U. S. Questions Soviet Motives

Connally Charges Arms Limitation Campaign Is Plan To Replace Atom Bomb With Veto By Moscow; Rejects Molotov's Proposals As Too Narrow And Circumscribed

BY MAX HARBELSON Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 2.—(AP)—The United States charged today that the primary object of Russia's arms limitations program seemed to be to get rid of the atom bomb and then place all other arms questions under the United Nations Security Council where they would be subject to the atom bomb of the veto.

Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex.), continuing the arms reduction debate before the 54-nation political committee of the general assembly bluntly rejected the Soviet proposals as too narrow and too circumscribed.

Connally made it clear that the U. S. was opposed to any injection of the veto into the inspection and control machinery which would be set up to make sure that no nation violated the proposed international agreements on arms limitations.

"We do not want to turn it all over to the security council for its unbridled action," he declared.

He said the Soviet proposal, while emphasizing that the atom bomb must be outlawed, made no mention of jet-propelled weapons, poison gas or other weapons of mass destruction, and added: "I think a man dead of poison gas is just as dead as if he were struck by an atom bomb. We all think other weapons must be included—all forms of these extraordinary weapons of mass destruction."

Then referring to the veto question, he said: "The U. S. will not agree to any (Continued on Page Eight)"

New York Rates Low As UN Site

Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 2.—(AP) San Francisco and Philadelphia were reported high on the list of preferred sites today for the permanent headquarters of the United Nations, New York City apparently having been dropped.

Authoritative sources said that while the U. N. sub-committee working on the site question had not yet made a formal decision it seemed definite that New York ranked well below the other cities in the minds of many delegates, with San Francisco apparently holding top spot on the list.

Steelworkers In New Pay Demand

Pittsburgh, Dec. 2.—(AP)—James Timmes, vice-president of the CIO United Steelworkers, said today that a "substantial wage increase" and guaranteed annual wage will be among the demands presented to the Aluminum Company of America at contract negotiations starting tomorrow.

He said the union will also seek an "improved vacation plan," health and welfare foundation and union shop. The present contract, expiring Friday, provides for maintenance of union membership.

The contract demands were discussed generally at a meeting of the union's negotiating committee yesterday. Timmes said more demands would not be disclosed until after the union's wage policy committee meets Dec. 18 and 19 to shape up demands to be presented to all the nation's steel plants under contract with the CIO union.

KRUG QUERIED BY GROUP ON OIL PIPELINES

Early Movement Of Gas Through Pipes Promised, But Is Inadequate

Washington, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Secretary of the Interior Krug said today the government plans immediate movement of natural gas through the Big Inch and Little Inch pipelines to help relieve the oil shortage.

"We expect to begin movement of natural gas in the next five or six days, at the rate of 50,000,000 cubic feet a day," Krug told the House Surplus Property Committee. Within the next 45 days, Krug said, gas can be moving at the rate of 150,000,000 cubic feet a day over the 1,500-mile war-built pipeline from the Southwest to the Eastern Seaboard.

"The gas can be a help" in the fuel shortage caused by the coal strike, Krug said, "but it is not the answer."

He testified that even the movement of 150,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day would amount only to the fuel equivalent of 6,000 tons of coal while the normal daily coal production exceeds 2,000,000 tons.

The cabinet officer's appearance was compelled by a subpoena of the committee. Investigating surplus property. However, the secretary said the subpoena was unnecessary—that he would have appeared voluntarily.

Mayor Calls For Holiday Caution

Mayor J. H. Boyd, Jr. today asked the people of Greenville to accept personal responsibility for preventing accidents in the city during the Christmas holiday season, and called for cooperation with the Greenville Police Department, National Safety Council and 130 other national organizations in making this an accident-free Christmas.

"The whole spirit of Christmas is peace on earth good will to men—the spirit of kindness, courtesy and cordiality," he said. "How can this spirit be better expressed than in a little extra care and courtesy at the wheel of your car and in your home, at your work and in your recreation?"

"It seems a little thing to do—and yet it pays off big in happiness, security and freedom from pain and tragedy. It costs nothing, takes no time and requires only a little thought and effort."

"This Christmas, give the best present of all—your presence!"

Petrillo Wins In Test Of Lea Act

Chicago, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Federal Judge Walter J. La Buy today dismissed government charges of violating the Lea Act filed against James C. Petrillo, holding that the act is unconstitutional.

Petrillo, president of the AFL-American Federation of Musicians, had been accused of violating the Lea Act by calling a strike at a Chicago radio station in support of a demand for hiring additional musicians whom the station contended were unnecessary.

The Lea Act was passed by Congress to prohibit compelling or attempting to compel broadcasters to hire more employees than are "needed to perform actual services."

What he has in mind, especially since other Athens authorities have planned the thing in general terms to Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria. This then is the situation:

In the first place there is civil conflict in many parts of Greece between leftists and the monarchist government. Fighting was reported in several areas yesterday. But the greatest trouble is being experienced in fiery Macedonia in northern Greece along the Albanian-Yugoslavia-Bulgarian frontiers.

The S. S. Normandie Makes Her Last Voyage

The S. S. Normandie, once the pride of the French merchant fleet, makes her last voyage—across the Narrows in the entrance to New York harbor, from Brooklyn to Port Newark, N. J., where she will be cut up for scrap. Her once powerful engines are stilled, and a dozen tugs are pushing and pushing the sea giant through the crowded port. Painted on the side of the scarred hull is the name of the ship-breaking firm which will demolish the vessel. The Normandie was wrecked by a disastrous fire while tied up in New York harbor nearly four years ago. (AP Wirephoto).

