NO PROGRESS IN AVERTING RAIL STRIKE

Negotiators Fail In First Attempt At Settlement; Second Meeting Arranged.

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—Railroad operators and union negotiators, working to avert a rail strike called for Saturday, recessed after a brief "no progress" session today and called another meeting for later in the day.

The talks were resumed last night at the request of President Truman. Unions represented are the trainmen, engineers, switchmen, conductors and firemen.

All five brotherhoods are seeking a wage increase of $2.50 a day against $1.28 granted by arbitration and fact-finding boards, but only the trainmen and engineers have set a strike. Working rules also are involved.

A. F. Whitney, president of the trainmen, told reporters the carriers were not ready this morning to submit any proposals and added: "I can't report a thing."

Management representatives emphasized the talks were only "recessed" and not suspended.

President Truman's personal intervention, followed by resumption of negotiations at his request and reports of some progress, did much to bolster the guarded optimism but officials still waited anxiously for more positive encouragement from the actual bargaining sessions.

Pending hope for favorable news administration fingers were kept tightly crossed. For there was frank apprehension over the effects of any nationwide strike by 250,000 engineers and trainmen. With the country still hard hit by the soft coal stoppage, the impact of a general rail tie-up could be incalculable.

Mr. Truman sent representatives of the unions and railroads back to their negotiating after a series of White House conferences yesterday. The disputants met until almost midnight, but without reported progress, and scheduled another session for today. The White House has asked them to report back on Friday.

In getting negotiations resumed, Mr. Truman held three separate conferences. First he saw A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and Alvin Karpis, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen.

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—The nation's leaf tobacco industry will have to take its chances along with other United States businesses in getting products into China under current Chinese exchange and trade controls, the State Department has informed Rep. Ervin (D-N. C.).

Ervin told a reporter he received a letter from Acting Secretary of State Dean Acheson in reply to his request for information regarding the status of Chinese controls over imports of leaf tobacco.

Acheson said in his letter that "leaf tobacco is listed in schedule A of the temporary regulations governing import and export trade which includes items which may be imported only after obtaining a special license from the Customs."

While the Department is very much concerned over maintaining the best interest of American firms in China and assuring to them fair treatment, it feels at the present time x x x that it is inappropriate to try to impose upon the Chinese government its judgment as to just what commodities shall be purchased with the limited amount of dollar exchange available for Chinese imports.

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—There's nothing new in John L. Lewis' demand that the coal mine owners put up money for a health and welfare fund for the miners.

Other unions have agreements like that with employers. But such plans according to the government's Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) which has studied them—have sprung up only in recent years.

BLS made the study, based on examination of 13,000 union agreements, in the summer of 1945. The benefit plans found by BLS covered more than 600,000 employees. The number now probably is a good deal larger.

Stop-Gap Extension Of Draft Is Signed

President's Signature Keeps Selective Service; Fights And Teen Aged Youths Excluded; New Age Group Affected

By EDWIN B. HASKINSON Washington, May 15.—(AP)—Children men 26 through 29 years old came back into the draft picture today as President Truman's choice of "the lesser of two evils" kept Selective Service legally alive but crippled.

For the moment, however, only men 20-25 will be inducted. Mr. Truman chose last night to sign a 45-day stop-gap extension of the draft law—but with an outright ban on inductions of either fathers or teen-age youths—rather than let the act expire at midnight.

The chief executive affixed his signature just four hours before the deadline. Less than two hours earlier the Senate rammed through the extension after Senator Langer (R-N. D.) abandoned his threat to talk Selective Service to death.

Draft Director Lewis B. Hershey immediately wired local boards to confine inductions to men in the under-26 group Mr. Truman designated when Japan fell last August but army officials in a position to know said this will have to be changed.

Noting that the new law specifically permits men 20 through 29 to be drafted, one official said, "Of course, that's what will have to do." He asked not to be identified by name.

Byrnes Proposes New Conference

Suggests Representatives Of Big Four Prepare Drafting German Peace Treaty; Molotov May Agree To U. S. Proposal To Summon 21-Nation Peace Meeting In July

Paris, May 15.—(AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes proposed to the foreign ministers council today that a peace conference be called Nov. 12 to draft a peace treaty for Germany, an American informant said.

