

GOP APPROVES HOLDING OVER EXCISE RATES

Lawmakers See Eye-To-Eye With Truman; Still Plan Income Tax Cut

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—Republican tax managers gave a green light today to legislation continuing indefinitely the high wartime excise rates on such things as liquor, furs and jewelry.

The surprise decision to head off an automatic $1,500,000,000 rollback in levies July 1 brought GOP lawmakers and President Truman eye to eye on the first major tax problem to confront the 80th Congress.

But Republicans expressed renewed determination to cut individual income taxes 20 per cent—move strongly opposed by the President.

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) said the House Ways and Means Committee may approve a bill continuing the high excises at its first meeting on Friday. Such a quick step, he said, would erase business uncertainty caused by consumers delaying purchases in anticipation of the otherwise automatic reductions six months hence.

The bill, to be offered by Rep. Grant (R-Ind.), would remove the incentive to stop buying in anticipation of tax cuts, Knutson said.

Moreover, he told newsmen, the continued large collection of excise revenues would make it easy for the Republicans to slash individual income taxes by a fifth this year.

Arnall Holds To Office Despite Talmadge Vote

Georgia Faced With Having Two Governors; Talmadge Elected By Assembly; Arnall Refuses Eviction By Yelling Mob

Atlanta, Jan. 15—(AP)—Ellis Arnall, who in the early morning hours defied threats of a yelling mob to oust him, held to the office of Governor of Georgia today, while Herman Talmadge, named to the post by the Legislature, set up shop outside.

Talmadge arrived at the capitol shortly after 9:30 a. m. and was ushered into a small room off the governor's reception room where Adjutant General Marvin Griffin had set up his office.

Arnall, who left the capitol in the early morning under protection of National Guardsmen after refusing to relinquish the office, had not returned when Talmadge arrived this morning. His entire staff was on duty, however, and a secretary said the governor is on the way to the office.

Early this morning the Legislature elected Herman Talmadge to the office in a tumultuous session. Arnall refused to relinquish the post and was escorted from the capitol unharmed by National Guard officers and close associates, who barricaded the doors of the executive chamber to save him from violence.

In a brief, dramatic encounter, Arnall told the youthful son of the late Eugene Talmadge: "I cannot surrender to a pretender."

Talmadge, escorted by a committee of 25 legislators and followed by whooping, surging followers, pushed into Arnall's office at 2:15 a. m. (EST). It was a quarter-hour after the Legislature had named him to the four-year term which his father, Eugene Talmadge, didn't live to serve.

"I presume," he said, "that you have been informed that I have been elected as governor by the General Assembly of Georgia."

Replied Arnall: "I understand the General Assembly allegedly has elected you, but the General Assembly cannot elect a governor. Accordingly, I respectfully but firmly refuse to yield the office to you whom I consider a pretender."

After a brief exchange, Talmadge demanded: "Do you defy the committee and the General Assembly of Georgia?"

"I do not," replied Arnall, sharply. "But I uphold the law. I cannot surrender to a pretender."

Talmadge turned to reporters saying aside, "I hope the press gets this." Then he addressed Arnall: "I hope you will not continue to thwart not only the people but the express direction of the General Assembly. It is not my intention as chief executive to create a scene of disorder. I intend to set up office at such places as are available, and conduct the office of governor."

Returned Arnall: "I likewise accede to that same position, and will continue to serve as governor of Georgia."

"We'll see," said Talmadge, turning on his heel.

"You were nice to come in," said Arnall pleasantly to Talmadge's back.

As Talmadge pushed through the crowd outside, a group sought to force its way into the executive

"Racketeering" In Pay Suits Raised

Witnesses In Senate Committee Hearing On Portal Pay Claims Question CIO Tactics In Pressing For Pay Suits

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—Senator Eastland (D-Miss.) raised the question today of whether a CIO union used racketeering tactics in pressing portal to portal pay suits.

The point came up when Senator Capchart (R-Ind.), testifying before the Senate Judiciary subcommittee on legislation to outlaw such suits, submitted a questionnaire which he said the CIO-Union Steel Workers Union circulated among its members.

Capchart said the questionnaire dealing with portal pay, put this inquiry among others:

"Do you normally take a shower before leaving the company property?"

"This indicates," Capchart said "that the unions are out on a fishing expedition and that they don't know whether they have a case or not."

Eastland, a member of the subcommittee asked:

"Isn't that more like racketeering?"

Capchart replied that it might be called that.

He added: "It's a high pressure sales campaign on a wholesale basis."

