

CLAIM RUSSIA FORCING LOAN BY STRATEGY

Loan From U. S. Said Price Of Reducing Big Demands On Germany

By ROBERT HEWETT London, Jan. 17—(AP)—British sources predicted today that Russia might seek a five-billion-dollar loan from the United States as the price for scaling down reparations claims on Germany...

The influential London economist, terming reparations "the crux of the whole matter," said the "key to a German settlement" might lie in a U. S. loan to Russia. "The Russians have asked for 10,000,000,000 worth of reparations from Germany," the paper said...

Commenting on the heavy cost of occupation and asserting that unification of Germany would cut these expenditures, the economist added that "Russian demands seem to Russians to be justified many times over, and it would indeed be a remarkable situation if dollars could be found for a defeated aggressor but not for a devastated ally."

Australia apparently lost her appeal for active participation by the "little nations" in discussing the German and Austrian treaties. Fodor T. Gusev, Russian deputy foreign minister, insisted that the

Favor Nat'l Law On Barbiturates

Chapel Hill, N. C., Jan. 17—(AP)—The State Board of Pharmacy favors more stringent laws on a national basis for the control of sleeping pills.

The board's recommendation was made yesterday. Referring to present state laws on barbiturates as "inadequate due to the lack of control over the source of supply," the members said that traffic in sleeping pills has reached "dangerous proportions."

The present restriction on their sale through drug stores other than on prescription has made the distribution of these items very attractive to the underworld, the report said.

"The Board of Pharmacy feels that a more rigid system of restrictive distribution similar to the Harrison Narcotic Act is in order. Such a system would cut off the source of supply of these illicit traffickers."

May Ask Truman For Port Action

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—North Carolina congressional leaders may take their efforts to secure the Wilmington shipyards for the State's Port Authority to President Truman.

Telling reporters yesterday that he didn't believe the Maritime Commission is going to do anything more about the Port Authority's request, Senator Hoyt (D-NC) said: "It looks like we'll have to talk with President Truman about the Wilmington shipyards."

Meanwhile, the state's congressmen planned to meet with Gov. R. Gregg Cherry in Hoyt's office Jan. 23 to map their strategy. R. B. Page, Wilmington publisher and chairman of the Port Authority, and former Gov. J. Melville Broughton, attorney counsel, will attend.

Plan Of Unification

Truman's Plan For Armed Forces Not A Complete Merger; What The Plan Will Do; Congressional Okay Needed; How Problems Will Be Worked Out

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—President Truman's plan for "unification" of the armed forces is not a plan to merge them and make them one.

The Army and Navy would remain separate, which is what the Navy wanted. The plan would do this:

