

President Hopes Program Backed

Will Decide On Stop-Gap Loan If Relief For Greece And Turkey Is Delayed; Austin To Cover Situation In Report To UN; Sen. Brewster Ties

Washington—(AP)—President Truman expressed hope today that Congress will approve his $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program before March 31—the deadline for British withdrawal of aid to Greece. He made that comment when asked if he favored a stop-gap loan to Greece.

There has been talk in Congress of making an immediate $100,000,000 loan to Greece since administration officials say that country's situation is serious. This proposal assumes that the President's $400,000,000 program cannot receive action by March 31.

The President also told his weekly news conference that Warren Austin, American representative to the United Nations, will cover the whole Greece-Turkish situation in a speech Friday to the U. N. council.

A reporter asked whether Austin will present the views of the President.

Mr. Truman replied he didn't like to anticipate the speech, but that it would cover the whole situation.

A reporter finally asked whether Mr. Truman would support a stop-gap loan to Greece if it became apparent there would be unusual delay in acting on his request to Congress.

The President replied that he preferred to await events.

At the capital, the discussion, both formal and informal, of the Greek-Turkish aid proposal went on in this fashion:

Senator Brewster (R-Maine) told reporters the United States, in helping Greece and Turkey resist communist aggression, should insist that those countries grant commercial air rights for American airlines.

This country, Brewster declared, "frittered away" opportunities to expand airborne commerce and secure such rights when settling lend-lease.

"We should not repeat the mistake this time," Brewster told a reporter.

Coroner's Jury Orders Negro Held For Murder

At an inquest at the courthouse last night, a coroner's jury ordered William Mitchell, Jr., 16-year-old Negro, held for the murder of his brother, Herbert Mitchell, 28, Monday night. Coroner Griffin H. House presided.

It was testified that Mitchell and his brother, who had been drinking, had an altercation about starting their car after it stalled on the old airport road to Belvoir. Officers quoted William Mitchell as saying that he shot his brother with a 22 caliber pistol when he was "coming on" him. The Mitchells live on the Zeb Brown farm on the Belvoir road. The bullet, it was testified, entered the man's heart. He was dead when he arrived at Dr. J. A. Little's office. The body was taken to Flanagan and Parker's Funeral home for preparation for burial.

Deputy Sheriff L. E. Manning and ABC Officer Claude Manning arrested Mitchell shortly after the shooting.

Stopping Communism

Feeling In This Country Against Communism Building Up; Turns Into Action; What Has Been Done; Orderly, Calm Steps Taken; The 1920 "Witch-Hunt"

Washington—(AP)—For 28 months since the war ended the feeling in this country against communism has been building up.

Now within the past two weeks the feeling has turned into open action to block communism at home and abroad.

Take a look:

1. Secretary of Labor Shellenbach said the Communist party in this country should be outlawed. Congressmen introduced bills to do that.
2. President Truman has asked money for goods and arms for Turkey and Greece to block the spread of communism in Europe and the Middle East.
3. Mr. Truman has ordered government employees fired if they are members of the Communist party or organizations sympathetic to the party.

Congress now is up to its neck in the Communist problem.

It's considering bills to outlaw the party here and it's working on the aid to Greece and Turkey.

The government action, summed up, says: This is where we take a

Shaky Economy Is Declared Menace

Undersecretary Of State Clayton Says Plight Of Turkey And Greece Is Good Example; Testifies In Behalf Of Trade Program

Washington—(AP)—Undersecretary of State William Clayton said today the plight of Turkey and Greece clearly shows that peace cannot be "stable or long enduring" under a shaky economy.

Hence the more the United States can do to bring about "healthy economic conditions," he said, "the fewer political problems we will have."

Clayton testified before the House Ways and Means Committee which recently voted a searching inquiry into the administration's reciprocal trade program.

The group is expected to inquire also into the 18-nation conference on trade and employment opening at Geneva on April 10.

"On the contrary," he added, "it is the continuation of such conditions that gives rise to the serious political problems in many parts of the world."

Referring to President Truman's request for aid to Greece and Turkey, Clayton declared the United States has never said international economic cooperation in itself would assure international peace.

"But it is clear," he said, "that in the absence of satisfactory economic conditions, political problems become intensified and political peace cannot be stable or long enduring."

Clayton said that at Geneva delegates from the 18 invited nations will:

1. Conclude preparations for an international conference on world trade and employment and finish drafting a charter for an international trade organization.
2. Negotiate trade agreements to reduce tariffs and other trade barriers and work for the substantial elimination of trade restrictions.

The undersecretary said the ITO will not be an "international super-government" in the economic field with power to fix tariffs or control either foreign or domestic trade.

He continued:

"The whole aim and purpose of the international trade organization is to reduce and minimize, not to increase, governmental interference with private traders, and to guide that trade on economic, not political, principles."

Nation-Wide Phone Strike Draws Near

Jittery Conciliators Eye April 7 Deadline With No Prospect Of Having Walkout Called Off; System-Wide Bargaining

Washington—(AP)—The far-flung Bell Telephone System and a federation of 39 unions were deadlocked over industry-wide bargaining today as nervous government conciliators eyed the April 7 deadline for a cross-country strike.

The policy committee of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, an independent amalgamation of unions representing more than 287,000 workers, proceeded with strike plans after these snubbing developments:

1. Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson went to New York to talk over the approaching crisis with officials of the American Telephone and Telephone Company, whose long distance lines would be the first to feel the shutdown.

