

CIO ARGUMENT SAID PREVIEW TO WALKOUTS

Industrialists Say Wage-Profits Disparity An Old Theme By Unions

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—Industry leaders declared today the CIO's fresh insistence that wages can be raised without boosting prices may lead to "another series of serious strikes."

They recalled the CIO had employed the same argument in pressing its initial postwar wage demands in the steel, automobile and other heavy industries last spring but that prices had gone up following the wage increases.

In preparing for a new round of pay demands, CIO President Philip Murray said yesterday CIO unions will embrace as their "guideline" a survey contending that present industry profit levels will permit wages to be raised up to 25 percent without hiking prices or cutting profits much below wartime peaks.

This survey was made for the CIO by Robert R. Nathan, consulting economist and former leading government economic planner and war agency official.

Nathan cautioned that unless wages are increased promptly or prices reduced sharply, lagging purchasing power on the part of workers may plunge the nation into a depression.

The Nathan report drew the assertion from Walter B. Weisenburger, executive vice president of the National Association of Manufacturers, that it means "an invitation for a new round of wage demands possibly followed by another series of serious strikes."

A similar reaction came from George Romney, general manager of the Automobile Manufacturers Association.

Utilities Bond Issue Said No Tax Burden

Officials Point To Past Profits To Support Claim; Plants Inadequate; Future Requirements Still Greater

A spokesman for the Greenville Utilities Commission asserted today that the coming $800,000 bond issue election was an opportunity for the people of Greenville to vote for their own welfare and the future growth of the community.

"The improved plants will more than pay for themselves," he stated "the taxpayer will not find himself taxed for the retirement of the bond issue."

In supporting this claim he pointed to the record of the past twenty years in which it was shown that the present plants have turned over to the city government for its own use, 13 percent of the gross income of the utilities. In addition to this the utilities have assumed the original bond issue for the sewerage system and made all improvements to the system since 1923 out of its revenue. This feature alone was illustrative as one of the many advantages the city gains in the ownership of its utilities.

As of June 30, 1946, the value of the sanitary system was evaluated at $204,396.34. That sum has been paid out of the Utilities' earnings and is not connected with the $885,000 in cash which has been turned over to the city over the twenty year period.

An official of the Utilities Commission stressed the needs for investment.

The Albanian Incident Britain's Trouble With Albania Similar To U. S.-Yugoslav Row; Serious Portent Of Events; Russians Held Key Posts In Albania; The U. S. Situation

Great Britain's trouble with Albania over the mining of Corfu Channel, with resultant heavy damage to two British destroyers and the loss of 44 lives, is strangely of a pattern with the U. S.-Yugoslav row over the shooting down of American planes.

In each case Russian satellite governments have taken violent, almost hysterical action (if the British charge is true) in the guise of defending their sovereignty. Age-old principles involving the protection of peace-time travelers have been thrown out the window in inexplicable fashion.

If it is true that Albania deliberately and secretly mined a traditionally free channel, nobody will know what to expect next. If the mining was done for fear of what passing British ships might observe ashore, the implications would be a cause for even greater anxiety than the act itself.

In one respect the Albanian incident, aside from the greater loss of life, is of greater significance than the Tito affair, for Russian control in Albania is much more direct than in Yugoslavia.

In Yugoslavia there is a Communist-dominated government, conducted by Moscow-trained operatives, but one which operates with a certain degree of autonomy. Tito, instead of being merely an executive of Moscow's orders, is more of a collaborator. He follows the line to which he is well-trained, to be sure, but up to the point where he might cross the Kremlin he is his own man. Although he had Russian precedent for getting tough with American planes which flew over proscribed areas, the trouble he got into with us was essentially his own.

In Albania, on the other hand, reliable reports have it that Russians actually occupy the key positions.

Friday, The 13th

Chicago, Dec. 12—(AP)—Tomorrow is Friday, the 13th, which to some is an omen of ill luck, but the National Safety Council says forget it and relax.

The council, however, suggested to be careful as there will be just as many accidents tomorrow as any other day—but no more.

Tomorrow will be the second Friday the 13th this year and for those who worry about such dates there won't be another until next June. That will be the only Friday the 13th in 1947.

REVOLT FAILS IN VENEZUELA

Insurgents Either Flee Or Are Captured; No Fatalities

Caracas, Venezuela, Dec. 12—(AP)—The government of President Romulo Betancourt emerged unscathed today after an abortive 12-hour revolt yesterday in which insurgents made a bold bid to capture the president and overthrow his year-old revolutionary cabinet.