The subcommittee recessed until tomorrow morning after hearing Capchart and Senator Wiley (R-Wis.), author of separate bills to outlaw or curb portal suits.

Wiley told the crowded hearing room:

"The very real threat of bankruptcy now hanging over many individual employers, cannot be underestimated and an emergency exists."

"We cannot afford to wait with folded hands the determination of the courts on this crucial issue affecting the very life of our private enterprise system."

Capchart said the potential loss to the treasury from portal pay suits is so great that tax-cutting must be delayed until some remedy is found.

He also told a Senate Judiciary committee that the portal pay claims—already totalling more than $4,000,000,000—threaten the very existence of thousands of businesses and industrial units.

Capchart testified that if the pending portal suits are successful "even in a minor degree," the result "inevitably would be loss of tremendous sums of money in federal revenues due to reduction or elimination of tax liability and the greatly increased direct cost of goods and services to the federal government."

The Indiana senator suggested that the subcommittee call before it the secretaries of commerce, war and navy as well as other top federal officials to tell how these suits might bear on the fiscal aspects of their departments.

Capchart, an industrialist himself, said "we are facing a national problem which, if not promptly solved, may have disastrous consequences on production and commerce."

Lewis Case Now Up To Ruling Of Court

Findings May Not Be Announced Until Next Month; Will Settle Whether Government Has Right To Haul UMW Chief Into Court

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—The nine highest jurists in this country today set about deciding whether the Government had any legal right to hale John L. Lewis into court last November as a strikebreaking scab.

It may be weeks before the Supreme Court announces its findings, but the justices themselves may know by Saturday what the answer will be, along with the one to this second question:

Will Lewis and his AFL United Mine Workers have to pay all or any of the $3,510,000 in fines assessed against them for contempt of court?

Saturday is the day of the next regular conference of the nine justices. If each has made up his mind by then, Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson will assign one of them to write the court's opinion.

That task usually requires several weeks.

The court's next opinion day is Monday, but another will not be due until February 3. That is the earliest date a decision appears possible.

The tribunal wound up three hours of arguments on the historic case late yesterday.

The only incident during the long and tense courtroom drama came less than five minutes before the end:

Justice Frankfurter was leading Assistant Attorney General John F. Sweeney through a series of questions.

"BIG SIX" TO MEET TRUMAN

President To Hold Bi-Partisan Conference Tomorrow

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—President Truman will hold his first bi-partisan legislative conference with the new congressional "Big Six" tomorrow.

The White House announced today that four Republican congressional leaders will meet with the President at the White House at 10 a. m. (EST) tomorrow together with the Democratic minority leaders, Senator Barkley (Ky.) and Rep. Rayburn (Tex.).

Rayburn yesterday told of the President's decision to hold periodic legislative conferences with the leaders of the Republican congressional majority as well as the Democratic chieftains.

Senator Vandenberg (Mich.), the president pro tempore of the Senate; Speaker Martin (Mass.), and House Majority Leader Halleck (Ind.) will sit in on the conferences.

The "Big Six" replaces the Democratic "Big Four" who conferred every Monday morning with the President during the last session when the Democrats controlled both Houses.

The decision to invite the Republicans to the conferences was in line with President Truman's expressed intention to find ways to cooperate with his political opposition on Capitol Hill.

HOUSE SCANS BANK PROBLEM

Study Means Of Making Up Shortage In Cashier Office

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—House members pondered today as to whether they or taxpayers generally might be called upon to make up any shortage in their Capitol Hill bank.

Without pointing the finger of suspicion at anyone, Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) told reporters yesterday a preliminary audit of the House sergeant at arms "indicates a shortage of $121,000 in the accounts."

Martin added the matter probably will be one for the attorney general to handle when the audit is completed, probably late this week. It is being made at Martin's request by Comptroller General Lindsay C. Warren.

Representatives who use the House cashier's office as a bank were reluctant to suggest what may be done if the final audit discloses an actual shortage. The cashier's office is a part of the office of sergeant at arms.

Some said privately that one way to balance the books would be to assess each member who uses the banking facilities on a pro rata basis.

Others recalled that half a century ago, when a similar situation existed, Congress passed a special appropriation bill to handle the case.

There were numerous suggestions that the cashier's office, which has been closed since the audit was begun last week, be divorced from the sergeant at arms and the fiscal operations turned over to some local private bank.

In the absence of a final report on the audit, Kenneth Romney, who had been sergeant at arms from 1931 until January 3 of this year, when Republicans organized the House, declined to comment on Martin's report.

