Baruch Says Army Atom Work 'Okay'

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Bernard M. Baruch asserted today that scientists had lambasted the army into making public the Smyth report, since criticized for its disclosure of atomic bomb secrets.

Appearing before the Senate atomic committee considering President Truman's nominations for five members and a manager for the atomic control commission, the 76-year-old financier and statesman testified:

1. That the army had been too much criticized.
2. That Maj. Gen. Groves, who had charge of the Manhattan project, had never received just praise in development of the bomb.
3. That Maj. Gen. Ferrell, retired, who was active in the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic project would be an ideal man for commission manager, a post to which the president nominated 36-year-old Carroll Wilson of Boston.

(The war department identified Gen. Ferrell as Gen. Groves' deputy during the Manhattan project. He is now chief engineer for New York state.)

4. That atomic energy developments will remain primarily a military question until workable international controls are provided.
5. That he knows Herbert Marks, named for commission council and tabbed as a possible communist sympathizer in testimony before another Senate committee, as a very able fellow but knows nothing of his background.
6. That David E. Lilienthal, nominated for commission chairman is "thoroughly qualified."

Baruch, cupping his hand to his ear to catch the questions of the senators, told committee members he thinks the public has gone too far in criticizing military men—whom we call brass hats—for their handling of this problem.

"The army and navy are starved in peacetime and then suddenly we call on them to fight our wars," he said.

CONVICT NAZI CAMP CHIEFS Fifteen Ravensbruck Attendants To Get Sentences

Hamburg, Feb. 3.—(AP)—A British military court today convicted as war criminals 15 Nazi attendants at the Ravensbruck concentration camp for women, where thousands of inmates, mostly Polish, were reported to have died as a result of brutal and inhuman treatment.

The 16th defendant, Dr. Adolf Winkelmann, whom witnesses had described as "a devil doctor" who selected prisoners for extermination, died in his cell Saturday following a heart attack. No verdict was announced in his case.

The verdicts against the other 15 climaxed a nine-week trial during which scores of witnesses testified to the horrors perpetrated at Ravensbruck.

The defendants, rising one by one to hear their fate, took the verdicts.

OFFERS STAMP OUT VIOLENCE IN HOLY LAND

Jewish Agency Armed Force Would Crush Extremists In New Offer

Jerusalem, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Haganah, armed force of the Jewish Agency, held out to British authorities today an offer to stamp out violence by the Jewish underground in Palestine—but only if the British adopt a hands-off policy.

The offer came as British authorities hastened the evacuation of Jewish civilians preliminary to the adoption of strong measures designed to bring peace to the Holy Land.

A spokesman for Haganah asserted in an interview that his group could halt the activities of Irgun Zvai Leumi, extremist underground organization, in a few weeks "if the government would not interfere," but he added:

"We will not cooperate with the government while it holds to its present policy."

Asked what he meant by "interference," the spokesman replied: "Martial law, or even threats of martial law, would interfere with any plans we have drafted to deal with the dissidents. We must have a free hand."

The spokesman, a policy adjutant for Haganah, said the group had its "battle lines drawn and its people ready."

"We could stop Irgun's propaganda and its training," he declared. "We could find its arms dumps. We could bring in some of its leaders. But we must do it by ourselves without interference from the government. We will not be informers."

Sentiments similar to those expressed by the Haganah spokesman were voiced by Mrs. Golda Myerson, head of the Jewish Agency Executive's Political Department in Jerusalem, when she told a news conference yesterday:

"Jew will not turn informer against Jew—we are unwilling to become a nation of informers."

The first British civilians to leave the Holy Land under the evacuation program decreed by British authorities were 30 women and children, who took off yesterday by plane. It is expected that a total of about 2,000 will be evacuated.

Information About Sugar Ration Books

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 3.—Consumers who write the Sugar Branch Office in Greenville for sugar application blanks must state whether they seek a new ration book or replacement of one that has been lost, mutilated or stolen. A. D. Simpson, Jr., OTC Regional Sugar Executive, said today.

Simpson said that many persons recently have written in, merely requesting a "sugar blank," and giving no further information. Since separate forms are provided, the office must be given more complete information, he said.

"New ration coupons are issued to infants, to servicemen returning to civilian life, and to others who for some reason have never been issued regular ration books before," Simpson explained. In cases where previously issued ration books have been lost, hopelessly mutilated, or stolen, a replacement may be secured by making application on the regular form provided for the purpose, he added.

In all such requests for sugar forms, whether for new books or replacements, the consumer is urged to use one-cent government postal cards. This not only means a saving for the consumer, but assures speedier handling in the branch offices, Simpson said.

World Federation

"Federationists" And "Confederationists"; National Congress Convened In Asheville This Month; Wide Sponsorship As Movement Gains Favor

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.

The first National Congress of those whose slogan is "the brotherhood of man and the federation of the world" as a practical objective will convene Feb. 21 at Asheville, N. C.

