Soviet Ratifies Five Axis Treaties

Surprise Move Clears Way For Formal Ending Of Hostilities For Bulgaria, Finland, Hungary, Italy And Romania; U. S. Troops To Leave Italy In 90 Days

London, Aug. 30—(AP)—Russian ratification of peace treaties with five axis satellites cleared the way today for a formal ending of hostilities for Bulgaria, Finland, Hungary, Italy and Romania.

The Moscow radio announced unexpectedly last night that the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet had ratified the five treaties, signed in Paris last Feb. 10.

Russia was the last of the four major powers to ratify and a British official said Andrei Y. Vishinsky, deputy Soviet foreign minister, had promised that Russia would agree to deposit the instruments of ratification at "an early date," thus completing action and making the treaties effective.

Still to be drafted are treaties for Austria, Germany and Japan.

By the terms of the satellite treaties, Russia stands to gain $900,000,000 in reparations, the only major power to claim such payments. She gets $300,000,000 each from Romania and Finland, $200,000,000 from Hungary and $100,000,000 from Italy.

From Romania, Russia takes the eastern border province of Bessarabia; and from Finland she takes the northern port and province of Petsamo and a 50-year lease on Perkkala-Udd for a naval base.

Britain and the United States are required to withdraw their troops from Italy within 90 days and Russian troops must pull out of Bulgaria in a like period, but the treaties give Russia the right to keep soldiers in Hungary and Romania so long as is necessary to protect communications to occupied Austria.

The reaction in most European capitals was one of relief that now the first part of the peacemaking job was done. Some sources felt, however, that Russian ratification—coming only a few days after approval was rushed through the Parliaments of Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary—heralded an attempt to facilitate the admission of Eastern European countries into the United Nations, perhaps when the United Nations Assembly meets next month.

Bendix Racer Is Given Pre-Dawn Flying Start

Van Nuys, Calif., Aug. 30—(AP)—Pretty June Page Hlavacek, a wartime WAAF, sent the Bendix Trophy dash off to a flying, but early start, today.

Anxious to get to Cleveland, O., to participate in another event of the National Air Races today, Mrs. Hlavacek received permission from the other pilots to depart during the night. Her plane took off at 3:36:15 a. m. (Pacific Standard Time).

Officials at Metropolitan Airport reported favorable tail winds all the way to Cleveland. A crowd of some 500, braving a chilly pre-dawn, lined the roped runway to watch her depart.

The 2,045-mile race attracted a group of the nation's leading speed fliers, including the 1946 Bendix

CITY SCHOOLS READY TO START FALL SESSION

Teachers Meeting Reveals Bright Prospects; Pledge Cooperation

By CHESTER WALSH

Greenville City School teachers held their first general meeting yesterday morning at the high school library. In the afternoon and this morning the teachers met with the various principals in their buildings.

Present for the general meeting yesterday morning in the high school were Dr. S. J. Phillips, Pitt County health officer, and Dr. J. D. Messick, president of East Carolina Teachers College.

In opening the meeting, Supt. J. H. Rose thanked the teachers and principals for their spirit of cooperation in being willing to come two days ahead of the opening of school to prepare for the year's work.

Dr. Phillips spoke on the work to be done in cooperative fashion by the teachers and parents and members of the Health Department in safeguarding the health of school children. He gave concise and definite information on health problems and promised that the Health Department will give 100 per cent cooperation in the health program.

Dr. Messick spoke briefly, expressing his joy in being a Greenville citizen, and further stated the college and the city schools had certain problems to work out co-

Gestapo Boss Is Found In China

Peiping, Aug. 30—(AP)—Charley Schmidt, swaggering Nazi who once headed the Gestapo in North China, was found in a cellar today, emaciated and apparently suffering from Tuberculosis.

The discovery ended a two-year hunt by allied authorities for the once-tough "bully boy," who will be taken to Shanghai and shipped back to Germany as an undesirable German.