1. Set up an independent land air force. It's now part of the Army.

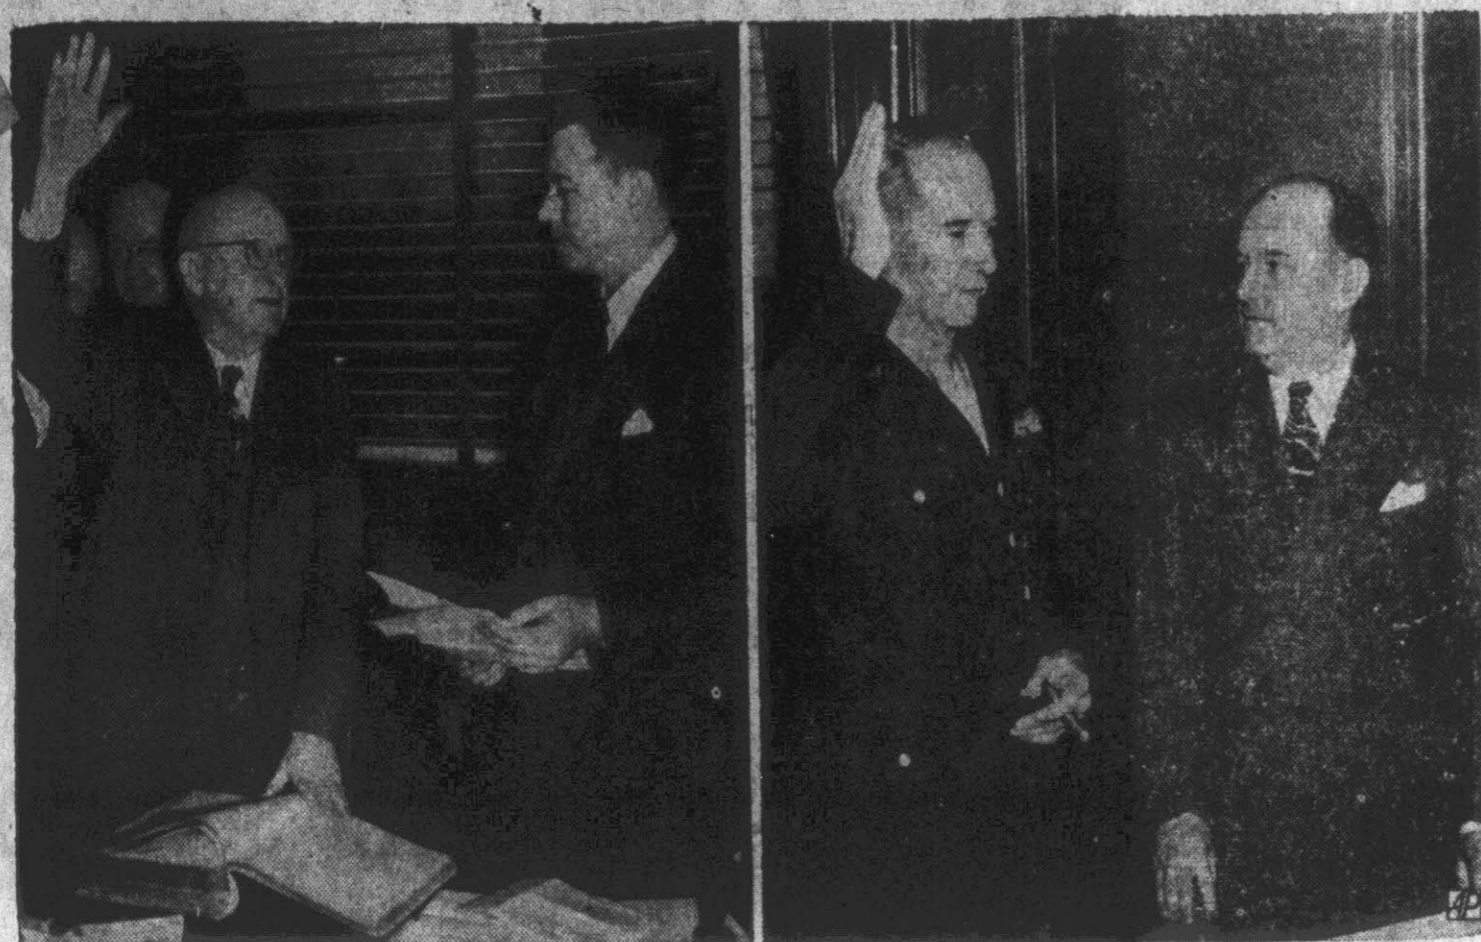

2. Help the Army, Navy and Air force work together.

3. Maybe—this isn't clear in the plan—help the government save money in buying supplies for the Army, Navy and Air force.

Before the plan becomes a fact, Congress must pass a law approving it or changing it.

That will take time and probably there'll be a lot of wrangling in the capitol before such a law is passed, if it's passed.

Georgia's Two Claimants To Governorship Swear In Officers

Georgia's state capitol in Atlanta presents the scene of two claimants to the governorship swearing in of officers. Left: Herman Talmadge, (right), elected governor by the legislature early Wednesday morning, administers the oath of office to Charles D. Redwine of Fayetteville, chosen as state commissioner of revenue. Right: Ellis Arnall (right), the incumbent who refused to recognize Col. R. W. Collins of Atlanta, his new adjutant general. Talmadge Aide Occupies Desk, Arnall Sets Up New Offices In Downtown Building; Court Papers Served On Talmadge To Show Cause Feb. 7 Why He Should Hold Office

Atlanta, Jan. 17—(AP)—Ellis Arnall returned to the state capitol today for a renewal of his contest with Herman Talmadge over the Georgia governorship.

Arnall headed directly for the capitol rotunda where he occupied temporary offices yesterday. Talmadge already had seized Arnall's desk and installed state representative Jimmy Dykes there.

Arnall strode up to Rep. Dykes' desk and said "Jim, I'm governor."

Dykes interrupted to say, "Ellis Arnall, you remind me of a hog. You got your head in the trough and you just can't stop."

Arnall asked, "Have you taken my office?"

Dykes replied, "I have and I'm refusing to let you sit here. You have no more right to be governor than I have."

Arnall retorted, "Well, let's see. Then, turning to the press, and speaking into a radio microphone, Arnall said: 'To the People of Georgia: As governor of Georgia, I have been denied access to the state capitol building.'

Dykes shouted, "That's a lie." Arnall continued:

"Today, denied access to my office in the rotunda of the capitol. In order not to discredit the people of Georgia and to create disturbance, I'm moving to 1407 Candler building (in downtown Atlanta) there to function as chief executive."

"I am sure the courts will uphold me as legal governor and not the forces bent on violence."

He was interrupted by repeated cheers from the surrounding crowd. Speaking again over the din, he continued:

"Accordingly, I shall ask my secretary staff to meet me at 1407 Candler building to function until the courts remove the pretender who by force and storm troopers

Plan Of Unification

Truman's Plan For Armed Forces Not A Complete Merger; What The Plan Will Do; Congressional Okay Needed; How Problems Will Be Worked Out

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—This is how the President's plan would help the Army, Navy and Air force work together:

The big boss over the three branches of the service would be a Secretary of National Defense. It would be his job to make the Army, Navy and Air force work as a team.

Ex-Coal Miner Has Labor Control Bill

Rep. Landis Will Introduce Measure To Prevent Industry-Wide Strikes; Urges Speed; Anticipates Steel Walk-out

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—Rep. Landis (R-Ind.) said today he will introduce a bill to prevent industry-wide strikes because "this country can't go through another steel or coal strike."

Landis, a one-time coal miner who now is in an influential post in Congress as second-ranking Republican on the House Labor Committee, told a reporter that:

1. The House committee ought to start hearings "right away" because of the anticipated steel strike. The CIO United Steelworkers filed a 30-day strike notice Tuesday.

2. "We must have a bill passed by March 31"—the deadline set by John L. Lewis for possible resumption of the soft-coal strike.

3. Much of the labor legislation proposed so far "misses the point" because it doesn't deal with the strike problem.

4. All proposals to outlaw the closed shop are "unconstitutional." Landis said his bill would authorize government seizure and other steps to block strikes that affect interstate commerce in steel, coal, food, public utilities, and in activities involving the public health or safety.

He declined to give details, however, until he introduces the measure—perhaps Monday.

"I think I've got the stuff to do the business," Landis asserted. He added that he also plans a

Heavy Toll From Wreck Of Train

Bakersfield, Calif., Jan. 17—(AP)—Six persons were known to be dead, many others were crushed beneath cars and an estimated 35 persons were being treated for injuries in the wreck of a Southern Pacific passenger train 12 miles northwest of here early today, reported Sheriff's Deputy Jack Kiehl, the first officer to return from the scene.

Kiehl said an uncounted number of passengers were hurled through train windows and crushed beneath the weight of four coaches and a tourist sleeper which were derailed and overturned when the wreck was a ghastly scene and that legs and arms were torn from some of the victims.

The sheriff's deputy reported that the wreckage was a ghastly scene and that legs and arms were torn from some of the victims.