In a session completely taken up with discussion of critical German problems, Byrnes proposed that representatives of Britain, Russia, France and the United States start meeting immediately to draw up a treaty draft for Germany which the foreign ministers could present to the peace conference, the informant said.

If the date of Nov. 12 is adopted, the peace conference would convene on the 25th anniversary of the opening session of the 1921 Washington disarmament conference and 28 years and a day after the 1918 armistice.

Byrnes was reported to have proposed that the foreign ministers' representatives first report on the economic status of Germany to the foreign ministers council at their next meeting, possibly June 15.

Sources close to the Russian delegation predicted today that Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav M. Molotov would agree to a U. S. proposal to summon a 21-nation peace conference in July following another four-power conference next month.

These sources expressed belief that while Molotov would accede to three of the four suggestions made last night by U. S. Secretary of State James F. Byrnes he definitely would not agree to place the Austro-German question on the agenda.

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—The White House said today that a C-54 plane—not the "Sacked Cow," however—will be sent to Paris today or tomorrow to bring home delegates from the four-power conference.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said the dispatching of the plane "does not mean an immediate adjournment of the conference."

The plane is to be held "in readiness" for Secretary Byrnes and his party whenever it is needed.

Ross said the presidential plane, commonly known as "The Sacred Cow," will be used by the President himself when he travels to Missouri at this week-end. He is traveling to Liberty, Mo., where he will receive a degree Monday from William Jewell College.

PENSION PLAN IS DEFEATED

Retirement Pay For House Members Beaten In Committee Meeting

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—A plan to give $10,000—a full year's extra pay—to House members who retire after ten years or more of service met death at a super-secret Appropriations Committee session.

Committee members who did not vote to name disclosed this today in advance of sending the annual legislative appropriation bill to the House floor.

Among other items, this measure continues the $2,500 a year expense allowance for each House member above his salary. The House first voted this $1,000,000 fund last year but the Senate refused to approve it for its own members.

Appropriations committee members today said the retirement pay plan originated with a subcommittee but that the full committee rejected it by a vote of about three to one.

The subcommittee, estimating the average election year turnover of ten-year men at from eight to ten, recommended an appropriation to cover $10,000 payments to them. These would have been made whether retirement was voluntary or otherwise.

While there was no formal explanation of the rejection—ill fact Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) would not acknowledge that the committee had considered the proposal—members said they considered it best to wait for a permanent retirement program to be put into effect.

Such a plan, they said, probably will be a part of forthcoming legislation to streamline Congress along lines recommended by a Senate-House committee.

The 30 billion barrels of oil that have been produced in the United States since the first well was drilled in 1859 would fill a hole in the ground a mile square and a mile deep.

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—The House skirted a possible showdown today on legislation creating a permanent fair employment practices committee by adjourning for the day after a 26-minute session.

The adjournment motion, offered by Rep. Barden (D-N.C.), was approved by a standing vote of 99 to 81.

House Labor Committee members had served notice they intended to call up the FEPC measure for consideration.

They would have been allowed to do so under a seldom-used rule allowing committees to take such action on Wednesdays when they have approved the bill involved.

U. N. COUNCIL STUDIES NEED FOR SECRECY

New Rule Would Give Security Group Power to Control "Top Secret" Items

New York, May 15.—(AP)—Security Council members today were studying recommendations from their rules experts which would give the council ultra-privacy in deliberations at any time and the power to withhold selected top secret intelligence not represented in the council.

The experts' proposals, and a U. S. resolution whose adoption would block Albania's immediate effort toward membership in the U. N. come up for debate in the council at 11 a. m. EDT tomorrow.

In the new section of 34 rules for adoption by the council the committee of experts on procedure proposes that the U. N.'s peace-keeping arm should meet privately whenever it desired and also adopt a classification of information on military intelligence lines.

The membership of the experts' committee is identical, nation by nation, with the makeup of the 11-nation Security Council, and it was expected the council would adopt the rules along the lines proposed by the committee.

The proposed rules provide that the council in meeting privately may order the record restricted to one single copy alone which would be entrusted to the U. N. secretary-general for safekeeping, but the Security Council would have the right to disclose it.

