

STUDENT SAYS MADE NO NEW CONFESSIONS

Heirens Denies Reported Admission Of Role In Twin Slayings

Chicago, July 16—(AP)—William Heirens, who was quoted by Warden Frank Sain of the Cook County jail as saying he had not "confessed" the kidnap-killing of Suzanne Degnan and the slaying of a former Wave, was summoned into Criminal Court today for arraignment on 29 indictments charging him with 24 burglaries and five assaults.

Sain said last night that the 17 year old University of Chicago student, who has been questioned in connection with the Degnan crime and the slaying of Frances Brown the former Wave, summoned him to his jail cell after he had heard a news broadcast.

Heirens told him that he had heard over the radio that "I've confessed," and Sain said, they had the following conversation:

Heirens: "Who did I confess to then?"

Sain: "You didn't confess to me."

Heirens: "Well, I didn't confess to nobody."

Sain: "Did you tell anyone you did it?"

Heirens: "No."

(The warden said "so far as I know" the radio in the jail was turned to station WGN. A spokesman for WGN said its 5 p. m. news program regarding Heirens, the youth did not say what broadcast he had heard.)

(The Chicago Tribune, in a copy-right story, said it had learned "from unimpeachable sources" that "Heirens has told of going to the Degnan home and kidnaping the six year old girl from her bed. The Tribune story said he entered the girl's bedroom with a ladder, used the house, gagged the victim with a handkerchief and strangled her with his hands when she awakened. He carried her into the basement of another building, the Tribune story added, and worked until nearly daylight cutting up her body. Then he placed the pieces of her body in sewers in the neighborhood, believing they would be washed away," the Tribune said.)

The Tribune also said Heirens shot and killed Miss Brown when she emerged from her bathroom the night of Dec. 10 to find him ransacking her apartment. The story added that she shot didn't kill Miss Brown and that Heirens finished the job with a bread knife found in her kitchen.

(The Tribune also said that Heirens fatally stabbed Mrs. Josephine Ross, 43, a widow, when she surprised him in the act of stealing her purse from her apartment on June 3, 1945.)

Farmers Still Living In Past Says Speaker

Blue Ridge, N. C., July 16—(AP)—In the opinion of former Governor J. M. Broughton of North Carolina, southern farmers "are still living too much in the past and relying entirely too much on the one crop row system."

