TWA SEIZURE BY PRESIDENT ANTICIPATED

May Take Action To Keep U. S. Flag Flying On International Routes

Washington, Oct. 26.—(Trans World Airlines and its striking pilots looked the White House today for any indication of a government move to end a costly six-day strike which has halted operations on 28,000 miles of international routes.

Both the management and the fliers, deadlocked over a wage issue, expressed willingness for the government to take the lines over after the strikers turned down a proposal that they resume flights while continuing negotiations.

Chairman Frank Douglass of the National Mediation Board called a meeting separately today with Jack Frye, TWA president. But he said conferences during the past two days had left the company and union still hung right where we found them.

The company estimates it is losing $2,000,000 income weekly as the result of the shutdown called by David L. Behncke, president of the Air Lines Pilots Association.

If the government acts, as has been suggested by both Frye and Behncke, it is likely to rest its decision heavily on a desire to keep the American flag flying on foreign routes, flown by TWA's international division in competition with airlines of other nations.

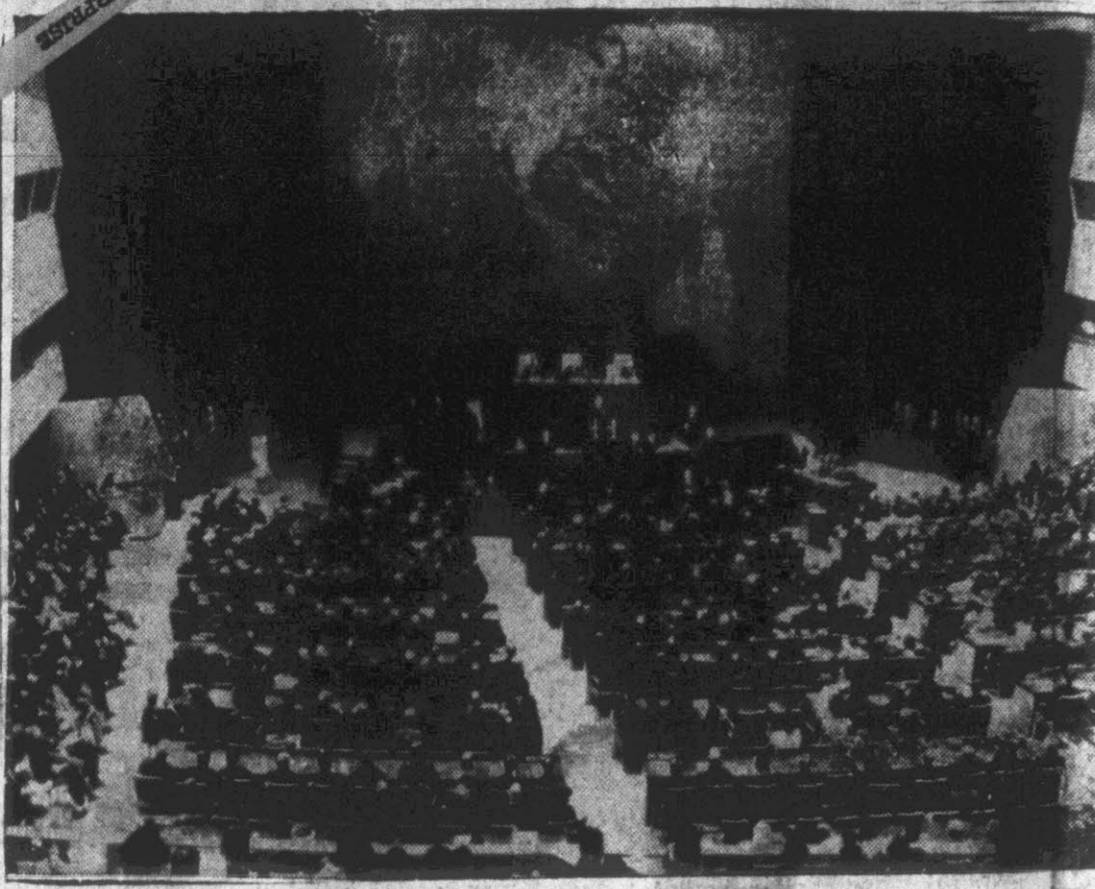

The Air Coordinating Committee, made up of top officials in the war, navy, state and commerce departments, the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Budget Bureau, met in secret session Wednesday to discuss the strike.