Mild Reception For European Union Idea

London, Jan. 17—(AP)—Winston Churchill, announcing formation of a non-partisan committee to promote a "united Europe," got a lukewarm reception from the London press today, with most journals applauding the sentiment but frankly fearful that Russia would veto the proposed union as an anti-Soviet bloc.

DATES NAMED FOR HOLIDAYS

Merchants Association Make Up Calendar; Committees

The Greenville Merchants Association at a special business meeting of all members Tuesday night, made up a calendar of holidays for 1947 and discussed the advertising resolution and had an open forum.

John W. Glover, newly-elected president, presided.

Decisions were made by a majority vote of those present as follows: Holidays to be observed: Fourth of July, Thanksgiving and two days at Christmas.

It also was voted to observe the Wednesday afternoon holiday in addition to any full day holiday that may fall in a week.

It was decided to remain open three nights prior to Christmas until 9 o'clock.

Starting at 6 p. m. stores will close Saturdays at once.

Wednesday afternoon half-holidays will start on May 14 and continue until the week of the opening of Greenville's tobacco market.

There was a discussion of the advertising resolution and a committee composed of C. R. McBrayer, Larry Averette and K. R. Holder was appointed to review the present resolution and make any recommendations for improvements.

President Charles E. Blair has made the following committee appointments for the coming year: Trade Promotion: C. A. Plyler, chairman; L. A. Stroud, Mrs. Clara Gower, C. W. Minton, Larry Averette, Curtis Perkins.

Special Events: J. B. Kittrell, chairman; Reynolds May, B. B. Drum, Guy K. Smith.

Finance: L. S. Garris, chairman; E. G. Flanagan, L. M. Buch-

Churchill Was Near Victim Of Nazi Sab

Nuernberg, Jan. 17—(AP)—Adm. Karl Doenitz asserted today that a German U-Boat nearly counted Winston Churchill among her victims one month after the second World War started.

The incident happened west of the Orkney Islands in October, 1939, when a U-Boat struck the 33,000-ton British Battleship Nelson with three torpedoes which failed to explode because they were faulty.

Doenitz said the U-Boat captain was a "broken man" when he discovered later that Churchill was aboard the Nelson.

Study Victims For Effects Of A-Bomb

Tokyo, Jan. 17—(AP)—Some of Hiroshima's atomic bomb victims still show striking skin abnormalities and disfiguring burn scars but no one is known to have died from burns or other bomb action since October, 1945, investigators reported today.

An atomic bomb casualty commission has been studying Japanese injured by the bombs dropped at Hiroshima and Nagasaki in August, 1945, and is planning a long term survey to determine long range effects.

Army-Navy High Command Endorses Unification Plan

Prober Promises "New Exposures" If Approved

Sensational Disclosures Hinted By Senator Brewster In Seeking Extension Of War Profits Investigation Committee

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—Chairman Brewster (R-Me.) promised his Senate colleagues today "sensational new exposures" if they vote added life for his special War Investigating Committee.

As the chamber prepared for its third day of debate on the holy disputed issue, Brewster told reporters his group already has accumulated "90 per cent of the material" that would make its previous disclosures look like "small potatoes."

And in addition to digging deeper into cases of suspected war profiteering, Brewster declared that if and when the extension is granted he plans to press the White House for:

1. All details on how the late President Roosevelt and his successor President Truman, spent some $68,000,000 of secret funds granted them to carry on the war.

2. Disclosure of a "secret mobilization report" which Brewster said Mr. Truman sought when he was chairman of the same committee but "was refused" by President Roosevelt.

Brewster and other Republican leaders voiced confidence that they had more than enough votes to continue the war investigating group and also set up a new special Small Business Committee.

Democrats have been almost solidly against both special groups on the contention that the congressional reorganization act intended the reduced number of regular committees to take over the work of all special groups.

Republican Leader White (Me.) told a reporter, however, he had little doubt that both regulations would be approved and added his hope that a vote could be had today.

Brewster conceded that other committees might be able to take over some of the war investigations but said this would cause much delay.

"We have a team in the field and ready to go," he said referring to the special committee staff of attorneys and investigators. "It would take a long time to train another."

He added that since the Republican sweep in the congressional elections "we have accumulated a lot of individual complaints and tacks gold in them their hills."

House To Continue Fight On Pay Issue

Reconsiders Dismissal Of Conference Committee, Add Four Members; Administration Still Holds Majority

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 17—(AP)—The House today reconsidered a motion by which it discharged a conference committee seeking settlement of the state-employee extra pay scrap, reinstated the committee and added four members.

Speaker Pearsall then named Reps. Bost of Cabarrus, Taylor of Buncombe, Royster of Vance and Sims of Mecklenburg to join the five other House conferees.

It appeared that the administration still held a majority vote in the House committee. Royster and Sims had supported the governor in his move to half the raises at 20 per cent during the next biennium, but giving increases retroactive to last December 1 for the rest of the current biennium ending June 30.

However, proponents of the Barker amendment under which emergency pay increases for the remainder of the biennium would be boosted above the 20 per cent figure recommended by Governor Cherry did not appear concerned over the make-up of the conference committee.

One of the leaders of the Barker group expressed himself as completely satisfied with the committee.

The House action today in effect postponed final action on the emergency pay issues until at least Tuesday. The Senate must be informed of the new House committee and name another conference group of its own before a meeting can be held.

Three new bills were introduced in the House today. One of them, offered by Rep. Mull of Cleveland, would authorize the city of Shelby to install parking meters with the

Excise Taxes Win In Test

House Committee Unanimous In Approving War-Time Rate

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—By a unanimous vote the House Ways and Means Committee today approved legislation continuing indefinitely the wartime tax rates on liquor, jewelry, furs, and many other goods and services.

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) announced that another bill will be introduced continuing the wartime postal rates which raised the local mailing charge from two to three cents and boosted mailing costs in some other categories.

Under Republican domination for the first time in 16 years, the tax framing committee followed President Truman's recommendation that the automatic rollback of excise taxes, scheduled for July 1, be headed off so that the government would get an estimated $1,130,000,000 from this source in the next fiscal year.

