

Gov't Reported Drafting Order To End Wage Curbs

OPA And Agriculture
Dept. Consider Wiping Out Price Ceilings On All Food Items Still Under Control; Junking Of Wage Controls May Be Ordered In Near Future

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
Washington, Oct. 16.—(AP)—The government reportedly drafted an order today to speed the junking of wage controls.

Simultaneously, OPA and the Agriculture Department seriously considered wiping out price ceilings on all food items still under control.

Thus on both the price and wage fronts quick action appeared to be shaping up in line with the swifter decontrol tempo signalled by President Truman when he scrapped all federal restraints on meat.

These other developments rounded out the picture:

1. Senators studying the implications of Mr. Truman's action on meat foresaw an early end to almost all price controls, except those over rent, either by voluntary government action or by legislation.

2. The Republican Party continued that handling of the meat problem by the Democrats is a good reason for a GOP Congress.

3. While livestock prices jumped in the wake of decontrol, Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson predicted there will be more meat in butcher shops in about 10 days.
But he said the shortage will last through 1946.

4. The decontrol board, reversed on its ruling which restored meat ceilings, set to take another look at what's happening to uncontrolled prices for dairy products.

5. Government officials told a reporter privately that the United States will lift its quarantine Friday against the importation of all Mexican cattle.

Word that the White House may act by week's end to speed removal of wage curbs came from a member of the government's reconversion advisory board, which conferred yesterday with Mr. Truman on the wage-price situation.

The order reportedly in the works is understood to outline the pattern the government will follow in stripping away price controls. It probably will clarify, too, the status of the wage stabilization board, whose two industry members already have submitted resignations to Mr. Truman.

Following the reconversion board session with Mr. Truman, Eben Ayers, a White House press secretary, told reporters the panel had recommended for the second time that all wage and price controls be now scrapped, as this is compatible with economic security of the nation.

Dreamboat Flies Out Over Ocean

Paris, Oct. 16.—(AP)—The U. S.
Army B-29 Pacusan Dreamboat roared away from Orly Field at 9:38 a. m. (3:38 a. m. EST) today for a flight to Westover Field, Chicopee, Mass., which may set a new transatlantic speed record.

There were some indications that an effort would be made to beat the old mark, but Col. C. S. Irvine of St. Paul, Neb., pilot of the plane which recently made a 9,500-mile flight across the Arctic from Hawaii to Cairo, declared when questioned as to whether he intended to go after a record:

"I'm not going to push it."

Although there was no repetition today of the official ceremony performed by international timers preceding yesterday's takeoff on a record attempt which failed because of faulty spark plugs, official aircraft figures listed the Dreamboat's departure time at 9:38:49.

Observers expressed belief the Dreamboat would make the flight in about 11-12 hours, at a rate of about 315 miles per hour.

Fruits Of Nazidom

For All The Crimes In History Into Which Men Have Been Led By Avarice, The Acts Of The Nazis Provide A Match; Legal Precedent Is Sole Benefit

By J. M. PHIBBS, JR.

If America's gangsters had moved over to Washington in the '20s, taken over the government and then raised their sights to cover the whole world, their story would hardly have been more incredible than the chapter in history written by the men who died today in Nuernberg.

For all the mad doctors of fiction who practice fiendish experiments on helpless patients, for all of the despots of history who made death the only arbiter of their disputes, for all the superstition-crazed who have sought to propitiate their gods with human sacrifice, for all the crimes into which men have been led by their avarice, these men of Nazidom provided a match.

When Robert Ingersoll stood before the tomb of Napoleon he thought of all the widows and orphans he had made, of the tears that had been shed for his glory.

These Nazis who this morning swung on the Nuernberg gibbet and Hermann Goering, who poisoned himself, conspired with a man who they hoped would be a new and greater Napoleon, but who flopped. They elicted plenty of tears, but no glory.

They were at the end what they were at the beginning—gallows-bait. Even Goering, a suicide, wound up on a stretcher beneath the gallows on which his colleagues were hanged.

Legal purists probably will argue for years over whether these men should have been hanged. There are those who say, citing legal precedents which they consider solid, that these men were not convicted of acts which were not illegal when they were committed.

SEEK CLUE TO POISON DEATH

Mystery Surrounds Goering And "Es- cape" From Hang- man

Nuernberg, Germany, Oct. 16.— The mystery surrounding Herman Goering's suicide promised a thrilling sequel today to the crime story climaxed when 10 Nazi war leaders were hanged.

Goering, once second only to Hitler in the Nazi hierarchy, swallowed a potassium cyanide and died in his jail cell here last night less than two hours before he was to hang with the others, condemned October 1 by the international military tribunal.

The puzzle was: How did Goering, guarded day and night for a year and a half and repeatedly searched, get the poison—and from whom?

To give an official answer to that question, an anonymous investigating board of three was appointed today—headed by a disinterested U.
S. army officer, said Col. Richard McConnell of army public relations.

McConnell said no arrests had been made and none were contemplated immediately.

Amateur detectives joined in the hunt for clues. And one, a lawyer, claimed evidence that Goering had poison last July or knew where he could get some.

The lawyer was Dr. Friedrich Ebrhard.

Tosses Meat Shortage Blame Back To President; Says Ad- ministration At- tempting To Domi- nate American Sys- tem

Washington, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Republican National Chairman Carroll Reece tossed the blame for the meat shortage back to President Truman today and urged the election of a GOP Congress to combat what he termed the administration's "attempts to dominate the American system."

In a broadcast reply to Mr. Truman's meat decontrol address, Reece declared last night:

"The once great political alignment that followed Jefferson and Jackson and Wilson has fallen under control—at the policy-making level—of persons who believe that government should run the people, that our citizens do not have sense enough to govern themselves."

