Russia Invited To Enter Conference

France And Britain Give U. S. Until Monday To Decide On Participation In Rebuilding Europe Or Be Left Out

Paris, June 19—(AP)—France and Great Britain have given Russia until Monday to decide whether she wants to participate in a collective effort to put postwar Europe back on its economic feet with American help—or see continental reconstruction organized without the Soviet Union.

They sent a note to Moscow last night inviting Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to meet with French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin during the week of June 23 concerning steps to implement the European recovery plan suggested by U. S. Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

The note was dispatched after a two-day Bidault-Bevin meeting here at which, the two said in a joint statement, they welcomed "with the greatest satisfaction" the ideas expressed by Marshall in a speech at Harvard University June 5.

Their joint message to Moscow proposed that the meeting of the three foreign ministers be held in a "convenient" place to be agreed upon, but one well-informed British source said the note made it clear that London or Paris would be considered most convenient.

Both French and British representatives said the possibility of a Russian refusal had not even been considered by Bevin and Bidault.

and it appeared obvious they expected a quick reply. Their note did not say so in so many words, but well-grounded informants said they were determined to go ahead on the Marshall program without Russia if the reply from Moscow is in the negative or inconclusive.

What Marshall said, in brief, was this: "It is already evident that, before the United States Government can proceed much further in its efforts to alleviate the situation and assist start the European world on its way to recovery there must be some agreement among the countries of Europe as to the requirements of the situation and the part these countries themselves will take in order to give proper effect to whatever action might be undertaken by this government.

"It would be neither fitting nor efficacious for this government to undertake to draw up unilaterally a program designed to place Europe on its feet economically. This is the business of the Europeans. The initiative, I think, must come from Europe. The role of this country should consist of friendly aid in the drafting of a European program and of later support of such program so far as may be practical for us to do so. The program should be a joint one, agreed to by a number, if not all, European nations."

It is uncertain, however, whether the department will accept in full the foreign assistance planning program laid down last Saturday by the Republican chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee or whether it will suggest some modifications of that plan.

Undersecretary of State Will Clayton told a news conference yesterday that so far as Vandenberg's proposal has to do with the study of American resources and the ability of this country to send further help abroad he considers it a very wise suggestion.

But in so far as determining how much foreign countries need, Clayton said, that is a matter which those countries can best determine themselves, subject to checks by State Department, Treasury and other American economic officials abroad.

Diplomatic authorities indicated that Secretary Marshall still has the Vandenberg plan under study and that when Marshall and his advisers have worked out exactly how they think a bi-partisan approach should be developed, the cabinet officer then will discuss the whole question with the Michigan senator.

Vandenberg's proposal covered three points: (1) The limits within which the United States "may safely and wisely" plan foreign assistance; (2) the basis upon which

Truman-Stalin Talk

At One Time, Henry Wallace's Proposal Would Have Been Hailed As Great Idea; Today, World Cautiously Silent; Appearance Of Appeasement Feared

