Baruch Asks OK Of U.S. Program

Calls For Quick Action By Atomic Energy Commission To Harness Atom; Emphasis Firm Stand Will Not Accept Change Of Purpose; "We Have Debated Long Enough"

Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Bernard M. Baruch formally called upon the United Nations atomic energy commission today to approve the U. S. plan for harnessing the atom.

In a brief speech to the full meeting of the commission, Baruch said that the question had been debated long enough and that the time for action had come.

Baruch, the U. S. representative of the atomic energy commission came to the meeting with the determination to push for a decision as soon as possible.

The commission is considering policy for its political committee to follow in drafting the recommendations section of a report the commission must make to the United Nations Security Council by December 31.

Emphasizing that the U. S. stood firm on its plan first put forward last June 14, Baruch said: "We have no pride of authorship but we cannot in justice to our trust, accept changes in purpose. We have debated long enough."

He said that the debates on arms limitations in the United Nations general assembly and the speeches of Molotov, Russian foreign minister, and Ernest Bevin, British foreign secretary had covered much of the ground on atomic matters.

Referring to Secretary Byrnes' speech to the assembly, Baruch said that Byrnes had brought the United Nations and the public to a refreshed understanding of the fact that abstractions have been debated, and it is now up to us to make the atomic commission to present an immediate, a practical and realistic program.

Apparently referring to the top priority given the atomic problem by the general assembly is its responsibility.

PARLIAMENT IN TUMULT OVER PRESS REPORT

Leftwing Laborite Starts Furore Looking For Arms Informant

London, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Left Wing Laborite Konni Zilliacus failed to find out in the House of Commons today who told the Associated Press last October 30 that Britain and the United States were planning to standardize their land, naval and air weapons.

Zilliacus first inquired "on what authority the war office informed a U. S. news agency" of the arms talks.

"My department issued no such statement," War Minister F. J. Bellenger replied.

Zilliacus then asked if Bellenger was aware that the Associated Press sent a series of dispatches to the U. S. Oct. 30 containing the arms story and much other information and saying it was received from the war office public relations officer.

"That is not my information," Bellenger replied. "I understand the Associated Press copied a story as from authoritative British sources. That is certainly not the way of the office."

"The story quoted authoritative British military informants."

"The Associated Press informed their editor," Zilliacus began, but the rest of the remark was drowned by shouts from the conservative benches.

"Shut up you yahoos," Laborite David Kirkwood called out before the tumult subsided.

Prime Minister Attlee said recently that Britain would be willing to conduct similar talks with the Russians, but added that the Russians had shown no similar willingness.

TERRY LEAVES FOR HEARING

Bilbo's Secretary To Report On Financial Dealings

Meridian, Miss., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Edward P. Terry left today for Washington, indicating he will report on financial dealings involving Senator Bilbo during his seven years as secretary to the Mississippi senator.

Terry is to testify before a Senate sub-committee investigating Bilbo's purported war contract activities. He is due in Washington early Wednesday morning.

"I am prepared to testify," Terry declared in an interview. "If the committee will be patient with me, I'll review the entire seven years of my efforts in behalf of the people of Mississippi, regardless of political affiliation where in the end, I have destroyed my health and Bilbo has greatly increased his financial resources through my efforts."

Terry said he had made out the checks by which F. T. Newton Hattiesburg, Miss., contractor handling war contracts, donated $25,000 purportedly to the 1942 campaign of Wall Doxey, who ran unsuccessfully for the U. S. Senate against James O. Eastland.

"I was in the hotel with Senator Bilbo and Mr. Doxey," Terry added. "They asked me to make out the checks, and I did after asking."

Services Reach Accord On Overseas Commands

Army And Navy Agree On Unified Command For Armed Forces Abroad But Merger At Home Subject Of Wrangling

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The Army and Navy agreed today on a unified command for armed forces abroad but left unsettled the wrangle over merger at home.

The joint chiefs of staff, with the bitter experience of Pearl Harbor's dual command in mind, clamored for a unified command by announcing a plan under which overseas forces will be under the operational command of a single command—Army, Navy or Air as the situation dictates. The plan was approved by President Truman.

The establishment of seven overseas commands among other things whittled away some of the domain of Gen. Douglas MacArthur and put over Navy say areas of the Pacific he had controlled. It also reestablished some pre-war commands and created a new northeast command in details as yet undisclosed.

Concurrently with the announcement of the single command plan for overseas organizations came a congressional committee recommendation in another field of combined operation.

