

FOREMEN GET UNION RIGHTS BY DECISION

Supreme Court Rules Employers Must Bargain With Foremen's Unions

Washington.—(AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that employers must bargain with foremen's unions. The ruling was made on an appeal by the Packard Motor Company of Detroit from a national labor relations board decision. The company contended foremen were not employees in the meaning of the Wagner labor relations act. Justice Jackson delivered the court's 5-to-4 decision. Justice Douglas wrote a dissent in which Chief Justice Vinson and Justice Burton concurred. Justice Frankfurter also dissented from the majority although not concurring entirely in the views Douglas expressed for the minority. For the majority, Jackson said: "The context of the (labor relations) act, we think, leaves no room for a construction of the section involved in this case to deny the organizational privilege to employees because they act in the interest of an employer. "Every employee from the very fact of employment in the master's business, is required to act in his interest." The question of whether foremen have the same status as other employees under the fair labor standards act is one that has long been an issue in industry. Among the new labor laws currently being discussed in Congress are proposals to exempt foremen from the law. The NLRB act guarantees workers the right to organize and bargain collectively with their employer. (Continued on Page Four)

Mother Finds Lost Son After 24-Year Search

Creighton Hale Collins and his family of St. Louis look at an Associated Press Wirephoto, transmitted from Portland, Ore., showing his mother, Mrs. J. Frank Draper, whom he hasn't seen for 24 years. With him are his daughters, Gail (left), 5, and Jacqueline, 3, and his wife. Right: Mrs. Draper displays a photo of her son as he appeared when a nurse took him away in infancy and did not return. The telephone reunion was brought about by Collins' arrest on a minor traffic charge. Thereupon, police files disclosed an old "missing person" circular regarding his disappearance as a baby. With that clue, he immediately got in communication with his mother. (AP Wirephotos)

Arbitration Is Best Solution Say Solons

House Labor Committee Told That Although Unions and Management Dislike It, No One Has Offered Anything Better

Washington.—(AP)—A group of congressmen told the House labor committee today that although representatives of both unions and management have expressed horror at compulsory arbitration, no one has suggested anything better. Rep. Auchincloss (R-NJ) said some witnesses have expressed horror and looked upon compulsory arbitration as an American. But, he asserted in testimony prepared for the committee, it is still the only alternative because the welfare of our country will not permit matters to drift any longer. Rep. Clifford Case (R-NJ) said work stoppages can no longer be tolerated where the public health and safety are endangered. He declared that strike dangers are not past and may return in acute form in a few weeks. Auchincloss and Case have joined with three other Republican representatives—Herter and Heston of Massachusetts and Hale of Maine—in sponsoring a bill for compulsory arbitration of disputes endangering public health or safety, after all other methods have failed. All five were scheduled to testify today as the House committee began its final week of public hearings on labor legislation. The bill before the House group would provide for such settlements only in extreme cases, after the president had proclaimed a public emergency. The arbitrators then would be required to recognize that the workers who have been deprived of the right to strike should have at least as favorable a status

Before he entered the State Department service in 1938 as an economic analyst, Peurifoy was in the insurance business at Kansas City, Mo., and New York.

OVERLOADING WRECKS TRAIN

Freight Falls Through Car Floor Derailing Train Cars

Wilson Mills, N.C.—(AP)—Twenty-one cars were derailed and five were demolished in a Southern Railway freight train wreck one mile southeast of this Johnston County village today. There were no injuries in the crash which left wreckage sprayed over a wide area of the countryside. Overloaded copper bullion was described by trainmen as the cause of the wreck. Each bullion weighed 300 pounds and the excess weight burst through the bottom of a car, dithering the track and causing the derailment of the cars. A number of tank cars, one of them carrying alcohol, were among the 21 derailed. However, none of them contained oil. Lime was littered over the wreckage and down the track for a distance of 200 yards. Blocks of phosphate ammonia fell from their cars but the loss was estimated as light. The track was knocked from its bed and was strewn over the mud around the wreck. Four cars had their wheels torn from them and one was stripped of its body. Members of the crew were riding in the engine and caboose at the time of the accident. The train was eastbound for Norfolk.

Red Cross Drive Opens Tomorrow

John G. Fleming, chairman Pitt County Chapter American Red Cross, has announced that the annual Red Cross membership drive will get under way tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock with a breakfast at the Olde Towne Inn. Joseph S. Moye, chairman Special Gifts Solicitations, urges all collectors be present. Chairman Fleming said: "For the American Red Cross there is no truce. To build the nation's health, conserve its life, we still must fight. To establish in every community the principles inherent in the badge we wear, the emblem of compassion and the sign of hope—this remains our task. To carry out our program of good will, of service to the nation's people, the Red Cross asks for funds."

