MEAT FAMINE FALSE RUMOR SAYS PORTER

Tells Housewives Quit Worrying About Meat For Winter

Washington, Sept. 14 (AP)—OPA Chief Joseph P. Porter told housewives today to quit worrying about a "meat famine later on this fall and winter."

"The much-publicized 'meat famine' will be disclosed for the irresponsible rumor that it is," Porter said in his weekly radio discussion of food and price matters. He also promised the meat ceiling prices will be maintained, and will be enforced.

From government food experts meantime, came an estimate that the sugar price increase approved by OPA will add from $160,000,000 to $200,000,000 to food budgets in the next 12 months. The increase amounts to about two cents a pound in retail stores.

Porter said a shutdown of some meat plants and lack of meat at some butcher shops was a natural result of the big rush to market livestock while prices were uncontrolled.

"We're paying now for the abnormal glut of meat we had in July and August," he said. "That was the time when the sky was the limit as far as prices were concerned. Meat supplies should be 'fairly good,' Porter predicted 'after we get over the hump of the next six or eight weeks.'

Promising a stiff fight against black markets, Porter said some OPA agents "will work in butchers' aprons right behind the counters of retail stores, with an ear open for any illegal shenanigans by meat suppliers."

"It will be pretty tough on the chiseler," he added. "The new sugar ceiling is effective Wednesday."

The increase, which OPA previously had said was probable, became definite last night when it announced ceiling increases of one and one-half cents a pound for cane and beet sugar and 1.37 cents for cane sugar at the farmers' level.

When wholesalers and retailers pass this on, housewives will be paying 9 to 10 cents a pound for refined sugar at the grocery, compared with present national retail averages of 7 to 8 cents, the agency said.

Also on Wednesday, the price decontrol board will take another for-

New Backing For UN "Free Press"

Lake Success, N. Y., Sept. 14 (AP)—Forty-one U. S. governors threw their support today behind the request of the American Society of Newspaper Editors that the United Nations General Assembly adopt a covenant to establish world freedom of information and of the press.

The specific program on which ASNE asks the U. N. assembly to take concrete action "this fall calls for establishment of the principle of freedom of the press among all nations. It further aims to discourage or prevent government or private monopoly of media of information."

The program has been endorsed by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, Prime Minister Clement Attlee of Britain, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek of China, Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts of South Africa, and Gen. Douglas MacArthur, administrator over conquered Japan.

The editors reminded the Economic and Social Council of the deep interest of President Truman and the late President Roosevelt in press freedom as evidenced by them in communications to ASNE.

"Squatters" In London

Housing Shortage In Britain Used As A Lever By Communist Party To Oust Socialist Government In Next Elections; A Clever Political Maneuver

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

An observant Florida editor has asked me for an interpretation of London's Communist-supported squatter campaign which has produced the astonishing though colorful spectacle of hundreds of vacant luxury apartments in London being occupied by homeless invaders under expert guidance.

Well, that's a good question, because as I see it this movement has been taken over by British Communists in a smart political maneuver. It is calculated to embarrass the present Socialist government and to lay the ground-work for its defeat in the next general election which under normal circumstances would be held four years hence.

To get the full import of this move, one must understand what happened in the general election a year ago. Britain then amazed the world by turning out the conservative government, headed by the famous war leader, Winston Churchill and electing a Labor (Socialist) House of Commons.

Now that didn't mean that the

AFL Sailors And Longshoremen Generally Observe CIO Picket Lines; ILA President Joseph Ryan Terms NMU As Communist; Refuses Conference With Curran

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

CIO seamen today shouldered the prolonged shipping strike but in one instance AFL longshoremen, who had supported fellow AFL mariners until their walkout was ended yesterday, crossed CIO picket lines.

About 30 members of the International Longshoremen's Association walked through a National Maritime Union picket line at a New York City pier. There was no disturbance.

However, about 200 longshoremen at the pier refused to go to work despite President Joseph P. Ryan's plea that:

"There's no need here for a picket line. Come on, if you want a day's pay, go in and get it."

