U. N. SECURITY COUNCIL BACK IN LIMELIGHT

Meets Today To Welcome New Members; Old Headaches on Calendar

Lake Success, N. Y., Jan. 7.—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council meets today to welcome three new non-permanent members, accept future stewardship over Trieste and perhaps plunge again into the dispute between the United States and Russia over disarmament and atomic controls.

Starting the new year under the chairmanship of Australia's Norman J. O. Makin, who presided at the first meeting in London a year ago Jan. 17, the council had before it the Trieste decision the Foreign Ministers' Council.

New Assignment

British Decide To Partition Holy Land

London, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Colonial Secretary Arthur Creech Jones were reported today to have decided in principle that partition of Palestine into Arab and Jewish states was Britain's only hope of settling the Holy Land problem.

Two Measures Offered By Senators Hit Portal-Pay Claims

Washington, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Two bills designed to sharply curb portal pay suits to a trickle at most vied for Senate consideration today.

Agreement In Principle Said Reached To Set Up Jewish And Arabic States As Only Solution To Problem

While the colonial and foreign offices studied what this information called several variations of the partition theme, the British government received an appeal from Hagana, most moderate of Jewish underground organizations in Palestine to shun any large scale retaliatory operations in the Holy Land.

The British cabinet expected to consider Palestine proposals next Thursday. An atmosphere of urgency was heightened by the steady flow of British soldiers, veterans of North African desert warfare, from Egypt into Palestine, where London sources have predicted a large scale offensive to crush Jewish underground resistance.

They were introduced by Senators Wiley (R-Wis.) and Capelhart (R-Ind.) as amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

U. S. Disarmament President's Message Answers Question As To When We Can Reduce Heavy Costs Of War Machine; America Awaits Strengthening Of United Nations

President Truman's message to Congress gives us a succinct answer to one of the burning questions of the day: when will it be possible to achieve at least partial disarmament and so reduce the mountainous expenditures for the maintenance of a vast fighting machine?

N. C. ASSEMBLY DEMOS GATHER FOR SESSIONS

Hold Caucus Tonight; Blythe And Pearsall Certain Of Positions

Raleigh, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Democratic members of each House of the State's first post-war General Assembly will caucus here tonight at 8 o'clock in the capitol for the purpose of choosing a president pro tempore of the Senate and a speaker of the House of Representatives.

These unofficial initial sessions of the Legislature will be the forerunners of official and formal opening here tomorrow at noon of the 1947 General Assembly.

The legislative body, although boasting a surplus of nearly $50,000,000, is scheduled to be beset with demands for huge expenditures for many state agencies and allied programs, and these demands will make a large dent in the revenues.

Certain to be nominated as the president pro tempore of the Senate is Senator Joe Blythe of Charlotte, certain for speaker of the House is Rep. Thomas J. Pearsall of Rocky Mount.

There is some doubt as to who is to preside over the caucus in the Senate. It will be either Willie Lee Lumpkin of Franklin or Rivers D. Johnson of Duplin.

Lumpkin, a member continuously of the General Assembly since 1929, has served longer than any of his colleagues. But Johnson makes to deny him the privilege since the Duplin senator first entered the Legislature in 1911.

It is certain that Rep. Reg. L. Harris of Roxboro will preside over the House caucus.

Nominations, also without dispute, as scheduled to be made tonight for the principal clerk in each house of the Legislature. S. Ray Byerly of Sanford is regarded as a certain candidate for the Senate post, which he has held since 1937. Mrs. Annie Cooper of Raleigh, clerk in the 1945 session, is assumed of the lower House position.

BRIDES CLAIM ABUSE IN U. S.

British Girls Describe Mistreatment By Americans

London, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Prominently headlined stories of G.I. "brides of despair"—British girls "abandoned" by their American soldier husbands in New York—appeared in most London newspapers yesterday, with purported details of neglect by U. S. officials and mistreatment by the American people.