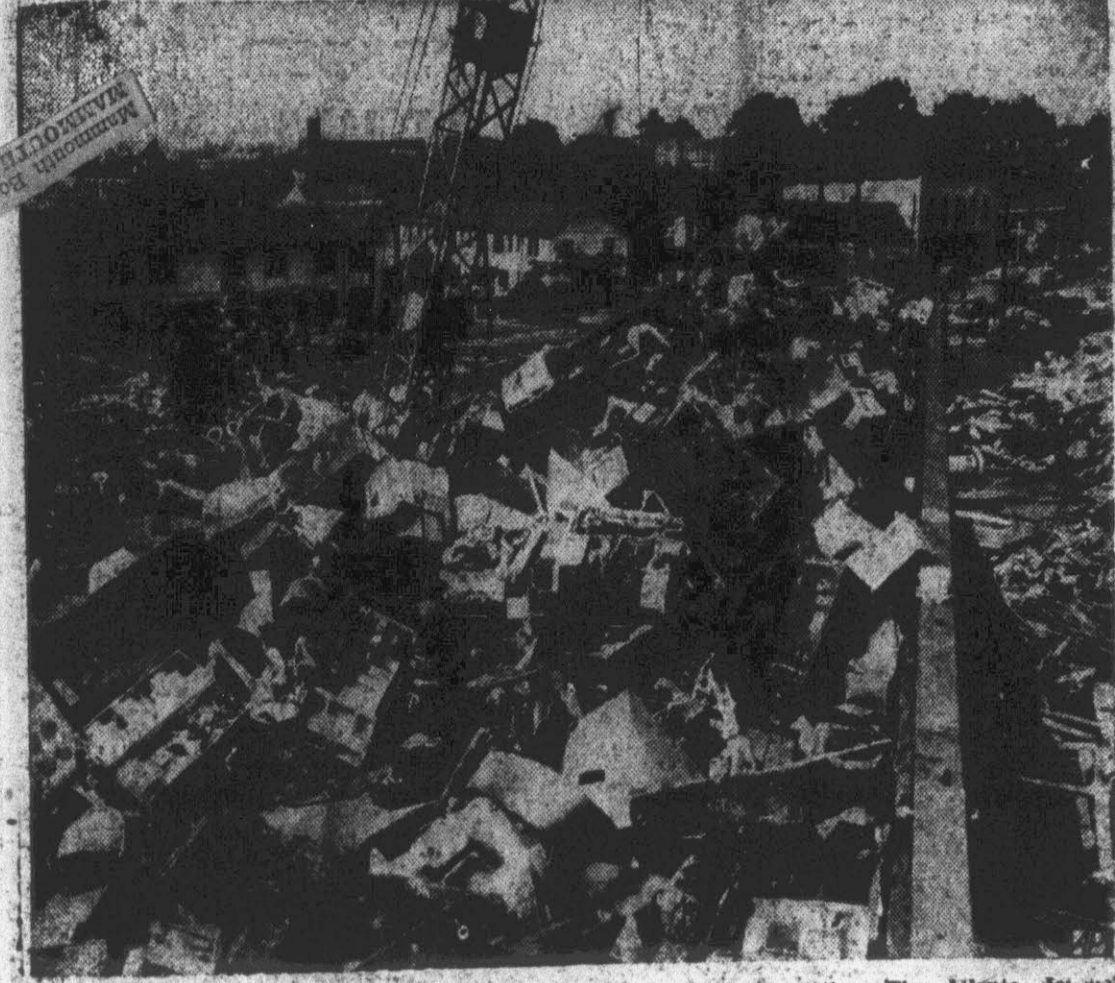

Broughton spoke last night to some 400 representatives of the American Farm Bureau Federation from 13 southern states attending a four-day Southern Farm Bureau training school here.

"Even in these years of comparative farm prosperity," Broughton declared, "the per capita income of the southern farmer as contrasted with any other region of the nation is shocking."

Ladd Haystead, Fortune magazine farm editor, will speak to the group tonight.

The school will close Thursday.

Army Radio Equipment Junked At Atlanta

A Carload of junked radio equipment is unloaded at the Atlanta Steel Corporation. The Atlanta Post-Record photo shows that 50 tons of army radio and radio equipment "bearing signs of having been smashed deliberately" was being unloaded in Atlanta as junk. The paper quoted army officers as saying most of the equipment was obsolete and some was secret. It was sold for scrap. (AP Photo.)

Senate's OPA Revival Bill Given Big Defeat In House

Washington, July 16—(AP)—By a vote of 21 to 64, the House today rejected the Senate OPA bill and sent it to a House-Senate conference committee for a new effort to write a compromise price control measure that President Truman will sign.

The vote was a victory for the President in this round of the weeks-long struggle over OPA, but administration leaders conceded that nobody could guess what OPA will look like. If indeed it survives at all, when it finally runs the gamut of the legislative processes.

Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), immediately after the House vote, appointed these House members to deal with the Senate in the effort to compromise the troublesome OPA issue:

Chairman Spence (D-Ky.), of the banking committee, and Reps. Brown (D-Ga.), Patman (D-Tex.), Barry (D-NY), Wolcott (R-Mich.), Crawford (R-Mich.) and Gambie (R-NY).

A key House Republican, Rep. Wolcott of Michigan, joined administration leaders in urging that the Senate version of OPA be rewritten in a Senate-House conference committee.

The bill at present is in worse condition than we have ever seen in the history of OPA legislation," Wolcott declared.

Administration leaders drove hard for such a procedure, hopeful of getting a stronger price control bill that the Senate measure which President Truman has said "could not be any worse."

That bill would bar future ceilings on meat, dairy products, gasoline and several other items.

Specifically, the House had a choice between (1) accepting the Senate draft as is and sending it to the White House for a possible veto or (2) routing it to a joint committee of House and Senate members.

N. C. Baptists To Hold Convention

Wake Forest, N. C., July 16—(AP)—All churches of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention have been mailed official notice of a called meeting in the Greensboro First Baptist Church for July 30.

First special session in the 116-year history of the convention is being scheduled to consider a proposal of the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation to allot and assign perpetually the income from the foundation up to $350,000 annually, upon the condition that Wake Forest College be moved to Winston-Salem.

Unanimous approval of the offer already has been given after meeting by the board of trustees of Wake Forest College, the council of Christian education, and the general board of the Baptist State Convention.

The general board of the convention, meeting in Winston-Salem on June 14, instructed that a date and place for a special meeting of the convention be selected by Dr. Casper C. Warren, pastor of the Charlotte First Baptist Church and president of the convention; M. A. Hug-Congress used language so vague.

ARRESTED SPY SUSPECTS ARE TO BE FREED

Missing American Couple Released; Army Frees Red Spy Trio

Berlin, July 16—(AP)—The Russians handed over a missing American warrant officer and his petite wife to U. S. Army authorities early today, and soon afterward the Americans announced they were releasing three Russian espionage suspects to the Red Army.

The Americans, warrant officer and Mrs. Samuel L. Harrison of San Antonio, Tex., disappeared 15 days ago when they ventured 500 yards into the Russian occupation zone to see a pet shoy dog kennel. Harrison said he was held two days in a virtually a dungeon; his wife said she was questioned repeatedly and at one time cried during an interrogation.

Two other Americans still were missing somewhere in the Russian zone. Gen. M. Dratvin, Russian deputy military governor, advised U. S. Army authorities the Red Army still was "collecting data" on the men in the neighborhood of Oranienburg, a Russian army district headquarters.

