MARKETS WARY WITH PRICES FLUCTUATING

Commodity Markets Experience Erratic Trading In Wake Of Decontrols

Chicago, Oct. 17.—(AP)—All commodity markets today experienced extremely nervous trading, with prices fluctuating widely, in the wake of overnight regulations removing fats and oils from ceiling control.

Featuring chaotic markets throughout the nation were heavy receipts of livestock, plunging butter prices, sharp mark-downs in the price of cash corn, soaring quotations for soybeans and lard, and erratically lower cotton markets.

While trading was still in progress, the Agriculture Department announced removal of restrictions on the use of feed grains and Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) sent telegrams to cotton exchanges saying he had information there was a "pending bear raid on cotton prices."

Farmers poured livestock into major terminals and prices were sharply lower on hogs and slightly lower on cattle despite the fact that a new all-time record was established at Chicago for a few cattle at $37.50 a hundred pounds.

Hog prices at Chicago were down $2.00 to $7.00 a hundred pounds. St. Louis reported prices down $5.00 to $6.00. Omaha losses averaged around $4.00 to $5.00. Indianapolis declines were around $2.00. Everywhere, pens were jammed and traders had difficulty in establishing prices.

Butter markets were overwhelmed with offerings which traders attributed to removal of ceilings on fats and oils, competitive products. At New York butter tumbled 7 to 8 cents a pound from record high levels. The top grade sold at 79 1-2 to 80 1-2 cents a pound.

Cotton in New York and New Orleans was hit by successive selling flurries. Prices were down as much as $2.75 a bale around noon. Continued on Page Eight

Army Hunts Sources Of Goering Poison

German Employes At Nuernberg Jail Under Close Watch; Investigating Board Gets Last Notes By Goering

Nuernberg, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Sources inside Nuernberg jail said today that 12 German employes were under constant scrutiny in connection with a three-man board's closely veiled investigation of how, where and when Hermann Goering got the cyanide with which he beat the hangman by two hours Tuesday night.

These sources, unidentifiable by name, said the Germans were not under arrest but described them as being "protectively held" until they are completely cleared of all possible complicity in the eleventh-hour suicide by which Goering managed to precede his 10 doomed colleagues in death.

The secrecy surrounding the burial place of the one-time No. 2 Nazi and the 10 who died by the noose yesterday morning remained impenetrable, although it was believed the bodies had been spirited away by plane for interment.

Rumors without confirmation circulated in the corridors of the old prison that the ringleaders of Adolf Hitler's wrecked fascist state might have been buried at sea.

The army board investigating the Goering suicide, meanwhile, called in, one by one, every person who conceivably might have had some connection with the Reichsmarschal in his last days and nights in the death block.

Col. Richard McConnell, public relations officer, told reporters the board was working without any special technical assistance thus far and added that no decision had been reached as to whether such special assistants in crime detection would be called in.

He stated emphatically that no arrests have been made in connection with the investigation and that, none, as yet, were "contemplated."

In the meantime, the allied control council's commission which conducted the executions disclosed that it had translations of the three notes Goering left in his cell but said the contents of the notes would not be divulged.

One of the notes was addressed to the prison commandant and there was immediate speculation that Goering had told how he got the poison and how he concealed it. Continued on Page Eight

NO CLUES TO JEWEL THEFT

Gems Taken From Duchess Under Nose Of Scotland Yard

London, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Scotland Yard lost its most brilliant crime hunters today on a burglar who crept expertly into the Georgian Manor of the Earl of Dudley and stole a "considerable amount" of the Duchess of Windsor's $1,000,000 collection of jewelry.

The worried Duke, one-time monarch who forsok the British throne ten years ago to wed the American-born divorcée, left any statement to be made to the detectives, who remained as mum as the mansion's gateposts.

The only estimate of the amount of the robbery was "some thousands of pounds," made by the British Press Association.

The Press Association said persons at Dudley's Ednam Lodge put the loss at under 25,000 pounds ($100,000) and said it was covered by insurance.

The theft threw Scotland Yard's reputation on the block for a thief dodged observation of special branch men stationed on the street—the lock guard at Dudley's Ednam Lodge since the ex-king and his wife moved into it last weekend.

The five-roomed brick mansion was lent the Duke and Duchess by the Earl, who owns a plushy West End apartment and two country homes. The host, banker and international industrialist, was a pre-concertation associate of the former king.

London newspapers advanced two theories. One was that the burglar was a woman.

"Dreamboat" Will Fly To Capital

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A U. S. Army B-29, Pacusan Dreamboat, which made a flight from Orly Field, Paris, France, to Westover Army Air Field in 12 hours and 23 minutes yesterday prepared to continue to Washington today.

The present transatlantic record is claimed by a TWA Constellation which made the Paris-New York year ago in 14 hours and 39 minutes.

S. Irvine, of St. Paul, Minn., the pilot, said that he made no attempt to make a record and that he would not be "interested in a record."

The craft, which carried a crew of 10, recently made a 9,500 mile flight across the Arctic from Hawaii to Cairo.

Officers at Westover Field said the Dreamboat probably would take off for Washington between 11 a. m. and noon (EST).

GOV'T PLANS HOLDING LINE ON RENT CURB

Officials Will Oppose All Demands For Relaxing Of Rent Controls

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Government rent control officials said today they plan to hold the line against all demands for a relaxation or lifting of these controls.

"Our studies show that in general landlords now are enjoying better profits than prewar," said one official who asked not to be quoted directly by name.

"There are 14 different grounds on which deserved increases in rent can be allowed, including hardship cases," he added.

When President Truman ordered the speed-up in removal of government controls he made an exception on rents.

"Some items like rent will have to be controlled for a long time to come," the president said Monday night.

OPA officials noted that Congress twice rejected moves for a general increase in rents when it extended price controls. One proposal was for an immediate 10 percent jump and another a series of three five per cent increases.

OPA reported it now has rental ceilings operating in 575 different control areas throughout the country. Some of these cover only a single city, others several cities or a metropolitan or industrial area.

Many rents were frozen in 1942. Others have been added in recent months with the ceilings rolled back six months or a year.

All these control areas local officials have authority to approve. (Continued on Page Eight)

PLANE WRECKS IN SNOWSTORM

All Passengers And Crew Members Are Killed In Accident

Laramie, Wyo., Oct. 17.—(AP)—A chartered eastbound passenger plane crashed today, killing all 10 passengers and the crew of three during a heavy snowstorm on the level plains three miles west of Laramie.

The plane, identified by a Civil Aeronautics Administration spokesman as a two-engine craft operated by the Nats Air Transport Service, was en route from Oakland, Calif., to Chicago, and was to have stopped at Cheyenne for refueling and a change of crew, the GAA said. No stop was scheduled here.

Acting Coroner E. L. Knight of Albany county said the twin-engine craft was demolished when it plummeted to earth on a level field just north of the airport about 1 a. m. (MST). Bodies and wreckage were strewn over an area of 300 square yards.

Knight said there were eight men and three women aboard in addition to the pilot and co-pilot. He said he was not certain but believed one of the women was a stewardess.

Knight and county sheriff's officers and police searched the area. (Continued on Page Eight)

Papers Show FDR's Insistence To Meet Soviet Pledges Worried WPB

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's insistence in 1942 that Russian lend-lease promises be fulfilled "regardless of the effect on any other part of our war program" prompted official War Production Board concern.

WPB members accordingly instructed Chairman Donald M. Nelson to tell Mr. Roosevelt of the "drastic effect" his stand was having on the entire American production schedule.

This became known today with publication by the Civilian Production Administration of the minutes of the War Production Board and its predecessor agencies—a five-volume report on top-level production problems from June, 1940, to October, 1945.

Mr. Roosevelt wrote WPB on March 17, 1942, noting that shipments to Russia were far behind schedule and, the publisher minutes related, that "many shipments have been placed in a position subordinate to other requirements."