Reece also conjectured that "if Truman might restore control of meat as soon as the election of 1946 has passed into history."

"A few weeks before election, the President suspends all controls over meat. This is a familiar pattern, before election, whether it's meat or anything else in the field of government control," he said.

"I mention this phase of the situation because of the manner in which the administration has abused such powers in the past."

Reece said the Democrats executed such tactics in 1944 when certain ration controls were eased before election, with the explanation that the food situation had improved.

"So what happened? The election was held and the administration was returned to power. Almost immediately thereafter it was alleged that there had been some serious errors in the estimates of our food supplies. Controls were re-established, previous ration point values were reinstated."

Assailing what he termed Mr.
Truman's "radical advisers," the Republican chairman contended that the Democrats—not the Republicans—were responsible.

Sympathetic Worker Upsets Calculations

New Approach To Atom Control Given To U. N.

American Delegates Suggest That Inspections For Atomic Violations Should Be Conducted With "Discrimination"

Lake Success, N. Y., Oct. 16.— (AP)—An American suggestion that direct inspections for atomic violations should be carried out with discrimination to avoid antagonizing a nation or its citizens, opened today an entirely new approach to an atomic energy issue over which the United States and Russia are at odds.

"Direct inspection should not be used indiscriminately, because of the risk of antagonizing a nation or its citizens," the U. S. delegation to the United Nations atomic energy commission said in a 57-page report to the commission. "The need for a particular investigation of this type should be demonstrable, and the methods of inspection to be employed should be chosen with a view to minimizing resentment."

The United States in that report put its finger upon one of the sore spots of the atomic energy situation.
Soviet Russia contends that the American plan for controlling atomic energy, which envisions an atomic development authority with overall powers for controlling the atom, would infringe upon the sovereignty of a nation. Russia has rejected the U. S. plan and there is presently no indication that the two powers are anywhere near an agreement.

The United States has insisted that adequate inspections, in which agents of the A. D. A. could move without restriction, was necessary for satisfactory control of atomic energy. The report, released last night after being handed to members of the commission's political committee, is the first time the Americans have gone to such lengths to explain their stand.

"Care must be taken to inspect only so far as necessary to confirm or disprove suspicions," the report said. "In some cases inspection of receiving and shipping rooms and platforms might be sufficient. In other cases a thorough inspection, including taking samples from processes, might be necessary."

"In all cases the right of nationals and industries should be observed to the greatest possible extent consistent with fulfillment of the functions of the authority."

In addition, the report said it is difficult to define the amount of activity in the illicit production of atomic weapons which is significant.

"The illicit construction of a single atomic bomb by means of a decade of successful evasion (of a control pact) would not provide an overwhelming advantage if it can be assumed that it would take another decade to produce a second bomb," the report said. "But the secret production of five or more per year would be disastrous."

BYRNES PLANS

Address Set For Friday; Flying Home
On "Sacred Cow"

Paris, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes, taking off for the United States this afternoon, announced he would make a broadcast report Friday night on the 21-nation Paris peace conference.

Byrnes and his wife left Orly Field in President Truman's plane,
"The Sacred Cow," at 7:57 p. m.
(9:57 a. m. EST), after a news conference in which he expressed confidence that Yugoslavia eventually would sign the peace treaty with Italy.

The secretary said he thought that on consideration Yugoslav leaders would realize that no one power could make the peace, and would bow to the opinions of the other 20 allied nations.

Giving correspondents his views on the 21-nation peace conference which came to an end yesterday with Yugoslav delegates boycotting the final session, Byrnes said he felt the 11-week-long parley had accomplished much important work in registering world opinion on peace treaty issues.

which strips the emperor of political

More Big Bombers In AAF Than During War

Washington, Oct. 16.—(AP)—The United States has more super-size bombers today than when the war ended.

The Army Air Forces, striving to keep its long-range striking arm in readiness even though demobiliza-tion has made deep inroads elsewhere, now counts slightly more than 3,000 "very heavy bombardment" type aircraft. This number compares with 2,865 on hand when hostilities ended in August 1945.

With the exception of two experimental airplanes—the B-36 and the B-35 "Flying Wing"—all the present force of VHB's are B-29s or B-29s modifications.

AAF officials emphasize, however, that all the 3,000-plus planes make up the VHB operating force. Only part of the total actually are being flown; the remainder constitute reserve or spare aircraft. Deliveries of B-29 types still are being made to the AAF, although in minor numbers.

panding its fleet of aircraft capable of carrying atomic bombs thousands

OPA Answers Some Questions On Rents

State OPA Rent Executive Compiles
Most Frequently Asked Questions On Controls Effective
November 1

Raleigh, Oct. 16.—With hundreds of questions being asked about the order establishing rent control in Pitt and Beaufort counties as well as the rent regulations, Frank Mc-Innis, State OPA Rent Executive, today compiled the following questions from those most frequently asked.

McInnis said that many residents of Greenville and Washington have written the state OPA office concerning the rent regulations.

1. Q. When will rent control be effective in Pitt and Beaufort counties?

A. Rent control will go into effect on November 1, 1946.

2. Q. Will landlords be notified to reduce rents to July 1, 1945 level?

A. No. Rents should be reduced automatically without notice.

3. Q. What should a tenant do if his landlord demands more rent than was being paid on July 1, 1945?

A. Landlords are prohibited from demanding or receiving more rent than was charged on July 1, 1945 and tenants are not allowed to pay more than the legal rent at that date.

