"ATOMIC BOMB SECRET OUT" SAYS WRITER

British Paper's Weapons Expert Gives Details On U. S. A-Bomb

London, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Daily Express weapons expert, Chapman Pincher, says the United States has probably 96 atom bombs in its munitions stockpile, each 25 feet long, torpedo-shaped, powered with 100 pounds of plutonium in two lumps, and weighing about 9,000 pounds. The article, which appeared yesterday under a banner head, "atom bomb secret out," gave no source for its information. Pincher based his figure of 96 bombs on an assumed output of six bombs per month since the time of the Nagasaki bombing. Estimating that there were eight bombs in stock at the time Nagasaki was hit, minus two used in the Bikini experiments and assuming that the rate of production of six per month had not changed, Pincher arrived at his figure of 96. Accompanying Pincher's article was an artist's conception of the bomb with a cut away portion showing the working parts. The sketch showed a conventional casing with four small fins and two "drogues"—parachutes open at each end—which, Pincher said, operated to slow the descent for better control of a time fuse mechanism operating a detonator. The writer said the missile was (Continued on Page Two)

GOV'T SEEKS QUICK END TO OLD WALKOUTS

Maritime, Sugar And Farm Equipment Strikes Still Going On

By NORMAN WALKER Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Labor Department and Maritime Commission spearheaded a government drive today for a quick end to four of the nation's most bothersome strikes. They are the month-old Pacific Coast maritime and stevedore disputes, a two-month old walkout of sugar workers in Hawaii, and the six-month deadlock at the West Allis, Wis., tractor plant of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. These are the moves made by the two agencies:

- 1. The Maritime Commission authorized its West Coast agents to place into effect on government Pacific Ocean ships the terms of the recent East and Gulf Coast maritime strike settlement. 2. The Labor Department assigned Nathan P. Feinsinger, University of Wisconsin law professor who doubles as an ace government mediator, to work on the Pacific maritime and dock worker disputes as well as the Hawaiian sugar stoppage. 3. Labor Secretary Schwelvenbach asked the Allis-Chalmers Company and the striking CIO Auto Workers to send negotiators to a bargaining session here Monday. Only 11,000 workers are involved at Allis-Chalmers, but it has been one of the more worrisome reconversion period strikes because of the big farm demand for new equipment. The Maritime Commission action in the West Coast shipping tieup announced last night, was expected by commission officials to be carried out by its general agents. This would free about half the merchant marine vessels now idle in Pacific ports. The stevedore strike of the CIO Longshoremen's Union probably would prevent these vessels from being loaded or unloaded for the time being. However, longshoremen's chief Harry Bridges has announced his dispute is close to settlement.

HOLY LAND IS PARALYZED BY MASS STRIKES

Arabs Protest Balfour Declaration; Zionists Demonstrate Tomorrow

Jerusalem, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Holy Land was in a virtual state of paralysis today as Jews paused for their Sabbath and Arabs engaged in their traditional general strike on the 29th anniversary of Britain's Balfour declaration favoring a "national home" in Palestine for Jews. Streets of Jerusalem were almost deserted. Shops were all closed, taxicabs were out of sight and traffic was scarce. The only pedestrians were strollers in the balmy weather. A troublesome undercurrent was apparent in both the Jewish and Arab quarters. Thousands of Arabs were expected in the city today for a possible mass meeting in the mosque areas. Police were taking extra precautions to prevent any processions developing. Palestine Jews have been called to strike from noon to 6 p. m. tomorrow and to hold mass meetings in protest against yesterday's deportation to Cyprus of 1,570 Jewish refugees taken off the ship San Dimitrio as they were trying to enter the country without permits. The San Dimitrio, listing badly, has been towed to a "graveyard" of illegal ships in Haifa harbor. British boarding parties were denied today by the officer of the party. The Jews were shipped to Cyprus aboard the British vessels Ocean Vigor and Empire Heywood. Arabs planned their "Lord Balfour Day" strike for all day in Palestine, where Jewish and Arab demonstrations have heightened tension this week, and for one hour in Syria and Lebanon to the north and Iraq to the east and Egypt to the southwest. (A general strike scheduled for an hour in Damascus, Syria, shut down shops, transport services and other activities at 9 a. m.) (A Beirut dispatch reported the general strike effective throughout (Continued on Page Two)