2. The A.T.&T. officials yesterday referred to the Bell System's various operating companies the NFTW's proposal that a bargaining committee be named to negotiate on a nationwide basis the union's ten contract demands. These included a $12 weekly pay increase.

3. The union policy committee considered that action to be a rejection of its proposal. It countered by turning down "anything less than system-wide bargaining at this stage of the game." It also rejected the offer of Bell Telephone Companies in Ohio, New York, Michigan, Illinois, New Jersey, and Wisconsin to arbitrate the wage demand, with certain conditions.

4. The union named a three-man committee "to explore all avenues which may now be available or may hereafter be suggested as a means for a reasonable settlement of the members' national bargaining items."

Members include President Joseph Beirne, Chairman John J. Moran of the policy committee, and John L. Crull, chairman of the national bargaining committee.

After Gibson's conference with the A.T.&T. officials in New York, he may meet with the union committee here. He already has consulted Beirne by telephone.

Federal conciliators were busy in 30 cities, meantime, but Beirne told a news conference that up to now their efforts have been unavailing.

Advances Voted By New Hanover County

Wilmington, N. C.—(AP)—On the basis of unofficial returns from yesterday's county-wide election, New Hanover county is assured a junior college, tuberculosis hospital and a five-cent tax levy on the $100 property valuation.

A tally of the votes cast showed that 73.6 per cent of the registered voters gave the three propositions the "go ahead signal."

More Frost Tonight

By the Associated Press
Frost was predicted for all sections of North Carolina tonight, with occasional light snow flurries in the north and west portions, but March winds, which yesterday brought death to a Guilford County Negro and toppled a radio tower at Lexington, were expected to diminish.

PROGRESS OF CITY DURING POSTWAR ERA

Officials Working With Eye To Future; Election May 5

By CHESTER WALSH
The Municipal Primary election to elect a mayor and five members of the Board of Aldermen whose terms expire June 30 will be held on Monday, May 5.

City officials whose terms expire this year are Mayor Jack Boyd and Aldermen N. C. Brooks, C. A. Bowen, W. Z. Morton, W. H. Smith and Noah G. Raynor. No opposition to the present incumbents has appeared.

Aldermen whose terms do not expire this year are Berry Bostie, C. B. Mayo, Robert Moye and L. M. Buchanan.

The present city administration has been outstandingly progressive and wide-awake, and is functioning effectively in this post-war period, business and professional men and others who keep up with what's going on, say.

Achievements of the administration include placing the police department on a higher standard and providing radio for the police which fits in with the sheriff's department cars; construction of a 42-inch steel reinforced concrete pipe surface water drainage line from a point on Albemarle Avenue, near the National Biscuit Company's plant to the river which will eliminate flooding of streets; paving of five miles of streets in a $250,000 project, and installation on these streets of water, gas and sewer pipes at a cost of $55,000 by the Greenville Utilities Commission.

Mayor Boyd said the aldermen built the surface drainage pipe line for $38,000 and that the work was done by local labor under direction of City Engineer Henry L. Rivers. The lowest contractor's bid on this job was $55,000. A considerable saving for the taxpayers.

Other features of the administration's policy are the zoning of the city and extension of the city limits to take in Hillsdale and the baseball park area, the section beyond the eastern city limits to include Greenwood Cemetery and the old NYA area, and so forth.

In the meantime, the city's tax rate continues at $1 on the $100.

Warren Appeal In Sugar Theft Supreme Court

Attorneys for Sam Warren of Hickory, Norfolk County, Va., the principal in the Ayden pickle factory 10,000 pounds of sugar robbery last August, and who was sentenced to serve from five to seven years in State Prison in Superior Court here last January, argued Warren's appeal in the North Carolina Supreme Court last week. J. B. James and Bill Speight are Warren's attorneys.

Johnny McLawhorn of Ayden, truck driver, who was given from three to five years in State Prison, gave notice of appeal, but later withdrew it and is now serving his time.

Raymond Jarvis and John Goode of Princess Anne County, Va., who were sentenced to from four to five years each, and N. H. Loftin of Ayden, night watchman at the pickle factory, who was given from 12 to 18 months, are now serving their time in State Prison.

The robbery attracted much public interest. Loftin, the night watchman at the pickle factory, reported to his employers that he had been held up while a group of men loaded 10,000 pounds of sugar on a truck and carried it away.

Investigation revealed that the robbers did not take the watchman's gun from him. Later Loftin confessed and authorities arrested the five participants and recovered all 10 bags of the stolen sugar. It was returned to the factory.

House Unamerican Committee Has Trouble With Communist Witness

Washington—(AP)—Eugene Dennis, secretary of the communist party, was dismissed abruptly as a witness before the House un-American Activities Committee today after he refused repeatedly to give his real name.

Robert E. Stripling, chief committee investigator, handed Dennis a subpoena to return before the committee April 9. Dennis took it in his hand.

Stripling told reporters Dennis accepted the subpoena. Dennis told reporters he did not and "that you will find it on the floor of the committee room."

Dennis said he challenged the authority of this committee to issue a subpoena. He had requested a chance to testify on bills to outlaw the communist party. He had been allotted two hours and he was sworn in under an oath to tell the truth.

Committee members hammered at him time after time to give his real name. Stripling said there was considerable evidence that he has used a number of names both in procuring of fraudulent passports and party activities.

