U. S. INDICTS TWELVE KRUPP MUNITION MAKERS

Gun-Makers Charged With Aggressive War Policy And Supporting Nazis

Nuernberg, Aug. 16. (AP) - Twelve directors of the $2,500,000,000 Krupp Munitions combine, which for 133 years has been supplying Germany with guns, were indicted by United States authorities today for war crimes.

They are scheduled to go on trial next month. In a 50-page bill presented to an all-American court, prosecutors charged the giant steel and armament firm with waging aggressive war, plundering peaceful countries and exploiting slave labor.

Principal defendants under the indictments was Alfred Krupp Von Bohlen Und Halbach, son of Bertha Krupp, after whom the giant cannon "Big Bertha" which shelled Paris during World War I, was named.

Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, chief American prosecutor, said the U.S. would prove that Alfred Krupp and his associates were Nazi party members, confidants of the Gestapo, supporters of Adolf Hitler, instigators of rearmament and violators of the Versailles Treaty.

Taylor accused Alfred Krupp of carrying on the policies of his father Gustav, who is now senile and unable to stand trial. At the outset of the Nuernberg war crimes trials in November 1945, American prosecutors, backed by France and Russia, asked that Alfred Krupp be made to stand trial in place of his ailing father. The request was turned down by the International War Crimes Tribunal and neither was tried.

Taylor charged that the Krupp works, under the aegis of Hitler, expanded to 75 domestic companies and foreign subsidiaries, that the Krupp staff jumped from 25,000 employees in 1932 to 112,000 in 1939. The indictment charged that Krupp donated more than $4,000,000 to Nazi coffers.

Taylor said evidence would be presented showing an intimate relationship between Krupp and the principal Nazi leaders, including Fritz Sauckel, the Nazi labor boss who was hanged at Nuernberg.

Housing Figures Surpass Records

Washington, Aug. 16. (AP) - The Bureau of Labor statistics reported today that private contractors began work on 80,000 new homes in July, breaking records of 20 years standing.

The number approached the all-time high of 925, the Bureau said although comparable monthly figures for the same month of 1946 and the July, 1946 number by 17,400.

Ominous Note In Hint That Russia May Sever Relations With Greece; Smacks Of Possible Red Coup; Results Of Such A Cleavage Could Lead To Crisis

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

There is an ominous ring in the Moscow radio's hint that Russia may sever diplomatic relations with Greece on the strength of the allegation that Greek authorities have been arresting and even subjecting to torture persons employed by the Soviet Embassy in Athens.

This smacks of communist maneuvering in preparation for a coup which would further Moscow's aim of securing control of the Greek peninsula as a stepping-stone to domination of the eastern Mediterranean. While Russia's broad strategy is clear enough, the exact meaning of the new tactics is a matter of debate.

Some diplomatic observers in Athens say it's likely that both the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia are looking for a chance to break off relations with Greece.

Why? Well, such a break could be a preliminary to the setting up of a communist government in the northern part of Greece as a rival to the established monarchist regime in Athens. Then Moscow and its Balkan satellites could recognize the new red government, perhaps as a separatist regime or even as the government of all Greece. The communists, of course, long have maintained that the monarchy is being maintained with American and British help against the will of the majority of the people.

In considering the possibility of such a red coup, one is bound to recall that only last Tuesday the American delegation to the United

U.S. Compromise On Defense Vote

Marshall Modifies Proposal For Inter-American Defense On Issue Of Vote Necessary To Invoke Sanctions Against Aggressor

Quintaninha, Brazil, Aug. 16. (AP) - The 20-nation conference called to formulate an inter-American defense treaty enters its second session today with a compromise in the making on the issue of the vote necessary to invoke treaty sanctions against an aggressor.

Today's program included approval of yesterday's preliminary work committee organization and a speech by Conference President Raul Fernandes, Brazilian foreign minister.

Hope for settlement of the voting issue was raised last night when Secretary of State George C. Marshall told correspondents the United States, in response to a Mexican compromise proposal, had modified its stand.

Argentina has insisted that a unanimous vote of treaty signatories be required.

THREE KILLED BY HURRICANE

Tampico, Mexico, Aug. 16. (AP) - Military authorities today counted at least three dead and 19 injured in the wake of a tropical hurricane that lashed the south coast yesterday with winds reaching 110 miles an hour velocity.

