GOV'T PLAYS MEDIATOR FOR PHONE CRISIS

Negotiations Stalled Lapsed War Power Preventing Deal Over Industry

Washington—(AP)—The government, its wartime powers to seize strike-bound industries fast running out, found itself in the role of peacemaker today in the gathering telephone crisis.

A walkout by 287,000 members of the National Federation of Telephone Workers is scheduled for April 7, the day after Easter—and there are prospects that some radio network programs as well as many telephone services may feel the effect of the strike if it materializes.

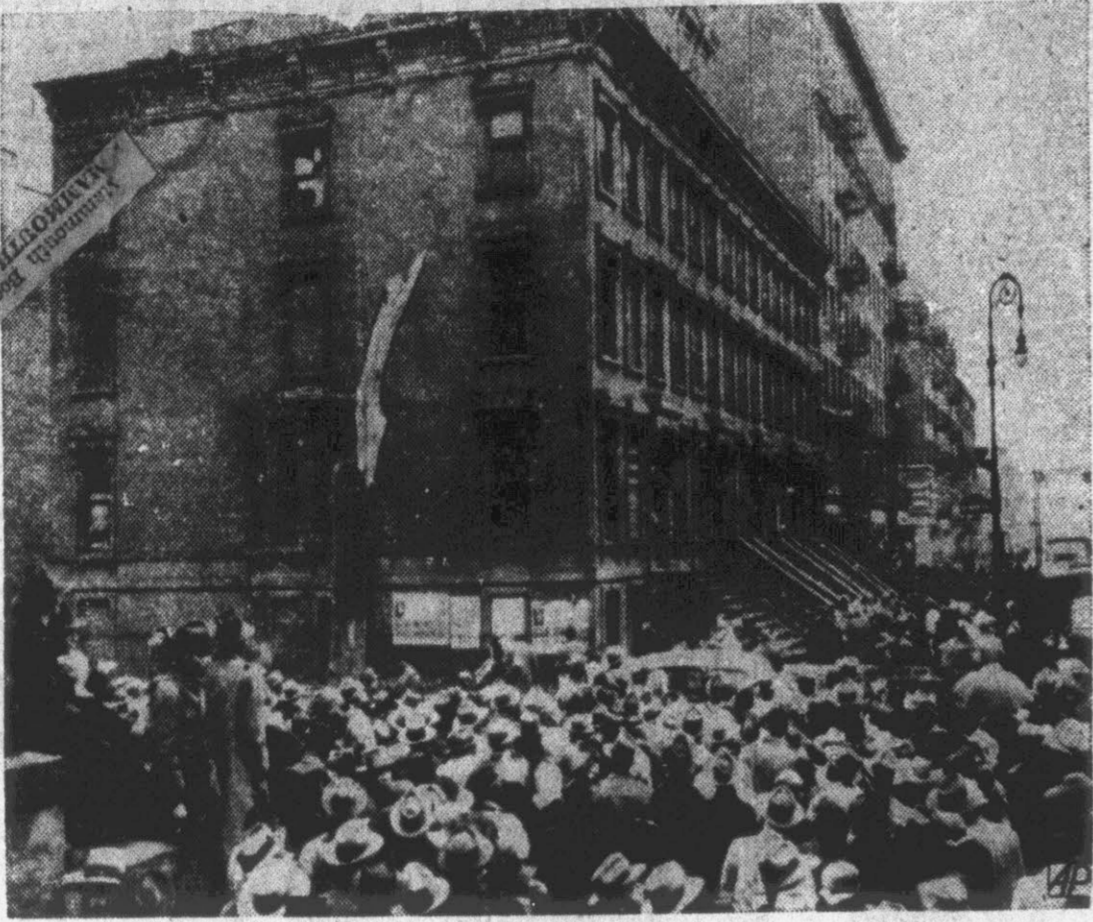

Direct management-union negotiations are stalled over the principle of industry-wide bargaining. The independent NFTW wants to negotiate its ten contract demands including a $12 weekly pay increase on a nationwide basis. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, nerve center of the sprawling Bell Telephone System, insists that it will bargain only through its various operating companies, with local conditions taken into account.

Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson conferred with A.T.&T. officials in New York yesterday. He was expected to meet here today with President Joseph A. Beirne and other NFTW leaders. Gibson was able to effect a last-minute settlement of a similar dispute a year ago.

But at that time, the government had recourse to two laws that would have permitted seizure of the entire telephone industry.

One was the Smith-Connally War Labor Disputes Act, which went (Continued on Page Six)

Crowd Watches Search Of Decaying Collyer Mansion

A crowd of the curious surrounds the rotting Collyer mansion (nearest camera) in New York's Harlem as police search the house in efforts to determine whether Langley Collyer is still alive within. His brother, Homer Collyer, was found dead of heart disease last Friday in the once-fashionable home in which the pair had lived in seclusion for many years. The Collyer family had owned the three-story building piled high with old papers and magazines and a general jumble of junk. (AP Wirephoto)

Personnel Cut

Washington—(AP)—OPA prepared dismissal notices for more than 2,000 additional employees today as it sought to bring operating expenses in line with budget reductions ordered by Congress.

Officials of the agency, which is to end activities by June 30, told newsmen OPA personnel will be cut from 13,000 to approximately 10,900 by May 1.

Says Relief Plan Won't Cause War

Secretary Of War Patterson Asserts Measure To Help Greece And Turkey Is Not In Direction Of War, But Away From It

Washington—(AP)—Secretary of War Patterson asserted today that the Administration's $400,000,000 measure to bulwark Greece and Turkey against communism "is not in the direction of war—but away from it."

His opinion was expressed to the House Foreign Affairs Committee which is conducting hearings on the proposal to send "limited" military missions, as well as money, to the two Mediterranean countries.

Patterson was asked by Rep. Volpe (R-Ohio) what the term "limited" meant in numbers.

"Anywhere from 10 to 40," Patterson replied. "That is our present estimate. It is based on the assumption that the British military mission will continue (in Greece) for the time being at least."

Vorys: "And Turkey?" Patterson: "Comparable."

Rep. Mundt (R-SD) observed: "It would be very comfortable to the American people if we could spell that out because this legislation is sort of blank checkish."

Mundt added that he "had in mind" offering an amendment limiting the military missions to 100 in each country. He asked: "Would you have any objection?" Patterson: "No, Sir."

Mundt's suggestion is one of a growing crop of proposals in Congress to write limitations into the bill. As prepared by the Administration, the measure would give President Truman broad general authority to lend or give up to $400,000,000 to the Turks and Greeks and send American military men and civilian government employees to help those countries.

At one point in the House committee's hearings, Mundt suggested that this country might save money by turning over captured German war material to Greece and Turkey.

