SENATE OKAYS OVERHAULING OF CONGRESS

Unprecedented Bill Given Surprise Approval; May Be Law This Session

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—A tradition-shattering measure to overhaul the nation's law-making machinery rolled over to the House today from a surprise and smashing Senate victory.

Given small chances of getting anywhere only 24 hours ago, the bill crossed up Capitol Hill experts by winning Senate approval 49-16 on the final vote and getting a fine fighting chance to become law at this session of Congress.

Besides blueprinting a modernization of Congress, the measure provides for a 50 per cent pay boost for the nation's lawmakers, plus pension privileges.

As passed by the Senate, the bill has these major provisions:

- 1. Reduction of the number of Senate standing committees from 33 to 15 to lighten the work load of lawmakers, some of whom serve on eight or nine committees.
2. Increase in congressional salaries from $10,000 to $15,000 a year.
3. Expansion of the lawmakers' technical and administrative assistance. Each committee would get four "experts" and each lawmaker an $8,000 a year administrative assistant.
4. Creation of a pension system which would allow a member of Congress to contribute voluntarily to the government's retirement fund. He would have to pay in five per cent of his salary for at least five years, serve six years in Congress, and be 62 years old before becoming eligible.
5. Eliminate many of Congress' routine tasks, such as the necessary acting on each damage claim made against the government and on each proposal to build a bridge over a navigable stream.
6. Tighten fiscal controls by requiring Congress to go on record in favor of an increase in the national debt each time estimated appropriations are to be anticipated in the next fiscal year.

Officers Elected At VFW Meeting

Winston-Salem, June 11.—(AP)—James M. Hayes, Jr., of Winston-Salem, a veteran of the Marine Corps in World War II, is the new commander of the North Carolina Department of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was elected yesterday at the final session of the organization's annual encampment. Mrs. Grace Williams of Charlotte was named president of the Ladies' Auxiliary. Hayes, the Democratic nominee for the State House of Representatives in Forsyth County, defeated Sam Whitaker of Greensboro, who was nominated by R. B. Byrd of Greensboro with the comment that older members should get the top posts and the younger ones the minor offices so they might gain experience. Tom Broughton of Lenoir disagreed, saying "We didn't have to win much experience to go out and win a war." Ben Douglas of Charlotte commented, "If we want the pep and energy that come with youth we must elect a veteran of World War II." The vote was 393 for Hayes and 241 for Whitaker. Two other World War II veterans were also named to top offices—Pope Lyons of Smithfield, senior vice commander, and Harry Vanderlin of Hickory, junior vice-commander. Others elected were: A. C. Ingram of High Point, quartermaster; K. C. Sneed of Wilmington, judge advocate; Dr. L. B. McDonald of Hendersonville, surgeon; and the Rev. C. W. Wallace of Lumberton, chaplain.

Violence Feared As Rome Becomes Scene Of Unrest

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—A crowd of demonstrators began a march on the seat of government, tonight, to vent their discontent at the cabinet's delay in proclaiming the end of the monarchy.

They began their march at the command of Giuseppe Romita, Minister of the Interior, who, during a Republican rally in Piazza Del Popolo, cried: "The cabinet is merely discussing instead of acting x x x march to the Viminale x x x and incite the government."

Austrian Air Lanes Agreed

Vienna, June 11.—(AP)—Gen. Mark W. Clark, commander of U. S. occupation forces in Austria, reported to the joint chiefs of staff in Washington today that Russian authorities have agreed to the establishment of straight air lanes over Soviet-controlled territory between Vienna, Linz, Budapest and Prague.

The agreement eliminates some of the flying difficulties which resulted in the buzzing of American planes by Russian fighter pilots recently, but the Russians still have not granted freedom of the air as requested by American authorities, and flights over Soviet territory still must be made within narrow prescribed lanes.

In flying from Vienna to Berlin it still is necessary to fly via Frankfurt, and the flight to Belgrade is equally uneconomical, but Clark said the new straight line routes granted would "greatly facilitate air communications."

Clark, in his monthly report, also cited the reduction in occupation costs for the Austrian government as one of the significant accomplishments. Occupation costs, which up to February had been running as high as 50 per cent of the Austrian budget, now have been limited to 35 per cent of the budget by action of the allied council. Clark said the Russian claims for occupation costs usually have been highest.

Clark said the food ration for the normal consumer in Austria was being raised from 950 calories in May to approximately 1,200 calories in June.

American forces contributed to UNRRA 17,000 tons of food stocks from military supplies for June, Clark said, while the Russians contributed 7,500 tons, to permit the increased ration.

