

TALMADGE HAS WIDE LEAD IN GEORGIA RACE

Unit Vote System Favors Ex-Governor; Popular Candidate Trails

Atlanta, July 18.—(AP)—Former Governor Eugene Talmadge, exponent of "white supremacy," maintained a wide lead today in Georgia's race for governor as tabulation of returns from yesterday's primary election proceeded with nearly half a million votes counted. At 10:15 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, Talmadge had carried or was leading in counties having a unit vote total of 234 while 36-year-old James V. Carmichael, backed by Governor Ellis Arnall, had taken or was ahead in counties having 156 unit votes.

Carmichael was leading in the popular vote but that means nothing in Georgia—the unit votes tell the story in much the same way as the U. S. Electoral College operates.

Carmichael's popular vote was 212,472 while Talmadge had 184,419. This was a lead of 28,053. Fulton County (Atlanta), most populous in the state, went for Carmichael by a 31,161 margin on the basis of latest returns.

But Talmadge had won a majority or was leading in 98 counties compared to 50 for Carmichael.

Former Governor E. D. Rivers and War Veteran Hoke O'Kelly trailed. Rivers had 20 indicated unit votes from nine counties. His popular vote total was 38,766. O'Kelly got 6,981 popular votes and 1 unit.

The vote had been completed in 35 of the 159 counties, with no returns reported from two. The returns were from 1,111 of the total 1,746 precincts.

Under the county unit vote system, the candidate carrying a county receives a designated number of votes.

Big Army Necessary Says Franco In Talk

Madrid, July 18.—(AP)—Generalissimo Franco declared today that "menaces on the frontier" since the civil war had compelled Spain to maintain a "larger than normal" army.

In an interview published in the Falange organ Arriba on the 10th anniversary of its revolt against the Republic, Franco defended his administration and accused the outside world of "perpetual hypocrisy" in its attitude toward Spain. He suggested the country take as its motto: "What others spend killing and destroying one another, we spend in the resurgence of Spain and social justice."

Students Asking More Facilities

Chapel Hill, July 18.—(AP)—University of North Carolina students Saturday will present to Governor Cherry a resolution requesting a special session of the General Assembly to provide expansion of student housing facilities at "a reasonable cost."

The resolution was adopted by about 400 of the 3,750 students enrolled at the University after it had been announced that dormitory rents would have to be increased about three dollars a month if three new dormitories to house 900 are to be built immediately.

Chancellor R. B. House called a meeting of the student body to explain the program, stating that trustees wanted to get student reaction. John P. West, Morganston veteran, presented the resolution, which pointed out that the state has a $30,000,000 surplus in its treasury. Many students, it said, would have to leave school if present living costs become greater.

Suspicious Are Mutual

AP's Foreign Affairs Analyst Strikes Key-Note Of Vandenberg Report; Recalls Terms Of Amity Pact Signed When Russia Was Recognized By U. S. In 1933

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg in his report to the Senate on the Paris parley of the Big Four foreign ministers, at which he acted as an adviser to Secretary of State Byrnes, declared that the great trouble between eastern communism and western democracy "is mutual distrust and suspicion which the 'iron curtain' between us, and which the insatiable Soviet appetite for proselyting and propaganda, do not help dispel."

That puts the existing threat to peace on a thumb-nail. The senator points out that "these things must be dispelled, not in pretense but in fact, if we are to get on with the vital business of peace on earth."

Particularly there must be dispelled any suspicion that the west is trying to organize the world against the Soviets, and that the Soviets are trying to organize the world against our western civilization.

How then are these suspicions to be dispelled? That's a difficult problem and especially since, as Senator Vandenberg reminds us,

New Evidence In Munitions Probe

Committee Decision On Calling May Before Profits Inquiry Hearings Delayed By Findings Not Yet Made Public; Congressman Silent On $3,000 Testimony

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—The Senate War Investigating Committee reported today that it has uncovered "new evidence" in its war profits inquiry into a midwest munitions combine.

The new evidence developed a committee decision on what steps it might take in calling Chairman May (D-Ky.) of the House Military Committee before it for a public explanation of his activities in connection with the combine.

The committee met for more than an hour behind closed doors for a general discussion of possible steps. Two written invitations already have been sent to him by Chairman Mead (D-NY) to appear voluntarily. But he has laid down conditions for that appearance—among them the right to cross examine witnesses and summon records—which the committee has refused to accept.

May has acknowledged that he aided the Illinois industrial combine during war years and has denied profiting personally.

Yesterday the committee heard testimony that he once asked an official of the combine: "What about that $3,000?"

At the close of today's executive session, Francis Flanagan of the committee counsel, announced the discovery of the new evidence, but (Continued on Page Four)

"I'm Feeling Better" Says Howard Hughes

Los Angeles, July 18.—(AP)—A medical bulletin on the condition of Howard Hughes, issued early today, said that it was found necessary last night to tug Hughes' left chest and remove more than a quart of fluid.

Drs. Verne Mason and Lawrence Chaffin reported that otherwise the condition of the millionaire aircraft maker and film producer was unchanged since he was reported improved yesterday and told Dr. Mason: "I feel better than I have since I was injured."