The Congress has been called by the United States Council of the Movement for World Government, and is being sponsored by a dozen organizations. They have invited representatives from a score of other national organizations which are on record as favoring the idea, including the American Veterans Committee, the Commission of World Peace of the Methodist Church, the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, various bar associations and the like.

The United States Council was organized after an international meeting in Luxembourg last October, and is designed to unify the movement in this country.

The idea seems to have attracted world-wide attention since the war, has received strong support in England, and is a long-range objective of some who support such groups as Union Now, which seeks immediate federation of England with the United States, and the proposed United States of Europe. A recent public opinion poll in the United States (by Roger) indicated that more than 60 percent of Americans support the federationists, believing this country should join a representative World Congress empowered to make and enforce laws.

Some of the people who are advocating world federation want it to replace the United Nations now. Others realize that, considering the present state of the world, their lifetimes will at best permit only the prosecution of an educational program, looking toward accomplishment at some distant date.

Still others feel that the most practical immediate approach is through confederation—a non-legislative combination of countries to promote peace and mutual welfare. Many of them would like to see the U. S. and the British Commonwealth begin it with treaties calling for customs union, military alliance

DEFENDS TAX CUTTING BILL

Dropping Of Low Income Taxpayers From Rolls Opposed

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Rep. Mason (R-Ill.) took up the battle today for 20 per cent across the board tax slashing bill, and objected vigorously to proposals to drop millions of small income persons from the tax rolls.

These millions are becoming tax conscious, and constitute the great bulwark against federal squandering, Mason declared. Their votes, he continued, were cast last November against deficit spending and for tax reductions.

Mason prepared his House talk after Chairman Knutson (R-Minn.) of the House ways and means committee announced he is standing firm on his measure proposing a 20 per cent slash for each tax payer.

The measure has been under an attack by Rep. Engel (R-Mich.) who told the House last week it would give small tax payers slight relief but benefit persons with high incomes.

Engel's own measure proposes larger benefits for small incomes, by raising individual exemptions from $500 to $1,000.

Mason said that Engel proposes to remove 20,000,000 of the approximately 36 million tax payers from the rolls. He pointed out that the tax reduction of 1946 erased 12 million small income persons from the rolls.

The grand jury conferred with County School Supt. Don H. Conley concerning the school program and incorporated in its report a part of the recommendations recently made by the County Board of Education. The grand jury praised the members of the school board for their far-sightedness. The official body called attention to the condition of the school buses and found that the school authorities are doing the best they can with the transportation equipment available.

County Auditor John H. Coward made a report of the county's financial condition to the grand jury and it was excellent. The county's balances are deposited in banks in Pitt County, as required by law.

The grand jury's report recommended that the County Commissioners take steps to secure an increase in juror fees to $5 a day, with mileage allowed both ways at five

No Luck In Tracking Kinston's Murderer

Kinston, N. C., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Police today had had no success in tracking down the person or persons who killed Kenneth Taylor, 37-year-old bakery employe, sometime last Friday night.

Taylor's body, his throat slashed and his head battered, was found in underbrush on the outskirts of the city.

Bloodhounds were used unsuccessfully in an effort to locate the trail of Taylor's assailants.

COURT TERM IS ADJOURNED

Judge John Burney Hears Many Cases In Superior Court

Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington, who presided over the two-weeks criminal term of Superior Court here, after disposing of some minor cases Saturday, adjourned court about noon. About 140 cases had been tried and the criminal docket was considerably reduced.

The Wilmington jurist is popular here with court officials, the bar and law enforcement officers and others. When Sheriff Ruel Tyson and Deputy Loyd Manning were taking some prisoners to Raleigh Saturday to serve terms in State Prison, one of the prisoners said "He's a good judge; he's on the level," and the others agreed.

The next criminal term of court will be held in April.

Cases disposed of Friday included the following:

Frank Lee Wainwright, driving while drunk, 12 months on the roads, sentence suspended provided he pay $100 and costs; not associate with Lizzie Mae Harris or take a drink of liquor for five years, and that he be placed on probation for five years.

Judge Burney sentenced Robert L. Dixon, colored, to 15 months on the roads at hard labor for disorderly conduct and assaulting Miss Peggy Morris, a clerk at Williams' 5 and 10c Store on Dickinson Avenue, last December 7.

Prayer for judgment was continued in the case of Caleb Woodard, violating the game laws, if he pays court costs by the April term.

Charles L. Stocks, pleaded guilty to reckless driving. The court suspended judgment provided he pay W. D. Tucker $289 for damage and the court costs. Stocks is to pay to the court clerk $25 now and then $3 a week until the account is paid.

Wiley Cannon pleaded guilty to violating the liquor laws. He was given six months, suspended provided he pay $25 and costs.

Performance Of Grand Jury Praised By Judge

In Superior Court several days ago when W. W. (Bill) Lee, foreman of the grand jury, made a report to Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington, the Wilmington jurist praised the members of the grand jury for effective work and thanked the jurors for faithful performance of their duties. The grand jury reviewed 50 bills of indictment, passing 46 of them as true bills and one not a true bill. (Judge Burney disposed of 140 cases during the two-weeks' term, considerably reducing the heavy criminal docket.)

