BRAZIL REDS OUTLAWED BY COURT RULING

Police And Troops Padlock Communist Clubs Following Decision

Rio de Janeiro, May 8—(AP)—The Brazilian Government cracked down hard on the Communist Party today, with federal police and troops padlocking 446 Communist clubs or cells to enforce a decision by the supreme electoral tribunal outlawing the party in Brazil.

The tribunal approved, by a 3 to 2 vote last night, a government petition asking that the Brazilian Communist Party—one of the largest in the Western Hemisphere—be declared illegal and closed. In the last election, in January, the party polled about 800,000 votes.

It elected 17 deputies and one senator in the Federal Congress, 18 members of this capital's 50-member City Council, 60 members of various state legislatures and helped to elect the governors of eight Brazilian states.

The senator, Luis Carlos Prestes, who is secretary general of the Brazilian Communist Party, called all the party's branches immediately after yesterday's decision, ordering them to obey the verdict calmly. He said the decision would be appealed to the Brazilian Supreme Court and announced that the party's national convention, scheduled for May 25 in Rio, had been postponed indefinitely.

But even as the tribunal's judgment was being announced, the (Continued On Page Eight)

President To Push Universal Training

Will Try To Get Law Enacted During Present Session Of Congress; Replies To Complaints On Vatican Envoy

Washington, May 8—(AP)—President Truman said today he will try to get this session of Congress to enact a law for universal training.

He told a news conference he is expecting a report soon from a committee of clergymen, educators and others which is studying the problem for him.

Some Congress members have expressed the view that time is running short for the matter even to get consideration at this session. But the president said he is going to try to get it through before adjournment.

The president who is 63 today made it clear that until peace is consummated, he has no intention of withdrawing Myron C. Taylor as his personal envoy to the Vatican.

Mr. Truman was told that the president of the Southern Baptist Convention had complained that Taylor has no teeth withdrawn and that the minister said he had been promised that Taylor would be withdrawn when the peace treaties were ready.

The president said he thought he (Continued On Page Eight)

Influenced by an extensive cold wave in the northern part of the country, the official thermometer in Greenville dropped 43 degrees during last night to register 48 degrees at 8 a. m. today. Mrs. C. E. Maiden, Airways Observer here for the Department of Commerce, reported.

More Union Curbs Voted By Senate

Ban On Union-Controlled Health And Welfare Funds And Involuntary Check-Off Of Union Dues; Violations To Draw Penalty

Washington, May 8.—The Senate voted today a ban on union-controlled health and welfare funds and the involuntary check-off on union dues.

Adoption of the ban as an amendment to pending general labor legislation was a victory for Senator Taft (R-Ohio) after a sharp reversal yesterday when the Senate killed, 44 to 43, a Taft-backed proposal to forbid industry-wide bargaining.

Today's amendment also outlaws extortion and attempts by unions to shake down employers.

It prohibits all health and welfare funds which are administered solely by unions. The Hartley bill already passed by the House has a similar provision.

The Senate amendment, sponsored by Senators Ball (R-Minn.), Byrd (D-Va.), Smith (R-NJ), and George (D-Ga.), permits welfare funds in cases where employers and employees are equally represented in the handling of them, together with such neutral persons as both sides may agree upon.

The maximum penalty for violation of the ban on union-controlled funds is a $10,000 fine and a year in jail.

This also would apply where union dues are deducted from wages by an employer without the written consent of his workers. This is known as the involuntary check-off.

J. CON LANIER APPEARS FOR LEAF GROWERS

Greenville Attorney Asks Congress Make Trade Agreement On Tobacco

Washington, May 8.—J. Con Lanier, Greenville attorney and spokesman for North Carolina Congress to promote trade agreements with the United Kingdom that will correct the present situation in which the British have placed "an excessive tax on tobacco products."

Pointing out that 54 per cent of the gross farm income in North Carolina last year was derived from sale of leaf tobacco, Lanier told the House Ways and Means Committee that England's heavy tobacco tax are "a distinct threat to the economy of a large section of the United States where tobacco is produced."

