CHINESE REDS QUIT NANKING WITH WARNING

Kai-shek Opens Assembly In Face Of Boycott By Communist Delegation

Nanking, Nov. 15—(AP)—Chiang Kai-shek called the national assembly into session today as the boycotting Communist delegation hinted that China's peace hopes were sunk, packed its bags to leave Nanking.

The departing Communist leader, Gen. Chou En-lai, said darkly that the Government's "unilateral decision" to go ahead with the assembly into session today as the flaming in North China—blazing higher than ever.

While the Communists and the Democratic League stuck to a decision not to send delegates, the Generalissimo stood before the assembly and hailed it as the beginning of constitutional government for China.

The day of political tutelage in China, he said, was now over. Among the listening delegates was Madame Chiang. The assembly adjourned until Saturday, when the first preparatory session will be held.

It was not immediately clear what the Government proposed to do next. The convention, made up mainly of Kuomintang (Government) Party delegates, is charged with the task of drafting a new constitution.

Chiang delayed opening the assembly four days ago in one last effort to bring the Communists and the league—the two other major parties—into the convention.

This effort was pressed through long and wearying night sessions without success. The Communists insisted that first the Government must return vast stretches of Communist-occupied territory.

District Teachers Begin Convention

Twenty-Fourth Annual Meeting Under Way; Group To Total Nearly 1,000 Teachers; Dr. Cooke Speaks In First Session

Teachers from 22 northeastern counties of North Carolina began the 24th annual convention of the Northeastern District Teachers Association here this morning with a general session in the Austin auditorium of East Carolina Teachers College at 11 o'clock.

Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, president of the college, was principal speaker on the program over which Ernest W. Morgan of Aulander, northeastern district president, presided.

House Wife Points Path To Peace

Mrs. Stanley Schelle (above), housewife of Olivia, Minn., wrote a letter, giving the viewpoint of "little people" regarding international peace, which was read by Secretary of State James F. Byrnes to a meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Teachers Association in New York. Mrs. Schelle is reading Byrnes' letter of acknowledgment as she meditates before a photograph of her children. The oldest, Pfc. Gordon Schelle, in white shirt, died in Okinawa. (AP Wirephoto.)

NEW PASTOR LOCAL CHURCH

Rev. J. A. Neilson To Be Pastor Immanuel Baptist Church

By CHESTER WALSH The Rev. J. A. Neilson, who was pastor of the Mills Home Church in Thomasville the past 12 years, was expected to arrive in Greenville today to become pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church. He succeeds the Rev. A. Hartwell Campbell, who recently went to Dunn.

Mr. Neilson received a unanimous call to the Immanuel Church pastorate. He will assume his duties here Sunday at special services. Mr. Neilson, the son of the Rev. J. A. Neilson, Sr., a Presbyterian missionary, was born in Sicily. While a child he returned to England with his parents and was educated there. He went to Canada and volunteered in the army during World War I.

After his release from the Canadian army Mr. Neilson came to the United States and responded to a definite call to the ministry. He attended the University of Louisville and was graduated from the Southern Baptist Seminary in that city. He was assistant pastor at Bluefield, W. Va., Baptist Church and the First Baptist Church of Wilmington.

While in Wilmington Mr. Neilson married Miss Josephine Dreher in September, 1928. She was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Dreher of Wilmington. She was educated in Wilmington and at Marion (Va.) College.

After their marriage, Mr. Neilson was pastor of the Southport Baptist Church and then at Winter Park Baptist Church. He went from there to Mills Home Church. They have two children, a daughter, Beverly, 12, and Jackie, who is in high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Neilson, in addition to their church activities, took an active part in community affairs in Thomasville. He is a member of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention. He was president of the Thomasville Ministerial Association and the Thomasville Rotary Club.

After Mr. Neilson's resignation from Mills Home Church, the Baptist Pastors' Conference of Liberty Baptist Association, Thomasville, passed a resolution praising him for his outstanding work as a minister and as a citizen.

