VEIL TO HIDE FULL DETAILS BIKINI TESTS

Unlike Complete Story Will Ever Be Told Of "Crossroads" Experiment

Aboard USS Appalachian enroute to Bikini, June 22 (AP) - The American people will not share all the secrets of what happens to the guinea pig fleet in Bikini Lagoon after the atomic bomb explodes early next month.

The United States is not ready yet to let everyone know all the effects of atomic energy loosed on the ships in the first experiment of its kind ever held.

Until international agreement is reached on atomic control it is unlikely that the full story of Bikini will ever be told. It will remain the exclusive property of the United States.

Scores of newsmen headed for the Bikini test will be permitted to describe what they are able to see during the after the explosion. They will be allowed by joint task force one to describe preparations for the test and the actual bomb drop—with reservations as to the description of the bomb and the height at which it explodes above the target—and to tell what they see of the fleet when they are permitted into the lagoon.

But this is only part of the story—the part which will not disclose any atomic secrets.

The most complete story of the Bikini experiment will not come from the newsmen at Bikini. It will come from two reports which are to be released by President Truman and by the joint chiefs of staff.

Vinson To Take Oath On Monday

Washington, June 22 (AP)—A brass band and fanfare rivalling a Presidential inauguration will embark Fred M. Vinson next Monday on his job of trying to still the discord in the United States Supreme Court.

Plans to administer the oath to the new Chief Justice with highly unusual ceremonies were approved today by Vinson's old friend, President Truman.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross announced that the oath will be administered at 11 a. m. on the south portico of the White House. Thirty minutes before the start, the public will be allowed to walk into the grounds to hear the Navy band play and to watch the ceremony presided over by Speaker Rayburn.

Vinson, as is the custom, will take two oaths, both administered by Chief Justice D. Lawrence Groner of the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

One is the oath to support and defend the Constitution; the other a pledge to mete out equal justice to rich and poor.

Other members of the Supreme Court, members of the Cabinet, Senators and Representatives, the diplomatic corps, the President and his staff and members of the Vinson family will be present.

Bemedaled Niseis To Be Deactivated Soon

Rome, June 22 (AP)—The famed 42nd Infantry regiment, composed of Japanese-American troops, settled from Leghorn today aboard the Wilson Victory, bound for Camp Kilmer, N. J., and deactivation.

The Nisei regiment—as it was known—is one of the most decorated units of the war's most impressive combat records in four campaigns in Italy and France.

Food No New Problem For Nations Of World

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE Washington—For many millions of people in Asia and Europe, the present famine is a familiar hunger in sharper form.

The Food and Agricultural Organization of the United Nations (FAO) estimates that two-thirds of the world's population of 2,200,000,000 were in a state of chronic undernourishment and poverty before the war.

Even in so-called normal years, innumerable thousands died directly from lack of food or as a result of extreme hunger which left them too weakened to resist disease or cold.

FAO officials say complete knowledge of worldwide nutrition conditions is lacking but that it is evident three-fourths of the people in Asia and the tropics always live on diets far below what is needed for good health.

In central and eastern Europe too there has been extensive malnutrition for many years, contributing to high death and disease rates.

Even in western Europe, 20 to 30 percent of the population were malnourished according to available pre-war evidence.

In food-rich United States during the depression 30s a third of the people were said by nutrition-

Policy Blamed

WASHINGTON, June 22.—House Foreign Affairs Committee members today that a major reason for their current row over the published subcommittee report is a section highly critical of American policy in Italy.

In addition, they declared, that what it terms "the treatment of Italy is alienating the friendship of Greece and Yugoslavia."

As a result, the report contends, Yugoslavia is pushed toward Russia, because of the policy in giving as good or better treatment to defeated Italy as is being promised and proposed to the others.

The committee members declared that while press accounts of the report have dwelt on their controversy over criticism of the policy toward Russia there is nearly as much discord over the portions concerning Italy.

VETERANS TO HAVE SERVICE

Administration Opens Office In Army For This Area

By CHESTER WALSH The Veterans' Administration has opened an office in the Greenville armory to render assistance to discharged members of the armed forces and their dependents in obtaining benefits to which they may be entitled under the laws administered by the Veterans' Administration.

Walters, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Walters of Jamesville, served four and a half years in the Army Air Forces, 18 months of this in New Guinea. He is a graduate of Atlantic Christian College. After opening the office today he expressed appreciation of the cooperation the people of Greenville gave him in establishing the office here.