THE NATION TODAY

By James Marlow

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Here's a quick look at the threatened maritime strike. It's not too easy to understand. Two groups of unions are involved and their demands are not the same. Generally, this is the story: Five unions—four CIO and one independent—are banded together in the Committee for Maritime Unity (CMU). They threaten to strike Saturday if their demands are not settled. (Two other CIO unions, also members of the CMU, have pledged assistance in the event of a strike although they are not involved in any contract dispute. These are the Inland Boatmen's Union of the Pacific and the National Marine Engineers Beneficial Association.) 2. AFL seamen came into the rumpus after the other five. They're not connected with those five at all. They're making their own demands. They're still vague about their strike date. Take the CMU first. Four of the five CMU unions are unions of seamen. The fifth is a longshoremen's union. The CMU longshoremen want better pay. The CMU seamen want better straight hourly pay, better overtime pay, and shorter hours. Take the seamen: They're working 56 hours a week at sea, drawing overtime for any hour over 56. They want their work week reduced from 56 to 44 hours. Overtime—if any—would start after 44 instead of 56, as now. The CMU argues that a 44-hour week at sea would make more work for seamen now idle because the ships, due to shorter working hours, would need larger crews. The ship owners have a couple of things to say about this proposal: 1. A 44-hour week would mean a lot more overtime for the men who (Continued on Page Four)

Case Labor Disputes Bill Given Presidential Veto

U.S. To Meet Britain On Policing Palestine

Byrnes Announces Discussions Planned Soon; Will Leave Thursday For Resumption Of Peace Meeting In Paris

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes said today the United States is preparing to discuss with Britain what military forces this nation might make available to maintain order in Palestine during the increased Jewish immigration. Byrnes refrained from giving any impression at a news conference that he favored having the United States make any troops available. But he said the British had raised various questions and the United States would discuss them. The Secretary, who will leave Thursday for resumption of the foreign ministers meeting at Paris, also said that he would like the prayers of American people to help him in his work with Foreign Minister Molotov of Russia, Bevin of Britain and Bidault of France. He also cautioned against regarding the conference as a game in which one country or another might score a diplomatic victory. "All of us must have but one hope," he said, "and that is making some progress toward a just and enduring peace."

Truman Declares Measure Would Compel Men To Work For Private Employers In A Peace-Time Democracy, That Bill Strikes At Symptoms And Ignores Underlying Causes Of Work Stoppages; Renews Plea For His Own Emergency Strike Control Plan

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—President Truman vetoed the Case labor disputes bill today because, he said, it would compel men to work for private employers "in a peace-time Democracy." Declaring that the measure "strikes at symptoms and ignores underlying cause" of work stoppages, Mr. Truman added in a 4,500-word message that ended more than a week of feverish speculation: "Strikes against private employers can not be ended by legislative decree. Men can not be forced in a peace-time Democracy to work for a private employer under compulsion." Major provisions of the Case bill included the creation of a federal mediation board, restrictions against any strike or lockout while the board sought solution of a labor dispute; a prohibition on secondary boycotts; and provision for court suits against employers or labor organizations violating collective bargaining contracts. The Chief Executive coupled his veto with a renewed plea for his own emergency strike control plan, for a Senate-House study of the whole field of labor relations and for enactment of his long-stated domestic legislative program. "The fact that we are faced with an emergency which does justify the passage of temporary legislation does not, in my opinion, justify us in the adoption of permanent legislation without the study that such permanent legislation needs," he declared. The message went to a Congress torn by controversy between groups for and against tightening controls on labor.

FOOD DEFICIT IS SEEN FOR ANOTHER YEAR

By OVID A. MARTIN Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Bread and flour shortages for at least another year was the forecast handed American housewives today despite the start on harvesting another of the nation's bumper wheat crops. The Agriculture Department reported considerable improvement in bread and flour supplies are expected in another month, but hardly to the extent needed to meet all domestic and famine relief demands before the 1947 harvest. The bread scarcity in a number of major cities meanwhile verged on the acute stage, and an Associated Press spot survey also disclosed the same held true for meat, soap, butter and cooking fats ranked next on the list of increasingly hard-to-get items. The outlook in the cities covered seemed to be that these shortages would grow worse before the situation improved. Harvesting of the new wheat crop promises to ease the bread-flour picture, but complex uncertainties made the prospects dubious for any big improvement in the supply of meats, butter or fats. In its June crop report, issued yesterday, the Agriculture Department said the third consecutive billion-bushel wheat crop and the third largest crop of record was indicated by conditions prevailing on June 1. The crop estimate was put at 1,325,509,000 bushels, or about 25,000,000 bushels above what was indicated a month earlier. While about 100,000,000 bushels below last year's crop, it was still a record. (Continued on page four)

Health Department Issues Order About Dogs; Danger Of Rabies

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—A huge monarchist demonstration in Naples flared tonight into large scale rioting in which police and troops turned rifles and automatic weapons on the crowd. The vote was 125 to uphold the veto and 255 to override the President. ROME, June 11.—(AP)—A huge monarchist demonstration in Naples flared tonight into large scale rioting in which police and troops turned rifles and automatic weapons on the crowd. Within the past few days there has been reported to the Pitt County Health Department several cases of dogs supposed to be mad, and in two instances, the heads of these dogs have been examined in the State Laboratory of Hygiene and been reported positive for rabies. Another dog was seen by a veterinarian and declared to be mad. In another instance a dog's head has been sent to the State Laboratory but no report so far. In view of this situation, the Pitt County Health Officer, Dr. N. Thomas Bennett, contemplating quarantine for the infected areas, yesterday called a conference with Drs. Alex Viola and J. C. Besteman, veterinarians, Sheriff Ruel Tyson and H. A. Hendrix, County Sanitarian.

