MINISTERS IN NEW STRUGGLE OVER TRIESTE

Russia's Demands Point Up Question 'Who Shall Rule Trieste?'

New York, Nov. 14—(AP)—A first class struggle was developing in the Foreign Ministers Council today over the issue of who should rule the proposed free city of Trieste. It appeared certain to put to extreme test the mildly conciliatory attitude which has grown up here between Russia and the Western powers.

Secretary of State Byrnes and British Foreign Secretary Bevin already were confronted with 14 Russian demands for changes in a Paris Peace Conference decision that would vest wide powers in a governor responsible to the United Nations Security Council.

Byrnes and Bevin got together early today, presumably to discuss the changes in the Trieste plan demanded by Russia.

Los Angeles Hit By New Downpour

Los Angeles, Nov. 14—(AP)—New downpours, accompanied by brilliant lightning flashes and almost deafening thunder, struck the metropolitan area early today as crews prepared to start mopping up damage from a three-day storm one of the worst on record this early in the season.

Rain totals in the suburbs rocketed as high as 6.58 inches in fashionable San Marino. Even Long Beach, on the normally dry seacoast, reported 5.56 inches. This compared with a mark of 20 for the entire season to date a year ago.

Winds up to 57 miles per hour whipped Beach cities; snow fell to a depth of five feet at the Los Angeles county playground of Big Pines. Mountain roads were buried in snow and slush; highways were washed out and mud-covered; bridges weakened.

Express Agency Asks For Increased Rates

Troops Raid Black Market In 'DP' Camp, Find Illicit Goods

Frankfurt, Germany, Nov. 14—(AP)—U. S. military police raided a Jewish displaced persons camp at Zellheim today and arrested eight men described by army officers as leaders of one of the biggest black market centers in Germany, operating in the camp.

Lt. Col. Redmond J. Connolly, provost marshal, said the raid followed investigations which indicated that the camp, housing 4,000 homeless Jews, was the center of large scale black market operations extending throughout the American occupation zone of Germany.

About 50 automobiles, several thousands of dollars in military scrip and forbidden American and French money, as well as hundreds of thousands of German marks were seized during the dawn raid.

AID FOR AGED INSUFFICIENT

Gov. Cherry Recommends Assistance For Needy Of N. C.

Flymouth, N. C., Nov. 14—(AP)—North Carolina must increase the amount of assistance it renders to its needy aged and to dependent children, Governor Cherry asserted in a speech to welfare workers of the northeastern district here today.

In addition, the governor said there are far too many children between the ages of 13 and 15 who are not eligible for public assistance—who must be provided for, as soon as possible, through a program of general assistance.

Resolution Passed Requesting Legislature To Pay Just Salaries

By CHESTER WALSH The late President Franklin D. Roosevelt rose to eminence and world-wide prestige after he, in the lean depression year of 1933 and thereafter, remembered "the forgotten man."

Now, that the North Carolina General Assembly is to meet in January, Governor Gregg Cherry has a wonderful opportunity to remember "the forgotten teachers," use his influence toward providing fair and just compensation for those who labor in the schools, and aid the youth of the Tar Heel State.

Charges Dismissed By Commissioner; DA May Take Case

Baltimore, Nov. 14—(AP)—U. S. Commissioner James K. Cullen today dismissed charges against three former service men the government accused of attempting to peddle unauthorized pictures of atomic bomb equipment.

Cullen, in refusing to hold the three for federal grand jury action said he did not feel that sufficient evidence had been presented to substantiate the charge.

London, Nov. 14—(AP)—Thirteen more labor members of Parliament joined a "revolt" against the Attlee government today, demanding a socialist foreign policy to prevent American "imperialism" and Soviet "communism."

The labor party rebels numbered at least 53. Another 20 labor MPs were opposing the government over pacifist military conscription. Labor holds about a two to one majority over the conservatives in the 640-seat House.

Each group of dissidents, constituting the first real crack in labor solidarity since Winston Churchill was forced from office 15 months ago after a general election, offered its objection as an amendment to the speech of King George VI Tuesday. There appeared little chance that either amendment could muster a majority and thus unsettle Attlee's cabinet.