Bridal Home Is Hit By Fire

Princess Elizabeth's Future Home Damaged By Blaze

London, Aug. 30—(AP)—A spectacular fire destroyed the entire south wing and caved in the ancient roof of Princess Elizabeth's bridal home at suburban Sunninghill Park today. Authorities said they had not discarded the possibility that the blaze was touched off by an incendiary with political motives.

Ten fire companies battled the blaze for hours, pumping thousands of gallons of water from nearby Mirror Lake before they brought it under control at dawn. Flames shooting 50 feet into the air could be seen for miles.

The south wing of the stately old Georgian house, which was being refurbished as a home for the Princess and Lt. Philip Mountbatten, was enveloped in flames when the firemen arrived shortly after midnight.

A National Fire officer said he was "satisfied that there is no question of arson," but officials sources disclosed that detectives of the Criminal Investigation Department had been instructed to inquire into every possible cause, including arson inspired by political motives.

Tobacco Markets Reopen Tuesday

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 30—(AP)—The flue-cured tobacco markets of the Eastern-North Carolina belt and South Carolina and North Carolina border belt closed today until Tuesday for the Labor Day holiday.

The border belt yesterday reported increases of from $1 to $4 per 100 pounds as good lemon cutters established a new high for the season of $61.

Prices were mostly steady yesterday of the Eastern-North Carolina belt as the markets registered their heaviest sales of the season.

Legionnaires Parade Down Fifth Avenue

Hundreds Of Thousands Of Spectators Pay Tribute To Marching Veterans; Parade Expected To Last Over Twelve Hours

New York, Aug. 30—(AP)—American Legion comrades, the greying ex-doughboys and the younger, jauntier former GIs, paraded up the flag-lined Fifth Avenue today as an estimated 750,000 spectators paid tumultuous tribute to the men of two world wars.

An estimated 65,000 were lined up for the Legion's climactic parade, expected to last more than 12 hours over a 21-2 mile route 39 blocks long.

Mayor William O'Dwyer, a Legionnaire himself and wearing his overseas cap at a jaunty angle, led the parade at the start behind a mounted police escort. The marchers got underway promptly at the scheduled time of 9:30 a. m. Behind the vanguard were all the colorful units traditional to the Legion's big parades—the state and foreign delegations, army, navy and coast guard units, a crack detachment of West Point cadets, about 2,000 bands and drum and bugle corps, and hundreds of waving flags and banners.

Uniforms soon were whitened by the showers of confetti, the torn telephone books and newspapers always deluged on paraders in this city of big parades.

Thousands watched from windows, along canyoning Fifth avenue. Thousands more cheered from behind the wooden barriers set up by more than 5,000 watchful police along the route.

Approximately 200,000 lined the route before the parade began and the great throng swelled each minute. Many were in line hours before the parade began, armed with chairs, stools and box lunches and prepared for a lengthy vigil.

GERMAN ZONAL POLICIES HIT

U.S. and Britain Are Targets Of Russian Criticism In Berlin

Berlin, Aug. 30—(AP)—Marshal Sokolovsky, Soviet military commander in Germany, today accused the U. S. and Britain of "dismembering Germany" and "rupturing the Potsdam agreement" by raising the level of industry in western Germany.

The Russian commander commented before the allied control council on the Anglo-American plan to give their occupation zones an industrial output about equal to that of 1936, with steel production far above the total envisaged at the Truman-Stalin-Atlee conference in 1945.

He was the second criticism of (Continued on Page Four)

Babson Discusses Europe

Lake Success, N. Y., Aug. 30—I am in New York City trying to get the low-down on the real conditions abroad. Truly they are very discouraging. It looks much like the case of our neighbor's house being on fire when, if we do not help him put his fire out, our house will burn down also.

England's Hard Times Conditions for the ordinary family in England are as bad as during the war although they now have the satisfaction of having fathers and boys safely at home. The best meat is horse meat from Argentina; the best eggs are powdered eggs from China; the best sausages are filled with oatmeal; and the best coffee is made of burnt beans. People moreover, have to stand in line for hours to get even these things with a loaf of black bread.

