

NLRB Posts New Warning To Labor

Rules That Workers Can Be Replaced When They Strike Over Wages And Working Conditions; Unanimous Findings In Case By Agency

Washington.—(AP)—The National Labor Relations Board posted fresh notice to unions—and to Congress—today that workers who go on strike over wages and job conditions can be replaced without violating the Wagner labor relations act.

The board went even further in its decision involving two St. Petersburg, Fla., newspapers and declared that when a union itself does not bargain it can't charge the employer with failing to negotiate in good faith and hope to make the charge stick. Under the Wagner act only the employer can be penalized for refusing to bargain with his workers.

The decision that economic strikes—those who walk out, over wages or working conditions—can be replaced legally is a restatement of previous NLRB policy. But a board spokesman told reporters that the agency is hitting it hard in this instance.

The unanimous ruling overturned the findings of an NLRB trial examiner, Thomas S. Wilson. Carries to its ultimate meaning the decision affecting economic strikers would countenance the hiring of 400,000 new miners to the

TRAIN JUMPS TRACK, DEATH TOLL TWENTY

Cars Roll Down Steep Embankment; Large Number Of Passengers Injured

Altoona, Pa.—(AP)—Coroner Daniel Replege of Altoona said that at least 20 were killed in the wreck of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Red Arrow, Detroit to New York passenger train, ten miles west of here early today.

The wreck of the Detroit-New York sleeper occurred at 3:25 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time). The scene was about two miles west of "horseshoe curve," known to thousands for its beautiful view down a mountain valley.

A railroad spokesman said two locomotives and 11 cars of the 14-car train were derailed, some rolling down an embankment.

The injured were rushed to hospitals at Altoona, where attendants became so busy they couldn't count the casualties. Mercy and Altoona Hospitals later reported they had a total of 85 casualties and more were arriving.

The accident disrupted all railroad telephone communication in

'DOLLAR DAY' IN GREENVILLE IS BIG EVENT

Local Stores Offering Special Bargains Thursday For Shoppers

By CHESTER WALSH "Dollar Day" in Greenville—Thursday—will be an important event for shoppers in Eastern Carolina. The cooperating stores—members of the Greenville Merchants Association—are offering an array of "Dollar Day" bargains on a larger scale than since before the war.

The stores are filled with merchandise in abundance; the stocks are more varied and shoppers who do their buying in Greenville will have a wider range to select from. The advertisements in today's Reflector are offering to shoppers unusual bargains at unusually low prices and the general run of merchandise in the stores is of better quality than in many years.

"Dollar Day" in Greenville is an event anticipated by thousands of shoppers in Eastern Carolina and Thursday will be like a holiday. It will be a gala occasion for buying merchandise at exceptionally low prices. The window displays are attractive and appealing to discriminating shoppers.

A feature of this "Dollar Day" in Greenville is the generally improved quality of merchandise offered. Many of the stores will have extra clerks on duty to serve the throngs expected to benefit by the money-saving event. Merchandise is displayed in a manner to facilitate selection and the price tags indicate that better bargains are being offered at all the participating stores.

The Greenville Merchants Association is sponsoring "Dollar Day." A special committee has been working for some time to make this "Dollar Day" the biggest merchandising event since before Pearl Harbor. It is a thrilling experience to saunter about the stores and view the bargains being offered by Greenville merchants. It will be a satisfying experience for the buyers who benefit by the fine quality and low prices on all kinds of merchandise. Visit the Greenville stores Thursday—"Dollar Day."

SHIP'S CARGO MAY BE TAKEN

Dutch Warn U.S. Vessel Against Breaking Embargo Of Java

Aboard the S. S. Martin Behrman of Cherbon, Java, Feb. 18.—(AP)—While a Dutch destroyer blocked her path and three armed Dutch sailors patrolled her decks, this U. S. Liberty ship continued loading a multi-million dollar cargo from Republican Java today, despite Dutch warnings that she will be seized if she attempts to quit these territorial waters.

Meanwhile commercial shipping circles throughout southeast Asia awaited the outcome of this test case which may decide whether foreign shippers, by dealing directly with the unrecognized Indonesian Republic, can transport the vast stores of rubber, sugar, cinchona and sisal which have been seized up inside Java by a Dutch Naval blockade during the 18-months the Netherlands government and the Indonesians have been negotiating on independence of the island empire.

The Dutch maintain that there should be "no export without our permission."

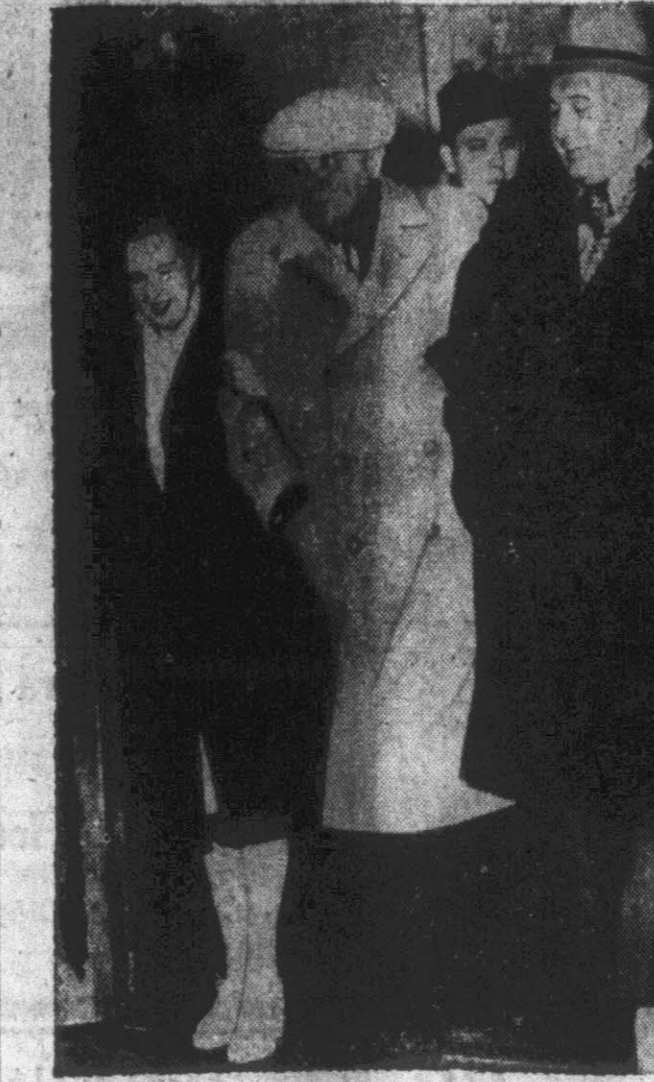

"Ours is the internationally recognized jurisdiction here," they say. "These products are the property of Dutch estate owners. The revolution prevents their return to their estates. Foreign credits from the stockpiles are needed for the eventual rehabilitation of Indonesia."

