Bevin Outlines Britain's Hopes

Gives What May Prove To Be Most Important Speech Of Career In Presenting Goals And Policies To House Of Commons; Touches All Phases Of International Relations

London, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin declared today that "we must either have the Potsdam agreement observed as a whole and in the order of these decisions or we must have a new agreement."

Opening a two-day debate in the House of Commons on foreign policy, Bevin declared an agreement on Germany is at once the touchstone of the relations among four powers and our opportunity to build a lasting peace and security for the world.

He expressed "almost complete agreement" with U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes' pronouncements on the future of Germany in his Stuttgart speech and added that, "equally, we welcome Marshal Stalin's statement."

Bevin opposed Russian demands on Turkey for the Dardanelles, he declared "we will not desert Greece and said we wish to see Persia (Iran) free from foreign interference."

He said Great Britain had no military interest nor any narrow national interest in Trieste, where he said British interest is purely one of international trade. He expressed hope that British troops could be withdrawn from both Trieste and Greece.

Voicing British desires about Germany, Bevin told the packed house:

"We wish to see established first political conditions which will secure the world against any German reversion to dictatorship or any revival of German aggressive policy."

Commenting on the economic future of Germany, he warned that Britain was not prepared to carry out parts of the Potsdam agreement unfavorable to us "while other sections were left unfulfilled."

"If we are to achieve a lasting peace and economy recovery, all the forthcoming United Nations and Foreign Ministers' Council meetings in New York must have a readiness to recognize the legitimate interests of others and to submit."

Stalin's Aide Is Given Promotion

Moscow, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The appointment of Georgi M. Malenkov, 45, as one of the vice chairmen of the council of ministers and his removal from the Presidency of the Supreme Soviet led to speculation here today. The move was made public after its ratification Saturday by both houses of the Supreme Soviet.

In one of his most recent public speeches, during Moscow electioneering Feb. 8, Malenkov declared: "The weak are not respected and it has often been shown that the weak have been beaten. It is no secret that friends respect us because we are strong, and it follows always to remember that friends will respect us only as long as we are strong."

(Malenkov was mentioned recently by a British conservative weekly, The Spectator, as the most likely successor to Stalin. It said he was considered "perhaps the closest to Stalin of the Soviet hierarchy.")

Atomosphere Of Hope

Delegates To General Assembly Voice Optimism; International Give-And-Take Said Needed; Conflict Of Isms Now Going On; Communist's Infiltration

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The United Nations General Assembly is meeting in New York Wednesday in an atmosphere of hope for better times.

We have the emphatic assurance of the Assembly President, Paul Henri-Spaak of Belgium, that the conference "will be a great success—absolutely." And from V. M. Molotov, Russian Foreign Minister and head of the Soviet delegation, comes the statement that he is sure "important tasks now before the United Nations can be successfully solved and that any difficulties can be overcome, given good will and the real desire to achieve mutual understanding."

Molotov pledged that the Russian delegation "will contribute to insuring that the work of the United Nations General Assembly and the Council of Foreign Ministers is successful and is accomplished in the interests of strengthening peace and the well-being of peoples, great and small."

BIG AIRLINERS ARE GROUNDED BY WALKOUTS

Nat'l. Mediation Board Considers Intervention In Pilots' Strike

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The White House said today the National Mediation Board is considering possible intervention in the two-day-old strike of pilots which has halted Trans World Airline flights at home and abroad.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross emphasized at a news conference that the White House itself has not entered into the wage dispute, but simply has been advised that the board is studying the case. He added that he did not know what that agency might do.

At the same time, he said government seizure of the world-wide TWA system has not been discussed.

Otherwise, there was no sign of a break in the deadlock over the pay increase demands of the AFL pilots who now earn about $1,000 a month.

TWA officials took over the controls of a special plane to fly United Nations delegates and officials from Paris to New York for the U. N. assembly tomorrow. But aside from that, all TWA Skyliners and Constellations were parked at airports.

Thirty-three were aboard the special plane flown by Larry Trimble, TWA assistant superintendent of flying in Europe, and Stanley Stanton, assistant technical manager. Approximately 100 other New York bound passengers were stranded at Paris, Rome and Shannon after pilots left planes there.

Neither side showed any inclination to budge from its stand and there were indications that the government might have to step into the controversy.

Differing versions of the AFL union's pay demands range from a top union estimate of $1,187 a month.

Speaker Lashes Demo Party Line

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Sen. Raymond E. Willis (R-Ind.), speaking in behalf of the candidacy of Judge Guy Weaver for 12th district congressman, last night accused the Democratic party of fostering a "totalitarian type" of government and "demagoguery."

Weaver, confining himself to the local situation, charged members of the Democratic party in the 12th district with "fraudulent use of the absentee ballot," asserting this was particularly true of "Henderson and several of the western counties."