The missing men were Capt. Harold Cobin, of Newark, N. J., and Lt. George Wyatt, of Oklahoma City, who were last seen July 4 boarding a train for Oranienburg, 20 miles north of Berlin.

Major Gen. James A. Keating, American commander in Berlin, said strenuous efforts were being made to locate them.

Funds for the work were included in the $250,000 bond issue, it was stated.

Four concerns bid on the paving project. The Brown Paving Company of Charlotte submitted the lowest bid—$284,526. Other bids were submitted by F. P. Cline and Company, Raleigh, $309,876; Barrow Paving Company, Kinston $310,773, and Blythe Brothers of Charlotte, $323,640.50.

The city of Greenville reserves the right to reject any or all bids. The Board of Aldermen after routing the bids this morning adjourned to meet again Saturday at 10 a. m., when action will be taken.

Powers May Confer On Soviet Spy Activities

Ottawa, July 16—(AP)—Indications that the three nations which hold the atom bomb secret may confer on Russian spy activities were seen today following publication of an official Canadian report that Soviet agents, who "may still be operating in Canada, had flown samples of uranium 235 to Russia."

The report, issued by a royal commission composed of two of Canada's seven Supreme Court justices, asserted that many top military developments already had been compromised because of Russian spies, and that Moscow was seeking information on post-war defenses of the three countries—the U. S., Britain and Canada.

After repeating previous charges that the Soviet spy operations had ramifications in the United States and Britain, the commission recommended that Canada consider whether to communicate her findings to the proper authorities in the United Kingdom and the United States.

The 250,000-word report said that Dr. Alan Nunn May, British scientist who worked on atomic research in Montreal, had given samples of uranium 235 enriched and uranium 233, essential elements in the manufacture of atom bombs, to a Lt. Angelov, assistant military attaché in the Russian embassy in Ottawa.

Garsson Associate Saw No Wrong In Dealings

Washington, July 16—(AP)—Munitions Maker Allen B. Gellman told the Senate War Investigating Committee today that he had accepted Henry Garsson, his wartime associate, as a super salesman because the product of the pudding was in the eating of it.

Gellman testified that Garsson had backed up claim of ability to obtain government munitions orders by (1) getting a big advance contract and (2) by showing him a letter from the Chemical Warfare Service expressing hope that he (Garsson) would share in future business.

He denied however, that Garsson had ever told him that he had special influence in Washington. Testimony has been introduced to show that Garsson obtained help from Rep. (D-Ky) on problems of an Illinois munitions combine.

Gellman said that he had made a "mistake" by not having Garsson more thoroughly investigated before they decided to go into the munitions business together.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) pressed Gellman closely on his wartime earnings and the net worth of his holdings and those of Joseph T. Weiss. He told the committee that they were worth a half a million.

Garden Gate Draws Nearly Two Million

New York, July 16—(AP)—Sportsmen drew nearly two million persons to Madison Square Garden during the fiscal year which ended last May 31.

All told, the big Eighth Avenue arena housed 5,298,544 persons during the 12 months, with 1,914,423 of them attending basketball games, boxing shows, hockey matches and track meets.

Basketball topped the list with a total attendance of 628,718 for 42 nights. The 21 regular-season doubleheaders drew an average of 18,112 each.

Nine Poles Are Shot For Starting Pogrom

Warsaw, July 16—(AP)—Nine men were executed by a firing squad yesterday for setting off a July 4 pogrom in Kielce which cost the lives of 41 persons. Three other defendants, convicted with the nine last Thursday, received prison sentences.

Meanwhile the government announced that four officials of the ministry of public security in Kielce had been arrested after a special investigating committee found they had not been energetic enough in intervening to halt the pogrom.

Trials of a second group of defendants in the Kielce pogrom is expected to start shortly.

Witness Says He Should Have Thoroughly Investigated Munitions - Maker; Claims He Was Mislead By Appearance

Byrnes' Paris Report

AP's Foreign Affairs Analyst Reviews Two Key Points Of Speech Made By The Secretary Of State Last Night; Speculates On Ultimate Russian Goals

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Secretary Byrnes in his broadcast on the results of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference in Paris has dealt the cards face up.

The report throws much light on disputes that have been puzzling and worrying the American public and it therefore is worthy of careful study. There are, however, two points of peculiar interest inasmuch as they concern relations with Russia—the paramount question of the day.

The first of these points deals with the fact that, as Mr. Byrnes says, the conference "made no progress at all" on the German question. Byrnes said "I do not believe that the Soviets realize the doubts and suspicions which they have raised in the minds of those in other countries who want to be their friends by the aloofness, coolness and hostility with which they receive America's offer to guarantee jointly the continued disarmament of Germany."

Now Mr. Byrnes doesn't define the doubts and suspicions to which he refers, and I don't propose to try to read his mind, but I do know the doubts which have been troubling many professional observers of the international situation. One of the first questions raised is whether the Soviet Union's refusal to play ball in Germany is based on any desire of Moscow to gain control of Germany and thereby further the expansion of Soviet influence.