"All is okay," Betancourt told newsmen last night. He said all the insurgents either had been captured or had fled the country. There were no fatalities and only a few wounded, he added.

Many of the insurgents—seeing that their revolt had failed—took refuge at the Maracay Airport which they captured at the outset of the uprising, and attempted to flee the country, the president said but most of the ships soon ran out of gas and were picked up by government forces after making forced landings.

Two ships succeeded in reaching Colombia, where both pilots and 14 mechanics surrendered to authorities. In one of the planes was Maj. Carlos Maldonado Pena, described as a leader of the revolt.

"Only a few persons were wounded during the revolt," Betancourt said, "most of them at Maracay."

MANY KILLED IN TENEMENT

Some Buried Alive Under Debris As Building Crumbles

New York, Dec. 12—(AP)—At least eight persons were dead and 38 others, including children, were believed buried under tons of debris following a five-alarm fire today in an abandoned ice house on Manhattan's upper west side, that caused a five-story wall to collapse crumpling an adjoining tenement building.

Police and firemen digging frantically against time, removed four bodies from the wreckage and said they had sighted four more. Near-by hospitals admitted more than a score of injured. Ambulances were rushed to the scene and a first aid station was set up.

Fire Marshal Thomas P. Brophy said the cause of the fire was not known. A small rubbish fire had been extinguished the day before in the ice plant, located at 484 west 184th street.

The noise of the toppling walls caused first reports to list the disaster as an explosion.

UN Group Okays Basic Principals

Sub-Committee Approves Program For Arms Limitation Providing Inspection And Controls Free Of Big Power Veto

By MAX HARBELSON New York, Dec. 12—(AP)—A United Nations sub-committee today approved the basic principles of a world wide arms limitation program providing for inspection and control machinery free of the big power veto.

With unexpected speed, the 20-nation group went through a draft resolution paragraph by paragraph and approved the entire draft with only two amendments.

After the measure was approved in full, the U. S. sought to add another paragraph providing that nothing in the resolution would alter or limit the work of the atomic energy commission which now is trying to devise world atomic controls.

A debate on this issue was touched off when Soviet Delegate Vishinsky of Russia objected to its inclusion, but most of the delegates felt that no major principle was involved and that their main task was completed.

As soon as the U. S. Amendment was disposed of the plan was to be then submitted to the 54-nation political committee of the assembly and then to the assembly itself for final action.

The new provisions injected into the arms plan:

1. Added a requirement that any program adopted by the security council must be approved by a special session of the 54-nation general assembly in addition to a stipulation already accepted that it must be ratified by individual U. N. member states.

2. Laid down a specific condition that any arms reduction program must provide for the control of atomic energy to the extent necessary to ensure its use only for peaceful purposes.

Polish delegate Oscar Lange had sought to have the Spanish debate postponed because of light attendance at the session but was voted down 21 to 18.

The sub-committee on arms reduction drove ahead with its work as assembly president Paul Henri Spaak of Belgium announced he was prepared to stay in New York until Christmas, 1946, if necessary to break the stalemate over the arms reduction and troop census plans.

Secretary of State Byrnes was reported ready to intervene in the discussions for the first time but probably not before tomorrow.

UN SPEEDS UP SITE REPORT

Rockefeller Offer Halts Session To Vote Choice Delay

Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 12—(AP)—Surprised by the John D. Rockefeller, Jr. offer of an $8,500,000 permanent headquarters site in New York City when it actually was in session to vote on postponing the whole question a year, the United Nations site committee worked overtime today preparing for action on the proposal.

Rockefeller, in offering a mid-Manhattan area, bounded by the East River, Franklin D. Roosevelt drive, 42nd and 48th Streets, stated he had only a 30-day option on the land. The committee—already torn between Eastern and Western sites adjourned yesterday without voting postponement. A special sub-committee was named.

War Emergency Set-Up In Administration Revamped

Testimony Has Little Effect On Theo. Bilbo

Witnesses Link "Front Man" For Contractors With Senator; Cite Early Commending Of Contractors To Army Officers

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Thomas M. Polins told Senate investigators today that A. B. Friend, 1940 campaign manager for Senator Bilbo (D-Miss), was the "promoter" and "front man" for a group of contractors who got a $1,731,029 contract to build an army airfield at Meridian, Miss.

