EGYPT WARNS OF "WAR OF BRITISH WITH BRITISH"

Premier Declares British Troops Must Leave Egypt In A Speech To UN

Lake Success, Aug. 11—(AP)—Premier Nokrashy Pasha of Egypt today warned the United Nations Security Council that failure to get British troops out of Egypt may lead to open warfare against the Tomnies.

Making his second appeal for council action against the British, the premier said in a 9,000-word prepared speech.

"The millions of people who inhabit the valley of the Nile have never ceased to resent the presence of British forces on Egyptian territory.

"So long as the occupation continues, this popular resentment cannot be stilled. Its flare-ups cannot be prevented. Such a situation can easily get out of hand. The peaceful intentions of my government may be thwarted."

Declaring that the 20-year British-Egyptian treaty signed in 1936 has been "superseded by the U.N. charter," the premier sharply assailed British arguments that the council should dismiss the case as groundless.

Nokrashy Pasha made another strong attack on British "imperialism," declaring that he was astonished by the recent speech of British Delegate Sir Alexander Cadogan. He termed the address "an unrestrained apologia for nineteenth century imperialism" and added he thought "we had seen the last manifestation of that spirit when Nazism and Fascism were crushed."

The premier said Britain "has been a stumbling block to our independence and national development for the last 100 years" and added that the real object of the treaty was "to enable the British to drive their forces about in such a manner as to dominate Egypt, from the ground and from the air."

Florida Fish Scourge Easing

Clearwater, Fla., Aug. 11—(AP)—The fish-killing "red tide," which has played hide-and-seek along Pinellas county's gulf beaches for 10 days, was several miles out at sea today and a health department spokesman said "things are pretty clear" along the shore.

An abrupt change in wind during the night was credited with saving the beaches from new masses of dead fish which had been hovering a few hundred yards offshore at nightfall.