Because of greater production costs we find it necessary to increase subscription prices of The Reflector effective June 1. There have been several increases in the cost of paper since our subscription rates were raised to their present level several years ago. The last such increase was 37 per cent on paper and indications now are that another increase may be put into effect by July 1. In addition to the cost of paper there have been increases in labor costs and a 12 per cent increase in the OPA ceiling on all printing equipment and some supplies since January 1. Our new subscription rates effective June 1 will be:

One Year $7.00
Three Months $2.00
Six Months $3.75
One Year $7.00
Renewals of the old rates will be accepted until June 1 at which time all subscriptions not paid in advance will be discontinued.

Survey Indicates Over Half Of Butter Now On Black Market

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—Secretary Charles W. Holman of the National Milk Producers testified today that from 60 to 80 per cent of the butter now produced is going into black markets.

Holman offered this summary of a confidential survey he urged the Senate Agriculture Committee to fight for removal of all present price control and subsidy programs affecting milk, butter, cheese, cream and other dairy products.

Holman said that from 150 to 200 "dirt farmers and their hired men" had been in Washington for several days trying in vain to get economic stabilizer checks from the government.

Holman said that the present dairy subsidy program planned by Bowles to keep down retail prices would cost taxpayers up to one billion dollars by next April.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), appearing as a witness, suggested that price controls be removed to allow dairy farmers a fair profit, or the subsidy program be stepped up until it is effective.

He said he is reluctant to see all controls taken off any major food item at this time.

Holman said a check of creameries and large chain stores which have 43,000 outlets showed butter production has dropped to about 50 per cent of the 1941 level. He added that the black market in butter is getting from 60 to 80 per cent of what is left.

Iran Army Poised On Azerbaijan Frontier

Tehran, May 15.—(AP)—Central Iranian government troops were reported by the Tabriz radio to have reached the borders of Azerbaijan today but Premier Jafar Pishevari of the separatist regime in that northern province declared: "We are not afraid of an attack."

Broadcasting from his capital at Tabriz last night, Pishevari asserted that Premier Ahmed Qavam of the central government was "aware that our army is made up of fighting men who will not be defeated."

Operators Offer Counterproposal

U. S. DEMANDS RUSSIA DROP PETTY CHARGE

Diplomatic Incident Grows Out Of "Hooliganism" Charge Against Clerk

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—The United States has demanded that Russia drop a charge of "hooliganism" against an American embassy clerk in Moscow and allow him to leave the country immediately. Russia has refused.

This was learned today from American diplomatic officials. They indicated that the case of Waldo Ruess is becoming a full-blown diplomatic incident involving the State Department, the embassy in Moscow and the Kremlin all to the tune of a furious exchange of reports and instructions.

The State Department is drafting a new set of instructions to embassy. Inside information is that the American representatives in Moscow will now be formally advised not to budge an inch in the case.

American officials privately expressed the suspicion that the Russian government is trying to force the United States to accept a new social theory and philosophy, the effect of which would extend to every industry in America, and as such must be considered and acted upon as a national problem, and not as one relating to the coal industry alone.

The committee said the problem was one to be considered by public legislative bodies.

The operators gave three major reasons for rejecting Lewis' demand for the levy to be paid by operators who estimated it would net the union $10,000,000 annually on the basis of last year's payroll.

"1. The committee would not exercise such authority and make a commitment of this character for the industry, and further, this matter does not go to the question of wages, hours or working conditions."

"2. That the plan constitutes double taxation on the industry for social welfare, for which it is now paying approximately 10 cents per ton... which in 1944 amounted to more than $61,000,000. This amount was contributed solely by the operators."

"3. That it is a matter of public concern and is therefore a problem that should be considered not by public legislative bodies and then only after a complete and thorough investigation by such legislative bodies of all the problems involved."

President Truman, meanwhile, awaited a report by nightfall, if possible, on the progress of negotiations to end the two-month-old dispute.

Mr. Truman last Friday asked Lewis and Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the operators, to report back in four or five days. This is the fifth day after their White visit.

While most miners are back at work under a two-week truce that began Monday, hope virtually vanished for a speedy settlement of the dispute which cut off bituminous production for 42 days.

Lewis reportedly thumped the table so hard at yesterday's session that ashtrays bounced on its polished surface, he declared that the making of a contract depended upon acceptance of the health and welfare demand.

The operators said that on the basis of last year's billion-dollar payroll, the seven per cent levy would yield the union $10,000,000 annually and add approximately 14 cents to the cost of a ton of coal at the mine.