"While we do not complain of any reasonable tariffs levied by any country in the exercise of its sovereign powers," Lanier—representing the Leaf Tobacco Exporters Association, Inc., and the Tobacco Association of United States, Inc.—asserted. "We feel within the bounds of propriety in protesting the levy of unreasonable tariffs on tobacco which threaten to eliminate and which tend to drastically reduce the use of American tobacco in such country."

"He urged the committee, now considering reciprocal trade agreement proposals, to do everything possible to:

1. Secure equal opportunities for American tobacco in world markets through reciprocal trade agreements with countries that offer potential markets.

2. Insist that discriminatory tariffs and quantitative restrictions against American tobacco be abolished or greatly modified.

3. Negotiate trade agreements on a quantitative basis with the 23 countries, including Russia, which have tobacco monopolies controlling manufacture and distribution.

Lanier had been scheduled to appear before the committee Tuesday but the hearing was postponed until last night.

West Chester, Pa., May 8—(AP)—Letters from all over the nation are bringing greetings to the childless founder of Mother's Day.

But 83-year-old Anna M. Jarvis will get little joy from the recognition this year. Blind and deaf, she is a bedridden patient at a private sanitarium.

Her long illness has made it impossible for her to receive guests or take note of the hundreds of letters sent her, a nurse said.

One of the letters from the White House brought Presidential greetings to the small, thin woman who celebrated her birthday May 1.

Miss Jarvis' sentimental holiday grew out of a gathering of friends she invited to her home in May 1907 on the second anniversary of her mother's death.

The idea grew, swept the country and finally the world after a Presidential order in 1914 set a national Mother's Day.

But Miss Jarvis never approved the commercial turn her memorial to all mothers took.

When the day turned into a money-maker for florists, candy stores, jewelry and greeting card firms, Miss Jarvis lambasted the commercialization with the same energy she displayed in founding the "Day."

Washington, May 8—(AP)—Robert May testified today at the war fraud trial of his father, Andrew J. May, former Kentucky representative, that two checks for $1,000 cashed at the capitol by the elder May in 1944 were "political contributions."

The Government has charged that A. J. May got the proceeds from the two checks for interfering with army authorities seeking preferential treatment for a son of Joseph P. Freeman, on trial with May, and for E. A. Feldman, a California war contractor.

The checks were made payable to Robert May, Robert told the jury that he was in the navy at the time the checks were cashed. He said his father had put the "R.V. May" endorsement on the checks in accordance with an authority he had given his father.

"Do you know why those checks were made payable to you?" May's son was asked.

"I didn't then, but I know now—the war campaign money," Robert May replied.

In bringing out the first testimony about the two $1,000 checks, the prosecution ignored a public threat by May's counsel that May, when he takes the witness stand, would "explode" high figures in the Democratic party in retaliation.

Washington, May 8—(AP)—President Truman is 63 today and to use a familiar Presidential expression he's "feeling fine."

His physician, Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, finds him in exceptionally good health for a man of his years. Graham's main task is keeping down Mr. Truman's weight now running between 172 and 177 pounds.

The President weighed about 170 when he became Chief Executive April 12, 1945, upon the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Mr. Truman goes regularly on two and three mile before-breakfast walks and swims in the White House pool. These swims have dropped off from four a week to two or three recently—because of a mild attack of bronchitis.

"To people who see him nearly every day, Mr. Truman looks little different from the man who came

ENDS TERM AS LAWMAKER IN COUNTY JAIL

Young Oklahoman Charged With Assault After Shooting In Legislature

Oklahoma City, May 8—(AP)—A tall veteran of the Southwest Pacific war ended his freshman term as Oklahoma lawmaker in the county jail today, accused of trying to kill a fellow legislator in a wild shooting affray on the floor of the State Senate.

State Rep. Jimmie Scott, 35, was charged on a technical charge of assault with intent to kill after he pumped a bullet into the chest of State Senator Tom Englin in the Senate chamber yesterday, fired a second shot that went wild and then fled, only to be captured and disarmed in the Senate washroom.

The prisoner told police the shooting stemmed from a recent divorce obtained from his former wife in Holdenville and her subsequent move to enforce a property settlement. Englin's law firm represented the woman.

Scott insisted he fired only after Englin threatened to kill him and then to draw a gun.

Englin suffered a deep wound in his left hip but physicians at University Hospital said his condition was not serious.