Navy's Antarctic Expedition Shoves Off For Polar Studies

By ALTON BLAKESLEE Aboard the USS Mt. Olympus at Norfolk, Va., Dec. 2.—(AP)—Operation high jump, the navy's expedition to the south polar region, prepared to shove off at 1 p. m. today on a 10,000 mile voyage for cold weather tests and new explorations of the mysteries of antarctica.

Four ships, the Mt. Olympus, the headquarters and flagship; the Ice Breaker Northwind, seaplane tender Pine Island and destroyer Brownson, are sailing simultaneously with five ships from the west coast.

Most of them carrying supplies for up to eight months—everything from beef to coffee, movies and candy, airplanes and 32 husky dogs. The 4,000 man operation under command of Rear Admiral R. E. Byrd will last at least four or more months.

The ships will sail into tropical weather, then into frigid zones, ice packs, past majestic icebergs that may measure 40 miles long and probably blizzards and storms on the world's roughest sea, the Antarctic Ocean.

The unit leaving Norfolk hopes to pass through the Panama Canal Saturday in Balboa for two days. From there it will head non-stop to the Antarctic after rendezvous with the ships leaving San Diego and Port Hueneme, Calif. Through the rendezvous the ships will be divided into three task groups all under Admiral Richard H. Cruzen, commander of task force 68. The Central group will enter the Ross Sea and establish a base on the Ross ice shelf. It will also prepare an airstrip for the planes to be launched from the carrier Philippine Sea in January, after the carrier approaches as close as possible.

The eastern and western task forces will work up opposite sides of the continent and may circle it and meet if the weather permits. Using amphibious planes and helicopters they will send out probing aerial fingers that may map an area as large as the United States.

The central group will also conduct cold weather tests of men and equipment and make studies of weather, magnetism, polar and ice navigation.

Three hundred scientists will be aboard the ships including 22 civilians.

FATAL CRASH ON HIGHWAY

Woman Killed When Car Struck Tree Near Farmville

By CHESTER WALSH Mrs. Lillian Glays Wrede of Kingston and Norfolk, Va., was fatally injured yesterday about 8 a. m. when the car she was driving failed to make a curve on the Snow Hill-Farmville highway, one mile north of Farmville and crashed into a tree. She was thrown from the vehicle. The car turned over and was almost wrapped around the tree.

State Highway Patrolman C. L. Teague said it was the worst wrecked car he had seen. Mrs. Wrede was driving alone and was going toward Farmville on U. S. Highway 258.

She was taken to Pitt General Hospital here. Hospital authorities said she was severely injured. A spinal injury prevented her from breathing. Members of the Greenville fire department took turns (Continued on Page Eight)

Roxas Amplifies Base Statement

Manila, Dec. 2.—(AP)—President Manuel Roxas today amplified his Nov. 30 statement regarding U. S. bases in the Philippines by explaining that while it was agreed that bases would be established, the question of exact location still is under negotiation.

From high U. S. Army advisory sources it was learned that present bases at the mouth of the Pasig River and at other strategic points along the waterfront and in metropolitan Manila are not necessarily permanent.

Newsman Hear Well-Known Editor; Elect Officers As Session Closes

An improved educational system a better balance between agriculture and industry, and better health facilities were advocated Saturday night by Dr. Clarence Poe of Raleigh, editor of The Progressive Farmer, in an address on "The Eastern North Carolina Tomorrow."

Speaking at the closing session of the annual meeting of the Eastern North Carolina Press Association, Dr. Poe asserted that Eastern North Carolina has the natural resources and the people to develop a rich and varied civilization.

In education, he called for "better pay" for teachers, "better opportunities for our Negro citizens." (Continued on Page Four)

Manpower Advisors Favor Resumption Of Draft In January After Two-Month Holiday; Patterson And Eisenhower To Decide

By EDWARD E. BOMAR Washington, Dec. 2.—(AP)—An Army decision is expected this week on whether to resume the draft in January after a two-month holiday—a step manpower advisors are reported to favor.

Officials said recommendations are in the hands of Secretary Patterson and General Dwight D. Eisenhower, chief of staff, awaiting action.

Those advisors favoring a call on Selective Service for a quota next month are understood to contend it would spur volunteer recruiting as well as supplement it.

Latest reports show volunteer recruiting took an upward turn in the third week of November, after a steady decline for more than a month. Recruits, including regulars who re-enlisted or extended shorter terms of service to three years, totaled 5,005, compared with 4,444 the previous week.

But for the entire month a total of only about 20,000 was expected representing little more than half the 37,000 monthly fixed by the War Department as a minimum requirement of the Regular Army.

It was to determine the recruiting trend that the draft decision has been postponed since the October quota of 25,000 was unexpectedly cancelled, when one half filled along with the November quota of 15,000. Selective Service was informed at that time that there would be no more calls for men from the War Department at least until after the year's end.

The action was laid to a temporary state of Army over-strength which has since been reduced by discharges. It left Selective Service with a backlog of qualified registrants between 19 and 25 considered ample to meet renewed monthly calls of 25,000 the first quarter of 1947.

The six Democrats on the committee voted last week against sending a sub-group to Germany to hold hearings. The four Republican members then joined in a statement contending that the administration must be "seeking desperately to conceal something wrong with the administration of occupied areas."

Turn To Vandenberg For Decision On AMG Investigation

Washington, Dec. 2.—(AP)—The final decision on how far the new Republican-controlled senate will go in an investigation of American military government in Germany appears today to rest largely with Michigan Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan.

