Molotov Upsets UN Troop Control

Verbal Bombshell Threatens To Upset Question Of Troop Dispositions; Opposes Count Of Armed Troops At Home In About-Face On Feature Of Inventory Program

Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Russia unexpectedly refused early today to accept a proposal for a United Nations inventory of armed troops at home.

In a surprise move, Molotov demanded deletion of a home troop census from a resolution already approved by the powerful 54-member U. N. political committee.

His action, taken at an assembly plenary session, threatened to reopen the whole question of troop dispositions.

Previously, at the committee stage Molotov had agreed to taking a census of both domestic forces and those on foreign soil.

Molotov tossed today's verbal bombshell into the assembly a few seconds after Sir Hartley Shawcross of Great Britain asked the world peace keeping body to establish an international inspection board to verify figures submitted by member nations in the troop inventory.

Delegates who had come to the session prepared to debate the British plan were so surprised and unprepared for Molotov's action that the plenary session was recessed.

The Soviet action highlighted a five-hour plenary session which began at 8:15 last night. Just before midnight the assembly had, in effect, censured South Africa for racial discrimination of Indians in the union after rejecting a South African demand that the issue be turned over to the international court of justice for an advisory opinion.

When Molotov climbed to the rostrum at the opening of the troop census debate delegates expected him to confine his remarks to the British proposal. Instead, he began with a declaration of the importance of an inventory on troops abroad, particularly those on belligerent states' soil, and then argued any counting of home troops would only complicate the question of troops on foreign soil.

Molotov renewed his original argument that the home troop census should be linked with the proposed program of disarmament and should not be made until that program is in operation. He then demanded that the assembly delete the entire fourth paragraph of the committee approved resolution calling for a troop inventory at home and abroad.

MINE WORKERS COMPLY WITH LEWIS ORDERS

Coal Production Resumes; Some Unions Await Official Directive

Pittsburgh, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The soft coal industry resumed production today after a paralyzing 17-day work stoppage by the United Mine Workers. Badly needed fuel came from the mines again for the nation's industries and homes.

Reports from the coal fields showed the miners complying with John L. Lewis' order to return to the pits but normal production was not expected before mid-week.

The return to work was spotty in some sections but full production apparently awaited only the spreading of the official back-to-work order. Many miners who received the word yesterday held meetings approving Lewis' action and got an early start on dawn shifts.

In the big Pennsylvania field employing 100,000 soft coal miners the solid fuels administration reported a majority of mines resuming but that miners appeared at some pits, then returned home to await official word. The SPA at Altoona, Pa., estimated two-thirds of the 1,217 coal mines in that area were operating.