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—Soft coal operators today flatly rejected as a "new social theory" John L. Lewis' demand for a seven per cent payroll levy on operators to finance a welfare fund for mine workers.

While they did not turn down the idea of a fund, their action seemingly erased any possibility of a permanent settlement of the coal dispute by nightfall as President Truman asked.

Mine Owners Flatly Reject Lewis' Demand For Welfare Fund Administered By Union; Suggest Jointly-Financed Fund Under Administration Of Independent Agency

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—Soft coal operators today flatly rejected as a "new social theory" John L. Lewis' demand for a seven per cent payroll levy on operators to finance a welfare fund for mine workers.

While they did not turn down the idea of a fund, their action seemingly erased any possibility of a permanent settlement of the coal dispute by nightfall as President Truman asked.

Lewis has served notice that he will not negotiate a new contract now or later unless he gets the fund which he proposed to put under the exclusive control of the United Mine Workers.

As a counter proposal to Lewis' proposition, the operators suggested the possibility of setting up a jointly financed fund for hardship cases under the administration of an independent agency such as the Red Cross.

The operators' negotiating committee said in replying to the United Mine Workers that Lewis' proposal presented a new social theory and philosophy, the effect of which would extend to every industry in America, and as such must be considered and acted upon as a national problem, and not as one relating to the coal industry alone.

The committee said the problem was one to be considered by public legislative bodies.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
May 15, 1906

The commencement of Winter-ville High School is now in progress. The first exercises took place last night in a concert by the primary and intermediate departments. The program consisted of recitations, songs, drills and tableaux, and the large audience was delightfully entertained. The annual sermon will be preached tonight, Thursday afternoon at the Vance Literary Society and Thursday evening the concert under the direction of the Philo-Alean Literary Society.

Introduced Miss Frances Wahl who gave a review of the book "Young Bess" written by Margaret Irwin. Miss Irwin catches the quality of charm of Elizabeth and portrays her as a strong-willed but charming princess. One reviewer says that "Young Bess" is an adventure in living history. The story covers six years of English history that were full of intrigue between the two Seymour brothers, uncles of King Edward VI, of wars against France and the restlessness of the people. These years were filled with the most of experiences that turned a tom-boyish self-willed girl into a shrewd, iron-willed woman determined to be queen of England. The book is full of great scenes that are skillfully and cleverly written.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments of ice cream, cakes and salted nuts which were enjoyed by all.—Reported.

As the guests entered the building they saw "Welcome Home" in large silver letters across the stage curtains. In the center of the room a tall Maypole with its long pink, green and yellow ribbons greeted the eye and made a pretty picture. A lovely corsage of pink roses with pastel ribbons was pinned on each lady and a boutonniere was given each boy after which they registered in the guest book.

MAJ. STANLEY MAKES REPORT

Salvation Army Is Doing Great Work In Pitt County

By CHESTER WALSH
Major W. H. Stanley's report of Salvation Army activities in the Greenville area, submitted to the advisory board, showed that the affairs of the local Post are being progressively and wisely administered.

At the board's recent meeting Rufus V. Keel, tobacco warehouseman, was elected chairman to succeed T. Y. Walker. Geoffrey P. Oakley, a new member, was chosen vice chairman. Rev. A. Hartwell Campbell is secretary and J. Herbert Waldrop is treasurer. In addition to Oakley, two other new men, Vernon Rawles and W. F. (Red) Young, were named on the board. Other members are T. Y. Walker, J. Hicks Corey, Guy V. Smith, R. M. Garrett, Berry C. Bostic and Dr. J. M. Barrett. Major Stanley is commanding officer of the Greenville post.

In addition to open-air religious meetings, the Salvation Army post has conducted hundreds of inside religious meetings at the Citadel on Dickinson Avenue; it has a splendid organization in the Women's League; local officers and workers conduct regular meetings at the county home and state prison camp; they make many visits to homes and the hospital. The Salvation Army here conducts regular Sunday school classes; it has a Young People's Legion; conducts an annual daily vacation Bible school; and has teacher training classes, and a cadet corps for the young people.

The Salvation Army during the past 15 months provided lodging for nearly 10,000 persons and served food and refreshments. Major Stanley's report gave fine credit to Mrs. John L. Horne, "Mom," as she is known to thousands of servicemen, for being "house mother" at the Servicemen's Home, Fifth and Pitt streets.

