OUTLINES BILL THAT REVISES LABOR STATUS

Legislator Will Submit New Peacetime Strike Control Program

Washington, Dec. 20—(AP)—Rep. Howard W. Smith (D-W. Va.), co-author of the War Labor Disputes Act, today outlined a peacetime strike control program that would ban closed shops and provide indirectly for compulsory arbitration.

Smith sketched out details of his proposed measure during a conference with President Truman yesterday but declined to say what, if any, reaction it met at the White House.

The Virginian told reporters he wants to introduce his bill when the new Congress meets two weeks from today.

It would sharply revise the Wagner Labor Relations Act and contains some provisions of the vetoed Case bill, the invalidated Leavitt Radio Act and the shelved Smith anti-strike bill of the 79th Congress.

Its general provisions would: 1. Prohibit industry-wide collective bargaining and outlaw the closed shop which permits the employment of union workers only.

2. Deny collective bargaining rights to employees with the status of employer-representatives or supervisory officials; in effect, this would prevent the unionization of foremen.

3. Require all collective bargaining contracts involving public utilities or essential industries to contain a provision to submit all differences to arbitration without cessation of operation.

4. Prohibit the use of force, violence or intimidation in labor disputes; mass picketing in such form as to threaten violence or intimidation; secondary boycotts and sympathy strikes.

5. Require labor unions to register and file annual financial statements.

6. Make provisions of the Leavitt Act—restricting activities of union members in the radio industry—applicable to all business instead of to the broadcasting industry. A Chicago Federal Court held the act unconstitutional because it singled out radio workers.

7. Prohibit discrimination against workers because of membership or non-membership in a union. (Continued on Page Eight)

Nab Second Man In Gambling Ring

New York, Dec. 19—(AP)—A second man was held by police today in the investigation into the alleged attempt to "fix" last Sunday's National Professional Football League championship game between the Chicago Bears and the New York Giants.

The man, Jerome Zarowitz, 28 was described by Assistant District Attorney George B. Monaghan as an employee of a combination of gamblers and bookmakers.

Monaghan also told General Sessions Judge Francis L. Valente yesterday that Zarowitz "admitted that he knew" Alvin J. Paris, who has been indicted by a grand jury on charges of attempting to bribe Merle Hapes and Frank Filzback backfield players for the Giants.

Zarowitz was held as a material witness and Judge Valente set bail at $10,000. Monaghan had asked for $50,000 bail. Zarowitz was remanded to Tombs Prison when he was unable to produce the bail.

Before taking this action, Judge Valente had denied bail to Paris, 28-year-old novelty concern officer on the ground that Paris' life might be endangered if he were released.

Search For Controls Atomic Commission Seeking Controls Without Removing Veto Rights Among Big Five; Unanimity Key To Objective; Steps In Event Of Violations

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR. (For Dewitt Mackenzie)

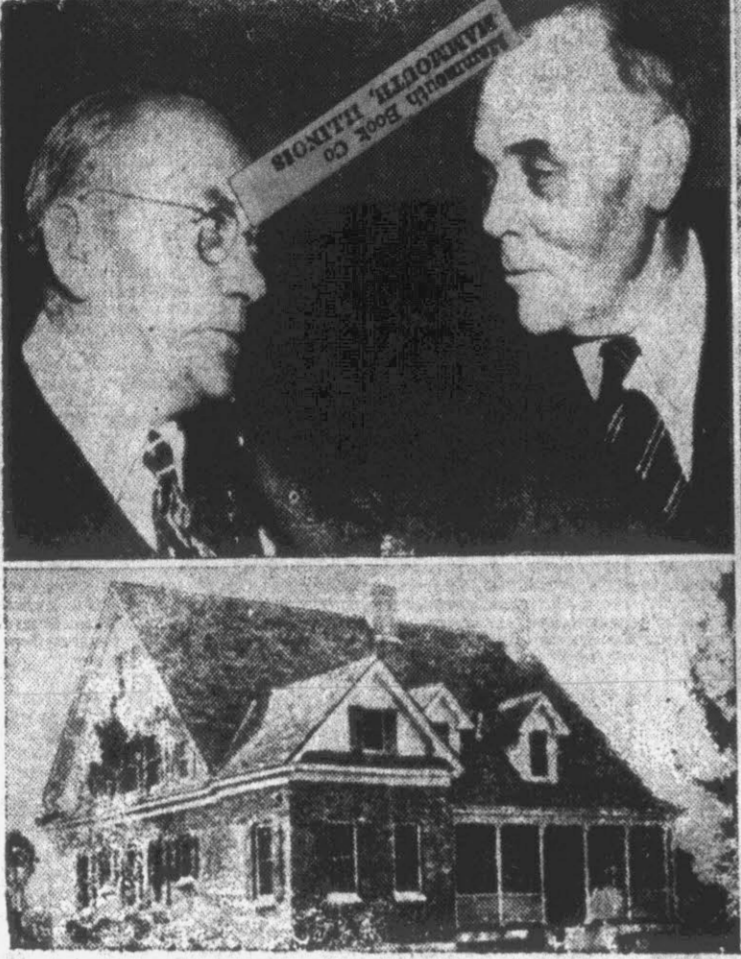

The U. N. Atomic Commission is resuming its search today for a set of controls which will outlaw the A-bomb but not interfere with the big five veto power in the security council.

Immediate issue is the desire of the U. S. to provide for swift and sure sanctions against any country which might violate the rules.