The grand jury conferred with County School Supt. Don H. Conley concerning the school program and incorporated in its report a part of the recommendations recently made by the County Board of Education. The grand jury praised the members of the school board for their far-sightedness. The official body called attention to the condition of the school buses and found that the school authorities are doing the best they can with the transportation equipment available.

County Auditor John H. Coward made a report of the county's financial condition to the grand jury and it was excellent. The county's balances are deposited in banks in Pitt County, as required by law.

DATE AT HAND AMERICANS TO LEAVE PEIPING

U. S. Civilians May Make Dash To Sea Through Zone Of Fighting

Peiping, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Evacuation day for 2,000 Americans in Peiping is drawing near, with Chinese Communist and Government forces fighting along the route they must take to the sea.

The departure date of the U. S. force headquarters personnel and their wives and children is expected to be announced within 24 hours—a part of the general American withdrawal from China.

Unless a truce should end the fighting along the 115-mile route to the coast, they will have to leave by air which would mean abandoning much equipment in Peiping, or by the guntlet on the Peiping-Tientsin railway under U. S. Marine guard.

The American staff of the now defunct peace-seeking headquarters were informed that 5,000 Chinese Communist guerrillas were attacking along the railroad yesterday. The Chinese Government said it was still able to use the line. Government sources said the Communist troops were active near the right-of-way some 20 miles south-east of Peiping.

Sections of the track were torn up by Communists Thursday. The Government regained control and made repairs Friday. Communists cut the route again Saturday, and the Government restored traffic again Sunday.

Railways south and north of Peiping also were sporadically attacked by Communists presumably in an effort to isolate the city.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek meanwhile was reported in Suchow (Continued on Page Four)

Call Workers To Testify In Suit

Detroit, Feb. 3.—(AP)—A small group of pottery workers were called back today to a federal court witness stand to give further testimony in an originally obscure overtime suit that touched off the now celebrated portal-to-portal pay issue.

Expect Bunn School To Reopen Tuesday

Bunn, N. C., Feb. 3.—(AP)—The Bunn High School, closed since last Wednesday following a teacher walkout, probably will reopen tomorrow.

The school committee adopted a resolution Saturday night calling for classes to be resumed Tuesday and teachers were expected to be on hand.

A teacher's meeting is scheduled for this afternoon.

The walkout came after a disagreement between O. G. Thompson, supervising principal, and Miss Lucy Wiggs, a veteran teacher.

President Asks Limited Extension War Controls

CIO Warns Of Effect Of Rent Control's End

Claims Boost In Rent Ceilings Would Have Grave Effect During Labor's Attempt For New Wage Agreements

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The CIO told Congress today that while labor is attempting to work out harmonious wage agreements—will have the gravest effect.

James B. Carey, the CIO's secretary-treasurer, testified before the Senate banking committee that this point cannot be overemphasized.

The committee is conducting hearings on legislation to increase rent ceilings by 15 per cent. Also before it are bills which would end rent control.

Carey said ending of controls will mean a cut in the real wages of American workers and hence would markedly affect the present delicate state of collective bargaining negotiations.

He said that to the average worker a 15 per cent rent increase would mean a further increase of three or four per cent in his day to day living expenses. Carey added:

":It can only mean that his already dangerously reducing expenditures in meat and eggs and butter will be cut even further to make ends meet in the face of high rents."

Before Carey testified, the national association of real estate agencies urged the Senate group to favor immediate scrapping of rent controls on new dwellings and an across the board rent increase on existing units.

From Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) came a proposal for a graduated hike in rent ceilings. He announced he has prepared a bill allowing a five per cent increase every four months. At the end of 16 months, when the rise was 20 per cent, he would abolish ceilings.

President Truman, who squelched a proposed administration order last week allowing a 10 per cent increase, has repeatedly declared the whole question is one for Congress.

In view of this expression, the wide assumption among legislators is that he would not veto any rent increase measure unless he thought its proposed rises out of all reason.

Flanders expressed belief that much as the 20 per cent ceiling rise rents actually would not increase as allowed in his measure.

Urges Congress To Act Quickly In Continuing Features Of Second War Powers Act Including Authority For Allocation And Control Of Scarce Commodities

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—President Truman today asked Congress for "limited" extension of the second War Powers Act, including his authority to ration sugar and allocate scarce foods and a handful of materials.

Though he named only a few items, he left a big field for White House discretion by seeking the power to restrict other materials in case of "a national emergency that we do not now foresee"—such as a coal strike.

Pleading for "immediate and favorable" action on Capitol Hill, Mr. Truman asked a one-year extension beyond March 31 for three sections of the act. The major one, Title III, carries the sweeping power of priority and allocation and of export and import control.