Tension In Palestine Said To Be Growing

Jerusalem, June 11.—(AP)—Police and military authorities searched today for members of armed Jewish bands who, the government said, made concerted attacks yesterday on three passenger trains blowing up the engines and firing the coaches. The attacks came as representatives of the Arab League debated in Hluda, Syria, a proposal for establishment of an Arab government in Palestine. The developments, coupled with still unconfirmed reports that the exiled Grand Mufti of Jerusalem had arrived in the Middle East from France to take a hand in the Arab fight against Jewish immigration to Palestine, heightened tension in this already keyed-up land.

THE WORLD TODAY

An Analysis Of The News

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Further postponement of the debate over the hot Spanish issue in the U. N. Security Council is symptomatic of international uneasiness as the great powers approach the zero hour for the showdown over the divergencies between Russia and the Western Allies. This showdown may come in the conference of the Big Four foreign ministers which is due to reassemble in Paris at the end of the week. In any event, that conference is the focal point of the crisis. The most important aspect of the dispute in the Security Council over Spain lies in the fact that an explosion there might easily have an adverse effect on the Paris parley. The problem of the heretofore unhappy Paris conference will be to determine whether compromises can be achieved to permit the drawing up of the European peace treaties without which rehabilitation staggers along on crutches. Because of the urgency of these treaties American Secretary of State Byrnes appears prepared to cut loose and go ahead without Moscow's cooperation if necessary. Thus the coming weeks are quite likely to give us a much more definite view of the trend of relations between Russia on the one hand and America and Britain on the other. We shall get evidence soon of improvement or there will be further great deterioration in relations. Should there be deterioration, the question naturally will arise whether peace is in danger. We should be foolish not to face that unwelcome question squarely. There definitely would be danger. However, in my view the position still is fluid. We have not by any means reached a situation which is irreparable. Nor have we arrived (Continued on Page Four)

The railroad strike would not have been covered by this bill at all. Took 106 Diamonds From Col. Durant on Arrival In U. S.

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Col. A. C. Miller of the Provost Marshal's office reported today that customs had taken 106 unset diamonds from Col. J. W. Durant when Durant returned to the United States from Germany. Col. Durant and his wife, Capt. Kathleen Nash Durant of Hudson, Wis., and Maj. David S. Watson of Burlington, Calif., are in custody in connection with the theft of $1,500,000 in jewels from the Kronberg castle near Frankfurt, Germany. Col. He said it had been known there were 106 diamonds missing from the amount recovered, but he did not know if they were part of that taken from the castle. performed the ceremony. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, lilies and lighted tapers.

The ushers were Mr. Dick Rogers, and Mr. Francis Anora, uncles of the bride; Mr. P. T. Anthony, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mr. Warren Grant of the U. S. M. C.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Mr. H. R. Rogers, wore a dress of white satin made with long basque and sleeves ending in points over her hands and having a court train. Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with an orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Doris Brown, wore a dress of blue satin, identical to Mrs. Anthony's. Her bouquet too was of pink carnations. The brides maids, Misses Elizabeth Austin and Faye Williams wore dresses of yellow and aqua respectively, made in the same manner of those of the dame and maid of honor. They wore picture hats to match their dresses and carried arm bouquets of pink carnations.

Little Judy Anthony, niece of the bride, was dressed in aqua satin and net, made in a similar manner to those of the other attendants. She carried a nosegay of spring flowers.

Miss Ruth Weaver Taylor of Greenville was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a gown of Nile green net over tulle with fitted bodice and full floor-length skirt, a matching white brim hat, and gloves of yellow lace. Her bouquet was of varied colored larkspur and tied with the white satin ribbon.

The bridegroom's brother, Cadwell A. Williams, Jr., of Claymont Delaware, was his best man.

Ushers were Bernard S. Soloman, W. A. Patterson, Carl V. Babson, and John C. Keith, all of Wilmington, N. C.

Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, wore an aqua crepe dress with matching feathered hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. Mrs. Williams, mother of the groom, wore a white crepe dress with matching hat and accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Williams attended Greensboro College for Women and graduated from East Carolina Teachers College in Greenville. She served as coordinator of the Selective Service Boards of Pitt county until her resignation prior to announcing her wedding plans. Mr. Williams received his Bachelor of Science degree in Chemical engineering at North Carolina State College and is now employed by the Dow Chemical Company in Midland, Mich.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Taylor entertained at breakfast at their home on East Fourth street. Mrs. M. T. Plyler, maternal aunt of the bride presided over the beautifully appointed table which was covered with an imported linen cloth, centered with a bridal arrangement of white flowers flanked by white tapers in silver candlesticks. Assisting in serving a delicious salad plate with ice tea and bridal cakes were Misses Doris Hardee, Elizabeth Deal, Helen Perkins and Alice Wooten.