The blowup came when Stripling asked: "When and where were you born?"

Dennis: "Mr. Chairman."

Chairman Thoma (R-N.J.): "I want you to answer the question."

Dennis: "Did you ask any other witnesses that question?"

Thoma: "We're asking it of you."

Dennis: "The color of my hair is grey. I'm in my early 40s."

Thoma: "No, no, no. We don't want that. Mr. Stripling, send a subpoena on this man. He's refusing to answer for the day. You're excused."

Capitol police crowded around. One seized Dennis by the arm, as Stripling knifed through with the subpoena.

Dennis told reporters he challenged the committee's authority to issue the subpoena.

Russia Opposes Seating China At Peace Table For Settling Terms Of German Peace Pact

Vote No Amendments For GOP Tax Measure

House To Consider Bill On Take-It Or Leave-It Basis; Truman And Snyder Voice Opposition To Lower Tax Rates

Washington—(AP)—The Republican-backed $3,840,000,000 tax-cutting bill won its first test today when the House voted to consider this measure on a take-it-or-leave-it basis.

A voice vote clamped on the no amendment rule.

This action came shortly after President Truman in effect voted opposition to the measure by citing to newsmen his message to Congress in January.

At a Treasury news conference Secretary Snyder also was asked whether he would advise Mr. Truman to veto the bill. Snyder replied:

"I am very positively opposed if these prosperous times to having the government do deficit financing."

Snyder added that "deficit financing is always inflation" and that if government spending exceeds its income it will have the effect of further lifting prices. He said prices are already "out of line."

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) opened House debate on the $3,840,000,000 tax-slashing bill today with declarations that it would (a) ease the burden of little taxpayers, (b) encourage new risk ventures by business and (c) "put the axe to punitive taxes."

The short, bald Minnesotan told his colleagues:

"For years we Republicans have been warning that the short-haired women and long-haired men of alien minds in the administrative branch of the government were trying to wreck the American way of life and install a hybrid oligarchy in Washington through confiscatory taxation."

"This bill is fair, but it is only a start in the right direction. As we clear away the dead wood in the executive branch and restore efficiency in government there will be further tax relief."

"It is a fair bill because it puts the axe to punitive taxes designed by alien minds and whizzed through subservient Congress—a tax program that fitted neatly into the New Dealers' master plan to put ceilings over all Americans and make of this a nation of automations."

At the time this report was written, the United States had reserved its position on procedure. But Secretary of State Marshall told the council last night he strongly favored including China as an inviting power.

Moldov, earlier had agreed to Marshall's proposal for a written exchange of information on China, but said the Russian government still believed informal Big Three discussions offered a better means of dealing with the Chinese problem.

The Russian foreign minister made known his views in a letter to Marshall. He also presumably communicated his views to British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin who called on Marshall at 1 p. m. at the U.S. Embassy, where they conferred briefly.

The subject of this talk was not disclosed, but it was believed to deal with the China question. The Molotov letter was delivered last night.

The proposal that the Chinese situation be taken up during the present conference in Moscow was broached by Molotov at the very outset of the foreign ministers' meetings.

Marshall's position was that he could not consent to a discussion of Chinese problems unless representatives of China were invited to sit in on the talks—a position which Molotov did not agree. Marshall then proposed that the ministers exchange written information by April 1, making copies available to the Chinese government.

Both the United States and the Soviet Union were reported authoritatively today to be considering important concessions in their demands on Germany so as to accomplish their major aims for a German peace settlement in the Council of Foreign Ministers.

Officials were doubtful, however, that any deals were in prospect of sufficient import to produce major agreement during the current Moscow sessions.

All indications are that the United States is willing to agree to some form of reparations from cur-

Milk Measure

Raleigh, N. C.—(AP)—A bill to give the State Board of Health wide regulatory power over the processing, distribution, handling and sale of milk and milk products was killed today by the Senate Public Health Committee.

Under the measure, the Board of Health would have assumed many of the responsibilities now vested with the State Board of Agriculture. It could have inspected premises at any time and permitted its inspectors free access to every phase of the handling of milk and milk products.

There was no support of the bill today.

Wide Variety Of Disagreements Become Officially Evident; France, Britain And U. S. Ask China May Take Part; Concessions Believed Being Considered

Moscow—(AP)—Formal Russian opposition to an American, British and French proposal that China should be one of the inviting powers to a proposed German conference was officially disclosed tonight.

With release of a report from the Council of Foreign Ministers deputies to the Big Four council itself on procedure for preparing the German peace treaty, a wide variety of disagreements became officially evident.

These followed the same pattern of splits heretofore unofficially reported from the deputies' meeting over such issues as the kind of voice that should be given to all nations in treaty making and whether the German government should be compelled to sign the treaty.

The peace conference report, which the deputies gave the Council of Foreign Ministers two days ago said: "The United Kingdom and the French delegations consider that China should be one of the convening powers of the conference. The Soviet delegation disagrees."

At the time this report was written, the United States had reserved its position on procedure. But Secretary of State Marshall told the council last night he strongly favored including China as an inviting power.

Moldov, earlier had agreed to Marshall's proposal for a written exchange of information on China, but said the Russian government still believed informal Big Three discussions offered a better means of dealing with the Chinese problem.