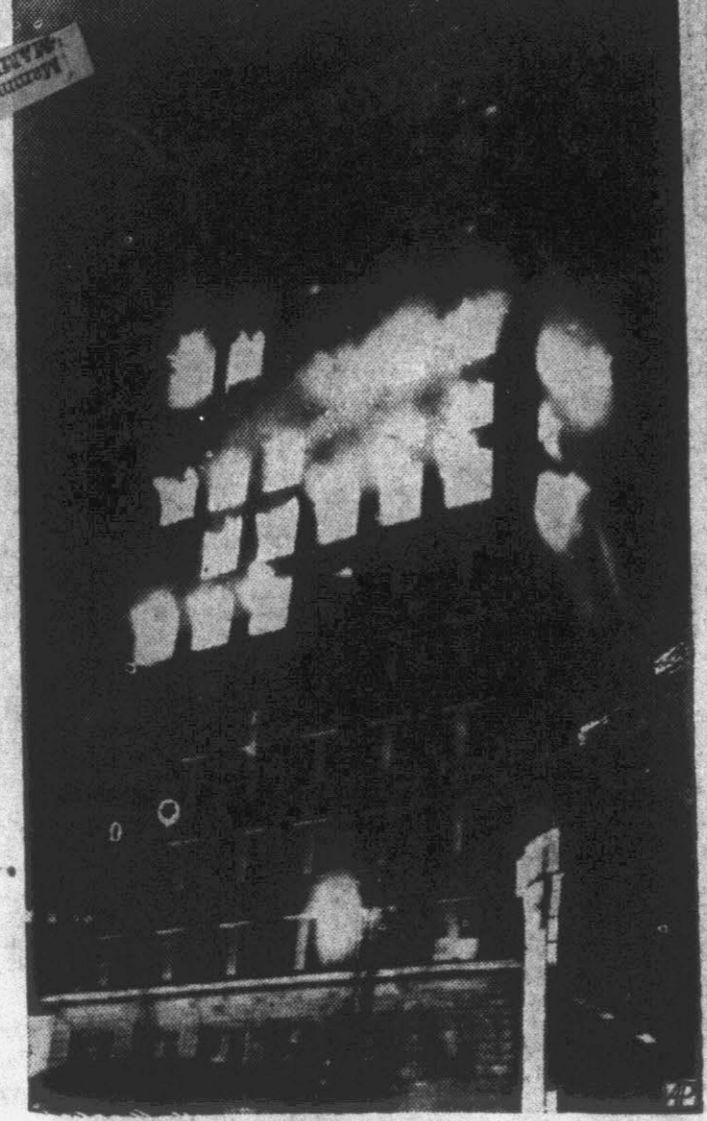

In West Virginia, with 102,000 of the UMW's 400,000 members, the swing back to production was on except for local areas which likewise awaited official notification. These were expected to be back at work by tonight or at least by Wednesday.

Some idleness also was reported in West Virginia at pits where railroad sidings were crossed with coal cars held in reserve during the emergency. In Kentucky, another large producing state, the return was virtually complete in the Big Sandy field.

Practically all mines worked in the coal rich Pittsburgh area, including many steel company owned operations.

In Alabama about 10,000 of the 20,000 miners were already on the job. Coal dependent steel industries there responded quickly by blowing in three blast furnaces.

Investigations Under Way In Hotel Disaster

City, County And National Probes Ordered; Grand Jury To Study Fire; Eleven Injured In Critical Condition

Atlanta, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The Winecoff Hotel disaster came up for multiple investigations today amid a futile search for the origin of the fire that killed at least 117 persons.

City, county and national probes were ordered. They coincided with demands for more stringent safety standards against such tragedies.

Solicitor General E. E. Andrews arranged conferences with the city fire marshal, fire underwriters and Grand Jury Foreman Henry Chandler. He said a Fulton County (Atlanta) grand jury would study Saturday's pre-dawn fire to determine if there had been any criminal negligence. The jury will meet tomorrow.

Mayor William B. Hartsfield called an afternoon meeting of the city council's fire committee to question officials about the nation's most deadly hotel fire. The National Fire Prevention Association and the National Conference of Building Officials also planned investigations.

The city's Grady Hospital was asked by Mayor Hartsfield for a report on the burns and gas poisoning among the casualties in an effort to determine the fire's origin. The speed with which the blaze

INQUIRY INTO LABOR POWERS IS PROPOSED

Congressman Advocates Check-Up On Autocratic Powers In Unions

Washington, Dec. 9.—(AP)—A congressional investigation of labor organizations to determine whether any of their leaders wield "autocratic power" was proposed today by Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) as the nation's coal miners went back to work.

Lucas told a reporter he intends to urge the new Congress to order a sweeping inquiry into the whole field of labor-management relations to "ascertain which of these labor organizations have democratic processes and which are run by one man."

The Illinois senator, who has been regarded by his colleagues as a staunch supporter of organized labor in the past, made it plain he wants to aim such an investigation directly at John L. Lewis, control of the United Mine Workers.

Lucas, saying Congress ought not be careless in this because Lewis called off the mine without Saturday, noted that there may be new difficulties in this field next spring if the UMW fails to win a new contract by March 31.

January 14 Set For Hearing Arguments On Validity Of Contempt Conviction Of Lewis And UMW; Quick Action Taken Because Of Public Interests Involved

Washington, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The Supreme Court today agreed to give a quick ruling on the validity of the contempt conviction of John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers in the soft coal strike.

The high court set Tuesday, January 14, for hearing arguments of counsel for both sides. A decision could come any Monday after arguments are completed.

The high tribunal acted on a government plea that—because of the public interest involved—the case be taken out of the hands of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals here and speeded to a final, authoritative decision.

Lewis and the union were convicted for contempt in ignoring a U. S. district court order intended to head off the 17-day soft coal strike which was ended last Saturday. Their fines totaled $3,510,000.

