PEACE AFTER STORMY WEEK IN ASSEMBLY

Two Chambers Hold Only Brief Session Today; Fight Will Resume

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 18.—(AP)—After a stormy week during which it received from Governor Cherry proposals calling for the largest budget in state history and became involved in a week-long debate on boosting the salaries of teachers and state employes, the General Assembly was quiet today.

With only a handful of members present, the two chambers met briefly this morning, considered a few local bills and adjourned to resume parliamentary maneuvering over the pay issue Monday evening.

The House returned the issue of higher emergency bonuses for teachers and state employes to a conference group when it met yesterday, and the Senate is expected to name its conferees at Monday's session.

Hence, the issue that convulsed the General Assembly all this week and resulted in two House votes rejecting administration plans to keep salary increases at a minimum of 20 per cent, cannot be finally settled before Tuesday.

Provisions for emergency pay increases of 20 per cent here contained in a bill introduced in both Houses last Monday night along with administration budget proposals calling for the spending of a record $303,645,647 to operate state departments and institutions during the 1947-48 biennium.

Speedily passed by the Senate, the pay bill was amended in the House by a group of legislators bent on forcing salary increases for the remainder of the fiscal year and for the 1947-48 biennium above the 20 per cent recommended by Governor Cherry. The amendment of 25 per cent, called for increases of 25 to 30 per cent.

When the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment, a conference committee, composed of five representatives and three senators was named. The group worked out a compromise that would have preserved the 20 per cent figure but would have granted a salary bonus almost equal to the $3-150,000 provided for in the Barker amendment by making the bonus retroactive to Dec. 1, 1946 instead of Jan. 1, 1947.

The House yesterday reinstated its five original conferees, and House Speaker Pearsall named four additional conferees.

Five Missing In Cleveland Fire

Cleveland, Jan. 18.—(AP)—At least five persons were unaccounted for today in the debris of a flash fire that wrecked Knickerbocker Manor, an uptown rooming house. Fire Chief James E. Nimmo said at least some of them were probably dead.

A number of roomers jumped from open windows of the three-story brick, frame and stone structure. One man, Hugo Hamfeld, 52, was not expected to live after he jumped from the third floor. Firemen said he had been trapped.

Seventeen were rescued and at least 11 were hospitalized.

The fire was caused by an explosion in the furnace room which tore an enormous hole in one side of the structure, enabling rescuers to get roomers safely to the street.

Nimmo said a collapsed staircase made "a natural well" for the fire. The blaze was brought under control in several hours.

Could The Nation Ever Be In The Same Fix As Georgia When Its Governor-Elect Died Before Taking Office? Some Bills Affecting The Presidency

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Suppose some president-elect of the United States died before he could be sworn in as president.

Would the nation then be in the same fix as Georgia when its governor-elect, Eugene Talmadge, died before becoming governor? No.

The Georgia state constitution is not clear on what happens when the governor-elect dies.

Because it was unclear—without going into details here—Talmadge's son, Herman, and the retiring governor, Ellis Arnall, now both claim to be governor.

Arnall Locked Out Of Office

This picture of Ellis Arnall, one of two claimants to the Georgia governorship, was taken in his executive office the day before he was locked out. Aides of Herman Talmadge, the other claimant, ordered locks changed Wednesday night. Talmadge moved into the office Thursday morning. (AP Photo).

Talmadge May Impeach His Attorney General

Action May Be Taken In Retaliation For Upholding Arnall As Governor; Arnall Ready To Sue Bank If Checks Are Rejected

Atlanta, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Ellis Arnall quit as governor of Georgia today and passed the fight with Herman Talmadge for the executive office over to Lt. Gov. M. E. Thompson.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 18.—(AP)—An authoritative source opposed to Herman Talmadge asserted today that Talmadge forces would impeach Georgia's attorney general Monday for his actions in upholding Ellis Arnall as legal governor of Georgia.

The legislature was in recess until Monday, and Talmadge spokesmen were unavailable for comment but legislative observers discounted the chances that Attorney General Eugene Cook could be removed. Talmadge forces could ram charges through the House, but a two-thirds majority of the Senate would be required to convict and anti-Talmadge forces control more than enough votes to block removal.

Meanwhile, Herman Talmadge and his supporters continued to hold physical possession of the State Capitol and the governor's mansion while Ellis Arnall conducted business from temporary quarters in a downtown office building. Arnall motored to Atlanta from his home, 40 miles southwest of Atlanta, prepared to bring suit against Atlanta's Fulton National Bank if checks issued by his executive secretary yesterday are rejected for payment.

