Big Four Reach Trieste Accord

Ministers Agree In Principle On Internationalization Of Troubled City; Final Terms Not Yet Settled; Molotov Accepts French Compromise Proposal

Paris, July 2.—(AP)—The Foreign Ministers Council agreed in principle today on the internationalization of Trieste, but has not yet agreed on a statute for the Adriatic port, Sen. Arthur Vandenberg said.

The Michigan senator said the council had also agreed on the area to be included in the eventual international zone, foreshadowing eventual acceptance of the French compromise proposal on the Italian-Yugoslav frontier.

The council did not discuss the question of fixing a date for the general European peace conference the senator said on returning to the American delegation headquarters after a four-hour meeting.

The council yesterday, in what western power sources described as a "very great advance," adopted the French foreign minister's compromise proposal for Yugoslav western frontier, but both Secretary of State Byrnes and British Foreign Secretary Bevin said they wanted more time to consider a companion project for internationalizing Trieste.

Russian Foreign Minister Molotov, in one of the most dramatic moments of these conferences accepted both proposals yesterday thus agreeing to establish along a line running generally from Tarvisio to Gorizia, then over to a few miles east of Trieste and down to the coast just south of Capoustria.

This line, which generally follows one previously proposed by the British and Americans, deprives Yugoslavia of the Tarvisio railway, Austria to the coast, and the Yugoslavians, which would remain Italian.

Proponents of this boundary represented an important concession by Russia, as did acceptance of the internationalization plan for Trieste, by which the Adriatic port city would be internationalized for at least 10 years under combined Italian-Yugoslav and Allied control.

Russia previously had backed Yugoslavians' claim for sovereignty in the city against Italy's similar claim.

British sources predicted Bevin's response to internationalization may be favorable, while American sources were inclined to think that Mr. Byrnes would approve internationalization if control were vested in the United Nations rather than the four major powers.

Passenger Killed As Small Plane Crashes

Littleton, July 2.—(AP)—One person was killed and another seriously injured when a light single-engine monoplane crashed in trying to make an emergency landing one mile southeast of here early yesterday afternoon.

Fred O. Ricker, 35, of Lansdale, Pa., a passenger in the plane, died last night at 6:35 o'clock in a Roanoke Rapids hospital of injuries received in the crash.

Charles S. Hartenstein, pilot of the plane and also of Lansdale, is seriously injured and his condition was termed critical by hospital attendants in Roanoke Rapids where he is being treated.

W. B. Copenhaver, manager of the Roanoke Rapids airport, investigated the crash, and said that the plane apparently overshot a meadow when trying to land in a rainstorm. The plane crashed into some trees bordering the field and was demolished.

All boys competing in the Boys' Baseball League will be guests at Guy Smith Stadium tomorrow night when Greenville plays host to the league leading Wilson team.

Those boys who are members of one of the teams in the Boys' League and who have turned in the slip with their parents' signature will be admitted free. These boys will use the same gate as before and the time is 7:30 p. m.

Crepe On Door

There was a crepe on the door at the office of Price Administration on Fourth street this morning—flowers and a white ribbon. It did not attract much attention until some one, in passing, inscribed on a piece of paper "OPA is dead—Funeral notice later"—and attached it to the crepe.

An elderly fisher who takes morning walks reported that a car drove up to the old rationing office about 5 a. m. and a man alighted and attached the "signal of death" on the OPA office door.

Recent rains affect tobacco, aid alfalfa

Raleigh, N. C., July 2.—(AP)—Recent heavy rains have caused some damage to tobacco fields, but have favored alfalfa. The N. C. State College Extension Service reported today.

In the Richland township, which suffered most, 100,000 was reported drowned in 80 per cent of the fields, ranging from one per cent of plants lost in some places to as high as 25 per cent in others.

Gov. Cherry Delays N. C. Price Controls

Says No Complaints As Yet On End Of OPA; Some Living Costs Rise In Scattered Areas; Overall Picture Good

Raleigh, July 2.—(AP)—The price of milk may increase two cents a quart in North Carolina as a result of the end of OPA.

