BILBO ADMITS BEING MEMBER KU KLUX KLAN

"Once A Ku Klux, Always A Ku Klux" Says Senator In Interview

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Sen. Bilbo "The Man" Bilbo (D-Miss.) told a nationwide radio audience last night that he is a member of the Ku Klux Klan although "not in sympathy with some of the things in it."

"I am a member of the Ku Klux Klan No. 40, called the 'Bilbo Klan No. 40, Mississippi,'" the Senator said in answer to a question by Lawrence Spivak of the American Mercury.

He attended one meeting and has not attended it since, because he was not in sympathy with some of the things in it," he added.

Bilbo declared he could get Klan support now because "no man can leave the Klan. He takes an oath not to do that. Once a Ku Klux, always a Ku Klux."

The Senator was interviewed by four newspaper and magazine correspondents in the Mutual Broadcasting System network show "Meet the Press." The interviewers were Ernest K. Lindley of Newsweek, Cecil B. Dickson of Gannett Publications, Bert Andrews of the New York Herald Tribune and Spivak.

Under questioning by Spivak, Bilbo declared that "I am not informed that the Ku Klux Klan as I know it is seeking to undermine the government."

He said he was "not advised" what the Klan stands for at present but "I heard Gov. Talmadge tell some newspaper last Friday night, they could find out all about it by consulting Gov. Arnall of Georgia. He is a member and received a plaque award as a member."

Bilbo denied that he believed in "lynch law" and said that in eight years as governor of Mississippi "I did everything in my power to do away with the lynch law in my state."

Andrews then asked him about a statement he was reported to have made during the recent campaign that "the way to stop Negroes from voting was to start from the night before."

"Bilbo: 'The reporters may not be so reliable.' Andrews: 'I think on this, sir, I would bet on the reporters' integrity against yours, because all of the reporters seem to agree on that particular quote.'"

During the course of the 30-minute broadcast, Bilbo termed Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) the "blab-blah-blah of the Senate," said H. H. Carter, Pulitzer prize winner and publisher of the Greenville, Miss., Times, is "the biggest liar in the South," and denied he was prejudiced against Italians or "high class Jews."

Bilbo's statement about Sen. Taft was prompted by a question from Dickson in which he quoted Taft as saying Bilbo was "a disgrace to the Senate."

Leaf Prices Rise To New High Yesterday

By The Associated Press

Average prices paid for flue-cured tobacco on the North Carolina-South Carolina border belt hit a new high of $57.08 per hundred Friday.

The Federal-State Marketing News Service in Raleigh reported the record average paid for a total of 9,150,997 pounds of leaf sold yesterday on the belt's 17 markets. The figure was $4.90 per hundred above opening-day prices and 63 cents more than the previous high set Wednesday.

Friday's record figure followed general price declines recorded Thursday. Gains ranged from $1.00 per hundred over Thursday's $5.50, with common orange leaf, which lost most in the Thursday slump, and primings showing the biggest advances.

The Battle For Peace

Bevin and Byrnes Agree It's "Time To Stop Talking And Get On With The Job"; Molotov Blocks Action By Delaying Tactics; Widening Gulf Apparent

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Britain's outspoken foreign secretary, Ernest Bevin, who has been ill in London, flew back to Paris yesterday to resume his place at the so-called "peace" conference and as he was leaving for France declared:

"We must try to get peace established and put an end to all wars. It is time to stop talking and get on with the job."

Mr. Bevin thus demonstrated that great minds do indeed run in the same channel (sometimes), for about that same hour American Secretary of State Byrnes was telling the delegates at the conference in heated terms:

"The people want us to get on with the peace."

Mr. Byrnes' statement came after he had delivered a stinging rebuke to Russia, characterizing as "loose and wicked talk" the Soviet charge that voting procedure for

Peace Negotiations In China Said Fruitless

Spreading Civil War Out Of Hand Report Marshall And Ambassador Stuart; Chinese Reds Attack Marine Guards

Nanking, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Peaceful settlement of China's spreading civil war appears impossible, Gen. George C. Marshall and U. S. Ambassador John Leighton Stuart declared today in a frankly pessimistic statement issued even as U. S. Marines in North China exchanged fresh shots with Chinese who blew up a coal train they were guarding.