Patterson disagreed. He said that the United States now is in the process of destroying German armament, and giving it to the Greeks and Turks would be unwise because it would force them (Continued on page seven)

Big Four May Define Term "German Assets"

Molotov Agrees To Consider French Proposal; Could Untangle Major Complication In Framing Of Austrian Treaty

Moscow—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov agreed tonight to consider—as a basis for discussion—a French proposal to define German assets in Austria. This raised hope that the Council of Foreign Ministers might untangle this major complication in the framing of Austria's treaty.

The Russians up to now have held that any German assets in the eastern zone of Austria belonged to them without question, and that no definition was necessary of just what these assets were.

No decision was reached today but there was an indication a compromise was likely on this most controversial point of the Austrian pact.

Earlier today the Austrian foreign minister, Dr. Karl Gruber, conferred for 40 minutes with Molotov Emerging from the conference Gruber said he had been encouraged about the prospects of getting a completed Austrian treaty during this session of the council.

In the council session the American, British and French ministers maintained there was no question of depriving the Russians of legitimate German assets, but said a precise definition was needed since the Germans had seized much property in Austria without payment to either the Austrians or other owners.

agreed to two points in the French proposal on German assets, and on one of the points, suggested an amendment. He rejected a third point—calling for an arbitration board to settle disputes between the Russians and others as to what constituted German assets.

Britain's Bevin said he would have to study Molotov's amendment and the meeting adjourned until tomorrow.

Secretary of State Marshall said furthermore that it is still the view of the U.S. that the allied control council has control of German external assets. He pointed out that the situation in Austria is different from that in other satellite nations since the Germans seized property there of United Nations and Austria over a long period and these could not be considered as German assets.

In discussing the problem Molotov repeated time and again that the Soviet Union could not stand for any questioning of its title to reparations.

Marshall replied "I wish to repeat the U.S. delegation does not dispute the right of the U.S.S.R. to German assets in Austria but we are concerned in the method of determining title in a country passing through the experience that Austria did."

Before today's session opened Marshall was reported annoyed with the lack of progress on the German and Austrian treaties.

House Passes Tax Bill; Goes Senate

Propaganda

Washington—(AP)—Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) said today that the Federal Customs Bureau is staging "outrageous propaganda" against a reduction in its operating funds "by giving discharge notices to 89 per cent of its agents because the House cut funds about one tenth."

Customs Commissioner W. R. Johnson has announced that, effective tomorrow night, the bureau will lay off 1,200 port patrol officers and 210 Canadian border patrol men. He pointed to the House's vote to cut $3,800,000 from the agency's funds.

The layoff of Canadian border patrol men wipes out all patrol activity there. Johnson said the reduction in the patrol force at major ports amounts to 40 per cent.

Demos Make Last Minute Effort To Lay Aside Measure; Beaten Down; Legislation Goes To Senate, Will Probably Be Revised

Washington—(AP)—The House passed today a Republican-backed bill slashing income taxes this year by almost $4,000,000,000. The legislation now goes to the Senate, where it probably will be revised.

Just before the final vote, the Republicans beat back a Democratic motion to lay aside the bill until Congress has more information on the government expenditures and revenues, as well as possible new foreign commitments.

The tax slash—if the Senate and President Truman approve it—would be retroactive to January 1. It would cut taxes of 25,000,000 lower income persons by 30 percent and give a 20 percent reduction to most others among the 46,000,000 taxpayers.

Withholdings from wages and salaries would drop to lower levels on June 1, and taxpayers would get refunds on any overpayments from January 1 to June 1.

However, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) already has indicated the Senate will revise the measure to make it cut effective July 1, instead of Jan. 1. This would hold the tax reduction to amount $1,900,000,000 this year.

Taft contends the House bill actually would cost the Treasury—in reduced revenues and tax refunds—$5,700,000,000 in the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Some Democratic leaders said privately that Mr. Truman is bound to veto the bill if it reaches him in its present form.

Shortly before the House voted Rep. Engel (R-Mich.) told his colleagues that the measure "gives a man who made the biggest profits during the war the biggest tax relief."

Engel first Republican to speak against it, said the bill might defeat the GOP in next year's election. He said he wanted to give the "low income group a break."

In the bitter debate on the bill, the House heard these conflicting contentions: Republicans—The bill redeems (Continued on Page Four)

Seek Negligence By Gov't In Disaster

Mine Accident Faces Inquiry By Senate Group; Want To Learn If Federal Officials Responsible; Krug Assailed

Washington—(AP)—Chairman Butler (R-Neb.) planned to designate a Senate Public Lands Subcommittee today to determine whether negligence by any federal official led to the Centralia, Ill. mine disaster.

The Senate decision to order the inquiry and provide $5,000 for expenses came after sharp partisan debate but members were not recorded on the voice vote.

Republicans, centering their fire on Secretary of the Interior J. A. Reag, blamed the Administration for safety code violations in soft coal mines. The Interior Department has been operating them under government seizure since last May 22.

Democrats accused the GOP of trying to make political capital of the explosion in the Centralia Coal Company's Mine No. 5.

The investigation was proposed in a resolution by Senator Brooks (R-Ill.).

Arguing for its adoption, Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) called Krug "the man directly responsible for the disaster and an arrogant bureaucrat" who instead of supervising operation of the mines has been "spending his time traveling all (Continued on Page Four)

SAFELY LAND GIANT BOMBER

Experimental B-36 In Emergency Landing On Test Flight

Fort Worth, Tex.—(AP)—The Army Air Forces' $20,000,000 B-36 herded as able to "carry an atomic bomb to any inhabited region in the world and return," is safe to fly another day.

Although the plane's massive right landing gear was damaged, Test Pilot B. A. Erickson and Co-pilot Gus Griggs nursed the aircraft to a smooth stop on the Fort Worth Army Air Field last night a hundreds of soldiers and other spectators cheered.

Two hours earlier, the huge plane world's largest land bomber had disgorged 12 of the 14 men aboard. A stiff wind caught their parachutes and tossed them over a wide section of the rolling hill country west of Fort Worth. Six of the men were injured in landing.

The necessity of making an emergency landing became apparent soon after the 139-ton experimental bomber took the air on its 15th test flight at 12:10 p.m. (CST) yesterday. Through the long intervening hours, as it burned up excess (Continued on Page Four)

Four Injured In Wreck On Pactolus Road

Four persons were injured, one seriously, shortly after noon yesterday when a car and a pickup truck going in the same direction on the Pactolus road collided.

Floyd Dunn of Greenville, driver of the car, suffered back injuries. Miss Carolyn Neal, W. G. Ellers and Miss Freda Sutton, all of this city, suffered cuts and bruises. They were taken to Pitt General Hospital. Dunn is seriously injured, a highway patrolman stated.