American Consul General Walter Foote radioed from Batavia that the U. S. recognizes only Dutch jurisdiction in the East Indies. However, Capt. Rudy Gray of Southport, N. C., skipper of the Martin Behrman, is loading up on orders from the New York owners of the ship, the Isbrandtsen line.

Wildlife Supper

Pitt County Chapter of the North Carolina Wildlife Association will have a supper meeting at the Rotary Club building Thursday night at 7 o'clock. President Jesse R. Moya, Jr., will preside. Supper will be served free to those who attend. Incidentally, the local Wildlife Chapter has been doing wonderful work arousing public interest in the conservation of wildlife in this state. All persons interested in this worthy project are invited to attend.

LONDON TALKS IN DEADLOCK

East-West Misunderstandings; Peace Terms Are Unwritten

London.—(AP)—East-West misunderstanding—the bogey of virtually every international conference since the war—tangled the deputy foreign ministers of the Big Four in disagreement today and left peace treaties for Germany and Austria largely unwritten.

This means that the task of drafting peace terms will fall largely to the Big Four's foreign ministers when they meet in Moscow less than three weeks hence.

Deputies assigned to draft an Austrian treaty concede they will not finish their job—partly because of inability to reconcile the views of Russia with those of the West—and the deputies working on the German treaty are afflicted with the same atmosphere.

The deputies, by order of their chiefs, must end their session Feb. 25, a week from today. In conference circles here the opinion prevails that "good" peace treaties undoubtedly will be written but only after some very precise phrasing and some high-level plain talking dissipate the fog.

As one example of disagreements boggling the works, the deputies, in session since Jan. 15, have been unable to agree on the procedural question of what voice the smaller victor nations shall have in writing the treaties.

Russia wants to hear what they have to say, but nothing more. The United States, Britain and France have been sympathetic to small power demands for greater participation in drafting the new pacts.

Supreme Court Slips Up On Chance To Make Fans Of Patient Audience

By ARTHUR L. EDSON Washington.—(AP)—There's no doubt about it. The Supreme Court just doesn't give a whoop about its audiences.

Yesterday, for example, the justices had a fine chance to make their marble mansion a popular hangout. But they muffed it. The 200 seats in the court are rarely filled. Yesterday all the seats were taken, and there was a line waiting outside.

These people had come to hear what the court had decided, if anything, about the John L. Lewis case. Well, it turned out the court had not decided anything on the miners and their $3,500,000 fine. But it did have a few legal odds and ends to dispose of.

Now, in view of this full house, did the justices unbind and pet things up a bit? Did they encourage the customers to come back? They did not. They started out with Justice Frankfurter saying "Now this is very technical." And he was so right.

The decision had something to do with a man in Virginia who sued a man in North Carolina. Maybe it was vice versa. Anyway, Frankfurter plowed bravely into the technicalities. But

House Group Bans Changes In Proposed Budget Slash

AFL President Argues Labor Bill In Hearing

William Green Flays Proposals Of Restrictive Labor Legislation; Offers To Cooperate In Study Of Labor Needs

Washington.—(AP)—AFL President William Green declared today enactment of restrictive labor legislation now before Congress would produce such great industrial confusion as to undermine the present world position of the United States.

The 73-year-old head of the American Federation of Labor told the Senate labor committee the indispensable first step in dealing with labor-management relations is to acquire a complete knowledge and understanding of those basic forces and of those new circumstances which have arisen in the past 15 years.

"The American Federation of Labor," he said in his prepared testimony, "is prepared to cooperate with this or any other committee in making such a study."

President Truman has urged a similar course on Congress before it passes any long-range labor legislation.

Green identified the forces and circumstances as our expanded economy and our great advancement in machine production with resulting manpower displacement; the dislocations and adjustments caused by the depression; the war and the postwar period; and the emergence of certain economic and social truths. The AFL president—first organized labor spokesman to testify before either the Senate or House labor committees this year—took up one by one the bills before the Senate group.

These include the Ball-Smith-Taft bill to set up a federal mediation board and compel a cooling-off period before strikes; and three bills by Senator Ball (R-Minn.) to bar the closed shop, outlaw industry-wide collective bargaining and overhaul the Wagner Act.

Green assailed them all. "It will be a sorry day for this country," Green said, "if and when it adopts and enforces a philosophy that individuals or groups may not meet their problems by resorting to their own lawful and peaceful devices but rather, are compelled to become dependent supplicants to an all-wise, all-providing, all-embracing government."

The Senate committee during the last three weeks has heard industry representatives appeal for major curbs on union activities. In the House they still are presenting their case. The labor committee there went ahead with testimony by more business officials.

House Committee Hurries To Set Up And Approve Tentative Portal Pay Measure; Spurred By Jackson's Criticism

Washington.—(AP)—The House Judiciary Committee moved swiftly today to deal with the issue of portal pay under the Wage-Hour Act a law which Justice Jackson declared has been obscured by "elastic and somewhat unpredictable" Supreme Court decisions.

Chairman Michener (R-Mich.) told a reporter he hopes the committee will polish up and approve before tonight a tentative portal pay bill worked out by a subcommittee last week.

"We are going to get this thing settled just as quickly as we possibly can," he added. Chairman Wiley of the Senate Judiciary Committee also is in a hurry. He said he wants his group to be ready with a bill of its own by next Monday.

The House subcommittee proposal would impose a number of restrictions on portal pay actions, in which workers now seek a total of around $5,000,000,000.

It would set a three-year limitation on collecting such pay retroactively. Also under its provisions, if an employer could show he acted in good faith, believing he was complying with the Wage-Hour Act in paying his worker as he did, that would constitute a defense in courts.

The bill would legalize out of court compromises in portal pay claims—not permissible under a Supreme Court interpretation of the Wage-Hour Act as it stands.

And it would declare that working time is what customary practices in the industry say it is. This "customary practices" point is what prompted Justice Jackson's criticism of his colleagues in a wage-hour decision yesterday.

He agreed that the wage-hour administrator was wrong in ruling certain apprentice railroad men are "employees" under the act. But he did not like the reasons cited in the opinion. It was written by Justice Black, whose action in a previous wage-hour case Jackson attacked last summer while serving a American prosecutor at the Nuremberg trials.

