AUTO PIONEER REACHES END OF THE TRAIL

Henry Ford Unexpectedly Dies At 83 From A Cerebral Hemorrhage

Detroit—(AP)—In the flickering light of kerosene lamps and candles Henry Ford, famed pioneer of the automobile industry, died at 11:40 o'clock last night in his home in nearby Dearborn.

He would have reached his 84th birthday next July 30.

High flood waters of the River Rouge running through the Ford estate had cut power and heating services at the residence—and a wood-burning fireplace warmed the room.

Mr. Ford's death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage.

It came after the noted industrialist had spent a vigorous day inspecting flood-water damage around the Ford plant and was making plans for another inspection this morning.

Friends said he had never appeared in better health.

At his bedside were his wife, Mrs. Clara Bryant Ford, and a member of the household staff.

A family statement said he had retired at 9 p.m. (EST) and had awakened at 11:15 p.m., complaining he felt slightly ill. Mrs. Ford gave him a drink of water. He died 25 minutes later.

The statement said that even telephone service from the residence was out of commission because of the flood waters and that an employee had to go to the company's engineering laboratory, nearly half a mile from the residence to summon a physician.

Dr. John Mater, of the Henry Ford Hospital, who arrived at 12:15 a.m. (Tuesday) said death was due to a cerebral hemorrhage.

Funeral services will be held from St. Paul's Episcopal Cathedral in Detroit on Thursday at an hour to be announced later.

The body was taken to a Detroit funeral home this morning and will be returned to the Ford Greenfield (Continued on Page Four)

Warning

Police Chief Jim Tanner today issued a warning to householders and others to beware of magazine peddlers and their "racket." Peddlers are required to procure licenses from the chief of police.

One magazine peddler here recently was telling the "sob story that he was a veteran and that when he sells $500 worth of magazines he will get a scholarship at a college. Few itinerant magazine peddlers can stand police scrutiny. Legitimate magazine salesmen always procure licenses before they start to work," the chief said. He requests persons who are solicited to promptly phone him.

PLEASED OVER MINE POLICY

Lewis "Gratified" Over Safety Steps In Soft Coal Pits

Washington.—(AP)—John L. Lewis today expressed gratification that coal production yesterday was substantial and instructed miners to resume work as fast as each mine is certified as safe.

Lewis, president of the AFL United-Mine Workers, made public a telegram he sent to each district president of the union. It said:

"This office expresses gratification that production yesterday of re-examined and re-certified mines and strip pits was substantial.

"I confirm policy of immediate resumption of production at each mine as fast as it is certified by federal mine inspectors as being in conformity with federal mine safety code.

"Let us all hope that the belated efforts of the federal government to establish safety in the mines will not prove to be a spasmodic gesture and will pave the way for mandatory safety legislation by the federal Congress.

Meanwhile, the government and John L. Lewis played a waiting game today as reports from the soft coal fields indicated one-third normal production despite a decision by the United Mine Workers to stay out of diggings they consider unsafe.

Vandenberg Gives Reply To Gromyko

Calls On Senate To Approve U.S. Relief Program; Asserts UN Not By-Passed, But Saved From Task It Cannot Perform

Washington.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) called on the Senate today to approve military and financial aid to Greece and Turkey in order to prevent a chain reaction which would threaten the peace and security around the globe.

Far from "by-passing" the United Nations, Vandenberg declared in a Senate speech, the proposed $400,000,000 aid program is "the greatest act of voluntary allegiance to the act of total faith."

Thus without mentioning Andrei Gromyko by name, the foreign relations chairman replied to the Soviet representative's assertion to the security council yesterday that the U. S. had "disregarded" U. N. authority, "by-passing" the organization, and undermining its power.

"I know of no better way to destroy the United Nations than to give it a special job which it is neither intended nor prepared to do," Vandenberg said.

"In no available aspect should we by-pass its functions. But in no available aspect should we ruin its potential by assigning to it functions which it does not possess. Such an assignment would destroy it for keeps.

"Meanwhile, under such circumstances as in the present instance Greece would sink into the Communist orbit and the fateful chain (Continued on Page Four) reaction would set in both East and West."

Leading off the debate which may continue for a week or more Vandenberg assured the Senate that:

There is no new "doctrine"—such as the Monroe Doctrine—in American aid to distressed nations.

The plan is not "imperialistic" but is intended to forestall aggression which, once rolling, could snowball into global danger of vast design.

The United States is "not 'bailing out' the British Empire."

And—

"We plot no offense against the Soviet Union."

Vandenberg told the Senate, in a prepared speech, that "the plain facts" seem to be this:

"If the Greeks, in their extremity, are not successfully helped to help themselves to maintain their healthy right of self-determination another communist dictatorship will rise at this key point in world geography.

"Then Turkey, long mobilized against a communist war of nerves facing neighboring jeopardy.

"The two situations are inseparable.

Gov't Conciliators "Hopeful" Of Early Success In Negotiations; Would Not End Entire Walkout Of Telephone Workers; Truman Watching Developments

Washington.—(AP)—Federal Conciliator Peter G. Manno reported the government is "hopeful" of a settlement today in the long distance part of the nation-wide telephone strike.