Patrolman S. G. Gibbs, who is investigating the accident with Patrolman L. H. Taylor, said information he had indicated that the car and truck were going in the same direction; that they side-swiped each other and Dunn, driver of the car, lost control of it. The car was badly damaged.

Does Not Favor Making "Martyrs" Of Communists; Criminal And Subversive Record Of Reds' Witness Now On File

More Bodies Brought To Surface; Rescue Crews Continue

Centralia, Ill.—(AP)—The twisted and broken bodies of 16 miners were brought to the surface from the Centralia Coal Company's No. 5 mine this morning, increasing to 33 the number of known dead in an explosion Tuesday and leaving 78 still trapped in the pit and given "no chance at all" by a mine rescue squad leader.

A heavy snow fell over the grim setting as rescue squads, after working through the early morning hours, brought the second group of dead miners from 540 feet below the ground. There were only a few persons at the pit as the bodies were placed in ambulances and taken to a temporary morgue in a nearby bus garage. Last night 16 bodies were removed to the garage. Earlier one miner removed from the mine on Tuesday died.

As the death toll mounted, with a rescue leader predicting it would reach 411, company officials said rescue attempts would be pushed "We're not going to give up."

The toll of 111 dead predicted by William J. Rowekamp, rescue leader and recording secretary of the Centralia local of the AFL-Union Mine Workers whose members worked the mine, would rank the disaster as the greatest in the nation's coal fields since 195 lost their lives in 1928 at Mather, Pa.

The company presented a revised total of the number of miners who had been in the mine at the time of the blast. Vice President W. P. Young said 142 men had been in (Continued on Page Four)

BIENNIAL RACE IS SHAPING UP

Speakership of House Sought For Next Assembly Session

Raleigh, N.C.—(AP)—The biennial race for speakership attracted attention in the House today and Rep. Kerr Craige Ramsay of Roanoke, chairman of the Finance Committee, indicated he would be a candidate in 1949.

Ramsay said, however, that he had no definite statement to make "at this time." His colleague from Roanoke, Rep. George Uzzell, twice has been defeated in the speakership race. Uzzell still is regarded as a potential candidate, along with Reps. Moseley of Guilford and Shuford of Sumner and Vogler of Mecklenburg.

Gogler, Capitol Hill sources have said, probably will be a candidate for state treasurer in the event that the incumbent Charles M. Johnson, runs for governor. Johnson is expected to announce shortly after the Legislature adjourns.

Should those plans change, Vogler is considered a likely candidate for Speaker. He is a veteran legislator.

Moseley has indicated he doubts whether he will be a candidate for the House again from Guilford County.

Under an unwritten rule, speakership moves biennially from the east to the west and vice versa. Rep. Tom Pearson of Nash now is Speaker. The west probably will choose the 1949 Speaker.

Bill To Provide Recreation Fund For Greenville

The bill providing an enabling act to authorize the City of Greenville to spend $5,500 on recreation and playgrounds and for advertising has passed the Senate and is expected to pass the House within the next few days, a city official said today.

Under the city's charter, the Board of Aldermen is not allowed to spend tax money for these purposes. The urgent need for recreation facilities for young people, and sponsored by nearly all local organizations, caused the city administration to have the enabling act passed by the Legislature.

Some Crystal Gazing

In Which Your Analyst Discourses On The Possibilities Americans Concerned But Appear Unafraid Summer Furniture and Save

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

If your correspondent had a dollar for every time he has been asked whether a major war seems likely to grow out of the Greek-Turkish crisis, he would be able to retire and quit crystal gazing.

However, while these questions have kept pouring in I've been greatly impressed by the absence of any expressions of "fear" in connection with such inquiries. My observation is that the general public is not "afraid" in the accepted sense of the term.

The American people are confident that their country can handle any emergency. Still, that doesn't alter the fact that peace loving folk have a very natural anxiety over any possibility of another world conflict.

General Eisenhower assures us that no country at present "would be deliberately provoke war." He warned, though, that there always exists the possibility of an incident being precipitated by some "immature nation." While the general didn't pin this specifically to the Balkan imbroglio, we are safe in assuming that it covers this situation.

Washington has stated categorically that America's proposed aid to Greece and Turkey won't include any troops. A lot of people, however, are wondering whether Soviet Russia might intervene with soldiers to help the Greek communists overthrow the Athens government and seize control of the country.

There's no indication thus far that any such move by Moscow is at all likely. On the contrary that's about the last thing one would expect the Soviet Union to attempt, because it would be an open-and-shut invitation for world war—and the signs are that Russia definitely doesn't want war.

Certainly Moscow can do anything it wishes with the Red states of the Balkans, for it has them in a sack, although the fiction is maintained that they are sovereign countries. It's obvious that if the Soviet Union wanted to issue orders to them and then sit back and disclaim responsibility, it could do so. As things now stand it seems (Continued on Page Four)

Lost A Good Chance

Communist Party Secretary Fumbles The Ball In Presenting His Party's Case; In The End, Newsmen Walked Out; Story Behind "Eugene Dennis"

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington—(AP)—The communists have booted a beautiful chance to present their case to the American people.

Eugene Dennis did the booting. He's party secretary and a top communist leader. The way he did it made no sense to me or other newsmen.

He had two tries at presenting his party's case. He did it so badly that, in the end, a roomful of newsmen walked out on him.

Dennis came here from New York to testify before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. He asked permission to testify and got it.

The committee is considering bills to outlaw the communist party. It had been hearing a stream of witnesses, all opposed to communism.

views to millions of newspaper readers. It's customary at a congressional committee hearing for a witness to give his name. Dennis said his name is Eugene Dennis.

The committee asked him if that is his real name. Dennis tried to duck the question.

Then Robert E. Stripling, committee investigator, said there was evidence that Dennis had used a number of names in connection with "fraudulent" passports.

Stripling later said Dennis' real name is Francis Waldron.

But when Dennis kept on refusing to tell his real name, the committee dismissed him. So he never got around to reading his statement.

Dennis said later the committee's insistence upon learning his real name was a "plot" to keep him from reading his statement. But what of these questions: He wasn't asked to come here and state his party's case. He asked permission to talk. Before he came here he must (Continued on Page Four)

Real Estate Men Hit Red Tape And Restrictions In Housing Programs

Washington—(AP)—The National Association of Real Estate Boards declared today it is "violently opposed" to pending legislation which would set up a long-range housing program.

Herbert U. Nelson, the association's executive vice president, said in a statement prepared for the Senate Banking Committee that the Wagner-Ellender-Taft bill is "dangerous, x x x misleading and fails to accomplish the purpose for which it was presented."