Unless a two-cent subsidy is continued, according to L. L. Ray of the N. C. Dairy Products Association, milk distributors may find it necessary to increase prices by that amount in order to obtain milk from producers.

However, Ray said that in reply to questions from members of the association, he had advised that prices be held at their present level until the situation is clarified.

Governor Cherry, meanwhile, said any action he would take under his emergency powers must await a conference with Attorney General Harry McMullan. Under the emergency act, the governor may, with the approval of the Council of State, take action "to aid in the administration in this state of any retarding, freezing, price-fixing or other similar order or regulation duly promulgated by any federal officer or agency under or pursuant to the authority of any act of Congress or proclamation of the President of the United States."

He said no one had complained to him about the end of OPA. However, before his return to the office yesterday, one Raleigh woman told a member of his staff that her landlord had raised her rent 50 per cent. She asked that the governor freeze rents in Raleigh.

There were some reports of increased rents and higher prices, but throughout the state some merchants ran newspaper advertisements saying they would not raise prices.

The State Department of Agriculture said fruit and vegetable prices at state and terminal markets had been affected but little by the OPA discontinuance. Producer prices for fryers and broilers were up about five cents a pound from the old 31-cent ceiling to 36 cents in Asheville.

The isolated rent increases ranged from 30 to 100 per cent, but some realtor organizations pledged to keep rents at their present levels, at least for the present.

UNION BRANCH TO MEET OVER REDS IN CIO

Southern UFWA May Break With Parent Union Over Red Influence

Thomasville, July 2.—(AP)—A meeting of local representatives of the southern district of the CIO-United Furniture Workers of America was scheduled here today in a move that Bernard Hiatt, district president, said could lead to a break with the international body of the union.

Hiatt, who announced his resignation yesterday as international representative of UFWA, said today's meeting was called to act on a resolution approved by union representatives in Washington last Saturday calling for their divorce from what they termed the "communist wing" of the organization.

Hiatt's resignation came only two days after Morris Muster of New York City quit his post as UFWA international president, charging that "communists have captured the union."

The district president, whose territory embraces Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee, gave as the reason for his resignation alleged communist domination of the international body.

Addressing his resignation to Ernest Marsh, UFWA director of organization, with headquarters in New York, Hiatt said:

"Since Morris Muster resigned as president this leaves the international union completely controlled by communists and their lieutenants."

MAKING TURNAGE ORDERED HELD

In Hit-Run Death Of Edward Moore; Coroner Sets Bond At $2,500

By CHESTER WALSH At an inquest at the City Hall last night the jury found that W. Edward Moore, 82, came to his death Saturday night as a result of being struck by a car driven by Mark Twain Turnage of Ayden and that Turnage did not remain at the scene of the accident.

Coroner Griffin H. Rouse and Fifth Judicial District Solicitor, Dave Clark ordered Turnage held for the grand jury in Superior Court under $2,500 bond.

They ordered Robert Bruce Cox of near Ayden, owner of the car and who was in it at the time of the accident, held under $1,000 bond and John J. Cannon of Halifax, a passenger in the car, held under $100 bond as a material witness.

The three men provided bond and were released from jail. Three young women, passengers in the car, it was testified by Police Chief Jim Tanner, voluntarily gave information of the tragedy to the police. They are Myrtle Harris of near Winterville, and Mary and Lois Smith of near Greenville.

Photographer Mauled After Taking Picture Of Rep. Rankin At Polls

Tupelo, Miss., July 2.—(AP)—U. S. Representative John Rankin of Mississippi assaulted an Associated Press photographer here today, ripping off the newsmen's shirt and scratching his neck and hands after the latter took a picture of the congressman outside a Tupelo polling place.

Rankin is seeking re-nomination from Mississippi's first congressional district in today's Democratic primary.

The photographer was Allen W. Snipes of Memphis. Walter Long, Tupelo baker, gave the Associated Press an eye-witness account of the incident. Said Long: "I was standing over on the court house lawn about 30 yards away from the two men. I saw the photographer take the picture and turn around to walk away."