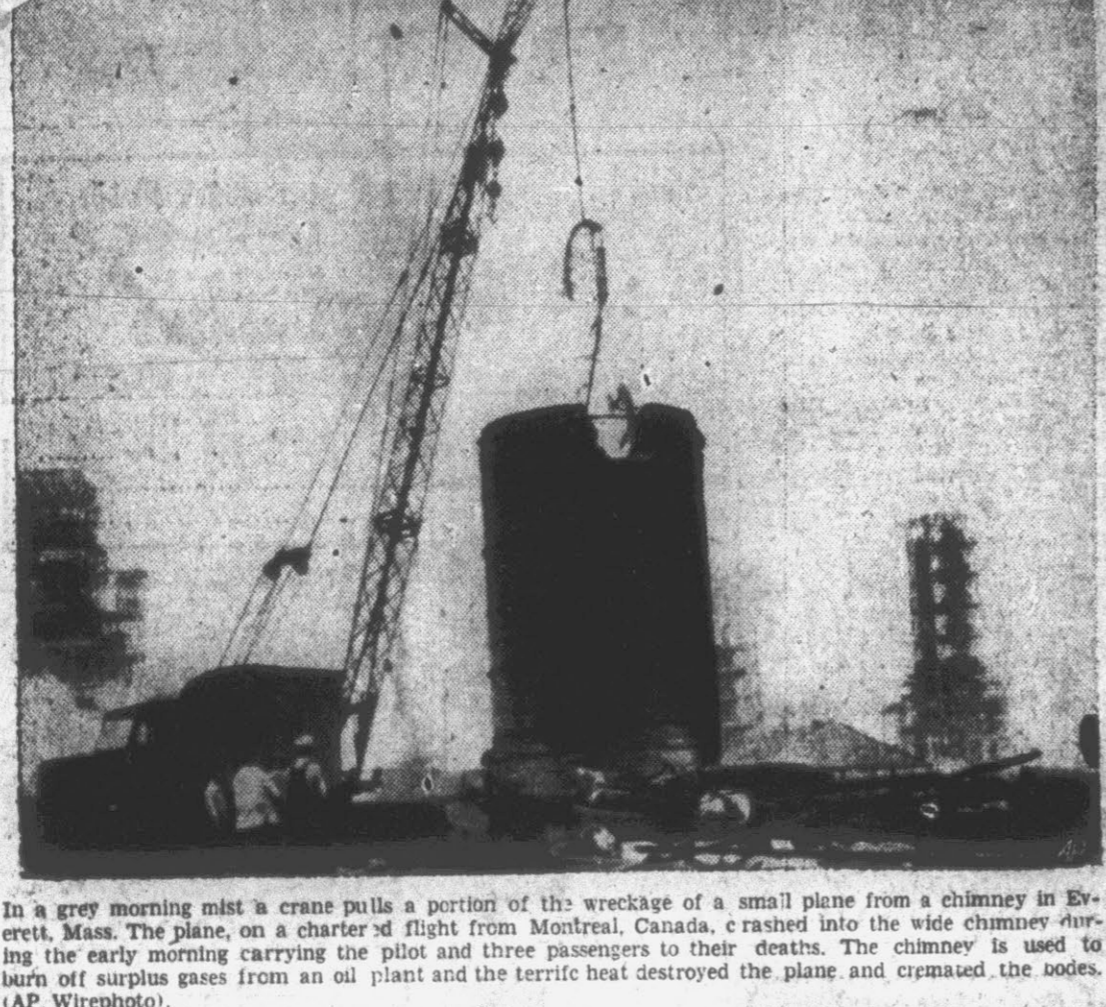

This morning the "tide," marked by large patches of recently killed fish, was from four to 10 miles out in the Gulf.

"Just For Fun"

London, Aug. 11—(AP)—Boris Sergievsky, who landed his small Grumman amphibian plane at London Airport last night after a 28-hour hop from New York, said he had made the transatlantic flight "just for fun" to see if his "little plane could do it."

Sergievsky, accompanied by his wife, a radio operator and Marina Svetlova, ballerina at the Metropolitan Opera, made stops at Greenland, Iceland and Prestwick en route.

Wreckage Of Death Plane Pulled From Chimney

In a grey morning mist a crane pulls a portion of the wreckage of a small plane from a chimney in Everett, Mass. The plane, on a charter flight from Montreal, Canada, crashed into the wide chimney during the early morning carrying the pilot and three passengers to their deaths. The chimney is used to burn off surplus gases from an oil plant and the terrific heat destroyed the plane and cremated the bodies. (AP Wirephoto)

Defer Taking Over Of Steel Industry

Nationalization Program Slowed By British Laborites In View Of Nation's Economic Crisis; Action Approved By 4 Vote Margin

London, Aug. 11—(AP)—Labor party members in Parliament voted approval today for a decision by Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet to defer nationalization of the steel industry, perhaps for the duration of Britain's economic crisis.

A Socialist informant said more than 100 Laborites abstained from voting at the party caucus. Attlee's margin of victory was only four votes—81 to 77. This action forced recalcitrant members to withdraw a resolution calling upon the government to undertake the steel program at the next session of Parliament, opening in October.

Labor party left-wingers have been attacking Attlee on the ground the crisis program was "too little and too late" and his leadership was uninspiring.

Later the government's "Crisis Bill" was to come up for final action in the House of Commons, and conservatives were ready to push a series of crippling amendments to the measure, which was Prime Minister Winston Churchill last week called "a blank check for totalitarianism."

Puzzles In Economics

Steel And Wheat Are World Shortages; Two Problems Of National Policy Put Before You To Test Your Own Wisdom If You Were Gov't Economist

Washington, Aug. 11—(AP)—For a few minutes pretend you are a government economist and try to see how wise you could be.

Here are two problems bothering the economists today. What would you do about them?