Under it, Mr. Truman asked continued authority over these items:

Food—grain, rice, sugar and related products; export and import control only over fats and oils; import controls only over meat, dairy and meat products, peas and beans, canned fish and protein foods.

Imported materials—rubber, tin, antimony, cinchona bark and alkaloids, manila and agave fibre.

U. S. products—automobiles and tractors (quota limits on export); freight cars; the drug streptomycin.

Mr. Truman did not ask extension of inventory control, the government's wartime weapon against hoarding and a reconversion weapon against the "withholding" of goods from the market.

The 1945 War Powers Act, which Truman's message, are those which (1) allow the maritime commission to run shipping lines and (2) permit the operation of ships with less crew and equipment than in ordinary times of peace.

"It is unsettling, both for business and for the general public to be obligated to wait until the last possible moment for decision by the Congress on emergency legislation," Mr. Truman said.

"I urge the Congress to give immediate and favorable consideration to the limited extension of the second war powers act I have requested."

He reported that "we can now foresee the day when no further use of these powers will be necessary," but said the "effective completion" of reconversion demands the continuation of the powers set forth.

All foods now controlled by the agriculture department would remain under restrictions but inedible molasses, used largely for industrial alcohol, would be freed. Only a few of the materials subject to orders of the civilian production administration would be freed, and many of these controls are dead letters already.

Thus, the iron and steel order would die, but steel allocation is now sparingly used; the uranium order would expire, but the atomic energy commission is authorized to control over building materials (which would continue to June 30 under the act), can be continued until the year-end under the Palman emergency housing act. The chemicals order would be eliminated.

In seeking blanket powers in time of emergency, Mr. Truman specified that it would be used only "if here is a declaration by the president that such a national emergency has arisen."

Commander Of Task Force 58 Succumbs

Adm. Marc A. Mitscher, Hard-Hitting Naval Veteran Of Pacific War, Dies Today From Heart Attack

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Admiral Marc A. Mitscher, commander in chief of the Atlantic Fleet, died at the Norfolk Naval Station Hospital early today of coronary thrombosis.

The war-time boss of famed Task Force 58 which played havoc with the Japanese, died in his sleep at 1:20 a. m. He was admitted to the hospital after suffering a heart attack on his sixtieth birthday last Sunday.

Rear Admiral W. L. Ainsworth, commandant of the Fifth Naval District, announcing Mitscher's death shortly after 8 a. m., quoted a bulletin issued by the hospital as saying that "the special nurse on duty reported that the Admiral had been sleeping quietly but shortly after 1 a. m. he ceased breathing."

"The time of death was officially reported as 1:20 a. m. and the cause of death was thrombosis, coronary artery."

Mitscher entered the hospital last week for what a fleet spokesman said would be a "complete and thorough checkup." On January 28 the fleet spokesman described the Admiral's condition as "very good."

On Friday, Capt. L. E. Mueller, surgeon of the Atlantic Fleet, described Mitscher's condition as not serious and said that Capt. Cecil Andrews, a heart specialist at the naval hospital at Bethesda, Md., came to Norfolk for consultation and concurred in the diagnosis of the Admiral's ailment as a heart (Continued on Page Four)

ASSEMBLY HAS FIGHTS AHEAD

New Liquor Referendum Bill And Pay Debate Coming Up

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 3.—(AP)—As North Carolina legislators come pouring back here today to enter another busy week, it was evident that liquor and teacher-salary raises claimed the spotlight.

Another liquor referendum bill—the second for the current legislative session—seemed forthcoming from Rep. Frank K. Sims, Jr., of Mecklenburg. Sims told the "Charlotte City Council Saturday he would introduce a measure setting the date for residents of Mecklenburg County to vote independently on the establishment of Alcoholic Beverage Control stores. Other Mecklenburg representatives—J. B. Vogler, Harvey Morris, and Ed Tonissen—indicated their general support to the measure.

Rep. Vanderhinder of Catawba last week introduced a bill calling for a referendum in the city of Hickory. The bill, referred to the Finance Committee, is expected to encounter heavy opposition, both from the drys and the wets, who fear it might bring to a head a state-wide referendum.

The Allied Church League, meeting here last week, adopted a resolution calling for the introduction of a state-wide referendum bill. But Rep. Odus M. Mull of Cleveland, ardent dry and long-time legislator, said he did not believe such a measure would pass at this legislature, but he urged the league to take heart, continue its work and seek aid from other sources.

"The Charlotte City Council earlier had proposed that a bill be offered calling for a liquor referendum only for the city. But it was understood that Senator Joe Blythe put his foot down, declaring that the lives of rural Mecklenburgers are too closely interlocked with those of the city folk to consider any divisor of liquor control.

The joint appropriations committee will hold hearings Thursday night to air the South Piedmont teacher pay boost bill, which was introduced last week by Rep. Wilson of Cladwell.

The bill is expected to be bitterly fought, for Governor Cherry in his biennial budget message recommended 20 per cent raises for all teachers and state employes.

Other committees, already overworked, had extra work dumped on them for the next two weeks.