The stories stemmed from an interview given by Mrs. Millie Vincent when she arrived from the U. S. last night with a tale of "abuse by proxy" from Charles Woodrow Vincent of Birmingham Alabama.

Mrs. Vincent, who has a 12-year-old son by a previous marriage, told the British Press Association that when she reached New York last August she was informed by an immigration official:

"You are a divorced woman. You have no right to travel here under false pretenses at the expense of the U. S. government."

Truman's Middle Course In Message Praised By Many

Extremist Element In China Hampered Envoy

Marshall Says Peace Work Frustrated By Men On Both Sides In Strife-Torn China; Sees Salvation In Minority Groups

Washington, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall declared today the salvation of strife-torn China "would be the assumption of leadership by the liberals in the government and the minority parties."

In a 1200 word "personal statement," the President's personal envoy to China said that "sincere efforts to achieve settlement of the strife between the Government and Communist forces have been frustrated time and again by extremist elements of both sides."

Marshall, who is leaving Nanking tomorrow to report personally to President Truman, asserted that the Chinese Government soon will undergo major reorganization under a new constitution.

In a temperate note of optimism he said that "now that the form for a democratic China has been laid down by the newly adopted constitution, practical measures will be the best."

Marshall assailed what he called "extremist" elements in Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Government and in the opposition Communist forces.

"The reactionaries in the Government have evidently counted on substantial American support regardless of their actions. The Communists by their unwillingness to compromise in the national interest

Demos See Consolidation Of Party Support Which Would Strengthen His Position If He Bids For Renomination; Programs Generally Approved

Washington, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Democrats concluded with relief today that President Truman held to a middle course in his state of the union message and this consolidated his party's support at the outset of the Republican-controlled Congress.

Praise for the president's legislative recommendations came from both wings of the party.

It was accompanied by indication that if Mr. Truman keeps to his course he chartered yesterday he may enjoy greater Democratic support than he previously has been able to muster in Congress. All agreed that such support would strengthen his position if he bids for renomination in 1948.

The president's labor program drew loud applause. Yet many Republicans said it didn't go far enough. They may expand it. Both the GOP and White House agree it must not be "punitive."

On taxes, the chief executive recommended only that Congress retain for another year the wartime excise rates on luxury items now due to end June 30. Republicans have been considering ending them immediately. And they have introduced a bill to trim 20 per cent from personal taxes on incomes up to $300,000.

It's evidently a toss-up whether Congress will merge the army and navy, as the president requests. Universal training and extension of the draft apparently are dead even before Mr. Truman makes definite bids for them.

This is the way some of the current presidential proposals stack up: Housing: The president asks for an aggressive program along lines of the Wagner-Elserud-Taft bill approved by the Senate last year.

Federal controls: The president and Republicans are in agreement they should be lifted as rapidly as possible.

Veterans: The president says the program of veterans benefits is complete except for minor adjustments. Many members of Congress, both Republicans and Democrats, are pushing bills for more billions to help former GIs.

He asked Congress to create a commission that would invent new machinery to prevent nation-wide strikes in such industries as transportation, coal, oil, steel or communications without endangering our general democratic freedoms.

He cautioned that upon a proper solution of this problem may depend the whole industrial future of the United States.

Big strikes, he said, can bring national disaster and soon the expiration of all war time powers will leave the White House powerless to help.

New York Camera Trickster Is Killed

"They'll Never Get Me Alive" Swore Alphonse Rocco; Pursuing Police Win Gun Duel In Catskill Mountain Hideout

By TONI ADAMS
Grand Gorge, N. Y., Jan. 7.—(AP)—"They'll never get me alive," Alphonse Rocco swore before he was shot to death in his snowy hilltop hideout near there, after a flight following the New Year's Eve "camera" shooting of his former wife in New York City.

Rocco met death last night under an evergreen tree and a full moon in Patchin Hollow, as he crouched in a sleeping bag taken from one of the two Catskill Mountain farm homes where he gained shelter for nearly 48 hours by brandishing two pistols.

