DUTCH REPORT NEW GAINS IN MIDDLE JAVA

Indonesians Anxiously Await UN Decision On Whether To Intervene

Batavia, Java, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The Dutch claimed sweeping new gains in middle Java and both Dutch and Indonesian spokes of scattered republican counterattacks today as this Dutch colonial capital waited for news of possible United Nations intervention in the 12-day-old East Indian war.

virtually the entire population of Batavia sat beside radios in anxious anticipation of word whether the UN Security Council would decide to take a hand. In one old white-walled house, I found a half dozen still loyal republicans.

The almost universal Dutch reaction was that the Indonesian war was an internal matter outside U.N. jurisdiction but most Indonesians appeared hungry for news of swift intervention before continuing Dutch gains might present a military fait accompli to the world.

A Netherlands army communique said Dutch forces in middle Java had thrust southwest beyond Banjoemas.

A republican communique monitored in Batavia indicated the Dutch had thrust even deeper than they themselves claimed. This communique said Dutch troops had been repulsed at Soemboh, southeast of Banjoemas and less than 10 miles from the south coast.

In Banjoemas, the Dutch would be some 45 air miles south of Tegal on the north coast, from which they began their southward drive three days ago. They have reported opposition extremely light along the way.

Ten miles west of Tjilatjap, the Dutch communique said, Dutch army aircraft and Dutch navy warships smashed at republican coastal batteries at Noesa Kambangan, which the republicans several days ago said had damaged a Dutch vessel offshore.

Streamlining By Law

Author Of Legislative Reorganization Law Says Only About 50 Percent Effective; Plan Must Be Either Carried Out Or Dropped Says Representative Monroney

Washington, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Rep. Monroney (D-Ogla), author of the legislative reorganization law, estimated today that it has been 50 per cent effective in streamlining Congress.

The session just ended was the first to operate under the act. Termining the law about halfway successful and half "flop," Monroney added to a reporter:

"Now we've either got to carry it out fully or abandon and repeal it. The Oklahoma said the most conspicuous effort to use it was in setting a legislative budget.

"That was completely a flop," he continued. "Not the idea, but the way it was used."

The law says Congress must work out its own program for appropriations and spending, in the light of prospective government income and presidential recommendations.

This is to be done by a special committee made up of senators and representatives from the appropriating and taxing committees of both branches.

What happened last session was that Congress got a $36,500,000,000 budget from President Truman and never agreed on one of its own. The House voted to trim $6,000,000,000 from the presidential total, the Senate $4,500,000,000. They never compromised. And Republicans and Democrats are still arguing about just how much the budget was cut.

Disease-Resistant Tobacco Varieties And Hybrid Corn Demonstrated By Farm Agent; Group Visits Experimental Fields

Approximately 100 Pitt County farmers gathered at the Speight seed farm yesterday afternoon to hear explanations of Granville wilt and Black Shank resisting tobaccos and see varieties of hybrid corn which have been developed and which are still being experimented with to produce better crops. In addition to the explanations by Assistant Farm Agent Sam Weeks and Brantley Speight, manager of the Speight seed farm, the group was shown the varieties of tobacco and corn growing in the fields for experimental purposes.

In one field there are two rows each of 13 varieties of hybrid and open-pollinated corn which have grown under the same field conditions to show the difference in the several varieties of corn which may be grown in this area. In the experimental field there are six varieties of corn which are still in the experimental stages. The group examined fields of hybrid seed corn which is being cultivated on the Speight farm and also fields of first generation hybrid corn which was produced from the seed corn to demonstrate the difference in the yield of the crop produced. Speight explained that after the first generation of corn, if new seed corn were not planted, the crop yield

She said she had not actually witnessed the shooting. Marie, dressed in a green print dress, appeared nervous at first and was asked by the court to speak clearly and not to be afraid of the crowd.