4. Q. Are there any conditions under which a landlord may charge more rent?

A. Yes. If a substantial change has been made in the housing accommodation—such as the addition of a new bathroom, garage, or a complete rehabilitation of the quarters—he may be entitled to more rent than was charged on July 1, 1945.

5. Q. Can a landlord evict a tenant if the tenant refuses to pay more than the legal rent?

A. No.

6. Q. Under what conditions may a landlord evict a tenant?

A. There are several grounds under which a tenant may be evicted; first, if the tenant refuses to pay the legal rent; second, if the landlord, in good faith, personally wishes to occupy the living quarters.

7. Q. What type of notice must a landlord give a tenant?

Supreme Court Will Hear Ewing's Appeal

Fayetteville, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Decision to appeal the conviction of W. L.
C. Ewing on manslaughter charges for the slaying of his wife to the state supreme court has been reached, James R. Nance, defense attorney, has announced.

After a long-drawn trial in Cumberland Superior Court, last month, Ewing, formerly a powerful figure in state and local politics, was sentenced by Judge R. Hunt Parker to 18 to 20 years in prison. Mrs. Ewing died last March 13 from a blow on the head.

The appeal is expected to reach the Supreme Court in May 1947 and meanwhile Ewing is free under $25-000 bond.

Goering Cheats Hang- man With Cyanide Capsule; Ten Other Ringleaders Of Naz- ism Die At End Of A Rope; Ribbentrop Prayed For Under- standing Between East And West

Nuernberg, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Hermann Goering cheated the hangman with a capsule of cyanide last night but 10 other ringleaders of the punctured Nazi Reich died at the end of a rope in the dark hours before dawn today in payment for their crimes against the world.

Goering, pudgy No. 2 man of a fascist regime intended by Adolf Hitler to last 1,000 years, twined out his life in a prison cell only a few hours before his condemned henchmen plunged through the banging traps of two gallows in a grimy building 35 yards away.

By his manner of dying, Goering —flamboyant to the last—not only took the last spotlight away from his colleagues but created a breathtaking mystery which had army intelligence officers laboring in an effort to determine how he got, concealed and took the poison.

Every one of the 10 men approached death bravely once he entered the room and saw the grim apparatus of the gallows. Some cried and approached hysteria before they entered.

The only one to create a scene at the scaffold was Streicher who defiantly shouted his last "Hell Hitler" and then snarled at an American officer: "The Bolsheviks will hang you one day." He also was the only one to speak after the black hood concealed his face, murmuring: "Adele, my dear wife."

The only one of the 10 who made any final declaration, Rosenberg uttered only the monosyllable: "No." Then he died.

Ribbentrop, the man who engineered the Nazi-Russian pact which brought World War II, uttered his final words in distinct, unflintering German.

"God save Germany," he said.
"My last wish is that Germany realize its unity and that an understanding be reached between the east and the west. I wish peace to the world."

Kittel mounted the scaffold as though he were climbing a stand to review his troops. Called upon for his last words he said:

"I call on God Almighty to have mercy on the German people. More than two million German soldiers went to their deaths for the Fatherland and before me. I follow my sons." (He lost two sons in the war.)

Witnesses described the last moments of the other men as follows: Kaltenbrunner, dueling scars on his cheeks shining blood red in the glaring light, declared: "I have loved my German people and my Fatherland with a warm heart. I have done my duty by the laws of my people and I am sorry my people were led this time by men who were not soldiers and that crimes were committed of which I had no knowledge." His last words were a German phrase meaning: "Germany."

Bodies Of Nazis Go To Nameless Graves

Nuernberg, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Two sealed vans sped out of Nuernberg prison under armed escort at 5:30 a. m. today carrying the bodies of suicide Hermann Goering and his ten hanged satellites.

Where the bodies were taken will remain a secret, Captain Samuel Binder of the security police detail declared emphatically.

They went to nameless graves somewhere, and it is a good guess part of the journey was by plane.

The trucks were protected by two jeeps filled with military police and brandishing submachine guns.
Also in the parade was a long black automobile and sitting in it was a brigadier general.

The strike was called off at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association last night after the Robson Board of County Commissioners had announced that $167,000 was available for the construction of two Negro schools and that a building program would be started as soon as possible.

Meat Shortage ABC

There Is No Meat Shortage; Plenty Of Cattle On Range But Were Held Back Until Price Controls Were Ended; Tactics Put President Truman On Spot

By JAMES MARKLOW

Washington, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Here is an ABC on the meat shortage, the worst mix-up of 1946.

There's no real meat shortage.
There's plenty of cattle, but the cattle were held back from slaughter until price controls were ended.

This holding back of cattle was made clear by the beef industry's OPA advisory committee, a committee set up to deal with the government.

R. G. Haynie, chairman of the committee, told reporters here last week that plenty of cattle were ready for market if controls were ended.

The committee itself asked the government to life controls. It said there was no shortage of cattle.

This holding back of cattle put a squeeze on the government. The government gave in.

The squeeze came at a critical time for President Truman and his Democratic administration.

The longer the meat shortage, the more impatient the American people became.

The congressional elections are less than three weeks away.

From the looks of things now, it will be a nip-and-tuck race between Democrats and Republicans to see which party controls Congress.

Could President Truman have held off lifting controls on meat until after the November elections?
That raises some questions which politicians and voters can decide for themselves.

By waiting until after the elections would he have done any good?

Tryouts for ten important roles and for bit parts are being held, and the cast and production staff will be announced soon.

Dr. Charles's assistance the Chi Pi Players have recently received following several dull seasons because of the war years. A number of members of special ability and unusual experience in the dramatic arts have become members.