After the breakfast the couple left for a wedding trip to northern points. For traveling, the bride wore a Milgrim brown faille suit with aqua trim, brown reptile shoes and bag, an aqua feathered halo hat and orchids from her bridal bouquet. After June 16th, the couple will be at home at 103 Larkin street, Midland, Michigan.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and breakfast were Mrs. M. T. Plyler and Allen Taylor, Duke University, Durham, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Riddick, Hertford, N. C.;

Reedy Branch News

There was a meeting of the Women's Auxiliary on Wednesday afternoon, June 5, at the home of Mrs. Harry Worthington. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Phillip Woodard in the presence of the President, Mrs. R. Smith, who has been ill.

Chills and fever... DUE TO MALARIA? 666... AFS - QUACK - SURE

Officers' Council met Friday night, June 7, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Averette.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Clarence Vincent, and opened by singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." A scripture reading, the second chapter of second Timothy, was read by Mrs. Phillip Woodard.

The first discussion was concerning a trip to Craigmont, which is scheduled for August 15. The superintendent, Mr. Clarence Vincent, gave full details about transportation to Craigmont. He found that at least three buses, if needed, could be secured for the cost of approximately $6.25 per person, round trip.

After a general round-table discussion, the hymn "Tis Sweet to Trust in Jesus" was sung by the group. The meeting then closed with a prayer by Mrs. Phillip Woodard.

ments were served by the hostess.

Last, but by far not the least, was the big day at Reedy Branch Sunday School, Sunday June 9, with the attendance of 211.

Sunday School began one hour later, eleven o'clock, in order that visitors from other Sunday Schools might attend. After the classes were over, the superintendent, Mr. Clarence Vincent, recognized some of the visitors one of whom was Mr. Vernon White, superintendent of the Winterville Missionary Baptist Sunday School.

The Sunday School regretted that one of its members, Mrs. Retha Kitrell, who has been ill for several weeks, was unable to attend Sunday School and the picnic dinner.

A large crowd was present at Sunday School last Sunday morning and the singing was unusually good. Let's all make up our minds not to let the hot weather get our Sunday School this summer.

A nice program has been planned for Fathers' Day, June 16 at Red Oak.

Sunday School will begin promptly at 10 o'clock and all fathers present will sit together and a special song will be sung in their honor.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, in a special service, the members of Red Oak Church will dedicate the new baptistry in honor of the boys and girls of Red Oak Church and Sunday School who saw service in the last war.

The speakers for the occasion will be the Reverend Thad Cox, who was a Chaplain in World War II and who is now minister of the Farmville Christian Church; Reverend H. G. Haney, pastor of the Eighth Street Christian Church in Greenville and Reverend W. H. Brunson of the Ayden Christian Church.

Reverend Howard James, our minister, will render a solo at this service. To all our friends everywhere, we extend a very special invitation to worship with us at all these services. Come early. We welcome you!

Two Year Term For Wife Beater

In Police Court yesterday Judge J. W. H. Roberts gave Dan Phillips, colored, six months on the roads for beating his wife and 18 months for assaulting with a brick Fannie Hardy, colored, a neighbor who tried to stop Phillips' attack on his wife. The court agreed to suspend judgment if Phillips pays a fine of $250 and $50 to Fannie Hardy. Phillips is in jail.

According to the testimony in court, Phillips was whipping his wife, Fannie Hardy heard the commotion and went there to intervene. This infuriated Phillips and he chucked a brick at the woman, breaking her arm.

FINE ADDRESS ROTARY CLUB

Lloyd Griffin Speaks About "North Carolina On Wheels"

By WYATT BROWN

Hard-surfaced roads and consolidation of schools happened at the same time and North Carolina has increased the value of her agricultural production and increased her industrial activity and production to a high level even though one cannot prove the one is the result of the other, declared Lloyd Griffin, executive vice-president of the N. C. Citizens' Association and former secretary of the State School Commission, in a brief address on "North Carolina on Wheels" last night at the regular weekly meeting of the Greenville Rotary Club.

He said the greater part of North Carolina's advancement had taken place since the conclusion of World War I.

He traced the wheel from its use prior to recorded history until today when wheeled transportation affords myriads of services to modern man. With 1921 as the beginning of hard surface roads financed with a 3 cent per gallon tax down to a state system of primary and secondary roads exceeding 60,000 miles—plans now are afoot to surface much of the secondary roads.

Automotive transportation has increased to 750,000 licensed vehicles and Mr. Griffin predicts several million such vehicles by 1950.

Consolidation of schools came with the automobile at a cost of 2 1-2 cents per trip per child and increased from four months' school to statewide nine months' school for 12 grades, he stated. The improved highways and improved educational program has come about with no increase in property tax and with only a bonded indebtedness which will be retired in a few years, he pointed out.