To Make Effort For Adjournment By Next Week

Raleigh, N. C.—(AP)—Speaker Pearsall told the House today that a determined effort will be made to reach sine die adjournment of this legislative session by the end of next week.

In order to reach the deadline, he said, three things will be needed: a full session Saturday, a full session Monday, and two sessions a day until the final gavel fall.

He urged all members who have more bills to introduce them immediately tomorrow if possible. A calendar committee, which gets all new bills except those dealing with finance and appropriations, will be appointed tomorrow or Friday.

Pearsall said that 310 measures now are before the House committees. If they are not reported by next week, they will be taken from those committees and given to the calendar committee, he said.

There Is No Peace

United Nations Organization In No Position To Act In Greece Or Turkey; World Divided; Why Old League Failed; Lake Success Is A Sounding Board

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

When President Truman made his historic appeal to the country to provide Greece and Turkey with aid to resist communist aggression he explained that "the United Nations and its related organizations are not in a position to extend help of the kind that is required."

The chief executive didn't state specifically why the UN couldn't function, and small wonder that he didn't, for the answer is an embarrassing paradox. Our new peace league can't act because the world is so terribly divided against itself ideologically that there is no peace. Greece and Turkey represent a bone of contention between the two camps.

The UN can't make any move because it hasn't been provided with specific authority and material means. And so far as one can see that is the way the matter must stand so long as the conflict between communism and democracy continues.

The UN Security Council is charged with the responsibility of preserving peace and security in such cases as those of Greece and Turkey. Of the eleven members of the council, six are elected by a short term but the Big Five—America, Britain, Russia, France and China—are permanent, and each of them possesses a veto power which can nullify any action by the majority.

What earthly chance would there be of agreement over such a controversial issue as the Greco-Turkish affair, with Russia on one side and the rest of the Big Five on the other. We've already had the answer demonstrated innumerable times, for the Soviet delegation has been playing handball with the veto.

Does all this mean that the magnificent new home which is to be built for the UN in New York will become—as did the marble palace of the League of Nations—a mausoleum of dead hopes? Time alone will answer that.

The old League failed in large degree because of power politics—a maneuvering of great nations for strategic positions. Today we find even a greater realignment going on. However, while this is discouraging to peace, yet we mustn't

Exhibition at State Art Gallery
The State Art Gallery in Raleigh brings to North Carolina this week for a two-week showing, an exhibition of particular interest in a state famed for its textile industries. A distinguished exhibit of fabrics designed and made by the well-known House of Scalomandre.

Air Show At Ceremony Dedicating Local Field

Norfolk, Va.—(AP)—Norfolk flyers will join with Naval and Marine Corps reservists from other communities in Virginia and North Carolina in observing the dedication of the Greenville, N.C. airport on Sunday.

Maj. General Field Harris, director of the Division of Aviation, will deliver the principal address at the dedication exercises at 3:15 p.m.

Mayor J. H. Boyd, W. T. Kizer, secretary-treasurer of the Greenville Airport Commission, Van C. Fleming, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Lt. Thomas M. Sellers, USMCR, a Greenville pilot who spends his weekends flying at the Norfolk Naval Air Station, will be among the speakers at the formal dedication of what was formerly a naval auxiliary airfield.

A Naval and Marine Air Reserve

show will be put on between 1 and 5 p.m. on Sunday. Fourteen of the newest type Naval and Marine Air Reserve carrier-type planes will maneuver over the field. In the lead will be TBMs (Grumman Avenger carrier torpedo-bombers), escorted by FAUs (Vought Corsair carrier fighters) and P6Fs (Grumman Helicats). Marines in fighter squadron VMP-23 will fly the Corsairs and Helicats and pilots in Reserve Escort Carrier Group 62-E will fly the Avengers.

The pilots will simulate a strafing and bombing attack on the town and airport, followed by a typical "braak-up" and mock carrier landing on the field. The planes will then be opened for inspection along with a P-7 Lockheed twin-engine patrol bomber and a PBV Catalina amphibious patrol plane known as the "Workhorse of the

Mr. Shackell Speaks to Club

The Japanese are small in every thing except their armaments, according to Aubrey E. Shackell, editor of the Tarboro Southerner, who spoke on Tuesday evening before the International Relations club of East Carolina Teachers College.

The largest thing about a Japanese, Shackell said, is his sword, which represents the might of the few. The Tarboro editor, who as a naval commander served as a press censor in the Pacific during the war, said that he had no wish to create hatred or misunderstanding, but declared that he did not trust the Japanese as a people. "I had friends among them," he stated, "and spent considerable time in Japan; but I confess I do not understand them."

Shackell praised General MacArthur's handling of the Japanese situation and said that under less competent American leadership he believed Japan would become Communist.

Shackell described before a large audience including a number of veterans of the Pacific conflict the surrender of the Japanese aboard the Missouri, at which he was present, and the indescribable destruction caused by atomic bombs in Hiroshima and Nagasaki. During the talk he displayed a number of mementos of his stay in Japan.

Here's Proof of Extra Mileage in the Tire That OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

Testimonials about the new B. F. Goodrich tire are not uncommon. This extra mileage was scientifically engineered into the tires. First, a wider, flatter tread was developed for longer wear and greater protection against skidding. Second, a hold that huskier tread, a new 35% stronger cord body was developed.