Two of the dead and five of the injured were reported from Cerro Azul offshores near the coast 95 miles to the south, directly in the path of the storm that howled out of the Gulf of Mexico.

Derricks were toppled and tanks and machinery were damaged. General Lamayo, military commander at Cerro Azul, reported Tampico via private telephone wires of Pemex, government petroleum monopoly.

Other communications with Cerro Azul were severed. One person was electrocuted in Tampico, where homes were flooded, streets were deserted and windows shattered as the storm hit. Some 2,000 persons were forced to flee from their homes as the hurricane, which winds through the city, overflooded. They found temporary refuge in schools and other public buildings.

The core of the storm last night was reported to be semi-stationary approximately 30 miles south of Tampico.

Six Wives Face Bigamist In Los Angeles Court

Los Angeles, Aug. 16. (AP) - Gerald L. O'Neal, balding film bit player charged with bigamy got quite a reception when confronted in court yesterday by six of his eight wives—at least four of whom, says the district attorney, he never divorced. Exclaimed Mrs. Stella Frank, wife No. 5: "He says he's only 49. Howwah! He'll never see 65 again. I bought him his teeth, his toupee and his glasses. He's just a shell."

He was pushed to the top of his toupee-less pate, but he had his hair when Mrs. Myrtle Kelly, designated as wife No. 8, gave him a big hug and kiss in front of the others. "You see, kids, this is real love," he remarked.

Three Miners Rescued In British Pit Disaster

Slight Hopes Raised For Fifty Miners Still Missing; Bodies Of 54 Found By Rescuers; 13 Known Survivors

Whitcheaven, England, Aug. 7. (AP) - Three dazed, bruised miners, caught in an explosion which trapped 107 in an undersea coal mine, stumbled out alive today after a 21-hour ordeal and raised slight hopes for 50 miners still missing below.

The National Coal Board announced earlier that the bodies of 54 men had been located, and said it had virtually given up hope for the other 53.

Then the three blackened men emerged from the mine, bringing to 13 the total known survivors. They told officials they were some distance away when the blast shattered the shaft of the 135-year-old mine stretching under several miles under the Firth of Solway.

Cut off from the pithead, the men scrambled to the mine's farthest reaches to avoid deadly gas. They were met by rescuers as they made their way back, hours later.

The coal board said 117 men, rather than 121 as previously announced, were in the mine. Ten miners escaped soon after the blast.

Sixteen bodies were brought to the surface from the clear end of the blasted passage, and others were discovered by rescue workers who broke through 250 yards of rock walls.

Wives of the miners, some crying and others too stunned or tears watched silently, clinging to any hope for their men, while rescuers in oxygen masks toiled for more than 2 hours to reach the nit, two miles out under the Irish Sea. Its tunnels extend four miles undersea at a depth of 800 to 2,000 feet.

"God speed the rescuers!" one woman cried out.

The women clustered in small groups along the rocky road leading to the shaft. Knots of children stood on the bleak hillside, looking down toward the pithead.

"There is no chance that any of the men in the mine when the blast occurred are still alive," said William Aitken, of the rescue crew, as he came to the surface.

Ten of the 117 men in the mine at the time of the blast escaped because they were on the side of the explosion toward the shaft leading to the surface. One was Harry Allen, whose son was among those entombed below.

GREEKS CLAIM MORE ACTIVITY Guerrillas Strike Again; Rebel Radio Proclaims Gov't

Athens, Aug. 16. (AP) - Greek army announcements and press dispatches reported today a sharp increase in Guerrilla activity in the north within the past 48 hours. Hundreds of village homes were burned and many casualties were suffered by both sides.

This report followed last night's broadcast of the Guerrilla headquarters radio asserting that the headquarters of Gen. Markos Vassilades, Guerrilla chief, had assumed authority for administering a "democratic government" until "such times as a provisional government is formed."

Latest advices on the intensified Guerrilla activity ranged from Western Thrace to Western Macedonia. In Salonika the Third Army headquarters said the Guerrillas were using heavy mortars of a type not available to the Greek army.

Peasants in the Monari area were reported evacuating villages and moving to more urban centers.

On the Yugoslav border just north of Florina three hamlets within a three mile radius were attacked by guerrillas who burned 22 houses. Greek press reports said.