Daniels Accuses GOP In Address

Smithfield, N. C., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy in Woodrow Wilson's cabinet, has accused the Republican party of "betrayal" of peace after the first World War by "sabotaging the League of Nations" and of "sabotaging President Roosevelt's preparedness program before Pearl Harbor." The publisher of the Raleigh News and Observer told a Democratic rally here yesterday that the vital issue in the current campaign is: "Will the American people again trust their hearts' desire for world peace to the Republican party which scuttled the peace after World War I?" He answered "this Judas betrayal of peace should summon every peace lover to go to the polls Tuesday and register a vote against the (Republican) party." Daniels said "in 1920, through promising that the election of Harding would insure entrance into the League of Nations, the Republicans wrote the 'round robin' that was the beginning of the sabotaging of the League. That curse made possible World War II."

Prefab Housing Program Fought

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A five-sided battle over money and factory space to prefabricate dwellings boiled over today into a clash of wills between Housing Administrator Wilson Wyatt and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Wyatt agreed to talk over further in the next few days RFC's refusal to grant some of the $54,000,000 in loans which the housing administrator recommended for 11 prefabricators. But other officials said he already has told the RFC directors that if necessary he will force the loans under powers granted him by the Emergency Housing Act. Thus what started out as a scramble for one surplus government factory erupted into a free-for-all mainly involving, so far, the National Housing Administration, the War Assets Corporation, the RFC and two private companies—the Tucker and Lastron corporations of Chicago.

Disarmament And Franco On Agande

Political Committee Meets To Arrange Program Jammed With Problems; Priority To Be Determined; Other Groups To Confer

Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 2.—(AP)—With two specific proposals of concerted action against Spain added to the business before it for consideration, the United Nations political committee meets today to begin work on the crowded agenda of the United Nations assembly. Even before the Polish delegation's leader, Wincenty Rzymowski, filed the resolutions demanding the United Nations break diplomatic relations with Spain and that Generalissimo Francisco Franco's government be barred from connection with any U. N. organization, the committee had before it such major items as the Soviet Union's arms limitation proposal and the U. S. counter plan.

It is the job of the committee under chairmanship of Dimitri Manuilsky, Soviet Ukrainian foreign minister, to determine the urgency of these items and assign them priority on the general assembly's agenda. The question of Franco Spain had been put before the committee in the decision of the assembly to include it for discussion, but the Polish resolutions were the first concrete proposals for action which might be taken against the Franco regime. Actually, until the security council, which failed to act, on a previous Polish proposal for a break in diplomatic relations with Spain drops the Spanish question from its agenda, the assembly may make no recommendations. However, the council is expected to drop the issue from its schedule when it meets on Monday, opening the way for the assembly to receive a report on the Polish resolutions from the political committee, discuss them and recommend possible action. COTTON PRICE ORDERS TO GO

OPA Pressured Into Scrapping Controls Blamed For Slump

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The OPA under pressure from the White House today tagged for the scrap pile a pricing regulation which some interests blamed for recent gyrations of the cotton market. The order will go by the boards probably on Monday, OPA officials said, in view of what they regard as an edict from reconversion director John R. Steelman that it be eliminated. The regulation prohibits mills now from pricing finished cotton goods for more than 120 days in advance except under certain conditions. Southern Congress members protested to President Truman and Steelman that this limitation was an important reason for the sharp decline of cotton prices from a record high reached early in October. The price skid took cotton down as much as $50 a bale and forced major exchanges to close three times during the last two weeks. Since the latest reopening Thursday prices have rallied some. OPA officials said that in effect Steelman's request is an order. It was the second time in two days Steelman has brought OPA up short. On Wednesday he ordered the agency to remove price controls on shoes and leather, after OPA had stated flatly that these items would remain under ceilings. The cotton regulation to be junked provides that mills contracting to deliver finished goods beyond the next 120 days must sell at the lower of these levels: 1. The ceiling in effect when the contract was made. 2. The ceiling prevailing at delivery time.