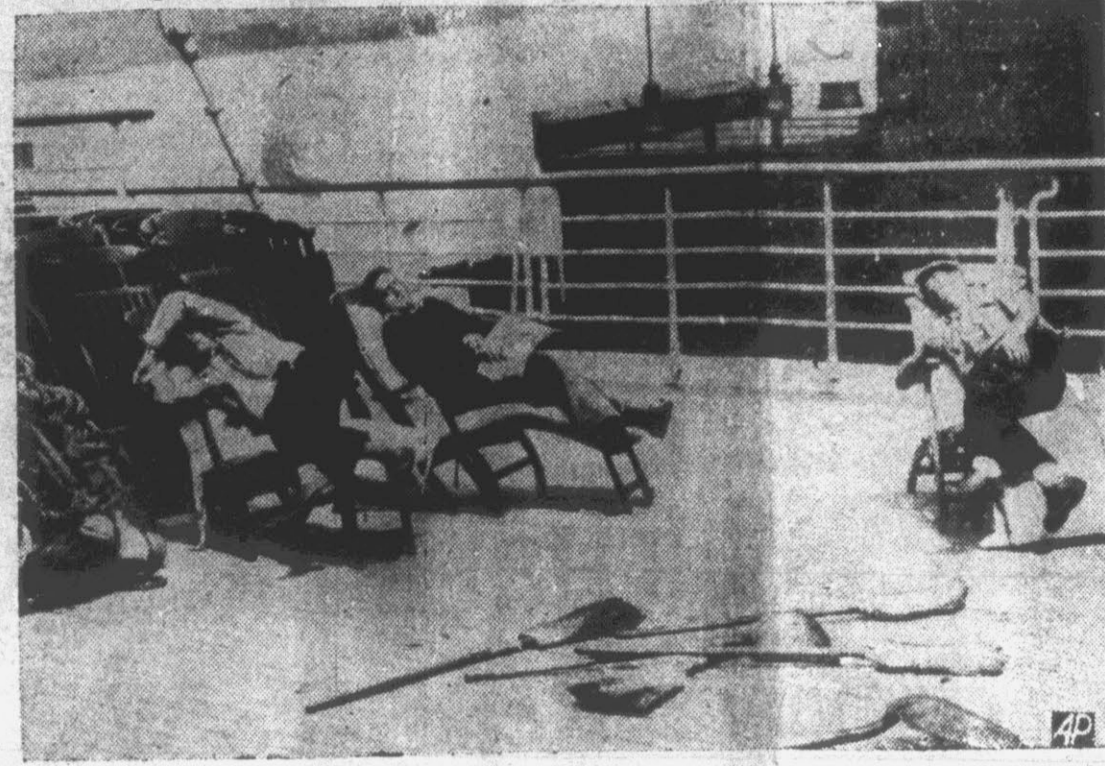

Former Vice President Henry A. Wallace's proposal that President Truman invite Premier Stalin to a Berlin conference, as a "first step" to guarantee world peace, has encountered cautious silence of opinion over most of the globe, a notable exception being the Soviet-licensed newspaper "Nacht Express" in Berlin.

Not so long ago such a move by the President might have been hailed as a grand idea. It isn't far back that this column was pointing out the profit which might be gained if the Big Four chiefs got together for heart-to-heart talks across the table to try to solve the difficulties between Russia and the Western Allies. I still think that would be a splendid move.

But the situation recently has developed such ugly angles that any suggestion of Mr. Truman taking the initiative in inviting the generalissimo to a two-man parley certainly would call for much burning of midnight oil before it was adopted.

Longshoremen 'Stand By' In Shipping Tie-Up

Longshoremen belonging to the American Federation of Labor "stand by" aboard the S. S. America at the ship's pier in New York in a strange tie-up of shipping. Detailed clean-up of the ship's hatches, they said they could not perform their duties because CIO maritime workers refused to open the hatch. Joseph Curran, president of the CIO's National Maritime Union, estimates 700 ships are tied up in U. S. ports by the "sit down" of 200,000 CIO seamen. Ship owners call the work stoppage a strike. The unions call it a "lock-out." (AP Wirephoto.)

TRUMAN VIEWS NON-PARTISAN

President Refuses To Be Influenced On Labor Issue

Washington, June 19—(AP)—President Truman refused today to listen to a southern Democratic appeal for him to sign the union-curbing labor bill.

Col. Arion Rushton, Democratic National Committeeman from Montgomery, Ala., raised the question at a White House conference in the course of which he asked Mr. Truman to approve the legislation.

A Democratic party official told reporters Mr. Truman cut short this line of discussion. The official said Mr. Truman remarked that he will make his own decision on the basis of an analysis he is now studying.

The president, this official added, told the Democrats that he had listened to the labor people or to the anti-labor people during the controversy over the bill, and that he wasn't going to discuss his course with the Democratic delegation.

The official said Mr. Truman had commented that he was going to make his decision from the standpoint of what he thought was the best interest of the country.

The president's views were made known when national committee men and committeewomen and

Predicts Senate Will Pass Rent Control Measure

Washington, June 19—(AP)—Senator Buck (R-Del.) predicted Senate passage today of a House-approved bill to extend rent controls for eight months and allow "permissible increases" up to 15 per cent.