Hughes suffered a crushed lung and other injuries when an army photo reconnaissance plane he was testing crashed July 7.

Protest Rejected

RUSSIAN LOAN IS POSTPONED

LONDON, July 18.—(AP)—Russia has rejected United States and British representations: an seizure of Austrian property for reparations, a high authority said today.

In a lengthy note handed the Austrian government, the Soviet occupation authorities in Austria were said to have made it plain that there is no change in their recent position in regard to seizure of $2,000,000 worth of Austrian industrial plants and other property confiscated by the Germans following the Anschluss in 1938.

The text of the note was not available in London but its essential points were known to authoritative sources, which said it disagreed with almost every point set forth in American and British representations.

The controversy arose July 6, when the Soviet command in Austria announced the property in Eastern Austria had passed into Soviet ownership along with all other "German external assets" in the Russian zone.

On another aspect of foreign relations, Mr. Truman endorsed Secretary of State Byrnes' report Monday on the Paris foreign ministers' conference and also called attention to the address of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) in the senate on Tuesday.

In a fast moving news conference, Mr. Truman further announced that Senator Austin (R-Vt.) would be nominated as ranking member of the United States delegation to the United Nations assembly meeting at New York September 23. Austin has been designated as United States member of the United Nations, effective next year.

House Passage Assured, Supporters Fear Trouble Ahead

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—Atomic energy legislation reaches a vote in the House today, with some of its most ardent supporters conceding trouble ahead.

While there seems to be only a slim chance that the legislation will be killed outright, a fight over the issue of civilian versus military control continued unabated.

The first test comes on a House Military Committee recommendation that at least one of the five members of the proposed atomic energy control commission be a representative of the armed forces and that the director of military uses of the new energy also be a military man.

In making that recommendation the committee overrode provisions of a Senate bill—endorsed by the President—setting up a five member civilian control commission and topping the military application division with a civilian.

Administration leaders said they would fight all the committee amendments and try to push through the legislation in the exact form it passed the Senate.

An equally intense but less noisy controversy has developed over a section giving the government a virtual monopoly over intentions in the atomic energy field.

This section has been attacked as a stride toward socialism and Socialism. (Continued on Page Four)

Tar Heel Senator Leaves For Home

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—Senator Josiah W. Bailey (D-NC) will leave tomorrow afternoon for Raleigh where he plans to stay until he completely recuperates from illness that has lasted several months.

Bailey became ill early in April and spent several weeks in a Washington hospital before going to his home here.

His physician, Dr. W. A. Bloedorn, says he expects the Senator to be "completely well" by the first of the year.

Bailey will be on a Seaboard Railroad train leaving here at 2:10 p. m. (EST) and due in Raleigh at 9:15 p. m. (EST). He plans to go to his ancestral home in Raleigh.

Supervisor's Contract Big Victory For Lewis

Gives UMW Chief Stronger Hold On Soft Coal Industry; Operators Expected Forced To Follow Government's Example

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—A government granted wage agreement covering 136 mine supervisors gave John L. Lewis a new tool today in the soft coal industry.

It means that Lewis and his United Mine Workers (AFL) have won the first contract specifying supervisors wages and working conditions ever negotiated in the industry's history.

Mine owners for years have resisted all attempts to enter into union contracts applicable to supervisors on the contention that supervisors represent management.

In recent weeks the operator sought unsuccessfully to restrain the government from entering into such an agreement. The mines still are under federal ownership as a result of the seizure order that grew out of the bituminous strike his spring.

The agreement signed by Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug and Adm. Ben C. Morrell, coal mines administrator, stipulates that it is to be effective only for the period of government possession and is to be voided in event the courts should hold the government acted improperly.

The agreement announced last night applies only to the 136 supervisors at four mines of the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation in western Pennsylvania, the Vesta No. 4, 5 and 6 and the Shamokin mine at California, Pa.

The National Labor Relations Board ruled several months ago that the United Clerical, Technical and Supervisory Employees Union of UMW's District 50 was the proper bargaining agent for these employees. J. & L. resisted the decision and moved to contest it in the courts.

Supervisors at the mines have long been paid on a piece-work basis and have been subject to arbitrary dismissal.

OPA Bill Awaits Priority Debate

TRUMAN SAYS WILL TOUR IN BEHALF PARTY

Will Lend All Aid To Demo Candidates; Opposes Fellow Missourian

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—President Truman said today he will take the political stump for Democratic congressional candidates this year if he can be of any service.

He told his news conference, however, that no specific plans for a speaking tour had been made. He said he did not know whether he would speak in New York.

Mr. Truman expressed outright opposition to the renomination of the Democratic House member—Rep. Roger C. Slaughter of the Fifth Missouri District.

He has asked James Pendergast, Kansas City political leader to support Enos Otwell, Slaughter's opponent, Mr. Truman said, adding that Pendergast would do so.

The President had no comment to make on the defeat of Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) in his race for renomination. Mr. Truman intervened in the Wheeler campaign with a letter defending Wheeler against charges by his opponent that he was an enemy of railway labor.

