Vandenberg Promises No Foreign Policy Changes

United Nations Delegates Told America Would Continue Co-operative Search For Peace; Mrs. Roosevelt Addresses Assembly

My MARC PURDUE New York, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The United Nations delegations, cheered by Sen. Arthur Vandenberg's Republican Party assurance of an unchanged American foreign policy geared to the U. N. search for peace, turned out today to take in three new members and continue their quest for a permanent headquarters.

First reaction to Vandenberg's post-election pledge of whole-hearted American cooperation with the U. N. was entirely favorable, and it was looked upon as a promise that the incoming majority party in Congress had no intention of fostering any vestige of isolationism.

Vandenberg, himself approaching the topmost level among American foreign policy-makers, stated an apparent adherence to the bipartisan character of U. S. policy in international affairs.

In the course of a reiterated objection to the United States paying half the U. N. administrative budget for 1947, running over 723,000,000, he said:

"I reassert, with whatever authority I possess, that, regardless of what political regime sits in Washington, you can count upon the cooperation of the government of the United States in striving, through the United Nations, for a system of mutual defense against aggression and for organized peace with justice in a better, safer and happier world."

The short passage was before the entire array of the delegations that turned out today for two plenary sessions in Flushing Meadow Park where Sweden, Afghanistan and Iceland were expected to receive the final vote of approval for membership without opposition.

Vandenberg, on the economy line told the 51-member budgetary committee that the U. S. wanted to pay no more than 25 per cent, but would contribute more than that for next year if necessary.

"This is not a matter of money," he added, "it is a matter of principle."

Although quarrels with Russia lay in the background, a conciliatory spirit was invoked yesterday by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

She replied firmly and vigorously to Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vishinsky on his insistence against U. N. aid for political refugees who refused to return to their homelands in Europe.

"I sincerely regret having to speak in opposition to some of Mr. Vishinsky's views," Mrs. Roosevelt said. (Continued on Page Two)

CHINA TRYING END CIVIL WAR

Kai-shek's Cease Fire Order To Be Effective At Noon Monday

Nanking, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The government today set noon Monday as the hour to cease firing in China's civil war and called upon the minority parties to call a truce to begin work as a team for peace.

Before the meeting opened both the Communists and the Third Party Democratic League expressed doubt that Chiang Kai-shek's surprise true order Friday would help in healing wounds of civil conflict.

A Communist statement asserted a provision that government armies would fire only to protect themselves would serve as the pretext for all kinds of military operations.

Lo Lung-Chi, league spokesman said it was doubtful Chiang's decision offered any pathway for the Communists or the Third Party to participate in the National Assembly opening Tuesday.

The generalissimo has called the assembly to write China's new constitution. So far both the Communists and the league have refused to name delegates, insisting first on an armistice.

Sun Fo, president of the legislative yuan (council) and son of the founder of the Chinese Republic, was scheduled to address today's session with the Communist and league representatives.

Among other things, he was expected to urge the two groups to take part in the assembly, and to attempt to allay their doubts as to the Government's sincerity.

Chiang, in his order of the day to his armies, directed them to "remain at your respective positions in order to show the Government's sincerity and patience in achieving peace."

The order covered Government armies spread over half a dozen fronts, from the Yangtze river in North China to Manchuria.

New Bern Taxicab Driver Arrested

By CHESTER WALSH State Highway Patrolman Richard Chadwick last night reported that the epidemic of highway wrecks is continuing in Pitt County after a series of three wrecks within a short time during the last weekend.

The patrolman said a New Bern taxicab driven by Vincent Cox, taking several Marines to Rocky Mount, passed through Falkland so fast last night about 7 o'clock that it couldn't make a curve, and the car went across the highway toward a service station and sideswiped a parked car owned by John Stancill of Greenville, Route 4, then went more than 60 yards farther and collided with a pickup truck driven by Modus Perry, of Bailey. The highway patrolman said the taxicab stopped then without further damage.

Vincent Cox, driver of the taxi was arrested and charged with careless and reckless driving.

China's Civil War Kai-shek's Cease Fire Order Is Victory For General George Marshall; America Hopes To Save North China From Soviet Domination

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.

(For Mackenzie) The Nationalist "cease fire" order in China is obviously a victory for Gen. George Marshall in his efforts to get Chiang Kai-shek to go half way in seeking an agreement with the Communists. It also is a very shrewd move from Chiang's own standpoint. But it really goes farther than that.

America has hoped all along, of course, to work out the factional differences in China and thereby diminish the chances that North China and Manchuria would come under the Soviet sway as has outer Mongolia.

The Nationalists, however, have also been hoping to conquer the Communists first so that the latter would have less on which to trade in the reorganized government.