That committee, with John R. Steelman, reversion director and chief labor adviser to President Truman, probably will make the decision on what government step should be taken if mediation fails.

Pay demands have been the only subject thus far, Douglass said, explaining that "until we get some agreement on that, there is no use fooling around with the other stuff."

Besides pay increases for first pilots of four-engine aircraft to a union-acknowledged top of $1,187 monthly for domestic flying and additional money for international flying, the pilots want revisions in working rules.

Attorney General Fires Aide For Disclosing Secret Report

Washington, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Attorney General Tom Clark accused O. John Rogge today of disclosing confidential information in a public address and dismissed him from the post of assistant to the Attorney General.

In a crisp letter to Rogge, Clark declared "you willfully violated" regulations by quoting from a Department report in a speech detailing what Rogge said were Nazi schemes to defeat President Roosevelt in 1936, 1940 and 1944.

Clark said the information came from Rogge's own report on the wartime sedition cases against 30 Americans, which have been in abeyance since a mistrial in 1944.

The ousted official could not be reached for comment last night. Rogge, in a speech Tuesday night at Swarthmore College, said he had learned from captured Nazi documents and interviews with German officials that, among other things, before the 1940 election "the Nazis had a fantastic scheme to get John L. Lewis, the labor leader, to come out against the election of President Roosevelt."

"This scheme involved Hermann Goering, a Nazi agent by the name of Joachim Hertel, and William R. Davis, a promoter in the oil business," Davis, whose German and Mexican oil connections once were investigated by Congress, died in 1941.

In his dismissal letter to Rogge, made public at the unusual hour of 12:30 a. m., Clark said: "It has come to my attention that you have made certain statements in a public address that could only come from your report filed with me on the sedition cases. In the report, Clark noted, Rogge recommended the government not prosecute the cases.

"On the day before your speech at Swarthmore," Clark's letter continued, "and during our discussion in reference to newspaper stories appearing that morning, which claimed quotations of your report you stated to me you had no intention of using the text or substance of your report in such speech and that it would be highly unethical to do so."

"It therefore appears that you willfully violated the long-standing rules and regulations of the Department of Justice and it becomes necessary for me to sever your connection with the Department."

The dismissal was made effective at the close of business yesterday. Rogge said in his Swarthmore speech he learned the German foreign office set up in 1939 an "American committee" charged with trying to beat Roosevelt.

Even before that, he said, Bund Leader Fritz Kuhn recommended that Bund members vote for Alf (Continued on Page Four)

GOV'T SCANS UMW CONTRACT SEEKING 'OUT'

Justice Department Looking For Means To Head Off Strike Threat

Washington, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The Justice Department combed through the government's contract with the United Mine Workers today for a means of heading off the threatened Nov. 1 walkout by 400,000 soft coal miners.

The result conceivably could be an "out" for Secretary of the Interior Krug, who so far has insisted the contract is binding for as long as the government operates the mines.

John L. Lewis, the UMW chief, interprets the terms to permit termination of the contract unless Krug agrees to meet him next Friday for a discussion of higher wages. The miners' traditional policy is "no contract, no work," and next Friday is not only on the edge of winter but just four days away from the congressional elections.

Attorney General Clark assigned acting solicitor general George Washington to examine the agreement. Krug and Lewis signed last May 29 to end a 59-day work stoppage. Clark said the Justice Department wanted to be ready with an opinion on which is right—Krug or Lewis—when asked.

A finding in favor of Lewis could furnish Krug with a good reason for cutting short his western trip, now scheduled to continue until Nov. 6—five days after the Lewis deadline.

Krug said three days ago he was willing to talk to the UMW boss about the present contract, but not a new one, and that he would meet him either at Tule Lake, Calif., on Nov. 1, or at Washington after the trip ends.