Ryan termed the MU a "CIO commy group" and said:

"They know they are going to get the same raises. They are just trying to pretend they are getting something for the men, something that was won by the AFL unions."

Asked if he would confer with NMU head Joseph Curran, the longshoremen's leader said, "You can't do anything with Communist groups."

However, in Baltimore, William Renta, port agent for the AFL Seafarers International Union, which with the AFL sailors of the Pacific ended its nationwide strike, said that AFL seamen in the Maryland port expected today to cross picket lines established by the CIO men.

His announcement came several hours after Paul Hall, port agent in New York for the SIU-SUP, said in announcing the end of the AFL strike that AFL members would refuse to cross CIO picket lines.

The AFL withdrew all its east coast and gulf coast pickets last night with this announcement:

"The operators informed us of

UNIONS DRIVE TO WIPE OUT WAGE CONTROL

Seamen's Decisions Surs Move; William Green Leading Attack

Washington, Sept. 14 (AP)—The White House decision in the seamen's wage dispute spurred a fresh drive by some labor unions today for relaxation or scrapping of wage controls.

Mixed with it were demands that public and industry members resign from the Wage Stabilization Board. They turned down an inflationary wage increase which AFL maritime workers finally secured through White House amendment of the stabilization rules.

The four members indicated to reporters, however, that they have no intention of stepping out so long as President Truman stands firm on the position that Stabilization Director John R. Steelman's decision in the seamen's case did not upset stabilization policy. Mr. Truman made a statement to that effect at a news conference.

William Green, AFL president, led the attack on the board.

"The Wage Stabilization Board now stands repudiated and disgraced," he said in a statement. "Its public and industry members have forfeited the confidence of the public and labor and should resign at once."

John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers Journal commented editorially:

"WSB is done. Board members should close up shop and turn in their resignations."

Unionists have complained frequently that wages have been held down but prices have not, CIO President Philip Murray, in a speech this week at Milwaukee, was critical of all wage stabilization.

From R. J. Thomas, vice president of the CIO United Automobile Workers, came a declaration that his union will demand higher wages if the maritime decision sets a new and higher wage formula.

"But first, we want to make sure that the formula arrived at to settle the seamen's strike is higher than the 18 1-2 cents an hour formula which settled the auto strikers," he added at a news conference in Philadelphia.

The 18 1-2 cents has been a WSB yardstick for measuring allowable wage increases under the stabilization policy laid down in an order from President Truman last February.

Steelman's decision gave AFL "able-bodied" seamen basic raises of $2.50 a month on the West Coast and $2.75 in the east. How much (Continued on Page Three)

State Demo's To Begin Campaign

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 14 (AP)—The Democratic party will open state campaign headquarters in Raleigh on September 23 and immediately thereafter will begin a "vigorous campaign" aimed at victory in the November general election, William B. Umstead of Durham chairman of the State Democratic executive committee, has announced.

Umstead said that the State organization "is anxious to render assistance in counties where the opposing Republican party has a slate of candidates in the field." He said that in accordance with custom political rallies would be held in every congressional district at which party leaders and officials will speak.

The reappointment of Leroy Martin of Raleigh as secretary of the state executive committee also was announced.

Bevin Orders Cities To Resist Squatters

London, Sept. 14 (AP)—Minister of Health Aneurin Bevin called upon municipal authorities throughout England and Wales today to resist squatter invasions. Scotland Yard assigned picked details of police and plainclothesmen to guard vacant London buildings.

Bevin's letter reiterated the "very serious view" taken by the government of the Communist-sponsored squatter movement and prescribed immediate eviction to clear premises illegally occupied.

While more than 1,500 men, women and children prepared for a weekend "sit-it-out" campaign in London, Communist leaders organized a mass demonstration in Hyde Park for tomorrow.

Babson Discusses Selecting Stocks

Babson Park, Mass., Sept. 14—We hear much about stock market "averages," especially the Dow-Jones Industrial Averages which are pretty much the standard. This average was 381 early in 1929; it fell to 41 in 1932; since then it has gradually crawled back (with a break in 1937) to 212 a high in May, 1946. Since then there has been a decline, so that the average today is about 181.

