

UNDERGROUND TO FIGHT ON IN PALESTINE

Secret Radio Promises "No Peace"; Jewish Agency Opposes Tactics

Jerusalem, April 28.—(AP)—Any possibility of a truce in the trouble ridden Holy Land while the United Nations Assembly is debating its future in New York apparently was ruled out today by Irgun Zvai Leumi, militant Jewish underground organization.

In a secret radio broadcast yesterday, Irgun repeated demands for an end to Britain's mandated government and military occupation of Palestine and declared there would be "no peace in the country, the Middle East, or the entire world until the Palestine question is settled."

In another development, a highly placed informant said the executive of the Jewish agency, official spokesman for Palestine's 600,000 Jews, had decided to issue literature to impress upon Jews that murder and bloodshed would hurt the Jews' cause before the General Assembly.

Meanwhile, the British held a threat of collective punishment for underground action over the Jewish community and Irgun's small offshoot, the Stern gang, stepped up its propaganda.

Gen. Sir Alan Gordon Cunningham, British high commissioner for Palestine, last night wrote Mayor Israel Rokach of the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv that "when the next postoffice vehicle is stolen, the Jewish community must necessarily suffer the loss of its postal service."

A stolen postal truck was used Friday to haul explosives that killed five British officials and wounded six others in a police compound at Sarona, Tel Aviv suburb. In a communique sent later to a Hebrew newspaper, the Stern gang said its members had driven the death car.

In another communique yesterday, the Stern gang announced that it had carried out the fatal shooting in Haifa Saturday of A. E. Conquest, head of the Haifa criminal investigation department.

Reserve Officers To Banquet Here Wednesday Night

The Lenoir-Pitt Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association will have a "dutch" supper meeting at the Respass Barbecue Tavern, on the Bethel highway, near Greenville, Wednesday night at 7 o'clock. Lt. Col. Meriwether Lewis of Kinston, president, will preside.

Members are invited to attend and take new members to the meeting. Lt. Col. James S. Jenkins of Greenville, vice-president, said.

The Reserve Officers Association is sponsoring the universal military training bill in Congress. It also is sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and others.

Jenkins said a feature of the universal military training bill is that a four-month basic training period is open to boys when they reach the age of 18. There are several options for prospective trainees, including choice of the Reserve Officers Training Corps or the National Guard for eight months to complete the year's military training.

Lt. Col. W. S. Stafford of Greenville has accepted the command of the Reserve Officers Association headquarters in Greenville.

Phone Peace Near Says Labor Dept.

Washington, April 28.—(AP)—Amid talk of close pending developments, the labor department today drove ahead in tripe-header conferences to end the telephone strike.

Department officials tipped reporters to watch for developments this afternoon. President Joseph A. Beirne of the striking National Federation of Telephone Workers said in Pittsburgh he expects a major break, possibly today or tomorrow.

The source of this optimism was not explained. Earlier a wave of hope had sprung up in the wake of a $2.50-a-week wage increase offered by the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company for five mid-west states. However, it was rejected by Iowa union workers, an attorney for the unions involved, Henry Mayer, said in New York the offer was "wholly inadequate."

Labor department meetings involving three Bell system units—the long distance division, Western Electric Company, and Southwestern Bell Telephone Company—were in progress or scheduled.

Officials virtually abandoned all hope that a settlement formula would come from the Northwestern Bell offer.

At Des Moines A. R. Toepfer, secretary of the Northwestern Union of Telephone Workers in Iowa, reported that the Iowa employees of the company had definitely rejected the offer.

So far as the Iowa strikers are concerned, Toepfer said, they would insist on the $6 increase which the union established as its minimum demand on Friday.

The Northwestern negotiations are among the more than 20 involving Bell company subsidiaries all over the nation. All the companies have offered to arbitrate the wage

House and Senate, as usual in such cases, are pretty certain to okay this single bill agreed upon by the joint committee.

Then, after all the work that went into it, the labor bill will begin what may be its death march. It will be sent from Congress to President Truman for his signature before it can become law. There's the hitch.

This bill coming out of Congress will be tougher, much tougher, than any bill Mr. Truman wanted to curb unions.

WAVE OF OPTIMISM AMONG OFFICIALS; BEIRNE EXPECTING MAJOR BREAK MOMENTARILY; PAY INCREASE BY NORTHWESTERN BELL CO. REJECTED

Washington, April 28.—(AP)—Four Republican senators squared off today for a week-long battle, two on one side and two on the other, as the senate resumed arguing about its 59-page labor bill.

Democrats were in on the scrap, too, and some were ready for long oratory, but the senate expects more sparks to fly when these Republicans go after each other.

1. Bell, of Minnesota, and Taft, of Ohio, on one side. They are determined to expand the bill by adding more restrictions of unions.

2. Ives, of New York, and Morse, of Oregon. They are defending the present bill, as approved by the senate labor committee. They are resisting four amendments backed by Ball, Taft, and other senators.

The first of these amendments, which now is before the senate for action, would prohibit unions from interfering with workers in their free choice of unions. (Employers are already so prohibited.)