Jackson wrote a separate concurring opinion to set forth his criticism yesterday.

But in a case involving railroad brakemen, Black jumped the easy-to-understand track. There had been an argument over whether these brakemen should be paid while they learn to set brakes and throw switches. Black translated this into legal language and came up with: "These men are taught to put their hands to various instrumentalities."

That statement is going to surprise a lot of brakemen.

SEES HIKE IN RENT CEILING

Senate Banking Group Chairman Predicts Action In March

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Chairman Buck (R-Del.) predicted today his senate banking subcommittee will approve about March 1 legislation calling for a general rent increase and removal of rent ceilings on new housing.

Buck himself favors a boost of up to 10 per cent, as provided in his own bill which also would scrap controls on new dwellings.

He called the subcommittee together today to hear the sponsors of four other rent measures. They are: Senator Murray (R-Mont.) whose bill would continue rent control unchanged for a year beyond June 30 of the present expiration date.

Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.) who wants to end all controls April 30. Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) who would permit four cumulative five per cent increases.

Displaced Persons Will Be Classified For Possible Employment In Britain's Coal Mines And Other Industry

London.—(AP)—Prime Minister Attlee said today that displaced persons in the British occupation zones of Germany and Austria would be classified for possible employment in Britain's coal mines and other industries short of manpower.

Replying to a suggestion in the House of Commons that the government study the labor potential available in UNRRA camps to meet industrial problems raised by Britain's fuel crisis, the prime minister declared:

"I do not feel that such a mission is necessary. The minister of labor is proceeding, in association with the chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, to set up an organization in the British zones in Germany and Austria for the classification and selection of displaced persons against the opportunity of employment in Britain.

Several London newspapers reported that thousands of displaced persons would be brought from the continent to work in the mines.

SHERIFF SAYS ARRESTS NEAR

"Break" Is Expected Momentarily In Lynching Investigation

Greenville, S. C.—(AP)—Sheriff R. Homer Bearden said this morning that arrests might be expected momentarily in the lynching in Greenville County Monday morning of Willie Earle, 25-year-old Negro.

Sheriff Bearden was endeavoring to reach the governor by long distance telephone this morning to report on the case but at 11:30 a. m. had been unable to get a connection through to the state capital.

The Greenville officer and Sheriff W. H. Mauldin, of Pickens, where the Negro was taken from the county jail about 5 a. m., by an armed mob, conferred in Greenville this morning. Sheriff Mauldin said there had been no breaks in the case in his county. Asked if he expected any, he replied:

"Well, we hope so." Meanwhile, agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are working in Greenville.

1947, Pivotal Year

A Period Of Events Affecting Mankind's Fortunes For A Generation Or More Is Now At Hand; Endless Chain Of Crises; Deep Study Required

By DEWITT MACKENZIE The year 1947 may be the pivot on which will turn the fortunes of mankind for a generation—or even more. Certainly it will be a year of vast importance.

This will be a period of big affairs for Uncle Sam at home, of course. But it would be a grave mistake for us to believe that we could reach a correct solution of our own problems without considering many of them in relation to foreign developments. Like it or not, it is imperative that our American course be charted with due regard to external circumstances. If we are to have a true perspective we must know not only what is happening abroad but what it means.

That's the message we read in the headlines of our newspapers these days. Just consider the current crises, every one of which affects the United States:

Efforts to reach an agreement for international control of atomic energy have blown up, and the United Nations are back about where they started two-thirds of a year ago. The atomic issue is one of the most dangerous with which we are faced, for it easily could produce another rupture of world peace.

Mother England—member of the Big Three—is in the midst of one of the fiercest economic crises of her long history, and at the same time her empire is going through a metamorphosis which involves the granting of freedom to mighty India and adjacent Burma—and heaven alone knows what else. As though that weren't enough, the bloody Palestine imbroglio remains a red-hot problem. Not only for Britain but for the world at large.

The position in China—suffering from the effects of her long war with Japan and from the fierce civil strife between the Chinese Communists and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government—never has been worse. Nothing has happened to change the view of many observers that the only solution is a fight to a bloody finish.

Relations between Moscow and Washington are far from being all honey and flowers, as witness Foreign Minister Molotov's sharp note of protest which characterizes testimony by Under Secretary of State Acheson before a Senate committee as being "gross slander and hostile to the Soviet."

Thus it goes—an endless chain of crises. All these we must study and understand. Not to do so would be to invite trouble.

Biggest Trade Deal

Democrats And Republicans In Congress Waging Battle Royal Over Future Tariffs And Foreign Trade Program; Root Of It All—Conference In Geneva

By JAMES MARLOW Washington.—(AP)—Democrats and Republicans in Congress are fighting over tariffs and our foreign trade program.

They're fighting now because of an international trade conference to be held in Geneva, Switzerland, in April.

They're sending representatives there to try to work out a huge trade agreement with 18 other nations.

It's the biggest, single trade deal this country ever has attempted. It's the foundation stone of the State Department's plans to try to assure prosperity here and abroad by opening the way to high volume international trade.

Our representatives will carry with them a long list of American-made goods which could be sold abroad if there were no trade barriers there.

We'll tell the other 18 nations: "We'll cut our tariffs a bit on some goods you want to sell us if you will cut your tariffs on some of our goods."

Our representatives can promise such tariff cuts because they're permitted to under the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act.

The Democratic-controlled Congress of 1934 passed the act. It did so to boost our foreign trade by cutting tariffs which were then, in 1934, at their highest point in our history.

(The tariffs had been put at that highest point by the Republicans who, when they controlled Congress in 1930, passed the Smoot-Hawley Law.)

The Republicans, as a party, traditionally have been for high tariffs on these grounds:

To protect American business from being hurt or ruined by the competition of imported foreign goods.

The Democrats say they're just as much concerned about the welfare of American business as the Republicans. They say this:

1. Since 1934 this country has signed trade agreements with 29 nations, cutting tariffs where necessary.

2. No American business has been seriously hurt by those agreements or the tariff cuts.

3. The program expanded world markets for American goods.

But now—the first time since 1934 the Republicans control Congress and can do something about the Reciprocal Trade Act.

The act is law until 1948 but some

Greenville, N. C. 1013 Evans St. February 14, 1947

Dear Sir: Several weeks ago the city of Greenville saw fit to change the hours of the local theaters. No doubt they failed to take into consideration the inconveniences this action has caused a large number of people.

Greenville, N. C. FEB 4, Feb. 15, 1947

Dear Sir: I read the letter in your paper last week with regard to the Sunday show hours in Greenville. I am deeply interested in this matter myself, since I live several miles from your city and like to attend the shows with my family on Sunday.