Buck, floor manager of the legislation, planned to call it up after disposition of a wool bill which was the day's first order of business.

He said he saw no obstacles to approval since the measure in its present form—a compromise with the House—is "pretty much as it left the Senate."

The principal concession on the part of the Senate conferees who helped work out the final version was elimination of government controls over commercial construction.

Senator Taylor (D-Idaho), another of the Senate conferees, has announced he will urge President Truman to veto it.

Cars Collide On Road Near Here; Arrest Driver

A car driven by Fred Jenkins, 64-year-old Negro of Greenville, and one driven by Jesse Anderson, 33, Negro, collided on the Washington Highway near the Port Terminal last night about 8:20.

A highway patrolman said Anderson's car traveled 129 feet down an embankment into woods after the crash. Anderson was considerably shaken up. Front wheels were torn off both cars.

Tariff Approved

Washington, June 19—(AP)—Senate approval sent to the White House today Administration-opposed legislation permitting higher wool tariffs or restrictions on imports.

The vote for the measure was 48 to 38.

WANTS PAPER MONEY POLICY

Cabinet Officers May Clarify Future Of Invasion Marks

Washington, June 19—(AP)—Senator Bridges called upon three cabinet officers today to outline this country's official policy toward what the New Hampshire Republican termed Russia's "legalized looting" of Germany with printing press money.

Bridges is chairman of a three-committee inquiry into the army's multi-million dollar invasion currency overdraft. It resulted from the redemption of millions of German marks printed by Soviet occupation authorities from plates supplied by the American government.

After devoting two afternoons to testimony from ranking aides, Mr. Bridges called a halt in the hearing to permit Secretary of State Marshall, Secretary of War Patterson and Secretary of the Treasury Snyder prepare an outline of official American policy.

But Bridges told reporters the administration "cannot ask taxpayers to continue paying out millions of dollars to rehabilitate a war-torn world and at the same time allow this legal looting of Germany with printing press money."

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) is backing up the chairman in his request for a top level policy declaration.

President Will Decide Today On Labor's Fate

Washington, June 19—(AP)—President Truman, confronted by sharply conflicting views within his own party, set today aside for his fateful decision on the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill.

While a majority of his advisers "guess" he will veto the measure tomorrow, some of his closest associates insisted they have no definite knowledge of what his action will be.

One of these, a daily confidant of the President, said privately that virtually all government officials concerned with labor matters are of the opinion that Mr. Truman should try to kill the bill.

However, a survey of Democratic party leadership across the country—conducted by the Democratic National Committee—showed a 103 to 66 division in favor of a veto, plus four recommendations that the measure be allowed to become law without signature.

GENERAL SAYS ARMY BLUNTED

Once Mighty Force Of Men And Planes Now Feeble

Miami, Fla., June 19—(AP)—Lt. Gen. J. Lawton Collins today said Russian soldiers outnumber those of the U. S. Army 20 to 1.

In addition, he declared, the Russians have "over 10,000" airplanes and "we cannot man 4,000 aircraft today."

Collins said that in case of trouble in Europe the U. S. forces there "are so small that they could easily be overrun."

He estimated that Russia is "capable of putting 200 divisions in the field, have them in the field right now" compared with ten divisions in the whole U. S. Army. He said "Russia's satellites in Europe" could provide another 100 divisions.

"I simply cite these as examples of the fact that we are terribly weak today," the War Department information chief said in a speech prepared for a convention of the Reserve Officers Association.

"In all sincerity—in all logic," Collins said, "we must review our situation now, and take the necessary steps to meet what might happen to us. We can't deal in propaganda." (Continued on Page Four)

Senators Split Over Rail Rates

Washington, June 19—(AP)—When the Senate passed the Bulwinkle railroad rate bill yesterday, North Carolina senators voted on opposite sides.

Senator Hoey, along with 16 Democrats and 43 Republicans, voted for the bill while Senator Umstead opposed along with 23 Democrats and three Republicans.