The Rebel broadcast was viewed as a first step toward establishment of what some informants have termed a "Free Communist" state in northern Greece. The Athens government has predicted such a development for some time.

Sets Date

Raleigh, Aug. 16. (AP) - Governor Cherry announced today he had issued a commission to Judge J. Paul Frizzelle of Snow Hill to sit as a committing magistrate in the Northampton County Superior Court at Jackson on Tuesday, Sept. 2 and conduct a public hearing in connection with his attempted lynching of a Negro there last May 23.

Earlier the governor had announced that Judge Frizzelle had been asked to draw bench warrants for 7 Rich Square white men accused of forcing their way into the Jackson jail and abducting Godwin (Buddy) Bush.

The core of the storm last night was reported to be semi-stationary approximately 30 miles south of Tampico.

Babson Discusses Socialism

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 16. - I wanted to visit some typical New England city to learn how its people are feeling. As Bridgeport perhaps suffered most through the depression of the thirties and then according to Newton's Law of Action and Reaction prospered most later during World War II, I am writing from here.

A Typical City Bridgeport is a city of about 150,000 people. These people have had a reputation as being radical and for many years have elected a socialist mayor. He, however, tried hard to be fair and has had the vote of many conservative people. At one time Bridgeport was the only city in New England with a socialistic government.

During the recent war these people prospered greatly. Not only is this a large center for small machinery and tools of all kinds, but it makes guns and ammunition even in peace times. Hence, it was and is a war city. The conversion to peace time products was difficult and much unemployment was forecasted for 1946 and 1947, but this has not come about. Bridgeport continues to be prosperous. Certainly if this applies to Bridgeport, it should apply to most manufacturing centers in New England and elsewhere.

What About Business? The truth is that the entire Uni-

SHOOTING ON TRAIN FATAL

One Killed, Two Wounded In Argument Over Dice Game

Charlotte, Aug. 16. (AP) - Capt. M. A. Brown of the Southern Railway, police here said today that a Spartburg, S. C. Negro was shot to death last night and two other Negroes wounded on train 35 near Reidsville.

He said a Negro he identified as Lonnie Bird, the alleged assailant, had gotten off the train at Reidsville and escaped.

All four Negroes were truck laborers for the railroad, coming home for the weekend after working in the Manassas, Va., area, Brown said.

The dead man was reported to be Walter Granger, 28, of Spartburg. Police in Reidsville, however, identified the man as Granger Waldrop.

In a hospital at Reidsville with pistol wounds were Frank Humphries, 37, Spartburg, and William Lindsey, 32, Gainesville, Ga.

Railroad police said the men were engaged in an argument during a dice game on the train. They were riding in a separate compartment reserved for section hands.

Washington, Aug. 16. (AP) - Myron C. Taylor headed back to Rome today to renew his discussion of world conditions with Pope Pius XII as ambassador and Pope Pius XII as representative of President Truman.

A White House announcement said Taylor and the Catholic prelate will confer "on problems relative to the establishment of peace under a moral world order and to the alleviation of the human suffering still continuing in many parts of the world."

The announcement late yesterday added that Taylor was asked to "hold conversations with other leaders on similar problems while he is in Europe."

Mr. Truman explained: "I am seeking by this means a greater clarification of the nature of the vital tasks that confront each of the nations that have pledged themselves to cooperate in the establishment and maintenance of international peace and security and to promote economic and social advancement."

Polio Situation Is Encouraging

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 16. (AP) - Dr. C. P. Stevick, state epidemiologist, said today that the infantile paralysis situation in North Carolina seems to be encouraging this year, and for the country as a whole.

There were only 34 cases from January through July, compared with 44 for the same period last year. Dr. Stevick said that he believed this month's figures would be less than those of August, 1946.

Netherlands Face Defeat In Council

Dutch Appear Heading Towards Major Setback In Effort To Avoid UN Action In Indonesian Dispute; Debate Resumes Thursday

Washington, Aug. 16. (AP) - The Netherlands today appeared headed toward another major defeat in its battle to avoid United Nations action in the Indonesian dispute.

A survey of Security Council delegates indicated a majority was determined to keep the case in the council's hands despite vigorous Dutch protests.

Dr. Van Kieffens, Netherlands representative, has argued in almost every meeting that the Indonesian republic is not a sovereign state and that the dispute, for that reason, is not an international problem.