BREAD PRICES FOLLOW WHEAT

Staff Of Life More Dear As Wheat Prices Reach New High

Chicago.—(AP)—Soaring wheat prices were hitting the consumer today with bread undergoing hikes in several cities throughout the country. Bread has been raised from a cent to three cents a loaf in many of the principle cities as wheat at the nation's major grain terminals brings the highest prices since 1920. In Canada the wheat board raised its price of wheat for export to countries other than Great Britain 5 cents a bushel, effective today. The new price is $2.80 a bushel, highest since September, 1920. Mills were scouring the country for the grain. Texas and Oklahoma mills were reported searching for wheat in the spring wheat territory of the Northwest, while mills in that area were having difficulty in obtaining the grade and quality desired. In the past seven weeks wheat has soared around 50 cents a bushel. Flour prices have been hiked in line with the wheat advance. Bread had escaped until today because bakers were using flour purchased before the current advance started. Purchases of wheat and flour by government agencies for shipment to food deficit areas abroad were considered primarily responsible by grain experts for the sharp price advance. Box car shortages were believed to be a contributing factor.

The latest news and pictures will be transmitted over the facsimile units to receiving sets scattered throughout the city.

Army Calls In Scrip Currency, Hits Black Markets And Counterfeiters

Frankfurt.—(AP)—The U.S. Army called in all outstanding military scrip today in a sudden move to block large-scale counterfeiting which has been flourishing in Germany and France for the past few months. "This is the surest way of forestalling successful counterfeit operations," said Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, whose announcement was seen as a blow to black marketing as well as counterfeiting. The commander warned that Army authorities "will take due notice of excessive amounts" turned in by individuals and that investigation of their sources of income will follow. Army units throughout U. S.-occupied Germany began collecting the old currency at 5 a.m. (11 p.m. Sunday, EST) and all had to be turned in this afternoon. Over a month ago bogus $5 and $10 scrip bills began appearing in France and Germany. Since then nine persons, including three American Army officers, four American civilians and two French civilians have been arrested on charges of passing counterfeit currency. The scrip—called "military payment certificates"—is the only legal tender in military installations throughout the European theater. It was issued last September in a similar surprise action to replace allied military marks which had been used since the invasion of Germany. The Army explained that the issuance of scrip was designed as an attempt to protect American taxpayers from having to redeem in dollars millions of illegally acquired marks. Only persons authorized to buy in American military installations were authorized to possess scrip. However, McNarney gave official recognition to the fact that many Germans have acquired scrip. He cited unsettled world economic conditions as the reason many persons not entitled to use scrip are hoarding it illegally "under the mistaken impression" that the United States would redeem it in dollars.

HAND GRENADE NEARLY KILLS PRES. ROXAS

Filipino President Is Assassin's Target While Making Address

Manila.—(AP)—A hand grenade exploded 20 feet from President Manuel A. Roxas tonight as he was making his final speech before a large crowd in favor of the American parity amendment on which Filipinos will vote tomorrow. It was announced that the president was uninjured, but a photographer who was taking his picture was wounded in the side and back. The grenade was thrown at 10:40 p. m. onto the grandstand in Plaza Miranda, in front of historic Quiapo church. Roxas left immediately for Malacanang palace, his official residence. Police threw a cordon around the area in an attempt to locate the would-be assassin, who had not yet been apprehended. The huge crowd was thrown into a panic by the explosion. So far as could be determined, the photographer, Emilio Magalang, was the only person injured. A spokesman at the presidential palace credited Jose Avelino, president of the Senate, with saving Roxas' life. He said Avelino kicked the grenade away a moment before it exploded. It was hurled accurately at the president as he sat down after finishing his speech. The constitutional amendment which the president was advocating provides equal economic opportunities for United States citizens in the development of the Philippines. There has been extensive campaigning for and against it for the past several months, with political observers predicting that it would be approved.

U. S. CREWMEN UNDER ARREST

Seamen On Refugee Ship Are Haled Into British Court

Jerusalem.—(AP)—The British haled 18 seafarers from the United States, crewmen of an intercepted Jewish refugee vessel, to a Haifa magistrate's court today on charges of aiding illegal immigration into Palestine. Officials reported 599 immigrants were aboard the 700-ton steam yacht April, boarded off Jaffa Saturday. They said that, except for a pregnant woman and her husband who were permitted to stay in the Holy Land, all were shipped to a Cyprus camp aboard three British troop carriers. An official announcement said the U. S. crewmen were arrested yesterday when the April was taken to Haifa. Newspapers reported the April was the private yacht Cytherea—later the wartime patrol vessel PY-31 of the U. S. Navy, which sold her for $36,000 last year. The ship which was flying the Honduras flag when stopped, was believed to have sailed from France. In New York, the American League for a Free Palestine, Inc. said the vessel belonged to the Tyre Shipping Co. Inc., of New York and her crew, except for the engineers, consisted entirely of U. S. citizens. The league said she had been named after Ben Hecht, American Jewish playwright.