Legion Post Has Regular Meeting

Pitt County Post 38 of the American Legion in regular monthly meeting last night heard reports on the county fair to be held next week, decided to hold a stag supper for all Legionnaires on the night of November 11 and transacted other matters pertaining to Legion activities.

The meeting attended by about 60 members was presided over by Commander Tom Wilson.

F. A. Jordan, chairman of the dance committee, reported that the dances held each Saturday night at the army were proving most enjoyable for those in attendance and he urged all the Legionnaires to boost and support the dances.

J. H. Corey, head of the Legion-sponsored Pitt County Fair, reported that everything was in readiness for the opening of the fair next Monday and that this year's offering from the standpoint of exhibits and midway attractions would be the best ever held in the county. The housing committee headed by T. Frank Taylor was instructed to continue its work toward plans for the erection of a Legion home on the recently purchased property adjacent to the city-county airport. The committee was given full power to act in the matter of renting part or all of the property for farming or other purposes until it is needed by the post.

Members present last night voted for the post to hold a free stag supper on the night of November 11 for all Legionnaires who had paid their 1947 dues by that time. Paul A. Scott was named chairman of the committee to make the arrangements.

The membership committee reported that over 300 members had already paid their 1947 dues and hope was expressed that the membership would reach the 1000 mark by November 11. Herman McLawhorn was congratulated by the post for having obtained more than 100 members in the present membership drive.

WILLIAMS'

'Gas House Gang' Stole '46 Series From Boston

By JACK HAND
St. Louis, Oct. 16—(AP)—The gas house gang spirit still lives in the world champion St. Louis Cardinals who have stolen the 1946 series from the favored Boston Red Sox on the sheer "hustle" of Enos Slaughter.

The score was tied at 3-3 in the eighth inning of yesterday's decisive seventh game and the full pressure of baseball's 16th million dollar series was riding heavy on every pitch when Harry Walker lined a base hit into left center. "Eno," who had singled to open the inning, catapulted off first base, rounded second and headed for third while Leon Culbertson retrieved the ball and made a quick relay to shortstop Johnny Pesky.

Making the full sweep at third while Coach Mike Gonzalez slapped the come-on sign like an excited mother hen, Slaughter lit out for the plate.

Pesky, apparently not expecting that sort of daring base-running, had dropped his arm half way, watching Walker run toward second, before he realized Slaughter was hot-footing home with the tie-breaking run. His peg to Roy Partee was too late as Slaughter topped off his magnificent heads-up running with a fine slide that scored a run worth $3,757.04 to each Cardinal shore holder.

Harry Brecheen, making a relief appearance when Murry Dickson weakened, clung grimly to the 4-3 margin through a threatening ninth to become a three-game winner. Not since 1920 when Stanley Coveleskie whipped Brooklyn three times to give Cleveland the title, had any hurler picked up three victories in a single series.

Dickson, like Brecheen a pint-sized workman, had handcuffed the Boston for six innings after giving up a run in the first on singles by Wally Moses and Johnny Pesky followed by DiMaggio's run-scoring fly to Slaughter. After Bobby Doerr led off the second with a scratch single, Dickson did not allow a base hit until the eighth when two pinch hitters drove him from the box.

Rip Russell, hitting for catcher Hal Wagner, started it with a single and moved to third when George Metkovich, batting for relief pitcher Joe Dobson, doubled.

Although Manager Eddie Dyer knew Brecheen was weary from a full nine inning victory Sunday, he had faith in the little left-hander to subdue this sudden threat. After striking out Wally Moses and taking Pesky on a fly Brecheen yielded the tying runs on DiMaggio's two-bagger.

Game was the two-run edge that Dyer had been coddling since his Cardinals knocked Dave Ferriss out of the box in a two-run fifth inning. Instead, the score was knotted with a man on second and the "mighty" Ted Williams at bat. Brecheen dug in and forced the kid to loft a high pop to Red Schoendienst.

After Slaughter's brilliant base-running on top of Walker's double, Brecheen once more had the series in his hip pocket, but this most thrilling of any closing game in several years was not over yet.

Successive singles by Rudy York and the troublesome Doerr created a delicate ninth inning situation. But Pinky Higgins forced Doerr at second, Roy Partee popped to Stan Musial and the game ended when pinch hitter Tom McBride bounced to Schoendienst for a series clinching force of Higgins at second base.

PHANTOMS OUT FOR FIRST WIN

Injuries Continue To Plague Squad; Start Four Home Games

Greenville High's thrice beaten but undaunted Green Phantoms, played the first in a series of four home games here Friday night when they entertain the Kinston Red Devils in Guy Smith Stadium.

Both the Phantoms and the Devils will be gunning for their first conference win in three starts. Greenville has lost to both Elizabeth City and New Bern, while Kinston has lost to Elizabeth City and tied New Bern.

For the last two days, Coach Farley has worked his charges on a new formation which he may put into use Friday night. However, most of the Phantom plays will probably be run from the old Phantom standby, the single wing.

Injuries continue to plague the Phantoms, Jim Lee, the only experienced back on the squad, has been confined with a bad case of tonsillitis and is definitely out of Friday's game. Several other starters have been unable to take part in the workouts this week and it is very indefinite whether they will be able to go. On the more cheerful side, many younger players are improving and the lineup will have several new faces.

The Kinston game Friday night will be the first conference game to be played at home this season and a big crowd is expected to follow the Kinston team here.

Eppes High Will Play Thursday

Eppes High will get their first taste of New Bern Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the Guy Smith Stadium.

The team went through a heavy workout yesterday and a light workout is scheduled for today when the Eppes boys will have their last practice before the game.