At this point the speaker traced the industrialization of North Carolina and greater valued crop production. "Though it cannot be proved that better roads and an improved educational program made the improvement in agriculture and industry, they came along at the same time," he said.

In passing, Mr. Griffin predicted lower freight rates. "Most of our progress took place between the two wars. That may be called the automobile age. Nothing has affected our economy like the automobile," he stated.

Next the speaker mentioned some of the problems facing North Carolina in the future. The prospect of worn out roads being rebuilt and removal of obstructions by underpasses and widening he mentioned first. Then he paused to warn about fast driving, which he said awaited the public's decision to eliminate careless, too fast driving by having sufficient patrolmen to enforce moderation and care.

In the future he predicts more vegetables and fruits grown in North Carolina and shipped out by the quickest and cheapest method. He called attention to the prospects of tourist trade which appears very promising to him both in the east and the western parts of the state.

"Man is restless again. All is well with the automobile but man now wants to fly. Whether on wheels or on wings, I am sure North Carolina will be leading the parade of progress, Mr. Griffin said

Urcell Webb introduced the speaker, Dr. C. C. Garrenton of Bethel was a visiting Rotarian. J. Knott Proctor, Jr. was a guest of the club. Leon Roebuck was greeted as a "baby" Rotarian with promise of a nice goat ride soon.

The Rotary Club voted unanimously to endorse and to agree to cooperate in a concerted effort of all the civic clubs to aid in the placement in jobs of ex-servicemen.

Dr. N. ## Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

BETTER WATCH DANGER SIGNALS

The drinking habits of the American people are fast creating an alarming situation. One large city in this country spends $8 million dollars for liquor; thus reversing the figures. There is one state in the Union whose drink bill each year is almost equal to the cost of maintaining all the churches in the country. What were once the social customs of certain groups have become the social customs of a whole people.

Tourists to England used to be shocked to see the baby carriages parked outside the "pubs." This morning I heard a child cry and I observed that the youngster was seated in a go-cart that was parked outside a liquor store. The mother came out and carried the child into the store while she made her purchases. Ten or twenty years ago we were horrified at certain European customs regarding liquor; today we have the same customs or worse.

Even those who maintain a very tolerant attitude toward drinking are prone to admit with considerable anxiety that the spectacle of women, and especially very young women, standing up at the bar and drinking with men does not augur well for the future of our national life. This is a day of increased liquor consumption. It is also a day of social chaos, increase in crime, and a stupendous increase in the divorce rate. Are these circumstances connected?

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT

(Second of Two Articles)
By BRACK CURRY

Washington—Attorney Gen. Tom Clark does not consider the "Brooklyn Plan" or "deferred prosecution plan" a cure for the juvenile delinquency problem.

But he believes its use marks a major contribution by the federal government toward forestalling future crimes upsurges and orienting youth in the right direction.

Says Clark: "The basic responsibility for combatting juvenile delinquency lies in the home and in the community. All the efforts of the government will be wasted if parents refuse to cooperate. Proper parental influence is the greatest single deterrent to juvenile delinquency."

"In addition, I believe each community must accept its responsibility on the juvenile crime front. This includes fostering programs of supervised juvenile recreating and selecting policemen who will cultivate the confidence and friendship of youths."

Deferred prosecution first, was employed seven years ago in the Eastern (Brooklyn) District of New York. The results have been "remarkable and inspiring," Clark says.

"The late Leo J. Hickey, as U. S. attorney for Brooklyn, started the plan. He had an exceptionally intelligent insight into the problems of youth. At that time a youthful offender was indicted under ordinary circumstances. A trial followed. In worthy cases, the youthful offender was placed on probation."

Hickey asked "Why not reverse the process? Instead of determining whether a youthful offender was worthy of being released after trial and conviction, why not conduct such an investigation before prosecution to determine whether prosecution was necessary in the first place?"

Hickey experimented with the plan for two years, then adopted it as regular procedure.

During the past seven years, Clark said, some 200 youths have been granted provisional release from prosecution in eastern New York. Only two were reported as violators during the supervision period.

Several months ago Clark directed all U. S. attorneys to adopt the Brooklyn plan and report back to him. He turned over the reports to me. Here are some typical ones: "Whit Y. Maury, Northern District of Oklahoma: 'We have had six at a point which justifies the loose talk of war which one hears all too often in quarters least qualified to judge.

Unbridled optimism of course would be equally unwise, for the situation is serious. This much can be said, however: There recently has been an under-current of hope in diplomatic quarters inspired by the belief that Moscow has about reached the end of her demands and that Premier Stalin is preparing to offer collaboration. The Paris conference should show whether this is so, and the debate on the Spanish question in the Security Council might even be a straw to show how the wind lies.

2. But if the crewmen insisted on working only 44 hours and no more, the cost of the 44-hour week would make cost of operating the ships so high—in comparison with foreign ships—that American vessels could not compete.

The companies say: a 44-hour week, strictly observed, would mean putting so many extra crewmen on a passenger ship that there'd be as many crewmen as passengers.