The House Military Committee proposed that permanent legal status be given to the national intelligence authority established by President Truman last January.

That agency was created to weave together the intelligence operations of various government agencies including the Army, Navy, State, Navy's Office of Naval Intelligence and units of the State Department which include vestiges of the wartime Office of Strategic Services.

Members of the committee said, the state and Navy secretaries or deputies chosen by them for intelligence activities. The three secretaries, along with a member appointed by the President, were named in the authority as created a year ago.

As a permanent set-up, the committee said the agency should get its money directly from Congress and should have complete control of its personnel rather than receive its employees from the three departments.

The joint chiefs of staff plan was variously interpreted by those interested in the service unification argument.

Maj. Gen. William H. Arnold, deputy chief of staff for operations and planning in the Army, replied to reporters questions with a statement that "this is the closest approximation you could get without having unification" of the two departments. The Army has urged such a merger, the Navy has opposed it.

BLUM CABINET EXPECTED TO BE APPROVED

First All-Socialist Cabinet In French History Awaits Verdict

Paris, Dec. 17.—An all-Socialist cabinet, the first in French history and the first government formed under the fourth republic, was scheduled for submission to the National Assembly amid general predictions that it would be approved.

Leon Blum, whom the assembly chose premier-president last week picked the cabinet exclusively from his own party yesterday after failing to bring together communists and centrist-rightist parties in a national union government. Maurice Thorez, communist party secretary general, said communists deputies would vote for the cabinet.

Blum's action followed initial communist opposition to inclusion of extreme right elements in the cabinet and opposition by the center-right republicans to a communist demand for the majority of defense.

In announcing his decision Blum said he had acted to save France from a perilous situation. The new cabinet will serve only until a permanent government can be set up in mid-January. It held its first meeting last night and Blum told the group "no ministerial existence will be brief, but we shall do everything so that it will be productive."

In forming his government, Blum reduced the portfolios from 24 to 17, eliminating the food ministry for one. He himself took over foreign affairs. Others appointed included old-time Socialists, resistance workers, a banker, a woman and a Senegalese.

The 74-year-old Blum was called back to head the government a third time in the face of a deadlock in the assembly, where communists rank first, the MRP second and the socialists third in representation but none has a majority. President of the council George Bidault MRP, and his coalition ministers had resigned and both he and Thorez had failed to be elected premier-president.

BYRNES HAILS WORK OF BIG FOUR AND UN

Progress Toward Unity Of Action Said Cause For Rejoicing

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes today hailed the achievements of the Big Four Council of Foreign Ministers and the United Nations Assembly as cause for rejoicing.

In his first Washington news conference in nearly two months, however, Byrnes told reporters that the progress made in the international huddles and the progress toward unity which the big powers made there do not mean that all the difficulties have been overcome.

Just back from New York and looking fit, he expressed particular pleasure over the foreign ministers' agreement to appoint deputies and make a start on getting together in a settlement with Austria and a peace pact with Germany.

"The quicker we get a treaty with Austria, the quicker occupation troops can be withdrawn, he pointed out.

Byrnes also: 1. Reviewed Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's assurance that communications facilities—as adequate as those provided in New York and the previous foreign ministers' meeting in Paris—will be made available for correspondents when the foreign ministers resume their conferences in Moscow in March.

2. Acknowledged that more than 8,000 applications for immigration visas to this country are being held up in Europe because of lack of office help and space in Dublin.

3. Said that Italy's application for $100,000,000 from the Export-Import Bank is still under advisement.

Relates Emergency Meeting To Raise Funds To Meet Loan Made To Senator; Asserts State's "Corrupt Practices Act" Of No Effect; Huge Sums Spent In Campaigns

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Forrest Jackson, attorney for Senator Bilbo (D-Miss) testified today that friends of the lawmaker attended an emergency meeting in 1940 to raise funds to pay back $3,000 borrowed by Bilbo.

Jackson told a Senate war investigating subcommittee that Bilbo had borrowed the money from Abe Shusman, New Orleans wholesale dry goods merchant, and that Shusman had been threatening to disclose information about the loan.

Jackson testified that Edward P. Terry, former Bilbo secretary, called a meeting in Jackson, Miss., in August, 1940, to discuss a matter of grave importance.

The session was attended, Jackson said, by himself, Terry, the late Grant Stewart of New Hebron Miss., naval stores merchant.

Previous witnesses have testified that Shusman loaned Bilbo $3,000 at the request of Stewart.