Truman To Speak On Greek Problem

Chief Executive To Address Congress; Quarter-Billion Dollar Loan And Arms For Greece Rumored Included In Program

Washington.—(AP)—President Truman will address Congress Wednesday, on the whole question of the Greek crisis and the critical situation in the Mediterranean area. Announcements of Mr. Truman's decision to go before a joint session at 1 p. m. that day were made by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) and the White House after an hour and 20-minute conference of the president and congressional leaders. From others, it was learned that Mr. Truman will ask for a $250,000,000 direct loan to Greece. These persons—among those who talked with Mr. Truman—said they expected the president in his address to: 1. Explain frankly to Congress and the people the necessity of bolstering the tottering government of King George. 2. Discuss the possibility that some military supplies may have to be transferred from surplus stocks in Germany to outfit the Greek army in its clashes with communist-trained guerrillas. Mr. Truman was represented as having told the 13 members of the House and Senate who met with him that unless the United States acts quickly the Greek government may fall and communist elements seize control of that strategic Mediterranean country. The president was said to have emphasized that in any action this country takes it will be serving primarily the objective of world peace and American self-interest. Vandenberg, head of the Senate Foreign relations committee, told reporters that Mr. Truman would speak in behalf of the proposed loan to Greece. Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said the address—not as yet finished—will require about 20 minutes to deliver. It likely will be broadcast over all radio networks. Ross would not elaborate on this brief announcement. "The president is going before a joint session at 1 p. m. Wednesday. He will address the joint session on the Near East situation. Ross said the session between Mr. Truman and the congressional leaders of both parties was devoted to an outline of the Near East situation and to an interchange of views. With Congress members widely guessing that Mr. Truman will ask for authority to extend aid short of military intervention, proposals increased that the U. S. avoid single-handed action by submitting the question of supporting King George's government to the United Nations. Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), a member of the Foreign Relations committee, told a reporter he believes this is the only way to "avoid the creation of two spheres of influence in Europe, one dominated by us and the other dominated by Russia." "We can avoid this sort of a conflict of interest if we put the matter up to the United Nations, where both we and Russia have a voice in the decision."

MOLOTOV ASKS DISCUSS CHINA

Unimproved Political Situation Brought Up In Talks

Moscow.—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov unexpectedly injected the political situation in China into the opening session of the Foreign Ministers Council today, asking that the United States, Britain and Russia exchange information on conditions there. An immediate decision was blocked by Secretary of State Marshall, who said he wanted to think over the request overnight. Molotov asserted the situation in China had not improved since December, 1945. At that time the foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and Russia agreed on the need for a unified, strong China, and the United States and Russia agreed to remove their troops from China as soon as possible. There had been no previous indication that Russia wished to talk about China at the current session, which was called to take up the German and Austrian situations, but the foreign ministers frequently run the gamut in their meetings. This is the first foreign ministers' session attended by Marshall as Secretary of State. Today's session in the Hall of Soviet Aviation, two miles from the snow-mantled Kremlin, lasted about an hour and a half.

Tougher Portal Pay Measure In Senators' Minds

Washington.—(AP)—The Senate Judiciary Committee today voted 8 to 4 to adopt a tougher anti-portal pay bill. Chairman Wiley (R-Wis.) said the measure now contains the more far-reaching House approach in seeking to outlaw the existing back pay claims. In revamping a bill it had approved previously, Wiley said the committee voted to ban all back pay suits under the Wage Hour Law Act, the Walsh-Healy and the Bacon-Davis Acts. The two latter laws cover government contracts and, Wiley said, are in a bill already passed by the House. Like the House bill, the Senate version now permits employers the right to claim "good faith" as a defense against existing suits brought under the minimum wage statutes. However, the two years time limit for filing suits is retained in the Senate bill. The House legislation has a one year limit. The four men may finish most of the work on Austria at Moscow and then let their deputies complete the dangling details later. The German problem is far more difficult. It may be a year, two years, or more before any treaty for Germany is ready. So this may mean several more meetings of the foreign ministers and, in between, a lot of work and meetings by their deputies. (The foreign ministers of the same Big Four nations took 18 months to finish treaties for Romania, Bulgaria, Italy, Finland and Hungary.) Because it's simpler, take the Austrian problem first. The allies al-