Vandenberg is not a member of the war investigating committee whose G. O. P. members, angered over a solid Democratic vote blocking an inquiry now, are determined to launch one as soon as they get command.

But as the senate's prospective new presiding officer and chairman of its foreign relations committee, Vandenberg's influence will be weighty on the conduct of any probe touching on international affairs.

Interested legislators say they believe the Michigan senator may want to have the committee's authority defined rather sharply when any investigation it undertakes threatens to encroach on the broad field of foreign policy.

Thus far, Vandenberg's attitude has been that the committee could well go ahead with its inquiry if it is careful to stick to phases of the AMG's operations that have domestic but not international repercussions.

Army's Draft Decision Expected During Week

Officials said recommendations are in the hands of Secretary Patterson and General Dwight D. Eisenhower, chief of staff, awaiting action.

Those advisors favoring a call on Selective Service for a quota next month are understood to contend it would spur volunteer recruiting as well as supplement it.

Latest reports show volunteer recruiting took an upward turn in the third week of November, after a steady decline for more than a month. Recruits, including regulars who re-enlisted or extended shorter terms of service to three years, totaled 5,005, compared with 4,444 the previous week.

The six Democrats on the committee voted last week against sending a sub-group to Germany to hold hearings. The four Republican members then joined in a statement contending that the administration must be "seeking desperately to conceal something wrong with the administration of occupied areas."

Both lost seats, however, in comparison with the number they held in the assembly which drafted the constitution, the Social Democrats getting four fewer and the Christian Democrats seven fewer seats.

The seats they lost went to the extreme right-wing Liberal Democratic Party, which won 14 seats compared with its former six, and the Communists, who won 10 compared with their previous seven.

In rural, strongly Catholic Bavaria, biggest of the three American-ruled states, the Christian Social Union retained its majority of the Landtag's 180 parliament seats winning 104 places for a loss of five. The Social Democrats were second with 54 seats, gaining eight over the number they held in the constitutional convention.

By popular vote, the biggest gains were scored by the right wing Economic Reconstruction Party and the extreme right wing Free Democratic Party, although their gains in parliamentary seats were less pronounced. The Economic Reconstructionists won 13 seats, a gain of four, and the Free Democrats won nine for a gain of two.

Although the Bavarian Communists gained in popular vote, their votes were so widely distributed they did not win a single seat in parliament. They held nine seats in last summer's constitutional assembly.

Frankfurt, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Significant gains by extreme right wing parties were shown today in final returns from yesterday's elections in which two American-occupied German states adopted democratic constitutions and elected state legislatures which will assume almost complete self-government.

Although the two major middle-of-the-road parties retained their established leading positions, both lost ground to minor parties with strong rightist tendencies. The Communists, on the extreme left, also gained slightly at the expense of the two centrist groups, but not so much as the rightists.

BULLETIN Washington, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Federal Judge Goldsborough announced today that John L. Lewis' contempt trial that the court itself will present evidence tomorrow tending to show that the UMW leader did not obey a restraining order in the soft coal dispute.

Washington, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Federal District Judge Goldsborough today refused to admit into John L. Lewis' contempt trial a newsreel record in which Lewis purportedly said that last spring's coal strike agreement would prevail for the duration of government operation.

The statement may be admitted in the trial at a later date if the court sees fit, Judge Goldsborough ruled.

Chief Government Counsel John P. Sonnett told the court he wanted to enter the exhibit as proof of willfulness by Lewis in obtaining the contract terminated as of Nov. 20. It was the contract cancellation that touched off the current walkout of 400,000 soft coal miners.

To avoid a dramatic courtroom showing of the newsreel itself, Lewis' lawyers volunteered to accept a typewritten transcript. They first made known, however, that they objected to its admission in any event.

"The defendants interpose the objection," said Chief UMW counsel Welly K. Hopkins, "that this evidence is not relevant in the contempt issue before your honor."

The evidence, government counsel told federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough, is aimed at smashing the United Mine Workers' contention that private operators actually run the mines under federal seizure and that the UMW walkout is, therefore, not an interference with the government.

The seat of federal exhibits were read by the first government witness, U. S. Administrator H. C. Collier, on the third day of the proceedings got under way.

Burley Sales In Kentucky Open

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 2.—(AP)—The 1946-47 burley tobacco sales season opened today in Kentucky amid a welter of uncertainty of how long the auctions would be able to continue without a sales holiday occasioned by the coal strike.

At Lexington's big market, the Burley Auction Warehouse Association said a sales holiday would be necessary in event redryers have to shut down for lack of fuel.

The association has asked an additional 50 cars of coal to keep the redryers and the market open at least until the Christmas holidays.

Lexington's 24 Christmas houses were filled with an estimated 27 to 28 million pounds of leaf.

Ceiling prices are off this year for the first time in four years. Growers were assured an average of 33.6 cents a pound for their leaf, since tobacco falling to average that amount may, if the grower wishes, be consigned to the Burley Growers Cooperative.

No Special Session Of Congress Ahead

Washington, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.) reported after a White House visit today that President Truman has no intention of calling a special session of Congress to enact labor legislation.

Rankin said President Truman told him that owing to the shortness of time he thought it would be better to wait until the regular session of Congress.

der because: The Norris-LaGuardia act forbids a federal judge to intervene in a labor dispute by issuing an order that would prevent a strike or walkout.

The judge, giving several reasons, said he had a right to issue the order and was free to do so.

The judge said the Norris-LaGuardia act does not apply in this case. That nowhere does it say the government can't get a court order against a union; therefore, it can get such an order.