"The President stated his wish," the document went on, "that all material promised under the Moscow protocol be released for shipment at the earliest possible date, regardless of the effect on any other part of our program."

The President's letter was discussed at a March 24, 1942, meeting of the board, and the subject came up again on June 16, 1942, when the chairman reported that questions regarding the effect on our production program of the requirements of the Moscow protocol had been discussed with the President, who subsequently had written as the commander-in-chief to the chairman directing that the terms of the protocol must be fulfilled regardless of the effect on any other part of our war program.

Discussion at the two meetings showed that principal items giving the board concern as a result of the Moscow agreement were divided into two classes: (1) Aircraft, cord, springs for machine guns, automatic rifles and other munitions made from wire demanded by the Russians; and (2) bearings for airplane and tank production, badly needed for the American program and equally badly wanted by the Soviet Union.

Held In Probe Of Robbery

These men, identified by highway patrolmen as Leo Anthony Silk (left), 19, of Kankakee, Ill., and Jean W. McAuley (right), 17, of Minneapolis, were arrested at Clinton, S. C., and Sheriff W. B. Clark of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., said they were held in connection with the robbery of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Hutchinson near a deserted Dania, Fla., beach where Miss Elaine Elridge and Lawrence Hogan of Fort Lauderdale were found shot to death last week. (AP Photo)

Gov't Prepares To Hasten Scrapping Of Wage Controls; Vegetable Fats And Oils Freed With Coffee From Restraints

Washington, Oct. 17.—(AP)—OPA today removed price lids from coffee as it speeded up the decontrol drive.

As the White House prepared to hasten the scrapping of wage controls along with other price ceilings, OPA freed all vegetable fats and oils—margarine, mayonnaise and salad dressings—from federal restraints.

Even as the pace quickened, the ENRRA director, Fiorello H. LaGuardia denounced the decision that led to the speed-up—removal of meat controls—and declared the new policy will result in industrial confusion, financial dislocation, social disturbance and political disarray.

As LaGuardia spoke, in Oklahoma City, a high government official predicted that in a day or so President Truman will clarify the status of the wage stabilization board.

This is the tri-way—public, industry, labor—panel whose industry members recently submitted resignations to Mr. Truman. Some labor and business leaders have demanded that it be abolished.

While forecasting a quick decision on the board, officials said the stage already is set for accelerated scrapping of wage controls. Hence they expressed doubt that the President will consider it necessary to take any further action on this right away.

He made his position clear today when he said in his radio talk Monday night that the speed-up of price decontrol will necessarily hasten the removal of wage controls," said one official in close touch with the White House discussions.

The official told a reporter that faster scrapping of wage curbs will be automatic as price lids slip off, since only industries under ceiling are tied at present to pay controls.

He added that OPA is going to roll in getting rid of price ceilings on oil and coal will free wages in most industries very soon in some fields—construction, for example—prices will remain under control for some time. Hence, wages will go.

W. Willard Wirtz, chairman of the board and a public member, told newsmen after a separate conference with Steelman that removal of curbs on any wage increases negotiated in collective bargaining would have the effect of eliminating virtually all pay controls almost at once.

Searchers Back From Lolo Land

Shanghai, China, Oct. 15.—(AP)—A U. S. Army search party returned today from the wilds of China's far west without evidence that any lost American fliers have been saved by the fierce Lolo tribesmen.

They brought back the bones of one American crew member who perished in the crash of a Superfortress in March, 1945. The bodies of three others were recovered by the Chinese month ago. The remaining six of the crew may have perished in the dense jungles and been captured by Lolo warriors but this is speculation and there is no evidence to back it up.

Byrnes To Speak On Friday Night

CHINESE ARMY AWAITING NEW MOVE BY REDS

Nationalists Promise No Attack If Communists Will Keep Peace

Peiping, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Gen. Chen Cheng, chief of staff, said today the Government's next military move depends upon the Communists and that the Nationalists would attack the Chinese Reds' Yen-hai headquarters only if the Communists attack Government armies.

He told a press conference China's civil war not as serious a threat to international peace as the Communists have asserted but that if there are complications "we will rely upon the good will of other powers for us."

Of the civil war, he elaborated: "If the Communists don't attack the Nationalists, certainly the Government won't attack the Communists, but if the Communists make a move anywhere against the Government, then the Nationalists have a right to defend themselves."

The Communists today answered the government's counter-offensive on the Peiping-Hankow rail line by lightening their siege of Paoting, surrounding another city and capturing a third.

A large force of Reds was reported moving against Paoting, beleaguered capital of Hopeh Province where they have trapped a Government garrison more than two weeks. The Communists failed in their initial effort to capture the city early this month but have kept it isolated.

Byrnes' return from the conference, where he was in almost constant conflict with Russia's foreign Minister Molotov, coincided with new indications that American relations with Russian block countries are worsening.

The latest development was the State Department's disclosure last night that the United States, apparently angered by charges of "dollar diplomacy," had choked off deals to give Czechoslovakia financial aid.

Despite this and indications that differences between Russia and the United States increased at Paris, Byrnes was optimistic over prospects for agreements on peace in Europe.

Vandenberg said he would amplify his views on the Paris session in a speech Saturday night.

In addition to Vandenberg, Byrnes was accompanied home by Benjamin V. Cohen, state department counselor, Charles E. Bohlen, special assistant to Byrnes on Russian affairs; Mrs. Byrnes, Mrs. Vandenberg, and Miss Cassie Connor, Byrnes' private secretary.

Byrnes' speech is expected to deal with the whole range of critical issues involved in U. S.-Russian relations. On top of clear indications that these issues were intensified rather than solved by the Paris peace conference, the State Department disclosed a dramatic new development.

Customers Walk Out On Butchers

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Meat is reappearing in quantity in this area but several retail butchers reported that perhaps 50 percent of their customers were refusing to buy at the higher prices that followed decontrol.

As wholesale prices advanced sharply for the second successive day, one large San Francisco retailer told a reporter:

"People just won't buy meat at these prices. The sooner retail shops realize it and stop buying at present wholesale prices, the sooner prices will go down again."

Some butchers estimated that about half their customers were walking out empty-handed after noting the new prices which ran as high as 90 cents a pound for pork chops and steaks.

Auto Inspector Bill Will Go To Assembly

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Legislation calling for mandatory semi-annual inspection of all automobiles in the state probably will be studied by the 1947 General Assembly.

The inspection measure was recommended by a study commission which was appointed by Governor Cherry to make a study of possible changes in the state's traffic laws as a means of reducing the number of highway accidents.

In its report, made to Governor Cherry yesterday, the commission also recommended that there be a renewal of all automobile operators' licenses as soon as practical and that all operators' licenses thereafter be renewed every three years.

Here we go on the great adventure. Pretty soon now the government will have taken off wage controls and most of its price controls.

Then at last we'll be back in that free economy—that free enterprise—which businessmen have called for since the war ended.

And right there the great adventure begins. These next five or 10 or 20 years may be the most important in the history of the United States.

They may, in fact, decide whether free enterprise is to continue to be the way of life in this country. For if after a decade or two, of prosperous free enterprise we crash into depression—because free enterprise failed to keep us out of depression—what then? Would we then once more, as we have after so many other depressions in this country, be able to pick ourselves up and go on again with free enterprise, giving it another chance? Or would we—out of desperation, or fear of the future, or weary desire to get out of the depression at any cost—turn to strong government controls? If so, what form would those very strong government controls take? Would they be just an all-over tightening up which, nevertheless, let free enterprise continue in limited form? Or would it mean socialism? Or Fascism? The possibility of socialism or Fascism in this country seems remote, now, perhaps absurd. But no one at this minute—when America seems to be entering upon (Continued on Page Eight)

Russia Planning Bigger Families

Moscow, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Increases in already liberal allowances for Russian mothers—especially those with large families—are expected by some observers to boost the total population of the Soviet Union to more than 200,000,000 within the next few years.