FORMOSANS IN NEW CRY FOR MORE LIBERTY

Unrest Climaxed By Demand For Self-Government; Chinese Accused

Nanking.—(AP)—Formosans today demanded self government a few hours after Chiang Kai-shek blamed "Formosans with Communist inclinations and those who served with Japanese expeditionary forces in the Pacific" for motivating the island's unrest. Representatives of six Formosan organizations, here to present their demands to the Chinese government, charged that 3,000 to 4,000 of their countrymen were killed in the Feb. 28 rioting. They said Chinese troops that day conducted a "wholesale massacre that put to shame even Japanese cruelty." Chinese sources had reported 500 casualties. Sources close to Chiang said the Generalissimo, in a weekly memorial service attended by high government officials, declared his intention to maintain order in Formosa. They reported he said the would consider Formosans' demands within limits of the constitution. The Formosan delegation told a press reception: "6,000,000 Formosans have sworn to achieve their aim of self-government and to dispose of Chiang Kai-shek from the government for our self preservation and safeguarding our precious liberty." The government announced last week that Chen, personally appointed by Chiang, had been replaced. The Formosan delegation said it would present 32 demands to the Chinese government, including: 1. Immediate self government. 2. Severe punishment for Chen and the Chinese soldiers who fired on Formosans during the Feb. 28 riot. 3. Abolish government monopolies. 4. Recompense victims of the rioting and guarantee against similar incidents. The delegation said previous appeals to Nanking had proved futile.

LILIENTHAL IS VOTED "OKAY"

Senate Body Passes Atomic Nominee By Margin Of 8-1

Washington.—(AP)—The Senate atomic energy committee today voted 8 to 1 for confirmation of David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the atomic energy commission. The committee also approved the nominations of W. W. Waymack, L. L. Strauss, Dr. Robert Bacher and Sumner T. Pike as members of the commission, and Carroll Wilson as general manager. Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) cast the only vote against Lilienthal. His Ohio colleague, Senator Taft, chairman of the Republican policy committee, already had declared against the former chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority. Senator Connally (D-Tex) and Vandenberg (R-Mich), who were attending a White House conference, voted by proxy. All the names now go to the Senate floor for consideration. Connally was recorded only on Lilienthal nomination. Chairman McNamara (R-Iowa) said the Texas senator explained he did not know about the other nominees to cast a vote on them. Bacher, Strauss and Waymack were approved by a vote of 8 to 0, with Connally abstaining.

Ration Book's Spare Stamp 11 Good In April

Washington.—(AP)—The Office of Temporary Controls announced today that spare Stamp No. 11 in OPA family ration books will become good April 1 for 10 pounds of sugar. Validation of the 10-pound stamp will mark OPA's changeover from the 5-pound ration procedure for household users. The current stamp, No. 33, good for five pounds, will expire March 31. Stamp No. 11 will be good through September 30 but OPA said a second stamp good for 10 pounds will be validated July 1 providing sugar imports meet expectations. OPA officials said it is possible that still another 10 pounds, bringing the year's total for household users to 35, may be made available September 30. OPA emphasized that new stamps being validated include sugar for both regular home and camping use. No spare stamps will be issued for canning. Last year household users got 15 pounds of sugar for regular use and 10 for home canning.

American Aid For Greece And Perhaps Turkey No Case Of "Saving" John Bull; Balkan Chestnuts Of Direct Concern To U.S.; Past Wars Prove It

The question of American aid for Greece—which over the weekend has become coupled with discussion of possible help for Turkey as well—has brought a sizzling inquiry from a man of few words who asks with raised eyebrows: "Is the United States going to pull England's chestnuts out of the fire?" Well, I could be wrong but it isn't my observation that the people of this country are disposed to pull any chestnuts out of the fire excepting their own. That's quite apart from Uncle Sam's desire to be generous and helpful to his fellow men. Washington obviously takes the view that those Balkan chestnuts don't belong to John Bull alone but to Uncle Sam as well, so the problem isn't to establish ownership of the chestnuts but how best to get them out of the fire. The proposition of course is that Greece and Turkey—both friends of the Western Allies—are in grave danger of being swallowed by the Red flood which has swept down the Balkan peninsula. Without help their chances are little better than nil—and they are the last remain-

Chapter 18

Pete Scanlon picked up his pearl liliad guitar, ready to quit right then. The other boys looked at each other, questioning.

Bert crumpled that big ad of Blackey Davis that had ruined their opening, and jammed it in his pocket. His gray eyes were flashing angrily.

"Okay, Pete. You can go back to Los Angeles tomorrow, if you want to. But you're playing here tonight. We've decided to put on a show—and we're going to put it on—for our guest, Mr. Pepper Shyne!"

He bowed to the newspaper reporter and, stepping on the platform, snatched up his baton. The boys picked up their instruments.

"That's the ticket, Bertie, boy!" Eddy went back to the piano.

Bert turned to face the empty chairs and tables. He squared his shoulders and, in a showman's voice, announced: "It now gives me great pleasure to present our talented and lovely singer, Miss Eileen Farwell."

Pepper applauded, as Eileen stepped into the spotlight. For a moment a tear shone in her eyes, bright as the sequins in her dress. But she blinked it back and with a heartening smile, stood so that the band would also be her audience, and began to sing. Better, it seemed to Bert, as he conducted, than she had ever sung before.

Presently there was a commotion. Cars were coming up the drive, dozens of them. Tony ran to the door, his tall chef's hat askew, and began to wave his hands.