"The government lawyers argue that the act prevents private employers from getting a court order to stop a strike but this doesn't mean the federal government."

This was a tremendously important decision by the judge. Until the act was passed in 1932 unions had been smashed by court orders (Continued on Page Four)

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

AGONY OF CONSCIOUS

Rousseau at one time held the position of secretary to a prominent Italian lady. After her death he helped himself, without asking anyone's leave, to a little ornament which this woman had owned. When it was discovered in his possession, he declared that one of the maids of the household had given it to him. The girl protested her innocence, and, as Rousseau said turned upon him a look that would have melted the heart of a demon. For forty years Rousseau says that this wrong he did the girl cut him like a knife, that often his sleep was disturbed by the memory of the great injustice he had done. When everything went well, he could forget the girl for a time, but when his conscience was haunting realization of his dastardly crime went back to trouble him.

"This conscience does make cowards of us all. And thus the native hue of resolution is sicklied o'er with the pale cast of thought; And enterprises of great pith and moment with this regard their currents turn awry, And lose the name of action." This was Shakespeare's comment on conscience and how terribly it can destroy a man's peace of mind. Rousseau turned the 18th century upside down, but nothing could drive from his mind the terrifying and saddening realization that he had unjustly accused the innocent.

WASHINGTON LETTER

"GIVE ME A HOME" IS ENVOY'S PLEA TO WASHINGTON
By JANE FINE

Washington—The State Department is readying plans for a $60,000,000 world-wide project for construction of new embassy and consulate buildings abroad.

Settlement of lend-lease and disposal of surplus property in a number of the countries will contribute largely to the cost of construction. At present the government rents more properties than it owns, and some of these are not suitable.

The project which has been announced in detail, will take five to 10 years.

Many factors are involved in the planning of such a program. For instance, weather conditions in many countries have to be made.

The Naval Air Transport Service is testing on its men who are assigned to lonely spots around the world to collect wild life in their off hours.

Instead of rolling around dreaming about ice cream sodas and puny girls, the boys are being encouraged to collect and study the flora and fauna about them.

A NATS navigator, Lt. David P. Grether, USNR, is in charge of the project.

In his off-duty hours during the war, Lt. Grether and another navigator, Warren H. Wagner, Jr., flew around the Pacific over uncharted mountains, reefs and jungles, equipped with bag, butterfly net and camera to collect and classify more than 3,500 different specimens of tropical plant life.

NATS is working in cooperation with the University of California and other educational institutions and is sending an expert naturalist on an eight-week tour of Pacific outposts in an effort to get the boys interested.

Thousands of guns, tanks and planes captured from the Germans and Japanese or discarded by the U. S. Army will be distributed as trophies to the states and to organizations and individuals by the War Department.

Congress approved legislation governing the distribution of these articles in July.

First choice will be given federal agencies. Organizations, societies and individuals who contributed trophies or war devices for display during the war will be accounts in poor health, failed for the second consecutive year to take part in the recent nationwide celebration of the Russian revolutionary anniversary.

To some students of Soviet affairs it looked as though Stalin might be stepping down, or perhaps be gradually relinquishing his powers, and as though Molotov was perhaps being groomed for advancement.

Molotov, undoubtedly the Russian leader best known to the Western world by virtue of his prominence in big power deliberations at London, Paris and New York, has been a life-long worker for the Communist Party and is one of eight vice chairmen of Russia's Council of Ministers, of which Stalin is chairman.

Should Molotov succeed Stalin it would surprise those who have been "backing" such other leading officials as Georgi M. Malenkov, Andrei Andreiev, Lavrenti P. Beria, A. A. Zhdanov, A. I. Mikoyan, and L. M. Kaganovich.

GHS Debaters Talk Socialized Medicine

Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock the Greenville High School Chapter of the National Forensic League will give its second semi-formal radio debate on the topic, "Socialized Medicine." Two weeks ago a negative team won a two-to-one decision of the judges.

Attempting to prove that the Federal Government should provide medical care for all the people, the affirmative team for Wednesday night will be Joanne Bloom, Shelley Beard and Roy Hardee. The negative speakers will be Tommie Diener, Muriel Stowell and Evelyn Dennis.

Later in the week the forensic club will hold its annual original oratorical contest in the high school library at 7:45 p. m. Thursday. Almost all the Pitt County high schools are expected to enter contestants.

Students Chosen To Attend Convention

Kay Mann of Middletown and Hannah Ruth Humbles of Ayden students at East Carolina Teachers College, have been chosen as delegates to the national convention of Pi Omega Pi, business education fraternity, which will be held in Chicago on December 26 and 27.

They will represent the Beta Kappa chapter of East Carolina Teachers College. Accompanying them will be Audrey V. Dempsey, member of the department of business education at the college and national editor of Pi Omega Pi. The convention will be attended by approximately 12 delegates from chapters of the fraternity throughout the country.

Miss Mann, formerly secretary of the commerce club at the college is now serving as editor of "Pieces O' Eight," college magazine. Miss Humbles is president of the commerce club this year. Both students are specializing in business education at the college.

Henry Bok, editor of the Goldsboro News-Argus, was elected president of the association at a business session Saturday. Other officers elected were: Tom Lassiter, editor of the Smithfield Herald, first vice-president; David J. Whichard, Jr., editor of the Greenville Reflector, second vice-president; and Mayon Parker of Ahoskie, re-elected secretary and treasurer. Leslie Thompson of Waverly, Billy Arthur of Jacksonville and Fred Pendleton of Washington, N. C. were selected directors. O. O. Phillips of Smithfield is the retiring president of the association.

that prevented strikes. Since its passage they've been free to strike. But the judge said this too: The court has a right to stop a union from doing something, such as a coal mine walkout, "which was against the public interest."