UN PALESTINE STUDY FAVORS END MANDATE

Majority Inclined To Dividing Holy Land Into Arab And Jewish Nations

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 30—The United Nations special committee on Palestine was reported ready today to recommend that the British mandate over the Holy Land be ended as soon as possible, with a majority in favor of splitting the country into independent Jewish and Arab nations.

Members of the committee said last night that its report to the 53-nation general assembly, to meet in New York Sept. 16, was nearly completed. They said majority and minority recommendations would be embodied in separate sections of the report.

(The U. N. secretariat in Lake Success, N. Y., said it expected the report tomorrow night.)

These committeemen indicated that the 11-nation group was agreed that Britain's 25-year-old mandatory rule should be wound up, though this opinion implied no criticism of British administration. They reported general agreement on a two-year period of transition to self-government under some administrative power, not named, which would be answerable to the U. N.

But they said the committee was divided in this way on the question of the eventual home rule setup: Seven nations in favor of establishment by September, 1949, of independent Jewish and Arab states cooperating in economic affairs by a joint council. In the interim, the administrative authority would let 150,000 Jews into the Jewish area.

Three nations in favor of a federalized Palestine divided into Jewish and Arab areas and ruled by a legislature of two houses, one elected on a racial parity and the other on a proportional basis, and by an overall arbitration council on which Arabs would outnumber Jews four to three.

NLRB IN DARK ON ACTIVITIES

Union Chiefs Mum On Signing Non-Communist Affidavit

Washington, Aug. 30—(AP)—Leaders of the AFL and CIO kept the National Labor Relations Board in the dark today on whether it soon will be doing a rushing business under the Taft-Hartley act or almost none.

There were strong indications from both AFL and CIO camps, however, that their officers will not sign the required non-communist affidavits. This would mean that unions representing nearly 15,000,000 workers would be denied use of the board under an interpretation of the new act by NLRB general counsel Robert N. Denham.

Denham has ruled that all officers of the AFL and CIO must sign affidavits swearing they are not communists. He gave the unions 20 days to comply after receiving notice that such a requirement was expected of them. The first ones would be due therefore 20 days after the act became fully effective Aug. 22.

The act itself says the affidavits are required from each officer of a labor organization and the officers of any national or international labor organization of which it is an affiliate or constituent unit.

Some labor lawyers in and out of government service contend that this refers to officers of local unions, and not officers of international unions, and not officers of federations like the AFL and CIO which holds those national unions together.

Anderson Taken To Death Row In State Prison

By CHESTER WALSH

Judge Henry A. Grady adjourned the criminal term of Superior Court at noon yesterday after disposing of an unusually large number of important cases, including one for murder.

Booker T. Anderson, Negro, sentenced to death in the gas chamber at State Prison on October 24, was taken to Raleigh late yesterday. Sheriff Ruel W. Tyson said he was extremely nervous as a result of the strain of the trial and the knowledge that he must forfeit his life to the State for causing the death of a Negro mother and her two children in a fire. His attorney filed notice of appeal to the Supreme Court.

Judgments passed during the one-week term included the following: Jesse Whitehurst, assault with a deadly weapon, 18 months on the roads.

Willie Kelly, assault on a female, 18 months suspended for five years on good behavior and he is to pay to the court clerk $100 for Edna Mae Peterson.

Linwood Eakes, assault and battery and assault on a female, his wife, was given two years on the roads, sentence suspended and he was placed on probation for five years.

HELD FOR INVESTIGATION. Raymond D. Ward, of near Grimesland, and James C. Smith, 38, of Greenville, were arrested by police about 2:45 a. m. on West Ninth street for investigation in connection with suspicious actions in the neighborhood. Smith was released today. Ward is in jail. (Continued on Page Two)

The host nation's legislators will hear Mr. Truman at 2 p. m. Eastern Standard Time (4 p. m. Brazilian time) next Friday, the White House announced late yesterday.

His other major speech will be made to the defense conference delegates at 8:30 a. m. Eastern Standard Time next Tuesday. Later the same day he will talk informally at a luncheon for the delegates and Brazilian officials aboard the battleship Missouri.