A number of the players are on the injured list, but most of these are expected to be ready for action Thursday. Howard Pritchard, out with a dislocated shoulder, is the only player who will definitely miss the game.

New Bern boasts of a very heavy and fast team which will be seeking another win for this week. The contest will probably be the most colorful game of the season with New Bern High featuring major-ettes and a big band.

Coach Grimes' probable starting line up: Parker and Murrell, ends; Maulsby and Ed Streeter, tackles; I. Wilks and Little, guards; Capper, center; Wm. Tucker, J. Wilks, Bob Tucker and P. Barnhill, backs. Others who will see action: C. Davis, Billy Davis, J. Gallop, and Warren Bachs; Turner, B. Hicks, Payton, Cherry, Perkins, Johnson, Move, C. Little and Hogan.

College Football

By the Associated Press
Undeclared Wake Forest and N. C. State will play for high stakes in their Southern Conference battle at Wake Forest Saturday afternoon, and Coach D. C. (Peahead) Walker of the Demon Deacons says they're looking for "one of the toughest games of the entire year."

Coming up to this traditional engagement unbeaten for the first time in its 39-year history, the two eleven could well be battling for a Southern Conference title in this weekend's tilt, as well as a share of national attention.

Coach Walker of Wake Forest recalled State's fine games in beating Duke, Clemson and Davidson, and said scouts informed him that the Wolfpack's Howard Turner and Charlie Richkus "are two of the best tailbacks we will face all year." Walker also evidenced high respect for the State line, and declared that while the Deacons had come along nicely, "we've got a lot of hard work ahead of us this week in preparation for that game."

Wake Forest also has three victories, having downed Boston College, Georgetown and Clemson in succession. The only comparative score, that against Clemson, favors the Deacons, who tripped the Tigers 19 to 7 while State won by only one touchdown, 14 to 7.

After this week, the Deacons have Duke, North Carolina and South Carolina on their conference schedule, while State has Virginia Tech, V. M. I. and Maryland.

North Carolina reported the probable loss of Sid Varney, regular right guard, in this Saturday's Tar Heel game with Navy because of a kidney injury, and Duke temporarily lost George Clark, star of the Blue Devils' win over Navy last week. Clark has a chest cartilage injury and his playing condition appeared uncertain.

Duke entertains the unbeaten Richmond Spiders Saturday.

Virginia Tech, after its pasting at the hands of William and Mary last week, quietly continued work for its meeting with Maryland at College Park Friday night.

Other Saturday games send Furman to the Citadel, Davidson to V. M. I., Wayne University to George Washington, and William and Mary against Washington and Lee at Roanoke.

Colored Orphanage Doing Great Work

At the present time there are three children from Pitt County being given a home at the Colored Orphanage of North Carolina at Oxford, Superintendent T. A. Hamme has just disclosed. These children are among the 135 Negro youths from broken homes of North Carolina who are being given food and shelter and worthwhile training and returned to the state as good citizens.

The Colored Orphanage of North Carolina was founded in 1882 through the efforts of church leaders, but aside from a small annual appropriation from the State of North Carolina, the home gets its support from voluntary contributions coming in numerous small gifts from all parts of the state. Many of them come from this county, according to Supt. Hamme.

At the present time, under the direction of the Board of Trustees of the Orphanage, and with the endorsement of Governor R. Gregg Cherry, who personally contributed $25 to the cause, a $300,000 Building Fund Campaign is being conducted in North Carolina. In recent years costs have risen out of proportion to the income received by the home and the funds received during the campaign are to be used for plant improvement. The institution needs: a girls' cottage, boys' dormitory, infirmary, recreation equipment, renovation and improvement of the present girls' dormitory and improvements in the heating system and a vocational and trades building.

There will be solicitations made through the Masons, New Farmers of America, American Legion, Baptist Organizations, the N. C. Interdenominational Ushers Association

Strength
FOR THE DAY
By EARL L. DOUGLAS

RESERVES ALL IMPORTANT
We are reading a great deal these days about the crowding of the air lanes with commercial planes. Frequently when a plane approaches a landing field which is covered with fog, the pilot has to circle the field sometimes for an hour or two before conditions make it possible for him to land. Once in a while the plane is not able to last through the nervous-racking ordeal of suspense because it runs out of gasoline.
A situation of this sort is a crisis in the career of any pilot. He faces a most trying and alarming situation. The question is, will he have enough reserve fuel to see him through to safety?
Reserves are all important when a man falls ill and the encroachments of disease or infection begin to make their mark upon his vitality.
Reserves are all important when tribulation and sorrow sweep down upon us and threaten us with catastrophe. Will we have hope enough, religious faith enough, courage enough to get through?
The point to the parable of the ten virgins is that the foolish ones were caught without a reserve of oil at a time when their lights should have been burning brightly. We cannot neglect religious faith or the building up of any of our inner resources if we have any hope of getting through profound hours of crisis.
Reserves are all important.

WASHINGTON
LETTER

U. S. TO BE HIS 'EXHIBITOR' AT LIBERIA'S 'WORLD'S FAIR'

By JANE EADS
Washington—The United States, which in 1821 sent a boat load of freed American slaves to colonize Liberia, will be a chief participant in that country's centennial and victory exposition.
The centennial will be July 26, 1947. The 1947 celebration at Monrovia, capital of Liberia, will last several weeks. The exposition will begin in 1948 and will last a minimum of a year.
Liberia has full sponsorship of the projects and hopes through them to develop widespread interest and cooperation in its progress as a modern state.