Saying that as a member of the House Rules Committee, Slaughter had opposed just about every piece of legislation he had advocated, the President asserted bluntly, "If Mr. Slaughter is right, I'm wrong."

The political talk began with a question as to what the President planned to do about the Missouri primary.

He replied that he was going home to vote August 6.

Then he was asked what about Slaughter, who represents the district adjoining the one in which Mr. Truman lives.

Without hesitation, he said he was against Slaughter, that if Mr. Slaughter was right, he, the President, was wrong.

Had he conferred with Pendergast about Slaughter?

Mr. Truman replied that he had and added that he didn't think that Pendergast will be for Slaughter. He said he certainly did ask Pendergast to endorse Axtell.

A reporter took the questioning away from Missouri briefly to ask if he would speak in behalf of Democratic nominees in the fall campaign.

He said if it becomes necessary to, (Continued on Page Four)

Troops Pour Into Guerrilla Areas

Manila, July 18.—(AP)—Seven thousand additional military police, along with tanks, armored cars and planes, are reported pouring into troubled Pampanga, Tarlac and Nueva Ecija provinces, where clashes between Hukbalahaps (armed peasants) and MPs have increased in intensity.

Presidential Secretary Emilio Abello told newsmen without elaborating that peace and order would be restored in the central Luzon provinces before July 28—the deadline set by President Manuel Roxas.

Meantime, Interior Secretary Jose Zulueta, in a strongly worded advisory to "obstinate guerrillas," said the government "has never been against the use of force—it intends to and will use force when this use is inevitable."

But farm workers still will get the same special consideration—for deferment, that they got through the war. A special section of the draft law provides for them.

Senators Debate Women's Rights

Washington, July 18—(AP)—Some married senators may be afraid to go home tonight.

Up for debate was a proposed constitutional amendment requiring that women be accorded "equality of rights under the law."

Senator Radcliffe (D-Md) (married), leading the floor fight for approval, told reporters all he wanted was a vote on the issue, which he said has been before congress "for many, many years."

Senator Andrews (D-Fla) (also married) served notice that he has a 28-page "brief" of arguments against the proposed amendment. Half a dozen other opponents also promised to have something to say.

Senator Murdock (D-Utah) protested that the amendment would upset or at least becloud the thousands of laws of the 48 states intended to protect women as mothers and workers.

Such laws, Murdock said, are intended to "discriminate against men" in favor of women. And he added that this was proper and right. He mentioned that most of these laws make it the responsibility of the husband and father to support the family.

Radcliffe told the senate late yesterday that the amendment is the final step needed to give women citizens equal legal rights with men.

New PAC Head Is Appointed Today

Washington, July 18—(AP)—The CIO announced today the selection of Jack Kroll as administrative head of the CIO Political Action Committee, with top level policy vested in a five-man executive board.

This setup would replace the one-man control of PAC activities which prevailed under the late Sidney Hillman.

Kroll, 61, who has been Hillman's assistant on CIO-PAC, will handle day-to-day supervision and direction of CIO-PAC work.

CIO President Philip Murray made today's announcement after the plan had been ratified at a closed door meeting of the CIO executive board.

"In recognition of its responsibilities in the field of political action," Murray told reporters, "the CIO has decided to intensify its work in this field and to enlarge the apparatus for conducting political action work."

The five-man executive board, named to shape CIO-PAC policies, consists of the secretary-treasurers of four CIO unions, plus Kroll, a vice president of the CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union. Kroll will be executive board chairman.

PANEL TALK FOR ROTARY

College Men In Panel Discussion Of Russia's Future

By WYATT BROWN

The Rotarians took issue with the experts in a panel discussion of relations between the United States and Russia Monday night at the Rotary Club when Rotarian Howard McGinnis used the panel method to present a program for the International Relations Committee. The question posed was: "Will the United States and Russia Have Armed Conflict?"

The first expert to be called on was Dr. W. E. Marshall of the social science faculty of East Carolina Teachers College. He presented former Ambassador Bullitt's idea that unless the atomic bomb is kept as a threat over the head of Russia, armed conflict will be inevitable. Second, he presented the notion that Russia and the United States dominate the world today and keep the peace; but the press plays up the bad things Russia does and does not mention the bad things the U. S. does.

Then he gave as his personal opinion that there would not be armed conflict with Russia. To help keep the peace was the united effort of the churches of the world throwing their full weight into educating the peoples of the world against war.

Up for debate was a proposed constitutional amendment requiring that women be accorded "equality of rights under the law."

Senator Radcliffe (D-Md) (married), leading the floor fight for approval, told reporters all he wanted was a vote on the issue, which he said has been before congress "for many, many years."

Senator Andrews (D-Fla) (also married) served notice that he has a 28-page "brief" of arguments against the proposed amendment. Half a dozen other opponents also promised to have something to say.

Senator Murdock (D-Utah) protested that the amendment would upset or at least becloud the thousands of laws of the 48 states intended to protect women as mothers and workers.