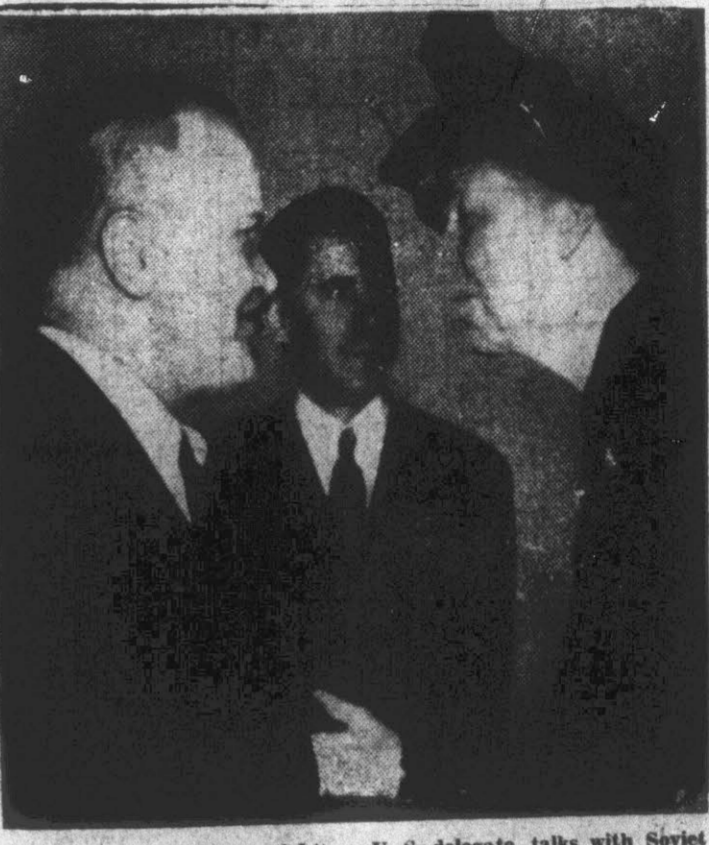

The Krug-Lewis contract, under which the Interior Department's coal mines administration has been running 2,300 mines over, carries a clause stipulating that it covers employment conditions "during the period of government possession."

Right after that, however, it says that provisions of preceding contracts with the private operators remain in effect unless otherwise amended or stipulated. So Lewis says the termination clause of his last contract before the government took over still goes.

Following his strategy in negotiations last spring, Lewis has not specified his wage demands. The United Mine Workers Journal hinted editorially yesterday he may ask a 35-hour work week with no reduction in pay. The miners now receive $75.25 for a 54-hour week.

Swelling Pressure In UN Against Soviet Veto Use

Challenge Russia To Renounce Frequent Use Of Veto Power In Security Council; Issue Overshadows All Others In Meeting Of General Assembly Today

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER New York, Oct. 26.—(AP)—A swelling chorus of United Nations demands, challenged Russia today to renounce her frequent use of the veto power in the security council.

Some U. N. delegates said Soviet reaction to the pressure would heavily influence the future success of the peace enforcement agency.

The veto issue overshadows all others and has marked the clear line of conflict between Russia and the western powers at initial sessions of the U. N. assembly pushed through a lengthy round of talking preparatory to coming to grips with specific problems next week.

Another session of oratory was slated today with speeches from the delegates of Chile, Norway, Liberia and Turkey. Officials planned to wind up this phase of the assembly meeting by the middle of next week.

Both the U. S. and Britain were in the forefront of the drive to persuade Russia through moral pressure and aroused public opinion to restrict her future use of the veto power to very rare cases. But some British American differences appeared over how to get the best results in this effort.

Delivering Britain's policy speech in the general debate session last night, Philip Noel-Baker, British chief delegate, accused Russia of reckless use of the veto and said that if it continued the security council would be rendered helpless to play its part in preserving world peace and security.

Dramatically, Noel-Baker appealed to "our Soviet colleagues" to join in the effort to agree on measures by which we can make a new and better start in the security council. Soviet Minister Molotov was not present, but Deputy Foreign Minister Vishinsky was in the front row.

Noel-Baker also urged the atomic energy committee to get to work drafting a treaty for the regulation, control and safeguarding of atomic energy developments, and said the British would start at once on this project. He insisted that the U. N. military staff committee should also be set up.

Lumber Import Duties Dropped In Emergency

Gov't Doing All Possible To Round Up Scarce Building Materials For Construction Of New Homes

Washington, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The government embarked on a series of new expedients today to round up scarce lumber and nails for veterans housing, including the removal of import duties on wood suitable for construction.

These developments came in quick order:

1. President Truman proclaimed an emergency under which a list of timber, lumber and lumber products designated by National Housing Administrator Wilson Wyatt will be duty free. Wyatt planned to have the list ready Monday.