"I have just begun to fight," he declared. Herman Talmadge, occupying the capitol offices on basis of his election as governor by the General Assembly, declared that "everything is quiet" and said "the reluctance of the former governor to quit the scene of his triumphs has not disturbed me in the least."

The fight over the chief executive's chair evolved more and more into a war of words between the two principals, each issuing frequent statements supporting his claim.

Strategy Backfires In CIO Unionization

Washington, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Strategy of the American Federation of Hosiery Workers, CIO, to unionize hosiery workers by small groups or crafts has received an apparent setback in dismissal by the NLRB of a petition from the union that it be designated as bargaining agent for employes of 11 hosiery plants at High Point, N. C.

Washington, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The CIO declared today that proposed legislation to outlaw portal pay suits violates the principle of our constitution.

Lee Pressman, the CIO's general counsel, told a senate judiciary subcommittee that bills designed to nullify employer liability only tend to implant in workers the apprehension and the fear that the Congress does not propose to play the same according to the rules where workers' rights are concerned.

The subcommittee is considering bills introduced by Senators Wiley (R-Wis.) and Capehart (R-Ind.) Both measures would knock out suits for more than $4,000,000 in back pay.

The pending claims were filed after the Supreme Court held that time employes are required to spend getting ready for their job is work and that they should be paid for it.

A CIO union won the high court ruling which opened the run of back pay suits.

OUTLAWING OF PAY SUITS IS HIT BY UNION

Proposals Affecting Portal Pay Claims Called Unconstitutional

A CIO union won the high court ruling which opened the run of back pay suits.

Pressman, also representing the CIO United Steelworkers, told the subcommittee that the bills before Congress present implications that are catastrophic to the public welfare.

Los Angeles, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The latest demand in the portal to portal litigation is pay for time workers have to stand in line to get their paychecks.

That was one of the points listed in a suit filed by three CIO unions against Ford, Curtis Wright, Tmm Aircraft, Douglas Aircraft, Chrysler Motors, Fredhuf Trailers and American Aluminum, asking more than $21,000.

Kiwanis Club Meeting Held Presbyterian Church

By CHESTER WALSH

Fellowship and feasting featured the Kiwanis Club's weekly supper meeting last night, which was held in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church. Supper was served by the women of Twin Oaks Chapel Presbyterian Church and they were given a rising vote of thanks.

Vice-President N. C. Jefferson (Standard) Brooks presided for President Eli Bloom, who was out of the city.

Judge Dink James, always interesting, was the speaker. He reviewed some of the incidents in connection with the clash of John L. Lewis with Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough in the recent coal mine case. His eloquent after-dinner speech was interesting and informative, the Pitt County jurist stressing the importance of adhering to the law and respecting the courts.

Secretary David C. Moore, Jr., who had charge of the program, introduced the speaker.

Miss Jean Lane of the art department at East Carolina Teachers College, sang two songs, "On the Road to Mandalay" and "Will You Remember?" with Mrs. Paul A. Toll as accompanist.

Babson Warns Management

Babson Park, Fla., Jan. 17. With a Republican Congress and the public trend toward conservatism, industry will be getting back again a measure of its beloved freedom of enterprise and freedom from controls at a very difficult time.