I am sure that many people who have children like myself would prefer them going to the movies at an early hour, and not forcing them to have to wait until nine o'clock on Sunday night, thus putting them at a very late hour arriving home.

Everyone knows the story of Columbus balancing an egg on its point by cracking the end of the egg and slightly making it flat. It was easy for anyone after Columbus showed them how. And it was easy for navigators to sail around the globe and for geographers to make maps confirming the findings of certain geographers who had previously been persecuted, after Columbus had made his momentous voyage.

All men are created equal—politically, but only politically. The parable of the talents in the Biblical teaching that some men are highly endowed and some modestly. Humanity moves forward to new triumph through the courage and wisdom of its pioneers. It takes Socrates, St. Stephen, Gallileo, Copernicus, Columbus, and Lindbergh to cross frontiers into undiscovered areas. After they do, it is easy for the rest of us to follow.

Greenville, N. C. FEB 14, 1947

Dear Editor: I'm writing this in regards to the Sunday movies closing the box office at four o'clock. It is very inconvenient for the country people who wish to attend to either have to be there at four or wait until 9. When we go to the movies at nine it is eleven or after when we get home. That is too late when you get up early.

I believe in people going to church, but I don't think that closing the theaters will cause any more to attend the churches. If people have a desire to go to church they are not going to let the movies keep them from church.

There are also a number of people who would attend church services in the evening if they had seen the movies in the afternoon. Of course this is just my opinion. I wonder if there are any more in the county who feel as we do. Mrs. B. Manning, Mrs. Johnnie Cooley.

Times Publishing Company, Evening Independent, Inc., and News Printing, Inc.—were within their rights in replacing more than 60 striking members of the AFL International Typographical Union.

Moreover, the board said, Editor and Vice-President Nelson Pynter of the St. Petersburg Times was not violating the Wagner act when he informed the strikers at a meeting January 12, 1946, that he would take them back to work first before hiring replacements.

The union had terminated the earlier bargaining negotiations and had not requested their renewal, the board said.

Costly Blaze In Elizabeth City Elizabeth City, N. C.—(AP)—The third major fire in the city's business section since last July virtually gutted the Willis Wright Motor Company garage here early today, destroyed three automobiles, seven trucks and four new motor scooters and caused damages estimated by a company official at about $100,000.

Refugees The prospect developed that meager coal ration for British homes might fall even lower next month because of the efforts to reopen factories and keep electric power plants operating.

Difficulties In Far East Ahead

W. E. Marshall, professor of political science at East Carolina Teachers College, discussed the political and military situation in China before the Greenville chapter of the college Alumni association on last Friday evening. The meeting was held in the Alumni office on the campus.

Agreement with Russia on Far Eastern problems is essential, said Marshall, if war is to be averted. Pointing out that the political parties of China seem unable to form a coalition, Marshall indicated that the conflicting interests of Russia and the United States present increasingly serious difficulties.

"The present Chinese problem," he said, "is not affecting us materially now, but he predicted that the difficulties in the East will come to a head within the next two or three years. 'The United States,' he said, 'will reach an agreement with Russia in a common policy, or war is inevitable.'

Leslie Cogdell of Raleigh, an alumna of the college, was a guest at the meeting.

Washington Kiwanis Club Active Group

The Washington Kiwanis Club at its first regular weekly supper meeting at Saleby's new restaurant, 15th and Market streets, in Washington last night, started off in an auspicious way. About 35 representative business and professional men who comprise the Kiwanis membership, started things off as the Washington people always do—successfully. President Moye Harrington, presided like a veteran. The Membership Committee has plans for a membership of more than fifty.

Kiwanis Lieut.-Gov. Ed Raul and Arthur Tripp an, Program Chairman Archie Rogers of the Greenville club, headed a delegation of Greenville Kiwanians at the meeting. Raul opened the meeting and presided for a time and then turned the gavel over to President Harrington.

Judge Dink James of Greenville made an interesting talk on "We Build For the Future On the Solid Foundation of the Past."

Charles and Wallace Odum gave a program of instrumental and vocal music. Mrs. Ray Tyson of the Greenville club was a special guest.

The Greenville Kiwanis Club is sponsoring it for 13 weeks. The new club meets Monday nights at Saleby's Restaurant in Washington, one of the best equipped eating places from the standpoint of furnishings, convenience and cuisine in Eastern Carolina. Ed and Miss Saleby, the owners, and Miss Margaret Saleby made friends last night with all of the Washington and Greenville Kiwanians.

ECTC Alumni In Pender Organize

Former students at East Carolina Teachers College in Burgaw and other sections of Pender County have formed a new chapter of the college Alumni association. At a meeting held last Friday evening in Burgaw plans were made under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Garner, alumni secretary of the college, to complete the organization of the chapter and to plan future meetings of the group.

Mrs. Kenneth Futch of Burgaw presided, and Helen Sprull of Burgaw acted as secretary. A nomination committee was appointed to suggest a slate of permanent officers for the chapter.

Alumni in Sampson County will meet in Clinton next Thursday, February 20, to effect the organization of a new chapter there. Mrs. Garner will be present. Ruth Tew of Clinton is in charge of arrangements for the meeting. Particular interest attaches itself to the new chapter in Clinton, for Sampson is the native county of the late Robert H. Wright, first president of the college. According to present plans, the new chapter will be named in honor of him.

Claim Dwellings Held Off Market

Washington.—(AP)—The National association of real estate boards has estimated property owners are holding 88,550 dwelling places off the market rather than submit to rent controls.

Giving results of a survey by real estate boards in 475 cities of 45 states, the association also estimated controls have prompted conversion of 120,750 residential units to commercial use.

The association blamed inequitable administration, red tape and transfer of control away from the owner under OPA rent regulations.

lett, cabbage onions, English peas, spinach, turnips can be planted now. Seeds sown in hot beds can be transplanted as soon as the danger of frost is passed.

Place baby chicks as soon as you can. Check the brooder and scrub the brooder house with hot water and lye.

Do all plowing every good clear day. The farmer who gets his land plowed early in Spring generally gets his crop off to a good start sooner.

The Workers' Council held its regular meeting February 15. Some glowing reports were brought by the members.

The agent has never seen such interest in permanent pastures. These pastures were stressed last spring and the result is more meat and lard at a low cost.

Sam Short reported 2½ acres in Permanent pastures. He kept his hogs in this pasture during the summer and in fall he put up 2,286 pounds of meat, nine 50-lb. stands of lard. He sold $31.80 worth of spare ribs and livers. He now has grazing on his pasture a brood sow, six pigs and 8 hogs.