The presidential party, which includes Mrs. Truman and Margaret Truman, will leave Washington at 8 a. m. (EST) tomorrow aboard the White House airliner Independence. After an overnight stop at Port of Spain, Trinidad, the plane will fly on to Rio de Janeiro with arrival scheduled at 1 p. m. (3 p. m. Brazilian time) Monday.

FBI Arrests Ex-Soldier; "Classified" Photographs And Negatives Found In Home; Hearing To Be Held In New Mexico; Some Pictures Said Destroyed

New York, Aug. 30—(AP)—Arnold Frederick Kivi, 27-year-old Brooklyn ex-soldier, today consented before a U. S. commissioner to removal to New Mexico to plead to charges of "taking highly confidential photographs" from the Los Alamos atomic installations.

Kivi, arraigned before Commissioner Jacob Visel, said briefly he consented to return to New Mexico. Visel held him in $10,000 bail and the slim, thin-faced defendant was returned to the federal house of detention to await the trip.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Mario Pittoni of the eastern district appeared for the prosecution. Kivi was in the custody of U. S. Marshal John Quinn.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, announced Kivi was arrested last night in Brooklyn, N. Y., where Hoover said FBI agents nabbed 37 photographs and 10 negatives when they searched Kivi's home.

Hoover's announcement said Kivi at first denied having any highly confidential pictures but that he later admitted "removing from the Los Alamos project certain classified photographs." Classified documents or pictures are those usually market secret, confidential or restricted.

The FBI director said pictures found in Kivi's possession showed various phases of atomic research equipment used in connection with the bomb and several pictures of visitors to the atomic project.

The first atomic bomb was assembled and tested at Los Alamos. The project still is a major center for atomic research.

Hoover said Kivi, when first interviewed, said he had made 500 official photographs of various stages of development of the atomic bomb. He later admitted, the FBI director said, that he took the classified photographs when he left the army in February, 1946, and that several weeks later, he became "extremely concerned about the pictures and burned them."

Kivi was in the army from Sept. 1, 1942 until February 6, 1946. After leaving Los Alamos, the FBI said Kivi was employed at the Brookhaven National Laboratory of the Atomic Energy Commission at Patchogue, N. Y. He was relieved of that job immediately, Hoover added, "as a result of the investigation of the prior theft."

Bob Reynolds Resigned To Life On Sidelines

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 30—(AP)—Former Senator Robert R. (Old Bob) Reynolds is out of politics for good.

"I still get around and I like to hear what the folks are saying," he said in an interview here yesterday, "but politics is out. I'm just practicing law (in Asheville)—yes, just practicing law and picking apples."

Former junior senator who went to Congress by defeating Senator Cameron Morrison for the Democratic nomination in 1932, showed his old-time form as he unloaded his opinions about the world today.

He declared he was still an "America Firster," a Nationalist—"the sort of a Nationalist that loves his country more than any other and all the other countries in the world"—and still a firm adherent of the policy of "tending to our own business and letting the other fellow tend to his."

The former senator said he was not trying to say "I told you so" but he declared that "I would really like to have somebody tell me just what we got out of this war."

He said that the way he figured the war had left this country 625 billion dollars in debt.

"And mind you, if you take all the resources of our nation and sell them at their value x x x they'd bring about 325 billion. And, brother, in my arithmetic that leaves us 300 billions in the hole."

Highway Death Toll

Heaviest Weekend Of Travel On Highways Expected Over Labor Day; Law-Breaking, Drunkenness And Carelessness Killing Thousands; Law Stricter

Washington, Aug. 30—(AP)—This may be the heaviest weekend of auto travel the country has ever seen. That means millions of families are having fun.

It also means a frightful screaming, crashing, tearing and crumpling of steel and glass and human heads and legs and bodies.

Deaths in the first half of 1947 were actually less than in the first half of 1946, despite the steady rise in traffic. The death rate per 100,000,000 miles of driving has kept creeping downward.