This sounds simple, but there are numerous important undertones. It is not as though the U. S. had merely been supporting the established government of an ally in settling a postwar problem. Despite all the talk about the great battle for democracy put up by Chiang's forces during the war, the Nationalist government has been accepted by the U. S. only, as Roosevelt himself put it, because he saw no alternative.

Throughout the war American officers and emissaries actually were trying to get China to fight the Japanese, while Chiang's men seemed as much or more interested in checkingmate the Communists and consolidating for the postwar struggle. Chiang's political methods frequently remind of European practices which we were fighting to eliminate, often were embarrassing — to put it mildly. Postwar re-

Effort Being Made To Block Taft's Candidate For House Floor Leader

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST Washington, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Supporters of Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana asserted today the job of House Republican floor leader in the 80th Congress is in the bag for the 46-year-old Hoosier.

Friends of Rep. Clarence Brown countered promptly that the 57-year-old Ohioan has it all sewed up.

The contest goes on against a background of jockeying for advantage in the campaign for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination.

Halleck backers say election of Brown would give Senator Robert A. Taft and the state of Ohio entirely too much weight in the next Congress. Taft, already in line for the Senate leadership, is one of the GOP presidential hopefuls, and Brown is regarded as a member of his camp.

Neither Halleck nor Brown has officially announced his candidacy for the No. 2 majority spot in the next House, where the top spot of speaker already has been earmarked for Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr. of Massachusetts.

But colleagues of both are working avidly behind the scenes, and in the case of Halleck, at least, have sent letters to all Republican representatives-elect requesting their support. Similar letters are expected to be forthcoming from Brown's lieutenants.

Halleck's friends contend he is entitled to the leadership both by seniority and tradition. He has been in Congress four years longer than Brown and has been chairman of the Republican Congressional campaign committee, a post held by Martin before he became Republican floor leader.

The Brown forces insist he merits the job he directed the campaign which put Republicans in control of Congress in last Tuesday's elections.

A dark horse, Rep. Thomas Jenkins of Ohio, is out to beat both Halleck and Brown.

Jenkins, chairman of the GOP Congressional Food Study Committee, has prepared letters to all elected Republicans asking that they support him.

The Republican House Steering Committee, meeting here next Thursday at Martin's call, is expected to confine its activities to general matters of party policy and the drafting of a legislative program.

Policy Statement To Be Made Monday

Washington, Nov. 9.—(AP)—President Truman will make a brief general policy statement at a news conference at 10 a. m. Monday, the White House announced today.

Charles G. Ross, press secretary, in making the announcement, did not say what the statement would deal with in particular, but it was learned it would be a brief general statement of policy in the light of last Tuesday's election results.

Seek Revision Of Wagner Act

Washington, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Republicans may propose drastic revision of the Wagner Labor-Relations Act in some of the first bills dropped into the hopper of the 80th Congress, Senator Ball (R-Minn.) said today.

Ball, who will rank high on the new education and labor committee, today a reporter he and GOP colleagues expect to draft amendments holding unions equally responsible with management under the act.

He said the Republicans, who furnished most of the support for the so-called Case bill in the 79th Congress, will seek early reenactment of some of its provisions. President Truman's veto laid the Case bill low, although one of its sections, the Hobbs' Anti-Racketeering Act, later became law with his signature.

Ball said he would like to see an attempt made early into the session to legislate prohibitions against secondary boycotts regulation of union welfare funds and provisions making unions subject to suit for violation of collective-bargaining contracts.

Close Monday

The courthouse and city hall and other governmental offices, the postoffice and banks will be closed Monday, November 11, Armistice Day, a legal holiday.

Fulbright Suggests Truman Resign

U. S. Senator J. William Fulbright, Democrat of Arkansas, and his wife, Betty, read election returns in a Philadelphia railroad station while waiting for a train after he public suggested that President Truman should appoint a Republican secretary of State, and then resign from the presidency. The senator said this would end the threat of a stalemate between the White House and the new Republican congress for the next two years. The secretary of state would become president in the event of a vacancy in the presidency at this time. (AP Wirephoto).

Georgia Charges Klan Tried To Join Nazis

Says Order Is Now Trying Seeking To Weld Nationalist Veterans, Anti-Semitic And Anti-Negro Factions

Atlanta, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The State of Georgia charged the Ku Klux Klan today with attempting a 1940 merger with the German-American Bund, and accused the hooded order even now of seeking to weld ultra-nationalist veterans' groups and anti-semitic, anti-Negro factions.

Assistant Attorney General Daniel Duke, designated by Gov. Ellis Arnall to prosecute the Klan, filed the charges in Fulton (Atlanta) Superior Court as amendment to an earlier suit to revoke the Klan's charter.

The amended petition was introduced coincident with state legislation to revoke the charter of a new anti-Negro, anti-Jewish organization called "Columbians, Inc."