The council so far has sidestepped a decision on this question, but it appeared a showdown might yet come next Thursday when the council resumes its debate.

Council President El Khoury of Syria ruled yesterday that the question would be kept on the agenda until it was dropped by formal action of the council. He pointed out, however, that no delegate has yet moved to support the Netherlands demands.

The Netherlands is not a member of the council and thus is not in a position to offer a motion of resolution.

If a formal move does come, it is expected to be initiated by Belgium. Belgian Delegate Nisot supported the Dutch contentions yesterday, but did not actually offer a motion.

DISPERSE MOB FROM PROJECT

Crowd Protests Negro Tenants In New Chicago Housing

Chicago, Aug. 16. (AP) - A crowd estimated by police at almost 3,000 dispersed early today from the vicinity of a new south side housing project after 118 persons were arrested and charged with disorderly conduct in protesting the admission there of Negro tenants.

At the height of the disturbance last night, stones were thrown into windows of buildings and streetcars in nearby streets. Street lights were broken and one policeman was struck by a brick thrown from the crowd but he was not injured.

Police Commissioner John Pendergast, who completed a tour of the area between 103rd and 115th streets and south Park avenue and Halsted street early today, ordered a heavy police patrol continued. Mayor Martin Kennedy ordered a detail of 1,000 policemen to patrol the area today.

Several street car passengers were cut by flying glass from the stoned windows and treated at a hospital.

The housing project, opened to tenancy Tuesday, was the scene that night of about 200 persons in their first protest demonstration. On Wednesday night, about 400 persons staged another protest and, again Thursday night 200 persons assembled at the project.

Nearly Half Of Delegates To 1948 Presidential Nominating Conventions To Be Chosen Next March; Significance To Parties; Watch California

Washington, Aug. 16. (AP) - Nearly half of the delegates to the 1948 presidential nominating conventions will be chosen in state primary elections beginning next March. These primaries will be in 15 states.

From a Republican standpoint they can prove significant, despite the fact that only a few of the 15 send delegates firmly pledged to a candidate.

They will prove significant, however, only where two or more potential candidates battle it out for delegates. This is possible, though not necessarily probable, in a majority of the 15 states. The rest will likely have favorite sons.

At this writing the only primary of special interest to the Democrats will be California's. There, supporters of Henry A. Wallace are forming a slate as a challenge to one which may go pledged to President Truman.

Delegates not chosen by the primary method are selected in state party conventions or, in a few instances, by state party committees. There will be 1,093 delegates to the Republican convention, an increase of 36 over 1944 due to party gains in the 1946 congressional elections. A majority of 47 will be needed to nominate.

Democrats have yet to announce their 1948 apportionment. But under their rules, they should have 1,166, or 10 less than 1944.

This reflects a net loss of two each in Ohio, Wisconsin and Wyoming for losing those states to the Republicans in the 1944 presidential election, and six which formerly came from the Philippines, now an independent country. There will be two more delegates from Michigan next year compared with 1944.

The Republicans will pick 406 of their delegates in primaries; the Democrats around 306.

Following are the 15 states in which one or both parties will hold primaries, together with the dates of the primaries and the number of delegates to be chosen by each party.

Table with columns: States, Date, Rep., Dem. Rows include N.Y., Wis., Ill., Neb., Mass., Penn., Md., Fla., Ohio, W. Va., Ore., Calif., N.J., S.D.

UMW JOURNAL SAYS TRUMAN 'RULES' NLRB

Asserts President Told NLRB Members They Accountable Only To Him

Washington, Aug. 16. (AP) - The United Mine Workers Journal said today President Truman has "warned" the National Labor Relations Board that he will not reappoint members who permit the Congressional committee on labor relations to "interfere or dictate policy."

The John L. Lewis union publication described the committee, created by the Taft-Hartley Act, as a "witch-hunting vigilante outfit" and declared Chairman Joseph Ball (R-Minn.) has tried to persuade the NLRB not to "make a move without calling Joe."

Under the Taft-Hartley Act the three-member board was expanded to five and the new post of general counsel created. The President nominated J. Copeland Gray and former Senator Abe Murdock of Utah as new board members and Robert N. Denham as general counsel.