GOV'TS TALK DAIREN TERMS

Chinese And Russians Start Early Negotiations

Nanking, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Chinese and Russian authorities today were reported negotiating for China to take over administration of Dairen Russian-occupied open port city toward which Government troops are driving against Chinese Communists. The Nanking newspaper, Hsin Min Pao, reported in a Mukden dispatch that representative of the two governments are conferring in Dairen. It said satisfactory progress has been made and there is a possibility Chinese officials will be permitted to assume control of Dairen within 15 days. There was no official confirmation here Chinese government officials were sent to Manchuria some months ago in anticipation of resuming administration of the city since the end of the Pacific war. Dairen was declared an open port to be jointly administered by the two countries, in the 14-month old Sino-Soviet treaty. However, the Chinese Government for months was busy seizing vast areas of Manchuria from Chinese Communists and only recently announced it was ready to move into Dairen. (Continued on Page Three)

Thursday Elections Name Officers In Cooperative Government

Fred Martin, junior from Asheville, was elected on Thursday, Oct. 31, as president of the Student Cooperative Government Association of East Carolina Teachers College on the campus. Other officers chosen at the same time were Georgia King of Durham, vice-president; Dorothy Powell of Wilmington, treasurer; Mattie Harris Mayo of Greenville, assistant treasurer, and Mary Moyer of Walstonburg and Helen West of Warsaw, college marshals. For a third position as college marshal a second election will be held Tuesday, November 5, the candidates being Vera Scott Harris of Seaboard, Carol Parker of Lasker, Annie B. Johnson of Kinston, and Annie Morton of Carolina Beach. Martin, new president of the student body is an ex-serviceman who entered ECTC in the spring of 1946, and who, since that time, has been active in student organizations on the campus. After graduation from the Lee H. Edwards High School in Asheville, Martin went to Brevard Junior College, where he completed his work in 1942. He (Continued on Page Three)

Coal Industry Official Sees Needing Of Gov't By "Unauthorized" Strikes While Lewis Bargains For More Pay; "Delicate" Situation In Conference

By HOWARD W. WARD Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A coal industry official expressed apprehension today that the United Mine Workers may needle the government with a series of unauthorized strikes while John L. Lewis bargains for higher pay. With the Lewis-government negotiations in recess until Monday walkouts already have closed 42 mines employing 5,700 men in West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. The solid fuels administration which operates the mines, blamed the situation on failure of the workers to understand that their contract with the government is still in force. The SFA said union leaders are trying to get the men back into the pits by Monday. But John D. Battle, executive secretary of the national coal association, told a reporter: "There is great fear in the industry this is not just a misunderstanding." John L. Lewis said the contract is good until Nov. 20, under his procedure for terminating the agreement. A general strike then would be possible, since the miners traditionally don't work without a contract. Representatives of Lewis and the government took a weekend breathing spell after their first sparring yesterday, which a federal official said left the situation in "delicate shape." It was understood that: (1) The UMW men, headed by Vice President John O'Leary, presented figures to support their anticipated demand for a shorter work week without loss in take-home pay. 2. Government negotiators, headed by Navy Capt. N. H. Collisson, coal mines administrator, just sat and listened. (3) The showdown on whether terms of the contract permit the miners to reopen it was delayed. These were the gist of reports leaking out from behind the heavy swinging doors of the interior department's soundproof conference room. Collisson had agreed to listen to Lewis' grievances without committing himself to the contract reopening. He and his chief, Secretary of Interior Krug, say the present agreement is good for the entire period of government possession of the mines. But Lewis and some government attorneys outside the Interior Department say it can be reopened.

PRES. ABSENT FROM MEETING

Steers Clear Of Political Rally; Rayburn Addresses Demos

Independence, Mo., Nov. 2.—(AP) President Truman, quietly visiting at home, left Democratic battles for congressional seats in the hands of the party organization today after passing up a hometown rally last night because of what a close friend said was the President's desire to "uphold the dignity of his high office." It was Independence Mayor Roger T. Sermon, a close personal friend who offered this explanation for the President's absence. He was the first explanation offered publicly in administration circles for Mr. Truman's campaign aloofness on his visit home, at the same time, Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross continued to maintain that Mr. Truman still has no plans for a political address to the nation. Speaking to several hundred residents in the Memorial Building where the President and Mrs. Truman will vote Tuesday, Sermon declared: "He's no longer plain Harry Truman. He can't do the things he likes to do when he comes home. I think he would give his right arm to be here tonight, but there are some things he can't do. He must uphold the dignity of his high office." While House Speaker Rayburn exhorted Jackson County people to uphold the President's hands by re-electing Senator Frank P. Briggs (D-Mo.), Rep. C. Jasper Bell, and voting a first term to Democratic congressional nominee Enos T. Axtell, the President was at nearby Grandview, Mo., visiting with his mother. It was Axtell whom Mr. Truman supported over incumbent Rep. Roger C. Slaughter in a bitter primary. "I am one man in a position of power in Washington who has and (Continued on page two)