In 1940, certain local Klans on the eastern seaboard made a definite, planned effort to combine the Klan and the German-American Bund into one racially-supreme "all Aryan" organization, and undertook joint operations to boycott Jewish Catholic and Negro-owned business.

"Similar activities were planned and executed by the other (Klan) in collaboration with racially like-minded fascist and Nazi organizations," the petition says.

Samuel Stout, 3rd, of Philadelphia, Klan Grand Dragon of Pennsylvania, worked and collaborated with Edward James Smythe, director of the Protestant war veterans; August Klapprott, deputy national fuhrer of the German-American Bund; Arthur H. Bell, Grand Kludge of New Jersey; and James A. Colestock, Imperial Wizard of the Invisible Empire, in arranging a joint meeting of the German-American Bund and the Ku Klux Klan Aug. 19, 1940, at Camp Norland, Andover, N. J.

The state also charges that during 1934-1936 there were many instances of informal local mergers of the Klan and Silver Shirt groups, and "as early as 1934, Dr. Edward Rumely, probably the most highly-paid German agent in America during the first world war appeared at such meetings."

The state seeks charter revocation on grounds that the Klan systematically is carrying out a policy designed to violate the rights of Georgia citizens guaranteed under the constitution of the state and the United States.

Also alleged is that Eugene N. Sanctuary, "openly acknowledged by the German ministry of propaganda as one of its most dependable allies in America, is the publisher and co-author of the order's official history and handbook."

The state alleges that additional relations are now developing between the Klan and Gerald L. K. Smith and his associates.

"The most current example," the petition says, "is perhaps that of the Klan front organization called the Continental League for Christian Freedom, headed by Millard Grubbs of Louisville, Ky. This organization is attempting primarily to recruit veterans along violently anti-Semitic, anti-Catholic and anti-Negro lines."

Grubbs also is an active organizer for the Klan in Kentucky. Grubbs has been associated in "soft peace" agitation with the well-known German agent, Ernest Eimhurst, who was until recently in prison in New York.

Babson Discusses Real Estate

Babson Park, Mass., Nov. 9.—The stock market is not the only thing that has had a bump during the past two months. I happen to be vice president of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company with assets of $65,000,000. Naturally, we take a large number of mortgages. Just before leaving on my Western trip, it looked to me as if the edge is off the real estate market here in the East.

Conditions in the Middle West Hence, on my Western trip I constantly inquired regarding real estate and found that all cities visited told about the same story. Briefly, this is that the demand continues for small houses selling from $8,000 to $12,000; but that the demand for larger houses, even new ones, has fallen off considerably.

Real estate agents tell me that property that has been selling for $15,000 or over is now being marked down at least 20 per cent. This applies to older fairly modern houses and also to new houses. Large houses are actually a drug on the market at the present time in some sections of the country. Veterans are gradually getting located. There are more abundant than new houses or being built of green wood, with few nails and poor fixtures, which cause the purchasers to be wary of them.

What About Ceilings? Sooner or later the cost of living will again decline. If labor pays fairly, it will be willing to take a cut in wages, as living costs decline, to offset the increased wages which it has been given as living costs have increased. But whether or not this happens, labor, before long, will do better work and give much more for an hour's wage. This will apply to all wage workers, beginning with those who cut the trees in the woods for the lumber. Hence, those who can wait before buying a new house, should surely do so. The present $10,000 ceiling is not helping.

Now, a word regarding rent ceilings. It may be wise to continue rent ceilings on prewar houses although they should be adjusted to provide for the increased cost of upkeep, etc. But there should be no rent ceilings on new houses built for renting. Otherwise, very few houses will be built to rent and the nation will suffer.

Big Four May Scrap Whole Trieste Plan

Labor Front Offers Mixed Picture Today

Improvement In Some Areas, New Strikes In Others; Coal Showdown Monday

BL ASSOCIATED PRESS The three largest units of the AFL American Federation of Radio Artists favor a strike unless the four major networks agree to a new contract but there were bright spots on the nation's labor front.

The New York and Chicago units Friday night joined the Hollywood unit of AFRA in authorizing their executive board to call a strike. Negotiations between the union and the networks were broken off Oct. 30 over a union demand for a clause in the new contract, which a union spokesman said, "would require all networks to refuse to pipe in their programs to any affiliated station which refused to negotiate or arbitrate issues with AFRA."

Other developments included: Two Rochester, N. Y., newspapers suspended publication after a walk out of mechanical employees; principals in the 19-day old strike by 1,400 AFL pilots against Trans World Airline were called into conference by a federal mediator in Washington; a threatened work stoppage at the Ford Motor Company's big Rouge plant near Detroit disappeared; striking meat cutters and clerks voted to end their eight-day walkout which had closed 85 Denver grocery stores; in San Francisco four CIO longshoremen were arrested for leading a parade without a permit after some 2,000 striking Maritime unionists were prevented by police from massing in front of shipowner offices.