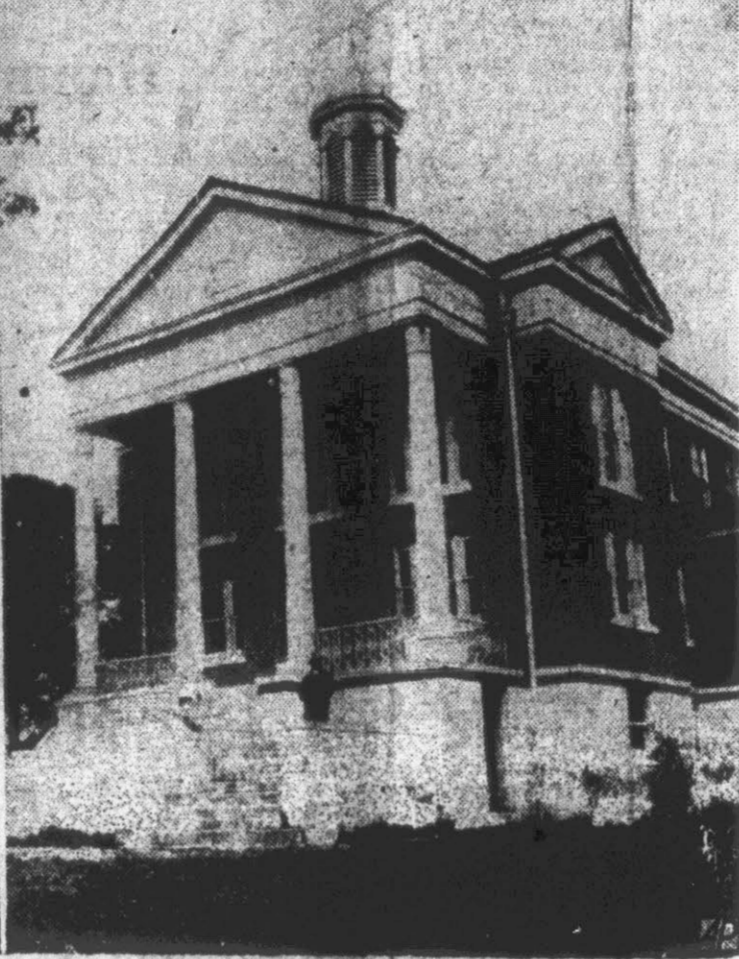

The nations now envisage a system under which watchmen all over the world would be on constant guard, reporting any infraction to the council. Everyone has agreed, tentatively at least, that the veto shall not apply to the activities of these watchmen; that they shall be free to come and go, to investigate as they will and report as they see fit. Up to that point the U. S. has attained its objectives.

But what of the report after it reaches the council? There, under the present system, nothing can be done unless the big five are unanimous. Although differing as to how the veto should be used, the powers are still agreed on

The Rev. Mr. Smith told the committee he "hopes to move January first" into the ornate parsonage (lower left) built by Bilbo on his farm. Testimony showed the parsonage was constructed with $28,000 in funds Bilbo obtained from contractors and other friends. BYRNES BIDS FOR QUICK OK

Said Seeking Early Ratification Of Pact By Congress

Washington, Dec. 20—(AP)—Secretary of State Byrnes is reported ready today for an early test of the new Republican-controlled Senate's temper in international affairs with a plea for speedy action on the five peace treaties.

Byrnes has notified interested senators that he would like to bring the pacts with Italy, Bulgaria, Finland, Rumania and Hungary before the Foreign Relations Committee shortly after they are formally signed February 1.

While he is expected to ask speedy consideration in an attempt to clear this hurdle before the March 10 meeting of foreign ministers in Moscow, there are indications that some Republicans will want to go deeper into the whole matter of treaty negotiations.

Because it normally takes several weeks for Senate committees to process an important matter of this kind, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) has told friends it probably will be impossible for him to accompany Byrnes to the opening of the Moscow meeting.

The Michigan senator apparently feels that he and Senator Connally (D-Tex.), both of whom have served as Byrnes' advisers at past foreign ministers' discussions, cannot leave until the Senate acts finally.

Vandenberg is slated to succeed Connally as foreign relations chairman January 3.

Byrnes' hope for quick action on the treaties reportedly is based in part on his desire to have the two senators with him in Moscow.

Evidence On Narcotics Keeps Bilbo Case Open

Senator Admits Taking Sum From Doctor Who Requested Narcotics Permit; Christmas Recess For Stormy Hearing

Washington, Dec. 20—(AP)—Clashing testimony about payment of $1,500 in a narcotics case held today as the stormy public hearings recessed for the Christmas holiday.

"I have nothing to hide," Senator Theodore G. Bilbo (D-Miss.) told the Senate War Investigating Committee yesterday as he denied repeatedly any knowledge of payments reported to have been made to him by a doctor for helping get a narcotics permit for a Natchez, Miss. man.

Bilbo, after nearly a full day of testimony spiced with bitter denunciations, denials and counter-charges, finally acknowledged to the senators investigating his financial dealings with Mississippi war contractors that he had received some money from Dr. A. J. Podessa, Vicksburg, Miss., who had requested the narcotics permit.

He vehemently denied, however, that it had any connection with the permit.

Instead, Bilbo said, any money he received—he could not remember whether it was $1,500, $1,000 or less—had been given to the Juniper Grove Baptist Church parsonage fund. Neither Bilbo nor Ferguson could find any record in the special parsonage bank account to correspond with this donation.