Defense Attorney Neil McSalmon on cross-examination pointed to Phillips and asked Marie "Wouldn't you like to see your daddy? He is a pretty good daddy, isn't he?" To both questions Marie answered yes. She testified her mother was sitting with her back to a window in the kitchen of the home before the shooting. She added she had never seen her father with a gun.

Undr Salmon's cross examination she said Phillips had always given her food and clothing and had sent her to school. She enters the third grade this fall.

would decrease from 15 to 20 percent of the total yield of the seed corn. The manner of cultivation and crossing used to produce seed corn was also explained to those present.

The seed corn processing plant which is used, to treat the hybrid corn was explained to the group and was of much interest to those present. In the tobacco variety tests which were discussed in the field, there are 16 varieties of tobacco and several combinations of standard varieties which are still in experimental stages. These new varieties of tobacco, Farm Agent Weeks stated, are being experimented with in an effort to develop a tobacco which will resist Black Shank and Granville wilt and also give the farmers the desired characteristics of the non-resistant varieties of tobacco.

A variety of tobacco which received much favorable comment from the growers present was Monmoth Gold tobacco which is a cross between Gold Dollar and Yellow Monmoth varieties of tobacco. There is also much comment on the likeness of the Black Shank resisting Oxford 1 variety and the Virginia Bright Leaf tobacco which were planted side by side in the same field.

Yesterday's group of visitors to the Speight farm brought to some over 300 the number of people who have attended meetings at the farm this week. Today groups from Greene and Lenoir counties visited the farm and were shown the various experiments which are being carried on, and were advised as to the better tobaccos to be used for disease resisting purposes.

Taft Supports Marshall Plan On New Basis

Washington, Aug. 1.—(AP)—A proposal by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) that future help for Europe be put on a goods-instead-of-dollars basis appear today to reflect widespread Republican sentiment on Congress.

In a report at Columbus, Ohio on the GOP-controlled law making session just ended, Taft said that while he is "not happy about our foreign policy" he thinks Congress is "interested in reasonable loans to enable foreign countries to go to work and help themselves."

This was interpreted in Washington as tentative advance approval of the Marshall plan for European recovery. If it is based on the self-help principle and is not—as Taft put it—"too burdensome on our own taxpayers."

The Ohio senator's discussion of foreign affairs attracted wide attention here because he speaks from the vantage point as chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

President Rests At "Shangri-La"

Washington, Aug. 1.—(AP)—President Truman drove to Thurmont, Md., today to spend the weekend at "Shangri-La," his vacation retreat in the Catoctin mountains.

The chief executive left the White House at 12:30 P.M. (EST) and arrived at "Shangri-La" at 2:45 to begin an interlude of "loafing and resting."

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters Mr. Truman took along some of the 78 bills passed by Congress in the last days before adjournment and which still remain to be acted on.

Strength FOR THE DAY

AN ANCIENT FALLACY REFUTED.

There is no book in the Bible harder to understand than the Book of Job. The average Bible reader might read the book through several times and not catch the significance of its message.

At the time this book was written, the idea that righteousness always brings prosperity and unrighteousness always brings unhappiness was universally accepted by the Hebrews. If a man was happy, it was because he was good; if he was unhappy, it was because he was evil.

But to say that every righteous man will be happy and prosperous and every evil man will be punished is not true. Even in Job's day people realized that the popular theory about reward and punishment would not fit every case. The righteous often suffered then as they do now, and men were mystified in that ancient day and not a little troubled as they observed many a righteous man experiencing misfortune and many a rascal prospering to his last moment.

The Book of Job was written as a protest against the oversimplified and ancient idea that good fortune is always the reward of righteousness and misfortune the punishment of sin.

The message of the Book of Job can be summed up in one sentence: Suffering is not always the punishment for sin; often it is a trial permitted to come upon the righteous and, if patiently borne, it brings great spiritual gain.