He fired four shots from his German Walther automatic (PA38) as state police and New York City detectives waded through knee-deep snow to surround him. Then trooper James H. Smith, after shooting at close-range, called: "Come on out, you skunk!"

Rocco could not come out. A bullet from one of the guns fired by Smith, Cpl. Francis Hilsfrank and New York City Detective Henry Strauss had struck home. One had smashed his nose and the blood ran over the crusted snow.

State Police Inspector Charles La Forge led the uphill attack over the mile from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Lewis, where Rocco last had been seen.

The Lewis' admitted the lean fugitive in the company of Frank Naish in whose nearby Broome Center home Rocco had paced for 29 hours previously.

Rocco, leaving in the Naish garage the automobile he had stolen from a Bronx man, forced Naish to drive him to Grand Gorge shortly before 10 p. m., Saturday.

He never mentioned the trick (Continued on Page Three)

ALPHONSE ROCCO

Bilbo's Son May Run For Office

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 7.—(AP)—If Theodore G. Bilbo loses his fight for admission to the Senate, his son may become a candidate for the office in the state's November general election.

The senator's former wife predicted here today that their son, Lt. Col. Theodore G. Bilbo, Jr. would not be opposed if he decided to make the race. He is now with Army occupation forces in Germany.

Heirens Forgets Three Slayings

Menard, Ill. Jan. 7.—(AP)—One day after William G. Heirens says he does not remember the three slayings for which he is serving three life terms.

The 18-year-old former University of Chicago student whose three murder convictions include the kidnap-killing of Suzanne Degnan, 6, a year ago tonight, was quoted by Warden Walter Nierstheimer at the Illinois State Penitentiary, Menard branch, as saying he remembers several burglaries with which he was charged:

"I don't remember any of those murders."

Labor Legislation President Tells Congress To Move Slowly In Writing Measures Controlling Labor And Management; His Policy; Suggested Program For Coming Year

Washington, Jan. 7.—(AP)—President Truman stepped very carefully in telling Congress what to do about labor and management.

Briefly, he told Congress: Crack down right away on the little protesters but don't rush on the big ones.

Paratroops Used In French Attack

Paris, Jan. 7.—(AP)—French forces fanning out from Hanoi extended their control to Namdinh by a pre-dawn parachute assault and approached a link-up with troops from Haiduong, dispatches from Indo-China said today.

The French general staff said the parachute drop on the north bank of a canal near Namdinh in the lower reaches of the River Rouge south of Hanoi was "completely successful" and that mop-up operations in Namdinh itself were proceeding.

Two columns approaching each other from Hanoi and Haiduong on the Thai-Binh River east of Hanoi, erstwhile capital of the Vietnamese government, made good progress despite lively resistance, the dispatches said.

U. S. Disarmament

President Truman's message to Congress gives us a succinct answer to one of the burning questions of the day: when will it be possible to achieve at least partial disarmament and so reduce the mountainous expenditures for the maintenance of a vast fighting machine?

U. S. Disarmament

Mr. Baruch admonished the country not to give up the secrets of the a-bomb or to halt their manufacture until a treaty for their control has been made effective.

U. S. Disarmament

The Chief Executive says the United States will be willing to lead in collective disarmament when a "collective" disarmament—a system of collective security under the United Nations has been established. But, he adds, until such a system becomes a reality we must not again allow our weakness to invite attack.

Sugar Interests Hit By Anderson

Chicago, Jan. 7.—(AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson declared today this country's "integrity" requires continuing a program under which Cuban sugar is shared with other countries.

He asserted that "certain interests" he did not identify are laying down a "barrage of propaganda" for immediate lifting of price and ration controls on sugar. He said these interests promised consumers more sugar if controls were ended.

In a speech prepared for a meeting of the National Council of Farmer Cooperatives, the secretary said foes of the controls are counting on the offer of high prices in the United States to outbid needy countries and to bring this country a greater share of the world's short supplies.