Such laws, Murdock said, are intended to "discriminate against men" in favor of women. And he added that this was proper and right. He mentioned that most of these laws make it the responsibility of the husband and father to support the family.

Radcliffe told the senate late yesterday that the amendment is the final step needed to give women citizens equal legal rights with men.

no to her further expansion of the communist sphere. Russia will not stop. "The sooner we fight, the better," he concluded.

Then a general discussion ensued alternating between the Rotarians and the experts. Those speaking appeared in agreement with and adding to the argument advanced by Dr. Hallar and more or less attacking the position of Dr. Marshall and Mr. Gardner. Those speaking or posing questions of a leading nature were Dr. Carl Adams, J. B. Kitzrell, J. E. Whislow, Charles Bissette, Dr. J. M. Mewborn and Dr. Karl Pace.

A second question posed by Moderator McGinnis for brief limited time discussion by each expert was: "How long and to what extent should Germany be controlled?" Mr. Gardner said no limit it should be set now, for it must go on for a long, long time. If a limit were set, it might not be long enough.

A third question directed to Dr. Marshall was: "How long and to what extent should Japan be controlled?" Dr. Marshall said the same was true of no limit, as with the opinion of Mr. Gardner about Germany.

A fourth question directed to Dr. Hallar was: "Does history repeat itself? If so, why do we continue to make the same errors?" He responded with the statement that we are human, Nature does not change. He further stated it was due to people's not knowing history but he believed they would act the same way if they did.

A fifth question was directed to Mr. Gardner: "Can the Western Hemisphere present a united front?" He responded in the affirmative, citing our experience with Canada in substantiation.

The program was presented by the International Service Committee, of which Dr. Howard J. McGinnis is chairman; Dr. J. M. Mewborn of Farmville and Mr. Gardner of Washington were visiting Rotarians. Judson Blount, club president, presided.

JIGGER MORAN

by JOHN ROEBURT

Chapter 4

Jigger moved noiselessly along the polished marble floor of Police headquarters. At the end of the long wide hall he entered an office.

ing with an ugly circular welt at the base. He threw his voice like a pitchman.

"What do you want now, Jigger?" "Close cooperation, Cappie."

"Get out of here, I'm busy." "You're telling me—me, your biographer and gentle critic. Why, I make a career of following your career."

Jigger went to the water cooler. Answering your questions in the order you gave them, Cappie. One:

yes, you've been a reluctant pal. Two: my files would be a profound embarrassment to a few other Headquarters prima donnas who couldn't say no to temptation. Three: it's got to be you this time. You're top man in the homicide division—and it's homicide I'm absorbed with at the moment."

"What do you want, Jigger?" The resonance was gone: A'hearn's voice was low and fretful.

"I'm doing a write-up on the murder of that doctor in Yorkville last week. Give me all the facts."

"You mean Dr. Otto Herz? There's not much to give."

"I'm starting from zero—so anything is something."

A'hearn swallowed a few times and harrumphed. "Well, last Friday night between the hours of seven and ten someone slugged the doctor with a heavy instrument and killed him. Whoever did it was extra peeved at the doctor and bashed his face in."

"Why do you say between the hours of seven and ten?"

"Autopsy."

"So much for the time. What kind of fellow was the doctor?"

A'hearn flipped through the fan-spread of papers on his desk. He replied, scanning typewritten data on an onion-skin: "He was a man in his late fifties. Small local practice among Yorkville Germans. Old school practitioner—was practically retired for all the doctoring he did. Lived in his own two-story-and-basement brownstone dwelling. There's not much else."

"How does the Department figure the killing?"

"We don't. Not yet. It's still bludgeoned to death by unknown assailant or assailants with us."

"Whom have you questioned?"

"The wife. I mean widow. She can't tell us much. Says her husband had been almost inactive for the last two years."

"What kind of woman is she?"

"Sort of weird looking. Doesn't talk much. Dead-pan."

"Any clues?"

"Not a one. Can't even find the murder weapon."

"What do you think, A'hearn?"

You must have some idea, done some nosing around."

A'hearn shrugged. "Search me, I dunno. I haven't nosed much. I been giving most of my time to cleaning up Central Park muggers."

A'hearn doubled the force of his voice. "What are you taking notes for?"

"I told you I was doing a write-up."

A'hearn spat. "If you involve me, I'll blow you to kingdom come."

Jigger said, "Stop worrying, I told you this was on the up and up."

"It's better be, Jigger. I can't afford any trouble."

"I know, Cappie. Your pension application comes up next year."

A'hearn looked venomous. "You know too much."

Jigger said, "I want to know more about the butcher and the doctor."

"I've told you just about everything. Now beat it outa here."

"Just about—but not quite. Scratch your memory, Cappie."

A'hearn skidded a finger across his forehead, flattening the sweat-beads. "What are you driving at, Jigger?"

"I'm referring to the erstwhile doctor's gambling proclivities."

"How did you know?"

"Never mind that. Give."

"The doctor bet on the numbers. But half the town does."

"That's what Little Joey claims."

A'hearn got up and sat down. "Are you working in with Little Joey?"