Rising Prices Bring Record Tax Returns

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Rising prices continued to bring record breaking collections into the state's coffers during October, the State Department of Revenue reported today. With practically every revenue source showing increases, the state's tax collections for October totaled $8,843,469, an increase of $2,203,937 over the $6,639,532 collected in October 1945. The general fund took in a total of $5,364,159 during the month, 37.07 percent more than the $3,913,519 realized in October 1945. More than half the general fund's take was from the sales tax which produced $2,975,929 as compared with $2,030,095 in the same month last year.

Probe Charge Of Ballots' Misuse

Raleigh, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Republican charges that Democrats in Yancey county have misused absentee ballots in preparation for Tuesday's general election are being investigated by J. B. Morgan, of Waynesville, member of the state board of elections, revealed today. Maxwell said that chairman W. T. Joyner of the State Board had requested Morgan to go to Burnsville and confer with James Hutchins, chairman of the Yancey County Board of Elections. The charges were brought by C. Y. Nanney, Jr., of Union Mills, Republican nominee for Congress in the 11th district. Nanney, who is seeking the congressional seat of Rep. A. L. Bulwinkle, claimed that in Yancey county absentee ballots were being issued to persons who were not entitled to them.

New Hope For Amity

Analyst Says International Friendships Have Best Chance To Be Shown In Present UN Meeting; Hopeful Signs In Agreement; Moscow's Positive Gesture

Eddy Gilmore, AP chief of bureau in Moscow, reports that Russians realize there may be stormy periods ahead in the United Nations but the general impression is that the United States and the Soviet Union may be moving into a new phase of understanding which will be of benefit to all. It certainly is good to hear that the Russians feel that way, because there have been grave doubts in the western world on this point. However, the proof of the plum-duff is in the eating thereof, and so we must wait and see. One thing is clear: This is the witching hour when the spirit of amity is likely to walk, if at all. The time of power maneuvering for positions either is about past, or it will lead us into another conflict. The most hopeful sign thus far is the general agreement, on the face of it, that armaments must be slashed. If the major powers, being united on this point, can now work out details that will be satisfactory to all, we may have found the road to peace. This is so because the dangerous split between Russia and the western allies has been due in considerable degree to mutual doubts and suspicions regarding the mighty fighting machines which were being maintained. Moscow has made a great and positive gesture in officially calling for reduction of armaments. The U. S. has complemented that perfectly with the proposal for safeguarding arms control by an international inspection system. When it comes to cutting down armies there arises what strikes your correspondent as being a delicate situation. In gauging the (Continued on Page Two)

Super-Whalers Set For Antarctic Trip

Johannesburg, South Africa, Nov. 2.—(AP)—A fleet of whaling ships, manned by 10,000 sailors, will leave South African ports soon for the Antarctic whaling waters, in an effort to relieve the world shortage of fats and oils. At least 14 separate expeditions, including virtually every unit of the British and Norwegian whaling fleets, are standing by for the dash to the south.

W. L. Whedbee, sales supervisor of the Greenville tobacco market, announced today the official season's sales in Greenville to date. With a total of fifty sale days, 63,091,980 pounds of tobacco has been sold, bringing $3,048,189.59, or a seasonal average of $53.96 per hundred pounds.

