Steel Production Is Assured Through April By CIO Truce

Pittsburgh, Jan. 25.—(AP)—which expire on the same date Feb. 15. Just a year ago, the union's 853,000 membership was embarked on a month-long strike. In that controversy the union originally demanded a flat $2-a-day increase but settled for 18 1-2 cents an hour, a figure that became the national wage-increase pattern.

Announcing the extension, Murray declared: "The union agreed to this course of action because we believe that real collective bargaining requires complete discussion of all points. During such discussions the public should not be kept in a state of apprehension. We likewise understand some of the problems confronting management, such as their uncertainty as to their liability in the event of a strike."

Dog Inherits $25,000 Fortune

Of course it doesn't make any impression on him, but Duke, 13-year-old shepherd dog, has been named chief beneficiary in a $25,000 fortune willed him by Mrs. Martha Madolyn Benson at Liberty, Mo. Duke is standing with Mrs. M. M. Leatherman (above) at Liberty for the present, but the will provides that he shall be quartered in a dog hospital. After the dog's death, the money will go to a children's hospital and a home for the blind. (AP Wirephoto).

Supreme Court To Get Nazis' Appeal

U.S. Army Officer Enroute To Washington With Plea In Behalf Of Germans Convicted Of Slaughter At Malmedy

Dachau, Germany, Jan. 25.—(AP)—A U.S. Army lieutenant colonel was reported enroute to Washington today to carry an appeal to the United States Supreme Court on behalf of 43 German SS (Elite Guard) troopers condemned to hang for the slaughter of 750 American soldiers captured during the Battle of the Bulge.

Colleagues of Lt. Col. Willis M. Everett, Jr., of Atlanta, defense counsel for the condemned men during their trial last summer, said he was carrying with him a review of the affair in which he bitterly criticized the handling of the case widely known as the Malmedy "massacre."

These attorneys said at war crimes trial headquarters here they understood Everett intended to demand a special review by the Army's Judge Advocate General in addition to filing an appeal with the Supreme Court.

Everett's review of the case openly charged that U.S. interrogators obtained confessions from the SS men by beating and mistreating them and by conducting mock trials to frighten them. He asserted that 90 percent of the evidence in the case "consists of illegal and fraudulently procured confessions."

"The Malmedy trial can be considered no more than the exercise of victorious power under the cloak of legal form, but it was totally lacking the standards of American justice," Everett wrote.

"There was no abnormal or inhuman conduct proved in this trial," he left here mad as a hornet, one officer commented.

Witnesses at the trial, some of them soldiers who managed to escape the massacre, testified that Col. Joachim Peiper, one of those condemned to the gallows, gave an order before the offensive opened that no prisoners were to be taken and that he ordered exhausted and disarmed American soldiers shot after they surrendered.

The frozen bodies were recovered later by advancing American forces.

NEW BUSINESS GROUP STARTS AFTER BATTLE

GOP Leadership Emerges From Victory Scared By Tobby's Wrath

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The well-disciplined Senate Republican majority sent a new special small business committee on its way today with $50,000 to spend in the next eight months.

The GOP leadership emerged from its 46-to-42 victory somewhat battle-scarred by the bludgeoning of Senator Tobby (R-NH), but only four Republicans joined him in voting against creation of the group under chairmanship of Senator Wherry (R-Neb.).

Tobby protested in vain before the final vote late yesterday that the special committee was a second instance of tossing "lollipops" to Senate "rebuffers" Wherry and Brewster (R-Me.).

Brewster is chairman of the special Senate War Investigating Committee, recreated after another battle earlier in the week. Most Democrats and some Republicans claimed the only purpose of extending the committee's life was to give the Maine Republican a chairmanship.

Tobby contended the functions of the small business group should be left to the banking committee which he heads.

He said his party's leaders—and he named Senators Taft (Ohio), Vandenberg (Mich.) and White (Me.)—were "running the train off the tracks" by insisting upon the special committees. Taft heads the GOP Steering Committee, Vandenberg is presiding officer and White majority leader.

Tobby stressed the point that the proposal was to set up a new small business group instead of continuing the old committee. He said this would enable Wherry to be chairman instead of Senator Wilson (R-Iowa), who outranked Wherry on the old group.

