LEWIS ENTERS MEETING ON NEW CONTRACT

Gov't Moves To Return Coal Mines To Operators In Negotiations

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Accompanied by about a dozen of his top aides, John L. Lewis strode into a conference with coal operators today to begin negotiations looking to a new working contract for his United Mine Workers.

The UMW president made no comment as he entered the meeting room where the government is to make its first direct move to turn the soft coal mines back to their owners by July 1 without a strike.

The talks are aimed at replacing with a contract the present working agreement which will expire when the government's legal right to maintain possession of the mines ends June 30.

After meeting for about half an hour, the conferees recessed to resume discussions in the afternoon (2:30 p.m. EST).

Four Major Points

An Analysis Of Marshall's Report; Possibility Of Compromising Differences; Haste Said Necessary; Russian Tactics Blamed; No Sacrifice Of Principles

Four points stand out above all others in Secretary of State Marshall's just before the conference on the matter regarding the deadlock in Moscow conference: 1. There still is a possibility of composing the differences between Russia and the Western democracies.

Foreign Relief Legislation Given Unanimous Approval

Washington, April 29—(AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee unanimously approved today legislation authorizing $350,000,000 relief for five European areas and China.

The Senate group acted as the House resumed debate of the relief measure. The House expected to settle in quick test votes whether the relief bill will be curbed or cut, but Chairman Eaton (R-N.J.) of the Foreign Affairs Committee expressed belief there was more vocal than voting opposition.

relief supplies should be purchased in the U. S. and its possessions, the committee wrote in an amendment directing the naming of a European director for the program whose appointment would be subject to Senate confirmation.

PAY OFFER IS SAID "BREAK" LONG SOUGHT

Phone Unions Claim Resistance By Bell To Wage Demands Cracking

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Leaders of the telephone strike today hailed a $2.50 weekly pay boost offer by the Northwestern Bell Company as a break in resistance to their wage demands in the 23-day old nationwide tieup.

Officials of three other key Bell units gave no evidence that they planned a general wage offer as they returned to government-sponsored negotiations here today.

Joseph Beirne, president of the NFTW, said the offer was the "break" which had been rumored over the weekend. The three key sessions in Washington continued, between union and company representatives of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company's Long Lines Division, Western Electric Company, and Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Committee Agrees To Holy Land Probe Body

British Win First Round In UN Steering Committee Decision; Action Deferred On Arab-Proposed "Free Palestine"

New York, April 29—(AP)—Britain won initial approval for setting up a Palestine fact-finding committee today, declaring she could not be expected to expand blood and treasure single-handedly to carry out United Nations recommendations on the future of the Holy Land.

The delegates recessed until 3 p. m. (EDT) after an hour and one-half session highlighted by the British-Indian wrangle which was joined by several other delegates including Russia.

The exchange took place shortly after the assembly's steering committee met to decide whether the extraordinary session should be broadened to include consideration of Arab demands for immediate Palestine independence.

Egypt then plunged into the controversy and demanded that the committee act on the Arab demands either before or along with Britain's proposal for creation of a fact-finding committee to report back on the Palestine question at the September meeting of the assembly.

Assembly President Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil ruled, however, that the British proposal should be taken up first.

Indian delegate Asaf Ali, taking the floor as the 14-nation steering committee began debating the assembly's agenda, challenged British delegate Cadogan to clarify Britain's position before any action was taken.

Serves Notice That America Will Drive Ahead To Speed Recovery In Europe Without Awaiting "Compromise Of Exhaustion" Foreseen By Premier Stalin

Washington, April 29—(AP)—The United States served notice on Russia today that this country will drive ahead with steps to help speed Europe's recovery without awaiting the big-power "compromise of exhaustion" foreseen by Premier Stalin.

Secretary of State Marshall disclosed the Soviet leader's suggestion and the American reply in a plain spoken reply to the nation last night on the dissolution-torn Moscow Foreign Ministers' Conference.

Stalin told him at their secret Kremlin meeting two weeks ago, Marshall said, that the Big Four might be able to compromise all their major differences "after they had exhausted themselves in dispute."

In his delayed report, the Cabinet officer put the blame squarely on Russia for the failure of the foreign ministers to agree on a peace treaty for Austria and the rough outlines of one for Germany, and declared:

"The patient is sinking while the doctors deliberate. I believe that action cannot await compromise through exhaustion." Marshall went on, "Whatever action is possible to meet these pressing problems must be taken without delay."

"The secretary did not elaborate on the point. However, one major action which already is being taken is the economic unification of the British and American occupied zones of Germany designed to make them self-sustaining. Marshall said the invitation for Russia and France to join in the arrangement continues in force.

Another major American step—the $400,000,000 program of financial and military aid for Greece and Turkey—Marshall mentioned only indirectly. The reference then was in praising Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Connally (D-Tex.), for their bi-partisan leadership in the Senate debate on "a foreign policy of momentous importance to the American people."

The aid bill has passed the Senate but may not reach a House vote until next week.