Connally Presents United States' Stand On Charter

REBEL LABOR PARTY GROUP ATTACKS U. S.

London, Nov. 15—(AP)—A critical attack on the Labor Party over British foreign policy in the course of which party rebels have virtually accused the United States of trying to start a war against Russia—appeared headed today for a parliamentary showdown.

Speaker Douglas Clifton-Brown was expected to rise in the House of Commons during the day on which 28 proposed amendments to the king's Parliament, opening speech from the throne Tuesday, including one calling for immediate revision of British foreign policy—would be called up for consideration.

The so-called Byrnes chasers, a group of more than 50 labor party rebels sponsoring the foreign policy amendment, had made it known they do not intend to press for a vote on their proposal, in which they asked that Britain's foreign policy be recast so as to avoid what they called the inevitable conflict between the Soviets and America. They have made their views vociferously known.

Thus, although the rebellious amendment appeared doomed to wither on the vine, the arguments swirling around it left no doubt of a serious divergence of views within the ruling party concerning foreign affairs.

Laborite Tom Driberg, one of the sponsors of the amendment, capped a free-living argument in the House last night with a hotly worded attack on Britain's close ties with the United States and a demand that Britain become more friendly with Russia.

Magistrate J. E. Paschal bound the two over to the grand jury after a preliminary hearing here yesterday. Both were also charged with hit and run driving.

Pending the grand jury action at the December 2 term of court, Miss Tilley is free under $3,000 bond and Snyder under $7,500 bond.

State witnesses at the hearing testified that Kingston was killed when struck by an automobile owned by Snyder and driven by Miss Tilley.

ELECTION TALE Boise, Idaho, Nov. 15—(AP)—Democrat Ira H. Masters, Idaho secretary of state defeated in last week's election, has turned to the Republican who beat him for help.

Masters asked J. D. Price, Republican secretary-elect, to get him a private secretary now who will stay on the job after Price takes over Jan. 6. The incumbent said his secretary quit "because job security here vanished with the election," and his office is swamped with paperwork.

At the present North Carolina and Greenville are without National Guard units. The N. C. State Guard unit, organized here during the war, was disbanded several weeks ago. It rendered outstanding service—Greenville and Pitt County are fortunate in having a spacious armory ready for use when the National Guard unit is organized here.

Incidentally, Greenville is one of 54 communities in North Carolina with an armory. Already 112 units have been approved for the new and enlarged National Guard.

All Greenville citizens interested in organizing or joining a National Guard unit are invited to attend the meeting at the City Hall next Wednesday night.

Washington, Nov. 15—(AP)—Big strong men have done some strange things in Washington but the blue ribbon in the heavyweight class goes to John L. Lewis and J. A. Krug.

It's like in a movie. Lewis, who weighs about 210 pounds, and Krug, who weighs about 235, have been seeing each other. Lewis is boss of the coal miners. Krug is Secretary of the Interior.

But it's the way they've been seeing each other. Exits and entrances almost ghostly. Privats elevators. Thumb-jerking. Scowls. And silence. "Always silence."

For two weeks Lewis and his lieutenants and Krug of his lieutenants—up to yesterday—have been meeting and talking. And what do they say about it? Nothing.

Meanwhile, goggle-eyed, the country has been waiting to find out whether there'll be another coal strike. Here's how all this started, and what happened.

On Oct. 21 Lewis let out a roar of pain. He said the government had violated in several ways the contract which it had made with him through Krug—last spring after his miners had been striking two months.

And he said he wanted to reopen the contract. Behind all this, of course, was something sadder: If Lewis didn't get what he wanted, his miners might walk out of the mines. He never says they strike. He just says they won't work without a contract. (Continued on Page Four)

Opposition Arising To G.O.P. Tax Plan

Republican Congressmen Encounter Demands From Own Ranks Of Even Deeper Cuts In Spending; Members Form Program

Washington, Nov. 15—(AP)—Opposition to the tax plan introduced at the House today by an anti-Republican group of even deeper cuts in spending.