Under a budget proposed by the Finance ministry, the government would spend 4,000,000,000 rubles in allowances to mothers next year, as compared with 2,100,000,000 rubles last year.

It is no secret that Russia, which suffered heavy losses during the war needs manpower to man her machines and till her fields. The new appropriations are expected to provide an incentive for larger families.

High Court Finds No Error In Case

The State Supreme Court yesterday found no error in three cases from Pitt County. They were State vs. Bowen, Bank vs. Rasberry and Evans vs. Horne.

The case of Guy E. Evans against Dr. Charles O'H. Horne and wife, tried in Superior Court here some time ago, involved the closing of Carolina street from Albemarle Avenue to the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad tracks in the western part of the city. Evans instituted suit against Horne to restrain him from closing the street. Judge J. W. H. Roberts was counsel for Evans; Jesse A. Jones of Kinston and Harding and Lee of Greenville represented Horne.

The Supreme Court passed on seven other cases.

Greece And Russia

Does The Alleged Attacks By Yugoslav And Albanian Communist Irregulars Constitute "Aggression"? What Is Russia's Stand Regarding Greece? By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.

Some months ago, in spite of all the fanfare and the diplomatic "victories" of the Western powers, the Iranian province of Azerbaijan was detached from control of the central government at Tehran and moved into the Russian sphere.

Now a comparable process is at work in Greece, with some differences. No "autonomous" regime has been set up behind a shield of foreign military occupation. The Greek government has an army, and British military support has not been withdrawn as it had been from Iran. Greece even has a promise of military support against aggression from the United States "under the United Nations," whatever that means in view of the absence of any United Nations police force, and whatever "aggression" means.

Assuming that the rebels, guerrillas, Communists, patriots or whatever you wish to call them are being financed and armed through Russian-satellite Yugoslavia and Russian-armed Bulgaria, as the government charges, and assuming that they should gain control of northern Greece as the pro-Russian Iranians did of Azerbaijan, would that be aggression? Or would there be merely an accomplished fact, with northern Epirus, Thrace and Macedonia moving into autonomous conjunction with Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria in much the same way that Mongolia moved from the Chinese into the Russian sphere? It is quite probable that no answer will be provided on these points. The British can be expected to see to it that the Athens government get sufficient help to put down the trouble, since, if the rebels, Communists, patriots or whatever you wish to call them are being financed and armed through Russian-satellite Yugoslavia and Russian-armed Bulgaria, as the government charges, and assuming that they should gain control of northern Greece as the pro-Russian Iranians did of Azerbaijan, would that be aggression? Or would there be merely an accomplished fact, with northern Epirus, Thrace and Macedonia moving into autonomous conjunction with Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria in much the same way that Mongolia moved from the Chinese into the Russian sphere? It is quite probable that no answer will be provided on these points. The British can be expected to

Godley-Taylor

A wedding of interest to many in this section was that of Miss Fannie Mae Taylor and Mr. Preston Godley, both of near Greenville, solemnized Saturday afternoon, October 12, at 4 o'clock by Dr. R. S. Boyd at the parsonage using the ring ceremony.

The bride was becomingly attired in a blue suit with black accessories. She wore a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Godley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Taylor of Greenville. She attended Chicago school.

Mr. Godley is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Godley of Chocowinity and is a prosperous farmer. He received his discharge from the army last November after three years of active service. The couple will reside near Greenville.

The Business and Professional Women's Club will have a card party Friday night at the home of Miss Alva Ray Taylor, 319 East Eighth Street. Every member is urged to come and bring a guest.

Mrs. Tillery Honored

Roanoke Rapids — Mrs. J. J. Thompson and Miss Gesteveve Hodgin were hostesses at bridge and a miscellaneous shower Friday evening at the club house for Mrs. Wells D. Tillery. Mrs. Tillery was the former Miss Wilma Cozart of Greenville, N. C. She is the third grade teacher at Clara Hearne school.

The club house was most attractively decorated with fall flowers and evergreens. Mrs. Tillery's place was marked with a white chrysanthemum corsage.

After four progressions of bridge, Mrs. Lloyd Allen was holder of high score and Miss Bernice Hutchins captured second high. Mrs. R. G. Knight won the floating prize which was taken with the lone card—the Jack of Hearts.

At ten-thirty refreshments were served by candle light. They were green and white bridal ices, cake, minted pecans and coffee. A miniature corsage was on each plate.

When the guest of honor finished her refreshments she was asked to place the gifts which had been placed in a large umbrella that was balanced in evergreens by the fireplace.

Sans Souci Club

Mrs. George Woodward delightfully entertained the members of the Sans Souci Book Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on Greene Street. The hostess graciously welcomed her guests and invited them into the living room where beautiful arrangements of roses made an attractive setting for the meeting.

Mrs. Frank Wooten presided over the business session. Many interesting looking new books were added to the club's current collection and were distributed to the members. The afternoon program was in charge of Mrs. L. W. Gaylord who had as her guest speaker Miss Patie Frazee, psychiatric counselor at the School for the Blind. Miss Frazee spoke on her chosen profession, clinical psychology, saying that it has been used as far back as the beginning of civilization though it was known by another name. It is simply a seeking to understand people.

The psychologist has accomplished much in this direction through tests of many kinds. Through these tests it is possible to find whether or not a person is maladjusted to the situation in which he finds himself. The psychologist has been of great assistance in the juvenile courts, also in helping persons choose vocations to which they are suited.

In her talk Miss Frazee emphasized especially the fact that the religious side of a person's nature must be developed if he is to be a well-balanced person.

Following the talk the group asked questions for all of which she had a ready answer. The whole program was quite timely as now more than ever before doctors and lay people too are striving to learn more about the cause and cure of mental sickness.

Mrs. Woodward, assisted by her guest, Mrs. Annie McDowell, served a delicious sweet course and coffee.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR October 17, 1906

The Democratic candidates are having interesting meetings at their appointments for speaking over the county. They had a large crowd at May's Chapel on Tuesday and also at Falkland Wednesday. The prospects point to a larger Democratic vote than two years ago.

A report from the agricultural department says that the coming wheat crop will be over 600,000,000 bushels. Now it is up to the Republican campaign managers to "point with pride."

meeting Tuesday night with 53 members present. Mrs. Daisy Whitehurst, worthy matron, presided over the meeting.

In an impressive ceremony, degrees of the Order were conferred upon Mr. and Mrs. James R. Tanner, Mrs. Margaret Richardson, Mrs. Ann Jackson, Mrs. Pauline Davis and Mr. Alfred Kennedy, Jr., by Mr. T. A. Ehrhridge, worthy patron. Mrs. Dick Bundy gave an excellent report of Home Coming Day at Oxford Orphanage which she and Mr. Bundy attended. Mr. Bundy was one of the principal speakers for this occasion.

Mr. A. C. Tadlock reported on the progress of the new Masonic Home with particular reference to items of interest to the Eastern Stars.

At the conclusion of the business session, a social hour was enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Louise Brewer, Mrs. Emogene Duffin, Mrs. Thelma Maxwell and Mrs. G. H. Pittman.

Club History Presented Library

In connection with the celebration of National Business Women's Week the local Business and Professional Women's Club has presented the Sheppard Memorial Library a copy of the History of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, 1919-1944, inclusive. The history was compiled under the chairmanship of Mrs. Geline Macdonald Bowman and Miss Erine White, both past and honorary presidents of the national organization.

The history is a valuable one to both the organization and to all interested in the club activities of women. This generous contribution of the local club makes it available for reference and study at the local library. In addition to the history of the national organization the last half of the book is devoted to the history of the state federations.

In addition two periodicals published under the sponsorship of the group are to be added to the library. These include the Tar Heel Woman, the state magazine of the organization, and The Independent Woman, the publication of the national organization.