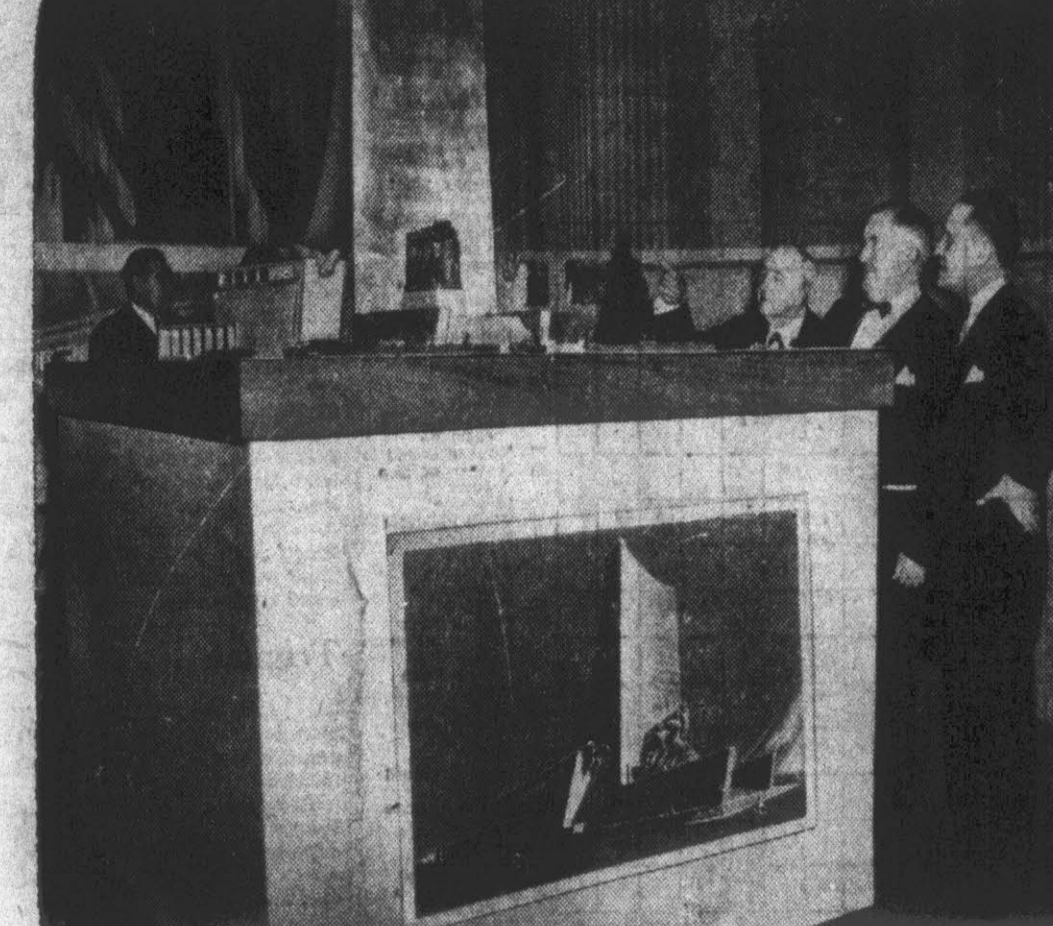

We are ending a period of rising prices. Following the law of action and reaction, we are heading toward a period of declining prices.

Business Headaches

Many inventories are already very high, production is catching up, and the public is showing a marked tendency to pick and choose in buying or to desist altogether. As I predicted in a previous article, discussing Fish Prices, we are seeing the beginning of a buyers' market. As this continues, businesses are apt to be left with inventories much reduced in value.

Strikes have so retarded normal production in the nation that conversion problems have been multiplied. Constant wage-increase demands from labor unions are causing still higher production costs and higher prices. Portal-to-portal retroactive pay suits from some of the greeder unions are further threats to business stability.

PEIPING TRIAL STARTS TODAY

Chinese Coed Identifies Marine; Case Basis Of Protests

Peiping, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Shen Chung, 19 year old Peiping coed, today accused Marine Cpl. William Gaither of raping her twice but a Chinese doctor who followed her to the witness chair said he was unable to determine whether she had been raped.

The girl positively identified Pierson to a U. S. courtmartial despatch a defense attempt to confuse her.

They, Dr. Tang Ho-sheng, physician in the municipal police bureau, said he examined the coed twice. He said the second time, nine days after the first examination, he found a small cut and a bruise on a leg.

Under cross examination, the doctor said a strong, healthy girl—she weighs 125 pounds—would have suffered more injuries if she resisted rape than if she consented. He refused to estimate when the bruise was made or whether the girl had resisted.

The girl testified earlier she had not noticed the bruise until two days after the incident.

Chinese university students in several cities made the case the basis for anti-American demonstrations early this month.

Speaking in a soft, dramatic voice the Chinese girl recounted in detail the three and a half hours she said she spent with Pierson Christmas Eve on a polo field in the center of the Peiping business district.

"My predicament," she concluded. (Continued on page two)

Blaze Put Out When Fireworks Exploded

Statesville, N. C., Jan. 18.—(AP)—Firemen thought they had just about put out a blaze yesterday on a two-story frame store building two miles east of here on the Salisbury road when $3,000 worth of fireworks started exploding, blowing off the roof and causing tremors felt for miles around.

The explosions continued for an hour while firemen at a safe distance concentrated their efforts on preventing other buildings in a Negro community from catching.

Washington, Jan. 18.—(AP)—President Truman notified Congress today of the proposed Army-Navy agreement on unification of the arm I services and said he will submit a bill to carry it out soon.