Gov't Loses Expert To Famine Fighters

Washington, June 22 (AP)—The government's leading expert on international food problems, Dr. D. A. Fitzgerald, stepped out of his Agriculture Department job today to direct the 20-nation campaign against famine.

The International Emergency Food Council picked Fitzgerald as its Secretary General, and will recommend to members the plans for meeting world food crises during the next eighteen months.

Supporters Ask Full Freedom for Refugee

Cairo, June 22 (AP)—The Kofa (Wafdist bloc) party demanded today that the Egyptian government give complete freedom to the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem in order that he may "do his national duty toward Palestine."

In a formal statement, the minority opposition party denounced "any restriction" on the political activity of the exiled Arab leader Han Amin Al Hussein, whom the British accuse of aiding Germany and Italy during World War II.

The Mufti has been a political refugee since he fled from France to his Egyptian sanctuary, the party statement said, and it would be no violation of any law to permit him to resume political activity "to protect Palestine."

Tornado Strikes A Death Blow In Ontario

Little more than the foundation of the Nelson Jones home at Objibway, Ontario, remains in the wake of the tornado which swept across the Detroit river from southern Michigan. Three members of the Jones family were killed, and four others were injured, two critically. Two others escaped unhurt. Many other buildings in the area suffered like fate. (AP Wirephoto).

Hobbs Measure Awaits President's Signature

Senate Unanimous In Passing "Anti-Racketeering" Act Covering Union Activities Despite Pressure By Laborites

Washington, June 22 (AP)—The Hobbs bill making unions subject to the anti-racketeering act sailed through the Senate yesterday and onto President Truman's desk despite bitter opposition from labor leaders.

The bill would make it unlawful for union members along with anyone else to hinder interstate commerce by "actual or threatened force, or violence, or fear of injury, immediate or future."

On motion of Senator Hatch (D-NM), close friend of the President, the Senate passed the measure suddenly on a voice vote with not a "Nay" heard. The House had passed it by a similar vote December 12.

The bill has been offered annually by Representative Hobbs (D-Ala) since 1937, but it never became law.

In his veto message June 11, the President wrote that he is "in full accord with the objectives" of the anti-racketeering section. He objected, however, that as it was embodied in the case bill it omitted "from the original act the provision that it was not to be construed so as to 'impair, diminish or in any manner affect the rights of bona fide labor organizations in lawfully carrying out the legitimate objects thereof.'"

This specific language which the President quoted does not appear in the Hobbs bill as passed. But the measure does stipulate that "nothing in this act shall be construed to repeal, modify or affect" the Wagner Labor Relations Act, the Railway Labor Act or the Norris-LaGuardia anti-injunction act.

The bill is an amendment of the 1934 act which outlaws robbery or extortion interfering with interstate commerce. A Supreme Court decision in 1942 held that labor unions were exempted from this law. The Hobbs bill would make them subject to it.

The decision was given in a case involving members of an AFL truck drivers' union in New York City. They were alleged to have used "strong arm" methods to compel farmers bringing their produce into the city from New Jersey to hire union drivers, or else to pay the union a fee.

It was a 6 to 1 decision. Former Justice Byrnes, now Secretary of State, wrote the majority opinion. The late Chief Justice Stone dissented. (Continued on page three)

Edda Ciano To Gain Freedom from Island

Rome, June 22 (AP)—Countess Edda Ciano, daughter of Benito Mussolini, will be freed from Lipari Island under the terms of the amnesty approved by the Council of Ministers. Interior Minister Giuseppe Romita announced today.

Countess Ciano, widow of Fascist Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment on the tiny island north of Sicily for her efforts in behalf of Fascism. She was sentenced last December by an Italian provincial commission in Messina.

The newspaper Espresso estimated that 50,000 convicts—political as well as common prisoners—would achieve freedom under the amnesty.

The first known zoological garden was founded in China in 1100 B. C. and was called the Intelligence park.

More children are permanently crippled by infantile paralysis than by any other disease or by accidents.

Radio Station WGTC has generously given to the collection certain times for broadcasting, which broadcasts will be made by prominent local citizens, beginning Sunday June 23rd, and concluding Wednesday, June 26th, 1946.

The food (tinned) and funds collected by the collection will be shipped to those nations of the world which were overrun and devastated by the Germans and their allies during the recent war and it is hoped that this call for help will meet with the usual American response. It might be said that this collection is an endeavor or fight for peace and the preservation of peace, and it we give peace as much support as we gave war, then the success of the collection is assured.