Although the committee took no formal action on the postal rates, Knutson indicated that legislation continuing the higher rates would get quick approval. This also was recommended by Mr. Truman and is expected to yield an estimated $65,000,000 a year.

Knutson told reporters he expects the House to pass the excise continuation bill early next week.

The legislation—House Bill No. 1030—was given priority even over Knutson's own House Bill No. 1 proposing a 20 per cent cut in personal income taxes this year.

Promise Cooperation And Greater Efficiency; Proposed Set-Up To Feature One Cabinet Member For Defense With Secretaries For Army, Navy And Air Forces

Washington, Jan. 17—(AP)—The army and navy high command, agreed on a plan for unification, today promised cooperation and greater efficiency under a single cabinet officer.

One by one, Secretary of War Patterson, Secretary of the Navy Forrestal, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower gave their whole-hearted endorsement to the new plan. They spoke to a crowded news conference in the White House movie theater.

Then they turned the meeting over to experts to go into details. But, for the most part, the plan, announced by President Truman last night, remained only a general proposition, with the thinks to be filled in later.

Congress will have a big hand in that.

Presidential Press Secretary Ross in opening the seminar, cleared up one point—that there will be only one cabinet member for defense—not four, as previously conjectured.

The arrangement is to have three secretaries—one each for army, navy and air, serving under a secretary of national defense.

Only the latter, Ross said, will be in the cabinet. But the others can be called in when necessary.

"In our view," Patterson said, "the plan is a sound and workable procedure with the needed single direction and at the same time it preserves the valuable element of local autonomy in the three different branches."

Forrestal arose to assert, as he said he had done during the war in testifying before congressional committees, "The fact that Truman met with his cabinet at their regular Friday session in another part of the White House."

The meeting was largely devoted to a discussion of the army-navy unification agreement.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson told reporters the president appeared pleased about the agreement and "that's about as far as we got."

When it came to details, questions at the news seminar brought out these points:

The plans make no specific provisions in themselves for a single purchasing department for all of the branches of the armed services. But the nature of the setup indicates that this is contemplated.

The famed Marine Corps will continue unchanged as the traditional amphibious fighting group. But there probably will be greater cooperation, training and development for use of the army, navy and Marines together in such operations.

Hotel Operators Deny Negligence

Atlanta, Jan. 17—(AP)—Operators of the Wincoff Hotel, where a Dec. 7 fire killed 119 persons, denied any negligence on their part in answers on file here today to 26 of 69 damage suits seeking more than $3,000,000 in death or injury claims.

Counsel for the operators asserted that a 1916 fire escape law was "arbitrary, capricious, unreasonable and discriminatory" because it applied only to hotels charging more than $2 daily.

They demurred to charges that fire hazards existed at the hotel on the grounds that the allegations were "vague and indefinite," and said descriptions of faulty and negligent construction and management were "merely conclusions of the pleader."

A-Bomb Destruction

Scientist Declares U. S. Has Produced Vastly More Powerful Atomic Bomb; A Weapon That Can Ruin Whole Strategic Areas; Might Insure Peace

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.

Prof. Marcus Oliphant, wartime atomic scientist, is quoted as saying that the United States has produced a bomb six hundred times as powerful as the one which destroyed Nagasaki.

That means a bomb which would create utter destruction over an area from 60 to 120 miles in diameter, and whose rays would travel hundreds of miles farther with burning force. Two or three such bombs might wipe out Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington and practically everything in between at one swoop.

Lay students of atomic power have been wondering for some time what was the basis for statements by Einstein and other scientists that civilization could be wiped out by the atomic bomb, which up until now we have known merely as a bigger and better explosion with some rays added. There was a feeling that these scientists knew something more than had been indicated by such atomic explosions as have occurred, devastating as they were, when considered in relationship with the size of the world. Apparently Professor Oliphant has given us the answer. Here, if he is right, is a weapon which can be delivered by present-day planes and is capable of wiping out whole strategic areas, such as America's Great Lakes industrial centers and the German Ruhr, with one-raid efficiency.

Here is a weapon which could be used by a United Nations police force to isolate an aggressor, laying a lethal belt of radiation and destruction around the borders of a whole country to prevent its troops from getting at a would-be victim.

A party for the young people in the Intermediate department of Jarvis Memorial church school will be given at the church Saturday night, January 18, at 7:30 p. m. All members of the Intermediate Sunday school class and of the Intermediate Fellowship are invited.

Winterville F. H. A.
The Winterville F. H. A. Club held its regular meeting on January 10, 1947 in the teen-age club room of the Winterville school. President Barbara Dall called the meeting to order and we sang our club prayer. Secretary, Magdalene Wainwright read the minutes of the previous meeting of approval. Treasurer, Annie House was absent so the president gave the treasurer's report. President, Barbara Dall read a beautiful note of thanks from Mrs. John Carroll in appreciation for the handkerchief which the club sent to her at Christmas.

We discussed going to Respass' for supper. It was decided that we will go on Saturday night, January 18, 1947, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Walsh will be our guests.

Miss Alya Ray Taylor was asked to tell us about the Pitt County Council which is to have its first meeting February 1, 1947, at Winterville high school with the Winterville F. H. A. chapter acting as hosts. Alya will be co-hostess.

New business concerning our project, the keeping of the girl's rest room cleaner was discussed. A schedule has been worked out which divides the responsibility among the entire high school to keep the rest rooms cleaner. The F. H. A. had the first week the president appointed committees for this work.

A delightful and beneficial poem, "Be What You Is" was read by the president.

Hilda Lottin, chairman of the program committee had as her topic, "The Family Council." The problems which were discussed and decided upon at the family council were, "Can We Afford a New Car," "How Shall We Spend Our Vacation?" "Allowances," and "Shall Our Fifteen Year Old Daughter Date?" It was a very interesting and enjoyable program.