Today's action means a final decision can be expected a month or two earlier than if the issues involved had been decided first by the court of appeals.

Lewis is calling off the strike at least until March 31, said future contract negotiations will be within the limitations of the findings of the Supreme Court. He said one of the reasons he ended the strike was to enable the court in considering his case to be free from public pressure superinduced by the hysteria and frenzy of an economic crisis.

Jubilant over the weekend surrender of Lewis which ended the 17-day economy-wrecking walkout, officials familiar with the government's legal strategy expressed confidence that the ton court of the land would take jurisdiction on an early showdown.

But these officials as well as union aides said they expect that with the strike over the court probably will put the case on its regular calendar, rather than docket it ahead of other matters. This might put off a decision until February.

In the wake of Lewis' sudden and dramatic capitulation Saturday, the nation hustled to get industrial wheels turning full speed again.

While this is dependent on the coal diggers, there was every sign that the miners were heeding the order of their leader. Lewis told them there should be no hesitation about getting back to the pits.

In cancelling the strike after indicating time and again that he planned a fight to the finish, Lewis gave these reasons:

1. The Supreme Court, in considering the contempt conviction and possibly whether the miners had a right to void their contract with the government, should be free from public pressure superinduced by the hysteria and frenzy of an economic crisis.
2. Public necessity requires that the quantitative production of coal during such period.

Lewis beat his unexpected retreat even as President Truman was at work on a bare knuckle radio talk which he had planned to use last night. The talk was cancelled.

Narcotics Taken At Point Of Gun

A third narcotics robbery in Wilmington within a month touched off an intensified search today for what federal and city authorities said appeared to be a well-organized dope ring concentrating in this area.

A lone unmasked man walked into the Standard Drug Company in the business district yesterday, pulled a gun on Druggist W. T. Glass and demanded the morphine supply. Glass handed over 450 half-grain tablets. The man ran from the store and escaped.

W. T. Atkinson, federal narcotics agent at Greensboro, said the Narcotics Bureau was already working on two burglaries at Wilmington in which more than $5,000 in assorted drugs were stolen.

Convicts Caught, One Still Free

Greensboro, N. C., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Two white convicts who escaped from the Sandy Ridge prison camp Dec. 4 by fleeing in a truck after kidnapping its driver, were back in the custody of police today.

Capt. John M. Barnes, district prison supervisor, announced that the pair, Willie Jeff Meeks, 23, of Reidsville and Willie Ed Shoaf, 25, of Wile and Willie Ed Shoaf, 25, of Winston-Salem were recaptured yesterday at Swift Island quarry, near Reidsville.

He said the pair surrendered without resistance after a car they had stolen was wrecked, injuring Meeks' arm.

Tom Bullins, 35-year-old third member of the escaping trio, was still at large, Barnes said.

Rob Warehouse Here 400 Pounds Sugar

Robbers some time during the weekend broke into J. B. Kittrell's warehouse on Watauga Avenue and carried away four 100-pound bags of sugar. The robbery was discovered yesterday afternoon.

Police are investigating.

Royal Couple in Press Spotlight

London, Dec. 9.—(AP)—A weekend deluge of publicity for Prince Philip of Greece and Denmark today whetted the British people's expectation that the handsome, 25-year-old court favorite soon would become engaged to Britain's Princess Elizabeth in the "royal romance" of the year.

Three nationally-circulated newspapers devoted considerable space Sunday to Prince Philip, and a blessing on the reported engagement came from an unexpected source—Tom Driberg, left wing Labor member of Parliament, no admirer of the Greek royal family, who described the prince as "intelligent and board-minded, fair and good-looking."

"It seems fair to interpret his request for British citizenship as, in part, a desire to be disentangled from Greek politics permanently," Driberg wrote in his Reynolds news column.

Prince Philip, sixth in line for the Greek throne, will forfeit his right to succeed his second cousin George II of the Hellenes by becoming a British subject.

Stalin And His Role

Rumors Of Illness Arouse Serious Consideration; Other Soviet Officials Taking Over Reins; His Work For Russia; What Will A New Premier Mean?

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Those rumors that Russia's Premier Stalin is a very ill man certainly give pause for serious consideration.