There was a lull in the big soft coal dispute but the showdown in the threatened walkout of 400,000 miners starts Monday when government officials headed by Secretary of Interior J. A. Krug and John L. Lewis meet in Washington.

Another conference scheduled will be in Hollywood aimed at ending the AFL inter-union fights in movie studios.

In the maritime strike on the Pacific coast, which since Sept. 30 has halted west coast shipping, the CIO union members in San Francisco said they wanted a personal report from their employers on progress of peace negotiations.

The longshoremen, AFL masters mates and pilots and the CIO marine engineers beneficial association have continued the strike, after the walkout was ended in the east.

In Washington, officials of the Engineering and Research Company's aircraft plant at Riverdale, Md., said that disgruntled employees laid off in a month's shutdown of the plant had sabotaged airplane equipment on the production lines. L. A. Wells, company president, notified more than 2,500 employees that the plant was closing because of lack of sales and hangar space, decline of the stock market, and unsettled economic conditions.

At Wilmington, N. C., Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, president of East Carolina Teachers' College, spoke before the general session of the Southeastern District Teachers Association of the NCEA in Wilmington Friday night on "The American Teacher Today."

May Give Italy And Yugoslavia The Opportunity To Work Out Own Formula For Settling Bitter Border Dispute

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER New York, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Top Western diplomats predicted today that the Big Four foreign ministers will readily scrap their whole elaborate plan for internationalizing Trieste if Italy and Yugoslavia can produce a new formula for settling their bitter border dispute between themselves.

Rome reported a possible visit by Italian Foreign Minister Pietro Nenni to Belgrade, and several other developments presaged vigorous efforts at a real break in the East-West deadlock over the Adriatic port city. One of the latest was a decision by the foreign ministers here to go on to other issues. This allows time for hopeful attempts already under way to bring about a solution, diplomatic authorities said.

The decision was reached last night at a four-hour and 40 minute session of the Big Four council in which Britain's Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin virtually accused Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of holding in "contempt" the decisions of the Paris Peace Conference. Molotov denied the charge.

The question arose over a relatively little-known issue having to do with restoration of property stolen from Jews in war-time Romania. The Paris Peace Conference by a two-thirds vote recommended a restoration clause in the Romanian peace treaty. Bevin and Secretary of State James F. Byrnes backed it, and Molotov objected.

According to Western power informants at the meeting, Bevin told Molotov last night that to strike the article from the treaty would be to treat the Paris Conference almost with contempt. Molotov said he did not hold the Paris decisions in contempt, but he opposed the provision because it was necessary, the problem being covered elsewhere.

By passing the Trieste issue through Secretary of State Byrnes, Deputy French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville and Molotov and Bevin into another old stalemate which the Big Four has battled through in every peacemaking session leading up to the one here.

The issue is that of free navigation on the Danube. The United States and Britain want it; Russia opposes writing it into the Balkan peace treaties.

Bevin said he did not really care whether a free Danube was guaranteed in the treaties or in some other way but that Britain would insist upon it.

HIGH SCHOOL HAS PROGRAM

Will Celebrate Armistice Day Monday At Courthouse

Greenville High School will celebrate Armistice Day next Monday, November 11, with a program at the Courthouse Square at 2 p. m. The student body will march to the Courthouse, led by the high school band.

When the program is finished at the Courthouse, the students will parade back down Evans Street to Five Points and then to the Norfolk Southern Depot, where the parade will be disbanded. Then the members of the student body will go to Gay South Stadium for the football game between the Greenville High School Midgets and the Goldsboro Midgets, three teams playing for the championship of eastern North Carolina.

At the Courthouse, June H. Rose, superintendent of the Greenville City Schools and past State commander of the American Legion will preside. Invocation will be by Dr. H. Glenn Haney.

The Greenville High School Band under direction of Harold A. McDougle, will play selections and the Greenville High School Glee Club, under direction of Miss Olga Shindler, will sing three numbers as follows: "Lord's Prayer," by Malotte; "One World," by O'Hara; "Recessional," by Kipling.

The program at the Courthouse will be broadcast over WGTC.

Community Chest Goes 'Over Top'

Greenville's Community Chest Drive went over the top, surpassing their goal of $12,500, total $15,000. The Women's Division, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Sam Underwood, did an outstanding job in their house-to-house canvass and raised over $1,200 of Greenville's quota.

The fine work done by the Lion's Club, Godfrey Oakley, chairman, in making the business district solicitations, contributed greatly to the success of the campaign.