New Safety Controls In Alcatraz Planned

San Francisco, June 22 (AP)—Alcatraz is getting new electrical controls which will reduce to a minimum the danger of riots such as occurred last May.

Warden James Johnston said yesterday that with the new controls, convicts will be unable to open their cells, even if they obtain keys.

The warden also said outside gates and both east and west gun galleries are being reinforced.

EIGHT PLANES HERE DAILY

Douglas Airliners and Cessnas Provides Good Schedules

By CHESTER WALSH South East Airlines, Inc., of Charlotte is now operating eight flights in and out of Greenville daily, providing convenient schedules which permit passengers to go to western Carolina and return the same day.

The company is using two 27-passenger Douglas ships and six five-passenger Cessna planes on the flights. They transport passengers and cargo. E. Johnson Dees is local manager. The telephone is 2959.

The first plane here, five-passenger Cessna, starts its flight at New Bern. It leaves Greenville at 7:52 a. m. for Asheville by way of Winston-Salem, Raleigh-Durham, Chapel Hill, Greensboro-High Point, Winston-Salem, Charlotte to Asheville.

Flight No. 2 is a 27-passenger Douglas airliner, starting from Charlotte and stopping at Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Raleigh-Durham, Wilson and Greenville. It leaves here at 9:13 a. m. for New Bern. The flights will be continued to Morehead City after the airfield there has been enlarged.

Flight No. 3 is a five-passenger Cessna from Charlotte. It leaves Greenville at 9:39 for Elizabeth City and intermediate points.

Flight No. 4 is a five-passenger Cessna from Elizabeth City, leaves Greenville at 11:08 a. m. for Charlotte and intermediate points.

Discharges In Army New Standards Speed

Yokohama, June 22 (AP)—Under the new standards for the return of service men to the United States approximately 41,000 men will be eligible for shipment from Japan in the next two months, the eighth army said today.

If shipping is available all enlisted men with 23 months of service as of June 30, and all enlisted non-volunteer fathers in Japan will be en route home by August 10, and enlisted men with 21 months service as of June 30 will be on their way by August 31.

Babson Discusses Building

Babson Park, Mass., June 22.—The market for houses—both old and new—is today as crazy as was the stock market in 1929. Some day there is bound to be a crash in the price of houses such as came to the stock market after the last big boom. Houses that cost $8,000 or more to build twenty years ago and which could have been bought ten years ago at $6,000 are now being sold at $12,000 or more.

Reasons for the Boom There are three reasons for this unhealthy boom in houses: (1) The discharge from the army of 12,000,000 men, a large percentage of whom have been married during the past five years and now naturally want a home. (2) The crazy regulations of the government making it difficult to build new homes (3) The labor union rules and the aim of their members to do as little work, instead of as much work, in the day as possible. Hence, it is difficult to get a new house built within a year even if one is willing to pay the fantastic prices.

I don't blame labor for unionizing and for demanding reasonable wage increases, but this "slow-down" in the work is absolutely wrong. Not only will wage-workers themselves be obliged to pay more in rents, but they may start a buyers' strike. People are disgusted with the way bricklayers, carpenters and painters are apparently doing as little as possible and dragging out the work. The nation's standard of living can be raised only by all of us producing more. We cannot pull ourselves up by our bootstraps.

Should homeowners who have a chance to double their money on their present house now sell? My answer is that if it is a house which you own and do not occupy, but from which you collect rents, sell it. This will give you a good profit and you will be rendering a service by helping to break this present crazy market. On the other hand, if it is a house in which you live, unless you definitely have some other place to go, you cannot afford to sell even at these crazy high prices.

The same general advice apply to business property and farm property. Factories, stores and farms which you occupy yourself, you should continue to hold, but now is the time to "cash in" on those which you don't occupy but are collecting rents therefrom. Of course, we are

GOV. CALLING SAFETY MEET ON THURSDAY

Conference Called To Bring N. C. Adequate Highway Safety Program

Raleigh, June 22 (AP)—Governor Cherry today called a statewide conference to be held in his office next Thursday at 3 p. m.

The conference, he said, was called "for the purpose of bringing to North Carolina a program adopted at President Truman's national highway safety conference in Washington May 8-10."

