Price Increases Seen As Curb To Buying Power

Washington, July 16.—(AP)—Leon Henderson, former OPA administrator, said today that price increases have trimmed consumer purchasing power, dangerously, but Senator Taft (R-Ohio) declared: "I see no basis for that argument."

Henderson told the joint congressional committee on the economic report which Taft heads, that the price hikes have outstripped wage boosts and that this has cut buying power to a point where a price collapse such as followed World War I is threatened.

In a brisk exchange with the former price chier, Taft said: "I question whether there has been any real reduction of purchasing power. I suggest there is no imbalance of prices and wages. I suggest that on the whole wages have gone up more than prices."

GM SHUTDOWN FOR ONE WEEK

Industry Blamed For Laying Off 180,000

Detroit, July 16.—(AP)—General Motors Corp. will take a week off from manufacturing passenger cars starting Monday, because of the steel industry's "disturbed conditions."

GM, which makes roughly half of the nation's automobiles, said its steel supplies were too short to permit full-time operations. It blamed the "cool-mining situation" of early July.

Ultimately 180,000 workers will be laid off from the corporation's assembly lines, a GM spokesman said. The corporation, which employs a total of 265,000 production workers, recently reached a weekly output of 30,000 cars.

There were no immediate indications, however, that other major manufacturers of motorcars would follow suit.

Wilson specifically mentioned coal mining in his explanation.

"Due to the disturbed conditions in the steel industry caused by the coal-mining situation during the first two weeks of July," he said, "delivery of steel to General Motors has been reduced to such a low level that all passenger car production will have to be shut down for one week to allow us to accumulate sufficient working inventory."

Truck operations will not be affected nor will GM's household appliance plants, the corporation said.

Asks Senate To Investigate Election Probe

Senator Ken (R-Mo) asked the Senate today to investigate the Justice Department's handling of a 1946 Kansas City election probe, declaring that Attorney General Tom Clark had tried to "whitewash the whole incident."

He called up his motion to discharge the judiciary committee, that voted Monday to postpone action indefinitely on Ken's resolution which would call for such an inquiry by the Senate.

"No believer in good government of fair play will want any part in whitewashing a whitewash," he declared.

His demand grew out of the Justice Department's investigation into alleged irregularities in the Kansas City Democratic primary in which former Rep. Roger Slaughter was defeated by Eds. Axtell, who was endorsed by President Truman. Axtell lost the general election race to Rep. Reeves (R-Mo).

Strength FOR THE DAY

NEW PAINT JOB

You may have noted today that certain hotels in this day of room scarcity have repainted their exteriors, built beautiful entrances, re-decorated their lobbies, and installed a lot of fancy gadgets on the first floor. Above the first floor, however, the rooms are as dark, drab and unattractive as they have ever been. Everything has been done to make the guests feel that here is a new hotel, except to give them better and cleaner rooms. The outside of the place has been dealt with most artistically but the inside has been left just as it was.

This reminds us of some people's religion. It is characterized by beautiful ritual and a meticulous devotion on the part of the worshiper to sacred customs. The religion of such people has a beautiful facade. All the aesthetic values of worship are placed up. Among nonritualists this sort of thing is manifested in distasteful show of piety and a general disposition to be heartily opposed to all the minor vices. On the inside of their lives these people are like the hotels which a new and enterprising management has painted and garnished with an eye to better business. The rooms of the hotel remain the same.

The hearts of the people who are desperately concerned about the appearance of their religion are usually not altered by the customs they observe and the beliefs they express.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington — The Budget Bureau which controls the purse strings of the government's payroll, has its fingers in many of the federal pies.

The bureau, besides recommending to the President how much money should be necessary to run the government, sets a limit on the number of people necessary to do the job and helps agencies plan their work shifts.

This last is important. If all the 2,000,000 federal employees in Washington went to work at the same time in the morning and knocked off at the same time in the evening, traffic and transportation officials would get a headache working in the Smithsonian Institution.

The congestion in the downtown area is bad enough as it is. The Capital Transit Company operates more than 1,500 streetcars and buses daily, and they are crowded to the guards.

