Contractor Accused Of Attempted Blackmail

Investigators Told Tacoma Man Tried To Use Check To Force Withdrawal Of Opponent From Mayoralty Race

Washington, July 31.—(AP)—Paul A. Olson, former secretary to Rep. Coffey (D-Wash.), told the Senate War Investigating Committee today that Elvind Anderson, Tacoma contractor, attempted to "blackmail" him into withdrawing last January as a candidate for mayor of Tacoma.

Olson testified that Anderson had told him that unless he withdrew from the primary race in which the contractor was also entered, Anderson "would use the check to injure me in some way in the March election."

The witness' reference was to a $2,500 check which Anderson gave to Olson in 1941 while the latter was serving as Coffey's secretary.

Anderson has testified that the check was in payment for services he expected to receive from Coffey and Olson in connection with a defense contract. Coffey told the committee yesterday he received the money as a campaign gift.

Olson said today that Anderson called him to his home last January 19 or 20 ostensibly for the purpose of obtaining further aid relative to payments which Anderson believed were due him from the War Department on a hospital construction contract.

Anderson, Olson testified, then brought the conversation around to the check issued five years previously and asked Olson to withdraw from the race for mayor. Leaving the contractor as the only candidate with a Scandinavian name in a community of voters predominantly of Scandinavian descent.

"He attempted to blackmail me into withdrawing from the mayor's race," Olson declared.

He added that he declined to withdraw from the race, telling Anderson that there was nothing at all wrong about the payment and if you want to use it go ahead and shoot the works."

Anderson, Olson said, did not make the transaction public until about a week after the primary election and a week preceding the runoff. Anderson was eliminated in the primary, running last, the witness said, while Olson lost out in the final to C. W. Fayett.

The story of the payment, Olson continued, was given to the press and radio in a statement by retiring Mayor Harry P. Cain. Olson (Continued on Page Six)

Molotov Flays Fascists; Peace Terms Favor USSR

Russia Emerges As Principal Beneficiary Of Proposed Treaties With Italy, Finland And Germany's Balkan Satellites; Western Powers To Try Revising Some Sections

Paris, July 31.—(AP)—Russia emerged today as the principal beneficiary of proposed peace treaties which would strip Italy, Finland and beaten Germany's Balkan satellites of their military power, re-draw their frontiers and charge them at least a billion dollars in reparations.

The treaties presented to the 21-nation peace conference last night by the Big Four agreed upon substantial territorial increases for the Soviet Union, upon payment of $600,000,000 in reparations to Russia and left Russia's domination of Eastern Europe intact.

In certain disputed sections of the treaty drafts, however, it appeared apparent that the western powers intend to try to whittle down some of the Russian gains in the east, at least in economic matters.

The United States and Britain, want the vital Danube River opened to trade on a basis of complete equality, while Russia wants nothing said in any of the treaties about freedom of navigation on the Danube. The three western members of the Big Four want "most favored nation" status for all Allied Nations in commercial dealings with the five defeated nations, while Russia would exempt all fields closed to private enterprise and would make exceptions for neighboring states.

Under the proposed treaties—which would end the state of war in Europe except for Germany and which would offer the five nations concerned an opportunity to enter the United Nations—none of the defeated countries would be allowed any bombing planes or submarines and would be required to guarantee fundamental human rights and to ban Fascist activity.

The military machines of all would be reduced to a vestige of power, and the treaty drafts directed the five beaten countries to cooperate for the purpose of insuring against any German rearmament in the future. The Soviet Union was not mentioned in the treaty drafts, but rocket bombs would be outlawed.

The proposed treaties—286 pages in length—offered a peace to Italy, Romania, Bulgaria, Finland and Hungary which was mild in tone and largely so in demands, except for reparations and upon Italy's

MISSING PAIR FREED AFTER LONG ARREST

Red Army Held Officers Prisoner 27 Days; Once Charged Them As Spies

Berlin, July 31.—(AP)—Capt. Harold Cobin and Lt. George Wyatt, American officers who were released last night by the Russians, said today they had been detained in the Soviet occupation zone for 27 days on the allegation that they were spies.

The two, who vanished almost a month ago in an unauthorized trip into the Soviet zone, said they had been held for most of the 27 days at Russian headquarters in Potsdam.

The Russians had denied knowledge of the whereabouts of the pair. A U. S. army public relations officer announced July 17 that Soviet authorities said they had been unable to locate Cobin and Wyatt and that, "to the best of their knowledge, they are not being held in the Russian zone."

Cobin and Wyatt, who related their experiences at a press conference in the presence of U. S. army staff and intelligence officers, said the Russians had treated them well but had questioned them almost daily and at great length in an attempt to ascertain whether they were secret agents.

At one time they were officially charged with being spies, and signed statements denying the charges, they said.

The officers said they were arrested July 4 at Orangeburg, 30 miles north of Berlin, where they had been sent to try to win over the former Nazi concentration camp of Buchenwald. Both asserted they were unaware of reports that the Russians are now using that camp for political prisoners.

Throughout their detention they were kept separated and were questioned separately by the Russians. Cobin, who was born in Russia, said he was questioned entirely in Russian.