2. Wyatt announced the government will pay manufacturers a premium of $20 a ton for housing nails produced in excess of quotas based on their output in the first half of 1946.

3. The Housing Agency and Civilian Production Administration launched a drive against black markets in which they said nails sell for as much as ten times the legal price.

4. The NHA and CPA reported that leading nail companies have pledged a production boost of nearly 25 percent by December.

NHA officials said the waiver of duty will offset the threat to lumber shipments from Canada, main source of imported wood, which resulted when Canada revalued its dollar to parity with the U. S. dollar. This made the U. S. dollar worth 10 percent less in terms of Canadian exchange.

At Portland, Ore., the West Coast Lumberman's Association doubted the move would have much effect. H. V. Simpson, executive vice-president, said the only shortage is in so-called clear type wood used for (Continued on Page Four)

TEACHERS ON PROJECT WORK

Discuss Projects For Home Economics High School Pupils

The county Vocational Home Economics teachers, consisting of Miss Mabel Lacy, field teacher trainer in home economics, East Carolina Teachers College, Miss Margaret Meyers of Grimesland, Mrs. Sallie Whitehurst of Bethel, Mrs. Elsie Edwards of Ayden, Mrs. Pecolia F. Smith of Chitwood, Miss Alya Ray Taylor of Winterville, and Miss Alice Strawn, chairman, and Mrs. Edna T. James of Greenville High School, met Thursday afternoon, October 24, at Greenville High School.

The meeting was also attended by five college students, Misses Stella Murray, Audrey May, Margaret Carol Banks, Mildred Marsh, and Jean Brown, now doing their student teaching at Greenville High School.

The subject under discussion, led by Miss Lacy and Miss Strawn, concerned home projects for Home Economics High School pupils.

Since the Home Economics curriculum requires a stated number of projects of pupils taking the subject, the teachers were urged to work more closely with parents and pupils in order to secure projects that suited the needs of the children and their families.

The following criteria for standards in selection of home projects was brought out by Miss Lacy:

1. That individual projects from year to year be more varied in order that the pupil gain more experience in more homemaking problems.

2. That the project meet real, individual, or family needs and present a problem worth solving.

3. That the project be within the scope of the pupil's ability, demanding real thought and effort.

4. That the project be within the pupil's scope of time, money, interest.

5. That it secure family cooperation. (Continued on Page Four)

Car Wreck Fatal To Julian Price

Greensboro, Oct. 26.—(AP) Julian Price, chairman of the board of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, was fatally injured in an automobile accident 13 miles east of North Wilkesboro last yesterday. He would have been 79 years old November 25.

Two companions, E. D. Broadhurst, Greensboro lawyer, and R. R. Harrill of Elizabethtown, Tenn., were slightly injured. Walter Poole, chauffeur for Price, was not hurt.

Price died while being rushed to the Wilkes county hospital at North Wilkesboro.

Investigation officers reported that the party's automobile, headed for Blowing Rock, ran up an embankment and overturned. Occupants of a passing car took the injured to the hospital.

Funeral services for Price will be held at 4 p. m. tomorrow in the First Presbyterian Church here. Dr. Charles F. Myers, former pastor, will be in charge.

The insurance executive was born near Richmond, Va., and spent his boyhood days at Meherrin in Lunenburg County.

Lumber Needed

Housing Picture Has Another Side To It, Shortage Of Lumber; Truman's Move To Permit Lumber Imported Duty-Free May Have Big Effect On Nation

Washington, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The housing picture is all scrambled anyway. But now something else comes into it.

One of those seldom-mentioned things—foreign exchange—was behind President Truman's sudden move on lumber late yesterday.

He made lumber imported into this country for construction use duty free.

The reasons, all linked together, go like this:

1. Lumber is needed because there's a housing shortage. We produce a lot ourselves. But we need more.

2. Most of the building lumber we import comes from Canada. We have to encourage Canadians to ship lumber here.

3. A few months ago the Canadian government changed the foreign exchange rate of the dollar.

VA Expansion In North Carolina

Washington, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The Veterans Administration is considering extensive expansion of its services in North Carolina.

Officials of the agency, who declined to be named, said today the plans involve establishment of a regional office in Charlotte. This is needed, they added, in addition to a sub-regional office at Charlotte and the regional office at Winston-Salem.