He added that the leaders sought to jam the plan through by "bargaining in corridors and committee rooms" and demanding that party members become "yes men."

Senator Taft and other Republican leaders made no direct reply to Tobby. In the final vote the Republicans who lined up with Tobby were Senators Aiken (Vt.), Cooper (Ky.), Langer (N.D.) and Morse (Ore.). Three Democrats joined the Republican majority: Senators Murray (Mont.), O'Daniel (Tex.) and Stewart (Tenn.).

Pitt Teachers In New Pay Request

Pitt County teachers went on record today requesting the General Assembly to give the teachers a salary increase of not less than 30 percent of the present pay plus the bonus for the next biennium.

The group also requested that teachers of North Carolina be classified separately from other state employees with the proper prestige and dignity due them because of their required superior training and standards of living.

In adopting the resolution it was explained that the teachers of this state are not able on their present salaries to make the professional progress they would like to make by attending summer school and engaging in other activities that would make them more proficient in their profession.

No Free Press In Over Half U. N.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 25.—(AP)—More than half the countries comprising the United Nations have erected barriers to impede the flow of free news and information, Wilbur Forrest, president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, told the South Carolina Press Institute here last night.

Without naming the nations he charged with press interference, Forrest said they totaled 29 of the 54 U.N. members.

Given the advantage of freedom of information, the people of the world "shall be informed about the people of other nations and shall be able to judge whether hatreds which breed wars are justified," he declared.

He said a committee studying world journalism found that "to the Russians press freedom meant the right to have their news screened."

Helicopter To Join In Search For Wreck

Waynesville, N. C., Jan. 25.—(AP)—An Army helicopter is expected to join ground and air search forces seeking a military C-87 plane missing with four aboard some 100 miles west of the mountains west of Asheville.

Three men in a searcrafting in the rugged vicinity of nearby Spivey for nearly eight hours. They were located through pistol shots and other signals.

CHECKING ON BRIBE CHARGE

Georgian Wants Probe Of Reported Offers In Legislature

Atlanta, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Speaker Fred Hand of the Georgia House said today he intended to ask for a thorough investigation of charges that bribes were offered legislators in connection with the election of a governor.

Hand said he would offer a resolution in the House Monday calling for appointment of a joint House-Senate committee with enough authority for a complete investigation of the charges.

Hand said all his information came from press reports. But that these included a reference by former Governor Ellis Arnall to "that little black bag," a statement by an unnamed legislator that he saw a $3,000 check change hands and a speech by Rep. Jack Pitt of Spalding county in which he said he and another legislator were offered $100,000 not to vote for Herman Talmadge for governor.

Pitt subsequently said the $100,000 figure was wrong but that it was a substantial amount. In his speech he said the money was offered in such a manner that it could have been taken in retainer fees from several corporations over a period of several years.

Hand said he thought the charges were unfounded, but that since publicity had been given to them and since they reflected upon the honor and integrity of the Legislature he thought they should be investigated.

Hand, who is a supporter of Talmadge, said he would propose a committee of three representatives and two senators.

Rep. Charles Gowen, a backer of M. E. Thompson, who contends that he is the state's acting governor, termed the bribe charges ridiculous.

Pravda Says Budget Militaristic Trend

Moscow, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Pravda declared today that the new U.S. federal budget for the next fiscal year "will strengthen the increasing role of militarists in the whole political life of the country."

Asserting that military expenditures constitute one third of the federal budget, the Communist Party organ's writer M. Marinin said the new budget "will deepen the ties of the government apparatus with the monopolies which have concentrated the Army orders in their hands."

Gen. MacArthur Has Birthday Tomorrow

Tokyo, Jan. 25.—(AP)—General of the Army Douglas MacArthur observes his 67th birthday tomorrow—his 12th consecutively out of the continental United States.

It will be a quiet day for the man who has held every top post in the arm of his country. It will be another day of work, marked only by a family luncheon—complete with birthday cake—with his wife and son.

Broaden Search For Lost Army Tug Boat

Miami, Fla., Jan. 25.—(AP)—The search for a missing former army tug was broadened today with coast guard aircraft and surface vessels scouring a wide area off the Georgia and South Carolina coasts.