To be sure, they haven't been substantiated in any way. On the contrary, a Soviet embassy spokesman in London yesterday said Stalin "is in the best of health." Eddie Gilmore, AP Chief of Bureau in Moscow, also stated three days ago: "I am reliably informed that there is no basis for reports published in Turkey that Generalissimo Stalin is 'seriously ill.' Stalin is taking a vacation just as he took a vacation at this time last year."

Still, the very fact that these reports are prevalent challenges us to speculate on what their significance would be to the world if they were true. We get one interesting slant from John M. Hightower, AP diplomatic correspondent, reporting the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Council proceedings in New

Sen. Kilgore's Seat Challenged By GOP

West Virginian Becomes Third Democrat To Be Challenged In New Senate; Election Irregularities Charged

Washington, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Senator Harley M. Kilgore of West Virginia today became the third Democrat to bump into a Republican challenge to his seat in the new Senate.

Walter Hallahan, GOP national committeeman from Kilgore's home state, told a reporter a formal contest is being planned in behalf of Thomas Sweeney, the Republican candidate who lost by about 3,000 votes on the basis of unofficial returns.

The new majority party previously announced its intention to challenge the seating of Senator Theodore Roosevelt.

GOP Scramble For Key Jobs

Await Taft's Choice; Others Pick Plums Of Victory

Washington, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Senate Republicans waited today for Robert A. Taft to decide whether he wants to be head man on the taxing or labor committees before distributing the chairmanship plums they plucked in the November election victory.

There was widespread belief that the Ohioan will pick the labor spot in a decision some of his colleagues think may be tied in with his aspirations for the 1948 GOP presidential nomination. The labor committee also concerns itself with education, health and kindred subjects.

If Taft elects to concentrate on that field, the chairmanship of the tax-handling finance committee may go to Senator Millikin (Colo.). Senator Butler, Neb., who outranks Millikin on that group, told a reporter that because he had been a civil engineer before he became a politician, he would rather head the new public lands committee.

These and other assignments went before the GOP's committee on committees today in what Chairman White (Me.) said will be a (Continued on Page Six)

FRENCH LINER STORM VICTIM

Former "Europa" Sinks Into Mud Of Le Havre Harbor

Le Havre, France, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The German-built liner Europa, renamed the Liberte by the French, snapped her mooring in a gale-driven tidal wave today, gashed her side against harbor wreckage and sank into the mud on a shallow side of the Le Havre basin.

The 49,746-ton vessel, assigned to France as war reparations, settled with a heavy list upon recession of the tidal wave, which had caused the sea to rise three feet above normal. However, a rising tide later righted her, indicating she had retained some buoyancy.

Inquest Tonight Into Fatal Wreck

By CHESTER WALSH
Coroner Griffin H. Rouse will preside over an inquest at the City Hall tonight into the death of two victims of an automobile crash at Falkland the night of October 1. The inquest was deferred until now, because of the unavailability of occupants of the death car to testify.

A car driven by Mrs. O. C. Owens, 24, both of Fountain, trying to dodge a mule on the highway, left the road and turned over several times, Highway Patrol Cpl. John Laws said. All but one of the occupants were thrown from the car.

Miss Allie Louise Harris, 22, student nurse of Falkland, suffered a fractured skull and died at a hospital the next night.

Gordon Stroud, 13, of Falkland, died of a fractured skull several days later.

Daniel Owens, the driver, suffered a broken back. His brother, Patrick, received a broken shoulder.

Miss Margaret Stokes, 16, of Falkland, who remained in the overturned car, suffered cuts and bruises and was not seriously injured, the State Highway Patrol report stated.

Government To Attempt Persuading Other Unions To Seek Peaceful Labor Settlements In Wake Of Its Victory Over Lewis In Soft Coal Walkout

By NORMAN WALKER
Washington, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The government pushed for an iron-clad no-strike pledge in key industries today in the wake of its victory over John L. Lewis in the soft coal strike.

Officials opened the drive in the hope that the Administration's handling of the mine shutdown might persuade other unions to seek peaceful settlement of labor disputes in vital industries or risk painful punitive measures.