In his first major address since he entered the Cabinet in January, Marshall said guardedly that at Moscow, "possibly greater progress toward final settlement was made than is realized."

But he cautioned that the differences between Russia and the Western powers are "matters of vast importance to the lives of the people of Europe and to the future course of world history," and added:

"We must not compromise on great principles in order to achieve agreement for agreement's sake." Marshall said that at their Kremlin meeting Stalin counseled patience, observing that the seven-week foreign ministers conference represented only the first skirmishes on a German settlement.

Stalin, he said, thought that compromises are possible eventually on "all the main questions, including demilitarization, political structure of Germany, reparations and economic aid."

PEACEFUL DAY AT HOSPITAL

Twenty-Four Hours Of Quiet At Duke Following Incidents

Durham, N. C.—(AP)—Encouraged by the first 24-hour period of quiet in almost a week, Durham quiet today pressed their search for the man who shot a pretty 25-year-old Duke Hospital nurse last Wednesday night and for a firebug whose activities have kept the hospital in a turmoil since the shooting.

Detective Capt. E. R. Leary said he had talked for the first time since the shooting with the young victim, Miss Sue Taylor, but that she had been unable to give any clue which might trap the gunman.

Miss Taylor, 26, is in a serious condition at the hospital. The shooting followed a series of incendiary fires in the hospital.

Friday night Miss Virginia Leonard, 23-year-old night nurse supervisor, was struck in the face by an unidentified man when she investigated another fire in the hospital.

Tentative Cut

Washington, April 29—(AP)—The House voted tentatively today to slash a proposed $250,000,000 foreign relief fund to $200,000,000.

The action—first major test on the measure—came on a teller's tally of 156 to 138. It will be subject to a roll call vote later.

The money is intended for use in six European areas and China in 1947 and 1948.

The House accepted an amendment by Rep. Jonkman (R-Mich.) to trim the total by $150,000,000 and limit its use to 1947.

GOP SPLIT ON LABOR POLICY

Taft-Backed Amendment Opposed By Sen. Vandenberg

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) bumped into opposition by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) today in his drive to broaden pending labor legislation to let private employers seek injunctions against jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.

Vandenberg declined comment, but colleagues said he had raised objections within the Republican Policy Committee to the amendment—one of four Taft is offering—on the grounds that it would be regarded as a move to scuttle the Norris-LaGuardia Act.

Vandenberg's opposition to the proposal lined him up against Taft, as well as George, who joined Senators Ball (R-Minn.), Byrd (D-Va.), and Donnell (R-Mo.) in offering the amendment to the Labor or Committee bill the Senate has been debating since last week.

FIND VACCINE INEFFECTIVE

State - Produced Smallpox Vaccine Supply Is Impotent

Raleigh, N. C., April 29—(AP)—Vaccine produced by the State Laboratory of Hygiene for immunization against smallpox is impotent and useless, it was learned here yesterday following an announcement from Shelby that a 19-month-old Cleveland county child is suffering from the disease.

Dr. John Hamilton, director of the laboratory, said that reports from county health departments, which ordinarily secure their vaccine from the state, that smallpox shots were failing to "take" led to discovery that the vaccine is impotent.

However, at Charlotte, W. J. Smith, secretary-treasurer of the N. C. Pharmaceutical Association, said that there "is a sizeable quantity of effective smallpox vaccine available" in this state through commercial channels.

And Dr. Carl V. Reynolds, state health officer, said that if smallpox should spread, the state's supply of vaccine could be replenished from out-of-state sources.

Dr. Hamilton said that he had advised the Cleveland County health officer and other county health officers to secure vaccine from the commercial sources.

The impotent vaccine represented a full year's supply and was worth thousands of dollars, Dr. Hamilton said.

Truman Continues His Price Reduction Drive

Washington, April 29—(AP)—President Truman told the U. S. Chamber of Commerce today "a pressing task of all businessmen is to reduce prices wherever possible at all levels while steadily increasing production."

This reiteration of Mr. Truman's repeated assertion that prices must go down if the nation is to avoid serious inflation and depression came before 2,000 delegates to the chamber's 35th annual convention.

In a message prepared for delivery by presidential aide John R. Steinhilber, Mr. Truman said: "It is heartening to know that this nationwide federation of American businessmen is gathering in the nation's capital not merely to discuss questions relating to the welfare of individual businessmen. But to consider the general welfare of our people as a whole and the ways in which businessmen can further America's continued prosperity and freedom."

MARSHALL HAS QUICK BACKING

Vandenberg Endorses Stand; Warns Against Undue Delay

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) declared today that the United States "cannot wait too long" for a final European peace program if it finds agreement is "beyond reasonable reach."

Vandenberg, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a statement he agreed with Secretary of State Marshall's declaration in his radio report to the nation last night that this country cannot "surrender basic principles in payment for compromise and expediency."

"Secretary Marshall has honestly faced realities," Vandenberg declared.