The tug, with five men aboard, was last heard from Wednesday while en route from Norfolk, Va., to New Orleans. Coast guard district headquarters here said the 100-foot vessel probably was broken down at sea.

Checks Probed

Checks amounting to $64,573, signed by J. H. Smithwick (above), former member of the House of Representatives from Florida, were mentioned in a report on shortages in the Congressional "Bank" which was submitted by Comptroller General Lindsay G. Warren, Smithwick, now living at Monticello, Ga., denied he owes the "bank" "one cent." (AP Wirephoto).

Hand said he would offer a resolution in the House Monday calling for appointment of a joint House-Senate committee with enough authority for a complete investigation of the charges.

HOLD BOY FOR DEATH FATHER

Poland, Me., Jan. 25.—(AP)—Sheriff Louis A. Gendron said today that a 47-pound Maine high school freshman told him that he beat his father lately with a baseball bat to protect his mother during an altercation in his isolated village home near here Thursday.

The sheriff said that 13-year-old Jean Anderson, whom he described as considerably overweight for his age, told him orally that he felled his father while the latter was abusing his mother and pulling her hair.

Gendron also quoted a sister of the boy, Joan, 15, as saying she contemplated hitting her father with a poker during the argument but lost her nerve and ran out of the house into the snow.

Theodore Anderson, 43, who cares for horses summers at the Burroughs Foundation Camp in adjoining Agassiz village, died yesterday at a Lewiston hospital of a fractured skull.

Two Labor Bills

A Discussion Of Proposals Submitted By Senators Ball And McCarthy; Ball's Measure Too Strong For Congress; McCarthy's Bill Has Chance

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Two bills in Congress—to do something about the closed shop—have received a lot of attention.

One is by Senator Ball, Minnesota Republican. It would outlaw the closed shop or any other kind of union shop.

At this moment Ball's bill seems unlikely to get very far.

The other is by Senator McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican. He offered it yesterday. It's too soon to guess about its fate.

But of the two, McCarthy's bill probably will get more consideration in the Senate. It would permit a closed shop, but if two-thirds of the workers in a shop voted for it.

That needs explanation. But first here is background on the closed shop and other forms of union shops.

1. The closed shop. That is where no one but a union man can work or be hired.

2. The union shop. That's where a non-union man can be hired but must join the union after working

JOINS GOP IN BUDGET MOVES

Old-Line Democrat, Sen. George, Hits Planned Outlay

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Senator George (D-Ga.), former chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, today added his voice to that of many Republican members of Congress calling for a cut in President Truman's $37,500,000,000 budget.

"I am sure the budget can be levelled off at $35,000,000,000 and I hope it can be cut below that point," he told a reporter.

George, who frequently reflects the views of many of his democratic colleagues on financial matters, is one of the first influential Democrat senators to speak out for less spending than recommended by the President for the 1948 fiscal year.

He also advocated a delay in any tax reduction until income exceeds (Continued on Page Four)

STALIN FEARS WORLD OPINION

Exchange Of British And Russian Officers Said War Scare

London, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Foreign Office sources said today the British government did not share Prime Minister Stalin's view that any exchange of British and Russian military student-officers might be interpreted by public opinion as "preparing for war."

Stalin's attitude was announced last night by the Moscow Radio, which said the prime minister had rejected an exchange proposal advanced by Field Marshal Lord Montgomery, British chief of staff who visited Moscow recently.

British sources would neither confirm nor deny officially even that Montgomery had made such a proposal.

The field marshal himself, however, indicated he had not abandoned the exchange plan.

Tass quoted Stalin as saying that Britain and the United States had been denounced "in various press organs" for their exchange of aviation students and for plans to standardize training and armaments, and that Russia "would not like also to become an object of denunciation."

The British press, meanwhile, hailed the recent exchange of notes between Stalin and Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin as clearing up a Moscow "misinterpretation" about the 20-year Russian-British treaty (Continued on Page Four)

Canada Seeks Stronger Voice In German Treaty

London, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The four-power foreign ministers' deputies scheduled to hear Canada's views on the German peace treaty, today postponed the meeting after the Canadians said they were not ready to talk.