As negotiations resumed between the union and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company's Long Lines Division Manno told reporters:

"We are hopeful that a settlement will be effected in the long lines today."

Long distance service has been hit hardest by the two-day-old cross-country work stoppage—the first in the industry.

Manno emphasized that a settlement of the long lines phase would not end the entire walkout of 291,000 telephone workers.

John J. Moran, president of the American Union of Telephone Workers which represents long distance employees, was less optimistic.

Moran, when asked whether a settlement could be expected soon replied, "That's up to the company."

"Anything that happens here in this meeting would have to go back to the policy committee of the National Federation of Telephone Workers for approval," he said.

Moran is chairman of the NFTW's policy committee made up of 40 members from as many affiliated unions. It was scheduled to meet at 2 p.m. (EST) today.

Edgar L. Warren, director of the conciliation service, also sought another phase of the coup in a private conference with George Gephart, first vice president of the old Southwestern Bell telephone Co.

Conciliation officers said the conference was general and exploratory. When it finished, Warren headed into a meeting with representatives of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Workers Union.

Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach cancelled a scheduled appearance before a Senate Appropriations Committee without explanation. Labor department officials said they did not know whether he had planned to enter personally in today's round of conferences.

Rising Cost Of War Cited In Army Argument

Washington.—(AP)—The army, contending that the best current insurance against another war is preparedness, produced figures today to show that the cost of war to this nation has multiplied 45 times in money and 24 times in life during the last century. The figures, covering only design wars, show these comparisons:

Mexican War, 104,284 troops used, 12,946 killed, cost $139,500,208; Spanish-American War, 406,391 troops, 6,472 killed, cost $92,159,840; World War I, 3,665,000 troops, 193,693 dead, cost $21,850,000,000; World War II, 10,200,000 troops, 313,000 dead, cost $34,000,000,000.

By 1972, continuing costs directly connected with World War II—such as aid to veterans—will have increased the total to $70,000,000,000, the statement added.

Stiff Opposition To Stop-Gap Labor Bill

Emergency Measure To Deal With Phone Strike Meets Trouble; Senate's General Labor Legislation Coming Up

Washington.—(AP)—Emergency legislation designed to halt the telephone strike by injunction collided with stiff opposition in Congress today as House Republicans angled for President Truman's views on resorting to court action.

Senate Labor Committee members who plan to vote for injunctions against serious strikes as a long range policy balked at a bill by Rep. Hartley (R-N.J.), which would authorize a quick court order to smash the phone tie-up.

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), another committee member, flatly opposed injunctions under any circumstances in a labor dispute. He told a reporter the phone workers "probably are entitled to most of their demands" and that the strike "may be the only way they ever will get (Continued on Page Four)

PHONES GO ON LOCAL BASIS

Some Carolina Communities Find Services Suspended

By The Associated Press Telephone service in North Carolina was on an almost strictly local basis today. In some cities and towns service was suspended entirely except for emergency calls.

As the strike of some 5,000 members of the Southern Federation of Telephone Workers (independent), moved into its second day, about 200,000 of the state's 300,000 telephones were directly affected.

Only facilities of the Southern Bell Telephone system were struck by the union, but these included almost all long distance lines and two-thirds of the local exchanges.

Child's Heroism Saved Lives In Bus Accident

Seattle.—(AP)—The heroism of a six-year-old girl inside a partly submerged bus was credited today by survivors with saving many lives.

The child, identified as Darlene Wick of Portland, Ore., was one of nine persons who lost their lives last night when a heavy North Coast Lines bus collided with an oil truck and then plunged into the Duwamish River, running alongside the Pacific Highway.

Survivors said that amidst the screaming and panic inside the partially submerged bus, she stood calmly and in an even voice directed the efforts of volunteer rescuers who cut through the metal top to extricate passengers.

She stood there in the aisle, they said, with the water rising around her.

She, too, was rescued but too late. She died shortly after being brought ashore.

Murder Follows "Urge To Kill"

St. Joseph, Mo.—(AP)—A student 16-year-old adopted minister's son today was charged with the hammer murder of John Frank, elderly sexton of his father's church.

Police said the youth, Stuart Allen, had admitted slaying the sexton in the church basement because he felt a "sudden urge to kill someone."

Prosecutor O. R. Newcomer filed the murder charge against the boy whose foster father, the Rev. James S. Allen, is pastor of the fashionable Christ Episcopal Church in downtown St. Joseph. Newcomer said he would ask that the slightly built high school honor student be held for trial without bond.

MAY BREAK UP MOSCOW TALKS

American Sources Say Conference Could End Soon

Moscow.—(AP)—Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov agreed today with Western pressure tonight to halt the long discussions of Big Four disagreements on current German problems and to turn to other matters—the next being in the question of German frontiers.

American sources say today that unless the Russians ceased what the Americans called obstructionist tactics in the Foreign Ministers' Council the whole conference could end very soon.

These informants said a showdown was taking shape within the four-power council between Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and the ministers of the Western powers.