Ollen E. Warren left last night for Newport where he is to plant about fifteen hundred pecan trees and a thousand supermum grapes for Hon. Larry I. Moore.

Some years ago the cost of running the legislature was $5,000. Two years ago it had grown to $71,000. With proper economy it can be reduced to $60,000 and should be done.

Women in the Church

by Mary Fowler

Twenty-two Chinese women leaders, all of them Christians and most of them graduates of Christian colleges in China, have received from the Methodist Church "Crusade scholarships" for study in the United States during the next two or three years. Seventeen of them are already in America; the others will be here shortly. This is part of a plan of the Methodist "Crusade for Christ" to assist outstanding leaders in preparing themselves for greater service to their nation in arts, science, literature, religion or education.

Dr. Leslie B. Moss, director of Church World Service, Inc., recently pictured for American women something of the terrible conditions existing among the children of the world—conditions that only American relief can make better. In Poland, he said, more than 1,000,000 are war orphans; and 70 per cent of the children are suffering from tuberculosis. In Yugoslavia, infant mortality is from 30 to 50 per cent of all births. One-third of all children in France lack adequate shelter and medical care. The tuberculosis rate has doubled in almost all parts of China; in one province 90 per cent of the children and adults suffer from malnutrition and are in rags; in another there is a widespread cholera epidemic. In some parts of India, he said, conditions are even worse than in China. Children in Greece need milk and other foods; in Germany they need moral teaching as well as food and clothing; in Hungary there are few drugs, and in some areas venereal disease is 80 per cent among the children. In the Philippines, hookworm has been having a holiday because there are few shoes. And the story of Japa nese children is homelessness and starvation in the city streets. "The most that we can do will still be too little," says Dr. Moss.

LEGION DRIVE FOR NEW HOME

Pitt County Post Renews Campaign For Building Fund

Going into the new year, Pitt County American Legion Post No. 39 renewed its drive for the construction of a new Legion home on the property recently purchased near the Greenville airport.

The proposed structure will measure 120 feet in length with a 60 foot width; the ground floor including a spacious hall, kitchen, lockers, storage room and stage. Three rooms are planned for the second floor to be used as offices or miscellaneous purposes.

A campaign for donations has been under way since late in November.

Veterans Extend Thanks Red Cross

Mrs. Margaret M. Odell, field director, Lawson Veterans Administration Hospital, Chamberlaine, Ga., sent the following message to the production corps of the Pitt County Red Cross Chapter:

"We would like to take this opportunity to thank you and the members of the Production Corps of the Pitt County Chapter for the very nice sweaters which we have received from you for the use of our patients.

Frequently we have patients admitted to our hospital without the proper clothing to take advantage of the off-station trips planned by the Recreation Department. The patients have been most appreciative of the sweaters which we have been able to give them so that they might enjoy the activities planned for them while they are hospitalized here.

We also have many patients who came into the hospital during the warm weather and are not properly clothed to be discharged now that winter is here. In these circumstances we have furnished them with sweaters so that they might return home.

Thanking you again for your continued cooperation in assisting us to better serve the patients of this hospital."

Greenville Pilot In Helicopter Mail Run

Newark, N. J., Jan. 7—(AP)—Charles Clark of Greenville, N. C. piloted one of the planes which inaugurated helicopter postal service in New Jersey.

After his first flight yesterday Clark said that when he landed at Bergenfield High School he was ber, to add to the building fund now on hand which amounts to about $5,000. The fifteen acre homestead has already been paid for out of the Legion treasury.

The Army has been under lease for some time by the Legionaires and has been used not only by the Post for social affairs but also as a community center.

Membership for the coming year is expected to exceed 1,000 veterans of World War I and World War II, and the need of a new home has become more apparent with the passing of time.

Pitt County's Legion Post No. 39 was one of the earliest posts formed in North Carolina following World War I, and has had an active part in State affairs of the Legion.

C. S. Woolworth Dies At Ninety

Scranton, Pa., Jan. 7—(AP)—Charles Sumner Woolworth, who was a founder of the Woolworth chain of 5 and 10 cent stores 65 years ago, died today at his home. He was 90 years old.