H. C. Clemons, Greenville Route 5, kept nine shoats on his pasture and on February 11 he put in his smoke house 1500 pounds of meat and 398 pounds of lard.

William Spell, Greenville Route 2, is shaping plans to build a new barn and potato house combined. He is planning enough room to share with his neighbors.

Fred Midgett has a fine pasture and is going to grow a demonstration in sweet potatoes.

Others who reported reseeded pastures were Richard Leary, Albert Barrett, Claud Spain and John Harris.—Dennis D. DuPree, Negro County Agent.

We are asking everybody not to forget about the monthly meeting at Brown's Chapel Holiness Church which is on every fourth Sunday. On last fourth Sunday Elder R. Griswold preached from a wonderful text: "What's in Hell That You Want?" The congregation enjoyed it very well.

Elder L. R. Bullock and Elder R. Griswold will be there Sunday which is 23rd of this month to hold two services, one at 12 o'clock and the other at 3 p. m. Please come out and join us.

Sunday school has also been reorganized. We are hoping that every member will attend faithful. Sunday school is due at 11 o'clock a. m.

The members of the Fleur de Midi club wish to thank all those who made it possible for the game tournament to be a success Friday night at the Fleming Street school.

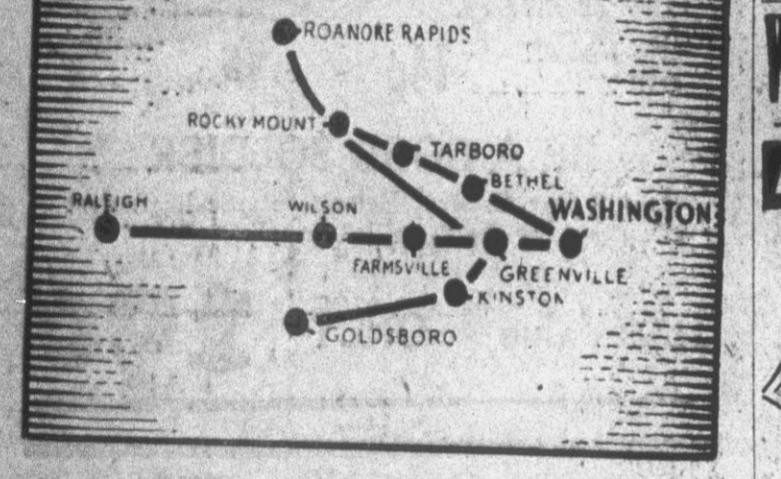

The prizes were won by the following:

Mrs. Mary Moore Dunn, Blount-Harvey Co., has returned from a buying trip to New York.

Mr. J. J. Stauffer has returned to her home from Pitt General hospital.

Mrs. Annie Pittman and Mrs. R. T. Burnette have returned from a trip to Florida.

Mrs. H. Nelson French and children, Edward Nelson and Stuart, of Chatham, N. J., will arrive Thursday morning to visit Mrs. French's mother Mrs. B. W. Moseley.

Whitehurst-Garris
Miss Hazel Garris of Washington, D. C., became the bride of Mr. Joseph M. Whitehurst of the United States Navy on January 17, 1947, in the chapel of the U. S. Naval Receiving Station, Anacostia, D. C. with Lt. Comdr. Allan Reed officiating. A program of nuptial music was rendered prior to the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was dressed in an exquisite two-piece afternoon dress of powder blue with matching accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

The bride had as her only attendants Miss Vivian Stocks of Washington, D. C., who was attired in an afternoon dress of beige and wore a corsage of Tullman roses.

Mr. James Dolan, Chief Radioman in the U. S. Navy, served as best man.

Miss Whitehurst is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Garris of Greenville, N. C.

Mr. Whitehurst is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Whitehurst of Bethel, N. C.

Following the ceremony the couple flew to northern points for a brief wedding trip.

U. D. C. Meeting
The George B. Singletary chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy met with Mrs. E. B. Ferguson at her home on Fourth Street on Thursday, February 13.

Mrs. J. L. Fleming presided over the meeting. During the business session Mrs. Fleming presented and explained the News Sheet that is gotten out by the State Division. This sheet contains articles and news from the different chapters of the state.

Thanks were expressed to the several committees that arranged for Flag Day. Mrs. Roland Herring, who is teaching near Durham, sent greetings to the chapter.

The program was in charge of Mrs. P. E. Wells and her talk was by Sidney Lanier. In a most interesting manner Mrs. Wells told of his life as a poet and a musician. Lanier's health was very poor and he went to many places trying to find a climate suitable for his health, but he never gave up his desire for music and his ambition to write.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Allen, served dainty refreshments.—Reported.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Nelson, Jr., announce the birth of a son, David Thomas, on February 17, 1947, at Pitt General hospital. Mrs. Nelson is the former Miss Hilda Respass.

Attention Wild Life Club Members
The Pitt County Wild Life Club will have a free supper meeting at the Rotary building on Thursday, February 20th at 7 p. m. All members are urged to attend. Mr. P. E. Grayson of Rocky Mount, president of the N. C. Wild Life Federation will give some facts and figures on our declining wild life bill.

Birth Announcement
Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Manning of Aiden, N. C., Route 2, announce the birth of a daughter, Cheryl Larray, in Pitt General hospital February 10.

Mrs. Manning was Miss Mollie Ware of Selma Alabama.

Attention Legionnaires
The regular monthly meeting of Pitt County Post No. 39 American Legion will be held Tuesday, February 18, at 7 p. m. at the army. Come and bring a new member.

Honored at Luncheon
Mrs. Percy Edward Wells and Mrs.

at the Airport Inn, near Greenville, Saturday, honoring Miss Marie Whitehurst, whose marriage to Jimmy Wells, will take place next Friday at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

The table was centered with a heart made of white tulle, satin ribbon and pale pink begonias and Eranthis, with a miniature bride. Crystal candleabra and holders containing lighted white tapers, interspersed with pale pink Hawthorne and bridal place cards completed the table decorations. A corsage of white carnations marked the place of the guest of honor. Three courses were served. The lovely gifts received attested the popularity of the honoree.

The guests included Miss Whitehurst and her mother, Mrs. Louis Whitehurst, Miss Linda Sue Whitehurst, Mrs. Albert A. Whitehurst, Mrs. Thomas Morris, Misses Mary Potter of East Carolina Teachers College, Peggy Rea, Louise Corbin, Joyce Cockman, Grace Ward, Margaret Nesbitt, Eloise Warren, Edna Mae Cannon, Clara Heath, Nell McLawhorn and Mesdames Joseph Gallagher, Ernest Wells of Wilson and John M. Wells of Kinston.