That's why we say, see us today... equip your car with the new B. F. Goodrich Silvertown... the tire that outwears prewar tires.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

WORDING TO YOU AND ME

Paul once used the words, "I have been crucified with Christ." The exclamation, "I have been crucified with Christ," is the first time we see it. There is, of course, only one Christ, and that is the gospel of Christ as found in the first books of the New Testament. Then did Paul mean when he said "I have been crucified with Christ" that he was crucified with Christ? This expression St. Paul meant as he flowed through the trials of his personal and social life. He was a helpful man and felt that the gospel contained in the New Testament—the gospel according to Matthew, to Mark, to Luke, to John. But there is also the gospel according to Paul, and the gospel which results in the use we make of the Biblical text. Some people take the words of the New Testament and make them narrow and bigoted; the result is not a gospel, or news; the result is bad news. There are others through whom the Biblical gospel passes and comes in generosity and benevolence. Others read the gospel and are zealous; defenders of right and enemies of wrong. When this gospel passed into our lives and became a part of us, it manifests itself in the form of life as characterized by us as our finger prints. It is the gospel according to you and me. ### A Matter For The People

The legislature is waiting an advisory ruling from the Supreme Court before giving final vote on a measure that would give each legislator $6 a day for expenses and six cents a mileage. In view of the fact that the people at the election voted against paying for the legislators, we believe the solons take a very unwise step if they vote themselves extra pay at this time even though the Supreme Court might advise that the act be constitutional. With the present high cost of living we realize that a financial sacrifice for the legislators to their homes and go to fight to attend the assembly, but the matter of increasing the pay is for the people and not the legislators themselves to decide. The present members of the legislature know what they were to receive when they announced their candidacies for the posts and no doubt many of them more than that amount were elected. In view of the facts we do not feel that the legislators should contrary to the wishes of the people, as expressed in last election, and vote additional funds for themselves. The Maine senator is chairman of the War Investigating Committee which looked into the disposal of numerous American-built warplanes landing fields overseas. His declaration came as the Senate Foreign Relations Committee turned from cabinet endorsements of the aid proposal to testimony from assorted witnesses, including former Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York, Charles G. Bolte of the American Veterans Committee and a representative of the Council of American-Soviet Friendship. It came, too, after President Truman made plain that this country's by-passing of the United Nations on the issue of swift help for Greece and Turkey means no lack of faith in that organization.

DANCE ON THE DESERT

By Florence Theel

chapter 24
 could be keeping Eileen?
 was getting worried. Here it was six o'clock, and she was from Palm Springs yet with holiday.
 first crowd of diners had ar-
 most regular customers, people from the resort. The
 were hovering over them,
 mending Tony's savory yearn,
 the evening's specialty.
 band, in their Spanish uni-
 had already played two num-Eileen should be on the platnow. She still sang first, as on opening night, Gloria follow-Jerry's roping act, and filling in with his Italian whenever he could don a clean apron and leave his kitchen.
 always save the best act,
 in vaudeville, too," Eileen said. But her smile, somehow, bobbed him remark of cattish-her earrings. She had returned without letting him know and had evidently hurried into her white-sequined dress.

 She sang the waltz song Bert had said had been written just for her.
 But tonight she put no heart in it,
 and even seemed glad when it was over. The applause was just polite, indifferent.
 "Let's skip the encore, please, Bert, shall we?"
 "What's the matter? Tired?" he asked, solicitously.
 She gave him a faint smile. "I have a little headache, I guess."
 Pete snoot a look at both of them.
 "You should have a headache," he said, and bent to tighten the strings
 of his guitar.
 Eileen looked orrily at Bert, but she didn't answer. She passed among the tables and went back to her room.

At eleven, when she was scheduled to sing again, Mr. Halliday came up to the bandstand.
 "Eileen doesn't feel up to another song tonight, Bert. Tony says he'll take over her spot."
 "Okay," Bert, acid, feeling uneasy
 again. "Tell her to take an aspirin and try to get some sleep."
 Mr. Halliday went back to talk with Mrs. McLane at the cash desk, then he, too, went towards their living quarters, in the wing once used by the servants of the wealthy owner. Mr. Halliday was returning to Los Angeles. Bert was going to miss him and his valuable counsel.
 His mother would doubtless miss him, even more than he. How deep was their interest in each other, Bert wondered.

Suppos he and his mother should get married—Mr. Halliday become his stepfather. Well, that would be all right with him. Funny, how a fellow's mind could run away with him, even while he was conducting a dance band.

He said to Charlie Morrison, "I'll take this one, Charlie," and laid down his baton to play the solo himself, on his tenor sax.
 At midnight, when the crowds

were thinning out, Eileen came out unexpectedly. She seemed refreshed, even a little excited. She had one of Gloria's torch songs in her hand.
 "How about my singing this one,
 Bert?" she asked him casually.
 Bert frowned a moment at the title.
 "Do you think that you can put it over?"
 Eileen flushed. "I'm going to try to, anyway."
 She held the music up for the band to see.
 "Sure, she can put it over," Phil
 Meredith said encouragingly.
 "And Eileen did!"

She sang it with a dash and sparkle—almost with defiance. She had seeped out of her character completely. And the applause that she received, almost equalled Gloria's.

Eileen bowed herself off the platform, into the corridor.
 This time the crowd demanded an encore. But Eileen didn't return.

Bert stepped out into the corridor
 after her. "Eileen, hey! Come back here."
 "Sorry!"