Steel is the center of one. Steel is the life-blood of reconstruction. It is needed for railroads, rolling stock, docks, buildings, trucks, farm machinery—all of the things the world needs to make and distribute goods. And steel is extremely short.

The U.S. Maritime Commission reports that 122 ships were building in European docks on March 31. It will take 494,300 tons of steel to complete them.

But at the same time the United States has laid up 1,000 wartime cargo vessels which it is ready to sell at 50 percent of the cost, less depreciation. The Maritime Commission has worked up a table showing that for every ship being built in Europe today we have an almost comparable vessel gathering barnacles in some watery backyard.

Here's the question: Is it wise for the United States to go on selling steel for ships that are little more than duplicates of what already exists? With governments threatened by Communist overthrow, wouldn't it be wiser to see that steel is siphoned into railroads that could get trade moving again, into highway and farm machinery, into new telecommunications systems, into new apartment houses?

If you think it would be wiser, then how would you go about telling such great maritime nations as Norway, The Netherlands and France that they can't have more steel for ships for a while? How could the United States avoid giving the impression that it intends to hog the merchant shipping of the world?

The government actually is preparing to do some directing of the manner in which American steel is used. On October 1, export licenses will be granted to steel exporters only after the government has approved both the nation to which it is going and the use to which it will be put.

But the government experts haven't said whether they will tackle this shipping snarl.

Problem No. 2: Reports from Europe say that only Russia will have a good grain crop this year. Most of the other countries will have even less than last year.

MERCHANTS TO HOLD DOLLAR DAY THURSDAY

One Of The Great Merchandising Events Of Year To Help City Grow

By CHESTER WALSH

Next Thursday—August 14—is "Dollar Day" in Greenville—one of the great retail merchandising events of the year, sponsored by the Merchants' Association, for the benefit of the shoppers of Eastern North Carolina.

The slogan for this "Dollar Day" is "You Save On Every Dollar," and the participating stores are harmoniously cooperating to make this one-day selling event the best in years. Cora B. Powell, executive secretary, said today.

Incidentally, progressive merchants are those participating in Thursday's "Dollar Day."

In line with the Merchants' Association's policy, these stores are going the limit to make Greenville the "Shopping Center of Eastern Carolina."

Shoppers are expected here next Thursday from a score for more counties of the eastern section. Special prices are now being marked on all kinds of merchandise in the participating stores to demonstrate to shoppers who come to Greenville that they will "Save On Every Dollar" they spend Thursday—"Dollar Day."

Torso Murder Discovered By Detroit Police In Alley

Detroit, Aug. 11—(AP)—The head and legs of a young woman were found by police today two blocks from an alley where other parts of a dismembered body were discovered Sunday.

Wrapped in cloth, the remaining parts of the body were located behind a house by police after a painstaking search of six-block square area.

The victim was identified through scars on the torso as Mrs. Jean Howard Treaski, about 30.

A junk dealer found one section of the body, from the waist to the knees, bundled into a blanket Sunday morning. The upper part, wrapped in a gray bedspread and stuffed into a shopping bag, was discovered shortly after in a garbage receptacle.

Senior Inspector John O. Whitman of the homicide said the woman might have been tortured before she was slain. He said there were punctured wounds on the chest and marks on the right arm indicating she had been tied up. He added the body had been "expertly" dismembered, apparently with a knife.

Whitman said Harold Kitchen 32, and the woman's husband, Harry Treaski 50, were being held without charge for questioning in the gruesome slaying.

Kitchen was quoted by the inspector as saying he had last seen Mrs. Treaski Saturday afternoon when she told him "I'm going home to my old man."

Her husband, Whitman said, related he had last seen his wife to whom he was married 12 days ago, at noon Saturday when he said "she got all dressed up and did not come back that night."

Senators Recess Hughes' Hearing

War Investigating Committee Abruptly Adjourns Inquiry Until November 17; Ferguson Says Members Have "Other Work"

Washington, Aug. 11—(AP)—The Senate War Investigating Committee today abruptly adjourned its investigation of Howard Hughes wartime contracts until Nov. 17.

Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich.) announced the recess after the subcommittee which he heads had held a brief meeting.

Ferguson said that the committee had been unable to locate John W. Meyer, free-speeding publicity man for Hughes.

The committee's desire was, Ferguson said, to question Meyer further about his expense vouchers Meyer has testified to spending $161,000 on entertainment for Army officers and government officials and in otherwise "promoting" Hughes' plane building ventures.

The subcommittee's decision was reached suddenly.

It had set a hearing for this morning with Hughes, who was on the witness stand last week, called back for further testimony.

Hughes, Hollywood movie producer and plane builder, was sitting in the committee room, ready to resume testimony, when Ferguson announced the decision to put off further hearings until fall.

The Michigan Senator said that some of the committee members have "other work to do." He noted that hearings are planned by some other Senate committees.

Furthermore, Ferguson said, some members of the committee are planning trips abroad.

"No definite date could be obtained for the resumption of the hearings until November 17," he said. "An attempt will be made to serve Mr. Meyer for that date."

A subpoena directing that Meyer appear before the committee for further testimony was issued last week, but thus far committee aides have been unable to locate the publicity man.

The committee's decision to call off the hearings for the time being left incomplete Hughes' own story of his dealings with the government on $40,000,000 of war contracts.

His testimony thus far has been largely about the 200-ton flying boat which he built under an $18,000,000 government contract.

His testimony on the contract for 100 P-11 Photo-Reconnaissance Planes, later scaled down to three, has been sketchy and has not dealt at length with his relations with Elliot Roosevelt.

The committee previously has heard that Hughes got the contract for his plane after Roosevelt recommended that the Air Corps buy it although Army Air Corps expert were opposed.

U. S. MAY ASK ACCOUNTING OF BRITISH LOAN

Demand For Explanation Of Expenditures Confronts British Delegates

Washington, Aug. 11—(AP)—An American demand for a full explanation of how Britain is spending her $3,750,000,000 loan will confront British delegates coming here to discuss their country's worsening financial plight.

Officials said today they need this sort of comprehensive statement before they can agree to relax any of the loan agreement provisions in a manner to help Britain save her disappearing dollar resources.

The report given Parliament last Thursday by Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer, is regarded by authorities here as not sufficiently detailed to provide an accurate picture of where the money has gone.

Britain has spent all but $1,000,000,000 of the credit in 15 months—about twice as fast as anticipated. At the present spending rate all the money will be gone some time in October.

Officials here maintain that Britain has reduced her American purchases to the point where she is buying only items like machinery, food and raw materials that are not available elsewhere.

One major source of relief for the British would be for the United States to assume Britain's dollar expenses in running the combined British-American occupation zone in Germany. Some British officials claim this obligation accounts for 11 per cent of all Britain's dollar expenditures.

But despite hints that Britain earnestly desires such action, there has been no formal request to alter the agreement, under which the U. S. and Britain share German occupation expenses equally.

The State Department successfully opposed a British effort to discuss these finances during the Anglo-American conference on Ruhr coal production.

Ford Company Recalls Workers

Detroit, Aug. 11—(AP)—The Ford Motor Co. recalled 32,000 workers to their jobs today, ending a three-day layoff caused by a parts shortage blamed by officials on the continuing strike at Murray Corp. of America.

Another 19,000 employees in the Ford Rouge, Highland Park and branch assembly plants remained idle. They were to return to work Wednesday.

Meanwhile, the Federal Conciliation Service set up a three-man panel to attempt settlement of the Murray dispute, in which 7,000 members of the CIO United Auto Workers are demanding a clause banning law suits for contract violations as allowed under the Taft-Hartley Labor Act.

Hannegan is recuperating from a high blood pressure condition and planned to leave for San Francisco today and then fly to Hawaii for a vacation.