The House commerce committee plans to meet behind closed doors tomorrow to decide what action to take.

The Senate vote of approval was large enough to override a veto by the required two-thirds margin, assuming the same number of senators.

Ficklen Raps Tobacco Price-Fixing Policies

Leaf Tobacco Exporters Association Told Of Dangers In Stabilization Buying; Difficulties In Correcting Mistakes

Virginia Beach, Va., June 19—(AP)—The Leaf Tobacco Exporters Association was told today by its president, James S. Ficklen of Greenville, N. C., that "the policy of continuing to pile up (tobacco) stocks in the hands of the government is a matter of grave concern to all of us and the ultimate result is difficult to forecast."

Ficklen's address, which was devoted principally to a review of the association's activities during the past year, was read to the organization's annual convention in his absence. Ficklen is in Germany on a business trip.

The association president said in his address that he had protested very vigorously the action of the Stabilization Corporation in entering the market to buy low grades last year when the general average on the South Carolina flue-cured market was above 50 cents per pound as against a parity price of 36 to 37 cents, "but that we were unsuccessful in stopping stabilization buying."

Under the conditions cited, Ficklen said, the association "did not think there was any justification for spending governmental funds to support prices."

Ficklen reported that he had conferred this spring with agriculture department officials and discussed the stabilization program for the current crop. "It was hoped," he said, "that a more satisfactory program could be arrived at in 1947 and certain of the mistakes of the

FREIGHT RATE BILL IN HOUSE

Senate-Passed Measure Goes To Commerce Committee

Washington, June 19—(AP)—The House commerce committee will take up tomorrow a Senate-approved bill to exempt railroads' cooperative rate making activities from the anti-trust laws.

The Senate stamped final approval on the measure late yesterday by a vote of 60 to 27 after a week and a half of debate. Foes of the bill have expressed hope the president will veto it if it passes the House.

A similar measure by Rep. Bulwinkle (D-NC) was approved by the House last year, but died without action in the Senate because of the threat of a filibuster by its opponents, most of whom are from the south.

The House commerce committee plans to meet behind closed doors tomorrow to decide what action to take.

The Senate vote of approval was large enough to override a veto by the required two-thirds margin, assuming the same number of senators.

Car And Bus In Collision Here; Passenger Hurt

A car driven by Lois M. Clay colored, of 212 Tyson street, collided with a Greenville Transit Co. passenger bus, driven by Frank D. Whitaker, at Grande and Albarmar avenues yesterday about 1 p. m.

Police said Ray Paul, a passenger on the bus, had the index finger of his right hand so badly smashed that it will have to be amputated.

The car driver suffered cuts and bruises, but she was not hospitalized.

The bus driver was not injured. No arrest was made pending further investigation by police.

The car was so badly damaged that it had to be towed to a garage by a wrecker. A bus company official said about $125 would cover the damage to the bus.

East And Gulf Coast Stoppages May Be Solved Pending Ratification By Unions And Shipowners; Five Percent Wage Increase In Contract

New York, June 19—(AP)—Negotiating committees for three maritime unions and 39 East and Gulf coast shippers reached an agreement early today for settlement of the shipping tieup on those coasts on the basis of a five percent wage increase.

The settlement agreement, announced at 1:40 a. m. (EST) by John W. Gibson, assistant secretary of labor, would benefit 110,000 seamen on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts if approved by the unions' membership and by the shipowners.

On the West coast, Nathan Feinsinger, Labor Department troubleshooter, said that "undoubtedly the settlement on the East coast will be a factor to reckon with here, but just what its effect will be I cannot say."

Joseph Curran, president of the National Maritime Union (N.M.U.), said special membership meetings would be called later today for ratification of the agreement. Curran's union had led the move to embargo sailings upon the expiration of old contracts last Sunday midnight.

Present contracts of the N.M.U., the American Communications Association and the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association, all CIO affiliates, will be extended for one year with a wage re-opening date of Dec. 15, Gibson said.

The Labor Department officials said that under the new agreement the seamen would receive overtime pay for nine holidays annually for work performed at sea or in port.