The Budget Bureau confers with the local transportation companies and then works out its schedules with the agencies.

Recently it got the State Department to change its 9:45-5:30 shift to 8:45-5:30, and the Federal Communications Commission to change from 9:15-5:45 to 8:30-5.

When the Bureau of the Budget sets up the budget for each fiscal year it sends out to the agencies a call for estimates on how much money they think they need.

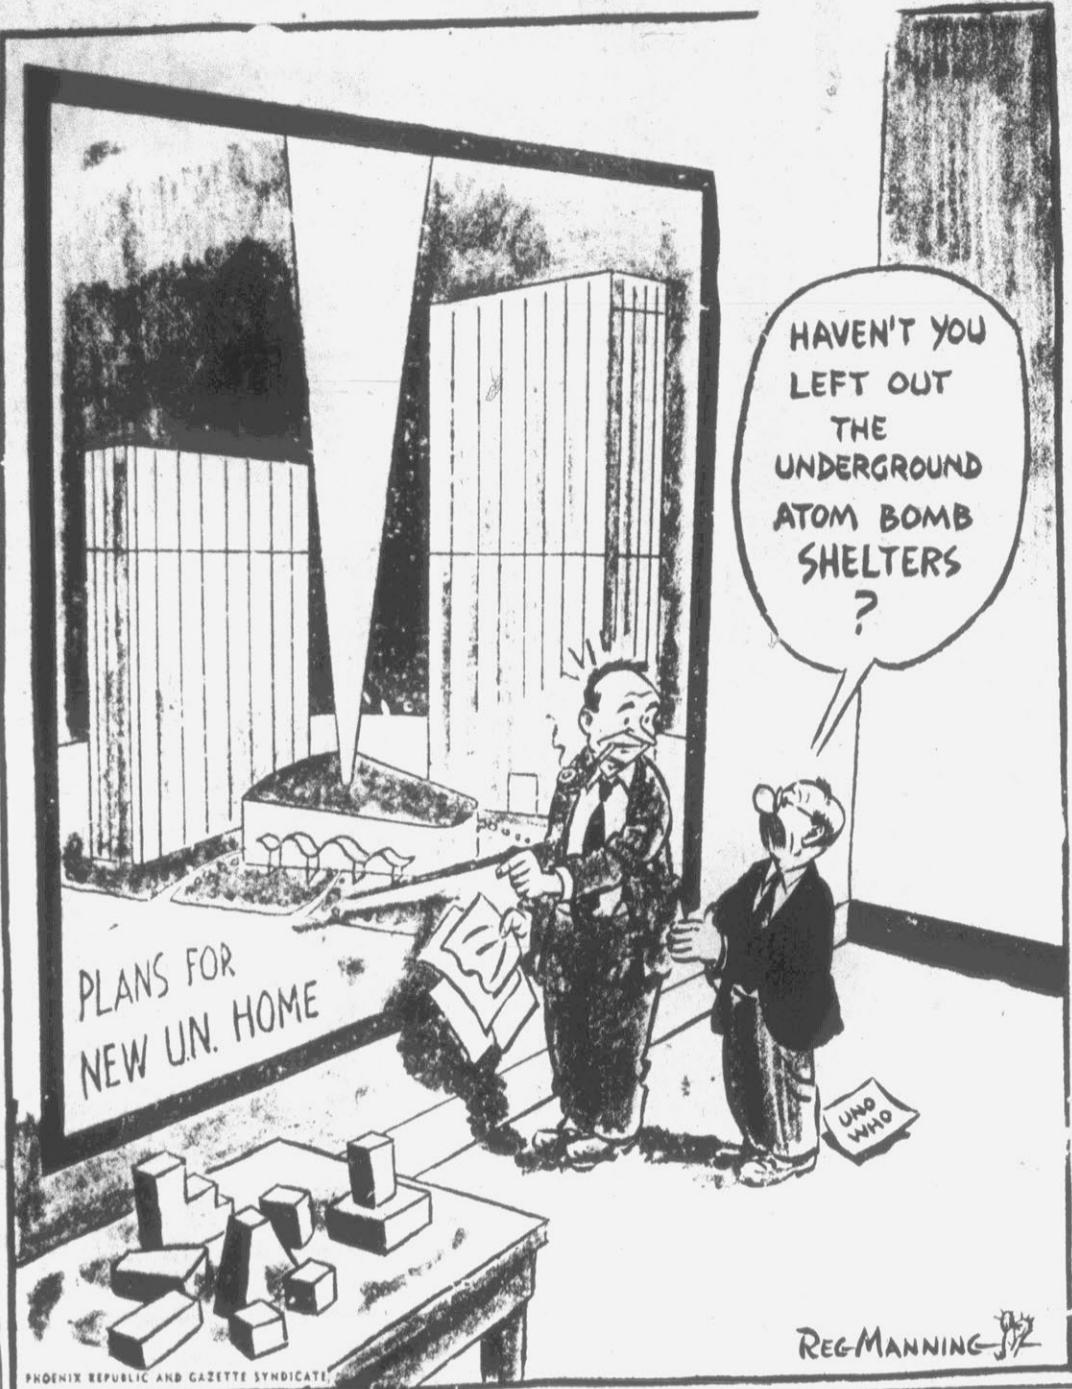

The bureau mulls—and no doubts mumbles—over the statistics, works up a total and recommends this to the President. The President then sends this sum to Congress. As everyone knows, Congress doesn't always appropriate all that's asked for.

When the money is appropriated Congress appropriates it out to the agencies according to the program needed for each quarter of the fiscal year. For instance, the Department of Agriculture needs more money during the summer than it does in the winter, and the Post Office Department needs more during the Christmas holiday period than it does any other time.

In setting personal ceilings for the various agencies, the Budget Bureau first works out an overall estimate and then gets a limitation figure on the total to be hired by the whole government.

In February the limit was set at 2,114,000 for Uncle Sam's entire household both at home and abroad. The War and Navy departments have the largest number of civilian employees of any of the agencies. As of March 19 the two departments were employing 946,000 workers here and overseas.

Omission?

Loyalty Check . . .
Those are the actual, operating branches of the government like the Departments of State, Commerce, Interior, Labor, War, Navy.

The employees of Congress and the U.S. courts would not be covered. Briefly this is what Mr. Truman's program would do:
1. All disloyal persons—such as members of the Communist party or organizations associated with Communists—are to be fired.
2. All new employees are to be investigated for loyalty, either by the Civil Service Commission or the department which hires them.
3. All present employees are to be checked by the FBI where this has not been done.