The narcotics issue was thrust into the hearings—which Bilbo's opponents hope will lead to the unseating of the 69-year-old Mississippi senator—by Edward P. Terry, the Mississippi's nervous and ailing former secretary.

CHURCHILL IN BRIEF BLAST

Fighting Speech Cut Short; Hits Shrinkage Of Empire

London, Dec. 20—(AP)—Prime Minister Attlee announced today that discussions would be held with Burmese leaders soon to speed Burma's progress toward self-government and Winston Churchill immediately assailed the decision as a step toward dissolution of the British Empire.

In a fighting speech in the House of Commons cut short by the Speaker's ruling that he was out of order, Churchill declared:

"It was said in the days of the great administrator, Lord Chatham, that you had to get up very early in the morning in order not to miss some acquisition of territory which was then characteristic of our fortunes.

"The not less memorable administration of the present government is distinguished for the opposite set of experiences. I must say the British Empire seems to be running off almost as fast as the American loan.

The steady and remorseless process of divesting ourselves of what has been gained by so many generations of toil, administration and sacrifice continues."

Attlee said Britain hoped Burma would remain in the empire but she was free to choose independence.

Hunters Arrested For Mass Slaying Of Deer

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 20—(AP)—Seventeen hunters—13 of them from West Virginia—have been arrested and fined a total of $7,385 in the worst deer massacre in the annals of the State Game Commission.

Seth Gordon, executive secretary of the commission, said the deer slayings occurred near Wellsboro in Tioga County, where the party of West Virginia and Pennsylvania hunters had established a camp.

ARMIES NEAR GREEK BORDER

Secret Reports Indicate Yugoslavia Massing Men And Arms

Athens, Dec. 20—(AP)—An informed source said today concentrations of large number of Yugoslav troops at Skopje, on the traditional Vardar Valley invasion route, and near the Monastir Gap at Bitolj had been reported to allied military authorities.

A highly confidential report says heavy movements of ammunition trains through Skopje had been noted for three weeks and normal traffic from Skopje southeastward to Bjevdolja, which is immediately north of the Greek border on the Vardar, had been stopped since Dec. 6.

"It is reasonable to believe," the report says, "the highway is now being used for military traffic."

An allied diplomat said the concentration of Yugoslav troops at Skopje probably was connected with the Greek complaint before the Security Council that her northern neighbors—Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria—were aiding anti-government guerrillas.

Both Skopje and Bitolj, 70 miles to the south, are "completely overrun," with troops who are occupying houses and buildings for billets, the report said.

An abnormal number of medical hospital units was also reported in Skopje, with scores of men wearing Red Cross arm bands. At a huge ammunition dump near the city the account said, men are working "24 hours a day."

A confidential report from a leading allied capital said its intelligence service was informed the Yugoslavs had promised to send from 10,000 to 15,000 men to relieve Greek insurgents and that training at Bulkees had been suspended until peace treaties were signed. It was added that no Yugoslav soldiers were believed to be on Greek soil at present.

This same report expressed the opinion that all the activity was designed to create a semi-independent Macedonian state under Yugoslav control, to become a member

NEW CONGRESS FACING TEST

American Post-War Global Cooperation To Be Determined

Washington, Dec. 20—(AP)—A pair of high-priority issues—international relief and immigration—will provide a quick showdown next year on the willingness of the Republican dominated Congress to apply the principal of global cooperation to specific problems.

Simultaneously, the final action of these two problems appears certain to affect the prestige of the United Nations among many foreign countries still acutely conscious of what happened here after World War I.

Hunters Arrested For Mass Slaying Of Deer

The fines were the highest ever levied on one hunting party in this state.

A report filed at the commission office yesterday by Robert Lattimer, of Williamsport, field division supervisor of that area, disclosed the hunters were trapped when they tried to take some venison back to West Virginia.

"Our agents stopped some of the cars and found a large quantity of venison hidden under the seats and stuffed behind luggage in the back of the cars," explained Gordon.

"A visit was paid to the camp, where more venison was found hidden in out of the way places," he added.

An investigation revealed that some of the deer had been shot illegally, and attempts made to hide the carcasses until the meat could be brought out of the camp, Gordon said.

BIG AIRLINERS COLLIDE, BUT NONE INJURED

Miami-Bound Planes In Unprecedented Accident; Both Land Safely

Aberdeen, Md., Dec. 20—(AP)—Split-second reactions by two pilots were credited today with saving the lives of 85 passengers and crew members of two Miami-bound airliners which collided 2,000 feet in the air near here in an unprecedented in American commercial air travel.

None of the passengers suffered so much as a scratch, although both planes were damaged in the collision, which occurred in clear weather shortly after dark last night.

The co-pilot of one, a big, four-engine DC-4 Eastern Airlines plane carrying 59 passengers, said he saw the other, a two-engine Universal Airlines C-47, approaching from the left three or four miles north of Aberdeen. He pulled his ship up at the last instant and scraped over the top of the Universal plane, Eastern officials said.

The co-pilot, R. Brown, of Miami, said he had "just a second or two" in which to avert disaster. The pilot of this plane, J. B. Kuhn, also of Miami, told a reporter, "Brown saved the day."

A three-by-five-foot hole was ripped in the tail section of the larger plane, while the Universal liner, carrying 22 passengers and a crew of three on a charter flight, had a hole driven into the upper portion of the fuselage, its escape hatch wrenched free and its radio and hydraulic system knocked out of commission.