Exhibitor concessions will be let to foreign nations and to commerce, industry, education and other pursuits.
At a conference in Washington in July, 20 state governors and other American big-wigs got up a petition asking for full American cooperation in the exposition.

Walter R. Robinson, Washington architect, is technical director of the Liberian Centennial and Victory Commission, which is headed by Liberia's president, William V.
S. Tubman.

Mr. Robinson already has a staff working on the plans for the exposition grounds and buildings and for a new government center. There is to be a modernistic "theme" building, with indoor and outdoor auditorium, which will serve as a place for all functions of state at the capital.
The other structures will be used as educational institutions afterwards.

The sending of freed slaves to Liberia was under the auspices of the American Colonization Society.
Monrovia was named after James Monroe who was president of the United States at the time.

Liberia was given independence in 1847, but even since then, the State Department says, we've been considered a "sort of mama and papa" to her. The United States supported her independence and formally recognized the nation in 1832.
Raphael O'Hara LaFollette is the present U. S. Minister there.

Under the provision of reimburseable land-lease, the United States is financing the building of a $19-000,000 harbor. In March, 1943, under terms of the United States' censual areas agreement, this country built in Liberia one of the largest airports in Africa.
Liberia has long suffered from lack of money and techniques and sanitation, education and other things. Its living standard is low and the diet is inadequate. Before

REC-MANNING

the war its national budget was only $700,000 a year.

The country has a constitution similar to ours. The legislature has passed an act, subject to referendum, which will enable women to vote.

Natural rubber constitutes 93 percent of Liberia's exports. Ninety-seven per cent of the rubber is produced on Firestone's 75,000 a.cres.
Firestone employs 30,000 persons to work on the plantations. Three percent of the rubber is produced by natives.

The other seven per cent of Liberia's exports consist of palm kernels, palm oil and piassava, a type of fiber used for burning wheels.

more than just make the people region wait much longer?
2. Or would such a delay have so angered voters that they'd have turned against the Democrats in the elections?

Some of the Democratic leaders had urged the president to do something about the shortage quickly. Protests were increasing daily.

But the meat squeeze got Mr.
Truman and some of his top liberians backed into such a corner that they now reverse what they said less than a month ago. Here are examples.

Sept. 26—Mr. Truman said ending meat controls "would, in the long run, add to rather than solve our difficulties." It was common knowledge, off the record, that the meat will come to market.

Sept. 24—Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan said the interest of the American public to see markets slowed up temporarily and meat hard to find. He also said farmers should be praised for holding back their meat temporarily to fatten them up.

committed, that you must create your law before it can be broken.
They will admit that aggression by Germany was a violation of international law by the state, but say that the state is not the sum total of the individuals chosen to administer it—that the state is a corporation embodying the aspirations of millions of stockholders, and that no international law had made its managers personally responsible.
Others uphold the Nuernberg verdicts as conforming to the growth of all law. They say that in certain circumstances the community itself has the right to decide when aggravated acts have reached the point of criminality, when an example must be made, and a precedent established.

There is a field of Anglo-Saxon law known as "equity," covering litigation over situations that are not themselves covered by law.
In this field courts decide the disputes on the basis of generally accepted standards of right and wrong.

The international court at Nuernberg, in effect, applied the rules of equity. The result makes the Nazi leaders valuable for the first time—as warnings to future rulers that the world has hardened its heart against aggressors.

Rent Questions . . .

A landlord must in all cases except in cases of non-payment of the legal rent, give at least 10 days notice prior to the expiration of the rental agreement. This notice must be in writing and a copy must be sent to the Rent Control office in Greenville within 24 hours.

Q. How is the maximum legal rent established for a house which was occupied by the owner for a year preceding July 1, 1945 but is now offered for rent?

A. The maximum legal rent is the first rent charged on the quarters.

Q. How is the legal rent established for a living unit constructed after July 1, 1945?

A. The first rent charged for the dwelling unit is the legal rent.
Q. How is the legal maximum rent established for a room when the landlord puts another lodger in with the present tenant?

A. The landlord must petition the Area Rent Director for any proposed increase.

Q. Tenants with grievances will make them known where?

A. Tenants who wish to report violations should make the notice in writing to the Area Rent Control office, OPA, Greenville, N. C.

Fire Prevention To Be Full-Time Plan College Station, Raleigh, Oct. 12.—Now that Fire Prevention Week has just closed, Prof. David S. Weaver, head of the Agricultural Engineering Department at State College, points out that fire prevention should be an all-year-round job. Fire losses are running about 20 per cent ahead of last year and may almost reach 600 million dollars, a record high. Farm fire losses will probably amount to more than 100 million. Weaver says that a least half of all farm fires are due to faulty construction. When new homes and other farm buildings are planned, or when buildings are remodeled, it is comparatively easy to stamp out structural hazards. Fire-resistant materials and construction are a step in the right direction, says the engineer.

Weaver suggests that one of the first things to do is to keep all rubbish out of buildings. Watch careless smoking habits, use of matches, and improper handling of kerosene and gasoline. Spontaneous combustion of hay may cause the loss of the barn, hay, and valuable livestock. Misuse of electricity and failure to replace worn or frayed electric cords may result in fire.

"Now is the time to check all chimneys and flues, and be sure that they are in the best of condition," Weaver says. "They cause many fires and such losses can be easily prevented."

Re-Education Of Nazis Studied

Berlin, Oct. 15.—(AP)—An exhaustive report on the democratic re-education of the Germans, a job which American spokesmen estimate will require generations, recommended today that the United States government should continue its program of educational aid to Germany as carried on by the War Department.