Right now the companies own only about 20 percent of the ships. The total number of ships is about 3,100. The government owns the other 80 percent and is paying the companies a fee for operating them.

The government has told the companies to act as the government's agents in bargaining with the unions. In doing so, the companies are really bargaining for themselves. For this reason:

At the present time the government will have to pay for whatever new benefits the seamen get. Later, when the government gets out of the shipping business, the companies will have to carry on the contracts.

Violence Feared

last week's plebiscite urged him to meet the king's refusal by declaring himself provisional president. Government officials, admitting that civil war was a possibility, deployed heavy police and military forces to guard against violence. The display of armed might was the greatest since the war.

Premier Alcide De Gasperi's cabinet, at a meeting which lasted far into the night, proclaimed today a national holiday marking the birth of the republic and promised the country's republicans that their announced victory in last week's plebiscite would not be snatched away from them.

But monarchist spokesmen, alleging election irregularities, declared that Umberto would not leave Italy for Portugal until his defeat was officially and finally established by the supreme court.

Observers pointed out that the explosive characteristics of the situation were heightened by the geographic division of political opinion, with the industrial north almost solidly republican and the agricultural south overwhelmingly monarchist.

The king and De Gasperi conferred for three hours last night. Earlier, the premier had said "Of course the republic is in effect."

The dilemma developed when justices of the supreme court announced a republican victory by a margin of 1,983,871 votes in the plebiscite, but said they still had to consider monarchist charges of voting irregularities.

"There is no one higher up than Colonel Durant that was ever implicated," he told reporters. "I have seen no evidence that would indicate that a general officer was involved."

He has reasons to believe, Miller added, that all suspects had been found. Three are into custody any time it is desired, he said. However, the corporal is not yet under arrest and whether the army has authority to arrest him is a question.

Assumes Guilt

Tokyo, June 11.—(AP)—Hideki Tojo will assume full responsibility for starting the Pacific war, his attorney said today.

Tojo, Japan's Prime Minister, also will argue that international custom grants Emperor Hirohito and Tojo's war cabinets full immunity, added Dr. Ichiro Koyasu, who will defend him at the major war crimes trial starting Thursday.

The Allies can neither indict the emperor nor call him as a witness, Koyasu said Tojo believes, citing: "No sovereign in history has ever been indicted. As for moves against the emperor after the first World War, remember that he had fled and no longer was a sovereign. Emperor Hirohito still is a sovereign."

law says. "When quarantine has been established and dogs continue to run at large, any police officer or deputy sheriff shall have the right, after reasonable effort has been made to apprehend the dogs running at large, to kill said dogs and properly dispose of their bodies."

All persons who need antirabic treatment and are able to pay for it should go to their own physician for treatment. The law provides free treatment at the local Health Department for those who are not able to pay for treatment, Dr. Emmett said.

Security Agency during fiscal year beginning July 1.

The committee wrote into the legislation a provision giving the USES $17,129,250 for operation as a federal agency through September 30, with $51,387,750 for payments to states for state operation thereafter.

The Labor Department's share was $129,181,702, a slash of $2,516,398 from Budget Bureau recommendations.

Before sending the measure to the House floor for debate starting tomorrow, the committee heard Secretary of Labor Schwelb express doubt that any agency Congress could create would be able to settle basic disputes between management and labor.

Largest single allotment in the bill was $683,845,724 for the Federal Security Agency. Of this, $484,000,000 is for grants to states for old-age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the blind.

The Children's Bureau in the Labor Department was voted $29,006,344 of its budget request of $30,559,000, more than half the total being earmarked for emergency maternity and infant care for wives and children of service men.

IT'S THE LAW Skokie, Ill., June 10.—(AP)—If the owner of a single lot in this Chicago suburb wants to build a house the dimensions, under the law, must be something like a bowling alley.

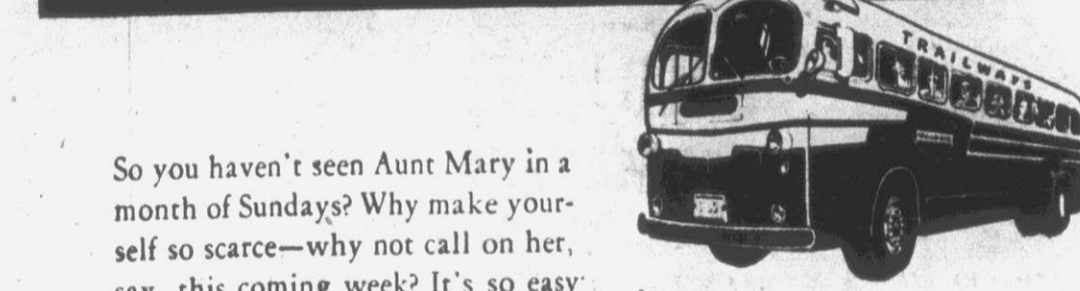

Many lots in Skokie are 30 feet wide. However, the village's outlying ordinance specifies that no house may be built which does not have at least 1,000 square feet of floor space, and also requires that a house by four feet distance, on either side, from property lines.