Despite the damage, Henry Norris, of Cambridge, Mass., pilot of the Universal ship, brought it down safely at the Aberdeen Proving Ground field, while the Eastern plane was landed uneventfully by Kuhn, before waiting crash-wagons and fire-engines at National Airport, Washington, D. C.

The four-engine DC-4, cruising at about 230 miles an hour, apparently had overtaken the slower aircraft. It had started from New York, while the Universal plane had taken off at Newark, N. J.

Wintry Weather For Christmas Shoppers

By CHESTER WALSH

Old Man Winter appeared on the scene Tuesday and did something about the weather when he sent the mercury tumbling from 75 degrees at 1 p. m. to 43 degrees at the same time Wednesday—a drop of 32 degrees in 24 hours. The thermometer stood at 39 degrees at 7 a. m. today.

Rain, which began falling at 6 a. m. today continued through the forenoon. It was a whipping drenching downpour, with a stiff breeze coming in from the northwest. Indications at 3 p. m. were that the rain would continue.

Mrs. C. E. Maiden, always observer for the Department of Commerce, Atlanta, Ga., reported that 74 of an inch of rain (about three-quarters of an inch) fell in Greenville between 7 a. m. and 1 p. m. today.

The local weather observer also reported that there was a drop of 1 degree in temperature. The official thermometer registered 39 degrees at 7 a. m. today. At 1 p. m. the mercury was pointing at 28 in the bulb.

Fire At School This Afternoon

By CHESTER WALSH

Fire resulting from an overheated stove at the Third Street School "hut" lunch-room about 1 p. m. today did considerable damage, principally from smoke and water.

Fire Chief George Gardner said the blaze appeared to have started from an overheated stove with an apparently defective dial.

Incidentally, the city schools had closed at noon today and there were no children there.

There was so much smoke when the firemen arrived they had to use the big hose with a stream of water to quench the fire.

Supt. June H. Rose said the "hut" was to be used tonight by the telephone company for the annual Christmas party for employees. The janitor from the company started fires in stoves in preparation for tonight's exchange of Christmas gifts, it was stated. The school janitor observed smoke coming out of the building and turned in the alarm.

The inhabitants of Samoa called Robert Louis Stevenson Tustala (teller of tales) when he lived there.

U.S. Atomic Plan Has UN Approval

Gromyko Withdraws From Discussion After Futile Attempt To Delay Vote; Canadian Compromise Carried By 10-0

Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 20—(AP)—The United Nations Atomic Energy Commission today approved "in principle" the United States atomic control plan after Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko announced dramatically that he was withdrawing from the discussions.

Gromyko did not leave the council chamber as he did last April during discussion of the Iranian case in the Security Council, but he made it clear that his silence was not a mere abstention. Despite personal appeals from Great Britain and China for his cooperation, Gromyko flatly refused to vote.

The commission already had rejected a Soviet demand that action of the U. S. atomic plan be postponed and a Polish proposal that the commission's political committee be set up without recommendation.

The final vote was on a Canadian compromise, which provided that the commission approved the "principles" set forth in the U. S. plan, but that the final wording be left to the committee. The Canadian proposal previously had been accepted by the United States delegation.

The vote was 10 to 0, with Poland abstaining and Russia's vote uncounted, at the request of Gromyko. Gromyko reserved his right to speak on the U. S. proposal at a "later stage." The commission adjourned at 1:53 p. m. (EST).

"I am not taking part in this discussion," he said. Instead he pressed for action on his own proposal that all action on the American atomic control plan be postponed "six or seven days." The commission rejected his motion by a vote of 10 to 2.

Russia and Poland were alone in supporting the Soviet proposal to postpone action. While Polish Delegate Oscar Lange supported the Soviet motion, he also pressed for action on a Polish measure proposing that the U. S. atomic plan be referred to the commission's political committee without recommendations.

This, too, was defeated. The vote was 9 to 2, with one abstention. In the Security Council last night, the Soviet Union, which three months ago vetoed an American proposal for an on-the-spot investigation of complaints against Greece, made a number of concessions.

In two sessions totalling almost nine hours, Gromyko displayed a decidedly conciliatory attitude. He dropped a demand to extend the investigation to cover all Greece's internal affairs in favor of a less extensive investigation, and did not insist upon curtailment of the commission's staff.

The council not only voted an investigation, but ordered a report at the earliest possible moment and with recommendations of possible steps to prevent a recurrence of the disturbances.

Coal Industry Split Over UMW Contract

Southern Operators To Hold Aloof From Lewis Negotiations Until Courts Reach Decision; Next Move Up To Lewis

Washington, Dec. 20—(AP)—A sharp split among soft-coal operators over whether to negotiate now for a new contract with John L. Lewis dashed hopes today for a quick nationwide peace between the industry and its miners.

Producers whose pits yield 60 per cent of the country's coal held themselves ready to deal with the United Mine Workers' chief "at any convenient date," without waiting for a Supreme Court decision on his legal troubles arising from the November walkout.

But the powerful Southern Coal Producers Association, whose mines produce a third of the 600,000,000-ton annual supply, broke away from the majority with a decision to hold aloof until the courts have had their say.

Far Western mine owners indicated they would go along with the Southerners.

The high court will hear on Jan. 14 Lewis' appeal from $3,510,000 in fines against himself and the United Mine Workers, imposed after the UMW chief ignored a District Court order to head off the recent 17-day strike.