Athenaeum Book Club

Mrs. J. B. Cummings was the delightful hostess to the members of the Athenaeum Book Club and guests, Mrs. Dennis Cooke and Mrs. Charles A. White, on Tuesday at one o'clock at her home on East Third Street. The lower floor was lovely with arrangements of early fall flowers.

Following the luncheon Mrs. Cummings introduced her speaker for the program, Mrs. P. W. Picklesimer. She reviewed the long scientific research that led to the splitting of the atom and the later perfection of the atomic bomb, the use of which hastened the American victory over the Japanese.

The president, Mrs. J. L. Winstead, presided over a short business session, at which time new books were exchanged.

Red Cross Knitting Room

The Red Cross knitting room, located next door to the Red Cross executive offices, third floor City Hall, is now open for work. A large amount of wool is on hand and the armed forces, through the Red Cross, are asking the women of America to continue the knitting program. A recent letter from the southeastern area has this to say: "Quotas assigned before the cessation of hostilities are still needed. The many thousands of men still on guard duty in foreign countries must be furnished supplementary warm clothing which the army does not supply, and countless numbers of men in military hospitals are cheered by the comfort articles made by Red Cross volunteers. Aside from this, Red Cross has been asked and accepted the added responsibility of supplying veterans administration hospitals with comfort articles."

The Pitt County Women responded beautifully to all requisits made of them during the war and the knitting committee is asking for this same loyalty until the present quota of knitted garments has been completed and all wool on hand has been made into specified articles. When this has been done, unless there is some emergency call, the knitting room will be closed.

For convenience of teachers and others who cannot get to knitting room in the mornings Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Mallison in the executive offices have offered their services to either give out wool or to take in completed garments. Their office hours are from nine until four-thirty daily.

Those who have partly finished garments on hand are urged to complete them and get them to the knitting room. If for any reason it is impossible to get them finished, turn them in unfinished, and the knitting committee will finish them and let them shipped.

Chatham Book Club

The Chatham Book Club held a delightful meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. R. W. Stark. Colorful autumn flowers added to the attractiveness of the home. Mrs. S. H. Williams, president, called the meeting to order and the minutes were read by Mrs. J. Bryan Brown, secretary.

After the business session Mrs. J. Con Lanier gave a most interesting and instructive paper on azaleas. They were first brought to this country from France in 1711 and have given great delight and satisfaction to their growers ever since. Particular mention was made of the Bellingsath Gardens in Mobile. The numerous varieties and their perfection attained there.

Mrs. Stark, assisted by her daughter, Mary Ann, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. Beard, served hot coffee, sandwiches, cake and mint.

Our guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Roy Coburn, Mrs. A. L. Tucker and Mrs. J. H. Moyer.—Reported.

West Greenville P. T. A.

The West Greenville P. T. A. held its regular monthly meeting at the school on October 16th. Mrs. Sam Winchester gave an inspiring devotional. The president called for reports from the standing committees and excellent progress was reported. The membership committee reported that we had secured 190 members during our membership campaign and that the third grade, Mrs. George Gardner, teacher, had won the prize offered by the P. T. A. for most members secured during this campaign. A very interesting report on the district meeting on Oct. 9th, was given by Mrs. Gardner. Miss Fullilove's first grade won the attendance prize, having 14 mothers present. A large and enthusiastic crowd of 50 parents and teachers made plans for a Halloween party to be held on the night of November 1. After the completion of the plans for the party, the meeting adjourned.

To Attend Meeting in Charlotte

Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, president of East Carolina Teachers College, Mrs. Cooke, and Mrs. Ruth Garner, alumni secretary, will be guests of the South Piedmont district of the college alumni association at a meeting in Charlotte on Saturday afternoon, October 19. Dr. Cooke will address the group and discuss the aims and policies of the college.

End of the Century Club

On Tuesday afternoon the End of the Century Club met with Mrs. Ed Harvey. Her home was beautifully decorated with roses and dahlias. Mrs. Carwile, Mrs. Milton White and Miss Mary Harding were guests. Mrs. Picklen Arthur presided. Following routine business, Mrs. C. A. White, gave a most interesting program on the younger members of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Joel Berglund, Torsten Ralf, Patricia Munsell, Richard Manning Regina Resnik, Eleanor Steber and Robert Merrill were introduced to the club. A description of each was given. These pictures were followed by photographs. Interesting facts concerning training, hobbies and when and where the singer might be heard were given.

Mrs. White and Mrs. Carwile assisted Mrs. Harvey who served a delicious sweet course. Books were exchanged and the club adjourned.—Reported.

Mrs. Matilda Moore Passes After Illness

Mrs. Matilda P. Moore, 76, wife of the late W. W. Moore, died at her home, 120 Manhattan Avenue, Wednesday night about 9 o'clock following an extended illness.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. J. C. Moye of Snow Hill. Burial will be in Cherry Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Moore, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Claiborne, was born in Mecklenburg County, Va. After her marriage to William Walter Moore in 1891 she moved to Pitt County. Since 1906 she had made her home in Greenville. She was a member of Immanuel Baptist Church.

Surviving are a son, Leon L. Moore, and three daughters, Mrs. William F. Owens, Mrs. Charles L. Davidson, and Mrs. J. E. Johnson, all of Greenville; and a sister, Mrs. Lewis Whitt of Ettricks, Va., and a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Try Three Negroes Friday For Larceny

Annie Woodard and her daughter Margaret Woodard and Moses James, Negroes, were still in city jail today on charges of larceny of $200 from Frank Rogers, Negro, of Black Jack, during a party at Moses James home, 13 Cooper's Lane, Tuesday night. They were being held under $1,000 bond each. They are charged with larceny from the person.

Rogers, a tenant farmer, told police he had sold tobacco in Greenville Tuesday and decided to enjoy himself. After attending the party he missed his money and reported it to the police. They got busy and in a short time had James and the two women in custody. Nearly all the money was recovered from James, police said.

Junior Red Cross Doing Fine Work

By CHESTER WALSH
The annual Junior Red Cross enrollment of school children and the filling of gift boxes to send overseas as "good-will" tokens will start next Monday, Mrs. J. Knott Proctor announced today. This annual "Good Samaritan" gesture by the children of the United States through the American Red Cross is an important affair and has done lots of good. As an illustration the chairman of the Pitt County Junior Red Cross has a letter from Mrs. F. Biddale, Burnley, Lancashire, England, in which she expressed gratitude for a Junior Red Cross box received by her three-year-old boy. The English mother stated that her husband was killed in the North African campaign. Many similar letters have been received.

The Junior Red Cross enrollment permits the children of all the county and city schools to donate a small sum of money to help to make some child in a war-torn country happy.

Beginning next Monday, Mrs. Proctor, the chairman, will visit the schools to enlist the cooperation of officials, teachers and parents. It's a worthy cause and the youngsters always get a lot of happiness from participating.

Dr. Haney Host To Kiwanis Officials

By CHESTER WALSH
The Greenville Kiwanis Club's officers and directors at a meeting last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. Glenn Haney, on Rock Springs Road, had gratifying reports from Judge J. W. H. Roberts, chairman of the Underprivileged Child Committee. The funds derived from the annual Kiwanis minstrel are being used in worthy cases, including a scholarship for a young man at ECTC, assistance in numerous cases of underprivileged children and for boys at correctional institutions.

President Ed E. Rawl, recently elected a lieutenant-governor of Kiwanis Division No. 7, was given special recognition for winning the honor for the club and for Greenville. Vice-President Eli Bloom "took over" temporarily while the officials paid tribute to Rawl and Bloom appointed Dr. Haney to make appropriate announcement to the club at Friday night's meeting.