"Peace lags because the Soviets insist upon demands which America and her other allies cannot accept. It is worth a supreme effort to seek agreement during the coming months."

"He also is right in frankly stating that we and the world cannot indefinitely permit disintegrating forces to threaten sound results. We must still strive for a united

AIRLINER LOST IN NORTHWEST

No Clues To Whereabouts Of Overdue C-56 Transport

Vancouver, B. C., April 29—(AP)—A large oil-slick, a quarter of a mile southwest of Stevenson, B. C., at the mouth of the Fraser River in the Straits of Georgia, has been spotted by searchers for the missing trans-Canada Airlines plane which vanished last night with 15 persons aboard.

Vancouver, B. C., April 29—(AP)—A Trans-Canada Air Lines plane with 15 persons aboard disappeared today on a flight from Lethbridge, Alta., to Vancouver. There were no clues as to its whereabouts, although the plane—a C-56 transport—checked in by radio only three minutes before it was scheduled to land here last night at 11:16 p.m. (EST).

At that time, the Northwestern Air Command said, the plane reported it was on the west leg of the Vancouver radio range and was preparing to come in from 7,000 feet altitude for a landing. The plane has not been heard from since. There were no Americans aboard.

The radio report indicated the plane probably was over Vancouver Island, due west of this mainland city, but a search by two Royal Canadian Air Force planes which covered the entire island failed to show signs of the craft.

A fire reported in the vicinity where it was thought the craft might be down, a 30 mile strip along the east coast of the island in the area of Duncan, Chemainus and Nanaimo, proved to be only a blaze from burning brush, the air command reported.

WALLACE MAY "TAKE STEPS"

Leaves Door Open For Bolt From Party In '48 Elections

Washington, April 29—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace kept the door open today for a possible bolt from the Democratic Party in 1948 unless it changes to fit his definition of "liberal."

Explaining his attacks on administration foreign policy during a tour of England and France as "a fundamental divergence of opinion" with President Truman, Wallace declared:

1. "It's too early to say" whether he will support reelection the man who tossed him out of the cabinet.

2. "I still hope the Democratic Party will become the liberal party. If not, there will have to be some steps taken—no doubt about that."

3. "The only question of my running for office would be to benefit peace in the world."

Wallace declared Mr. Truman's proposal to spend $400,000,000 for economic and military aid to bolshevik Greece and Turkey against communism "lets the United Nations run around."

Wallace added these other remarks: "The administration's campaign to root out communists on the federal payroll is another 'witch hunt.' He doesn't 'take much stock' in

Too Much To Absorb

Washington Best Understood By Hitting High Spots; Too Much Going On For Most People To Follow, Even Congressmen Rely On Experts' Viewpoint

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, April 29—(AP)—You, as a citizen interested in what happens in Washington, can know only a little of the whole story.

There's just too much story for anyone to absorb it all thoroughly. The same goes for most of your congressmen, or anyone else here.

Here the best that people can do is fasten tightly on a few things and try to understand the rest by hitting the high spots.

Take the case of the labor bills as an example. For weeks the House and Senate Labor Committees, separately, heard a total of about 250 witnesses.

They came to talk for or against labor laws. The senators and representatives questioned them in vast detail.

The testimony and questioning fills about 6,300 pages in 10 volumes.

Based on the testimony, these separate committees had to draw up labor bills for the full House and Senate to vote upon.

But only 13 of the 96 senators and only 25 of the 435 representatives were on the Senate and House Labor Committees. So of all the people in Congress, the committee members were most familiar with the background and details of the labor bills.

The rest could learn a lot during debate before voting. But largely they'd have to depend upon the committee members for guidance.

Few members of Congress, outside the Labor Committee members, would have had the time to read through 10 volumes of testimony. They would have the time for a very good reason:

Most of the House and Senate members not on the Labor Committees were busy on other committees which were hearing other witnesses on other bills.

So when they in turn draw up bills, after lengthy testimony, the rest of the House and Senate will depend upon them for guidance.

All, when it comes time to vote, may know in a general way what they're doing, and why.

But those few committee members (Continued on Page Four)

Bronze Plaque Honors Memory Jesse Rountree

Historic Rountree Christian Church at Rountree observed its 120th anniversary last Sunday afternoon with impressive services devoted to the dedication of a bronze memorial plaque erected in memory of Jesse Rountree, prominent layman and founder of this church who gave the land and the first houses of the Disciples faith in North Carolina. The plaque, designed by his great-granddaughter, Miss Rountree Mose of Greenville, bears the symbol of the Rowan County of mountain-ash of Scotland, from which the Rountree family name originates. The presentation of this tablet, Miss Mose, historian, referred to the English ancestry (1630) of Jesse Rountree, who was of the fourth generation of Rountrees settled in Nanamond County, Va., and in the Old Albemarle of North Carolina. A young patriot of the American Revolutionary War, Jesse Roun-

Father And Son Members Local Kiwanis Club

By CHESTER WALSH. Impressive exercises attended the induction of two new members into the Greenville Kiwanis Club on a recent night when the club became the only one in the Carolinas Kiwanis District to have a "father and son" combination.