Wallace's Speech Perturbs Peace Delegation In Paris

G. O. P. Looses Blast Against Policy Split

Assert Truman Angling For Political Advantage Over Issue Of Russian Relations; Spreading Reaction Over Wallace

Washington, Sept. 14 (AP)—Republicans accused President Truman today of angling for political advantage on the issue of American relations with Russia and invited him to choose between Secretary of State Byrnes and Secretary of Commerce Wallace as his exponent of foreign policy.

As G. O. P. members loosed blasts of criticism, there were widening repercussions elsewhere from the President's prior approval of Wallace's Thursday night plea at a New York political meeting for a softer policy toward Russia and his endorsement of the sphere-of-influence idea previously repudiated by Byrnes.

1. It became clear that Mr. Truman has a full-sized cabinet split over foreign policy on his hands.

2. Some uncertainty over policy was evidenced at the State Department. Undersecretary Will L. Clayton told a news conference the Wallace speech was not cleared with the department and that it was not quite clear to him just what the President intended by his approval. Any clarification, he said, would have to come from Mr. Truman.

3. In London, a spokesman said the British foreign office was particularly surprised at Wallace's criticism of "British imperialism." Radio commentators there took that not and also criticized Wallace's warning against close identification of American foreign policy with that of Great Britain.

There was no doubt from the Republicans' reaction that they believed Mr. Truman had, from the political standpoint, made a major blunder.

From Senators Brewster (R-Me.), Taft (R-Ohio) and Young (R-ND) and Rep. Clarence Brown (R-Ohio) came individual comments all

Block German Legion Heads Black Market

Frankfurt, Sept. 14 (AP)—In a move to smash black marketing by American soldiers, the U. S. army has announced it will issue scrip as the legal tender in all post exchanges and other military establishments in the American zone of Germany.

Unofficial reports said that millions of dollars obtained through black-market operations have been sent back to the states by American soldiers and civilians in the past 18 months. Recently, under a strict currency control system, the flow of illicit dollars to the U. S. has been greatly retarded, but under the scrip system, it is expected that even that leak will be plugged.

Acting simultaneously in Rome to curb military black marketing, U. S. army authorities declared a 72-hour moratorium on virtually all soldier's financial transactions.

Under the moratorium all military personnel will surrender local currency control passbooks for new certificates to be issued in denominations of five, 10, 25 and 50 cents and $1, $5 and $10.

The substitution of scrip for allied marks will involve the redemption of an estimated $70,000,000 in allied marks now believed to be credited as dollar-backed currency in the control books of more than $300,000 American and allied personnel in the U. S. zone.

By making it impossible to convert marks into dollars, or make purchases in military establishments, army officials believed that the incentive would be removed for sales of cigarettes and other U. S. supplies in the black market. Under the scrip system, marks will be useless to allied personnel, except to make purchases from German civilians who have virtually nothing to sell. From now until Tuesday the marks will be good for the purchase of meals.

De Gaulle Believed Planning To Return

Paris, Sept. 14 (AP)—Indications multiplied today that Gen. De Gaulle is planning a return to the political arena during the coming weeks which some observers believe may be critical for both France and western Europe.

De Gaulle's return would be connected with the October referendum on the new constitution for the Fourth Republic, which the provisional legislature is writing.

It appears fairly certain that De Gaulle will be at the head of the opposition to the proposed charter, which differs little from the constitution rejected by referendum in May. It reserves most of the powers of government to one legislative house.

Caught in the middle of these maneuverings is President Georges Bidault's M. R. P. party, which appears not yet decided whether to vote the constitution.

Vandenberg Calls For Unity On American Foreign Policy; Declares Speech Has Repercussions Among Conferees; Awaits Straightening Out Of Tangle In Washington

Paris, Sept. 14 (AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg called for unity on American foreign policy today, declaring "we can only cooperate with one secretary of state at a time."

"Rightly or wrongly, Paris is doubtful of this unity this morning," said the Michigan Republican, an adviser to Secretary of State Byrnes at the peace conference.