The long-simmering revolt against Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's conduct of foreign affairs found no sympathy in the ranks of the conservative opposition and was (Continued on page seven)

Taft Forecasts Delay In GOP Final Program

One Of Biggest Black Market Centers In Germany Broken Wide Open; Autos And Money Seized; Eight Men Arrested

Washington, Nov. 14—(AP)—Senator Robert Taft of Ohio forecast today that Republicans will delay final drafting of any party legislative program for the GOP-controlled Congress until early in January.

Any such delay probably would lay the Republican proposals before Congress after President Truman outlines his Democratic administration requests for legislation in the annual state of the union message.

Taft told a reporter the GOP Senate and House steering committees probably will produce, at a meeting today and tomorrow, a list of subjects on which subcommittees will be asked to prepare recommendations or bills for presentation at conferences of all party members early in January.

The Republicans will proceed with their program without reference to any proposals the Democrats may make, he added.

The two GOP steering committees, meeting in separate sessions today, will hold a joint meeting tomorrow.

A thumbnail legislative program embracing a half dozen or fewer premises gained favor among Republicans today as Senate and House GOP steering committee met for their first crack at organizing the new Congress.

All signs, however, pointed to a long delay in resolving leadership questions, particularly since the House struggle still is raging unabated against a backdrop of 1948 presidential politics.

Senator Wallace White of Maine who may become majority floor leader in his chamber, told a reporter he is urging his colleagues to center their fire on a few major issues.

"I don't think we ought to try to write a party platform such as might be produced by a national convention," he said. "We ought to say what we want to do about a half dozen major issues and not (Continued on page eight)

Jury Still Out

Elizabeth City, Nov. 14—(AP)—A Pasquotank county Superior Court jury continued today to deliberate the case of Stanley Erickhouse, 49, charged with a suit with a deadly weapon with intent to kill Raymond Mann, the alleged paramour of Erickhouse's daughter.

Judge J. Paul Frizzelle announced to the court at noon today that the jury count had stood at 7 to 5 since they resumed deliberations at 9:30 this morning. Frizzelle gave no indication of the majority opinion.

A court attaché, unidentified by name, said "This looks like a mistrial."

Small Powers In Attack On Veto

Little Nations Open Campaign Against Explosive Issue Before UN Committee; Cuba, Australia, New Zealand And Philippines Voice Opposition To Power

By LARRY HAUCK Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 14—(AP)—Cuba charged today that retention of the veto in the United Nations made small countries vassals and satellites subject to a five-power dictatorship and Australia denounced Russia for invoking the veto 10 times in the security council.

Those two states led off a small nation campaign on the explosive issue in the general assembly's 51-nation political committee.

The committee has before it demands for elimination or complete review of the veto section granting Russia, the U. S., Great Britain, France and China the right to block any major decision with a single vote.

Paul Hasluck, Australian delegate, said that the Russian actions undermined confidence in the Security Council and lessened its ability to deal effectively with matters before it.

"Retention of the veto will tend to make blocs and make small nations vassals and satellites," Cuban Delegate Guillermo Belt declared. Mariana J. Cuenco of the Philippines joined in the attack to declare that the U. N. would fail unless the veto power is restricted.

"If all dictatorship is unjust then it is time to abolish the veto power," he added.

Sir Carl August Berendsen of New Zealand said it was useless for the U. N. to attempt to remove the veto from the charter because there is an "eternally renewed" amendments to the charter.

He said: "The plain and rather ugly fact is that a permanent member has claimed successfully that (Continued on Page Eight)

TB SEAL SALE WILL FINANCE BIG PROJECTS

Funds Used Locally; Tuberculosis Death Rate In Pitt Cut In Half

For the past 10 years, an organization has been engaged in a health campaign in Pitt county directed at a disease which constitutes a major public health problem because it takes a high death toll, particularly among young adults, and because it is spread from person to person.

In 1936, the Pitt County Tuberculosis Association was formed to wage a campaign within the county against this disease, tuberculosis. Through affiliation with the state and national associations, the county association is part of a nationwide movement to eradicate tuberculosis.