Odom Says Will "Try It Again" In Late October

World - Girdling Speed King Will Use New Plane For Next Trip; Plans Flying Over North And South Polar Route

Chicago, Aug. 11—(AP)—Pilot Bill Odom said today that he would try it again after setting a new record for the fastest trip around the world.

The 27-year-old veteran flyer broke all previous globe circling records as he buzzed the Douglas Airport control tower yesterday just 73 hours, five minutes and 11 seconds after leaving Chicago Thursday on his 19,645 mile solo trip.

"The good Lord was taking care of me for a while last night," Odom said, explaining that he had dozed off from fatigue over the mountains of western Canada and awoke to find himself flashing toward a 19,000 foot mountain peak.

Despite failure of an automatic pilot, lack of gas near the end of the trip, and extreme weariness, Odom, with his converted Army A-28 bomber, the Reynolds Bombshell, broke all existing records.

Odom's average speed for the flight, including nine hours and 50 minutes on the ground, was approximately 269 miles an hour; but during the 63 hours and 15 minutes of flying time he averaged 310.59 miles per hour.

Franklin Lamb, Odom's flight manager, said the youthful aviator would enter the Bendix Air Races at Cleveland Aug. 30 and is planning another global flight in late October (Continued on Page Six)

Youth Confesses Robbing Of Bank

Charlotte, Aug. 11—(AP)—Stanhope Lineberry, chief of Mecklenburg county police, said that a 17-year-old Charlotte filling station employe had admitted robberies at the nearby Bank of Matthews and two stores in that town.

The chief said that Homer David Hancock, arrested yesterday, admitted entering the bank twice in the last two months, once taking $50 from a teller's drawer, and the other time unsuccessfully trying to enter the vault after removing screws and bolts from the door.

Complete Collapse Of British Economy Would Affect Western Europe; Tide Of Communism May Not Be Checked If Britain Fails In Current Emergency

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The sensational nature of England's economic crisis, involving as it does the great experiment in socialism, naturally centers world attention on her, but we shouldn't allow ourselves to be misled into regarding this as solely a British disaster.

Most certainly it is one of the momentous international developments of the post-war period. Upon Britain's degree of success in dealing with this emergency must depend largely whether the Western Democracies are able to hold their own against the westward sweep of an aggressive, empire building communism.

England's bad luck is a stroke of rare good fortune for the Red ism and its world revolution. Should the crisis worsen and be protracted, it might prove to be the Samson whose strength would topple the pillars of the already shaky politico-economic structure of Western Europe.

An already terribly weakened France would find it difficult, if not impossible, to keep her feet under such circumstances. French Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier in a speech yesterday attacked the "propagation of communism which he said tried through propaganda to change the meaning of the word "democracy." The fate of the small nations of Western Europe obviously is linked with that of France and England.

Prime Minister Attlee declared yesterday Britain is "certain of victory," and the consensus of observers seems to be that this forecast is warranted. However, none can say at this juncture how long the unfortunate country must struggle along the tortuous trail of harsh depression before it finally comes out upon the broad highway to recovery. Attlee himself missed no words over the seriousness of the position.

"We have to face now," he said, "before we have recovered from the effects of the war, and before our long-term plans have taken effect, the necessity of relying entirely on our own resources. This is a situation as serious as any that has faced us in our long history. We must, therefore, act vigorously and drastically."

The prime minister called on the country for a national effort comparable to that which was developed during the war. An estimated ten million radio listeners heard

40 Years Ago

THE DAILY REFLECTOR August 11, 1907

Few towns anywhere furnish a better concrete example of the invaluable results of the educational renaissance which has swept over North Carolina in recent years than Greenville. The town is old, having been founded in the trying days of 1771, but the idea of public education supported by taxation never became popular to any extent until the great educational awakening throughout the state prior to the organization of the school in 1902, there were from three to nine schools in Greenville. They were denominational, Masonic, private, non-sectarian, an academy for boys, a private school for girls, etc. In those days as now, people instinctively turned to the place offering the advantage of a good public school system. In the fall of 1903, the school was ready to be opened. The school is now on the approved list of schools of the state university. The school has ten grades. A department of music will be established this year. In addition to the department of music, a teacher of drawing will be employed hereafter and one modern language, French, will be taught.—The News and Observer.

