BIG PLANE IS STILL MISSING IN ANTARCTICA

Weather Prevents Search; Carrier Radios Messages Of Hope

Aboard the U. S. S. Mount Olympus in the Ice Pack, Jan. 2—(Delayed)—Nine men aboard a big Martin Mariner seaplane disappeared without a trace Monday in the bleak, uncharted South Polar wastelands and fog and snow for three days has prevented any search by the two other waiting Mariners.

The other Mariners are with the seaplane tender Pine Island far out in the Pacific.

The plane vanished in the area of the Franklin D. Roosevelt Sea and James W. Ellsworth land while on a long photographic mission.

A final radio message from the men said the plane was over the icy Roosevelt seacoast with the weather bad and snowy. This message was sent less than three hours after the plane took off at 2:45 a. m. Monday, or 4:45 a. m. Eastern Standard Time.

Fragmentary voice radio transmission was heard later when the plane was nine hours out. It was making a scheduled 10-hour, 1,350-mile flight but had enough fuel to stay aloft 21 hours.

The seaplane flew from the exhibition's Eastern Task Group, which is skirting the Polar continent, sending out photographic missions 1,000 miles east of this flagship group headed for Little America. The same two-engine plane carried (Continued on Page Two)

Frustration

Washington, Jan. 4—(AP)—A couple of tourists approached Senator Bilbo (D-Miss) in his office today, seeking passes for the visitors' gallery. "We would like to get into the Senate," they explained. "So would I," cracked Bilbo, and went on sorting his mail.

Crowded Calendar For UN In Coming Month

Balkan Probe Starts January 30; Trieste Question Heads Agenda For Security Council; Atomic Commission To Reconvene

New York, Jan. 4—(AP)—The United Nations' first on-the-spot investigation will get under way Jan. 30 in the Balkans with representatives of the 11 nations on the Security Council convening in Athens.

The commission, named after Greece complained that Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia were fomenting border incidents, will visit all four countries. Mark Ethridge of Louisville, Ky., will be the chief United States representative.

The Security Council will go back into session next Tuesday with a crowded calendar topped by the Trieste question. Other items include a Russian proposal that the council implement within 90 days the basic arms reduction program laid down by the General Assembly and an American resolution that control of atomic energy be given priority in discussions.

John Winant's resignation as U. S. representative to the Economic and Social Council has renewed speculation that the former ambassador to Great Britain eventually will join Secretary-General Trygve Lie's staff. John B. Hutson now holds the highest post of any American in the U. N.—that of assistant secretary-general in charge of administrative affairs.

The UN Atomic Energy Commission is in recess awaiting Security Council action on its first report, which embodied most of the original Baruch proposal. The commission, with its next step hinging on council action, expects to reconvene (Continued on Page Two)

MOUTET BACKS USE OF FORCE

French Minister Says Army Must Crush Viet-Namese

Paris, Jan. 4—(AP)—The French press agency reported today that Colonial Minister Marius Moutet, now in Indo-China, has decided that Viet-Nam Nationalists there must be crushed by the French Army before peace can be restored.

"It is necessary to have a military decision before any negotiations can be conducted," the agency quoted Moutet as saying in an interview at Hanoi.

Moutet now has returned to Saigon after a trip to Hanoi where he and his party repeatedly came under sniper fire. He said he had had no contacts with Viet-Nam representatives during his inspection tour to the embattled capital of the Viet-Nam Republic. Dispatches yesterday said two soldiers in the guard accompanying the minister's party were killed within 100 yards of Moutet.

Just before Moutet went to Hanoi, President Ho Chi Minh of the Viet-Nam Republic broadcast an invitation for a conference on the situation and yesterday another Viet-Nam broadcast appealed to Gen. LeClerc sent from Paris to take over military control, for a settlement. The broadcast said: "An equitable peace is still possible."

Coed Returns Home From 'Holiday Trip'

Former Convict With Whom She Disappeared Held In Custody; Professor-Father To File Charges After Conference

Columbus, O., Jan. 4—(AP)—The pretty 20-year-old daughter of an Ohio State University professor rested unharmed at her home today, and the 42-year-old former convict with whom she disappeared Wednesday was in custody at Cleveland. Their versions of the holiday trip that started a nationwide hunt differed vastly.

"Oh, Dad, it was awful!" Mary Virginia Kimberly was quoted by her father, Prof. Emerson E. Kimberly. "The old fellow wanted to marry me."