A vote on this provision will come later in the week.

New Opposition To Closing Down Train Service

Norfolk, Va., April 28.—(AP)—The proposal of the Norfolk Southern Railway to discontinue its daily Norfolk-Raleigh passenger trains, already opposed by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, will also be fought by the Mail Clerks' Union.

Homer L. Link, special representative of the Railway Mail Association, disclosed today.

He pointed out that although the 12 regular mail clerks now assigned to the road would probably not lose their jobs, but would be transferred to other areas, the move would work a great deal of hardships on those who have set up permanent residence here.

TEACHERS GET PEPPER'S AID

Advocates National Minimum Salary For School Teachers

Washington, April 28.—(AP)—Declaring that "the crisis in education must be solved on a permanent basis," Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) advocated today a national minimum salary for school teachers.

Pepper urged a Senate labor-public welfare subcommittee to approve these three bills:

1. To give school teachers income tax deductions for expenses of attending college courses required for employment or advancement in grade.

2. To provide grants to increase teachers' salaries $800 a year above those they received in 1941, and to fix salary floors of $2,400 for teachers with four years of college training and $1,800 for those with less training.

3. To provide grants for scholarships and loan funds to needy students.

Pepper is author of the first bill, he and Senator Murray (D-Mont.) introduced the latter two jointly.

Murray also urged favorable action on the salary increase bill. He said "this is not just a local or state problem—it is a national hazard."

Await New Owner For Famous Hope Diamond

Washington, April 28.—(AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, who in life loved parties and large gatherings, will be buried secretly Tuesday to avoid crowds.

Only survivors and closest friends will be told the time and place of funeral services for the central character of "father struck it rich," owner of the ill-reputed but magnificent Hope diamond and, almost to the end, hostess to the world's most famous names.

THREE MENTAL PATIENTS ARE RE-CAPTURED

Fourth Escapee And Medical Orderly Held As Hostage Still Sought

San Francisco, April 28.—(AP)—Three of four dangerous mental patients who escaped from the Army's Letterman Hospital by trickery and force yesterday were back in custody today while search widened for the fourth escapee and a hospital orderly they took as a hostage.

Still at large, more than 24 hours after the escape, was Frank R. Wallrath, 24, of Long Island City, N.Y., the orderly is Wallace Williams of Fort Worth, Tex.

Wallrath, a paratrooper with the 11th Airborne Division during the war, was convicted by an Eighth Army court martial last Aug. 23 for deserting under fire and for escaping twice from army confinement. He was sentenced to death and the division commander upheld the sentence, but President Truman later commuted it to life imprisonment.

The four patients made their escape from the doublelocked psychopathic ward at 2 a.m., after slugging four orderlies who were summoned one by one. They opened the ward doors with keys taken from the orderlies and then slugged a guard, taking his .45 caliber pistol.

At nightfall the first of the escapees was captured, Joe Salindron, 24, of Hawaii, recently transferred from the disciplinary barracks at Camp Cooke, near Lompoc, Calif., under a five-year sentence for larceny, was caught at Sacramento 90 miles northeast of San Francisco.

Salindron was arrested by highway Patrolman Emerson Reed after he had terrorized two taxicab drivers with a straight-edge razor. He violently resisted arrest, kicking out the windshield of Reed's patrol car en route to the city jail.

There he tried twice to take his life, once slashing his wrist and then attempting to hang himself.

Virginia Oil Fields Actively Producing

Richmond, Va., April 28.—(AP)—Governor Tuck said today that he had been shown "proof positive" that Lee County, Virginia is producing high quality oil.

During his trip to southwest Virginia last week, the governor said he toured the newly-developed oil field in Lee where twelve out of fourteen wells sunk are producing oil.

daughter of a prospector whose pickax hit yellow dirt in Colorado. She grew up in luxury to marry a millionaire and become hostess to Presidents and Royalty.

Her father's lucky strike at Camp Bird in Duray, Colo., resulted in a glided life in one of Washington's largest mansions. Residence in Bar Harbor, Me., trips to Europe, hobnobbing with royalty, and marriage in 1928 to Ned McLean, son of the multimillionaire publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer and Washington Post.

Said to have been stolen from the forehead of a Hindu idol, legend has it that the 44 1-2 carat Hope diamond brought violent death or misfortune to at least six of its owners, among them Mme. de Montespan, Louis XVI and Lord Francis Pelham Clinton.

Local Episcopal Church Planning Centennial; Bishop To Make Visit

On May 7th, St. Paul's Episcopal Church of this city will be having their Centennial Observation as an Episcopal Parish, and plans are being made for a fitting observance on this memorable occasion.

The Rev. Thomas Henry Wright, Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, will visit St. Paul's for the purpose of confirming and will be the preacher at the Centennial Service. A reception in the Parish House will follow the service.