Woolworth, who had been in ill health for several weeks, opened his first store here 65 years ago and later formed the F. W. Woolworth Company with his brother, the late Frank W. Woolworth, and the late Fred M. Kirby of Wilkes-Barre.

Woolworth was born Aug. 1, 1856, at Rodman, Jefferson County, New York, the son of John and Fannie McBrier Woolworth.

The 5 and 10 cent store idea was credited to Charles, who began his career sweeping floors and tending fires at Watertown, N. Y., for $4 a week.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INDUCTED

Alex Allen Now President Farmville Kiwanis Club

By CHESTER WALSH
 Carolinas Kiwanis District Lieut. Governor Ed Rawl of Greenville last night installed Alex Allen, prominent Farmville businessman and community leader, as president of the flourishing Kiwanis Club in Farmville and other officers and directors. Allen succeeded Charley Hotchkiss, who had an outstanding administration. Ed Bloom, president of the Greenville Kiwanis Club, was a special guest.

 Incidentally, the Farmville club has the distinction of having four of the Allen brothers as members—Alex, Frank, Lewis and George—and they are all active in the club and the community.
 Lewis Williams is vice-president. Bernice Turnage is treasurer. John Parker succeeded Seth Barrow as secretary.
 Directors of the Farmville Kiwanis Club are Sam Bundy, a past district governor; Rev. B. T. Cox, John Dixon, Ernest Petteway, Ben Lewis, Ted Albritton, Sam Lewis and Howard Mayo. Immediate Past President Hotchkiss is also a director.
 The installation ceremony was impressive. Lieut.-Gov. Rawl enumerated the main objectives of Kiwanis, pointed out the wonderful opportunities Kiwanis provides for community service and neighborly contacts, and reminded the Kiwanians that "in Kiwanis, as in life, we get out of it just what we put into it."

 Rawl, who has experienced the joy of success in business; in baseball with the Columbia (S.C.) club, and football at the Citadel, urged the Farmville Kiwanians to "make each day a day of service in the 'good neighbor way.'" The lieutenant-governor congratulated the Farmville club for its excellent personnel and its achievements since it was organized in February, 1945, with Dr. "Rod" Williams as president. The club now has 45 members. Two new members were inducted last night—John R. Harris and Charley Quinley.

Hotchkiss and some other Farmville men as guests at the Greenville club. Dr. J. M. Barrett, then president of the club, said something about organizing a Kiwanis club in another town. Entirely out of order, but welcome, Hotchkiss stood up and said: "Come over to Farmville and we'll organize a Club as good as Greenville has. In less than a week wheels were set in motion to do this, and—the result: The Farmville club was organized and today it ranks among the top-notchers in the Carolinas Kiwanis District, incidentally.
 The Farmville club meets at the High School cafeteria Monday evenings at 7 o'clock.

 "I was framed" and "they'll never get me alive."
 The gun that inflicted the wound that necessitated amputation of one of Mrs. Rocco's legs was concealed by Christmas wrappings. Blonde Pearl Lusk, 19, told police Rocco under the pretense he was an insurance investigator, had instructed her to use the "camera" to photograph hidden jewelry he said Mrs. Rocco was wearing.
 La Forge, aided by Troop C Inspector Carl Lawson, used 50 Troop C and Troop G men for the trap. The inspector would not disclose who had informed him of Rocco's whereabouts, but observers believed Naish had given the tip when he finally left the fugitive at the Lewis farm.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE STADIUM—THEN AND NOW
We all have seen the picture of the Colosseum at Rome. It is one of the most familiar symbols of a civilization long past. We admire its symmetry and express wonder over its bulk, yet very few people ponder the fact that it sets forth in dramatic fashion the decadence of a great nation.