Instead of pushing such a program—designed to encourage construction of 15,000,000 homes by 1958—Nelson urged that Congress get rid of building controls and abolish the national housing agency.

Declaring that the industry "wants to, can and will" build homes, Nelson said: "Just cut the red tape and watch us go."

Nelson hammered hardest at the public housing provisions of the bill, which is sponsored by Senators (Wagner (D-N.Y.), Ellender (D-L.A.) and Taft (R-Ohio).

Strong Wind In This Territory

Freakish weather has prevailed in this section during March. Yesterday morning the official weather bureau thermometer registered 50 degrees at 8 a. m. Today at 8 a. m. it registered 33 degrees, one degree above freezing.

Strong winds prevailing here during the past two days reached a velocity of 43 miles per hour at noon Tuesday, Mrs. C. W. Maiden, Always observer for the U. S. Department of Commerce, reported.

Rainfall during the month has been light. Clear weather has predominated.

Last Sunday morning the official thermometer here registered 29 degrees at 8 a. m. The mercury had soared to 74 degrees in the afternoon.

Chapter 25

Eileen's note was on Bert's dresser in his room, as he somehow felt it would be. He tore the envelop open, relieved and yet annoyed, too, at the single line of explanation.

"They want me to come back to the office, so I'm driving back to Los Angeles with Mr. Halliday tonight—Eileen."

Tight-lipped, he handed the letter to his mother, who had quietly followed him to his room, when the last guest had departed and the doors were locked.

"She read it and for a long moment she said nothing."

"Funny that she didn't say anything—bid us all goodbye, at least," she said, with a puzzled expression.

"Didn't Mr. Halliday say anything about it either—before he left?"

"No—not about going together. He did say that Eileen went to Palm Springs this afternoon to send a telegram. This must have been it."

"They just quietly planned the thing together, then?"

"Mother and son looked at each other silently. They were thinking the same thing. But, of course, Mr. Halliday wasn't really interested in Eileen. How could he be? Why, he was more than twice her age. He was merely driving her back home, accommodating her. But, if there wasn't anything more to it than that, why hadn't either of them come right out in the open?"

Suddenly Eileen's deception infuriated him.

"Just goes to show, you never can depend on anybody. You think you know a person, understand them, and you haven't got the faintest idea of what goes on inside their minds."

"You don't suppose what happened today—about Gloria—had anything to do with it," his mother asked thoughtfully.

"Why, that had nothing to do with Eileen. She wasn't even around."

But suddenly it struck him that it might be the answer. Eileen had gone to her room after luncheon. She must have heard the racket in his office with Blackey Davis. The boys had come running to see what it was all about. Had Eileen come, too—when the boys had ushered Blackey to the door—when Gloria had broken down and wept upon his shoulder?

"Well, if she wants to pick up and go away like this, without giving a person a chance to explain things—"

His mother looked at though she understood what he was thinking. "Well, goodnight, son. Get a good night's rest. Things will look different in the morning."

But Bert couldn't rest. He lay there, wide awake, thinking. Eddy had reasoned with him sensibly. "Well, of course, Eileen has her apartment to keep up, in Los Angeles. Naturally she feels more secure with her old job and a regular income. After all, we really aren't established here yet. And she certainly did a lot to come down here and get us started."

"But to let me down like this—without even saying goodbye."

Eddy had given him a funny look. "Maybe she doesn't figure that she has—not with Gloria here to sing."

Eddy had got into bed then and turned out the light. He was lying there, across the room now, breathing regularly.

"Well, thank goodness for Gloria's loyalty, anyway," Bert thought. She had certainly stood up to Blackey Davis—told him where to get off at. There couldn't be any question but that she'd rather be there at The Hacienda with his hand—even on speculation, this way—than at the smart Oasis, with Blackey Davis. He still couldn't understand why, but it was certainly a consolation.

He plumped up his pillow, changed his position. But sleep wouldn't come. His thoughts went round in another circle.

Tomorrow Eileen would be in Los Angeles, would see his younger brother Paul, who was in love with her. He had actually tried to throw them together, when the army doctor had ordered him to the desert for his questionable lung—and because, unlike Paul, he then had no financial prospects. Well, now they'd be together. Perhaps after close association with him down here, Eileen would decide Paul was her best bet, after all.

But the thought of Mr. Halliday persisted. Those older men certainly had charm, finesse—a gallantry with women. Why, weren't all the ladies at the Maryland Club simply gaga over him? Hadn't even his own mother lost her heart?

"Oh, hell!" He must get his thoughts off this dizzy merry-go-round and get some sleep. The desert dawn was brightening his window.

"Eileen was the one to quit," he thought with wounded pride and stubborn logic. "Okay, then she'd have to be the one to make the first move to straighten things out—if she ever did!"

Red Oak News

There is news in this column today that will be of interest to all citizens of Red Oak Community and all our friends in Pitt county!

We will have our annual Easter sunrise service at Red Oak Christian Church. We have been looking forward and planning for this service ever since last Easter and we Look out ladies! Mr. F. L. Allen has a new truck and he declares he is going to fill it full of boys and men next Sunday and get ahead of the ladies. They were only three behind in last Sunday's count, making them only 14 behind in the contest. You know one big truck load would beat us all to pieces. Come on now men! Don't let us beat you again this year! Yum, yum! Even now we can see you trying those "had over the coals and cooking hush-puppies! And best of all, we can even see you washing all the dishes! Come on ladies! Don't let them beat us!

Both circles of the church had wide-awake meetings last week. Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oia Kittrell. Some lady remarked that she never heard of more inspiring devotionals. "Happy Birthday" was sung to the young son of the house. A most gratifying report on the candy sale was given.

Circle No. 2 also reports a most interesting meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. May with Miss Annie May and Mrs. W. H. Nobles as hostesses. This is a fine group of young women and they are doing a wonderful piece of work for the church.

We are so excited at our little church! We are going to make an addition to it. So far we have not settled on any definite plans, but anyhow we are doing a lot of planning, talking and thinking and it won't be long before we will do a lot of working. You will hear more about this later.

Flying Aces To Stunt At Airport Sunday

Among the features at the Junior Chamber of Commerce's air show at the dedication of the Greenville-Pitt Airport next Sunday will be Capt. C. O. Boone and Lieut. Harold Reavis, the Flying Aces of Fayetteville. They will demonstrate heavy plane aerobatics and a parachute jump at 2:45 p. m.

hope to have our church filled to capacity. Special solos, duets, trios and choruses will be rendered by a choir of ten people. The choir, for the first time in the history of the church will be vested.