Hopeful things were happening. One of these was a big improvement in law enforcement. After President Truman's safety conference of May 1946, many policemen, highway patrols and traffic judges saw the light. They got together. This Labor Day weekend may be one of the toughest that highway lawbreakers have ever experienced. The speeders, the drunk drivers, the careless swervers are more liable to get caught before they kill. Another hopeful thing is the belief. (Continued on Page Four)

Washington's Call For Four-Power Conference To Hasten Korea's Independence A Reminder Of That Unhappy Land; "Liberators" Appear Conquerors

By GLENN BABB

Washington's call for a four-power conference to hasten Korea's independence turns the spotlight on one of the unhappiest communities in the post-war world. Korea, like Austria is considered a liberated land, not conquered enemy territory. The Japanese have been driven out but other alien rulers have taken their place, and the coming of real peace, freedom and well-being is postponed because the liberators can not or will not agree.

It can not be said that this is the fault of the United States, which shares with Soviet Russia the occupation of this former Japanese possession. The American government and its representatives in Korea have tried continuously and insistently since 1945 to come to some understanding with the Russians which would permit fulfillment of the pledge of Korean freedom made at Cairo in 1943 and repeated and amplified in the Moscow Conference of 1945. The newest call is further evidence of the U. S.'s desire to make those promises real and to turn over the burdens of administration to the Koreans themselves as soon as possible.

The Russian response in the past has been unhelpful as most Russian responses to allied advances in the postwar period. It requires a considerable degree of optimism to expect that the reply to this invitation will be more encouraging. Nevertheless Moscow's announcement last night of the Russian ratification of peace treaties with the five European axis satellites may herald the opening of a new phase of Soviet diplomacy. It means that Red Army forces must be withdrawn shortly from those countries; it may indicate that the Kremlin now is so confident of its position in the West that it will be ready to deal with other nations on a new basis. Perhaps a greater readiness to consider the consolidation of peace in the Orient may be another corollary.

Korea is the easiest to understand of the post-war examples of divided occupation and rule, because it is the simplest. It is compact geographically, with a homogenous population, a comparatively uncomplicated economy. There are only two occupations, instead of the four themselves as soon as possible.

It is the fact that the Russian occupation of this former Japanese possession, the American government and its representatives in Korea have tried continuously and insistently since 1945 to come to some understanding with the Russians which would permit fulfillment of the pledge of Korean freedom made at Cairo in 1943 and repeated and amplified in the Moscow Conference of 1945. The newest call is further evidence of the U. S.'s desire to make those promises real and to turn over the burdens of administration to the Koreans themselves as soon as possible.

Strength FOR THE DAY
 WORLD UNITY THROUGH THE CHURCHES

One of the most notable trends in the activities of American churches today is the growing feeling that church unity is as necessary for post war recovery as political and economic planning. Such a realization in this country is the World Alliance for International Friendship through the Churches and the World Council of Churches are sending delegations to Europe to attempt to formulate policies in common. The campaigns sponsored by different denominations to raise money for the rehabilitation of Christianity in Europe have been, or are being, concluded with great success.

These are healthy signs for the future of our faith. They point to the fact, first, that Christianity still has the vitality to make itself a world movement; and second, that the churches can transcend the localism and occasional petty jealousies that have hampered their efforts heretofore. Moreover it is apparent that the churches recognize the threat to their existence posed by atheistic communism. They realize that atheism is no longer a "lunatic fringe" doctrine but has become a strong religion in itself fostered by the tremendous political resources of communist parties throughout the world.

Let us hope that vital, triumphant Christianity is again on the march, and that it will make our future "One World," one Christian world.

operatively and he pledges a co-operative attitude and scholarly approach to the joint problems. Dr. Messick likewise pledged his support to the entire school system, teachers, principals and superintendent, in working out the teacher-training program in Greenville.

Miss Agnes Fulllove, Miss Frances Wall and Miss Laura Foley, principals of the three elementary schools, made a report to the group on matters discussed at recent principals' meetings held by representatives of the State Department of Education.