"Just then Rankin yelled and jumped on the photographer's back, scratching his neck and gouging at his hands to get the camera."

"Rankin," Long continued, "then shouted, 'I'll kill you, I'll kill you!' The baker said Snipes was holding his camera with one hand and trying to shield himself with the other. 'He obviously didn't want to hurt Rankin for he made no effort to strike him or throw him off his back.'"

Long said he then ran across the street and pulled Rankin off the AP man. Rankin wrestled the camera. (Continued on Page Four)

NEW HIGH FOR N. C. REVENUE

Record-Breaking Total Of $138 Millions In Taxes

Raleigh, July 2.—(AP)—The North Carolina Department of Revenue collected a record-breaking total of $137,937,658 during the fiscal year that ended on June 30, Revenue Commissioner Edwin Gill reported today.

The collections were 18.02 per cent more than $116,871,644 collected in the previous fiscal year during which collections also broke all records.

The state's general fund tax sources produced a total of $92,533,461, an increase of 22.36 per cent over the $75,517,812 collected in the 1944-45 fiscal year.

Collections for the highway fund mounted to $45,037,254, an increase of 31.1 per cent over the $34,358,832 taken during the 1944-45 fiscal year.

The end of gasoline rationing caused the gasoline tax to mount from $23,057,462 to $32,157,873, the largest increase shown by any of the individual tax sources.

The income tax repeated as the biggest revenue producer in the general fund, bringing in a total of $38,797,865, as compared with $37,345,876 in 1944-45, but the sales tax showed the biggest increase of any of the general fund sources, increasing from $21,841,593 in 1944-45 to $26,398,861 last year.

Majority In Senate Banking Group Favor Year's Extension Of Price Controls; Opponents Seek To Slow Necessary Action President's Stand Bolstered By Numerous Messages

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Adamant opponents blocked efforts to speed an OPA revival today as Senate leaders sought informal agreement on a compromise price control bill.

All price controls were off. The Senate opposition made it increasingly apparent that any restoration will be delayed—possibly several weeks.

Bolstered by apparent majority support within the Senate Banking Committee, Democratic leader Barkley (Ky.) tried to get opposing sides together on a year's extension of the OPA as a substitute for the 20-day revival resolution passed 281-67 by the House yesterday.

But when Senator Maybank (D-SC), presiding, sought to assign a temporary extension bill offered by Senator Wagner (D-NY) to the Banking Committee, Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) and Wherry (R-Nebr) objected. This had the effect of delaying for one day the sending of the bill to the committee.

A few minutes later, when the House extender officially arrived in the Senate, Barkley asked unanimous consent to send it immediately to the Banking Committee. Wherry objected.

He and O'Daniel then raised another parliamentary technicality which delayed its assignment to the committee until tomorrow.

At the White House, Chester Bowles told reporters he was hopeful the Senate will pass the continuing OPA resolution this week and then more permanent legislation "within two or three weeks."

Firefighters Still In Action On Test Ships

Number Of Sunken Vessels Climbs To Five; Forrestal Surprised At "Relatively Unimportant" Damage Inflicted

Aboard U.S.S. Appalachian, July 2.—(AP)—Firefighting crews worked into the second day in atom-blasted Bikini Lagoon today, dousing lingering pockets of flame through the target fleet—five of whose 73 vessels already had been sunk.

The second test, tentatively scheduled within three or four weeks, may take a far greater toll was indicated in an interview with Navy Secretary Forrestal radioed from the flagship Mt. McKinley.

He expressed surprise at the "relatively unimportant" damage inflicted upon the heavier ships by Monday's air drop, but noted that such ships are "difficult to sink unless they sustain underwater damage."

The second atomic blast is to be set off under water, with the sea transmitting a terrific blow to the hulls of the test fleet.

The lagoon at mid-afternoon today was "reeling" from blast and lethal radiation of yesterday morning's aerial burst. Brig. Gen. Roger M. Ramey, air force commander, reported from Kwajalein.

Whether crewmen could have lived through the blast remained an unanswered question, but scientists expect to learn much by observing the effects of the rays upon surviving test animals, tethered at battle stations aboard the target fleet.