It was during the centuries that people of Rome were crowding into that Colosseum and yelling themselves hoarse over gladiatorial games that Rome was experiencing their most profound decline. The greater the public interest in games, the greater the decay of the nation. In the history of Rome, the Colosseum stands for decadence.

We live in an age in which the Colosseum plays a prominent part—only today we call the Colosseum the Stadium. Our athletic games are wholesome, whereas the spectacles at Rome were unwholesome and cruel. No one in his right mind would say that a great football game today is to be compared with the bloody encounter of 2000 years ago when gladiators hewed each other to pieces.

But the disposition of people to watch games instead of to play them, to attend contests rather than to take part in them is an unwholesome sign. The result of a fixation on entertainment of any kind is that people come to regard entertainment first as necessary and then as primary. This soon leads to the decay of national character.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—The telephone and typewriter, much more than politics, have made Washington seem "more than an ordinarily feminine town," says Jonathan Daniels, former press secretary to President Roosevelt.

In his book, "Frontier on the Po-tomec," Mr. Daniels observes that it is a strange thing that a quarter of a century after the Nineteenth Amendment there is such an acute scarcity of important women in the government of the nation.

"Nobody even discusses any more that old suggestion that women would elevate and purify the politics of their country," he says, adding that the women "have not done very well even for themselves."

He points out that once there was a lady Cabinet officer. That was Francis Perkins, Secretary of Labor.
He cites that there were but 10 women in Congress in 1946 and even fewer women in the whole executive branch getting as much as $9,000 a year.

"The electing people have done better by the sex than the appointing officials."

Daniels concedes that the congresswomen are important, but he believes that the really significant women in the capital are "seldom seen in the newspapers, but they are effective and essential in the operation of government itself."

The real economy pavement is CONCRETE

Hundreds of towns and cities throughout America have invested street funds with foresight by building fine-looking, long-lasting concrete streets.
Concrete is safer to drive on;
skid-resistant wet or dry—makes the whole neighborhood more attractive—protects taxpayers by guarding against future burdens of excessive maintenance and frequent replacement. They're far cheaper to own than so-called "low cost" streets with their ever-increasing repair bills.
Don't be satisfied with inferior surfaces. Urge your city officials to build with safe, economical concrete—the low annual-cost pavement.

There are only three great powers and the latter two are too exhaust-

"Little" Davids Whoop It Up, Defeat Pirates

Eighteen Hundred Fans Watch Hardwood Artists Clown Way To Early Lead; Pirates Provided Scare For Visitors In Second Half

The House of David basketball team left the students of East Carolina Teachers College and the basketball fans of Greenville in hysterics last night as they went on their way after whipping the Pirates of E.C.T.C. 56-51 in an exhibition game before 1800 people.

Both teams battled on even terms for the first ten minutes of the ball game, but the tricky artists of the David team soon broke loose with a barrage of shots from positions all over the floor. Bill Stejneger, the transcendent clown of basketball, thrilled spectators with his long shots from almost midcourt. When the half ended, the House had taken a 30-19 lead.

At the beginning of the second half, the show really started and the antics of the clowns often had the officials confused. Besides their clowning, the House of David team put on a phenomenal display of passing far greater than fans around here have seen in a good while. The Pirates showed more improvement in the second half, as they outscored the House of David team 22-26. Charlie Bill Moye, Doug Jones, and Jim Taylor proved hard to get along with and sneaked in many shots against their superior opponents. Going into the last few minutes of the game, the clowns seemed to have played a little too much; and the Pirates threw a scare into the David team that made them buckle down to hold their lead.

RENEWED HOPE FOR PHANTOMS

Local Basketeers Stronger; Game May Decide Conference Title

Greenville High's Green Phantoms take on the Kingston Red Devils here in the GHS gym tonight in the game that may well decide who shall be the Northeastern Conference basketball champions of 1947.

Greenville, winners of the conference crown for the last six years will be out to defend their title from the powerful Red Devils. Kingston will most likely be favored, however, in view of their starting 60-29 upset of Raleighs Class AA Caps.