Reports of various committee chairman showed that the club is experiencing one of the best years of its 25-years' existence. Secretary Dave Moore, Jr., was praised for his good work. The Kiwanis Club's quota of members is practically filled and there is a waiting list of applications. It is a custom of the club for a different officer or director to entertain the official group each month, either at his home or elsewhere. Dr. Haney was host last night, and the "cavalier of the church" and Mrs. Haney provided a convincing evening of genuine southern hospitality. The dinner was delicious, the coconut plumbago was wide and deep and fluffy with meringue—was an Epicurean gem.

Much of Kiwanis club's business is transacted by the officers and directors. The monthly meetings are doing much to strengthen the fellowship and service of the club. Judge J. W. H. Roberts will entertain the group next month on the "Island of Somewhere."

Garden Club to Meet Friday
The Garden Club will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday at 3:30 in the Woman's Club building.

Mrs. E. M. Garrett will talk about the flowers of California and tell of interesting flower arrangements she saw on her visit this past summer.

Flower arrangements by the club members will be on display at the meeting. Fall flowers, leaves and berries will be featured in the arrangements.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mesdames W. J. Bundy, J. Key Brown, M. K. Blount, W. E. Basnight, L. F. Brewster, Percy Wells, S. T. White and J. B. White.

Inter Se Club
Mrs. Frances Harvey was charming hostess to the Inter Se Club Tuesday evening at her home on Fifth street.

Mrs. Sam Underwood, president, presented Mrs. Tyson Bilbro who gave the club a most interesting and delightful talk on the customs and occupations of the people of India. "The two most important aspects of this land of fascinating charm and mystery," stated Mrs. Bilbro, "are the crowded populations and the powerful influence of its ancient religions. The average visitor can hardly fail to be stirred by the simple determination of the ordinary Indian to find in his everyday acts a religious symbolism. Ninety per cent of the Indians can neither read nor write in any language. Twenty dollars a year is the average per capita income of the people. Mrs. Bilbro painted a vivid picture of Indian customs in regard to marriage, status of women, the caste system, cremation of their dead and sanitation habits.

Following the program a short business meeting was held during which the election and acceptance of two new members, Mrs. Roscoe Hauser and Dr. Maline Irons, was announced.

Mrs. Harvey assisted by Mrs. W. H. Taft and Mrs. A. B. Stallworth served delicious refreshments.

College Has Campus Policeman On Duty

James C. Rogerson of Greenville has been employed by East Carolina Teachers College as a policeman for the campus. He will serve during the day and will have as a special duty the checking of traffic. Recently speeding cars and reckless driving have created a serious problem at the college, especially because many of the children who attend the Training School use campus walks and roads in going to and from school.

College authorities, in an effort to promote safety, are asking for the cooperation of all drivers who pass through the campus.

Red Oak News

Sunday brings to a close one of the most progressive five-year periods in the history of Red Oak Church. During this time we have had as our pastor one of the finest young ministers in the Christian brotherhood, Howard Glenn James. We have watched Howard grow from a little boy into a fine Christian gentleman and it is with a sigh of regret at his departure and a feeling of happiness for his continued growth that we see him depart from our midst to enter the University of Chicago to further his studies in the ministry.

Due to his pleasing personality, his influence and his congeniality he has commanded the respect of all denominations. He is an accomplished singer and he has sung on numerous occasions in many churches and clubs in North Carolina.

The people of Red Oak invite you to come and worship with them on Sunday, October 20th, at 11 o'clock.

This will be Howard's last service and so far no one has been secured to take his place. Come and worship with us on this day. The morning offering will be presented as a gift to our pastor. Let's make it a nice gift!

Child Accident Prevention Week

Next week will be National Child Accident Prevention Week. The Travelers Protective Association of America, with a membership of over 80,000 has always been vitally interested in the welfare of our people. Particularly has this been true in the field of safety. At the T. P. A. National Convention in St. Paul, Minn., last June this organization undertook to sponsor an annual event every October to be known as National Child Accident Prevention Week. They hope by this means and with the help and cooperation of all religious, civic, fraternal and political groups that thousands of lives of boys and girls will be saved. A program for the work has been planned which includes displays in some store windows—also programs in each school in Greenville—and each evening at 7:25 some citizen will make a five minute talk over WGTC.

Saturday, October 26, a bicycle registration and parade will be held. Chief Jim Tanner is making plans for this and it will be one of the high spots of the week. Every person who owns a bicycle is invited. Further announcement will be carried in this paper about this. Remember to tune in WGTC Sunday at 7:25 p. m. and each day next week at the same time to learn why so many people are concerned about the greatest hazard to life, limb, and happiness. For instance, this year accidents, most of which are preventable, will cost the citizens of the United States nearly $14,000,000 every day in the year. To put it differently, every time your watch ticks, and there are two ticks every second, accidents which can be prevented cost $40-$100 a second or $9,600 a minute. That is a lot of money to waste. Let's wake up in Greenville. Let's make Greenville a safe city!

Strength FOR THE DAY

By RAE L. DOUGLAS
GREATNESS IN LITTLE THINGS.
It is amazing the extent to which great movements sometimes depend upon apparently insignificant acts. The tide of empire is often turned by a deed of such little consequence that no one seems to notice it at the time.