4. Each department or agency is to appoint one or more "loyalty boards" to hear charges against employees and recommend whether they should be fired.
5. The Civil Service Commission is to set up a "loyalty review board" to act as a court of final appeal.

This board, pending the voting of money by Congress, has not been set up. If Congress doesn't vote the money, the board won't be set up. And that will kill the President's program.

This is how the House bill would do the job:

1. All federal workers and job-seekers would be investigated by the Civil Service Commission. If the commission found out anything "deleterious" it would turn the case over to the FBI.
2. The FBI would report on such a case to a loyalty review board of five persons appointed by the President. If the board decided against the investigated man, the head of his department would be told of it.

3. If the department head didn't fire the man, the board would tell the President and the President, after a while, would tell Congress.

With all the talk of loyalty in the government flying around, Secretary Marshall on July 3 asked the FBI to check the State Department's 21,000 employees for loyalty. He did this after dropping 10 employees as "bad risks."

Occupation Job May Be Assumed

Washington, July 14.—(AP)—Assistant Secretary of State John P. Hurley said today "it is quite likely" that the State Department will take over the government of occupied areas in Germany, Korea and Japan "in the next one or one and a half years."

He told a House expenditures subcommittee that the army would continue its policing duties and also maintain consular forces until peace treaties are signed, but the State Department would handle government and relief matters.

Legion Passes Resolution On Fairground Property Disposal

By CHESTER WALSH
Pitt County Post No. 39, American Legion, at its regular supper meeting at the Greenville Armory last night executed some of the most important business of the past several months and passed a resolution concerning disposal of the post's fairground property on the Falkland Highway. Commander James S. Jenkins presided. Attendance was satisfactory.