Mrs. Junius H. Rose of Greenville will be guest speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Ola Kittrell will have charge of the decorations and they will be assisted by several others. Mrs. Bob Starling, Mrs. Mamie Harrington and Mrs. Leona Hardee are helping with the costumes. Everybody who wishes to attend our sunrise service is cordially invited to do so on Easter Sunday, April 6th, at 5:42 o'clock.

Over sixty men and women have been practicing on "The Red Oak Minstrel" which will be presented in the Red Oak Community Center on Wednesday night, April 2nd, at 7:45 o'clock. A band composed of twenty people, dressed in their band uniforms of red and white and playing everything from a wash tub to the piano will render music such as you never heard before. Many songs, specialties, good clean jokes and other novelties will be presented. We would not have you miss seeing "The Old Gray Mare" for anything. Plan now to come and help the "Youthful Workers' Club."

WASHINGTON LETTER. LADY ASTOR HANKERS TO LIVE IN VIRGINIA, CAPITAL HEARS. BY JANE EADS. Washington—Lady Astor, first lady member of Parliament and one of the five beautiful Langhorne sisters of Virginia, is hankering to return to her native birthplace. Friends here say she is planning to visit this country soon to have an eye to buying an estate near Mirador, the family acres at Greenwood. The former Nancy Langhorne will be 68 in May. She last visited the United States in March, 1945, after an absence of eight years. Her passion for Virginia has never waned, and she has revisited her birthplace whenever time and opportunity permitted. At present, she is in her husband, Lord Astor, at Plymouth, their country estate at Cliveden. She was Plymouth's member of the House of Commons for 25 years, until 1945. Her husband is its Lord Mayor. She had aspired to be the first woman in the House of Lords, but when her Conservative party was unseated by the Laborites she said she had reluctantly abandoned her goal.

Strength FOR THE DAY. BY EARL L. DOUGLAS. DEMOCRACY AND RELIGION. In this day when democracy is being tested, it is well for us to bear in mind the natural relationship existing between democracy and religion. Democracy is the application in the field of government of certain principles having their origin in the field of religion. When the force of the Biblical teaching that God is sovereign and that man is of finite worth because he is a child of God began to lay hold on the minds of men in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, democracy was on its way to being born.

The Astors' pre-war house parties at Cliveden gave rise to criticism of the so-called "Cliveden Set," supposed to consist of appeasers of Fascism. Lady Astor said the criticism first came from the Daily Worker, a London Communist newspaper. Former Nazi Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop, one of the defendants at the Nuremberg war crimes trial, suggested that she and other members of the "set" be called as defense witnesses. Lady Astor said that the "Cliveden Set" was a myth, that Ribbentrop had never visited Cliveden but that some Russian officials had.

The Movies Today. "MADONNA OF THE SEVEN MOONS" with Phyllis Calvert. State: "LIVE WIRES" with Leo Gorcey and Beverly Sills. Criminal Court Here April 14. A two-weeks criminal term of Superior Court will be convened here on Monday, April 14. Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington will preside. Many important cases some of them capital, are on the docket for trial. When the New Hanover County jurist presided over a criminal term of court here last January the docket was considerably reduced. The case of William Mitchell, 16-year-old Negro, charged with killing his brother Herbert Mitchell, 23, on the old Belvoir road Monday night is expected to come up for trial.

IT SHOULD BE DONE. We are glad that the board of county commissioners will meet tomorrow night to consider the matter of dividing the ABC store profits with the various towns in the county in which the stores are operated. This is a matter that should have received attention and consideration when the ABC system was put into operation in this county. In our mind there is no question that the towns are entitled to a fair share of the profits and it is to be hoped that our commissioners will follow the lead of Lenoir and other counties who are already dividing profits with the towns.

Always a headline-maker, the spirited Nancy Langhorne first captured the limelight when she became the bride of millionaire Lord Astor—then Waldorf Astor—in 1906. Their marriage, which followed her divorce from Robert Gool Shaw, famous polo player, was a brilliant affair in London. The green-haired bride, with flashing blue eyes and aristocratic carriage was extraordinarily lovely in ivory satin with a bouquet of crimson roses. She received as a wedding present from her father-in-law the first Viscounts Astor, a $100,000 diamond one owned by Charles the Bold, Duke of Burgundy. Lady Astor learned to ride, hunt swim and row as a young girl. Today she has adapted the English woman's tailor-made style of dress. She talks as though she's certain of all the answers, is one of the most determined defenders of the capitalist system. George Bernard Shaw has been a visitor to her home, and she knew T. E. Lawrence "of Arabia" well enough to take a ride on his motorcycle with him at 83 miles an hour. She and her sisters were the prototypes of the Gibson girls Nancy's sister, Irene, married the famed 90s artist, Charles Dana Gibson.

Winterville At War With Dogs. Forty-four dogs found running at large in Winterville since last Monday have been killed by police. Chief Jim Buck is still on the job and has orders from Mayor W. L. Hunsucker and the town commissioners to kill all dogs on sight when they are at large. After Ray Oglesby's cello dog had hydrophobia and ran amuck last week, biting a number of dogs, Mayor Hunsucker ordered all dogs in Winterville quarantined for 90 days. Incidentally, the enterprising town south of Greenville has considerably reduced its canine population and eliminated much of the hazard of some persons being bitten by mad dogs.

Board Of Health To Name Officer. The Pitt County Board of Health expects to announce in the near future its selection of a county health officer. It was learned today, Dr. J. M. Barrett is acting as temporary health officer now at the request of the board. The Board of Health, checking over a number of applicants for the position, have sifted them down to one man, who has the highest credentials as a health officer and is highly recommended by the N. C. State Board of Health. Negotiations with him are in progress now. Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, former county health officer, resigned February 1 and went to Beaufort to become Carteret County health officer.

We had a very dry August and the cotton that wasn't sidedressed turned yellow and lost a good many leaves. The sidedressed cotton stayed green and the bolls were bigger. # Women IN THE CHURCH

by Mary Fowler

Mrs. George Cowan and Miss Eunice Pike, American missionaries serving among the mountain communities of Oaxaca State, Mexico, have long been concerned over the fact that some 60,000 people speaking the Mazateco Indian dialect have been without the Bible or any portion of it in their language. But before they could do anything about it they had to reduce the language to written form and teach some of the leaders to read. Now they have translated the Gospel of Mark into Mazateco, and the American Bible Society has printed books in parallel columns with Spanish translation; and they are working on the translations of the entire New Testament.

