leitner of Roanoke Rapids, Charles Long of Thomasville, and Edward B. Bright of Chocoma, members of the Jarvis Forensic Club at the college here, were presiding officers at the contests held during the day. Also assisting with arrangements were the following college students: Gloria Butler of Tabor City, Joyce Strickland of Angier, and Alice Sumrell of Hertford.

The debates in Greenville were preliminary to the state contest which will be held in Chapel Hill on May 2 and 3. At that time winners of district contests will meet for final arguments on the state debate topic.

Optimism . . .

Discussion of the Italian peace treaty headed the agenda of the second-day meeting of the ministers of the United States, Britain, Russia and France. The deputy foreign ministers met earlier today to prepare the groundwork on this pact.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, unexpectedly reversing a decision he had announced last year at the London foreign ministers' conference, said yesterday he had no objection to French observers attending discussions of treaties with the Balkans and Finland.

The United States also will sit in without a vote on the discussions on Finland, which originally were restricted to Britain and France.

Delegates to the conference, most of whom had come to Paris with few optimistic hopes, said that Molotov's action might indicate that Moscow would prove to be more conciliatory on other issues.

The United States reportedly asked the ministers to draft a treaty assuring independence for Austria, and France requested the internationalization of the Ruhr and the detachment of the Rhineland from Germany.