Earlier, Jackson expressed the opinion that hundreds of thousands of dollars can be spent in Mississippi campaigns despite a state corrupt practices act.

Jackson was questioned by Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.).

After asking about the alleged payment of $11,000 to former Rep. Ross Collins' campaign manager after Collins lost his bid for a senatorial nomination in 1942, Ferguson queried: "How did you get around the Mississippi corrupt practices act? You did not report this as a campaign expenditure."

Jackson replied that only the (Continued on Page Eight)

Police Break Up Teen-Aged Gang

Denver, Dec. 17.—(AP)—A group of 20 teen-aged boys and girls, described by Policeman Phil Thompson of the Denver Juvenile Bureau as the most highly organized gang in the city's history, was in custody today.

Officers said the gang, which included four 14-year-old girls, was "so well organized that the town was divided into districts and thefts were made in that manner."

Thompson declared one youth questioned concerning a robbery, replied, "No, that wasn't in our territory."

Police said more than $5,000 in loot, ranging from typewriters, to automobiles and clothing, reportedly was taken by the gang since it began operating last August.

Thompson said 18 of the youths were 16 years old or less. The youngest is 12.

Presidency Not For Vandenberg

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) announced today "I am not a candidate for the presidential nomination and I anticipate no campaign in my behalf."

The senator, one of Secretary of State Byrnes' advisers at the recent peace conferences, read off the statement at a packed news conference in his office.

"The Republican task at hand is exclusively one of now justifying our November victory," he asserted. Vandenberg has been considered one of the half dozen outstanding possibilities for the Republican nomination in 1948.

When the 1948 question was posed in the news conference, Vandenberg said with a smile that he had been expecting it. He picked up the slip of paper and read his statement.

New Housing Chiefs Silent To Criticism

Retiring Officials Term Program A "Fraud" And Political Move; Industrial Endorses Policy Of Decontrol

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Top housing officials, declining to take notice of the storm of controversy President Truman's revamped home building program had aroused, went into a huddle today to work out specific details.

Housing Expediter Frank R. Creighton and National Housing Administrator Raymond M. Foley of the National Housing Agency met in silence contentions by a retiring deputy and by a CIO official that the new program would curtail the number of new homes for veterans.

Norton E. Lang, a deputy administrator under Wilson W. Wyatt, who acted as both expediter and NHA boss, handed reporters a statement in which he challenged the administration "to show how the new program's so-called incentives to encourage rental housing are anything but a fraud perpetrated on veterans for political expediency."

Lang resigned yesterday, ten days after Wyatt had quit in protest against what he termed "business as usual" methods.

A housing agency spokesman said Creighton and Foley did not care to "dignify" Lang's statement with a reply.

Fresh industry support for the program came meanwhile from H. R. Northrup, secretary-manager of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association, who contended that rapid construction of new homes had been made practical and possible for the first time since the (Continued on Page Four)

BOND ISSUE WAS CARRIED

Almost No Opposition To Improving Utilities Plants

By CHESTER WALSH

The special bond election yesterday for $600,000 for enlargements and improvements at the water and electric departments was carried with almost no opposition.

The total vote cast was 276. For $400,000 for waterworks, 276 votes; against, 9.

For $400,000 for electric plant, 272 votes; against, 14.

The bond election had been extensively advertised for some time. The need for enlargements and improvements at the water and electric plants was thoroughly explained and it was shown that the Greenville Utilities is a profitable institution for the city. It was also explained that the bond issue will not increase the city's tax rate.

Declining Food Prices Forecast

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Here's a cheering note for housewives:

The Agriculture Department expects food prices, now at record high levels, to drop somewhat within the next three to six months. The extent of the decline was not specified, but the department said it probably would not be as great as after World War I.

A less optimistic note was sounded for meat prices. For the remainder of the winter, these are expected to decline but little from present high levels. And in the spring, pork and lamb prices may even increase, but beef costs, particularly for the better grades, may go down.

TURKS CLAMP DOWN ON REDS

Stop Red Publications; Outlaw Communist Party Groups

Istanbul, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The Turkish Army padlocked eight publications in Istanbul today, prohibited the printing and distribution of organs of a "communist" nature and outlawed branches of two new political parties it described as "directed in a camouflaged manner by Communists and people having extremist Communist tendencies."

One usually reliable source described the actions as a "small purge" and said they might be considered a warning that the Turkish government was ready to resist any "subversive movements."