Thus, on a 30-foot lot, a house can't be more than 2 feet wide, and must be slightly more than 45 feet deep.

Cher, 6, June 11.—(AP)—Miss Rose T. Kile failed to catch a train riding purse-snatcher last night. She told Central police she was waiting for a train in a loop station when a passenger on another train leaned out of a window as the train pulled away and seized her purse. She told police $26 was in the purse.

New York, June 11—(AP)—Buyers nibbled timidly at scattered rails and industrials in today's stock market but many leaders were neglected at moderately lower levels.
Early gains running to 2 or more points were reduced and trends slipped a bit here and there when the presidential veto of the Case bill was announced although no real liquidation resulted owing to the fact that Wall Street generally had expected this action. Hopes for a quick freight rate rise helped carriers. Earnings and dividends propped some issues. Numerous customers held aloof, however, to await labor and price control developments. # ALDERMEN IN BUSY SESSION

Good Progress On Drainage Sewer; Need Street Lights

By CHESTER WALSH
At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen Thursday night a committee from the Greenville Lions Club petitioned the board to order electric lights placed at a specified dozen or more places in the city. The matter was referred to the Utilities Commission. Mayor Jack Boyd presided.
Lewis G. Cooper presented a tentative budget for Sheppard Memorial Library; Mrs. J. Vance Perkins submitted a tentative budget for the recreation department.
Taxi franchises were granted to Henry Anderson, and to Bill Phillips, the latter to be issued when some operator gives up his franchise.
The board made the following appointments to Sheppard Memorial Library Commission: Mrs. B. B. Sugg, Lewis G. Cooper, W. H. Woolard and Sam B. Underwood, Jr. for six years, and Miss Verona Lee Joyner and Mrs. Herbert ReBarker for four years.
The Negro Civil League made its report, which included recommendation of personnel on the recreation program.
Alderman L. M. Buchanan made a report for the Airport Commission.
Alderman N. G. Raynor suggested that a traffic light be installed at 14th and Charles streets.
Alderman N. C. Brooks reported for the street department and complimented Supt. Claude Mallison for good work. Recommendation was made that the cemetery be placed in a department separate from the street department.
City Engineer Henry L. Rivers, supervising installation of a 42-inch concrete and reinforced steel drainage sewer line, reported progress. The pipe line started in a lowground near the power plant, then goes under the railroad track, thence paralleling the track under Third street, and thence to a point on Albemarle avenue near the National Biscuit Company's plant. The storm sewer will prevent flooding of some sections of the city after heavy rainstorms.
Reports of various departments were approved and other routine business was transacted.

Carver Library News.
The Summer Reading Club proved to be very appreciative this afternoon when 32 children gathered on the library lawn to organize a Leisure Time Club. The librarian invited the young people into the junior room, where a devotional period was held, after which the librarian told the children the value of reading. She also explained to them the slogan for the summer, "Around the world with books." A map of the world was placed on the wall, as the children read a book and report on it there will be a star placed on that part of the world they read about. After reading 15 books a child is eligible to receive a certificate from the Summer Reading Club. The club meets Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 4 o'clock in the junior reading room. All children are invited to join.

PLENTY COAL TO CURE LEAF

Chamber Of Commerce Action Gets Results For Farmers

Coal for curing the 1946 crop of tobacco is assured, the Greenville Chamber of Commerce agricultural committee reported at a meeting of the board of directors on June 7. J. H. Blount, committee chairman, with G. J. Bell and Vernon Rawls, represented the Chamber at an area meeting in Wilson recently, where a committee was formed which went to Washington for a conference with the Solid Fuels Administration to urge that coal for this purpose be declared essential. The Solid Fuels Administration as a result of this action has placed coal on the essential list and will direct that shipments be made to dealers in time for its use.

The chamber's directors endorsed production control of tobacco and authorized its agricultural committee to cooperate with other organizations in impressing upon the growers the advantage to them in carrying the referendum unanimously, scheduled for early in July.

Other actions of the chamber's board included appointment of J. G. Fleming, J. C. Waldrop, John W. Glover, J. Hicks Corey and Marvin Monneycut as a committee to work with similar committees from other organizations in the city in an Emergency Food Collection Campaign, of which Sen. Arthur B. Corey is chairman for Greenville. The directors authorized its health and sanitation committee, with Dr. J. M. Barrett as chairman, to work with the city administration in obtaining suitable locations for court stations.

In his report to the Board Secretary Willard T. Kyzer stated that a supply of new advertising folders had been received from the printers; that the Motor Freight Carriers request for a hearing on their application for increases in intra-state motor freight rates before the North Carolina Utilities Commission had been cancelled. This action being taken as a result of a state-wide conference held in Raleigh in April, at which the Greenville Chamber was represented by A. Tyson Bilbro and Secretary Kyzer. He also reported that the Chamber's Transportation Committee was cooperating in an effort to secure reduced freight rates on coal, and that Martin Swartz, superintendent of Greenville Utilities, had been selected by the municipal power plants in this section to testify in their behalf at the hearing now before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Asheville.