Sugar Bowl Motion Picture.
A motion picture of the Sugar Bowl football game will be shown at the High School Friday night following the alumni banquet at the Woman's Club. The banquet starts at 7 o'clock. President David C. Moore, Jr., will preside. Any Carolina alumni who recently moved to Greenville and failed to receive a card about the banquet and who desire to attend should contact Joe Moyer at the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company at once.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
The board of Aldermen held another adjourned session Monday night, all the members being present.

The first question called up was the bill to authorize the issuing of bonds by the town to an amount not to exceed $75,000 for the purpose of completing and extending the sewerage system now in course of construction, to pave or otherwise improve the streets of the town and to aid in establishing a training school for teachers in or near Greenville if one is authorized by law. The next question was the matter of extending the corporate limits of the town.

education and other care of the child victims of this and later Indian famines. The Institute she founded became a coeducational school, majoring in industrial arts training for famine and outcast children; some of the most beautiful rugs in India are made in its workshops.

Miss Margaret Wrong, of London, is heading a group of missionary educational and linguistic experts in the work of preparing a suitable Christian literature for many tribes in west central Africa. During the war, many thousands of these men learned to read and write while in military service; now they find nothing to read in their own languages. Christian mission groups have established a new union press in Leopoldville; Miss Wrong is directing translations and new writings; Dr. Frank C. Laubach, "apostle of literacy," will spend the next year working on phonetic charts in local African dialects; and some linguists of the American Bible Society will investigate the need for new translations of the Bible.

ment will be conducted at 4:15 p. m., and immediately afterwards ashes will be distributed for those unable to attend the early Mass.

The custom of placing blessed ashes on the foreheads of the faithful with the words, "Remember man, that thou art dust and unto dust thou shalt return" is an ancient one. Its exact origin is not known, but it is mentioned in the earliest existing Roman Missals dating back to the eighth century.

Merchants Hold Directors Meet

The Merchants Association directors met at the association's offices in the City Hall Monday night. President John W. Glover presided.

C. A. Plyler, chairman of the Trade Promotion Committee, made a report of the meeting of that committee and outlined the advertising program arranged for "Dollar Day" on Thursday, February 20. A vote of thanks was given to Morton E. Rahban, who painted the "Dollar Day" signs for the city buses and to Manager David W. Hardee, Jr., who donated space on the buses for the signs.

A letter was read from Willard L. McDowell, executive secretary of the North Carolina Merchants Association, urging a delegation of Greenville men to attend the hearing on the "Go-Op Bill" in the hall of the House of Representatives in Raleigh today. Judson H. Blount, chairman of the Legislative Committee and state director, attended the meeting.

President Glover congratulated John B. Webb, Jr., who was recently elected president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Charles E. Blair, chairman of the Membership Committee, reported Hill's men's store as a new member of the association and stated that the committee was contacting prospective members and expects to report other new members very soon.

Women in the Church

Dr. Mary Cruise, in charge of St. Theodora's Mission hospital, Sagada, Philippines, reports a great need for medical care in the islands, and people eager for ministrations of church and hospital. Both Christians and non-Christians come in crowds to the hospital, she says; malaria and other diseases are rampant. She reports a great need for clergymen, doctors, nurses and teachers.

Miss Charlotte T. Holman, 84 years old, former Methodist missionary to India, founder of Holman Institute for homeless children, at Agra, India, and winner of the British government's Kiear-I-Hind medal for service to India's children, died recently at Alhambra, California. A Canada-born schoolteacher, she went to India in 1908—the year of the great famine—and served in orphanages in Ajmere and Rajputana. She helped care for thousands of waifs and orphans, and later secured a sister to help her in the work. Most of her life was given to the

Ash Wednesday

Ash Wednesday, which marks the beginning of the Lenten Season, will be observed tomorrow in Greenville.

At St. Paul's Episcopal Church there will be celebrations of Holy Communion at 7:30 a. m. and 10 a. m.; in the evening, at 7:30 p. m. the Penitential Office will be said and a brief sermon will be given by the rector of the parish, the Rev. Roscoe C. Hauser, Jr.

In addition to the regular Sunday services special mid-week services will be taking place in the church throughout the season of Lent.

At St. Peter's Catholic Church Ash Wednesday will be observed with the distribution of ashes before and after the morning Mass at 6:45 a. m. The Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sac-

Kiwanians Attend Dr. Haney's Church

The Greenville Kiwanis Club, in its "good neighbor" spirit, had nearly 50 of its members at Eighth Street Christian Church Sunday morning to hear Kiwanian Dr. H. Glenn Haney preach on "The Next Great Discovery." Lieut. Governor Ed Raul and Vice President N. C. Brooks headed the church-going delegation. Dr. Haney in his discussion of his subject said the next great discovery should be "an understanding and appreciation of a discovery which will cause man to be as intimate with God as he is with man's other great discoveries."

Bill Drum, chairman of the Kiwanis Club's Committee on Support of the Churches, arranged for the Kiwanians' visitation. They received a warm welcome from the members.

Top E. C. T. C. Athletes Get Letter At Banquet

Thirty-three leading athletes of East Carolina Teachers college were presented certificates of letters at a banquet held in the north dining hall on the campus last Thursday evening. Members of the 1946 football squad were honor guests. Dr. Carl L. Adams, chairman of the college athletic committee, acted as toastmaster.

Coach James Johnson presented the certificates to the following men: Amos Sexton, Montgomery, Ala.; Leeman Greene, Savannah, Ga.; John Wyatt, Louis Tartaraki, Charles Brown, Willard Pendleton, and Slade Phillips, Portsmouth, Va.; John Young, Stone, Va.; Dennis Basnight, Elle Fearing, Abner Williams, Charles McMullen, and Ray Lee, Elizabeth City.

R. B. Lee, Eborn Pittman, Jack Davis, Keith Kilpatrick, and Milton Wetherington, Kinston; Jack Hedges, George Kessler, and Ben Whisenand, Rocky Mount; Thomas Matthews, Garner; Zach Manning, Winston-Salem; Frank Whisenand, Plymouth; William Kintrell, Winterville; Pete Everett, Edenton; Everett Hudson, Thomasville; Stanley Peal, Williamston; Robert Miller, Asheville; Henry Bordenman, Wilmington; and Henry Andrews, Hubert Mosselwhite, and Jesse Laffin, Greenville.