Fifth test ship to sink was the broken Japanese cruiser Sakawa—a modern warship, welded instead of riveted and consequently much stronger structurally.

First listed as "missing," the destroyer Anderson later was announced definitely sunk, as were the attack transports Gilliam and Carlisle and the destroyer Lamson. Badly damaged were the carrier Independence, battleship Arkansas, Japanese battleship Nagato, heavy cruiser Pensacola, submarine Skate, and a tank landing ship. Some 25 others were damaged in varying degree, and few—if any—escaped unscathed.

London, July 2.—(AP)—Bert Locker, a member of the World Executive of the Jewish Agency, told a press conference today he had received reports alleging acts of tortures on Jewish men and women detained at the Atlit Camp near Haifa, Palestine.

He said former inmates of the Buchanwald prison in Germany were beaten at another Palestine camp. Commenting on the military-police operations in Palestine, Locker declared:

"The worst must know that the situation is graver than has been painted by the British press or in the House of Commons and it is settling graver from hour to hour."

Locker declared that the male population of the collective settlement of Yaguli, including boys over 10 years of age, had been arrested and detained at Atlit.

A number of houses at Yaguli were destroyed, he added, trees were cut down, fields ploughed up, vineyards partly destroyed and the water installations made unworkable.

The Jewish committee in Palestine, he said, already has issued a warning to the government that unless what it termed attacks on Jews were stopped and Jewish leaders were freed, the committee would have to proclaim a policy of civil disobedience.

Locker reported Rabbi Jehuda Fishman, 73-year-old acting chairman of the agency's executive who was arrested in joint military-police operations in Palestine Saturday, "showed signs of assault on his face."

Clay acted on a recommendation of the denazification committee of the German States Council of the American zone "in order to grant youthful offenders full opportunity for rehabilitation," he said.

Excluded from the amnesty were higher officers of the Hitler youth and Nazi girls' organizations and those members of the groups who worked under SS commanders. Those who actively taught and propagated Nazi ideology and any war criminals also were excluded.

The Russians for some time have been following generally the same procedure, but on a less formal basis.

THE NATION TODAY

By James Marlow

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—OPA is like a zombie: There's life there but no soul.

You can see how it is in a short walk through OPA headquarters. There's no soul because OPA died Sunday at midnight. The life there is in the 3,363 OPA workers who have returned to their jobs, knowing OPA is dead and may not be revived.

They're sticking around, hoping Congress will continue the agency. But they can't be sure it will.

They can't even be sure, it seems, that they'll get paid for these days of work if Congress lets OPA stay dead.

(Probably, they will. President Truman Saturday night asked all OPA workers to stay on the jobs until Congress decides about OPA.)

The agency has 34,000 workers together around the country. OPA boss Paul Porter says everywhere they're on the job.

There isn't a great deal for them to do although Porter told them—hoping OPA will be continue—to use this catching up on their work.

This is probably the strangest sight in Washington since the war started.

OPA headquarters are in a 6-story building, a wide building, and on every floor there are desks row upon row, or offices, hastily built in wartime, with papered walls.

It had been a teeming spot during the war. But it slowed down quite a bit after Japan surrendered. Still, it had plenty to do. Not so the workers now in this period of waiting for Congress to make up its mind. Men and women stand in knots in corners, talking about OPA's fate which, after all, is their own fate, too.

Or they sit around desks, talking. From Porter they seem to have picked up a phrase to dramatize their situation.

They tell you when you ask what they're doing in an agency which is officially dead: "We're manning our battle stations, very embattled looking about those rows of desks, the men in shirtsleeves, the women in colored dresses."

The greatest activity is on the third floor where long ago OPA had installed a battery of news machines.

Yards of yellow paper roll out of those machines, telling news of the (Continued on Page Four)

Philippine Army Is Given Release

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—President Truman today signed an order releasing the organized military forces of the Philippine government from the service of the United States.

At the same time the President signed into law legislation permitting the immigration into the U. S. for citizenship purposes of 100 Filipinos and 100 East Indians annually.