The Special Gifts Committee headed by E. Graham Flanagan started the Chest Drive off with several heavy contributions prior to the official opening of the drive. Campaign Chairman Reynolds May thanks every worker and every contributor to the Community Chest. The liberal contributions and cooperative work enabled the eight worthwhile organizations supported by the chest funds to carry on the splendid work for another year.

The New Congress

Revision Of Congressional Organization Adopted By 79th Congress Will Become Effective When Next Congress Meets; Republicans Get Plums

Washington, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The Republicans have the plum, they control Congress. Both branches: Senate and House. But—because they control Congress there's going to be a Republican scramble. Who gets on what committee?

Being on a good committee is a real prize for a Congressman. The committees are the bloodstream of Congress. They prepare legislation for the whole Congress to vote upon, they have hearings, question witnesses, make investigations. When a Congressman is appointed to a committee, he generally hangs on. He starts at the bottom. He gets to the top—to the chairmanship—if he lives long enough and is not shot enough, when all those ahead of him die or quit. Sometimes it's quite a wait.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By PAUL L. DOUGLAS

TRAINING FOR LIFE

A few days ago we listened to a radio description of a football game. The commentator made two very interesting statements. He said that this was a great football year because many of the players were returned veterans. They carried the same zeal to the gridiron which they had manifested on the landing beaches, in the jungles, or on the tortuous advance over rough terrain.

Both of these statements remind me of training. It is essential to success both in warfare and in sports. The three outstanding factors in training are obedience, practice, and temperate living. One I remind of the statement of the ancient Greek philosopher Thales that bodily enjoyment depends upon health and health depends upon temperance. Men training for athletic victory are not allowed to do whatever they feel like doing. They are under the direction of a coach and a trainer. The coach instructs them in the technique of the game, the trainer in the matter of keeping themselves in fit physical trim.

WASHINGTON LETTER

ANIMALS FEEL MAN'S 'GET TOUGH' POLICY IN WAR AND PEACE

By J. W. DAVIS (For Jane Eads)

Washington—Things aren't going so well in the animal world either. The Wildlife Review, an Interior Department sum-up of articles from publications all over the country (and a few foreign ones), relates: 1. They are still bombing crows in Oklahoma. H. Gordon Hanson reports from Oklahoma City that in the last 11 seasons 2,000 crows have been blasted to death efficiently out of their nests.

Wildlife of the insect-gnet variety however, seems to be eating well. Lucile A. Rice estimates in an Indiana publication that 3,442,483 insects were gobbled up by nesting birds and their young in 60 days on 50 acres.

Donald W. Douglas and A. M. Stebler in Michigan take a dim attitude toward the value of bounties in reducing the coyote and fox population. The system, they say, "tends to beget dishonesty."

From Hertford, England, a pair of bird watchers contribute a somewhat critical piece on "The Spectacular Jay-Tarush at Liberty in California." They say, severely: "It is certainly not the understanding that permits for the importation of birds should cover their liberation; these birds came from Hawaii, and if aviculturists persist in the practice, we may have additional ungestrained species colonized in this country."

The bighorn sheep have their troubles, as do the Kaibab deer, but in a different way. In the bighorn country, Fred Mallory Packard figures there are about twice as many ewes as rams.

There are other guides to fuller knowledge in the Review. It tells you: 1. Durward L. Allen of Lansing Mich. knows the "safe way of handling skunks." The Review doesn't air his secrets. 2. If you want to know just how to tell the age of a cotton tall rabbit, the men to turn to are Hans Peter Thomsen and Otto A. Mortensen of Pennsylvania State College. They say bone structure has a lot to do with it. 3. When's to get the lockdown on how to weigh a Minnesota moose. 4. What a goateen eagle in northern Montat eats: snakes, ground squirrels, rabbits and grouse. This article is by a man named Harry Truman—Harrey Vern Truman, that is.

mile or two of a church, stores, post office, schools, etc. Real estate people are looking up such property with the idea of cutting it up into a subdivision of five or ten acres. While on my trip, I purchased two 16-acre farms. Both of these I can rent at a figure to pay taxes and give me 4 percent on my investment. This is good enough these days with the security which a good farm offers. In one instance, the farm was within walking distance of a city of 5,000 population. I consider this a safe investment considering the excellent soil, drainage and location in an out area.

Farming States

During this trip I found an instinctive desire of farmers to want to move in a southerly direction. Farmers in Minnesota are selling and buying farms in Kansas, Iowa and Missouri; while farmers in these Central States are selling and buying farms in Oklahoma, Texas and perhaps Kentucky. Although the general movement during the past fifty years has been westward, it is now directed southward, although, of course, California is the looked-for haven of most farm housewives. For retired farmers, Florida should not be forgotten; but from an agricultural point of view it is very hard to induce a Midwest farmer to swap six feet of black loam for Florida sand even though Florida has the finest climate in the world!