Conference Committee On Pay Scales Chosen

WILL ANALYZE U. S. POLICIES

House Committee To Review Relations And UN Potential

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—The House Armed Services Committee today signaled for a full scale review of this country's foreign relations and the peace-keeping potential of the United Nations.

Chairman Andrews (R-N.Y.) said the committee needs that information before it can begin charting a program of foreign legislation.

Discussing with reporters his plans for the new group which takes over the duties formerly assigned to separate military and naval committees, Andrews also:

1. Disclosed plans to set up 11 subcommittees to concentrate on a wide variety of military problems, ranging from pay and personnel to atomic energy.

2. Expressed conviction that the presidential-imposed "rag" on the Navy in connection with the armed forces yesterday.

Several of the legislative leaders predicted a compromise, saying the governors' 20 per cent stand would be enacted effective December 1.

POLAND SNUBS VOTE CRITICS

Rejects Charges Of Intimidation; Elections On Sunday

Warsaw, Jan. 15—(AP)—Poland's Communist-backed provisional government told the United States today it intends to run Sunday's parliamentary elections its own way regardless of whether British and America liked it.

The new note, handed to U. S. Ambassador Arthur Bliss Lane by the Polish Foreign Minister, rejected as "unfounded" charges by the Western powers that suppression, coercion and intimidation of voters and repressive measures against Vice Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk's Polish Peasant Party violated Potsdam and Yalta guarantees of free and unfettered elections.

The government contended it was fulfilling all obligations undertaken at Potsdam and commented that the election of parliamentary representatives was a matter within the exclusive province of the Polish people. The note crisply concluded with the observation that since the balloting is scheduled for Sunday further discussion would be fruitless.

The new note was much shorter than the one recently submitted to the United States.

Britain Arrests Accused Critic

London, Jan. 15—(AP)—Johan J. Smertenko, vice president of the American League for a Free Palestine, was arrested and taken to jail as an unwanted visitor to Britain shortly after he flew from Paris to Croydon Airport in a chartered plane today.

Immigration authorities met him at the airport.

The Russian-born United States citizen was accompanied by two American newspapermen, who satisfied authorities that their papers were in order. However, the pilot of the private Messerschmitt plane which took Smertenko across the channel was detained.

Smertenko, accused by the British of making derogatory statements concerning the British administration in Palestine, said his words had been "grossly distorted."

Teachers Lose In Guilford Ballot

Labor Bills Will Go Under Study

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 15—(AP)—Votes in rural areas of Guilford County turned down a tax of 20 cents per $100 to increase teacher salaries, although the proposal received a majority of votes cast.

Under state law a majority of the registered voters is needed to pass a proposal at a special election, even though not all those registered vote. The teacher increase received 1,100 votes, with 880 against. But, 1,990 ballots were cast of 3,180 persons registered. The measure needed 1,591 votes to overcome the "vote against registration" provision.

The Ohio senator told reporters the hearing will first touch upon the comprehensive labor bill offered jointly by Senators Taft, Ball (R-Minn.) and Smith (R-N.J.) and a proposal by Senator Murray (D-Mont.) and eight other Democrats for an overall study of labor problems by a commission composed of congressmen and public representatives named by the President.

About 900 letters and 60 telegrams from persons as far away as Australia have been received by Miss Mayer, who today tensely awaited the arrival of Dr. Lester Samuels, a Veterans Administration surgeon from Alexandria, La., granted leave to perform an operation on her.

Dr. Samuels' arrival has been delayed by bad flying weather.

Greensboro Has Portal Pay Suit

Luzon Volcano Seen In Violent Eruption

Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 15—(AP)—A portal to portal pay suit for an undetermined sum has been filed by 300 hosiery workers against Mock, Judson, Voehring Co. for time allegedly spent on the plant's premises over and above regular production schedules.

The suit, filed yesterday in U. S. District Court by the CIO-American Federation of Hosiery Workers, asked the court to determine the amounts of redress due under the terms of the suit, which were estimated to range upwards to $500,000.

Manila, Jan. 15—(AP)—Mayon volcano erupted violently again today.

A U. S. navy pilot, flying a mile away, said Mayon threw smoke and ashes 20,000 feet into the southern Luzon skies.

Mayon's huge peak was almost entirely obscured by dense smoke rising from lava flowing down the mountain's slopes in scores of molten streams.

The pilot's report, released through the Philippine government, said there was no immediate danger from the lava.

BYRD NEARING HIS OLD BASE

Expedition To Set Up Headquarters At Little America

Aboard the USS Mt. Olympus in the Ross Sea, Jan. 14—(Delayed)—(AP)—The navy's South Polar expedition expects to reach Little America tomorrow—if it still exists.