The basic issue is whether the four powers must continue long discussions on current German problems; which have proved fruitless, or whether they can go on to extricate passengers.

HUTSON TAKES TOBACCO POST

Decision Fills Presidency Of Tobacco Associates, Inc.

Raleigh, N. C.—(AP)—J. B. Hutson of Washington, D. C., former assistant secretary of agriculture and former U. S. secretary for the United Nations, today accepted the presidency of Tobacco Associates Inc.

The organization is designed to promote the export of flue-cured tobacco.

Hutson, whose salary will be $25,000 a year, will assume his duties sometime in May. He asked that he be given until then to wind up his work with the United Nations.

He said the corporation's main office be near a great export center.

The group endorsed a resolution asking that some representatives from the flue-cured group meet with farm organizations growing other types of tobacco to determine if they would be interested in joining the Associates. At present the organization deals only with exports of flue-cured tobacco.

It was reported that of the $100,000 necessary for the organization's first year of operation, $50,000 had (Continued on Page Four)

Budget Cut Hits Future Of USES

Washington.—(AP)—Director Robert C. Goodwin said today it was "impossible" for the United States unemployment service to "carry out its responsibilities" in the next fiscal year because of appropriation cut voted by the house.

Goodwin, appeared before a senate appropriations subcommittee which is reviewing $13,714,000 of reductions made in the $31,850,700 budget recommendations for the Labor Department.

Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach was to have testified today but the coal and telephone tieups forced him to delay his appearance.

Goodwin said the house had voted the full amount, $71,738,000, for grants to states in the fiscal year that begins July 1 but had approved only $903,000 for administration of the employment service. He asked the senate to restore $3,012,900. (Continued on Page Four)

UN DELEGATES HEAR GROMYKO

Cable Home For Instructions On Russian Resolution

Lake Success, N.Y.—(AP)—Delegates to the Security Council hurriedly cabled their governments for instructions today on Russia's surprise proposal which would give the United Nations the right to supervise American aid to Greece.

Soviet delegate Andrei A. Gromyko laid the proposal before the council last night after he had vigorously attacked what he called the "unilateral" action of the United States and declared that President Truman's program to aid Turkey and Greece constituted interference in the internal affairs of those countries.

Although the Soviet resolution, calling for creating of a special Security Council commission to supervise aid to Greece, did not mention the U. S. program specifically, it was pointed out by some delegates that this was the only aid in sight at present.

The first reaction to the Soviet proposal was that the kind of supervision it envisaged would definitely rule out the use of the American funds for any military purposes. Since this was one of the primary aims set forth in the U. S. program, there appeared to be little likelihood that the United States could ac-

Rosa Exum Appointed; Tax Supervisor's Position Still Vacant; Authorize Election For Teaching Tax Levy

By CHESTER WALSH The Pitt County Board of Commissioners, in session at the court house yesterday, passed a resolution of respect to John H. Coward of Ayden, county auditor and tax supervisor for many years, who died recently. Chairman W. Jasper Smith of Bethel presided.

The commissioners voted unanimously to appoint Miss Rosa Exum county accountant at $3,000 a year. She has been employed in the auditor's office many years. The board decided to separate the accounting and tax supervisor's departments of the county. It is still studying qualifications of applicants and others for the tax supervisor's place. It was understood that there were several applicants for the auditor's place. Their names were unavailable.

W. J. Leggett, county jailer, was appointed supervisor of county buildings and properties, his salary to be $189 a month.

The board unanimously voted to approve the Greenville School Board's petition for a special election to vote on a tax levy not to exceed 15 cents to supplement school teachers' salaries. The Greenville Board of Aldermen recently voted to authorize the special (Continued on Page Four)

French General Confirms Prediction Of Bid For Political Leadership; Will Be Bombshell To French Politicians; Seeks End To Upheavals In Government

This column didn't expect to get such quick and emphatic confirmation of yesterday's prediction that General Charles de Gaulle was about ready to come out for the political leadership of France—and that confirmation by the general himself.

Our forecast was made in connection with a speech De Gaulle made Sunday at Strasbourg. Coincidentally with the publication of yesterday's article he delivered another speech at Strasbourg—this one a humdinger which was an outright appeal to the French people to organize themselves under his leadership. He also made statements tending to confirm our suggestion that he appeared to have subscribed to President Truman's policy of aiding countries whose independence is threatened by communist aggression.

De Gaulle's forthright bid for return to power will be a political bombshell in Paris. The present government is doing a precarious tightrope act between the powerful Communists and other leftists, on the one hand, and the middle-of-the-road Popular Republican Movement and rightists on the other. It would take a mighty light wind to upset balance, because the strength between left and right at the polls is close to fifty-fifty.

For this reason government leaders have been trying to keep De Gaulle's rising spirits in hand and muzzle him from making political speeches. Indeed, on March 30, after the general delivered a semi-political address at a memorial ceremony, Premier Ramadier went to the extreme traveling a considerable distance to De Gaulle's country home to ask the latter not to talk politics in any future official commemorative speeches. Ramadier explained that if the general mixed politics with memorial rites, the government risked "seeming to support such political comments."