The senior senator from Indiana said: "It is utterly ridiculous to talk administration which has led the people to believe that it's possible to get ahead without working, to have all the good things of life without production, and to get more goods into American homes by shipping abroad a dwindling supply of what's available in America."

"It is economic bunk and political demagoguery of the highest order but the New Dealers keep preaching it."

He said every year since 1933 the cost of living has increased in America because of deficit financing.

Diplomats Converge On Site Of U. N. Assembly

Staffs And Advisers Shape Policies To Be Presented; Disposal Of League Mandated Territories Appears Assured

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Diplomats from over the world called their staffs and advisers into last-minute conferences today to shape the policies they will present in the meetings of the General Assembly of the United Nations which open tomorrow in Flushing Meadow Park with President Truman as the welcoming speaker.

Most delegations already were settled in overcrowded New York hotels, but late-comers still were arriving by air from far parts of the globe. Among those due to arrive today were two prospective antagonists—Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts, Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of the Union of South Africa, and Mrs. Vijayalakshmi Pandit of India. Her plane trip was delayed by engine trouble at Algiers and then by the two pilots' strike in Shannon, Eire, where she changed planes.

Although some negotiations were reported in the wrangles between India and South Africa, Mrs. Pandit—only woman delegation chief—was prepared to carry on a fight in the assembly against "Jim Crow" conditions allegedly imposed upon Indians in South Africa. She is the sister of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, chief minister in India's new interim government.

The Indian delegation also has organized a campaign which may be sprung to oppose South Africa's intentions of annexing southwest Africa, the old German colony which the Union administers under a League of Nations mandate. The annexation proposal has been placed before the General Assembly for consideration.

The disposal of several other League mandates under a trusteeship council seemed assured with the announcement last night that the United Kingdom had submitted terms under which it would agree to trusteeships for Tanganyika, Togoland and Cameroon, all in Africa.

If the British proposals and those of Australia and France for trusteeships over their mandates are accepted by the Assembly, the trusteeship council would be set up as the last major organ of the U. N. to be established. The mandate holders would serve as administering states, with the United States, Russia and China as the non-administering members of the council.

France has offered French Togoland and Cameroon and the Australians have offered their portion of New Guinea.

The American delegation headed by former Senator Warren Austin of Vermont continued its day-long sessions of combing through the list of problems on the Assembly agenda. It met in almost continuous session yesterday and last night to determine a policy on future

EISLER DENIES BEING BERGER

Says Pen Name Used By Daily Worker Foreign Editor

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Gerhard Eisler, named by a former editor of The Daily Worker, Communist publication, as the mysterious "Hans Berger" who directed all Communist activity in America, says "there is no such person as 'Hans Berger.'"

"That name is the pen name invented by the foreign editor of the Daily Worker, Mr. Joseph Starobin, for use in publishing articles for which, though written and sponsored by himself, were largely based on material or notes supplied by himself," Eisler said in a prepared statement last night.

He had been named as "Hans Berger" by Louis F. Budenz, who renounced Communism to rejoin the Catholic Church last year. Budenz, now an economics instructor at Fordham University, said he took orders from "Hans Berger" when he was editing the Daily Worker.

Eisler, who has denied using any other name than Gerhard Eisler since coming to this country as a German refugee in 1941, said his explanation was delayed because Starobin has been undergoing a delicate ear operation. At Starobin's Long Island City home, his wife said he had authorized Eisler to issue the statement.

"Shortly after my arrival in this country, in August, 1941," Eisler said, "Mr. Starobin approached me with the proposal that I contribute articles on Germany and German problems for the publication with which he was connected."

In Washington, Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) said the House committee on un-American activities had issued a subpoena for Eisler. The committee will hear his testimony some time after Nov. 19, when Budenz is to testify, Rankin said.

MOSCOW REPLY SHOWS STRONG BALKAN HOLD

Rejected U. S. Plan To Guarantee Free Elections In Bulgaria

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Russia's jealous grip on the Balkans was underlined anew today as the State Department docketed still another Soviet rebuff—this time in connection with Bulgaria.

The department disclosed that the latest friction developed when Russia bluntly rejected an American plan for allied action to guarantee free and fearless elections in Bulgaria.

Moscow's official representative, Col. Gen. Sergei Biryusov, asserted the plan was not only improper from a jurisdictional standpoint but also constituted "rude interference" in Bulgarian affairs.

Obviously nettled, the State Department countered yesterday by saying "we will keep a sharp watch on the Bulgarian election," suggesting for October 21, an addition, it appeared likely that the United States will continue to withhold its recognition of the Bulgarian government, at least until satisfied that Bulgaria's assurances of a free election have been fulfilled.

The issue—once again emphasizing Soviet resentment over any attempt to probe into Russia's sphere of interest—developed originally from a request made by Secretary of State Byrnes in Paris on September 24.