The wounded man denied he had threatened Scott or was even aware of any animosity between them.

At Holdenville, Scott's former wife, who has taken back her maiden name of Irene Tucker, likewise declared she was unaware of any antagonism between the two men. She said she intended to come to Oklahoma City to "stick it" to Scott because she still loved him and had never desired the divorce.

Washington, May 8—(AP)—The Jewish Agency for Palestine called upon the United Nations today to remove barriers against establishment of a Jewish national home in the Holy Land.

Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver of Cleveland, American section chairman of the Jewish Agency executive, made this keynote demand before the General Assembly's 55-nation official committee in the first official appearance of a non-government organization in debate over the future of Palestine.

The Arab Higher Committee meanwhile continued its boycott of the U. N. pending a decision from Cairo. There the exiled Grand Mufti was reported considering the assembly's invitation of yesterday according to the Arab group equal status with the Jewish Agency in committee hearings.

The Arab committee yesterday was granted equal status with the Jewish Agency to testify before the political committee.

Emil Ghoury, spokesman for the Arab committee's delegation in New York, said the delegation would reach a decision sometime today.

When the political committee resumed its general debate on the proposed inquiry commission, it had before it these specific proposals:

1. A United States resolution proposing a commission of seven small "neutral" countries and excluding the five big powers.

WOULD CHANGE ZONAL GOV'T

Marshall Says Job Is Civilian, Not Army Function

Washington, May 8—(AP)—Secretary of State Marshall says the job of running the American occupation zones in Germany, Austria and Korea should be shifted from the army to the State Department.

Breaking on this issue with his predecessor, James F. Byrnes, Marshall thus gave an unexpected new turn today to a dispute which has been going on within the Administration for months.

Marshall said the State Department might make some mistakes at the outset, but that it is important to start divorcing the military from the task of administering the three areas.

The army still would be used to maintain order and back up the occupation authorities.

Byrnes, contending the State Department's role is to make policy rather than administer it, succeeded by Secretary of War Patterson and fully opposed suggestions last year General Eisenhower that the army should be relieved of bossing the show.

Since the army first took over, civilians have replaced military men in an increasing number of posts in the occupation zones.

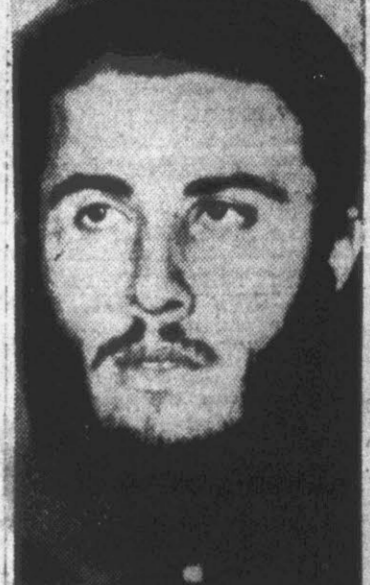

Fire this morning about 10:15 gutted the one-story frame store building at 600 Pitt Street, occupied by Cecil Corbett's grocery store and Tom White's barber shop. The fire was understood to have originated in an oil stove in the grocery store. Some of the barber shop equipment was saved. The fire department was at the scene within two minutes of the sounding of the alarm.

The fire originated at a hot water heater, firemen said.

They were discussing plans for a survey of hospital facilities here and recommendations to make to the surgeon-general of the United States.

Company And Union Officials Compromise On Pay Hike

Averaging $4.40; Conciliators See Early End Of Whole Phone Tie-Up

Washington, May 8.—Company and union officials agreed today to settle the strike of long distance operators for a pay hike averaging $4.40 a week and the government predicts a quick end to the whole coast-to-coast telephone tieup.

John J. Moran, president of the American Union of Telephone Workers, said the long distance walkout would end as soon as his nine-member board okayed the settlement possibly late today in New York.

He said his 20,000 members still might refuse to cross the picket lines of other unions in the National Federation of Telephone Workers who have been off the job ever since April 7.

But John W. Gibson, assistant secretary of labor, and Edgar L. Warren, director of the U. S. Conciliation Service, declared:

"With the settlement of this important case, the other strikes between the Bell Associated Companies and their unions should be very quickly settled."

The AT&T is the parent corporation of the Bell system.