Now retired, Robins is former assistant chief of army engineers. He said that A. B. Friend appeared in Washington on behalf of the contractors.

The retired army officer testified at hearings by the Senate War Investigating Committee on charges that Bilbo received many gifts, including more than $30,000 cash, from war contractors.

Another witness, Douglas I. McKay, special assistant to the chief of engineers, said he had heard rumors that Friend was to get a $5,000 cut in the $63,175 fixed fee to be paid the contractors for their work at Meridian.

McKay added that he had no personal knowledge of such an agreement.

The testimony capped the first morning's session in the inquiry which is expected to figure in a application move to bar Senator Bilbo from taking a Senate seat when the new Congress convenes in January.

Bilbo, apparently little impressed by the testimony thus far, leaned over to the press table and remarked that Mr. Friend was the brains of the combine of four contractors which got the Meridian job.

"I know that, because he elected me twice," Bilbo added.

"If it's wrong to recommend our friend's and constituents for jobs then it disqualifies three-fourths of the Senate and all of the House."

High ranking officers testified that Bilbo got in touch with them many times about awarding of $25-$32,361 of war contracts in his own home state.

Maj. Gen. Robins, retired, told the Senate war investigating sub-committee that as early as 1940 Bilbo "brought contractors down to our offices" and recommended them for many multi-million dollar jobs.

Douglas I. McKay, retired colonel now in charge of army engineer wartime contract records, identified more than 40 different contracts that were awarded in Mississippi.

Vote tabulators said the national assembly gave Blum about 575 ballots. He needed 310 for the absolute majority.

Blum now faces the task of getting the parties to agree on a program, and on whether the rightist parties should be included in the cabinet.

RESIGNATION OF PRESIDENT STILL SOUGHT

Senator Revives Proposal Truman Quit In Favor Of Republican

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—Senator J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) credited President Truman today with a "very good job" in handling the coal strike crisis but hung to his recommendation that the Chief Executive resign in favor of a Republican.

Despite a barrage of criticism from both fellow Democrats and Republicans, the 41-year-old lawmaker said he still is convinced that Mr. Truman should step down for the good of the country and "for the good of his party."

Fulbright, former Oxford scholar and university president, first advanced his proposal the day after the November 5 election in which the Republicans swept to control of Congress.

Mr. Truman himself brushed aside any comment, but the White House made it clear the President had no intention of quitting.

"My suggestion is not a reflection on anyone's integrity, patriotism, or anything else," the senator told a reporter today. "It would merely correct an obvious defect in our present system which has resulted when the President is a member of one party and the majority of Congress another."

The Arkansas senator continued, unless the President retires in favor of a Republican, these things

UNRRA POLICY CAUSES SPLIT

Closing Of Relief Agency Debated; LaGuardia Hits Double-Talk

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—An American-Soviet dispute threatened today to precipitate a wide-open fight in the 48-nation UNRRA council over the method of winding up aid to war-blighted nations.

At issue is more than $625,000,000 in unexpended UNRRA funds for relief shipments abroad.

Russia, through its chief delegate, Nikolai Feonov, has demanded that: 1. Existing contracts for UNRRA aid to needy countries be carried out to the letter, and

2. That UNRRA, officially scheduled to end Dec. 31, continue until April, 1947.

Both proposals encountered immediate, bitter opposition from the American delegate, C. Tyler Wood.

"The receiving countries must not be deprived of the promised relief only because some calendar date arrives," Feonov told the delegates at yesterday's stormy session.

"The question is, will UNRRA fulfill its programs or will it terminate its activities leaving the programs unfulfilled and the funds unused?"

Wood vigorously defended the United States policy, and reaffirmed this country's insistence that "where greater needs in other areas can be shown, funds may be shifted between countries."

Director General Fiorello H. LaGuardia, who alternately had the delegates chuckling and scowling with his accusations of too much "diplomatic double talk" in the council, bitterly assailed the U. S. proposal to give future aid "when needed."

LaGuardia suggested the so-called Soviet bloc would get the short end of the stick in any program juggling.

Truman Cleans House; Abolishes Former Key Offices And Merges Powers Of Dying Control Agencies; Names Successors To Wyatt; Steelman Now Assistant To President

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—President Truman today revamped the entire war emergency set-up. He abolished the war mobilization and reconversion office and named John R. Steelman as assistant to the President.

The President made public at his news conference an executive order under which he named Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming as head of a new office of temporary controls, which will carry on remaining functions of OPA, OWMR, the Civilian Production Administration and the Office of Economic Stabilization.