Kimberly, an electrical engineering professor, said his red-haired daughter "escaped" at Cleveland yesterday morning and then was taken to a train for Columbus by the ex-convict, Robert H. Hemming.

"She did not leave home of her own volition," Mrs. Kimberly declared her daughter had told her but neither parent would explain the circumstances of the girl's disappearance with Hemming in an automobile New Year's afternoon. They said previously that Hemming lured the Commerce College senior by telling her he was having a surprise party for Miss Kimberly and his daughter, Sara Hemming.

When told of Hemming's arrest last night, Mary was quoted by her father as saying: "I'll never have to see him again, will I?" Hemming's story, given to Detectives George Buckingham and John Masterson who arrested him at Cleveland last night was quoted as follows:

"Miss Kimberly went with me willingly. We had intended to go to Bowling Green, O., to get married. "Who suggested the trip," Hemming (Continued on Page Two)

Most Important Issue Year's Biggest International Problem Revolves Around Maneuvering Among Powers; Everything Rests On Whether Soviet Is Satisfied With Its Sphere

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Your correspondent has been asked to name the most important international issue with which we are faced this year—what one might call a mealy assignment. The middle of 1947 already are working full-speed on the heaviest peacetime grist of problems in history—and in every country domestic questions are so great as to tend to obscure foreign affairs. Still, it will be a grave mistake if we allow ourselves to become so absorbed in home matters that we lost track of what is going on in other lands. After all, this mischievous old globe of ours is in fact "one world"—so interlocked that the affairs of an individual country can't be separated from those of the rest. That is the way things stand, and whether we like it or not, we must work

DEMOS ASSURE COOPERATION

Rayburn Promises Support To Any Sound GOP Program

Washington, Jan. 4—(AP)—Sam Rayburn of Texas promised today that the Democratic minority in the House will cooperate with Republicans on any sound and helpful legislative program.

"It's going to be my position not to fight just for the fight's sake," said the former speaker who now is minority leader.

House Democrats say that before deciding whether to develop a legislative program of their own they want to have a look at the GOP proposals and hear the recommendations President Truman will make in his state of the union message.

The number one Republican bill proposes a 20 per cent cut in income taxes for everybody making up to $300,000 a year. First reaction of many Democrats was that the national debt should be pared before taxes, and that the Senate will reject a 20 per cent slash anyway.

But Rayburn told a reporter: "If measures are presented by the Republicans for the welfare of the country and the good of the people, we're going to go along with them—just as if they were Democratic measures."

Montgomery On Way To Moscow

London, Jan. 4—(AP)—Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, chief of the imperial general staff, left today on a military-inspection mission to Moscow saying, "I want to establish friendly contact with the Soviet Army."

Montgomery, asked if he would see Prime Minister Stalin, said, "I hope very much to see him, but it is a matter that lies in his hands."

Babson Discusses Jobs

Babson Park, Fla., Jan. 4—Many letters have come to me from young men and women all over the country asking where the best job opportunities will be found in the next few years.

Nothing More Permanent Than Change Several hundred years B. C. the Greek philosopher, Heraclitus, said, "There is nothing more permanent than change." His philosophy still holds good—especially in the world of work. Planning a wise vocational choice is, in some ways, like duck hunting. If you shoot where the bird is at any given moment, you may waste your ammunition. Job opportunities are always in more or less of a flux due to such factors as (1) wars, (2) boom periods, (3) depressions, (4) new inventions, (5) changes in peoples' wants and desires.

Probably the best way to predict the job opportunities of tomorrow is by looking at the trends of yesterday. For example, according to the U. S. Bureau of Census, 33 out of every 100 gainfully employed in 1910 were in agricultural pursuits. Today only 18 out of 100 are so employed. This casualty, for the most part, has been due to technological development. Thirty years from now

KNUTSON WILL JAM TAX BILL TOWARD VOTE

Only Gov't Witnesses In Hearing Before Being Taken Up By House

Washington, Jan. 4—(AP)—Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the House Ways and Means Committee, determined to jam his tax-slashing bill through Congress quickly, said today it will be sent to a House vote without hearing from anyone but government witnesses.

The committee will receive testimony only from the Secretary of the Treasury and congressional tax experts on Knutson's proposal to cut taxes on incomes up to $300,000 by a straight 20 percent, the Minnesota told reporters.