An official of the NFTW estimated that 200,000 of the 287,000 members of federation unions who walked out 31 days ago are still on strike. At the peak of the tieup including non-members of the NFTW some 340,000 workers were idle, in affiliates.

Like other unions in the National Federation of Telephone Workers the long distance operators struck April 7 for a $12 weekly increase. They dropped this demand to $6 a week after steel, auto and other big industry unions settled for that amount without strikes.

Under the agreement, hammered out in a 7 1/2 hour session with government conciliators which ended at 3:25 o'clock (EST) this morning, the increase in base pay for

Reaching An Opinion

Here's Procedure By Which Supreme Court Arrives At Opinions; A Sample Case Traced From Lost Appeal To Final Verdict By Highest Court In The Land

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 8—(AP)—How do the U.S. Supreme Court's nine justices arrive at their opinions? Here's how.

You've sued Smith in the lower federal courts and lost. You still can appeal to the Supreme Court, the last resort.

Through your lawyer you file a petition there, asking that your case be heard. Smith's lawyer files a petition saying it shouldn't be heard.

Copies of the two petitions go to each of the nine justices. They read them.

Every Saturday the justices meet behind thick, closed doors to consider a number of things.

One Saturday, having read the petitions in your case, they meet and decide whether they'll hear it. Suppose they decide they will.

Then your lawyer files a brief giving all the arguments for you. And Smith's lawyer files a brief giving all the arguments for him.

On an agreed-upon day the two lawyers go into open court and argue the case before the justices. Each lawyer gets one hour to talk.

When the justices meet again in closed session the following Saturday, or some other Saturday, they discuss the arguments in your case. Then they vote for you or against you. Suppose five, a majority, are for you, and four, a minority, against you.

(Since a Supreme Court decision is final, having a majority on your side means you win the suit although you've lost in the lower courts.)

Swing To The Right

Vagaries Of French Politics May Be Stabilized In Stiffening Attitude Towards Communists By Premier Ramadier; Coincides With Washington Policy

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

France's political crisis, in which Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier has made the sensational move of ousting the five Communist members of his coalition Cabinet, could be the opening gun in the main engagement which has been boiling up between communism and the more conservative elements in Western Europe.

It is significant that simultaneously the battle in the Western Hemisphere also has intensified. Brazil has outlawed the Communist Party and is taking drastic measures to enforce the edict.

The Red is already has overrun virtually all of Eastern Europe and the Balkans. The question of whether it can drive its way through Italy, which long has been struggling with a similar political crisis, is watching developments in France with tense anxiety. In both these strategically important countries the situations have been largely affected by grave economic conditions. Communism thrives on bad times in which despairing people clutch at straws to save themselves.

What has happened in France during the past few days is this: The Ramadier Government has adopted a wage-price freeze program, and maintained this in face of the big strike at the Paris Renaul Automobile Works for higher wages. This strike was supported by the Communists.

Ramadier called for a vote of confidence in the National Assembly and received this without the support of the Communists, who have a slightly larger number of deputies than any other party. Thereupon the premier dashing fired the quintet of Communist ministers. Then, after a tense session with his own party council, he received its approval of his move.

French politics are as unpredictable as are the vagaries of Vesuvius. However, it seems clear that the latest developments represent a swing towards the right politically.

This movement has coincided with Washington's policy of helping needy countries withstand Communist aggression. Moreover, there can be no doubt that the present French Government's stand has been vastly bolstered by the knowledge that it is about to receive the first portion of the $250,000,000 loan from the International Bank, promised in connection with the American-French agreement made a year ago.

And in Italy some political groups are urging a break with the Communists in the Government as the surest way to obtain a loan from

Fire Warden Kid Tyson On Job

By CHESTER WALSH
Pitt County has been remarkably free of woods fires during this year and farmers and others attribute this to the missionary work that N. S. (Kid) Tyson, county fire warden, is doing by personal contacts and through the newspapers.

Tyson has been on his job regularly and he has convinced the people in rural sections of the importance of controlling brush fires and preventing woods fires. This year it appears that Pitt county has an excellent record for reducing the number of woods fires.

Tyson recently warned the public of the danger of throwing lighted cigarettes and cigars from vehicles. Incidentally, he and the various deputy fire wardens on their jobs are receiving public support.