"It's the Marylanders—with your mother—and Captain Martin's cousin who owns the bank!" The band really came alive, put extra zip into its playing.

Tony shouted, "Come in, come in! Welcome to the Hacienda! Never were we happier to see anybody!" Then shocked by his own candor, he backed to the kitchen.

Led by Mrs. McLane and Mr. Halliday, a throng of Marylanders spilled out of cars and station wagons. More than seventy of them, they came in, laughing and exclaiming over the novel decorations, as they were seated by dined and smiling waiters.

Eileen finished her song to their thunderous applause. Bert got the boys upon their feet for bows, then rushed to his mother's table, and caught her in his arms.

"Good old Mom! Never lets you down!" He gripped Mr. Halliday's hand. "So glad you could come, Mr. Halliday." He turned back to his mother. "Were you scheming all this when you were down here before?"

His mother's eyes were sparkling. She looked lovely in her pale pink dress with a feathered headdress in her beautifully waved hair. "It was all Mr. Halliday's idea. We had a committee meeting yesterday and when I told him what you boys were doing—"

"We decided to give you a surprise," the banker finished. And from his expression, Bert promptly decided he was deeply interested in his mother.

"Well, you've certainly saved the day!" He took the crumpled advertisement from his pocket, showed it to his mother. "Blackey Davis ganged up on us tonight. Look at this!"

"Oh, no!" she said, reading in dismay. "Why should he want to hurt you boys—a big orchestra like that?"

"It doesn't make sense to me, either. But he sure swamped our little ad with this, and you see—nobody came." Bert beckoned the reporter to the table, introduced her, and gave Mother and Mr. Halliday your idea about it, Pepper, while I give the folks some music."

On the platform, Phil Meredith was telling Roy and Charlie, all about the Marylanders.

"They don't stop at helping refugees and the Red Cross, and things—they go all out to help each other—like this!"

"Well, you can't count on friends to help you every night like this," Pete said sourly. "You still got to bring people out here from Palm Springs, to survive."

Bert rumbled his hair. "Okay, pessimist!" He picked up his baton. "We're giving the folks 'Maryland, My Maryland—with frills!'"

The crowd went wild. Young Jerry's roving act went over big with them. Then Tony sang his beloved Sole Mio in his chef's hat and apron. And they loved that, too.

"Speech, speech, Tony!" they demanded. He was a Marylander, too, and the were very fond of him.

Tony smiled, embarrassed. "I am not so good at speaking, as at singing, and cooking. I think I show my appreciation of all this with some very special Italian pastry which is—what you call him—'on the house.'" He bowed himself back to the pantry, amid cheers.

During intermission, Mr. Halliday talked with Bert and Eddy about the Blackey Davis competition.

"How do you boys figure to com-

Women IN THE CHURCH

by Mary Fowler

Mothers' Day will be observed in most Protestant churches on Sunday, May 11, with special services, "flowers for mother," etc. There is, however, a growing tendency to change the day to "Parents' Day," largely at the instigation of the church women themselves. Many feel that the day as now observed has been commercialized, that sermons concerning mother lean too much to the sentimental, and that anyway the family task is one for father as well as for mother.

Dr. Albert E. Reebe, treasurer of the Board of Missions and Church Extension, announces the receipt of $1,200,000 as a partial distribution of the estate of the late Mrs. Merner Pfeiffer, of Riverside Drive, New York City. During her lifetime Mrs. Pfeiffer gave many millions to Methodist missionary, philanthropic, and educational enterprises.

According to Miss Milvred Price, recently returned from a visit to China under the China Aid Council, child welfare committees have now been organized in Peiping, Canton, Shanghai, Nanking, and other metropolitan centers. One hundred forty people—Christians and Confucianists, Chinese and westerners—met recently in Shanghai and set up a national office of professional services under the direction of Mrs. Nora Hsuing Chu. In Chengtu and Chungking, West China, there are also child welfare workers serving the hundreds of thousands of waifs made homeless by the war and its attendant migrations and famines.

It can now be told that during the war years, Miss Michi Kawai, one of the founders of the Y. W. C. A. in Japan, one of that country's great educationalists, and well-known across America, wanted to open an agricultural department in connection with her school. She approached the authorities time after time with her request. They insisted that she eliminate the phrase "based on Christian principles" from the school's constitution. She refused. Twelve times she went to present her request. Each visit consumed two or three hours. Twelve times it was denied. But the thirteenth time it was granted, even though the constitution still held the "Christian principles" clause.

Among the writers whose works were discussed by Walsler were the North Carolina laureate John Charles McNeill; Olive Tilford Dargan, many of whose works deal with mountain people; George Moses Horton, Negro slave and versifier; Stewart Atkins, Gastonia writer who deals with themes of industrialism; and the "Wilkes County bard" James Larkin Pearson.

Dr. Walter A. Browne, president of the Faculty Lecture Club, introduced Walsler. At the next meeting of the group to be held in the spring, Jean McIver Lane, chairman of the East Carolina Teachers college department of art, will speak on American painters.