Congress adjourned without separate confirmation of the nominees. The mine workers journal said confirmation was "blocked in the closing hours of the congressional session by the Taft-Ball forces who wished to keep a whip hand over them."

"If confirmed their terms would have run for several years and they could not have been removed except for good cause. But under the Taft-Ball strategy they can easily be removed when Congress meets again by a simple refusal to confirm."

Opposition was most bitter toward Murdock who was a pro-Lewis member of both senate and house. There was not much objection to Denham who is recorded as conservative.

Even before the NLRB members and the new counsel took office on the temporary basis, Ball put them on the grill. His purpose was to get commitments that they would make no major policy decision without consulting his committee.

"The Journal went on to say that information as to what was going on got through to President Truman, who summoned Denham and the board members to the White House and told him to no uncertain terms that they were responsible only to him for their administration of the law."

"He warned them not to let the Ball committee interfere or dictate policy, and declared he would not reappoint any official who was so weak-kneed as to bow to Ball et al."

Border Belt Prices Drop

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 16. (AP) - Workers of the Border tobacco belt were closed today after the first seven selling days of the 1947 season.

The Federal and State Departments of Agriculture reported that 8,106,566 pounds of flue-cured tobacco had been sold on the 17 markets through Thursday at an average price of $47.13 per hundred pounds. The average has declined slightly almost daily since sales began Aug. 7.

Quality was off again yesterday with price drops ranging down to $6 per hundred on fair and common orange leaf.

Strength FOR THE DAY

OUR SECOND CHANCE IN CHILDREN

The great Aristotle has something interesting to say about the love of parents for their children.
"Parents love their children more than their children love them, because love descends, and because parents desire that their children should survive them, that they may live on in their children, as it were after death; that they become, so to speak, immortal through their children, and possess that eternity which they cannot have in themselves, in their children and their children's children."

A Christian believer would find considerable in this statement to question. We believe that people do have immortality in themselves. But it is also true that we seek immortality through our children and our children's children. Today we imagine ourselves living in them when the next century mark is crossed, or perhaps, if the line does not run out when the next millennium is accomplished.

Children never learn love in the fullest sense of the term until they have children of their own. People learn to love through giving. The parent loves the child more than the child loves the parent because the parents give more.

In our children, we linger on earth. When our bodies have returned to the dust, if we train them right, God gives us a sort of second chance in them.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By JANE EADS
Washington—From the world's most isolated country—Yemen, on the Red Sea—comes Prince Abdullah, the sixth son of the Imam, and the first Yemeni official to visit the United States.

Wearing a white turban, a white robe to his ankles, held tightly around his slender middle with a curved dagger, the black-bearded prince is expected to cut quite a figure in the capital.

Prince Abdullah is coming to study methods of modernizing his country which covers 75,000 square miles of the southwest corner of the Arabian peninsula and boasts a population of 4,000,000.

Hard isolationists, the Yemeni lived for about 300 years under the Turks, who didn't allow foreigners within their borders. Until this day most Yemeni still are loathe to put out the welcome mat for any who are not Moslems.

Until last year only seven Americans had visited Yemen. Col. William R. Eddy, U. S. minister to neighboring Saudi Arabia heading a state department mission, made the trip by jeep from Aden, through 10,000-foot mountain passes to Sana's capital.

In September, Rives Childs, U. S. minister to Saudi Arabia, was also assigned to represent this government in Yemen. Now Yemen is planning to send an envoy to Washington.

The Imam, who has been on the throne as Yemen's king since 1902,
has never ventured out of High Yemen—never seen the sea.

A scholar and writer of religious treatises and poetry, fond of gardening, architecture and traveling about High Yemen in his 1944 Buick, the Imam has brought a great deal of law and order to his country. Until a few years ago, Yemen had been like a country cut off of the thirteenth or fourteenth century.

Every man was for himself and the towns were locked up behind high walls at night.

Yemen, famed for its mocha coffee, grapes, wheat, vegetables and citrus fruits, does an export business amounting to about $1,500,000
yearly.

It's better known, however, as the home of the Queen of Sheba.
Most of the women of High Yemen
are veiled, so it's difficult to say whether they take after the renowned beauty. The women of the low country, who go about unveiled
—black-haired, blue-eyed and zipably—are what a GI might call
"whistle-bait" back home.