Bert's face blanched as Eileen gave him a backward glance over her shoulder. She caught up her furred coat and suitcase, and went out through a rear door.

He went back to the bandstand, stumped. His hands shook, as he picked up his baton. He led them in a foxtrot, and, disregarding the score, quickly brought his instruments to fortissimo. But the playing wasn't loud enough to drown the slamming of a car door—Mr. Halliday's—as Eileen and he drove off.

Locking out the window, Pete saw them go, too. He looked at Bert as though to say "I told you so." And when the number was finished, he said, with the same sort of smile,
 "What did she do, Bert. Give you the brush-off for the rich guy?"

Bert stood looking at him. But he didn't answer. With a sinking feeling of defeat, he was asking himself
 the same question.

Negro Home Demonstration News

Clark's Neck H. D. Club
 On Friday afternoon, February 28, at 2 o'clock, thirty ladies met for their second club meeting at the home of Mrs. Dora Keys with the president, Mrs. Estella Price, presiding. The meeting was opened by singing America followed by the collect of Club Women of America.
 Business was in order. Roll call and reading of the minutes were approved. Seven new members' names were added to the roll.
 Mrs. Capehart, home agent, gave an excellent demonstration on the Improving of Home Grounds which was enjoyed by all present, and we were certainly glad to have the new assistant home agent, Miss Lois Clay with us in our meeting.

Mrs. Ella Johnson, gave some interesting remarks on making the club one of the best in the county which could be done by cooperation of all members.

Mrs. Lettuce Little, clothing leader made a report on the training school in Greenville.

After refreshment the meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Annie Tetterton in March.

Lewis H. D. Club
 The Lewis H. D. Club met at the home of Mrs. Lena Shirley March 7 at 2 o'clock. Regular devotional and routine of business was presided over by the president, Mrs. Polly Joyner. Plans were made that the club be represented at the program planning meeting in Greenville, March 25, 1947, at 2 p. m., and at the state council meeting in Raleigh, March 27 at 10 a. m.

A timely demonstration on Health
 In Relation to Sanitation was given by Mrs. Amelia Capehart, which will help us in our clean up campaign in the very near future.

Simpson H. D. Club
 The second club meeting for the year was held at the home of Mrs.

 Zulphia Gatlin Monday afternoon with a large number of the members present. The meeting was opened by singing the state club song, "Brighten The Corner Where You Are."
 Collect and prayer led by the president, Mrs. R. A. Moore. Regular routine of business, followed after which a demonstration on Health was given by Mrs. Capehart. After which the ladies were happy to inspect the nestess' remodeled kitchen, which included good working heights, sink, and preparation for installing an electric pump which will include turning water in the kitchen.

Pauls Chapel H. D. Club
 Ten members of the Pauls Chapel club held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ance Midgett
 Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Faobie Parker presiding.

Mrs. Lena Hatten, song leader, led the group in singing several club
 songs.

Reports were given by club members on their accomplishments. Every club member gave their plans and what had been done in improvement of home grounds since the demonstration.

Hints of garages, poultry, clothing and home beautification were given by leaders. To help us in the clean up campaign, Mrs. Amelia S.
 Capehart gave us a worthwhile demonstration on using DDT as an insecticide in our homes.

The hostess served strawberry ice cream and cookies.

Grifton H. D. Club
 Twelve members of the Grifton
 H. D. club met at the home of Mrs.
 Carrie Hardy Wednesday afternoon for their regular monthly meeting on the use of DDT in the home which was given by Mrs. Capehart, home agent. She stressed along with the use of the insecticide proper disposal of waste, covered garbage pails or barrels. Covered wells and the practice of good sanitation around the water supply.

Mrs. Ollie Mae Locust and Mrs.
 Vergie Mae Coley joined the club and Miss Willie Mae Cannon was a visitor.

After the meeting the members visited the remodeled kitchen of Mrs. Hardy which was very attractive, besides two other rooms newly painted in suitable color.

Ayden H. D. Club
 The Home Demonstration Club of Ayden was entertained on Thursday afternoon, March 13, at the home of Mrs. Cora Rountree with the vice president, Mrs. S. Reaves, in charge.

 The meeting was well attended by the members in spite of rain.

Mrs. Capehart gave an interesting demonstration on Health in Relation to Sanitation, which will help the members in their annual clean up week.

Mrs. Nancy Beeton expressed thanks to the hostess for such a lovely time in her home. Mrs. Percol Williams, president of Pleasant
 Plain club, was a visitor.

New Club Organized
 Ladies of the Pleasant Plain community assembled at the school
 March 7 at 2:30 p. m. and organized a H. D. club. Officers selected were:

president, Mrs. Percol Williams;
 vice president, Mrs. Lydia Dixon; secretary, Mrs. Lucy West; assistant secretary, Mrs. Lillie Aelene, and treasurer, Mrs. Blanch Rountree.

Mrs. Capehart, negro home agent explained fully the home demonstration program and the year books used by the club members.

The first meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lydia Dixon.

Albany, N. Y. — (AP) — Even tramps are costing the state more money these days.
 Governor Dewey today approved a bill increasing the state's allowance for maintenance of tramps in jails from 60 cents to $1 a day.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help,
 Whether You Eat 500 Pounds
 or 2000 Pounds of Food
 In a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. As you advance the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this:
 "Everytime food enters the stomach, vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles, else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have be-positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance.
 This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalisers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and "repair." Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER says:

"Any price is too high if it can be reduced."