Commenting on the state's high accident toll, Governor Cherry said that "this thing is not just a malady, it's an epidemic. If the staggering highway losses of life, limb and property came from some unknown disease germ the state would be alarmed from border to border, quarantines would be established, hospital and medical forces mobilized by the thousands. City, county and state officials would throw every possible resource into combatting the menace. x x x"

"But are lives any less important because they are taken by carelessness, by drunken driving, by excessive speed, or by any of the other causes of accidents? x x x"

"State regulations already insist upon minimum safety equipment for all forms of transportation. We must go further and require minimum operating conditions, with a periodic inspection by state stations, coordinating with a continuing police road check."

Among those invited to attend the Thursday conference were Chairman A. H. Graham of the State Highway (Continued on Page Three)

CLUBS ADOPT ITALIAN GIRL

Horizons Open For Ten-Year-Old Child Of War

This little girl is Paola Scilip, an Italian girl born September 22, 1935. She has been adopted through the Foster Parents Plan for war children by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Greenville along with four other B. P. W. Clubs of this district.

Left in the colony Marina di Anzio by her mother, this child, quite alone, was forced to leave due to the incessant destructive bombings that the colony was subjected to. With the multitude of people gathering up their wrecked belongings, Paola started on her tedious march to Rome.

Traveling on foot, by ox cart or whatever method available, living on herbs and leftovers, Paola found her way to Rome, hungry, without any hope of shelter. She wandered through the streets of war-torn Rome, managing to secure clothing and heat wherever possible.

On one of her daily tours searching for hope and food that would keep her daily thinning body alive, Paola was noticed by a Sister of Charity and was taken into custody. She was given a bed of her own, a luxury to a little girl who had been so long without the normal comforts. Once more she attended school, working after hours for the Sisters.

Already, Paola shows signs of improvement in her mental as well as physical make-up. She has put on some weight and her high strung nervous condition has been toned down to great lengths. She sleeps comparatively well, though unable to forget the harassing experiences she has endured.

Paola is a serious child and works very diligently on her embroidery which she hopes some day will aid her in making her way in the world. Dark hair and eyes, she has endeavored herself to the people of the Plan.

CHINESE HELD AS SMUGGLERS

Vancouver, B. C., June 22 (AP)—Chinese armed with meat cleavers fought city, federal and Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers yesterday in a storybook raid on Market Alley climaxed by the discovery and capture of a fabulous pile of loot.

Inspector M. F. Anthony, head of the R. C. M. P. Police Criminal Investigation Bureau, said the raid capped an investigation into the operations of a gang of smugglers, lottery operators and narcotics dealers.

He said five Chinese were arrested and a sixth, believed the "key" man, was thought to be in the United States.

Sixteen officers swooped down on the alley, a dingy section of Vancouver's Chinatown, finally overpowering four men armed with meat cleavers who were guarding a doorway. No deaths or injuries were reported.

Beyond the doorway the officers found and seized $47,000 in Canadian currency, $1,200 in United States gold coins, several pounds of narcotics, a supply of lottery tickets and oriental jewelry—jade and diamonds—of unestimated value. They (Continued on page three)

Rowdyism Breaks Out In Jap Diet

Tokyo, June 22 (AP)—A rough and tumble session of the new Japanese Diet, whose members questioned whether their actions truly represented democracy, was adjourned in confusion last night.

It was a heckling, boisterous, scuffling affair almost from the start. Members swung at each other in the aisles. Spectators yelled in the galleries.

Unable to control the situation, Speaker Senzo Higasi, target of the first outbreak, rang the adjournment bell.

The trouble started when Katsu Nomizo, Social Democrat, ran to the restroom to protest that the speaker was guilty of presiding unfairly. He accused him of making no effort to stop hecklers while another Social Democrat, Tetsu Katayama, was delivering his interpellation challenging the liberal cabinet.

Noises of the liberal hecklers was Shu Hara, who had been shouting "Baka" (Idiot) at Katayama. He grabbed Nomizo and they tussled in the aisle. Other members joined in, some making wild swings at their compatriots as others tried to separate them.

In a statement sent to the Diet, General MacArthur urged that it give full consideration without political bias to the new constitution.

Recovery Is Key Step To Philippine Freedom

By MORRIS J. HARRIS Washington—On July 4 the United States will grant full political independence to the Philippine Islands, thus completing an American experiment in colonization which began with the Spanish-American war in 1898.

The act will occur on the 170th anniversary of America's own independence.