Babson Further Discusses Investing Money

Eureka, Kansas, November 2.—October is my month for travelling. The first half I spent viz: in New York, where due to the trucking strike I couldn't get a glass of milk; in Boston, where due to its narrow streets I couldn't park a car within two miles of the place I wanted to visit; in dirty and windy Chicago, with its rum-shops, vice and foul entertainments; in Kansas City, noted for its rotten politics; and in St. Louis, which seems to me to be the coldest city in the winter and the hottest city in the summer. The Real America Although the ten largest cities of the United States have 30,000,000 people, or nearly 20 per cent of the entire population, yet they do not represent the American people. The true Americans are found in the small cities of the farming and cattle sections which I so love to visit. Here, the people create the real wealth which is sucked into the sewer holes of these ten largest cities and flows away to the sea. It certainly is inspiring to look from a train window and see the golden fields of wheat, corn and other products. Yes, fine dairy cattle, steers, hogs and poultry are here galore. Last night I had the juiciest steak that I have ever eaten. Whether it is due to the bad movies, or radio news, or love magazines, I do not know; but certainly the big cities are featured far too much. The little cities should band together and do some advertising. Don't Like Big Farms This does not mean that readers should now come out here and buy farms. Big commercial farms are "big business" like steel plants, shoe factories or department stores. Moreover, I think that next year will see a break in the price of many farm products which should react in lower prices for commercial farms. (Continued on Page Two)

Two Get Medals For Heroism During Fire

Pittsburgh, Nov. 2.—(AP)—Two residents of Hendersonville, N. C., a schoolboy and a salesgirl, today wore bronze medals awarded by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission for helping rescue a man and two of his four children from their burning house in East Flat Rock, N. C., the night of September 3, 1945. The heroes are William P. Chauey, 17, and Miss Sara Othello Westall, 18. A citation said they rescued Craig G. King, 31, a carpenter, Ralph C. King, aged six months, and Roy C. King, aged two. Ralph died shortly afterward and another King child perished in the flames. Off-Year Election

Republicans Contend They Have Good Opportunity Of Winning Control Of House; Will Affect Presidential Race In '48; A Review Of Past Elections

Washington, Nov. 2.—(AP)—The Republicans say they have a good chance of winning control of the House in next Tuesday's congressional elections. The Democrats—through having a majority of the seats—control the House now and have since 1931. This is an off-year election. Which means: A congressional election between presidential elections: The presidential elections of 1944 and 1948. Since the civil war—with one exception, which was a strange one any administration, Republican or Democratic, which lost control of the House in an off-year lost the presidency two years later. So if the Republicans win the House next Tuesday—from the present Democratic administration—they'll shoot with renewed hope at winning the presidency in 1948. And they'll have tradition on their side. Here's the story: When President U. S. Grant, a Republican, was elected for a second term in 1872, his Republicans controlled the House. In the off-year election of 1874—midway through Grant's second term—the Democrats won the House. Then came the presidential election of 1876. Rutherford B. Hayes, a Republican, ran against Samuel J. Tilden, a Democrat, for president. The Democrats again won the House. But the presidential results were disputed. Tilden won the House and Senate, but lost the electoral commission. This commission decided in favor of the Republicans and (Continued on Page Two)

INNER LIGHT

We never understand Christianity until we realize that it deals primarily with the inward character of all living. Both good and evil are matters not so much of action as of inner disposition of heart.

Accordingly, Christ in his preaching and teaching attempted to change men on the inside of their lives. His purpose was to set an eternal light glowing in men's hearts, which by its brilliance and warmth would change them from evil to goodness, from confusion to peacefulness of heart.

New Hope

(Continued From Page One) strength; any power has in solidarity do we take into account the military strength of satellites of that power? Say a major power reports that it has a standing army of 500,000. Do we also figure on the fact that this power has within its zone of influence a dozen small satellite armies of 100,000? According to my calculations that actually would mean that the great power had a standing army of only 2 million because the satellites will stand with their great power in case of war.

BALSON

(Continued From Page One) I do, however, look upon the small sustenance farm, where the owner has an outside source of income, as the finest insurance that the world offers.

I especially recommend good business property in small rural cities. Even though much of this is now selling higher than before the war, I still believe it is among the safest investments if kept well maintained and properly insured. If you do not want the care of such property, you can loan on a mortgage thereon and get 4 per cent interest safely. Of course, you should select a section of the country which will be free from bombing attacks in World War III.