The Devils operate from a fast break which has run up high scores in their pre-Christmas bouts.

Despite reports building up Kingston's strength, Coach Bo Farley's club is confident that it can deflate the Granger team's ego. Vast improvement over the pre-Holiday beatings has been made during the last few practice sessions and the return of Doug Guthrie to the squad has added another dependable ball player.

Coach Farley's starting line-up during the past two scrimmage sessions as seeking means of inducing sions has been Doug Guthrie and Cletas Jackson as forwards, Henry Turner and Dave Clark at guards, and Glynn Perkins at center.

This five will probably take the floor first, but slated to see action are Billy White, Sherrod White, and Jimmy Cox.

Eppes Quintets To Play Tonight

Eppes High will meet Adkins High of Kingston tonight at 7:30 in the Eppes gymnasium. This will mark the second game of the season for Eppes girls and boys, and they promise a very good game against the strong teams from Kingston.

For the girls, Coach Grimes plans to use E. Cherry, Forbes and Streeter as forwards; Calehoun, Harris and Grimes as guards, and also Savage, Nichols and Brown are expected to see plenty of action.

Coach Murrill had words of praise for his almost inexperienced team of boys; his probable starting lineup will be Clemens and Taft, forwards, Johnson and Streeter, guards, and Davis at center. Others who will see action will be B. Davis and Parker, guards; Langley and Mautsby, forwards, and Shields, center.

ECTC Squad Leaves For Test In Norfolk

The East Carolina Teachers College Basketball team left this morning for a two-day stand in Norfolk, Virginia. Tonight, the Pirates will meet the strong Norfolk Division of William & Mary; and tomorrow night, they will match shots with St. Helena College, which is a GI extension of Norfolk Division. The next home game for the local college will be on Friday night, January 17, when they entertain the Norfolk Naval Base.

Britain Decides . . .

as seeking means of inducing

Jews to join the renewed Palestine conference, now set for January 21 in London.

Hagana, largest of the Jewish underground groups, declared in a radio broadcast over the secret Palestine station "Voice of Israel," last night that retaliation against recent outbursts of violence in the Holy Land would only tend to create more terrorism.

It reiterated its oft-stated appeal to Irqun Zvai Leumi and the so-called Stern Gang, the most extreme underground organizations to cease their attacks against the British.

Greenville Club Plans For Season

By CHESTER WALSH
At a meeting of baseball fans at the City Hall last night, Guy V. Smith, the "daddy of baseball in Greenville," was reelected president of the Greenville Baseball Club.

W. W. (Bill) Lee was named vice-president, and David C. Moore, Jr. secretary and treasurer.

The secretary read the financial statement of 1946's operations of the club, and the report indicated that the club is in excellent condition.

President Guy Smith gave an interesting report of his trip to Los Angeles (at his own expense, incidentally) to attend the annual Baseball Convention in December. While there, Smith made some contacts which may lead to the hiring of an aggressive manager for the Greenville ball club.

A committee composed Bill Lee, chairman; Bryan Brown and Herman Duncan, was appointed to find a winning manager. The annual Coastal Plain League meeting will be held at the community building in Tarboro tonight at 6:30. Supper will be served. The most important business to come up for consideration will be selection of a club to replace Fayetteville, which withdrew from the Coastal Plain League. Smithfield in Johnston county, and Roanoke Rapids in Halifax county, are the two applicants for the berth.

Jurisdictional strikes, some secondary boycotts, and strikes or plant shutdowns caused by a dispute over a contract after it has been agreed to and is in effect. Take those three points one at a time:

1. Jurisdictional strikes. These are caused by a dispute between two unions. The owner is innocent in such a strike and has to suffer wrongly.

2. Secondary boycotts. Mr. Truman wants only unjustified secondary boycotts outlawed.

He thinks such boycotts are okay when used, for instance, to protect wage scales, but not boycotts to help out a jurisdictional dispute.

3. Strikes by labor or plant shutdowns by management over a dispute about a contract already agreed to and in effect.