At that time, Byrnes asked for a special session of the tri-power-Bulgarian control commission to "consider the steps" necessary to insure a free election in Bulgaria, and urged the following:

Break In Cotton Hits N. C. Price

Raleigh, Oct. 22.—(AP)—North Carolina's cotton crop decreased in value some $14,400,000 because of the drop in cotton prices last week, but cotton farmers have been urged not to become panicky and rush their crops to market.

"Although things are in an unsettled state, I can see no reason why the market should drop any further, especially in view of the short crop," said A. B. Fairley, superintendent of warehouses for the State Department of Agriculture.

"We do hope that Tar Heel cotton growers won't become panicky and market their cotton now," said M. G. Mann, secretary and general manager of the N. C. Cotton Growers Cooperative Association. There is every reason to believe that the bottom has been reached.

We are looking for an advancing market. From a statistical standpoint, there is no reason why cotton should not again reach the high point of October 8."

Order Morale Report On Army In Pacific

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has asked Gen. Douglas MacArthur for a report on morale of troops in the Pacific, with particular reference to the Philippines.

Disclosing this today, War Department officials said the inquiry was prompted by dispatches saying morale among some units is low, and that the conduct of some troops in the Philippines has been criticized by Filipino leaders.

CIO Marine Engineers Sign Truce To End Long Maritime Walkout

New York, Oct. 22.—(AP)—CIO Marine Engineers and east and west coast ship operators today signed a contract to settle their 22-day old maritime walkout but the strike of deck officers and licensed ship personnel continued to bottle up virtually all American shipping.

Signing of the contract between the ship operators and the marine engineers beneficial association was announced by U. S. Conciliator Frederick Livingstone.

Before the shipping tieup on the east and west coasts comes to an end the pact must be ratified by both the union membership and the 44 shipping companies and representatives of agents and operators.

Terms also must be agreed upon between the operators and the other union out on strike, the AFL, Masters, Mates and Pilots, who adjourned a long negotiating session to 3:30 p. m. (EST) today.

The engineers sought a 35 per cent pay raise which would result in the following monthly wage changes on a Class C Liberty ship: Chief engineer, $499 to $673; first assistant, $314 to $424; second assistant, $275 to $371; third assistant, $232 to $340.

Krug Invites Lewis To Early Discussion Of New Soft Coal Mining Contract With Govm't.

UMW Leader Threatens New Coal Production Shutdown; Charges Breach Of Contract; Hints At New Wage Demands; Krug "Shocked" Over Assertions, Offers Arbitration

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug, now traveling in the southwest, today invited John L. Lewis to meet him in California if he wants to discuss a new soft coal mining contract by Nov. 1.

The United Mine Workers' leader, tossing out the threat of a new coal production shutdown, charged the government with breach of contract yesterday and hinted broadly at new wage demands. He demanded that negotiations for a new contract begin by Nov. 1.

"On that date," Krug told Lewis in a communication made available at the Interior Department, "I will be at Lake Lake, Calif., discussing our program for veterans' settlement, but I will find a way of arranging a time for our meeting if you want to meet me there."

"However, if it should better meet your convenience I will see you in Washington directly after my last public address on November 6 to the Town Hall in Los Angeles, which ends my committed western trip."

"Will you please let my office know what arrangement will suit you best?"

Lewis' new challenge, ending almost six months of comparative silence, could mean a walkout of the nation's 400,000 soft coal miners by Nov. 20 on the icy edge of winter.

Unless his attack with sudden fury, the United Mine Workers' union boss accused the government of contract breaches resulting in the loss of millions of dollars due to the mine workers.

In a letter to Secretary Krug yesterday, Lewis demanded that negotiations for a completely new contract begin by November 1, and coupled with it a threat to tear up the existing contract in 30 days.

Krug, reached at Amarillo, Tex., during an inspection trip, expressed shock at Lewis' assertions.

"The government has not breached its contract with the United Mine Workers," he declared.

"I have already suggested to Mr. Lewis arbitration on these (disputed) points."

Krug disclosed that he and Lewis had a heated discussion in his office last Saturday morning. He also asserted that in his opinion some of the wildcat coal strikes constituted a breach of contract on the

ARREST NAZI IN STUTTGART

High-Ranking SS Officer Will Expose Terrorists

Stuttgart, Germany, Oct. 22.—(AP)—German police said today that a fugitive high ranking SS officer had been arrested and had promised to expose German terrorists who exploded three bombs Saturday in the Stuttgart area in protest against de-nazification proceedings.

Nearly 7,000 Stuttgart workers struck for 15 minutes before noon disrupting the city, as a protest against the bombings, which they attributed to right-wing extremists.

The office of the German police president said the SS officer was arrested during four raids last night by U. S. soldiers and German agents in an all-night house-to-house search. Twenty or 30 others were seized. The officer, whose name was withheld, refused to inform the U. S. army investigators, the Germans said.

The arrest appeared to be the first important break in two days of exhaustive investigation of the bombings of an American military jail and the headquarters of two German de-nazification boards—the most serious violence in the American occupation zone since the war ended.