Principal O. E. Dowd requested that all new students report at the Greenville High School morning at 8:40 and all the students who were in the high school last year to report to their last year's homeroom. At the C. M. Epps Negro High School, meetings were likewise held Friday and today. Dr. Phillips and Supt. Rose spoke on problems of health and school administration and W. O. Green, secretary of the North Carolina Teachers Association, spoke on the work of the local association. Principal W. H. Davenport presided over the meeting.

The teacher list for the Greenville City Schools is complete, textbooks are here, buildings have been cleaned and painted and everything is in readiness for the opening of the city schools Monday morning, September 1, at 8:40. Mr. Rose stated.

silver is not available for currency, he wants gold jewelry or silverware or something else which he can use as a barter to buy clothes, blankets or machinery. Here is certainly a lesson for all U. S. big city dwellers. Keep hidden in your house at all times a certain amount of currency, gold jewelry, silverware and diamonds that you can take with you if you suddenly are forced to escape from some big city at the beginning of World War III. You won't have time to visit your safe deposit box!

Germany is Gripping

In England and France both the food and shelter problem is very serious but the people of these countries are not complaining. In Germany, however, everyone is crying. They are mad now and blame all their troubles onto us. They hate our officers, and our soldiers. Pats are very scarce as well as coffee, sugar and all imported products. Most farm homes are reported to be in good condition; but the cities are largely in ruins and the housing conditions terrible.

During the war the Germans rob-

France, Belgium and Holland of their fine pictures, silverware, imported china, etc. These things were stored in the homes of German politicians and officers. Now man politicians are offering these things to the farmers who will not think to the farmers who will not accept paper money) in exchange for food. This is another illustration of why I am advising U. S. young people to settle in the country or on a small farm away from certain of our big cities which will someday be in the same mess that these German cities are today. United Nations statisticians tell me that, at the present rate of reconstruction it will take 100 years to clear up the debris.

Poland and the Balkans

The Poland and Balkan representatives are terribly downhearted. These people believe that the Allies, the Germans and the Russians have all double-crossed them and stolen from them. Here even the farmers have been robbed of their cattle, horses, carts and what little machinery they had. Still worse, the people of these countries, are fast losing their character, morals and all sense of honesty.

Layne is now recognized throughout all Europe as being normal and right; but in Eastern Europe sexual restraint has been thrown aside and millions are running and mixing like wild animals. If a girl can sell her virtue for food or clothing the parents say "Well done." Here again conditions are worse in the big cities where prostitution is said to be a major industry. This is another reason for bringing up your family in the country or in a small American city.

Japan Best Off of All

Rural Japan is said to be in good shape. The farmers and fishermen have enough to eat. In fact, most of the poor people of Japan are better off today than before the war. Of course, the wealthy families are down and out. Stocks, bonds and bank accounts have been wiped out. In the severely damaged big cities crime, gambling and prostitution still reign. The principal complaint of the Japanese is "the atomic bomb" whatever that may mean.

I talked with a person just back from Hiroshima who says that even its people have no grudge against us Americans. They welcome out!

But the Russians insist and may continue to insist that there be a purge of rightist parties before there can be elections. The program they support looks at this point much like that followed in Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, all of which began with comparatively free elections in which anti-Communist parties were permitted to participate freely. The fate of these opponents of communism now has been sealed in all three countries, to such an extent that the Kremlin apparently feels it can withdraw the Red Army. In Eastern Europe the United States has been powerless to halt this process. In Korea the case is different; we still hold a strong hand of trumps.

in Germany and Austria. But, as in Germany and Austria, the divided rule means economic strangulation. The thirty-eighth parallel, across which the armies of the United States and the Soviet Union face each other, separates the north, where the Japanese, using a wealth of waterpower and fuel, had built up one of the most productive industrial communities in the Orient, from the agricultural south. The economy of both sections withers and unrest is intensified.