Decision On John L. Lewis Not Yet Ready

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The Supreme Court today concluded another session of handing down opinions without ruling on the government's contempt case against John L. Lewis.

It was the court's first opinion since January 29. The next will be Monday, February 10.

An ABC On Labor-Management Agreement In Building Industry; It Is No Guarantee Against Trouble; One Doubtful Point In Pact Councils Caution

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Here is an ABC on the labor-management agreement in the building industry.

President Truman considered it so important that he called a special news conference Saturday to announce it.

There's no outstanding point in the agreement—to be explained here—which could make the spirit of the agreement meaningless.

The agreement was made by:

1. The associated general contractors of America, representing management in the construction industry.
2. The AFL's building and construction trades department, representing 39 big unions with 2,000,000 workers. The purpose of the agreement is to settle disputes peacefully without strikes or work stoppages by the unions or plant shutdowns by employers. For example:

A union and an employer can't agree on a new contract or they can't settle a dispute about an existing contract.

Instead of strike or lockout as the next step, both sides can take the case to a special committee which sits as a board of arbitration.

This committee, already set up by management and labor, hears both sides and gives a decision. This is final.

But here is the point which could make the spirit of the agreement meaningless:

A dispute can't be taken to the arbitration committee for settlement unless the union and employer both agree to take it to arbitration.

A number of big unions—such as the Amalgamated Clothing Workers with 350,000 members—have arbitration agreements but not by mutual consent.

The amalgamated clothing workers have had these arbitration agreements since 1916. They haven't had a major strike in 25 years.

The international ladies garment workers union has a similar arbitration agreement.

To Appear In GHS Senior Play

Barbara Gardner plays the part of Lou Herron, the vivacious, hot-tempered, journalism major in the senior class play, "Spring Fever," to be presented February 7 in the high school auditorium. Lou has no patience with Ed Burns (Sherod White) who talks only of T. N. T. Barbara made her first appearance on the stage as a hag in the recent production of the "Christmas Carol." She is a member of the Beta Club, president of the Girls Glee Club, president of the Coza, president of her home room, a member of the traffic committee, and drum major of the G. H. S. band.

Sherod White plays the part of Ed Burns, a chemistry major, in the senior class play, "Spring Fever." E. who is more interested in explosives than the fairer sex, spends most of his time in his room experimenting with T. N. T. Sherod made his first appearance on the stage in G. H. S. as Peter Cratchit in the "Christmas Carol." He is a member of the Science Club, 3rd Vice Traffic Committee and Student Council.

after which Barbara Dall, president of the Winterville chapter, opened the meeting with a welcome by Miss Ayla Ray Taylor, adviser of the Winterville chapter. Chapter songs were sung followed Excuse the expression, but at this season of the year you are "betwixt the devil and the deep blue sea." That is in selecting your wearing apparel—too late for winter, too early for spring!

HERE'S THE CORRECT ANSWER

You can be thrifty and save by buying a winter garment at a big reduction.

However if you want to be a leader, you can buy an early spring outfit. In any event it's "quality that pays."

"CAPTAIN OF THE MEN OF DEATH"

★ Pneumonia is a disease which strikes swiftly and proceeds quickly and dramatically to a crisis. Until recent years little could be done to help the patient. The brief decisive struggle between the infection and the patient earned for pneumonia the dreadful title, "Captain of the men of death."

In the parlance of the army, the captain has been "busted." First came antipneumococcal serum, which removed one bar. Later, powerful sulfa drugs teamed up with serum to completely break the captain. Both of these powerful weapons are kept in readiness in our prescription department, waiting only for the physician's order.

Women IN THE CHURCH

by Mary Fowler

In more than forty countries of the world, Friday, February 21, 1947 will be observed as "World Day of Prayer," with special services in churches. The United Council of Church Women, the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, and the National Christian Councils in other lands promote the observance which has long been carried on by Christian women and their organizations. This year the offerings of the day will be used for the training of Christian women in the colleges of the Orient, and for Christian work among overseas students now studying in the United States. "Make Level in the Desert a Highway for Our God" is the title of the special program for the day.

Mrs. J. D. Bragg, Litt. D., L.H.D., president of the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church, has been elected president of the Home Missions Council of North America for the year 1947-48. Mrs. Bragg is one of the best-known church women of America, heading a Methodist society of more than one million members. She is also active in the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, the United Council of Church Women, and the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Her home is in St. Louis, Mo.

The Rev. Alexander H. Kemp, M. D., of Chautauque, New York, medical missionary in Quessua, Angola West Africa, for more than twenty years, reports that a checkup among the heathen village women indicates an infant mortality of from 70 per cent to 80 per cent — one woman raising one out of 12 children to whom she gave birth another two out of fifteen, another just all eighteen, etc. Among the families near the mission, however the death rate is only half this percentage, he finds; while among the more educated Christian group — the teachers, preachers, etc. — only one in about eight babies fail to survive. Most of this is accomplished by instruction in the causes of disease, rather than in curing disease he says.