Dr. Dennis H. Cooke, president of the college, made a short talk during the evening. A gift of flowers was presented to Mrs. L. L. Rives of the college, dining room staff in appreciation of her help in entertaining. Guests at the banquet included members of the athletic committee and their wives and friends invited by those receiving awards.

Sad Weekend For Pirates Quintet

The East Carolina Teachers College basketball team had an unsuccessful weekend road trip, as they dropped contests to Norfolk Naval Training Station and Newport News Apprentice School, 66-35 and 48-41, respectively. The Pirates were forced to use junior varsity reserves, as four varsity members were unable to make the trip. Jim Taylor, high scoring forward, who has been injured for the last two weeks of play, started at his old position but is still handicapped by the injury.

A large crowd is expected to travel to Wilson tomorrow night to see the Pirates and Atlantic Christian mix it up for the second time this year. ECTC won the first contest 45-39.

Phantoms Invade Elizabeth City Facing Stronger Team

The GHS Phantoms will be out to improve a mediocre 6-3 conference record when they take on the Elizabeth City quint on the Jackets' home court tomorrow night at 8. The Phantoms will be on the rebound from two losses to New Bern last week that dropped them down in the conference standings. The G-men played a good brand of ball in losing the first contest, but the baskets at New Bern seemed to buffet them.

The Greens were successful in their first encounter with Elizabeth City as they trounced the Jackets to the tune of 39-21. Since the Greenville game, however, the Jackets have added much prestige to their name by defeating the heretofore undefeated conference leading Pam Pack from Washington. This probably means that the Farley men will play a team much improved over the one that they defeated so handily the last time that the squads left. There will be no Junior contest.

Says City Owes Her Money For Lost Legs

New York—(AP)—Mrs. Olga Rocco, alleging that the police "refused and neglected" to protect her from her husband, has made a $300,000 claim on the city for the leg she lost in the bizarre "camera gun" shooting in a Times Square subway station on New Year's Eve. The pretty 28-year-old woman, now recovering in a hospital, charges the police were negligent in not providing protection after an earlier attempt on her life.

GROWLING MAKES HIM A DOG CATCHER

Raton, N. M.—(AP)—John Tibias will think twice before he complains aloud again. At a recent Raton city council meeting, Tibias griped about the quantity and quality of dogs in his neighborhood. "All right," said Mayor Kastler, "you are hereby appointed assistant dog catcher. Clean 'em up."

Frozen Far North Now Beginning To Defrost

Washington—An authority on cold climates says the frozen North appears to be softening-up, so much so that in some areas engineers are attempting to insulate against the heat.

Robert F. Black of the U.S. Geological Survey said in an interview:

"In some sections of Alaska, particularly in the Fairbanks area, there is evidence that the relic permafrost—the permanent layer of frozen earth—is being destroyed. In certain localities north of Fairbanks, Black said, the permafrost is increasing slightly—the frigid ridges are becoming even more rigid.

"But generally speaking," he said, "the permafrost is diminishing. It's apparently part of the trend toward a generally warmer climate in the North American continent in recent years. Even in Washington we don't have the cold winters we used to."

Black, formerly of Newark, Ohio, studied geology at Wooster College, Syracuse University, California Institute of Technology and Johns Hopkins University. He is in charge of permafrost research for the geological survey.

The survey inaugurated its permafrost studies in 1944. Army engineers and builders of military installations in Alaska and the Aleutians had begun to discover how little they knew of the composition and behavior of frozen earth.

Black headed three field parties last year. They explored the Yukon River area near the mouth of the Koyukuk River, inland from the Seward Peninsula, and also surveyed inside the Arctic Circle, north of the Brooks Range, in the Meade River sector of the coastal plain that faces upon the Arctic Ocean.

Next summer they will continue their study of permafrost distribution—and their effort to determine its composition and find out what is happening to it—in the Fairbanks area and along highways of the interior.

Melting of the permafrost has caused the collapse of sections of the Alaska Railway, parts of the 1,520-mile Alaska highway from Dawson Creek, B. C., to Fairbanks and parts of the 470-mile Richardson highway from Fairbanks to Valdez and its branches to Circle and Livengood.

When Army engineers had to relocate almost 500 miles of the Alaskan highway in 1943, the year after it had been built, permafrost action was blamed for a part of the damage.

"In the space of 25 years at Fairbanks," said Black, "the frozen surface in the airfield area has receded 25 or 30 feet—evidence that permafrost can be destroyed very easily by disturbance of natural cover."

On the other hand, permafrost can be retained by insulation—as the Russians learned long ago. The Russian practice, in building on frozen ground, is to sink piles in holes "bored" by steam jets. The piles are wrapped in greased tarpaper so that the freezing or thawing topsoil will not cling to them or force them out of line.

Army engineers, discovering that the barest trickle of warmth turns Alaskan earth into jelly and causes foundations to sink or slide, have taken to the use of insulating mats. The ground under and near the Fairbanks airfield has been insulated in part with layers of concrete, gravel, moss and spruce boughs to protect the permafrost.

Highways also are being insulated in some areas. Black said there is no permafrost in the areas around Anchorage, Valdez and Cordova and only a very small amount in the Matanuska Valley, north of Anchorage. Southern Alaska's permafrost begins immediately beyond the coastal range and is 100 to 150 feet deep inland, at Gulkana.

In some Alaskan areas, said Black, permafrost extends to a depth of 900 feet. In Siberia it is reported to extend 3,000 feet.

A freak of nature, and a constant source of trouble in the north-land, is the tendency of water to accumulate above the permafrost level, but below a surface layer of ice. The tremendous hydrostatic pressure thus caused forces the earth upward in great mounds and creates areas of leaning trees, or "drunken forests."

TRANSPARENT EXCUSE FOR A CUT-UP.
Salem, Mass. (AP)—A Salem window washer polished up a Salem tobacconist's glass door so carefully that the landed Henry L. Willey of Middleton in a hospital

Willey, 46, walked right through the plate glass and cut his legs. He told police he thought the door was open.

CHINA ORDERS HEAVY CURBS

Kai-shek Moves To Revamp Tottering Business Structure

Nanking—(AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's government in a desperate fight for national survival completely revamped China's tottering business structure today and promised to reorganize the government itself.

Shanghai's tough black market operators promptly moved "underground" and defied the new regulations—but Chiang threatened "severe penalties" and said that "rough and ready justice" would make up in some cases for lack of enforcement machinery.

The drastic decrees:

1. Ordered home all fortunes abroad. (A few Chinese are reported to have foreign investments worth billions; and many have moderate nesteggs).