Members of the House Republican steering committee, eager to get their party's hands on legislative controls for the first time in 14 years, laid before Senate colleagues a quickly assembled program that take a 20 per cent slice off individual income taxes. Changes in business levies would await detailed study.

Acting while the senators mostly talked—among other things about how to block Democratic Senator Bibb of Mississippi from taking his seat—the House group went the line for:

- 1. An eight-year tenure for future presidents.
2. Constructive labor legislation.
3. An end to war powers.
4. Relief from soap, oils and good shortages and.
5. "Substantial savings" in gov. (Continued on Page Eight)

Lewis Rejects

Washington, Nov. 15—(AP)—President Truman checked squarely to John L. Lewis today responsibility for any pre-winter soft coal mine shutdown. Lewis promptly moved to end his working contact with the government.

Lewis' action apparently meant that the United Mine Workers will not mine coal after November 20.

By tradition, the miners do not work without a contract and the UMW boss gave formal notice of a termination of the contract under which the government has operated the mines since last spring.

Mr. Truman announced that Lewis had rejected a government proposal for a 60-day truce to permit negotiations looking to a return of the mines to private ownership.

The President said Attorney General Tom Clark had ruled that Lewis' current contract with Lewis could not be reopened unless both parties agreed.

TWA WALKOUT COMES TO END

Big Planes To Fly Pending Arbitration Of Long Dispute

Washington, Nov. 15—(AP)—The Trans World Airline pilots' strike—the nation's first major walkout of commercial fliers—ended today with an agreement to submit the dispute over pay and working rules to arbitration.

Paul E. Richter, executive vice president of TWA, and David L. Behncke, of the AFL pilot union, signed the agreement at 5:12 a. m. (EST) in the office of Chairman Frank P. Douglas of the National Mediation Board. Nearly nine hours of continuous conferences over the final wording preceded the signing.

TWA said it expects to put its first planes into the air about 7 a. m. local time Saturday, with transcontinental flights starting from both coasts.

The walkout of approximately 1,900 pilots began October 21 over demands for higher pay for pilots and co-pilots of four-engine planes. It grounded 115 aircraft along most of the company's 28,000 miles of routes. (Continued on Page Eight)

Wyatt Calls For Probe Into "Mystery Lawyer"

Washington, Nov. 15—(AP)—Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt called upon Attorney General Tom Clark today to investigate a "mystery" New York lawyer's alleged offer to trade assured government influence for $400,000 in stock and $180,000 in counsel fees.

In the background is a many-sided dispute involving: 1. The $171,000,000 government-owned Dodge-Chrysler war plant in Chicago. 2. The Tucker Corp., of Chicago, a new automobile manufacturing firm. 3. The Lustron Corp., also of Chicago, a prefabricated housing concern.

Wyatt's National Housing Administration, which wants the government to lease the Dodge-Chrysler plant to Lustron for the assembly-line manufacture of homes for veterans.

The War Assets Administration, which already has leased the huge plant to Tucker. Wyatt's demand to Clark for an immediate inquiry followed a statement by Preston Tucker, head of the auto firm, that he had been approached by the New York lawyer with an implied offer to help him in the lease dispute.

BEAUTY CROWN ADDS PROBLEM

"Mrs. America" Has Doubts Of Keeping Newly-Won Title

Columbus, O., Nov. 15—(AP)—The "Mrs. America" crown weighed heavily on the Pollock household today.

It presented this problem: Should Mrs. Janice Pollock, 24-year-old brunette beauty, retain the title and make a six-month tour of the country, or abdicate and stay at home with her husband and four children?

The husband, salesman Marion S. Pollock, announced last night after his wife flew here from Jackson, Miss., where she won the honor and $2,500, that she would abdicate.

This morning, however, he said she might remain on the throne after all. Burt Ticom, manager of the contest in which Mrs. Pollock was chosen, also flew here from Jackson and planned to go into a huddle with the Pollocks. He expressed confidence that Mrs. Pollock would remain "Mrs. America."