It was in 1902 that the first American, a missionary, ventured into Yemen. It was not until 1945,

however, that Harlan Clark, American consul at Aden, emerged after a visit to Sana'a with word that Yemen was ready to end its isolation, was turning to the U. S. for "know-how" and help.

Most popular diversion of afternoons in Yemen male circles is a "chat session." That is a shrub scrambling like a coffee plant. The men chew a fistful of its leaves for about two hours straight, take a drink of water and get a powerful kick. They "feel no pain," according to an observer, talk with sudden animation and are all set to go out and conquer the world.

Liquor, incidentally, is frowned
on in Yemen.

U.S. Compromise . . .

tories be necessary to put into effect any measure against a nation
attacking any American republic.

The United States, on the other hand has held that a two-thirds majority vote should be sufficient for all such measures.

In last night's news conference,
however, Marshall said the U. S., while still recommending that the two-thirds rule apply on most varieties of sanctions, had agreed to except the use of armed force from this rule.

The new position, as he outlined it, is that "no state shall be required to furnish armed forces without its consent."

Under the Act of Chapultepec, armed force is only one of a series of possible sanctions to be provided in the proposed treaty. Others include the breaking of diplomatic and consular relations with an aggressor and the interruption of economic, commercial and financial relations.

The hemispheric defense treaty is being drawn up in accordance with a recommendation in this act, a war-time defense pact adopted by am I not three times as rich now as I was seven years ago? This interested the banker enough to take a Gallup Poll of the next 100 women leaving his savings bank. He asked each woman how much money

she usually carried in her pocketbook before World War II? These women usually replied: "About four or five dollars." He then asked that to count how much they now had in their pockets, or three times what they formerly carried.

But why do these people vote the socialist ticket? The answer is because Bridgeport has an honest Mayor Jasper McLevy, who leads the Socialist Party but who truly loves the people. He looks at every boy and girl as if it were his own boy or girl. He has a heart, governing with the poor, enforcing the laws and especially protecting youth.
He is more than Mayor of the city;
he truly is the loving father of the city and all its people. Let us not think only of money when people talk Socialism. There are many things much more important than money by which cities and people should be judged.

Looking Ahead
I continue to be optimistic for the many "Bridgeporters" in the United States, although some time there will be a day of reckoning for all unless we think more of other people and get out of debt. The next panic will come suddenly "like a bolt from the blue." Although our domestic situation is good, the foreign situation is very bad. There are no prosperous "Bridgeports" in Europe. Communism is very different from Socialism.

N.C. Labor Law Test Cases Up Next Month

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 16.—(AP)— Cases testing constitutionality of North Carolina's new law banning the closed shop, union shop and check-off of union dues will be argued before the state supreme court during the week of September 1.

The two cases came up from Buncombe county where five persons convicted last month of violating the law and were ordered by Judge Ze-
v. Nettles to pay fines of $50 and costs each.

The defendants, in their appeal contend that the law, passed by the 1947 legislature, is unconstitutional because it deprives them of their freedom of contract and because it violated Federal labor legislation.

The high court also has received the appeal of Joe Dawson, former judge of the Kinross Recorder's court from a conviction of involuntary manslaughter growing out of an automobile accident near Kinston
last October in which Robert Bruce Johnson, navy petty officer was killed.

March Of Dimes Near 18 Million Dollars In 1947

New York, August 15.—The 1947
March of Dimes reached an all-time high in raising $17,987,800.66
for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and its 2,719 chapters to carry on the fight against polio throughout the nation.
Basel O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, announced today.

In making public the audited figures for the 48 states and U. S. possessions, Mr. O'Connor pointed out that the 1947 figure "was approximately $2,000,000 more than the previous high of $15,982,150.66 raised in 1946."

Mr. O'Connor expressed particular thanks to the 60,000 volunteer workers in every section of the country whose efforts made the annual fund-raising drive so successful.

Contributions to the 1947 March of Dimes from North Carolina totaled $420,244.27.

Hughes Taking Senator On Tour Of Giant Plane

Culver City, Calif., Aug. 16.—(AP)— Howard Hughes arranged to take
Sen. Harry Cain (R-Wash.), Senate
War Investigating Committee member, on a personally-conducted inspection of the mammoth, $25,000,- 000 Hughes flying boat today.