Richard Walsler of the department of English at State College was speaker before the Faculty Lecture Club of East Carolina Teachers College on last Friday evening. Before a group composed of members of the faculty and guests from the city, Walsler outlined the development of poetry in North Carolina and read selections from the works of well-known poets of the state.

North Carolina poetry, he said, reflects the various aspects of life in the state. While it is not for the most part great literature, he pointed out, it has human appeal, pictures the beauties of the North Carolina landscape, and deals with social and economic problems of the state.

A Weak, Run-Down Feeling Is Often A Warning

That The Red-Blood Is Getting Low

If you do not feel like your real self, do not have the urge to be up and doing why not check-up on your blood strength? Look at the palms of your hands, your fingernails, your lips, the lobes of your ears—are they pale and of color?

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities by analysis of the blood have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. ## Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

HE STUCK BY HIS COLORS

One of the greatest friends of the common man produced during the whole of our history was Horace Greely. Born in poverty, he rose to such a place of influence by the might of his pen that every evil system feared him and every friend of liberty loved him.

Greely's line was one long and fruitful tragedy. Although he aspired to public office, he never but once held a public office, and that a minor one. He was the Democratic nominee for president in 1872 and when beaten by Grant he was able to survive the ordeal only a few weeks. After bearing incalculable burdens of grief, domestic infelicity, disappointment, and public abuse, he laid down his life a martyr to the ideals he had faithfully served. Everyone did not agree with Greely, but even his enemies respected his candor and his crystalline honesty. He had a trenchant English style which appealed equally to the learned and the unlearned. The reason he was so influential was that a whole nation knew that he served no man.

His counterpart does not exist in modern life today, and we may well wish that it did. Millions would hail as a modern messiah anyone who, in the midst of modern duplicity and self-seeking, would raise the standard of uncompromising honesty in public affairs and stick by his colors.

WASHINGTON LETTER

HARRY DOWN THERE IN WASHINGTON REMEMBERS AN OLD FRIEND

By JANE EADS

Washington—Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming was chatting with George Vittum, his farmer-neighbor, in Mr. Vittum's Sunday-spick parlor up in Sandwich, N. H. some weeks ago.

Gen. Fleming, who is administrator of the Federal Works Agency and the Office of Temporary Controls, was snatching a few days' rest at his country home nearby and had just bought a turkey from Mr. Vittum.

"Do you ever see Harry down there in Washington?" Mr. Vittum asked Gen. Fleming.

"Harry?" asked the general. "What Harry?"

"Why, Harry Truman," said Mr. Vittum. "What other Harry is there?"

"Do you know the President?" the general asked Mr. Vittum.

"Know him? I sure do!" replied Mr. Vittum.

"I went to school with him as a boy back in Independence, Mo. Still I'm not sure he'll remember me, though."

Mr. Vittum was thoughtful for a moment, then he brightly added: "Say, tell Harry that I used to court the Davis girl. He'll surely remember me then. Or say that my father was the biggest man in Independence—physically, I mean. Harry won't have forgotten that."

Gen. Fleming repudiated the conversation at the White House a few days ago. The President said he remembered George Vittum very well, although he had not seen him in 40 years.

"Harry" sent friend George a fine large photograph of himself autographed "With regards and best wishes to George Vittum—Harry S. Truman."

Every year, on the anniversary of President McKinley's birthday, Ohio members of the House of Representatives get magnanimous with the help of the Capitol's Potomac Gardens—and pin red carnations on their law-maker colleagues. The red carnation was President McKinley's favorite flower. It is Ohio's state flower.

Dean of the Ohio delegation, Republican Congressman Thomas A. Jenkins, ordered some 500 of the play blooms this year and saw to it that every House member was decked with one.

More than half of the 1,500,000 packages of blood plasma declared surplus by the Army and Navy and returned to the Red Cross were distributed without charge through state departments of health for civilian use during the past year.

Dr. G. Foard McGinnes, vice chairman for health services of the Red Cross, says this marks the first time in the history of medicine that enough plasma is readily available for normal and emergency civilian needs.

In addition to the 778,464 packages shipped to state departments of health, the Veterans Administration has been furnished 125,000 packages—an estimated five years' supply.

Our Problem . . .

his war of conquest he had an iron-clad politico-economic control of the Balkans and Eastern Europe barring Russia. It was virtually impossible for any outside nation to do trade in Hitler's great zone of domination.

Many observers look for the Balkan problem to come up at the conference of the Big Four foreign ministers opening in Moscow today. It isn't on the agenda, but it is difficult to see how it can be avoided. If it does arise it may cover the whole field of Russia's aims for the expansion of communism.

In short, we may be approaching a showdown on this dangerous question of Soviet expansion. The sooner the better, for there can be no real peace while this issue remains unsettled.