Next week, the county association simultaneously with 2,900 other associations in the country, will appeal to local residents for funds to carry its work through 1947. The appeal will be made through the sale of Bonds and Christmas Seals. The Bonds will be sold on November 19 by a corps of Bond Salesmen. Christmas Seals will be placed on sale November 25 and continuing until Christmas.

A glance backward at the history of the tuberculosis association reveals how these small Seals have gone to work for the people of Pitt County, how they have helped make this a healthier county in fighting a destructive enemy which kills more young people between the ages of 15 and 35 than any other disease.

Discussing the organization and history of the association yesterday J. Herbert Smith, president, said that at times progress has seemed slow but in reviewing the campaign against tuberculosis through the perspective of years, it is evident that progress has been steady.

"When the association was organized in Pitt County," he said "the TB death rate in the county was 76.8 per 100,000 population. Today it is 35.9 per 100,000. (State Health Dept. figures). The tuberculosis association by no means claims sole credit for this decline in death rate, but its work has undoubtedly contributed to the improved situation.

Removal Of Rent Controls Pushed

Washington, Nov. 14—(AP)—An industry proposal to boost all rent ceilings 15 percent at once as a first step to full decontrol drew a promise from OPA officials today of "full and speedy" consideration.

These officials kept mum, however, on any prediction how the decision might go or even when it will be made. They said the issue will go to Price Administrator Paul A. Porter as soon as necessary studies have been completed.

The industry proposal, which offered the first opportunity for an official show-down on demands for rent decontrol, was presented to OPA by the agency's housing rent advisory committee.

The petition asked not only for the higher ceilings but for immediate removal of rent curbs on new houses or on buildings converted to housing use from other purposes.

The committee also proposed that "a systematic and progressive removal of individual properties from rent control" be accomplished where owners offer tenants a lease at an increase in rental of not more than 15 percent.

Washington, Nov. 14—(AP)—Today in this country new home building is supposed to be limited almost entirely to homes for veterans. This is a government program.

But now veterans' housing has become a very hot subject, may grow hotter. Here is an explanation with background of how it got to where it is.

In October, 1945, the government threw off all its wartime controls on buildings of any kind. But veterans needed housing. Their cry reached Washington.

By early 1946 the cry had become so acute because a lot of scarce building materials were going into construction other than homes—that the government had to act.

Since then it's tried to repair the damage done by throwing off its wartime controls in October a year ago. This is what it has done:

1. Wilson Wyatt, one-time mayor of Louisville, Ky., was made housing boss. He set a goal of new homes for veterans.

2. Unless the government gives permission, there can be no building repairs or new building of any kind that exceed certain money limits. For example: no repairs without permission if they cost over $400.

3. To keep costs down for veterans, the government gives special help in getting scarce building materials for veterans' new homes that cost less than $10,000 or rental units that will rent for no more than $80 monthly.

To do this, the government has set up a system of priorities on all (Continued on Page Eight)

ATOM CONTROL WORK SPEEDED

'Public Impatience' Spurs UN Commission On Report

Lake Success, N. Y., Nov. 14—(AP)—Taking cognizance of what one delegate termed a "few public expressions of impatience," the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission plunged today into intensive work on a report to be delivered to the U. N. Security Council by Dec. 31.

A member of the French delegation, whose chief, Alexandre Parodi, became president of the commission today in the monthly rotation, said that the report would at least announce "progress" on the work of the commission so far.

He indicated that the exact recommendation to be made would depend on the nature of developments between now and the date of the report.

It was authoritatively revealed that the political committee of the commission has virtually completed informal discussions on the first phase of a three-fold mission entrusted to it in September.

The delegates have practically finished work on the consideration of controls to prevent diversion of atomic energy. Next they will tackle the problem of clandestine operations. The third phase they were asked to discuss is that of arbitrary seizure of a plant which might be intent on war.

It was predicted in informed circles that consideration of these matters would be stepped up now that the diversion problem has been explored. It was pointed out that much technical groundwork has been laid and it would not be necessary to repeat that technical matter in discussing the other two phases.

Members of the United States delegation viewed the commission

Heavy Toll From Peruvian Quakes

Lima, Peru, Nov. 14—(AP)—At least 410 persons were reported today to have lost their lives in a series of earthquakes which began in Peru last Sunday and have crippled communications and caused widespread devastation.