AIR FORCE DAY

Today is Air Force Day; an anniversary celebrated by the entire nation which is observing the fortieth year of existence for the still new science of aviation as applied to the armed services. Our Air Age is still in its infancy.

True, we have advanced swiftly over the early technical difficulties which were introduced by the new era; but the ultimate potential lies still far into the future. That slogan "The sky is the limit" could never be better applied than to the future of the Air Age.

In the exigencies of war the air arm of America developed many new advances which are being put to use in peace-time flying. Today, as in the past, the Air Forces are still pushing research into problems which stand between us and bringing the Air Age to its fulfillment.

The memory of those flying heroes who gave so much during the last two World Wars is still etched in the living thoughts of the American people. We must not forget them or the part today's airmen play in keeping America strong in peace as well as in war.

We are happy to join with their millions of other well-wishers in a salute to the Air Force.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS

Washington—Rep. Katharine St. George of New York thinks Congress has done a pretty good job, but she's "more and more convinced that the rank and file of the people of the country are not interested in economy."

This is most apparent in the mail she receives, she says. "People are always writing in asking for something and begging that appropriations not be cut in various things. They are always thinking of ways for the government to spend more money.

"I have heard from only one constituent favoring economy since I've come to Congress."

Mrs. St. George, small, chic, European-educated resident of Tuxedo, is Republican representative of the 29th New York District.

She thinks this Congress has shown a great deal of courage and that the new members, especially the young ones who are veterans, are out to give the country good government.

Mrs. St. George is one of the two new women members of Congress. The other is Mrs. Georgia Lusk (D-N.M.).

A member of the Post Office and Civil Service Committees she has worked on the loyalty and retirement bills.

She introduced HR 1203, a bill to give sick leave pay and vacations with pay to (small cities) postmasters of the fourth class and a large number of employees. The bill was signed by President Truman just before Congress adjourned.

The socially prominent Republican cousin of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt looking much younger than her 52 years, was dressed in a smart navy faille suit the day I saw her and had tied a figured red and blue rolled scarf about her short, bronze curls.

As chairman of her own (Orange County) Republican committee, Mrs. St. George expects activities.

After that she hopes to fly with her husband, Angier St. George, a business man, to Bermuda for a few weeks, taking along her granddaughters, Pony Duke Ryan 9, and Katharine Delano Ryan 5. They are the son and daughter of her daughter, Mrs. Allan A. Ryan, Jr.

Back home Mrs. St. George and her husband, who calls her "Kassie," are co-owners of the St. George Coal Co.

Her husband helped her get elected.

ed, but just the same had rather have her home. She's spend every weekend but three with him, however, flying up to Tuxedo Friday nights and returning Sunday.

Mrs. St. George is fond of swimming, walking and golfing, but best of all she likes to play poker. She admits that at this she's pretty slick.

The Congresswoman is also expert with the needle and does a lot of needlepoint.

The law also says that every House member shall be elected to one committee.

But Monroney noted that four members—Speaker Martin (R-Mass) Republican Leader Halleck (Ind.), Democratic Leader Rayburn (Texas) and Rep. Marcantonio (Labor-NY)—were not elected to membership on any committee.

Monroney says the three leaders probably should have been exempted in the law.

As for Marcantonio, the only member of a minor party in Congress, both Republicans and Democrats declined responsibility for giving him a committee assignment.

Each side said the other should do it. Neither did.

ister is carrying out one of history's great experiments, and is dealing with unknown quantities.

Whatever else may be the outcome, the consensus in Britain seems to be that the days of industrial princes are over. Some great fortunes still exist, but death duties will wipe them out in due course, and no more can be created. As a matter of fact, this was decreed long before the Socialists came to power. Terrific death duties and income taxes sounded the knell of really big money in individual hands.

So England has come close to the end of the grand parade of the Lintons, the Leverhulmes and countless other businessmen whose names have been household words around the world. Socialization and taxation are remodeling England fast.