Farmers say the missionary work of the fire wardens are doing it of much more value than some of the long-winded bulletins sent out from headquarters.

Alm's Unanimous

Out of 343 registered voters, 321 are for bonds.

Greenville voted Tuesday on the question of the town issuing $75,000 bonds to help secure the location of the Eastern Training School in Pitt County. Out of 329 registered voters, 321 were cast for bonds, and not a single vote in the entire town was cast against bonds.

Registered Voters For Bonds
First Ward, 97 50
Second Ward, 97 93
Third Ward, 53 55
Fourth Ward, 61 69
Fifth Ward, 63 63

This was truly a remarkable election and we believe it is without precedent that out of a registered vote this large a negative vote was cast. It shows that Greenville is practically unanimous for the bonds and for the Training School.

Grass Trio; a solo by Herman Nobles, and two selections by the Hines quartet.

Rev. J. C. Griffin, pastor of the church, will deliver the "Mother's Day" sermon.

Prof. Norman Lewis, principal of the Child School, will award flowers to the oldest and the youngest mothers present.

Mrs. Elmer Dixon, Mrs. James Page and Miss Louise Adams, as a trio, will sing, Miss Inna Rouse and Mrs. Roy P. Gaskins will sing a duet, "My Mother's Prayer." The Hines quartet will sing the closing song, "If We Never Meet Again."

J. S. Dixon will pronounce the benediction.

Mrs. Roy Page Gaskins is pianist. Ed Griffin of Greenville is choir director. Flowers for "Mother's Day" services will be donated by various firms and individuals.

RURAL WOMEN AND HUSBANDS
BANQUET HERE

Home Demonstration Club Theme, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World"

Home Demonstration Club women and their husbands came from the 21 communities in Pitt County last night to celebrate National Home Demonstration Club Week with the slogan, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World." This was the first county-wide "husbands' dinner" ever held by this, one of the greatest organizations in Pitt County.

The club hall was decorated in club colors, green and gold. Mrs. W. R. Bullock, president of Pitt County Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs, called the meeting to order and presented Mrs. R. B. Starling, toastmaster. After a cordial welcome to the special guests, "the husbands," B. M. Lewis of Farmville responded. Mrs. Starling recognized the following guests:

Jasper Smith of Bethel, chairman Pitt County Board of Commissioners, and Mrs. Smith; M. Brown Hodges, county commissioner and chairman of agricultural work, and Mrs. Hodges; G. H. Pittman, county commissioner, and Mrs. Pittman; J. D. Joyner, register of deeds and Mrs. Joyner; Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson and Mrs. Tyson; Don H. Conley, superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Conley; K. T. Futrell, superintendent of public welfare; Miss Rosa Exum, county accountant, and Miss Sammie Langley, assistant; Dr. M. T. Frizzell, president Pitt County Farm Bureau, and Mrs. Frizzell; Mrs. J. Brooks Tucker, former president of North Carolina Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs, and Mr. Tucker; J. H. Boyd, Jr., mayor of Greenville and Mrs. Boyd; John W. Glover, president Greenville Merchants Association, and Mrs. Cora S. Powell, executive secretary, and Miss Mollie Parker, home agent of Hertford county, effective June 1.

"Home Demonstration Club Work in Pitt" was discussed by Mrs. Wilbur Worthington of the Cannon's Home Demonstration Club. The speaker reminded the men and the other guests that the Home Demonstration Club work is helping to build a great county. She said "Home Demonstration Club work began in Pitt county in 1916 with Tomato Clubs. Interest in the work has grown until the county now has a home agent, Mrs. Fred. T. Langford; two assistant home agents, Verna Belle Lowery and Lillian Hines, and a secretary in the home agent's office, Mrs. Ruel W. Tyson. Among the many benefits achieved in this county through the cooperation of the club members and home agents sent out by the Extension Service are: Better sanitation, better nutrition, more attractive homes, happier, healthier families."

The speaker reminded the group that the program given each month at Home Demonstration Club meetings by the agents cannot be valued in dollars and cents.

Mrs. B. L. Tyson of the Red Oak community added a note of merriment with stunts and songs for the crowd.