The Greenville radio station, WGTC, last Christmas used its facilities to provide a substantial sum for providing Christmas cheer for worthy families.

Art Center Has New Exhibition

By LUCY CHERRY CRISP

With the opening today of a show of water colors by Gregory Ivy, the Community Art Center again brings us the opportunity to see first-hand the work of a nationally known artist.

Gregory Ivy, head of the Art Department at Women's College in Greensboro, is well-known among water colorists through his one-man shows from time to time in Metropolitan galleries. Back at Greensboro now after army service during the war, he has gone quietly to work (as is his custom) both as an individual artist and as head of the Women's College art department which made such extraordinary strides under his direction during the 8 years between his arrival on the campus and his leave of absence in the army.

The water colors now on display here are from his pre-war period, and include subject matter from the North Carolina coast as well as from Mexico, the West, and the Southwest, along with some stimulating papers from the lively fields of imagination in the artist's own mind. In the Art Center gallery, on the second floor of Sheppard Memorial library, the paintings may be seen early next day afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock. Several are on display in the children's reading room on the first floor of the library. Others are being shown at the USO Club. They will be on display here throughout the month of May.

... if only for the sake of the little kids I know, I say NO MORE WARS! That's why I'm trying to do something about it before another one starts. That's why I joined the V. F. W.

Back at Greensboro now after army service during the war, he has gone quietly to work (as is his custom) both as an individual artist and as head of the Women's College art department which made such extraordinary strides under his direction during the 8 years between his arrival on the campus and his leave of absence in the army.

The water colors now on display here are from his pre-war period, and include subject matter from the North Carolina coast as well as from Mexico, the West, and the Southwest, along with some stimulating papers from the lively fields of imagination in the artist's own mind. In the Art Center gallery, on the second floor of Sheppard Memorial library, the paintings may be seen early next day afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock. Several are on display in the children's reading room on the first floor of the library. Others are being shown at the USO Club. They will be on display here throughout the month of May.

... I'm sick and tired of hearing this stuff about another war coming! I just finished fighting in one war, and I don't want to go back to more hell and torment like that.

... seems to me the people who spend their time talking up another war would do a lot more good if they'd start talking down the whole crazy idea of wars between nations.

... if only for the sake of the little kids I know, I say NO MORE WARS! That's why I'm trying to do something about it before another one starts. That's why I joined the V. F. W.

A Korean engineer built what is believed to have been the world's first suspension bridge only a hundred years after the discovery of America.

Average production of crude oil and natural gasoline in the United States in 1945 was 5,000,000 barrels daily—80 per cent more than in 1936 and 22 per cent more than in 1941.

There's going to be another war?

Chubby Max Lanier, with 10 straight victories over Brooklyn to his credit, may be the decisive factor in the National League race if it narrows down to the Dodgers and Cardinals.

It's much too early to eliminate anybody from the flag chase, except the Phillies, but the early season results point to a duel between St. Louis and Brooklyn. The Red Birds, off to a stuttering start, closed the gap to one game yesterday by downing the Brooks, 7-5, in 11 innings.

Eddie Dyer is new as skipper of the Cardinals but he knew the answer when he got to Brooklyn for the first time. He started Lanier, the Dodgers' hex.

This great Christian teacher had discovered the secret of happy Christian living.

President Truman's return from a week's cruising on Chesapeake Bay and reviewing fleet maneuvers brought his travel total close to 24,000 miles.

The White House boys who have had a look at his "prospective trip book" for the months to come, are willing to bet that he will just about maintain that clip during his second year in office.

Add 1946 candidacy possibilities (very bare): Treasury Secretary Vinson for Baseball Court Happy Chandler's former Senate seat from Kentucky; and Agriculture Secretary Anderson for the governorship of New Mexico.

BLS says it found only one union which got that much of a contribution from an employer: the National Buttonhole Manufacturing Association, which gives 7 1/2 per cent of the payroll to the fund of the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

Lewis says he wants the fund for six purposes for his miners: Medical service, hospitalization, life and health insurance, rehabilitation and training of disabled men, financial aid in hardship cases, and—if any money is left—cultural and educational work.

This, in a general way, is how BLS found the benefits in its study being distributed. Weekly disability benefits, ranging from 50 to 60 per cent of an employee's regular earnings; are Disability caused by occupational accidents which are covered by workmen's compensation laws in the various states are not included in the coverage given by most benefit plans.