Earlier, husband Pollock had taken this position: "I'm proud that she won the title, but I'm prouder that she gave it up for the kids," Pollock said of his wife.

The two older of the children, Susan, 6 and Tommy, 5, were with their dad at the airport to greet the "queen of housewives" while Mark, 2, and Bobby, ten months, slept.

"Janice decided it was far more important to stay here and be a mother to the children than any amount of glory or money from the contest," Pollock told a reporter.

CIO LEADERS PLAN MEETING

Hope To Submerge Factionalism And Unite Organization

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 15—(AP)—CIO leaders today inclined more and more to the view that their convention next week will submerge factionalism and present a united CIO front to the world.

The general feeling is that Philip Murray will accept re-election as president and that he will point the organization squarely toward an economic target: higher wages.

The CIO executive board was to assemble again this afternoon after a one-day recess.

The resolutions committee, with Van Bittner as chairman and Lee Pressman as secretary, scheduled its first meeting today. Resolutions on foreign policy, which have stirred up bitter arguments in the conventions of several CIO unions, apparently will be prevented from reaching the convention floor if the leadership has its way.

Jack Kroll, the director of the CIO Political Action Committee, met reporters yesterday and attributed setbacks in the November 5 elections primarily to two factors: (1) Not enough people voted; (2) Not enough people voted. (Continued on Page Four)

Big Four Foreign Ministers Re-Study Policy On Trieste

New York, Nov. 15—(AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers faced with an American warning that the prestige of the United Nations is at stake in the future of Trieste, resorted to a small informal meeting today in an extraordinary effort to break the Trieste deadlock.

Secretary of State Byrnes told his colleagues that the proposed free territory of Trieste must be governed by a representative of the United Nations Security Council with strong police powers. Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov held out for limiting these powers and giving increased authority to a council of government responsible to an elective assembly.

Containing that Molotov's proposal would fall to a minority vote, the Big Four ministers, including both Italians and Slavs, Byrnes declared according to diplomats present.

The rights of minorities would not be sufficiently guaranteed by a governor with "empty hands" and (Continued on Page Eight)

TO ORGANIZE NAT'L GUARD

Citizens Meet Next Week To Plan For Militia Company Here

By CHESTER WALSH A public meeting of citizens interested in organizing a permanent National Guard unit in Greenville will be held in the courtroom at the City Hall next Wednesday night at 7:30. All citizens are invited to attend whether or not they are interested in becoming members of the National Guard. An officer from State Adjutant General J. Vann Metts' office will be present to explain necessary procedure to establish a National Guard unit in Greenville. Executive Secretary Willard T. Kyzer said today.

Greenville had a National Guard unit from the middle 1920s until September 16, 1940. At that time the local unit, Battery A, 113th Field Artillery, which was part of the famous 30th Old Hickory Division, was mobilized for active service in World War II. The division trained at Fort Jackson, S. C., for two years. It also trained at Camp Blanding, Fla., Camp Gordon, Ga., and at a camp in Indiana. The division shipped out for England in February, 1944. It landed in France shortly after D-Day and made a great record in its fight across France and into Germany.

The 30th Division became known to German radio commentators as "Roosevelt's SS Troops," and it was always feared and respected by the Nazis. After a short period of occupation duty in Germany, the division returned to the United States early in 1946 and was demobilized.

At the present North Carolina and Greenville are without National Guard units. The N. C. State Guard unit, organized here during the war, was disbanded several weeks ago. It rendered outstanding service—Greenville and Pitt County are fortunate in having a spacious armory ready for use when the National Guard unit is organized here.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
November 15, 1906

About Personals

The Reflector is always glad to print personal items, but in a town this size it is hard to get the names of all who come and go. Our main dependence for getting names has been in meeting the passenger trains. Yet many are missed there, for with trains coming so irregularly as is the rule here, and with such poor lights around the depot at night that you can hardly recognize a person much less see how to write a name, the difficulty can be well imagined. Our readers could help us remove the difficulty if they would just take enough interest to do so. If you are going away, if you have returned from a trip, if you have guests tell us. People like to read these items.

dent. The program chairman, Mrs. Charles White, asked Mrs. Spilman to present the speaker, which she did in her usual charming manner.