Cobin said he was repeatedly questioned about his connection with the Berlin documents center, where old Nazi party files and other records were kept.

Molotov Urges End To Franco Regime In Spain; Stand On Two-Thirds Majority Rule Wins Tentative Support By Byrnes; Small Powers Say It Means Big - Four Domination

Paris, July 31.—(AP)—Soviet Minister Molotov, in a speech to the Paris peace conference today, called upon democrats: countries of the world to put an end to the Franco regime of Spain.

"It is impossible to safeguard peace," said Molotov "unless Fascism is destroyed."

The Soviet minister spoke after an appearance before the conference rules committee at which he sought to establish a two-thirds majority voting rule for the conference of 21 nations, because, he said, "if all decisions were by simple majority the USSR would be sure to find itself always in the minority."

He found qualified support in his fight in U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes, who, an American informant said, will propose tomorrow that a two-thirds majority vote be necessary for approval of essential and substantive matters.

Addressing the conference, called to confer on the peace that is to be written in Europe with Italy, Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland, Molotov said:

"If we have still to deal with the question of the Fascist regime in Spain, then the time must not be too distant when democratic countries will be able to help the Spanish people. It is in the interest of freedom loving people to demand action against Fascism."

Fascism, he said, was "the most dangerous aggressor of our time." He urged the draft treaties of the United Nations to be considered by the conference.

Molotov spoke mostly in generalities. He declared in his 16 minute speech that he sympathized with Germany's satellites but they must not go unpunished.

He said they were being asked to pay only a part of the damage they had inflicted and that the Soviet Union was opposed to any outside interference that would hamper their economic recovery.

He said "we cannot overlook the fact that at present the decisions of the council of foreign ministers are assailed by all sorts of reactionary forces." (Continued on page three)

Overwhelming Vote For Reynolds Gift

State Baptist Convention Agrees To Major Terms Of Endowment; Wake Forest College To Move To Winston-Salem

Greensboro, July 31.—(AP)—Wake Forest College, which for 112 years has been located at the village 17 miles north of Raleigh bearing the same name, will move to Winston-Salem to receive the income from a $10,750,000 fund of the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation.

The move will not be made for several years, until the new campus and buildings are ready. The college will not change its name and the present educational plant will be continued as a Baptist educational institution, possibly as a theological seminary.

Decision to move the college, subject to conditions imposed by the Baptist State Convention and the Reynolds Foundation, was made here yesterday at a special Baptist State Convention session—the first such meeting in the 116-year history of the church organization. The vote of the estimated 2,500 messengers was overwhelmingly in favor of the proposal.

Among matters yet to be decided is whether the college at Winston-Salem will be located at Reynolds, the portion of the Reynolds estate which was given yesterday to the convention by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Babcock of Greenwich Conn. Mrs. Babcock is a daughter of the late R. J. Reynolds.

The convention's vote on the Reynolds proposal came late yesterday afternoon at the second session of the special meeting. Earlier former Gov. J. Melville Broughton of Raleigh, chairman of the convention's special committee on the Reynolds offer, had presented the committee's resolution of acceptance and had disclosed the Babcock gift.

Decision on removal of Wake Forest followed a series of committee meetings, action of the Wake Forest board of trustees in recommending acceptance, and widespread discussion of the Reynolds proposal.

Obituary

In memory of my mother, Mrs. Susan Elizabeth Brooks, who was born September 24, 1863, near La Grange. She attended the public schools and Kinsey Seminary in Lenoir county. She taught school for a while, then was married to John W. Brooks who died April 4, 1921.

Mrs. Brooks was a kindly neighbor and wished everyone well. Although active, she suffered the infirmities of old age, but never to the extent that she did not love little children and never lost patience with them. And they all loved "Mur," as she was known to her grand children and other members of the family. She was a member of Great Swamp Church in Greenville. Being strong in the faith, she often remarked that she felt there's more for me on the other side.

On the evening of June 27, 1946, "Death, like a kind old nurse, tucked the coverlet around her couch and beckoned her on to the Wayside Inn where toll shall cease and rest begin."

Special Program At Kiwanis On Friday

Dr. D. L. Moore has arranged an entertaining program for the Kiwanis Club's supper meeting Friday evening at 6:30. Miss Clarissa Edwards of Winterville, a student in opera at Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, will sing, with Mrs. Paul A. Toll as accompanist. Miss Edwards is soloist at the First Lutheran Church in Baltimore. Another feature of the Kiwanis program will be a short talk by Hyatt Forrest of Winterville about his experiences in the U. S. navy in China and India during World War II. President Ed Rawl will preside.

Tobacco Market Opens

The Greenville tobacco market began the new season today with a very flattering opening. Owing to the excessive rains recently, which have kept the tobacco as fast as it could be cured and leaving them little or no time for grading, no one looked for much to come in at the opening, yet the sales were larger than expected.

All five of the warehouses had a fair amount on sale and the prices were most gratifying, running between $78 and $17.50 per hundred. The opening prices this season averaged fully $2 over last season.