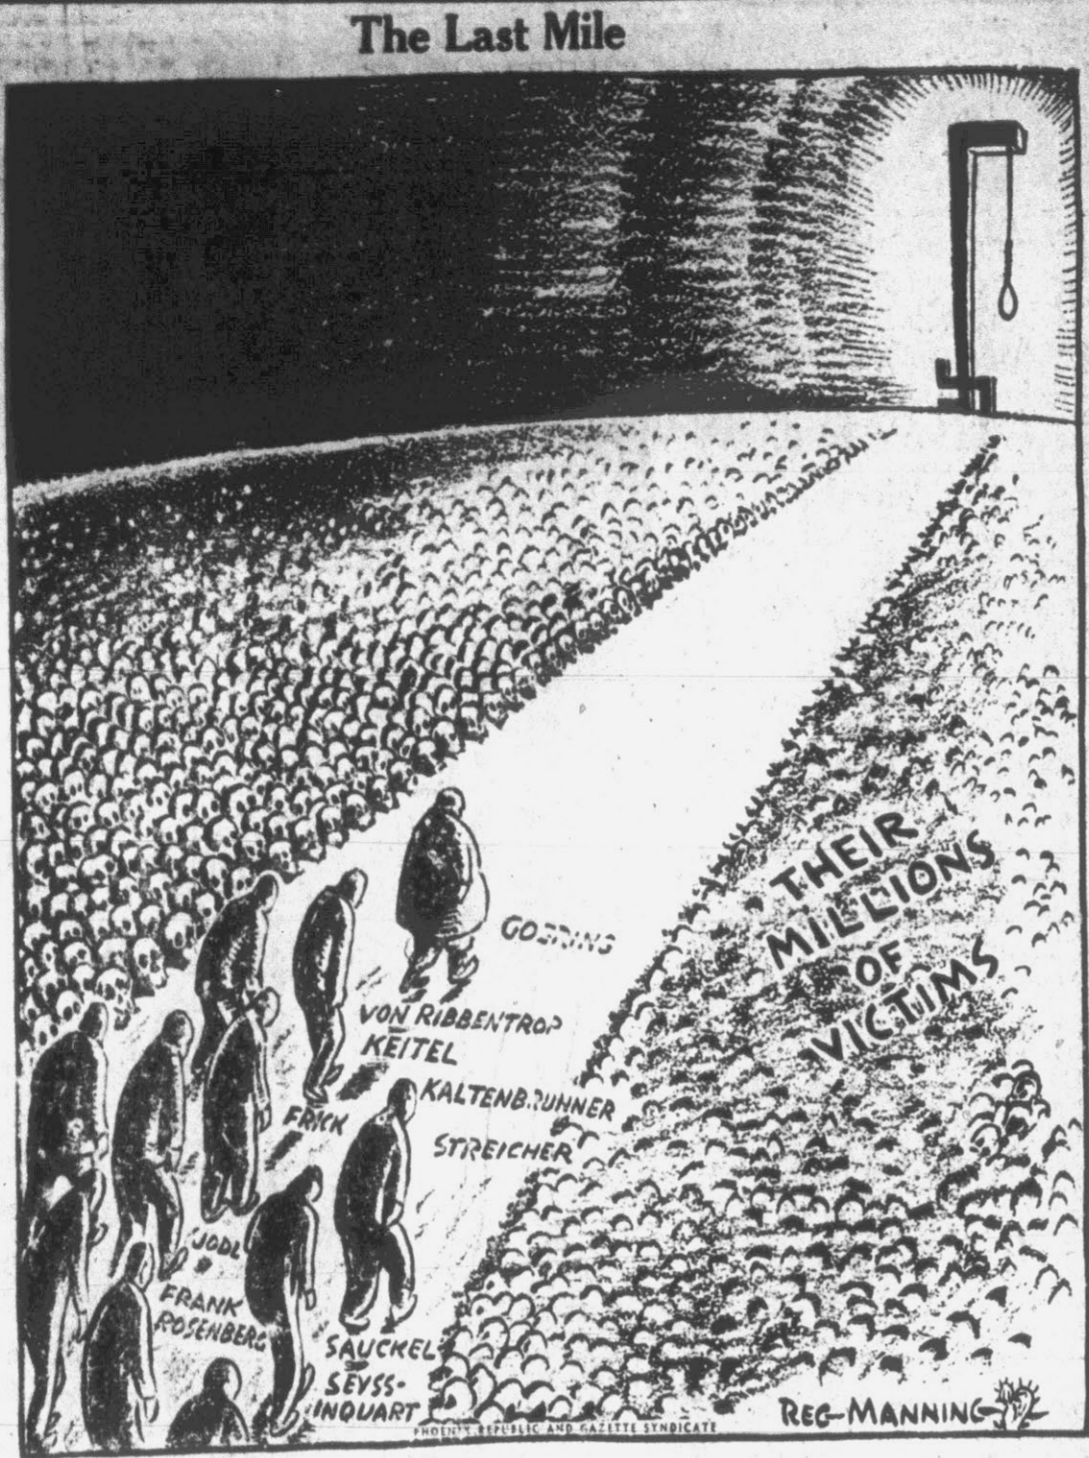

Few people know that the Boy Scout movement came to America through a helpful act which an English Scout performed one night in behalf of an American businessman. W. D. Boyce, a Chicago publisher, became hopelessly confused one evening in the inky blackness of a London fog. A Scout came to his rescue, and when Mr. Boyce tried to tip the young man, he declined the gift saying that he was a Scout and under these circumstances was only doing his duty. Later this same Scout took his American friend to the headquarters of the British Scout Association to learn more about the scout program. Today, at the entrance to Epping Forest there stands a bronze buffalo commemorating this far-reaching good turn. It is dedicated to the unknown Scout whose faithfulness in the performance of the daily good turn brought scouting to the United States of America.

WASHINGTON LETTER

ACE SLETTU RETIRING
By JANE EADS
Washington—Emeritus Irey, who was the nemesis of public enemies "Al" Capone, "Wavy" Gordon and "Dutch" Schultz, is a mild-mannered man who admits that in private life he sometimes just "likes to sit." He is retiring at the age of 58 as chief coordinator of the Treasury's law enforcement agencies, after 40 years in government service.

One of the most popular men in the government, he told me he will miss his wide circle of friends upon retirement. They will miss him too, especially his secretary, Mrs. Derma Williams, who has been with him 22 years and who is still a member of the Treasury's Intelligence Unit. She said that the tall, broad-shouldered man with the easy smile is one of the most even-tempered men she ever knew. His only gripe is "people who deliberately and feloniously defraud the government." Irey was born in Kansas City but raised in Washington, where his parents were government workers. He started his long career as a clerk in the office of the chief postal inspector in 1907. His first job was to take down reports on investigations conducted in the Postal Inspection Service.

When the late Daniel C. Roper was appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue by President Wilson in 1919, Irey moved into the bureau with him. Here it was his task to supervise investigation of income tax frauds, which had reached scandalous proportions with the increase in rates during the World War. Taking along five of his former colleagues in the postal service, he organized an intelligence unit that was the nucleus of an organization now numbering about 1,300 trained investigators.

Vessel Grounded, Said Total Loss

Kitty Hawk, N. C., Oct. 16.—(AP)—Hard ground with her bow dry in low water, the 8,600 ton Liberty freighter, Daniel Drake, which yesterday afternoon broke loose from town tugs off the coast here, was apparently a total loss at noon today, thought two U. S. Coast Guard cutters and a salvage tug had lines aboard her juggling against two four-ton kedee anchors hard on the bottom half mile offshore.

Dig Another Grave

By DON CAMERON

Chapter 15

Martin dined in gloomy solitude at a lunch counter, having failed to reach Dexter by telephone at the Margrave. When he reached the hotel shortly before 9 o'clock Dexter had not yet returned but he had left a note at the desk. It said:

I told you I'd pry you loose. Call Doran at the office and leave word where I can meet the two of you later.

D. Martin phoned Doran from the suite.

Doran asked, "Did you hear from the boss?"

"Ennis? No."

"He's been pestering me for hours wanting to get hold of you. Where are you now?"

"In Dexter's diggings."

"Stay there. He'll call and try to make up. Don't let me influence you, but if you fail to rejoin the staff life will be less complicated for me. Where can we meet after ten?"

"Rossett's in Carmine Street. Know it?"

"We've got it in our story as part of your alibi. I'll find my way there."

Martin hung up and lit a cigarette. He stood at a window of the living room and looked morosely down into the pulsing midst of light that overflowed Times Square. The phone rang and he made a mental bet on Ennis before he took it up and heard Ennis' voice, precise and neatly rounded like the man himself.

"Hello, Martin. This is George Ennis. Are you free this evening?"

"I have a date in an hour."

"That's too bad, I hoped we could get together for a little talk. It has occurred to me that perhaps we were both a bit hasty the last time we met."

Martin winked at his reflection in the mirror above the dresser. He said, "A lot of things have come up, as you must know. So far they've ed, "Come in." The door-knob rattled but the door remained closed; Martin remembered locking it.

Ennis' voice was cautious. "Is it—them?"

"I don't know. The door's locked."

"Will you call me tomorrow or Monday at the latest, Martin? Without fail?"

He said, "Yes" and "Good-bye." He cradled the phone and went to the door. He was not happy about Ennis' call; it had seemed something of a triumph for him at the beginning, but not now. There might be a gulf between the Kings and the Ennises, he was thinking, but it could not be wider or deeper than the gulf between Barbara and her father. The one was at this moment everything he wanted and admired; the other everything he detested.

He unlocked the door and opened it. Howard Morrissey stood there. Martin said without surprise, "Hello, Morrie. You look hot and bothered. Come in and relax."

Sneak Thief Makes $700 Haul At Store

Police today were continuing their investigation of the theft of $700 from under the counter at the Grande Avenue Grocery Store during a sugar sale Tuesday evening about 6 o'clock.

About $600 in checks and $100 in currency had been prepared for deposit in a bank. It was placed in a money bag and temporarily laid under the counter. When the sugar-buying rush was over the money and checks were gone.

ECTC Pirates To Play Erskine Here On Saturday

By CHARLES BRAKEN

The Pirates of East Carolina Teachers College will lock horns with their first out of the state opponents this fall when they meet a highly touted Erskine eleven from South Carolina in a game to be played at Guy Smith Stadium Saturday night.

Coach Johnson has been putting his squad through a stiff workout since the return from Reidsville last week, and announced that his entire squad is intact, and is eager to get back in the victory column after losing a hard fought 13-6 contest against, Elon last Saturday.