Neither country had an immigration quota previously, and the 100 granted them by the new law is the same that Congress approved last year for Chinese.

The legislation permits the naturalization of Filipinos and East Indians already in this country, provided they can meet citizenship requirements.

The military order, one of a series of steps looking to the inauguration of Philippine independence on July Fourth, became effective last midnight.

It revokes a previous military order of July 26, 1945, under which the organized military forces of the Philippine Commonwealth were brought into the U. S. military forces.

GRAVE UNREST IN HOLY LAND

Situation Called More Serious Than Generally Known

London, July 2.—(AP)—Bert Locker, a member of the World Executive of the Jewish Agency, told a press conference today he had received reports alleging acts of tortures on Jewish men and women detained at the Atlit Camp near Haifa, Palestine.

He said former inmates of the Buchanwald prison in Germany were beaten at another Palestine camp. Commenting on the military-police operations in Palestine, Locker declared:

STORM SEWER TO BE ASSET

Big Pipe Line Will Relieve Flooding Of Streets

By CHESTER WALSH Under the supervision of City Engineer Henry L. Rivers construction of the 42-inch steel reinforced concrete storm sewer pipe line in the western part of the city has progressed satisfactorily, Mayor Jack Boyd said today.

The big pipe line was started in lowground at the utilities plant near the river, runs under the Atlantic Coast Line railroad track, and thence along the roadbed under Third, Fourth and Fifth streets, thence to Albemarle Avenue near the National Biscuit Company's plant. The storm drainage project was estimated to cost about $52,000. With the work being done by local labor the job will cost considerably less than the first estimate and much less than the lowest bid submitted by contractors some time ago.

Mayor Boyd said the big storm drainage pipe line will take off one-third of the load from the big sewer pipe that crosses Evans street and will take all surface water from rains west of the Atlantic Coast Line tracks up to Grand Avenue and Chestnut street. The new pipe line will also relieve flooding of streets after heavy rainfall in the vicinity of Evans and 10th streets.

Incidentally, the administration is saving the taxpayers money by using local labor on the project and (Continued on Page Six)

TAX RATES TO GO BY PRICES

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder said today there may be an increase in tax rates next year, if prices get too far out of hand.

Asserting that "taxes will probably follow prices," Snyder told a news conference that a rate hike may be used as a brake on inflation. But, he said flatly, no new tax bill will be proposed by the Treasury for 1946.

Summarizing the government's financial position for the fiscal year ended last Sunday, Snyder said the deficit was 788 million dollars less than President Truman estimated it would be in a budget revision on April 11.

The improvement, however, was due to slow progress of the international finance program, he said, and the "saving" actually will be merely a spillover into the fiscal year just started.

Because of the slow development of the world bank and fund, and the failure of Congress to pass the British loan proposal thus far, the government put $1,561,000,000 less into international finance than the President anticipated in April.

The administration expects, however, that this sum will be put into the foreign loan program in fiscal 1947.

Increases over Mr. Truman's April estimates were reported in war activities, veterans, and tax refunds.

The public debt at the 1946 fiscal close was $269,898,484.032, an increase of $10,740,000,000 over a year ago but sharply down from a high of more than $279,000,000,000 registered last February 28.

There were indications that further debt retirement out of the treasury's cash balance of more than $14,237,000,000 would be deferred for the present because of fear it might contribute to inflationary pressures.

Post Office

Postmaster J. Knott Proctor announced today that the post office will be closed Thursday, July Fourth. There will be no deliveries on either the city or rural routes. There will be no parcel post delivery.

Special delivery, special handling and perishable matter will be delivered as usual and there will be a collection from all mail boxes throughout the city beginning at 4:30 p. m.

Govt Housing, Production and Economic Heads Continue Campaign To Return Controls To Prevent Inflation

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Spurred by reports of rising commodity prices, the government's housing, production and economic chiefs stacked fresh ammunition today for their battle to save OPA.

Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt told the nation and its lawmakers by radio that the emergency home-building program is "doomed" to miss its goals unless the price lid is put back on.