We mustn't forget that the old Reich was the keystone of the continental European politico-economic arch. This control of Germany would be a mighty buttress for the influence of a Russia which has been steadily pushing its zone of influence westward.

The second point to which I draw your attention is Mr. Byrnes' statement that "in the long run we shall have a much better chance to work out our problems if we and our allies recognize the basic differences in our ideas, standards and methods." (Continued on Page Three)

Taxing Excess Profits Bureau Of Internal Revenue Told To Determine Corporations' Probable Earnings, Had There Been No War, For New Basis Of Preventing Wartime Profiteering

Washington, July 16—(AP)—Fifteen experts, working for Uncle Sam's tax collector, set out today to find the answer to this question: What would the earnings of a corporation have been, if things had been different?

Sound vague? It is. To the experts too.

But they'll have to find an answer which involves about $8,000,000,000 or more than twice as much as the $3,750,000,000 loan to Britain.

Here's the story, which will continue for years:

To prevent wartime profiteering, back in 1940 Congress decided the years 1936-1939 should be considered normal years for American business.

It further decided: 1. If during the war, a firm earned as much as in 1936-39, it would pay a regular tax of 40 per cent. 2. If, during the war, its earnings were greater than in 1936-39 it would pay an excess profits tax of 85 per cent on profit over 1936-39.

But, although 1936-39 might have been normal years for American business in general, many firms could claim those years were below normal for them.

For what reason could they make such a claim? Innumerable reasons. Here's just one example: Firm AAA, which makes pipe-peaks, says it was exceptionally hard hit by the depression of the early 1930s.

It says it was so badly hit that it lagged far behind the recovery schedule in getting back to normal in 1936-39.

To be fair all around, Congress made allowances for firms which could show 1936-39 were below normal years for them. Congress said: A firm could ask the Internal Revenue Bureau for a refund if— Having already paid an excess profits tax on its wartime earnings—because those earnings were above 1936-39 earnings—it could show its 1936-39 earnings were below normal.

Social Security Bill Nears Vote

Washington, July 16—(AP)—House passage appeared near today for a bill freezing the social security old age insurance tax at one percent for another year.

The rules committee, passing the measure along, decreed that amendments will be barred when it reaches the floor.

The Ways and Means Committee, reversing a previous stand for an increase in the tax, has voted to hold it at one percent on employees' pay and employers' payrolls. The committee earlier had voted to put the levy at 1.5 percent against each.

The measure also provides:

3. An increase from $20 a month to $23 in the amount the federal government will put up for matching state funds for needy aged, blind persons and dependent children. This will raise the maximum per needy person, under the 50-50 matching system, from $40 monthly to $50.

Germany was to be administered as an economic unit. Instead, he added, she is being run in "four closed compartments" and the country is threatened with inflation and economic paralysis.

Noting that the American zone is costing American taxpayers in the neighborhood of $200,000,000 a year, he declared this condition must not continue. Hence the instructions to the general.

Byrnes granted that the time spent on Germany and Austrian questions might not have been a total loss. Experience suggests, he said, "that understandings, particularly with our Soviet friends, cannot be reached until we have gone through rounds of verbal combat, in which old complaints are repeated, past positions reaffirmed, differences accentuated and crises provoked."

American intelligence officers said they had no trace of Cobin and Wyatt since the driver of their jeep left them at a northern Berlin railway station.

Brig. Gen. Edwin E. Sibert, chief of the UBMS, headquarters intelligence division, said in a statement ernment completes renegotiation to group excessive profits.

He declared that the government would get back every cent it has coming.

Gelman testified he had believed Garsson was the head of a New York corporation at the time of their initial association, with a factory in Brooklyn.

Testimony has been introduced to show that army officers, at Garsson's invitation, inspected a plant there in late 1941, in which Garsson had no interest, as a preliminary to obtaining his first war order.

Chairman Mead (D-NY) said that the army officers might just as well have been taken out to see Brooklyn bridge and have been told that they could buy it.

The witness testified yesterday that appearances misled him into association with Henry and Murray Garsson, brothers.

Gelman, describing himself as deeply humiliated by earlier testimony dealing with the background of the two brothers, told the Senate War Investigating Committee yesterday he had "cut loose" from the Garssons so he could "fight my own battle."

The committee is inquiring into what Chairman Mead has branded as "war profiteering" by a "paper empire."

FDR AND HULL ARE CLEARED

Both Absolved Of Blame In Pearl Harbor Findings

Washington, July 16.—(AP)—Eight of the ten Pearl Harbor committee members were reported today to have signed a report absolving President Roosevelt and Cordell Hull of any direct responsibility for the surprise 1941 attack.

On the other hand, a minority report has been prepared which Democratic members said was printed by the official Senate printer before the majority report of the committee had been completed.

The minority report was expected to lay emphasis on a contention repeated during the hearings that there was an arrangement between the United States, Great Britain, The Netherlands and Canada for a Pacific defense plan long before the United States entered the war.

Report also was expected to deal extensively with the diplomatic relations which preceded this country's entry into the war.