The warehouses are all well equipped with good working forces and start off the season in good shape. Dow Beaman is floor manager at Center Brick; W. T. Burton auctioneer at Parham's; S. T. Hooker, proprietor and J. I. Smith, bookkeeper at Liberty; and W. H. Dall, Jr., secretary and auditor at Farmers Consolidated Co.

Ralph Vincent Was Buried Winterville

Funeral services for Ralph K. Vincent, 17, who was drowned Sunday afternoon at Atlantic Beach were held at Reedy Branch Free Will Baptist Church, near Winterville, this afternoon at 4:30. The pastor, the Rev. W. P. Woodard of Ayden, officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Jesse Ray Faulkner, Jimmy Langston, Edwin Averette, Bobby Smith, Van Moore Cecil Paramore, Henry Clay Joyner and Hoover Avery. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Sunshine Class No. 5 of Reedy Branch Sunday School.

Young Vincent attended the Winterville school. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Essie Cooper Vincent of near Winterville; three brothers, Troy C. and Cleveland H. Vincent, Jr., of the home, and James C. Vincent of the Navy; six sisters, Doris Vincent of Washington D. C.; Mrs. W. Paul Dudley of Winterville, Mrs. Reid H. Smith of near Grifton, Mrs. Eva Gay D'Arcangelo, Jr., of New Orleans, Ruth and Constance Vincent of near Winterville.

ords are kept. "They kept trying to establish a chain of command between Lt. Col Hans Helm, my chief in the documents center, and Gen. Clay (Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. deputy military governor)." Cobin declared.

"At one point they threatened that if I refused to tell them how Helm was connected with Clay I would be sent to Russia. I asked them if being sent to Russia was considered punishment," and they smiled."

Helm, who was present at the conference, declared that the Russians as well as all other occupying powers had free access to the document center on request and that the Russians had used part of the old German army records it contains.

Cobin quoted one Russian officer as saying: "I can see how we Russians came to an eventual understanding with the Americans, but with the British—well, the outlook is dark."

Cloture Motion For Poll Tax Bill Beaten

Washington, July 31—(AP)—The Senate declined today to limit debate on the anti-poll tax bill. The decision was generally interpreted as killing the legislation for this session.

By a vote of 39 ayes and 33 nays, far short of the required margin, the Senators rejected a motion to apply cloture, sometimes called the "gag rule." A two-thirds favorable vote of members present and voting would have been required to put the seldom-used rule into effect.

The Senate hasn't voted for such limitation since Feb. 28, 1927 when it curtailed debate on a bill to create a bureau of customs and prohibitions.

U. N. C. Registration Will Set New High

Chapel Hill, N. C., July 31—(AP)—Fall term enrollment of approximately 5700 is expected to set a new high in University of North Carolina registrations here for the fall term which begins September 23, Roy Armstrong, director of admissions, said today.

The last spring term enrollment of 4500 was the highest in the history of the university. Approximately 1000 applications for admission, Armstrong said, are "hanging fire" due to the housing situation. "However, we are still accepting qualified students who can find a place to live," he declared. "The dormitories are filled, but students who can commute from neighboring towns or who can find a place to live in Chapel Hill are still being accepted."

Would Establish College Centers

Raleigh, July 30—(AP)—A special governor's steering committee has voted to establish 12 college centers in North Carolina cities this fall as a result of a registration of probable students in the state last week.

The committee announced yesterday it was recommending establishment of these centers, largely controlled by the consolidated University of North Carolina, at Charlotte, Albemarle, Burlington, Fayetteville, Gastonia, Goldsboro, Hendersonville, Murphy, Rocky Mount, and Wilmington, for white students; and at Asheville and Wilmington for Negro students.

The committee said also white centers may be established at Lumberton, Greensboro and North Wilkesboro, where registrations indicated centers may be necessary. The centers are designed to fill the need of the increased demands by veterans and others for enrollment in college work this fall.

San Francisco, July 31—(AP)—The mystery of how the Navy happened to have 312 dozen diapers has been solved.

They really weren't diapers at all, the War Assets Administration explained. They were arm slings. But knowing three-cornered pants still are hard to get, the WAA offered the 27-inch squares on sale as diapers. Veterans bought them all in a few hours.

JIGGER MORAN

by JOHN ROEBURT

Chapter 11

Jigger lay on the bed in an attitude of sleep, his senses alert, his ears listening to the creaking sounds of feet, the animal sounds of voices. He was exhausted and his eyelids contracted violently to shut the world out, but the room made a clear picture in his mind.

Captain A'hearn was a grotesque jabberwocky breathing heavy clouds of cigar smoke just inside the threshold and Mrs. Fogarty was being uncommonly astute but futile in her attempts to usher A'hearn out of the room and back into the street.

A'hearn snorted, his thick membranous lips impaled on Jigger's mind's eye. "Ma'am, I've been fighting my way in here inch by inch since I rang the bell over ten minutes ago. Does it have to be the club before you think better than to interfere with the law?"

Mrs. Fogarty began a sentence with determined impudence, but her voice simmered helplessly without completing it.

Captain A'hearn moved noisily across the room and Jigger felt trapped, tortured, victim to the official finger poking the swell of his chest. Jigger contracted into a ball and rolled to the farthest end of the bed, but there was no immunity and he propped himself up on one arm.