The initial no-strike pledge effort was directed at the public utility field. Representatives of unions and management in the gas, power, light and municipal transportation industries were summoned to a meeting to consider a plan for voluntary arbitration of disputes without resort to strikes.

The conference was arranged by a Labor Department advisory committee composed of representatives (Continued on Page Six)

Moslems Absent Indian Assembly

New Delhi, Dec. 9.—(AP)—India's constituent assembly solemnly opened its first session today in the dignified atmosphere of Constitution Hall. There were 75 seats vacant—those allotted to the Moslem League, which has boycotted the body undertaking to implement the second phase of a plan to make India independent.

Police mounted and afoot turned away all traffic and pedestrians from either end of the council house block as 221 Congress Party and minority group delegates took their seats in the high-domed remodeled former central assembly library.

Troubles Beginning

Lewis Stirred Hornet's Nest That May Mean His Undoing And Harm To Organized Labor; Other Reasons Than These Stated For Ending Soft Coal Strike

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Dec. 9.—(AP)—John L. Lewis' troubles are just beginning. But the trouble he started may mean trouble for all organized labor.

1. If the Supreme Court upholds the lower court in fining Lewis and his union for contempt in letting the strike occur then—

He and the union will have to pay the fine; Lewis, $10,000; the union, $3,500,000.

2. In the past Lewis always had a big stick—the threat of a strike—when he sat down to bargain with the mine owners. And he called strikes to get what he wanted.

This time—because he's told the owners to work until March 31, 1947—he's given the owners almost four months in which to haggle with him and wear him ragged without fear of a strike. And—

3. Within those four months Congress may act to cripple Lewis. Congress comes back Jan. 3, full of talk about curbing labor.

By telling the miners to work until March 31, Lewis has given Congress a deadline to shoot at if it wants to pass laws intended to make another strike like this one impossible.

If Congress passes any law to curb Lewis, it almost surely will be a law to curb labor unions in general. So all organized labor would be affected.

4. In addition to passing on the lower court judge's right to fine Lewis for not obeying the judge's no-strike order, the Supreme Court also may decide whether the judge had a right to issue the order.

All labor might be affected if the high court should decide something like this: that the government can get a court order to prevent a strike which it says might hurt the public interest.

The high court may not do this. (Continued on Page Four)

Officers Find Booze In Patch Collards

Pitt County ABC Officers J. M. Ward, J. L. Taylor and Claude Manning and Deputy Sheriff Loyd Manning Saturday afternoon found four one-gallon jugs of "bootleg" whiskey in the collard patch on the premises of Della Wilson, colored, in Pactolus township. Ward said the collards in the garden had been "turned" for protection against freezing. They were turned so neatly that the officers' suspicions were aroused. In explorations they contacted something solid, did a little digging and brought forth the four gallons of moonshine booze.

The woman was recognized for her appearance in County Court tomorrow morning.

Acheson Speaks On Relief Plans

Washington, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The United States plans to carry on alone its relief work abroad when UNRRA folds up at month's end—but only in those countries that can prove their need.

Under Secretary of State Dean Acheson made that plain in a radio address in which he said Congress will be asked for a "generous appropriation."

This country contributed $2,700,000 to the $3,000,000,000 United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, which expires December 31.

Tanner last night announced the following winners of certificates of safe driving and prizes donated by businessmen: Mrs. Joe Dudley, 303 Library street, and Bruce Baker, 411 West Fourth street.

During last night's broadcast the chief made a strong appeal for accident prevention and stressed the importance of safety. New Line Business Is Established Here

By CHESTER WALSH

Charles D. Cobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kinchen Cobb, and a World War II veteran, has been appointed distributor for Cortley's Frozen Foods for the territory east of Raleigh. This line includes 156 kinds of frozen foods—sea food, vegetables, fruit, poultry and other meats. "From turkeys to lobsters and fruit salad to fresh spinach, is the way Cobb describes the line. His office is at 212 Pitt street; the warehouse is at the Frozen Food Lockers in Ayden. Cobb distributes the frozen food products to retail dealers.

Considerable impetus was given to extending the frozen foods business during the war. It is interesting to observe that all kinds of vegetables, fruits, poultry and other meats and sea food are now sold "with all of the original flavor and quality."