Steelman, the new assistant to the president, has been reconversion director and economic stabilizer.

Mr. Truman at the same time named Raymond M. Foley as housing administrator and Frank R. Creedon as housing expediter, the two posts recently relinquished by Wilson Wyatt after a controversy with the RFC over loans for prefabricated housing.

In an executive order the president abolished the wage stabilization board as of February 24, and the economic stabilization board immediately.

The chief executive made it clear that he has no intention of abandoning rent controls.

In response to reporters' questions as to whether an immediate increase in rent ceilings was in prospect, Mr. Truman said that he had no plans to order such an increase.

He added, however, that there was a possibility that some increases might be under consideration by OPA.

The president said that he was having an over all conference on the housing program at 3 p. m. today.

He said those to participate will include Fleming, RFC director G. E. Allen, Steelman, Creedon and Maj. Gen. Robert S. Littlejohn, war assets administrator.

Carolina-Bound Liquor Captured

Columbus, O., Dec. 12—(AP)—State liquor agents announced today the confiscation of an estimated $12,000 worth of liquor being hauled illegally across Ohio under a camouflage of Christmas trees to the state of North Carolina.

Harlan T. Chapman, enforcement chief, said the truck was stopped in Van Wert last night.

Chapman said an incomplete check showed at least 275 cases of different kinds of liquor stowed in the semi-trailer, with only a few Christmas trees stowed in a false back. The driver carried an invoice showing only trees in his cargo, Chapman added.

Armies Poised For Offensive

Peking, Dec. 12—(AP)—Government sources today said more than 30,000 Chinese Communist troops are lined up for 200 miles along the north bank of the Sungari River, poised to strike south into national territory.

Only a spark is needed to touch off a Communist offensive, they added. Sand has been spread over the frozen Sungari to facilitate crossings.

The Communists continued to pour reinforcements into three areas north of Changchun. National authorities said the Communist forces were fashioned into an arch 50 to 80 miles north of the Manchurian capital.

Pair Will Face Treason Charges

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—An Army plane bearing Robert Best, native South Carolinian, from Europe to face charges of treason was scheduled to arrive here today.

Also on the plane with Best is Douglas Chandler, who also is accused of having broadcast Nazi propaganda over Radio Berlin.

A Justice Department official told reporters that the two probably will be promptly arraigned on treason charges before Federal Judge Bolitha J. Laws. They were indicted in 1943.

The official said a special federal grand jury probably will be asked to return a new indictment against the pair on the basis of new evidence uncovered in Europe by Justice Department agents.

Wind-Up Of UNRRA

Plans Being Laid To Close Books Of Relief Organization; How It Was Begun; Its Early Aims; UNRRA's Work; America's Role; The Financing Of Relief

Washington, Dec. 12—(AP)—Plans are being laid here for the wind-up soon of UNRRA—the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

What is UNRRA? How was it formed? What are some of the things it has done?

In case you have forgotten, it was clear long before the war ended that some of the countries turned into battlefields would have to have help to get back on their feet.

They were beat down so far they never could do it alone.

Seeing that, the United States in 1942 formed its own office of foreign relief and rehabilitation (OFRR). Its first big job was to follow the troops in the North African invasion and take relief to the population there.

Herbert H. Lehman of New York headed the agency. He was governor of his state but resigned a Hosts for the event were the Wilmington Transportation and Santa Catalina Island companies and the Los Angeles and Chicago National League ball clubs. G. V. Smith, Greenville, N. C., was among the guests.

Methodist Christmas Service
The Wesley Foundation Players presented a very unusual Christmas service on Sunday night in Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church. The first part of the service was a dramatic monologue, "Incarnate," written and acted by James Warren of Greenville. This was an interpretation of the real meaning of Christmas—the coming of God to earth in the human form of Jesus, and the need for the incarnation of His spirit in the hearts of men. The action took place in the Chancel, which had been stripped of all furnishings and lighted to give the effect of a portion of the interior of a church. A man, recently discharged from overseas service, tortured by the conflict raging within his mind as he tries to find the meaning of life in these troubled times, goes into the church and there, under the stained-glass window of the Good Shepherd, faces his questions frankly and calls upon God to give him insight and help. As the ancient carols sound from the distance and the words of "The Agincourt Song" come to his ears:

"O Love, how deep, how wide, how high!