"What do you want, A'hearn?"

A'hearn pointed conscientiously toward Mrs. Fogarty, and Jigger motioned her out of the room. A'hearn sat ponderously on the edge of the bed and cleared his throat. "Can you give me one good reason why I shouldn't arrest Little Joey for murder?"

"Don't tell me you strong-armed your way in here just to ask me that."

"I'm not asking Jigger—I'm telling."

Jigger's eyes wavered through the pan of cigar smoke, seeking to study A'hearn's face. His throat was dry, but his voice managed scorn: "So you finally got around to tagging Little Joey?"

"Yes—for murder. I'm tipping you off so you can get out from under."

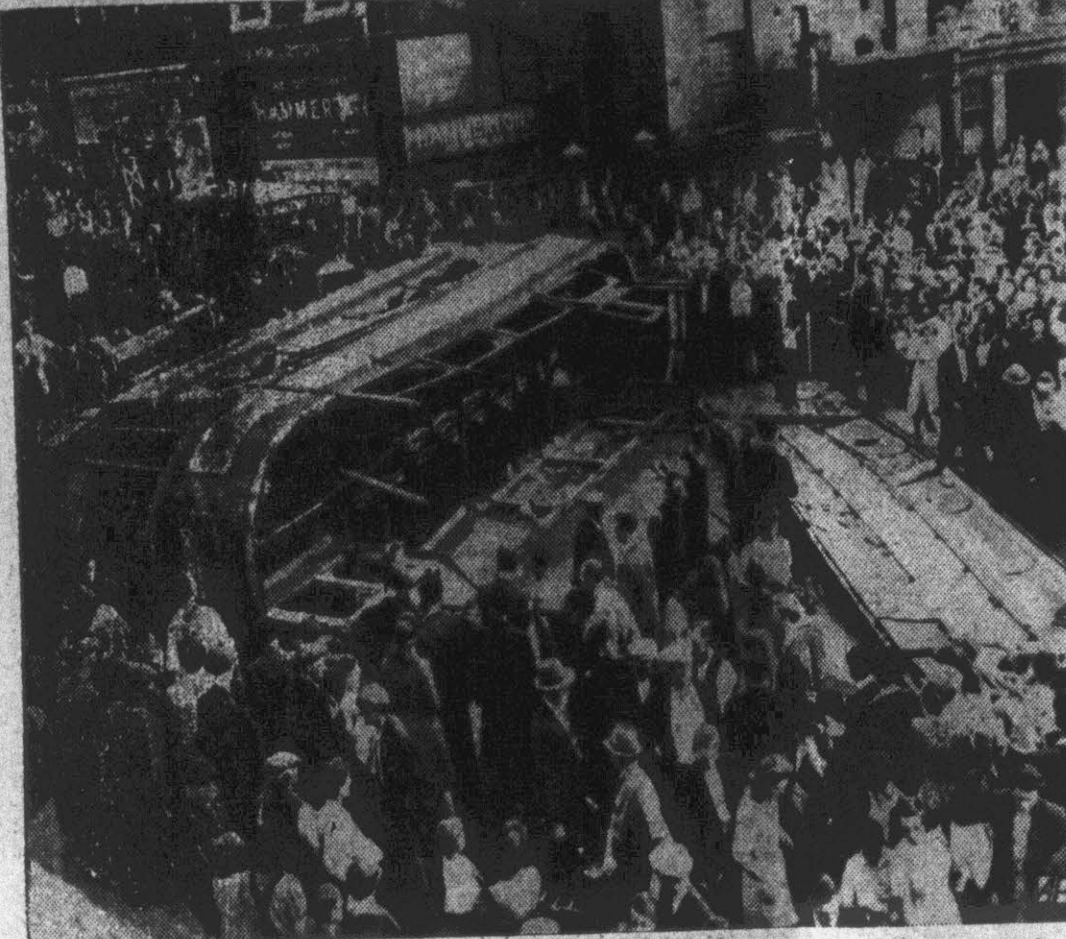

"Nice of you to figure that safe-guarding me was the first law of self-preservation, Cattie. I suppose the fact that Joey's not your man has nothing to do with law enforcement?"

A'hearn was irritatingly emphatic: "Joey's our man, all right."

Jigger stood at an open window facing the street and breathed in deeply until his lungs ached. "Be reasonable, A'hearn. No one's after your scalp on this case. Why are you letting me little corpse get your dander up?"

A'hearn lumbered to his feet and walked to within three feet of Jigger. His cigar reeked admonishment: "One little corpse like two dead men, Jigger. I'm telling you to get out from under—if you can."

It came to Jigger thirty seconds later. "What do you mean—two dead the committee into spirited debate with spokesmen for Australia and The Netherlands arguing that the simple majority should be sufficient.

Both Australia and The Netherlands said the two-thirds proposal would mean Big Four domination.

The Rules Committee meeting was open to newspapermen, in line with a recommendation by the committee yesterday for a wide open press. A total of 67 newsmen from 25 countries were present.

UN Delegates . . .