The American Legion Post endorsed the Pitt County Hospital bond issue, recently authorized by the Pitt County Commissioners; it passed by a large majority a resolution requesting the directors of the American Legion Pitt County Agricultural Fair, Inc., to sell the Falkland Highway fairgrounds property; endorsed Harry M. Brown, local attorney, and World War II veteran, to the County Commissioners for the position of County Service Officer; passed a resolution endorsing the new National Guard unit now being recruited in Greenville by Capt. J. B. Tyndall, the commanding officer; passed a resolution directing Commander James L. Jenkins to appoint a Liaison Committee to take up with a similar committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars matters of mutual concern and interest involving cooperation and coordination between the two Greenville veterans' organizations, and passed a resolution requesting the North Carolina delegation in Congress to support the bill which authorizes the redemption of "Unused Leave Pay Bonds" in cash at once. The legionnaires were functioning with wartime efficiency, one of the older legionnaires said.

The resolution to the directors of the Falkland Highway fairgrounds group, which is a corporate body composed of a number of members of the Greenville and Farmville American Legion Posts, but is not subject to any direction or control by Post No. 39, received considerable attention and discussion.

The net profits of the operation of this fair corporation, it was stated, have always been divided between the Farmville and Greenville

YOUNG ACTOR—Paul Brinkman, Jr., two-month-old son of film actress Jeanne Crain, (above) takes his first appearance before a camera very calmly. Miss Crain's husband, Paul Brinkman, is a radio manufacturer.

American Legion Posts by its directors. The resolution which follows was finally adopted as introduced by Legionnaire Harry M. Brown, with the single addition of an amendment offered by Chaplain H. Glenn Haney:

"Whereas, Pitt County Post No. 39 several months ago purchased a 14-acre tract of land adjacent to the Municipal Airport with the intention that it be used for a Legion Home and Fair Grounds;

"Whereas, it was the understanding of the Post Executive Committee and of the membership of the Post that subsequent to this purchase of land, the Board of Directors of the Pitt County Fair, Inc. would dispose of the former fair ground and move operation of the fair to the new site;

"Whereas, under its former and present charter the Pitt County Fair, Inc., and its successor, the American Legion Pitt County Agricultural Fair, Inc., have no provision for control by nor responsibility to Pitt County Post No. 39 although it was originally created by action of the Post; and

"Whereas, it is the desire of the Post that the American Legion Pitt County Agricultural Fair, Inc. dispose of the old fair ground premises and that its charter be amended so as to bring it under the direction of Post No. 39;

"Now Therefore, Be It Resolved: That the members of Pitt County Post No. 39 in regular meeting assembled on the 15th day of July, 1947, do petition, request, and direct the officers of the Pitt County Fair, Inc.—and or the American Legion Pitt County Agricultural Fair, Inc.:

(1) To, as soon as feasible, effect a sale of the fair ground property held by said organization on the Falkland Highway to the highest offer for cash, subject to use of the same for the operation of the fair for the current year, the proceeds of such sale to be distributed pro rata between the Farmville Post and Pitt County Post No. 39 on the basis of their average membership for the past five years, the share of Post No. 39 to be paid to the Finance Officer of said Post and to be applied on the Building Fund; and

"(2) To, as soon as practicable, amend its charter so as to provide that its officers shall be elected for suitable terms by the membership of Post No. 39, that membership in Post No. 39 is pro facto membership in such organization, and that all the profit of said organization, after operating expenses, shall go into the treasury of Post No. 39 to be applied to such fund or funds as said Post's membership shall from time to time direct.

"(3) That a copy of this resolution be mailed to the President of the American Legion Pitt County Agricultural Fair, Inc., and a copy to the Daily Reflector for publication.

"(4) Par. 2 above is amended to include: 'and that all Fair profits will be frozen to apply on the Legion hut fund until the proposed building is paid for in full.'