He conceded that he may have been "overly optimistic" in setting April 1 as effective date for the $3,550,000,000 reduction in 1947 in individual income levies, but declared: "If this bill has hard sledding it will be entirely due to lack of knowledge on the part of the members of Congress."

"We take the position there won't be any revenue loss. In the long run we will get more revenue by increasing business through the encouragement of a lighter tax load."

Knutson figured his 20 percent cut, limited to the first $300,000 of any individual income, would benefit about 35,000,000 persons. On income beyond $300,000 the cut would be limited to 10.5 percent.

There are only about 1,000 Americans in the bill's upper bracket, Knutson said, and "in general, incomes above $300,000 are unearned."

As now drawn the measure would reduce on April 1 the tax withholdings against wages and salaries. The reduction would be retroactive to January 1, and refunds would be made on excessive withholdings during January, February and March.

Canada Observes New Citizenship

Ottawa, Jan. 4—(AP)—Canadians are observing with fanfare their new status as legally recognized, full-fledged "Canadian citizens," which they now hold along with their former rating as "British subjects."

A National Citizenship Week was launched last night in a 45-minute ceremony in the chamber of the dominion's Supreme Court in Ottawa, broadcast throughout the dominion and recorded at length in the press, in news reels and by news photographers.

A group of 11 men and women of the Ottawa area born outside the British Empire received citizenship certificates in a naturalization ceremony similar to that long observed in the United States.

A dozen others, born in Canada or other parts of the British Empire, or previously naturalized, also received certificates as "visible and legal proof" of their citizenship. Certificate number one went to Prime Minister W. L. MacKenzie King.

Stalemate In Senate May Be Broken By Republicans

Strategists Consider Alternatives: Holding Of Continuous Session, Or, Imposing Of Rule Of Cloture; Senate Meets Again At Noon Today

Washington, Jan. 4—(AP)—Republican leaders tacked the Senator Bilbo stalemate today with a threat to hold the Senate in a marathon session until southerners abandon their filibuster against ousting the Mississippian.

As an alternative, the GOP strategists saw a chance to drum up the two-thirds majority necessary to limit debate.

They ordered a morning (10:30) caucus to consider means of untying the parliamentary knot which kept not only Bilbo but 35 others from taking the oath of office at the opening session.

The Senate was called to meet at noon, and Senator Taft (Ohio) declared it will probably be necessary to hold the Senate in continuous session unless Bilbo's backers quit talking.

Senators Brewster (Me) and Ferguson (Mich.) predicted an attempt to impose cloture—curtailment of debate—would be the final decision by the Republican strategists.

If the GOP could count on 11 Democrats who voted with them on one point yesterday they would have exactly the two-thirds majority to invoke this seldom used device.

The GOP had 29 members seated against 31 Democrats. The 11 Democratic votes would give them a 40 to 20 majority for debate limitation.

But the 80th Congress went into its second day with Democrats still in the Senate saddle despite the 51-45 majority the GOP will hold when all are sworn in. Republicans had already organized the House and adjourned it Monday.

President Truman may deliver his state of the union message then if the Senate deadlock over Bilbo is broken or an agreement can be arrived at to take time out and go to the House for a joint session.

Democratic Leader Barkley (Ky.) offered to help out with a resolution which would give Bilbo his seat only temporarily, fix the start of Senate debate on his case for January 14, and require only a majority vote to determine whether he should remain.

Taft, chairman of the GOP steering committee, declined. He said he believes that once Bilbo goes in he couldn't legally be removed without a two-thirds vote.

In a radio address later the Ohioan brought up the possibility of (Continued on Page Two)

NCEA TO ASK NEW PAY HIKE

Will Present 30 Per Cent Increase Plea To Assembly

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 4—(AP)—The State Education Association, backed by the United Forces for Education, will ask the General Assembly for a 30 per cent increase in teachers' salaries.

The decision to hike the NCEA request for teachers by an additional 10 per cent was reached here last night after a three-hour session of the NCEA Legislative Committee with United Forces officials.

The group again reserved the right to boost the teacher pay request still higher if the cost of living should continue to rise.

Voting against the agreement for the 30 per cent increase was R. L. Fritz of Hudson, Legislative Committee member and Steering Committee chairman of the South Piedmont Plan under which still higher increases are sought.