Grain Market

Chicago, May 15 - (AP) - A few transactions were made in August and March wheat deliveries today at $1.93 1/2, up 5 cents from the preceding session's close but 5 cents under the ceilings in these new contracts. Both old and new oats contracts ruled firm on gains of around 1/2 cent while May rye dropped 5 cents for the eighth consecutive day.

New oats contracts finished unchanged to 1/2 higher, August 85 1/2, while old contracts were unchanged to 1/2 higher, September 82 1/2. May rye finished at $2.42 1/2, down 5 cents. New wheat, corn, and rye deliveries advanced the permitted 5 cents. Old contracts held at ceilings.

New York Cotton

New York, May 15 - (AP) - Cotton futures opened 10 to 45 cents a bale lower.

Noon prices were 5 to 35 cents a bale lower. May 27 1/2, July 27 3/8 and Oct. 27 5/8.

Futures broke more than $1 a bale on a late flurry of hedge selling against purchases of government cotton with the decline aided by a selling through local sources.

Futures closed 90 cents to $1.15 a bale lower.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, May 15 - (AP) - Stocks generally declined in today's market after soft coal operators turned down a demand by miners for a 7 per cent payroll levy to finance a welfare fund.

A few utilities and some other industrials resisted the trend and tacked on small gains. The list was irregular most of the morning until the bituminous group made known their decision.

Also providing a chilling effect was the possibility of a railroad strike Saturday even though the situation was described as slightly brighter. Most of the carriers were off.

Dealings were quiet during a majority of the session with volume approximating 1,100,000 shares compared with 1,140,000 Tuesday.

Youth Gets Long Term In Prison

In Superior Court in Wilson Tuesday, David Cannon, 21-year-old Ayden youth, pleaded guilty to charges of abducting and kidnapping young boys and girls for the purpose of sexual advances, and was sentenced to two 15-year sentences in the State Prison by Judge Walter J. Bone. The sentences are to run concurrently.

Cannon, a slender man, showed no emotion, but his father, a well known Ayden business man, cried. Father and son later embraced over the rail of the prisoner's dock.

Following a search of several months, Cannon was arrested here two weeks ago after being wanted in Rocky Mount, Greenville, and Goldsboro, in addition to Wilson. Police were told that he lured over a dozen boys and girls to his auto on pretext of having them direct the way to a community. He later would drive to the country, and make improper advances, officers said.

Cannon entered a plea of guilty in the abduction case, and following pronouncement of Judge Bone's sentence, Cannon's lawyers entered a guilty plea to the kidnapping charge.

Witnesses from Ayden said that Cannon, although from a fine family, was abnormal. His father said that his son was placed in Rocky Mount Training School several years ago for attempting to rape a young girl. Cannon since had been treated and examined.

Claude Thornhill Plays For German

Claude Thornhill and his famous 18-piece band, with feature soloists, will play for the Twenty-Five Club's May German at the armory tonight. Admittance to the dance is by bid only. No tickets will be sold. Rules of the club provide that bids be extended only to men who live outside the Greenville mail delivery routes. Each member of the Twenty-Five Club are allotted bids for five couples.

Thornhill plays the piano with casual ease, his fingers gliding over the ivories with an effortless grace that belies the difficulties of the arrangements. His piano is heard to telling effect in the beautiful theme of the Thornhill band, "Snowfall," which he composed, and on virtually all of the distinctive Claude Thornhill arrangements that have made this band so outstanding.

Maybe you aren't this big a nut about cars

Maybe you're able to resist taking your engine apart—as long as it runs swell. That's generally enough for most anybody—no matter how curious he is to see Conoco Nth motor oil in the act of OIL-PLATING the engine's insides.

OIL-PLATING engines aren't forever having the top opened up to see about carbon—nor having the bottom opened up to see about sludge. Carbon and sludge are the camp-followers of wear. But OIL-PLATING is in the best position to oppose wear—because it is fastened and held direct to inner surfaces. This is accomplished by the magnet-like action of an added material in Conoco Nth oil—patented.