In Sunday's speech De Gaulle declared that if a new tyranny menaced the world, "the United States and France will stand together in opposing it." Was he talking about communist aggression? He didn't specify, but he is being widely in-

Calls Cabinet Meeting To Review Price Trend

Washington.—(AP)—President Truman today called a special session of his cabinet for tomorrow to explore the price situation.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said that Chairman Edwin G. Nourse of the President's economic advisory council has been asked to submit a report at that time.

Mr. Truman, who has repeatedly expressed concern over rising prices, declared in a speech Saturday night he hoped industry would not go "whole hog for profits."

Ordinarily the cabinet meets on Friday.

The economic council has been making a continuous survey of the price situation.

Nourse and his council colleagues went to the White House this morning for a preliminary discussion with Mr. Truman.

State Continues Testimony In Dawson Trial

Kinston, N. C.—(AP)—State testimony continued today in the case of Joe Dawson, Kinston recorder, charged with manslaughter in the automobile death of a navy petty officer, and the four prosecutors said they would bring some 30 witnesses before Judge Q. K. Nimocks, Jr., and a superior court jury.

William A. White of Hertford testified today he was in a car that followed the Dawson machine for some 20 miles. He said that when Dawson pulled up at a service station some distance from the scene of the accident earlier that evening a whisky bottle fell from the recorder's car. White said he could not determine whether the bottle contained anything.

William Trueblood of Winfall, on cross examination today, reiterated his story that he drove a car that followed the Dawson machine for some 20 miles and Dawson appeared to be driving as if he were under the influence of alcohol. White said he was a passenger in Trueblood's car.

Taking of testimony was expected to continue tomorrow.

The "Truman Doctrine" Leads Down A Road, The End Of Which No Man Can See; Is It Inconsistent? Are We Wrecking The U.N.? Where Will It Lead?

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington.—(AP)—We will vote $400,000,000 in aid to Greece and Turkey to stop the spread of communism.

Congress seems certain to ram this through, but not without some acid debate. The Senate starts debating today.

We will make this move for our own safety, whether or not Russia likes it.

To many, perhaps most, people in this country all this may seem like a good and necessary step.

But there are people in this country and elsewhere, particularly in Russia, who will question its goodness or its need.

By making this move, and not caring whether Russia likes it, we take our position as the No. 1 world power, ready to act to prove it.

And that's where those who don't like this new role for the United States start asking questions: We step into European affairs with money, arms and military advisers to help Greece and Turkey. Suppose Russia tried to do just that in Argentina, sending over money, arms and Red Army ad-

Award Scholarships At State College During Summer

Raleigh—(AP)—Between 10 and 20 scholarships, valued at $100 each, will be awarded this summer by the Sears Roebuck Foundation to graduates of North Carolina high schools, who may wish to enter the curricula in either general or vocational agriculture at N.C. State College in September, 1947.

Applications must be filed by June 15, 1947. Application blanks may be obtained by writing to Dr.

The Human Body Is More Complex Than an Automobile

★ You wouldn't take your car to a garage and refuse to tell the mechanic what was wrong. The mechanic would have every right to doubt your sanity. Yet people frequently refuse to tell the physician of their ailments. They are anxious to have an "unbiased opinion."

You can save time and expense by being frank with your physician. To do a competent job of diagnosis he needs the history of your symptoms. The human body is far more complex than an automobile. For the best results give him all the facts.

All we need is the physician's prescription. We are competent to compound it exactly as he specifies.

 FOR THE DAY
 By EARL L. DOUGLAS

A BRIEF FOR REVOLUTIONS
 Those of us fifty years of age and older have lived through one of the most revolutionary periods in history. A generation ago, Europe was full of kings. The atlas we used in high school and college some years back had no value today save as quaint reminders of an age that was folded up and put away. The great Einstein has changed the thinking of the whole scientific world. Two world wars in less than a quarter of a century have produced unprecedented changes in human history. In some ways we have changed more in a generation than men have changed in the past 2,000 years.

The possibility of revolution increases every day. Yet the one revolution which we need above everything else has not taken place namely, the revolution which has to take place in human hearts before people are made over, before they become essentially different. The greatest need in the world today is the need for a series of one-man revolutions. Such a great step in human betterment might well begin with you and me. And of one thing we can be sure, namely, that if you and I do not experience such revolution within our own hearts, it will probably not occur elsewhere to the betterment of humankind.

Let us have more revolutions, not less. And let them begin in the area of our thinking and behavior.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington.—The Voteless D. C.
 League of Women Voters is starting off a national series of schools for "dollar scholars."
 The program for a one-day school at Washington centered on money problems that plague everybody: from farmers' wives to the wives of white collar workers and officials who struggle with Uncle Sam's budget.
 The national series is sponsored by National League of Women Voters.
 The League hopes to have widely known economists at every meeting to trace the housewife's dollar before such backdrops on the economic stage as wages, prices, profits, agriculture, foreign trade, fiscal policies, social security and consumer and producer relations.
 Miss Ann Lord Strauss, national president of the women voters, keynoter of the session here, has mapped out study and action program which will fan out through her League's state and local chapters.
 The League estimates it will reach half a million persons in its nationwide meetings. "Schools" similar to Washington's have already been announced in Cleveland, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Philadelphia, Seattle,
 Toledo, Dayton, St. Paul and elsewhere.
 In Minneapolis, Philadelphia and Seattle the classes will meet at the State Universities, with faculty members serving on panels.
 In St. Louis league members are conducting some 40 discussion groups in private homes.
 Mountain Top P. O., Pa., is hoping to reach most of its 1,150 population in programs featuring slide films and informal debate between neighbors of various political opinions.
 Plans are brewing for the continuous screening of slide films in department stores in several large cities.