His statement, issued by the U. S. delegation, apparently was designed as an answer to the Thursday night speech by Secretary of Commerce Wallace. In that speech, which President Truman said he approved, Wallace appeared to differ in some respects from American foreign policy as outlined by Byrnes.

Peace conference sources said Mr. Byrnes had not been consulted on the Wallace speech either before or after its delivery.

Vandenberg said: "The authority of American foreign policy is dependent upon the degree of American unity behind it. Rightly or wrongly, Paris is doubtful of this unity this morning."

"Our bipartisan foreign policy during the last 18 months has had overwhelming bipartisan support in the behalf of the unselfish aim for which we fought the war. Though differing in some points, most Republicans have been glad to join with most Democrats in this presenting a united American front to the world. This is the only road to organized peace and collective security."

"I am sure most Republicans, despite inevitable differences in some aspects, will be glad to continue to seek the unity with the administration in bipartisan foreign policy on a sound American basis which rejects dictatorship by anybody, which is neither hostile or subservient to any power on earth, and which defends human rights and fundamental freedom."

"But the situation equally requires unity within the administration itself. We can only cooperate with one secretary of state at a time."

Inquiries as to whether Byrnes had telephoned President Truman to determine whether the speech heralded a change in U. S. foreign policy received this reply from an American delegation spokesman: "Any announcement of Mr. Byr-

Hotel Destroyed In Sudden Fire

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 14 (AP)—Nine persons were critically burned and several others slightly injured in a spectacular fire early today which completely destroyed the 75-room Great North Hotel. Police, fire department and hospital authorities were unable to say whether any occupants were missing, and no deaths had been reported.

The fire broke out at 12:30 a. m. in the 50-year-old brick hotel. Hotel officials could not estimate the number of guests registered in the three-story brick structure. The Hot Springs fire department said many of the guests jumped to safety or escaped down ladders. A search for possible dead in the blackened debris of the hotel was made difficult by the still smouldering wreckage.

Greek Bandits Fire On British Soldiers

Athens, Sept. 14 (AP)—The British press office said today that bandits in gendarmerie uniforms shot and killed a British soldier and wounded another when they opened fire on a truck carrying five English soldiers, with Bren and sub-machine guns near Naoussa Station.

British military authorities in that area issued a statement saying the attack was "not considered as directed primarily against the British," and pointed out that the chief of the gendarmerie was expected to return to Naoussa along the road where the action took place.

Civil Service System

Former Labor Secretary, Miss Frances Perkins, Is New Chief Civil Service Commissioner—One Of Three; This Is The Background Of The Commission

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Sept. 14 (AP)—Miss Frances Perkins, who was labor secretary all through the Roosevelt administration, has now been named a civil service commissioner by President Truman.

There are three commissioners. The other two are men. They run the government's vast civil service system with its more than 2,280,000 employees.

This makes the 64-year-old Miss Perkins the No. 1 woman in the Truman administration just as she was in the Roosevelt administration. Mr. Roosevelt made her labor secretary in 1933.

But this, for her, will be a quieter job than the labor spot. There she was criticized often by men labor leaders who kept talking about the need for a man as labor secretary. (It so happened that she got out before the great strikes of the past year broke. Nothing like that happened during her time as labor secretary. But the problems weren't the same then.)

Strength FOR THE DAY

HOW THE CHURCH GREW.

It is a well known fact that the Christian Church in the first few centuries grew by leaps and bounds, but we are not entirely sure how this growth came about. We can be almost certain, however, that most of it was brought about by the simple testimony of humble people bore before their neighbors and others with whom they came in contact. A great religious revival went on for a number of generations, but there does not appear to have been anything corresponding to the modern revival with its sensational features. The movement was quiet, intense, profoundly moving, but there was little about it and probably no great public meetings. It had about it a dignity and wholeness that is often lacking in modern evangelistic campaigns.

The church is evidently intended to be evangelistic in its appeal all the time and is not supposed to leave its missionary gatherings and its evangelistic campaigns to special seasons. Every time a minister preaches he should appeal to the hearts and wills of his hearers. Every Christian should feel it a duty to bear witness to his religion and to be willing to exert himself to persuade people to join the church and to surrender their lives to the requirements of the Gospel.