But what does this mean? Some lawyers have told this writer: "In this case the government had a contract with Lewis to mine coal he broke it. But the government was in possession of the mines since it has been running them after seizing them last May."

"So the judge is talking only of this case--at most, only about the government's right to get a court order to prevent a strike where it has a contract or possession of property."

But is that all it means? Or does it mean the government should be able to get a court order to prevent any threatened strike--which it said might affect the public interest--even though it had no contract in the case and did not have possession of the property?

If so, then the government probably could get such an order to prevent any number of strikes since our society is so complicated that strikes of many kinds definitely affect the public interest.

ference by Greece's northern neighbors is that they are communistic states which are trying to secure the overthrow of the Greek monarchy and the establishment of a Soviet government. But the thing cuts a lot deeper than that. These three Red states are satellites of Moscow, and are very much under Russian control. And Greece is England's little brother and looks to London for protection and guidance.

There we have a situation which unapparently brings Britain and the Soviet Union face-to-face in one of the hottest of Europe's hot spots. That, I judge, is why Tsaldaris addressed his notification to Russia--presumably on the assumption that Moscow has absolute control over Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria. Russia aims at consolidating her position in the Balkans in order among other things, to gain control of the Dardanelles and thus give her a hold on the eastern Mediterranean. But the eastern Mediterranean long has been Britain's sphere of influence, and so we see John Bull clinging sturdily to his foothold in Greece.

There roughly is the problem which Tsaldaris proposes to place in the lap of the United Nations. If he does so, history may record him as the man who demonstrated whether this new peace organization really would work. Certainly it's a question which could make or break the U. N.

Bowl Dream Is Now A Reality For N. C. Teams

By the Associated Press
A New Year's Day Bowl game—long a dream of University of North Carolina football teams—was a reality today as the Tar Heels made plans for their Jan. 1 engagement with unbeaten Georgia in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl.

And there was some Bowl planning going on at Raleigh, too, where the North Carolina State Wolfpack prepared to play in the second annual Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., against an as yet unnamed opponent.

North Carolina closed its regular season Saturday with a top-sided victory over their oldest rival, Virginia, 49 to 14, with Charlie Justice making three touchdowns and capturing conference scoring honors. The Tar Heels clinched the Bowl bid they almost had in 1933.

That was the year that Duke crushed the Bowl dreams with a stunning 25 to 0 upset. Since then North Carolina teams hadn't advanced past the "honorable mention" class as far as Bowls were concerned.

This season the Tar Heels won right, tied one and lost one, and won the Southern Conference championship.

N. C. State also finished strong as all-Southern Halfback Howard Turner led the Wolfpack to a 28-7 victory over Maryland at Raleigh Saturday. Turner scored three of the four touchdowns.

The decision gave State a record of eight won and two lost. Their victims included Duke and Wake Forest and their losses were to Vanderbilt and V.P.I.

Gator Bowl officials said they expected to announce an opponent for the Wolfpack soon, possibly today. Oklahoma, co-champion of the big six, was known to be receiving favorable consideration.

Catawba's Indians were the first State eleven to catch the Bowl fever. They agreed several days ago to meet Maryville, Tenn., in a Jan. 1 Tangerine Bowl contest at Orlando, Fla.

sters to the champions of Eastern North Carolina.

The local eleven dons equipment this afternoon for the first time since their big Armistice Day game. Coach Greene expressed some fear that the long lay-off may have taken the keen edge off his charges and indicated that he was working to permit the locals to work into shape.

Light drills will be held at the practice field of Third Street School this afternoon and tomorrow, heavier workouts are anticipated for Wednesday.

Navy Recruiter Will Be At Post Office

Chief Quartermaster J. L. Tyson, Navy recruiting representative from the New Bern Naval Recruiting Station will be stationed in Room 209 of the Greenville Post Office between the hours of 1 o'clock and three o'clock Wednesday December 4, 1946, for the purpose of interviewing and accepting applicants for enlistment in the Navy.

Chief Tyson states that the Navy is in need of young men for electronic training. Men who qualify will be given a 42 week course in electronics which is equivalent to a $5,000 education offered by any college or university in this field.

MIDGETS EARN BID TO BOWL

Local Mites Chosen To Oppose Goldsboro In Post-Season Game
Coach Bill Greene, of Greenville's Mighty Midgets, announced today that the local Mites will meet Goldsboro in the Eastern Midget Bowl Game sponsored by the Jaycees of Goldsboro on the twenty-first or twenty-sixth of this month.

The coming game will mark the fourth time the Goldsboro and Greenville Midgets have clashed.

During the regular season, the Greenville squad won in their first meeting by a score of 20-6; the second game saw the two playing to a 0-0 tie.

Their last meeting on November 11 was for the championship of Eastern North Carolina in which the Greenville boys lost to the tune of 13-7.

Past Midget Bowl contests have been between Raleigh and Goldsboro, but this year sees Greenville's first Midget squad grab the limelight as the most challenging grid-

Social Security

LUMP-SUM PAYMENT OF SOCIAL INSURANCE
When an insured worker dies leaving no one immediately eligible for monthly benefits, a lump-sum death benefit is payable. If a widow or widower survives, the lump-sum payment is made to her or to him. If no widow or widower is living, the payment is made to the worker's children. If no widow, widower or child is living, the lump-sum payment is made to the parent or parents.