Gay McLawhorn gave a profitable discussion entitled, "Do's and Don'ts for Dates." Delicious refreshments were served by the refreshment committee.

Hardee, Curly Jones, and Nellie Hardy.
We were very glad to have as our guests, two of our teachers, Mrs. Precher Flanagan and Miss Helen Clark. Student guests were Dorothy McLawhorn and Eigon McLawhorn. The meeting was adjourned.

The G. Y. F. of the Eighth Street Church will meet at 6:30 on Sunday evening and all young people are invited to attend a good program and a social hour afterwards.

Unique Religious Program

An interesting and unique religious program will be presented over the local radio station this coming week when the different religious bodies of the community will give in an interview through their representatives the various beliefs that characterize their different denominations.

This program will be presented each week day morning, January 20-25 at 11:15 and will be presented most sympathetically with a view to giving to our entire community a more comprehensive view of the total teachings of the various churches.

These interviews will be presented by Dr. H. G. Haney, president of the Greenville Ministerial Association, and the following men will participate: Dr. R. S. Boyd, Presbyterian; Rev. Robert W. Bradshaw, Methodist; Rev. Harold Johnson, Pentecostal Holiness; Rev. Richard E. Haraway, Baptist; Rev. Maurice Tew, Roman Catholic; and Rev. Roscoe Hauser, Episcopal.

The public is cordially urged to listen as far as time and opportunity will permit. The hour is 11:15-11:30 each morning.

Celebrates Fourth Birthday

Bobby Stokes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tyree Stokes, celebrated his fourth birthday at a party Saturday afternoon at his home in Stokes. Ice cream, cookies, candy and nuts were served.

Guests included Jack Herdson, Hallet Gibbs, Joy Perkins, Patsy and Janice James, Mary Lou and Shirley Whitehurst, Joanne and Reid Tyson, Nina Lawrence and Billy Perkins and Ella Grace Stokes.

"The Father in The Home"

This is the subject of the message at the 8 o'clock vesper service Sunday afternoon at the Immanuel Baptist Church. This is the third in the series on "The Christian Home" being presented by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Nelson. Increasing interest is being shown in these messages as indicated by the increasing attendance each Sunday in spite of inclement weather. The men of the church and community are especially invited to hear this message on the place of the husband and father in the home.

We are beginning a men's Bible class at the Immanuel Baptist Church Sunday morning at 9:45. The men of the church who are not already in Sunday school, and men of the community who have no church home, are invited to attend. We believe that you will enjoy it come and bring a friend with you.

U. D. C. Meeting

A large group of members of the George B. Singletary chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy assembled for their January meeting in the lovely home of Mrs. J. B. Sillman on East Fifth street.

The president, Mrs. J. L. Fleming, opened the meeting with the beautiful and solemn pledge to the flag. After this ceremony she reversed the usual order of procedure and called on Mrs. W. P. Moore to introduce the speaker. Mrs. Moore entertained his listeners with sidelights on the lives of Robert E. Lee, Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson and Matthew Fontaine Maury, whose birthdays the Daughters celebrate this month. Mr. Deals fund of knowledge, the well chosen and cleverly presented episodes in the lives of these three confederate leaders and his humorous interpretation of some of their activities, served to bring them vividly alive to his listeners.

A short business session followed, during which, plans were made for the sale of flags on Saturday, January 18.

The social hour was enhanced by a delicious ice course served by the hostess.

Flag Day
The George B. Singletary Chapter of the U. D. C. annually sponsors a flag sale day on Robert E. Lee's birthday. The money received from these sales is used for benevolent and educational causes. This year, since Lee's birthday falls on Sunday, the sale will be held on Saturday preceding this day.

The Girl Scouts are glad to have an opportunity to render a service to such a worthy cause by assisting in the sale of the flags. Troop 10, under the leadership of Mrs. W. E. Small and Mrs. Gherman Taylor, will have headquarters at Basart's Drug Store with Mrs. B. McKay Johnson in charge. Troops 8 and 12 with Misses Pattie Frase, Frances Kitzell, and Mrs. E. L. Henderson leaders respectively, will work from Miss Lowe's as headquarters with Mrs. T. T. Hollingsworth in charge.

Sans Souci Club

The Sans Souci Book Club was delightfully entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. W. I. Wooten in her lovely home which was decorated with spring flowers, particularly lovely camellias on the living room mantel and parus japonica about the room.

Only a few members were absent. The large number present for the first meeting of the new year were enthusiastic and in fine spirits for 1947.

Business and books were soon dispensed with and a program of great charm and interest was presented.

Mrs. Charlie Forbes introduced the speaker to the club, Mrs. Charles White, who gave the program for the afternoon. Mrs. White delighted the club when she presented her subject, "Recent Stars of the Metropolitan Opera," and selected for review nine of the very young artists who have won their places as stars in their very early years. She gave the birthplace and reviewed the life of each one showing their God-given voices were backed by personality and sincere hard work. She reminded the members that several of these artists are presented each Saturday by radio, a treat of magnificent voices which all should tune in and enjoy.

The artists listed were enthusiastically presented. Each star of unusual brilliance and individuality and all so young to have attained this fame were Joel Berglund, Torston Rolf, Richard Manning, Regina Reznick, Patrice Munsel, Renee Mozella, Set Svanholm, Eleanor Steber and Robert Merrill.

Following this program which was so graciously presented, Mrs. Wooten invited her guests into the dining room where delicious buffet refreshments were served by Mrs. Herbert Waldrop and Miss Brownings. The center piece arrangement of red and white carnations was brilliant in coloring and beautiful.

Guests of the club were Miss Browning, Mrs. Lay, Mrs. Charles White, Mrs. John C. Wooten and Mrs. Speight.

PHANTOMS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Meet Roanoke Rapids In Return Match; Hard Game In Prospect

Roanoke Rapids comes to Greenville tonight for a return basketball match with the GHS Green Phantoms who beat them on their home court last Tuesday. The opening whistle is set to blow at 8 o'clock. Junior teams of the two schools will play a preliminary game at 7 o'clock, however, as a sort of appetizer for fans who arrive early.