The Pirates' forward will include Tatarski, Lee, Wheelless, Pendleton, Miller, Wyatt and Brown, supported by Keesler, Sexton, Hudson, Andrews, Winesette, Manning and Kilpatrick has played excellent defensive and offensive ball, and should be expected to repeat their fine performance again Saturday night.

Winesette has been playing fine ball, both defensively and offensively, and is pushing Tatarski hard for the starting position at left end. McMullan, scrappy center who has been on the side lines with an injured shoulder, should be ready for action soon, and no doubt will give Pendleton much competition for the center berth.

In the backfield, Slade Phillips, Pete Everett, Ellie Fearing, and E. S. Pittman operating from the tricky T-formation can be expected to break away for long gains at any time. The clever ball-handling of Pere Everett, the driving power of Phillips and Pittman, coupled with the clever broken field running of Ellie Fearing, should prove a match for Erskine here Saturday night.

Meets Navy

CHARLES JUSTICE—Tailback—U. N. C.

The Navy football team, which might yet feel "there ain't no justice" after having out-played Columbia and Duke only to lose both games by virtue of their own inexperience and fumbles, is turning its full attention this week to the proposition that there is a Justice and he must be stopped if the Middies are to break back into the win column this Saturday afternoon when they meet North Carolina at Ball-More Municipal Stadium.

In dummy scrimmage yesterday, as the Duke chaps brushed up on both offense and defense.

In Richmond, it was announced that two of the team's best backs, fullback Bernie Hofbauer and halfback Charlie Suttentfield probably would be on the sidelines for the Durham game. The Spiders gave most attention to kicker defense.

Coach Quinn Decker of the Citadel put the Bulldogs through a rugged defense drill against Furman plays yesterday as he smoothed off the rough edges for the Purple Hurricanes' visit. The coach had planned another hard workout today, but is so pleased with the way his

Injuries Haunt Oklahoma Eleven

Stillwater, Okla., Oct. 17—(AP)—What's wrong with the Oklahoma Aggie football team? You remember, the outfit was supposed to continue its 20-game winning streak this season, but instead was tied by Arkansas 21-21, trounced by mighty Texas 54-6, kicked by Southern Methodist 15-6, and has a very tough date with the Georgia Bulldogs at Athens Saturday.

An inexplicable number of injuries in the backfield is the main reason, Coach Jim Lookabaugh answers, but he isn't trying to make any excuses for the 1946 Sugar Bowl champions.

"Our team at the start of the season was better than last year's club," Lookabaugh said, "but it's just like having a shiny, new 16-cylinder car. Take out 14 of those cylinders and try to run up a mountain and what happens?"

Of the 17 backfield men Lookabaugh counted on this season, 16 have suffered some type of injury.

The injury of Bob Fenimore, two-time all-America back, hurt the worst, Fenimore heals slowly and he may miss the Georgia game. Lookabaugh said he wasn't taking any more chances on his star tailback.

Williams Not For Sale Claim Sox

Boston, Oct. 17—(AP)—The Red Sox are back in town and these facts became known today:

Ted Williams definitely is not for sale before or during the 1947 season.

Joe Cronin will remain as field pilot of the club and not move into a "front office job."

Owner Tom Yawkey will meet with Cronin and the players and coaches today to cut a melon for "additional services rendered during the season."

Yawkey, himself, told baseball writers that Williams, whose bat never got to the potent stage during the World Series, was not to be sent to another club.

"There isn't money enough around to buy him," he stated.

All-Star Losses For Nat's Worry Frick

New York, Oct. 17—(AP)—Ford Frick, president of the National Baseball League, is "tired" of the licks the National Leaguers have been absorbing from the American Leaguers in the annual all-star game.

Hard on the heels of the St. Louis Cardinals' 4 to 3 victory over the favored Boston Red Sox in the deciding game of the World Series, Frick went into a huddle with Sam Breadon, owner of the Cards.

"Let's either play the all-star game to win, or drop it entirely," Frick declared. "Here is your club, which had to go through a playoff to win in our league, outplaying a team that ran away and hid from the rest of the American League. Yet ever since midseason they've been talking like we didn't belong in the same class with them. I'm tired of taking it."

Fans Search For Army's Nemesis

New York, Oct. 17—(AP)—Football followers—who insist that Army can't stay up there indefinitely—look to Columbia this week to succeed at a task at which 22 previous underdogs have failed.

Oklahoma, Cornell and Michigan have tried their hand at this business of knocking the Cadets off their football pedestal and there is little hope for Columbia in achieving gridiron immortality by being the upsetter.

But the longshot players will go on hoping—with Duke, West Virginia, Notre Dame, Penn and Navy their choices each successive week to keep a third straight national championship away from the banks of the Hudson.

Lou Little isn't predicting any victory for his Lions, but he says with deep conviction "we're going to try to win and we're going to play to win."

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distress. It works this way: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health!

persons indebted to the estate will please make immediate settlement. This the 24th day of September, 1946.

WILSON'S WEEKLY Bulletin

By George Rector
Food and Nutrition Consultant to Wilson & Co.
Hurry-up Dinner for Busy Days

In these busy days, almost every homemaker is forced now and then to prepare dinner in a hurry. Because of this, and also because of the shortage of fresh meat, it's an excellent idea to keep a reserve of canned luncheon meat in the cupboard. It can be served in many delicious ways—hot or cold. Breeding it, as shown below, is a favorite method of mine.

Breaded MOR—a Tasty Dish for a Hurry-up Dinner

Cut 1 can MOR into 8 or 12 slices
Beat 1 CLEAR BROOK EGG
Add 1 tbsp. water and dip the MOR slices first into the egg mixture and then into

1/2 cup fine bread crumbs, coating both sides.
Brown on both sides in 3 tbsp. CERTIFIED BACON drippings. Serves 4 generously.

Clip Recipe Here

Heating Brings Out Flavor

The delicious flavor of Wilson's MOR is at its best when it is served hot. And, since MOR is made of excellent quality pork meat, it contains the valuable B complex vitamins and complete proteins of pork. So you may serve this hurry-up dish often for dinner or lunch and know you are serving your family nutritious food. A grand combination!

Fruit Salad Dressing

If it's a fruit salad you toss up, try this dressing variation with it. To 1/2 cup Wilson's Mayonnaise, add 1 tbsp. lemon juice, 2 tbsp. confectioners' sugar and 1/2 cup whipped evaporated milk. Leave the fruit in fairly large pieces, drain well and just before serving mix lightly with just enough of this dressing to coat well. Serve on lettuce, watercress or endive and garnish with a bit of colorful fruit.

Quick Accompaniments

Left-over boiled potatoes, creamed and made gay with bits of pimiento; seven minute cabbage with grated Certified American Cheesesprinkled over the top; a combination vegetable or fruit salad; with sliced bananas and cream for dessert, all qualify as quickly prepared accompaniments for this hurry-up meal. There's plenty of eye-appeal as well as good flavor in this menu. Both are important for good nutrition since they help increase the appetite.

Always Be Prepared

Careful, there! Be sure to write Wilson's MOR on the grocery list when you take a can of that emergency shelf. Then you won't be disappointed the next time you want it. If you don't find MOR on your grocer's shelves the first time, keep looking for it every time you market.

Sincerely,
George Rector

Markets Wary
but the market displayed some resistance to the downward trend. Today's decline followed upon a wide-open break of $10.00 a bale yesterday, widest since the start of the war.

Sen. Thomas' telegram said, "I have information to the effect that pending bear raid on cotton prices is a result of a definite and well laid plan among cotton exchanges, cotton brokers and their clients. This activity is a clear violation of the law."