Whether the two American peace negotiators were throwing in the towel after numerous fruitless conferences with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Communist Gen. Chou En-Lai was not yet clear. Their joint statement said "every possibility" had been explored toward ending the conflict and developing a democratic form of government for China.

They said the fundamental issue involved concern the type of local government to be maintained in areas evacuated as the result of the redistribution of troops of both sides.

Marine headquarters at Peiping announced that four Marines died in the caboose of a coal train were fired upon by 50 Chinese (presumably).

New Appeal For Poor Will Go To Assembly

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 10.—(AP)—North Carolina's 1947 General Assembly will be asked to increase appropriations by $620,000 for the state's needy aged and dependent children to $2,700,000 for the fiscal year of 1947-48.

The State Board of Public Welfare says this boost is necessary because of rising living costs required to help those now receiving aid and because of a growing group of needy persons for whom no funds now are available.

The welfare board will ask the next legislature to increase appropriations to $2,840,000 for the 1948-49 fiscal year.

Appropriations for the 1947-48 fiscal year would be allotted: old-age assistance $1,750,000; aid to dependent children $650,000. Appropriations for the 1948-49 fiscal year would be allotted: old-age assistance $1,850,000; aid to dependent children $690,000.

PLANES CRASH KILLING SIX

Army Attack Bombers Collide Over Crowded Fairgrounds

Great Falls, Mont., Aug. 10.—(AP)—Army authorities today were engaged in the grim task of completing identification of the charred bodies of six persons killed when two attack bombers collided during an airshow Friday before 20,000 horrified spectators at the North Montana State Fair.

Two of the dead, killed when a plane hurtled into a racehorse barn, were identified as Lt. Arthur Bell, Cleveland, and Dorothy Mae Szabo of Belt, Mont., a Montana State University student.

An army investigating panel on the Great Falls air base, launched an inquiry into the accident.

Three of the twin-engined medium bombers were roaring low over a grandstand packed with fairgoers when one of the planes apparently sheared off the tail of the other. The third plane swung away, undamaged.

One of the planes burst into flames and zoomed into the horse barn, filled with racehorses. The other sped crazily on, flaming as it dug into the earth a mile away.

QUAKE ORDEAL BRINGS PANIC TO THOUSANDS

Week Of Earth Tremors And Tidal Waves Spreads Terror And Hunger

Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Panic spread through the northern provinces of this battered country today, with hunger threatening the weary population as the result of a six-day ordeal of earthquakes and tidal waves which have killed 73 persons and left 20,000 homeless.

Two new tremors were felt this morning at 4 and 6:50 o'clock, but they did not add to the damage.

With earth tremors of varying intensity jarring the terrain throughout the republic about every five minutes, fear has gripped the inhabitants, particularly about Bahia Escocesa (Scotch Bay) in the north.

Customers Leave Floating Casino

Los Angeles, Aug. 10.—(AP)—All was quiet aboard the gambling ship Bunker Hill today as the hectic controversy involving Tony Cornero Stralla, water taxi operators and law enforcement officers moved to federal court.

George Garvin, operator of the water taxi service and co-defendant with Stralla on charges of conspiring to violate state gambling laws, filed a petition for injunction against city and county law enforcement officers. A hearing was set for today in U. S. Judge William C. Mathes' court.

The last of Stralla's 800 customers, stranded on the gambling boat when water taxi service was cut off, were brought to shore last night under an informal truce. Five of Garvin's taxis, among those impounded by Long Beach authorities on charges of solicitation of gambling, were released to make the trips.

Garvin's petition asserted that District Attorney Fred N. Houser and other local authorities interfered with foreign commerce and violated admiralty laws in impounding his water taxis as evidence.