Although details of the majority report were cloaked in secrecy, the members who participated in drafting it said the committee had indicated belief that the late President Roosevelt and former Secretary of State Hull had taken reasonable measures to warn the Pearl Harbor commanders that war was imminent in the Pacific.

So far as short and Kimmel were concerned, the committee reportedly found that while they had not been fully cognizant of the developing world situation, they were not given as specific information about conditions in the Pacific as they should have received from Washington.

In this connection, members noted that both Gen. George C. Marshall and Lt. Gen. Leonard T. Gerow testified before the committee that if there was any responsibility for not having warned Short more specifically, it was their responsibility.

Buyers Strike . . .

ods. Instead of trying to make ourselves believe that they do not exist or that they are less important than they really are. That strikes me as getting us down to rock bottom. Here again the secretary does not define the basic differences, but they are clear enough if we dare to face them.

The main differences lie between Russia on the one hand and the western democracies on the other and any school boy can name those differences. In the first place the Soviet totalitarian dictatorship is wholly at variance with our ideas of government. There is no possible way of reconciling the two schools. The same can be said of the Communistic economic views, which call for extreme nationalization and elimination of private enterprise. Then of course there is the vital question of religion, which Communism brands as the dope of the masses.

There is growing speculation as to whether the Soviet Union is bent on solving the problem by converting the whole world to Communism. Does this explain Russia's persistent thrust westward, and her refusal to cooperate in Germany? When we know the answer to these things we shall know what the future holds for us.

Taxing Profits . . .

that all kinds of firms might feel justified in asking for a refund. The language frankly puzzled the Internal Revenue Bureau, which wanted to be careful about handing back tax money.

And just as the Bureau expected all kinds of firms have come in asking for refunds, claiming their 1936-39 earnings were not normal. So far 18,000 firms have filed 40,000 claims covering different war years in which they paid excess profits tax—for refunds totalling $4,000,000,000.

But all firms have until 1950 to file claims. By that time, the Internal Revenue Bureau thinks, total claims may reach $8,000,000,000 or more.

The government so far has paid out only $5,000,000,000 in claims. Right here the Internal Revenue commissioner himself, Joseph D. Nunan, looking at the staggering pile of claims, with more to come wanted to be paid. And he needed some help.

He decided to set up a body called the Excess Profits Tax Council as a 15-man affair. It's brand new in the government.

Five of the 45 men are Nunan's own revenue experts. The other 10 are tax experts and attorneys from private life. All 15 get $10,000 a year. This council will look over the claims for refunds and Nunan in deciding to give or withhold a refund, will be guided by the council.

Guns Fail To Halt Escaping Prisoner

Raleigh, July 16.—(AP)—Charges from the guns of Pitt County State Prison Camp guards failed to stop Charles Cordell, 31, of Wake County yesterday when he made good his escape from the road gang while working.

State Prison director Clyde O. Robinson said the guards shot at but missed Cordell, who was serving a term of from three to five years after conviction on a charge of bigamy.

Robinson said Cordell apparently used a stolen car to effect his escape.

Buyers Strike . . .

In Denver, the Colorado anti-inflation council announced that it will call a buyers strike July 23. Nearly 1,000 people attended the meeting.

Some 10,000 CIO unionists in Pittsburgh employed by the Westinghouse Electric Corp. met in an open air rally last night and passed a resolution to Congress asking for "an effective OPA bill, or we'll demand another wage increase and strike if necessary to get it."

OPA . . .

Indications of an administration victory on the second course appeared as Republican ranks split over the first.

The Republican steering committee held a strategy meeting yesterday, but failed to agree on a concerted line of party action.

Some members of the GOP group predicted privately the conference action would prevail and that the chamber would not even instruct its conferees, thus leaving them with a free hand in dealing with the Senators.

No one would guess at the shape any compromise might take, but it was deemed certain the administration would fight to delete the Senate-approved decontrols of meat, poultry, dairy products, grain, cottonseed and soybeans.

Since the House sustained Mr. Truman's veto of last month's OPA bill, its only action on price control has been to vote a 20-day extension. Thus, without instructions, House conferees would be free to propose broad provisions in the Senate bill.

In the midst of the clinic over how OPA may be resurrected, Rep. Voorhis (D-Calif.) introduced a bill intended to facilitate buyers' strikes against goods jumping high above OPA ceilings. The measure would instruct the Bureau of Labor Statistics to prepare weekly reports on price changes as a guide for consumers.

Consolidated Appeal For Divorce Granted

Jacksonville, N. C. July 16.—(AP) In what Onslow County Superior Court Judge Leo Carr of Burlington described as the first such case in North Carolina within his knowledge, two Maysville sisters were granted a consolidated divorce from twin brothers from Shelby here yesterday.

The sisters, Dorothy Irene and Sarah A. Whitley, married Elbert

Hoyle Doster and his twin brother Delbert on March 7, 1944, at Gaffney, S. C., while the Shelby men were in the Marine Corps stationed at Oak Grove.