Investing Money

Readers who cannot conveniently buy such property, can secure the same protection which such rural communities offer by buying the stocks of certain companies whose assets are mostly located in small interior cities. Just before leaving home my secretary asked me about the investment of $50.00 which she had heretofore refrained from investing because of the high prices of the past year. Now, due to the recent drop, she feels it is a good time to dip in. She lists her to buy securities of companies with their plants in big cities? Not much. I am now suggesting that she buy these ten stocks: General Foods, Gruzer Grocery, and Pet Milk as representing the food group; J. C. Penney Company, and McJellan Stores, as representing the merchandising group; Diamond Match, and Deere and Company as representing building materials and machinery; Corn Products and Quaker Oats as representing the feed industry. For good measure I included St. Joseph Lead where she can hide her money underground in a metal which actually is more valuable than gold. The assets of these companies are not in big cities but are distributed throughout the great agricultural districts in useful industries which serve mankind.

More Suggestions The above ten stocks will take all the spare money which my secretary has, but while on this trip I have decided to add to my Safe List: the best sugar stocks and Greyhound Bus stock. Also the bonds of the Kansas City and Southern R. R. Co. and of the Western Union Telegraph Co. Again, I urge diversification. Never put more than 10 per cent of your money in any one industry or more than 5 per cent of your money in any one company. All the above securities are listed on the New York Stock Exchange and can be bought through your local bank.

U. N. Agenda

(Continued From Page One) Other committees meeting today are the administrative and budgetary, which yesterday heard Senator Vandenberg's statement that the U. S. was unwilling to continue paying half the U. N. administrative costs, and the social, humanitarian and cultural affairs, whose major problem is refugees and displaced persons. Both are to meet at 3 p. m. today.

Holy Land

Off-Year Election

(Continued From Page One) This was the only winning race since the civil war by the presidential candidate of an administration party which had lost the House in the preceding congressional election. From that time the tradition has run true. Here's the record: In the off-year election of 1887 when Republican President Ches-

The Kiwanis Club last night unanimously adopted the Nominating Committee's report and elected the following officers and directors: Eli Bloom, president; N. C. Brooks vice-president; and four directors: Tige Gardner, Milo Smith, John Arthur Collins and Tom Wilson. The four hold-over directors are Odell C. Calhoun, David A. Evans, Judge J. W. H. Roberts and Guy V. Smith.

The new officers will be installed at the first meeting in January. Eli Bloom, solicitor of City Recorder's Court, succeeds Ed E. Rawl, vice-president of the Carolina Sales Corporation, as president. N. C. Brooks succeeds Bloom as vice-president.

The retiring president automatically becomes a member of the board of directors. The secretary's office, faithfully filled many years by David C. Moore, Jr., is an appointive position.

Under President Rawl's administration the club has flourished and increased in membership. At this time there is a "waiting list" of applications for membership. The Greenville Kiwanis Club's main objective is underprivileged child activities.

Man Surrenders In Sugar Theft

By CHESTER WALSH
Raymond Jarris of Princess Anne County, Va., wanted by Pitt County authorities in connection with the recent 10,000-pound sugar robbery at the Demain Pickle Factory in Ayden surrendered to Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson yesterday. He was immediately released under $2,000 bond for appearance in Superior Court at the January term. One other man, John Goode of Princess Anne County, Va., is wanted in connection with the alleged hold-up robbery.

Sam Warren of Hickory, Va., charged with being the ring leader in the sugar theft; N. H. Lofton of Ayden, night watchman at the factory; and Johnnie McLawhorn, truck driver of near Ayden, were arrested some weeks ago and they provided bail. All but 10 bags of the sugar was recovered in an abandoned barn in Virginia. It was returned to the pickle factory. The men will be tried at the January term of Superior Court.

Pianists Offer Wide Variety At Concert

The program to be presented by the First Piano Quartet, "four artists playing four concert grand," at East Carolina Teachers College at 8:00 o'clock on Monday evening, November 4, is varied in selection and includes many familiar and popular works from the classics.

Among numbers to be heard in the Wright Auditorium on Monday are compositions by Schubert, Mozart, Chopin, Wagner, and by such modern favorites as Shostakovich and Prokofieff.

The program will begin with the theme signature of the Quartet, familiar to radio fans, the Variations on the Caprice in A Minor by Paganini. Other numbers will be Liszt's Second Hungarian Rhapsody, the Magic Fire Music from Wagner's Die Walkure, three Chopin etudes a Bach prelude and fugue, the polka from Shostakovich's The Golden Age, and Prokofieff's March from the Love of Three Oranges.