S. C. Winchester, farm agent in Pitt county, introduced the guest speaker, J. G. Morrison, county agent in Lincoln county. Mr. Morrison, with his humorous remarks kept the crowd in a good humor. However, the theme of his talk was "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World." He said, "People support Home Demonstration Club work in Pitt county. It offers opportunities to the rural communities which will help to make great and happy citizenry. It reaches the most humble tenant home and the most prosperous and influential home in a rural community."

Mrs. Wadie Ward and Mrs. Archibell Robertson of Bethel sang a duet:

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—The laundry that comes each week to 2017 I. St. N. W., now occupied by the Capital's ultra-exclusive Arts Club, is still marked for James Monroe.

Monroe lived there while he was Secretary of State under James Madison. Madison used to hold his cabinet meetings here. The legend goes that during one of these sessions—in 1812—a sentry bolted into the room and exclaimed "The British are upon us!" Forthwith Madison's horse was brought right into the hallway and Madison is reputed to have mounted the steed and charged out the back door to make his escape.

The Daughters of the American Revolution put a plaque on the outside of the building which states that Monroe continued to live in the house from March 4, 1817, to

A LETTER FROM MISS CORBETT

Claude D. Tunstall, Gen. Agent Continental Casualty Company Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir:
Have received check for my recent hospitalization. Payment was prompt and satisfactory in every way. I wish to thank you and your company for the settlement.
Sincerely,
(Miss) ESTHER J. CORBETT

September 17, 1817. After his election as sixth president of the United States, he was forced to remain there until damages to the White House, caused by the fire set by the British, were repaired.

Later the house was occupied by Sen. Charles Francis Adams, minister to Great Britain from 1861 to 1863, and by Dr. Cleveland Abbe, one of the founders of the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Washington's Arts Club, organized in the early 1920s, bought the house and has just about got it paid for. The club has 500 members, of which 300 are resident Washingtonians. Membership is open only to those who have achieved success in the fields of architecture, drama and dance, literature, industrial art, music, painting and graphic arts, pictorial photography and sculpture.

Though he plays the piano, President Truman, for instance, could not become a member. He hasn't written any music, nor has he given a concert.

Walter Daimrosch, former conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, is an honorary member. Dr. Hans Kindler, conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra, lives in the men's dormitory of the club.

Clifford Berryman, cartoonist of the Washington Evening Star, Capt. Charles Bittinger, one of the Navy's top artists, who was sent to Bikini to paint pictures of the bomb tests, and Temple Bailey, short story writer, are among the members.

Politics are never discussed at 2017 I. St. N. W. Up to the beginning of World War II, the Arts Club sponsored the Berux Arts Ball, one of the most colorful events of the capital's brilliant social season.

Though this affair has been discontinued, the club continues to foster many an elegant soiree.

About that laundry. The boy who brought it didn't know the names of the various gentlemen to whom it belonged. He looked at the W. A. R. plaque on the house. The name "James Monroe" was good enough for him.

Strength FOR THE DAY
 BY EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE ROAD BACK HOME
 I talked with an elderly man today about world affairs. He could remember three of America's wars. His recollection went back almost to the Civil War. While those of us who conversed with him ranged in our opinions from bewilderment to black pessimism, this man viewed the future with considerable equanimity. "The same thing is happening now that always happens after a war," he said. "Life becomes pretty badly dislocated. Our wounds are deep. We have strayed quite a distance from the pathway in which men's feet move in peace and satisfaction. Then he ended his observations with these words: "The road back is a long road."
 This is a simple explanation but it reflects considerable wisdom. We are all agitated today about world conditions. Some are saying that we shall have to go through the wringer before we have the sense and character to settle the domestic and international situations which confront us. Is not a pretty good explanation of it all the fact that we are not so much further from the pathway than we suspect and that we are having difficulty getting back again?
 There is a pathway, and in his best moments man, through the ages, has been walking in this pathway. We can hope with some justification that mankind will find the pathway again. A nation organized for war is an abnormal nation and produces abnormal situations which continue long after the war has ceased.

Reaching An . . .

 these opinions; they are printed by a Government printer in the basement of the Supreme Court building.