Little America, the expedition's goal, was the base of a previous Antarctic expedition headed by Admiral Richard E. Byrd.

The first task of the expedition on reaching Little America will be to build an airstrip on the ice to receive planes being brought down by the carrier Philippine Sea.

Admiral Cruzen said he plans to scout over the Bay of Whales and the Little America site upon arrival and to send a five-man landing party ashore on skis.

If Byrd's old camp site is found suitable, unloading will be started at once and Seabees then will begin the airstrip.

Renewed Hope In London Walkout

Expedition To Set Up Headquarters At Little America

London, Jan. 15—(AP)—Hopes for settlement of London's 10-day-old transport strike blossomed anew today as leaders of the "unofficial" work stoppage, joining union heads in peace talks, appealed for an end to sympathy walkouts threatening to spread throughout England.

Strike Leader J. E. Evans, in a note to the 30,000 strikers, said he hoped "some concrete proposals" would develop in union negotiations today and the Daily Herald, labor organ, said in a bold headline: "Strike call-off likely today."

At least 20,000 other union members—protesting use of troops to deliver food supplies to London shops—prepared to join the walkout if the new conferences fail.

The truck drivers want a 44-hour work week instead of 48 hours, two-week paid vacations and overtime pay instead of time off.

Polish Election Has Kremlin Nod

London, Jan. 15—(AP)—Moscow announced today that "the Soviet government cannot agree" with the United States and Britain that tactics of the Polish provisional government make it unlikely that Sunday's scheduled elections could be free and unfettered.

The Moscow Radio said Foreign Minister Molotov on Monday handed to U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith a Russian answer to an American request to the Soviet government to join in the protest so Poland. The U. S. request, sent in conjunction with a stiff note to Poland herself, was delivered in Moscow early this month.

Budget In Committee

President's Budget Estimate Up For Close Investigation By Two Big Committees, One In House, One In Senate; Hearings And How They Are Conducted

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—I you're hit with a lot of extra work this year, it will be because something new is being tried.

Always the Appropriations Committee of the House and Senate have worked behind closed doors with press and public out.

Now the Senate committee expects to work in the open. Not the House committee. It will go on as before, with the public out.

All this would be pretty humdrum except for one thing: these two committees are important. Here is the story.

Last week President Truman sent his annual budget message to Congress.

That message was Mr. Truman's estimate of how much it would cost to run the government in the next fiscal year. He said $37,500,000,000.

Mr. Truman's estimate wasn't a guess. Top government officials and their assistants had worked for months on it.

They figured out in great detail how much each department, branch,

March Of Dimes Drive Opens Throughout N.C.

Chapel Hill, Jan. 15—With a goal set for $368,000, North Carolina's 1946 March of Dimes campaign got under way throughout the State today, following a send-off by Governor R. Gregg Cherry and Dr. Ralph McDonald, State Campaign chairman, who made appeals for a record campaign in radio addresses last night.

North Carolina's quota last year was $350,000, and $433,000 was raised. According to State headquarters here, a minimum of $450,000 is expected to be raised. "We will have to make that minimum if we are to meet all obligations which we were unable to do in 1946," Mrs. Phillips Russell, Director of Organization, said here today. "Twenty-five percent of the counties in North Carolina had to seek additional funds from the National Foundation in New York last year."

Despite intensified research efforts, no prevention or cure of infantile paralysis has been discovered as yet, and the disease is still on the upgrade throughout the country. Mrs. Phillips Russell pointed out in stressing the need for liberal contributions to meet the quota this year.

Miss Russell pointed out that there were 153 new cases in North Carolina in the past year, and that the average cost of treating each patient is $1,200. There were 25,000 new cases in the entire country during 1946.

"And there is a high percentage of cases still being treated who were stricken as far back as 1944, many of them still being cared for in hospitals," she added.

G-Men Hold Two On Fraud Charge

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover announced today the arrest of a War Assets Administration official and an ex-convict on charges of fraud.

Hoover identified the men as George A. Gormley, an ex-convict, and Louis V. Dionne, WAA expediter, and said they "evolved a scheme" to obtain textiles "through alteration of sales documents" at a sale conducted by the WAA in Alexandria, Va. Both are residents of Washington, D. C.

Hoover said both men are charged with a violation of the "fraud against the government statute in that they caused a forged document to be presented to the United States Government."

Italy Uncertain That Crews Aboard Warships Will Permit Their Surrender To Victors In War; Government Grasping At Straws To Avert This Big Loss

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.