China's Civil . . .

ations indicate that Roosevelt was probably less worried about Russia than he was about China. That's why a part of the American ob has been to get Chiang to clear his own spirits. The cease fire order is one result of that. But it also may prove to be the point of snowdown as to actual notices on the Communist side.

As dispatches from Nankin report, it is a shrewd move to force the Communists to enter the government or accept responsibility for continued civil war. The question of whether the Communists are acting entirely on their own, or have come to be an implement of Russian policy, is at stake. There have been doubts that they ever intended to come to terms regarding Nationalist concessions. The Communists have maintained real peace negotiations while Chiang's armies pressed an invasion of Communist-held territory. Now that barrier has been removed. If the Communists improve some other barrier now, the portents for China and for the rest of the world will look grim indeed.

The New Congress . . .

Now in the new 80th Congress the Republicans will have a majority in House and Senate. So they'll control the committees in both Houses. They'll appoint Republicans as committee chairmen, and they'll put enough Republicans on each committee to have a majority on each. (The Republicans who have been ranking minority members will be Democratic chairmen and the present Democratic chairmen will step down to the position of ranking minority member since Democrats will be in the minority.)

This solution can be reached if we are both willing in these fields to try for a spirit of cooperation and a realistic approach to our problems."

Highlighting the events of the social calendar of Miss Verona Lee Joyner, a bride-elect of the coming week, Mrs. Charles Wilkerson and Mrs. Lindsay Wilkerson complimented her at a bridge luncheon at their lovely home on Evans street at one o'clock on Tuesday. Guests were graciously received by the hostesses and presented to the honoree.

Tables were attractively laid for twenty guests in the adjoining living room, sun room and dining room. The bride-elect's place was marked by a corsage of white chrysanthemums. Inimitable arrangements of oranges, chrysanthemums and fern flanked by white tapers added to the beauty of the surroundings. District Meeting Of B P & W Clubs

The Business and Professional Women's Club was host to the District Meeting and also held its regular meeting Thursday night at 7 o'clock at the Rotary Club. Mrs. Blanche Jackson, president, opened the meeting by the club singing "America." Mrs. Ruel Tyson gave the invocation. A most delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served. The speakers' table was the center of attraction as it was decorated with a beautiful basket of red and white carnations. The other tables were decorated with sprays of red berries.

Mrs. Beecher Flanagan gave the address of welcome and Mrs. Emma J. Edmondson, president of the Roanoke Rapids Club, gave the response. At this time, the club was entertained with a song by Miss Mimi Tripp. Mrs. J. B. Spilman introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Jeanette Grainger, manager of N. C. Unemployment Office, Wilson, N. C. Mrs. Grainger gave the most interesting talk on How Women are Holding the Line of Employment. It was very interesting to know how women have taken places in State National and County Political Fields and if we look around and see the jobs women are holding, we find that it is because they are capable. Women hold jobs in all kinds of industries. They take the lead in employment in quite a few fields such as medicine, nutrition, education and scientific fields along with business offices, clerical, stenographers and others. The auto industries employ 38 percent women.

The program was turned over to Miss Joyce Hines, district director, who gave the minutes of the last meeting held in Ahoskie last April. Miss Ella Bommer of Washington was appointed parliamentarian. Miss Hines asked the following club presidents to give reports: Mrs. R. L. Dempsey, Ahoskie, N. C.; Mrs. Blanche Jackson, Greenville; Mrs. Emma J. Edmondson, Roanoke Rapids; Mrs. Van Burkirk, Rocky Mount; and Miss Ella Carawan, Washington. This has been a very profitable and successful year according to the reports given.

Mrs. Buelah Brown presented crystal to the new bride, Mrs. Louise Hicks Avery, and bride-elect Miss Verona Lee Joyner.

Mrs. Ruth Farnagan and Mrs. Hilda Laughinghouse held a drawing contest and gave away prizes donated by the local business houses: Copeland Motor Company, seat covers, Home Furniture Company crystal flower bowl, J. A. Collins &

CONVENTION'S FINE SUCCESS

Disciples Of Christ Conclude Annual Meeting Friday

The North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention's 102nd session closed here last night with an address by Gaines M. Cook, of Indianapolis, Ind., secretary of the International Convention of the Disciples of Christ. The distinguished churchman's message pointed the way toward more effective and harmonious results in achieving the ultimate of Christians' duties for peace and "going forward" in religion's great objective, and he urged his hearers to lead the way by newly-inspired activities in each individual church and community.