We second the motion We'll do our part!

International Harvester has reduced prices to save users of its products $20,000,000 a year. The reductions apply to a selected list of various products made by the Company.

In making its announcement to the general public last week, International Harvester said:

"We believe there is nothing more important to this country than to lower the prices of goods people buy."

"The American people have insisted that the government withdraw from its attempts to control prices in peacetime. That places the responsibility where it belongs—in the hands of business and industry."

"Because we believe price reduction is vital, we are willing to assume the risks involved."

As International Dealers we will do our part. We will pass International Harvester's price reductions to our customers.

And now a word of gratitude to our friends who have patiently waited for the new machines they need. As most of our customers are aware, International Harvester has done everything possible—and some things that seemed impossible—to maintain and increase production.

The outlook is somewhat better. Soon we hope to supply equipment to all of those who have cooperated so faithfully with us.

Meanwhile, the same top-quality International Service and Parts that have kept equipment operating for our customers during the difficult years are available from us. We urge our friends to continue to use these facilities to obtain maximum operating economy.

International Harvester is doing its part with quality, increased production and reduced prices.

We will do our part in this territory

Social Security

SURVIVORS OF VETERANS ELIGIBLE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

The 1946 Amendments to the Social Security Act provides for payments of old age and survivors insurance to dependents of many veterans of World War II. Monthly benefits are payable to survivors of veterans who die within three years after discharge from service in case they are not entitled to compensation from the Veterans' Administration. National Service Life Insurance is not considered as compensation or pension.

Marshall H. Barney, manager of the Rocky Mount office of the Social Security Administration, today called attention to the fact that even though the veteran never worked on a job covered by the Social Security Act, his dependents may be eligible for survivors insurance payments—in case of his death.

He pointed out that the new amendment does not provide any payment to the veteran himself and that it does not provide benefits for the survivors of men who died before discharge or release from the armed forces.

Mr. Barney said that under these provisions, a widow with one child could receive monthly benefits of not less than $39 until the child reaches age 18, while a widow with three children could receive $63 a month or more. Lump-sum payments may be made to certain relatives, if the veteran left no one entitled to monthly benefits.

As in the case of all other persons qualified for social security benefits, families of deceased veterans, to whom this new law applies, should come to the office of the Social Security Administration to file their claims as soon as possible. The Rocky Mount office is

Examine Relics Of Lost Colony

Manteo, N.C.—(AP)—Earth is being sifted near here by an archeologist of the U.S. Parks Department to learn more about the lost colony that Sir Walter Raleigh tried to establish in the New World in 1585.

Shallow trenches and low mounds of a fort that the first colonists in America built or protection against the Indians are being examined by J. C. Harrington.

The project of the work, Harrington explained, "is to authenticate the site of the fortifications and to determine the nature of the settlement that surrounded them. We want to know where the colonists built their cabins, whether close to the fortifications or rather widely scattered, and something of the fortifications themselves—whether they were earthen breastworks alone or consisted of a log block-house."

Baseball Season Starting Early For Midgets; Drill For Saturday's Game

Greenville's Mighty Mites, who have just completed a good season in basketball, are working out daily at Third Street School in preparation for their baseball schedule which opens here Saturday, 3 p.m. on the Third Street diamond. They will play host to Winterville's Midgets.

The City Recreation Department is sponsoring the team this season and the boys are hoping to bring home the trophy this season. The local squad is a member of the Eastern Carolina Boys Athletic League; other teams of the league are Wilson, Goldsboro and Kinston.

Because of unfavorable weather the boys have been able to get in only a few practice sessions but a number of them are already assured of places on the nine.

Hitting has been stressed in drills thus far held. Leading these is Johnny Aman, hard-swinging third baseman. Johnny, who says baseball doesn't interest him too much, has been driving the fielders back with his long drives. Hitting isn't the only good point to his credit; the lad seems to be perfectly at home on the "hot corner" and will likely get the starting assignment over Slim Gardner who is giving Johnny quite a bit of competition.

Donald Tucker and Sidney Briley, Tucker, who is confined in bed at the present, has been leading the candidates at shortstop; due to his illness, Earl Stocks will likely draw the starting assignment there.

Briley, who was outstanding in basketball, is leading the candidates at first base. He is being hard pressed by Billy Wooten who seems to improve as the drills progress. Billy fields well and has power at the plate, but is handicapped by his lack of height and the throwing arm of Briley.

Second base, which has more competition than any other spot, is hotly contested by Larry Flye, Sam Hux and Jimmie Chestham. Flye is currently favored but between now and Saturday almost anything can happen.

There is an array of outfielders which includes Johnny Sideris "Chubby" Farley, Jake Higgs, Kent Lee, Billy Brady, Julian Vainwright, Sellers Crisp and Murray.

Leading pitchers are Joe Clark, Guy Smith and Glenn Scott. Smith is the only southpaw on the staff and has shown lots of improvement.

Rocky Mount Boy Wins First Prize In Legion Oratorical Contest Here

By CHESTER WALSH
Jimmy Gray of Rocky Mount won first prize—$25—in the American Legion oratorical contest at Greenville High School last night; Marshall Leggett of Washington, second prize—$15; Johnny Sledge of Rich Square, third prize—$10; and Blackman White of Hertford fourth prize—$5.