Marshall Revives Hope Of Easing Russian Relations

U. N. General Assembly Meets Over Palestine

Agree On Creation Of 14-Nation Steering Committee; Brazilian Elected President Of Extraordinary Session

New York, April 28.—(AP)—The United Nations Assembly, in special session, agreed today on creation of a 14-nation steering committee to resolve the controversial problem raised by Arab demands for immediate independence of Palestine.

The committee scheduled its first meeting for 5 p. m. (EDT) to consider the assembly's agenda.

At present the agenda is limited to one item: Britain's proposal to set up a fact-finding committee which would make a preliminary study of the Palestine question and report to the regular assembly meeting in September.

The five Arab members—Iraq, Syria, Saudi Arabia, Lebanon and Egypt—have proposed the addition of an item calling for immediate ending of Britain's 25-year-old League of Nations mandate over the Holy Land.

The committee also will have to consider the rival demands of the official Jewish agency and the Hebrew committee of national liberation that they be permitted to participate in the debates of the special Palestine session without a vote.

Creation of the steering committee was proposed by Dr. Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, who was elected president of the extraordinary session, and was accepted without opposition.

The committee was composed of the president, seven vice presidents and the chairmen of the assembly's six standing committees.

The assembly elected as vice-presidents the representatives of the U. S., France, Britain, Russia, China, Ecuador and India. The committees were scheduled to meet later in the day to elect their chairmen and complete the membership of the steering committee.

The meeting then adjourned until 3 p. m. (EDT).

The tall, silver-haired Brazilian received 45 votes on the first ballot and immediately took the chair, Prince Faisal Al Saud of Saudi Arabia, Andrei Gromyko of Russia, Hernan Santa Cruz of Chile, Lester B. Pearson of Canada and Herman G. Eriksson of Sweden each received one vote.

The session convened with the official Jewish agency declaring itself absent unless it is formally recognized.

Docks Tied Up

London, April 28.—(AP)—Thousands of London dock workers went on strike today, halting the unloading of ships bringing in critically needed cargoes of food and fuel.

The full extent of the walk-out was not immediately apparent, but London newspapers said it was spreading rapidly and dock work throughout the city would be paralyzed.

The strikers walked out in sympathy with 3,000 Glasgow dockers who quit six weeks ago because 500 workers there were declared "redundant" and dropped from the pay rolls.

Is Reported To Have Indicated Belief This Country's Firmness May Lead To Soviet To Give Ground; Counsels Patience; Broadcasts To Nation On Moscow Session Tonight

Washington, April 28.—(AP)—American hopes for an easing in U. S. and Soviet tensions were buoyed today by reports that Secretary of State Marshall believes this country's firmness on European peace treaty issues may lead Russia to give ground.

Marshall's view was laid before congressional leaders at a White House conference in advance of his radio report to the nation at 8:30 p. m. (EST) tonight on the results of the Moscow foreign ministers conference.

Some of those who attended the two hour session with the president and his cabinet officers last night said they came away with the impression that Marshall believes the unbending attitude he displayed at the big four meeting already has had the effect of making the Russians less sure of themselves in their demands affecting the future peace of Europe.

The soldier-diplomat was said to have counseled patience with the Soviets in the hope that as they digest the American position in the next few months, they may go to London for the next foreign ministers' tussle in November, more amenable to suggestions from their wartime allies on vital points involved in proposed Austrian and German peace treaties.

For this reason, Marshall was said to have told the congressional leaders he believes it is too early now for this country to decide whether it should take the unsettled issues involving those treaties to the United Nations general assembly for an airing.

The secretary was said to have related that proposed American action to bulwark Greece and Turkey against communism appeared to have made a profound impression.

Police Recover Stolen Safe In Rear Of Church

By CHESTER WALSH

An iron safe weighing between 400 and 500 pounds, stolen from the Barnhill-Hendrix Equipment Company's office on Dickinson Avenue last Thursday night, was found Sunday morning in the rear of a church between Falkland and Fountain. The find was reported to Greenville police and the safe was returned to the owners. It was locked. It had been opened and nearly $100 was missing. Papers and books in the safe were intact, Police Chief Jim Tanner said today.

Police said the robbers who broke into the plant through a window rolled the safe to a rear door, loaded it on a truck and carried it away.

Three other places were broken into for purpose of robbery the same night—Sinclair Oil Company, on Dickinson Avenue, and the Green Oil Company and the Sutton Oil Company plants on the Bethel highway near the city. The safe was the only loot secured by the robbers.

Police are working on several clues.

Only Four Seriously Hurt In Train Wreck

W-ww. Ind., April 28.—(AP)—Only four persons were hurt seriously enough to require hospital attention as the ten cars of the Golden Triangle passenger train of the Pennsylvania railroad left the tracks at a crossover in the center of Warsaw this morning. All of the 147 passengers were shaken up.

Several of the cars were leaning to one side, but none turned over.

Report By Marshall

No Ordinary Accounting Of Stewardship By Public Servant; Paramount In Public Interest; Most Important Decision In U.S. History; Dangerous Interim

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Tonight Secretary of State Marshall will make a report to the nation on the Big Four foreign ministers' deadlocked Moscow Conference and its implications for world peace and well-being.