Although the Phantoms won Tuesday's game by a rather good margin, 33-26, it was close and exciting all the way, and a battle royal is expected here tonight. The Yellow Jackets displayed a smooth working ball club, one that will give any team in the conference trouble, so Coach Farley and his boys are not regarding them lightly.

During the past two days Coach Farley has been attempting to correct the mistakes his team made against the Yellow Jackets, "Mistakes," he said, "that can mean the ball game in a close contest."

Currently tied for second place in the red hot Northeastern Conference race that is developing, the Phantoms are going all out to win the rest of their games, something that will give them the crown if they can accomplish. Washington High School beat the highly favored Kinston Red Devils Tuesday night to take the league lead. Elizabeth City, who also has yet to lose a conference game, shares the lead with Washington.

College last week by a comfortable margin. Probable starting lineup for ECTC will be as follows: Larry James and Jim Taylor at forwards; Charlie Moyer at center; and Doug Jones and Tom Cox at guards. Both games start at 8 p. m.

N.C. Basketball

By the Associated Press
North Carolina college basketball teams engage three non-conference quintets tonight as the week's schedule takes a breather preparatory to a heavier five-game card featuring Duke and N. C. State tomorrow night.

High Point's Panthers, boasting one of the strongest fives in the North State loop, will seek their fifth win of the season, against the same number of losses, in their appearance against the Asheville Bombers at Asheville. Lenoir-Rhyne will entertain a Wofford team that gave the Bears a rough reception on their South Carolina tour last week, and East Carolina Teachers are at home to the Norfolk Naval Station.

In Southern Conference games last night Duke's defending champions registered their third circuit victory, turning back a troublesome George Washington five, 52-46, at Durham, and Wake Forest gained its third triumph in six loop starts at the expense of Clemson, 67-51.

The Elon Christians overcame a nine-point halftime deficit and fought off a last minute Lenoir-Rhyne threat in overtime to edge out the Bears, 43 to 42, in the night's lone North State Conference game.

Clicking behind tight, defensive play that held Wofford scoreless during the first 14 minutes, the Catawba Indians scored a 59-39 victory over the visiting Methodists. Hanes Hosley proved too strong for Appalachian State Teachers at Winston-Salem as the Mountaineers dropped a 62-50 game.

Two Grid Stars In Nat'l League

New York, Jan. 17—(AP)—The National Football League was chortling today over the double-barreled joke it handed the All-America Conference when it snatched Charley Trippi and Clyde LaForce from under the very noses of its rivals.

Trippi, All-America halfback from Georgia, who apparently was all set to lug the leather for the All-America Yankees of New York next fall, reversed the field yesterday and went to Chicago for a tete-a-tete with Charley Bidwill, wealthy owner of the National League's Chicago Cardinals. And the dark curly-haired product of Pittston Pa. is expected to contract with Bidwill today or tomorrow to play with the Cardinals the next four years for a total of slightly less than $100,000.

LaForce, brilliant Tulsa quarterback and star of the recent East-West shrine benefit game at San Francisco, signed a two-year contract to play with the Detroit Lions of the National League in preference to several bids from the All-America Conference.

BACK ACHE DUE TO KIDNEYS?

Read This! If excess acidity of your urine makes your back ache so you groan . . . so you get up three or four times a night to pass water, now be of good cheer. Three generations ago a famous doctor noticed that hundreds of his patients had this backache. He developed a medicine made of exactly the right amount of six teen herbs, roots, vegetables, and balsams—truly Nature's own way to relief. Now millions have used it. The medicine is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. Instantly you take it, it starts to work flushing out those excess acids that may be causing your backache. . . increasing the flow of urine to help ease that burning sensation when you pass water . . . and that bladder irritation that makes you get up nights. Caution: take as directed. You'll say it's really marvelous. For free trial supply, send to Dept. U, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 1255, Stamford, Conn. Or—get full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your drugstore.

Tinker's Condition Good After Surgery

Orlando, Fla., Jan. 17—(AP)—Joe Tinker, former Chicago Cub shortstop, was recovering in a hospital here today from a leg amputation he had today from an infection which started last October.

Hospital attendants reported shortly after midnight that the 66-year-old member of the Tinkerto-Evers-to-Chance, infield combination was "resting very quietly" and that his condition was good.

Bill Tilden Gets Long Road Term

Los Angeles, Jan. 17—(AP)—Nine months at hard labor stretched out today before William T. (Big Bill) Tilden, former monarch of the tennis court, following sentence on a morals charge involving a 14-year-old boy.

Tennis enthusiasts rate him as perhaps the greatest player of all time. He won the national singles title seven times, 1920 through 1925, and again in 1929. A member of 11 consecutive American Davis Cup teams, he captured 17 of 22 singles matches against the world's best opposition.

In 1931, he turned professional and gained new laurels. He championed and was responsible for much of the growth of the pro net game. In recent years, he managed most of the professional tours.

Report Sale Of Savings Bonds

J. H. Waldrop, county chairman of the U. S. Savings Bonds division for Pitt County, announced today that, according to information received from Allison James, State Director of the U. S. Savings Bonds State Office in Greensboro, sales of U. S. Savings Bonds for the period December 1 through December 31, for Pitt County, totaled $261,755.50; broken down into the three available series the sales were E Bonds, $185,315.50; F Bonds, $4,440; G Bonds, $72,000. Sales of Savings Bonds for the entire state for the same period were: E Bonds, $5,514,747.50; F Bonds, $630,184.00; G Bonds, $2,282,300, total sales, $8,427,231.50.

The County Chairman further stated that according to information he had received from the State Office citizens of North Carolina had invested more money in E Bonds, as well as in the combined series E, F and G Bonds, in December, than in any previous month of 1946.