The contemplated Charlotte regional office was first considered a year ago. At that time there was a proposal to enlarge the Charlotte postoffice building to provide quarters for the Veterans office. The estimated cost was $3,650,000. Federal officials now believe the cost would be considerably larger.

Red Cross Girl Is Missing In Europe

Rome, Oct. 26.—(AP) An Ansa dispatch from Trieste today quoted an announcement by the U. S. army's 88th division as saying that an American Red Cross girl had disappeared in Venezia Giulia.

Identity of the girl, who was reported to have been seen last in Udine, was withheld, pending notification of her relatives, the dispatch by the Italian news agency said.

Churchill Warns Two Million Russians On War Status Occupying Europe; Here Are Some Reasons For Their Presence; No Threat Of War Is Involved

Winston Churchill says he has evidence to support his suggestion in the British House of Commons that Russia has more than 2,000,000 men on a war footing in Soviet-occupied Europe, and he described his speech as a "serious warning" but leaves it to us to figure out its exact significance.

Now why should Moscow find it expedient to maintain so many troops in the occupied areas?

That's a momentous question, but fortunately there is more than one answer to it, or so it seems to me. If there were only one answer it would mean war, and Mr. Churchill wouldn't have been able to say that he still believed the Soviet Union didn't want war.

We are living in dangerous times, but there's no indication that Russia or any of the other powers want war. On the contrary there is every

Flushed Out Textile Goods Withheld By Manufacturers

Washington, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Civilian production officials said today the cotton market break and recent higher OPA ceiling prices have flushed out textile stocks which some mills had withheld from the market.

As a result, the CPA may not have to send out directives it was preparing which would have required these manufacturers to reduce their inventories, said Morris S. Verner, Jr., the CPA compliance director.

Verner said investigation had shown some mills had held out "considerable" amounts of cloth. He did not name any of the manufacturers.

"The situation may correct itself," he told a reporter. He explained the cotton market break "encouraged manufacturers and dealers to dispose of inventories as rapidly as possible to avoid the risk of falling prices. Another incentive is higher prices OPA has granted for some finished items."

CPA officials said manufacturers had held up goods mainly because ceiling prices are based on the mar-

W. L. Whedbee, Sales Supervisor of the Greenville Tobacco Market announced that the official total leaf sales in Greenville since the opening of the market (45 days), now amounts to 58,558,314 pounds; sold for $31,749,753.53 with an average of $54.21 per hundred pounds.

MARSHALL ON SPOT IN CHINA

General Is Now A Mediator With Nothing To Mediate

Nanking, Oct. 26.—(AP)—The Chinese Government's continuing war to seize Communist territory today put General Marshall, the U. S. peace envoy, in the position of a mediator with nothing to mediate.

Many observers here predicted Marshall's mission would end soon with a formal admission of failure unless someone in the Government is able to halt the National war machine long enough to permit negotiations.

Marshall and Communist Negotiator Chou En-lai conferred three hours late today but if they made any progress toward peace it was a closely held secret. Many observers speculated that Chou's call indicated efforts toward a resumption of peace negotiations were not going well.

The high command's evident policy of force continues to overshadow peace efforts by minority party groups.

The Government's capture of Antung and its attacks on Chefoo and other Communist areas widened grave policy differences between Kuomintang (Government Party) cliques.

Sun Fo, president of the legislative council, and other liberal members of the Kuomintang cabinet are reported genuinely anxious to achieve settlement of the civil war through negotiation and compromise. Their efforts have been puny compared to the tactics of other Kuomintang cliques which argue that the best means of settling the Communist question is on the battlefield.

There have been no open breaks between the Kuomintang factions, but friction is plainly evident. Many observers say Chiang Kai-shek himself must settle the dispute.

WALLACE TOUR IN CALIFORNIA

Ousted Cabinet-Member Urges Straight Demo Ticket Vote

San Diego, Calif., Oct. 26.—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace, former Secretary of Commerce, last night urged Democrats to vote the straight party ticket, declaring the issue was between "Taftism and Progressivism."

The former Secretary of Commerce, swinging along the Pacific coast for his first speaking appearance since his Sept. 12 New York address on International Affairs which led to his ouster from the Truman cabinet, declared in a campaign speech:

"There's an even chance that Taft or Bricker (Ohio senator and governor respectively) will be the next Republican nominee for president. You can be sure, it won't be Stassen (former Minnesota governor)."