The League says the idea of the schools is inherited from the "citizenship schools" which the first president, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, conducted through those years when she campaigned for the women's suffrage amendment.
 Though it has backed specific tax measures since 1934 and anti-inflation legislation in recent months, this is the first intensive campaign of such length on economic problems.
 Miss Strauss says more and more women confess they are beginning to see a clear relation between government's billion-dollar headaches and their own struggles to make ends meet.
 She says that this year, in Mak-

Gas In The Coal Pits

ing their New Year's resolutions to watch the pennies, they pinned a degree of hope on such innovations as the President's economic report and the joint congressional resolution on the budget.
 They see the critical need of Mr.
 and Mrs. John Q. Public's thinking through the entire picture that links city, town and federal purse strings to an interdependent world.

munism's march when we help Turkey and Greece? Or where do we go from there? For how long? At what cost?
 In short, from now on do we step in to help any country which cries that it's in danger of going Communist? If not, where do we draw the line? No one knows.
 We're starting upon a world adventure whose end no man can see fund for renovation and improvements. During the past few years several grand juries have recommended improvements at the court house building.

 Considerable routine business was transacted during the day's session. J. Noah Williams was appointed a member of the Welfare Board for a three-year term.

 Turkey.
 He just said U.N. couldn't do the job of what was needed.
 As the realization of what all his meant sank into people's minds voices were raised in this country that we were by-passing U.N. and maybe destroying it.
 This bothered a great many people, including senators who want to vote the aid. So in time this plan was fashioned:
 Turkey and Greece. Later on we'll stop here and there on the way to the aid if the U.N. thinks we should stop.
 But—are we going to present the plan to U.N. in such form that future U.N. opposition to our action is helpless and useless.
 Congress will have to decide just how much power, in positive language, it's willing to let U.N. have in our European actions.
 Further:
 If enough nations are friendly to the United States, or indebted to us, U.N. isn't likely to tel us to quit Greek-Turkish aid.
 But suppose at some future time
 Russia reverses the tables and starts pouring money and arms into a European country without consulting U.N. until later.
 Will we charge Russia with trying to wreck U.N.? Or what do we do? Or are we beginning to chop the foundations out from under U.N.?
 When we talk of empowering U.
 N. to stop our aid abroad our situation will be judged by the way w do it.
 And there's this third important question:
 Do we stop trying to halt com-

 interpreted as meaning that.
 Yesterday the general, in calling on the people to organize themselves under his leadership, said this would prevent a dictatorship anarchy or overthrow of "the independence of the state."
 De Gaulle again pleaded for a government with a strong executive power. This is contrary to the Communist program which has insisted on a strong assembly and a weak president.
 In short, what the general is ad-vating is the formation under his leadership of a party powerful enough numerically to elect and maintain a government. This France would be freed of the constant upheavals which beset the present coalition government which is neither fish, fowl nor yet good beef.

 The feeler for Mr. Truman's views on the Hartley bill approved

 Republican floor leader.
 Explaining the measure is "designed to deal with this situation," Halleck said in an interview:
 "So far as I know, there has been no expression from the President on this bill. Of course, the Republican Congress stands ready to do anything that is right and proper to protect the national interests."
 The measure, approved last week by the committee, has not been called up for floor debate.
 The Senate Labor Committee yesterday received the preliminary draft of a general labor bill which would authorize temporary injunc-

DANCE ON THE DESERT

By Florence Theel

AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 80

At six o'clock on Christmas eve, the new Alvarado restaurant and nightclub was ready for business. The Alvarado Merry-Makers, in their smart uniforms, were already on the bandstand. Their Spanish name, they had decided, was fitting for the desert resort.

In two short weeks, spurred by a determination to settle scores with Blackey Davis, the boys had cleverly transformed the empty corner store into a beautifully appointed eating place. Only this time it had been the glamorous Gloria deSylvia, not Eileen Farwell, who had helped Mrs. McLane with the draperies and table linens.

The floodlights gleamed on the boys' instruments, on the two tall Christmas trees, hung with colored balls and strings of popcorn, on either side of the bandstand. Another tree, with small tissue-wrapped boxes dangling from its boughs, stood beside the dance floor. The holly-decorated menus said, "MERRY CHRISTMAS, EVERYBODY! There's a present for YOU on the tree. Just help yourself!"

To Phil Meredith's trumpet fanfare, waiters in tuxedos opened the doors on the stroke of six and, true to Pepper Chayne's prediction, a hungry-looking crowd of air-corps men, who had been waiting outside, flocked to the tables.