The ministry of the interior said that Conchucos, a town of 4,400 inhabitants north of Lima, was apparently the hardest hit. Three hundred persons were killed and 250 injured there.

Sihuas, a town of 11,540, was reported completely destroyed. So far, 40 bodies have been taken out of the debris.

Since the first shock struck Sunday afternoon 52 minor quakes have been felt, according to reports from the interior.

Record Tobacco Crop Set By N. C.

Raleigh, Nov. 14—(AP)—A record-breaking tobacco crop totaling 912,585,000 pounds was produced by North Carolina farmers this year, the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service has reported.

The crop exceeds the previous record-breaker of 821,207,000 pounds produced in 1939 by 11 per cent.

Estimated production this year by belts follows: Eastern North Carolina: 442,960,000 pounds compared with 395,360,000 last year.

Old and middle belts: 339,200,000 compared with 305,640,000 last year. Border belt: 113,050,000 compared with 93,500,000 last year.

Burley: 17,375,000 compared with 20,300,000 last year.

Home Building Program Given High Federal Priority; Promises To Become Hot Issue In Weeks Ahead; Wiping Out Wage, Price Controls Enters Picture

Observe Book Week
The students of the Pre-Conditioning Center for the Blind celebrated book week this year by working up a small display for the city library. This display consisted primarily of work done by the students in their academic classes; such as letters, both typed and Brailled, news articles, and stories. Displayed along with the written work of the students was a Braille typing manual and a Braille Readers Digest.

These students are able to do this type of work due to the fact that they have access to Braille textbooks, story books, and news magazines. Printing houses for the blind are so efficient and up-to-date that Braille books can truly be called bridges for blind people both to higher learning and entertainment.

The Inter Se Club
"Because Burma has furnished the background and settings for so many of Kipling's poems it has held a definite fascination for people in the western world," said Mrs. Jack Edwards in her talk on Burma before the Inter Se Club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wendell Smiley.

Mrs. Edwards gave a comprehensive view of the land and its people, their occupations, habits, customs and political status. She stressed the fact that the social structure of Burma is democratic. There is no caste system and little of the grinding poverty prevalent in India and China.

In short, all of Burma was, until war intervened, a sort of Arcadian land where the western world had intruded only in ways that made living more comfortable.

War in Asia has made it evident that there are no impenetrable or impassable mountain ranges. Air transport is taking the place of plodding caravans of other days; therefore the next chapter of Burma's history remains an unknown quantity, Mrs. Edwards concluded.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Burke Stanell served a delicious dessert course with coffee.

The very welcome guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Charles Reynolds and Mrs. Dennis Cooke.—Reported.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

November 14, 1906

Two weeks to Thanksgiving. November is beginning to show its ugly side. The first half was pretty enough.

For the first time in twenty years Ashe county has gone Democratic. Mrs. W. B. Wilson left this morning for a visit to Washington.

Aldine Early of Aulander, heard Jerome Worsley of Route 4, Greenville, tell two folk tales in negro dialect. These stories young Worsley heard in his family circle, with his father and grandfather as narrators. The humorous accounts of a possum hunt and of a fishing expedition by Brer Rabbit were enthusiastically received. Emma L. Hooper of the English department read an original short story entitled "Great Days Ahead!" Dr. Earl Sauter, new faculty member, was introduced to the group.

J. C. Shepherd, graduate student from Lexington, was chief speaker at the Mathematics club meeting and gave a paper on Descartes, French philosopher and mathematician. Mrs. Kenneth E. Brown of the faculty sang. Lois Howard of Jacksonville, president, was in charge of the meeting and Rebecca Kirkland of Durham introduced Sneyper. A short social meeting followed the program.

New members of the Home Economics club were installed at an impressive candle light service led by Audrey May of Greenville, president, and arranged by Nellie Ruth Crawford of Route 2, Greenville. An informal party followed the program. Hazel Kirby of Lucama and Jewell Jones of Snow Hill acted as hostesses.