This is no ordinary accounting of stewardship by a public servant. Upon the general's report, and the facts which he laid before President Truman and key congressional leaders in private last night, may hinge the fate of the Administration's new world-policy of combating aggressive totalitarian communism. Congress still has to deal with that policy—to implement it, or to nullify it by refusing to provide funds—and Marshall's report is bound to have vast weight.

The decision which America has to make is one of the most important in our history. We stand at the cross-roads in our relations with our war-time ally, Soviet Russia. We have to determine whether we shall resist the continued expansion of Communist aggression, which the Washington Administration warns is a threat against our own security, or whether we shall condone the expansion.

There are, of course, varying views, and the subject is anxiously debated wherever two or more people meet. Yesterday, for instance, I heard the matter discussed from the pulpit by the pastor of one of the country's large churches. He related that he had been immeasurably shocked during a recent meeting of Divines when one of the leading speakers advocated pacifism and appeasement in dealing with the Russian problem. The preacher yesterday declared that this is a time for a determined stand against Red aggression. Whether his views represent the consensus of the country is beside the point. When you hear a subject like this discussed from the pulpit, it means that it is of paramount public interest.

We are now faced with a dangerous interim in this crisis. The failure of the Moscow Conference has delayed peace and rehabilitation six months, because the next regular session is scheduled for next year.

Labor Union Curbs

House Passes Tough Legislation, Senate Writing Own Version; How Two Bills Are Put Into One; President Truman Likely To Kill Measure With His Veto

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, April 28.—(AP)—You've been hearing for months about Congress and bills to curb labor unions.

Are you wondering: Where does it all stand now? What happens? A couple of weeks ago the House, after months of work, passed a bill to restrict labor unions.

This was the toughest labor bill ever passed by a House of Congress.

And the Senate this week or next will pass its own bill to restrict unions.

This bill, too, is tough, although less tough than the House bill. Because the two bills differ in many ways, when the Senate does pass its bill this will happen:

Social and Personal

Social Calendar

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Perkins spent yesterday in Kinston as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Temple.

Rev. H. F. Jones is supplying at the Baptist church in Kinston.

Mrs. H. F. Jones who has been ill is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Weldon spent Sunday with Mrs. Susie Warren.

Mrs. W. C. Smith and son, Bonnie Ware, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Tripp in Jacksonville, N. C.

Little Miss Mae Barron, of Simpson has entered Pitt General hospital for treatment.

Dies at Sanatorium
Mr. D. E. Todd, of Warsaw, formerly of Greenville, died yesterday at the State Sanatorium, Sanatorium, N. C. Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time. He was the father of D. E. Todd, Jr. of Greenville.

W. C. T. U. Notes
The Reverend C. Freeman Heath, pastor of The First Methodist Church of Washington, N. C., led the devotional at the North Eastern District Conference of W. C. T. U. which met in the Methodist Church of Washington on April 15. He read his Scripture from the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament, II Timothy 4:1-8, taking his text from the seventh verse: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." Mr. Heath quoted the charge of the Apostle Paul to young Timothy: "I charge you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing, and his kingdom: preach the word, be urgent in season and out of season, convince, rebuke, exhort, be unfailing in patience and in teaching. Be steady, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry." He pointed out that the Christian's fulfilling of this ministry meant standing for the things that are right regardless of the opposition and pressure of evil forces. He complimented the W. C. T. U. for holding steady and fighting for temperance in the face of intimidation of the many who have gone down before the mighty propaganda of the liquor interests and have joined the ranks of the moderate drinkers.

"Paul said, 'I have fought a good fight, the battle of Saint Paul was both a personal and a social battle. He gained the victory in righteous living for himself through faith and loyalty to Jesus Christ. He also had an obligation to society to fight for those things which made for a better community and a better world. Standing for the right brought him in conflict with the enemies of decency.'"

Mr. Heath said, "As Paul fought a good fight against the social evils of his day, we as Christians must fight a good fight against the social evils of our day, regardless of the consequences."

"I have finished the race." According to Mr. Heath, "Paul had consistently labored to bring in the kingdom—the reign of Christ in the hearts and lives of men. He fought for a decent community, a decent world, for brotherhood and love among men. Paul was saying, 'I have not compromised with evil.' And we today must not allow intimidation and ridicule to swerve us from the true course."

"I have kept the faith." "Paul had been true to the faith which Christ had placed in him. We, as Christians, must be true to our trust. We know that alcohol is damning the lives of our citizens. We must do all in our power to stop the showing of drinking scenes in our moving pictures and the advertising of beer, wine, and whiskey in the newspapers and radio programs which come into the homes of all our people, to make drinking respectable."

"With St. Paul let us live and labor so that we can say, 'I have fought a good fight, I have run the race, I have kept the faith!'"

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
April 28, 1907

F. J. Forbes spent Sunday in Bethel.

Mrs. G. J. Woodward returned today from Scotland Neck.

Sheriff L. W. Tucker returned from Greensboro Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. J. Cobb and daughter, Miss Irma, returned Sunday evening from Norfolk.