Jigger crossed himself piously. "Give me credit for better sense, Cappie. Do you think I'd work in with Little Joey?"

"I don't know. The devil alone knows where you dig up your dirt from."

Jigger said, "Tst, tst! Shame on you for talking to me that way."

A'hearn rasped, "All right, so the doctor played the numbers."

"But you've been quizzing Joey, why?"

"There was a story going round that the doctor hit big and Joey didn't pay off."

"Do you plan to arrest Joey?"

"What for?"

"Come, come. The doctor hit for twelve G's. Isn't that enough motive for a killing, Cappie?"

"Maybe. Anyhow, I've told you all I know. Now will you beat it?"

Jigger started as if to go out but turned and faced the Captain again. "Just one more thing, Cappie."

"What?"

"I'm going in and out of the scene of the crime. I don't want any trouble from your boys."

A'hearn looked like a man whose worries were newly begun and said, "Don't make yourself too conspicuous."

"I never do, Cappie. I'm the original-shrinking violet."

A'hearn got up and strode a few paces into the center of the room. "Jigger, how much have you got on me anyhow?"

Jigger got a good grip on the door-knob and gave it one experimental turn before answering.

"How much is on your conscience, A'hearn?"

"Talk straight."

"I am. Whatever is on your conscience, I've got it in black and white."

Jigger held the door wide open ostentatiously.

"Don't gamble your pension on it, Cappie."

Draft Set-Up . . .

(Continued from Page One) on age. For instance: Draft boards will take whom they can in the group 19-29, and not try to pick just so many of one age, so many of another.

9. Draft boards will consider drafting war veterans if (a) they have not served outside the United States and (b) had less than six months military service.

(Which means: If a man served less than six months, but served them in the United States, and was then discharged, his draft board may draft him again.)

(If a man had been in the service only 2 days or 2 months or any length of time less than 6 months but had been on duty only as far as three miles outside the continental limits of the U. S., he would not be drafted.)

Some misunderstanding may have occurred because, while Selective Service was tightening up to get more men, the army suspended the enlistment of negroes.

This did not mean that the army was getting so many volunteers that it really wouldn't need any draftees. It meant only this:

So many negroes were enlisting that—unless this was stopped for a while—the proportion of negroes to white men in the army would be greater than the army wants.

About 140,000 negroes have enlisted since last fall. Which means:

Mitsui Council Said Agreed To Dissolve
Tokyo, July 17—(AP)—The Mitsui family council, largest organization of its type in the world, was reported reliably today to have declined to dissolve—possibly the first step in the disintegration of a financially powerful empire worth more than 25,000,000,000 yen ($1,666,666,666).

The army wants to keep the proportion of negroes in the service at 1 to 10. So, except for some negro specialists, the army has suspended the enlistment of negroes for a while.
A resolution to dissolve must be approved by occupation officials, who probably will check to see if the move contains any attempts to evade taxes or directives.

The Mitsui family council consists of 11 families which have been pooling their assets. Control of this pool was vested in the senior family.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE PREACHER RAISES HIS VOICE

When London was being bombed Leslie Weatherhead, the famous preacher, was compelled at a morning service of worship to raise his voice in order to be heard above the hiss of the fireman's hose and the crackling of flames as a nearby building burned.

On one side of the street, a ghastly scene symbolizing man's evil designs in their most devastating forms; on the other, a lone prophet of God raising his voice in protest of all evil and in behalf of mercy and love. So the fire raged and men in danger of their lives fought the fire and tried to put it out, and a preacher, with the spirit of God in his heart, tried to persuade men that the way of life is not the way of strife but the way of love.

The same scene is enacted every day on opposite sides of the street. Some men and nations live in such a way that the result is fire, destruction, and the ruin of all life's values. When they threaten the life of the city or the nation we do something about it with policemen and soldiers. And all the while God's good men have to raise their voices to be heard above the clamor of evil.

It may seem like a losing fight but it is not. The preacher still lives and preaches, the Church still exists—the dictators and their false systems are gone. But the preacher must keep on raising his voice. The flames of evil are never extinguished, only arrested.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JANE EADS

Washington—The bar of the National Press Club is restricted to members. Applicants are posted to wait outside the club members do not enter.

Members of the club are so numerous, however, it's not so easy to count noses. A stray gent once slithered in, blithely uses the club facilities and gets away with it.

Thus it was that only recently club officers learned that one almost daily visitor to bar and lounge was not a member. They found this out when the chap applied for membership.

Out of their consternation, club officers agreed they should not consider his application until he forked up with six months' back dues.

This non-member was happy to do, since he had been enjoying members' privileges for at least that length of time. Everything was all right until a couple of days before the scheduled formal action on his nomination.

Having celebrated with merriment and mirth, the dues-paying non-member arrived at the club late of a Saturday night and proceeded to do things which would have meant suspension of a member.

He made himself at home in the kitchen. He whipped up a lily meal for himself and two newfound friends, acquired on the way from a taxi door to the building's entrance. Finally he took off some of his clothes and went to bed on a davenport in the foyer.