How passing thought and fantasy,
That God, the Son of God should take
Our mortal form for mortals' sake!"

he becomes aware of the presence of God and falls upon his knees in thankfulness for the gift of Jesus Christ to the world and for the coming of His spirit into his own heart and life. The interpretation was sincere and reverent and carried over effectively to the congregation. The carols were sung by The Wesley Choir under the direction of Mr. Ed Parkinson, with Mrs. Helen Zechiel Dail and Mr. Parkinson, soloists.

At the conclusion of the dramatic monologue, the altar was set up and Rev. Robert W. Bradshaw conducted the silent communion. The only lighting was from candles and organ selections from Bach were played by Mrs. Eleanor Toll, Mrs. Toll also played familiar carols on the chimes at the beginning of the service.

This service was presented by the Wesley Foundation of East Carolina Teachers College as their contribution to the Christmas observance of the church.

Training School P. T. A.
The parents and teachers of the Training School were delightfully entertained by the Glee Club which presented a program of Christmas music at the meeting which was held on Wednesday December 11. The program, under the direction of Miss Martha Cammack, was composed of the following: "There's a Song in the Air," "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks," "Joy to the World," "C. Come All Ye Faithful" and "Angels We Have Heard on High." These were accompanied by Miss Cammack. Roy Taylor was soloist. The following group of songs were "A Capella" with Bobby Faulkner as soloist. "Once Long Ago," "Lo How a Rose E'er Blooming" and "Silent Night," were particularly beautiful, showing much work by members of the Glee Club and excellent training.

Mrs. Vance Perkins had the rare pleasure of presenting her father, Dr. H. Frederick Jones, who spoke briefly on "The Spiritual Growth of the Child."

Dr. Jones began his remarks by quoting Margaret Fuller who said when looking upon her new-born baby: "God be merciful to me I am the mother of an immortal." He stressed the importance of children in the world by pointing out the way in which Jesus regarded them, wonderful words written about them and their comparison with pictures, flowers and other beautiful things. Every present situation has its roots in the past. Trace the trail back and you will come to the crib of a child," says Dr. Jones. He pointed out the following great factors in character building which he says is another way of saying spiritual growth: heritage, instruction at home and school, example, environment and grace of God.

Inter Se Club
"Religion in India," a timely and thought-provoking subject, was presented by Mrs. L. M. Buchanan to the Inter Se Club at its meeting on December 10.

Of the 400 million people who live in India, two-thirds belong to the Hindu faith and one-fourth are Moslems whose religion is Mohammedanism. The other one-twelfth are divided among many minor sects including the Jains, Parsis and Christians. To an Indian religion does not mean just going to church or believing in any particular god or creed. It is his way of life. It is the way he eats, drinks, works, and gets along with his neighbors. It is the way in which man adjusts himself to the world in which he lives. Thus Mrs. Buchanan prefaced her discussion of the religions of the Hindus and the Moslems.

"Hinduism is at once a religion, a philosophy, a social system, and a pattern for life," stated Mrs. Buchanan. But one feature which seems strange to us is that there is no Hindu church. There are holy temples where people go to worship on special occasions. But most of the ceremonies of Hinduism are performed in the home.

The Moslems are followers of Mohammed. Their creed is, "There is no god but Allah, and Mohammed is his prophet." Orthodox Moslems repeat this creed five times a day turning their heads toward Mecca, the birthplace of the prophet. Their sacred book is the Koran.

According to E. Stanley Jones,

Hinduism has a definite contribution to make to the world, stated Mrs. Buchanan. He names five values which he says constitute the very core of the Indian heritage: first, that the ultimate real is spirit; second, that sense of the unity of things; third, that there is a strict justice at the heart of all things; fourth, the passion for inner freedom; fifth, that religion demands all and holds all.

Out of a subject race came the Christian gospel in the beginning and it may be that out of another subject race may come its clarification and re-orientation. There are those who feel that the next great spiritual impact upon the soul of the race is due to come by way of India, concluded Mrs. Buchanan.

After the program Mrs. Sem Underwood, hostess of the afternoon, served a delicious salad course. She was assisted by Mrs. H. W. Winstead.