Long-smoldering differences between the Southern Association, biggest single producing unit in the national negotiating committee, and the remainder of the industry broke into the open at a nine-hour meeting yesterday.

The committee was adjourned sine die, which meant there is scant chance of a national contract in the foreseeable future.

Books For Children

Researchers Study "Readability" Of Books, Grade Them According To Ages; Factors Include Subject And Vocabulary; Too Many People Read Poorly

By WILLIAM T. PEACOCK

Washington, Dec. 20—(AP)—You go into a department store to buy your small son a Christmas present book.

Books are stacked in age sizes, 6-8, 14-16. Just like the children's underwear in another department.

Ever wonder how they decide a book is readable for an eight-year-old boy? Mostly it is a matter of vocabulary. But the subject also gets attention.

Word tests have been given in so many schools that it is well established what words the average child of a given age knows.

If a book has too many words that an eight-year-old doesn't know it is too "old" for that age group. But the question of whether a book is readable for child or adult goes much deeper than that. It is one which has been given a lot of study for many years.

As far back as 1926, the American Association for Adult Education established a joint committee to (1) look into the reading habits and interests of adults and (2) decide which are readable books.

It isn't just curiosity that is back of such studies. Those who have dug into the matter are concerned over indications that a sizeable part of the population—some estimates run as high as 50 per cent—cannot read with ease and understanding much that is published in this country. And this country turns out the most books, the most magazines and the most newspapers of any in the world.

One of the study hasn't produced a sure-fire formula for turning out a book or article that will (1) be readable and (2) make the public flock to buy it.

For that matter, all researchers are not in complete agreement. Take the matter of simple sentences. It is widely assumed that short and simple sentences are more readable than longer ones. But one research study after tests, came to the conclusion that length of sentence is unimportant so far as comprehension is concerned—that the effect on the reader is the same, whether the (Continued on Page Four)

Funeral Services For Mrs. Coward

Funeral services for Mrs. Malissie Jones Coward, 65, who died yesterday at the home of her son, Ennis Coward, in Norfolk, Va., were held at Shelmerdine Pentecostal Holiness Church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. D. J. Little, Pentecostal Holiness minister of Morehead City, officiated.

Mrs. Coward was a member of Shelmerdine Pentecostal Holiness Church. She lived in Pitt county all of her life until about two years ago, when she made her home with her son in Norfolk.

Beta Club Organized
On Tuesday, December 17th, plans were made at Winterville High School for establishing a local chapter of the Beta Club, national service-leadership society for high school students, according to Mr. John T. Biggers.

the club, and explained its purposes and objectives.

Miss Helen Clark, teacher of English, was appointed as faculty sponsor for the local chapter and Miss Helen McLawhorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McLawhorn, was elected temporary secretary and treasurer. Permanent officers for this year will be chosen after installation meeting to be held at an early date. Christmas Party

The Falkland Home Demonstration Club members entertained their families at a Christmas party last Monday evening in the Pittman Carroll School cafeteria.

The decoration by Mrs. Willard Wooten, consisted of white candles flanked with holly throughout the room and a lovely Christmas tree decorated beautifully by Mrs. Allison Leonard and Mrs. Wooten.

Mrs. Horace Leonard, recreational leader, who was in charge of the program, led in the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. J. L. Baker, club president, and little Sheila Dawn Wooten extended a Christmas greeting and wish to all. Inspiring stories of Christmas legends were given by Miss Anna Little and a poem was recited by Betty Jean Brown. "A Story of Christmas Giving" was told by Josephine Little. Charles Dickens' immortal story of "The Night Before Christmas," read by Anna Weber, was enjoyed.

Spirited Christmas games were played after which presents were taken from the tree and presented to each guest present by Mrs. Russell's son who dressed and enacted the part of Santa Claus, to the children's delight.

We were glad to have with us as our honor guest for the evening Miss Lowery and Miss Hines, H. D. agents assistants, from Greenville. Our sincere thanks go out to Miss Anna Little, Mrs. Horace Leonard and others who so willingly devoted their time and effort towards making this Christmas party possible.

Arrive to Attend Wedding

Mrs. Arthur R. Myers and daughter, Miss Patricia Myers, Mrs. Ann Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Roberts and Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. O. H. Mellum, of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Helen Cloninger and daughter, Miss Amelia Cloninger, of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wester and sons, M. W. Jr. and Thad Wester, of Henderson and Mrs. E. R. Burke of La Grange, will arrive this afternoon to attend the Howard-Turnage wedding.

W. C. T. U. Notes

Senator Arthur Capper of dry Kansas tells why he introduced the anti-liquor act bill: "The use of this powerful influence on our lives for the purpose of promoting a destructive habit has prompted me to introduce legislation in congress to prohibit the transportation of such advertising from one state to another."

"In the 79th congress just adjourned, my bill was numbered S-599 and was referred to the Committee on Interstate Commerce. Specifically it would prohibit the use of the mails or any other means of interstate transportation by any one engaged in the liquor industry or any publisher for purposes of advertising alcoholic beverages. It would also make unlawful the broadcasting of any such advertising by means of the radio."

"I have introduced this legislation in several sessions of the congress. It has made progress and I am more convinced now than ever before of its desirability. I shall introduce it again in the 80th congress which convenes in January, 1947, and renew my earnest efforts for its enactment."

"Will the people of our country awake to the evils of intoxicating liquor? I say, yes. The pendulum of public opinion is undoubtedly striking midnight on the liquor problem in this country. Tomorrow there will be a new day."