A semi-official Canadian source said Canada never would be ready to talk until she were assured that a presentation of her views now would not jeopardize her rights to participate in subsequent deliberations on the German peace.

United States sources said Canada, seeking a stronger voice in the treaty-making, had "indicated informally" that she would boycott deliberations on the German pact unless assured that she could take part in later discussions.

Yesterday the deputies, in response to a written request from the Canadian delegation as to whether participation today would jeopardize Canada's future participation, said only that they would be glad to hear her views.

Meantime, disagreement still was apparent between the Soviet Union on the one hand and the United States, Britain and France on the other on the extent to which other "small" nations should be allowed to take part in drafting treaties for the March Big Four meeting in Moscow.

Feodor T. Gouzev of Russia criticized South Africa and Australia for bringing up questions of peace-making procedure. He recalled that in the role of chairman this week he had instructed them to confine their discussions to the German problem itself.

Robert Murphy of the U. S., Sir William Strang of Britain and Jacques of France made it clear they could not agree to instructions of this sort. Gouzev's criticism of the Union of South Africa followed a statement to the Big Four deputies from E. K. Scallan, acting high commissioner for the Union in London, who declared the Potsdam agreement on Germany should be revised promptly to give nations outside the Big Three a part in German administration and to improve the German economy, which he said held a threat to peace.

J. B. Hardy and May Hardy both pleaded guilty to selling beer and wine without a license. They were each given six months on the roads sentence suspended on payment of $50 and costs and they were placed on probation for five years.

Bennie Whitley was given 18 months on the roads for larceny.

William S. Gorman, breaking, entering and larceny, pleaded guilty Judge Burney gave him from three to five years in State Prison, sentence suspended on payment of costs and he was placed on probation for five years.

The court gave him a year on the roads in the first case and suspended sentence on payment of costs and he was placed on probation for five years.

In the second case Harper was given a year, suspended on payment of costs and $70 to John Redmond Forbes for clothing he destroyed, payment to be made $10 monthly, beginning February 15, and he was placed on probation for five years.

Alph Harper, worthless check, no prosed with leave.

Paul Harper, Jr., larceny, two cases. The court gave him a year on the roads in the first case and suspended sentence on payment of costs and he was placed on probation for five years.

Wayne Williams pleaded nolo contendere to violating the liquor law. Sentence was suspended on payment of $50 and costs and he was placed on probation for five years.

Lester Hooper, pleaded guilty of larceny. He was given from seven to 10 years in State Prison, sentence to begin at the expiration of the term he is now serving.

Bruce Hopkins was not guilty of abandonment.

Crawford Muldis and Henry Moore, larceny, each was given two years on the roads. Sentence was suspended on payment of costs and they were placed on probation for five years.

MANY CASES TRIED FRIDAY

Judge Burney Is Clearing Superior Court Docket

By CHESTER WALSH

Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington, presiding over Superior Court here, disposed of an unusual large number of cases Friday.

Charles Pitt, colored, manufacturing and possessing illegal liquor nine months on the roads in each case.

Alonzo Pitt, colored, assault with a deadly weapon, pleaded guilty. The court gave him 12 months on the roads, sentence suspended on payment of $10 to King Mayo and court costs and to remain of good behavior for two years.

Lester Hooper, pleaded guilty of larceny. He was given from seven to 10 years in State Prison, sentence to begin at the expiration of the term he is now serving.

Held For Hold-Up

Mrs. Opal Dixon (above), 35, mother of two teen-age daughters, is held at Des Moines, Ia., after Police Chief Jack Brophy said she admitted staging a daring $2,500 daylight hold-up of the Des Moines Bank and Trust Company Wednesday, and also the $883 hold-up of the United Bank and Trust Company in St. Louis last December 25. She was unassisted. (AP Wirephoto).

Washington, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The possibility of a flat "across-the-board" rent increase was ruled out today as OPA revised regulations to make it easier for landlords to get boosts in hardship cases.

OPA officials said they did not know how many of the estimated 16,000,000 dwelling units under rent ceilings would be affected. But they did predict that small property owners would be the ones "most likely to benefit" under the changed regulations.

An official familiar with top administration rent discussions pointed out that "previously there was pressure from some sources to decontrol, but now practically everyone feels we're not far enough along for that."