They at noon on a Monday-Monday is Opinion Day—the justices file into open court and read their opinions.
 But when do the justices get time to write a number of opinions are handed down on Monday—for all the writing and looking up of law necessary to produce well-reasoned opinions?
 The justices listen to arguments from noon till 4:30 p.m. Mondays through Friday two weeks in a row. Then for two weeks they don't appear in court at all except on Monday to deliver opinions. So they have two full weeks a month for writing, thinking, looking up law and, as mentioned, they meet on Saturdays to exchange ideas. Each justice has a law clerk to help him.

Swing To . . .
 On Tuesday, the country through its economic difficulties.

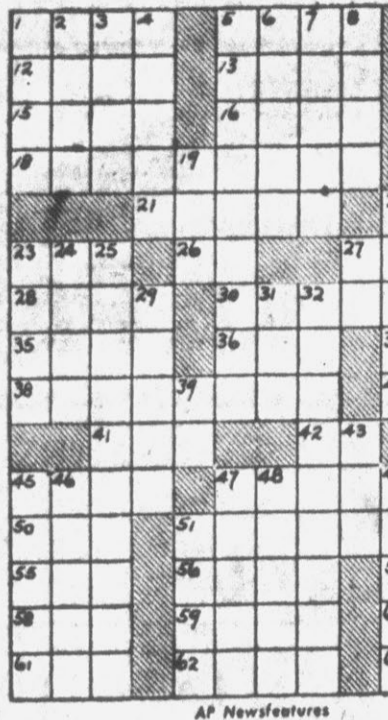

Numerous elements enter into the French situation. The country as a whole was strongly conservative prior to the war. Impartial observers generally believe that it still is conservative, for the population is largely agricultural and the French tiller of the soil is slow to change. However, we mustn't overlook that the hard times through which France has been passing may have changed the outlook of the people. That can only be cleared up when the ordinarily reluctant farmers can be persuaded to go to the polls en masse and register their votes. Communism flourishes mainly in the big industrial centers especially in Paris.

Then there's another highly important point which we must remember. The great majority of the French are staunch Catholics, and are bound to follow the stand of the church against communism. And with all this we have the decision of General De Gaulle to return to politics and head a new party to lead France out of the wilderness. Can he succeed in persuading the people to follow him again?

Leafs Eak 9-8 Win With Late Hitting

Simmons and Mauney Lead Locals At Bat In Neck-And-Neck Contest To Last Half Of Eighth

By BERT MOYE

Triples by Harrison and Fowler and a double by Webb, provided the Rocky Mount Leafs with two runs in the eighth frame and gave them a 9-8 victory over the Greensies at Rocky Mount's Municipal Stadium.

Greenville started the ball rolling in the first frame when Mauney led off with a triple and came home on Lynch's timely single. The Greensies increased their lead in the third frame when Mauney led off with a single, Lynch singled, Fraker sacrificed, Johnny Pare singled to bring home Mauney, and Chute singled to bring home Lynch and Mauney Pare.

Greenville put across two runs in the sixth frame when Luke walked, Simmons tripled to bring Luke home and Mauney hit his second home run of the game to bring home Simmons.

Two more runs were scored in the Mount, shortstop, and Larry Baldwin of California.

Rogers is a rookie but has had considerable semi-pro experience having played with Asheville and Canton. He will make his initial appearance tonight with the Greensies in Roanoke Rapids.

Baldwin, who rates a veteran played with Miami, Fla. last season and had a record of 15 wins against 14 losses. He is a righthanded hurler. Baldwin is expected to report tomorrow.

AMPHIBS FALL TO ETC NINE

Boyd Drives In Winning Run With Ninth Frame Triple

Jesse Boyd's second triple of the day, a towering blow to centerfield, drove home Garland "Lefty" Little with the game-winning run in the last of the ninth inning, as East Carolina Teachers college defeated the Little Creek Amphibians, 2-1, here yesterday.

Little set the stage for the blow by drawing a walk and then stealing second. Pitcher Little offered a five-hit performance and fanned 13.

Each team scored in the third. The Amphibs took advantage of two ETC errors and an outfield fly to score one run. The collegians came back in their half of the third to knot the county on Boyd's first triple and an infield out by William.

Murphy was on the mound for the losers and was touched for seven safe blows.