G. J. Woodward, Milton White and Will Lipscomb returned Saturday from Norfolk.

The season may be backward otherwise, but the big hall stones are getting in the papers about as early as usual.

Executive Board of B. and P. Club
The Executive Board of the Business and Professional Women's Club will meet with Mrs. Rual Tyson, 312 W. 2nd Street, Thursday night at 7:30 p. m.

To Celebrate 25th Anniversary
Greenville Chapter Number 149 O. E. S. will celebrate its 25th anniversary Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Hall. Members are urged to be present.

Called Meeting of White Shrine
Mrs. Carolina Munford, Worthy High Priest, requests that as many as possibly can attend the special call meeting of the Greenville White Shrine Wednesday night at 8 at the Masonic Temple to make plans for the installation of officers to be held May 28th.

Minstrel Practice Tonight
Members of the Kiwanis Minstrel cast will rehearse at the Rotary club building tonight at 7:30 with Eli Bloom in charge. The minstrel show will be presented at the college Wednesday and Thursday nights, May 14th and 15th.

Kiwanians are now selling tickets for the first night's performance. Tickets for the second night will go on sale later.

Science Club Visits Laboratory
Twenty-five members of the Science Club at East Carolina Teachers college spent Saturday at the Duke Marine Laboratory at Beaufort and at Shackleford Banks. Dr. Harold Humm, resident biologist of the marine station, acted as host during the day of scientific observation in and near Beaufort and arranged the trip by boat to Shackleford. Frances Bass, junior from Wilmington and president of the East Carolina science club, and the faculty advisors of the group, Dr. Christine Wilton, Dr. Mary G. Caughy, and J. O. Derrick, were among those who participated in the day's events.

Represents College at Conference
Dr. A. D. Frank, chairman of the department of social science at East Carolina Teachers college, represented the college at the Southern Regional Conference on Teaching Social Studies, which was held at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill on April 25-27. The conference was sponsored by the Institute for Research in Social Science.

To Present Dance Recital
A series of dances, original both in theme and in choreography, will be presented by the Modern Dance group of Duke University at a recital to be presented in the Austin auditorium of East Carolina Teachers college on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Among the more interesting numbers is a series of folk ballads from the Burl Ives collection. Included are one of the cherished robber ballads and the "Blue Tail Fly," a Negro minstrel song of the 1840's. "Rags to Riches," familiar theme of American life, is self explanatory.

With Ernest L. Badenschach as narrator, the Modern Dance group will interpret a series of four poems by modern authors. Among these is the easy "Tarantella" by Hilaire Belloc, depicting a saucy, teasing lovers' quarrel and the powerful T. S. Eliot poem, "The Hollow Men."

The Duke dancers will be sponsored at their appearance at the college on Tuesday evening by the department of physical education at East Carolina Teachers college. To meet traveling expenses, there will be an admission charge of 25c.

Also attending the meeting were Alma Browning and Eunice McGee of the faculty of the Training School on the campus, and Jane Hadley and Agnes Fullilove, teachers in the Greenville city schools. Miss Hadley is president of the Greenville branch of the ACE.

Christian Science Service
"Probation After Death" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, April 27. The lesson text from I Corinthians 15:19-20: "If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that rest."

Among the citations comprising the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity nor sworn deceitfully." Psalm 24: 3-4. And from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Men is never to overcome death, why do the Scriptures say, 'The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death? The tenor of the word shows that we shall obtain the victory over death in proportion as we overcome sin.'" (Page 427).

POCAHONTAS

Ingri and Einar d'Aulair
A lively appreciation of the history of our country can best be begun at an early age if the personalities and activities of our national heroes and heroines are presented in an appealing way.

Pocahontas, written and illustrated by the d'Aulaires, is a splendid example of a history book which children from 6 to 10 can enjoy and easily understand. The story is simply written, full of excitement and action. The illustrations, many of which are in color, not only enhance the story-telling, but add a great deal in educational value, too.

It is sometimes hard to convey a picture of life in our country over 300 years ago, but the d'Aulaires have accomplished much in this book which will help the child to understand something of the rigors of early Colonial life.

—Mrs. Roscoe Hauser, Jr.

America's Paul Revere

"One if by land, and two if by sea," this phrase, and a vague recollection of Paul Revere's Midnight Ride is about all most people know of one of our foremost patriots and heroes.

Paul Revere was a man of many arts and trades, a trusted patriot who risked his life time and again for the future of the colonies. Interwoven into the well written story of his life is a clear explanation of the events leading up to our American Revolution, the Stamp Act, the Boston Tea Party, The Continental Congress and The Minute Men.

The illustrations will bear study as much as the text, for they give a very vivid picture of the times.

America's Paul Revere, by Esther Forbes, illustrated by Lynd Ward, is especially recommended for the older readers of high school age.

ARTIE AND THE PRINCESS

By Marjorie Torrey

Almost all stories of Dragons are about cruel and wicked ones, but Artie is different, and you will love him from the very first page.