Rome naval veterans are suggesting that Italian sailors scuttle their ships rather than surrender them to the World War II victors under the proposed peace treaty.

It is a threat of which allied authorities in Italy have been aware for some time, and has resulted in strict secrecy regarding allied agreements as to who will get the warships as reparations.

Although Frank O'Brien, Associated Press correspondent in Rome, says authorities will not talk openly on the subject, it is understood that France, Soviet Russia, and probably Yugoslavia, Greece and Albania will be on the receiving end.

Commander Ernesto Giuranti of the Italian Navy said in New York after the foreign ministers conference that Italy stood to lose 200,000 of her 350,000 tons of warships, and would be reduced to two old battleships, four cruisers, four destroyers, 16 torpedo boats and 30 corvettes, with no submarines. This means that three battleships, five

The great question with every school now is what shall we do for a teachers it is next to impossible to find can be hired and as for trained teachers it is next to impossible to get them. Why shall the East not give at least one school for this purpose? No where in the state is demand so great for trained teachers as here. If the people of Eastern North Carolina desire to see this section go forward educationally, they will unite in the demand for more trained teachers and ask this legislature in no uncertain tone to give us a normal college in the East to supplement the work that is now being done at Greensboro.

She also reported that in 1950 there would be an international meeting in Durham.

Mrs. T. A. Person gave a talk on Luke, taken from the first two chapters of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles.

Miss Cowell reported that 11 families were taken care of Christmas. Several committees were appointed to send food and coal to the needy families.

After the business meeting the members were invited into the dining room where refreshments were served. A beautiful birthday cake, celebrating the 61st birthday of The King's Daughters, centered the table. Mrs. C. M. Jones, assisted by Mrs. Hortense Moyer, cut and served the cake.

Nomination Of D. E. Lilienthal In Senate

Washington, Jan. 15—(AP)—President Truman today sent to the Senate the nomination of David E. Lilienthal to be chairman of the United States Atomic Energy Commission.

The nomination may run into vigorous opposition by Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.) long-time foe of the former TVA chairman.

Aubrey Clapp was nominated several days ago to succeed Lilienthal. McKellar has indicated that he will oppose this appointment also.

Red Oak News

The Martha Jolly class of Red Oak will meet at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Joseph Tyson, Friday evening, January 17th, at 7:30 o'clock. All young married couples of the community who are not already affiliated with any other Sunday school are invited to attend. All members of the class are cordially invited and urged to be present.

Circle No. 1 of Red Oak held a most inspiring meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Page recently.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Bill Jenkins of Greenville who so generously used his time and trucks to fill the holes on the church grounds with gravel from a quarry near Raleigh. It was certainly nice of Bill to do this, and it helped us to renew our faith in mankind.

The circle decided to pay for brick or cement blocks to underpin our church. This has been a long-felt need and we hope to get this work done in the early spring. We hope soon to remove some old shrubbery from around the church and to plant some new. The project for circle No. 1 in 1947 is the beautification of the church grounds.

Circle No. 1 will sponsor an amateur program, supper and bingo in the club center on Wednesday night.

January 22. The funds derived from this party will be used to pay for some oil heaters recently installed and for materials purchased to connect our kitchen to our club center.

We have recently installed four new oil heaters in our church and community building. This is certainly a most wonderful improvement in our heating system.

Almost every day people from all walks of life tell us that they read "The Red Oak News."

A colored cook in town says, "I allus read dat Red Oak News to see what dem white folks am going to do next!"

A business man and farmer said recently, "I always look for the news, so I can keep up with the folks out there."

A young matron, Martha by name, said only today at lunch, "I always like to read the news about Red Oak, Falkland and all the other places in the county."