WHY long distance lines are so busy

Long distance telephones are carrying a heavier traffic load today than even in wartime. Business men in search of merchandise, manufacturers and builders in need of equipment, naturally use the telephone as the quickest way to reach suppliers. Our long distance lines are still overloaded, so telephone "traffic jams" occur. If you have a few minutes' wait when calling long distance, please be patient. Today, as always, telephones carry a lot of important business.

FISHERMEN'S LUCK

George Crawford, Buford Drum and W.E. Peterson, caught a big string of goggle eyes and bream in Chirod Creek. The fish were on a string attached to the end of the boat. When the three fishermen started for shore and started "bragging" about their luck of the party...

found that the string of fish was caught on a snag and lost. They said they caught another string of fish, but nobody saw them.

GOVERNORS TO AWAIT RELIEF PLAN RESULTS

Want Blueprint Of Marshall Proposal Before Committing GOP Support

Salt Lake City, July 16.—Republican governors made it plain today they will await a specific blueprint of the Marshall European rebuilding plan before they commit their party to a full endorsement of economic aid abroad.

Gov. Earl Warren of California told a reporter at the governors' conference that before he offers unqualified endorsement of the proposal of Secretary of State Marshall for American aid to the distressed countries of Europe, he desires to see in black and white the economic justification for such a potentially expensive program.

The California governor said he endorses in principle Marshall's proposal to furnish financial aid to those countries which otherwise might drift rapidly away from the Democratic orbit.

But Warren asserted the cabinet member's program must face the test of virtually unanimous agreement by the 16 nations at the Paris conference of their minimum needs, plus the detailed analysis of this country's ability to pay.

The Californian's views evidently were shared by other Republican governors who indicated to reporters they are prepared to go along with a prospective conference resolution endorsing in principle the proposals Marshall advanced.

RUPTURED?

WEAR A DOBBS TRUSS BULBLESS — BELTLESS — STRAPLESS

If your rupture is larger this year than last, then you must be wearing the wrong kind of truss. Perhaps one with a knob that causes the opening to enlarge. Don't delay until your rupture becomes irreducible. Try the famous DOBBS TRUSS that has given relief to thousands after scores of other trusses have failed. The DOBBS pad is soft and fits over the rupture like the palm of your hand, thereby giving the muscles a chance to come back to normal. It has no belts or straps to hinder circulation.

Alamo Hurls No-Hitter As Greenies Split Double-Header With Tarboro

By BERT MOYE

Joe Alamo hurled a no-hitter against Tarboro here last night in the first game of a double-header as the Tars and Greenies split a twin bill with the locals, taking the opener 2-1, and the Tars the nightcap, 7-5.

Joe Alamo, in hurling his first no-hitter, was robbed of a shutout in the second frame when three errors enabled the Tars to put across their lone tally. But it was after this frame that Joe really settled down and with the exception of this second inning retired the Tars in one-two-three order. He did not allow a single Tar to reach first on a free pass and not a single Tar was left stranded on the bases during the seven-inning affair.

Greenie scored their two runs in the fourth frame on two singles and a triple. After Jacobs had flexed out to first base for the first out, Willie Mauney singled. Manager Orde Timm tripled to bring him home and Jack Bomar singled to bring home Timm.

Manager Timm with a triple and a single, and Jack Bomar with two singles in three trips each to the plate led the five-hit attack off pitcher Barton of the Tars. Willie Mauney was the other Greenie to get a single.

and Timm singled, Bomar was hit by the pitcher to load the bases, and Jenkins flew out to right field with Mauney scoring on the play. The final score for the Greenies came in the fourth frame when they knotted the count at three-all by scoring a tally. Chitty walked, Lee sacrificed him to second, a wild pitch advanced Chitty to third, Mauney got an infield hit and Timm flew out to center field with Chitty scoring on the play.

Tarboro put across what proved their winning run in the sixth when Komanecky walked, went to second on a wild pitch, Caldwell hit through shortstop Timm, holding Komanecky scoring on the play. They put across one more run in the seventh on Barton's double and an error by Larry Baldwin in left field; scored two more in the eighth on two doubles and a wild pitch.

Jerry Chitty went the entire route for the Greenies in the second game and walked nine men, and struck out five. It was Jerry's fifth loss of the season as against four wins. He allowed eight hits.