Pactolus Negro Used Shotgun To Frighten Wife

Robert Wilson, 40-year-old crippled Negro tenant farmer, who was arrested for allegedly shooting with a shotgun his wife, Snodie Wilson, at their home in Pactolus township, Saturday morning, was given a preliminary hearing today before Magistrate H. L. Jenkins.

Authorities quoted Wilson as saying he had a dispute with his wife about some money to pay tobacco hands and shot the gun to frighten her.

Wilson was ordered held under $500 bond for the grand jury. He provided bail today and was released.

Deputy Sheriff Cletus Jackson and ABC Officer Claude Manning quoted Wilson, an arthritis cripple in an invalid's chair, as saying that he told his adopted daughter, Josephine, 6, to hand him his shotgun; that she did get it for him, and that he fired the gun through a closed door to scare his wife, who was in an adjoining room.

Some of the partly-spent shot wounded the woman about the legs. She was treated at a hospital and released.

Parking Meters

By CHESTER WALSH
Parking places for motor vehicles are plentiful on Evans street in downtown Greenville Saturday and today, since the "Mark Time" parking meters were installed.

People who go to the stores to buy merchandise may now find places in which to park their cars. Police Chief Jim Tanner said today. With cars parked parallel to the curb, the traffic lanes are widened and traffic has been considerably speeded as a result.

All of the meters will be installed by the latter part of the week, when they will officially be put into operation. In the meantime motorists are expected to use the meters. One may park for an hour for a nickel. Twelve minutes for a penny, or, if he desires to remain parked longer, he inserts four more pennies and may stay an hour. Incidentally, if he wants to stay another hour, simply put a nickel.

But, remember, you can't put in two nickels and expect to stay an hour. The second nickel will come back to you.

Four informed police officers have been assigned to the parking meter area to inform and instruct motorists about using the parking meters. City authorities are seeking the cooperation of the motoring public.

Incidentally—Headline on the bottom of a story: Now, there are plenty of parking places.

Losing Week-End Seen By Greenville Baseball Fans

By BERT MOYE
 The Greenville Greensies lost both their weekend tilts, losing on Saturday night to the Kinston Eagles 6-2, and then losing the first of a three-game series with the Roanoke Rapids Jays on Sunday afternoon 6-3.

Saturday's Game
 The Kinston Eagles made it two in a row over the Greensies Saturday night as they took a 6-2 win. The Eagles took an early lead which they never relinquished and held the Greensies scoreless until the eighth inning when they put across their first tally.

The Eagles scored two markers in the first frame on two singles and a double and put across what proved to be their winning run in the third frame when Manager Collins doubled, went to third on a wild pitch and Deaton singled to bring him home.

The Alamo went the route for the Greensies and was touched for ten hits, five of which were for extra bases, including a 340-foot homer over the left field wall by Tepedino.

Arthur Jacobs and Bill Anderson collected two singles each to lead the seven-hit attack off Peter Hader of the Eagles, who registered his second straight win of the season.

Sunday's Game
 The Jays won their eighth win of the season over the Greensies Sunday 6-3 in a game called during the sixth inning because of rain. Greenville went out in front in the first two frames but four runs in the third inning after one in the first proved to be enough to win the game. Pavlich started things off in the third by walking, Titus reached first on Timm's error, and Rudden sacrificed both runners. Martin walked to load the bases, and Blackwell doubled to bring home Pavlich and Titus. Martin scored on a passed ball, and Myer's hit sent Blackwell home.