Observers in Istanbul were struck by the strong wording of the army communique announcing the swift steps and were quick to note that they coincided with a rise of anti-Communist sentiment in Iran, just to the east of Turkey, and other events regarded here as possible harbingers of a changing attitude toward Soviet Russia.

Unions Map '47 Wage Programs

Pittsburgh, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Two CIO unions—representing 850,000 United Steelworkers and 600,000 United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers—so into policy-making committee meetings today with their 1947 wage demands still undisclosed.

The United Auto Workers, third member of the CIO's "Big Three," has announced it will seek a 23-1/2 cent hourly increase for its 900,000 members.

CIO President Philip Murray, who also heads the Steelworkers Union, said yesterday it was up to the individual unions to decide what special life wage demands, if any, are to be made.

Tarheel Senator Buried With Simple Impressive Ceremony

Raleigh, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The late U. S. Senator Josiah William Bailey was buried in Oakwood Cemetery here yesterday.

His 16-year Senate career was ended by his death Sunday from a cerebral hemorrhage at his home here. Bailey had been in ill health for eight months but had shown improvements in the recent weeks.

Funeral services were conducted from Raleigh's First Baptist Church with Dr. Broadus E. Jones, pastor of the church, officiating.

Dr. Jones read the Psalms and offered a prayer giving thanks for the lives and works of great men who by their unflinching loyalties and high devotion to duty and righteousness have served God and their fellow men.

BULGAR TOWN IS SET AFIRE

Village Near Greek Border Burns; Battles In Progress

Athens, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The Bulgarian village of Ortakio, just across the Greek border, was reported afire today in one of three battles around the Greek bulge between Turkey and Bulgaria. Newspapers said at least 33 guerrilla foes of the Athens government had been killed.

Dispatches said battle sounds could be heard from the Orkio region. Unconfirmed reports told of widespread fighting in the area, but the full extent was not known or the Greek side of the frontier. The smoke from the blazing village however, was declared clearly seen from Greece.

Twenty guerrillas were reported killed in a 14-hour battle in the snow clad mountains near the Greek village of Trifyllion, at the Bulgarian frontier. (Continued on Page Two)

Reported Ready For Showdown In GOP Conference If Promised Fight Develops Against Twin Major Roles For Him

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) was described today as ready for a showdown in the Republican conference if any challenge develops to his prospective dual role as the Senate's presiding officer and foreign relations chairman.

Senator Robertson (R-Wyo.) has served notice that he is opposed to any senator's holding two jobs of a "public" nature when the Republicans take over control at the start of the new Congress.

Vandenberg reportedly has the support of Senators Wilson (R-Iowa) and Langer (R-ND) in a move aimed (1) at barring Vandenberg from two offices and (2) at preventing Senator Waite (R-Me.) from holding both the floor leadership and the chairmanship of the new commerce committee.

But friends of Vandenberg said the Michigan senator is determined to fight for the two places in the party's December 30 conference. (Continued on Page Two)

Navy Of The Future

Long-Range Planning Under Way; Leadership Vital Element; Faults Of Old Promotion System; Sweeping Changes Before New Congress On Promotions

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The United States has unconquered billions invested in its Navy and the men who run it.

Whether they run it well or poorly shows up with dramatic clarity during a war, when high-command tumbling can be fatal. Long-range planning must anticipate new weapons and methods, or endanger the country.

Who leads the Navy, or will lead it in the years ahead, is important to sailors and landlubbers alike.

One of the first things the Navy will ask Congress to approve next year will be sweeping changes in its antique promotion system, with the accent falling on younger leaders and brains.

The changes provide a pattern from midshipmen days to retirement age.

If approved, the system may have a direct bearing on what kind of inventions the Navy fosters, what types of ships and aircraft it builds what tactics it develops, what kind of a war it can fight.

These things are determined by a handful of officers who lead the Navy.

They are selected for the top responsibilities by boards of senior leaders, survivors of an inflexible laborious promotion system.

Prior to World War II, Regular Navy officers were almost invariably required to serve for an arbitrary period in one rank before going before a selection board which examined their fitness for promotion to the next higher rank.

Each step up the ladder involved a longer period of waiting for the next opportunity for promotion. Seniority in rank became more and more important.

Not all survived. An officer "passed over" twice by a selection board was retired automatically.

Critics of this system say the promotions went to those who made economic or trade policies.

The December meeting of the local W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Smith. The meeting opened with a prayer by the president, Mrs. W. T. C. Briggs.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved, also the treasurer's report. Reports were given by chairmen of different departments.