"Now," he told a reporter, "there is pressure on the part of some for a flat overall increase. I wouldn't think the changes coming up will provide for that either."

This official said that there "might be other adjustments in the future if they were found to be justified." However, he said the requirements for "justification" would be "pretty strong."

He added that any changes in rent regulations would be discussed fully in advance with President Truman, Presidential Adviser John R. Steelman, and Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming, chief of the Office of Temporary Controls. OPA now is a branch of that office.

The President has said he favors extension of rent controls beyond the present June 30 expiration date.

John Bull Today

Gloomy Prophets in England Declare American Loan Can Never Be Repaid And Britain Unable To Meet Trade Competition; The Tightening Crisis

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Lord Woolton, Britain's war-time food minister, says John Bull has no chance of repaying the $3,750,000,000 American loan, and L. S. Amery, another former cabinet minister, declares John can't pay his way in a "world of open cut-throat competition," after the elimination of the imperial trade preference system—a condition of the loan.

Those are gloomy predictions—and it's only fair to note that both the prophets, being conservatives are opposed to the present Labor (Socialist) Government. They could, of course, be playing a spot of politics, but whatever way you look at it (and irrespective of whether the loan can be paid) the grim truth is that John Bull is in the midst of a grave politico-economic crisis.

We should have heard much more of this emergency but for the fact that it's a characteristic of the Englishman that the more he is hurt the less he talks. Of course there are political outbursts between the opposing parties, but thus far the country has been worrying much and saving little. However Britain is hurt, not only as regards her own snug home islands but imperially, for great and rich sections of her empire are being broken off.

Mother England and her empire are going through a vast metamorphosis. This change was hastened—though not precipitated—by the war. Fate decreed that the Socialists should come to power just after the European conflict and so assume the responsibility for handling this crisis.

Britons of all political leanings by and large, have given Prime Minister Attlee and his government full support—partly a matter of fair play and partly of horse-sense—for new policies were being tried out and the welfare of the country, as well as that of the government, was at stake. Even the sweeping nationalization, projects, whose workability still has to be demonstrated, haven't deprived the government of its support.

The public has been amazingly patient as the crisis has tightened. (Continued on Page Two)

Dr. E. R. Browning Speaker At Kiwanis

By CHESTER WALSH

Dr. E. R. Browning, head of the commerce department at East Carolina Teachers College, was guest speaker at the Kiwanis Club's weekly supper session last night. He made an interesting review of his observations while he was assigned by the U. S. Army as instructor at a college in England for American GIs. He paid tribute to the sturdy character and spirit of the English people, and said they look to America for cooperation in adjusting world affairs. Dr. Browning is an interesting speaker, a close observer and a philosopher. Judge Dink James, who had charge of the program, introduced him. President Ell Bloom presided.

Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington, presiding over Superior Court here, was a guest. Other guests were A. Vernon Sheffield of Norfolk, Va.; Eustace Conway, Lawrence Jones, A. H. Fleming, Norman E. Somers and Jack Sheller. Henry Andrews, Roy Coburn and V. A. Merritt had birthdays and contributed a nickel for each year of their age for the Underprivileged Child Committee.

Regan Jones will have charge of the program next week.

Mrs. Hattie Barrow Died This Morning

Mrs. Hattie M. Barrow, 65, died at her home near Vanceboro at 8 a. m. today after two weeks' illness. Funeral services will be conducted at the home Sunday at 3 p. m. by the Rev. J. C. Griffin, Free Will Baptist minister of New Bern. Burial will be in the Barrow family cemetery near the home.

Mrs. Barrow was born and reared in Beaufort County near Chocowilly. She moved to the Dudley's Cross Roads community after her marriage to George W. Barrow in 1872. Mr. Barrow died in 1931. Mrs. Barrow was a member of Oak Grove Free Will Baptist Church near Dudley's Cross Roads. Surviving are four sons, Jasper and Clyde Barrow of near Dudley's Cross Roads, and Heber and John Harvey Barrow of the home; two daughters, Mrs. David Gaskins of near Vanceboro and Mrs. Elbert Hicks of New Bern; nine grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. J. In The Superior Court Before The Clerk

North Carolina

Pitt County

Pitt County Drainage District No. 7 (Indian Well Swamp)

All persons owning land or interest in land within Pitt County Drainage District No. 7 (Indian Well Swamp) are hereby notified that the Board of Drainage Commissioners for said District proposed to issue bonds of said District for the purpose of raising money for the payment of the total cost of completing drainage of said District according to plans and specifications heretofore made in an amount not exceeding $32,000.00, to bear interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually; principal to be payable in ten equal annual installments the first installment payable the 1st day of January 1950 and the remaining installments on the first day of January thereafter.