The delegates from the United States, The Netherlands and Brazil indicated they wanted to hear more details of what Russia had in mind at the same time, they all made it clear that they favored a much stronger control plan than that suggested by Gromyko in his declaration.

Committee No. 2, made up of the same delegates who sit on the atomic commission itself, is charged with the responsibility of drafting a control plan. So far it has heard Gromyko reject the main points of the U. S. plan and advocate his own program.

KKK Probe . . .

However, complaints are being received from all parts of the country about the resurgent Klan's activities. The originators include individuals, labor unions, civil rights societies and other organizations.

Some name dates, places and persons involved in alleged Klan acts. All such complaints are turned over to the FBI which makes investigations for the civil rights section.

The department expects a sharp increase in Klan activity as a result of Negro voting in Southern primaries, the dislocation of populations resulting from the war, congested living conditions and the other aftermaths of war.

The department began checking Klan activities shortly before Attorney General Tom Clark assailed the hooded order in a speech at Philadelphia on May 18.

At that time, Clark said "We must rid ourselves of such things as organized bigotry—and I mean specifically such an excrement as the Ku Klux Klan."

The department's investigation includes two specific complaints of alleged Klan intimidation against Negroes.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

KEEPING THE RUDDER TRUE

The famous preacher, Silvester Home, tells the story in one of his sermons of an old Greek pilot on the Aegean Sea who, being caught in a storm, stood up in his boat and cried, "Father Neptune, you may sink me if you will, or you may save me if you will, but whatever happens I will keep my rudder true." Home then goes on to say that it is not for us to declare what the issues of life will be, but only to declare that we will never drift that we will steer straight, that we will keep the rudder true.

"We think of the mothers today who in the midst of changing family customs find themselves so completely overwhelmed, and for whom there is nothing left to do but to cry out, 'Almighty God, sink me or save me as You will, but whatever happens I will keep my rudder true. I will try to bring up my children as my conscience and the Word of God tell me I should.' How often in this and other ages have young people of sensitive consciences, finding their lives threatened by compromises and inconsistencies, agonized and made their decisions in words something like this: 'O God, the demands of the flesh and of the world are insistent as the winds of the storm, but give me strength that I may keep my rudder true.' Or the businessmen faced with the compulsion of new and evil ways of trade saying to himself and to God in the silence of his great conflict, 'Shipwreck or safety I know not which, but hold me, O God, to keep my rudder true.'

TWO INSTRUMENTS FOR PEACE

There's no doubt about it, America holds the means of forcing peace down the throats of restless peoples. Others realize it too.

To illustrate: In Cairo, an Arab spokesman recently said that the partitioning of Palestine into two states would be fought and could not be accomplished "unless America makes use of the atomic bomb."

The means of enforcing our own ideals of a World of Peace upon other countries will evaporate when their scientists develop their own atomic weapons. If our statesmen wished to follow this line of thought, it is obvious that the time to do it is the present. We hold all the aces.

But, you can't combat ideas by means of force. Religions, philosophies and ideals in government have always flourished under physical persecution. Any peace that could be won by such means would be uncertain, and the guardians of that peace could expect constant eruptions of violence... in the end their efforts would come to naught.

The most inspiring message for a world praying for the future came from our own Secretary of State Byrnes, when in his opening address to the Paris conference yesterday, he said "Democracy cannot be imposed or taught at the point of a bayonet. As terror inspires terror, so good will can inspire good will."

American Good Will may

prove to be a greater instrument for peace than any weapon ever devised.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—The 1946 primaries are hatching a few congressional lame ducks, which the November elections are expected to increase to a sizable flock.

It used to be that lame duck days extended from election day until March 4, but the 20th amendment to the Constitution reset the date for opening the new Congress so that this year the senators and representatives falling to be re-elected will serve out terms that extend only to Jan. 3.

Most of the current lame ducks were defeated at the primaries for renomination. Others probably will be defeated as more states hold their primaries, and some who are renominated may be defeated in the final elections.

The present group of lame ducks are drakes, being all men. They include Democratic representatives Luther Patrick of Alabama, Pat Cannon of Florida and Zebulon Weaver of North Carolina and Republican representative Robert L. Rodgers of Pennsylvania.

Rep. Ellis E. Patterson (D-Calif.) and Rep. Charles M. LaFollette (R-Ind.), who ran for Senate nominations, are also in the group. LaFollette has said he might resign from the Republican party and join up with the Democrats—providing that party gets rid of its southern members.

Current lame ducks are Charles C. Gossett (D-Idaho) and Raymond E. Willis (R-Ind.).

Sen. Cannon, Weaver and Patrick are returning to their home town law practices. Patrick is quite an orator, having stumped the country in presidential campaign years as a member of the Speakers Bureau of the Democratic National Committee. He is also going on the radio as a news analyst, sponsored by the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Rep. Rodgers, who is 71, expects to retire and catch up on his fishing.

Sen. Gossett is going back to his 300-acre farm at Nampa, Idaho, where he is a livestock feeder and buyer and where he also grows sugar beets.

One time I scouted around trying to find-out where lame ducks got their name.

Nobody on Capitol Hill could tell me.