Boy Scouts Share In

Community Chest

By JOHN G. FLEMING, Chairman Greenville District Boy Scouts of America

There are 370 boys—white and colored—participating in the Boy Scout program of citizenship and character building. W. F. Young, Scout Commissioner announced yesterday. Three hundred and thirty-seven of these boys are divided into sixteen troops and one Sea Scout Ship. Thirty-three are members of a Cub Pack under the leadership of Dr. Wendell Smiley—Cubs are junior Scouts ten to twelve years of age.

The effectiveness of the Scouting program is measured in terms of advancement in rank. Greenville has had five boys to advance to Eagle rank in 1946—Eagle rank is tops in Scouting—and that is a higher ratio of Eagles to number of Scouts than the national average. Reverend Robert Bradshaw, Chairman of the Court of Honor (which does the advancing in rank of the Scouts), said he was impressed with the amount of advancement Greenville Scouts achieved in their Scout work.

Boy Scouts are called on for all sorts of Civic service. A Scout's readiness to be of service is so well known that people do not often

EMPLOYEES RESIST HOTEL EXPULSION

Rome, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Twenty civilian employees of the U. S. Army, remaining in their rooms in the luxurious Hotel Excelsior in defiance of orders were ordered today to leave or face discharge for insubordination.

Col. Charles Deasher, Rome area commander, informed the resisters in a letter that their refusal to meet the midnight deadline last night for moving to another hotel constituted "willful" disobedience.

The spokesman for the civilians has said that only force would induce them to give up their well-appointed rooms in the uptown hotel for the much less luxurious accommodations of the Hotel Nuova Roma.

BOY SCOUTS SHARE IN COMMUNITY CHEST

both to call Commissioner Foster Young to get Scouts, they just ask the nearest boys if they are Scouts and put them to work.

This summer the white Scouts had a summer camp at Fishers Landing, the colored Scouts on Chocoma river. In the Spring a Camporee was held in Wilson for the white Scouts and one in Williamston for the colored Scouts—the colored Scouts distinguished themselves in Scouting achievement contests. There was a Fall Round-up for the white Scouts at Chocowinity a couple of weeks ago.

Troops have been organized as the demand has appeared. The newest one was organized and chartered at Flaming's Cross Roads, sponsored by the Meadowbrook Presbyterian Church. Cub Master Smiley is organizing new Dens of Cubs all the time and expects to initiate a new Pack anytime, now.

Boy Scouts have been recognized as a worthwhile community project in Greenville for the last thirty years because the public has been providing the funds for it that long. Scouting has done its best for Greenville boys—they want Scouting and the adult leadership is giving it to them, and the public is going to support the program.

Strength FOR THE DAY

RESIGNING ISSUES TO HIGHER HANDS

For anyone who has enjoyed rowing, the sight of an eight-oared shell sweeping down a watery way brings back pleasant memories and vain regrets over the passing years.

Out of the scene came a parable of life as we live it every day. It was quite evident, even to a person who knew nothing about rowing that the coxswain was steering the boat that was one thing to which he never had to give a moment's attention.

The above economic theory has, however, one difficulty which is largely responsible for many labor troubles today. In order to have advertising attractive to make people buy and thereby hold up employment, this advertising must make people dissatisfied with what they now have as well as want things which they do not now have.

In studies which I have made, it is evident that the wage worker himself often has been satisfied with his wages; but his wife and children have so prodded him for more things that he has been an easy prey of unprincipled labor agitators.

Therefore, although I see no remedy for the situation, advertising is probably directly responsible for many labor troubles and unnecessary strikes.

Circulation Not Everything

There is a tendency among advertising agents to talk too much about the circulation of the newspapers in which they place advertising.

It is better for an advertiser to distribute his products over a large number of cities rather than concentrate on one city.

Two candidates are unopposed: George King of Durham, vice president, and Dorothy Powell of Wilmington, treasurer, of the Student Cooperative Government Association.

Nominations for president of the Student Cooperative Government Association, most important student office in the college, are Margaret Hill of Roxboro, who is now chairman of the Women's Judiciary, and Fred Martin of Asheville, who served as president of student government during the 1946 summer session at the college.