Willie Mauney with three singles in five trips to the plate led the six-hit attack of the Greenies.

Second Game

In the second game the Tars took a three-run lead in the third frame on two singles, two stolen bases, a hit batsman and a walk but the Greenies came back in their last of the fourth frame to knot the count at three-all by scoring singletons in the first, third and fourth frames. In the first frame the Greenies chalked up a run when Jacobs walked, stole second and came home on Mauney's single. In the third they added another run when Mauney

That baseball fans appreciate good baseball was in evidence following Joe Alamo's no-hitter against the Tars last night. Joe, pitching his first no-hitter for the Greenies, was the recipient of a nice purse given by fans attending last night's game. Joe now has a total of eight wins and eleven losses and in his last four turns on the mound has come out winner in three of the contests.

A five-day suspension for Kinston Eagles Manager Steve Collins and a $25 fine was imposed by Coastal Plain League President Ray H. Goodmon in Williamston yesterday at a hearing held there, while Bob Cohen, Kinston outfielder, was given a three-day suspension and a $10 fine. Collins and Cohen ran into trouble with the umpires at Rocky Mount last Friday night and each was fined and suspended temporarily.

Chicago, July 16—(AP)—Tony Zale, world's middleweight champion, and Challenger Rocky Graziano, two of the greatest offensive fighters in the past 10 years, battle tonight before upwards to 20,000 spectators who will contribute to a record all-time indoor gate of around $450,000.

The contest in the Chicago stadium is scheduled for 15 rounds or less—undoubtedly less, considering the punching prowess of both. No one, including Zale and Graziano, believes it will go the limit. The consensus of experts is that Zale will triumph within six rounds. Zale at the age of 33 defends his title for the second time against the challenge of Graziano, 25. This will be an encore of the knockdown-and-count Rocky-out thriller fought in New York last September in which Zale dragged himself off the canvas to win by a knockout in six savage rounds.

The public address system out at the park is for the use of making important announcements and giving the lineup. Hereafter, unless the call for a person to report at some place is not of an urgent nature it will not be announced. Then, too, if anyone has an announcement which they wish to have made pertaining to various events, it will be appreciated if they will write out the announcement and get the okeh from Mr. Guy Smith, president of the local club, before bringing it to the press box, as no announcements other than that of a routine nature can be made without the permission of the club president. Boys League

The league-leading Giants fattened their batting averages at the expense of the Cardinals' pitching yesterday at Third St. The final score of the game was 20 to 9 in favor of the Giants. John Sideris with four for four and Haymes with three for five were the leaders for the Giants. Jerry Phillips was the only Card to hit safely twice.

In the second high scoring game of the day the Tigers won over the Senators 18 to 5. Walks and errors added to the total of the winners' runs. The Tigers outhit the Senators 10 to 9 but hit more at opportune times.

Fred Joseph with a single and homer, Speedy Sideris with a double and single and Burton with two singles led the attack for the Tigers. Henley and Stocks with two hits each led for the Senators.

Third St.'s Dodgers won over the Lions from W. Greenville in a tight game that was not decided until the last half of the extra inning. Bowen was hit by a pitched ball and raced to third on Brown's hit and stole home for the winning run.

Phillips with four hits and Wingate with two led for the losers. Cox with four hits, Evans with three and Brown with two led the winners at the plate.

Home economics teachers of the eastern counties of North Carolina will hold their annual vocational home economics conference at East Carolina Teachers College on July 21-25. Attending will be 145 public school teachers of the area. Mrs.

"The crusade could not have been better timed," said Nichols, who is president of the 31-member board. "The church saw a world in desperate need and set about doing something to relieve that need at a time when it was most acute."

Nichols made special reference to those points in the crusade calling for support of international collaboration through the United Nations and the raising of $27,000,000 for post-war relief and reconstruction. The crusade added 1,050,889 new members to the church.

Three vacancies on the General Board of Lay Activities were filled with the election of Bishop Robert N. Brooks, New Orleans, central jurisdiction; and Lee Davis, Nashville, Tenn., and William Jasper Smith, Bethel, N.C., both South-eastern jurisdiction.