Lieut.-Gov. Ed Rawl, in welcoming William H. Woolard, Jr., assistant cashier of the Dickinson Avenue branch of the Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, reminded him that his father, W. H. Woolard, president of the Guaranty Bank & Trust Company, was a charter member of the club and had been a faithful member for more than a quarter of a century. The lieutenant-governor called for "Uncle Billy" Woolard, as he is affectionately known to many, and requested him to attach the Kiwanis emblem to his son's lapel. It was a happy occasion, and more so when the elder banker reminded his son of the wonderful opportunities Kiwanis provides for community service.

Lieut.-Gov. Rawl, in welcoming as a Kiwanian Ted Ashworth, manager of Ridgeway's, manufacturing opticians, 106 West Fifth street, pointed to the 75 or more Kiwanians and said, "There sit a large group of the leading business and professional men of Greenville." Ashworth came here from Raleigh. He is married, has no children, likes people and Greenville. Ridgeway's recently established here, has offices in Greenville, S. C., and Kinston. The company manufactures eyeglasses on physician's prescriptions; artificial plastic eyes, contact lens, and repair glasses. This work, which formerly had to be sent to New York, is done right here in Greenville. Five persons are employed in local plant.

In later life served in many positions of public trust, as well as in affairs of his church. Clarence Victor Cannon of Ayden, president of the Rountree Family Association, presided. The Rev. Jack R. Rountree, rector of St. Johns Episcopal Church, Kinston, a great-grandson of Jesse Rountree, said the invocation. Heber Earl Cannon of Rountree, treasurer of the church and direct Rountree descendant, accepted the plaque for the church.

The scriptures were read and the dedicatory prayer offered by Rev. George H. Sullivan of Wilson, pastor of Rountree church. An interesting history, "Rountree's Black in History," was given by Rev. Charles C. Ware of Wilson, secretary of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention.

Dr. H. Glenn Haney, pastor of Eighth Street Christian Church, Greenville, delivered a brilliant and inspiring address on "The Church of the Future," in which he made a plea for a united world through a unified church.

The Atlantic Christian College Glee Club of Wilson, under direction of Miss Loftin, of the college music faculty, sang, with reverence and beauty, two selections, "Create in Me a Clean Heart," by Mueller, and "Jesus Our Lord We Adore Thee," by Fawcett-Naegele.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. William H. Brunson, pastor of the Christian Church, Ayden. A great crowd of Rountree descendants and friends from near and distant parts of North Carolina and other states joined members of Rountree Church in celebrating this occasion.

The process of making steel rails was invented by an Englishman, Henry Bessemer, and perfected by A. L. Holley, an American.

Negro Dies Of Gunshot Wound; Shot Saturday

John Garris, 24-year-old Negro, who was allegedly shot with a shotgun by Walter B. Wilson, Negro, during a drinking party at the home of Josh Beaman, Negro, in the Cannon's Cross Roads community, last Saturday night, died at Pitt General Hospital last night about 7 o'clock.

The body was taken to Phillips' Brothers Funeral Home for preparation for burial.

Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson is holding Wilson in jail without privilege of bond in connection with the shooting, pending an inquest to be held by Coroner Griffin H. Rouse.

The sheriff said Garris and Wilson had an argument about a woman and that Wilson allegedly shot Garris at close range, the blast tearing away a portion of the man's face.

Wilson surrendered to Ayden police shortly after the shooting.

Gospel Challenge Is Theme Sermon

"The Gospel of Jesus Christ challenges the people of today as nothing else does," declared Rev. J. A. Neilson in his message last night at the Immanuel Baptist Church.

Using as his theme the words of Paul to the Philippian Christians: "Let your manner of life be worthy of the Gospel of Christ," Mr. Neilson stated that the fundamental need today is a redeemed society, made up of individuals who are wise and good, made so by the power of Christ. The Gospel challenges us by declaring that men's lives can be changed, that they can be delivered from sin and selfishness, pride and prejudice, from laziness and lust, ill-temper and impurity. God is constantly calling to the divine within us, to move forward and climb upward. The most attractive life is one lived in obedience to God, revealing the spirit of Christ. There is no escape from the responsibility of being a Christian. The needs of our world today call for the deepest devotion, the greatest loyalty, the highest service, and the strongest love of which we as Christians are capable.

Revival services continue each night at 8 o'clock, with a song service at 7:45. Mr. Neilson's subject tonight is: "What is Your Attitude to the Cross?" A quartet made up of Mrs. Tyson Bilbro, Mrs. J. A. Neilson, Mr. Dick Evans and Mr. Norman Wilkerson will sing "The Old Rugged Cross." Mrs. Floyd Smith and Mrs. Leo Hawkins will have charge of the nursery for the children so that parents may attend the service.