The United Forces for Education includes the N. C. State Grange, the N. C. State Farm Bureau Federation, the State Federation of Women's Clubs and the State Congress of Parents and Teachers. The Farm Bureau Federation was not represented at last night's meeting which followed an afternoon meeting of the NCEA Legislative Committee.

Indications that the NCEA would take a step toward elevating its 20 per cent goal were seen this week following a published statement by NCEA officials citing U. S. Bureau of Labor figures reflecting increased living costs.

Returns Willingly To State Prison

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 4—(AP)—Bainbridge Autry, 31-year-old former Wade grocery clerk, is back in State Prison today, glad that his father persuaded him to end his existence as a fugitive.

Missing since he broke out of Cumberland County Prison Camp last Dec. 5, Autry yesterday was escorted to State Prison headquarters by his father who had been asked by State Prison Inspector Kyle Matthews to send his son back if he showed up at home.

Under a five-year sentence in 1941 for abduction, the young man said he "would rather be back in prison than go on prowling around and hiding." Prison records showed he had attempted two previous escapes.

Cashing Leave Bonds Third On House List

Washington, Jan. 4—(AP)—A bill proposing cash payment for GI's of their terminal leave allowance is No. 3 on the new House's calendar.

It was introduced by Rep. Rogers (D-Fla.) who asked two months ago that his bill be given the first number. However, the No. 1 and No. 2 spots went to the Republican tax reduction bills.

Teen-Aged Gang Looks For Fight

Baltimore, Jan. 4—(AP)—A gang of about 100 teen-agers invaded the northeastern section of Baltimore in jeeps, trucks and automobiles last night to keep a "free-all fight rendezvous with a rival gang," police reported, but the fight never materialized.

Police said the invading youths all from the Highland section and wearing handkerchiefs around their arms, alighted from the vehicle and scattered with shouts of "Get them, boys!" with the immediate result that the Milton Street neighborhood was quickly cleared of neighborhood youths by their anxious parents.

Eight of the invaders were arrested for disorderly conduct, while northeastern district police described as "bothering pedestrians and automobile drivers."

Police and witnesses attributed the incident to the presence of members of both groups at a New Year's Eve party, where insulting remarks were passed about the respective neighborhoods.

Knutson's Tax Bill

Don't Count On Immediate Action To Cut Your Income Tax; Many Opponents To Measure; What It Would Mean To You; Taxes And The Public Debt

Washington, Jan. 4—(AP)—Congress has started the ball rolling to cut your income tax in 1947.

It may happen. Don't count on it until it does. Plenty of congressmen don't like the idea.

Right after Congress opened yesterday Rep. Knutson, Minnesota Republican, offered a bill which would:

Cut 20 per cent off the tax on all incomes up to $300,000 in 1947 and 10 1-2 per cent on all over $300,000.

(Probably not more than 1,000 people make over $300,000.) You can figure out for yourself what such a cut would mean to you by taking 20 per cent of your 1946 tax.

Strength FOR THE DAY By EARL L. DOUGLAS

ATHEISM MEANS DESERTION.

There are some people who apparently give no attention whatsoever to God and religion. They climb into bed at night without offering up a prayer. They spend Sunday morning in bed, Sunday afternoon on the golf course or at the movies, Sunday evening at a social gathering. Decade after decade passes, life goes smoothly, and about the only time they ever think of God is when they use his name in profanity. Sometimes when trouble strikes they turn to Him, they take the Bible down off the top shelf, blow the dust off it, and try to get caught up on a little back reading. Sometimes it proves successful and sometimes it does not.

But these people have not renounced God; they have just transferred their allegiance to another deity. They have got rid of the one true God but they have fashioned a pleasant little shrine, and here they worship their new deity, which is themselves. The self-confidence which accompanies such worship is a most tragic illusion. If we lose a sense of the reality of that God who made the world and sustains both it and all the creatures therein, we are not so wicked as we are foolish. Atheism has no sense to it, and those who practice it are poor misguided creatures. And the atheists are not just those who deny God and denounce Him, but above all the great multitude who have deserted Him.

WASHINGTON LETTER

JOE MARIN TO MOVE HIS ELEPHANTS INTO ORNATE OFFICE

Washington — When Rep. Joe Marin (R-Mass.) moves into the ornate office of the Speaker of the House, with his many belongings and crystal chandeliers, he'll take along a collection of elephants—and one donkey.