On Sept. 8, 1945 both sisters filed suits for divorce, charging their husbands with adultery in the same case.

John D. Larkins of Trenton, attorney for the sisters, moved yesterday, that inasmuch as both charges involved one case the two separate divorce actions be consolidated and Judge Carr so ruled.

OPA Workers To Get Half Salary

Washington, July 16.—(AP)—Nearly 50 per cent of OPA's 34,000 workers face the prospect of half-pay this week. And there's a possibility the rest may get none when next week's pay day rolls around.

This may precipitate a crisis on whether the agency can hold its staff together while legislation to revive price controls is pending.

Thus far Congress has taken no final action on OPA's appropriation for the fiscal year which began July 1. It may be the week's end, but that won't avert delays in pay checks.

Scheduled to receive checks tomorrow and the rest of this week are about 15,000 OPA field workers. They are assured of at least half of what they have coming because the pay period covers the last week of June.

But there is virtually no chance at all, according to OPA budget officials that they can be paid on time for the first week of July.

OPA isn't the only agency facing pay difficulties.

Jesse M. Donaldson, first assistant postmaster General, said last night some 450,000 postal workers will go without their checks due this week until Congress ends the silver-price disagreement that is snagging the $1,600,000,000 treasury postoffice appropriation bill.

The next Treasury Department payroll does not fall due until July 24.

Hughes Winning His Struggle For Life

Los Angeles, July 16.—(AP)—Howard Hughes was somewhat improved today, nine days after his experimental photo reconnaissance plane crashed and burned in Beverly Hills on its maiden flight.

His doctors said Hughes' average pulse beat now is 120, his average temperature 101 and his white blood count 16,000. They administered a blood transfusion late last night to give him a lift, since he has moderate anemia.

The airplane builder-pilot has nine rib fractures, a collapsed left lung and severe burns.

But for the first time, the physicians' bulletin last night omitted reference to his condition as "still critical."

Army Officer-Quota Doubled In Measure

Washington, July 16.—(AP)—The House today passed a bill authorizing the army to increase the number of commissioned officers in the regular army from 25,000 to 50,000.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, chief of staff, testified at committee hearings on the legislation that approximately half the contemplated increase would be allocated to the air forces. The remainder will be split between the ground and service forces.

Crowded Quarters

Albuquerque, N. M., July 16.—(AP)—District court, taking note of the housing shortage is considering Mrs. Earl Henry Vanderrecht's suit for divorce, decided it would impose "undue hardship" on her husband to vacate the house.

PIN-WORMS GO! New Treatment Gets Real Results

People don't like to talk about Pin-Worm infection. Sometimes they are too embarrassed to mention the tormenting rectal itching. And in many cases they have not known of any effective way to deal with this pest that lives inside the human body.

Today, thanks to a special, medically recognized drug (gentian violet), a highly effective treatment has been made possible. This drug is the vital ingredient in P.W., the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son.

The small, easy-to-take P.W. tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. So if you suspect Pin-Worms in your child or yourself, ask your druggist for a package of JAYNE'S P.W. right away, and follow the directions. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back. It's easy to remember: P.W. for Pin-Worms!

 FOR THE DAY

TOO MUCH THEOLOGY, OR TOO LITTLE?

In order to have a high type of life, we have to have high standards by which life is measured and guided. This is true in business and the professions. Every sphere of business and every calling is ordered in its procedure by what is known as the ethics of the trade or the profession.

Likewise we have to have standards in religion. There is a pleasant variety of folk today who maintain that religion is simply a matter of bringing good cheer to one's fellows and of trying to make the world a better place in which to live.
 Undoubtedly these things are the fruit of religion, but they are not religion. Religion involves certain beliefs about the universe and the Being who made it, orders its life, and sustains it. There must be standards in religion, moral and spiritual principles by which the value of men's thoughts and acts are measured. Religion is not what anyone thinks about certain matters but what God has done and what He promises further to do for the welfare and destiny of mankind.

This age scoffs at the idea that we need more and better theology.
 It strenuously calls for action. But all right action is supported by right theory, all sound religion by sound doctrine.

Don't criticize the people who dwell on the importance of sound doctrine. They are speaking up for something vastly important in the life of Church and nation.

BROWDER SQUIRMED

An interesting example of tactical maneuvering in an exchange of questions and answers was displayed last night when Earl Browder, one-time head of the Communist Party in America, was interviewed by news analysts over the radio. The program has long specialized in the presenting of controversial personalities in the news... fittingly enough, Mr. Browder was chosen to appear.

To all direct questions that involved either the Communist Party program or of Mr. Browder's personal opinions on unsavory features of the "party-line," the guest displayed an adroitness in evasion that was astonishing. Brought to the microphone because of his intimate knowledge of Communism, Mr. Browder neatly side-stepped or flatly refused to commit himself on any such issues. Though he is not now a member of the America Communist Party (officially), to the listener his evasiveness was typical of the whole Communist Party in America
 when questioned as to where their patriotism lies.