G-Men Trim Scotland Neck In Spirited Game

By DAVE CLARK
Led offensively by speedy tail back Glenn Perkins and line smashing fullback Mahlon Tucker, Coach Bo Farley's rejuvenated and spirited Green Phantoms outclassed a good Scotland Neck eleven here last night to a close 14-13 victory.
The score far from tells the story of the contest, however, as the Phantoms were very definitely the bosses throughout most of the game. Only Scotland Neck's sweet running fullback, Billy Allsbrook, who continually broke away for long gains, kept them in the ball game. Allsbrook is undoubtedly the best broken field runner to play against Greenville this season.
The Phantoms were a much improved team over the one which lost to Kinston two weeks ago. Their offense was clicking better than it has this season, and their defensive was much more effective than ever. Little Jim Lee stood out on defense as he usually does, and the whole Phantom line played their best ball game of the season.
Greenville scored first late in the initial frame after the Scotland Neck kicker had gotten off a poor kick that went out of bounds on about the Greenville forty. From there Perkins and Tucker alternated as ball toters to carry the pigskin down to, about, the opponents' ten yard line. On the next play, Lee, who had gone to fullback tossed a pass to Paul Stokes in the end zone only to have him drop it. Stokes made up for his error on the next play when he caught a pass over the goal from Lee. Lee passed to Henry Turper for the all important extra point.
Scotland Neck's hustling eleven wasn't about to give up, however, and early in the second quarter, Allsbrook broke loose for thirty yards to put his team in scoring position. About two plays later, Scotland Neck went over to pay dirt to make it 7-6. Fortunately for Greenville, the pass for the extra point was no good.
No more scoring took place until the fourth quarter, although Greenville missed two golden opportunities. A pass interception broke up one chance, and a fumble on the goal broke up the other.
After the costly fumble which fell over the goal and automatically gave Scotland Neck the ball on the 20-yard stripe, the visiting eleven lost the ball on downs to Greenville on about the thirty.
Fred Joseph, reserve fullback, came into the game at this point and proceeded to smash his way, with the aid of some beautiful blocking by the line, down to about the two yard line. From there Perkins took Turner again caught the game saving pass in the end zone for the extra point, making it Greenville 14, Scotland Neck 6. Billy Goodson threw the pass.
With about two minutes left before the final whistle, the game was practically in the bag for Greenville, but the hard fighting Scotland Neckers opened up an effective passing attack to drive from their own forty across the goal. The pass for the extra point was good.
The starting line-up for Greenville was Tenry Turner and Paul Stokes at ends, Bud Whitehurst and Roscoe Little at tackles, Bobby Fleming and June Rose at guards, Dennis Cooke at center, and Perkins, Tucker, Lee, and Will McLawhorn in the backfield.
Subs who saw action were Shelley Beard, Jim Tanner, Billy White, Al Smith, Lewis Evans, Murry Cope, Fred Joseph, Billy Goodson and Dave Clark.

MITES MARCH TO 43-0 WIN

Greenville Midgets Exhibit Dazzling Play In New Bern

Sparked by "Jolting John" Sideris, Greenville's Mighty Mites rolled over the New Bern Cubs 43-0 last night at New Bern.
The Greenies kicked off to start the game and held the opposition on downs. Greenville then taking over on their own 40 yard line picked up two yards when Farley smashed off his own right tackle. On the next play Sideris crashed through center and behind beautiful down-field blocking skirted 58 yards for the opening TD. From this point on Greenville opened an array of passes, line smashes, end runs, and reverses to exhibit the best play they have shown this season.
Highlights in the game were the fine defensive play of the Mite line, sparked by Wooten and Umphlett who had succeeded starting berths this week. Time and time again the line cracked the New Bern wall to throw the opposition to great losses. Bill Wooten broke through in the third period to tackle a New Bern ball carrier behind his goal marker to add two points to the Greenville score.
Popsickle Farley, who has been a passing threat all season, beautifully exhibited the famous "Harry Gilmer" pass on several occasions last night, with Amen and Lee on the receiving end.
The brilliant blocking of (Captain) Valnright and the aggressive quarterbacking of "Stonewall" Aman added color and much excitement to the game. Bradshaw, Gardner, Lee, and Hux were up to their usual defensive play.
On one occasion Leon Moore, a hair in New Bern's soup, displayed an educated toe when he punted 38 yards and a coffin corner on the New Bern 2.
Greenville meets Goldsboro next week for the championship, Eastern North Carolina Midget Football conference. The time and place of the game will be decided early next week.