Attendance at the convention was greater than since the war started. Various speakers commented on the evidence of personal interest among the delegates—clergymen and laymen. Reports of committees indicated a generally forward movement in the church's program. Dr. H. Glenn Haney, pastor of the host church said after the business session of the convention this morning, C. O. Hawley, of Indianapolis, Ind., spoke this morning on "A Crusade for a Christian World," and a forum followed. George F. Cuthrell of Dunn, used as his theme "Spiritual Implications of The Crusade."

This afternoon a "Rural Church Panel" was conducted by Allen Wilson, Byron Carlisle, G. A. Hamlin and R. A. Phillips. H. B. Holloway of Indianapolis, Ind., was the speaker at the laymen's banquet tonight.

At the closing session James M. Haney made the report of the young laymen's conference, Atlantic Christian College Glee Club sang.

Report of committee and other appointments will be made later.

The favors were key rings, World Atlas, cook books and miniature rolling pins donated by the Copeland Motor Company, Brown-Wood, Auto Specialty Company White Chevrolet Company, Mahogany Shop and Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

In observance of National Flower Week, Nov. 3-10, the following donations were made: lovely center piece at speakers' table by Cox Floral Co.; guest speaker corsage by Simpson's Florist; district director corsage by Greenville Floral Company. Mrs. Blanche Jackson, president by Moyer's Florist.

The Roanoke Rapids club attendance was 11, Washington club 10 Rocky Mount club 10 and Ahoskie club 15. The Greenville club had forty six members present and 21 guests. We are very proud that we had guests from all parts of North Carolina.

The meeting was brought to a close by reading Collect of Women's Club of America and singing "Blest be The Tie."

Soviets Delay Policy Speech

Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 8.—(AP)—The Soviet Union today postponed its keenly anticipated policy speech in the 51-member United Nations trusteeship committee where the United States already has offered U. N. jurisdiction, with a "strategic area" reservation, over Japanese-mandated islands in the Pacific.

Prof. Boris Stein, alternate Russian delegate, first explained to the committee that postponement to Monday was necessary because Ambassador Nikolai Novikov was delayed in Washington. Then Novikov arrived during the meeting but did not take the floor and the Russians offered no further explanation. The Russian delay was announced after a United States take-it-or-leave-it stand in presenting the island proposal gave strong evidence of this nation's determination to pursue its policy of patient firmness with Russia within the U. N.

GOOD NEWS! To Our Dealer Friends:

Even Though the O.P.A. has Removed the Price Ceiling on Soft Drinks -- Our Wholesale Price to the Trade, for the Present, Has Not Been Raised

You Can Still Retail Dr. Pepper

At the Same Old Price of 5¢ With the Same % of Gross Profit

All during the war, in spite of higher costs, Dr. Pepper Company has sold us syrup, and we have sold you bottled Dr. Pepper at the pre-war price. We have always resisted and will continue to resist every influence which may threaten the traditional privilege of the American people to enjoy Dr. Pepper for a nickel. Every dealer who values consumer good will should strive to preserve this American tradition. While the ceiling on soft drinks is off, the ceiling on sugar remains. To remove the ceiling on sugar will not make available sugar that does not exist or replace sugar that is being diverted to foreign lands. Our sugar ration is still limited to 60 per cent of 1941 usage. Since we have not and will not use inferior substitute ingredients, the shortage of Dr. Pepper will continue until sugar is plentiful again. In these uncertain times manufacturing costs are subject to drastic change but we do not feel that the present situation justifies increase in our wholesale price at this time.

JACKETS BEAT GHS GRIDDERS

Roanoke Rapids Boys Trounce Locals By Score Of 25 to 0

A big, but not particularly rough, Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jacket football team took advantage of breaks and costly Greenville fumbles to rack up a 25-0 victory over the luckless Green Phantoms in Guy Smith stadium last night.

The large Roanoke Rapids club was definitely not 25 points better than the Phantoms, but a couple of poor kicks by the Greens deep in their own territory got the home club in trouble right off the bat and before the first quarter had ended the score was 13-0 in the visitors' favor.

The Greenville defense, after the first two scores, was superb, with the Phantom line playing a bang-up game in keeping the Jacket running attack under control. Big fullback Mahlon Tucker also played his usual bang-up defensive ball game.

Offensively, the Greenville running attack was stalled to a large extent by the big Yellow Jacket forwards. However, passes netted the Phantoms several first downs and were the main reason for the only Greenie sustained drive which brought the ball down to the visiting club's 10 yard line before a pass interception broke it up. Cletas "C-Note" Jackson and Henry Turner were the main receivers, Jackson especially was adept at hanging on to the aerials, and he carried for the longest single Phantom gain when tail back Billy Goodson ran to his right, then suddenly turned and tossed the ball to Henry Turner on left end who lateraled the ball off to Jackson who got up before the Greenville forty five yard line. The play started on about the twenty five yard line.