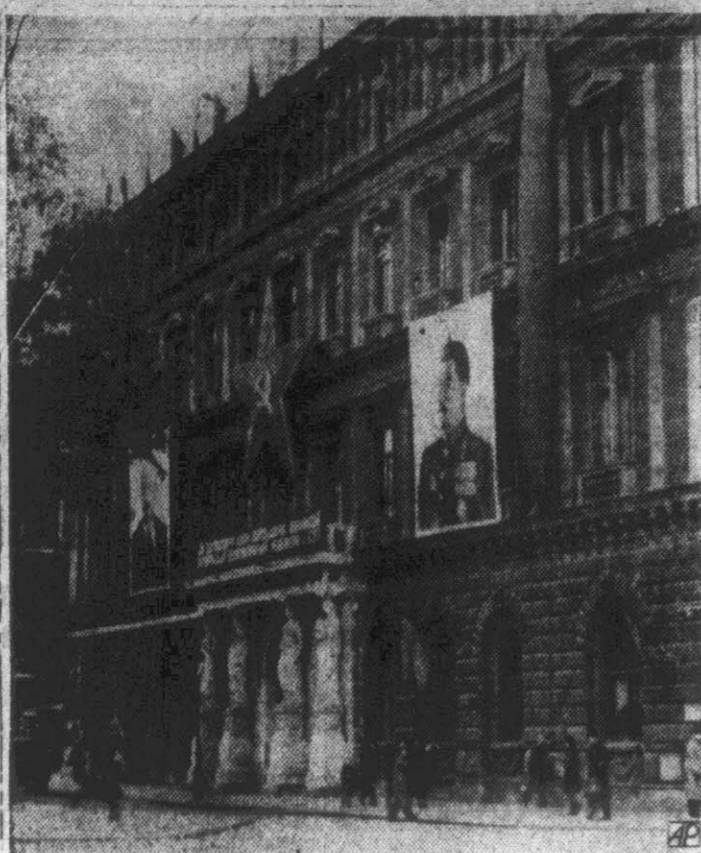

Thank you, Martha, Mr. Ernest and Ada. We appreciate your interest a lot!

Belvoir News

Mid-term examinations were given for the high school students Thursday and Friday of last week. It is needless to say that all of the students are glad to have finished taking examinations.

Beginning Monday, the thirteenth, the schedule for the majority of the high school was changed. Mid-term examinations seemed to have stimulated this idea. Interest in work calls for an increased amount of study. Miss Rosa Lancaster is teaching all courses in English; Mrs. Ola Forrest all courses in mathematics; Mrs. Bruce Cozart, history, civics, geography, and health; Mr. L. L. Murray, Bible, French and typing; and Miss Grace Humbles, Home Economics, biology, and General Science.

Our deepest feeling of regret and sorrow goes to Miss Emily Gayle, who is ill at her home in Farmville. Miss Gayle was the senior home-room teacher, and she also taught English history, geography and French. A speedy recovery is our wish for her.

RUSSIANS CELEBRATE — Giant portraits of Marshal Stalin (right) and Lenin (left) with the Soviet star between them, adorn the front of the Russian headquarters in Vienna, Austria, commemorating the Russian October Revolution.

It is our pleasure to welcome Mrs. Bruce Cozart, who is taking Miss Gayle's former position. Nelson Dupree, the negro janitor, has been cutting the hedge and grass around the school building and Mr. Murray, our principal, has surveyed the position of the front walk, which will lead from the half circle drive in front of the building to the front entrance of the school.

Just before Christmas holidays the entire high school student body was called together for the purpose of selecting a standard graduation invitation. Majority of the students agreed upon an invitation that will be different from any other invitation Belvoir has ever had. This particular invitation will have a picture of Belvoir-Falkland High School on the cover and will be the invitation that the next four graduating classes will use. Each graduating class will have the choice of a large or small calling card.

The eighth grade organized a club on Friday, January the tenth. The purpose of this club is to create more interest in the classroom. The name of this organization is "The Wide Awake Club." The president is Dorothy Garris, vice president Le Roy Morris, secretary and treasurer Mildred Sutton. The club is to work in groups, one on library committee, others on flower committee, board committee, and general cleanup committee. With the cooperation of the members these groups hope to accomplish much in beautifying the room.

The sixth grade held its regular club meeting on Friday. A quiz program on Greece and Japan was planned by the program committee. The club secretary, Nell Clark moved away, so Nell Dupree was elected to replace Nell as secretary.

Mrs. Crede, the fourth grade teacher, gave all of the fourth grade students a party just before Christmas. To many of the students this was a farewell party as well as a Christmas party. All of the sixth graders express their regrets to losing so many classmates and friends who have moved to other schools.

A hearty welcome is extended to all students who have recently started to school at Belvoir and it is our hope that they will enjoy school at Belvoir.

FIRE REPORT

Chester, Ill., Jan. 14.—(AP)—Chester's fire house, in a report by an underwriters' association after a fire prevention survey, was cited as a fire hazard.

The report urged correction of five specific conditions.

Fire Chief Hobart Stoefel assured the city council the corrections would be made.

Smokey Says:

A lighted match tossed carelessly aside... a dozen things people do without thinking... then, all too often, tragic fires have started.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

RETURNING SOME OF THE HONEY

In certain sections of the British Isles, bee-keepers are practically compelled by custom to give a percentage of their honey each year to their neighbors. The bees get a considerable portion of their honey from the flower gardens of these neighbors, and the "sting" of the situation, therefore, is that the neighbors should have part of the honey.