When there are no near relatives of the classes listed above, payments may be made to the person or persons who have paid the funeral expenses.

An insured worker's widow, under 65, who has no minor children in her care will receive a lump-sum payment; and then when she reaches age 65, she will also get monthly payments. The dependent parent who is under 65 at the time of his son's or daughter's death will receive the lump sum—if eligible for benefits—and then upon reaching age 65 will also get monthly payments.

Like all other types of payments, the amount of the lump sum depends upon the amount of the worker's earnings and the length of time he has worked. Most of these lump-sum payments range between $85 and $250.

Social Security benefits are not paid automatically. A claim must first be filed at a field office of the Social Security Board. In order to receive payment, the claim for a lump-sum benefit must be filed within two years after the worker's death.

The nearest Social Security Office is located in the Post Office Building, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Greensboro college as maid of honor in the May court of 1947, and also as the "most attractive" girl in the class.

A member of the Emerson Literary Society and the International Relations Club, Miss Massey was elected Emerson Queen in her freshman year and sophomore attendant in the May Court of 1946.

She will attend her cousin, Miss Janice Ray Whitley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Whitley, 1016 1/2 Minerva Avenue, Durham, who was chosen at the same time by members of the senior class to reign as Queen of the May.

As further proof that beauty and popularity run in the family, another cousin, Miss Frances Suggs, daughter of Mrs. Louise Suggs of Princeton, was chosen by members of her class as the "most popular" girl in the senior class.

Attends Wedding Mrs. Claude D. Tunstall has returned from Eastern Shore, Md., where she attended Thanksgiving day the wedding of her son, Walter A. Partin, and Miss Bernice L. Vellines. Miss Vellines is the daughter of Mrs. W. W. Fisher and the late William L. Vellines.

Christian Science Service "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alms Memoriam and Hypnotism, Denounced" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, December 1.

The Golden Text was from Proverbs 21:30. "There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the Lord." Among the citation comprising the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." And from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "As named in Christian Science, animal magnetism or hypnotism is the specific term for error, or mortal mind. It is the false belief that mind is in matter, and is both evil and good; that evil is as real as good and more powerful. This belief has not one quality of truth."

Play at Grimesland The Senior Class of Grimesland High School presents its annual play, "The Old Home Town" on December 5, 1946, at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

The action of the play revolves around the Irving family of father, mother, daughter and high school son. There is Andy who is interested in the daughter of the next door neighbor. The father who has financial worries. The mother who "does all" but "sees nothing." Daughter, Alice, the aspiring young writer and Uncle Tom, who doesn't add to the peace of the family. Of course there is the love triangle formed by Alice, Clark Kent, a young business man and Carol Brewster, the banker's daughter.

This is a play you can't afford to miss.

Entertains Bridge Club Stokes—The Bi-Monthly Bridge club held its regular meeting Tuesday night with Mrs. Charles Alfred Forbes as hostess.

During the four progressions of bridge suited suits and drinks were served. Mrs. Franklin Roebuck was winner of high score, with low score going to Mrs. Frances VanDyke.

After play the hostess served a delicious sweet course with coffee to the following members: Mrs. Marvin Barnhill, Gordon Clark, H. F. Congleton, Everett Knight, Eimer Parker, Franklin Roebuck, Frances Van Dyke and Mrs. Clifford Whichard.

Kiwanis Officials Confer in Kinston By CHESTER WALSH About 35 newly elected officers of Kiwanis clubs in 9 Eastern Carolina cities which comprise the Seventh Division of the Carolinas Kiwanis District attended a school for new officials at Hotel Kinston in Kinston last Friday and were guests of the Kinston Kiwanis Club at its weekly luncheon meeting.

The new officials take office in January. Kinston President Guy Taylor welcomed the visitors. Fred I. Sutton welcomed other guests. Ed E. Rawl, president of the Greenville club and lieutenant-governor-elect, introduced the visiting officials.

Former District Governor Sam Bundy of Farmville introduced the retiring district governor Jasper Hicks, Henderson banker who made the principal address.

Lieut.-Governor-elect El Rawl of Greenville conducted the training school for new officials.

All nine clubs of the Seventh Division were represented.

Incidentally, the Kinston Kiwanis Club is one of the progressive and growing Kiwanis units in the Carolinas district. Since its organization over a year ago the Kinston Club has been cited for outstanding achievements, increase in membership and community activities. Ed Rawl told the Greenville Kiwanis Club at its last meeting.

May Hunt Quail On Three Days In Week The state law governing hunting of quail provides that this season shall open November 28 and end January 31. The bag limit is 10 birds a day; 150 during a season.

District Game and Fish Protector J. O. Teel pointed out today that there are exceptions in many counties. Quail may be hunted in Pitt and the following counties only on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

ABC Officers Raid Still; Arrest Two Pitt County ABC officers J. M. Ward, J. L. Taylor and Claude Manning and Deputy Sheriff Loyd Manning made a raid early Sunday morning in Bethel Township about two miles northeast of Bethel where they seized and destroyed a 50-gallon drum type distillery with 50 gallons of molasses and cornmeal mash, and arrested two Negro men, Wilston (Red) Palmer and Johnnie Powell, both of that community.

Palmer was arrested without any trouble. Ward said, but Powell was arrested some distance from the still after a long foot race.

Both defendants were released Sunday under $200 bond each, for trial before Judge Dink James in County Recorder's Court, Tuesday.