Recover Body From Tranter's Creek

Sheriff's deputies, Coroner Griffin H. Rouse and others dragging Tranter's Creek yesterday, recovered the body of Stephen Crandell, 45-year-old Negro tenant on the Hugh Winslow farm near Pactolus, who was drowned while fishing Sunday morning with Ralph Suggs and Vinton Lewis, Negroes.

An inquest will be held at the City Hall tonight at 7:30. Authorities said Crandell was drowned about 8 o'clock Sunday morning, but it was not reported until late in the afternoon.

All reserve officers are invited to attend the meeting.

Christian Science Lecture Last Night

Earl E. Simms, C. S., of Austin, Tex., member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass., delivered the following lecture at the Christian Science Church in Greenville last night.

The lecture, in part: "The path of inspired spiritual living, the way of complete salvation, lies in obedience to Jesus' commands; following this path requires thinking, talking, and living as he did."

"It was the prayers of the righteous which opened the way for the Saviour's coming! God so loved those righteous, those who prayed for a better way of life, that He sent His only begotten Son into the world, 'that the world through him might be saved.' (John 3:17.)"

"The Christian Scientist acknowledges Jesus the Christ to be the Son of God. The Christian Science textbook, 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures' by Mary Baker Eddy, defines 'Christ' (p. 583) as 'The divine manifestation of God, which comes to the flesh to destroy incarnate error.' Jesus referred to the ever-present, ever-operative Christ, at-one with its divine Principle, God, when he declared, 'Before Abraham was, I am' (John 8:58); and, 'I and my Father are one.' (John 10:30.)"

Throughout Christian history many have striven to follow the path of inspired spiritual living christed by our Way-shower. Some have been more successful than others. In this long procession of worthy disciples, none has followed more closely or understood more clearly the spiritual import of the Master's teachings than Mary Baker Eddy. She is the revelator of Truth to this age. She named her discovery of Christian Science because it is the Science of Christianity as Jesus practiced it. Christian Science is the Comforter which Jesus promised God would send.

Adjustments In Exchange Telephone Rates Requested

Because of continuing increases in costs of providing telephone service, we have found it necessary to apply to the North Carolina Utilities Commission for adjustments in exchange rates throughout our territory. This action was taken only after it was determined that the present rates were insufficient to improve and properly maintain service. Hearing on this application has been set for May 19, 1947.

Table with 7 columns: No. Phones, B1P, B2P, B4P, R1, R2, R4. Rows show rates for various phone numbers from 0-100 to 5000-.

*Four-party rate applies to exchanges which are furnished only that type service.

Other proposed changes are minor adjustments in business extensions, private branch exchange switchboards and extensions, and rates for rural service.

EROSION VERSUS EARTHQUAKE

Scientists tell us that earthquakes generally do not make any particular change in a country. They may alter the landscape slightly, and of course if they occur in densely populated regions they may destroy houses and cause great damage. But the contour of the landscape is but slightly altered. And after the earthquake the country geologically is very much the same as it was before. The thing that alters the life of a continent is the daily erosion of its hills and the washing away of its soil. Many of the ancient civilizations flourished in sections of the world that are now arid deserts. There was soil in these areas at one time, deep alluvial soil. Frequently weather conditions have changed to the complete altering of life over a tremendous area. Transferred over into the things of life, these facts about nature illustrate a great truth. Your life and mine are not so much damaged by earthquakes as by erosion and by the change of moral climate in which we find ourselves. Some people break down under life's troubles, but the average man manages to stagger along, survive these catastrophes, and on the whole emerge from them happier and more resourceful. But the daily events of life wear us down. The temptations to which we are continually exposed and the environment in which we find ourselves can change us radically from one person to another.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—The nation's capital has one rat per person—a million more or less—and they cost the city a conservative $15,000,000 annually in damage.

The health department estimates it will take $75,000 annually, in congressional appropriations, to keep the city rid of rodents. A scientific rat-control program for this has already been set up on paper. It's up to Congress now, health officials say, to legislate rats out of Washington.

About a year ago it was discovered that a large number of the rats found in certain areas here carried fleas and mites that carried typhus germs. The discovery was made after a girl who lived near the railroad yards had been bitten by a rat and had contracted the fever.

Traps were set in the area and the blood of the live rats caught was tested and found positive. The public became alarmed, wrote letters to editors and federal and district officials.

At that time it was estimated there were about 2,000,000 rats in Washington and the surrounding communities. Working with Lt. Col. William H. Cary, Jr., director of the health department's bureau of sanitation, is Rodent Control Specialist John C. Jones, of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