The U. S. is living up to its 1934 Congressional promise of complete freedom despite the fact that the war and Japanese occupation left the archipelago of 7,000 islands in virtual economic ruin.

But like a mother assisting her youngster to stand alone and take its first step, so America is helping insure the economic and political survival of this new nation of 18,000,000 Filipinos.

The U. S. is pouring millions of dollars into the islands to help restore widespread war damage and has enacted legislation guaranteeing for 26 years after independence an American market for Philippine goods.

Congress voted $525,000,000 to help reconstruct private property and public institutions throughout the Philippines. An additional $100,000,000 worth of surplus American military stores there will be turned over to the new republic.

Says Situation Will Be Improved In July; Asserts Food Products Delayed Pending Outcome of Price Ceiling Legislation; Food Supplies To Increase Regardless Of OPA's Fate

Washington, June 22 (AP)—Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles predicted today there will be more meat available for a while after July 1 and the bread shortage will be "eased considerably" in 30 days.

Bowles, in his weekly radio address (ABC network), said that in view of pending legislation to remove price ceilings on meat June 30, "You can't blame meat shippers for holding up their cattle and hogs right now." He added:

"If you were a cattle or hog producer and you felt you would be able to charge anything you wanted after July 1 for your livestock, how would you feel about shipping your meat animals to market right now? You probably wouldn't ship your cattle and hogs, either."

Bowles said that for the week ending June 15, cattle sales in 12 public stockyards were 35 percent under sales the corresponding week last year. Hog deliveries "have also been going down steadily," he said.

As matter what happens, Bowles added, "More meat is going to flow into the stores after July 1."

"If ceilings are taken off," he continued, "prices are bound to be substantially higher. If they are kept on you'll get meat at ceiling prices. But in either case, you'll get more meat."

But the bigger supply won't last, Bowles predicted. He said that because of the tight grain situation—which means less feed for livestock—meat supplies will begin to decline again by "about December or maybe as early as November."

Bowles said the outlook is for about 135 to 140 pounds of meat a (Continued on Page Three)

Red Oak News

Thanks a million folks! Thanks to all our friends and neighbors who filled our community building to overflowing Wednesday night to see our "Womanless Wedding." That was the largest crowd ever to assemble there for anything and a nice sum was raised which will be spent for improvements on our church and community center. Thanks to Circle No. 2 which sponsored this entertainment. Thanks to all those in Circle No. 2 who helped in any way! Without that wonderful cooperation between everybody in the community, we couldn't do the things we did.

Thanks to the Daily Reflector and all its employees for the publicity given us. We certainly do appreciate your kindness!

Thanks to everyone who had a part in the wedding. Everybody looked wonderful and did his part to perfection.

To those folks from Piney Grove, Winterville and Mt. Pleasant churches, who helped us out, again we say, Thank you.

There has been such a clamor for the "Womanless Wedding" which was given at Red Oak Community Center last week to be repeated that after thinking it over, the ladies of the church have decided to present it again next Wednesday night, June 26th, at 8:15 o'clock. The proceeds for this performance will go to circle No. 1.

Hobbs ...

sent, and Justices Roberts and Jackson did not participate.

The Hobbs bill had lain in a pigeonhole of the Senate Judiciary Committee ever since the House passed it in December. After Mr. Truman's veto of the Case bill, however, the committee reported it out on June 17 without further hearings.

In previous hearings before Senate and House committees, spokesmen for organized labor have objected to the measure vigorously. They contend it could be used to interfere with legitimate union activities.

The President will have 10 days after the measure reaches him to sign or veto it, or permit it to become law without his signature. If he follows the procedure he used in dealing with the Case bill—the only other labor legislation to reach his desk since he assumed office—he will call for reports from the various departments and agencies concerned, principally the Labor and Justice Departments, before announcing a decision.

Chinese Held ...

also took charge of a half-ton safe, which Inspector Anthony said would not be opened until the man still at large is captured.

He said the ring's operations extended into the United States across Canada and to China.

Three Hurt In Highway Crash

State Highway patrolmen said three persons were injured on the Grimesland-Washington highway, two miles east of Grimesland, shortly after last midnight when a car driven by John Payne of Grimesland collided with the rear end of a Buick driven by Joseph Parnell Williams, Negro, of Fort Pierce, Fla.