Program on National Art Gallery

The program on the National Art Gallery, sponsored by the Art Committee of the Woman's Club for American Art Week drew a large crowd. The committee had secured for this program ten reproductions of masterpiece paintings in the National Gallery. These reproductions were on exhibit in the gallery in the Community Art Center. Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, chairman of the Woman's Club Art Committee presided at the program. She welcomed the visitors and told them that this exhibit was one of several prepared by the staff of the National Gallery especially for the General Federation of Women's Clubs who sends it on tours to the various clubs of the country. Mrs. Moore called attention to the exhibit of oil paintings showing in the gallery and introduced Georgia Pearsall Hearne who helps a great deal with the exhibits in the gallery and a portrait painter of whom all Greenville is proud.

Robert Lee Humber was the speaker for the afternoon. In introducing him Mrs. Moore stated that he is well known throughout the country for his successful efforts in behalf of World Federation but that she was presenting him as one especially interested in art and as one who had done an incomparable work for art in North Carolina in securing the services of one of the world's foremost etchers, Louis Orr, and underwriting his expenses while making etchings of fifty of North Carolina's beautiful historic buildings. She stated that Mr. Humber is an active member of the Executive Committee of the N. C. Art Society and is ever-alert to increase the interest in the Fine Arts in our state.

Mr. Humber said he is much interested in art because art is life. He told of Mr. Andrew Mellon's beneficent gift to his country and how it had inspired other men of wealth to contribute to the National Gallery which is now one of the finest Art Museums of the world. The exhibit of reproductions from the National Gallery on display were those of French painters. Mr. Humber discussed the different periods of French paintings and what the painters were trying to show and how artists depict the history and social customs of their times.

The following artists and paintings were represented in the exhibit:
Cardin—The Young Governess.
Degos—Achille de Gos in the Uniform of a Cadet.
Pissarro—Boulevard Montmartre Revolt—A Girl with a Watering Can.
Cizanne—Still Life.

Barristers View Organized Labor

The Pitt County Bar Association met Tuesday night for its regular monthly meeting at Red Oak Community Building. The ladies of the community served dinner to approximately twenty lawyers.

The meeting was presided over by J. H. Harrell, President of the Association. He announced that the officers for the year 1947 will be elected at the meeting to be held December 10.

Honorable J. C. Lanier addressed the Association concerning organized labor in the Greenville Tobacco Industry. He expressed his regrets that the CIO has organized Greenville; stating that this union has more of a "communitic" trend. He described the AFL, which has organized Wilson, as "honest and democratic". Mr. Lanier also stated that it would not be long before the union would tender contracts to the tobacco companies and that there would probably be a number of items in these contracts that would be unacceptable to the tobacco companies. This bargaining would require considerable negotiation between the union and the companies. If they are unable to get together, the Federal Government will be called in to assist in the negotiations. He further stated that he was not opposed to organized labor; however, he felt that labor owed its responsibility to industry as well as industry to labor.

The recent United States Supreme Court decision which allows the employer to persuade employees—by reasonable methods—not to join the union, was discussed. At the time Greenville was organized this was not permitted by Federal regulations.

Bolivia won its freedom from Spain in 1825.

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress. ## Way Cleared For Army To Accept Bid To Bowl

War Dept. Gives Official Clearance For Acceptance Of Possible Rose Bowl Invitation

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 14—(AP)—Earl Blaik's Cadets went into the final stages of their preparation for Penn with added zest today after learning that the War Department has given official clearance for Army's acceptance of a possible Rose Bowl invitation.

Should the Army get a bid to Pasadena, the final decision as to whether the Black Knights will make the trip will be made by Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, sports-minded superintendent of the academy.

The War Department made the announcement after being beset by inquiries whether there was any chance the Army might reverse its policy against post-season football games. If the bid is extended, "the way has been cleared for a prompt 'yes or no decision' by the superintendent," Washington said.

Meanwhile, Pacific coast conference officials maintained a close-lipped "no comment" attitude, although newspapermen on the coast clung to the belief that Rose Bowl overtures had been made to Army. Chairman Willis O. Hunter of the Bowl committee said he had not been in contact with members of his group since the Los Angeles Football Writers Association urged Monday that the committee "explore the possibilities of inviting Army."