Singer's Body To Be Brought To America

Paris, Feb. 3. — (AP) — Funeral services for Grace Moore, American soprano killed in a Copenhagen airplane crash Jan. 26, were held in Paris today.

The singer's actor-husband, Valentin Parera, and U. S. Ambassador Jefferson Caffery were among the 500 persons who filled the American cathedral church at a non-denominational service conducted by Dean Frederick W. Beekman.

The body was placed in a crypt at the church. Parera will take it to the United States on the liner America, leaving Feb. 15.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

PROCESS OF DAILY GROWTH

There are people who look back to a certain day in their lives and say, "On that day I was saved."

This is fine, and very often it is just as true as the person means it to be. God reaches down and touches human hearts at definite times and transforms them into something indescribably glorious.

But we need to remember that once saved we have to stay saved. Therefore, therefore, speaks of something known as sanctification, which is not an act occurring at one time but a process which keeps on re-occurring over a long period of time. Sanctification is the divine means for Christianizing Christians.

It is the means God takes for feeding the souls that have already been transformed through the glorious experience of repentance and faith.

Only God can make us Christians, but it takes both God and ourselves to keep us Christians. All we can do to bring about our salvation is to accept what God says to offer, but after that God says to the saved man, "Now see what you can do, and I will be standing right here to help you." With the help of God, the man does, with the help of God, is known in theology as sanctification. The word really means "to make holy." It is the Christian's attempt to grow up to the ideal he embraced when he became a Christian.

WASHINGTON LETTER

THE WASHINGTON MONUMENT AND THE MAN WHO DESIGNED IT
By JANE EADS

Washington—From the day it was opened to the public in October 1885 until now, more than 21,000,000 people have traveled to the top of the Washington Monument, either by foot which costs nothing, or by elevator which costs 10c.

Nearly a million people a year take in the vast view of the nation's capital and vicinity from the peak of the monument yearly, but few could tell you who its architect was.

Robert Mills, born at Charleston, S. C., designed the shaft. A distinguished engineer and writer, he was reputedly an exceedingly popular figure in society in his day.

Mills died in March 1855, but it was not until about 10 years ago that his grave in the old Congressional Cemetery here even had a marking. All the man at the cemetery could say was that the stone had been purchased by "some architect's society."

The architect came to Washington in 1839. He had some professional instruction from James Hoban, architect of the White House, and he received some assistance from his friend Thomas Jefferson, whose guest he was at Monticello for two years.

Andrew Jackson appointed Mills architect of public buildings—a position which he held for 15 years—1836 to 1851.

Mills' was the first plan for the obelisk which is now famed around the world. It was selected from a competition conducted by the Washington National Monument Society, whose first president was Chief Justice John Marshall.

Work on the monument was begun in 1848 but was suspended from 1854 to 1883. Dedication was on Saturday, Feb. 21, 1885, and the structure was opened to the public in October.

The monument cost $1,187,710, of which the National Washington Monument Society raised $300,000 by private subscription. The remainder of the sum was provided by congressional appropriation.

The obelisk is 555.5 feet high, has 893 steps and its cap consists of the largest piece of aluminum ever cut up to the day it was set, Dec. 6, 1894.

Incidentally the Washington National Monument Society will meet once a year—on Washington's birthday at the Metropolitan Club.

is honorary chairman, and Fredrick A. Delano is vice president. Mills also designed the Treasury building, the Patent Office (now the General Accounting Office) and the Post Office (now the General Land Office).

attack. Mitscher, soft-spoken but a hard-hitting, determined fighting man had a personal hand in many spectacular and important actions against the enemy in the Pacific and his admirers claimed that he put tempo of the war against Japan into high gear with his Task Force 58's first carrier blows at Truk and the Marianas in February of 1944.

In those attacks the Navy tested its newly-built carrier power for the first time against strong Japanese strongholds and exploded the myth of their invincibility.

Mitscher's swift marauding task force had the entire Pacific Ocean to the gates of Japan as its stamping ground and his carrier planes smashed vital enemy aircraft plants and chased the Japanese air force to cover while pounding at Tokyo and vicinity early in 1945.

He was the skipper of the aircraft carrier Hornet, the "Shangri-La" from which Lt. Col. (later Lt. Gen.) James Doolittle launched his Mitchell bombers for the raid on Tokyo and four other Japanese cities April 18, 1942.

From April 1 to July 25, 1943, the period when Army, Navy and Marine fliers won air supremacy in the South Pacific, Mitscher was commander of aircraft in the Solomon Islands.

and cultural support, and with this union throw open for membership by any other countries which would support the same tenets. They believe such a union would soon become sufficiently strong to enforce peace by the mere promise to step on the side of the underdog whenever the need arose. This is the same line of thought that held that England, the U.S. and France could have prevented the Ethiopian, Sino-Japanese and second world war by an alliance which promised to whip anyone who started a fight.