Cpl. John Laws and Patrolman B. H. Chadwick arrested Payne and charged him with reckless driving. Payne suffered numerous head and face cuts and bruises and a cut on an arm. Nathan J. Hardy and Robert Boyd, both of Greenville, passengers in Payne's car, suffered face injuries from contact with the windshield, and Hardy had a cut on an arm. The front end of Payne's car was considerably damaged in the collision. The rear end of Williams' Buick also was damaged.

Cases Tried Friday In Recorder's Court

In Police Court Friday Judge Jimmy Roberts disposed of the following cases:

Drunk: Dave Creech, (also vulgar and profane language), guilty; appealed to Superior Court, bond $50; Johnnie Whitchard, colored, $15; Arvil Suggs, $35.

Speeding: Moses L. Hamm, $15. Crashing red light: Johnnie Carroll, colored, $5 on costs. Evading taxi fare: Wiley T. Brown, colored, 30 days on roads. Carrying concealed weapon: Thelma Stephenson, guilty; appealed to Superior Court, bond, $200. Robert Lee Hawkins, colored, was not guilty of larceny. Judge Roberts taxed Lenora Taft, the prosecuting witness, with $10 costs for malicious and frivolous prosecution.

Turkish Tobacco Is Profitable Product

College Station, Raleigh, June 23—Experimental crops of Turkish tobacco in Caldwell County are making exceptionally good growth this year and farmers have already begun priming the bottom leaves, stringing them up, and curing the crop in the sun.

Twelve farmers in different communities of Caldwell each have experimental plots of one-fourth acre each, according to R. H. Crouce of the State College Extension Service, and the crops are good. This is their first crop, and the Lenoir News-Topic says that Turkish tobacco may become "in the not too distant future one of, if not the best, cash crop for local farmers."

Turkish tobacco studies are being made not only in Caldwell but throughout this area cooperatively by Duke University and the Agronomy Department of State College.

The sun-cured, small-leaf, aromatic tobacco plants are set about 5-12 inches apart in rows 20 inches wide, at the rate of about 50 to 60 thousand plants per acre.

It is reported that the growers will receive 75 cents a pound for the tobacco after it is baled. The tobacco will be sent to the Oxford Tobacco Branch Experiment Station where it will be graded and processed for two years before it is delivered to tobacco manufacturers for further study.

Bowles ...

person this year as against demand for about 165 and the pre-war average of 125 pounds.

Of the bread shortage Bowles said "the best information I have is that it will be eased considerably in 30 days. The winter wheat harvest is now in full swing ... and prospects are good for an excellent crop. If we get it I look for a lot more wheat for our flour mills and more flour for our bakers."

Bowles made these predictions on supplies of other foods:

Poultry: The outlook is good for generous supplies through July and August at least. Later on, if meat supplies get tighter, we may find that the number of people buying poultry will put a heavy drain on poultry supplies.

Eggs: Should be plentiful until next winter, at least, with supplies sufficient to give everyone in the country an egg a day.

Butter: Despite the government's new program to encourage production, butter output at best will be still only about 60 per cent of what it was before the war.

Cheese: Production for civilians this year is expected to be at an all-time high.

Milk: Present output is only about one per cent below the record production of last year and we simply can't get it much higher.

Sugar: Supplies will continue tight until next spring.

Versailles Called Root Of Nazism

Nuernberg, June 22—(AP)—Baron Constantin Von Neurath declared today that the framers of the Versailles treaty and the League of Nations were responsible for the Nazi party and the second world war.

The old German noble, who was ambassador to London and Adolf Hitler's foreign minister before Joachim Von Ribbentrop took over in 1938, opened his defense before the international military tribunal with the assertion:

"In the numerous and impossible provisions of the Versailles treaty was the root of national socialism and of the causes of the second world war. They brought the world into economic unrest."

"Its charter allowed for revisions but the League of Nations made no use of that possibility.

"When the United States, Russia and Japan were standing outside, this so-called league consisted only of a meeting of parties interested in maintaining the status quo. This was pointed out again and again and not only in Germany, but that Gueva playground of brilliant orators and politicians was deaf."

Von Neurath is accused of participating in a conspiracy of Nazi aggression in the role of foreign minister while Germany was rebuilding her war machine and also as "protector" of Bohemia and Moravia after the occupation of Czechoslovakia.

OUTLOOK FOR PEACHES

Washington, June 22—(AP)—Peaches will be plentiful this season, but the crop will be one per cent smaller than the all-time record crop of last year, the U. S. Department of Agriculture forecast today.