Life time membership certificates were presented to Mrs. Wiley Brown, Mrs. Betty Clark and Miss Lill Wilson. Mrs. Betty Clark was voted as mother of this union.

The corresponding secretary has written Rev. James Butler of Goldsboro thanking him for his inspiring address on the radio program Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Joseph Tripp had charge of the worship service. The scripture lesson was the second chapter of Matthew, verses 24 through twelve, closing with a prayer for peace.

Mrs. N. C. Brooks, the lady of the month, gave us a very interesting talk. She spoke about arousing interest as to the seriousness of the liquor question as faces us today.

The meeting was adjourned by the Lord's Prayer.

Strength FOR THE DAY By EARL L. DOUGLAS

STEWARDSHIP Stewardship is the act of all we possess in a way that pleases God. Great emphasis is being laid on stewardship in the Church today. A steward is a man who administers his master's goods. The Greek word which translates steward is stewardship, is built around the word meaning "house". The steward, therefore, is the man whom his lord places over his household. Translated into modern life, stewardship means a recognition of the duty every Christian has to use everything he possesses to the glory of Christ. Stewardship applies to time, ability, and position as well as to money. If we have any advantage in life, we are commanded to regard it as an opportunity to serve Christ better. Some people entertain the singular notion that the only place we can serve Christ is in the Church. The truth of the matter is that we can and should serve him in every walk of life. Stewardship is the acknowledgment of this duty and the sincerity of our acknowledgment is revealed in the extent to which we are willing to dedicate every benefit of life to the glory of God and the furtherance of Christ's kingdom. Our Lord's word was: "I require of servants that they be found faithful."

WASHINGTON LETTER

FOREIGN VISITORS FILL THE CAPITAL'S SOCIAL CALENDAR By JANE EADS Washington-The town's usual mad fall social pace has slackened a bit, with Congress away and most of the diplomatic corps off to New York for the U. N. meetings. However, distinguished visitors continue to flow in from all parts of the world, giving hostesses more than a mere drop-of-the-hat reason for throwing a party. One of these is the lawyer Marchioness of Reading, a dignified woman with iron gray hair, great charm and a reputation for leadership. As organizer of the Women's Voluntary Service in England, she had more than 1,000,000 workers under her supervision during the war. The American Women's Voluntary Service was inspired by her organization.

Lady Reading, before her marriage in 1931, was Stella Charnaud, one of a family of nine children of Charles Charnaud, who served his country in various capacities abroad. She was tutored in each country where her father happened to be stationed and speaks several languages. Her late husband was one-time Ambassador to the United States, was formerly Lord Chief Justice, Viceroy of India and Foreign Secretary. After his death Lady Reading visited Canada and the United States at the request of the Dominion Office, for which she is only woman of the Overseas Board. She has just visited Canada where she addressed women's groups on "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

Another famous visitor from Britain recently was Sir A. P. Herbert famous in London's satiric Punch and member of Parliament from Oxford. He came to town along with a lot of other celebrities to attend the Conference of the International Confederation of Composers, Authors and Publishers. The French Ambassador and Mme. Bonnet were in town long enough to entertain the group which for many years has had its headquarters in Park. Other members of the group included composer Deems Taylor (Gus Cuck), Morton Gould, composer, and two Frenchmen—Leon Malaplatte, chairman of the Society of Authors in France, and Edward Salabert, French publisher. At the height of the party at the French Embassy, Ambassador Bonnet looked over his guests and said happily: "Now we go back to fundamental preoccupations."

Delhi's Big . . .

(Continued on Page Four) of Hindu numerical majority in India will never be achieved without civil war. This war will, before it is decided, lead to an awful abridgment of the Indian population. "Awful abridgment" is right for so far as one can foresee, a civil war would have to run its course. The British are said to have only about 50,000 English troops in that vast sub-continent. Attempting to restore order with them would be like trying to police New York City with two cops. Of course there is a big native standing army but one would scarcely expect the British to try to employ that, made up as it is of both Moslems and Hindus. The only hope of averting catastrophe in India lies in finding some formula which will permit the warring factions to join forces in creating a new government to implement the independence which England has offered. Dr. Mukund Ramrao Jayakar, former federal judge has proposed to the Constituent Assembly that discussions of the constitution be postponed until the Moslem League and the Indian states participate. The fate of India would seem to depend on the outcome of the debate in the assembly.

Navy Of Future . . .