Waldrop expressed thanks and appreciation to all in Pitt County who have contributed to the success of the Savings Bonds program during 1946 and earnestly solicits their continued cooperation and support in 1947. He predicted a bright outlook for the 1947 Savings Bonds program.

Strength FOR THE DAY

DAWN AND NOONDAY
One is amazed at times to observe in ancient writings the ability which certain great thinkers had to anticipate truths centuries before their discovery or full revelation to the human mind. Socrates, several hundred years before Jesus and quite independently of the Hebrew tradition, believed in the immortality of the soul and taught certain things about it which come very nearly being Christian. A few hours before his death, Socrates remarked to his disciple Simmas:
"Such as have truly purified themselves with philosophy live henceforth altogether without a body, in mansions fairer still, which may not be described."

This sounds very much like the many mansions in the Father's house about which Jesus spoke.
After Socrates had spoken, Sim-mas remarked: "If a man may not discover the absolute truth about life after death, I would have him take the best and most irrefragable of human theories, and let this be the raft upon which he sails through life, not without risk, I admit, if he cannot find some Word of God which will more surely and safely carry him."
The Christian believes that he has this Word of God in the Bible.
In fact he believes vastly more than this—he believes that the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, full of grace and truth.
Socrates and Simmas believed in life after death. They described the first streaks of dawn in a dark sky. We, who believe in the Christian revelation, stand in the splendor of noonday light.

Plan Of . . .
service would be able to sit down together and work out their problems for the good of the country.
They do it by setting up a war council with these members:
1. The Secretary of National Defense as chairman.
2. The Secretaries of the Army,
Navy and Airforce.
3. The three military commanders of the Army, Navy and Airforce.
This war council would lay down the general policies for all three branches of the service to follow.
But in this war council the Secretary of National Defense would make the decisions. In short, he'd have final say-so.
Also working right under the Secretary of National Defense would be the joint chiefs of staff.
Which means:
1. The military head of the Army, military head of the Navy, and military head of the Airforce.
2. Chief of Staff to the President of the United States. (Mr. Truman's Chief of Staff is Admiral William D. Leahy.)
It would be the job of the joint chiefs of staff to do the planning for use of the armed forces, the strategy.
The boss of the joint chiefs of staff would be—as noted—the Secretary of National Defense.

Army-Navy . . .
There is no intention in this plan to decide which service will use which weapons for the purpose of doing its job.
The plan announced by the White House ended a months-long controversy between the army and navy over proposals for merger of the two services. The merger has been advocated by army leaders and resisted by naval chiefs.
While the plan is yet to be laid formally before Congress, first action on Capitol Hill was generally favorable.
One of the issues to be clarified is the size of the president's future cabinet.

Claim Russia . . .
smaller nations appear before the deputies council only when presents their own treaty proposals.
The United States, Britain and France appeared to have dropped their earlier support of the Aus-

Dr. Ennett Is Guest Speaker Of Jaycees

The regular dinner meeting of the Greenville Junior Chamber of Commerce was held Thursday, Jan.
16.
The guest speaker, Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, Pitt County Health Officer, gave a very interesting speech about the Pitt County Health Program.
Dr. Ennett stated that the rate of several contagious diseases in Pitt County has been greatly reduced during the past ten years. He emphasized the need of a countywide chest x-ray program in order to reduce the tuberculosis cases in the county to a minimum.

Service Station At Bethel Was Robbed

Paul Smith, owner of Jones' Ser-

way, near Bethel, closed the place Wednesday night while he attended a motion picture theater. When he returned someone had broken into the place and "taken" $50 from the cash drawer. The robber left no clue.
Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson, Deputy
Cletus Jackson, Bethel Policeman
Walter Gray and Lester D. Page, Greenville finger-print specialist, are investigating the robbery.

South Bend, Wash., Jan. 17—(AP)—
Driving a truck loaded with dynamite Tom Evans ran into a little trouble. The rear spring broke, locking the wheels, and the truck overturned. But nothing blew up.
He reloaded on another truck and four miles along a defective steering wheel locked, and that truck turned over. Still nothing blew up.
But the third try was a success.
That is, he got to his destination

Police Officers Attend School Roy W. Harris and Daniel W. Early of the Greenville police department are making good records, said Special Agent Roy K. Moore, traffic instructor of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, instructor at the Institute of Government, where Harris and Early are attending a two-week Traffic Law Enforcement School.

At the closing sessions of the school on Friday and Saturday, January 17-18, chief of the Greenville Department, James R. Tanner, along with Judge J. W. H. Roberts and Solicitor Eli Bloom, will attend a conference of judges, solicitors, and chiefs of police of the Institute of Government for the purpose of planning a local school in traffic law enforcement for all members of the police department. The North Carolina Police Executives Association, through its official "school teaching agency," the Institute of Government, and with the cooperation of the FBI, is sponsoring the local schools to be held throughout the state during the spring and early summer. Local officials and FBI agents will serve as instructors at the local schools, scheduled for all the principal cities of North Carolina.

According to Albert Coates, Director of the Institute, this is a part of a unique and continuing program of local study which is designed to bring to the 1500 law enforcement officers of North Carolina training each year.

Reserve Officers Meet In Kinston Kinston, Jan. 16.-The Lenoir and Pitt County Reserve Officers' Association yesterday had completed its plans for alternative sessions in Greenville and Kinston and officers stated it would seek to enroll all reserve officers in the two counties. The charter meeting was held at Hotel Kinston during the weekend. Officers elected at the charter meeting were Lt. Col. L. J. Dupree, president; Capt. Jesse L. Jackson, Jr., vice-president, and Lt. A. J. (Tony) Carey, secretary-treasurer. The organization is composed of former officers in the military services. Its charter was received from national headquarters. Major E. H. Anderson of Raleigh addressed the group. He discussed the purpose and function of the Reserve Officers' Association and social functions. The February meeting will be held in Greenville. Permanent committee chairmen appointed were Major E. B. Marston, Jr., program chairman; Capt. Robert L. DuVal, information; Lt. Col. R. M. Giles of Greenville, membership; Lt. Col. T. K. Fountain, of Falkland, legislative; Lt. Col. Meriwether Lewis of Kinston, military affairs, and Lt. Albert M. Stroud of Kinston, publicity chairman.