The major question is whether the Russians will be willing to permit unified government to return to Korea by truly democratic as the Western nations understand the word. Both sides use the word freely, but the Russians in Korea, as in Eastern Europe, have given it a meaning of their own. If they accepted the American proposals for truly free elections a start could be made on what is sure to be a long and difficult process. The political immaturity of the Koreans is a major adverse factor. When the Americans arrived in southern Korea they found 54 different parties, many of which had only the vaguest programs.

But the Russians insist and may

Beddingfield-Moore
Miss Lorraine Morrill Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jenness Moore of Falkland, became the bride of Edgar Theodore Beddingfield, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar T. Beddingfield, Sr., of Clayton, in a double ring ceremony on Friday, August 22, at high noon in the Falkland Presbyterian Church. The Rev. C. A. Lawrence, pastor of the church, officiated.

Prior to the ceremony, wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Forrest Mallard of Burgaw, using "Clair de Lune" by Debussy, "Liebestraum" by Liszt, "Shadows of the Night" by Podessa, "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell, and "I Love You Truly" by Bond. "Because," d'Harlelot, was presented by Miss Spruill Beddingfield, sister of the groom. Her gown was yellow chiffon and she wore a corsage of tallgrass roses. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar. Evergreens and burning tapers formed a background for the ceremony and baskets of white gladioli marked the altar entrances.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of duchess slipper satin fashioned with high neckline and a vogue of imported chantilly lace extending out into the sleeves. The long sleeves ended in petal points over the hands. Miniature satin covered buttons extended down the back. Her fitted bodice extending into a full skirt terminated in a circular train. The full length lace-trimmed veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls and extended beyond the train to her skirt. Her bouquet was bride's roses and asters centered with a purple-throated white orchid showered with white satin ribbons. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Wooten, sister of the bride was matron of honor. Her gown was of pale blue marquisette over taffeta with high neckline. The skirt fell in tiers down the back. She wore matching blue marquisette mitts and miniature flowers adorned her hair. She carried an arm bouquet of picardy gladioli with contrasting ribbon. Mrs. Will Moore, Jr., of Farmville, was wedding director.

Edgar Theodore Beddingfield, Sr., father of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Woodrow Wilson Wooten of Falkland and Charles Beddingfield of Clayton.

Mrs. Moore, mother of the bride, wore a street-length dress of black crepe with black lace yoke and matching hat. She wore a corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a street-length dress of aqua crepe with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The couple left for a wedding trip by the Chesapeake Bay for Boston. For traveling, Mrs. Beddingfield wore a powder blue gabardine suit with white accessories. She wore an orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. They will be at home in Boston.

Mrs. Beddingfield attended Belvoir-Falkland high school and Greenville high school, and graduated from East Carolina Teachers college, Greenville. She taught in the Rollsville schools for two years and for the past year she taught in Stantonsburg.

Greenies Again Fall To Bears By Score Of 8-3

For the second time in as many games, the New Bern Bears took advantage of a one-inning outburst to drop the Greenies... this time by a score of 8-3.

The contest opened with both teams scoring twice in the first frame which was followed by a period of three and one-half innings of scoreless ball. In the Greenies' half of the fifth the locals took the lead by a one-run margin which evaporated when the visitors counted five of their teammates crossing the home plate in the sixth and one more in the seventh.

Utility man Hank Ranweiler went the route on the mound for Greenville, striking out ten and walking six. Carroll Spiers pitched for the Bears, giving up six hits, four walks and striking out two.

Lee, Timm, Jacobs, W. Mauney, Bomar and Ranweiler were credited with one hit apiece for the Greenies. Tonight the Greenies play in Roanoke Rapids and on Sunday (the last Sunday game of the season in Greenville), the locals meet the Jays in a doubleheader with the first game beginning at 1:30.

Monday afternoon, the Greenies play Tarboro a twin bill with the first game starting at 3:00 p.m. in Guy Smith Stadium.

German Zonal... (Continued from Page One) the western allies to come from the Russians in Berlin today. Earlier Maj. Gen. Kotikov, the Soviet commandant here, charged the other powers with "anti-democratic actions" and stalling tactics in postponing legislation to socialize Berlin's major industries.