Self-Kicking Machine Is Now An Institution

New Bern, Aug. 1—(AP)—Craven County Commissioner Thomas W. Haywood says he was about to take down his self-kicking machine on its tenth anniversary this week, but public insistence has forced him to retain it.

The machine is now wearing out its tenth belt and its sixth set of shoes, it's in his yard at Creaton, between here and Morehead City.

He estimates that since he set it up on July 27, 1937, at least 500,000 persons have turned the crank and kicked themselves when their problems mounted. Haywood never asks what the trouble is; he considers that a personal secret with the user of his machine.

Several thousand certificates have been issued to members of his self-kicking machine club in all parts of the United States and several foreign countries.

Washington, Aug. 1—(AP)—The National Coal Association today attributed a lag in soft coal production to the newly-reduced mine work week but John L. Lewis' miners union said it is due to a freight car shortage.

Secret Official Jap Report Found On Atomic-Bombing Of Hiroshima

By FRANK L. WHITE

Tokyo, August 1—(AP)—A hitherto unpublished Japanese official report on the atomic bombing of Hiroshima in 1945 says that thousands who apparently survived the awesome blast began crying as they fled the flaming city.

I have just seen the only extant copy of this report, which also discloses that Japanese scientists quickly guessed that an atomic bomb had hit Hiroshima and that Uranium was the agent used.

The compilation of this report was begun by experts on the scene the day the bomb hit that historic August 6, and, when surrender came, the Japanese high command ordered it destroyed.

But a Japanese officer who helped compile it saved a copy along with photographs. I discovered the photographs at Kure 10 days ago and that led down a trail which at last uncovered the report itself.

This supersecret report to the high command in Tokyo said that all persons within range of the blinding flash were so stunned that even anti-aircraft battery gunners forgot to shoot as they marveled at the monstrous white cloud mushrooming over the city.

Immediately after the blast, thousands of those who escaped a direct scorching or injury from flying debris began to suffer from a strange sickness, the report continued. Although unmarked, they began fainting while trying to get out of the city.

Japanese investigators reported they found dead fish in a pond in the center of the city and in the river which flows through town, and dead birds in the forest.

The blast apparently got rid of insects too. No flies were seen on corpses and "those who had to camp out in the ruins never suffered from mosquitoes for as long as three nights."

As soon as traces of ray damage were noted, the Japanese sent Geiger counters to Hiroshima. The report said that on Aug. 11, radioactivity measured on counters ran as high as 120 counts a minute at a shrine near the blast center, as against a normal count of 27.

Confronted with the evidence of radiation, which also showed on photograph negatives taken of the explosion, the scientists guessed it was an atomic bomb that hit them was an atomic bomb, and speculated that the bomb contained from 2 to 33 pounds of the element.

After discussing the principles of an atomic bomb, the report added: "As for the technical problems in practice to realize the above principles we cannot but leave them all to the inventors in the future."

But the scientists knew that the United States already had the bomb and within a few days the on-the-spot report from Hiroshima arrived Tokyo began peace negotiations.

Pope Field Is Host To Many For Air Show

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 1—(AP) Pope Field, North Carolina's only Army Air Forces Base, played host to thousands of visitors today in celebration of the 40th anniversary of the founding of the Air Forces. It was an all-day show, full of stunt flying, demonstrations of the latest type planes, a feature length combat film, baseball and band music.

Lt. Robert Banker of the 82nd Airborne Division was scheduled for a broadcast while descending in a parachute. The field located at nearby Fort Bragg was opened in 1919. It houses the 31st Troop Carrier Group, the 86th Troop Carrier Squadron, an Air Rescue Service Squadron and the 47th Air Service Group. A similar celebration will be held at Shaw Field, Sumter, S. CONTRACTOR GIVES RETONGA FULL CREDIT

Eats, Sleeps And Feels Like A Different Person Now, States Old Time Resident

"I had about lost faith in all medicines but Retonga soon brought me real relief," declares Mr. C. M. Whiteside, well known contracting carpenter of 12 Laurel Ave., Asheville, N. C., and a respected resident of the city for 40 years.