March Of Dimes Drive Starts In Pitt County

The March of Dimes, January 17-31, needs more generous community support than ever before to replenish funds of the National foundation and Pitt County Chapter, which was depleted fighting this dreaded disease last summer during the second greatest epidemic in the nation's history. The 1946 polio total will exceed 20,000 victims, the vast majority of which depend solely upon the March of Dimes as the only means of restoration to health.

Stating that this year's March of Dimes appeal is the most urgent in the nation's history the Pitt County chairman, Mr. J. H. Moore of Farmville, pointed out that several cases were treated in Pitt County last year and one death was caused by the results of this disease. In the state last year there were 167 cases of polio and caused death for eight persons in the first half of 1946.

The campaign will get underway tomorrow, January 17, with the distribution of booklets and other fund raising materials to the students in both the white and colored schools of the county. Containers have already been distributed and placed in business houses for solicitation of the general public. The people have generously responded thru this means in their support of this worthy cause.

Moore has obtained the assistance of all the school principals of the county and chairmen of various groups in each community. These individuals will head the fund raising activities in their respective communities. In Greenville, Mr. O. E. Dowd is serving as city chairman. Funds in Greenville will be raised largely through our schools and the March of Dimes Ball which will be held at ECTO January 31.

Mr. George Wilkerson is serving as general chairman for the Ball. All the civic clubs of Greenville have agreed to support the Ball, through the sale of tickets. Each member of the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, Junior Women's Club, and others will sell tickets for the Ball. These tickets will go on sale immediately and will be the only method of solicitation of adults in Greenville. The dance will be for both young and older people. A good orchestra has been secured and everyone may expect to have a good time.

Both the Reflector and WGTC have pledged their loyal support to this annual March of Dimes campaign. Each will have additional announcements about the campaign and the Ball.

valuable clue turned up. Police arrested Taylor last Saturday night at his home, 908 Pitt street, and searched his room. They found articles stolen from seven different places. The officers also found $65 in bills in Taylor's shoes. After being in the city jail several days, Taylor called for Chief Tanner and admitted the charges and assisted police in recovering much of the loot.

Authorities said Taylor has a police record. He was dishonorably discharged from the Navy; served a year in a Florida prison for larceny, and was under parole from a Florida federal court for forging government checks, Chief Tanner said.

The penalty for burglarizing a building in which there is a sleeping person is death in the gas chamber, it is understood.

London Business Nearing Normal

London, Jan. 17—(AP)—Near normal conditions were restored at most London market centers today following settlement of the city's crippling transport strike, but at least 35,000 of the 50,000 men involved in the 11-day dispute postponed until tomorrow their return to work.

More than 15,000 truckers, whose wages and hours strike and the subsequent use of troops to transport the city's food supplies precipitated

No Snow

By CHESTER WALSH
The "man on the street" in Greenville today talked "snow" and looked at clouds and hoped that it will snow. The women this reporter contacted "hoped it would snow." That's the first time the descendants of Adam and Eve ever agreed.

Incidentally, the sky was overcast all day with low hanging clouds, and a north wind blowing. One winter enthusiast told a reporter that there was a flurry of snow at 12:30 today, but it simply could not snow when the temperature is 46 degrees.

The Reflector checked with Mrs. C. E. Malden, Always Observer for the Department of Commerce, and she gave the following information about the weather:

The lowest official temperature in Greenville Thursday at 7 a. m. was 62 degrees; the highest, at 1 p. m., was 68 degrees.

The official weather bureau thermometer at 7 a. m. today registered 53 degrees. At 1 p. m. today the mercury stood at 46.

Snow falls when the temperature is below 34 degrees.

Raleigh reported at 1 p. m. today that it was raining there, and that it was expected to turn into snow with a falling temperature.

Rufus, the weather prognosticator with the pet groundhog, opined this afternoon that "it is not going to snow."

He said it is going to rain!

a series of sympathy walkouts agreed yesterday to resume work Saturday morning.

All work in the giant port of London remained at a standstill as 20,000 dockers, stevedores and Thames lightermen decided to wait until tomorrow, too, to return to their jobs.

In the meantime, troops continued to move food from the markets to the shops pending the truckers' return.

Ramadier Chosen French Premier

Paris, Jan. 17—(AP)—President Vincent Auriol tonight nominated Socialist Paul Ramadier, 59-year-old economist and lawyer, as French premier.

Ramadier recently was minister of justice.
Leon Blum, who served as interim president and premier pending ing Auriol's election yesterday, declined nomination as permanent premier because of his health. Blum is 74.

Again In 1946
CHEVROLET IS FIRST
First IN CAR PRODUCTION . . . First IN TRUCK PRODUCTION
First IN COMBINED CAR AND TRUCK PRODUCTION!

AGAIN at the close of 1946—when America's need for new motor cars and trucks is most urgent—the Chevrolet Motor Division of General Motors leads all other manufacturers in automotive production. This means that Chevrolet is first in passenger car production—first in truck production—first in combined passenger car and truck production . . . despite the fact that all Chevrolet plants were closed completely during the first three months of 1946! Naturally, Chevrolet hopes to be able to build more and more of these fine products which America is buying so eagerly—the only motor car giving BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST—the only truck giving BIG-TRUCK QUALITY AT LOWEST COST—the complete Chevrolet line which stands out as the lowest-priced line in its field! One word of caution about deliveries: There still aren't enough new Chevrolets to go around, but obviously you'll get quicker delivery by purchasing the product of America's largest builder of cars and trucks, and you'll get higher quality by purchasing the product America likes best—Chevrolet!

Remember . . . LARGEST PRODUCTION means QUICKEST DELIVERY of your new car. Place and keep your order with us for a new Chevrolet and get biggest value as well as earliest possible delivery!