Bert looked at his old air-corps buddy, Caroline. Memories were crowding, as he lifted his baton. "All right, fellows. Let us swing it for them—sweet!" The boys played the army air-corps song, then swung into another war-time favorite: "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas."

Bert played a solo passage on his saxophone. He saw that it was going over big.

Halfway through the number a messenger came in with a telegram. Bert's mother stopped him at the cash desk, signed for it, and when the number was finished brought it, smiling, up to Bert.

"Somebody wishing you success," she said. And waited while he tore it open.

Bert's face went an ashen gray. "What is it, Bert? Anything wrong?"

"It's from Gloria," he said lifelessly, and read the message for them all to hear:

"To wish you all a lot of luck, Blackey and I just married!"

A few hours ago she had gone home to her apartment to rest. Bert had taken it for granted that she was in the little dressing room now, getting ready to come on after the intermission. Instead, she had sent this!

"I always said that dame wasn't on the square," Eddy said, wrathfully. "They're two of a kind—she and that Blackey Davis."

Bert looked humbly at Pete Scanlon. He'd been right about her, too. But Pete only gave him a look of sympathy. He said absolutely nothing.

Bert's lips clamped together in a hard, grim line.

"Okay, boys, we're cutting out the vocal on this number. Charlie, you and Carolina take it as a saxophone duet for the first chorus. Pete, you make it a guitar solo, on the second." They nodded grimly. "After that, Mom, you please invite the folks to come up and cut their presents off the tree."

Tim, the head waiter, was bowing to a tall man in a tuxedo—Mr. Halliday—coming in with their old friend, Captain Martyn.

Bert looked at his Mother. "Then you did see him up in Los Angeles." "No, I didn't, dear. I told you. But she hurried towards the door to greet them, hand outstretched. "Mr. Halliday! Captain Martyn! How wonderful to see you!"

"Wonderful to be here, Lola." "Read about your opening in the paper," the Captain said. "Made up my mind I wasn't going to miss this one!"

The door was opening again, this time to her tall and handsome son, Paul, with a slender girl in evening clothes. Not Eileen, as Mrs. McLane half expected, but another Marylander, pretty Thelma Reeves.

"Paul! This is the best surprise of all. And Thelma. It's so nice to have you here. Did you all come down to-

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scout troops will resume their regular scheduled meetings this week, after observing the Easter vacation.

The Scouts are always eager to assist in any service they can render, and we regret that the Lions Club, contacted the office too late to secure much help in the sale of Easter tags Saturday morning. Four Scouts, Janice Ormond, Wynette Garner, Frances Caboon, and Patsy Leichter, were able to assist. They spent most of the morning working and realized quite a nice sum for their efforts. The money collected from the sale of the tags is used to guarantee better medical and educational advantages for the crippled children of North Carolina.

together?"

"By plane," Paul grinned. "In style, for the stylish occasion."

"A table for four, Tim, please—and everything the best." She went behind the desk then, to make change. How happy she was to have her family all together for Christmas eve—and Mr. Halliday, too. But her heart was aching for poor Bert.

He was tapping his baton against the music stand. The boys began to play the song which Gloria had rehearsed with them—deceptively—that afternoon. Well, in her opinion, a saxophone duet was as good or better, than that girl's sultry, sensuous singing. She looked up as the two boys raised their saxophone instruments to play the chorus. They had stopped cold, as a ravishing young girl, with a long golden braid, came out upon the platform, smiling and assured, and began to sing.

Bert looked and nearly started to beat. "Eileen!" he said hoarsely.

He stepped aside, so that the spotlight fell full upon her. She was so lovely to look at so sweet—yet somehow so different in the holly-crimson evening gown with bright green shoulder straps, and semi-splendid green gloves, reaching to her smooth white shoulders. Her singing, too, had a new vibrant quality—a new warmth and vivacity that brought deafening applause, as she kissed her fingers to the crowd and went back into the wings.

"Eileen!" Bert loved her, breathless. How wonderful of you! But how did you know our other singer—"

"I've been here with her all week," she said, with smiling eyes. She had been coaching me in all her songs."

Coaching you? You mean—?"

Eileen nodded happily. "Gloria has always been in love with Blackey. She only wanted him to change—to really love her, too—to come to her and say he needed her."

"They say I'll always need you!"

Everything was clear now. And things had happened for the best. He opened his arms and Eileen, went to them eagerly. The Christmas crowd was out there clapping. But they delayed the encore a long moment, while they held each other close.

News Blackout Over Paraguayan Revolt

Buenos Aires.—(AP)—A news blackout imposed by the Paraguayan government obscured the military situation in southern Paraguay today following reports that government naval units at Alboradi had joined insurgent army forces.

An Associated Press dispatch from Asuncion reported that all press dispatches regarding the southern situation were being held back by Paraguayan censors until an official communique was issued.

A Weak, Run-Down Feeling Is Often A Warning

That The Red-Blood Is Getting Low

If you do not feel like your real self, do not have the urge to be up and doing why not check-up on your blood strength? Look at the palms of your hands, your nostrils, your lips, the lobes of your ears—are they pale and of color?