He contended the Bunker Hill is anchored outside California's jurisdiction. The ship is stationed 7.8 miles off the Los Angeles harbor lighthouse.

The planes were from the Lake Charles, La., army air base.

Tales of heroism and miraculous escape from almost certain death were told.

Frank Seifert, Great Falls, was seated in an automobile near the horse barn. Nearer the barn was a man, handicapped with a recently broken leg and with a small boy in his arms. When the area was suddenly engulfed in flames and smoke, the injured man attempted to run with the boy and fell.

Seifert rushed into the inferno surrounding the pair, and rescued them. All escaped serious burns or injury.

Another man drove through the flames with parts of the disintegrated bomber on his burning car, shoved his passengers out to safety while he drove, and finally jumped to safety himself.

Pres. Signs Revised Social Security Bill

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The old age and survivors tax was frozen at 1 per cent today for another year, as President Truman signed legislation making broad revisions in the social security program.

More federal aid amounting to about $150,000,000 annually, is provided for needy persons in all states.

The legislation, one of the last acts of the 79th Congress, maintains social security tax at 1 per cent against employees pay and employers' payroll, thus preventing an automatic rise January 1 to 2.5 per cent.

Honest, Or Else!

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 10.—(AP)—The November general election "must be honest or else" World War II veterans warned today as they made plans to oppose what they called "political machines" in two counties.

While veterans met in Yell county to make plans for running their own slate of independent candidates in November, another meeting in Independence county asked for a recount of ballots in the July 30 preferential primary.

And in Hot Springs county, an ex-GI candidate for sheriff advertised that "if there are any irregularities (in the election) the Tennessee incident will be held in comparison with what will happen here."

He referred to the election night riot at Athens, Tenn., where ex-GI's fought a six-hour battle with sheriff's deputies over possession of ballot boxes.

The veteran candidate, William Weaver, charged in a political advertisement that the county clerk was "custodian" of the ballot boxes in Hot Springs county.

RUSSIA WANTS AUSTRIA LOOT

Threaten Dismemberment Of Country Over Property Fight

Vienna, Aug. 10.—(AP)—A Soviet ultimatum on the nationalization of industry threatened today to dismember Austria, as the Russians bluntly reserved the right to invalidate four-power control by following a separate set of rules for their own occupation zone.

Col. Gen. L. V. Kurrasov, Soviet commander in Austria, called for a showdown by demanding an allied veto of Austrian nationalization legislation as an unfriendly act, after having supported it on a general communist principle until disavowed.

Gen. Mark V. Clark, U. S. commander in Austria, refused to comply with the Russian demand. He announced flatly that he would withhold his veto. Unless all four commanding generals veto legislation, it becomes effective by default in 31 days.

When Kurrasov saw that the American veto would be withheld, he declared:

"Russia reserves the right in the Soviet zone of Austria to take such action as it deems necessary to safeguard Soviet property."

If the Russians refuse to permit Austria to carry out the nationalization law in the Soviet zone, they probably will be charged in the Allied control council with violating the allied control agreement, which provides that the various commanders may take independent action in their respective zones only in the absence of combined action by the council.

U. S. DEMANDS ROMANIA STOP PERSECUTION

Strong Protests Over Harassing U. S. Employees In Bucharest

Washington, Aug. 10.—(AP)—The United States protested strongly to the Communist dominated government of Romania against detention of Romanian citizens employed by the U. S. military and political missions at Bucharest.

Diplomatic officials who disclosed this today consider the attempt to be part of a Romanian government to smash political opposition of a kind which Britain and the U. S. accept as democratic.

The incidents go back to last May 26 and involve three persons. On that night Romanian government agents arrested Miss Elvira Olteanu, a clerk in the American political mission headed by Minister Burton Y. Berry.

Despite persistent efforts by Berry to obtain her release, Miss Olteanu is still held incommunicado reportedly on a charge that she gave some sort of information to the United States.