Frank J. Taylor, chairman of the negotiating committee for 39 shipping firms and agents on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, said: "It is of paramount importance to our national welfare and security that American merchant ships resume their operations as soon as possible. We hope that this proposal offered by the government representatives will be approved by all parties concerned so that this industry will have the peace it must have if our Merchant Marine is to endure."

Curran, whose N.M.U. 60,000 men who work the dry cargo and passenger vessels involved in the new agreement, predicted the membership would ratify it. He expressed hope that "these gains would be put into effect for seamen of all unions in the interest of establishing stability in the industry during

Negroes Charged With Robbing Tenant Farmer

Police Chief Jim Tanner and Detective M. E. Corbett returned here yesterday from Annandale, N. C., with Willie Hardy, Jr., Negro, wanted here for alleged highway robbery in October, 1945.

Tanner said Hardy was serving an indefinite term in the Annandale Reformatory for a similar offense.

Hardy and Richard Delmar Gray, Negro, are charged with assaulting and robbing David Jackson, Negro tenant farmer of near Greenville of $1,100 and leaving him in a ditch near the city. Police said Jackson had settled with his landlord for his share of the tobacco crop; that Hardy and Gray followed him to a lonely spot and robbed him. Gray was arrested in Greenville several weeks ago.

They will be given a preliminary hearing in Police Court Friday.

Sec. Marshall's Plan

The Most Important Story Of Our Time Is Still Confusing To Many; No Definite Program Settled Yet; It's Up To Europe; A Shadow In The Background

Washington, June 19—(AP)—You're probably well confused now about one of the most important stories of our time: This country's proposal for helping a beleaguered Europe. It was made by Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

He suggested it two weeks ago. It sounded vague when he spoke on it. And maybe it still sounds vague to you. It is vague. And if you, outside Washington, are puzzled, you're no more puzzled than most of the people in Washington.

Maybe a few people close to Mr. Marshall have a clear idea of what is going to come of the proposal, and how.

Greenville hasn't been so clean since last summer.

With the prospect of cotton prices next fall, the farmers who have sold their crop in advance around ten cents are going to realize their mistake.

We quarrel a lot with the Lord but he brings things out all right. People imagined from the quality of the weather for the past two months or more that the wheat and corn crop would be short, but farmers who know say that wheat is the best in years, while the prospect for corn so far is excellent.—Greensboro Record.

N. C. was matron of honor. She wore a dress of pink marquisette with dropshoulder, bouffant skirt and bustle, and a coronet of net which matched her dress. She carried an arm bouquet of painted daisies, delphinium and snapdragons, tied with blue ribbon.

More Students Attending ECTC Summer Session

East Carolina Teachers College has 707 students attending classes the first half of the summer session, a figure which tops last year's enrollment for the same period by exactly 200 students, according to an announcement from Registrar Howard J. McGinnis.

Of the total number for this session, 288 are men and 419 women, as compared with 107 men and 400 women attending college during the summer of 1946.

North Carolinians now at the college number 658, and represent 87 counties of the state from Dare on the coast to Haywood in the mountains. Other students come from 11 states from Florida to New York, and from the east coast to California. Two students from Cuba are registered for the summer session.

Pitt county has the largest registration—149 students.

Anderson Taken State Prison For Safekeeping

By CHESTER WALSH
Booker T. Anderson, 29-year-old Negro truck driver, who is charged with arson in connection with the burning of a Negro dwelling on the night of May 15 and the murder of a Negro woman and her two children who died in the fire, has been taken to State Prison for safekeeping by Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson.

A coroner's jury had ordered that Anderson be held without bail for the grand jury at the August term of Superior Court.

The dead are: Mrs. Willie Beile Cratch, 27, widow of Jesse Cratch, and her children, Bobbie Gene, 7, and Jessie Juanita, 1 year old.

Police Chief Jim Tanner and Fire Chief George Gardner testified at the inquest that Anderson was in love with the woman, and that he set fire to the house in the hope that she would go to live with him; that he denied that he knew the mother and children were asleep at the time of the fire. Mrs. Annie Bell Spain, 45, the woman's mother, suffered cuts when she broke open a window trying to rescue the occupants.