Incidentally, Gray, in the district oratorical contest, beat Shelly Beard of Greenville by one point and went in last night to take first prize. Gray will go to Statesville next Tuesday to participate in the state oratorical contest against four other divisional contestants. Supt. June H. Rose said today.

Judges last night were: Dr. Meredith Posey, Dr. Elmer Browning, Dr. Paul A. Toll and Mr. Miller of the history department of East Carolina Teachers' College.

Prominent American Legion officials at the contest were: S. A. Morrison of Statesville, state chairman of the oratorical contests; B. A. Brooks of Fayetteville, national field service worker for the American Legion in the Carolinas; Leon Roebuck, commander of the Fifth District; Floyd Cahoon of Columbia, commander of the Second District, and Paul Mallison of Rocky Mount, commander of the First District.

Preceding the oratorical contest last night the American Legion and the Auxiliary enjoyed a banquet at the Woman's Club. H. L. Swain of Williamston presided.

At Memorial Baptist Church yesterday afternoon the First Area Conference of the American Legion Auxiliary was attended by several hundred women.

Mrs. Thomas W. Bird, department president, was presented by Mrs. John A. Ward. Mrs. Bird gave an inspiring address on the great program of the American Legion Auxiliary, the largest woman's patriotic organization in the world. She said that the main point in the service star, so proudly worn by members, is rehabilitation. The Auxiliary's gift shop project at Christmas amounted to more than $24,000. Gifts from this shop were mailed to families of service men in every state in the union. The lately and will see considerable action this season.

"Guy is 11 and has two more seasons with the midgets."

Last, but not least, Leon Moore the leading candidate for catcher has been showing promise in that position and will get the starting nod over Karsnak on Saturday.

Starting lineup: Sidney Briley, 1-b; Larry Flye, 2-b; Johnny Aman, 3-b; Earl Stocks, ss; Johnny Sideris, lf; Kent Lee, cf; Jake Higgs, rf; Leon Moore, c; Scott, Smith and Clark will be on the mound. The public is invited.

Reynolds May Tells Of FBI In Washington

By Chester Walsh
Reynolds May of Greenville, special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was guest speaker at the weekly supper meeting of the Washington Kiwanis Club at Saleby's restaurant Monday night. He gave a thrilling recital of wartime events handled by the FBI. Bill Taft of the Greenville club introduced the speaker. Arthur Tripp of Greenville had charge of the program. President Moye Harrington presided.

Delegates to the Kiwanis International Convention in Chicago June 29-July 3, will be elected at the next meeting. Plans for the "charter and ladies' night" banquet in Washington Easter Monday night, April 7, have been completed. Arrangements are being made for over 200 guests.

Chester Walsh, public relations chairman for the Greenville club, introduced three new members into the Washington club and presented Kiwanis emblems. They are C. W. Thompson, secretary of the Washington Chamber of Commerce; Lewis Adams, wholesale grocer, and Joseph Giddens, auditor.

The Washington club was organized more than a month ago. It was organized under the sponsorship of the Greenville club. It is interesting to recall that more than a quarter of a century ago the Washington Kiwanis Club sponsored the organizing of the Greenville club. Some years later Washington gave up its charter. Recently Greenville returned the favor and helped to organize a club there.

Winchell Was Here, But Not Famous Walter

By Chester Walsh
Walter Winchell, famous news commentator, was not a passenger on a South East Airplane plane and a guest for lunch at the Airport Inn yesterday, as many believed. Winchell was here all right, but it was another Winchell—Dick Winchell of Raleigh, engineer for the Gulf Oil Corporation. He came yesterday afternoon to confer with W. L. Allen, manager of the local branch of the Gulf Oil Corporation, and spent the night in Greenville.

While lunching at the Airport Inn, Dick Winchell was introduced to several persons, and the rumor started circulating that he was Walter Winchell. Some friends with him playfully called him "Walter" for the edification of the guests. An out-of-town woman of considerable prominence, at a meeting of women here last night, assured many that she "ate lunch at a table next to Walter Winchell at the Airport Inn."

The engineering Winchell gets a big kick out of being mistaken for the commenting Winchell of international fame.

Marriage Licenses Issued During Week

The register of deeds issued marriage licenses to the following couples since last Friday:

White: Elton D. Reel and Christine Strickland, both of Greenville; Edward E. Everett of Edenton and Ruby L. Hawkins of Henderson; Willie J. Peaden and Virginia Dare Manning, both of Greenville, and Ben F. Smith and Mary Tyndall Creech, both of Greenville.

President spoke forcefully on the Auxiliary's wonderful child welfare program and also advocated following the Legion's or Army's proposed program for universal military training.

Mrs. Arella Adams, department secretary, spoke on the vast therapeutic value to patients at Fayetteville Hospital, of the Auxiliary's great poppy program. 35,000 poppies will be sold in this year. She also spoke on Girls' State, a school of government and citizenship.

Awards to "Go-Getters" were presented to Mrs. J. Paul Holloman of Edenton with 46 members, Mrs. E. G. Hudnell of Chocowinity with 36 members, Mrs. R. J. White of Conway with 75 members and Mrs. Mark Ruffin of Tarboro with 74 members.

The new unit at Middlesex won the attendance award with 35.2 per cent of its members at the meeting.

Mrs. Samuel R. Motzno of Woodlawn was presented at the 1947-48 area chairman. Elizabeth City invited the Auxiliary to meet there next year.