The last was sent to Joe by some Democratic friends during the Willie campaign as a gag reminder that Joe's party's candidate for the presidency had once been a Democrat.

The pachyderms marched around filing cabinets, mantels and bookcase shelves, busily trodded at bookends and balanced on rims of ashtrays in the office of Joe occupied in the capitol building as miniature herder.

They range from quarter-size glass ones to big bronze types. Once a Chinese friend of Joe's sent him a pair of rare jade elephants, delicately carved. Somebody hooked one, so Joe had the other put under cover for safekeeping.

Relegated always to an inconspicuous place in a small elephant's trunk is sort of uruguay in the air. An elephant with his trunk down is supposed to be bad luck. Rep. Leslie Arends (R-Ill.), a Republican whip of the House, has a large collection of the same beasts.

The elephant, long the familiar symbol representing the G.O.P. (Grand Old Party) in American caricature, was originated by Thomas Nast, who also introduced the donkey to typify the Democratic Party and the tiger to typify Tammany Hall.

Nast first used the elephant to represent the Republican vote in a cartoon which appeared in the Nov. 7 issue of Harper's Weekly in 1874.

The picture showed the collected animals of the forest—representing various newspapers, states of the union and issues—being frightened by the donkey in a lion's skin, crying "Caesarism." The elephantine Republican vote, alarmed like the others, is on the verge of a pitfall covered loosely by various and deceptive planks.

Nast, born in Landau, Germany, came to this country in 1846 with his mother. At the age of 15 he became a draughtsman for Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper and three years later for Harper's Weekly.

His first serious work was a cartoon published in Harper's Weekly. It was directed against those in the North who opposed the prosecution of the Civil War.

meet within the same nation, one of them must die.

This is a problem which has existed ever since the Bolshevik Revolution which established the Soviet government. For years England fought the attempted penetration of communism which was Moscow-backed. So did the United States. It wasn't until 1933 that Washington recognized the red communist government.

Knutson's Tax . . .

Continued from Page 1 $276-$300-$376-$10,000 — $1,500 — $1,200-$300 — $15,000-$3,000-$2,400 — $600 — $25,000-$6,000-$4,800 — $1,200 — $50,000-$20,000-$16,000 — $4,800 — $100,000-$55,000-$44,000 — $11,300 — $200,000-$125,000-$103,000 — $25,000 — $300,000-$200,000-$160,000 — $40,000.

In short: Everyone would receive the same 20 per cent cut. But it would mean only a little to the little fellow and a great deal to the big fellow.

Here is why many Democrats and some Republicans oppose a 20 per cent cut: They think ways should be found to reduce the cost of running the government before taxes are cut and this is why they say that:

This country has a huge public debt—about $260,000,000 — because it had to borrow money to run the government and fight the war.

It's trying to pay off some of the debt but every year it must pay out about $5,000,000,000 in interest alone on that debt.

The government—to run itself and handle the debt—depends mostly on taxes on individuals and corporations.

In 1946 the income tax on individuals will mean about $16,000,000 for the government. A 20 per cent cut in 1947 would cost about $3,350,000,000.

That $3,350,000,000 would be more than half the interest on the debt. In addition, starting July 1 automatically, by law there will be a drop of about $1,500,000,000 in excise taxes.

(These are government taxes on things like jewelry, furs, liquor, taxes on them will not be wiped out but will be cut down.)

That $1,500,000,000 lost to the government in excise taxes—if added to the $3,350,000,000 lost by a 20 per cent tax cut—would be about $4,850,000,000.

That would be almost enough to pay the interest on the public debt.

Good Opportunities in Transportation, Distribution, Trade Vacations. These must complement the manufacturing and mechanical industries.

People here long without them. Someone must transport these goods from the factory, and someone must distribute them to the consumer. The number of workers involved in such pursuits has more than doubled since 1870 and will, no doubt, continue to increase in the years ahead.

For young women the clerical field will probably continue to offer the best opportunities. The number of clerical workers more than doubled from 1910-1945. These jobs will continue strong in order to keep up with the needs of business and industrial, transportation and distributive activities. But as wages increase, young women must do more and better work. "Any girl" cannot get jobs much longer.