Jerry Chitty, losing his ninth of the season with the Greensies, gave up only five hits, walked five and struck out one.

Hank Rahweiler with two singles in three trips to the plate led the six-hit attack off Glenn Titus of the Jays who won his 12th victory of the year.

Score by Innings (Sunday):
 Greenville ..... 110 01-3
 Roanoke Rapids ..... 104 01-6

Line score (Saturday):
 Kinston ..... 201 010 011-6
 Greenville ..... 000 000 011-2

ALL-STARS LOSE
 The Greenville All-Stars bowed Sunday to the Norfolk Royals 15-3 before a crowd of about 500 spectators in Guy Smith Stadium. Four pitchers were used by the local team in a futile effort to halt the hard-hitting Royals.

DIAMOND DUST

By BERT MOYE

Six games will be played at home by the Greensies this week with two doubleheaders leading the list. Tonight the Roanoke Rapids Jays and the Greensies meet in a twin bill and on Tuesday night Rocky Mount plays a twin bill here. Thursday New Bern plays here and on next Sunday afternoon Kinston plays here at 3 p. m.

A big celebration, featuring field events and pre-game ceremonies with League President Ray Goodman presiding, is on tap in Rocky Mount when the Greensies play over there Wednesday night. The pennant won by the Leafs last season, will be raised at the centerfield flag pole that night before the start of the game.

Larry Baldwin is scheduled to pitch the opener of the doubleheader with the Jays here tonight and says that if he goes good will pull the "iron man" stunt and pitch both games.

"Stu Martin Night" will be celebrated in Roanoke Rapids Tuesday night by the Jaycees of that city in ceremonies at Simmons Park during the intermission of a double bill with the Tarboro Tars. At this time their park will be officially dedicated.

There are 33 more games on the Greensies schedule before the end of the season with 19 of the games scheduled to be played out here at Guy Smith stadium.

The total paid admissions at the Greenville park through Saturday night was 53,393 cash customers. For all of the 1946 season, exclusive of exhibition games, there was a total of 62,359 paid admissions.

Strength FOR THE DAY

RELIGION AND CIVILIZATION

Professor Arnold J. Toynbee the famous historian whose book "A Study of History" is high up on current best sellers lists, finds that in the history of civilization all the great material and spiritual forces that raise a people from barbarism to that plane of existence we call civilization were set in motion primarily by religion.

Specifically, he declares that in the upswing of the historical cycle people are led by a "classical" religion that they inherit from their forebears. But inevitably this religion tends to solidify into mere formalism and ceases to fulfill the spiritual needs of the people. Then from the depths of the "submerged" proletariat a new and totally different religion appears, vital and compelling, but as a reaction of the predecessor leads inevitably toward the disintegration of the prevailing civilization.

Professor Toynbee himself a Christian, paints a rather portentous picture for Christians as we stand in an era of high but unstable civilization, when Christianity seems to be losing its hold over large masses of the world's population. Is Christianity our "classical religion," about to be supplanted by a new religion which will sweep away our civilization? Is this new religion communism?

No one knows, of course, but if Professor Toynbee's hypothesis is right, there is only one way to escape destruction—by making re-vitalized Christianity a more compelling spiritual force than any that can be brought against it.

Freight Train Killed Negro In Farmville

Robert Baines, 20-year-old Negro of Farmville, while riding a bicycle, was instantly killed at a grade crossing in Farmville last night when a Norfolk Southern Railroad freight train struck him and hurled him and his bicycle about 22 yards, Pitt County Coroner Griffin H. Rouse reported today.

Baines' skull was fractured and a leg was broken. Tommy Lee Frizelle, Negro youth, riding with him, was not injured.

The coroner will hold an inquest at the City Hall in Farmville tonight at 8:30.

N.C. Hotel Key Found In Germany

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 11.—(AP)—A sergeant who said he found in Germany a key to room 353 of the Ocean Terrace Hotel at nearby Wrightsville Beach is here as a week's guest of the hotel trying to confirm local speculation that the room was used by a hanged German spy.