"I always enjoyed extra good health until about a year ago," continued Mr. Whiteside. "Then I began having trouble with my food, disagreeing with me. Soon I seemed to have sour stomach all the time. My appetite left me. I slept so poorly that I never felt rested, and I had to resort to various kinds of laxatives. I felt so weakened and run down that I realized I could not keep up unless I could get relief."

"Retonga is the first medicine I found that gave me the relief I needed. I now have the appetite of a wood-chopper and all that distress from indigestion is relieved. I rest well every night, the sluggish elimination is relieved, and I feel like a different person. I never before used a medicine as good as Retonga."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, Vitamin B-1 deficiency and constipation. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at Bissett's Drug Store—Adv.

Farm Labor News

Many a visitor for the first time in Pitt County will wonder what all the rush and early morning horn blowing is about. Well while they are visiting it would be just fine if you invite them to the fields with you. As you know we are depending on you every day that you are called upon to help with our tobacco harvest. I am sure that you can prepare your visitors for a cheerful and honest days work around the benches or in the fields.

The Pitt County Farm Labor Board appreciates the fine cooperation that is being shown with caravans of cars, trucks, jeeps, taxis, wagons and carts now moving out of the urban sections to the call of this tobacco harvest. The survey now underway shows Greenville leading with Farmville, Bethel, Ayden, Grifton and Fountain following in that order in number of persons responding to our calls. Let us rally each section so that not a head of tobacco will be lost in Pitt County because of labor. — Mathew Lewis, Negro Farm Labor Assistant.

Garland Little Hurls First Victory For Greenies; Rain Cuts Game Short

By BERT MOYE

Garland Little registered his first win for the Greenies last night with a 5-2 victory over the Rocky Mount Leafs in a game that was halted at the end of six innings because of rain.

The game was halted in the Rocky Mount half of the seventh frame with one man out. Fowler had already homered and Balentine was on second as a result of a double and Larry Baldwin had just gone in to relieve Little, but according to baseball rules the game was reverted to the sixth frame.

The Greenies did all their scoring in two innings by chalking up three runs in the fourth and two in the sixth. In the fourth Jenkins singled Bomar bunted ball to Pitcher Williams who errored on a bad throw to first, Timm reached first on a fielder's choice, forcing Bomar at second with Jenkins scoring to bring home Timm and Ranweiler.

In the sixth frame led off with a single, Timm sacrificed him to second, M. Mauney tripped to bring in Bomar and Lynch singled driving in Mauney.

The Leafs put across one run in the second frame on a walk, stolen base and Manager Munday's single; and scored another singleton in the fifth frame on Webb's walk singles Latsko and May together with Ranweiler error.

Garland Little pitched five hit ball struck out eight men and walked 7 in gaining his first win after three reversals. His hits were scattered among as many men.

Mervin Mauney with a triple and a double, Bill Lynch and Jack Bomar with two singles each, led the eighth hit attack over Williams and Benton for the losers.

DIAMOND DUST

By BERT MOYE

Bill Lynch, who was released by the club several weeks ago, has been taken back on the Greenie roster and held down the second sack in last night's game at Rocky Mount.

Incidentally he had a perfect night at the bat last night with two singles in two trips to the plate and batted four chances perfectly.

Arthur Godfrey, Greenie shortstop, has been placed on the suspended list by the club.