This was the way the ancient church grew, and it is the only way the modern church can expect to grow.

WASHINGTON LETTER

MISSIONS GOING AND COMING

Washington—Hand-picked agricultural missions are being sent to the Philippines and China by the U. S. Departments of State and Agriculture.

The missions, sent at the invitation of the two countries, expect to be gone about five months. Another such agricultural mission is already at work in the Middle East.

Members of the missions will collaborate with the agricultural scientists, educators and administrators of the two governments. Later they expect to give advice on the formation of national agricultural programs and what is needed to make them workable.

In both instances the missions will determine advisability of immediate actions which might be taken on emergency problems in order to restore the war-damaged agricultural economy of the countries.

The agricultural personnel is selected by (take a deep breath) the Technical Collaboration Branch of the Office of Foreign Agricultural Relations, Department of Agriculture, in collaboration with the Department of State and the host governments.

The mission to the Philippines will be headed by Leland Everett Call, dean of agriculture and director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, Kansas State College. Also announced as a member of this group is John H. Deamont, director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, University of Hawaii.

Dr. Claude Barron Hutchinson, vice president of the University of California and dean of the College of Agriculture, head of the Chinese mission. His activities abroad have won him many awards. From Czechoslovakia he has received the Order of the White Lion, from Belgium the Agricultural Decoration, first class, and the Croix D'Or on Merite Agricole.

Other members of the mission will include authorities in agricultural economics, agricultural organization and administration and persons well acquainted with work in silk, tea, tung oil, carpet wool, soybean and fish production, agricultural and chemical engineering credit and market problems and extension work.

In addition to many other foreign students and observers who come to this country to learn the American way of getting things done, 40

French farmers are here now learning our techniques. The State Department reports they have a background of practical farm experience in their own country, an education equivalent to a high school course and a working knowledge of English or at least the facility to acquire it. Their ages range from 18 to 25 years.

Traveling expenses are provided by the French government. This government gives them a small monthly allowance plus board and room while working on the farms or in offices.

They were selected by the Confederation Generale de L'Agriculture of France. The Central Agricultural Cooperative of France, the Union of National Farmers Union and National Cooperatives Inc. of this country, organized the program.

VETERANS SOCIAL SECURITY CLAIMS

Only a very few survivors of qualified World War II veterans have filed application for the social security benefits provided by the recent veterans' amendment to the Social Security Act. Marshall Barney, manager of the Rocky Mount office of the Social Security Administration, Post Office Building reported today in urging the immediate filing of such applications by all survivors who may be eligible.

While it was not expected that there would be any large number of beneficiaries who might qualify at once for the protection extended by the new section of the law, it is felt confident that there are a number of persons in the Rocky Mount area who have not yet been in to see us and who should do so as soon as possible," Mr. Barney said.

"In the first place, there are the families of deceased veterans who are now receiving monthly social security benefits or have received lump sums." Mr. Barney said. "These people may file for a re-computation of benefits, and if it is found that they would be entitled to a larger benefit under the amendment than they are now receiving or have received as the result of social security protection built up by the deceased veteran, they will receive the larger benefit.

"The second group is composed of the survivors of veterans who left no survivors insurance in the old-age and survivors insurance program and survivors who have no claimed insurance they would have been eligible to receive. They may file claim for benefits under the amendment, subject to certain qualifications. Both groups have until midnight February 10, 1947 to come to our office and file applications for monthly benefits, if they are to be sure to receive benefits retroactive to the month in which the veteran died. I strongly suggest that they take care of this matter as soon as possible."

Survivors who are now receiving Veterans Administration payments cannot qualify for benefits under the Social Security Act amendment. Mr. Barney warned, National Service Life Insurance is not considered as such a payment.

General requirements that a World War II veteran must meet in order for his survivors to qualify for social security benefits under the provisions of the amendment are: that the veteran was discharged from the armed forces under circumstances other than dishonorable within four years and a day after the act officially proclaimed the end of World War II; that the veteran had at least 90 days of active duty between September 16, 1916 and the end of the war, or was discharged because of disability or injury incurred or aggravated in service in line of duty; and that the veteran died within three years of the date of his discharge.