Fifty-eight Germans were arrested in two of last night's raids. The labor representatives asserted that the strike had the support of the four major political parties in American-occupied Germany.

The strike took place after United States constabulary, German police (Continued on Page Six)

Jordan Declines Loss Statement

New Orleans, Oct. 22.—(AP)—Thomas L. Jordan, who ran a few dollars into a big cotton future, declined today to affirm or deny that he was the trader who lost several million dollars in a plummeting market last week and forced the closing of all exchanges Saturday.

Operators on the New Orleans exchange said, however, that Jordan's was the 150,000-bale account which was liquidated.

Jordan appeared in the exchange today. He remains a member in good standing.

"I have nothing to say," he told a newsmen.

Two hundred-odd soldiers, with little show of force, had guided the group off the 300-ton refugee schooner Fenice and down 100 yards to the pier.

The Fenice, nearing the end of a two-week voyage from an unnamed port, was boarded yesterday by a party from the British minesweeper Moon and brought in to port.

Lewis vs. The Champ

John L. Lewis Back In The Ring, This Time Fighting The U. S. Govm't Over Vague Demands Covering Wages, Hours, Rules; New Strike Would Hurt

Washington, Oct. 22.—(AP)—John L. Lewis—with his big hat and his ten-gallon words—is back in the ring, punching again.

Lewis has spent years slugging away at heavyweights like the coal mine owners. It seems now they were just preliminary boys. He was just warming up.

This time he takes on the champ, the U. S. government itself. Last spring Lewis hit the mine owners with a bucketful of demands which he deliberately made vague. When he got the owners into a room he bounced big words and booming phrases off them.

The words and the phrases were a combination of Bible, Shakespeare and mined ham. But they got Lewis the publicity he wanted for his miners.

A. A. U. W. Hears Dr. Cooke
Following an excellent dinner served last night by the young matrons of the Christian Church, members of the American Association of University Women and their guests heard Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, president of East Carolina Teachers College, speak on the subject, "Education Raises Living Standards."

Using such countries as Denmark, Switzerland, Norway, New Zealand, and the United States as examples, Dr. Cooke proved that a definite relation existed between high educational standards and a high standard of living. Despite the handicaps of poor natural resources, poor climate, and lack of adequate water power for electricity, many countries have been able to maintain a relatively high standard of living because of the technical training afforded the population. Conversely, he pointed out numerous countries, rich in mineral deposits, oil, and other natural resources, which have a poor standard of living because of the poor educational advantages they provide.

If our standard of living in the United States is to be maintained, we must put more and more into education, according to Dr. Cooke. "Ireland can become poor land, but training and know-how can turn poor land back into rich land," he said.

In the business session, letters were read from members of the Association in France expressing their thanks for gift packages of clothing sent to them by members of the local chapter.

Announcement was made that Mrs. Robert Lee Humber and Mrs. D. S. Spain, Jr., had been unanimously nominated for the offices of state president and state secretary, respectively. It was with great pride that the Greenville chapter endorsed the nominees. The election will take place October 26th at a meeting in Burlington.

A number of guests, including Mrs. Cooke, wife of the speaker, and several new members were welcomed by the group.

The schools within her borders are Pitt county's pride and the man who raises his voice against them for political purposes would rob the children of their rights if he could gain personal preferment thereby. B. and P. Women's Club
Miss Sally Butler, of Indianapolis, Indiana, president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, calls attention to a recent statement issued by the Census Bureau showing that women of voting age outnumber men by nearly a million and a quarter.

On July 1, the Census Bureau announced there were 46,403,210 women of voting age compared with 45,231,262 men," stated Miss Butler. "That is a margin of 1,171,948."

Miss Butler urges women to consider and accept their responsibility to vote and to remember this fall they can take it upon themselves to see that women are registered and ready to vote in the municipal and congressional elections, and for gubernatorial and senatorial candidates in states holding elections for those offices.

Miss Butler also calls attention to the following recommendation passed by the Federation's biennial convention in Cleveland in July: "That on the basis of women's eminent fitness, the Federation and its affiliated clubs continue to endorse and work for the election and appointment of qualified women to local, state, national and international offices, boards and commissions."

This means, according to Miss Butler, that the Federation members will endorse qualified women, disregarding party for nomination and election to office through the United States, and urge women to run for state, national and local positions.

Spent Week-End at Camp Hardee
Troop No. 8 with their leader, Miss Pattie Fruse, and Miss Frances Kittrell, assistant leader, spent the week-end at Camp Hardee. The weather was ideal and the camp site was lovely with the many colored autumn leaves.

The girls had a happy time doing everything in true Scout style. Each girl prepared her own supper and breakfast. Supper was cooked on the open fireplace and breakfast prepared on individual tin can stoves. The girls had wonderful toast and eggs cooked in this manner.