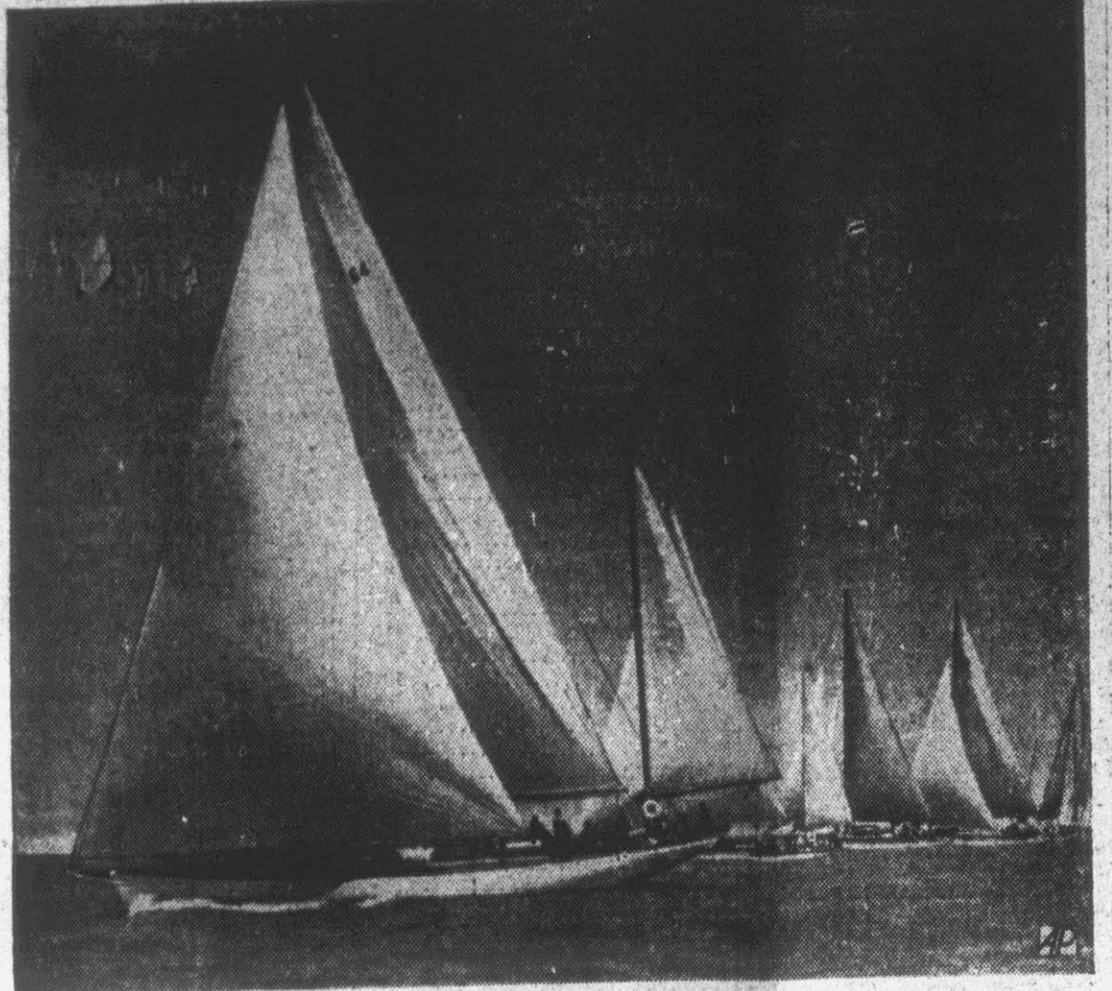

Paul Simmons has been placed back on the active list of the club.

Willie Mauney will be out of the lineup for several days due to an injury received in the game in Wilson Thursday night when he was behind the plate.

Outfielder Pat Wilson has been released by the Wilson Tobs.

A sportswriter of Wilson has picked his number 1 team in the Coastal Plain as follows: Harry Soufas of New Bern, first base; Irv Dickens of Wilson second base; Sanner of Wilson, third base; Rhem of Wilson, shortstop; Schroeder of Goldsboro leftfielder; Kennedy of Tarboro, centerfielder; Cohen of Kinston, rightfielder; Sweet of Kinston, catcher; and Sam McLawhorn of Kinston, pitcher. Do you agree with him?