LABOR

There is also one other consideration which is already making this a delicate market. I refer to labor demands. Wise investors are selecting stocks which employ a comparatively small amount of labor. Hence, the ideal investment is one which would fulfill these three requirements: 1. A company with most of its assets outside of large vulnerable cities; 2. A company which would not suffer from severe inflation; 3. A company which has a comparatively small labor cost.

To me, the merchandising chains, operating in the Middle West, best fulfill these three conditions and in such I, personally, have considerable money.

Washington, Sept. 13—(AP)—The federal payroll was trimmed by 37,389 employees during July, the Ford economy committee reported today. Employment in that month totaled 2,711,165.

The War and Navy Departments released 58,732 employees, the report stated. However, it added, reductions in the war agencies were offset by increases in some of the old-line departments. The Labor Department, for example, took on 25,534 new employees.

Parents Bring Suit For Missing Infant

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 13—(AP)—Parents of a newly-born Negro baby who disappeared from the Mobile City Hospital last March 27 have filed a claim for $15,000 damages against the city. The City Commission reported today.

Joseph H. Langan, attorney and state senator-designate, filed the claim on behalf of Eugene and Mary Lee Drakeford, Negro parents of the infant, charging negligence on the part of the hospital staff.

VFW REPORTS GREAT GROWTH

Minor Rifts Between Old And Young Veterans Apparent

By Wm. P. HILL
Last night at 7:30 Cmdr. Larry Averette opened the only September meeting of VFW Post No. 7032 in the Pitt County Courthouse. Cmdr. Averette gave a report on the closing of the post's charter. The organization now has 301 members and is growing every month. N. C. State Comdr. Hayes recently commented that Greenville overseas veterans have organized the largest post of the VFW in eastern North Carolina which includes the state capital.

Next on the agenda were interesting reports on the Boston National VFW convention by delegates Harry Brown and Jack Whitley. Whitley gave a resume of the colorful parts of the grand meeting, the parades and balls, meetings with such notables as General Eisenhower, Admiral Nimitz, and Governor Maurice Tobin of Mass. Both Whitley and Brown gave descriptions of the organization and narratives of the proceedings at the convention. One could not refrain, while listening to the extraordinary resemblance between the VFW convention and national political party conventions. Whitley emphasized the grasp of World War I veterans upon the reins of World War II veterans for members. The same methods which are used to usurp the old for the new in political parties must be used by World War II veteran members to wrest part or all of the control from the VFW national officers now in power. A split between the young veterans and old veterans is even now somewhat apparent as to national organization. The faction of

Lost Money Returned By "Careful" Woman

Chicago, Sept. 13—(AP)—Sol Gertz lost $5,000 in a gutter today but got it back from a careful woman.

A clerk at his liquor store who saw Mrs. Clara Ashley pick up some "thing from the street outside the store" steered Gertz to her rooming house.

"Did you find my $5,000?" Gertz asked.

"I found $5,000," Mrs. Ashley replied calmly, "but how do I know It's yours?"

"Honest, I lost it. Just got it out of the bank—"
"Prove it."
Police corroboration and Gertz's description of the $100 bills convinced Mrs. Ashley, who accepted $200 reward and said:
"You got to be careful about these things, you know."

Wallace's Speech . . .

nes' telephone conversations with the President will have to come from the White House."

There was no doubt that Wallace's Thursday night speech, having the President's endorsement as it did, hit the American delegation here like a thunderbolt yesterday but it seemed unlikely that Byrnes would change the delegation's policy without specific instructions from Mr. Truman.

An American spokesman declined to answer when correspondents asked him if Secretary Byrnes had spoken with Mr. Truman by telephone during the night and expressed his personal opinion that Byrnes would not comment either officially or otherwise until Washington's attitude was clarified.

But correspondents continued to besiege Byrnes' office and continued to receive from members of the American delegation the same reply: "It's entirely up to Washington to straighten it out." Members of Burns' entourage were unusually guarded in their remarks.