The report, containing 69 recommendations, was based on a survey

Carolinan Mine New Uranium Substitute

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 15.—(AP)—North and South Carolina may head the nation's list of contributors to Uncle Sam's postwar atomic plans if the mineral element thorium is used as a substitute for uranium, and such a possibility is not remote.

Because of uranium's scarcity, the government is seeking a substitute and, according to Dr. Stephan Taber, head of the geology department at the University of South Carolina, thorium may be that substitute.

Thorium is an extract of the mineral monazite, found in quantity in the Carolinas. Dr. Taber said that as far as he knew North and South Carolina are the only states in the union that produce monazite in quantity. Monazite is found in the upper South Carolina Piedmont region and the bordering area of the Tar Heel State.

THE TIME HAS COME!

"The marriage between the government and the P. A. C. must be dissolved or the country is doomed. The South must put its own welfare first and leave the Democratic Party if it continues its association with the C. I. O. Political Action Committee, which is Stalin's hand in the U. S. A."

NO REPUBLICAN MADE THAT STATEMENT! It was made October 9th in the Key-Note Speech of the Georgia State Democratic Convention by Congressman Eugene Cox.

Everyone who reads this ad has intelligence enough to know that the association between the P. A. C. and the National Democratic Organization is not going to be broken because it is even more than a marriage. The National Organization is the SLAVE of the C. I. O. Even poor Mr. Truman had to be cleared with Sidney in 1944; and on this very day the Democratic National Chairman is seeking to schedule Henry Wallace for campaign speeches.

The Republican Party is now the medium of expressing Southern interests and convictions. The statement has been made that both of our North Carolina Senators have voted this last Congress more often with the Republicans than their own party. If so, why? Because they felt that the Republican Party's position was that of North Carolina!

But let's come even closer home. Below are listed the votes of CONGRESSMAN HERBERT C. BONNER on twelve of the most important measures of the last two years. Each was a vote with the Republicans.

Important Bills During 79th Congress On Which Congressman Bonner Voted With The Republicans

(WHICH MEANS THAT MORE REPUBLICANS THAN DEMOCRATS WERE ON HIS SIDE)

- January 18, 1945 — Voted to continue investigation of executive agencies.
- February 14, 1945 — Voted for Insurance Anti-Trust moratorium.
- July 6, 1945 — Voted for Reconversion tax bill.
- November 1, 1945 — Voted for amendment to U. N. R. R. A. appropriation withholding it unless American newsmen were allowed to report on relief activities in countries receiving aid.
- January 29, 1946 — Voted for return of employment service to the states.
- February 7, 1946 — Voted for Case Strike Control bill.
- March 12, 1946 — Voted against pensions for Congress.
- March 19, 1946 — Voted to merge farm credit agencies.
- April 17, 1946 — Voted for O. P. A. price ceilings to include reasonable profits.
- April 17, 1946 — Voted to end food subsidies December 31, 1946.
- April 17, 1946 — Voted to end meat subsidies June 30, 1946.
- May 29, 1946 — Voted to send PERMANENT STRIKE CONTROL BILL to the President.

We have no quarrel with Mr. Bonner personally. We think he is a fine fellow and, in some respects, a very excellent Congressman. Further than that, we think that, as the above record shows, like many other intelligent and patriotic Democrats, he is becoming more of a Republican than he, himself, even realizes, but the country can't wait with no meat on its tables and its industry paralyzed for all the scales to fall off Congressmah Bonner's eyes. Below is a list of some of his votes when he failed to vote with the Republicans. Whether it was because the party whip cracked or not, look at them and see whether you think those votes represent the sentiment and the best interest of this District.

- January 3, 1945 — Voted against permanent status for committee on unAmerican activities.
- May 3, 1945 — Failed to vote for strengthening provisions of the selective service act on deferment of farm workers.
- June 23, 1945 — Voted against an amendment that would have given the secretary of agriculture authority to veto O. P. A. ruling on agricultural products.
- June 23, 1945 — Voted against bill to give people aggrieved by O. P. A. the right to appeal to the Courts.
- April 17, 1946 — Voted against ending all price control on March 31, 1947.

On November 5th VOTE FOR ZENO RATCLIFF

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS FROM THIS DISTRICT. MR. RATCLIFF IS A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL FARMER AND MERCHANT FROM BEAUFORT COUNTY. HE IS CONSERVATIVE, INTELLIGENT, AND PUBLIC SPIRITED. He pledges that if elected, the first thing he will do will be to join with the Republican majority in ending immediately the O. P. A. The second will be to introduce legislation to amend the Wagner Labor Relations Act; to permit the law to control the unions, instead of the unions controlling the law, as is the case at present in too many places. Show the C. I. O. that they don't own you. Vote Republican.

Police Holding Trio For Robbery

By CHESTER WALSH
Greenville police are holding under $1,000 bond each Mrs. Annie Woodard and her daughter, Margaret, and Moses James, all Negroes, under charges of larceny of $280 from the person of Frank Rogers, Negro tenant farmer of Black Jack, at a party at Moses James' home on Cooper's Lane last night. Nearly all of the money was recovered from James, Chief Jim Tanner said.

Rogers had sold tobacco here yesterday and decided to "enjoy himself" last night, police said, but when the party was over his money was gone. The chief, Detectives M. E. Corbett and George Crawford and Patrolman Johnny Mobley worked on the case and made the arrests. The trio will be tried for larceny from the person in Police Court Friday morning.

Chief Tanner said this is the first time this season a farmer has been robbed after selling his tobacco here in Greenville. "We are going to look after the farmers who sell on the Greenville market," he added.