Artie, whose real name was much, much longer, was a little Dragon who lived in the forest with his mother and daddy. For a long time he was happy, until he began to understand that he was lonely and wanted a playmate. His search for a companion ended at the top of a very high, steep hill, where he found a beautiful little princess. She, too, had longed for someone to play with, and Artie and the Princess were friends right away, and spent many happy days together, with her lovely Queen Mother, and thoughtful King Father, and chubby King Grandpop, who played with them, too.

Gradually Artie began to learn to fly, and then to blow fire from his nostrils—the things that the dragons all used to do, so that when the little kingdom was threatened by a bad king, Artie and his mother and daddy were able to come to the rescue.

The pictures of Artie and the Princess, and all the other people in the story are so lovely that you will want to hurry and read every page, to get to the next one. Children from 5 to 9 will thoroughly enjoy this fanciful tale.—Mrs. Roscoe Hauser, Jr.

Red Oak News

The men, losers in a recent contest at Red Oak, will give a barbecue supper Tuesday night, April 29, at 7 o'clock at the community building. All members of the Sunday school, both old and young, all who visited the Sunday school during the contest, and friends of the Sunday school are invited to this supper. The ladies are asked to bring corn bread and some sweetened tea. Let everybody come and enjoy this fellowship together.

"The Red Oak Minstrel" with something new added will be presented at Maury Friday night, May 2. All members of the minstrel are asked to meet at 6 o'clock at the club house to get blacked. We hope a lot of folks from our neighborhood will go.

Don't forget Wednesday, April 30, will be "Labor of Love Day" at Red Oak. Come early, bring a light lunch, stay late, work hard and we will have a church, club house, Sunday school rooms and grounds to be proud of!

Mrs. Durward Harris, who before her marriage on Saturday, April 19 at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Eighth Street Christian Church, was Miss Edna Mae Cannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cannon, of Greenville. Mr. Harris is the son of Mr. Willie P. Harris and the late Mrs. Harris of Warrenton, N. C.

son, at a drinking party at the home of Josh Beaman, Negro, in the Cannon Cross Roads community Saturday night about 10:30, got into an argument over a woman, and that Wilson shot Garris at close range.

The blast made a hole in Garris' face as big as a man's fist. He bled profusely. Hospital attendants early today said Garris was still living, but is in a serious condition.

Shortly after the shooting Wilson went to Ayden police headquarters and surrendered to Officers Hamilton and Whitehurst.

Recreation News

The Teen Age Club at the armory has been closed temporarily until after school. Announcement of the reopening will be made later.

A new slide purchased by the Recreation commission has been put up at Cotanche Park. Also a new set of swings have arrived for West Greenville school playground area.

One of the tennis courts at the ball park is in perfect playing condition and if enough people use it, the other two will be fixed soon.

Cancer Fund Donors Can Send In Money

By MRS W. C. HARRIS

Any person in Greenville or Pitt County wishing to contribute to the Cancer Control Campaign from now on and not having had an opportunity to do so through personal solicitation, may send his contribution to W. H. Woolard, president of the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company, Greenville, who is treasurer of the campaign fund. Any contribution, large or small will be appreciated and will help very much in the Cancer Society's fight to ease human suffering and to save human lives from the awful scourge of this dreadful disease, which takes an appalling toll of lives year after year, and will continue to do so unless we increase materially the force of our attack.

The goal set for Pitt County is $3,500 and only three more days are left in which to raise this amount.

Cancer is more deadly than war! Give to conquer Cancer!

Revival Under Way At Baptist Church

Much interest is being shown in the revival services which began yesterday morning at the Immanuel Baptist Church. These services are being conducted by the pastor, J. A. Neilson, and will continue through next Sunday with preaching every night except Saturday, at 8 o'clock. The song service will begin at 7:45, featuring choruses by the young people and children. The ladies of the church will provide a nursery to take care of the small children so that parents may attend the services. Mrs. Fred Owens and Mrs. R. T. Stafford will be in charge of the

What To Do For That Sluggish, Down-and-Out Feeling

Remember the time when you could eat like a horse, bubbled-over with energy, felt happy as a lark? Was it not because you liked to eat—didn't know what indigestion was, felt strong as an ox? As age advances, the "ever-changing blood" need help. Now you may again release vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloats and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE GREAT WAGER

A gospel mission in a certain large city was filled one winter night to capacity. Men, broken by long years of dissipation and discouraged by unemployment and failures, had gathered in the warm hall more out of a desire for comfort and fellowship than out of any interest in things religious. The speaker was a well-known convert. He related how years before he had been down and out, had been converted, and for a quarter of a century had lived an upright, profitable, and very happy life. He ended his address by saying: "If God could save a miserable down-and-outer like me, I'll betcha He could save anybody here."

As a matter of fact, millions of people have been betting after that fashion during the centuries. Shorn of any earthly hope, unable to be of any real assistance to themselves in the midst of trouble and temptation, they have cast themselves wholly upon God. They have bet their all that God could save them. It is a tremendous venture. It is the laying of all we have in wager against the inherent doubt of mankind and the power of temptation designed to overwhelm us when we attempt to stand alone against them.