Your true federalist is likely to be an idealist who prefers the long, hard route of education and social development rather than stoop to the use of force to attain even a good end. The confederatist is likely to refer to his idealist counterpart as "starry-eyed," and reject him as impractical, and to claim that an attainable imperfection is a better immediate goal than a presently-impossible perfection. He is nearer to those who though unsatisfied, are leaving their money on the United Nations.

Part of the job at Asheville, if the movement is to have any success, will be to unify the federalists and the confederatists. If the two efforts can be converged on a line pointing to federation through confederation they may even though forced to feel their way along, produce amazing results a crime against nature. Judge Burney gave him from seven to 10 years in State Prison, sentence suspended on condition that he be of good behavior for 10 years after completing his present sentence on the roads; and that he live with his sister, Mrs. Margaret Benson and under her supervision and pay the court costs.

Robert Hardy pleaded guilty to two charges of driving while drunk. He was given 18 months in each case, suspended upon payment of $100 and costs, and he was placed on probation for five years. He was also fined $25 and costs for being drunk on a highway.

Ray Hardy was convicted of hit-and-run driving and driving while drunk. The court gave him 18 months on each charge, and suspended sentences on payment of court costs and he was placed on probation for five years. The case against Milton Moore charging non-support, was not pressed with leave. A capias was issued for J. E. Corbett on a worthless check charge. Prayer for judgment was continued until the April term in the case of Grover C. Barfield for being drunk.

Jesse Jenkins, Ayden Negro, who was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and an assault, was given six months in the first case, sentence suspended on payment of costs and he was placed on probation for three years. He was not guilty of assault. On another charge prayer for judgment was continued on good behavior.

Prayer for judgment was continued two years in the case against Harry Atkinson for trespass. He was to pay court costs and remain on good behavior.

Ronald Cannon, vulgar and profane language, was given 30 days, suspended on condition that he pay $50 and costs.

John Williams, drunk, affray and disorderly conduct, pleaded guilty of being drunk and paid $20 and costs. He was not guilty of the other charges.

Two cases against Theodora Wilson, embezzlement and false pretense, were not pressed with leave.

Percy Cannon, drunk and resisting arrest, $25 and costs and placed on probation for five years. Simpson Roy Cannon, assaulting an officer, $25 and costs and placed on probation for five years.

Baruch . . .

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) asked if the American delegation on the U. N. atomic commission, which Baruch headed until recently, has been handicapped in its work by the publication of the Smyth report.

"The scientists talked the army into issuing that report," Baruch said. "They lambasted the army into doing it."

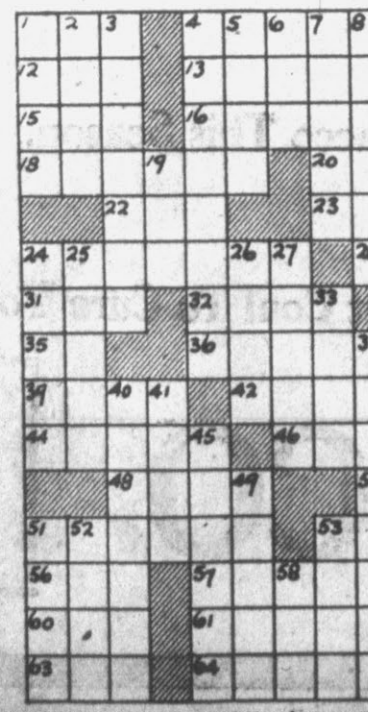

"Then," Johnson asked, "it came out under tremendous pressure?"

"Oh, yes," Baruch replied. "He added that there was a natural desire on the part of the scientists to have free disclosure of developments in an effort to aid humanity in general."

"But I don't want to use this scientific information for the benefit of somebody who wants to destroy the world," Baruch said.

Funeral services for Miss Letha Artis of Grimesland will be held at Sweet Hope Church Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. W. S. Gardner will officiate. Surviving are her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Artis, seven brothers and six sisters.

Usher Board No. 1 of Mt. Calvary F. W. B. Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Darden in honor of their sons Kelly and Alex, Jr., Darden, on February 2 with 24 members present. Officers for 1947 are, chairman, in February. We are expecting a Claude Brown; president, Willie Joyner; vice president, Mrs. Roberta Payne; assistant vice president, Mrs. Mary Rountree; secretary, Mrs. Esther M. Porter; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie B. Williams; savings treasurer, Mrs. E. E. Porter; assistant chairman, Julius DuPre; design treasurer, Mrs. Aubell Hunter.

This club is very well organized with a committee in each section of the city. Mrs. Rosa Darden served the visiting group with a fine salad bite followed by a healthful and delicious dessert, which made every one want to return for another meeting soon. The next meeting will be on February 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius DuPre.