ETC put together three singles in the fifth but was unable to score as two runners were caught off the

DIAMOND DUST

By BERT MOYE

Fate played another strange trick on the Greensies in Rocky Mount last night, the second during the past week. The game was halted during the third frame when a downpour of rain stopped play for eight minutes. Up until this time the Greensies had complete charge of the ball game and were playing the Leafs off their feet. However when play was resumed, the Leafs broke loose with a barrage of hits and scored their first runs of the game. The other incident in the Wilson-Greenville game, with two out in the ninth Rehm hit a long fly to deep centerfield and the ball hit the light guide wires out there and dropped straight down for a hit and the Tobs went from there to victory.

Sidelights: Johnny Pare played his first full game for the Greensies last night and held down the first base job and did a swell job handling 13 chances perfectly. All 12 runs in the game last night were earned runs. Greenville made only one miscue last night—that by Charlie Chute in right field, which had no effect on the scoring. The Greensies added another double play last night in the first frame—Luke to Lynch to J. Pare.

Greenville players made two sacrifices last night by Fraker, and Luke. Five Greensies were left stranded on bases and the Leafs had eight men left. Nary a Leaf was able to steal second on Catcher Simmons last night.

"WANT IT FAST OR WANT IT GOOD?"

YOU remember the remark of the barber when the customer told him he wanted a good haircut—in ten minutes.

"Take your pick, mister," he said. "Do you want it fast or want it good?"

Now, we know how important your car is to you. We know you don't get any fun or benefit out of it while it's in our shop.

But we figure that the most important thing is to do the job right—and now and then that takes a little time.

You can help if you tell us frankly when it's important to get your car back quickly. Maybe we can arrange to do the most important things first, and pick up the car later to finish up the job right.

The best thing, of course, is to call us up or drop in—let us size up the job—estimate the time—and schedule it when we can do the best job with the least inconvenience to you.

But we'll both be better off if between us we can avoid making a choice between doing it fast or doing it "good."

Let Mother Have Day of Leisure

A Mother's Day gift that's bound to be most appreciated by mother is a dinner in her honor with the family serving as cooks and dishwashers for the day. It isn't the actual rest, but the sentiment, that mother will enjoy most. So show her you really enjoy honoring her.

a Rector Recipe

Baked Beans de Luxe
Wash and soak overnight in 1 quart of water
2 cups pea beans
Add 1 1/2 tsp. salt, cover and simmer for about 1 hour, adding 6 small onions for the last 20 minutes. Drain, reserving the liquid, and transfer the beans to a 1 1/2 quart casserole.
Mix together 1/4 tsp. dry mustard 2 tsp. brown sugar 1/2 cup molasses 1/4 cup catsup 1 1/2 cups bean liquid. Pour over beans in casserole.
Add 5 CERTIFIED FRANKFURTERS, cut in inch-length pieces, and mix in carefully. Cover and bake in a slow oven, 325° F., about 2 hours (adding more water if needed to keep beans moist). Uncover the last half hour and arrange 5 CERTIFIED FRANKFURTERS (remainder from 1 lb.) on the top as shown above. Serves 5.

Keep It Simple

Too many cooks won't spoil the meal if you keep the menu simple and if everyone has his assigned tasks. The key to simplicity is baked beans de luxe with Certified Frankfurters. With this tempting dish serve a relish tray, cabbage salad, Boston brown bread (you can buy it in a can) and fresh strawberry sundaes.

Preparation Tips

Vegetables for the relish tray (radishes, carrot sticks and celery) may be cleaned the day before, wrapped in a clean damp towel, and chilled. Prevents any last minute rush.

When dinner is over dishwashing is bound to follow, so it's off to the kitchen with the "cooks" to make Mother's day one of complete rest.

A happy day to you,
George Rector

Romanian Relief Flour Reported Taken By Russia

Washington, May 8—(AP)—The State Department reported today that Russia is demanding 400 freight carloads of white flour from Romania, where the United States has been sending emergency food shipments to help cope with famine conditions.

The department said in an announcement that it was advised the Romanians are about to meet the demand and deliver the flour, which is for use of Soviet military occupation forces in Romania. The reported transfer therefore does not directly violate Romanian commitments to the United States not to export indigenous food supplies while receiving emergency aid from this country.