(Continued From Page One) a career of (a) passing the buck and (b) avoiding original thinking that might tip the scales against them in the secret conclaves. One provision of the new plan would permit outstanding young officers to advance to high command rapidly. A brilliant young guided-missile expert, for example, could quickly be brought into the flag-rank circle—as a commodore or admiral—where his ideals would help shape the Navy of tomorrow. Enlisted men, too, would get a better break. They would be able to reach high office ranks as quickly as their talents permitted.

Baruch . . .

(Continued from Page One) olution on arms limitation Baruch said: "We have accepted the duty and we must proceed promptly to its fulfillment we believe, and our work follows this belief, that the best way of gaining our objective is to do first thing first. In the very forefront of that effort lies the control of atomic energy. If we are able to solve that vast problem, the others will come easier. The American proposal, stressing international controls and inspections, was turned down flatly by Andrei A. Gromyko of Russia last summer. During the recent general assembly sessions, however, Soviet foreign minister Molotov agreed to international inspections and controls, which would operate outside the controversial veto but inside the framework of the security council. It remained to be seen whether in the light of the development Gromyko now would accept the Baruch plan, seek to amend it, or again insist on his own proposal.

New Housing . . .

(Continued From Page One) end of the war. "If the present trend of decontrol is pursued to a conclusion, Now the men in command say that the promotion method that gave stars to the wrong men for fighting a war is equally unsuited for picking peacetime leaders. They fear that a return to the old system of promotion by seniority will stifle new ideas. They look ahead to atomic energy for power to guided missile ships, to super-sonic airplanes, to fast submarines capable of ranging thousands of miles without surfacing. Whether these plans, or better ones, are followed will depend on the men who have the real say-so in the Navy command put a new group in at the top.

Rotarians Usher In Yule Season

The Yuletide season was ushered in for the Rotarians last night with the singing of Christmas carols and the reading of biblical scripture. Mary Ann Waldrop and Lois Waldrop sang several duets and Mrs. J. H. Waldrop did a solo. The Rotarians joined in the singing of two carols. Little Grayson Waldrop read the section of scripture wherein the angels announce the birth of Jesus to the shepherds watching their flocks by night.

Prior to the program, Rotarian Robert C. Worsley, brother of James R. Worsley, presented the Greenville club with a flag of Panama from the Balboa Rotary club together with greetings from South America. Mr. Robert Worsley is a past-president of the Balboa club. He made the presentation in Spanish then translated it for the "non-Harvard" men.

Other visiting Rotarians were: Raymond Turnage, Robbie Dail,

Larry Davis and Henry Stillson, all of the Ayden club; Beverly Redford of Durham, and J. R. Worsley were guests of the club. Dr. Herbert Hadley was greeted as a "baby" Rotarian. John G. Fleming, chairman of the program committee, presented last night's program. Judson H. Blount, club president, presided.

Heavy Penalty For Pool Room Assault

In Police Court last Friday Edgar McCall Morris, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was ordered to pay court costs and $15 to Howell's pool room on Dickinson Avenue, and was placed on probation for a year, and he was ordered not to go to that pool room during his probation period. Charlie Stafford, with whom Morris had an altercation, was found not guilty.

Morris' name was omitted from last Friday's court proceedings because the court had allowed Morris time to get up the money.

award from this council. John Hackney of Wilson; Boy Scout executive, praised Jones for his outstanding work in the Beaufort-Hyde district, at the Rocky Mount and New Bern banquet meetings. The award was well merited, the Scout executive said, and Prof. Jones deserves the support of all the white and Negro friends of Boy Scouting. The recipient gave much credit to Rev. R. B. Brown and C. G. Morris, interracial chairman of the East Carolina Council.

Prof. Jones has been active in scouting since 1933. W. C. Hart, Negro field executive for Boy Scouts was generous in his praise of Jones and Dr. J. W. Black and Dr. J. A. Daves of the Rocky Mount, and Chaven county districts, likewise gave him praise. Rev. J. B. Humphrey of Washington, N. C. spoke favorably of scouting and commended the leaders. Presiding officers at the meetings were Rev. Fr. R. E. Bunn of New Bern and C. W. Foster of Rocky Mount.

Mary Ann Brown died Monday morning in Pitt General hospital. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. Mary Ann was the grand daughter of Mr. Antley Atkinson. Burial will be in the Peele cemetery.