While the Rose Bowl rumors continued to flow in the Point, Coach Blaik pronounced his squad fit and ready to concentrate on the business at hand, the Franklin Field duel with the Quakers Saturday. The Cadets were scheduled for a light drill today and will entrain tomorrow.

Asked whether Army was going to play as conservative a game against Penn as against Notre Dame, Blaik answered with a smile: "I think not." "Our problem is not so much to stop them as to go out and get some scores ourselves."

Eppes High Will Hold Homecoming

A pep rally Thursday night, (tonight), followed by a bonfire honoring the football team and the class of 1947, will open the Homecoming activities at Eppes High School tonight, the highlight of which is the Eppes-Edenton High football game.

The two-night program will be concluded Friday night with the annual Homecoming dance, sponsored by the Athletic Association.

Proceeding the pep rally at 8 o'clock Thursday in Eppes gymnasium with a giant bonfire on the athletic field. After a few "warm-up" yells and songs, the pep rally will get into high gear with head cheer-leader Eleanor Cherry acting as Mistress of Ceremonies.

This promises to be the best matched game of the season, both teams are on equal basis and the Eppes boys plan to put Edenton on the losing end of the line.

Proceeding the homecoming grid battle at 8 o'clock Friday night the queen of Eppes High School will be crowned.

William Nobles and his orchestra will furnish music for the annual homecoming dance at 9 p. m. at Eppes gymnasium.

Fox Hunting Champs Will Be Determined

Paris, Tenn., Nov. 14—(AP)—It's the "one gallus" gang of the deep South against the east's "tallyho" crowd as fox hunting's world series gets underway here today.

With the crowning of the turturty champion yesterday—Flapper Hill, a two-year-old entry of Moses Hill of Waco, Ky.—the national fox hunt now moves into the main event—the 53rd running of the all-age stake, the championship of champions.

About 300 high strung and higher pedigreed hounds were cast at dawn today. They were registered as far east as Rhode Island to as far west as Nevada.

U. S. Davis Cup Team Is On Way

Los Angeles, Nov. 14—(AP)—Four members of America's Davis Cup tennis team were scheduled to leave today by Pan-American clipper for Australia, where they will meet the defending Aussies in the challenge round.

The U. S. Davis cuppers departing on the 9,000-mile air journey are national champion Jack Kramer, Frankie Parker, Ted Schroeder and Walter Pate, non-playing captain Mrs. Kramer was a member of the party.

They will be joined at San Francisco, first stop, by Gardner Mulloy, Billy Tybert, Jr., and Tom Brown, other members of the U. S. team.

The Davis Cup challenge round will be played at Melbourne Dec. 26, 27 and 28.

ROUGH ON TRADITION Eugene, Ore., Nov. 14—(AP)—In pre-war days the men students never balked at following the University of Oregon sophomore tradition of growing beards for the annual whistlerino dance.

But this year there's a new obstacle—wives. The tradition is finding rough going among the many married ex-servicemen now crowding the campus. The wives object to bearded husbands.

LAYNE'S TITLE TRY NO CINCH

Other Backs Close On Texas Terror's Heels In Yardage Gained

New York, Nov. 14—(AP)—Although Texas Bobby Layne leads the nation in total yards gained on the ground and through the air, the forward passing star from the Lone Star State is no dead cinch to wind up as the 1946 collegiate champ.

Layne has gained 1,248 yards according to the latest figures from the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau but he has played eight games as compared to seven for his closest competitors. Travis Tidwell of Auburn has picked up 1,154 yards in seven starts in seven games. Each of the leaders will play 10 games before the season is over.

Bill MacKrides of Nevada, generally overlooked in the eastern half of the country, holds third to fourth place in over-all offense with a net gain of 978 yards. His passing record shows a gain of 1,047 yards but he has been thrown for losses of 69 yards.

Behind MacKrides comes Harry Gilmer of Alabama at 906 yards followed in order by Herman Wendenyer of St. Mary's 898, and Glenn Davis of Army 847.

Charley Justice of North Carolina is eighth with 536 yards in 83 carries.

Detectives George Crawford and M. E. Corbett and Police Officer Jasper L. Mills arrested Robert Clark and Jack D. Kite of the Vanceboro community and confiscated the liquor—16 1-2 gallons. Clark and Kite will be tried before Judge Jimmy Roberts in Police Court Friday morning.