Anderson was a paroled convict. He was serving 30 years for the murder of his brother in Greenville on Christmas Day, 1937, and was paroled nearly three years ago.

Miss Cleo Rainwater Teaching In Florida

Miss Cleo Rainwater, one of Greenville's best known school teachers, who resigned recently to accept a position as supervisor of elementary schools in Sarasota County, Fla., took an active part in community affairs. The following letter from her will be of interest to her many friends here:

"I have just completed the writing of my resignations to the various organizations in Greenville in which I hold a position. Since all of them are for the welfare of the children of Greenville, and since I have spent twenty years working with and for the children of Greenville, I felt perhaps I have a responsibility to make my going known to the people of Greenville."

"I have sent to Mrs. Vance Perkins my resignation as a member of the Recreation Committee of Greenville; to Mrs. E. L. Henderson, acting commissioner of the Girl Scouts, my resignation as coordinator of the work of the white and negro Girl Scouts in Greenville; and to Mr. Wyatt Brown, chairman of the Council for Child Needs, my resignation as a member of that organization."

"The last mentioned has done no advertising but it has worked hard to discover and to try to meet the needs of the children of Greenville. Former Mayor Bruce Sugg could tell much about it."

"Since I am leaving Greenville to become supervisor of elementary schools in Sarasota County, Florida, I thought you might like to have this information."

"I am at present teaching in a workshop, sponsored by the Uni-

Approve Funds For Emergency Flood Relief

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—The Senate took less than a minute today to approve an emergency $15,000,000 bill to aid midwestern and other areas damaged by recent floods.

Approved last week by the House, the measure now goes to the president for signature.

Senator Revercomb (R-WVa) asked the Senate to put aside all other business temporarily in order to pass the authorization measure. He told his colleagues that thousands are homeless and over a million acres are inundated.

More Freight Cars In Sight

Washington, June 18.—(AP)—The Association of American Railroads said today the end of the freight car shortage is in sight.

Warren C. Kendall, chairman of the association's car service division, said the railroads have assurances that materials will shortly be available for building as many as 10,000 new cars per month.

This would compare with an average of 3,000 per month built for the last 20 months. Kendall said in a statement prepared for the House Committee. He added the railroads already have orders on the books for 100,000 new cars and are ready to order 25,000 more.

Those attending the conference from Pitt County were Miss Lois M. Clay, Negro Assistant Home Demonstration Agent and Clifton Grimes, representative from Winterville 4-H Club.

The conference was conducted by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service and was made possible by the Federal Cartridge Corporation and Cooperating Agencies.

Guest speakers and discussion leaders were Mr. L. R. Harrill, State 4-H club leader, Mr. Thomas M. Morse, superintendent of State Parks, Mr. E. H. Harmon, horticulturist at A. and T. While in Raleigh the group visited the state capitol where they met Governor R. Gregg Cherry.

In the study of forestry and its relation to rural life the group learned how to prevent and control forest fires, how and where to plant seedlings and the management of a growing forest was discussed. The lesson also included a field trip to the State College Forestry Area where the group saw forestry under good management and learned how to identify different kinds of trees.

Strength FOR THE DAY

IDEAL FOR STEWARDSHIP

We hear a great deal today about the application of the Christian gospel to social and industrial questions. This is as it should be. Christ came to save the world. His gospel applies not only to individual lives but to the way men behave in groups.

To read some interpretations, however, one would think that the Christian gospel condemns utterly any man with energy or brains enough to make a fortune. There are actually so-called Christian teachers today who, either by implication or open avowal, classify all imprudent persons as saints.

Our Lord never seemed to be interested in wealth or poverty per se. He was deeply interested, however, in what the possession or lack of material benefits did to a man's soul. Usually he found the rich were corrupted by their good fortune, and the poor on the whole lived more godly and kindly lives. Yet he had friends among the rich as well as among the poor. What he hated and denounced was materialism and avarice, and he made it plain that these vices appear in all stations of life.