Incidentally, a purchaser gets more strawberries of the best quality in frozen packages for the money than in a basket of berries during the regular season. And this goes for fruits, vegetables and sea food, Cobb said.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE GREATEST LOVE

A year or two after the first World War, a portrait was unveiled in one of our secondary schools. It revealed a very manly-looking chap who had piloted his plane through many a hot encounter. One day after having disposed of the enemy he had been sent to intercept, he was returning home when he saw another plane in imminent danger. The pilot of this plane was his friend. The German plane had risen about this plane and was about to make an end of both plane and pilot.

Without a moment's hesitation, the young fellow, who had already accomplished his mission and was on his way back to the base, turned his plane in the direction of the enemy. He saw that there was only one way by which he could save his friend, namely, by ramming his plane head-on into the German plane. He seemed not to have faltered for a moment. Together, he and the pilot of the German plane shot down to earth, wrapped in the flames of the two machines.

Hallehan, visiting in Washington, said the contest in behalf of Mr. Sweeney, 43 year old former state senator, would be based on charges of election irregularities. He added however, that the specific complaint will not be filed until Republicans take over the various committee chairmanships.
Hallehan contended that a majority vote would be sufficient to unseat Kilgore if the Senate upholds Sweeney's charges. The GOP Senate majority in 1925 rejected a Republican senator-elect and seated a Democrat under a similar action.
At that time the late Smith W. Brookhart (R) of Iowa was denied his seat by a 45-41 vote, and the place went to Daniel F. Steck (D) although Brookhart claimed a ma-

As sheet shreds still flapped from upper windows in mute testimony of many attempts to flee, the Red Cross casualty list carried the names of 112 identified dead. ### Stalin . . .

what happens when Stalin completely relinquishes the reins, as he must do sometime? That's the vital question for the rest of the world. We have no ordinary situation here. For more than a score of years Stalin has been the unchallenged head of a totalitarian dictatorship. His word has been law in a nation covering a sixth of the globe's land surface and having a population of almost 200,000,000.
Whether you admire him or dislike him, the fact remains that Stalin is—or has been—one of the most powerful leaders the world ever has known. Whatever strength Russia has developed since the revolution has been due mainly to him. He gave her industrial power; he created a huge army, and he himself was actual commander-in-chief of the Soviet forces during the late war. He has dictated Soviet foreign affairs, and he is given credit for having directed the unceasing crusade to communize the world.
Who takes over that job? Those who have been worried and fearful because Stalin was in power, will find a bigger anxiety in getting an answer to that, or so it strikes me. What single individual is capable of stepping into the Generalissimo's shoes and keeping an iron hand on that great Russian machine which Additional "peace" meetings in other industries where strikes could imperil the national economy are planned soon by the committee, which functions under auspices of the Labor Department.

Some labor leaders conceded privately meanwhile that the Administration's stand against Lewis may discourage another round of strikes in the steel, automobile and similar major industries which have contract agreements expiring in the next few months.

These leaders noted that as long as the Smith-Connally War Labor Disputes Act remains in effect, President Truman has the power to seize plants or industries where strikes are in progress or threatened.

And seizures could lead to prosecutions such as Lewis faced. Union leaders said they recognize, too, that the coal strike served to heighten the desire among many members of Congress to enact strike control legislation and laws limiting union powers.

The labor men cite still another reason for believing that there may be fewer strikes in the months immediately ahead. Most of them had expected Lewis to get a handsome wage increase for his miners.

This, they added, would have put pressure on other unions to strike in order to win similar concessions for their members.

French Liner . . .

(Continued From Page One) hope that the Liberté, dogged by bad luck since she was launched at Hamourg as a North German Lloyd liner in August, 1928, could be refloated.

The sea and wind tore the vessel from the French line docks and shoved her across the basin, with anchors dragging, in less than three minutes. Wreckage stayed in the Liberté's side at the level of the machine room and water flooded through the gaping hole.

The storm harassed other vessels along the waterfront. A United States naval launch broke her moorings near the citadel and sank. The French liner Palmire snapped her lines and drifted, but was brought under control without damage.

The loss of the Liberté would seriously handicap the French Line in its bid for passenger traffic. It has only one other large vessel, the 43,000-ton Ile de France. The next biggest is the 23,500-ton de Grasse.