2. Provided for government withdrawal from industry. (It had been moving toward virtual monopoly of heavy industry, but now plans to retain only utilities and defense-essential plants.)
3. Restricted wages and prices to January levels, and prohibited strikes and lockouts.
4. Fixed the official exchange rate at 12,000 Chinese dollars to one U.S. (instead of 3,350 to one) and banned any use of foreign currency or any trading in gold in China. This already is being violated in Shanghai.
5. Provided for a curtailed government budget and stricter tax collections, along with expenditure of $472,800,000 U.S. for importing urgently needed machinery and raw materials.
6. Pledged a campaign against hoarding and speculating, and said "severe penalties" would be imposed for violation of any decrees.

The government also announced a tightening control of financial institutions and said all government loans must be used to promote production of necessities for home use and commodities for export. Surplus funds of governmental and provincial, municipal and local banks must be deposited with the central bank to eliminate "idle capital."

Tarheel Is Fined By Greek Courts

Athens—(AP)—William Irving Tolton, 47, an independent tobacco dealer of Smithfield, N. C., was fined $210,000 by a Greek court on conviction that he had attempted to take $29,400 cash from the country without customs declaration.

He is being detained at the military barracks and apparently will be to prison in default of paying the fine. The money was confiscated by the Greek government.

He told an American correspondent he had not been given a chance at the Bassara airport to declare the money because customs personnel said they were too busy. Tolton was on his way to Paris. He said he would move he brought the money into Greece. The North Carolinian has been in Greece since 1942.

February 15, at 8 o'clock.

Col. Norman McNeil, senior instructor of the North Carolina Military District, will be guest speaker.

Carver Library News

Our series of programs closed today with a radio-program as follows:

Highlights in the history of the Negro, Miss C. McKnight.

Quartet, Ralph Daags, Hubert Waters, Carlton McGlone and Loan Beatty, with Mr. A. L. Norcutt at the piano.

Duett, Loan Beatty and Hubert Waters.

The G. W. Carver Library sponsored this program in observance of Negro History Week.

Negro History Week was observed throughout America in the effort to bring before the public some of the achievements of the Negro, and to suggest plans for more worthy accomplishments in the future.

Cost Of Living Index Goes Down

Washington.—(AP)—The cost of living index declined slightly between mid-December and mid-January, the Bureau of Labor statistics said today.

The index for January 15 was estimated at 153 per cent of the 1935-1939 average, 18 per cent over the level of a year before and two and a half per cent higher than in June, 1920—the peak after World War I.

The bureau said retail food prices in large cities dropped one per cent from mid-December to mid-January, for the second straight month. Contributing heavily was a 10 per cent decline in egg prices. Dairy products dropped about five per cent. Fats and oils averaged two and a half per cent lower.

The food price index for January 15 was estimated at 184 per cent of the 1935-39 average.

SKETCH PLANS FOR AIRLINER

New Supersonic Transport Conceived By Engineers

Washington—Tickets for the 45-minute flight of the supersonic "Streak" from New York to Chicago will not be on sale for some years. But engineers at the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics have sketched a 1,000-mile-an-hour transport to show what air travelers may see in the next decade.

Engines outnumber the passengers, 11 to 10, in this particular dream ship. There are three turbo-jet units of the type now used in military planes, but of 10,000 pounds' thrust instead of the current 4,000-pound types. Four engines are ram jets, which depend upon forward speed to compress the air in the combustion chamber, and four are rocket units for takeoff and for a burst of speed to get through the turbulent trans-sonic range.

There is no cockpit lounge; in fact, not even a powder room. After all, the plane would cover its 1,500-mile range in one and one-half hours.

Space is so precious, since the fuel must be carried in the fuselage, that there are just two wheels, one forward and one aft. The thin wings, swept back at 60 degrees to keep the tips out of the shock wave, have no space for fuel tanks or wheels. A sled in each wing would balance the plane on the ground.

The fuselage is refrigerated because the temperature would rise 300 degrees due to air friction. The plane flies at 35,000 feet altitude. The wingspan is 89 feet and the length 112 feet. The takeoff weight is 132,000 pounds, but the landing weight only 52,800 pounds. Nearly two-thirds of the gross weight would be fuel.

The NACA is not planning to build any such plane. Its engineers merely worked out the details to see the problems. Some engineers have estimated that the cost of an experimental model would be $1,980,000 but that if the plane were built in quantity the price would drop to $660,000.

RADIO BERLIN UNDER SOVIET

Refuse To Yield Stations To Four-Power Control

Berlin—The Russians have now established a series of strong radio stations to serve their zone of Germany but they still steadfastly refuse to yield to proposals by the other three occupying powers to give them a share in control of powerful Radio Berlin.

One of the Russians' arguments against an American proposal that Radio Berlin be placed under control of a four-power directorate was a claim that they needed it to serve their zone of occupation, which surrounds Berlin.

The Russians took control of Radio Berlin when they were sole occupiers of the city and have refused to share it despite the fact the building which houses the station is located in what now is the British sector of the city. Transmitters for the station are located in the French sector.

It has been reported that the Russians have transferred from Radio Berlin substantial equipment and personnel to build up their zonal stations.

Poland Reports New Production Records

WARSAW, Poland.—(AP)—The Communist backed newspaper Glos Ludu says figures now available show that Poland's industries in some divisions in 1946 exceeded the production estimated for the year.

The journal said the coal output had been set at 46 million tons but nearly 47 million tons had already been mined by December 12. The target for pig iron was 691,000 tons with 726,000 produced; rolled goods, 800,000 tons and 810,000 produced.

A HOT PIANO, BUT BABY CAN MATCH IT.

Ponca City, Okla.—(AP)—Mrs. Jake C. Hampton couldn't believe her music was that hot when she arose from a brief interlude at her piano, turned and saw the keyboard in flames. Her 3-year-old daughter, Mary Sue, had touched a match to a nearby sheet of music.

LOOKS LIKE MILK OF HUMAN KINDNESS.

Ipswich, Mass.—(AP)—The Ipswich Dairy now uses the Salem Police Department's discarded patrol wagon for milk deliveries. Only trouble is, said driver Jack Duff—"Some old stay-out-all-night is always trying to climb in the back, muttering, 'I'll go quietly, boys!'"

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Medical reports reveal that an amazing number of children and adults are victims of Pin-Worms. Watch for the warning signs, especially the embarrassing itching rectal itch. After centuries of Pin-Worm distress a really effective way to deal with them has been established through JAYNE'S P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son. The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets give satisfaction of your money back. So why take chances on Pin-Worms! If you suspect this ugly infection, ask your druggist for P-W and follow the directions. It's easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!