Christmas Near, Santa's Coming Old Santa Claus himself arrives in Greenville with all his glory on Friday afternoon at 3:30. Bands will play and costumed children will escort the old gentleman to the County Court House in a parade replete with pets of every kind.

The Merchants Association also promises horses and buggies, mules ponies and decorated bicycles will participate in the traditional welcome to Greenville for Kris Kringle. The Greenville High School band and the East Carolina Teachers' College band will provide the music for the procession from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to the Pitt County Court House.

Prizes are offered for eight different classes of participants, and all the men and women and children in the county are eligible to enter as a contestant. Groups include: decorated bicycles, pets, ponies, buggies, mule teams, saddle horses, teams of horses and children's costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Keel and Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hoell of Washington N. C. will act as judges.

DURANT TRIAL IN OFFING Frankfurt, Germany, Dec. 2—(AP)—Col. Jack W. Durant of Chicago was charged formally today with participation in the theft of the $1,500,000 Hesse family jewels and U. S. Army officials said he would be tried by court martial in about ten days.

THE COMFORT OF SELF-DELUSION

The best advice is often more than we can bear. It takes courage to face the impact of truth, and firm resolution to form new habits to fit the facts.

Your doctor is sometimes confronted with the stern necessity of advising restrictions in your usual routine. Your favorite dessert or that comforting cigar may be denied you. There is a strong temptation to treat such advice lightly, to feel you know your needs better than your doctor.

Such self-delusion may be comforting, but it defeats the very ends you seek. Carefully follow your doctor's advice.

Your prescriptions have prompt, expert attention at our store.

BACK ACHE DUE TO KIDNEYS?

Read This! If excess acidity of your urine makes your back ache so you groan... so you get up three or four times at night to pass water, now be of good cheer. Three generations ago a famous doctor noticed that hundreds of his patients had this backache. He developed a medicine made of exactly the right amount of six teen herbs, roots, vegetables, and balsam — truly Nature's own way to relief.

Now millions have used it. The medicine is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Instantly you take it, it starts to work flushing out those excess acids that may be clogging your backache... increasing the flow of urine to help ease that burning sensation when you pass water... and that bladder irritation that makes you get up nights. Caution: take as directed. You'll say it's really marvelous.

For free trial supply, send to Dept. U, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 1135, Stamford, Conn. Or — get full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your druggist.

The committee why the government was not ready, immediately at the start of the coal strike, to begin movement of natural gas through the war-built $143,000,000 Big Inch and Little Inch pipelines, running 1,500 miles from the Southwest gas and oil fields to the Eastern Seaboard.

But committee members indicated they would fire questions running the gamut of the issues in the critical coal strike.

Winners 'Driver Of The Week' Awards

Mrs. Roy Martin, 412 East Eighth Street, and Chester Allen, 114 West 11th street, were winners of the "Driver of the Week" award and prizes presented on the Greenville radio Sunday night at 8:45. The weekly program is sponsored by the Greenville Police Department. Chief Jim Tanner conducts it.

A secret committee of police and private citizens observes motorists during each week and recommends a man and a woman for the award for safe driving.

Bonner Says Lewis A Menace To Labor

Elizabeth City, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Congressman Herbert C. Bonner of the First District says "Labor must be protected from the leadership of men like John L. Lewis."

He told the Veterans of Foreign Wars here yesterday "when courts cease to have the respect and confidence of the people, we must rise up as powerful, honest people. You cannot allow John L. Lewis to have more rights than any other citizen."

Paper Predicts Military 'Pact'

London, Dec. 2.—(AP)—The Daily Worker, British Communist tabloid, said today the Labor government soon would enter into a 10-year de facto military "pact" with the United States, negotiated "behind the back of Parliament."

"The plan, people in closest touch with the cabinet admit," the newspaper said, "assumes that in the event of war the U. S. would supply the arms and Britain the fighting men."

The Worker reported it had learned "officially" at the War Office that the virtual "merging" of the respective land, sea and air forces was to take effect when A. V. Alexander became defense minister under legislation now pending in Parliament.

The Worker declared that Prime Minister W. L. MacKenzie King of Canada proposed the move in April and discussions toward "binding Britain to total dependence on the U. S. as regards arms" began in May.

Asheboro Police Capture Gunman

Asheboro, N. C., Dec. 2.—(AP)—James E. Mitchell, 26, wanted in the shooting of Police Chief C. M. Hindshaw of Randleman last Sept. 23, was in the custody of Asheboro police today.

Hindshaw, who was shot in Randolph County when he and Mitchell alias Robert C. Hill, exchanged gunfire on a highway outside of High Point, was among the officers who yesterday helped bring Mitchell here from the Catawba county jail where he was taken following his capture.

Investigating officers said that Mitchell, who is from Randolph County, had been arrested on a charge of passing a bad check when the pistol fire between him and Hindshaw occurred.

Mitchell was taken by sheriff's officers after Sheriff Ray Pitts of Catawba County was tipped that he had been "hiding out" for a week between Catawba and Newton.

Chinese Army Is Nearing Dairen

Nanking, Dec. 2.—(AP)—The Government's Central News Agency said today the Chinese Communists had massed 552,000 troops in Manchuria and had moved their military and political headquarters from threatened Harbin to Kiamutze, 180 miles to the northeast.

Chinese press reports in Peiping, meanwhile, accused the Communists of stripping the industrial section of Dairen, Manchuria's greatest port, and transporting machinery across the Yellow Sea to the Shantung peninsula of North China.