Let's make no mistake about it, Mr. Browder is a clever man; it takes cleverness to rise to the position he once held in that revolutionary philosophy. In his radio appearance, he was unable to express his own attitude or opinions in any way; his democratic listen-

REL MANNING

ers would have raised a fresh storm against the Hammer and Sickle had he followed his party's policy in answering the questions put him. Nor was he in any position to modify reported Red activities or stated policies for fear of incurring the wrath of his fellow-Communists. It was a most embarassing position. So, he chose to squirm like a worm on a hot griddle.

In our opinion, the most satisfactory and complete summation of the Communist Party was made by General Bor, hero of Polist resistance in Warsaw, when he said "We do not regard the Communist Party as a political group, but as an arm of a foreign government." If you think it strong language, look in the news files dealing with the Communist in America prior to Russia's entry in the war;
 then the about-face they attempted when Moscow sounded the alarm; review once again the pro-Russian sympathies displayed by the Red Press in our own country. And how closely they adhere to the dictates of the Kremlin. Communists still have but one goal, World Revolution; one capital, Moscow.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By RUTH COWAN

Washington—So that Mrs. American Soldier going to join her husband in the land of the cherry blossoms can't wall, "Why didn't you tell me it would be like this," the 8th Army has prepared a booklet of "General Information for Dependents of Military Personnel Planning to Come to Japan."

It sums up by saying: "Dependents will be well fed, well housed and comfortable. They will have electricity, modern plumbing... But there will be scenery, second transportation. They will have excellent medical care and many means of recreation... They will be guarded by the United States Army, and there is little to fear from the Japanese who are a subservient, beaten people."

"On the other hand, life will be relatively simple. There will be no corner drug or grocery stores, no department stores, or filling stations."

But there will be scenery, "second to none" in beauty. And there will be a place to call "home." Women are advised that there are a few beauty parlors in Japan now and that there will be more. Dry cleaning and laundry facilities will be available. Those coming to Japan before September should bring three months' supply of toilet articles, and if there is an infant in the family, three months' supply of baby food and "baby needs." After September, one month's supply will be sufficient.

Fresh frozen meat, vegetables, canned goods, soap and mops can be purchased at the commissaries. Powdered or canned milk must be used. There will be storage eggs. The Army Exchange Service plans to have its post exchanges in Japan on a par with those in the United States by fall. But it is recommended that families coming before September bring a six-month supply of personal needs, sufficient clothing for this summer and next winter and easily packed items such as lamps and kitchen gadgets.

There will be motion picture shows and libraries, swimming pools, golf courses and tennis courts. But the athletically inclined are advised to bring their own mits, golf clubs and balls, skis, tennis rackets.

Uncle Sam will set up elementary grade and high schools. However subjects taught in the latter will be the bare essentials. The general opinion is that items to be brought from home should be kept at a minimum, for it is planned to equip quarters so fully that only clothes and personal effects—such as pictures, flat silverware and table linen—are needed to move in. Until their permanent quarters are ready, soldier families will be housed in hotels, apartments and requisitioned European-type homes. In general there will be two types of permanent Army homes—single houses for senior field officers and four-unit apartment houses for junior field officers, company grade officers and enlisted men. Each apartment will be a two-story duplex with two or three bedrooms.

Player Is Needed In Trade For Williams

Philadelphia, July 16 (AP)—Put a player in the right field bleachers, Chicago White Sox Manager Ted Lyons, and maybe a team silence the big bat of Boston's Williams.

at Sunday the Cleveland Indians shifted all their fielders but to the right of second base in an attempt to get the Red Sox centerfielder out. It worked only once. General Manager Herb Pennock of the Philadelphia Phillies said the Cleveland strategy might "cut down on extra base hits the first few times, but if all the teams use it, I think Williams will start popping balls over that left-field fence."

"Any way," Pennock said slyly, "I am glad that boy's not in our league."

Greenies Steal Limelight In League's All-Star Show

Greenville Batters Play Leading Role In 9-5 Defeat Of Southern Division; Fifth Inning Attack Routs Opponents

The four Greenies participating in last night's all-star show of the Coastal Plain League in Wilson, played a major role in the 9-5 defeat of the Southern Division.

Their combined batting power was especially evident, as V. Blackwell, Carlson, Narron and Benton tallied hits off the opposing pitchers and each player scored one run. To add to their laurels, V. Blackwell batted in two runs, and Narron and Carlson were each credited with bringing in a run. Benton was officially designated as the winning pitcher.

The rain which delayed the contest failed to dampen the Northern outfit. Manager Harry Soufas' boys going to bat in the fifth inning tallied nine runs and wrapped up the game, 9-5. The paid attendance was 3,256.

The Southerners got one run in the top of the fifth frame to break the scoring ice when D'Angelus of Fayetteville got a double and scored on pitcher Derda's single. The roof really fell in on Derda in the bottom half of the fifth. Greenville's Milt Narron opened the inning by drawing a base on balls. Rex Benton (also of Greenville) doubled Narron to third, then Narron reached home on Derda's wild pitch.