Our prayer for the week: "Let me today do something that will take a little sadness from my neighbor's store. Let me today say something that will make my neighbor's faith and joy a little more. Give to all who are sick in mind or body this day. Strengthen to endure faith to sustain and hope to bring light." —Esther M. Porter

There was a fine time at Brown's Chapel Holiness Church Sunday, January 26. Elder L. R. Bullock was present and also Elder R. Grissel. Elder L. R. Bullock will be present there again on the 4th Sunday in February. We are expecting a wonderful time. We are asking everybody to come and enjoy it with us. The first sermon will be at 11:00 a. m. and the second at 4 p. m. on us. We are planning for two services night.

Pirates Lose To Duke "B" Team

The Pirates of East Carolina Teachers College tipped anchor last Saturday and boarded Duke's "Jayvees" in Durham to be rebuffed by the final score of 42-28. Their defeat ended a fourteen-game winning streak enjoyed by the local quint which has been sinking their foes with an almost monotonous regularity. High scorer for the Duke "B" team was Bill Whalen, who accounted for twelve points. Larry James, playing a forward position, was credited with eleven points for the invaders from East Carolina.

GHS Cage Team Playing Tuesday

The Greenville High School Phantoms will meet a conference foe, Elizabeth City in the GHS gym Tuesday night, February 4th at 8 o'clock. The Greenies, led by Henry Turner and Glynn Perkins, will be favored for the Elizabeth City team lost to Roanoke Rapids, whom Greenville defeated easily. Starting line-up will probably be Henry Turner and Dave Clark, forwards, Billy White and Jimmy Cox, guards and Glynn Perkins at center.

Mainstays of the College Veterans Club Dixieland Minstrel, to be presented in the Austin auditorium on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 8:15 o'clock, are Interlocutor Clark Stokes of Hertford, Dance Director Miss Jo Ann Bloom, Director Eli Bloom and Joe Williams, Veterans Club president and member of the cast. A five-piece band, composed of students, and especially organized for the minstrel, will entertain and set the musical pace for a series of dances and songs. Such well-known student soloists as Donald Perry of Washington, and Mimi Tripp of Greenville are among those taking part. A chorus of 35 ex-GIs and a bevy of college girls who will sing and dance will be in the production. Proceeds will be used by the Veterans Club for their athletic scholarship fund and to further their program for improving athletics on the campus.

Adverse Report On Tar Project

Washington, Feb. 3—(AP)—Secretary of War Patterson today submitted adverse reports to congress on proposals for 22 flood control and river and harbor projects in 17 states. In each instance, the secretary reported that the chief of army engineers had found that construction of the projects would be inadvisable at this time, and that the budget bureau had stated they are not in accord with the president's program. Authorization for reports on the proposed works had been granted by past congresses, some as early as 1936. Most of the reports were completed in 1945. Among projects on which the budget bureau and the army engineers ruled "thumbs down": Tar River, N. C., engineers said proposed flood control works on river and its tributaries, fishing creek, Otter Creek, Swift Creek and Town Creek, would not be advisable.

H. B. Baruch Chosen As New Ambassador

Suspend Cashiers In House Bank Inquiry

Washington, Feb. 3—(AP)—William Russell, House sergeant at arms, today announced the suspension of A. B. Fangmeyer, cashier and John Oberholser, assistant cashier, in the sergeant's "bank." Russell said the suspensions will remain effective at least until after the grand jury completes its investigation of a shortage of $121,000 in the accounts of Kenneth Romney, former sergeant at arms. Both Fangmeyer and Oberholser worked under Romney.

POLL FAVORS HEALTH PLAN

Greensboro, N. C., Feb. 3—(AP)—Basic points of the proposed good health program with the exception of a new four-year medical school at the University of North Carolina are favored by a majority of the state's physicians, a secret poll of the "fact finding committee of North Carolina physicians" showed today.

The poll was tabulated last night from questionnaires returned by 1,240 members of the State Medical Society. The society has 2,088 members. The questionnaires were submitted by the committee, a self-appointed group of 18 physicians and surgeons headed by Dr. Elias Faison of Charlotte as chairman. Of the doctors replying, 781 said they did not think another four-year medical school for whites is now needed in North Carolina; 418 said they think one is needed.

Three hundred and seventy-six thought Chapel Hill would be the best location if another school were established; 815 said it would not be. The doctors were asked, "If one is to be established, but not in Chapel Hill, where do you think it should be located." Charlotte received 642 votes, Asheville 80, Greensboro 72, Raleigh 43, Wilmington 24, and there were a number of cities with a few votes each.

Blue Laws Decision Now Up To Aldermen

Winston-Salem, Feb. 3—(AP)—It's up to the Winston-Salem Board of Aldermen now as to whether and when the city will amend its laws to permit Sunday movies and athletic contests. In a blue law election here Saturday the vote was 4,526 in favor of the Sunday activities and 4,254 against. Previously members of the board of aldermen had said they would be guided by the balloting.

Hereford, England, Feb. 1—(AP)

Mrs. I. Francis knows what it means to look for a needle in a haystack. She's trying to find 200 pounds ($800) in a tin can somewhere among 300,000 other tin cans in the city dump. She tossed some old cans into the rubbish barrel recently and remembered next day that one of them contained her life savings.