After breakfast was over and the stoves and dishes cleared away, the girls went down on the beach for their church service in Scout language is "The Scouts Own." From the service they hiked to Cutler's Landing and returned to have lunch of "hunter's stew" that had been started cooking before the hike.

Happy Hellen brought them all back to Greenville around three o'clock.

Troop No. 4 plans to spend this week-end at camp. If the weather permits, it is hoped that every Scout in Greenville who wishes to may have a week-end at Camp Hardee.

U. D. C. Meets

Mrs. J. H. Boyd was hostess to the George B. Singletary Chapter of the U. D. C. on Thursday afternoon, October 17th, at her home on 7th street. Mrs. J. L. Fleming, president of the chapter presided. Mrs. Fleming led the group in the Salute to the Flag and in the reading of the Collect. Following this there was a brief business session in which committee reports were made. The election of officers scheduled for this meeting was postponed to a later date.

The essayist for the program was Mrs. J. C. Wooten, her subject being "The Confederate Cruisers." Mrs. Wooten explained that on account of the great speed of this type of boat, the cruisers played a large part in destroying Federal commerce.

These Confederate cruisers were so active, at one time they had driven all Federal commerce from the seven seas. Mrs. Wooten stated that the cruiser, Alabama, built in England, was the most notable of all the cruisers of the Confederacy. The Alabama was under the command of the famous Captain Raphael Semmes and his thrilling exploits brought glory to the Confederate flag.

While the Alabama was in the Port of Cherbourg, France, the Federal cruiser, Kersage, came off the Port, where upon the Alabama challenged the Kersage to battle. The challenge was accepted. After a gallant fight the Alabama began to sink and Captain Semmes was compelled to surrender. Thus ended the career of the most famous of all Confederate cruisers.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served consisting of an ice course and coffee.

Receives Commendation Ribbon

Col. Bascom L. Wilson, staff surgeon for Fifteenth Air Force Headquarters, Colorado Springs, Colorado, was awarded the army commendation ribbon for achieving outstanding medical service from units of the Fifteenth Air Force during the period of December, 1945, to August 1946. Col. Wilson, of Greenville, North Carolina, has been stationed with this command since May of 1944, prior to which he served as air force surgeon with Fifth Air Force Headquarters in Brisbane, Australia.

Entertainment Series at College

The First Piano Quartet, celebrated four-piano group of the concert stage and radio, will usher in the 1946-1947 entertainment series at East Carolina Teachers college on November 4, and will be followed during the school year by five other performances.

The series for this year, according to Marguerite Austin, chairman of the college entertainment committee, is one of the finest to be presented on the campus in recent years. Numbers have been chosen to meet the varied tastes of students and of patrons in Greenville and other localities in the eastern section of the state.

The first piano quartet, described as "four concert artists playing four concert grands," is now one of the most popular groups on NBC coast-to-coast broadcasts. The members are pioneers in the field of four-piano concerts, as their name, "First Piano Quartet," implies. In fact, the group might well be called the "Only Piano Quartet." In fact, the only outstanding performers but also gifted artists in arranging compositions for their concerts. They play the classics.

known dance orchestra, yet to be announced, will be an attraction.

Programs for the winter will begin with a joint song recital on January 13 by Frances Yeend, brilliant young American lyric soprano, and Walter Cassel, baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Association. Cassel appeared here on the Entertainment Series several years ago as a member of a quartet of Metropolitan artists and is remembered for his fine voice and attractive stage personality.

The Foxhole Ballet, a favorite with G. I. audiences during the war, will be presented on March 5. The group is headed by Grant Mouradoff, formerly leading solo dancer with the Metropolitan Opera Association. The six other members of the ballet have appeared with such celebrated groups as the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo and the Mordkin Ballet.

During the spring quarter, attractions will be the North Carolina Symphony Orchestra, which needs no introduction to Greenville audiences, having become popular here at previous performances; and Henry L. Scott, concert pianist-humorist. Collier's Magazine described Scott as a concert pianist of superior ability, "one of the nicest living Americans," and a laugh provoker who keeps his audiences howling. Dates for the last two performances will be announced later.

Greenville Garden Club

The Greenville Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Woman's Club on Friday, October 18, with Mrs. Vance Perkins, chairman, presiding. The various standing committees gave interesting reports, and new year-books were given out by the program chairman, Mrs. N. T. Ennett. The district meeting in Tarboro on October 23rd was discussed and several members plan to attend this meeting. At the conclusion of the business, the speaker, Mrs. R. M. Garrett, was introduced. Mrs. Garrett's topic was "California, Its Beauty Spots and Flowers." At the beginning of her talk the speaker quoted Lord Bryce in his statement that California is more than a state—it is a country. In order to bring it a little closer home to her listeners, Mrs. Garrett transposed California to our own eastern coast, where it would extend from Charleston, S. C., to Boston and in from the coast as far as South Carolina extends. Many interesting facts were given regarding the geography, climate, parks and flowers of this unique state, where one can see snow on the mountain tops and beautiful flowers blooming in the valleys just below. Many acres in the cities are given over to large, well kept parks and one of these parks was described in detail. In the spring the hills, mountains and valleys come to life and are covered with a profusion of wild flowers and special mention was made of the California poppy, the state flower.