It was decided to "suspend" his non-existent membership for a few weeks. He was told to stay clear of the club during the suspension.

Some of the members predict that when the matter finally comes up for action there may be stricter dealings. It is possible that the non-member may be told he can no longer pay dues!

The Steppes Of Russia

frame a measure that would read something like this:

"A bill for the protection of our girls who contribute to the gayety of the nation by entering beauty contests, providing press agents and news photographers with countless poses in swimming suits, and other forms of leg art, also known as cheesecake."

"And too often the dealers who sponsor the girls don't live up to their promises," Venus says.

At 21, Venus is a veteran of beauty contests. "There's never been a Miss America who has gone ahead and become a star in the theater after winning the title," she says. "That's one tradition I'm trying to crack."

Suspicious . . .

(Continued from Page One) relations were established. At that time Moscow was asked to give several guarantees, among which was this:

"The Soviet government pledges itself to refrain from the dissemination of propaganda against the political or social order of the United States, or attempting in any way to overthrow American institutions, and to restrain any agency under direct or indirect Soviet control from interfering with the internal affairs of this country."

If such a guarantee against "proselyting and propaganda" was sound in 1933 (and this may be debatable in view of subsequent developments) it conceivably might form the basis now for a reciprocal treaty among the powers. I don't mean a one-sided pact but a mutual pledge under which each nation would bind itself to mind its own business. That is to say, the right of every country to work out its own political salvation without outside interference would be recognized.

Of course there has been a tremendous change since 1933. Russia has progressed from the position of a pariah, begging for recognition to that of dominant power in continental Europe. She might not be in the mood to tie her hands by any agreement which would hamper her in extending her zone of influence

Mr. Truman took occasion to reaffirm his strong support of Chairman Robert E. Hannegan of the Democratic National Committee. New Evidence . . .

Mead, who brought public hearings to a tumultuous end yesterday, said the committee also will decide what action to take on the non-appearance of Murray Garsson. Garsson was one of the promoters of the Erie Basin Metal Products Company of Elgin, Ill., and Batavia Metal Products Company of Batavia, Ill., leading companies in the munitoins setup.

The chairman told newsmen that the committee is "not satisfied with Garsson's statement that he is unable to leave Havana because of ill health, and will consult with its chief counsel, George Meader, as to the legal possibilities in connection with both Garsson and May."

Testimony concerning May's inquiry about $3,000 was offered yesterday by Mrs. Eleanor Hall, one of two pretty ex-secretaries of the combine's Washington office who sprang, the committee's record with references to members of Congress and high ranking army officers.

The other was Mrs. Jean Bates. Mrs. Bates confined her testimony chiefly to naming persons who had figured in telephone conversations with her bosses, Garsson and Joseph Freeman, the Washington representative of the munitoins firms.

Mrs. Hall had a lengthier story to tell, and she began it by characterizing her former employers as a "bunch of crooks."

It was Mrs. Hall's testimony which included frequent references to Louis Sarelas, manager of the munitoins combine's Washington office that precipitated a noisy scene as the hearing ended.

As Mrs. Hall was leaving the stand with a commendation from Mead for patriotic service, a woman spectator arose and began shouting denunciations of the witness' testimony.

The woman was seized by Capitol police and led struggling from the room. She told newsmen her name is Mrs. Vanetha Sarelas Doukes and that she is an elder sister of the "sensitive souled" Sarelas.

Bread Rationing Despite "Revolt"

London, July 18—(AP)—The government was reported today to have decided to follow through on plans to ration bread despite a threatened revolt of bakers.
The decision was reported to have been made at a special cabinet session this morning attended by John Strachey, minister of food.
While the food minister was closeted with other government leaders, a delegate waited to present him with a resolution announcing the Master Bakers' Association's refusal to collect bread tickets in the rationing scheme which becomes effective Monday.
Conservative members of Parliament were ready to back the bakers.

London streets and billboards were plastered today with placards promising to publish the names of "public enemies and dictators" who vote in Parliament to support the government's decision.
Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill was scheduled to lead Conservative opposition to rationing in a parliamentary debate later today.

Trainmen Oppose N. C. Congressmen

Charlotte, N. C., July 18—(AP)—Martin H. Miller, national legislative officer of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, asserted here today that his organization was opposed to the entire North Carolina delegation in Congress.
"We are against all North Carolina congressmen," he told the Charlotte News in an interview.
"The North Carolina men just simply don't seem to represent the people and their interests."

Miller came here from his headquarters in Washington to attend the annual Carolinas—Virginia meeting of the BRT and its auxiliary.
He hailed the defeat of Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana Democrat, as "the biggest news of the day," but admitted feeling disappointment over the apparent victory of Gene Talmadge in Georgia.
He criticized Rep. A. L. Bulwinkle of Gastonia for sponsoring a bill under which railroads would be permitted to agree upon rates, subject to the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission.
"That," he charged, "is the beginning of the destruction of free enterprise in America. Take the railroads out from under the anti-trust laws and all other classes of corporations will want out. Then we will have a cartelized industry and national socialism like they had in Germany."