Grifton—On a recent evening Mrs. Josh Worthington entertained at a delightful party at her home here with her guests for the occasion members of her contract club and invited players for four tables.

Guests were invited for supper and bridge was played following this. The home throughout was beautifully decorated with greenery, red berries and a lighted Christmas tree.

High scorers for the evening were Mrs. Walter Patrick and Mrs. Sam Nelson. The guest award went to Mrs. Harold Plake. Other players were Mrs. Elmo Smith, Mrs. F. L. Cox, Mrs. Milton Hart, Mrs. Edward Hart, Mrs. Ben G. Tucker, Mrs. Julius Chauncey, Mrs. Roy Jackson, Mrs. Nannie McGlohon, Mrs. Glen-dale Tucker, Mrs. Eleanor Gower, Mrs. Paul Clark, Mrs. Carey Garris, and Mrs. Norwood Lockhart.

Senior Council Meets

Grifton—The Senior Council of the Christian Church held its December meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. P. Quinerly, with Mrs. Nannie E. Quinerly as co-hostess, Mrs. Norwood Lockart presided at the business hour in the absence of the president. Lovely seasonal decorations were in evidence throughout the rooms where the members were entertained. The Christmas scripture was read by Mrs. H. C. Oglesby. Mrs. Paul Bradley gave a number of vocal selections and Mrs. Quinerly recited the Christmas poems.

Following the program guests were invited into the dining room where the tea table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of silver bells and lighted green candles, here a delicious dessert course with salted nuts and coffee was served. Christmas gifts were exchanged among the members present.

Attention, Kindergarten Department
Mrs. Louis Stuart Ficklen will entertain the children of the kindergarten department of St. Paul's Episcopal Church at a Christmas party Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home on East Ninth Street.

To Present Pageant

The Sunday school of the Shelmerdine Pentecostal Holiness Church will present a pageant, "The Christ Child," Monday night, December 23, at the church at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

U. D. C. Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the George B. Singletary Chapter of the U. D. C. was held Thursday Dec. 12 at the home of Mrs. J. G. Lautares on Ninth street, the president, Mrs. J. L. Fleming, presiding.

Previous to the feature program a brief business session was held when it was voted to send the usual Christmas donation to the Confederate Woman's Home at Fayetteville. In addition, the president suggested that the secretary send Christmas greetings to all shut-in members. The feature program then followed and consisted of a very interesting biographical sketch of Judge William Gaston, by Mrs. E. W. Harvey. Judge Gaston was a member of the North Carolina Supreme Court, author of "The Old North State," the state song, and was one of the ablest lawyers and truest patriots North Carolina ever produced. Judge Gaston's home was in New Bern and he died in 1848.

Mrs. Harvey also traced the history of the state flag. Her discussion of the flag history was interesting and informative.

The topics, "Judge Gaston" and the "State Flag" seemed peculiarly fitting for a U. D. C. program. Mrs. Lautares' home was beautifully decorated and the refreshments consisted of many Christmas delicacies.—Reported.

Christmas Candlelight Service

A Christmas Candlelight Service will be held at the Immanuel Baptist Church at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 22, 1946. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Moye Dail, Minister of Music, will present the old but ever-new Christmas Story in Scripture and song.

Soloists taking part in the service are Miss Elizabeth Bridgers, Mrs. Helen Green, Mrs. Moye Dail, Mr. Arthur Fleming, and Mr. Norman Wilkerson.

One of the main features of the program will be the bringing forward of gifts of merchandise and money for the orphanage children of the Kennedy Home in Kingston. Members of the church and Sunday school, both young and old, are invited to have a part in this. Let us gladly share what we have with those less fortunate than ourselves, remembering the words of our Lord Jesus: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

Presbyterian Announcements

For those who are left in the city, we shall have Sunday School as usual at the Presbyterian Church. Children who are working for a perfect record for the year must be on hand and have teachers check their attendance so the record will show accurately the Sundays attended. Dr. Boyd will preach a Christmas sermon Sunday morning. His subject will be "What If Christ Had Not Come?" Text John 15:22. Mrs. Dink James will render a solo, "A Christmas Lullaby."

At 4 p. m. Twin Oaks Chapel will give their Christmas program. The public is invited. Santa Claus will be there and pass out gifts to all present. We anticipate a joyous time for all who will come.

The young people of the churches of Greenville will meet at the Eighth Street Christian Church at 7 p. m. Sunday evening and go out on several trucks to sing carols for the community. Listen for the singers. No church activities at church this week.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

AMBITION CAN COLLAPSE
People who live in countries frequently shaken by earthquakes have learned that it does not pay to build huge and pretentious stone houses. If they do, an earthquake is liable to shake the house down upon their heads. The smart thing to do in places where earthquakes are frequent is to live in a hut or a lightly built house.