California has catalogued 2,500 wild flowers. We were taken on a trip through the Santa Clara and San Joaquin valley during blossom time and this was followed by a trip up the coast through the larger cities. No trip to California would be complete without a visit to the Tournament of Roses and the garden club members were especially interested in the types of flowers used in the beautiful floats. Mrs. Garrett quotes from a book by a romantic old Spaniard, in 1510. He said "that California is very close to the terrestrial paradise." In closing she says, seeing is believing, so she wished for all of us a visit to this glorious golden state that deals only in superlatives.

Police Chief Jim Tanner said today that the police radio car continues to prove its value in rounding up speeders, reckless and drunken motor vehicle drivers. In less than a couple of hours yesterday police arrested Lloyd O. Jones of Blount's Creek on the charge of driving while drunk, and arrested Charles T. Teachey for allowing another to drive his car while he was drunk. Teachey is charged with being drunk.

Shortly after this police in the radio car arrested James T. Short, colored, 213 Reade Street, on the charge of driving a log truck while under the influence of liquor.

They will be tried before Judge Jimmy Roberts in Police Court Friday.

News Analyst At Lions Club Meet

The Lions Club enjoyed an analysis of foreign affairs by Mr. E. M. Oettinger, news commentator of Wilson, N. C. Mr. Oettinger spoke on the American foreign policy with its relation to Russian and Great Britain, encouraging his listeners to try and understand the Russian point of view.

"Only a peaceful world can be built upon understanding, cooperation and mutual respect," he said. "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

Mr. Oettinger further pointed out that education and religion have an important place in settling world problems. He stated that we must lead the way for other nations by showing how it is possible to provide proper education, hospitals, and other public needs that benefit humanity.

Guests of the club were: Charles Bissette, Dr. C. F. Keuzenkamp, Frank Strawn, Junior Lion Dave Clark, Jr. and Fred Brooks, Jr.

The Lions again agreed to assist Godfrey Oakley in raising money for the Community Chest. Teams were organized and assignments made for the solicitations.

Monday night's meeting was held at the Woman's Club, and the membership expressed its appreciation to the ladies who made it possible for their return. Thanks were also extended for the dinner served by the Junior Woman's Club and others.

Lion President Vernon Rawls presided.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

NOT MUCH BUT GLORIOUS

A man died some years ago whose quiet Christian influence had made a profound effect on the lives of many men, especially on the lives of young men. It was announced that all who had become Christians through his influence were invited to accompany his body on a special car which had been chartered for the funeral. One hundred and fifty crowded into the car.

Throughout his life this man had done only one thing. Every Sunday he had two extra places set at his table for strangers or for young friends he would meet at church. Then in the afternoon he conversed with these friends and any others who might drop in. The result was that his home became a well-known center of Christian influence. This man was utterly devoid of the gifts which would have made him an effective public speaker. He never made a speech during his entire career. Furthermore, he had no wealth. He was very modestly educated.

But he loved his fellow men, and he set on his heart at all times a deep concern for their spiritual welfare. He believed that the way to show his Christianity was through friendship, extended to all men, and especially to those who were lonely. Many a youngster, new in the city, remembered the day this quiet little man asked him home to dinner and life forthwith took on a different aspect.

He didn't do much, but it was all done in a spirit of love. Like his Master, he went about doing good.

WASHINGTON LETTER

BOSS OF BIG BUILDINGS
By JANE EADS

Washington — Modest, graying David Lynn, supervising architect of the Capitol of the United States, has more responsibilities in the planned structure on the hill than the old woman who lived in the Shoe.

His biggest job is the structural and mechanical care of the Capitol building. But one of the most trying must be arranging for ceremonies and ceremonials to be held in the building and on the grounds.

The year 1939-40 was sort of typical. Something went on almost every day. There were concerts by the Emerson High School band of Gary, Ind., and the Cedar Rapids (Ia.) Boys' Y. M. C. A. Drum and Bugle Corps.

Funeral services were held for Claude A. Swanson, late secretary of the Navy.

The Prince consort of Luxembourg and Crown Prince John made a visit which called for the American variety of pomp and circumstance.

Taking Death For The Holiday

ness out of their husband's trouser knees.

"Specialists," no less, explain that "trousers bag where the fabric has been stretched and shrinking with steam is the cure."

"Lay the trouser leg flat on the ironing board with the baggy part uppermost. Lay a wool cloth over this section and a moistened cotton cloth on top. Press gently, moving the iron from side to side so that the steam goes into the garment."

Lewis . . .

in a head-to-head talk with Krug, told the secretary:

The government wasn't living up to its contract and was doing some things Lewis thought violated the contract.