In this little section of the world there has grown up this quaint recognition of the extent to which others contribute to our happiness and of the responsibility which it therefore incumbent upon us to share this happiness with our benefactors. Whether we have religious faith or not we should, as a matter of pure fairness, recognize the fact that many of the things we possess and enjoy most in life have come to us through no efforts of our own, but because of the nation or the neighborhood in which we live or the home into which we happened to be born. Common decency requires that we give back some of life's sweetness to those round about us because from them considerable sweetness has come into our lives.

Sometimes in seasons of sorrow the bees come back from some neighboring garden laden with the sweetness of sympathy and loving helpfulness. Let us remember the contribution which decency and fairness impose upon us. And let us remember that above all, there are religious reasons why we should return to our neighbors some of the honey which came from their gardens.

WASHINGTON LETTER

CAPITAL SOCIETY WOMEN MAKE TOYS FOR OZARKS CHILDREN

By JANE EADS

Washington — Well after mid night in the cluttered basement of the home of a capital socialite, the women tucked the dolls into a big box—rag dolls they'd made themselves—other toys, Bibles, clothing.

The next morning the gifts were shipped off to 130 little school-houses in isolated districts in the Missouri Ozarks. They brought Christmas to some 4,000 youngsters.

The women, prominent in the town's top social circles, were members of the Washington Committee of Save the Children Federation, Inc., formed here in 1941 under the chairmanship of Mrs. Irene B. Caldwell.

Mrs. Caldwell's beautiful home has been the setting for many a gay and glamorous party. She is a notable hostess and able to angle the best names on her guest lists. But this night and many nights, mornings and afternoons, it hummed with activity.

The night before, some of the women had worked until 4 o'clock in the morning. Tables were piled high with cloth cut into the shape of dolls, cotton for their insides, yarn and bits of old stockings for their hair.

Piles of gaily colored scraps of cotton, wool, satin and silk toppled over the tables—bits from congressmen's shirts, lace and beading from fabulous evening gowns, flowers and feathers from hats, brocades and talfata from draperies, slip-covers and bedspreads.

A sewing machine whirred incessantly. Working on a sort of assembly-line schedule the women assigned themselves to a single job—actually sewing the doll together, or making the hair, or the face or the costume.

Altogether they figured they had made and shipped more than 15,000 pounds of clothing, toys and other gifts. But they were proudest of the dolls.

Through Luther Johnson, former Democratic representative from Texas recently appointed a federal judge, about 5,000 Bibles were secured from the War Department.

Last year Mrs. Dwight Eisen-

The Doctor Seems To Be Nearsighted, Too

lower was one of a group that helped buy a big carton full of footballs. Mrs. Bedell Smith, wife of the U.S. Ambassador to Moscow, ready to leave for Russia, found time to round up a lot of puzzles.

Mrs. Fred Vinson, wife of the Chief Justice; Mrs. Omar Bradley, wife of the Veterans' administrator; Mrs. Thurmond Arnold, wife of the former solicitor general; Mrs. Robert Jackson, wife of the Supreme Court Justice; Mrs. Paul F. McNutt, wife of the U. S. minister to the Philippines; Mrs. George E. Allen, wife of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation director, are only a few who interested themselves in the federation's Christmas program.

at a total estimated saving to income earners of $3,350,000,000.

If Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the House Appropriations Committee is correct in declaring "that the budget can be held down," Knutson said, then:

"A 29 per cent tax reduction will be comparatively easy, and we would be able to pay four or five billions on the public debt.

If Mr. Taber's figures are correct, anybody who says we can't cut individual taxes 29 per cent is talking through his hat."

Taber's latest estimate is that three to four billions can be paid from the President's $37,528,000 spending figure. Unless Congress intervenes, the high excises, provided by the 1945 revenue act, will revert to old rates July 1 under the President's proclamation declaring hostilities at an end.

office, but was blocked by P. T. McCutcheon, Arnall's executive secretary. An exchange of words led almost immediately to a fist-fight, which lasted for two minutes in the governor's reception room. McCutcheon retreated into Arnall's private office and barred the heavy door against the mob.

Arnall, surrounded by reporters and a few close associates, refused to let anyone depart until National Guards officers and Talmadge leaders had cleared the outer chamber.