The Senator dropped in at the Hughes plant yesterday just in time to get an eyeful of the XP-11 photo recognition plane, also on the committee's scrutiny list.

Hughes himself took the army experimental craft aloft on a two-hour test while Sen. Cain took his time to get a good look at the plane.

"From what I can see, this is an excellent plant, but that's not the point of this investigation. This may be the finest plant in the world but what we are trying to do is determine whether there was any reason for building it."

The producer welcomed Cain with
"i wish the entire committee could see the ship."

TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

Shanghai, Aug. 16.—(AP)—A typhoid epidemic of "unprecedented proportions" has filled 26 percent of the beds in four hospitals at Foochow, Fukien Province capital, Under's China office reported today.

The epidemic was attributed to the fact that Foochow, although a city of 350,000, has no public water supply.

"Strong Must Bear Burdens Of The Weak"

By CHESTER WALSH At the Kiwanis Club's weekly supper meeting last night, Dr. H. Glenn Haney, pastor of Eighth Street Christian Church, discussing the racial question—not as it concerns whites and blacks, but the natives of India, Indonesia and other countries, declared that "the strong must bear the burden of the weak," pointed out that the process is evolutionary, and gave pertinent and salient reasons why the spirit of tolerance should prevail. Alluding to India, and Britain's agreement to separation of the government, Dr. Haney said that this gesture of freedom, one-fifth of the human race will have freedom. "Every human being ought to have the right to reach out for the highest development of his own talents and ability, and it is our duty to have a high regard for those of all races, colors or creeds, who strive for the better way of life. He quoted the late Dr. Richard W. Carver and Booker T. Washington and other eminent Negroes, and suggested the avenue of recognizing personalities—human talents—and encouraging their development. Aubrey Tilley had charge of the program and introduced the speaker. President Eli Bloom presided and won the attendance prize. James Ray Pittman led the singing of "Happy Birthday" to Lieutenant Ed Rawl, who was absent. Director Tom Wilson will be host to the Kiwanis Club's officers, and directors at their monthly meeting at his home, 446 West Fourth street, next Monday night at 7 o'clock. Incidentally, Marvin K. Blount will have charge of the program next Friday. Chester Walsh, one of the judges of the bathing beauty contest at the Wilson Tobacco Festival in Wilson Thursday, reported about Kiwanis International President Charles Armstrong of Salisbury crowning Miss Nell Perry of Edenton as queen and the "incidental" of the occasion.

To Retire Service Flag. During the 11 o'clock worship hour Sunday morning, the Service Flag will be retired in the Greenville Free Will Baptist Church. This flag was dedicated to the boys in the armed forces on May 6, 1945. A star was placed on the flag in honor of each member of this church in service. Stars were added for the relatives of members of this church. These stars will be presented to the persons for whom they were placed on the flag or in their absence to a close friend or relative. We extend to you a cordial invitation to attend this service and all other services at our church. Rev. C. L. Patrick, pastor.

LETTER FROM MRS. WADFORD. Claude D. Tunstall, Gen. Agent, Washington National Insurance Co., Greenville, N. C. Dear Sir: Check received from your company in settlement of claim for recent disability. This is the fourth time in the past year that I or some member of the family have had occasion to collect on the policy including two for appendicitis. Each settlement was made prompt and very satisfactory. It is much easier to pay a small premium regular than to pay a hospital bill all at once. Best wishes. Yours sincerely, MRS. S. W. WADFORD.

County Schools Need Teachers

The Pitt County schools—13 of them—will open August 27 for the 1947-48 term with an excellent staff of principals and teachers, it was revealed to an inquiring reporter looking over the record yesterday. The superintendent and his unusually efficient secretary, Ebel Tucker have done outstanding work in planning for the school term. Incidentally, the schools need a few more teachers in the higher grades. Griffon needs two; Pactolus needs one; Bethel High needs one; and Arden High needs one teacher. Teachers who can qualify should communicate with the superintendent's office at the courthouse.

Attorney General In Town Yesterday

Attorney General Harry S. McMullan of Raleigh was in Greenville yesterday afternoon shaking hands with old friends and greeting new acquaintances. He paid a pleasant visit at the Reflector office and hobnobbed with officials at the courthouse and city hall. The attorney general is popular here and elsewhere in the state.