But Sgt. Asa Bobb of Jasper Ala. and his wife are occupying no room 353, but one next to it—just for luck.

Residents of the Wilmington area don't know exactly how the key got to Germany. But they recall that Edward Kerling, Captain of the yacht Lakota, followed the Atlantic waterway to the beach, was arrested by the FBI, convicted of sabotage and hanged.

DO YOUR CROPS LOOK GOOD?

Now is a good time to look over your crops to see if they are doing well. If they are not getting enough plant food, many of them will show hunger signs. Potash starvation is easily identified. Corn leaves lacking potash, for instance, will show yellow streaking and scorched edges, while alfalfa and clover leaves will have white spots around the outside. Consult your agricultural adviser and learn to read hunger signs. Write us for free information and literature.

Police Recover Car Stolen Here

Greenville police last night recovered an automobile stolen from Lamb Tyson, colored, Sunday morning about 8 o'clock. Police officers Harris and Little found the car about 11 o'clock Sunday night and arrested Robert Smith, 18-year-old Negro youth, 1409 Clark Street, and charged him with larceny.

Economic Puzzles . . .

(Continued from Page One) This means that again millions of Europeans will have to depend for their daily bread—and bread is a large portion of their diet—on wheat bought in the United States. Perhaps they will be able to buy some in Russia, but that is uncertain.

For the wheat they buy here they will have to have American dollars to pay. But dollars are also scarce in Europe. If the Europeans use their scarce dollars to buy food here, they can't use them to buy the machinery they need to revive their industries and get back on their feet.

The longer they spend their dollars on food the longer they will need help from somewhere—and that somewhere looks like the U.S. What should we do about it? We are prepared to spend $32,000,000 on foreign relief this next twelve months. No one knows whether that will keep hunger out of Europe.

Fates Linked . . .

him proclaim: "We cannot rest upon the help which our fellow members of the commonwealth have been and are giving so generously, and even though plans may be put forward by our friends in America to help bring prosperity back to Europe, we must stand on our own feet." That is a realistic approach to a tough problem, but there are certain impediments to be dealt with. One of them is the strength of Atlee's leadership, which is being questioned by some of his own followers, especially the extreme left-wingers. It's quite possible that the economic crisis may be complicated by a political imbroglio.

A sizeable rift has developed over the question of nationalizing the country's great steel industry. This nationalization was on the socialist election platform but things haven't gone well because of powerful opposition from the steel interests. The left wingers insist on carrying out the program, and the political writer of the London Daily Express says major changes in the government may result.

The next few months are going to be crucial in the battle of England (and other hard hit countries of Western Europe) for economic recovery. That means this period is also going to be crucial in the struggle of the western nations to keep from being enmeshed in the Red net.

with scientists and newsmen aboard. For the races he will fly a plane that Lamb says still is a secret, but added that "it will do considerably better than 500 miles an hour."

The new round the world trip will be made the hard way—via the Poles—Lamb said, and will probably start and end in Chicago or Washington, and be routed over Greenland, the North Pole, Alaska, Tokyo, New Zealand, South Pole, and South America. Lamb added that a converted Army B32 will be used on the flight, to be sponsored by Milton Reynolds, who backed the record breaking Odom flights.

The record trip just ended started at 12:53 p.m. (EST) Thursday with stops at Gander, Newfoundland, Paris, Cairo, Karachi and Calcutta, India; Tokyo, Anchorage, Alaska; Fargo, N. D.; and back to Chicago at 1:58 p.m. (EST) Sunday. Three minutes later Odom landed at the Chicago Municipal Airport, 22 miles south of his starting point.

He climbed out of his plane clean-shaven and smiling, as if he had returned from a short pleasure jaunt, not a grueling flight of over three nearly sleepless days.