What's Going On . . .

A strong, central government over a united Germany? The French are afraid that might mean a powerful Germany and another war.

Or a weak, central government over a union of fairly independent German states?

But would such a weak government mean, in the long run, an unprosperous Germany and, therefore, an unprosperous Europe?

Then there's that problem of getting Germany back on its economic feet so that it is self-sustaining. It isn't now.

It is divided up into four zones—one each occupied by the United States, Britain, France, Russia—and three economic units.

The United States and Britain merged their zones economically, but this still left all kinds of restrictions on trade and commerce between the Anglo-American and the French and Russian zones.

How then can the Big Four powers work out a plan to treat Germany as a single economic unit so it can become self-sustaining as a nation?

The foreign ministers will wrestle with that one, too.

No. 2—the Ruhr. The Ruhr, in Western Germany, is the industrial heart of that country. It produces the best coal in Europe for making iron and steel. Other countries, including France, need some of that coal for their industries.

The French fear that, if the Germans control the Ruhr, they can in time cripple other countries industrially and prepare for war again.

So the Ruhr question for the foreign ministers will be: should the Ruhr be placed under some kind of international control?

No. 3—disarmament. This question is: how should Germany be kept from re-arming, for another war? There'll be a lot of talk on that for a long time.

No. 4—reparations. Here the Big Four must decide just what price Germany must pay for the war. This, too, will mean a lot of talk and more delay.

Sending Delegation To Oppose Election

Charlotte, N.C.—(AP)—Plans to send a large delegation to Raleigh this week to appear in opposition to a bill which would authorize a liquor election in Mecklenburg County have been made by the county chapter of the Allied Church League.

At a mass meeting of 1,500 persons here yesterday a resolution was adopted to vigorously oppose such an election.

Song & Dance Wins His Way To Freedom

Chicago—(AP)—John Peterson, 29, sang and danced his way to freedom when he appeared before Municipal Judge Victor A. Kula.

Peterson, arraigned on a disorderly conduct charge, told Judge Kula he had imbibed too freely but, he explained, customers in several taverns had insisted on buying him drinks because they liked his singing and dancing.

Judge Kula asked him to display his talents. Peterson complied with a song and then went into a tap routine.

"Discharged," Judge Kula said after the demonstration.

Today's ruling was the Supreme Court's interpretation of the intent of Congress on the question when it passed the Wagner labor relations act in 1935.

in respect to wages and working conditions as that enjoyed by workers in other industries.

Case, who is not to be confused with Rep. Francis Case (R-SD), author of still another labor disputes bill, said the compulsory arbitration measure avoids the dangers of regimentation, and that it is clearly constitutional.

Demos Maneuver To Block Limit On Presidency

Washington—(AP)—Democratic strategists hoped today that some of their Senate colleagues would give the absent treatment to a Republican sponsored proposal to put a nine-year limit on the time any man can occupy the presidency.

Apparently without enough votes to block the necessary two-thirds approval, administration lieutenants were said to be urging those Democrats who favor the resolution to absent themselves when a vote is reached, possibly today.

Behind this maneuver is the fact that it takes two affirmative votes to match each negative one.

Determined to get the issue settled in order to clear the way for consideration later in the week of portal pay legislation, Republican leaders pushed for a showdown.

Cut Sugar Allotment In Guilford County

Washington, N. C. — (AP) — The Office of Temporary Controls has ordered a cut of 15 per cent in the basic sugar allotments for industrial users in Guilford county, North Carolina, because of population shifts. A cut of five per cent was ordered for Richland county, South Carolina, for the same reason.

Fifty Years Ago Too Young, But Today ..

Hollywood — (AP) — Fifty years ago George Beck asked Elizabeth Russ to marry him in New York, but she demurred on the ground that they were too young.

After a half century of separation they were honeymooning today. He's 68 and she's 67. They had lost all contact with each other until last October, when she learned Beck's wife had died in 1944. She has been a widow for 26 years.

Offers Building Of Super Liners

Washington — (AP) — Construction of two American-flag luxury liners was proposed today by Rep. Willis W. Bradley (R-Calif.), as he disclosed that the ill-fated liner John Ericsson had been granted a waiver of safety requirements.

Bradley, chairman of a House Merchant Marine Subcommittee which last week approved legislation extending for another year the Coast Guard's power to grant such waivers, said he is drafting a bill directing the Maritime Commission to build new ships.

He estimated it would take two years to construct them and said they would be "the finest ships afloat," excelling the Queen Mary and the Queen Elizabeth in speed, safety and comfort although not in size.

How you can help YOUR ARMY DO ITS PART FOR PEACE

A MESSAGE FROM THE SECRETARY OF WAR

WITH the President's proposal for the discontinuance of Selective Service on March 31, America will rely on voluntary enlistments for the maintenance of the Regular Army at authorized strength.