Italian Premier Acts In Petroleum Strike

Rome, July 18—(AP)—Strikes continued to spread throughout Italy today as Premier Alcide de Gasperi, in the most vigorous action he has yet taken, called upon the army, navy and police to end the necessary a petroleum strike that had developed to a point described by the premier as a national emergency.
A cabinet minister said that De Gasperi's action had the support of the socialists, but that the communist position was not known.
The strike, involving some 7,000 workers throughout the country, tied up vital operations and paralyzed UNRRA transport.

Gas Blast Rocks Resort Village

Onset, Mass., July 18—(AP)—State Fire Marshal Edward H. Wiltemore said today he had received a report that six persons were killed and 25 injured when a terrific gas explosion rocked the center of this Buzzards Bay resort flattening four wooden buildings.
Police of the town of Wareham, of which Onset is a village, said four persons were known to be dead and that 18 to 20 persons were injured in the blast which destroyed Christy's restaurant and damaged surrounding buildings.
Names of dead and injured were not immediately available as doctors and hospital facilities of this small seashore community were swamped by the number of persons requiring treatment.
Every ambulance within 35 miles radius called.
The Onset fire department reported the fire that followed the blast had been extinguished but said "we may be digging all night long."

Philippine Congress To Investigate Sale

Manila, July 18—(AP)—The Philippine Congress prepared today to launch an immediate investigation into the sale by a Catholic hospital association of the great 840,000-acre Buena Vista estate to Brig. Gen. Ernest H. Burt, USA, retired.
Meanwhile, Mons. Jose N. Jovelanos, ecclesiastical governor of the Catholic diocese of the Philippines, offered to cancel the sale and prepared to confer with President Manuel Roxas, who had threatened to expropriate the land, if necessary, to block the negotiation.
Mons. Jovelanos placed as a stipulation to the cancellation, however, the proviso that the government pay up some $250,000 in back lease payments, which he said was badly needed to rebuild the San Juan De Dios Hospital.
Burt, who was scheduled to become the first witness at the congressional hearing, had arranged to purchase from the hospital the Buena Vista estate at a price of $2,500,000, and a smaller estate for $625,000. He said he represented a syndicate of investors who would sell the land at below market value to peasant tenants and split the profits among the syndicate, the hospital and the government's old age benefit fund.

DEES AND DONTZ FOR NON-ODOROUS

Los Angeles, July 18—(AP)—Judge Walter Gates found on his calendar a case in which a man was charged with stealing 27,800 pounds of barik.

"People might say that this case smells," observed the judge.

"At least the prosecution has a strong case," rejoined Deputy District Attorney Harry Johnstone. The trial was set for Sept. 4.

SIXTH INNING BEATS LOCALS

Wilson's Six-Run Inning Too Much For Greenies

Two big innings featured the only scoring made in last night's 6-3 defeat of the Greenies by the Wilson Tobaccoists. Greenville's only runs came in the first inning on hits by Merle Blackwell, Ray Carlson and Vern Blackwell, an error by the catcher, and a wild pitch.

That fast opening inning netted the Greenies three runs. Neither team scored again until the last of the sixth when Wilson broke free and tallied six times. The scoring powers of both sides remained frozen the rest of the game.

Paris, M. Blackwell, Carlson, V. Blackwell, Payne, Narron and Ranweiler—all scored one hit apiece; but with the exception of that blazing first frame they were scattered, and the needed runs could not be put across. Of the twelve hits collected by the Wilsonites, Dickens and Alusik racked up three hits apiece against Alamo and Ballam who took the mound for the Greenies.

Tonight the Greenville nine play a double-header in Tarboro, then return home to play a second twin bill against the Tars at Guy Smith Stadium.

GUESTS AT DOUBLEHEADER

The boys of the Boys Baseball League will be guests at the Greenville-Tarboro doubleheader tomorrow night at the stadium. All boys competing in the baseball league are eligible to attend and will use the same gate as has been the custom in the past.

BOYS LEAGUE BASEBALL

The Giants from Third St. won a close, well-played game over the Cardinals at the Training School.

field yesterday morning by the score of 6 to 4. The Giants scored three runs and picked up singletons in the third and fourth to build up a comfortable lead. In the last inning the Cards put on a rally scoring two runs and had the tying runs on base before the Giants could put a stop to it.

Sports

Associated Press Sports Writer Brooklyn's dismal slump and the Cardinals' habit of losing to the Phillies is leaving the door wide open for the Chicago Cubs in the National League pennant scramble.

Although the Dodgers still rule Ford Frick's roost by a half game, many baseball men believe the real 1946 race in September will find the Cards and Cubs battling for the flag.

Counted out of the race and rated "just another wartime club" in the early spring calculations, the Bruins today are a strong third, breathing hard on the necks of the St. Louis Red Birds and only 3 1/2 games out of first place.

The Cubs made ground yesterday by drubbing the Braves 10-6 in the afternoon and then watching both the Brooks and Cards bow under the arcs. Bob Chipman's six-hit shutout performance, his first win in over a month, added another cheery note to the Chicago situation.