July Weather

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A month of stifling calm for much of the nation, July beat a tempestuous retreat this morning from some areas, leaving hail damage in West Virginia and an area spanning the Maine and Canada boundary, and with a tropical storm blowing up from the Gulf of Mexico.

Most of the eastern half of the country enjoyed cooler weather, the Weather Bureau said the drop was as much as 25 degrees in some places. Farther west, the heat spell was unbroken. At Las Vegas, Nev., the mercury reached 112 degrees.

New NLRB Men Are Sworn In

Washington, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The new five-man National Labor Relations Board today pledged deep determination to make every provision of the Taft-Hartley labor act work as effectively as possible.

The board issued that statement as its first act after two new members—Abe Murdock and J. Copeland Gray—and a general counsel took their oaths of office today.

The board also appealed to labor and management to work together with full recognition of each other's rights and the needs and rights of the public.

the big time. Bodie got a job umpiring in a little league in California. One day the fans were riding him so hard he stopped the game, climbed up to the top row of the grandstand, sat down and yelled out, "Play ball."

The managers of the teams both astonished, rushed to the wire and asked what was the big idea. "If these guys can see better here than I can from down there, then here is where I call them from." Needless to say, that was Bodie's last game wearing a black suit.

Boys League

The Giants fought their way back into a tie for first place with the Red Sox by winning over the Eastenders yesterday 6 to 4. Larry Flye pitched well for the Giants and was accorded good support. The Red Sox got good pitching but faulty support cost them the game.

Hylton Quinn with three for four and Doug Morgan with two for three were the hitting stars for the Red Sox. Vainwright was the only Giant to hit safely twice.

The Yanks ran up a 6 to 2 lead in the first two innings in their game with the Lions from W. Greenville yesterday and then coasted in for an easy 10 to 4 victory. These two teams will meet in the series to start next week. The Lions outbit the Yanks but loose play on the defense cost them the game. Wingate, Howell and Hendrix got two hits each for the Lions. Evans with two doubles and a single and Folger with two singles were the leaders of the Yanks.

Bananas were introduced into the United States shortly after the Civil War.

ECTC Buildings Undergo Repairs And Alterations

Carpenters, painters, and laborers are busy at East Carolina Teachers College repairing and altering buildings so that the college will be in excellent condition for the beginning of the fall quarter, according to an announcement by P. D. Duncan, business manager for the college.

The South dining hall is getting a terrazzo floor. The interior of Jarvis hall, one of three beautiful girls' dormitories, is receiving a new coat of paint. The auditorium of Austin classroom building is also being painted.

One wing of Wilson hall, men's dormitory, has been converted into apartments for incoming faculty members. A new roof for the portico of the new Classroom building is under construction.

Other repairs are being planned. If sufficient labor is available, one of which is painting the interior of the Wright building.

In spring people seem to be attracted by delicate tints and pastel colors.

Sharp Cuts In Commitments For Germany

Washington, Aug. 1.—(AP) Britain, because of her bell-lightening economic plight, has told the U. S. informally she must make sharp new cuts in her world stability commitments.

The reason: To stretch for use at home a fast dwindling supply of American dollars.

Diplomatic authorities said today the informal talks have been going on for several days, centering primarily on revising the Anglo-American agreement for Germany's occupation.

Under terms of that agreement, signed last December, the two countries merged their occupation zones for economic purposes with costs split on a 50-50 basis.

But, because many of the basic needs for German occupation fall in a category of supplies in which Britain herself is deficient, the British have been forced to turn to the U. S. for the purchases, paying for their part of the load in dollars.

Imports of natural rubber to the United States dropped from more than one million long tons in 1941 to about 60,000 in 1943. It is expected to climb to about 400,000 in 1947.