Talmadge had been sworn in shortly after 2 a. m. (EST) before a cheering Legislature and a whooping, stomping gallery of Talmadge faithful who had sat throughout the day watching the canvas of general election returns. He was elected after a series of decisive roll-calls, 161 to 87.

When Talmadge declared he would sign any bill setting up machinery for a special election, and would be a candidate for governor he was interrupted by yells of "Whatta man!"

"If I am defeated," Talmadge shouted into the microphone, "I will resign immediately."

Lieut.-Gov.-elect M. E. Thompson, who cannot take office until his election is certified by the Legislature later today, said he would fight for the right to serve as acting governor. "I shall insist," he said, "that the will of the people as expressed under the constitution be not thwarted."

The Senate group was named by the lieutenant-governor yesterday afternoon after the Senate voted by 31-18 on a roll call against agreeing to a House-amended proposal of increase salaries of teachers and state employes from 25 to 30 per cent.
The administration is happy over the election of Sen. Wade Barber of Chatham, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, and of Sen. Wade Brown of Watauga who voted against agreeing with the House-proposed increases.
Brown is satisfactory to the salary group, who contend that he will vote for salary increases once so-called inequities are ironed out of the proposal.
The third man named by Senate President Ballentine is Sen. Willie Lee Lumpkin of Franklin, a veteran legislator who plumped vigorously for the increases and yesterday decried a pall of gloom which he said cloaked the Senate in trying to effect a progressive and a needed legislation.
Lumpkin wants the salary increases to be effective at once.

NYU Falls To Tarheel Quint In Major Upset

By The Associated Press
The University of North Carolina's White Phantom basketball team last night did what the Duke Blue Devils failed to do in two overtime periods a few nights earlier. They defeated the highly favored New York University Violets, 50-48, before a crowd of 18,465 at Madison Square Garden.

The White Phantoms, beaten three times this season, overcame a seven point first half deficit to annex their first road victory of the year.

Mewborn, president of Farmville, presided. The program consisted of a paper on "Operative Obstetrics" by Dr. W. H. Pott and the annual report of the work of the health department by Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, Pitt County Health Officer.

The need for increased hospital facilities for Pitt County and the need for an expanded program of DDT spraying throughout the county for the control of mosquitoes and flies was discussed. Dr. S. M. Crisp and Dr. Ennett were hosts.

Yellow Jackets.
In the preliminary game the baby Phantoms, smeared the Roanoke Rapids Jayvees 41-2. The inexperienced Jackets were unable to score a field goal, however they were not as poor as the score indicated, for the Phantoms played superb ball. They missed a number of easy shots but their floor play made up for this deficiency in full.

New York, Jan. 15—(AP)—Babe Ruth is up and around and greeting everyone with his characteristic "Hiya kid," and that, says his daughter, is evidence that he is feeling his old self again.

The former home-run king drew his second walk in any many days at French Hospital yesterday. The hospital listed his condition as "good" and it was apparent he was fast recovering from a neck operation performed Jan. 6.

His daughter, Mrs. Julia Flanders, said "personally, I believe those thousands of letters and telegrams Dad received from all over the country and even one from Australia, particularly from kids, is as important as his excellent medical care."

Joseph David Godley, 25, who was arrested last week on a charge of bigamy, is being held in the county jail under $300 bond for trial in Superior Court. Godley waived hearing in Police Court.

Police said Godley married Miss Esther Whitehurst about two weeks ago. After about a week, Mrs. J. H. Whitehurst, mother of the bride, learned that he already had a wife, and had him arrested for alleged bigamy. Incidentally, Godley's first wife obtained a divorce from him in Superior Court Monday. Police quoted him as saying that he knew his first wife's divorce case was pending in court and that he thought he was free to marry again.

PHANTOMS WIN OVER JACKETS

Varsity And Jayvees Rack Up 33-26 And 41-2 Victory Scores

By SAM NORTHRUP
The GHS Junior and varsity Phantoms swept to their second successive conference victories last night by defeating the Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jackets 33-26 and 41-2 on the Jackets' home court.

After trailing 13-14 at the half, the varsity Phantoms rallied in the second half to make the Roanoke Rapids team "bite the dust" in defeat. Starting slowly in the first quarter, the Phantoms allowed the Jackets to pile up an early lead; however by halftime the Greens had cut this lead down to one point.

Jimmy Cox opened the second half by sinking two foul shots to send the Fairymen into a lead which they never relinquished. The play in the second half was completely dominated by Greenville's squad.

Glynn Perkins picked up 16 points to once again lead his teammates in the scoring division. Henry Turner with 10 was runner-up. Wood scored 10 points to top the