Civilian Production Administrator John D. Small hurriedly drafted steps designed to prevent "speculative hoarding" by business and at the same time pleaded for "firm, fair and reasonable" ceilings to stave off inflation which he said (Continued on Page Four)

Terminal Leave Pay Measure Is Held Up

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—The Senate Military Affairs Committee today put off action for a week on legislation granting terminal leave pay to approximately 14,000,000 men and women who served in the ranks during the war.

Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) told reporters after the closed committee session that he asked the delay to give the Budget Bureau time to report on President Truman's views toward the bill.

Amnesty Granted To Young German Group

Berlin, July 2.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, deputy American military governor, proclaimed today a general political amnesty for all Germans in the U. S. occupation zone born after Jan. 1, 1919, except major offenders under the denazification laws.

Clay acted on a recommendation of the denazification committee of the German States Council of the American zone "in order to grant youthful offenders full opportunity for rehabilitation," he said.

Excluded from the amnesty were higher officers of the Hitler youth and Nazi girls' organizations and those members of the groups who worked under SS commanders. Those who actively taught and propagated Nazi ideology and any war criminals also were excluded.

Prior to the ceremony a musical program was provided by Miss Miral Tripp, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. W. O. Freeland at the piano. The couple was unattended but the usher's duties were performed by Mr. Leo Hawkins, brother of the groom and Mr. Grover Edwards, cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a white linen suit with matching accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds. Mrs. Hawkins is the daughter of Mrs. Louis Mason Edwards and the late Mr. Edwards. She is a graduate of Chicod High School and is employed by J. Hicks Corey, Real Estate agent.

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Recent medical reports reveal that an increasing number of children and grown-ups are victims of Pin-Worms—often without suspecting what is wrong!
Watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself—especially the tormenting, embarrassing rectal itch. Because now you can and should do something about it. After centuries of distress caused by Pin-Worms, a highly effective way to deal with them has been made possible. It is based on the medically recognized drug called mebendazole.
This special drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. The tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms.
So if you suspect this ugly infection, ask your doctor for JANE'S P-W and follow the directions. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back.

Seventy-three boys and girls attended the annual 4-H Camp held at Camp Millstone in Richmond county, June 12-17. The program this year was especially beneficial to those boys and girls attending camp as four courses of instruction were given. The courses were 4-H organization, swimming, recreation and handicraft. The camp schedule was arranged in such a manner that the recreation, class work and class periods did not come together. One of the highlights of the camp was a womanless wedding given by the Pitt county boys for the stunt night program. All boys and girls attending reported having a time.
The 4-H camp at Manteo has been reserved for next year's camp.—W. H. Pruden, assistant county agent.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By KARL L. DOUGLAS

STANDARDS IN ALL FIELDS

As we look at a great town clock or perhaps at the watch we carry in our pockets, we need to remind ourselves that every timepiece ought to be checked up now and then with another timepiece which guarantees scientific accuracy. At the Royal Observatory in Greenwich, England, a ball used to drop at noon, and in our own country there are certain accepted standards of time reckoning by which timepieces may be checked.

We live in an age which does not accept as it should the necessity for rigid and unvarying standards. We used to consider the Constitution of the United States such a rigid standard, but much liberty has been taken with it in recent years by people who have scant respect for its authoritative nature. Certain scholars have poured the acid of criticism over the Bible in such large quantities that the people who follow these scholars are in doubt as to whether the Bible has any sound spiritual authority or not.

We continue to accept the authority of standards defined by astronomers because we believe that the physical universe never changes. If we only knew it, the spiritual universe never changes. Man may think he changes moral standards, but he doesn't. He simply rearranges them, and usually with a bungling hand.

Mark Turnage . . .

was driving the car at excessive speed on west 10th street, approaching Evans; that Cox, owner of the car and the young woman, urged the driver to slow down. When the car reached Evans street the red traffic light was on and the car went through, striking Moore, fatally injuring him. He died on the way to a hospital. The three women and two men passengers in the car advised Turnage to stop and report the accident, but he refused, it was testified.