Mrs. Paul delighted her audience with a most interesting review of the play, "The State of the Union," by Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse. She brought out cleverly the manner in which self-seeking politicians attempt to control the lives, thoughts and actions of candidates for public office, so as to win elections, without regard for what is best for the people or the nation. The climax of the play comes when Mr. Matthews, the candidate for the presidency, ably abetted by his wife, refuses to play along with the politicians and self-seeking groups in order to win the election, and pledges himself to do and say clearly and conscientiously just what he thinks the nation needs.

After the program, Mrs. R. C. Stokes told the group of the shelf which she and Mrs. Moye had arranged for book week. Their subject was "The History of the Library."

Books were then exchanged and the club adjourned.

Guest present for the day were Mrs. Dan Paul of Shelby, Mrs. Ralph Strickland and Mrs. Bill Collier of Greenville, Mrs. R. R. Patterson of Danville, Va., Mrs. Jean Matheson of Greensboro, and Mesdames J. B. Kittrell, J. H. Rose, J. Key Brown, Judson Blount, S. T. White, Charles Forbes, John Clark, Louis C. Skinner, J. B. Hawes and E. D. Whitley.

Presbyterian Announcements

Sunday, Nov. 17, 1946 is "Youth Day." A special program has been arranged by Miss Hillhouse and the Young People for this day. At 6:30 p. m. all the children and young people of this church and the members of the church, particularly their parents, are invited to a light supper and fellowship hour in the church. This will be followed by a special program conducted by the Young People. Our new projector for visual education has come and beautiful slides will be shown describing the set up, and form of organization of the youth. Come and enjoy this fellowship.

At the morning service Dr. Boyd will speak specially to the young people, using as his subject, "What Shall We Do With Our Doubts?" Text Mk. 9:24b. Special music will be rendered by the choir.

At 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon, the Sunday school will meet at Twin Oaks Chapel. All friends of the community are invited to attend. We are striving to get our attendance up to at least 60. Come and enjoy an hour's study of the Bible with us.

The meeting at Twin Oaks closed last Sunday night when 77 persons affiliated with the work there. We have now 41 who are on the Twin Oaks Chapel roll for the organization of a church.

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY

LOVE BINDS ALL HEARTS
 It used to be that, just before ships sailed out of Japanese harbors those who had come to see their friends off would throw little spoils of paper ribbon across to the ship and the passengers would throw the same back to their friends. This would go on for the better part of an hour, until the space between the ship and the dock was entirely covered with a bridge, as it were, of paper ribbons. Then as the boat moved out into the harbor, the ribbons would be broken asunder.

This was done, of course, to remind those who were going away that they were bound by ties of love and friendship to those who were on shore.
 But it represents something else that is very real. It is a reminder of the passage from life to death. For years previous to the sailing the lives of those who are called to make the voyage are bound to those who remain on the shore. By countless acts of friendship and selfless service, people express their love for each other, binding themselves to the hearts of others as the paper ribbons bound those who sailed and those who bade them adieu. Then comes death, the great ship sails away, but those who are on the shore still clutch to the tokens of love and friend.

What are we to think about death? The round earth brings its ship back into port again, and God's well-rounded spiritual universe lends likewise to reunion of kindred souls.