Greenville is to have a regular intrastate franchise air transportation of mail, passengers and property, when the recommendation of Civil Aeronautics Board examiners is approved by the board. This recommendation was made as a result of a hearing held at Sedgewick Inn in June 1945, when Secretary Kyzer, representing the chamber, the City of Greenville, and Pitt County, presented briefs showing the need for such service, the facilities available for its operation, and data proving the ability of the community to support air service.

Greenies Defeat New Bern Bears

Milt Naron, Greenville's up-and-coming circuit clown, banged out another homer last night, with one on, to give the locals an 8-5 victory over the Bears of New Bern.

Although the Greenies obtained only 13 hits to the Bears' 14, they were able to score. New Bern's five errors proved costly.

Pitcher Joe Alamo opened the game for the locals; he was relieved in the seventh by Ballam.

Sports

Until the Brooklyn Dodgers learn how to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, the Flatbush Faithful would do well to take their pennant hopes with a grain of salt.
 In three starts against the favored Red Birds, the Durocher dandies have played them close to the vest each time but dropped three straight decisions. Their once-healthy lead has now shrunk to two games.

Brooklyn, latest defeat, by a slender 3-2 score, last night in St. Louis, hardly comes under the heading of a major disaster at this early date, but it could be an ominous portent of things to come.

The Brooks, who have failed to play 500 ball against western teams and have lost four straight, are "blowing" early leads. After carrying out a 2-0 edge over Harry Brecheen they folded in the eighth and ninth as the Cards swinging down the road to a last-inning triumph on Terry Moore's pinch single.

The Phillies have won nine of their last 13 starts and threaten to vacate the National League dungeon.

A 9-8 victory over the sizzling Chicago Cubs was the latest Phil accomplishment. After Hank Borowy had held them without a hit for seven innings, they rallied to knock the 1945 pennant ace out of the box and won the game in the ninth on Frank McCormick's two-run double.

Boston cooled off the Pittsburgh Pirates fifth place hopes with a 10-5 decision for Ed Wright over Preacher Roe, and a brilliant relief job by Bob Malloy saved Cincinnati a 7-5 triumph over New York.

While the Cards were tightening the National chase the Boston Red Sox were pulling away to a nine-game American League lead over the runnerup New York Yankees.

Joe Cronin got the first win of the season out of Bill Butland although he had to relieve him with Earl Johnson in the late stages to hold off Cleveland, 6-3.

Detroit defeated the Yanks 11-3 on Virgil Trucks' five-hit hurling and a 12-blow attack.

Roger Wolf got a five-hit game to St. Louis when Sam Zoldak parceled out 11 safeties but downed Washington, 2-1.

San Francisco, June 11 (AP)—Manuel Ruiz, scrappy little Mexican from El Centro, Calif., today is still world champion of bantamweights.

By knocking out Jackie Jurich, 117-1-4, in the eleventh of their scheduled 15-round fight last night, he successfully defended his title for the fifteenth time.

Pittsburgh, June 11 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates' management has "in effect" formed a company union to destroy the American Baseball Guild, Robert Murphy, labor relations director of the Guild, charged yesterday in accusing the club of unfair labor practices.

Murphy filed a petition with the National Labor Relations Board's regional office here which claimed Pirate officials "attempted to persuade employees to cease their membership in and activities in behalf of the Guild" and deal with management through a players' committee.

"This, in effect, is forming a company union," Murphy said. "The Boston lawyer insisted 'we'll win this fight for recognition of the Guild' even though it may take a little time because 'their (the Pittsburgh club's) labor-baiting attorneys aren't going to hold off forever."

SELF-SERVICE
 Chicago, June 11 (AP)—Albert Bulman, a taxicab driver, was taking a passenger from suburban Melrose Park to a railroad station when he stopped his cab in Oak Park to retrieve a lost hub-cap.

 But the passenger didn't wait for Bulman to return with the hub cap. He drove off in the cab leaving the taxi driver in the middle of the street.

High Court Feud Comes To Light

Nuernberg, June 11 (AP)—A smouldering feud involving members of the United States' highest court burst into the open today following an unprecedented charge by Justice Robert H. Jackson that Justice Hugo Black had participated in decisions favoring Black's former law partner.

"There may be those who think it quite harmless to encourage the employment of justices' ex-law partners to argue close cases by smothering the objections which the bar makes to this practice," Jackson declared in a lengthy statement issued at a hastily-summoned press conference last night. "But in my view such an attitude would soon bring the court into disrepute."

Jackson, who is now on leave from the U. S. Supreme Court to act as chief U. S. prosecutor in the war crimes trials here, said the statement had been cabled to House and Senate Judiciary committees because "Congress has a right to know the facts and issues involved."

Jackson went to considerable lengths to declare that nothing in his statement was intended to reflect upon Fred Vinson, whose nomination by President Truman to be the new chief justice now is pending before the Senate.