In view of world conditions today, this is a step of the gravest importance to every American citizen. Never before in history has any nation raised and maintained a million-man army by the volunteer system alone. Our ideals, our belief in individual freedom, our safety, our duty to promote world peace — are bound up in this decision.

This is your Army, and voluntary enlistment is your choice. It must not fail. With your help it will not fail. The Army must continue to provide adequate occupation forces overseas, to supply these forces, and to help in keeping America strong and secure.

Your help and understanding can do much to encourage a steady flow of 3-year voluntary enlistments, necessary to sound training and the efficient performance of the Army's task.

When you discuss this subject with your sons, brothers, husbands or friends who may be considering an Army career, bear in mind the advantages offered by a 3-year enlistment. Among them are the choice of branch of service and of overseas theater where openings exist, and the opportunity for training in valuable skills at Army schools.

It is a high tribute to the loyalty and spirit of our American soldier that two out of every three men in the present Army are veterans — men who have known the hardships of war and have chosen to continue their service.

A job in the new Regular Army is a good job — a job that compares favorably with the average in industry, and has more opportunities for promotion than most.

You can help by giving your respect and support to the man who enlists voluntarily — to do his part in carrying out your country's world-wide obligations to build a peace that will endure.

Censorship Bars Down In Sending Moscow Reports

New York—(AP)—The cards for college basketball's blue ribbon events, the NCAA and National Invitation Tourney, virtually were completed today with selection of North Carolina State and Bradley in the N.I.T.

The only vacant berth, two in the N.I.T. and two in the NCAA, probably will be filled in a day or two. The N.I.T. bids are expected to be given to New York quintets—St. John's of Brooklyn and either Long Island U. or City College. Syracuse, Connecticut and Santa Clara still have a chance.

Five teams definitely have been named to the NCAA. The champion St. Louis billikins of the Missouri Valley Conference and Oklahoma, big six winners, will meet in a play-off game March 17 for the right to represent district five. Columbia Eastern intercollegiate champ, appeared to have the inside track in district two. The fourth district, only other section without a representative, was slated to select its team today. Six schools were under consideration with Wisconsin, big nine winner, given the best chance.

This is the tournament picture: Eastern NCAA: District one: Holy Cross (23-3). District two—unnamed. Columbia has inside track. District three—Navy (16-1).

New York—(AP)—The Russian government's telegraph and long distance telephone service worked without censorship today for correspondents writing about the Moscow meeting of foreign ministers. Eddy Gilmore, chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Moscow, reported:

"To call the United States, Britain or France one had only to pick up the telephone and go through a little routine. To a correspondent who has been working here for five and a half years under censorship—except for 30 days back in 1945—it was a dream."

With relaxation of the censorship, dispatches from Russia to the United States were speeded up. News of the actual convening of the foreign ministers was received within a half hour, in contrast to the seven or eight hours required many times, for dispatches filed in Moscow for the censor's perusal.

The Movies Today

Pitt: "MARGIE." Jeanne Crain. In Technicolor.

State: "OVER THE MOUNTAIN TRAIL," with Hooper Hot Shots.

Nation's invitation: Six teams. Kentucky (32-2), West Virginia (18-1), Duquesne (21-1), Utah 16-5, North Carolina State (24-4) and Bradley of Peoria, Ill. (25-5) have been named to the Madison Square Garden tournament.

Kentucky, beaten only by Oklahoma A.&M. and De Paul, is certain to be rated the favorite to retain the title it won last year by nosing out Rhode Island State by a point. Once-beaten West Virginia and Duquesne probably will be rated right behind. Opening day is March 15.

Case Company's Strike Is Ended

Racine, Wis.—(AP)—The nation's second oldest major strike, the 14-month old walkout at the J. I. Case Company plant, was at an end today after the UAW-CIO Local 180 membership voted yesterday to accept what spokesmen termed "not a good contract."

The announced vote was 927 to 448.

The 3,500 union members had been out since Dec. 26, 1945, although workers in other Case plants at Rockford and Rock Island, Ill., and Burlington, Iowa, previously had returned to their jobs.

"This is not a good contract but it is the best we could obtain," Leonard Woodcock of Detroit, special representative of UAW President Walter Reuther, told the membership.

He and Harvey Kitzman, president of the local, urged members to accept the contract. The strike had been costing UAW International about $12,000 a week, the union had announced.

Grand Jury To Get Indictment Of Mob

Greenville, S. C.—(AP)—A bill of indictment charging 31 Greenville men with murder in the lynching of Willie Earle, 24-year-old Negro, will be sent to the grand jury today or Tuesday, Solicitor Robert T. Ashmore said.

A two-week term of general sessions court opened here today with Judge George B. Greene of Anderson sitting.

in Kelly's jaw. After probing, the dentist removed a B-B shot.

Kelly could not recall ever having been shot, but an older brother remembered that Paul had gotten in the way of a B-B shot when playing "cops and robbers" more than 25 years ago.