The speaker was decling in very sound theology when he said to his hearers that night, "I'll betcha God can save anybody here. I'll betcha."

Marshall's Report . . .

ular session of the Big Four foreign secretaries is set for November in London. This delay in framing the German and Austrian treaties is in all conscience bad enough, but the half-year lag also provides time for development of the same tendencies in Europe and Asia which have produced the present international difficulties.

That is to say, the fact that the battle-royal over the treaties has been postponed for half a year doesn't mean that there can be any relaxation in precaution to prevent further deterioration of the position. Communist aggression isn't going to take a nap just because the Moscow Conference has been adjourned, but on the contrary it is likely to be especially active.

Former Vice President Henry A. Wallace, who has been campaigning in Europe against President Truman's policy of combating aggressive communism, returned home yesterday and declared that the people of Western Europe are "deeply concerned that the United Nations be used for the purpose of world unity." Well, who isn't? Unfortunately, however, the U. N. isn't in position to deal with the present crisis.

The U. N. is a magnificent machine which hasn't yet been hooked up with the power to run it.

on the Russian people and their leaders, despite the fact that this program was kept out of the official discussions at the Moscow conference.

It was represented as Marshall's belief that when the Soviets had had additional time to think over the attitude taken by the American delegation, plus the president's Greek-Turkish proposal, they may be more willing to compromise some of the issues involved in the treaty discussions.

In this connection, Marshall was said to have described as unreasonable the Soviet reparations demands on Germany and Austria and to have declared that there should be no American retreat on this issue.

The strikers cut their wage demand from $12 to $6 a week last Friday to match the 15 cent hourly boost granted in steel, auto and other industries.

Lion Attacks Negro Woman At Rafferty Show

By CHESTER WALSH
The art of lion taming went into reverse at Rafferty's Carnival on the suburbs of Greenville Saturday afternoon when Juanita Washington, 23-year-old Negro, of 814 Fleming Street, put her hand in the cage to pet the king of the African jungle. Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson said today.
The lion growled madly at the undue familiarity of a stranger, took a big bite. His thumb-size lashed his tail a time or two, then teeth bit into the woman's hand, inflicting an injury which required a surgeon at Dr. Joseph Smith's Clinic, Third and Greene Streets, to take several stitches.
The carnival was showing here last week under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Use Bloodhounds To Find Strange Negro

Sheriff's deputies, with bloodhounds from the State Prison Camp, failed to locate a "bearded and ragged" Negro reported to be prowling about the section in the vicinity of the May farm, between here and Winterville, late Saturday night.
Residents of the section reported to Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson that the strange man was acting suspiciously and causing residents some alarm. The officers found no trace of the nocturnal prowler, the sheriff said.

HELPS KIDNEYS

Remove Harmful Impurities
Backache, loss of the old pep, getting up nights, and headache are often caused by nothing more than improper kidney action due to excess acid in the urine. The kidneys are one of Nature's ways of removing impurities from the blood. And when these impurities back up, trouble may start.
If you have these troubles, give your kidneys and bladder a good flushing out by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. It works on the kidneys to flush them out, increasing the flow of urine to help relieve that excess acidity and ease that burning sensation when you pass water. . . . helps that bladder irritation that makes you get up nights.
Made of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, and balsams, Swamp-Root is absolutely non-habit forming. Millions have taken it for three generations . . . often with wonderful results. Caution: take as directed.
For free trial supply, send to Dept. X, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 125, Stamford, Conn. Or get full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your druggist.

Colored News
Mr. Archie Blount, City Dear Sir:
I recently had the pleasure of attending the performance of "I'll Fly Away," which was written, directed and produced by you with an all-Negro cast. It is a creditable piece of work in every way, and the performance was pleasing to the entire audience which filled the school auditorium. All the actors played their parts well, entertaining the spirit of the play, and giving a sincere performance. The play itself teaches a high moral lesson and I hope you will be able to present it in many other places. This is not the first of your plays that I have seen, and I commend you, as I have done before for the painstaking work you have placed upon them. I wish you every success. Yours very truly, John G. Bragaw, Washington, N. C.

Jap Suicide Submarine To Be Exhibited

An exhibit featuring the famous Japanese suicide one-man submarine will be exhibited in front of the Greenville Post Office on April 29.

The submarine, known in Japan as the Koryu, meaning "Water Dragon," will be on display here. It is 20 feet long and is powered by specially built storage batteries and has a cruising range up to 200 miles. This submarine is dropped off the mother ship approximately 200 miles from the target and is manned by one of the suicide pilots. Eighteen hundred pounds of high explosive is carried in the bow of the ship, and it was the suicide pilot's job to ram the submarine into an American ship. The pilot was expected to join his ancestors after the fulfillment of his mission. This model submarine was used extensively in the naval campaign of the Japanese from Okinawa until the close of the war.