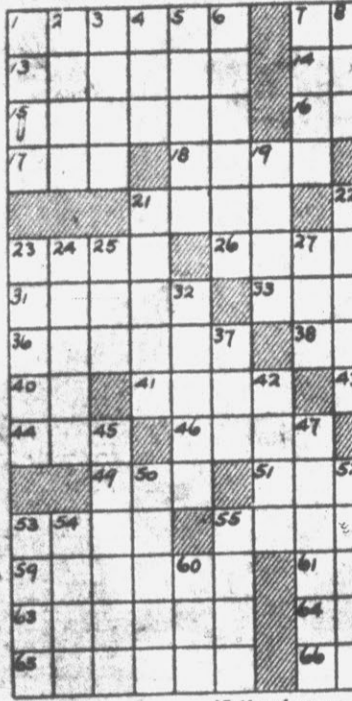

People frequently come to disaster and ruin because certain things they have built up suddenly fall upon them and crush them. Men who make the accumulation of wealth their chief end in life find very often that in the end the temple of avarice collapses and buries its foolish worshippers in the ruins. People who long for fame often find that fame can quickly turn into notoriety and praise into reproach. Women who have great ambitions for their children often build a tower of Babel which in a season of earthquakes collapses and crushes the hope and happiness of their loved ones.

We are supposed to travel through life unencumbered with excess baggage. Life is Gods simple gift and we are expected to live it in simplicity. Pretense, show, unhallowed ambition, avarice—these foolish desires build massive piles which in the day of earthquake and trouble fall upon our heads and destroy the false conception of life we cherished.

Better a hut with happiness than a mansion with misery.

Cardinal-Dodger Tie For Penant Voted No. One Sport Oddity Of '46

New York, Dec. 20—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinal-Brooklyn Dodger regular season tie for the National League pennant race has been voted the No. 1 sports oddity of 1946 by a close margin over the Ted Williams shift.

Twelve of the 56 writers who participated in the annual Associated Press poll to determine the oddest event of the year, agreed that the Red Bird-Brook standoff was tops while 11 thought that the Cleveland and St. Louis shift for slugger Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox was the strangest occurrence. The other votes were well scattered.

Although the Chicago Cubs and the New York Giants played off a tie game which decided the 1908 pennant in favor of the Cubs, the Card-Dodger deadlock marked the first time in major league baseball that two teams wound up the regular season in a dead heat for the title.

The now famous "Williams shift" was employed by Manager Lou Boudreau of the Indians after the Boston strong boy had belted three home runs off Tribal hurlers in the opener of a double header. Boudreau moved practically his entire team into right field and Manager Ed Dyer of the Cards used a variation of the move in the World Series. The strategy paid off as Williams was held to five singles.

Stoppage of a second game of a twin bill between the Dodgers and Chicago Cubs because of an invasion of gnats at Ebbets Field drew five votes and Enos Slaughter's mad dash from first to home with the Cards' payoff run against the Red Sox in the last game of the World Series gained four votes.

Football oddities included such beauts as Ohio State flying to Los Angeles for a game with Southern California and forgetting to take along a single football; a Washington and Lee player lining up in a game played in the mud; officials instructing the band to play the Star Spangled Banner three times during the Arizona-Santa Clara game to halt play because of roughness.

While baseball hogged most of the spotlight in the oddities poll, Navy's football team yesterday was voted as producing sports' most surprising event of the year for its performance against unbeaten Army.

The Blue Jackets, although losing the game, 21-18 were on the Cards' three yard line in the final minute of play and drew 26 first place ballots with the Cardinals' upset over Boston gaining 21 first place votes and second place.

Robinson-Bell In Welter Title Go

New York, Dec. 20—(AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson, the "uncrowned champion," gets his delayed chance to make it official tonight when he takes on Tommy Bell of Youngstown, Ohio, with the welterweight title in the balance. After five weary years of waiting for a shot at the 147-pound crown, the Harlem Sugar Man is a prohibitive 1 to 4 favorite to whip Bell and earn recognition by both the New York Commission and the National Boxing Association after their 15-round Madison Square Garden bout.

Beaten only once in his career of 73 fights, and then by Middleweight Jake Lamotta, Robinson had been matched with Marty Servo for a championship scramble before the Schenectady welter abdicated his throne because of a sore nose. Bell finally was selected as logical foe and all agreed to recognize the winner as the new king.

Sunatra produces pepper, sisal, tobacco, rubber and oil.

Big Airliners

(Continued from Page One) vacationists and business men, reported little if any confusion at the time of their narrow escape, and most said they had been unaware of the extent of their danger. All, however, had lavish praises for crew members.

Christmas Party Is Given Work Horses

Detroit, Dec. 19—(AP)—Horses that lead a dog's life in Detroit for most of the year got a break from Santa yesterday.

More than 70 working horses—who usually earn their living pulling trash and junk cars — were guests at the Humane Society's 19th annual Christmas party.

They viewed their own Christmas tree, heard carols, and then, as they paraded past the Society shelter, Santa Claus presented each one with a bale of hay and sacks of oats and carrots. Drivers who crashed the party each received coffee sandwiches and a box of candy.

UNORTHODOX WEAPON

San Francisco, Dec. 19—(AP)—Mrs. Mary C. Goldian, 36, had a weapon of her own to cope with the bandit's gun.

As he reached into the cash drawer in her liquor store, Mrs. Goldian slammed the till closed and screamed for help. The gunman fled, nursing a bruised hand.

NOTICE

In order that our employees may have a much needed and earned holiday vacation, we, the undersigned, will observe the Christmas Holidays and our places of business will be closed on Wednesday Dec. 25th and Thursday Dec. 26th.