Also held incommunicado is Teodor Malicosteanu, an employee of the military mission headed by Brig. Gen. C. V. R. Schuyler, American representative of the allied control commission.

Another incident that night was the disappearance of Alexandru Stanesco, another employee of the commission.

GARDNER SEES CRITICAL ERA

Points Out Post-War Dangers To National Economy

Shelby, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Under Secretary of the Treasury O. Max Gardner said today that the first four post-war years could be as critical as the war years and that current purchasing power, maintained through high levels of wages and reasonable profits, is the key to a sound and prosperous economy.

Gardner, former North Carolina governor who is spending a short vacation at his home here, told the Shelby Star in an interview that any reversal of the present trend of expanding purchasing power would be bad social policy as well as bad business.

The under secretary said that the national budget should be balanced as quickly as possible. There are just two ways, he said, of doing this: increased taxation or reduced expenditures.

"It would be impractical and impossible to increase our tax burden in peace time," he said. "One out of every four dollars of our national income of $160 billion dollars is today paid to the federal government in taxes. A 40 billion dollar tax bill is too much."

"In recent months we have all been conscious of the difficulties that arise in reconverting a great economy like ours from production for war to production for peace. There have been bottlenecks in materials, labor shortages, some work stoppages, and considerably uncertainty about prices. I am focusing on one or the other or all of these troublesome aspects of reconversion we tend to lose sight of the controlling fact that the production of civilian goods and services is running at the highest levels ever attained in this country," he said.

Mr. Truman told his news conference yesterday he was making a categorical statement when he said that Axtell, whom he supported in a successful primary race last Tuesday against incumbent Rep. Roger C. Slaughter, would be elected.

Republicans generally are not conceding any such result. An officer of the national committee said unusual efforts will be made on behalf of the party's nominee, Albert L. Reeves, Jr.

The Republican congressional campaign committee long has marked the Fifth Missouri district as a marginal area where a GOP nominee would have a fair chance of winning.

Slaughter had defeated the GOP nominee there by only 1,080 votes in 1942 in an off-year election like the one in November. Slaughter's margin was 5,193 votes in 1944.

The President engaged in some sparring yesterday with Rep. Clarence Brown (Ohio), who is directing the GOP's congressional campaign.

Brown earlier had attacked Mr. Truman's recent budget estimates as misleading.

The President said that if it had not been for the GI terminal pay bill—an expenditure he didn't know about when he made his first estimates—the budget would have been balanced.

He noted that the House voted unanimously for the measure, adding that Brown had to accept the responsibility for the expenditure along with everybody else.

In another comment on congressional actions, Mr. Truman said he agreed with the Democrat, official party headquarters organ, that the

Vishinsky Attempts To Hold Floor Against Will Of Chairman; Molotov Stalks Out For Second Time On Hearing Own Words Used Against Him; Italy Protests Treaty Terms

By LYNN HEINZERLING

Paris, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Italy told the peace conference today that the proposed treaty granting her peace was "extremely harsh" and jeopardized Italy's very independence.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi spoke the case for the former Axis power before the conference after a morning session devoted to an inconclusive debate over an invitation to Albania to attend. In the course of that debate Russia's V. M. Molotov stalked out on an address by Constantin Tsaldaris, chief Greek delegate and foe of the Albanian regime.

The morning session adjourned in a scene of disorder with Molotov's assistant, Andrei V. Vishinsky, attempting to hold the floor against the will of Chairman Georges Bidault. The French president banded his chairman's gong and asked Vishinsky to respect "the privileges of the chair."

De Gasperi declared at the outset that he was speaking as an "Italian anti-Fascist."

"I feel that everything—except your personal courtesy—is against me," De Gasperi said, "above all my indignation as a former enemy, which places me as it were in the dock, and the fact I am summoned here after the most prominent among you have through laborious debates already drawn up their conclusions."

"Allow me, gentlemen," he said, "to say with that frankness that our mutual responsibilities impose on us all in this historic hour, that this treaty is a hard treaty indeed. Yet if it were truly a constructive instrument of international cooperation, the sacrifice which my country is called upon to make might find its compensation."