This exhibit is being toured nationally by the Navy Club of the U. S. A., a non-profit welfare organization, dedicated to the welfare and rehabilitation of naval personnel of all wars. It is an accredited veteran's organization and was incorporated by an Act of Congress in

There is no admission charge to this exhibit. Among the items showing is the famous belt of a thousand stitches, which was worn by the Japanese Marines. This belt has 999 stitches sewed on it, each representing a prayer for his safety by his mother, wife or sweetheart.

There is also on display the famous Japanese sniper's rifle that was used by them in their jungle fighting and which caused such a terrible loss among our troops.

Uniformed personnel will be on duty to effect enlistments in the U. S. Naval Reserve.

Pirates Defeat Norfolk Nine In Close 7-6 Tilt

The ECTC Pirates rapped out 12 hits Saturday as they defeated the Norfolk Navy team, 7-6, behind the five-hit hurling of "Judge" Morrissette. The Pirates jumped into an early lead, scoring three runs on four hits in the first inning.

Singles were added in the second and third, and a two-run party in the seventh gave ECTC its margin of victory. Little, Boyd and Stell singled in succession for two runs and the win.

Morrissette was in command all the way, except the seventh, when the Sailors scored four runs on two walks, a fielder's choice, two hits and an error.

Jesse Boyd, at third for the first time, handled 10 chances, miscuing only one.

Garland Little and Jesse Boyd had three hits in five attempts each. Sam Stell and Junior Haynes banged out two safe blows for three tries.

George Wynne, slugging Pirate catcher, was held hitless for the first time in nine games.

The new man playing shortstop for the Greenies yesterday was Gus Rogers, who was sent here to the Greenies by the Smithfield club. Frank Husarik, pitcher, has been suspended to make room for him on the club's roster.

The announcer at the ball park for the last two nights is Mr. Paul Powell of the art department at East Carolina Teachers College. Over at the college he is one of the members of the faculty on athletics.

The Greenville ball players appreciated those gifts handed out by the several merchants last night.

Greenies Collect First Win In Roanoke Rapids

Split Tilts Over Weekend; Slugfests Result In Heavy Scoring By Both Sides; Goldsboro Here Tonight

By BERT MOYE

Greenville split its twin bill with Roanoke Rapids over the weekend, taking the Saturday game over in Roanoke Rapids, 14-13, while losing its home bill here Sunday afternoon 17-11.

Saturday Game
 Manager Johnny Pare's Greenies spotted the Jays ten runs as the two teams went into the third inning, but during the remaining seven frames gradually crept up on the sleeping Jays and when the

and Friday.

Manager Johnny Pare has been joined here by his wife and boy and are still very anxious to find an apartment for the summer. His wife is a North Carolina girl who hails from Concord. They are at present making their home at the Proctor Hotel, but if any of you readers of this column know of an apartment they can obtain for the summer, call him at the Proctor Hotel or call David Moore at 4010.

Claude King, Goldsboro pitcher, has been optioned to New Iberia of the Evangeline Class D League by the New Orleans Pelicans of the Southern Association. Del Dunnack, who caught part of last year for the Bugs, has been optioned to Iberia and Frank Lombardi, another Bug catcher last year, has been optioned to Anderson of the Tri-State Class B League, both by the Pelicans.

game ended the Greenies had won their first ball game of the year.

The Jays scored five runs in the first frame on one hit, two errors, a wild pitch and two walks, then came back in the second frame to score seven runs on five hits, including two doubles and a triple. Their final tally came in the sixth frame on a single and a long fly to deep centerfield.

The Greenies scored in all but two frames during the slugfest that followed.

Phil Redden started on the mound for the Greenies but was yanked out by Manager Pare in the second after yielding two hits, five walks, struck out two men and yielded seven runs; Adrian Hebig replaced him but after pitching to only four men which he allowed three hits and three runs was replaced by Rex Benton, who allowed five scattered hits and three runs, struck out five men, went on to get credit for his first win of the season.

Leading Greenville's 17-hit attack against the Jays was Willard Mauney, Greenie centerfielder, with a triple and two singles in six trips to the plate. He also batted in five of the Greenies' runs. Bill Lynch, second sacker, got three for four, all singles and drove in three of the Greenies' runs.

Sunday's Game
 The Jays hit three Greenville hurriers for 19 hits which they turned into 17 runs to get their first win in Coastal Plain League play. The Jays scored in every frame with the exception of the fourth and put across what proved to be their winning runs in the sixth inning when they scored three runs on four hits and two walks aided by an error.

Highlighting the Greenies' attack against the Jays was Chute who collected a homer, two doubles and single in five times at the bat and drove in six of the Greenies' runs. Mauney with triple and two singles, and R. Pare with three singles in four trips to the plate, were the other big guns for the Greenies.

Joe Alamo started on the mound for the Greenies, allowed 12 hits, 10 runs, walked three and struck out two. He pitched four innings. Johnny Foell relieved him in the fifth frame, allowed two hits, two walks, two strike-outs in his one inning. Phil Redden finished the game, allowing five hits and three runs in his four innings.