John Wesley said: "Earn all you can without hurting your Christian conscience or your neighbors; save prudently; never spend to gratify pride. Then give away all you possibly can."

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington—A group of distinguished women who have smashed champagne bottles on the brows of America's fighting ships before they slipped down the ways had a cup of tea at the White House recently.

Members of the Society of Spouses of the United States Navy which was organized at the Willard hotel here in 1908, were attending their annual convention in the capital.

Margaret Truman, who christened the historic Missouri, on which the surrender was signed in Tokyo Bay, is among the prominent members, but she was unable to be present for the sessions. Her mother was hostess.

When the society was organized only about 20 women were eligible for membership. Today the society numbers some 700. Mrs. Russell C. Langdon of New York who christened the destroyer Rowan in 1918, has been president of the society for the past 25 years.

Journeying the long distance from Juneau to come here for the meeting was Mrs. Ernest Gruening, wife of the Governor of Alaska and sponsor of the cruiser Alaska.

All of the Presidents' wives, including Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who christened both Yorktowns, are members.

Mrs. James M. Helm, White House secretary, christened the first San Francisco. She was a mere slip of a girl when her father, Rear Admiral A. E. K. Benham, was stationed there.

She christened the first of three destroyers named for her father since then and splintered a bottle on the prow of the Helm, named for her husband, Rear Admiral Helm.

Other members who participated in the gathering included Mrs. Marc Mitecher, sponsor of the carrier White Plains; Mrs. Arthur Sutcliffe, sponsor of the ship Robert Fulton, named after her ancestor; the society's first vice president, Mrs. Royal E. Ingersoll, who christened the submarine Gato; Mrs. Lister Hill, wife of the Alabama senator, who christened the Alabama, and Mrs. James E. Palmer of Atlantic City, sponsor of the S-9.

Mrs. Hill rounded up some 4,000 brand new volumes from authors and publishers for the library of the Alabama, and Mrs. Palmer annually presents a gold watch to the honor graduate of the Naval Academy in memory of her husband.

Mrs. Reid Riley of Alexandria, Va., who 40 years ago traveled by train all the way from Helena to Newport News, Va., to christen the big cruiser, Montana, was the only one of the three living charter members of the group to attend the sessions.

Two Criminally Insane Inmates Escape Dix Hill

Raleigh, N.C., June 18.—(AP)—Two criminally insane white inmates saved their way out of Dix Hill early today, Prison Inspector Kyle Matthews said.

He identified the two as David D. Henry, 22, of Clayton and Wake County, serving 20 years for the Negro, and Frank Beach, 28, of Tarboro, serving three years on two counts of assault with a deadly weapon.

Prison authorities said they did not know where the two got the implement with which they saved their way to freedom. Their absence was discovered soon after their escape and a widespread search was launched.

Matthews said the men are "very dangerous" and expressed the opinion that they might attempt another crime before their recapture.

UNANIMOUS

Spokane, Wash., June 18.—(AP)—Hiram R. Gale, 100-year-old commander of the Washington-Alaska grand army of the republic, was the only civil war veteran at the annual convention.

He called the meeting to order. Then he nominated himself. There were no other nominations. He cast his vote and announced he had been re-elected—unanimously.

The U. S. is trying to use dollars to interfere in other countries' affairs; Russia and the eastern European countries are holding aloof from American aid.

The British and French talk of setting up four committees to study European needs in coal, food, steel and transportation.

This—if a program emerges from the committee studies—might be the backbone for big American aid. But would American help be limited to those four things? What else would the countries need? No answer so far on that.

And how long will it be before the European program is worked out and America accepts it and begins giving the help needed?

Clayton couldn't answer that. There's no program now. In Europe now there is only talk of trying to get together to work out a program.

Standing in the background, of course, is this shadow: That if the countries don't get the help they need, and go further downhill, communists may take control in some of them, such as France and Italy.

And what then? No one knows.