Wolfe, of Wilson, walked; and Bauer's following single scored Benton. Pitcher Owles of Fayetteville replaced Derda at this point, and promptly filled the bases by walking Tarboro's Vorell.

Verne Blackwell, the league's runs-batted-in leader, slammed a timely double, and Soufas, immediately behind him, singled. Owles had enough. Bob DeCamp of Goldsboro took over the mound and Carlson, Sorgi and Narron reached his deliveries for singles. Benton struck out, but Wolfe walked to load the bases again. DeCamp hit Bauer with a pitched ball to force in Sorgi with a ninth run. The inning ended with Vorell fouling out to the catcher.

The only home run of the game was scored by D'Angelus, a 335 foot wallop to deep left centerfield in the sixth.

BOYS' LEAGUE BASEBALL

The Cardinals put on a strong hitting attack yesterday at the Training School to win over the Giants by the score of 12 to 11. The Cards allowed the Giants to score eleven times on only six hits. Errors nearly led to the downfall of the Cards in several innings.

Billy Woolfolk, Eddie Farley, Troy Wilson and Milton Foley all got three hits for the winners, followed closely by Billy Bost with two. No hitter for the Giants could get over one hit, Glenn Scott's triple being their most telling blow.

In one of the fastest and best played games of the year, the Yankees from the Eastend shut out the Tigers from Third Street by the score of 3 to 0 in a nine inning game. Two fast double plays by each team speeded up the game which was played in the record time of one hour and ten minutes. Ken Gray, the Yankees new lefthander was invincible, allowing the Tigers only one hit. The Yankees on the other hand were getting a lot of base hits, but couldn't manage to score. It was in the sixth when they did finally bunch their hits enough to score the only runs of the game.

John House, Ken Gray and Joe Clark got three hits each for the Yankees. Sydney Briley was the only Tiger to hit safely.

There will not be any baseball games scheduled in the boys league Wednesday afternoon so that all may attend the Fair to be held at the Cotanche Street playground. The Giants and Cardinals will play at the Training School at ten in the morning.

Boston can have Ted Williams its colorful thumping outfielder. St. Louis fans will take Stanley Frank Musial the belting Pole from Donora, Pa., who is punishing National League hurling at a 367 clip and leading Eddie Dyer's Red Birds in their drive to overtake the league lead from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Musial, who roamed the outfield for the Cards prior to this season has been holding down first base since early June and the lefthanded slugger has been playing the bag as if he never performed at another position, in addition to belting the ball in his pre-war style.

The 25-year old star, who leads his league in hits, runs scored, doubles and triples has enjoyed some of his biggest days at the plate against the Dodgers.

Before 26,476 fans at Sportsman's Park last night, Musial sparked the red hot Cards to a 10-4 victory over the Brooks by smashing four hits in five trips to the plate, including a homer and triple.

The four blows increased Musial's average against Brooklyn hurling to .489 in 11 contests. The 179-pound cloutier now has banged out 23 hits in 47 times at bat, and driven in 11 runs and scored 12 markers against the Brooks.

The victory was the Cards' third in a row over Brooklyn and it narrowed the Dodgers margin to one-and-one-half games.

In all, the Cards rapped five Dodger hurriers for 13 hits in the battle, marked by the banishment of Manager Leo Durocher and outfielder Pete Reiser of Brooklyn in the third inning when they protested a decision by umpire Al Barlick. Reiser claimed he had caught Enos Slaughter's line drive, but Barlick ruled he had trapped the ball. After five minutes of argument the arbiter tossed both of them out of the conflict.

Chicago's third place Cubs advanced to within four-and-one-half games of Brooklyn as Hooks Wycse pitched the defending National League champions to a 3-1 victory over the New York Giants.

Although defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2, the Boston Braves dropped into a fourth place deadlock with the Cincinnati Reds who downed the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-2.

Johnny Niggeling, veteran right-hander, limited the Pirates to six safeties as Boston tallied all of its runs in the first inning. Dick Uller Collier collected four of the Braves' eight hits, allowed by Ken Heintzleman and Preacher Roe.

Rookie Johnny Hetki scattered seven Philadelphia blows in the Reds' win. Grady Hatton, another recruit, slammed a three-run homer in the fifth inning to account for Cincinnati's margin of victory.

In the American League, the Detroit Tigers defeated the slumping New York Yankees 2-0 behind the two-hit pitching of Freddie Hutchinson before 39,893 night game fans at New York.

The crowd increased New York's home attendance to 1,480,775 in 44 games which is 4,391 admissions short of the major league mark established by the pennant winning 1929 Chicago Cubs.

Phil Marchildon of the Philadelphia Athletics also turned in a two-hit triumph, whitewashing the Chicago White Sox 12-0.

The St. Louis Browns fell into a fifth place deadlock with the Cleveland Indians, who, along with the front-running Red Sox, were not scheduled. The Browns lost 4-2 their battle with Washington Senators.