Two candidates are unopposed: George King of Durham, vice president, and Dorothy Powell of Wilmington, treasurer, of the Student Cooperative Government Association.

Mary Elizabeth Boykin of Sims and M. L. Harris Mayo of Greenville will run for second assistant treasurer. For three vacant positions as college marshals there are 11 candidates, all women students.

Through elections were held last spring, the students of the college have been this fall without a number of their major officers. Mary Buckmaster of Swansboro, who was elected vice president of the Student Cooperative Government Association last spring and later accepted the presidency when the office became vacant, did not return for the 1946-1947 term.

To offset the change in the dollar exchange rate, our government decided to make building lumber duty-free.

We import other kinds of wood from other countries, such as mahogany for cabinet work from Central America and Africa.

The tariff on this apparently will remain since it is not wood used in construction work, such as pine from Canada.

(We also get some building wood from Mexico. This wood, it seems, will be duty free. Mr. Truman did not name any country in lifting the duty.)

We expected to get from Canada this year about 1,000,000,000 feet of lumber. That's about as much as we can expect. The Canadians need lumber themselves. Besides, they have to ship to Great Britain and elsewhere.

Babson Discusses Advertising

Chicago, Illinois, October 25.—Advertising which started in a very simple manner largely by patent medicine manufacturers has become of great national and economic importance. In fact, it has become a part of the employment cycle which requires greater advertising appropriations to cause a demand for goods which, in turn, will hold up, or increase, the number employed so that they will buy more goods and keep the ball rolling.

Advertising is a labor theory. The above economic theory has, however, one difficulty which is largely responsible for many labor troubles today. In order to have advertising attractive to make people buy and thereby hold up employment, this advertising must make people dissatisfied with what they now have as well as want things which they do not now have.

Student Safety Speech Contest

By DAVID CLARK
Alfred Baeved carried off the first prize of $10 in the Traveler's Protective Association-sponsored speaking contest on safety held in the GHS auditorium this morning. Second and third prizes of $5 and $2.50 each went to Roy Hardee and Betty Mobley respectively.

J. B. Kittrell, past president of the North Carolina Division of the T. P. A. and at present the State Director of the North Carolina T. P. A., was present to make the awards. Before the speeches began, Mr. Kittrell made a short, informative talk on the T. P. A. and its functions.

Saeled, a junior, centered his winning speech around "Weapons To Fight Public Enemy No. One." Public Enemy No. 1 he listed as traffic accidents. The weapons to fight these accidents, he said, were the three E's, Enforcement, Education and Engineering. Proper law enforcement, education for safety and engineering projects for the building of safer and better roads, especially in the cities, were the mainstays of Saeled's talk.

Roy Hardee and Betty Mobley centered their talks around safety in the home with the emphasis laid on avoidable accidents.

The other two contestants, Shelley Beard and Jim Haney, stressed automobile safety in their talks. All five speeches were excellent, giving Fire Chief George Gardner, the judge, a hard job in picking the best three.

Tonight at 6:05 o'clock, Alfred Saeled will present his talk over WGTC and his, along with Betty Mobley and Roy Hardee's, will be sent to the national T. P. A. magazine.

SAFETY LIMERICKS
By Fourth Grade Pupils
I knew a girl whose name was Gay,
She always played the safety way,
Until one day she forgot her rule,
And now poor Gay is out of school.
—Norma Mills.

Watch your step, watch your step,
Play the safety way,
Do not play out in the street,
And you will be O. K.
—Norma Mills.

As I was walking down the street,
I heard a car coming, "Beep, beep,"
A little girl ran into the street,
The car knocked her right off her feet.
—Nannette Sullivan.

I like to run, I like to play,
I like to play the safety way,
Safety at work, safety at play,
Safety, safety every day,
This is what I always say.
—Preston Jarvis.

When I go up town,
I see children running all around,
In front of cars as well as trucks,
I know that they are in for bad luck.
—Louise Smaw.

Safety, safety every day,
Safety at play, safety at work,
Safety rules we must not shirk.

Who never bothered to tie her shoe,
She stepped on the string,
And fell with a fling,
Now her arm is tied up in a sling.

There once was a boy named Jay,
Who was always so happy and gay,
He went to cross the street one day,
And forgot to look the right way,
Now Jay is not so gay.