Golfers Watch Ellsworth Vines And Proclaim Him Next Year's Champion

Miami, Fla., Dec. 17—(AP)—Along the golfing trail, they're saying that Ellsworth Vines, the reformed tennis player, will be the golfer to beat in 1947.

The Hogans, Nelsons and Sneads continued to dominate the professional picture during 1946, but with another year coming up, other names which may draw the attention along the tourney circuit were entering the picture.

Besides Vines, they include Johnny Palmer, Badin, N. C.; Louis Worsham, Washington, D. C.; Peter Cooper, Ponte Verda, Fla.; George Schoux, Mamaroneck, N. Y.; Al Smith, Danville, Va., and Jackie Burke, Jr., Houston, Tex.

But Vines has the experience over the others, and he also has what fellow pros term "terrific competitive spirit."

Vines, 33 years old, of Los Angeles, Calif., has one of the most improved games in the business, says Freddie Corcoran, PGA tourney manager.

After Vines had fired a six under par 29 to break the record on the

GHS To Have Close Cage Tilt; Farmville Quint Strong

Wednesday night in the high school gym. Both junior and senior teams will see action against the neighboring county teams. The juniors play a preliminary game at 7 p. m. and the seniors square off in the main affair.

This will mark the first time in many a year that Farmville has appeared on the locals schedule. Farmville is said to have one of the strongest teams in their league. The Phantoms lost their first test of the year to Wilson after giving them a close scrap. The Greensies lost all of their powerful team of last year and are having to rely upon for the most part inexperienced boys. Henry Turner, the only two year man on the squad, and Glenn Perkins, a transfer from Stokes, are the leaders.

outgoing nine of the Miami Springs golf course during the recent Miami open, there was much talk of his game.

"He's the fellow who's going to win two national titles in as many sports," the experts said.

Vines was U. S. tennis singles and Wimbledon singles champion. Johnny Palmer, 28, is a great putter and while his drives are not terrific, they split the middle. He started as a caddy, turned pro in 1941 and won the Carolinas open that year. Then came the war and he was in the Army for three years. He returned to golf during the last 12 months and won the Nashville open, and finished in the money in every tournament after July.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A Grand American Tradition

The Cuppers had a grand old family reunion last week—for the first time since the war.

Big and little Cuppers came, by car and train, from as far west as Nebraska and as far east as Vermont. They crowded Dee and Jane's house, set up quarters in the barns, or stopped with neighbors—and a jollier gathering you couldn't have imagined!

I was asked to their final Saturday night supper, when they sang old songs, drank beer and cider, reminisced. Dark Cuppers and blonde ones—Vermont accents and Alabama draws—doctors and farmers... all with their differences of taste and politics, yet as close and harmonious in spirit as a group could be.

From where I sit, it's a great American tradition—not just family reunions, but the ability to get along as one harmonious family, regardless of differences of taste—whether it's taste for politics or farming, beer or cider.

Newhouser Is Top League Pitcher

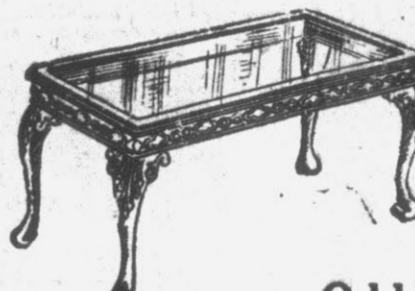

Chicago, Dec. 17—(AP)—Hal Newhouser of the Detroit Tigers was officially recognized today as the top pitcher in the American League for the second straight year.

Newhouser's 26 victories during the 1946 season tied him with rapid Robert Feller of the Cleveland Indians for the most games won but the big Tiger southpaw was No. 1 in earned runs with 1.94 per game compared with his 1.81 which led the league in 1945, when he won 25 and lost 9.

Bond Issue . . .

(Continued from Page One) during the last 20 years the utilities, in addition to paying for their bonds and the interest, had turned over to the city of Greenville about $390,000. Future revenue will take care of the new bonds and the interest.

The Greenville utilities are said by engineers to be among the best equipped and most efficiently managed in the state. Increased population and anticipated population increase, greater demand for water and electricity for commercial and industrial purposes, and natural depreciation of equipment requires that plans be made ahead of time for enlargements and improvements.

Incidentally, the quickest delivery the Utilities Commission could get on the electric turbine generator is 30 months—nearly three years. The big electric machinery manufacturing companies have on hand orders to keep them busy up to that time, it was stated.

Bilbo's Attorney . . .