W. H. Woolard Speaks In Behalf County Hospital

"Pitt county is desperately in need of increased hospital facilities," declared W. H. Woolard, Pitt county chairman of the North Carolina Good Health Association, in a radio address over WGTC last night. "As one of the wealthier and progressive counties in Eastern North Carolina, we have fewer hospital beds in ratio to our population than any of the other eastern counties," Woolard stated. Explaining the financing of the proposed hospital, the speaker said the $900,000 project would be furnished with the most modern equipment, and $448,000 of the total cost will be given as a free grant by the federal and state governments. "This leaves Pitt county to pay $351,000 but 40 per cent of the $900,000 cost." Registration for the special bond election for the hospital began today and will last through Saturday September 6. Books will be open at the polling places each Saturday during that period.

Pepper Predicts Truman To Pick Running-Mate

Washington, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Senator Pepper (D-Fla.), predicting that President Truman will handpick the Democratic vice presidential nominee, suggested today that he choose "a champion of the working man." The Florida senator told a reporter, however, he doesn't believe Henry A. Wallace and Mr. Truman could pull together as a team. Therefore Pepper said he is not proposing Wallace for the No. 2 spot despite the former vice president's strong support of organized labor's viewpoint. "I think Mr. Wallace can render his best service by continuing to be a private citizen who speaks his mind freely," Pepper said. The Florida senator said he has no doubt that Mr. Truman will select the man who is to run with him and that the convention will accept his choice.

Kinston Officers Came For Suspect

Detectives Wheeler Kennedy and Norman Byrd of the Kinston police department, here last night to take back Theodore Thompson, 30-year-old Negro laborer for investigation concerning a murder, reflecting the spirit of the Kinston police, expressed appreciation to Greenville Chief Jim Tanner and his men for cooperation. Incidentally Kennedy has been on the Kinston force about 13 years. He and Byrd are credited with some good in Kinston. The cooperative spirit between the Greenville police, Sheriff Tyson's department and the State Highway Patrol and other law enforcement officers in this area elicited some substantial praise from Judge John J. Burney of Wilmington when he presided here recently.

Clark's Host Last Night To Hundreds

Clark's Restaurant, with club features at its new building, just over the river, was host last night to hundreds at its opening and public reception. Nothing was sold during the reception. G. A. Clark, the owner, and Snag Clark, his son, and Joe Lee, known to many here, were masters of ceremonies. An orchestra provided music. The illumination is excellent; the furnishings ideal, the service prompt and accommodating, with a welcome atmosphere pervading the place. The guests were welcomed in many ways while refreshments were being served. Charles Wheelbee, popular radio "M. C." and Commercial Manager Dave Mosier handled the radio broadcast over WGTC.

New Bern Beats Locals 9-4 Using Johnny Foell

Johnny Foell, former Greenville hurler, who recently joined the New Bern Bears, beat his former mates 9-4, in New Bern last night, as he held the Greensies to six well scattered hits.

The Bears put across two runs in the third frame, when Zunno doubled, Urban singled, Palmer forced out, Nrban at second with Zunno scoring on the play with Lynch miscuing the ball allowing Palmer to take third on Knowles single to bring home Palmer. One more run was chalked up in the fourth frame when Stott singled, stole second, went to third on Simmons bad throw to second, and came home on Alamo's wild pitch.

The Greensies came back in the sixth frame to knot the count at three—all when they scored their three runs off the ball game Lynch singled, Lee singled with Lynch taking third, Jacobs hit fly to deep centerfield to bring home Lynch. Bomar walked, Ranweiler singled into right field with Knowles letting the ball get through him and Lee and Bomar scored on the play.

The Bears came back in their half of the sixth to put across what proved their winning run on an error, two singles and a double. Settle reached first on Bomar's error, Stott singled and Andriach doubled to bring home Settle and Stott and Zunno singled to bring home Andriach. In the seventh, the Bruins really iced the game when Worlise Knokles hit over the left field fence with two mates aboard. Joe Alamo started on the mound for the Greensies and was relieved for Hank Ranweiler in the seventh after allowing 12 hits, three walks and struck out one. Ranweiler pitched one-hit ball the rest of the game and struck out one man.

Johnny Foell in pitching his second win for the Bears since joining them pitched six-hit ball with Hank Ranweiler getting two singles in three trips to the plate to lead the attack. He walked five men and struck out a similar number.