"Squatters" . . .

The new government has turned thumbs down on Communism for home consumption, and London and Moscow have been viewing each other through dark glasses—as witness their fiery clashes in the "peace" conference and United Nations Security Council.

So shrewd British Communists saw a chance in the bad housing situation not only to cause the Socialist government trouble but to make British Communism the hero of the English working class—the man which could deliver the goods where both conservatives and Socialists had failed. Furthermore—and this is important—any move which the Socialist government might make to eject squatters would be likely to put it in the position of favoring "capital" as against the man-in-the-street.

The unhappy government is trying to unhook the seat of its trousers from the horns of the dilemma. Prime Minister Attlee and his colleagues know that they will be damned if they oust the squatters and will be equally damned if they don't.

KIWANIANS IN SONG SERVICE

Three Ministers Entertain; Civic Group A Happy Lot

By CHESTER WALSH
The Kiwanians at their weekly supper meeting last night feasted on fried chicken, said all of the "trimmings" and enjoyed one of the most entertaining programs of the year, with Vice-President Ed Bloom as master of ceremonies. He headed the program with a trio by three ministers, singing "My Wild Irish Rose." They were the Rev. Dr. Robert S. Boyd, Presbyterian and dean of the local ministers; Dr. Richard E. Hardaway, Baptist; and Dr. H. G. Haney, Disciples. They sang that old song with so much melody, euphony and sympathy that the more than 70 Kiwanians present joined in the chorus, with Mrs. Ray Tison playing the accompaniment. Chester Walsh was president, chairman for J. D. Hice. President Ed Rawl presided. When these ministers finished their song "The Sweet Peas" Gardner, star of the Kiwanis minstrel and leader of the club's quartet, said, "Our Kiwanis Quartet is through. The preacher beat us badly in their harmony." Arthur Fleming, federal internal revenue man sang a solo and received a good hand. All of the songs were dedicated to the three charter members, Marvin Blount, Guy Smith and W. H. Woodard.

Judge Dan James had as his guest his daughter, Miss Elizabeth and she enjoyed the proceedings. President Rawl announced that seven Kiwanians were stockholders in the reorganized city bus lines company as the Greenville Transit Company to provide transportation at reasonable rates for the people of the city and vicinity.

Dr. Robert S. Boyd and Arthur Tripp had birthdays and each donated a nickel for each year of their ages for the underprivileged child fund. Albert Lum won the attendance prize, given by Reynolds May. Several guests were present.

Joe Taft, chairman of the State Anniversary Banquet Committee reported that the committee was making necessary arrangements.

Arthur Lynn, a director, will entertain the officers and directors at their monthly meeting at his cottage at Atlantic Beach during the weekend of September 21—a week hence.

Incidentally, the Kiwanis Club this year is paying the expenses of a deserving boy and a girl at East Carolina Teachers College.

We now have in our possession a signed agreement to that effect, with our objectives won, the strike is called off. AFL west coast pickets were withdrawn previously.

The end of the AFL strike was made possible by the action of John R. Steelman, economic stabilizer, in amending Wage Stabilization Board regulations to permit government agencies such as the U. S. Maritime Commission to pay the same wage scale as private operators in the same field.

This upheld wage increases won by the SIU-SUP in negotiations with ship operators.

ules at stopping points for the convenience of the public.

The city of Greenville first issued a franchise to operate passenger buses here to Paul T. Ricks during the war. Wartime difficulties caused Ricks to surrender the franchise. Later it was granted to W. H. Hill of Norfolk, Va., operator of bus lines in other towns. Hill, overtaken by ill health, had to take a rest and he sold out to B. W. Ginn and B. R. Mauldin.

They have been operating the city bus line since that time. They have maintained regular schedules and the traffic has picked up to a point where the enterprise is profitable. The owners had interests elsewhere which required their time and they indicated their willingness to sell out. The company of local persons was organized, and they have the "blessings" of Mayor Jack Boyd and the city administration.

One prominent man here said last night that if the new company will maintain schedules, give good service, and post its schedules at bus stopping points, the company will meet with success and be providing a service which the city needs.