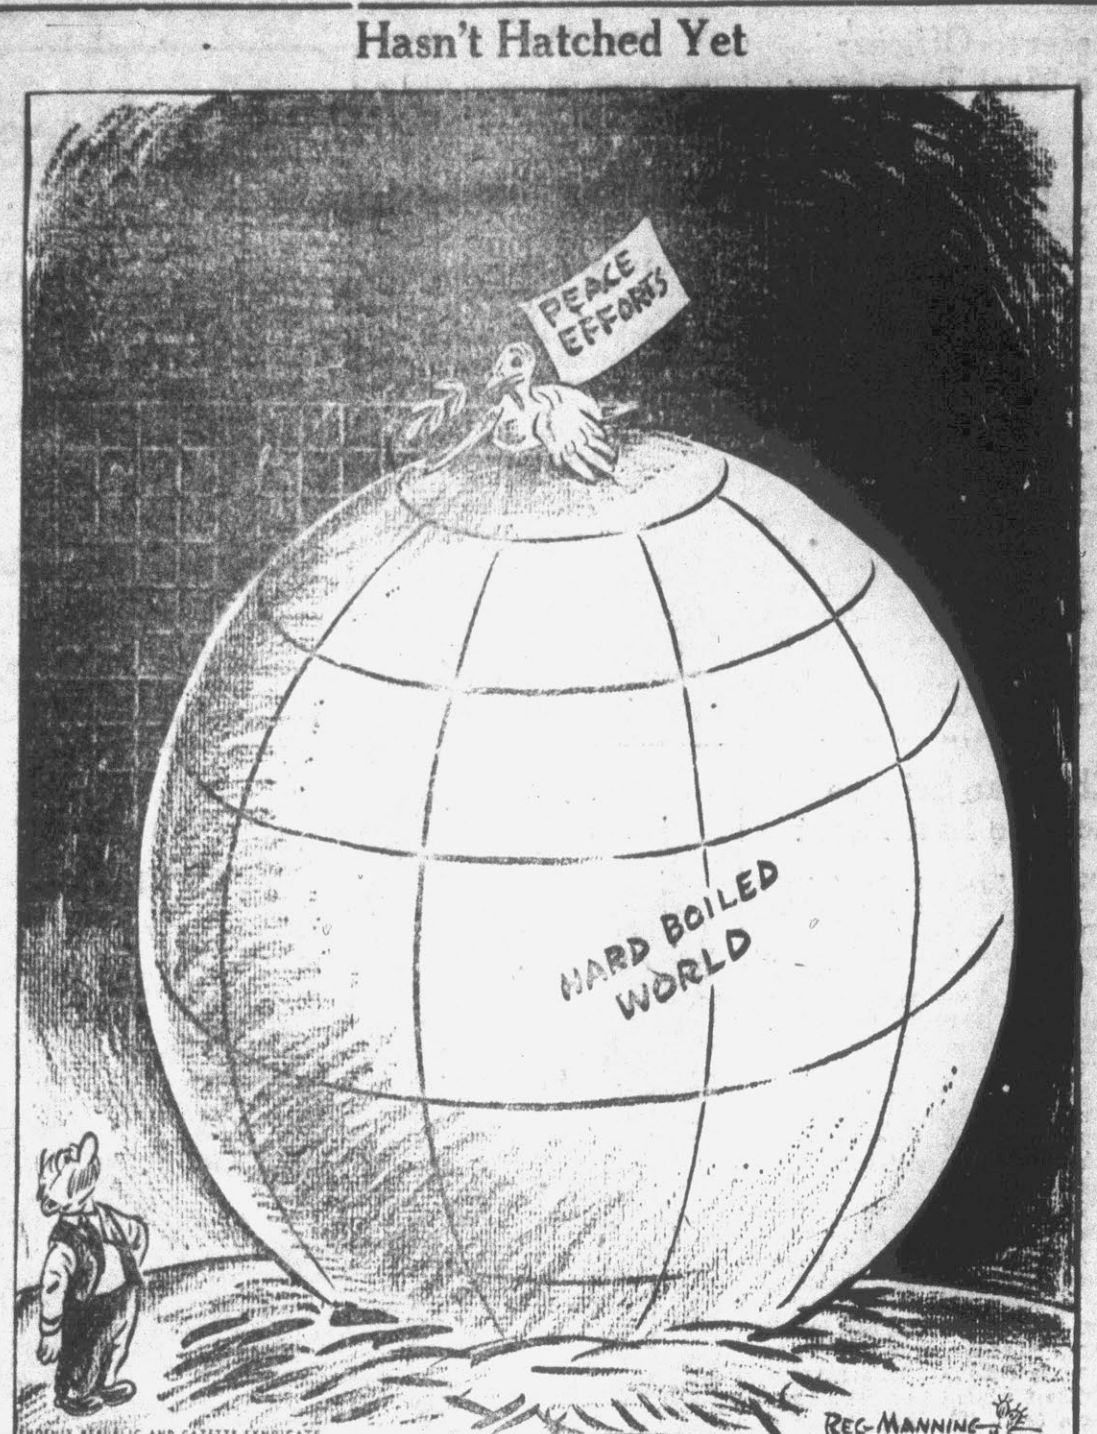

In the 30 or more square blocks in which positive-infected rats were trapped, few rats have been found since control measures were put into effect, and none of the rats found in the area has been infected. Thus officials feel the typhus menace in the district has been checked.

Red squill, of which the health department has prepared 11,000 ounces, was furnished to the public. In addition, 50 t 600 steel muskrat traps were set out each day.