Rent Curbs . . .

readjustments, headquarters here said.
Controls may be established in additional areas, headquarters added, if complaints are received.
"We have set up ceilings wherever local pressures have developed on rents," an official said. "Many of these ceilings were established at the request of mayors, governors and other local officials."
A few rent ceilings have been eliminated, chiefly in winter and summer resort areas.

and wreckage with flashlights and removed 11 bodies. Two of the victims died later in the Laramie hospital.
The acting coroner said one of the bodies was hurled from the wreckage and into a barbed wire fence. Some of the bodies were located 75 yards from the plane, and others beneath bits of the debris.
A state highway patrolman said the plane skidded for 300 yards before the crumpled and twisted fuselage came to a stop. One motor was thrown 20 yards from the fuselage and another motor and landing wheel 50 yards from the spot where the body of the plane came rest. Authorities, headed by Knight, reached the scene of the crash half an hour after it happened. They were notified by an oil field worker who happened to be driving past the airport and heard the crash. Eight of the passengers were sailors.

Greece . . .

surgents do get outside help, it must remain clandestine and therefore insufficient unless the Slav bloc is willing to take chances.
It is true that northeastern Greece and her adjacent islands' control, under proper military conditions, the western approach to the Dardanelles. But there is every indication that Russia doesn't want even the Dardanelles itself bad enough to take a chance on war over it, much less over its approaches. There is, indeed, every evidence that, in spite of their differences and jockeying for position, none of the powers is going to take any really dangerous steps any time soon.
As a matter of fact, it is not demonstrable that the Greek trouble is attributable to Moscow. Balkan peoples are sufficiently habituated to their own quarrels to carry them on without outside help. Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria are not likely to be caught working against Russian interests, but Moscow doesn't attempt to direct their every move, either.
If spontaneous activities produce a profit for the Soviet, well and good, but if the gravy bowl is too hot to hold, don't reach for it. That, probably is Russia's position regarding Greece.

Free Economy . . .

a rich and successful era—can see how much liberty the people might be willing to yield if they became jobless, hungry and hopeless in depression.
In this country free enterprise means freedom—from government dictation—of business to set its own prices on its goods and labor to bargain for whatever wages it can get for its work.

In that way the public is free to buy, or not to buy, a businessman's goods and, in order to sell his goods he sets prices the public is willing to pay. That's the theory.
We have been raised on the tradition that free enterprise, by free men, has made this country great and will continue to keep it that way.
We had such free enterprise before the war. Then the war came and, up until now, the government told business what prices it could charge and labor what wages it could get. Now this is ending.
So we start out again upon free enterprise but in a world where Socialism—the opposite of free enterprise—is far stronger than it was before the war, and more widespread.
(Socialism is government ownership of the essential means of production and distribution of goods, like coal mines, aviation, railroads.)
Russian Communism—which is Socialism in extreme form because it is a dictatorship with government ownership of practically everything—is far more powerful than in the year 1939.
And Russia, all polite words aside, dominates eastern Europe.
But Socialism has spread now to England, that original home of free enterprise, although in much milder form than in Russia. In England the government has assumed ownership of the Bank of England and communications and civil aviation. And it will take over the coal mines next year.

Ayden Exhibit Wins First At State Fair

The Ayden Agricultural Department exhibit placed first in the Vocational Education Exhibits at the State Fair in Raleigh this week.
One exhibit from each of the six vocational districts made up the vocational display. The placings were: Ayden, Balanced Farming, first; Rock Ridge, Forestry, second; Stegman, Pasture Improvement, third. Other exhibits were awarded fourth place.
The Ayden exhibit was constructed by the Agricultural and Veterans Farmer Training classes.
S. F. Petersen, teacher of agriculture, Joel Wingate, assistant shop teacher, and Lovd Wilson set up the exhibit at the fair.

Goering Poison . . .

his last grim joke.
Col. B. C. Andrus, prison commandant, insisted that he believed his own personnel innocent of any wrongdoing. He said bitterly that a German attorney, perhaps in the last days of the trial, may have given Goering the poison vial that enabled him to take his own life.
In this, however, he was in conflict with his assistant, Major Fred Teich, who said he was convinced that Goering had found some way to conceal the vial and might have had it in his possession ever since his incarceration after the war ended.
Teich also sought to explode a circulating theory that one of the prison guards traded Goering the poison for one of the marshal's gems. Teich said he had all the jewels safe in the prison strongbox.

Chinese Army . . .

(In Tientsin, the Catholic newspaper, Social Welfare, charged that the Communists were using 500 Japanese prisoners of war as artillerymen in their siege of Paoing.
(Tientsin's Ta Kung Pao said Government authorities had ceased supplying electric power to Communist-held Harbin in northern Manchuria and the Reds had filed a protest.)

The Communists captured Liulichao station, 25 miles southwest of Peiping on the Peiping-Hankow line. This appeared to be a surprise assault to the rear of Government reinforcements stymied in the Chohsien-Sunglinchao sector, 40 miles south of Peiping. Fighting raged in the Chohsien-Sunglinchao area as the Communists intensified their offensive along the northern sector of the vital rail line.

velopment on the very eve of the cabinet officer's return.
Officials said the United States had canceled a $40,000,000 surplus property credit to Czechoslovakia, and in addition had suspended indefinitely a pending $50,000,000 rehabilitation loan to the Czechs by the Export-Import Bank.
The primary reason behind this $90,000,000 slap at one of the countries in the Russian bloc was said to be the Czech backing of Soviet charges at Paris that the U. S. is resorting to "dollar diplomacy" in eastern Europe in an effort to advance "American imperialism."
There was no official statement to this effect, but the evidence appears to be that at some critical moment in the long Paris struggle Byrnes himself ordered or approved the economic crackdown on Czechoslovakia.

to complaints from a number of AFL unions that recent concentration on Southern organizing was not helping them.
The convention housing resolution said, so far, National Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt has been concentrating on a program of one-family homes for veterans. It was and ice skaters are planning a tournament in late February.

in the construction industry as well as faster fulfillment of veterans' housing needs can be attained by emphasis on building apartments for rent.
"These one-family homes will cost more than the average war veteran can pay for in his remaining years of life, thus causing foreclosure and loss of his home," the resolution said.

Charge Lenoir Judge With Manslaughter

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 17—(AP)—Judge Joe Dawson of the Lenoir County Recorder's Court was under indictment for manslaughter today in connection with the death of Robert Bruce Johnson of Trenton, N. C.
Johnson was injured fatally Sunday night in a collision between his automobile and one driven by Dawson.
The indictment against Dawson was returned yesterday by a Superior Court grand jury. His case is not expected to be tried before the December term of court.
Dawson has been at liberty on a $2000 coroner's bond, pending an inquest. Bond on the manslaughter charge has not been set.
State Highway Patrolmen T. W. Pearing and Vernon Lee Sprull arrested Dawson following the accident on tentative charges of drunk driving and manslaughter.

GI's In Japan Given Wide Sports Variety

Yokohama, O. T. 17—(AP)—Sports-minded GIs have a wide selection of activities in Japan this fall and winter.
Their football league operates through Nov. 24, after which basketball games will be issued for a league schedule extending into February.
In mid-November, an all star baseball team will be sent to the Philippines for the Pacific Inter-command Tourney involving also teams from Hawaii, Korea, the Marinas and the Philippines.
Four boxing tournaments are slated in November and December. Others will compete in a downhill slalom, cross country and jump concentrating on a program of one-family homes for veterans. It was and ice skaters are planning a tournament in late February.

Jackson Urging New War Trials

Washington, Oct. 16—(AP)—Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson called today for the immediate prosecution of many top-flight Germans whose war crimes, he said, remain unpunished.
In a report to President Truman Jackson urged a new series of trials for "a very large number" of ex-Nazis.
Jackson cited industrialists, financiers, leading cabinet ministers, diplomats, police officials and militarists who so far have escaped retribution.

Their guilt, he said, does not differ from those already convicted in the Nuernberg trials "except that their parts were at lower levels and have been less conspicuous."
Jackson, who served as chief American prosecutor at Nuernberg, said the industrialists and financiers certainly could be tried on such specific charges as using slave labor.