The President sent identical letters to Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), president of the Senate, and House Speaker Martin informing them of the agreement and transmitting copies of the correspondence on the subject made public Thursday night.

The bill he will submit will be drafted by representatives of the White House and the War and Navy Departments.

HEAVY DOCKET FACES JUDGE

Important Cases In Superior Court Here Next Week

By CHESTER WALSH

When Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington comes to Greenville Monday to preside over the regular criminal term of Superior Court he will be confronted by one of the heaviest and most important criminal dockets in the court in nearly half a century.

Solicitor Dave M. Clark said there are five or six capital cases on the docket, including murder, rape and first degree burglary.

Members of the bar and court officials, law enforcement officers and others welcome the coming of the New Hanover county jurist to preside over the criminal term of court. Judge Burney believes in action and making time. There is no lost motion when he is presiding. It is predicted that the criminal docket will be considerably reduced by the end of next week.

Peace Pacts Are Ready To Sign

Washington, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Formal peace between the Big Four and five former enemy states—Italy, Bulgaria, Finland, Hungary and Romania—is now but a step away.

Final drafts of the five peace treaties, embodying terms agreed upon last December by foreign ministers of the United States, Russia, Great Britain and France are complete and ready for signing.

Secretary of State Byrnes is to sign all but the Finnish treaty—the United States never was at war with Finland—Monday. Then they will be forwarded to the great power capitals for signatures of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov and British Foreign Minister Bevin.

At Paris on Feb. 10 the treaties are to be signed by representatives of the allies and of the five former enemy countries.

POLAND VOTE 'FIXED' CLAIM GOV'T FOES

Opponents Say Government Bloc Already Determined Winning Percentage

Warsaw, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Poland Russian-German battleground in wartime and Soviet-Western diplomatic prize since, tomorrow will hold its first parliamentary election since before the Nazis marched in Sept. 1, 1939 to start World War II. The opposition says a victory for the Communist-dominated government is pre-determined.

The big fight will be between the government bloc under Premier Edward Osobka-Norowski, Socialist, and the opposition Polish Peasant Party (PSL) under Vice-Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk.

The government has accused Mikolajczyk and his followers of a tieup with the murderous anti-government underground, while Mikolajczyk has charged the government with mob and security police suppression of his party.

Yesterday he said he had heard that the bloc parties had already arranged for returns to show the PSL getting eight percent of the vote. Government leaders have forecast a sweeping victory for their side, which won a referendum last June 30.

The United States, Britain and Russia will be waiting for the election result. The Soviet Union sponsored the provisional government out of which the current setup grew. The U. S. and Britain won cabinet posts for Mikolajczyk, premier of the wartime London government-in-exile and other London leaders. At Yalta and Potsdam, the three countries guaranteed Poland "free and unfettered elections."

In the last year, the two Western powers—which made such elections a condition of their recognition of the Polish government—have protested in a series of notes that the current government of national unity has violated the guarantee. Both Russia and Poland have replied that the election is Poland's own business. On other occasions, Osobka-Morawski has promised the election will be free.

In London yesterday, the British foreign office said teams from the Warsaw embassy and from consulates elsewhere would observe the voting in the bigger cities. The foreign office said the Polish government would not allow observation in rural areas.

Twelve million Poles—half the population, including soldiers enfranchised by last September's election law—are eligible for balloting between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. in 6,726 precincts, by estimate of Judge Kazimierz Boswski, 71, General Commissioner of Elections.

Hijacking Gang Caught By FBI

New York, Jan. 18.—(AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced today the arrest of 30 men here and one in Miami Beach, Fla. who they said comprised a gang which has been responsible for more than 30 truck hijackings here in the past year at a cost of $500,000 to shippers.

Edward Scheidt, special agent in charge of the New York office, said the arrests "struck a blow at the heart of hijackers and motor truck thieves who have victimized New York City business concerns of huge quantities of scarce and expensive merchandise."

The men were members of the "Westo" gang, he said, and their arrests followed months of investigation.

Import Of Election

Results Of Tomorrow's Balloting In Poland Will Determine Whether That Nation Is To Join The Group Of Satellites That Forms Russia's Bloc

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

We are on the eve of one of the world's most important post-war elections—those which Poland is scheduled to hold tomorrow to select members of Parliament.

These elections are so vital that at the Yalta and Potsdam conferences, the Big Three guaranteed they would be fair and unfettered. Poland is the borderland between Western and Eastern Europe. It is the mightiest arch in the buttress which Russia has created to safeguard its Western approaches.