An extensive educational program was carried on. People were to help remove food and shelter from rats. Officials contend this is the most effective way of getting rid of the pest and getting rid of them.

Of the 12,000 nuisance complaints received by the health department last year, 3,037 concerned rats and mice. A large number of other complaints had to do with conditions which encourage rat pestilence—obstructive plumbing, lack of garbage and refuse receptacles, improper storage of food, insanitary buildings, dirty backyards, overcrowding.

The health department said that though it cost only 2,047 direct complaints about rats, it issued 2,203 orders for the abatement of nuisances caused by them.

Officials hope the peak is passed but it takes time, they say, to get the rat-ridding program rolling — time and money and more men. The health department points out that a single pair of rats can have 1,500 descendants in a year, producing a litter of from 10 to 12 rats every 30 days. The young also can bear within 90 days after birth. Suppose only 10 per cent live, if you have two rats on New Year's day you're very likely to have at least 100 by the next Christmas.

tion in those key countries of central Europe is affecting surrounding nations. Moreover, while it wasn't an issue at the Moscow conference, we can see the danger of the precarious situation in which Greece and Turkey find themselves. So while it's encouraging to hear of hope for compromise at some future date, yet this half year of delay is a matter of grave concern. At least it is a matter of concern for the Western Allies because of their belief that communism thrives on disintegration. If that thesis is correct, then Russia stands to gain by any delay in writing the peace treaties and starting central Europe on the road to recovery.

Charlie Chute Wields Big Bat In 10-8 Loss

Clouts Homer, Triple And Two Singles In Five Tries At Plate; Both Sides Account For Fourteen Hits During Contest

By BERT MOYE

The Greenville Greenies continued their downward path towards the cellar as they were trounced by the Goldsboro Bugs here last night 10-8, before a small crowd of spectators at Guy Smith Stadium. The Bugs pounded two Greenville pitchers for fourteen hits, and aided by four errors, two of which later allowed the Bugs to score three of their runs. Of the total runs made by the Bugs only five of them were of the earned variety.

The Greenies started off by taking a two-run lead in the first frame when Mauney tripled, Lynch walked, R. Pare forced Lynch at second, with Mauney scoring on the play; Fraker reached first on error as short, Chute singled to bring home R. Pare.

The Bugs knotted the count at two-all in their half of the second, and in the third frame picked up two more runs.

Greenie again tied the visitors as four-all in the third when Charlie Chute homered over the right field fence; Luke following with a single, Rogers singled with Luke taking third and a double steal by Luke and Rogers scored Luke. In the fourth, Goldsboro tallied two runs and accounted for another in the fifth. The Greenies put across three runs in their half of the fifth to knot the count at 7-7 when with three men on, Mauney doubled, clearing the bases.

The "Lucky Seventh" proved to be the downfall for the Greenies as the Bugs scored three runs in this frame for what proved to be their winning runs. During this frame they collected a total of four hits, had one walk, two stolen bases, a sacrifice, aided by an error.

Charlie Chute proved the big gun in last night's battle, collecting two singles, a triple and a homer in five trips to the plate and driving in three of the Greenies' runs. Pete Luke also proved effective with the stick getting three singles in five trips to the plate.

Ralph Davis, rookie pitcher, pitching his first pro game, was touched for 13 hits in seven innings and received credit for the loss Hank Ranweiler, Greenville's converted pitcher, pitched the last two frames, allowing one hit and held 60.

At the meeting of the Coastal Plain League officials in Wilson on last Wednesday night, a desire was expressed on the part of club presidents to outlaw all gambling in the parks. The menace to organized baseball has become more and more apparent each year, and something has to be done to stop it. Police have been instructed to pick up any spectator flashing take-money at the contests.

season, stated that he was not much on patrolling the outfield, but that he could really hit the ball at home plate. He has certainly been living up to his word in the last few games.

Virgil Payne, Greenville's former manager, received a big hand when he went to the plate last night. Payne handled a dozen chances last night and made one miscue when he lost his balance and fell as he threw the ball.

The Greenville Greenies have what is believed to be the youngest bat boy in the entire Coastal Plain League. He is Ronnie Pare, six-year-old son of Manager and Mrs. Johnnie Pare. He takes his work seriously and is a great lover of baseball and really knows the game. Not only does he attend to the bats, but he also helps the players in selecting the right stick. In last Saturday night's game at Roanoke Rapids he pulled a bat out of the pile and told Mauney that it was a "hit bat." Mauney took the stick and hit for a triple. Mauney says that he will use the bat for the remainder of the season. Ronnie follows the team on their out-of-town trips and is the pet of the entire squad. His parents bought him a new baseball suit Saturday and he wears it constantly.

Churchmen Wind Up Week's Meet

The 26th annual Ministers and Workers Meeting of the Church of God in Christ, Negro, which has been in progress here since April 23, will reach its conclusion Wednesday night. Meetings throughout the week have been held in the denomination's Greenville church whose pastor is Elder A. B. Malone.