OIL-PLATING is an addition—a durable protection—to the engine's fine inner finish. Ask new car owners and you'll find them widely adopting OIL-PLATING. This time, with this new car, they want to start out right. . . . And should an older car logically have anything less than the safeguard of OIL-PLATING! Then get Conoco Nth motor oil—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station—now. Continental Oil Company

Speaker

Louise Greer of the English Department at East Carolina Teachers College talked on Monday evening, May 13, before the Faculty Lecture Club of the college on "Browning Clubs and Societies in America during the 1880's."

Miss Greer told of the immense enthusiasm that developed in this country for Robert Browning during the late nineteenth century and outlined the organization of major Browning societies in Boston, Philadelphia, and Chicago and of countless smaller clubs in towns and cities throughout the nation.

Three scholars, she said, who were leaders in encouraging the study of Browning's works were Hiram Corson of Cornell, Levi Thaxter, and Jenkin Lloyd Jones of the University of Chicago. Publications of various types, including the magazine "Poet Lore," increased the poet's reputation and appreciation of his work. She described the excesses of enthusiasm of which Browning's admirers were guilty and evaluated the contributions made by the study groups.

Miss Greer whose home is in Abingdon, Va., joined the East Carolina Teachers College faculty last fall. Her book "Browning in America" will be published by the University of North Carolina Press.

College Students To Buy Books In Future

Students at East Carolina Teachers College will buy their text books in the future. The Board of Trustees at a meeting in Greenville on May 3 authorized a change from the present practice of providing books for students on a rental basis. Plans for the change are now being completed. Books will probably be sold through the campus Stationery Store, according to F. D. Duncan, college treasurer.

Books are now issued to students each quarter from the college Books Room. Dr. W. A. Browne, who directs the issuing of texts to students, estimates that about 20,000 volumes change hands during the four quarters of school work.

Books now in stock will be sold to students who wish to buy them, according to present plans, and new books will be added to the supply as they are needed.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson is known to be studying these problems. Chester C. Davis, chairman of President Truman's famine emergency committee, told an interviewer that he believes supplies of flour now in distribution channels will be sufficient to meet domestic needs on the basis of consumption standard calls, however, for voluntary use of 40 percent less wheat products than before the current food emergency arose. Davis said surveys indicate that about one out of three consumers is not attempting to comply with the "eat-less-bread" program.

The committee's consumption standard calls, however, for voluntary use of 40 percent less wheat products than before the current food emergency arose. Davis said surveys indicate that about one out of three consumers is not attempting to comply with the "eat-less-bread" program.

Davis said he believes the government should divert the export wheat to the mills to keep them operating. He said, however, that all the flour milled from government wheat should be earmarked for relief overseas.

"I believe Secretary Anderson will adopt such a policy," Davis said.

trian treaty on the agenda for a suggested Big Four foreign ministers session June 15.

It appeared, meanwhile, that the current conference might wind up its work tomorrow without basic agreement on peace treaties. "The Sacred Cow," President Truman's personal plane, already was reported on its way to Paris to return Byrnes and the U. S. delegation to Washington.

The conferees were ready to turn to German problems today for the first time since they met April 25. The first question on the day's agenda was whether China, in the person of Ambassador Tsiens Tai, would be permitted to participate in the discussion of Germany.

The last item on the agenda for the present conference was scheduled to be France's demand for political detachment of the Ruhr, the Saar and the Rhineland from western Germany. This was expected to occupy the council until tomorrow.

Byrnes proposed, in a formal statement last night, that the ministers should recognize openly and frankly the differences which exist in drafting peace treaties and that they should adjourn until June 15, trying in the meantime to reconcile the differences.

sians brought charges against Rues as a sort of retaliation for the American arrest on March 6 of Soviet Naval Lieutenant Nicolai G. Redin on a charge of espionage.

Official informants give this as the play-by-play in the case of Rues:

The embassy clerk, who comes from Hollywood, Calif., has been a member of the Moscow embassy staff for two years and had expected soon to come home on leave. Two weeks ago he was accused by the Soviet Union of having committed "hooligan acts" toward a Russian actress.

The alleged incident occurred, the charge says, in February. The charge was filed at the end of April. On May 4 Rues, who was not arrested or asked to post bail, received a summons to appear four days later at the Moscow city prosecutor's office.

The embassy took the position that Rues had diplomatic immunity. Such immunity is granted comparable Russian representatives in the United States. Rues did not go to the city prosecutor's office.

Russia rejected the argument of immunity.