Turnage and Cox and Cannon were arrested by highway patrolmen and sheriff's officers at a Grimesland service station when Turnage tried to buy a glass for a broken headlight.

ter, the union's recently resigned president, had engaged in "shameful red baiting" in quitting his post because of alleged communist influence in union affairs.
Muster announced his resignation at a union meeting Saturday in Washington. He charged that "communists have captured the union."
In a statement signed by five union officers, headed by Vice-President Morris Pizer, the UFWA said Muster's action "was a grandstand play to a hand-picked conference which does not represent the interests of the furniture workers."
The statement declared that "his shameful red-baiting rushed into print was an act of disservice to the labor movement generally and to the UFWA in particular."

Grain Market

Chicago, July 2 — (AP) — Heavy selling entered the oats pit toward the close today, induced by increased country offerings of corn and oats, combined with heavy livestock receipts.

At the close corn was 5 cents higher than yesterday's close, January $1.56 1/2. Barley was 3 cents higher, November $1.43 1/2. Oats were 1/2 higher to 3 cents lower, January 93 1/2.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, July 2 — (AP) — A few special stocks swung upward in today's market while leaders generally held to a narrowly irregular trail in one of the slowest sessions of the year.

From the start the ticker tape frequently was at a standstill and near the close, small fractional variations, either way obscured trends. Transfers for the full proceedings dwindled to around 800,000 shares.

Portland Cement plus moisture plus roadway soil = SOIL-CEMENT

... a new, better light-traffic road

Revolutionary is the word for this new kind of low cost road. Here's how it is done —

The road builders simply mix exact amounts of portland cement and water (determined in advance by laboratory tests) with the existing roadway soil. No other materials are used. Grading and rolling complete the job. Soil-Cement is sturdy more than 90% soil.

Soil-Cement is not intended for use on heavy duty roads. For such roads portland cement concrete is the most economical pavement. Soil-Cement does offer new economy and uniformity for light-traffic roads. Urge your officials to use Soil-Cement for future light-traffic paving.

North Carolina to date has 700,000 square yards of soil-cement pavement in service on roads, streets and airports. More of this pavement is under construction this year.

Stadium To Be Site Of Games On Fourth

On the morning of July 4th, the boys of the Baseball League will have a full morning at Guy Smith stadium. There will be a double-header between four teams of the league and between games there will be "field events" in which the winners will receive prizes. Included in the events between games will be 50 yard dashes, potato races three leg races, baseball throw for distance and other interesting events.

It is hoped that the parents and other interested spectators will plan to attend and show these youngsters that they are interested in their progress.

Miniature Golf Has New Woman Record

Miss Peggy Mitchell knocked in five birdies on the back nine Saturday night to score a 48, and win the prize for low score at the Miniature gol. course last week. This is the lowest score made in the women's division, since the course was opened, and barely nosed out Miss Suzanne Kilgo's 49, the previous record. Miss Kilgo posted her score Thursday night, and had scored an ace on the eleventh hole. This tricky par 2 hole has not been birdied often, and hers was the second ace ever made by the ladies. John Williams fired a par-bustin' 43 to lead the men's division, but he had to shoot three aces to beat Gene Baker's 44. He started with an ace on No. one and duplicate this feat on numbers 6 and 11. Qualifying will start July 16th to determine the best putter in this community. There will be a division for the teen aces, and one for the men, and one for the ladies.

Greenies Drop Both Games By One Run Margins

New Bern's Beers scored a run in the top of the ninth here last night in the first game of a double-header and George Strickler protected the lead as the visitors scored a 4-3 win over Greenville. Peanut Doak opened the ninth with a pinch single, moved to second on Moore's sacrifice, and scored on Pinner's single. The Greenies got two runners on base in their half of the final frame, with none out, but Strickler tightened up and got the next three batters.

BOYS LEAGUE BASEBALL

The Giants from Third St. shut-out the Cardinals from the Training School yesterday morning by the score of 10 to 0. Glenn Scott pitched his second shutout of the year allowing the losers only four hits while his teammates were scoring easily on their own fourteen hits and numerous errors committed by the Cards.