DATES TO REMEMBER

Here are two dates you can't afford to forget. They mean cash to you. Enlist by June 30 and you will be eligible for guaranteed family allotments for the period of your enlistment, all G.I. Bill of Rights benefits, and, if you were honorably discharged recently, you will be able to reenlist with your last highest grade. Here are the facts:

JUNE 30, 1946
Family Allotments

Enlist by this date and your dependents are guaranteed monthly allowance checks for the period of your enlistment. It's another strong reason to choose the three-year period. Allotments remain at the same high rate: $30 a month extra for dependent child . . . $20 for each additional dependent child . . . and $28 for your wife or other dependent relative.

Keep Your Stripes

Reenlist by this date, and you come back with your stripes if it is no longer than three months since you were discharged. If you are in the Army now, you will have 20 days in which to reenlist in grade after discharge, regardless of when you are released.

OCTOBER 5, 1946
G. I. Bill of Rights

Sign up by this date and you'll be eligible to receive all benefits of this liberal bill. Remember, among other benefits, this means up to 48 months of education at the university, college, business or trade school of your choice. The Government pays all tuition fees and sends you a check of up to $86 every month for living expenses.

These are just two of the benefits offered men who enlist now in the New Army. There are many more. Don't wait. Don't put it off. Go to your nearest Army Recruiting Station today where trained personnel are waiting to help you plan your future.

Hunting Regulations Hearings Scheduled

Raleigh, June 22.—Hunting regulations for the coming fall will be the subject of a public conference in the courthouse at Williamston, N. C. Monday afternoon July 1. The meeting convenes at 2:00 p. m. with Game Committeemen J. Wilbur Bunn of Raleigh and J. R. Wollet of Littleton officiating.

Game Commissioner John D. Findlay of Raleigh said the public is invited to attend and discuss the regulations for next fall. The proposed reduction in deer season from 90 to 45 days is expected to be the major topic.

On Wednesday July 3, a similar meeting will be held in the courthouse at Elizabeth town. This meeting convenes at 2:00 p. m. with K. Clyde Council of Wananish presiding. Mr. Council is also a member of the Game and Fisheries Committee of the Board of Conservation and Development.

Kiwanians Enjoy Weekly Meeting

By CHESTER WALSH

At the weekly supper meeting last night Greenville Kiwanians heard some interesting comments on the recent Kiwanis International Convention by President Ed Rawl and Tige Gardner, with some "remote control" highlights of what the delegates did in the city by the sea by Marvin K. Blount. Tige Gardner said he couldn't keep up with Dave Moore and Joe Taft, so "they took the high road, and I took the low road," he added. The convention reminiscences were very interesting.

John Barnhill, who had charge of the program, presented Leon Roebuck, Jr., of Keel's Warehouse, as the speaker. Roebuck told the Kiwanians some interesting things about peanuts, one of the most valuable crops grown in this country. He gave a history of the goober, describing its many uses and its value as a soil builder, and explained that Alabama farmers turned to growing peanuts when the boll-weevil swept through the cotton lands of the south many years ago. Roebuck is an interesting speaker and made a good impression on the Kiwanians.

Bruce Sugg won the attendance prize. Several invited guests were present. James Ray Pittman will have charge of the program next week.

Good Advice On Fourth Of July

Police Chief James R. Tanner of Greenville today announced that a seasonal enforcement program will be in effect over the Fourth of July holiday week-end. The program, he said, is in cooperation with the nationwide effort being made by the National Safety Council to reduce the huge death toll which occurs annually at this time.

"The police department is asking every citizen to take special care to save lives and property," Chief Tanner said.

He predicted that traffic will be unusually heavy during this year's celebration, when thousands who have foregone trips and vacations for five years start to catch up on their pleasure driving.

"The long week-end, worn out tires and cars and a festive spirit will combine with more travel to make July Fourth this year a real time of hazard on the streets," the chief said. "Let's make Greenville one place where the Fourth does not mean death to many of our residents, but a city dedicated to thanksgiving for the freedom we have fought for."

New York, June 22—(AP)—Textile mill buying and week-end covering imparted a firm undertone in cotton futures today. Most of the buying came in the market in late dealings. Offerings were light on the advance. Earlier the market displayed irregularity. Buying was based on prospects for increased domestic consumption, heavier exports and unfavorable 1946 cotton crop prospects.

Futures closed 30 to 90 cents a bale higher.