Chattanooga Is Deacons' Victim

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 2—(AP)—The Demon Deacons of Wake Forest, winners over mighty Tennessee, overpowered the University of Chattanooga's courageous team in a bruising 32 to 14 football victory before a crowd of about 9,000 here last night.
Chattanooga's Gene Roberts, the country's leading ground gainer was given the ball only a few times, but on those occasions he had little trouble in pulverizing his way through the Wake Forest defense.
Mack Sacrinity, left halfback, and George Pryor, substitute fullback paced the Deacons, who chalked up 23 first downs to Chattanooga's eight and gained 281 yards rushing 12 by the Moccasins.

Pellone Wins In Split Decision

New York, Nov. 2—(AP)—Tony Pellone has another split decision to his credit after a Madison Square Garden fight but this time most of the customers agree that he really won over Johnny Greco.
Greco, the heavier puncher, had Pellone in trouble in the second round when he caught the New Yorker near his own corner and pinned him against the ropes with a furious attack. It looked then as though Pellone would be lucky to last out the round but he weathered both storms and came on strong in the late rounds.
At 146 1-2, Greco has a pound and a half on Pellone as well as several years of experience. The New York kid showed his gameness under fire and his ability to keep his head when hurt.

Citadel Falls To South Carolina

Orangeburg, S. C., Nov. 2—(AP)—South Carolina's once-beaten Gamecocks, their runner-up Southern Conference football berth made more secure, today eyed three remaining circuit foes between them and a possible title.
In whipping a stubborn team from the Citadel, 19-7, before 10,000 Orangeburg County Fair fans here yesterday, the Gamecocks completed their sweep of state opposition to clinch the Palmetto crown while recording their third straight in the conference.
Beaten only by Alabama, and then by one touchdown, South Carolina is a half game back of William and Mary, leader of the conference with four victories. Maryland, Duke and Wake Forest will be met in that order before the Gamecocks can call it a season.
The scrappy Citadel Bulldogs after spotting South Carolina a first quarter score, came back to tie the count early in the second period but the Birds raced back into the lead with a score of their own a few minutes later and added a final tally in the third period.

Coach Tells Team To Quit After Beating

Columbus, Ga., Nov. 1—(AP)—Coach J. D. Langley said today he called his Bremen High School football team off the field late in its 68-to-6 loss to Jordan High of Columbus last night because "the boys had had enough of a beating."
The game was interrupted with about four minutes left when a fist fight broke out among the opposing players. After the players were separated, the Bremen team left the field without continuing the game.
"I didn't mind their running the score up—that's their privilege—but I do feel they were not sportsmanlike in continuing to send in their 200-pound first stringers against my reserves, who averaged around 120 pounds, after the score was 50 to 6," Langley said.

Grid Attendance Shows Increase

New York, Nov. 1—(AP)—College football attendance, reflecting the boom times, shows a startling 54.8 per cent increase over comparative figures for 1945, according to an Associated Press survey of 83 representative colleges.
The incomplete totals, varying because of the difference in number of home games played at the same date, reveal Michigan way out front in the box office department with 375,176 customers for five home appearances.
Other schools in the top row are Pennsylvania 274,000, California 233,000, Ohio State 217,640, Tulane 207,308, Southern California 190,889 and Illinois 176,228.

Guilford Loses To High Point

High Point, N. C., Nov. 2—(AP)—Guilford today was out of the unbeaten ranks after five wins, 6-0 upset victims of High Point in a North State Conference game.
Some 6,500 homecoming fans yesterday saw quarterback Curt McDonald scamper ten yards in the third quarter for the touchdown. Fullback Glenn Painter had passed 15 yards to left end Charles Collins to set up the scoring play.
The highly favored Guilford Quakers were outplayed. High Point's Purple Panthers failed to cash four more scoring threats.
The Quakers were stymied by rock-ribbed line play of Guard Don McCurry, Tackle Don Page and Center Bob Bollinger.