It isn't strange, therefore, to find that the present provisional Warsaw government is dominated by Communists. However, this Red control is being heavily challenged by the Polish Peasant Party, headed by Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, former premier of the war-time Polish government in London and now vice-premier of the Warsaw regime.

Mikolajczyk thus is in direct political conflict with Boleslaw Bierut, president of the provisional government. The latter was one of the organizers of the underground movement during the German occupation. He became a leader in the creation of the National Council of the Homeland—Poland's governing body—and in Moscow in 1945 was singled out for the provisional presidency.

In short, Poland is in the throes of one of the fiercest battles which are being fought in various countries between Communists and anti-Communists. What is going on in Poland is similar to what has happened in other states of Eastern and Southeastern Europe. Albania, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Romania are among those which have been communized, and tomorrow's election is likely to tell us whether that country also is firmly within the fold.

Strength FOR THE DAY By EARL L. DOUGLAS ARE CHRISTIAN STANDARDS HOPELESSLY HIGH? In Egypt there is a training school for Mohammedan missionaries. Here young men are trained to go forth and make the world safe for the Prophet. They recognize, of course, that Christianity is the great rival of Mohammedanism and so direct their attack particularly against this opposing faith. Their line of reasoning is something like this: Christianity as a religion is vastly superior to Mohammedanism. Jesus was so much greater than the prophet Mohammed that they cannot fittingly be compared. But Jesus was an idealist who set no moral standards unattainable to man. Mohammed, on the other hand, was practical, level-headed, and realistic. Christianity is fine as a theory, but it does not work. Mohammedanism is suited to the lowly condition of man's nature. Jesus may have known more about heaven than Mohammed did but the Prophet knew more about sin than did the Galilean Teacher. Be sensible, therefore, and attach yourself to a religion to which you have some chance of being faithful. Christianity is a beautiful theory, but it is also will-o-the-wisp. Mohammedans are not the only people who regard Christianity in this light. Many people in this and other countries prefer the easy codes of paganism, seasoned with a little benevolence, to the sublime demands of Jesus for a fully surrendered and consecrated life.

BABSON. (Continued from Page One) the United States, whereas, there are said to be around 200 such plans in existence. This is because most employers claim that no one of these plans is as yet really practicable. An example of how unreasonably expensive such a plan can be, in spite of the good will it earns from employees, was seen at Hormel packing houses during 1946. Republicans Beware! A Hormel plant in Minnesota was able to slaughter less than one sixth of its usual weekly number of hogs and cattle. But employees in that plant, though working less than two hours one week, received a full week's pay. Under continuous similar conditions a guaranteed pay plan of this sort might ruin a business. However, the need of some firming a mutually satisfactory plan would be desirable. Since it is something labor so desperately wants, the Republicans will be wise to help work out as good a plan as possible in this direction. Business must operate with reasonable freedom and yet without the narrow, Godless point of view of each for himself. Such a short-sighted attitude has characterized too much labor and business leadership in the past. These questions must be tackled with vision and wisdom for industry to work out a plan of cooperation and fair-play all round. Management must succeed in this as both government and labor have failed. Only by so doing will a period of profitable productivity be assured for the years ahead. If industry muffles her opportunity to solve some of these problems, management may lose the confidence of the American people and also the thing it cherishes most dearly—freedom of enterprise. I repeat: the Republicans have not yet been given a victory, but only an opportunity.

Our Farm Folks

By MRS. FRED T. LANGFORD
Home Demonstration Agent
And
VERNA BELL LOWERY
Simpson Community Organizer

The twentieth Home Demonstration Club was organized in Pitt County on Friday afternoon, January 10th in the Simpson Community. Four days prior to this date, five ladies met with Mrs. Verona Lee J. Langford, Home Demonstration Agent, and Miss Verna Belle Lowery, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, to make plans to organize a club in their community. These five ladies went straight to work and were well pleased by the way the people responded. Twenty-one enthusiastic members met at the home of Mrs. Jimmie Edwards and organized the Simpson Home Demonstration Club.

Mrs. Langford presided at this meeting. The meeting opened with the members singing, "Hail Club Women, Crown Thru Service," then the club collect was repeated. The Home Agent discussed the purposes, policies and program of the North Carolina Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs. Year Books were presented to the members. The Agent gave a most helpful demonstration on "Cleaning and Adjusting the Sewing Machine."

The following were elected as officers: Mrs. R. G. Little, president; Mrs. S. D. Tucker, Jr., vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Edwards, Jr., secretary and treasurer.