Any landowner in said District not wanting to pay interest on the bonds may prior to the 15th day of February, 1947, pay to F. M. Wooten, Jr., Secretary, the full amount for which his land is liable to be ascertained from the classification sheet and the certificate of the Board of Drainage Commissioners of said District, showing the total cost of the improvement and have his lands released from liability of said assessment.

This the 23rd day of January, 1947.

Pitt County Drainage District No. 7

By: F. M. Wooten, Jr., Secretary

LOCAL BLOOD BANK REALITY

VFW Walking Blood Bank Used Effectively For First Time

The Charles Gray Morgan Post No. 7032 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars held their regular meeting last night in the Pitt County Court House.

Donald Cuthrell reported that the "walking blood bank" became a reality recently when called upon for Type "A" blood for Mrs. Nora Taylor. Walter Lewis furnished this type and went on record as being the first donor.

The idea of the blood bank was originated by Donald L. Cuthrell, who was adjutant of the Post when Mrs. Nora Taylor was desperately in need of a transfusion several months ago, and it was several days before a donor was found with the needed type of blood.

Hospitals and doctors in Pitt County can call upon the "blood bank" in cases of emergency, where members of the family are unable to get donors. All cases must be handled through Dr. C. F. Irons, Post surgeon, who has a file of the members' blood types and can easily secure donors for the required type.

Commander Averette announced that Commander-in-Chief Louis E. Starr will visit North Carolina January 28 and 29. A banquet will be held in his honor by the VFW State Department at Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh. Many members of the Post plan to attend.

Ralph Tucker, quartermaster gave a financial report of the Post, with special emphasis on the building fund which now has a total of $1,000.

Mattie Forbes scored 25 points in leading the Eppes girls to a 40-10 win. E. Cherry totaled 14 points to receive second honors.

One again Eppes guards showed their fighting spirit as Julia Calhoun, Molly Harris and Allegra Grimes held the Ayden team to a 6 point score during the first half.

In the second game, Ayden boys were all but helpless; at the end of the first half the score stood at 31-9. J. B. Taft, Jr. and "Hap" Davis, the point-making twins, scored 15 and 21 points respectively. Johnson, Clemens and Streeter also played a strong game. The entire squad saw action against Ayden with the final score reading 42-21.

Tuesday night, Eppes meets undefeated Williston High of Wilmington, which has scored wins over the previous state champions.

Phantoms Lose In Kinston Contest

Two battling GHS basketball teams lost hard fought games to the Kinston Red Devils last night in Kinston as the varsity went down by a 33-22 score and the Jayvees lost 22-19.

Inability of the Phantoms to hit the basket in the first period was all that kept the high-flying Devils from tasting defeat, or at least having a good scare. Behind, 7-1, at the end of the first quarter, the Phantoms fought back to make it 14-8 by the half.

Going into the second half, the Kinstonites began hitting on their long shots and thus staved off their opponents' bid for victory. With about four minutes to play, successive baskets by Turner and Perkins brought the score from 24-12 to 26-20, but the Devils racked two goals in the final minutes of play.

In the junior game, Murry Cooke took high scoring honors for the G-Men.

"We ought to arrange to pay not less than $1,000,000,000 on the national debt and to leave a breathing space of another $1,000,000,000 for possible shrinkage of revenues," he said.

In effect, he said, this would limit tax reductions generally to whatever Congress might save by cutting the budget below $35,000,000,000.

Many Republicans have urged even deeper cuts in the President's budget. Some have asked a 20 per cent reduction in income tax rates, especially at easing the tax burden of low income people was introduced by Senator Murray (D-Mont.). He proposed to double the tax exemptions, which now are $500 for single persons and $1,000 for heads of families.