Every day—every hour—millions of pure red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities by analysis of the blood, have positively proved that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, flat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As various blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Some oil experts believe there is two and one-half times as much oil in the continental shelves off shore as there is under the world's land surface.

The earliest known use of animal glue was at least 3,300 years ago. A stone carving depicting the process of gluing was found on the site of the ancient city of Thebes.

What do you think railroads make? 15%

What do you think they should make? 10%

What are the facts? 2 3/4%

Actually the railroads earned only 2 3/4% in 1946.

To provide the service you want, railroads need to earn at least 6%. But estimates indicate that even with the recent freight rate increase, the return for 1947 will be only about half that requirement.

Why it takes 6% to make the grade...

Impartial research polls show that, on the average, people think we make 15%. They also think a fair return would be 10%.

What We Make

For the year 1946, with the biggest increase in traffic in history, the railroads earned only 2 3/4%. This is less than one-half the comparable earnings of other industries.

The reasons for this low return are hard to find. Since 1939 railroad rates have increased 52 1/2% and the price of fuel, materials and supplies have gone up 61 1/2%.

Freight rates have just recently increased an average of only 1 1/2%—a year after the effective date of the last big wage increase.

What About This Year?

It is estimated that the return for 1947, even with the recent freight rate increase, will be only about half the 6% minimum return required to provide the improvements and service needed. This will be because of increased costs of materials and supplies; because certain wage increases granted in 1946 were in effect for only part of 1946 but will be in effect for all of 1947; because of increased special payroll taxes on railroads; and because of a decline in passenger business.

What Does This Mean To You?

The answer is "Plenty!" Your standard of living is the highest in the world because of mass production. But mass production would not be possible without mass transportation, which the railroads provide at low cost.

Why 6% Is Needed

The kind of service you standard of living requires takes a lot of money for new equipment and improvements. To carry out the post-war improvement program for better equipment, tracks, terminals and modern safety devices, a minimum return of 6% is needed.

So when the railroads make only 2 3/4 cents on each $1.00 of their net property investment, it concerns you.

The funds for future new equipment and improvements must come from railroad earnings and also from investors. They will furnish money on reasonable terms only if they have confidence in the future earnings of the railroads.

You Have Another Stake In This

Even if you do not own any railroad stocks or bonds, insurance companies and savings banks do. So you still have a special interest in seeing that the railroads are allowed enough to do a good job... for you.

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk with you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

*On total property investment, the railroads made only 2 3/4%.

Lem's Dogs vs Thad's Chickens

Running a newspaper, you get to know a lot about human nature. Thad Phipps was in the other day, all burned up. Wanted me to run an item on how Lem Martin's dog had raided his chickens again, and ought to be put away by law. I told him: "Lem was in on Saturday. Said you shouldn't be allowed to keep those chickens so close to his house—and in a residential zone, at that."

Thad shuts up right pronto then. And that very evening I see him making his peace with Lem

Women IN THE CHURCH

by Mary Fowler

It looks as if the church in America is finally catching up with the church in the mission fields. The Protestant Episcopal Church's Divinity School of the Pacific, at Berkeley, Calif., is providing courses of study in Bible, church history, parish administration, public speaking, education, and women's work for the wives of men who are going to be Episcopal rectors. Members of the regular faculty, assisted by their wives, teach the courses. Most ministerial training schools in Africa and Asia now teach the wives of ministers-to-be while the minister is in training.

A total of 125 club women attended the club meetings which were held last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The club members received first hand information on "Durable Floor Finishes." The Agents had samples of hard and soft wood which they used in demonstrating the steps in oiling floors, varnishing floors and waxing floors. They also stressed the fact that finishes which penetrate into the wood before hardening will withstand wear better than these finishes which harden as a film on top of the wood.

Red Banks Club members met at the home of Mrs. Burt Green. The president, Mrs. Robert Starling, called the meeting to order, after which they read the Club Collect. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Sec., Mrs. Karl Hardee. Mrs. L. W. Cherry gave a garden report and Mrs. Jasper Boyd gave a report on Poultry and also a report on International Neighbor. Germany. She showed souvenirs of Germany. After the business meeting the hostesses, Mrs. Burt Green and Mrs. Jack Harrington invited the guests into the dining room which was attractively decorated with spring flowers and candles. They served party sandwiches, cookies, nuts, and tea. Mrs. Robert Starling presided at the table.

Red Oak Club met at the home of Mrs. Herma Evans. Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. James Allen, the vice president, Mrs. Finner Allen, presided. The meeting was called to order at 2:30 after which the members sang, "Bells of St. Mary's" and read the Club Collect. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Carl Crawford. Mrs. H. H. May gave helpful hints on Gardening. Mrs. Cla Kittrell reviewed the book, Turquoise. After the demonstration the hostesses Mrs. Herman Evans, Mrs. Tom Manning, Mrs. F. B. Manning served delicious pineapple ice cream and pound cake.