Conference . . .
 But Krug told Lewis, in effect: If you have some complaints, the government will listen to them. But as for the contract—it stands. You have no grounds for re-opening it.
 Lewis wanted to start talking. Nov. 1, Krug was out of town. He told Navy Capt. N. H. Collison, who has been running the mines which the government seized last spring to talk with Lewis.
 Collison slowed up Nov. 1. Not Lewis. When he wants to fry fish he scolds, he wants to fry them with the head man. Krug is head man. Now Collison, Lewis sent some intimations to talk with the captain.
 Collison and the Lewis people met several times. What did they talk about?
 Krug came back. Lewis sat down with him last Monday. He brought along with him the presidents of his mine union's 26 coal districts. The meeting was in the Interior Department's conference room.
 When Lewis marched out of the meeting, followed by his presidents, he asked what had happened. Lewis jerked his thumb back toward Krug's office. Krug stayed out of sight, and mum.
 They were supposed to meet today. They didn't. They met Wednesday instead. Lewis and his battalion

WASH OUT FROM GETTING UP NIGHTS?
 If you get up nights—have frequent desire to pass your water—yes, you have backache due to excess acidity in the urine. It is glad you're reading this! Three generations ago Dr. Kilmer, a famous doctor, found hundreds of his patients with this trouble. So he made a medicine of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, botanicals. He called it "Swamp-Root." Millions of men and women have taken it—often with amazing results.
 Swamp-Root goes right to work to flush out kidneys . . . increases flow of urine, helping relieve excess acidity . . . so the irritated bladder gets a good flushing out. You'll know you're getting a good night's sleep after the first few doses. Caution: Take as directed.
 For trial supply, send to Dept. R, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 1255, Stamford, Conn. Or get a full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your drugstore.

SHE NOW ENJOYS MEALS AND THANKS RETONGA

Mrs. Read Regains Six Pounds And Says She Hopes Soon To Be Back To Normal Weight. Distress From Nervous Indigestion Promptly Relieved

"I suffered from nervous indigestion, was underweight, and poor elimination kept me in constant misery, but Retonga promptly relieved all this distress and I feel fine again," gratefully states Mrs. Florence Read, respected housewife, 1907 Cephas Avenue, Nashville, Tenn. Happily discussing her experience, Mrs. Read stated:

"I was gradually losing weight and feeling more and more rundown. I could get only 'cat naps' at night, my appetite called for little food, and often I did not care for anything for several meals. Sour stomach and food risings gave me a lot of trouble almost every time I ate anything. Sluggish elimination kept me in daily distress. The effectiveness of one laxative would soon wear out and I would have to resort to something stronger. Nothing I tried relieved my distress or helped me feel better. Retonga promptly brought me long-sought relief. I no longer need to dose myself on harsh laxatives. I get sound, refreshing sleep every night and eat heartily at every meal without distress afterwards. I have regained six pounds and believe I shall soon be back to my normal weight. I cannot give enough praise to Retonga. Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach. Loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Bisette's Drug Store.—Adv.

President's Cup Goes To Morton

W. Z. (Billy) Morton, Jr. won the President's Cup for 1946 by defeating Joe Taft last weekend. Morton and Taft were tied 4 and 5. Billy proved to be a giant-killer by eliminating Jack Edwards and George Montgomery 2 and 1, Dr. Glenn Haney 1 up and down and George Montgomery 2 and 1 to get to the finals.

The new winner of the President's Cup is Greenville's "mighty atom," comparable to the famous Ben Hogan. Both of these little men set tremendous distances off the tee.

but it was Billy's deadly putting that spelled defeat for Joe Taft. He was knocking in putts from all angles and held the lead all the way. Taft had his troubles with his putter which misbehaved disastrously; he had overcome Bert James, Dr. Bradshaw and Bob Smithson to gain the finals berth but was not on top of his game Sunday.

Billy's name will be engraved on the huge trophy, and he will be presented a small cup for his permanent possession.

GOP Tax Plan . . .

Chairman Robert Taft of Ohio who led the Senate group into its second day of discussion, said he agreed that it could be done and that the federal budget could be pared to 30 billion dollars next year—11 billion less than this year's budget.

But Senator-elect John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, one of the freshmen who will give the Republican control of the Senate, told a reporter he thinks taxes must be maintained at their present level to give the treasury a chance of making payments on the debt.

Prestige . . .

last night's council session. Although he did most of the talking for the Western powers, British Foreign Secretary Bevin and Deputy French Foreign Minister Couve de Murville were lined up with him and against Molotov on the issue.