Chitty Hurls One-Hit Game Against Kinston

Greenies Come Thru With 3-1 Victory Over Eagles; Pitching Star Also Scores Two Hits; Tepedino Spoils No-Hitter

By BERT MOYE

Jerry Chitty registered his first win of the season for the Greenies last night as he held the Kinston Eagles to one hit while his teammates put across runs in the third and seventh frames to give him a 3-1 victory in a game played in Kinston.

Frank Tepedino, Kinston's shortstop, was the man who robbed the left-hander out of a no-hit game when he hit a ball down the right field foul line, about a foot on the playing field, for a triple. He later scored from third when Swamp Horwood hit a long fly to deep right field for their only tally of the game. Jerry had only a total of 28 men to face him officially in last night's encounter. He struck out seven men and walked five during the affray. He never got into deep water except in the first and eighth innings. In the eighth he walked the first two men who were sacrificed to third and second respectively but he threw the Eagles his pop-up ball and the last two Eagles flew out to short and left field respectively. In addition to his great pitching exhibition, Jerry got two singles in three trips to the plate, and scored the second run of the game for what proved the winning run in the ball game.

Greenie scored its first marker in the third frame when Lynch and Chitty singled, Jenkins sacrificed them around the bases, and Lynch scored on Lee's infield out.

The winning runs came for the Greenies in the seventh frame when Chitty walked, Jenkins singled, Lee hit to second baseman Collins who booted the ball with Chitty scoring and Jenkins taking third on the play, and Willie Mauney then hit a long fly to center-field to bring home Jenkins.

Willie Mauney with a triple and a double, Hank Ranweiler and Jerry Chitty with two singles each led the 11-hit attack against Bill Price, Kinston's newest member of the mound staff in his first full game for the Eagles.

DIAMOND DUST

By BERT MOYE

Charlie Liles has been named business manager of the Goldsboro Bugs and succeeds Johnny Culloty, who resigned because of the press of personal business.

The officials of the Kinston club have finally settled the Hal Grosman affair. Hal Price, 18, former Fayetteville hurler, has been secured in a deal for the former Burlington second sacker, who hasn't summed up his mind to play ball this summer as yet.

Charlie Munday, who has managed the Leafs to the top of the league standings, has been sitting out the past several games due to a run-in with one of the loop wups after a tilt in Rocky Mount last week. The suspension orders for a period of 10 days came from Ray Goodman's headquarters. Al Jarlett has been doing the job of plotting in his absence.

Sam McLawhorn, Gritton's gift to the Kinston Eagles, will be on the mound here tonight when the Eagles play the Greenies at Guy Smith Stadium. Manager Johnny Pare has announced his starting pitcher as being Joe Alamo.

Marvin J. Mauney, outfielder and catcher, and a younger brother to Willie Mauney, has been signed by the Greenville club. He hails from Concord, N.C., and during last season he played with the Concord club in the N.C. State League. During the current season he has played some with Clinton in the Tobacco State League and Palatka of the Florida State League. He is a rookie and bats and throws right handed. This brings to the club's roster a set of three brothers on one team, which is believed to be a record in organized ball.

Charlie Chute, Greenie outfielder, has been suspended by club officials for leaving the club without permission. As stated in this column a day or so ago Charlie was called to his home in Maine to attend to some legal matters.

Directors, umpires, managers and the league statisticians of the Coastal Plain League will meet here Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the City Hall. It was announced yesterday by Ray Goodman, the league presy. Business to be discussed will include protests filed by the various clubs, and other matters pertaining to the league. President Ray Goodman has stated that he is seriously considering handing in his resignation at this meeting as the tiling of so many protests and other things in the league are taking up too much of his time.

Raleigh, N.C. June 19—(AP) A legal maneuver and gubernatorial intervention today saved two convicted rapists from the gas chamber, less than 24 hours before they were to have died for what the state's prosecutors described as one of the most sordid crimes in North Carolina annals.

The execution of Marvin Claude Bell, 33, of Yadkinville, was stayed on petition to the State Supreme Court. After that step, Governor Cherry granted a 30-day stay to Ralph Vernon Litteral, 35, of Winston-Salem.