Naval Apprentice School Loses To Pirates By 19-7

ECTC Footballers Play Heads-Up Game To Route Tricky Newport News Squad; Kilpatrick Intercepts Pass For Long Run To Make Final Score

By JIM LOCHRIDGE
The Pirates traveled to Newport News, Virginia, yesterday and trounced the tricky Naval Apprentice School team of that city by a score of 19 to 7. This was the third win for the East Carolina Teachers College gridiron squad for the '46 season.

The locals started their first touchdown drive late in the first quarter and scored after four plays in the second quarter. Starting on their own 48, Fearing, Phillips, Pittman, and Everett plowed through, over and around the opposition behind the brilliant blocking of their teammates in the line. The Pirates made four first downs in this drive that terminated in Pete Everett's scoring from the five on a run off right tackle. The conversion was no good.

The second score started on the ECTC 42 a few minutes later in the second quarter. Sparked by a dazzling 34 yard run by E. S. Pittman, it took only five plays for the Pirates to reach pay dirt. Fearing scored from the twelve yard line on a run around right end. The attempt for conversion failed.

The crowd took to their feet before the first half ended when Hubert Musselwhite, sub for Fearing, got loose from his own 15 yard line and galloped 85 yards to pay dirt only to have it called back because of an off side penalty against ECTC. The Pirates more than "got revenge" in the last quarter as Keith Kilpatrick, 205-pound tackle substituting for Wyatt, intercepted a pass on his own 32 yard line and raced 68 yards for the final ECTC score. Bob Miller's kick from placement was good for the extra point.

The Naval Apprentice School went on a rampage in the second half as they took to the air. F. F. Eubank scored over right tackle after the third quarter was nine plays old. Henderson's conversion from placement was good.

Robinson and Eubank led the backfield attack for the Apprentices while Stokes and Eiford were outstanding in the line.

For the locals it is hard to determine just who was the most outstanding in the line or the backfield. The entire team played heads up ball. Sexton, Long, Lee, Wenzette, and Brown showed up well on the defense as they smeared the opposition for a number of losses.

Pete Everett made some nice runs along with the continued brilliant showings by Fearing, Pittman, and Phillips. Davis, sub for Phillips, and Musselwhite, sub for Fearing, deserve much credit for their relief roles.

The starting lineups were as follows:

ECTC	Naval App.
Tatarski	le Stokes
Lee	lt Eiford
Sexton	lg McPherson
Pendleton	c Stinson
Keesler	rt Rosseau
Wyatt	rg Sparrer
Brown	re Condon
Everett	qb Eubank

shaky. It's not difficult, therefore, to understand the presence of Soviet troops at strategic points in this area.

Then, too, some hair-trigger situations remain to be straightened out. One of these is the Soviet-Turkish dispute over control of the Dardanelles—and armed might is a strong argument. There is the Greek imbroglio. There is Austria, which Moscow is firmly bent on adding to its zone of influence, and most certainly won't move Soviet troops away until the matter is ironed out.

In short, Russia apparently figures that packing a gun gives added authority—and that's an argument which it is difficult to answer. The Communists are direct actionists. Thus far they have used their veto power to maintain their position in the U. N. Security Council and they have used their armies to fortify their domination of eastern Europe.

But the horse-sense of it is that the Russians don't want another

H. P. Tyson Home Robbed Last Night

A nocturnal prowler broke into the home of H. P. Tyson on the Farmville highway some time last night and stole a pearl-handled Smith and Wesson pistol and 250 pennies, Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson said today. Deputy Sheriff Cletus Jackson and Lester D. Page, identification director for Greenville and Pitt County, are investigating the robbery.

Enforcement officials expressed doubt there had been any widespread hoarding of goods in other industries on the scale which CIO President Philip Murray recently contended had occurred. Murray said in an interview at Miami Beach, Fla., that hoarding had tied up goods valued at $37,000,000 and asked a government investigation.

Verner said CPA was "continuously investigating" reports of excess inventories and had discovered some control violations.

In New Orleans, Secretary H. C. Berkes of the Southern Pine Association said Russia and Sweden might pour so much lumber into this country that it would break the domestic lumber market. On a duty-free basis, he said, they could undersell domestic producers.

Chairman Carroll Reece of the Republican National Committee called the action a mere political maneuver.