Babson's Advice to Job Hunters It is impossible to have a great war without "paying the piper." Sooner or later we are bound to witness a business depression. Therefore, whether you be laborer, operator, craftsman, salesman, administrator, or what, look for work with (a) a company whose earnings fluctuate a minimum between good times and bad times. A toilet tissue manufacturer would qualify, while a steel company would not. Or (b) work for a company which furnishes a necessity and whose business holds up during a depression. A fire insurance company would qualify, while a hotel would not. Or (c) work for a growing industry such as chemical companies. Or (d) work for a concern that can quickly mark up prices in case of inflation. Chain stores would qualify; railroads would not.

Prominent Guests; Post's Charter and Colors Presentation

The Charles Gray Morgan Post No. 7032 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has completed its arrangements for a special meeting Thursday night, January 9, at the Woman's Club. Supper will be served at 7 o'clock.

Bryan M. Crosby, director of the National Buddy Poppy Dept. of Kansas City, Mo. will be the main speaker. Mr. Crosby will visit four posts while in North Carolina. The other three being Asheville, Hickory and High Point.

Another feature of the meeting will be the dedication of the Post, presentation of the Post's Charter and Post Colors by Otis M. Brown, past State Commander of the VFW of North Carolina.

Other guests for the meeting will be David LeRoy, editor of State VFW Leader, A. C. Ingrams, State Adjutant and Quartermaster, and J. C. Tinker, deputy Chief of Staff, will send representatives to this All posts in Eastern North Carolina meeting.

Members' wives, mothers and sisters will also be present. Members have been urged to return cards for number of reservations wanted.

Time Out Called In Bailey Eulogy

Washington, Jan. 4.—(AP)—The Senate took time out from partisan bickering over seating of Sen. Bilbo yesterday to pay tribute to the memory of Josiah W. Bailey, North Carolina veteran of 46 years in the upper house, who died in Raleigh, Dec. 15.

Sen. Clyde R. Hoey, who replaced him as senior Tar Heel senator, eulogized Bailey as a man who had served with singular devotion to the public interest.

Bailey was a resourceful leader in many Senate fights. His masterful argument against the measure to reorganize the Supreme Court was accounted one of the great addresses made in this body during the century, Hoey said.

British delegation sources contend that London's forthcoming complaint to the Security Council against Albania will be a model of procedure. In it the British will demand an apology and compensation for loss of life and property in the damaging of two British destroyers in the Corfu Straits with 44 casualties. The vessels struck mines last October.

"You don't propose these things I just stated out. The whole thing started at a New Year's Eve party. I have known her for a long time—she is a friend of my daughter."

Hemming was held on a suspicious person warrant filed by Prof. Kimberly yesterday morning.

Elbert Moore has returned to Abingdon, Va., after spending several days at his home in Greenville.

Mrs. Thad Williams, 1304 Charles Street, is recuperating from a major operation in Pitt General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Baines and Miss Dot Baines of Washington, D. C. are spending the week-end with Mrs. Frank W. Wilson.

Nichols-Dew The wedding of Miss Grace Dew of Charlotte, daughter of Mrs. James L. Dew and the late Mr. Dew of Marion, South Carolina, and Isham B. Nichols of Charlotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Nichols of Greenville, North Carolina, took place last Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at Main Street Methodist Church in Dillon, South Carolina. Rev. Pierce E. Cook, pastor of the church, officiated.

The vows were spoken before an improvised altar of evergreen and seven-branched candelabra holding white tapers, and baskets of white gladioli and ferns. Mrs. Alfred Campbell, organist, played "Indian Love Call," "To An Evening Star," and "Serenade." Miss Evelyn Rogers sang "Until," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and as the benediction, "The Lord's Prayer." The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played for the professional, and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, James L. Dew, Jr., wore a white satin gown with train, long pointed sleeves, tight fitted bodice, with a deep yoke of marquisette forming a rounded neckline. She wore a three-quarter length veil with seed pearls crown, and carried a small white prayer book topped with white orchids and tube roses. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls.

Mrs. C. B. Ranson, Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Donna Green and Miss Marian Lippard, both of Charlotte. Their dresses were of taffeta and net and the matron of honor wore blue, the bridesmaids wore pink, and all carried nosegays of carnations in pastel shades.

B. C. Smith of Charlotte was best man. Ushers were C. E. McMillon of Charlotte, and Walter Dew, brother of the bride, student at the University of S. C., Columbia, South Carolina.