Potatoes were not known in North America until after the middle of the 16th century, when they were brought to Virginia from Peru.

Sports

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer One of the reasons Brooklyn has taken the Dodgers baseball team to its heart is because those unpredictable bums never know when they're licked.

Knocked silly by the St. Louis Cardinals in the opener of the "light-for-the-flag" series Thursday afternoon, the Dodgers yesterday punched out a 4-3 victory over the Cards, narrowing St. Louis' lead to a game and a half.

The big one comes up today with Brooklyn's Viv Lombardi primed to match lefthanded slants with St. Louis' Harry (The Cat) Brecheen. Although southpaw Joe Hatten, the starter, was credited with the victory, it actually was reliever Kirby Higbe, Thursday's "goal" who preserved the win for Brooklyn.

He replaced a wobbly Hatten on the mound in the seventh with the tying run on base and forced punch-hitter Harry Walker to crack into an inning-ending double play. Higbe had no trouble in the remaining two innings.

The Dodgers whaled the offerings of George Munger for four hits and as many runs before the Card hurler was lifted.

Unlike the National, the American League flag race is slower, with the Boston Red Sox the official 1946 champions. The Sox clinched the flag yesterday when they eked out a 1-0 win over Cleveland while the second-place Detroit Tigers, only team with a mathematical chance to overtake the Sox, were beaten by the New York Yankees 5-4. Ted Williams provided the Sox margin of victory, an inside-the-park home run.

Under the direction of Johnny Neun, newly appointed manager, the Yankees nosed out the Tigers on Joe DiMaggio's two-run seventh inning homer off Hal Newhouser.

In other American League games the Chicago White Sox took both ends of a double header from the Philadelphia Athletics 3-1 and 4-2 while Jack Kramer hurled the Browns to a 7-0 shutout victory over Washington under the lights in St. Louis.

In the National, Pittsburgh made six victories in their last seven games with a double win over the Braves in Boston 4-2 in 14 innings and 10-1. The Cincinnati Reds downed the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds 4-1 and the Phils beat the Chicago Cubs in Philadelphia by the same 4-1 score.

LaMotta Formidable At Increased Weight Chicago, Sept. 13—(AP)—Jake LaMotta, whose flailing fists have carried him to a leading contender position in the ranks of middle-weight boxers, may be able to do some business among light heavyweights, too.

ALBANIA ASKS ITALIAN BOOTY

Delegate Demands Share In Surplus War Material

Paris, Sept. 14—(AP)—Albania demanded a share of Italy's surplus war material before the military commission of the peace conference today.

Col. Hysni Kapo of Albania had been expected to oppose Greek demands for northern Epirus. Instead he turned his attack against Italy, and declared Albania expected to be counted as a full-fledged ally when Britain, France, Russia and the United States allocate distribution of Italian ships and arms that she is not allowed to keep under the peace treaty. He said Albania expected her share without having to put in a special request.

Sharply, U. S. Sen. Jesmond D. Balmer rejoined that "we do not propose to get (the Big Four) together until this request is made."

Kapo declared his country's security demanded a further reduction in Italian armed strength. Col. Hay-Ed-Din of India interposed "what is the strength set for the Albanian army, so we can judge Albania's capacity for defense?" Kapo replied that he was discussing Italy's army and not Albania's.

The Albanians also were expected to reiterate charges already made before the United Nations Security Council in New York—that Greece was creating Albanian border incidents and persecuting Albanian, Macedonian and Bulgarian minorities, in many cases forcing them to flee.

The Greeks and the Albanians still are technically at war because of the 1940 Italian assault on Greece launched from northern Epirus.

Lower Quality Leaf Hits Market Prices

Raleigh, Sept. 14—(AP)—Lower quality leaf tobacco, now coming on the market in large quantities, dropped off from $1 to $6 per 100 pounds yesterday, the federal and state departments of agriculture reported.

At the same time lugs registered gains of as much as $58 on the eastern North Carolina flue-cured tobacco markets, where common to good leaf, low and fair cutters and nondescript made up the bulk of the offerings.