Greene County Boy's Record Corn Crop

College Station, Dec. 12.—Carlos Jones, son of Walter Jones, Route 2, Walstonburg, and a member of the Walstonburg 4-H Club, tops the list of hybrid corn yields from Greene County with 122 bushels of corn per acre, according to J. W. Grant, assistant farm agent for the State College Extension Service. Picking "the best piece of land on the place" for his project, on which soybeans had been turned under for the past two years, Carlos used 400 pounds of 4-10-6 fertilizer at planting and at the second cultivation. He topped his corn with 300 pounds of quick acting nitrogen material, 20% per cent nitrogen. He spaced his T1 hybrid corn 17 inches apart in rows that were three feet, nine inches. It was given two shallow cultivations with a cultivator.

Agent Grant reports that the 100-bushel mark has also been passed by Wilton Mewborn, son of A. B. Mewborn, Route 3, Snow Hill, a member of the Snow Hill 4-H Club. Using hybrid T23, Wilton fertilized with 400 pounds of 3-12-6 at planting and 400 pounds of Cal-Nitro as topdressing.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

FRIENDSHIP OUT OF ENMITY

John Adams, second president of the United States, and Thomas Jefferson, third president, were such bitter enemies that Adams left the national capital the night before the inauguration of his successor because of the latter hatred he bore the man. Years later they were reconciled. Letters from a most cordial nature passed between them for a number of years, and so instructive were their comments on matters of government that scholars ever since have held these letters in the greatest esteem. By one of the strangest coincidences in human history, these two men died on the same day—July 4, 1826, which was also the 50th anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, an event with which both men had been prominently connected.

Certainly as these two able men in the twilight of their lives wrote to each other, they must have been filled with a sense of the emptiness and futility of malice. They had cherished a grudge each against the other for a number of years. Adams to his death remained a strong Federalist, and Jefferson with the passing years became more deeply committed to a political philosophy precisely the opposite from that held by Adams.

The years taught the two great lessons, namely, that grudges never pay and that people do not need to be in agreement on all points in order to be civil with one another.

WASHINGTON LETTER

SILENT BREAKFAST FOR MEDICATIONS ON FEDERAL TRAD

By JANE EADS

Washington—Federal Trade Commissioner Lowell Mason breakfasts once a month with his assistants, and doesn't utter a word. Neither do they.

These quiet breakfasts, held in the commissioner's private dining room and attended by about 40 or 50 employees, from trial attorneys to secretaries, were Commissioner Mason's own idea.

They were designed to give employees a chance to take time out from their routine duties and every day problems to rest their mind and meditate on spiritual aspects over their eggs and coffee.

Commissioner Mason's idea for the "quiet breakfasts" grew out of the practice he and other lawyers had of meeting for an occasional quiet lunch when he was practicing law in Chicago.

The breakfasts usually start at 8 a. m. with tomato juice, scrambled eggs, biscuits and coffee.

The only person who opens his or her mouth other than for the purpose of popping in some food is a speaker invited to say a few inspirational words.

Though Commissioner Mason is a Unitarian, his "quiet breakfasts" are non-sectarian. Speakers who have addressed the group over a series of 11 breakfasts have included Catholic priests, Protestant ministers and Jewish rabbis.

A columnist for Corps Diplomatique, a Washington publication, tells an amusing anecdote about Under Secretary of State Dean Acheson. Mr. Acheson was addressing a group of ambassadors and ministers after dinner one evening.

At the end of his talk Acheson said: "Of course, all I know is what I learned at my mother's knee—and other joints."

The quota of gift boxes for members of the American Junior Red Cross this year is 1,000,000, double the 500,000 sent last year.

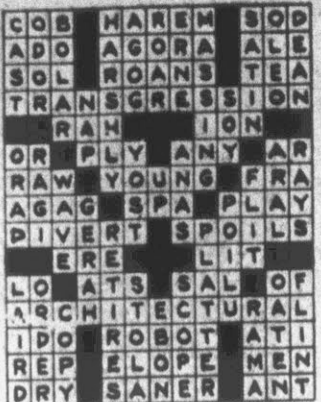

The packing and shipping of these boxes is a year-round business with the youngsters, but they concentrate most of their efforts on the Christmas packages.

More than 19,000,000 American school children are members of the Junior Red Cross. Members, by voluntary contribution, maintain a National Children's Fund.

Red Cross headquarters report that more than $2,500,000 worth

Albanian Incident . . .