Mrs. Dew, mother of the bride, wore a black velvet gown with a shoulder bouquet of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Nichols, mother of the bridegroom, wore a cream crepe gown with a shoulder bouquet of pink carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mrs. Dew and Mrs. C. P. Goodyear entertained at a reception at her home on 505 North 4th Street in Dillon, South Carolina. The home was decorated with white flowers and greenery. The dining room table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a wedding cake, flanked by bowls of white flowers and white candles.

Miss Irene Robbins of Florence, South Carolina, Misses Eunice and Margaret Bayes, Miss Dorothy Brown, and Mrs. McDaniel assisted in serving. Mrs. L. H. Hayes kept the bride's register.

After the reception, the young couple left for a trip north, and on their return, they will make their home on 2015 Kenilworth Avenue, Charlotte, North Carolina. For traveling, the bride wore a gray suit with green accessories, and a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

The bride was graduated from Zion High School at Mullins, South Carolina, and King's Business College at Charlotte, North Carolina. Since she has held a position with Standard Accident Insurance Company of Charlotte, North Carolina.

The bridegroom received his education at Arthur High School, Greenville, North Carolina, and Louisiana College, Louisiana, North Carolina. He received his discharge last October after having served in the Army three years, two years of which time he spent in the European theatre of operations. Mr. Nichols is now connected with P. F. Collier and Sons in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. G. S. Nichols and Miss Ann Crawford of Greenville, North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Holland, Mrs. J. S. Culbertson, Miss Evelyn Thomas, Mr. Guy Wise, Mr. Grady Estep, Miss Mary Bartlett, Mr. Charles Nichols, Mr. Calvin Dellinger, Mr. B. C. Howard, Mrs. C. E. Hottest Day

Last Sunday, December 29, was the hottest December day ever recorded at the local weather bureau. The thermometer registered 79 degrees, an all-time record, Mrs. C. E. Malden, airways observer for the Department of Commerce, Atlanta, Ga., said. Less than two-thirds of an inch of rain fell here during the past several days—sixty 100th—to be exact. The precipitation was mostly a drizzle. The official weather forecast for tomorrow is winds and clearing skies and colder.

Police said the owner reported nothing missing, except a few pennies.

LIBERALS OFF TO NEW START

Leaders Urge Adoption Of Demo Party As Instrument

Washington, Jan. 4.—(AP)—A new liberal movement was pointed by its leaders today toward support of a Democratic party molded along new deal lines for 1948's presidential election.

Under sponsorship of the union for Democratic action, 150 liberal and labor leaders met at the Willard Hotel today, advised by Chester Bowles not to harbor any illusions about a third party.

Bowles, former economic stabilizer, urged UDA to accept the Democratic party with all its faults as it most effective instrument for political action.

"If we expect to regain the ground the ground we shall have lost by 1948 we must elect a liberal president and a liberal congress," Bowles told a dinner rattened by more than 400 UDA members and well-wishers at the Shoreham Hotel here last night.

Members of the UDA staff indicated that the organization, in its day-long closed session, would follow Bowles' advice, although some persons attending advocated adoption of the third party technique.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, another speaker at last night's dinner, wished the group good luck and extended her best wishes "for your great success as leaders not only at home but in the world."

MAN BITES DENTIST Chicago, Jan. 4.—(AP)—Dr. Barnett Mindlin, a dentist, told central police this sad tale: John Langhout, 70, a patient in his chair, objected to a repair bill on his false teeth and said he would not pay. Dr. Mindlin reached into Langhout's mouth for the teeth. The mouth clanged shut. Mindlin exhibited a swollen finger.

The Children's Corner

Sheppard Memorial Library How often have you wished for a charm, like "Abracadabra," or "Open Sesame," to cheer your dullest moments, and make each day brighter?

"The Sea Is Blue" tells the story of a young boy who was given this precious gift, and what he did with it. Timothy Burney was the son and grandson of seafaring men in old Nantucket. He lived with his uncle captain by the sea, but because he was timid, and shy, he found it hard to make friends with the other children at the village school.

One wild and stormy night, Uncle Captain left Timothy alone in their house. A shipwreck at sea made it necessary for the Captain to help in the rescue work. It was a hard and lonely night for Timothy, and when Uncle Captain returned late the next day, he gave Timothy his secret charm for overcoming worry, fear, and boredom. Before long, this secret helped Timothy find a real friend, and through the years that followed, Cecelia and Timothy played a game with their Talismans, which helped him through the long years of work and study preparing for his future career.