Seventeen members of Belvoir Home Demonstration Club met in the school library for their April meeting. The opening song, "America the Beautiful," was followed by the Collect of the Club Women of America. Mrs. G. R. Harris and Lucille Holloman were guests. Mrs. H. L. Lewis related many interesting facts on the German people. After the program, the hostess, Mrs. Cely Clarke, served delicious homemade chocolate cake, salted nuts, and punch.

Chicoo Club met in the Home Economics cottage. The vice president, Mrs. Roy Gaskins, called the meeting to order after which the members sang, "Sweet and Low" then the Club Collect was read. The secretary, Miss Annie Carroll read the minutes of the last meeting. The club voted to sponsor a community rat campaign on April 17th. Mrs. B. C. Tyson, Mrs. H. E. Smith, Miss Reba Smith, Mrs. Wesley Smith and Mrs. W. E. Venters were named as chairman in their respective neighborhoods. During the social hour Mrs. Newman Lewis led the group in a contest and fortune telling. The hostesses, Mrs. W. F. Carroll, Mrs. J. J. Carroll and Mrs. Ann Cox served sponge cake with whipped cream and coffee.

The Pactus members met at the home of Mrs. A. R. Barnhill with Mrs. Roscoe Bernhill as co-hostess. Mrs. James R. Davenport, president, presided over the meeting which was opened by singing, "The Bells of St. Mary's." This was followed by the Club Collect. The International Report was given by Mr. Jimmie Davenport. Mr. Davenport gave a most interesting discussion of his travels in Europe emphasizing the sights of Germany. He made a comparison of living conditions in their county and ours as he had found it. He had many pictures and souvenirs which treated many questions and much discussion. The Bethel Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. F. C. James. The meeting was opened with a song followed by the Club Collect. During the business hour plans for attending the county and district spring federation were discussed. After the business session, a delightful social hour was held. Hot tea was served from the beautifully appointed table in the dining room. The lace covered table was centered with an attractive Easter arrangement of bunnies and eggs. Favors of small paper cups filled with candy eggs and tied with yellow bows of ribbon surrounded the center arrangement. Burning yellow tapers were at each end of the table. Open-faced sandwiches, chicken salad on lettuce, cakes and salted

Greenies To Play Kinston On Wednesday In Exhibition Game

By BERT MOYE The Greenville Greenies will open their exhibition schedule here Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock when they meet the Kinston Eagles at Guy Smith Stadium and the Greenville Pilot Johnny Pare believes fans will see a number of men in action they will want to see more of as the season progresses.

Manager Pare has stated that he will use most all men on the squad in the initial game. He will use catchers, pitchers and utility men for the outer career, but the infield and battery will be more to the liking of local fans, he noted.

In the infield will be First Sacker Richard Fraker, William Lamb at second base; Robert Pare shortstop; Anthony Mendoza or Collier at third base, and others.

Starting in the outfield will be Willard Mauney, F. P. John, Edvard Dunkel, center field, and Max Nessamar or Charles Albright.

PIRATES SEEK FIRST VICTORY

Clash With Atlantic Christian Here Tomorrow; Shake Up Infield

By JACK RIDGEPETH The EUTC baseball team will seek their first win of the season tomorrow afternoon when they meet the Atlantic Christian Builders of Wilson here. The game is to be played on the college diamond and will start at 3 o'clock. The contest between the two squads is expected to be the summer in games between the two rival colleges.

A base workout was held yesterday in an effort to iron out some of the kinks that have come up in the last few games. Errors have been numerous and Coach Cameron will probably shake up his infield in an attempt to improve the fielding of the unit. James Hayes, who has been replaced with a sure arm, is expected to play today.

The inability to get a base hit when needed was evident Saturday against the Pirates as the bases were left unoccupied, except for one, when the Pirates crossed the plate. They pulled three runs home.

Manager J. J. Johnson of the Pirates has returned to East Carolina from New York, where he attended a football meeting and a business deal. Coach John Johnson will be in charge of the team for the remainder of the season.

The night game will use at least three hurlers to start. They will be Johnny Wood, Ed Redden, and Hank Henderson. Catchers who may see action include Maragat Johnny, Dave, Paul Simmons and Jim Yeaple.

Pare cautioned the fans against expecting too much, but noted that he was well pleased with the showing of the newcomers so far.

The game Wednesday night will mark the first in a series of nine exhibition games to be played by the Greenies. On Thursday they play here at Kinston to play a return game. On Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m. the Greenies will play the Senators from Harrisburg, Pa., a Class B ball club, who are holding their spring training program here in Greenville.

A large crowd of fans is expected for tomorrow night's game.

(Continued from Page One) ments in the strike but there were no signs that he might order seizure of the industry.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles Ross told a news conference that Mr. Truman is being informed of efforts to settle the walkout. He added, however, that "nothing you could call a conference has been held at the White House."

The government, industry and union alike were eyeing the situation to determine the effectiveness of the first cross country work stoppage by the telephone workers.

What the three sides to the controversy see may have a bearing not only on the length of the shutdown but on whether the government will step in with another post war seizure.

However, its experience in the prolonged operation of the soft coal mines has made President Truman's administration reluctant to drag in remaining seizure authority out of the closet.