The Albanian incident has been the United States and Britain withheld recognition of the government. The Albanians, however, not only jumped aboard the Hoxha bandwagon, but apparently took over the reins. Russian Minister Dimitri Tehuavkin arrived last January with a staff of experts which one source counted at 400, and the number has been reported greatly augmented since. There have been additional reports of whole Russian Army units and hundreds of officers forming the nucleus of the new Albanian Army which is reported to total some 100,000 men out of a total population of 1,000,000. After the axis surrender and prior to the advent of the Hoxha government, Albanians remembered the days when the United States and Britain parachuted men and supplies into their axis-occupied country. American missions reported their situation in the country up to November, 1946, as "tolerable." But since then the anti-Western campaign has been growing apace, resulting in withdrawal of American representatives from the country.

ing body was a council composed of representatives from each of the 44 member nations. The financing plan was this: Each nation was to put in an amount equal to one per cent of its national income for the 12 months ending June 30, 1943. But the invaded nations were not to contribute. That cut the number of contributing nations down to 31. And it let out Russia and France among others, as contributors. The plan meant, too, that the United States would put in between 70 and 75 per cent of the money. Actually, it has supplied $2,700,000,000. Britain, next biggest contributor, has put in $622,025,000. (A recent statistical summary of UNRRA figured the value of its total shipments through the end of this year would be $2,945,000,000.) All the member nations have had a voice in the spending and in fix-

1. There will be no cooperation between the Republican Congress and the Democratic Administration and the next two years will be spent in "squabbling, investigations and attempts to show the democratic party is no good."

2. The Republicans probably will win the 1948 election, and democratic strength in Congress may decline to the same level the Republicans sank to at the peak of the New Deal.

3. Mr. Truman may leave office in 1948 under much the same circumstances as when President Hoover stepped out in 1932 after trying in vain to cooperate with democratic congressional majorities for two years.

In Yugoslavia, for instance, the head of the UNRRA mission is a Russian. Missions are sent to nations asking aid. These are staffs which receive and consider requests from the local governments. The requests, with recommendations, are sent on to UNRRA headquarters where final decisions are made. Actual distribution of goods sent may be made through the local government. That government can, and often does, sell the goods to its people.

UNRRA doesn't go around looking for a chance to pass out relief. None is extended unless it is asked. France, Belgium and some other invaded countries have not asked any relief.

UNRRA hasn't just sent food and clothing. Remember that word rehabilitation. works, cement plants, glass factories, agricultural machinery—fundamental things to rebuild homes and industries.

Negro Youth Facing Trial For Felonies
Paul Harper, Jr., 16-year-old Negro boy, who yesterday completed a six months sentence on the roads for robbing two places, was turned over to local police to be tried on two other charges of robbery.

Harper was tried in Police Court last summer for breaking and entering and larceny. Authorities asked the court to change the charge against the boy to trespass. Harper was given six months on the roads. Shortly after he went to prison police discovered that he had broken into two other places and robbed them. Authorities filed a detainer with the State Penal Division and they returned Harper here. This time he will be sent up to Superior Court to be tried on the felony charges.

Pirates Rout Visiting Cagers By 51-31 Score

The East Carolina Teachers College Pirates, led by Jim Taylor, forward, routed the Lousburg College Phantoms last night by a margin of 51-31. Coach Johnson's cagemen took an early lead and were never headed for the remainder of the game. Jim Taylor, who had registered 33 points in three previous games, hit the hoops for 12 points in the first half, and Doug Jozias tossed in 3 goals to help give E. C. T. C. its 26-10 lead at the half time. In the second half, the whole

Play Tonight

The Phantoms of Greenville High open the cage season tonight with a two game program at the high school gym. The Junior team from Wilson and Greenville tangle in the preliminary game at 7:30 p. m. and the senior teams play the main event: immediately afterwards.

Pirate team joined forces in running up the score with lanky Jack Everton, 6' 7" center, leading the parade. Lousburg found the Teachers' defense strong, as C. B. Moye turned in a stellar performance. Leading the Phantoms' scoring was Finch and Harrelson, with 8 and 6 points respectively.

Predicts Upsets For Cage Teams

Kansas City, Dec. 12—(AP)—The same things that happened in football the past season—many close games and upsets by the dozens—are going to happen in the 1946-47 basketball campaigns over the country, says Coach Gene "Piggy" Lambert of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

Lambert, who sent his towering Southwest Conference Porkers against the Nebraska Cornhuskers in the opening game of the all-big six conference pre-season basketball tournament today, predicted a season in which most games will be won by "one or two points."

"It's going to take a lot of class and plenty of luck to win a conference championship this winter," Lambert said. "Every school is going to have a better basketball team and that means everybody will take a few lickings."