St. Louis once again refused to take advantage of a chance to regain the lead they hadn't held all by themselves since May 19. Ron Northey belted two home runs and Andy Semick added one with the bases choked to give Oscar Judd a 10-1 early margin. The lefty faded in the last two rounds and had to call in relief help from Charlie Schranz and Dick Mulligan to save the 10-7 decision.

Brooklyn staggered to a fifth successive setback at Cincinnati, 5-2. Their seventh defeat in eight starts on the current western tour. Young Hank Behrman appeared to have a 2-1 triumph in his pocket until the Dodger defense collapsed in the four-run eighth to give Bucky Walters his sixth decision.

Rookie Ralph Kiner sunk the New York Giants with a three-run homer and two singles behind Pittsburgh's Nick Strincevich, 8-5. All major league attendance records went up by the boards at the Yankee Stadium when the New Yorkers lured 30,159 paying guests to boost the season high to 1,519,834. The best previous mark was 1,485,166 attained by the Chicago Cubs in 1929 and that for an entire season.

Incidentally the Yanks won two from St. Louis, 3-2 and 6-4 but remained 11 full games behind Boston which dumped Chicago twice, 3-1 and 6-1. Most important development of the day to the Yanks was the accidental "beating" of shortstop Phil Rizuto by Nelson Potter. Rizuto was carried from the field and spent the night in New York hospital under observation.

Jimmy Outlaw's 12th inning double enabled Detroit to trim Washington 3-2 for Al Benton's first success since April 13.

Allie Reynolds got victory No. 5 on the record by subduing the Philadelphia Athletics with five blows, 8-2.

DRUMS OF WAR GROW LOUDER

Disastrous Civil War Near As Chinese Armies March

Nanking, July 18.—(AP)—Rival Chinese government and Communist armies were on the march along the mighty Yangtze River today and clashes north of this via artery of China posed a threat of full scale civil war.

Gen. Chou Zai-lai, leader of the Communist 251st division in Nanking charged the government with aggressions and told a press conference "local conflicts are blossoming rapidly into civil war."

Peng Hsueh-fei, minister of information, denied this and asserted that Communist armies instead were marching from the north upon the Yangtze, along whose banks lie Nanking and the great port of Shanghai.

"If we permit them to advance to the Yangtze unopposed," Peng declared, "we had better start considering moving the capital back to Chungking (wartime capital in Western China)."

General Marshall, special U. S. envoy, flew to the summer capital at Kuling to confer with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and presumably gave him the latest account of the deteriorating situation. His headquarters said only that Marshall was accompanying Dr. John Leighton Stuart, new United States ambassador, who will present his credentials to the generalissimo. Marshall is expected to return to Nanking within two or three days to resume the deadlocked negotiations.

WILSON'S WEEKLY Bulletin By George Rector Food and Nutrition Consultant to Wilson & Co. A Salad Plate Is Always Refreshing

Troubled with poor appetites on hot days? Then treat your family to a refreshingly cold salad plate for lunch and see their F. I. (food interest) pick up. The plate below can be assembled quickly... enjoyed leisurely.

A Refreshing Salad Plate... tempts the appetite

Reading clockwise, beginning with left front: (1) Wilson's Certified Ham Salad heaped on tomato slice and topped with slice of hard-cooked Clear Brook Egg; (2) salad made of 1/2 cup cottage cheese, 1/2 cup Wilson's Certified Deviled Ham, 1/2 cup diced celery, 1 tsp. chopped chives or 1/2 tsp. grated onion mixed together, heaped in lettuce cup and topped with a radish rose (amounts given are sufficient for four servings); (3) fruit salad of pear half, banana, and cantaloupe balls garnished with sweet cherries. Serve with Wilson's Mayonnaise.

Cooling to View

When you sit down to a salad plate like the one pictured above, the very sight of it has a cooling effect. Finish off the meal with green apple pie glorified with a generous piece of Certified American Cheese and a cup of hot coffee or tea and the meal will be a success.

Remember Less Fortunate

You can save fat and flour by making a deep-dish apple pie... it's just like a regular pie except it is minus the lower crust and is usually made in an oblong baking dish. One-fourth cup Advance Shortening to three-fourths cup flour makes sufficient pastry, if rolled thin, to serve six.

A few sprinklings of grated lemon or orange rind over the apples give an added lilt to the pie.

It's safe to prepare the bananas and pears ahead of time, if you dip them in orange or pineapple juice... prevents discoloring. A measuring spoon, twirled around in the cantaloupe, makes the melon balls.

Summer Coolers

A lunch of assorted Certified Cold Cuts, rye bread, sliced tomatoes, perfection salad (1 cup each of shredded cabbage and finely diced celery, 1 pint, 1 tsp. minced onion, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tsp. salt, 4 tbsp. vinegar or lemon juice to 1 pkg. unflavored gelatin prepared according to directions) and a home-made soda hits the spot. Use gingerale for the fizz. Plan meals so you can relax before eating. Sipping a chilled tomato or fruit-juice cocktail helps.

Yours for comfort, George Rector