Krug apparently didn't yield to the man in the big black hat, so yesterday Lewis wrote Krug a typical Lewis letter which began:

"On Saturday, Oct. 19, 1946, you in conference with me again refused to correct the unilateral misinterpretation you have heretofore insisted on the Krug-Lewis agreement of May 29, 1946."

By "unilateral misinterpretation" Lewis seems to mean "by your one-sided misinterpretation," since unilateral means one-sided although diplomats, who use unilateral all the time, never use "one-sided" if they can help.

So Lewis, under the terms of the contract with Krug, wants a conference with him Nov. 1 to iron out the dispute. Krug, who denies any contract violation, is cool to the conference idea. He says he's now afraid it would simply delay the time when the government can get out of the coal business.

If Krug and Lewis don't reach some agreement the miners may walk out again Nov. 20.

Another coal strike—a long one—would really put the country in a box. It's just getting over the no-meat blues and never has run as smoothly on the reconversion trolley since reconversion started after Japan's surrender.

Whether Lewis—in addition to wanting the government to straighten out what he considers a violation of his contract—wants higher wages for his miners remains to be seen.

He told Krug in his letter that one of the reasons he wants to talk with him Nov. 1 is for the purpose of negotiating new arrangements affecting wages, "hours, rules" and so on.

Keeping the other guy on the defensive like that is an old Lewis custom, except this time the other guy is the government.

Atmosphere . . .

that, especially since the Communists hold that the Western form of Democracy is a threat to Communism and therefore must be destroyed.

The political battle is growing hotter daily, not only in Europe and Asia but here in our own country and in the rest of the Western hemisphere. America in particular is the objective of Communism, because Uncle Sam is the capitalistic villain of the show.

All of eastern and southeastern Europe (excepting Greece) has been brought into the Soviet sphere of influence. So has that part of central Europe comprised in the German territory which Poland now occupies. The conflict of the isms now is hot along the frontier of the Slavic bloc, especially over helpless little Austria and that portion of Germany which is occupied by the Western Allies.

Then out in the Far East, United States military sources in Korea have disclosed excerpts from a document titled "Joint Soviet-Communist Master Plan For Korea." This plan outlined how half a million Koreans in the Russian zone of northern Korea could be trained so that they would be able to establish a leftist government. Then, by infiltration into the American zone in the southern half of the country, the whole of Korea could be Sovietized.

Diplomats . . .

needs of the refugee-care agencies after the ending of UNRRA next year and also completed its committee assignments.

The report on five proposed sites surveyed in Westchester County will be made public tonight. As a counter to New York's offer of 350 acres in the 1939-40 World's Fair grounds in Flushing, where the Assembly will meet in the old New York City building, San Francisco is carrying on its campaign to convince the U. N. fathers that it has more spacious lands to offer with reasonable costs of building construction.

Buyer's Resistance . . .

by the maritime strike.

Twenty of the 43 cities both soon and shortening were markedly scarce and in 39 of them toilet tissue was anything but readily obtainable.

There were plenty of unusual tests in an old picture presented today to American housewives.

In Omaha, Neb., a number of meat markets have been picketed by members of the League of Women Shoppers bearing signs urging prospective buyers not to pay "outrageous" prices. Spokesmen said the picketing was directed ultimately at packers to get them to reduce prices to retailers. Prices already have come down.

New York City and St. Louis provided two other instances where prices have dropped under sharp refusal by housewives to buy. Good porthouse steak dropped from $1.25 a pound to 95 cents in New York, and in St. Louis it went down from $1.10 to 98 cents and failed to sell at that price.

As a sidelight, butter prices have been driven down in three cities by the same tactics. In Charlotte, N. C., butter dropped from $1.00 to 85 cents, in Omaha 95 to 82 cents and in Helena, Mont., from $1.00 to 90 cents because of a telephone cam-

It's not that we don't love our work!

WE DO LOVE our work—but these days, we almost dread leaving home and going to our showroom.

So many people want new Packards, and there are so few coming through!

But you can't build cars without materials!
The factory is straining every effort to get more parts and material so production can be increased.

We're doing our best!
Some cars have been shipped with wooden bumpers, some without window regulator handles. This costs the factory a lot of money, for it means that replacements must be shipped and installed later.

Under such difficulties, it's a wonder the folks at the factory have done as well as they have. This year, compared to the same period of 1941, Packard has built a higher percentage of cars than the industry as a whole.

We don't dare predict!
Our customers have been so patient that we'd like to sound some optimistic note.

in the edge of Pactolus Township last night. Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson said Langley broke into Jones' house while the family was away and took a radio, shotgun, gun shells and a clock. The officer recovered the loot.