Parliament . . .

economic action by Great Britain, France, Russia "and other democratic nations in Europe x x x to resist the designs of aggressive American imperialism which constitutes a menace to world peace and security."

The amendment of the dissident laborites urged the government to "review and recast" Bevin's foreign policy so as to collaborate with all nations and groups striving for full socialist control of the world's resources.

WHEN Potash TELLS ITS STORY

AFTER the crops are harvested and a check-up of their yield and quality is made, the story of potash is told. Good yields of high quality mean that soil and fertilizer supplied enough of this necessary plant food. Low yields and poor quality may have been due to lack of potash. Now is the time to review your fertilizer program and start making your plans for the next growing season. Have you had your soils tested? If not, ask your official agricultural adviser about such tests to see how much available potash they contain. He also can tell you how much your soil and fertilizer must supply for the crops you intend to plant next year.

Write us for free information and literature on the profitable fertilization of crops.

4. The government has been told by Congress it can spend up to $400,000,000 in premium payments—or bonuses—to encourage manufacturers in breaking their own production records of scarce stuff. 5. To encourage the makers of pre-fabricated houses to turn out as much of that housing as possible, the government will buy, at 90 per cent of the regular price, any pre-fabs the makers can't sell in the regular market. 6. The government did a number of other things: like building new roads to timberlands to get the lumber out faster and turning over temporary housing units to colleges. 7. This was very important: the government kept price controls on all building materials and controls on the wages of people working in the building industry. But—last week, in wiping out all wage and price controls, President Truman wiped out all price and wage controls in the building industry, too. This move—although the government still keeps controls by priorities of scarce materials—may knock into a cocked hat the government's efforts to keep down the building costs of new homes for veterans.

This remains to be seen. Wyatt is supposed to tell Mr. Truman this week what the outlook is and what he can hope to do in carrying out the building program.

When the program got under way early in 1945, with Wyatt in charge he set goals for new homes for veterans. Here are his goals and what has been done: Goal—1,200,000 housing units under construction by the end of 1946. Result—by the end of September, 807,500 units were under construction. Of the 1,200,000 goal by the end of 1946, Wyatt had hoped 250,000 would be pre-fabricated houses. By the end of September only 24,900 were built. Wyatt now is trying to get RFC (the Reconstruction Finance Corporation), to put up as much as $90,000,000 to get pre-fab makers—or would-be makers—into high speed production. The money would go into pre-fab plants. (The RFC, not Wyatt's housing administration, is the government's lending agency in a case like this) But the RFC, with Mr. Truman's close friend, George E. Allen, as a director, is balking, doesn't want to do it. The reason it gives: that these pre-fab makers have too little money of their own to put up in the deal. This argument may have to be settled by Mr. Truman.

Ministers . . . The Western powers likewise were reported strongly opposed to fixing any deadline for the withdrawal of troops from Trieste. They stuck to the argument that during the transition in the new international zone the Security Council should have a free hand to make this decision. Russia argued for a deadline of three or four months.

Troops Raid . . . (Continued From Page One) identity papers and were not listed on the camp records. Connolly said Jacob Zylberst, UNRRA director of the camp, estimated the camp's authorized population of 3,500 had been swollen by several hundred infiltrators of whom there was no record. Connolly, a Brooklyn resident said a bakery shop was the headquarters of the black market activities in the camp and was the chief objective of the CID agents. He said the bakery's telephone was the most used in Germany and declared it had been carrying a constant flow of calls dealing with black market traffic. Road blocks to prevent movement of trucks were set up on all roads leading from the camp, which occupies an entire German village about 10 miles from the center of Frankfurt.

GOP Program . . . (Continued From Page One) spread out efforts all over the lot. We ought to make promises that we can carry out and then see that they are fulfilled. Support for White's view came from senators Revercomb (R-WVa) and Ball (R-Minn). Revercomb called the thumbnail program idea a sound approach to the problem of setting up reasonable objectives that can be reached. Senator Ball is working on several labor bills, including a measure to outlaw the closed shop. Revercomb said he thought the Republicans must form a new policy on the disposal of war surpluses.

Small Powers . . .