(Continued from Page One) main committee of a candidate was required to report its expenditures. "Informal" groups were exempt, he said.

"What good is the state law then?" asked Ferguson.

"I don't think it's any good," Jackson replied. "It's like the Hatch Act (Federal law which limits political expenditures and contributions)." Ferguson suggested that "thousands of informal committees could be set up and spend hundreds of thousands of dollars" under Jackson's idea of the state law.

"That's right," the lawyer replied.

Before today's session started Senator Bilbo told reporters he did not plan to answer testimony until it was completed, including that of his former secretary, Edward B. Terry.

When he does testify, Bilbo will have a chance to tell his side of the story of his relations with a dozen war contractors who:

1. Loaned him money;
2. Bought him a car;
3. Dug him a lake and;
4. Chipped in more than $30,000 for his futile campaign to elect Wall Dooxy to the U. S. Senate in 1942.

Yesterday's session brought details of how contractors—all of whom held lucrative government construction contracts in Mississippi—painted the senator's "dream-house" home at Poplarville, contributed to the nearby Juniper Grove Baptist Church at his request, dug him a swimming pool and performed other favors.

Only Forty Below, Schools Reopened

Dawson, Y. T., Dec. 17—(AP)—Schools were open again today after the weather moderated back up to only 40 below.

Dropping temperatures hit the Yukon a month ago and last week the mercury dropped to an official 61 degrees below zero and an unofficial 60 degrees below. Old timers called it the coldest in 20 years.

Tokyo, Dec. 17—(AP)—Left wing organizers staged their largest demonstration in occupied Japan today—a day-long procession estimated by the provost marshal at 350,000 to 400,000 shabbily dressed men, women and boys.

It obviously was intended more to impress General MacArthur with their influence than to accomplish its ostensible purpose, to force Premier Yoshida to resign. As anticipated, the government majority in the house of representatives defeated, 236 to 160, an accompanying resolution to dissolve the diet.

MacArthur himself drove through the ranks of demonstrators at the height of the parade. The marchers readily made room for his well known black sedan.

Byrnes . . .

(Continued from Page One) now to tell whether this country will be able to meet an allocation of 135,000 tons of wheat to Britain in December and January.

5. Reported that the White House will issue a statement within a few days reviewing the whole question of food shipments to Europe.

6. Denied published reports that the United States has expressed opposition to British plans for nationalization or socialization of some German industry in its zone of occupation.

7. Said he had called George Messersmith, American ambassador to Argentina, back to Washington for consultation on matters affecting this country's relations with South America.

8. With a grin, laughed off rumors that he might resign now that peace pacts with axis satellites have been concluded.

9. Paid tribute to the services of Senator Connally of Texas as an adviser and a representative at the United Nations. He said that he will ask both Connally and Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) to accompany him to Moscow.

Advocate Course In Auto Traffic Safety

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 17—(AP)—"A regular high school course in automobile driving and traffic safety should be a must," the State Committee for Traffic Safety, Inc., has resolved.

The committee advocated an overall program "for a united front against the traffic accident enemy" which would cost an estimated $1,000,000 a year, to be financed mostly from public subscription. Its driver training program would be an additional $500,000 a year.

time this week.

The Tar Heels said Horton, state democratic national committeeman has told friends he would be a candidate for the Senate seat in 1948. Balley's term has two years to run.

Some quarters, however, felt that W. B. Umstead of Durham would get the nod although he had been expected to be a candidate for governor at the next election.

Horton served as lieutenant governor when Senator Hoey was governor and handled the democratic state campaign from Raleigh in November with Umstead.

Pupils "Protest," Parents Move In

Sapulpa, Okla., Dec. 17—(AP)—A walkout of Sapulpa High School pupils who sought extension of their Christmas vacation ended quickly when unsympathetic parents applied "woodshed tactics."

Shortly after the start of morning classes yesterday, an estimated one-fourth of the school's 585 enrollment dropped their books and carrying placards proclaiming "school board is unfair," began a demonstration in the town's main street.

The parents moved in and most of the demonstrators were back in class for the afternoon session. City Schools Superintendent James Price said that even two husky football players were marched back to school by late fathers who substituted "force for diplomacy."

Appointment Of Horton Rumored

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—The appointment of Wilkins P. Horton of Pittsboro to succeed the late Senator Josiah W. Balley of North Carolina was forecast today by North Carolina residents in Washington.

Gov. R. Gregg Cherry has indicated he would appoint a successor to Balley, who died Sunday, some-