County Council Meets
The Pitt County Council of the Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs met in the auditorium of the New Classroom Building at East Carolina Teachers College on Wednesday, January 15th at 2 p. m. In the absence of the president Mrs. W. F. Bullock, Mrs. D. N. Nobles, Jr., vice-president, presided.

Mrs. Verona Lee J. Langford, Home Demonstration Agent, gave a financial report of the County Council. She also presented Reading Certificates and Perfect Attendance pins to members for 1946.

The Executive Board reported that Mrs. Brantley Speight of the Renston-Nobles Club would serve as secretary to the Council to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. C. J. Seiterhwaite.

The Council voted to have an informal tea with a guest speaker in the afternoon for the Spring Federation meeting on March 11th.

Miss Rose Ellwood Bryan, Assistant House Furnishing and Home Management Specialist, State College, gave a most interesting and helpful demonstration on "Making a Comfort with Feathers."

About 65 club members attended this meeting and demonstration.

The Home Demonstration Clubs are sponsoring Health Programs this month to make the people conscious of the necessity of Good Health. The Extension Agents are presenting an educational program, "Food In Relation To Health." Each club is giving the ski, "Food and Health."

The Farmville Home Demonstration Club members met with their husbands on January 9th at the Club House to enjoy a delicious dinner and to make plans to improve the health of their families. The banquet table was decorated with fresh vegetables which was in keeping with the program. Mrs. J. R. Lewis presided at the meeting. Mrs. Herman Baker gave a cordial welcome. The recreation was led by Miss Verna Belle Lowery, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent and Mr. Sam Weeks, Assistant Farm Agent.

Even though it was pouring down rain Monday night the Pictious Home Demonstration Club women, their husbands and their guests which were Ruritan members and their wives gathered at the Community Building and enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner and Health Program. The meal was served by Club members from tables which were attractively decorated with fruit and flowers. Between the dinner courses, Mrs. W. F. Little had the ladies and gentlemen to do "Spring Cleaning." The ladies dumped all the articles out of their purses and the men emptied their pockets. The man and woman having the greatest number of articles received a gift. Mrs. Susie Webb won the prize with 21 articles and Mr. Grimes with 19 articles. Mrs. J. R. Davenport presided and Mrs. Paul Davenport led the singing.

Red Banks Club Meets
The members of the Red Banks Club and their husbands enjoyed a "Calendar Party" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Cherry on Tuesday night. As the guests arrived, Mrs. R. B. Starling, Club president, pinned a calendar of one month in the year on each person. The decorations in the two living rooms, dining room, and breakfast room carried out the idea of the seasons—winter, spring, summer and fall. Guests then found their places according to the month and season, at attractively arranged card tables. A calendar for 1947 served as place cards for each person. A delicious chicken dinner was served to the fifty guests. Mrs. A. C. Lassiter, a recent war-bride from England, related many interesting and detailed facts on the Education System in England. This was enjoyed by all, and was the beginning of a series of studies by this club on our International Neighbors.

After the Health Program was presented by Mrs. Verona Lee J. Langford, Home Agent, and S. C. Winchester, Farm Agent, Mrs. Starling led the group in many games and stunts. Those taking part on the program for the evening were presented gifts at the close of the program. The Home Agent's gift was a desk calendar. On each page of the calendar friends of Mrs. Langford throughout the county had written wishes for the New Year and advice to her as a new bride.

The Children's Corner

Let's Read About Home
"Blue Ridge Billy," by Lois Lenski, is one of a series of "regional" books, written and illustrated by this well known author, who has chosen the mountains of Ashe County for her story about North Carolina.

Life in the mountain sections of our state is quite different from that in the lowlands, and it is delightful to join Blue Ridge Billy, his family and his friends, for a short visit. Farming on the side of a steep hill presented many problems, but Billy's biggest problem was his love for makin' music, for his stern Pappy counted it a waste of time. It was a happy day for Billy when his father learned that a boy could be a "born musician," just as a dog could be a "born possum dog."

"Johnny and His Mule," by Ellis Credle, is another new North Carolina story, for slightly younger children.

The photographs which illustrate this book are very descriptive and help to tell the story of Johnny's purchase, at auction, of a worthless balking mule, and how he finally got it home.

Ellis Credle is a North Carolinian, and many Greenville children have already enjoyed an earlier book, "Down, Down the Mountain," the story of Hetty and Hank, who lived in the Blue Ridge mountains.