Grand Performance By Seniors Sunday

Charles Dickens' "The Christmas Carol" was presented to an overflow audience at the Greenville High School last Sunday afternoon by the senior class. Too much praise could not be given the participants. Those taking parts in the heart-throbbing Christmas story of Old Scrooge and Tiny Tim under direction of Mrs. Howard Mims displayed considerable histrionic talent. The music rendered by the High School Glee Club during the play under direction of Miss Ona Shindler was of the type one hears at Carnegie Hall in New York. The lighting effects, arranged by the students, contributed much to the impressiveness of the play. The Glee Club of 80 voices was superb. The numbers the talented youngsters sang included "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "Good News From Heaven," "O, Little Town of Bethlehem," "Silent Night," "Christmas Carol," "Joy to the World" and "Hallelujah Chorus."

Dean Hudson's Band Here Christmas Eve

The famous Dean Hudson, nationally known band leader, and his band will play for the Christmas Eve Dance at the Gold Leaf Warehouse next Monday night. Hudson in person will be here. Features of the Yuletide social function will be number of Dean Hudson's Glee Club, including such stars as Sonny Stockton, Frances Caldwell, Johnny Davis and Frankie Castle and others.

Tickets are on sale at the General Insurance Agency, 312 Evans street.

Doctor's Discovery FOR FLUSHING KIDNEYS

Backache, loss of pep, getting up nights, and headache are often caused by nothing more than improper kidney action due to excess acid in the urine. Kidneys are one of Nature's ways of removing impurities from the blood. And when these impurities back up, trouble may start. So if you have these troubles, give your kidneys and bladder a good flushing out by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. It works on the kidneys to flush them out, increasing the flow of urine to help relieve that excess acidity and ease that burning when you pass water, helps that bladder irritation that gets you up nights. Made of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, and balsams, Swamp-Root is absolutely non-habit forming. Caution: take as directed. For free trial supply, send to Dept. Z, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 1255, Stamford, Conn. Or—get full sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your druggist.

 Create the post of administrator of the National Labor Act, with the duty of investigating and prosecuting violations of the proposed law, with the National Labor Relations Board itself to serve as the trial body.

 In addition, Smith said, the legislation "restores to employers the right of freedom of speech which the (National Labor Relations) Board over the years as a fixed policy has sought to deny."

Coal Industry

 be started even between Lewis and the industry majority still was doubtful because:
 1. Lewis would not agree to a separate contract excluding the Southern group when this was suggested in negotiations Sept. 11, after the Southern Association balked at meeting terms of the Government-UMW pact which ended last spring's strike.
 2. The fact that operators of the Northern, Midwestern and "captive" steel company mines expressed willingness to meet with Lewis did not mean they would make immediate overtures to the mine leader.
 3. Lewis himself has indicated he prefers to wait until the Supreme Court has decided his contempt appeal, which may be about Feb. 1.
 One thing seemed clear: the next move is up to Lewis.
 The UMW president, in calling off the strike Dec. 7, said the miners would negotiate with any groups authorized to make a contract.

Selling Of Mills Alarms Folger
 (Winston-Salem, N. C., Dec. 20—AP)—The purchase of cotton mills in this area by "some interests" has been attacked by Rep. John H. Folger (D-NC), as an "alarming monopolistic trend which promises to destroy private enterprise."
 Addressing the Wilsonian Democratic Club here last night, Folger declared the purchase movement "had such alarming aspects" that he had seen fit to inform Attorney General Tom Clark of what was "actually taking place in North Carolina."
 Failing to mention names in his talk, Folger obviously referred to Northern textile groups which have made extensive mill purchases in the Carolinas this fall.
 If continued, the representative said, such a policy will place small business in danger of being "gobbled up by monopolies, trusts and cartels—cartels which have their roots in Germany."

Gls Get Terms For Misbehavior
 Yokohama, Dec. 20—(AP)—Three U. S. soldiers today were convicted by a general court martial of assault with intent to commit robbery, robbery and breach of arrest.
 Pvt. Philemon Bice, Zanesville, Ohio, and Pvt. Luther Johnson, Hellerton, Pa., were sentenced to 15 years each at hard labor and Pvt. Ernest Malner, Denmark, S. C., to 10 years. Their sentences, including dishonorable discharge, are subject to review.
 Witnesses testified that one of the trio would enter a Japanese shop and illegally purchase whiskey or sake. Another then would enter, claim to be an investigating agent and demand more liquor at a bribe to remain silent.

Evidence On
 he had learned that Dr. Podesta, a Vicksburg hospital superintendent, had paid Bilbo $1,500 last year to obtain a narcotics permit for Harry Carr, a 66-year-old Natchez, Miss. resident.
 Dr. Anslinger testified that the narcotics permit was granted after he had been called to Bilbo's office Oct. 11, 1945.
 He said the approval was not unusual because Dr. Podesta's letter requesting the permit was accompanied by two medical certificates testifying to Carr's state of health. These, he said, were signed by Dr. Podesta and Dr. James Logan, of Natchez and were to the effect that Carr had several chronic ailments and had been a user of narcotics for many years.
 Dr. Anslinger testified that he was told later that Bilbo had been paid $1,500 in connection with the permit.

New Congress
 Experience within U. N. councils has furnished clearest evidence that a number of the smaller nations are looking to the United States for their foreign policy cue.
 Secretary of State Byrnes' policy of close consultation on foreign affairs with both parties in Congress obviously has gone a long way toward eliminating an open break between the administration and the lawmakers such as that which developed under Woodrow Wilson.
 Still untested in peacetime, however, is the question whether the idea of an international cooperation can survive the twin hazards of an economy drive and sectional opposition to parts of the foreign policy program.
 Hence these issues will provide the test:
 1. An anticipated administration