Kotikov asserted the Russians were forced to agree to sending the law back for redrafting after five months' wrangling with the Americans, British and French in the kommandantur.

Food Prices... (Continued from Page One) Higher prices for eggs, dairy and meats were the chief factors in the rise to July 15.

Egg prices jumped 11 per cent on the average as a result of strong demand, slowing production, and low storage stocks. The increase ranged from 5 to 16 per cent in the 56 cities.

Dairy products climbed more than four per cent, reflecting short stocks of butter and seasonally lower milk production. Butter prices were up more than eight per cent, fresh milk three per cent and cheese two per cent.

The housewife paid 11-2 per cent more for meats, fish and poultry as a group on July 15 than on June 15. All beef cuts advanced two to 3-1-2 per cent. Pork and lamb rose about one per cent and fish two per cent.

Highway Death... (Continued from Page One) term of highways. Traffic engineers are constantly improving their science. Aroused public opinion has helped provide some necessary funds. Many—though not nearly enough—two or three-lane highways and narrow city streets have been replaced with four-lane divided expressways.

The divided expressway, in which a strip of grass separates the cars rushing at one another from opposite directions, is the heart and soul of modern traffic engineering. It is the best solution yet discovered for handling big traffic loads. And it is gradually spreading. It needs to spread faster!

For death moves fast indeed!

Kiwanians Have Varied Program Supper Meeting

By CHESTER WALSH The Greenville Kiwanians at their weekly supper meeting last night paid tribute to the Greenville Girl Scouts, and gave Mrs. E. L. Henderson, Girl Scout executive secretary a warm welcome. She made an eloquent after-dinner speech about what the Girl Scouts are doing, and added a word of appreciation of the Kiwanis Club sending two girls, Jane White and Joyce Anderson, to Camp Harder for two weeks this summer. Carlos Murray was program chairman for the night. The girls expressed their appreciation. President Eli Bloom presided.

James Ray Pittman led the singing by the "congregation" with Mrs. Ray Tyson as accompanist.

Two features of the program included short talks by Hunter Keck, representative here for W. S. Donnan Hardware Company, Richmond, Va., and State Senator Arthur B. Corey about improved traffic conditions in Greenville as a result of installing parking meters.

A highlight of the meeting was the introduction of Col. Marion S. Lewis, member of the faculty of The Citadel, Charleston, S.C., and a past president of that club and a past lieutenant-governor, and a mentor of Lieut.-Governor Ed E. Rawl when he was a student there. The colonel extended a welcome to Kiwanians who may attend the Carolinian Kiwanis District Convention in Charleston next October 9-11. Incidentally, Lewis is vacationing and is visiting his mother, Mrs. H. L. Lewis, at Grimefield.

CPL Playoffs Begin Sept. 9

Williamston, N.C., Aug. 30—(AP) Championship playoffs in the Coastal Plain Baseball League will open Sept. 9 in the home parks of the first and second place teams.

Wilson is leading the Class D league with New Bern second. Kinston and Tarboro complete the first division, but Rocky Mount and Goldsboro still have a chance to break into the four-team playoffs.

League directors decided here yesterday that the first and fourth place clubs and the second and third clubs will play a best of seven series. The winners will engage in a second such series for the championship.

THE COB EAR OF CORN. M. R. Buck, farmer of the Black Jack section, brought to the Reflector office today an unusual ear of corn. It is fully developed and five smaller ears circling it are also well developed.

The spinning wheel was invented in India and is still widely used there.

Safe of cotton goods was forbidden in England in 1700 because it competed with native wool.

NOTICE

On June 17th, 1947, an ordinance was passed by The Board of Aldermen making it unlawful to place any rubbish, garbage, grass, leaves, or any other debris upon the streets of Greenville.

I find that quite a number of citizens of the City of Greenville are not complying with this ordinance, and this is to advise that I am compelled to take legal action unless the citizens stop placing this rubbish on the streets of Greenville.