"Can as much be hoped for? Obviously it is in your intention, but the text of the treaty speaks a different language."

The premier and foreign minister said, however, that "it is the spirit rather than the text of the treaty which 'heartens us.'"

At the morning session Molotov listened to part of Tsaldaris' argument that Albania had "delivered support" to Mussolini's Italian regime and was not qualified to sit in the conference. Then the Greek premier mentioned Molotov by name and waved a manuscript in his direction.

Drastic Orders Close Holy Land

London, Aug. 10.—(AP)—An authoritative Whitehall source said today Britain would warn the world next week that ships of any nation, suspected of carrying illegal Zion-seeking immigrants from Europe, may be intercepted, searched and arrested by units of the royal navy.

The warning will come in an official cabinet statement on Palestine policy which will outline plans to effect a European clampdown on illegal Jewish immigration.

A spokesman at a Foreign Office news conference said today he could not comment on the reported British intention to intercept or search ships flying foreign colors, that this will be dealt with in a statement to be issued shortly.

The Foreign Office declined to say whether Britain already had shipping its intentions regarding shipping to any individual foreign powers.

"That, too, will be dealt with in the forthcoming statement," the spokesman declared.

Babson Discusses Employer-Employee-Consumer Relations

Gloucester, Mass., August 10.—"How much longer will it be before we can enjoy our rightful standard of living?" This summarizes the questions with which I am being bombarded. My answer is: "When all people change their selfish attitudes. Otherwise, I fear the now chronic employer-employee-consumer conflict will continue. Yet, isn't the employer also an employee and aren't both consumers? So why not stop the silly bickering and settle down to do a good job and profit from the results?"

Labor's Blame

Much of the blame for the decline in productivity experienced in many industries since the war properly belongs to labor. The extensive development and use of machines by American workmen enabled the United States to produce two-fifths of the world's industrial output prior to the war. Yet, labor unrest, manifest not only by strikes but also in practices to cut down output while on the job, reduced output per man-hour nearly 43 per cent from 1938 to 1945!

In the long ago when the family made its own clothing, provided its own food and built its own shelter, mere survival demanded that each member contribute his share of labor. Reduce our complex economic structure to the simple terms of primitive society and the reason for the current economic muddle is crystal clear and the solution obvious. High productivity is the only method of assuring ourselves of a superior standard of living.

Employer's Responsibility

Research should play a major part in every employer's program. He must at all times keep abreast of additional sources of materials, new ideas and modern methods. He must be ready and willing to make innovations which will provide employees with the methods and tools necessary to produce more, and better goods. And he must merit the respect and confidence of workers.

The pressing need for commodities and tools of all kinds promises a golden era for producers in the months immediately ahead. Long and hard usage have rendered much equipment beyond repair and ready for the scrap pile. Money is plentiful and people are in a mood to buy. Now is the time to produce and re-release those necessities—yes, and even luxuries—which contribute so much to the well-being and happiness of the people of the world.

Consumers Must Play Their Part

Buyers Say Leaf Is Poorly Cured

Raleigh, Aug. 10.—(AP)—W. P. Hedrick Jr., executive secretary of the North Carolina Tobacco Advisory Council reported today that some of the large tobacco companies had complained to him that "much of the tobacco being offered for sale on tobacco warehouse floors is not sufficiently dried out."

The tobacco firms complained especially that the tobacco stems are not dried. Hedrick said, and this is causing much trouble in the tobacco redrying plants where the heat has to be turned so high that it darkens the tobacco.

Hedrick said it was believed that many farmers are not running the heat in their curing barns high enough to cure out the stems or are not leveling the weed in the barns long enough for the stems to dry.

"The tobacco companies are finding this condition prevalent over the entire border belt," Hedrick added, "and it may have a tendency to reduce the sales value of the tobacco on the warehouse floors."