The robbery was reported to authorities about 8:30 last night. Deputies Cleus Jackson and Manning and Greenville Police Sergeant Lester D. Page investigated. Page was unable to find any fingerprints, but a peculiar diamond shaped mark on the soles of Langley's shoes gave him away. The footprints at the scene of the robbery fitted his shoes. Langley admitted robbing the house. The officers said he had thrown the shotgun, shells, radio in a nearby creek. They found the clock in a cornfield. Langley will be tried in Superior Court next week.

PIN-WORMS LICKED AT LAST!

People don't talk about Pin-Worms—but more than you'd suspect have this ugly infection with its embarrassing rectal itch. However, it is no longer necessary to suffer. Today, thanks to a special, medically recognized drug, a real treatment has been established. This drug is the vital ingredient in P-W, the small, easy-to-take Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. They act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms.

So watch out for warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself. Don't delay. Ask your Druggist for JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions. It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

body to cook for. She was about to wire Al, when he barges home a week ahead of time, and she almost cries for gratitude. ("Felt the same way myself," says Al)

From where I sit, these differences of habit and opinion—whether they have to do with corn-cob pipes, a glass of beer, or playing the harmonica, seem mighty trivial when you're separated. And they are, too!

GROUPS SHOW SAFETY WORK

Child Accident Prevention Week Has Wide Sponsorship

By DAVE CLARK

In cooperation with the Travelers Protective Association safety program, "Child Accident Prevention Week," held during the week of October 20-26, ten organizations in Greenville have decorated store windows with vivid, and sometimes startling, reminders that our children's lives cannot be guarded too carefully.

Mr. Ed Davis, president of the North Carolina T. P. A., will visit Greenville on Thursday, October 24, to assist in the judging of the best windows. Prizes of $15 and $10 are offered for the best two windows.

One of the most startling window decorations is the one at Belk-Tyler's, dressed by the Rotary Club, which shows a little child who had evidently been hit by a car. The child is covered by a sheet with blood on it, and various signs in the window make pointed remarks, such as, "It's too late to be sorry," and "This could be your door," referring to the door in front of which the child is lying.

The other organizations which have window decorations, all of which are good, are: the Greenville Girl Scouts, which has its decoration at Blount-Harvey Co., the Child's Conservation and American Home Department of the Woman's Club at C. Heber Forbes, the Service League at J. C. Penny, the West Greenville Parent-Teachers Association at the City Market, the King's Daughters at McLellan's Store, the Junior Red Cross at Blount-Harvey, the Third Street School at the Copeland Motor Company, the Junior Woman's Club at Johnson Home Equipment, and the Training School Parent-Teachers Association at the Ellington Book Store.

The TPA is sponsoring this Child Accident Prevention Week in an effort to do something to halt the alarming rise in traffic and other accidents in America. Statistics show that during 1945 over 95,000 people were killed in accidents, and 10,200,000 others were injured. This gives us a chance of about one in 13 of being killed or disabled in an accident.

Arrest Nazi . . .

NCEA . . .

are accepting as our own the program submitted to the Advisory Budget Commission on October 1 by the State Board of Education. In the matter of salaries it is our understanding that the appropriation requested will do the following:

1. Provide a 20 percent over-all increase in salaries, the salary arrived at to be a base salary with no bonus or emergency salary included.
2. Provide an eleventh increment for teachers holding Class A certificates and a twelfth increment for teachers holding the graduate certificate.

"It is significant that this program has the support of the following: State Board of Education, the Legislative Committee of the North Carolina Education Association, Presidents of the four major divisions of the NCEA, the Directors of the NCEA, our State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Clyde A. Erwin, who is a Director of the Association, the leadership of the Grange, Farm Bureau, Parent-Teacher Association, Association of State School Boards, Federation of Women's Clubs, and others.

"While the appropriation requested is only for the biennium beginning July 1, the State Board of Education joins us in the hope that this salary increase will be provided as of January 1, 1947.

"The Finance Committee of the State Board of Education agrees with us that should the cost of living continue to mount, proportionate increases should be provided by the Legislature.

"All things considered, we believe that the program submitted to the Advisory Budget Commission by the State Board of Education is the best possible program that can be secured at this time. x x x"

BYRNES GIVES CREDIT PLAN

No Loans To Nations Fearing Dollar "Enslavement"

Washington, Oct. 22—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes indicated today that the United States will not extend credits to countries which might regard such credits as enslaving them economically.

Byrnes told a news conference in answer to questions about cancellation of a $40,000,000 credit to Czechoslovakia, that this government will give preference in loans to:

1. Countries needing such loans.
2. Governments which are friendly to the United States.

Byrnes' mention of economic enslavement referred to a charge made at the Paris Peace Conference by Russia's deputy foreign minister, Andrei Vishinsky, which was applauded by delegates from Czechoslovakia and other eastern European countries.

Vishinsky accused this country of practicing "dollar diplomacy," and of attempting to enslave eastern European countries through loans.

In answer to a direct question Byrnes maintained that the State Department does not have a general policy of denying aid to countries alleged to be within the Russian sphere while granting it to nations which have supported American objectives in international conferences.