Some erudite person came forth with the suggestion that the earliest reference to the phrase appeared in Walpole's Letters, published in 1761.

"Do you know what a bull, a bear and a lame duck are?" he queried. Alas, he didn't bother to answer himself.

In his book, "The American Language," H. L. Mencken traces the phrase lame duck and others like favorite son, dark horse and landslide back to the picturesque political campaigns in the early days of the last century.

But even Mr. Mencken does not give their origin.

Congress Pension...

two things:
1. He could pay into the pension fund for only those last five years of his service. But he'd get a certain amount of credit, and added pension money, for those years above five which he served.

2. He could pay a percentage of his salary for all his years of service.

If he did No. 2, his pension would be larger than if he did No. 1.

Take an example Senator Wheeler, Montana Democrat, has just been defeated in the primary election in his state. He's 64 years old and has served 24 years in the Senate.

He now could pay into the pension fund $2,716—the necessary percentage of his $10,000-a-year salary for the past five years.

When he finishes out his term next Jan. 2—provided he's not elected in the final elections—and retires to private life, he can start drawing a pension. It would be $4,909 a year.

But suppose Wheeler wanted to pay into the fund a percentage of his salary for the 24 years he served. He'd have to pay $13,486. Then his pension would be $5,833.

Senator Shipstead, Minnesota Republican who has been defeated in the primary election in his state is 65 years old and also has served 24 years.

He could do the same as Wheeler but his pension, because he's one year older, would be slightly higher than Wheeler's. The older a man is when he quits Congress, the higher his pension.

A member with very long service would not have to pay into the fund for any salary received before 1920. But if he wanted to pay on salary received since that date, it would work this way:

Two-and-one-half per cent for any year from Aug. 1, 1920 to June 30, 1926; and then 3 1-2 per cent from July 1, 1926 to June 30, 1942; and 5 per cent from July 1, 1942 until President Truman signs this system into law, which may be this week. After it becomes law members of Congress will have to pay six per cent on their yearly salary into the pension fund, if they want a pension—or at least five years of the years served after this all becomes law.

330,000 CITY OF GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA BOND ANTICIPATION NOTES

Sealed bids will be received until 11 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, August 13, 1946, by the undersigned at its office in the City of Raleigh, N. C., for $300,000 Bond Anticipation Notes of the City of Greenville, North Carolina, dated August 20, 1946, maturing December 20, 1946, without option of prior payment, and bearing interest at not more than 6 per cent per annum, payable at maturity of the notes. Denomination $10,000; delivery of notes on or about August 20, 1946, at place of purchaser's choice; notes are being issued in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of a like amount of Street Improvement Bonds.

Bidders should specify the interest rate (not exceeding 6 per cent per annum), and the city and the bank therein at which principal and interest should be payable. There will be no action. The notes will be awarded to the bidder offering to purchase the notes at the lowest interest cost to the City, such cost to be determined by deducting the total amount of the premium bid from the aggregate amount of interest upon the notes until their maturity. No bid of less than par and accrued interest will be entertained.

Bidders must present with their bid a certified check upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable unconditionally to the order of the State Treasurer of North Carolina for $150. The right to reject all bids is reserved. The approving opinion of Masslich and Mitchell, New York City, will be furnished the purchaser.

$220,000 CITY OF GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA STREET IMPROVEMENT BONDS

Sealed bids will be received until 11 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, August 13, 1946, by the undersigned at its office in the City of Raleigh, N. C., for $220,000 Street Improvement Bonds of the City of Greenville, North Carolina, dated September 1, 1946, maturing annually, March 1, in numerical order, lowest numbers first, $10,000 1949 to 1953, $15,000 1954 to 1959, and $20,000 1960 to 1963, all inclusive, without option of prior payment. There will be no action. Denomination $1,000; coupon bonds registerable as to principal alone; principal and semi-annual interest (M and S 1), payable in legal tender in New York City; general obligations; unlimited tax; delivery on or about September 7, 1946, at place of purchaser's choice.

Bidders are requested to name the interest rate or rates, not exceeding six per cent per annum, in multiples of one-fourth of one per cent. Each bid may name one rate for part of the bonds (having the earliest maturities), and another rate or rates for the balance, but no bid may name more than three rates, and each bidder must specify in his bid the amount of bonds of each rate. Each rate must be bid for bonds of consecutive maturities. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder offering to purchase the bonds at the lowest interest cost to the City, such cost to be determined by deducting the total amount of the premium bid from the aggregate amount of interest upon all of the bonds until their respective maturities. No bid of less than par and accrued interest will be entertained.

Bids must be on a form to be furnished with additional information by the undersigned, enclosed in a sealed envelope marked "Proposal for Bonds," and must be accompanied by a certified check upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable unconditionally to the order of the State Treasurer of North Carolina for $4,400.

The approving opinion of Masslich and Mitchell, New York City, will be furnished the purchaser.