Kiwanians Sing Minstrel Songs

By CHESTER WALSH When Minstrel Impresario Eli (to the bare walls) Bloom took over the program for Ray McKenzie (who was absent) at last night's Kiwanis supper meeting the members anticipated fun, and they had it—plenty of fun!

Bloom, who was presiding for President Ed Rawl, presented the minstrel "in miniature," with James Ray Pittman leading the singing Bryan Brown and Roy Coburn, in costume, did an excellent number; Hunter Keck and Xerly Bostic sang; Bloom explained to Police Chief Jim Tanner why he is not the "Rev. Jim Tanner," and then there was singing as only Kiwanians can sing with Dr. S. M. Crisp and Dr. L. L. Moore doing the solo parts. It was a great meeting, with fellowship featuring it. A minister made a hit when he told of the choir director, practicing an anthem, warned the tenors: "You tenors stay out until we come to the words, to the 'gates of hell,' and then you come in."

James Ray Pittman's poem, "You Ain't No Kin To Pappa," was a big hit. Judge J. W. H. Roberts, chairman of the Underprivileged Child Committee, reported to the meeting that the committee was recommending Calvin E. Venters for one of the Kiwanis scholarships at ETCG.

Rodney Roberts, son of the judge, was a guest. J. A. Collins will have charge of the program next Friday; Lee Roy Bell will be program chairman August 23, and Chester Walsh will be master of ceremonies at the Friday, August 30 supper meeting.

President Ed Rawl announced that he will be host to the Kiwanis officers and directors at the Kelvinator Camp on Pamlico River on Saturday, August 17. The guests will spend the weekend at the camp.

Quake Ordeal . . .

Not a single inhabitant remains in the shattered coastal towns of Matanzas, Puerto Plata, Batey, Samana and Sanchez, where there was a swift evacuation following Sunday's earthquakes. Many refugees from the destroyed towns are living in trees and caves in nearby hills. The Red Cross has set up refugee camps in the northern provinces but present accommodations are not sufficient for the thousands of homeless.

(Travelers arriving in San Juan Puerto Rico, from the Dominican republic, said virtually all of the houses in Matanzas, which had a population of 1,000, were washed destruction was equally severe in Julia Molina and San Francisco de Macoris.)

GREENVILLE "Best Tobacco Market in the State"

GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, AUGUST 6, 1946: As the Greenville tobacco market will open its 1946 season on August 19th, this is the final crop report which you will receive from me this season.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the many farmers, farm owners and businessmen, who, from their widely scattered positions over the entire Eastern Bright Belt, have unfailingly answered every questionnaire sent to them. Upon their experience and knowledge of crop conditions the accuracy of these overall reports have been based. To them, as individuals, goes the credit for this fine accomplishment.

Despite unusually heavy rains during the months of June and July, and which caused great apprehension throughout the entire tobacco industry, from the farmer to the manufacturer, a careful survey reveals that the probable loss to the Eastern Bright Belt will be less than 50 million pounds from water and storm damage.

The greater part of this loss has occurred in a narrow belt which runs along the eastern seaboard, and which includes the following counties: Beaufort, Lenoir, Currituck, Pamlico, Craven, Jones, Washington and Onslow. To the west and to the north of this narrow rain and storm damaged strip, the area covered by the Eastern Bright Tobacco Belt has produced as pretty a crop as has been seen for several years. Somewhat light in weight as compared with last year's crop, it has a quality and richness of color which is outstanding.

At the time of the writing of this report the tobacco farmers of the Eastern Bright Belt have made excellent progress in housing and curing their crop. With the exception of Hertford, Bertie, Halifax and Johnston counties the crop will be about housed by the end of this week. Even in these counties, which are a little late, the entire crop, with the exception of a few scattering fields, will be housed by the 17th of August. Growers report that they are well pleased with the quality and coloring of the curings which are now coming from their barns, and it is the general belief that this year's crop in the entire Eastern Bright Belt (with the exception of the storm damaged strip which was mentioned above) is a better crop than past year's, both as to quality and as to color.