Glenn Davis To Stay In Service

Claremont, Calif., Dec. 12—(AP)—Take it from Pop Davis, his illustrious son, Glenn, of the U. S. Military Academy's football team doesn't intend to resign from West Point after his athletic career is wound up.

Ralph Davis had just returned from the East, where he saw Glenn play his final Army game, against the Naval academy. Glenn has had both professional baseball and football offers, but his dad denied he had any thought of accepting them.

Apostoli Making Great Comeback

Oakland, Calif., Dec. 12—(AP)—Former world middleweight title claimant Fred Apostoli, 159, San Francisco, scored his seventh consecutive victory in a comeback campaign last night when he punched out a 10-round decision over Paul Lewis, 158 1-2, Oakland, in a grueling fight at the Oakland auditorium. Belting his younger rival with stiff blows to the body and closing the tough Oakland trial horse's right eye with bristling lefts, Apostoli impressed the capacity house with his return to something like the oldtime form that saw him among the top-ranking middleweights.

CIO Argument . . .

Such national forecasting completely disregards the fact that, in the most prosperous times, many firms and even whole industries are losing money.

Increased production in the services . . .

"We have a tremendous demand for electric, water, gas and sewer facilities," he said, "our plants are congested in supplying current . . ."

For example, the water plants have a normal capacity of 1,500,000 gallons per day . . .

but 1,750,000 gallons are being produced, and must be produced if the utilities are to keep up with the rate of current consumption. Future needs require added facilities.

(Contemplated plans for the water plant should the Utilities bond issue be approved, include the building of a new establishment with a capacity of three million gallons per day. The present water plant does not meet requirements of the State Board of Health and its present condition, there is no way to alter or re-arrange the plant to meet these requirements.)

The electric plant facilities have been described as inadequate under their present condition rendering them incapable of meeting emergency requirements. The tentative share of funds obtained through the bond issue will be used to enlarge the present set-up to give them an increase of 50 percent of their present capacity.

Warren R. Austin, U. S. delegate who transmitted the Rockefeller proposal, indicated the New York site would be the one favored by the U. S. delegation and said flatly he considered the new proposal as "the best site I have heard of."

He maintained the area was located centrally but "even more, there will be no dislocation of citizens" because there are no homes in the area and much of it already has been razed.

Police pulled from the wreckage Joseph Popper, Jr., nine years old. He had cried and shouted until aid reached him. He said his brother and sister were trapped.

Special emergency crews tearing at the wreckage with bars, picks and bare hands came across the pitiful remnants of gaily wrapped Christmas packages, holly and bits of tinsel.

Blum's most outstanding role since was liberated from a German prison camp in May, 1945, was the negotiation of the United States loan to France last spring.

The new cabinet he would be called upon to form is scheduled to last until mid-January, when a permanent government is to be established.

N. M. S. Ham was selected President for the new year, as was G. Fleming to the post of District Chairman of Greenville.

A report on the developments at Camp Charles, owned and operated by the Council was made. It was asserted that it situated in the hands of the Committee not later than February, enough improvements could be made during the early months of next year to enable the Scouts to camp there in the summer.

"Pilot error," said the cryptic Army statement. The name of the pilot and the number of passengers aboard on the one-hour flight were not disclosed.

(Continued From Page One) where the fighting was most serious. Loyal troops recaptured Maracaibo Airport late this afternoon. It was the last point of resistance. Isaias) Medina Angarita, both former presidents and leaders of the party overthrown in the revolution of Oct. 18, 1945."

MEAT LOAF RING Combine 4 cups day-old bread crumbs (loosely packed) 1 cup milk, and let stand while preparing remaining ingredients. Add 3 tsp. B-V dissolved in 1/4 cup hot water 1 Clear Brook Egg, beaten slightly 1 tsp. salt 1/2 tsp. pepper 3 tsp. onion, chopped fine 2 lbs. ground meat (1 lb. beef, 1/2 lb. each of pork and veal preferred) Mix thoroughly and pour into greased ring mold or loaf pan. Place upside-down in a shallow baking pan and bake at 325° F. for 20 minutes. Remove mold and continue baking at 350° F. for 30 minutes. Serves 10. Where There's a Will There's a Way If you don't have a ring mold, don't let that stop you . . . make one by putting an oiled jelly glass in the center of a casserole and fill the meat mixture in around it. You may use either Certified Margarine or Clear Brook Butter in making the hard sauce. Cordially, George Rector