In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be taxable by the terms of any Federal income tax law, the successful bidder may, at his election, be relieved of his obligations under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

The right to reject all bids is reserved.

by that order entered in the above entitled action on July 4, 1946, (the bid at the sale had on July 23, 1946, having been raised) we shall offer for re-sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, at the Court House door in Greenville, on Wednesday, the 14th day of August, 1946, at 12 o'clock noon, the following described property, to-wit:

All of the timber of every description, standing, growing and being, and which shall measure 10 inches in diameter and over, 18 inches above the ground on the day of sale or at the time of cutting, upon the following tracts of real estate, lying, being and situate in Patahous Township in the County of Pitt and State of North Carolina, to-wit:

First Parcel: Beginning at the corner of the lands of J. G. Mason, dec., in the run of Grindle Creek near a cypress stump at the forked log hole, and running thence with said Mason line to a pine in the Fox Pocosin, corner of Willoughby Whichard land; thence with said line of said land to H. E. Daniel's corner to said Pocosin; thence with her line to the run of Grindle Creek; thence up the run of the creek to the beginning, containing 150 acres, more or less, and being the same land described in deed from James Whichard to A. J. Whichard, recorded in Book A-6 at page 264 of Pitt County Registry, to which deed reference is had.

Second Parcel: That certain tract or parcel of land, bounded on the east by the lands of A. J. Whichard, on the south by the run of Grindle Creek, on the west by the public road leading from R. T. Whichard's road to Whichards, N. C., and being Lot No. 1 in the division of the lands of John G. Mason, containing 42 acres, more or less, and the same that was allotted to Mary E. Mason in said division and by her conveyed to A. J. Whichard by deed recorded in Book B-14 at page 521 of the Pitt County Registry, to which reference is had for more complete description.

Third Parcel: Beginning at a stake opposite the road leading to W. A. Ross and running 70 yards an easterly course to a pine; thence running a south course 70 yards to a stake; thence a west course parallel with the first line to the road 70 yards to a pine; thence with the Williamston road to the beginning, containing 1 acre, more or less, being the parcel of land conveyed by E. C. Yellowly and John G. Mason and wife to School Committee District No. 36, white race, as appears of record in Book T-3 at page 477, Pitt County Registry, and same as conveyed to A. J. Whichard by Pitt County Board of Education by deed recorded in Book O-17 at page 343. Excepting from the above described three tracts of real estate and timber trees standing, growing and being on the following described five acres of land which was conveyed to J. E. Dixon by deed bearing date of May 22, 1946, to-wit:

Beginning at a point where the eastern line of the James Evans lands join the western line of the A. J. Whichard lands at the old Willoughby road on the north side of the highway leading to Stokes; thence a northerly direction with the dividing line between the A. J. Whichard lands and the James Evans lands, a distance of 350 yards; thence an easterly direction parallel with the road leading to Stokes a distance of 70 yards; thence a southerly direction parallel with the first line a distance of 350 yards to the main highway leading from the A. J. Whichard home to Stokes; thence a westerly direction along the north side of said highway leading to Stokes 70 yards to the beginning,

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Detroit Asking For Title Bout

New York, July 31—(AP)—Promoter Mike Jacobs, who has come up with three world championship boxing bouts in Yankee Stadium in September, has been asked to transfer the heavyweight title fust between Joe Louis and Tami Mauriel-lo Detroit.

Michigan Boxing Commissioner John Hettche phoned Jacobs, asking the head man of the Twentieth Century Sporting Club to consider switching the fight to the cham-pion's home town.

Detroit fans "aven" seen Louis lose title fight since he stopped big Alie Simon in 13 rounds in 1941—his 15th successful defense of the crown.

Jacobs said Hettche painted such a "gay picture that he assured the commissioner he would consider the move, although it would require asking the New York American League Baseball Club for a release from the contract already signed.

If Jacobs doesn't change his original plans the Louis-Mauriello fight will take place at the Yankee ball park on the night of Sept. 18. There it will be sandwiched between the Sept. 6 title bout between welterweight champion Mar-tin Servo and Ray Robinson and the once-delayed Sept. 27 contest between middleweight champion Tony Zale and Rocky Graziano, both scheduled in the same Bronx arena.

Suspend Jockeys For Trying To Fix Race

Miami, Fla., July 31—(AP)—Three jockeys whom the Thorough-bred Racing Protective Bureau charged attempted to fix a race at Tropical Park, have been suspen-ded. They face the possibility of being permanently barred from the track.

The Florida State Racing Com-mission suspended jockey Robert Keane, of Toronto; Leonal Lover-idea, of Tampa, and Vincenzo No-darse, of Havana, yesterday and ordered them to appear Sept. 17 to "show cause why their licenses should not be permanently revoked."

John Madala, of the TRPB charged that the jockeys attempted to fix the fifth race at Tropical last April 17 but that Keane "doubt crossed" his pals and rode his own mount to victory.

The Cardinals cut a full game off the lead of the Giants Tuesday morning at the Training School field when they beat them 9 to 5. The Cards ran up a 9 to 1 lead and coasted in to victory. The Giants scored four runs in the fifth on one hit, a triple by Hill after three men were walked filling the bases and then Hill scored on an error. The Cards earned their runs on some lusty hitting at the right time. Lupton with three and Parley Foley and Woolfork with two hits apiece did the damage for the Cards.