The Nanking newspaper Ta Kang Pao reported in a Peiping dispatch that Government forces were within 12 miles of Dairen, and that one advance column already had entered the Soviet-occupied port. Gen. Tu Li-ming's troops last were reported within 40 miles of Dairen and negotiating for Soviet withdrawal.

Police Have Shoot-To-Kill Orders; Communists Blamed

Shanghai, Dec. 2.—(AP)—Some shopkeepers hesitatingly reopened for business today as police with shoot-to-kill orders guarded against any resumption of the week-end rioting which resulted in at least 100 injuries and unofficial reports, denied by city officials, of five to 12 deaths.

At mid-morning a city spokesman said "we think we have the situation under control." He reiterated that nobody had been killed, by official count.

Many stores remained closed, their owners fearful of further trouble. Numerous shops had been damaged in the demonstration.

Rioting began Saturday after municipal authorities sought to clear the streets of the thousands of unlicensed sidewalk peddlers. Mayor K. C. Wu later eased the order by restricting the vendors to certain sections of the city, but the rioting continued.

The mayor told foreign correspondents he blamed the Communists for the outbreak.

He told newsmen the "purpose behind" the riots was to create "disastrous bloodshed and tragedy" as a prelude to a general strike, but that the agitators had "failed in their effort to paralyze Shanghai."

Cold Weather . . .

In North Carolina Mt. Mitchell, the iceberg of the Carolinas, as usual was low with four above zero, a 38 point drop. Asheville shivered in 23 degree weather, a change from its 59 of Sunday.

Charlotte dropped from 76 to 31. Other temperatures today, all showing drops of thirty or more degrees, included: Charleston, S. C., 43; Columbia 36; Greensboro 24 (from 71 yesterday); Spartanburg, 31; Wilmington 39; and Hetterson 36.

Charlotte yesterday registered a 67-year-high for December 1 but the winds began blowing and the mercury started plummeting late in the afternoon.

The forecast for both states was for fair and colder weather today and tonight with slowly rising temperature tomorrow. The weather bureau said temperatures in the low 20's would be general.

plans unless . . . there is inspection machinery to see that all nations which get the atomic secrets shall rigidly observe the regulations without a veto."

Connally said Minister Molotov had accepted the principle of international inspection and control. Connally then asked: "How can there be international control if any member of the council can rise in his seat and veto inspection?"

"That is not international control," he asserted. "That is individual control. We insist that the veto must not apply on inspection and control."

Connally said the United States was firmly opposed to any interruption of the work of the atomic energy commission or any interference with its work.

"It must go on with its work," he said. "It must not be hamstringed."

F. Sonnett announced at the outset that 10 additional witnesses, including Secretary of Interior Krug will be called to bolster the government's case against the chief UMW chief.

At one point this morning an argument between opposing attorneys on the admissibility of certain evidence brought from J. J. Goldsborough the comment that Lewis and the union contend they are not in contempt and that he presumed they are trying to show they acted in good faith.

The judge said the punishment in that case might be very different from a deliberate violation of the court's restraining order.

The petition challenged the fairness of the democratic primary in which Sen. Bilbo was nominated for a third term. It alleged among other things that Bilbo "advocated, counseled, inspired, encouraged, incited, aided and abetted the white population of Mississippi to commit acts of violence and intimidation x x x against the duly qualified Negro electors of Mississippi."

Ellender said he was informed all but two of the signers were Negroes.

Meanwhile Sen. Bilbo said he had plenty of legal assistants available—more than the number of volunteer witnesses on hand.

The 69-year-old senator, who left his Poplarville "dream house" Saturday and took up residence in a hotel here, said he has "two or three lawyers" on hand to represent him "if anything hot develops," and has available "about 50 more if I need them."

Pioneer Of Industry Dies Of Ailing Heart

Philadelphia, Dec. 2.—Edgar G. Budd, who gave America its first all-steel automobiles, streamlined railroad trains and stainless steel airplanes, is dead at 75.

The founder and president of the Budd Company, who came to Philadelphia in 1899 as an apprentice machinist and turned a corner metal shop into a giant industry, succumbed Saturday night to an acute heart dilation as his home at Mt. Airy. Budd "sold" automobile makers on the merits of steel bodies by rolling cars down cliffs and posing live elephants on their roofs.

Women IN THE CHURCH
by Mary Fowler

Miss Mary E. Sweeney, formerly assistant director of the Merrill-Palmer School, Detroit, Michigan, where she has specialized in education for home and family life, has sailed for India where, for a year, under the auspices of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, and cooperating with the National Christian Council of India, she will conduct a program among the Christian communities for the betterment of home and family life. It will be part of an India-wide emphasis on the home as the center of Christian teaching and nurture.

of Missions and Church Extension, the Misses Clara and Marina Zaccaro, of Naples, Italy, are now enrolled as students in Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill. They are the grandchildren of Dr. Riccardo Santi, superintendent of "Casa Materna," the internationally-known Methodist orphanage in Naples. During the war, the young women—they are nineteen and seventeen years of age—were graduated from junior college in Naples and they helped in keeping Casa Materna in operation. They were with the orphanage when it was bombed by the Germans, they were in the "trek" from Naples to Salerno for safety, and they were in Salerno when American troops landed on the beaches. But through it all they helped teach their young charges and to see that they had whatever food could be gathered in a day of great privation.

Thousands of church women in all parts of the United States are signing the pledge of prayer for the success of the deliberations of the United Nations. "I intend to pray daily for the delegates of the United Nations and other world leaders that they may do God's will for the world. I shall also pray for the outpouring of the Divine Spirit upon my own heart and mind so that I may understand and undertake my own