The Navajo Indian of Arizona and New Mexico is now faced with a great increase in numbers and with a depletion of the soil on the reservations and on surrounding lands—conditions which will bring a change in Navajo ways of life as surely as the disappearance of the buffalo and the extinction of the bison. The Navajo people, who have lived in the mountains of the Southwest for many generations, are now being crowded into reservations. This is a conclusion of Miss Elizabeth P. Clark, Harvard graduate student,

Would Speed Up Prosecutions

Washington—(AP)—The OPA may toss out nearly 8,000 "minor" price control cases to speed up prosecution of suits against "flagrant violators and black market operators" involving more than $5,000,000 in possible damages.

William E. Remy, deputy OPA commissioner for enforcement, told reporters Congress will be asked for informal approval to plan which he said calls for:

1. An intensive drive to wind up prosecution of about 800 criminal cases, 1,872 cases involving overcharges in which damages totaling $65,913,000 are claimed, and about 2,600 cases involving violation of meat controls which have held up payment of more than $11,500,000 in government subsidy payments.
2. Granting amnesty to about 7,800 defendants in "minor" cases, including those accused of making overcharges totaling up to $3,000.

who recently conducted a survey among the Navajos for the Home Missions Council of North America, and interdenominational missionary body. "The Navajo problem," asserts Miss Clark, "is essentially one of adjustment to life in a world which is larger than Navajo country. There is no solution for the whole Navajo people. They will remain dependent so long as an all remain dependent in terms of the total group. The direction of effort will have to be toward an economic and social security for individual Navajos and Navajo families, having equal rights with all other Americans."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 1 pint a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, redness of the face, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Orthopedic Clinic To Be Held Friday

The State Orthopedic Clinic will be held Friday, March 28, in Greenville from 12:30 to 4 p. m. This clinic takes all types of cripples, both white and colored, free of charge who are unable to afford private treatments. It is desired, though not required, that patients be referred by a physician or the Welfare Officer, and that the patient bring such note to the clinic. The Pitt County Health Department Offices are located at the corner of Third and Greene streets in Greenville.

Underground At Work In Germany

Nuernberg, Germany—(AP)—A bomb explosion last night slightly damaged the Nuernberg office of the Bavarian Commissioner for Racial and Political Persecutes, a German official announced today. At the same time other German officials in the American-occupied state of Bavaria reported a wave of anti-Semitic rumors reminiscent of Nazi days. Hans Dillinger, chief of the Commission Office for Middle Franconia, disclosed the bomb incident, adding that he "supposed the plot was laid by a Nazi underground movement as a warning to persecutees." American army investigators withheld comment.

By George Rector

Food Consultant to Wilson & Co.

Ham Highlights Easter Dinner

Ham! Luscious ham! What a beautiful sight it makes highlighting the Easter dinner. And what a marvelous flavor it adds to this festive meal!

Glazed Baked Ham

Bake a Wilson's Ham according to directions within the package. One-half hour before the ham is done, remove from oven and trim off the skin (there is a small amount left on each ham) except for a crown around the shank end. For an easy glaze: Beat one cup of currant or apple jelly with a fork and spread over the ham. Slip into oven for another half hour to glaze, remove from oven, and decorate as desired. Maraschino cherries, blanched almonds, and green pepper were used in decorating the ham above.

The Modern Ham

is a Wilson's Tender Made Ham, the original ready-to-serve ham in the yellow wrapper; it's grand, hot or cold. Wilson & Co.'s special secret process makes each Tender Made Ham "The Ham you cut with a Fork!"

Take Your Choice

Wilson's Certified Ham in the orange wrapper is equally tender, mild, and full-flavored. This is the Wilson ham that must be cooked before eating. It's truly delicious.

When ordering your Easter ham, be sure to state whether you wish a Tender Made Ham or a Certified Ham.

Plan Holiday Menu

Baked Certified or Tender Made Ham, scalloped potatoes, buttered peas, fruit salad topped with orange ice, and daffodil cake make an Easter dinner befitting the day.

Like Variety?

Then be prepared with a number of different glazes for baked ham. Orange marmalade, beaten with a fork, is a quickie. Another? Spread hot ham with prepared mustard and sprinkle a cup of light brown sugar over it. Pat on firmly.

Usual method is to score fat before adding the glaze and decorations. To do so, cut fat surface in squares or diamonds to depth of about a fourth inch, using a sharp knife. Insert cloves where lines intersect if desired.

It Saves Time

... to wilt thin turnip slices in salt water 1 hr. before rolling to make lily garnish. Then crisp in cold water 10 to 15 min. Insert carrot strip for stamen.

... to dip knife blade in warm water before slicing hard cooked eggs. Creamed Clear Brook Eggs on toast makes a grand supper dish for Easter.

Happy Easter,

George Rector

WHITE SHRINE CEREMONIAL

Local Order Initiated 41 Candidates Here Last Night

Greenville Shrine No. 7, White Shrine of Jerusalem inducted 41 members into the order at a ceremonial at the Masonic Temple here last night. Thirty of the initiates were made members of the local shrine and three from Raleigh and eight from New Bern were initiated for the branches of the order located in those cities. Last night's ceremonial was the first held by the local Shrine in which all the degree work was done by its own officers and degree team. Prior to the ceremonial the members, candidates and visitors enjoyed a supper in the spacious dining room of the new Masonic building.

The Greenville Shrine was placed under dispensation last August and including last night's class the membership has already reached 116 and there are a number of candidates who have not yet received their initiations. It is expected that the membership will near the 150 mark by the time the period of dispensation ends next month. Another ceremonial is planned for some time during April.

In addition to delegations from outside Shrines present last night there were the following distinguished guests:

Gate City Shrine, Greensboro—Fred Lortz, Deputy Supreme Watchman of Shepherds; Mrs. Gladys Cooley, Supreme Page; E. C. Limer, Past Watchman of Shepherds; Mrs. Barbara Kennedy, Present Worthy High Priest.

North State Shrine, Raleigh—Mrs. Martha McGee, Worthy High Priest.

Coastal Shrine, New Bern—Mrs. Mary Brinner, Worthy High Priest; Guy Matthews, Watchman of Shepherds.

Officers of Greenville White Shrine U. D. No. 7 are: Mrs. Carrie Munford, Worthy High Priest, Acting as Mistress of Ceremonies; Thomas I. Moore, Watchman of Shepherds; Mrs. Nell Moore, Noble Prophetess; Luther Whitehurst, Assoc. Watchman of Shepherds; Miss Alva Taylor, Worthy Shepherdes; Mrs. Kathleen Whitehurst, Worthy Guide; Mrs. Emogene Duffin, Worthy Herald; A. C. Tadlock, Worthy Treasurer; Mrs. Hilda Laughinghouse, Worthy Scribe; Willie Owens, First Wise Man; E. C. ### Mrs. Hattie Nelson Died At Hospital

Mrs. Hattie Nichols Nelson, 62 wife of Mr. J. Ed Nelson, died at Pitt General Hospital at 9:35 p.m. Wednesday. She had been in failing health for two years and critically ill since Wednesday morning. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Mrs. Nelson was born and reared in Pitt County. She was married in 1903. They moved to Greenville in 1908 and lived here until 1929 when they moved to Wilson. They returned to Greenville in 1940. She was a member of the Immanuel Baptist Church.