If I were permitted to say only one thing to you in making my last crop report of the season, I would without hesitation choose the one thing that I believe would be the most benefit to you. As you know, it has made little difference for the last three years how you handled or graded your tobacco crop. However, this year, with the ceiling on tobacco actually removed, it is our sincere opinion that if you will use more care in the handling of your tobacco crop, in freeing it from strings and other foreign material, in tying it into neat bundles, which have been more carefully graded, you will receive more money for your crop as a whole. You will thereby offset some of the high costs you have had in producing, housing, curing and marketing this year's crop. If you make it look pretty, it will pay you extra dividends.

When you come to Greenville this fall, I hope that you will make my office your office and if I can be of service to you during the marketing season I hope that you will call on me.

The Greenville batters were credited with nine hits, but picked up only one run in the first and remained scoreless until the final inning.

Owen Hopeful Of
Reinstatement
Cincinnati, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Certainly barred from American organized baseball this season, repentent Mickey Owen still was optimistic today he would escape the official five-year suspension placed against him when he bolted to Mexico.

The former Brooklyn catcher, after a conference in Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler's office said he had received neither encouragement nor discouragement and that he still had hope that "I can be reinstated."

Owen was told, however, by Harold (Muddy) Ruel, Chandler's special assistant, and Walter Mulbry the commissioner's secretary, that baseball laws prohibit reinstatement of an ineligible player between August 1 and October 31.

Under American baseball laws the 30-year-old player said he was informed, he has the right to appeal to President Ford Frick of the National League for reinstatement. He said he would do so.

military mission. His fate is a mystery. Privately Romanian officials are reported to have advised American diplomats that trial would arouse hostility to the U. S. and therefore ought to be secret.

Mental Examination
Miami, Fla., Aug. 10.—(AP)—David Joseph Watson, 21, Negro cook, of Norfolk, Va., held in connection with the slaying of Benjamin Leroy Hobbs, of Nebo, N. C., aboard the U. S. Destroyer Stribling at Key West, Fla., will be brought to the naval air station hospital here for a mental examination, the Miami office of the FBI said today.

Watson has been held in the navy brig at Key West since Joseph E. Thornton, Miami FBI chief, announced Thursday that the cook had admitted he killed the 19-year-old sailor on "a night of terrible heat."

Pending results of the mental examination, decision as to whether the prisoner will be tried in federal court or at navy court-martial will be withheld, Assistant United States District Attorney H. O. Enwall said after a conference with FBI officials.

ALBANIA READIES—18. M
New York, Aug. 10.—(AP)—Albania's representative was preparing a documented reply today to a seven-phase questionnaire submitted to him by the United Nations membership committee in an effort to determine whether that Balkan country can qualify for admission to the U. N. as a peace-loving state.

Col. Tuk Jakova, Albanian minister without portfolio, was ready with his answers to the charges laid against his country by neighboring Greece, which stands in bitter opposition to Albania's membership application.

To meet a question raised by the United States, Jakova also was committed to a course leading to resumption of multilateral treaty and diplomatic relations with the outside world.

The Albanian already has made his position known on these controversial phases, but he was authoritative reported to be concerned still with the drafting of an explanation of a reported war-like gesture against the British Royal navy last spring.

The main item in Britain's tentative opposition to Albania is contained in one question asking Albania to provide information on the report that two British warships were fired upon May 15 by Albanian coastal batteries.

yard par three 15th. That score and ace and Hogan's round of 69 split the tournament wide open as the halfway mark pacesetters, Stan Leonard of Vancouver and Ellsworth Vines of Chicago, blew sky high.

Vines, who started the day two strokes in front of Leonard with a two-round count of 136, soared to a six-over-par 78 to drop into a 3-way tie for fourth place and Leonard was even worse as he zoomed to a tanning 82, 10 strokes over par. It gave him a 54-hole tally of 220 and sent him skidding into sole possession of 13th place.

Belcher's body was taken to Phillips' Funeral Home.