Frank whispered his last words: "I am thankful for the kind treatment during my captivity and I ask God to accept me with mercy."
Frick, inconspicuously attired in a gaudy sports jacket, stumbled on the last of the 13 steps up the gallows, but recovered. His final words were: "Long live eternal Germany."

Saukel went to his death bravely, crying at the end: "May God protect Germany and my family."
Jodi, his face flushed and his eyes red, paid his final bill with the words: "I salute you, my Germany."
Seys-Inquart said, in his quiet, scholarly way: "I hope that this execution is the last act of the tragedy of the second world war and that a lesson will be learned so that peace and understanding will be realized among the nations. I believe in Germany."

Bergold said that after he made his final plea for Bormann last Ju-

"Doctor, you were wonderful. I am so glad that you quoted the old German proverb to these people—the Nuerenbergs hang; no one before they really have them." Goering, said the lawyer, did not have any doubt that he would be condemned to death.
Bergold's conclusion:
"Only a person who had a secret or a surprise in store could have made this remark in such a situation."
Goering's captors took a capsule of potassium cyanide away from him when they first searched him. Since then, his person, his clothing and his cell had been searched at least a hundred times.

Meantime the convention turned thumbs down on a proposal to join with the CIO in forming a joint foreign policy for American labor.
The idea, brought before the AFL delegates as a resolution from AFL Puerto Rican representatives, was shelved by the convention.
In so doing the AFL acted consistently with a policy, enunciated in other resolutions acted upon favorably, condemning Communism and accusing the CIO of being Communist dominated.
Actually AFL President William Green has even criticized the British labor movement for participating with the CIO and Russia in the world federation of trade unions, a comparatively new labor organization which the AFL has refused to join.

Asked how he would describe current Russian-American relations, he said he would put that in his talk Friday night.
The secretary commented that after trying out the new method of diplomacy whereby the press was admitted to committee meetings, he was still all for publicity on conferences. He said some differences might have been exaggerated by publicity, but that it had permitted the people to learn directly how decisions were taken, rather than learning from a few foreign ministers, whose accuracy might be subject to doubt.
He said he regretted that such conference publicity was not universal, that in some countries there was no pretense at such publicity, making it impossible for people in those countries to pass on the views of representatives of other nations.

other markets, trucks rumbled all night to line up for the dawn disgorging of next month's pork chops.
Rail shipment of livestock was not expected to make much of an appearance until next week because of the slower method of cattle car allocation.
In cattle it was Omaha, Neb., which led all markets, a salable total of 12,000 pouring into the pens. Chicago had 9,500, which was 500 under expectations, and Sioux City was third with 8,500. A week ago Chicago had but 4,477 head on sale and a year ago 11,145.
At the dozen leading markets cattle on sale totaled 62,900 today, compared with 31,816 a week ago, and 59,409 a year ago.
The same dozen markets totaled 51,800 sheep today, 51,663 a week ago, and 61,390 a year ago.
Prices were generally steady in early hog sales at yesterday's record-breaking levels. The early top at Chicago was $26.00, but most hogs were being held for higher money. Yesterday's top was $27.50 with the average at $24.68 a hundred pounds, compared with Monday's average of $16.25 and a year ago average of $14.77.

Russia May Cut Armament Costs

Moscow, Oct. 16—(AP)—Soviet Finance Minister A. G. Zverev recommended to the Supreme Soviet (Parliament) last night a reduction of 58,800,000,000 rubles in Russia's defense budget for the next fiscal year.
(This would be about $11,095,000,000 at the official exchange rate of 5.3 rubles to the American dollar.) Zverev, at a joint session of the body, proposed that 72,000,000,000 rubles be spent for defense in the new fiscal year. He explained that the Soviet Union's main expenditures during the year would be connected closely with the first five-year plan.

FARM CREDIT UNITS MERGED

Lending Program Organized Into Farmers Home Administration

The U. S. Department of Agriculture's lending programs for small farmers will be merged into one Agency—the "Farmers Home Administration."

President Truman signed a Bill August 14th, giving the Secretary of Agriculture the power to create a new agency within the Department of Agriculture and transfer to it the functions of Farm Security Administration and Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division.
The Farmers Home Administration was established by an order of the Secretary of Agriculture August 14, 1946 and Dillard B. Lassiter, who has headed Farm Security Administration since January, was appointed Administrator of Farmers Home Administration on August 15, 1946. Associated with Mr. Lassiter will be S. Paul Lindsey, Jr., Director of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Division, and Robert W. Hudgens, Associate FSA Administrator.
The Bill provides for credit services for farmers who cannot get loans they need at prevailing interest rates and terms in their communities—from banks or other lending agencies.
Three kinds of credit is authorized: (1) Production and subsistence loans for purchasing livestock, seed, feed, fertilizer, farm equipment, supplies, and other farm needs for re-financing indebtedness and for family subsistence. (2) Loans to purchase, repair, improve or enlarge farms. The amount of a loan will be limited to the average value of an efficient family type farm in the county. (3) Insured mortgages. The Government will insure 40 year loans by private lenders for the same purposes as the long term direct loans. The amount borrowed under this plan can be up to 90 per cent of the reasonable value and necessary improvements. The lender will receive 2 1-2 per cent and the Government 1 per cent.

Congress has not appropriated the money for the insured mortgage phase of the program and it will be inactive until such appropriation is made.
The merger of Farm Security Administration and the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration is to be effective November 1, 1946.

Would the CPA please send "at least one sugar stamp" so her mother could bake a cake, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kolar, Jr., of Erie, Colo., asked.
Rationing officials replied that they couldn't send a stamp, but Elmer C. Clark, district price executioner, mailed Mona Jean a big chocolate cake.