Surviving are her husband; five daughters, Mrs. W. E. Bissette of Greenville, Mrs. A. A. Strayhorn of Augusta, Ga., Mrs. Selby Strickland of Wilson, Mrs. M. E. Sawyer of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Helen Joyce Nelson of the home; six sons Edgar E. Nelson of Jacksonville, John S. Richard Douglas and Julius L. Nelson of Los Angeles, Calif., J. E. Nelson, Jr. of Rocky Mount and Charles Leslie Nelson of Chapel Hill; 16 grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Rudolph Croom of Kinston; and two brothers, John A. Nichols of Virginia Beach, Va., and Jerry R. Nichols of Rehoboth, Va.

Mrs. Mary Cox Died After Long Illness

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth McGowan Cox died this morning after three months' illness. Funeral services will be held at the home Friday at 3 p.m. The Rev. W. A. Crowe of Richlands and the Rev. Mr. Felton, pastor of Salem Methodist Church, will officiate. Mrs. Cox was the wife of J. Marshall Cox, who died in 1924. She was a life-long member of Salem Methodist Church. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Daisy Cox of Lancaster, S.C., Mrs. Eva Dixon of Ayden and Mrs. Elizabeth Tracey of Newport News, Va.; two sons, Dr. Clinton C. Cox of Durham and Dal Cox of Greenville; two sisters, Mrs. Henrietta Hardee and Mrs. Sarah Tucker, both of Greenville, and 18 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

City Will Have Population Of About 19,000

By Chester Walsh

The bill authorizing extension of the corporate limits of the City of Greenville has passed both houses of the General Assembly, and it will become a law when ratified.

Mayor Jack Boyd said today that

Charles O'H. Horne, Jr., and Mrs. W. J. Little.

Miss Anna Little visited Mrs. W. J. Little Tuesday at the Woodard-Herring hospital in Wilson. We are sorry Mrs. Little is back in the hospital again.

Mrs. R. B. Tyer and Miss Beatrice Moore have returned from an extended visit in Key West and Miami, Fla., where Mrs. Tyer visited her son, Howard Tyer, and family.

Miss Lorraine Moore spent the week-end here with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moore.

Mr. Willard Wooten has been confined to his bed for the last four weeks with the mumps and the flu. We hope he will soon be well and out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith and family of Greenville, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Jones, last Sunday night, March 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Pierce, Jr., Mrs. Lonnie Pierce, Sr., and Mrs. Ethel Thornton visited Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Pittman Sunday, March 16.

Mr. Welter Goodman, who is now supply pastor at the Meadowbrook church in Greenville, was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wooten Sunday, March 16.

Mr. William Kryder who is attending school in Richmond, was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stokes last Sunday night.

extension of the city limits will take in the Hillsdale section and the baseball park west of Greenville. South Greenville, formerly known as the Tucker lands over to the Ayden highway; the section east of the present city limits, including Greenwood cemetery and the city land extending down to the river and the NYA area; the Fleming's Cross Roads section, including the Pitt-Greenville airport, but not the Dudley property. The latter area will be known as North Greenville.

It is estimated that the additional territory will add to the city's population about 2,500 persons and include $2,000,000 worth of property. The new city directory gives Greenville a population of 16,220 persons. The 2,500 persons in the added territory would give Greenville a population of about 19,000, it is estimated.

GET THE GENUINE WOOD'S Yellow SOYBEANS

These three outstanding yellow varieties originated and bred by us are the most popular soybeans in the Southeast. They are dependable high yielders, resist shattering, bring a premium for oil and are superior for hogging down. Many Southern farmers plant three Wood's Yellow varieties for a succession of harvesting dates and to simplify planting Fall grains.

WOOD'S YELLOW (LATE), 155 days. Recommended for the Coastal section and the Deep South. Yields 25 to 40 bushels per acre. Large root growth. Strong stalks. Storm-resistant. Plants completely fill with large, beautiful yellow beans.

EARLY WOOD'S YELLOW, 125 days. Preferred in the Middle South. Stalks reach 36", pods all the way. Average 185 pods to the plant, some as high as 300. Many plants have 3 beans to the pod. Makes fine hay.

EXTRA EARLY WOOD'S YELLOW, 110 days. Adapted to higher Piedmont and mountain sections. Unequaled for late planting. Yields 25 to 40 bushels to the acre. Stalks covered with pods from the ground up.

R. H. BARBOUR Wake County, N. C.

... says: "We counted 160 to 175 pods per stalk of the Yellow Soybeans; average height about 3 1/2 feet. Frankly, it is the best bean that can be planted for seed or oil; also good for hay."

We are headquarters for a full line of Southern Soybeans including Ogen, Tokio and Laredo. Ask for WOOD'S CATALOG—FREE

Five Holdovers From Last Year; Foell, Lee, Benton, Alamo And Ranweiler Return; Greenies Begin Drill Under Pare Monday Morning

By BERT MOYE
With the arrival Wednesday of Manager Johnnie Pare, spring training for the Greenville Greenies will begin here Monday morning at the Guy Smith Stadium.
Four veterans, including Manager Pare, five limited service men, and 11 rookies who have been signed by the Greenies are expected to be here for the initial workouts Monday. Included in the list are five holdovers from last year's outfit, all of whom rate as limited service men with the club this coming season. They are:

Johnnie Foell, Minneapolis, Minnesota, left handed pitcher, who last season for the Greenies played in a total of 31 games, and had a season's record of 12 wins against 8 losses. Johnny, who suffered a shoulder ailment here at the end of the season last year, reports that he has had an operation this winter and will be in tip-top shape this coming season.
Tommy Lee, of Elizabeth City, who started in the outer garden last season for the Greenies and later switched to the pitcher's mound, is also a lefthander and no doubt will be given a mound assignment. He played in a total of 91 games last season, pitched in a total of 23 games, with a record of 8 wins against seven losses for the season. He hit at a .280 clip last season.
Rex Benton of Ashland, Ohio, big right handed pitcher, who saw service in a total of 33 games, won eight and lost eight for his season's record. Benton, who said that he was sick at the end of last season, stated that he had been undergoing treatment this past winter and that he would be in tip-top shape when he reported here next week.