The secret charm is a wonderful one, and right at hand for you to use, too. Ask for "The Sky Is Blue," by Marie A. Lewson, at the library soon. You will enjoy it thoroughly. —Mrs. Roscoe Hauser, Jr.

Attempted Robbery Of Service Station

Police today were investigating the breaking and entering of Duke's Service Station, on the other side of the river, last night. Entrance was gained by forcing a door. The would be robber broke open several drawers in search of money, police said.

Eppes Quint To Play Adkin High

The boys and girls basketball teams of Eppes High will play the Adkin High School teams of Kingston, Tuesday January 7 at 7:30 p. m. in the Eppes' gym. The Kingston teams are very highly rated in the athletic circles of North Carolina. The teams at Eppes are developing very rapidly, the girls showing fine form in defeating La Grange girls 28-2 while the boys team smothered the La Grange five by 34-6.

Adkin's team is expected to provide one of the greatest games of the season for local basketball fans. Captain Davis is determined to lead his team to victory despite the great reputation won by his foes. Probable starting lineup: Davis center; Clemons and Taft, forwards; Streeter and Johnson guards. Reserves who may see action are Billie Davis, Parker, Taylor, Maulsby, Langley and Shields.

BASEBALL MEETING. President Guy V. Smith has called a meeting of the officers and directors of the Greenville baseball club in the court room of the City Hall Monday night at 7:45 o'clock. New officers and directors are to be elected and other business is to be transacted.

Deadline Is Set On GI Insurance

Veterans whose National Service Life Insurance policies have lapsed were urged to take advantage of easy reinstatement provisions today by James D. Walters, Veterans Administration Contact Representative.

February 1, 1947, is important to veterans who wish to reinstate their insurance without going to the trouble of a physical examination. Holders of lapsed term policies, the level-premium insurance originally issued, can reinstate prior to February 1, 1947, or within six months after date of lapse, whichever is later, by signing a statement of comparative health and paying two premiums.

Reason for payment of two premiums when term policies are put in force again is that one premium covers the 31-day "grace" period following the veteran's last premium payment, and the other covers the month after reinstatement. Full information and assistance will be given veterans who desire to reinstate NSLI at the VA Contact Office, located in the Armory, Greenville, N. C.

ELI BLOOM IS HEAD KIWANIS

N. C. Brooks Is Vice-President; Ed Rawl, Lieut.-Governor
By CHESTER WALSH
Eli Bloom, attorney and solicitor of City Recorder's Court, was installed as president of the Greenville Kiwanis Club for 1947 at the weekly supper meeting last night. He succeeds Ed Rawl, who became lieutenant-governor.

Sam Bundy, a past governor of Carolina Kiwanis Districts, inducted the officers and directors. N. C. (Jefferson Standard) Brooks is vice-president. Directors are Odell C. Calhoun, David A. Evans, Judge J. W. H. Roberts, Guy V. Smith, Milo Smith, Tom Wilson, J. Arthur Collins and Tige Gardner. David C. Moore, Jr. is secretary-treasurer. President Bloom and retiring President Rawl spoke briefly, Bloom pledging his best service in the office, and Rawl expressing appreciation of the opportunity of being president of one of the best Kiwanis clubs in the Carolinas District. As lieutenant-governor of the Seventh Division, Rawl yesterday installed officers at meetings of the Kingston and Goldsboro Kiwanis clubs. Monday night he performs a similar duty at the Farmville club. Secretary Moore's report of the past year's activities showed that 1946 was the best year the Greenville club has experienced. Cooperation was the feature of the year, incidentally.

A. T. Powell, Louis Allen of Farmville, and Bill Speight, formerly an Attorney General Harry McMullan's staff in Raleigh, now associated with J. B. James in the practice of law here, were special guests. State Senator Arthur B. Corey announced the appointment of W. H. Woolard, president of the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, as Pitt County chairman for the State wide heart program.

Albert Lum was awarded a one-year perfect attendance emblem. Don Conley won the attendance prize. Dave Moore and J. T. Barnhill had birthdays and each of them donated a nickel for the underprivileged child fund. Herman Duncan has charge of next week's program. Mrs. Ray Tyson, was accompanied for the staging and James Ray Pittman was leader. The club now has a membership of 75—the limit—and a waiting list.