Greenville Loses To Kinston 6-5

Greenville lost their second game to the Kinston Eagles last night, 6-5. V. Blackwell led the Greenies in the batting department, being credited with four hits in five times at bat.

The Eagles started with a rush scoring three runs in their first inning. Greenville threatened in the fifth when they racked up three runs to put the score at 5-4 against them. But when the seventh inning rolled around the Kinston nine got their winning run when Tepedinc singled, was advanced by a sacrifice and trotted home on a triple over Parise's head.

Goldsboro plays host to the Greenies tonight, and will play their return match here Thursday evening at Guy Smith Stadium.

The Yankees went on a hitting spree yesterday afternoon at Third St. Park and walloped the Tigers 23 to 10. The Tigers did some hitting of their own but were not in the game after the Yankees had their biggest inning of the year in the second when they scored fifteen runs. With the exception of the second inning the game was over even terms.

Joe Sawyer with five for six including a double and four singles and Lem Pleasants with the same number were the hitting stars for their respective teams Joe Clark and Dickie Gray with three hits each were next best for the Yankees. Bobby Williams and Wiley Gardner with two hits for the Giants drove in their share of runs for the Rube Melton, Durocher's long shot starting choice, got him with his first win of the season although he needed bullpen help from dependable Hank Behrman in the 9th. Once again, as is the custom at Flatbush, Dixie Walker provided the base hit that put the Brooks in the ball game, his seventh-inning single through Whitey Kurowski at third base converting Pee Wee Reese's triple into the tying score. Then Carl Furillo, a paid up member of the Fluky Youth Society, bounced a ground rules double into left field to apply the clincher. With Pollet out of the way, Durocher can throw his ace lefties, Joe Hatten and Vic Lombardi with better hope of success. Dyer is expected to continue with Harry Dickson, a converted relief artist who trimmed the Brooks in 12 innings last time they met, and Matty Brechen.

The faithful turned out 31,446 strong to top the Ebbets Field attendance chart to 1,022,400, the sixth time the million mark has been reached in the club's history. Brooklyn's all-time high of 1,214,943 set in the 1941 pennant year seems almost certain to be topped.

Chicago lost ground in the National League race by bowing to the New York Giants, 3-2, on pinch hitter Goody Rosen's single with the bases loaded in the ninth. Schoonroy Rowe chalked up his 11th triumph for the Phillies over Cincinnati, 5-4, with Andy Seminick's bat booming for four hits including a three-run homer.

Interest in the American League turned to the second place battle between the New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers as the Boston Red Sox increased their lead to 12 1-2 games by blanking Cleveland, 4-0. Virgil Trucks' famed 13 Yanks in earning his 12th success, 6-5, a rare delight of a twilight throng of 39,831. Four basers by Tommy Henrich, Charley Keller and Aaron Robinson kept the New Yorkers in the ball game. The Bengals now are only one game behind the Yanks.

Jeff Heath's home run blast with two mates on gave St. Louis a 6-3 edge over Washington in 11 innings. Philadelphia chased Frank Payton with a six-run seventh inning to down the White Sox, 9-2.

Contractor Accused

Cain based his statement, the witness said, on an affidavit by Anderson.

The contrary stories of Coffee and Anderson were already in the committee record.

Anderson contended he paid the money for services he said he expected to receive from Olson and Coffee in connection with a $938,517 army hospital contract. Anderson declared flatly that he did not even discuss a campaign contribution with Olson or Coffee.

Barometer

(Continued from Page One) The Versailles peace conference of a generation ago was a fair example. The American and British delegations declared for open sessions, but the French, Italians and Japanese favored secrecy—and they meant secrecy! President Wilson and Prime Minister David Lloyd George made a fight for us, and some concessions were granted, but for the most part it was the same old story.

Conference communiques were issued daily to give us what was good for us to know. The various delegations also had press headquarters and at least the American and British special press arrangements were very helpful. For the most part, however, members of the foreign legion of reporters depended on the private sources which we had built up over the years. The reporter who had a good friend on one of the delegations was indeed lucky.

From time to time distinguished statesmen on the various delegations held press conferences at which they matched wits with the newspaper folk.

Smith Reynolds Foundation to endow the college with the annual income up to $350,000—more if the trustees of the foundation permit—from $10,750,000 of the funds of the foundation. Principal condition of the offer was removal of the college to Winston-Salem.

The proposal also provided that if by July 1, 1952, the college does not have on hand sufficient funds to assure construction of required buildings and has not let contracts for such work, the foundation may withdraw the proposal.

Conditions imposed in the convention's acceptance include a Supreme Court test of the contract "that the name of the college be not changed, and that the control of the institution shall continue unaltered and undiminished in the board of trustees of Wake Forest College, as appointed by the Baptist State Convention.

Mutual conditions include con-

Furrows of the college: present endowment, estimated in excess of $3,000,000, and establishment of a new Wake Forest adequate for a student body of not less than 2,000 students, as contrasted with the present enrollment of approximately 1,200.

Wake Forest now has 15 buildings and a faculty of 65. Its medical school is located in Winston-Salem as a result of gifts from the Bowman Gray tobacco family of Winston-Salem.