Joe Alamo, of East Chicago, Indiana, right handed pitcher, who saw service in 42 games last season and ended the season with a record of 15 wins against 13 losses.
Hank Ranweiler, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, who started for the Greenies last season on the first sack and later turned pitcher for the Greenies. Hank played in a total of 91 games last season, pitched in sixteen games and received credit for three wins against one loss for the season.
New Players
Fourteen newcomers have already been signed by the Greenies as follows:
Frank Husarik, of Chicago Heights, Illinois, right handed pitcher rates a veteran, is five feet eleven inches, weighs 165 pounds. During 1941-42 he played in the Florida East Coast League and has only recently been discharged from the service.
Willard W. Mauney, of Concord, N. C., outfielder, rates a veteran, played with Concord last season and hit well over the .300 mark. Manager Pare says he is very fast.
Richard Fraker, of Delta, Ohio, outfielder, rates a veteran, bats left handed, throws right. Signed by Lakeland of the Florida International League last season. In his letter to Manager Pare he says he prefers to play first base and will probably be given a chance to do so.
Max Nessamer, of Miami, Fla., outfielder, who stands six feet, three inches and weighs 210 pounds, is just a rookie and will be seeking his first berth in professional baseball.
Robert Pare, of Miami, Fla., brother to Manager Pare, who stands six feet, weighs 165 pounds, has just been released from the service and will make an attempt to play professional ball for the first time. He is an infielder.
Jim Yeagle, of Ashland, Ohio, who plays in both the outfield or behind the plate, rates a rookie. He has been playing in the service for the past several years.
Chester J. Suhowski, of Bristol, Connecticut, left-handed pitcher, who is rated as having good stuff and hard to hit solidly; is five feet 10 inches tall and weighs 165 pounds. He is a rookie.
Adrian J. Hebig, of Wilmont,

Yanks Weakened, Need Dimaggio

St. Petersburg, Fla.—(AP)—Although Bucky Harris, the old "boy manager," is waiting as anxiously as everybody else around the New York Yankee camp for Joe DIMAGGIO's arrival, he is not ready to concede that his club will be a complete flop if the recent operation on Joe's heel keeps him out of the line-up past opening day.
"Of course we need Joe in there," he said in discussing the Yanks' chances. "He is a great ballplayer. But even without him things are not so bad as some of you fellows seem to think. The more I see of our youngsters the better I feel."
Back as an active manager after several seasons in the game's front offices, Bucky is keenly aware that a lot of observers think he has fallen heir to a club that is coming apart and might drop far behind the American League race.

ECTC Holds Intramural Basketball Contest; Play Semifinals Tonight

In the first round of the intramural basketball tournament being held in the ECTC gym, three teams drew ties. The Greenville entry made up of local boys made a good showing in the first half of last night's opener, but their lack of reserve strength gave a classy Manteo team the advantage in the last half and the coast boys were able to win going away.
Baxter Gray, with 20 points, was high scorer for the evening. Bill Kittrell of Winterville failed to score in the first half but scored 13 points in the last half to take runner-up honors. Bernard West carried the Greenville boys throughout the first half by scoring 8 points. He was completely bottled up in the last half, but managed to score one field goal to lead his team with 10 points.

ECTC Announces Schedule For Baseball Team

Traffic Lights Stop Accidents

The new traffic signal stop lights installed at several intersections in Greenville are having a good effect and considerably facilitating traffic at those points. The traffic signal at Elizabeth and Fifth streets—Dead Man's Corner for traffic accidents—is especially helpful in avoiding accidents. The stop lights on Washington street have dropped from the eight-club loop and one has re-entered. Team rosters issued last week did not include the names of nine costly former major league players who were in the cactus circuit last year.

Mexican Baseball Season Opens Today

Mexico City—(AP)—A sadly deflated Mexican baseball league opens its 1947 season today in sharp contrast to the fanfare of a year ago, when the wealthy brothers Pasquel were attempting to lure U. S. major leaguers across the border with fancy salaries.
In the past month three teams

Minnesota, right-handed pitcher, 21 years of age, rookie, is reported to have a fast and good curve ball.
Paul Simmons, of East Bradenton, Florida, age 20, catcher, stands five feet eleven inches, weighs 170 pounds, and is said to have a very good arm.
Wayne R. Stone, of Fort Madison, Iowa, age 20, infielder, throws right and bats left handed, is six feet tall and weighs 170 pounds. He is reported to be a long ball hitter. He is a rookie.
Charles Ainsauer, of Farrell, Pa., age 20, outfielder, height six feet one inch, weight 170, bats and throws right, good arm and good fielder; has brother playing for Wilmington, N. C. Rates a rookie.
Anthony Mendillo, of Miami, Fla., age 18, outfielder, height five feet, ten inches, weight 175; signed by Giants when 16 and released. Signed by Tigers last year and played 17 games at Thomasville, Ga. Had ankle injury and released. Rates a rookie.
William Lynch, of West Springfield, nine inches, weight 165; field, Mass. Infielder, height five feet, ten inches, weight 165; throws and bats right; excellent fielder and a pepper pot in the infield. Not a long ball hitter but hits sharply. He is a rookie and 19 years old.
Edward R. Dunkel, of Detroit, Michigan, outfielder; height five feet, 10 inches, weight 165; throws and bats right; fast and good arm; hits line drives; is a rookie, 21 years old.
These last eight rookies are being sent to the Greenville club from the Bartow Baseball School at Bartow, Florida, of which George Stinweiss is supervisor.
Biggest need of the club at the present time is a first baseman, according to Manager Pare. However, both Pare and club officials are working night and day to get this position filled before the start of the season.

WILL YOUR EXECUTOR KNOW THE

Thirty Or More Technical Steps Involved

IN SETTLING YOUR ESTATE?

The friend or relative you have named as executor in your will may be a gifted person IN HIS OWN FIELD—but is he familiar with all the technicalities in settling an estate today?

He can learn, of course, from experience with your estate, the thirty or more steps often to be completed, and he can probably negotiate them—the complicated work of filing the inventory, checking and paying claims in the order prescribed by law, resisting unjust or unlawful claims, preparing returns for inheritance and estate taxes, liquidating securities and property, making satisfactory settlement with heirs, etc., etc. But...

Instead of shouldering a friend or relative—whose experience is necessarily limited—with the technical and burdensome task of administering your hard-earned estate; instead of asking him to try to be an investment expert, a real estate expert, a tax expert and an expert accountant all at the same time.

Wouldn't you feel better if you named a thoroughly experienced institution, such as ours, executor of your estate? Administering estates economically and efficiently is OUR BUSINESS—and your friend or relative will probably thank you for relieving him of the responsibility. Come in with your attorney and talk to us about it—won't you—soon?