After the first two Roanoke Rapids scores, they crossed the goal line once more in the first half when a pass interception deep in Greenville territory set up the tally. After the half, the Jackets scored one quick touchdown to end the night's goal crossing. This final marker was set up by two passes which the Jackets threw just after the kickoff. The big Roanoke Rapids fullback took the ball across on a line buck from about four yards out.

The rest of the game was played on almost equal terms, although the visiting coach, Rock Venters, kept his first team on the field most of the time.

Greenville meets their old rivals, the Washington Pam Pack, down in Washington next Friday night. Last night's Green Phantom starters were: Turner and Billy White at ends, Jim Tanner and Shelley Beard at tackles, June Rose and Bobby Fleming at guards, Dennis Cooke at center, and Tucker, Will McLawhorn, Glenn Perkins and Jim Lee in the backfield.

Subs who saw action were Cletas Jackson, Tommy Diener, Al Smith, Ben Roberson, Murry Cooke, Billy Goodson, Herbert Corey, Fred Joseph, and Dave Clark.

BABY PIRATES TIE NEW BERN

Freshmen Team In Hard Fought 13-13 Battle Last Night

By CHARLES BRACKEN
The freshmen football team of East Carolina Teachers College was held to a 13-13 tie in a hard-fought game played in New Bern Friday night. Costly fumbles, and a weak pass defense gave the scrappy New Bern High school team their scoring opportunities and kept them very much in the ball game although they were held to a mere 72 yards rushing.

A first quarter drive sparked by Kittrell, Davis and Wheeler saw the Freshmen march 76 yards for the first score of the ball game with Kittrell scoring from the 5-yard line standing up. New Bern, receiving the kickoff, marched and passed their way from their own 40 yard line to the 2, where they were held by the hard-hitting Freshmen forward wall, but they were not to be outdone as they recovered a fumble and scored on a pass from the 9-yard line. The remainder of the second period was a kicking duel with both teams being about equal.

The Freshmen opened the second half with a 70-yard drive sparked by Kittrell, who was really having a field day and pushed across another score with Kittrell tallying again.

New Bern, still very much in the game, received and passed their way from their 25-yard line for another score, and made the kick for extra point good, tying the game.

The fourth quarter found the Freshmen marching down field, but an intercepted pass on the 20-yard line nipped the drive, and the clock ran out before the Freshmen had time for another score. Long who has been playing fine defensive and offensive football in the line, turned in another fine performance last night. Kittrell, Davis and Wheeler were running hard as the line opened holes at will.

Davis' best running opportunity was nipped when he collided with the umpire.

This is the first team that has scored on the Freshman team this season, and it is possible that a later game will be arranged to settle the 13-13 tie.

Yards rushing: ECTC, 249; New Bern, 72.

KIWANIANS ON FORWARD MOVE

Pay Tribute To Police Chief Jim Tanner And Football Mid-gets

By CHESTER WALSH
At the Kiwanis Club's weekly supper meeting last night Police Chief Jim Tanner, pinch-hitting on short notice, presented the program of the year under direction of President Ed E. Rawl. Hunter Keck, Music Committee chairman, provided some congregational singing and a songster, with James Ray Pittman as master of ceremonies.

A feature was the competitive singing of two quartets, comprised by (1) Bill Aycock, Don Conley, N. C. Brooks and Glenn Scott; (2) Judge Jimmy Roberts, Dick Bundy, Herman Duncan and Ray McKenzie. The singers had to organize an octet to win the prize. They made a hit.

Don Conley had a birthday and donated a nickel for each year of his age to the underprivileged child fund. Vice-President Eli Bloom introduced George Siders, Public Relations chairman for the Midgets' football team, and George, who is nine years old, going on 10, made a hit and sold a lot of tickets.

Guests of the club included C. Manly Morton, a Christian Church Missionary to Puerto Rico; James Fleming, of the ECTC faculty; Miss Joanne Bloom and Allen T. Powell. Judge Roberts will be host at supper for the officers and directors at Nelson Hopkins Tavern next Monday night at 7 o'clock.

President Rawl announced that the Kinston Kiwanis Club, organized and sponsored by the Greenville Club over a year ago, has a full membership. The president met with the Kinston Kiwanians at lunch yesterday.

The feature of the meeting was Guy Smith's presentation of Police Chief Jim Tanner as speaker. The chief made a heart-to-heart talk to Tsaldaris survived its first test today by winning a vote of confidence in the Greek Parliament after a bitter, all-night debate. The tally was 183 to 128.

The 11-hour debate was touched off by introduction of a resolution demanding that Tsaldaris and his cabinet resign and permit the organization of a coalition government.

Opposition leaders have declined to serve in the recently completed Tsaldaris government, which is dominated by the populist party.