Today, being State Supervisors' Day, Mrs. J. R. Anderson of Rocky Mount, gave the lesson. Devotional and evangelistic services are scheduled for this evening. Isabel Davis, also of Rocky Mount, will sing today, as will the choruses of Bethel and Windsor.

Wednesday, Young People's Day, will be featured by an address by Miss Lee Alma Swain of Woodard, and a sermon on "The Efficient Church."

Reading of appointments and the Benediction will close the session.

Dozen In Race For Offices In Grimesland

By CHESTER WALSH
A dozen candidates have filed for office in the enterprising town of Grimesland and the time for filing has passed. New candidates have not announced their platforms. Incumbents are referring the voters to their records in office. Addition of 47 new names to the registration books is evidence of the keen interest in the political campaign. Next Monday, May 5, is election day.

P. W. Majette is opposing Mayor Leslie Elks, incumbent.

Ten well known citizens are seeking five places as aldermen. Four incumbents, M. H. Godley, T. R. Dixon, J. D. Heath and Jamie Dall, are candidates for reelection. J. H. Brooks, incumbent, is not a candidate.

New candidates for the Board of Aldermen are W. A. Hudson, Eddie Hodges, C. W. Evans, T. R. Rouse, Jr., Cecil Moore and C. R. Arnold.

Kings Daughters And Sons Report Work For Year

This report was made by the Patient, Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons at the 57th annual convention of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons at Concord, N. C., April 24:

"Regular meetings of the Circle have been held, the second Tuesday night in every month with increased attendance. The devotionals have followed closely the Bible study as outlined in the Silver Cross. The Circle is further cooperating with Mrs. T. W. Young, assistant chaplain, by following a Bible study plan. Stimulating programs have been provided by outside speakers on the different phases of work stressed by the Circle. One of the outstanding programs was in January commemorating Founder's Day. The history of the order, its purposes and aims were reviewed together with the different activities of the state branches.

"The activities of the group have been many and varied. Frequent visits have been made to the sick and shut-ins who were remembered on several occasions, including Thanksgiving and Christmas, with baskets of fruit. Five needy families have received constant aid throughout the year. At Thanksgiving time four baskets of substantial groceries were distributed to four needy families. Eleven families were provided with clothing, food and toys at Christmas time. The toys were the annual gift of the Kiwanis Club. A donation was made to one of the city schools to aid underprivileged children with their lunches. Another donation was given to help defray the hospital bill for a deserving girl. A generous gift was made to the Laughinghouse charity bed at the local hospital. Cards of sympathy have been sent to members in the state and outside the state.

"The Circle has cooperated with all the civic organizations of the city in the following ways: They helped the Merchants Association by sponsoring a window during "Child Accident Prevention Week." They aided in the Community Chest drive, by giving a generous collection of clothes and candles.

"The Circle has allied itself closely with the North Carolina Branch by paying all state and international dues, by paying its $25 to Stonewall Jackson Training School Chapel Fund, by increasing its subscriptions of the Silver Cross to 34 percent of its membership; by making donations to gift showers to two prominent State King's Daughters."

Stray Dogs Menace; Prowling Canines Destroy Flowers

By CHESTER WALSH
Hundreds of prowling unlicensed dogs are rated by householders and flower lovers as Greenville's Public Nuisance No. 1 at this time, according to complaints. "The dogs don't gambol like lambs in the spring-time," one woman who has flowers in her back and front yards, said. They prowl and bark at night, turn over the largest garbage cans, make life miserable for light sleepers, and top off their nocturnal prowling by using their hind legs to uproot and destroy hundreds of dollars worth of early spring flowers in yards."

Another citizen who owns two dogs, but keeps them on his own premises, said, "For every dog on which a city license tax is paid there are a score of others."

There is a city ordinance on the books requiring owners of dogs to pay a tax on them, and which forbids dogs to run at large, a woman who spends practically a hundred dollars for flowers and bulbs each year, said.

A physician who owns a dog, but who keeps it on his own premises, gave an ominous warning that with the approach of hot weather and the danger of hydrophobia resulting from a dogs bite, city officials should enforce the dog-catching law.

Dogs are Public Nuisance No. 1, it is generally agreed among many residents of Greenville.

Bert Solves the Labor Problem

You hear a lot about capital and labor nowadays, as if the two could never get together. But look at Bert Childers—who has 320 acres of producing land, a fair-sized herd of cattle, and two farm hands working for him.

If you called Bert a "capitalist," he wouldn't know what you meant, and neither would Spike and Sandy, the hired men. Bert works side by side with both of them; and in the evenings they sit around the fire together—sharing a friendly glass of beer or two.

If anybody has a beef—whether it's about wages or hours or equipment—they talk it over at those friendly evening sessions.

I don't say all labor problems are as simple as Bert's. But from where I sit, the basic principle applies to any farm or factory or business: A principle of confidence and mutual respect, of daily talks together in a friendly and congenial atmosphere.
